PREFACE.

FTER fo great a Name as that of Bifhop BEVERIDGE in the Title, it was as fuperfluous to attempt any farther Recommendation of these Papers, as it wou'd be impossible to effect it. If any thing can add to the Effect they must every where meet with, upon the Account of fo great an Author, it must be a ferious Perusal and Application of them.

THOSE that read them with the fame Spirit of Candour, with which this Great Man always read the Works of others, and with the fame Spirit of Piety, with which he wrote his Own; will undoubtedly difcover in them fuch a lively ldea of the Great Genius of the Author, and fo fenfibly experience the good Influence of them upon their Minds, as will more effectually engage their Approbation, than the higheft Encomiums from another Hand.

THE great Misfortune is, That those who have most need to be Instructed and Reform'd, have no true Tafte or Relish for Books of this Nature: Their Eyes are dazzled with the glittering Appearances of. the Objects of Senfe, and their Hearts enflaved to the Works of Darkness; so that the Beams of Divine Light are but troublefome and offenfive to them : Every point of Faith is a Contradiction to their Principles, and every Precept enjoin'd, a Reproach to their Morals. And, therefore, in order to flave off those self-condemning Thoughts, that naturally arife from the ferious Perufal of fuch fort of Treatifes; they fcoff at, and despife them, as Dull and Infipid; not worth the Confideration of Men of more refin'd Parts and deeper Penetration, who are too wife to be guided by the Rule of GOD's Word, and too obstinate to be perfuaded to walk in any other Path, but that which the Devil has chalk'd out for them, The Path which leads to Destruction.

BUT these Men wou'd do well to consider. before they are wholly under the Power of Delufion, that this is not really owing to any Flaws or Defects in fuch Performances, but to their own reproduce Minds and deprav'd Judgments, which tarnish the Beauty, caft a Mift before the Truth, fruftrate the Influence, and pervert the Defign of them; like a vitiated Palate, which nauseates the most delicious Taftes; or a foul and diforder'd Stomach, that turns the most wholfome Food into Poifon and Corrupti-So that they must first divest themselves of their on. Luft and Pride, their Prejudice and Partiality, before they can ever expect to reap any Benefit or Advantage by this, or any other Discourses, that tend to the promoting of Piety, and Religion.

HAVING thus open'd the Way to the Reading of this Book, it may not be improper, in order to fet it in its true Light, and do Juffice to the Author of it, to fay fomething more particularly concerning Both; and to advertife the Reader, that the following Sheets were writ by the Bifhop in his Younger Years, upon his first Entrance into Holy Orders. And tho' they may not perhaps, be fo perfect and correct.

correct, as if He Himself had liv'd to give the finishing Stroke to them, and fit them for the Prefs with his own Hand; yet as the Roughness of a Jewel doth not leften the Worth and Value of it, when the Brightness of its Natural Luftic, even under that Difadvantage, outfines that of others, which are polish'd and refin'd by Art; fo, 'tis to be hop'd, the Cahdid and Judicious Reader will, in this well defign'd Piece, however unfinish'd, difcover fuch fingular Beauties and Graces, as few others, even at the higheft Pitch of their Attainments, and with the utmost Care and Diligence, are able to come up to.

As to the Author's Defign in writing these Papers, • it is fufficiently fet forth in the Title of them. He confider'd, That Truth of Doctrine, and Innocency of Life, were both abfolutely necessary to the due Exercise of the Sacred Function, which he had the Honour and Happiness to be admitted into. He knew the Power of Example to prevail even be-... yond that of Precept, and was very folicitous, with the Bleffed Apostle, to make his own Calling and Efficien fure, loft that by any means, when he had preach'd to others, he himfelf shou'd be a Cast-away. To the End, therefore, that he might both fave Himself, and them that beard him, that both by his Life and Doctrine, he might fet forth the Glory of GOD, and fet forward the Salvation of Men, He drew up these Anticles, to settle his Principles in Point of Faith, and form'd these Resolutions upon them, to regulate His Actions with regard to Practice. WHAT great Things might not the Church pro-· mife herself from a Foundation fo well laid ? from Principles fettled with fo much Learning and Judgment, and Refolutions form'd upon fuch firict Rules of Piety and Religion ? What glorious Expectations in an Age of that Degeneracy of Faith and Manners, wherein he then liv'd, might not be juftly rais'd from hence, for the future Reformation of both ?

Λnd,

AND, indeed, this Excellent Perfon did even more than fatisfy all these Extraordinary Hopes which the early and ample Specimens he gave of his Virtue and Knowledge, had made the World conceive of Him. For having taken this prudent and effectual Care to ground and determine his own Faith and Practice; and being ever mindful of that Injunction laid upon him, when he was ordain'd Prieft, ** To confider the End of his Ministry towards the " Children of GOD, towards the Spouse and Body of " CHRIST; He never ceas'd bis Labour, Care and " Diligence, until He had done all that in bim lay (as our Holy Church does most admirably express the Duty of that Order) "to bring all fuch as were com-" mitted to his Charge, unto that Agreement in the ** Faith and Knowledge of GOD, and to that Ripe-" nefs and Perfetinefs of Age in CHRIST, that there fould be no Place left among them for Error " in Religion, or for Viciousness in Life.

WHILE his Care of Souls was chiefly confin'd to the Bounds of a fingle Parish, with what Labour and Zeal did he apply himself to the Discharge of his Ministry, in the feveral Parts and Offices of it! How Powerful and Instructive was he in his Discourses from the Pulpit ! How Warm and Affectionate in his Private Exhortations! How Orthodox in his Doctrine! How Regular and Uniform in the Publick Worthip of the Church! In a Word, fo zealous was he, and Heavenly-minded, in all the Spiritual Exercifes of his Parochial Function, and his Labours were fo remarkably crown'd with Bleffing and Succefs, that as He himfelf was justly styl'd, the Great Reviver and Reftorer of Primitive Piety; fo his Parish was defervedly propos'd, as the beft Model and Partern, for the reft of its Neighbours to copy after.

Non was the Archdeacon, or the Bishop, lefs Vigilant than the Parish Priest: His Care and Diligence increas'd as his Power in the Church was enlarg'd; and as He had before discharg'd the Duty of a Faithful Pastor over his fingle Fold, so when his Authority was was extended to larger Diftricts, he ftill purfu'd the fame Pious and Laborious Methods of advancing the Honour and Intereft of Religion, by watching over both Clergy and Laity, and giving them all neceffary Direction and Affiftance for the effectual Performance of their respective Duties.

ACCORDINGLY. He was no fooner advanc'd to the Episcopal Chair, but in a most Pathetick and obliging Letter to the Clergy of his Diocefe, he recommended to them, " the Duty of Catechifing and " Instructing the People committed to their Charge, in " the Principles of the Christian Religion ; to the End " they might know what they were to believe, and do, " in order to Salvation : And told them, " He thought " it necessary to begin with that, without which, " whatever elfe He, or They, fould do, would turn " to little or no Account, as to the main End of the " Ministry. And to enable them to do this the more effectually, He fent them a plain and easy Exposition on upon the Church-Catechi/m; of which I need fay nothing more, and can fay nothing greater, than that it was drawn up by Himfelf, in a Method, which, in the Opinion of fo great a Judge, feem'd, of all others, the most proper to instruct the People.

T H U S endeavouring to make Himfelf and others every Day wifer and better, labouring to eftablish Sound Principles, and fettle Good Manners wherever he came, as it was the Foundation which this Holy Man laid in these Articles and Refolutions; fo we see it was the great Work of his Life to build upon it; as might easily be made appear, from a faithful and particular Relation of the several Stages and Passages of it, during the Course of his Ministry; the bare Enumeration of which would swell this Preface into a Book. That fair Portrait will, I hope, be drawn by fome Abler Pen.

In the mean time, there is yet another Inftance of his great Concern and unwearied Endeavours for the effablifhing of found Doctrine, which I muft not omit the Mention of, because 'tis a Work of for much ۶.

Affinity,

Affinity, with these Articles, and what the Reader may, with great Advantage, have recourse to, for farther Satisfaction upon these General Heads of Divinity, which he has here given us only in Abridgment; 'Tis his Learned Exposition upon the Thirty Nine Articles, which is promis'd, in a short time, to be committed to the Prefs; and which is the more earness which the Church, at this time, fo much wants, and which He, beyond others, was, in such an extraordinary manner, qualify'd for.

SUCH Discourses as these, the One giving a true Exposition of the Doctrine of our Church, the Other endeavouring to establish it by an Orthodox Faith, and an unspotted Life, were never more seafonable than in this Age; when the very Being of the Church is call'd in Question, under a Pretence of maintaining her Rights; and the Principles of Christianity are no longer fecretly undermin'd, but openly attack'd : when Books are publish'd against all Reveal'd Religion, and Deifm infults and triumphs bare fac'd, without Restraint, without Reproach. In a word, When we are arriv'd to that Diffolutenefs of Manners, as well as Principles, that Perfons of the highest Quality, and Station, are address'd to in Print, as Patrons of Libertinism ; and that which has, in all Ages, been call'd, and effeem'd, the greateft Wildom, is scoffed at by false Wit; and Christianity, under the Notion of Enthusiasim, expos'd to the Contempt of the meaneft Capacities, and hooted out of the World by the very Dregs of the People.

IN fo general an Inundation of Prophanenefs, and Licentiouinefs, Providence feem'd indeed to have rais'd up this Great and Good Man to fland in the Gap, and flem the Tide againft it : But where the Torrent is fo impetuous, and the Forces, that fhou'd unite in fitiving to divert it, fo weak and pufillanimous, there is more Danger the very Oppofers fhou'd be born down the Stream, than there are Hopes of making making good the Opposition. But, however the Doctrine and Difcipline of our Church may be mifrepresented, exploded and despisid, and our Holy . Religion become only a Name, which is almost every where fpeken against : This Good Bishop will never-- thelefs have the Honour, as he already enjoys the Reward, not only of bearing Teftimony against the growing Ill, but of having done all that he could (and who cou'd do more than He?) to reftrain and -fubdue it.

I T may, perhaps, be thought a bad Omen to our Church, to have loft to able a Champion, when the feems to fland fo much in need of Him. But, bleffed be G O.D, we have not altogether loft Him: He has left us behind him, in these excellent Papers, (to fay nothing of His Sermons, and other incomparable Writings) fuch clear Reafoning, and convincing - Arguments for the grounding of our Principles; and fuch useful Rules and Directions for the Government of our Converfation, that we may yet hope for a happy Reformation in Both, if we are not wanting to ourfelves in the Ufe and Application of them. Would the Clergy, the younger fort especially, take this Method, upon their first Admission into Holy Orders, (and it ought to be no hard Matter to perfuade them to it, fince 'tis the very End and Defign of their Ministry) it could not fail, by the Bleffing of GOD, of producing very admirable Effects. Their Principles, thus prudently fettled, would ftand the Shock, even of a fiery Tryal; and their Refoluthus maturely form'd, wou'd undauntedly tions. bear up againft the most powerful Temptations.

THIS, if any thing, would saife the Dignity of the Priesthood to its full Institution, filence all the loud Clamours, as well as maligious Whifpers, that, like Echo's, are redoubled and reverberated upon them : and gain them fuch an Interest and Reputation among the People, and fuch an Honour and Authority in the Discharge of their Function, that from reveren--cing the Perfon, and commending the Pattern, they would wou'd infensibly proceed to the Imitation of it; till, by degrees, the Flock too, as well as the Shepherd, would become wife to Salvation, would devoutly fancsify the Lord G O D in their Hearts, and not only fo, but be ready always to give an Answer to every one that show'd ask them a Reason of the Hope that is in them.

AND were both Clergy and Laity thus rightly principled, and firmly re/olv'd, the Enemies of our Zion would have both lefs Encouragement to attack and lefs Power to hurt us; Our National Church might then defpife all the wicked Attempts and Defigns that are daily made and form'd againft her, and affume to Herfelf that comfortable Promife and Affurance, that our Saviour Himfelf has given, that even the Gates of Hell shall never be able to prevail againft Her.

ALL that I have farther to fay, is only to apologize for having faid fo much, upon a Subject that fo little needs it; and to clofe the whole with my hearty Prayers to the Throne of Grace, that this Pious and Excellent Book may meet with that defir'd Effect and Succefs, which the Author aimed at in the Compofing of it, and may be as useful to Others, as it was to Himfelf.

HEN, in my ferious Thoughts, and more retir'd Meditations, I am got into the Clofet of my Heart, and there begin to look within my felf, and confider what I am, I prefently find my felf to be a reasonable Creature: For. was I not fo, it would be impossible for me thus to reason and reflect. But, am I a reasonable Creature ? Why then, I'm fure, within this Veil of Flefb there dwells a Soul. and that of a higher Nature, than either Plants or Brutes are endu'd with; for they have Souls indeed, but yet they know it not, and that, because their Souls, or material Forms, (as the Philosophers term them) are not any thing really and effentially diffinet from the very Matter of their Bodies; which being not capable of a reflexive Act, though they are, they know it not, and though they act, they know it not; it being not possible for them to look within themselves, or to reflect upon their own Existencies and Actions. But 'tis not fo with me; I not only know I have a Soul, but that I have fuch a Soul, which can confider of itself, and deliberate of every particular Action that iffues from it. Nay, I can confider, that I am now confidering of my own Actions, and can reflect upon myfelf reflecting; infomuch, that had I nothing else to do, I could fpin out one Refleflion upon another, to Infinity.

Αnd,

AND, indeed, was there never another Argument in the World, to convince me of the Spiritual Nature of my Soul, this alone would be fufficient to wrest the Belief and Confession of it from me : For, what below a Spirit, can thus reflect upon it felf? or, what below a Spirit, can put forth it/elf into fuch Actions, as I find I can exercise myself in? My Soul can, in a Moment, mount from Éarth to Heaven. fly from Pole to Pole, and view all the Courses and Motions of the Celeftial Bodies, the Sun, Moon, and Stars; and then the next Moment returning to myfelf again, I can confider, where I have been, what glorious Objects have been prefented to my View: and wonder at the Nimbleness and Activity of my Soul, that can run over fo many Millions of Miles, and finish so great a Work, in so small a Space of Time. And are fuch like Acts as thefe, the Effects of droffy Earth, or impenetrable Matter? Can any thing below a Spirit raife it (elf fo much beyond the Reach of material Actions?

BUT stay a little; What is this Soul of mine, that I am now speaking of, that it is so nimble in its Actions, and fo piritual in its Nature ? Why, 'tis that, which actuates and informs the feveral Organs and Members of my Body, and enables me not only to perform the Natural Actions of Life and Senfe, but likewise to understand, consult, argue, and conclude; to will and nill, hope and despair, desire and abbor, jey and grieve, love and hate; to be angry now, and again appea/ed. 'Tis that, by which at this very time, my Head is inditing, my Hand is writing, and my Heart refolving, what to believe, and how to pra-In a word, my Soul is My/elf, and, therefore Etife. when I fpeak of my Soul, I fpeak of no other Perfon but myfelf.

Nor as if I totally excluded this earthly Subfrance of my Body from being a Part of my felf: I know it is. But I think it most proper and reasonable to denominate my felf from my better part: For, alas! take away my Soul, and my Body falls, on courfe, into its primitive Corruption. and moulders into the Duft, from whence it was first taken. All Flesh is Grass, fays the Prophet, and all she Goodline's thereof is as the Flower of the Field. And this is no metaphorical Expression, but a real Truth ; for what is that which I feed upon, but merely Grass, digested into Corn. Flesh, and the like; which, by a fecond Digeftion, is transfus'd and converted into the Substance of my Body? And hence it is, that my Body is but like the Grass, or Flower of the Field, fading, transient, and momentary, to Day flourishing in all its Glory, to Morrow cut down, dried up and withered. But now, how far is this beneath the spiritual and incorruptible Nature of my Immortal Soul ? which subfifts of itself. and can never be diffolved; being not compounded of any Earthly or Elementary Matter, (as the Body is) but is a pure Spiritual Substance, infus'd into me by GOD, to whom, after a thort Abode in the Body, it is to return, and to live and continue for ever. either in a State of Happiness, or Misery, in another Life.

B v r must it fo indeed? How much, then, does it concern me, feriously to bethink my/elf, where I had best to lead this everlasting Life, in the Heavenly Mansions of Eternal Glory, or else in the dreadful Dungeon of Infernal Misery? But betwixt these, (as there is no Medium, fo) there is no Comparison; and, therefore, I shall not put it to the Question, which place to chuse to live in? But without giving the other that Honour to stand in Competition with it, I, this Morning, with the Leave of the most High GOD, do chuse the Land of Canaan, the Kingdom of Heaven, to be the Lot of mine Inheritance, the only Seat of Bliss and Glory for my Soul to rest and dwell in, to all Eternity.

But Heaven, they fay, is a Place hard to come at; yea, the King of that glorious Place hath told me, that firais is the Gate, and narrow is the Way, that leads to eternal Life, and that there be but few that find find it, Mat. vii. 14. Yea, and that many fhall feek to enter in, and fhall not be able, Luke iii. 24. What, therefore, muft I do? Why, I muft either refolve to make it my whole Bufine's to get to Heaven, or elfe I muft never hope or expect to come thither. Without any farther Difpute, therefore, about it; I refolve, at this time, in the Prefence of Almighty GOD, that, from this Day forward, I will make it my whole Bufine's here upon Earth, to look after my Happine's in Heaven, and to walk circumfpectly in those bleffed Paths, that GOD hath 'appointed all to walk in, that ever expect to come to Him.

Now, though there be but one Way, and that a narrow one too, that leads to Heaven ; yet there are two things requisite to all those that walk in it ; and they are Faith and Obedience, to believe and to live aright. So that it as much behoves me, to have my Faith rightly confirm'd in the Fundamentals of Religion, as to have my Obedience exactly conform'd to the Laws of GOD. And thefe two Duties are fo infeparably united, that the former cannot well be suppos'd without the latter; for I cannot obey what GOD hath commanded mc, unless I first believe what he hath taught me. And they are bath equally difficult, as they are necessary: Indeed, of the two, I think it is harder, to lay the fure Foundation of Faith, than to build the Superstructure of Obedience upon it : for it feems next to impossible. for one that believes every Truth, not to obey every Command, that is written in the Word of GOD. But 'tis not fo eafy a thing, as 'tis commonly thought, to believe the Word of GOD, and to be firmly eftablish'd in the necessary Points of Religion : elpecially in these wicked Times wherein we live; in which there are fo many pernicious Errors and damnable Herefies crept into the Articles of some Mens Faith, as do not only thock the Foundation of the Church of CHRIST, but strike at the Root of all Religion. The first thing, therefore, that, by the Grace

Grace of GOD, I am refolv'd to do, in reference to my everlafting Eftate, is, to fee my Faith, that it be both rightly plac'd and firmly fix'd; that I may not be as a Wave toffed to and fro with every Wind of DocFrine, by the cunning Craftimefs of thofe, that lie in wait to deceive; but that I may be thorowly fettled in my Faith and Judgment concerning thofe things, the Knowledge of, and Affent unto which, is abfolutely neceffary to my future Happinefs. Let, therefore, what Times foever come upon me; let what Temptations foever be thrown before me; I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, ftedfaftly to believe as followeth.

ARTICLE L. 1 believe there is one GOD, the Being of all Beings.

HE other Articles of my Faith I think to be true, becaufe they are fo; This is true, becaufe I think it fo: For if there was no GOD, and fo this Article not true, I could not be, and fo not think it true. But in that I think, I am fure I am; and in that I am, I'm fure there is a GOD; for if there was no GOD, how came I to be? How came I hither? Who gave me my Being? Myfelf? that could not be; for before I had a Being, I was nothing; and, therefore, could do nothing, much lefs make myfelf a Being. Did my Parents give me my Being? Alas! they knew not that I thould be, before I was; and, therefore, certainly, could not give me my Being, when I was not.

As to my Soul, (which I call My/elf) it is plain, they cou'd not give me that, because 'tis a Being of a spiritual Nature, quite diffinit from Matter, (as my own Experience tells me) and, therefore, cou'd not be the Product of any Natural or Material Agent: For, that a Bodily Substance shou'd give Being to a Spiritual one, implies a Contradiction. And if if it cou'd neither make itfelf, nor take its Rife from any Earthly or Secondary Caule, I may certainly conclude, from my own Reafon, as well as from Divine Revelation, that it must be infus'd by GOD, though I am not able to determine, either when, or how, it was done.

As to my Body; indeed. I must own it was deriv'd from my Parents, who were immediately concern'd in bringing the Materials of it together: But, then, who made up these coarse Materials into the Form or Figure of a Body ? Was this the Effect of Natural Generation? But how came my Parents by this Generative Power? Did they derive it, by Succeffion, from our first Parents in Paradife ? Be it fo. But whence came They ? Did they fpring out of the Earth ? No, What then ? Were they made by Chance? This could not be : for as Chance feldom or never produces any one Effect, that is regular and uniform, fo it cannot be suppos'd, that a Being of fuch admirable Beauty, Symmetry, and Proportion, and fuch a nice Contexture of Parts, as the Body of Man is, should ever be jumbled together by a fortuitous Concourse of Atoms, which nothing but the Chimaras of Epicurus cou'd ever reduce into a regular Form and Composition.

A N D the like may be faid of all other created Beings in the World. For there is no Natural Caufe can give Being to any thing, unlefs it has that Being it gives, in it/elf; for it is a received Maxim in Philofophy, that Nothing can give what it has not. And fo, however the Bodies of Men, or Brutes, or Plants, may now, in the ordinary Courfe of Nature, be produc'd by Generation, yet there muft needs be fome one Supreme Almighty Being in the World, that has the Being of all other Beings in itfelf; who first created thefe feveral Species; and endu'd them with this Generative Power to propagate their Kind. And this Supreme Being is that which we call GOD.

HENCE it is, that there is not a Leaf, no not a Line, in this great Book of the Creation, wherein we we may not clearly read the Existence and Perfections of the Great and Glorious Creator, and that even by the glimmering Light of Nature. For, Who is it, that bedeck'd vonder stately Canopy of Heaven, with those gliftering Spangles the Stars? Who is it, that commands the Sun to run his Courfe, and the Moon to ride her Circuit fo conftantly about the World ? Who is it, that formed me fo curioufly in my Mother's Womb? Who is it, that gives my Stomach Power to digeft fuch Variety of Meats into Chyle. and my Heart or Liver to turn them all to Blood : and thence to fend each Particle to its proper Place, and all to keep up this crazy Carcaís? Doubtlefs, thefe, and fuch like things, however ordinary or natural, they may appear to us at present, are in themselves very great and wonderful Effects. that muft, at first, be produced by some infinitely powerful and supernatural Agent, the High and Mighty GOD, who is not only the Chiefeft of Beings. but the Being of all Beings whatfoever.

I fay, the Being of all Beings, becaufe whatfoever Excellency or Perfection is in any Other thing, is eminently, yea, infinitely comprehended in Him; fo that he is not only the Creatures Perfection in the Concrete, but in the Abstract too : He is not only All-wife, All-good, All-mighty, oc. but he is Allwifdom, All-goodness, All-might, All-mercy, Alljuffice, All-glory, cre. And as He is the Ocean and Abyfs of all these Perfections in Himfelf; fo is He the Fountain of them all to #s. Infomuch that We have nothing, not fo much as the least Moment of Life, but what is communicated to us from This Everliving GOD. And not only what We, poor finful Worms, are, or have, but even whatfoever those Nobler Creatures the Angels have, 'tis but a Beam darted from This Sun, 'tis but a Stream flowing from This Overflowing Fountain.

LIFT up thine Eyes therefore, O my Soul, and fix them, a little, upon this glorious Object ! How glorious, how transcendently glorious, must He needs be.

be, who is the Baing of all Beings, the Perfection of all Perfections, the very Glory of all Glories. the Eternal GOD? He is the the Glory of Love and Goodnefs, who is Good, and doth Good continually unto Me. tho' I be Evil, and do Evil continually againft Him. He is the Glory of Wildom and Knowledge, unto whom all the fecret Thoughts. the inward Motions and Retirements of my Soul, are exactly known and manifest. Never did a Thought lurk for fecretly in my Heart, but that his All-feeing Eye could efpy it out: Even at this time, He knows what I am now thinking of, and what I am doing, as well as Myself. And indeed, well may He know what I think, and speak, and do, when I can neither think, nor (peak, nor do any thing, unless Himfelf be pleas'd to give me Strength to do it. He is the Glory of Might and Power, who did but (peak the Word, and there prefently went out that commanding Power from Him, by which this stately Fabrick of the World was form'd and fashion'd. And as He created all things by the Word of his Power, fo I believe, He preferves and governs all things by the Power of the fame Word : Yea, fo great is his Power and Sovereignty. that he can as eafily frown my Soul from my Body into Hell, or Nathing, as I can throw this Book out of my Hand to the Ground : Nay, He need not throw me into Nothing ; but, as, if I should let go My Hold. the Book would prefently fall ; fo, fhould GOD but take away His supporting Hand from under me, I fhould, of Myfelf, immediately fall down to Nothing. This, therefore, is that GOD, whom I believe to be the Being of all Beings; and fo, the Creaner, Preferver, Governer, and Disposer of all things in the World.

ARTICLE II.

I believe, that what soever the most High GOD would have me to believe or do. in order to His Glory and my Happines, He bath reveal'd to me, in His Holy Scrip-. tures.

U PON the fame Account that I believe there is a GOD, I believe, likewife, that this GOD is to be worfbipped ; the fame Light that difcovers the one, difcovering the other too. And therefore it is, that as there is no Nation or People in the World, but acknowledge some Deity ; fo there is none, but worfhip that Deity which they acknowledge; yea, though it be but a Stick or a Stone, yet if they fancy any thing of Divinity in it, they prefently perform Worship and Homage to it. Nay. that GOD is to be wor (hipp'd, is a Truth more generally acknowledg'd, than that there is a GOD. No Nation, I confeis; evet denied the latter, but no particular Person ever denied the former : So that the very Perfons, who through Diabolical Delufions. and their Own prevalent Corruptions, have fu/petied the Existence of a Deity, could not but acknowledge that he was to be worfhipp'd, if he did exift; Wor hip being that which is contain'd in the very Notion of a Deity; which is, that He is the Being of all Beings, upon whom all other Things or Beings do depend, and unto whom they are beholden both for their Effence and Subsistence. And if there be such a Being, that is the Spring and Fountain of all Qther Beings, it is necessary that all other should reverence and worship Him, without whom they could not fubfift. And therefore it is that Men are generally more fuperstitious in their worshipping than they ought to be, rather than deny that Worthip to Him, which they ought to give. THAT.

THAT, therefore there is a GOD, and that this GOD is to be worshipp'd, I do not doubt; but the great Question is, Who is this GOD, whom I ought to worfhip? and, What is that Worfhip, which I ought to perform unto Him? The former I have refolv'd upon in the foregoing Article, as the Light of Reason and my Natural Constitues fuggested to me; the latter I am refolv'd to fearch out in This, viz. Which of all the feveral Kinds of Worship, that Men perform to the Deity, and the several Religions that Men profess in the World, I had best make Choice of to profess and adhere to. The general Inclinations. which are naturally implanted in my Soul to fome. Religion, it is impossible for me to shift off; but there being fuch a Multiplicity of Religions in the World, I defire now ferioufly to confider with myfelf, which of them all to refirain thefe my general Inclinations. to.

AND the Reason of this my Enquiry is not that: I am, in the leaft, diffatisfy'd with that Religion I have already embrac'd; but because 'tis natural for all Men to have an overbearing Opinion and Effeem. for that particular Religion they are born and bred; That, therefore, I may not feem bias'd: up in. by the Prejudice of Education, I am refolved to prove. and examine them all, that I may fee and hold fast to that which is best. For the' I do not, in the least, question, but that I shall, upon Enquiry, find the Christian Religion to be the only true Religion. in the World, yet I cannot fay, it is, unless I find: it, upon good Grounds, to be fo indeed: For, to profels myself a Christian, and believe that Christians are only in the right, because my Forefathers were so, is no more than the Heathens and Mahometans have to lay for themselves.

INDEED, there was never any Religion fo barbarous and diabolical, but it was preferr'd before all other Religions whatloever, by them that did profos it; otherwife they would not have profes'd it. The ladians, that worthip the Devil, would think it as ftrange ftrange Doctrine to fay, That CHRIST is to be fear'd more than the Devil; as fuch as believe in CHRIST, think it is, to fay, The Devil is to be preferr'd before CHRIST. So do the Mahometans call all that believe not in Mahomet, as well as Christians call those that believe not in CHRIST, Infidels. And why, fay they, may not you be miltaken. as well as we? especially, when there is, at the least, Six to One against your Christian Religion ; all of which think they ferve GOD aright, and expect Happines thereby, as well as you. So that to be a Christian, only upon the Grounds of Birth or Education, is all one; as if I was a Turk or a Heathen: for if I had been born amongst them, I should have had the same Reason for their Religion, as now I have for my own: The Premisses are the same, tho' the Conclusion be never fo different. 'Tis still upon the fame' Grounds, that I profess Religion, tho' it be another Religion, which I profess upon thele Grounds: So that I can fee but very little Difference, betwixt being a Turk by Profession, and a Christian only by Education; which commonly is the Means and Occafion, but ought, by no means to be the Ground of any Religion. And hence it is, that in my looking out for the trueft Religion, being confcious to myfelf how great an Afcendant Christianity hath over mc, beyond the reft, as being that Religion whereinto I was born and baprized; that which the supreme Authority has enjoin'd, and my Parents educated me in, that which every one I meet withal highly approves of. and which I my felf have, by a long continued Proj feffion, made almost natural to me; I am resolv'd'to be more jealous and fuspicious of this Religion. than of the reft, and be fure not to entertain it any longer without being convinc'd, by folid and fubftansial Arguments of the Truth and Certainty of it.

THAT, therefore, I may make diligent and impartial Enquiry into all Religions, and to be fure to find out the beft, I fhall, for a time, look upon myfelf as one not at all interefted in any particular Religion whatfoever, much lefs in the Christian Religion; but only as one who defires, in general, to ferve and obey him that made me, in a right manner, and thereby to be made Partaker of that Happines my Nature is capable of. In order to this, it will be neceffary to propose to myself fome certain Marks or Characters, whereby I may be able to judge and make choice of the Religion I intend to embrace: And they are, in general these Two, viz.

FIRST, That is the best Religion, wherein GOD is worshipped and served most like himself. i.e. most fuitably and conformably to his Nature and Will. And,

SECONDLY, Since all Men naturally defire, and afpire after Happines, and our greatest Happiness confists in the Fruition of GOD, that is certainly the best Religion, which gives me the best and most comfortable Affurances of being happy with GOD, to all Eternity.

To embrace a Religion without these Marks, wou'd be worse than to have no Religion at all; for better it is, to perform no Worship to GOD, than fuch as is displeasing to him; to do him no Service, than such as will be ineffectual to make me happy, and not only frussirate my Expectations of Bliss, but make me for ever miserable.

THE Religion, then, that I am to look after, must be fuch a onc, wherein I may be fure to pleafe GOD, and to be made happy with him; and, by Confequence, fuch a one, wherein all the Caufe of His Difpleature and My Mifery may be remov'd; and that is Siz. For Sin being infinitely opposite to Him, as he is a Being of infinite Purity and Holinefs, must certainly fet me at the greateft Diffance from Him, and render me most odious in His Sight; and whatfoever does fo, must make me as miferable, as Mifery can make me. For as our Holinefs confifteth in Likenefs, fo doth our Happinefs in Nearnefs to GOD: And if it be our Happinefs to be near unto Him, it must certainly be our Mifery to be at a Diffance Diffance from Him. In enjoying Him, we enjoy all things, He being and having all things in Himfelf: and fo, in not enjoying Him, we are not only depriv'd of all that we can enjoy, but made liable to the Punishments that are the Consequence of it.

THAT there is no fuch thing in Nature, as Virtue and Vice, as Good and Evil, as Grace and Sin, is what I can, by no means, perfuade myfelf to; for my Confcience tells me, that there is: And not only mine, but every one that ever yet liv'd upon the Face of the Earth ; All People, of whatfoever Nation or Language, flill acknowledging Sin to be Sin, and that the Difpleafing the Deity, which they worship, is indeed an Evil, that ought to be carefully avoided. And therefore, the very Heathens did not only upbraid others with it, but likewife often check'd them felves for it : And all Men naturally defire to feem, though not to be Holy. But let others fay what they will, I, for my orun part, cannot but fee Sin in my felf, by the very Light of Nature. For, my Reason tells me, that if GOD be GOD, He must be just and perfect; and if I be not fo too, I am not like Him, and, therefore must needs di/plea/e Him; it being impossible any thing should please Him, but what is like unto Him. And this Deformity to the Will and Nature of GOD, is that which we call Sin, or which the Word Sin, in its proper Notion brings into my Mind.

AND being thus confcious to myfelf, that I have finned against my Maker, I may reasonably conclude that as He is Omnifcient, and, by confequence, a Witnefs of these my Offences, so must He likewise be Just in the Punishment of them; for it cannot stand with His Justice, to put up fuch Offences, without laving fuitable Punishments upon the Offender. And these Punishments must be infinite and eternal; For wherein doth the Nature of Divine Justice confist, but in giving to Sin its just Punishments, as well as to Virtue its due Rewards? Now that the Punishment of Sin in this World, is not fo much as it deferves, nor, by confequence, as much as, in Justice, ought to be laid upon it, to me is clear, in that every Sin being committed against an infinite GOD, deferves infinite Punishment; whereas all the Punishments we fusser in this World cannot be any more than finite, the World itself being no more than fiwite, that we fusser them in.

UPON thefe Grounds, therefore, it is, that I am fully fatisfy'd in my Confcience, That I am a sinner; That it cannot fland with the Justice, nor the Existence of GOD that made me, to pardon my Sins, without Satisfastion made to His Divine Juflice for them; and yet, That unlefs they be pardon'd, it is impossible for me to be happy here, or hereaster. And therefore must I look after fome Religion, wherein I may be fure, my Sins may be thus pardon'd, and my Soul made happy, wherein I may please GOD, and GOD may bless Me. Which that I may be the better able to discover, I shall take a brief Survey of all the Religions I ever heard of, or believe to be in the World.

Now, tho' there be as many kinds of Religions as Nations; yea, almost as particular Persons in the World; yet may they all be reduced to these Four; the Paganish, Mahometan, Jewish, and Christian Religion.

As to the first, 'tis indeed of a very large Extent, and comprehends under it all fuch as neither acknowledge Makomet to be a Prophet, nor expect a promifed Messiah, nor believe in a crucified JESUS: And, fince 'tis the Majority of Numbers that usually carries the vogue, let me see, whether the Paganish Religion, being farther extended, and more generally profess'd than any, or indeed, all the reft, be not the true Religion, wherein GOD is most rightly worshipp'd, and I may be the most certainly sav'd. And here, when I take a view of this Religion, as it is differs'd through feveral Parts of Asia, Astrica, and America, I find them very devout in worshipping their Deities, such as they are, and they have have great Numbers of them : Some worthip the Sun, others the Moon and Stars, others the Earth. and other Elements, Serpents, Trees, and the like. And others again pay Homage and Adoration to Images and Statues, in the Fashion of Men and Women, Hogs, Horfes, and other Shapes; and fome to the Devil himself, as in Pegu, Oc.

BUT now, to go no farther, this feems to me, at first Sight, to be a very strange and absurd Sort of Religion; or rather, 'tis quite the Reverfe of it. For, the true Notion we have of Religion, is the worfhipping the true GOD, in a true manner; and this is the worthipping falle Gods, in a falle manner. For. I cannot entertain any other Notion of GOD, than as One Supreme Almighty Being, who made and governs all things, and who, as He is a Spirit, ought to be worshipp'd in a spiritual Manner And therefore, as the very supposing more Delties than one. implies a Contradiction; fo the Paying Divine Homage, in a groß, carnal manner, to material and corporeal Beings, which are either the Work of Mens Hands, or, at best, but Creatures like ourselves. which can neither bear nor underfland what we fay to them, much lefs give us what we defire of them. is not Religion, but Idolatry and Superflition, or rather Madnefs and Delasion. So that this Religion, I fee, if I should embrace it, would be so far from making me happy, that the more zealous I should be for it, the more milerable I fhould be by it. For, He "that made these things, cannot but be very angry 'at me, if I should give that Worship to them, which is only due to Himfelf; and fo, the way whereby I "expect my sins thould be pardon'd, they would be more increas'd; it being a Sin against the very Light of Washere, to preferr any thing hefdre GOD, or to -worthin any thing in His flead; Therefore, leaving where to their superstitious idolatries, and diabolical Demiens, I must go and seek for the srue Religion · Yomewhere elfe. oxii e Li A  $W_{i}^{A}M_{j}^{A} = 0$

THE next Religion, that hath the most Suffrages and Votes on its fide, is the Mahometan Religion, so called from one Mahomet an Arabian, who about a thousand years ago, by the Affistance of one Sergius, a Nestorian Monk, compiled a Book in the Arabian Tongue, which he call'd Alcoran, which he made the Rule of his Followers Faith and Manners, pretending that it was fent from Heaven to him, by the Hand of the Angel Gabriel.

THIS Book I have perused, and muft confess, find many things in it agreeable to right Reason; as that there is but one GOD, Gracious, and Merciful, the Lord of the whole Universe; that this GOD we are to refign ourfelver wholly to; that all that obey Him shall be certainly rewarded, and all that disobey Him, as certainly punish'd; and the like. But yet, I dare not venture my Soul upon it, nor become one of the Professors of it; becaule, as there are many things confonant, fo are there many things diffenant to the natural Light that is implanted in me; as, that GOD should (wear by Figs and Olives, by Mount Sinai, as this Book makes Him to do, in the Chapter of the Figs; that Solomon (hould have an Army composed of Men, and Devils, and Birds; and that he should discourse with a Bird, which acquainted him with the Affairs of the Queen of sheba, and the like,

As to the Argument whereby he wou'd perfuade us, that this Book was fent from GOD, viz. That there are no Contradictions in it, I take it to be very false and frivolous; For, befides that there are many Books compiled by Men, which have no Contradiflions in them, it is certain, there are a great many plain Contradictions in this Book, which overthrow his Supposition. Thus, in the Chapter of the Table, he faith, that All that believe in GOD, and the Refurrection of the Dead, and have dona Good Works, shall be faved; but, in the Chapter of Gratification, he faith, All that do not believe in the Alcoran shall be destroy'd; and fo in the Chapter of Hod. In like manner, manner, he tells us again, in the Chapter of the Table, that the Books of the Old and New Testament were fent from GOD, and, at the fame time, fupposes, that the Alcoran was sent from Him too; which, to me, feems impossible. For, my Reafon tells me, that GOD, who is Truth and Wildom itfelf, cannot be guilty of Falfbood of Contradiction. And if thele Books contradict one another, as, it is evident they do, in many Inftances; it is plain. GOD cou'd not be the Author of both; and by con-. fequence, if the Scripture be true, the Alcoran muft. of necessity, be falle. To instance but in one Particular, the Alcoran fays, in the Chapter of Women, GOD hath no Son; the Scripture, in Matth. iii. 17. GOD faid. of JESUS, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased : And Heb. iv. 14. it exprefly calls that JESUS, the Son of GOD; and fo, in many other things. Now, it is impossible, that both these should be true, or, by consequence, that that . hould be true, which fays both are fo.

BUT if this were granted, there is still another Objection against this Religion; and that is, that the Rewards therein promis'd will not avail to make me happy, tho' I should be Partaker of them. For all the Promises made to us in this Paradife, are but ... mere sensible Pleasures; as that we shall have all manner of Herbs, and Fruits, and Drinks, and Women with exceeding great and black Eyes, as in the Chapter of the Merciful and of Judgment, and elfewhere; and fuch Pleafures as thefe, tho' they may, indeed, affect my Body, yet they cannot be the Happine (s of my Soul. Indeed, I know not how this Book should promise any higher Happiness than that of the Body, because it shews no Means of attaining to it ; it shews no Way, how my Sins may be pardon'd, and fo my Soul made happy. It faith, I confels, that GOD is gracious and merciful, and therefore will pardon them, but my Reason tells me, that as GOD is gracious and merciful, and therefore will pardon Sin; fo is He alfo just and righteous, and therefors fore must punif it. And how these two can stand together, is not manifested in the Alcoran; and, therefore, I dare not trust my Soul with it.

THUS, upon diligent Search, have I found the two Religions, that are most generally profess'd, to have little or nothing of Religion in them. I shall, therefore, in the next place, take a View of that Religion, which hath the fewest Followers, and that is the Jewish. A Religion, not established by any Humane Laws, nor, indeed, generally profes'd in any Nation, but only by a Company of despicable People fcatter'd up and down the World, which, as the Prophet expresses it, are become a Proverb of Reproach, and a By-word among all Nations whisher they are driven. The Principles of this Religion are contain'd in a Book, written in the Hebrew Tongue, which they call the Torah, or Law, composed of feveral Precepts, Promiles, and Threatnings; together with Histories of things past, and Prophecies of things to come: This Book, they fay, was written by Men inspir'd by GOD himself; and, therefore, they avouch it not to be of a Humane Invention, but merely of Divine Inftitution.

THIS Book alfo I have diligently read and examin'd into, and must ingenuously confess, that, at the very first Glance, methought I read Divinity in it, and cou'd not but conclude, from the Majefty of its Style, the Purity of its Precepts, the Harmony of its Parts, the Certainty of its Promifes, and the Excellency of its Rewards, that it could be deriv'd from no other Author but GOD Himself. It is here only, that I find my Maker worship'd under the proper Notion of a Deity, as He is This Jebouah; and that in the right Manner, for we are here commanded to love and ferve him with all our Hearts, with all our Souls, our Might and Mind, Deut. iv. 5. chap. x. 12. which is, indeed, the Perfection of all true Worship whatsoever. And as GOD is bere worshipp'd aright, so is the Happinels, which is bere entail'd upon this true Workip, the highest that 'tis possible a Creature a Creasure should be made capable of, being nothing less than the Enjoyments of Him we worship, so as to have Him to be a GOD to m, and ourselves to be a People to Him, Jer. xxxi. 33.

But that which I look upon, still, as the furest Character of the srme Religion, is, its holding forth the way, how I, being a Sinner, can be invested with this Huppinels; or how GOD can thew His Justice. in pusiting Sin in is felf, and yet be fo Merciful, as to pardon and remin it to me, and fo receive me to His Favour ; which the Religions I view'd before did not fo much as presend to, nor offer at all at. And the is what this Book of the Law does likewife difcover to me, by thewing, that GOD Almighty wou'd not visit our Sins upon our felves, but upon another Perfon; that He wou'd appoint and ordain one to be our Spon for or Mediator; who by His infinite Merit, thould bear and atone for our Iniquities. and fo Thew His Love and Mercy, in justifying and acquisting us from our Sins, at the fame time that He manifelts His Justice, in inflicting the Punishment of them upon this Perfor in our flead." A Method fo deep and mysterious, that if GOD Himself had not 'reveal'd it, I am confident no mortal Man cou'd ever have difcover'd or thought of it!

NEITHER are there any Doubts and Scruples concerning this great Mystery, but what this Book does clearly answer and refolve; as will appear more plainly from a distinct Confideration of the feveral Objections; that are ung'd against it.

As, 1: That it does not feem agreeable either to Reafon or Scripture, that one Man should bear the Sins of another; betaufe every Man has enough to do to bear his own Burden; And fince Sin is committed against an infinite GOD, and therefore deferves infinite Panishment; how can any finite Creature bear this infinite Panishment; especially, it being due to fo many Thousands of People as there are in the World 4 "How Thousands of People as there are in the World 4 "IBUT this Book fufficiently unties this Knot for me, by shewing me, that it is not a mere Man, but B 6

GOD Himfelf, that wou'd bear thele my Sins; even He, whole Name is UP, The Lord our Righteou/ne/s, Jer. xxxiii. 6. where the effential Name of the moft High GOD, which cannot poffibly be given to any, but to Him, who is the Being of all Beings, is here given to Him, who is the Being of all Beings, and jufify my Perfon; whence David alfo calleth him Lord, Pfal. cx. 1. Ifaiab calleth Him The mighty GOD, Ifa. ix. 6. Yea, and the Lord of Hofts Himfelf, with His own Mouth, calls Him His Fellow, Zech. xiii. 7.

OBJ. 2. But my Reafon tells me, GOD is a pure [Aft, and, therefore, How can He fuffer any Punithments? or, fuppofe He could, How can one Nature [atisfy for the Offences of another? It was Man that food guilty; and, how can it fland with the Juffice ef GOD, not to punifh Man for the Sins he is guilty of? To refolve this Doubt, this Holy Book affures me, That this GOD fhou'd become Man, expressly telling me, that as His Name is Wonderful, Counfellor, the Mighty GOD, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace, fo fhould he be born a Child, and given as a Son, IIa. ix. 6. And, therefore, at the fame time that the Lord of Hoft calls Him His Fellow, He calls him a Man too, Against the Man that is my Fellow, fays the Lord of Hosts, Zech. xiii. 7, OBJ. 3. But if He be born, as other Men are, He must needs be a Sinner, as other Men be; for fuch as are born by natural Generation, must necessarily be born also in natural Corruption.

To remove this Obstacle, this Holy Book tells me, that A Virgin shall conceive and bear this Son, and His Name shall be Emanuel, Isa. vii. 14. And so being kegosten, but not by a finful Man, Himself shall be a Man, but not a finful Man: and so being GOD and Man, He is every way fit to mediate betwixt GOD and Man, to reconcile GOD to Me, and Me to GOD, that my Sins may be pardon'd, GOD's Wrath appear'd, and so my Soul made happy in the Enjoyment of Him.

But there is one thing more yet, that keeps me from fettling upon this Religion ; I and that is, the Expiration of the Time in which this Book promifeth this Petfon should come into the World ; for it is exprelly faid, Dan. ix. 24. that Seventy Weeks are determin'd upon thy People, and upon thy City, to finish the Transgressions, and to make an End of Sins, . and to make Recenciliation for Iniquity, and to bring m everlasting Righteon (ness, and so feal up the Vision, and - the Prophecy, and to anoint the meft Holy. From which Anointing, He is, in the next Werfe, called TWD Meffiah, the Anointed, (under which Name He is, from hence, expected by the Jows) and the Beginning of these Seventy Weeks is expresly faid, - X. 25. to be at the going forth of the Cammandment to build and reflore Jerufalem. Now, if we underftand these Seventy Weeks in the largest Sense, for Seventy Weeks, or SabBaths of Years, as it is exprefs'd, Lev. xxv. 8. the Time of the Melliah's - Coming must have been but 400 Years after the . Commandment for the Building of the City; where-, as, whether we understand it of the Decree and Com--mand that Cyrus made, 2 Cbron. xxxvi. 22, 23. Ezr. i. 1, 2, 3. or that which Darius made, Ezr. vi. or that Antaxerxes made, chap, vii, I fay, whichfoever of these Decrees we understand this Prophecy of, it is evident, that it is above 2000 Years fince they were all made; and, therefore, the Time of this Perfon's Coming hath been expired above 1600 Years at least.

So likewise doth this Book of the Law, (as they call it) affure us, that the Scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a Law-giver from between his Feet until Shiloh come, Gen. xlix. 10. where the Jews themselves, Jonathan and Onkelos, expound the Word rule Shiloh by awar Messich, and so doth the Jerusalem Targum too. Now, it is plain, that there hath been neither Scepter nor Law-giver in Judah, nor any political Government at all among the Jews, for above 1600 Years; which plainly thews, either their

So likewife it was exprelly forecold in this Book that the Glory of the Second Temple frould be greater than the Glory of the Former, Hag. ii. 9. Now the Jows themfelves acknowledge, that there were Five of the principal things which were in the First, wanting in the Second Temple, viz. 1. The Ark with the Mercy-Seat and Cherabin. 11 The JUI Sobe--chinab, or Divine Profence. 3. The Holy Prophetical Spirit. 4. The Urim and Thumminn. 5. The Heavenly Fire : And from the want of these Five things they fay, the Word 7208 I will be glonified, Hag. i. 8. wants an 7 at the end, which, in Numeration, denotes Five. Yea, and when the very Foundation of the Second Temple was hid, the Old Men that had feen the First, wept to see how far thort it was likely to come of the Former. Exr. iii. 12. To make up, therefore, the Glory of the Second Temple, to be greater than the Glory of the First, notwithftanding the Waats of fo many glorious things, they must; of Necessity, anderstand it of the Coming of the Mollian into it, who, y. 8. is call'd. The defire of dll Nations. Whereas the Jows themfelves cannot but confess, that this Temple hath been demolish'd above 1600 Years : and, therefore, it is impossible for the Melliah to come into it, and to for its Glory to be greater than the Glory of the First Temple; and, by Consequence, for the Word which they profess to believe in to be true.

INDERD, the Time of the Maffah's Coming was to expretty fet down in these and the like Places that Eline one of their great Rabbis, gather'd from hence that the World should last 6000 Years, 2000 without the Law, 2000 under the Law, and 2000 under the Meffiah's South e. 11. which Computation of the Meffiah's Cothing after 4000 Years, from the beginning of the World, comes near the Time of the Scepter's Departing from Judah, and the

the End of Daniel's Seventy Weeks. Which thews, that this Rabbi was fully convinc'd, that it was about that Time that the Meffiah thould come. And therefore it was, likewife, that above 1600 Years ago, the Jews did fo generally expect His Coming : and that fo many did pretend to be the Perfon, as Bar-Cozbah, who about that time, venting himfelf to be the Man, almost the whole Nation unanimoufly concurr'd in following him ; infomuch that, as the Jews report, there were no lefs than 400000. or, as others, 500000 Men flain by Adrian the Emperor, in the City Bitter, all fighting in Defence of this pretended Mefkab. There were likewife many others that fancy'd themfelves to be the Man, and were effeem'd by fome, till manifeltly convinc'd of their Error, as we may read in a Book of theirs. call'd שביסהורה. And unto this Day many of them hold, that He is already come, but that, by reason of their Sins, He is not yet reveal'd to them.

HENCE it is, that my natural Reason draws me into this Dilemma, That either that Book, which the Hews receive as the Word of GOD is indeed not fo : or elfe, that they do not rightly apply it : And fo, that either their Religion is a falle Religion, or elle sheir Profession of it a fatfe Profession : And therefore, I must go hence, and feek me fome other Religion to fix my Soul upon. Not as if my Reafon told me, that all the Prophecies that I have mention'd here, were falle in themsfelves, but only that they appear to to this fort of Profeffors; for, for my own part, I cannot thake off my Fairb in this Law. which they profess to believe in; especially, now I have to feriously persifes it, and to deliberately weigh'd and comfider'd of it. Neither can I believe that ever any Mahomesan or Indian, that did, without Preiudice, fet himfelf to read it through, and to examine every particular, by the Light of unbiafs'd Reafon, could fay, it was ever hatch'd in a Humane Brain; but that it is indeed of a Heavenly Stamp, and Divine Authority, And, therefore, though I am forc'd forc'd by the Strength of Reafon, to shake Hands with this Religion, yet the same Reason will not suffer me to lay aside that Law, which they do profes, but only their Profession of it. So that whatsoever Religion I settle upon, my natural Conficience still commands me to stick close to this Book of the Jewiss Law, and to receive and entersain it, as the Word of the glorious Jehovah; the Being of all Beings.

WELL, there is but one Religion more generally profes'd in the World, that I am to fearch into; which if, upon good Grounds, I cannot fix upon, I shall be the most miserable of all Creatures; and shat is, the Christian Religion, fo nam'd from JESUS CHRIST, whose Doctrine, Life, and Death, is recorded by four feveral Perfons, in a Book which they call the Go (pel. And this Book appears to me to be of undoubled Authority, as to the Truth and Certainty of those things that are therein recorded. For, if they had been falle, both the Perfons that wrote them, and He of whom they wrote, had fo many malicious Enemies ready, upon all occasions to accuse them, that they had long ago been condemn'd for Lies and Forgeries. But now, these Writings having been extant for above 1600 Years, and never fo much as [u/petied, but even, by the work of Enemies, acknowledg'd to be a true Relation of what pass'd in the World about that time; my Reafon will not permit me to be their first Accuser, but enjoins me to receive them, under that Notion, in which they have been brought down to me through fo many Generations, without any Interruption whatfoever. For this general Reception on all hands. is a sufficient Ground for me to build my Faith upon, as to the Truth of the Relation, tho' not a sufficient Ground to believe every thing contain'd in the Book. to be the Word of GOD Himfelf: For. in this Particular, it is not the Testimony of others that I am to build upon, but its own : I may read its Verity in Man's Teftimony, but its Divinity only in its own Doctrines.

THIS

THIS Book, therefore, I have also diligently perus'd, and find it expressly afferts, that Jesus "CHRIST, whole Life and Death it records, was indeed that Perfon, who was long promis'd by GOD, and expected by the fews: And, that all the Prophecies under the Old Law, concerning that Meffah, God-Man, were actually fulfill'd in this Perfon; which, if, upon diligent Search, I can find to be true, I shall presently subscribe, both with Hand and Heart, to this Religion. It is a Comfort to me, that it acknowledgeth the Jewish Law to be fent from GOD; for, truly, if it did not, my Confcience wou'd fcarce permit me to give any Credit to it; being so fully convinc'd, that that Book is indeed of a higher Extract than bumane Invention, and of greater Authority than humane Inflitution. And therefore it is, that I cannot, I dare not believe, but that every particular Prophecy contain'd in it, either is, or shall be, certainly fulfill'd, according to every Circumstance of Time and Place mention'd therein ; and, by confequence, that this Prophecy, in particular, concerning the Meffiah's Coming, is already past; the Time wherein it was foretold he should come, being so long ago expirid. So that I do not now doubt, whether the Meffials be come or no, but whether this JESUS CHRIST, whom this Book of the Gofpel speaks of, was indeed the Perfor. And this I shall best find out by comparing the Christian's Gospel with the Jewish Law; or the · Histories of CHRIST under the One, with the Prophecies of the Meffiah under the Other; ftill concluding, that if whatfoever was foretold concerning the Meffiah, was fulfill'd in this JESUS CHRIST, then He was indeed the Meffiab that was to come into the -World. And, to make this Comparison the more exact, Ishall run through the feveral Circumstances that attended his Birth, Life, Death, Refurrection, and Afcention, and they how punctually the Brophecies were fulfill'd in every Particular.

AND first, for the Birth of the Messaw, the Law faith, He was to be bern of the Seed of Abraham, Gen xxii. 18. and David, 2 Sam, vii. 12. and of the stem of Jesse. Is a xi. 1. From whence He is frequently call'd, by the Jews, TIT The Som of David. The Gospel faith JESUS CHRIST was the Som of David, the Son of Abraham, Mat. i. 2. The Law, that He was to be born of a Virgin, lfa. vii. 14. The Gospel, that Mary, a Virgin, brought forth this JEsus, Mat. i. 18. Luke i. 17, 31, 35. chap. ii. 5, 6, 7. The Law, that He was to be born at Betblehem Ephrata, Mic. v. 2. The Gospel, that this JESUS was born there, Mat. ii. 1. Luke iv. 5, 6.

THE Law lays, that He was to be brought out of Egypt, Hof. xi. I. The Gofpel, that JESUS was called thence, Mats, ii. 19, 20. The Law faith, that one fhould go before the Melfiah, Mal. iii. 5. and should ary in the Wildernefs, Ifa. xl. iii. The Gofpel, that John Baptift did fo before CHRIST, Matt. iii. 1, 3. Mark 1.2, 3. And the Gospel, that JESUS CHRIST, as he was going to Jerufalem, having found an A/s, fate thereon, Joh. xii. 14. Matt. xxi. 6. At which time, the Law faith, the People should cry, Hosannah, blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord, Pfal. cxviii. 26. The Gofpel, that the Multitude did fo to CHRIST, Mait. xxi. 9. The Law, that one of his own familiar Friends, in whom He trusted, which did eat of His Bread, should lift up his Heel against Him, Pfal. xli 9. The Gostel, that Judas, who was one of CHEIST's Disciples, and fo eat of His Bread, did betray Him into the Hands of the Jews, Matt. xxvi. 47. Luke xxii. 46. The Law, that he should be prized at, and fold for, thirty Pieces of Silver, with which should be bought the Potters Field, Zech. xi. 12, 13. The Law faith, they should pierce his Hands and Feet, Pfal. xxii. 16. Zech. xii. 10. The Gofpel, that they crucified JESUS, Matt. XXVII. 35. Luke XXIII. which was a Death, wherein they used to pience the Hands and Feet of those that were put to Death, and nail'd them to the Crofs. But though they should pierce his Flefh, yet the Law faith, they should not break his Bones, no not one of them. Exod xil. 46. Num. xi. 12. Pfal. xxxiv. 20. The Goffel; that they brake not the Legs of Cunist, John Xin. 33, 36. The Law, that they who should fee Him, Snowld laugh him to (corn, foot out their Lips, and foake their Heads, faying, He scuffed in the Lord that he would deliver liver Him, let Him deliver Him, feeing he delighted in Him, Pfal. xxii. 8. The Gospel, that the Scribes and Elders did fo to CHRIST, Mat. xxvii. 42, 43. The Law faith, they should give Him Gall for Meat, and Vinegar to Drink, Pfal. lxix. 21. And the Gospel, that they gave CHRIST Vinegar to drink, mingled with Gall, Matt. xxvii. 34, 48. The Law, that they should part his Garments amongs them, and cass Loss upon his Vesture, Pfal. xxii. 19. The Gospel, that they parted JESUS'S Garments, cassing Lots, Matt. xxvii. 34. John xix. 23. Mark xv. 24.

AND as for the Time of this JESUS'S coming into the World, it is certain, that this JESUS came before the fecond Temple was demolish'd; for it is faid, that He went into it, Matt. xix. 45. yea, Himfelf taught daily in it, $ . 47, by which means the Glory of the Second Temple was greater than the Glory of the First, according to the Prophecy, Hag. ii. 9. And as for Jacob's Prophecy, that the Scepter should not depart from Judah, nor the Law-giver, till Shiloh, or the Meffiah, come, Gen. xlix. 10. it is certain, that it did not depart from Judah, till Herod, by the Senate of Rome, was made King of Judaa, in whole Days this Jesus was born, Mat. ii. I. Luke i. 5. And fo did Daniel's 70 Weeks, or 490 Years exactly reach unto, and were determin'd in, the Days of this Jesus, as might eafily be demonstrated. So that all the Old Prophecies, concerning the Time of the Meffiah's Coming, are perfectly fulfill'd in this lesus of Nazareth.

BUT farther, the Law faith, that the' the Meffiah fhould be crucified, yet GOD would not leave His Soul in Hell, nor fuffer his Holy One to fee Corrupsion; Pfal. xvi. 10. and that, when God fhould make His Soul an Offering fon Sin, He fhould fee His Seed, and prolong his Days, Ifa: liii. 10. which plainly implies; that the' the Meffiah fhould die, yet he fhould rife again, and that within few Days too, otherwife He would have feen Corruption. Now the Goffel faith, that this JESUS rofe from the Dead, Matt. xxviii.

xxviii. 6. Luke xxiv. 6 and that He was feen of several after bis Resurrettion, as of Mary Magdalen, Matt. xxviii. 0. of the eleven Disciples, y. 16, 17, 18. Mark xvi. 14. of the two that were going to Emmaus, Luke xxiv. 13, 14, 15. of Peter, y. 34. and of the Disciples that were gather'd together, the Door being that, John xx. 10. And, to be fure it was Himself and not an Apparition. Thomas. one of the Twelve, thrust his Hands into his Side, and found it Flesh and Blood indeed, as before, John XX. 27. And he eat before them, Luke xxiv, 43, which it is impossible for a Spirit to do; yea, He was feen of above five hundred at one time, I Cor. xv. 6. and of Paul him/elf, y. 8. Neither did He lie fo long as to see Corruption, for He was buried but the Day before the Sabbath, Mark xy. 42. and role the Day after. chap. xvi. I.

LASTLY, He was not only to rife again, but the Law faith, He was to afcend on high, to lead Captivity captive, and to give Gifts to Men. Pfal. luviji, 18. Now this cannot but be an undoubted character of the Meffiah, not only to rife from the Dead, but to alcend up to Heaven, and thence to difperfe His Gifts amongst the Children of Men; and that JESUS did. fo. is likewife evident from the Go(pel; for, after He had spoken with them, He was received up into Heaven; and there fate at the Right Hand of God, Mark xvi. 19. Luke xxiv. 51. And he gave fuch Gifts to Men, as that his Disciples of a sudden, were enabled to speak all manner of Languages, Acts ii. 8. to work many Signs and Wonders, chap v. 12. tolbeal all manner of Diseases, y. 15, 16. yea, with a Word speaking, to cure a Man lame from his Mother's Womb. chap. iii. 6. 7.

THUS the Gofpel feems, to me, to be a perfect Transcript of the Law, and the Histories of JESUS Bothing else but the Prophecies of CHRIST turn'd into a History. And, when to this I join the confideration of the Piety of the Life which This Man led, the Purity of the Dostrine which He taught, and the the Miraculou (nels of the Works He wrought, I cannos hat be farther confirmed in the Truth of what is here related. For the Miracles which He wrought, as the Healing of the Sick with a Word of his Mouth, Railing the Dead, Feeding fo many, Thousands with Five Loaves, and the like, were powerful and convincing, that his very Enemies, that would not believe Him to be the Melliah, could fcarce deny Him to be a GOD, Jefeph. Antiq. l. xviii. c. 4. And it is, to this Day, a Tenet amongst fome of them, that the Mirades which Jesus did, were not the Delusions and Jugglements of the Devil, but real Miracles, wrought, as they fay, by the Virtue of the Name of GOD The Jehovah, which He had gotten out of the Temple. By which 'tis plain, they acknowledg'd GOD to be the Ausbor of them, which I cannot fee how He should be, unless they were agreeable to His Will, and for the Glory of His Name.

- NEITHER was the Doctrine of the Golvel onlyeftablifb'd at the first, but likewife propagated by Miracles afterwards, as it was necessary it should be. For, if it had been propagated without Miracles, that itself had been the greatest Miracle of all. It was, no doubt, a great Miracle, that a Doctrine fo much contrary to Flesh and Blood, should be propagated by any means whatfoever; but a far greater, that it shou'd be propagated by a Company of simple and illiterate Men, who had neither Power to force, nor Eloquence to persuade Men to the Embracing of it. For. Who wou'd have thought that fuck Perfons as these were, should ever make any of the Jews, who expected a King for their Meffiah, to advance them to Temporal Dignities, believe, that that lesus, whom themselves (courg'd and crucify'd at Jerufalem; was the Perfon? Or, that they should be able to propagate the Gofpel amongst the Gentiles also, who neither believ'd in the true GOD, not expetted any thing of a Meffiah to come and redeem them ? But this they did; and brought over, not only many Perfons, but whole Nations and Countries to the profeffion feffion of the Golpel; propagating this most Holy Destrine amongst the most barbarous and fonful People in the World, maugre all the Opposition that the World, the Flesh, and the Devil, could make against it. Now, can any Man, that exerciseth his Reafon, think they did all this purely by their own Strength? No fure, none of these wonderful effects cou'd ever have been producid by any thing lefs than the Wildom, and Power, and Faithfulneis of their Lord and Mafter, whole Service they were engag'd in, and who promis'd to be with them to the End of the World, Matti xxviii. 20. Questionless, it was nothing elfe but the Spirit of the most High GOD, that went along with them, and accompany'd the Word they preach'd; otherwife, it never could have made fuch deep Impreffion upon the Hearts of them that heard it, as not only to command their Attention, but to hinder them from refifting, when they frove and endeavour'd to do it. the Power and Authority by which the Difciples. fpake.

AND now, methinks, I begin to perceive this Divine Spirit is come upon me too, and feems, by its powerful influence, to be working up my Heart into a thorow perfusion, that it is CHRIST, and CHRIST alone, I am to caft my Soul upon : that it is He alone, that is the Way to Life, and His Word alone, the Word of Life, which whofoever believes, and is baptiz'd into, shall be fav'd, and be that believeth not, shall be damn'd. Away, then, with your Paganish Idolatries, your Mahometan Superstitions, and Jewish Ceremonies; it is the Christian Religion alone, that I am refolv'd to live and die in, because 'tis this alone, in which I am taught to worskip. GOD aright, to obtain the Pardon and Remission of my Sins, and to be made eternally bappy. And. fince all its Doctrines and Precepts are contain'd in the Holy Scriptures, it is neceffary that I flould affent unto them, as a standing Revelation of GOD's Will, and an eternal Treasure of Divine Knowledge :

Knowledge; whereby all that fincerely believe in CHRIST, may be fufficiently inflructed, as well as thorowly furnish'd, unto every good Word and Work.

WITHOUT any more ado, therefore, I believe. and am verily perfuaded, that all the Books of the, ancient Law, with all those that have been received into the Canon of the Scripture by the Ghurch of GOD, fince the Coming of CHRIST, which we call the New Testament; I fay, that all these Books. from the Beginning of Genesis, to the End of the Revelations, are indeed the Word of the Eternal GOD, dictated by His Own Spirit, unto fuch as Himfelf was pleafed to employ in the Writing of them; and that they contain in them a perfect and complete Rule of Faith and Manners; upon the due Observance of which, I cannot fail of worshipping and ferving GOD, in fuch a manner, as will be acceptable to Him here, and of enjoying hereafter those exceeding great and precious Promises, that he has referv'd in Heaven, for fuch as do fo.

UNTO these Books, therefore, of the Law and Gospel, I am resolv'd by his Grace that wrote them, to conform all the enfuing Articles of my Faith, and all the Astions and Resolutions of my Life. Infomuch that whatsoever I find it hath pleas'd his Saered Majesty herein to affert, I believe it is My Duty to believe; and whatsoever He hath been pleas'd to command me, I believe it is My Duty to perform.

ARTICLE III.

I believe; that as there is One GOD, fo this One GOD is Three Persons, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

T HIS, I confeis, is a Mystery which I cannot poffibly conceive, yet 'tis a Truth which I can cally believe; yea, therefore it is fo true, that I can cally eafily believe it, because it is so high, that I cannot possibly conceive it; for it is impossible, any thing should be true of the Infinite Creator, which can be fully express'd to the Capacities of a Finite Creasure : And, for this Reason, I ever did, and ever shall, look upon these Apprehensions of GOD to be the trueft, whereby we apprehend Him to be the most incomprehensible; and that to be the most true of GOD, which feems most impossible unto Us.

UPON this Ground, therefore, it is, that the Mysteries of the Gospel, which I am less able to conceive, I think myself the more obliged to believe; especially, this Mystery of Mysteries, the Trinity in Unity, and Unity in Trinity, which I am fo far from being able to comprehend, or indeed to apprehend, that I cannot fet myfelf feriously to think of it, or to fcrew up my Thoughts a little concerning it, but I immediately lose myself, as in a Trance, or Ec-Raly: That GOD the Father should be one perfect-GOD of Himself, GOD the son one perfect GOD of Himself, and GOD the Holy Ghoft one perfect GOD of Himfelf; and yet these Three should be but One perfect GOD of Himfelf; fo that one should be perfectly Three, and Three perfectly one, that the Father, Son, and Holy Ghoft should be Three, and yet but One; but One, and yet Three! O Heartamazing, Thought-devouring, unconceivable Myftery ! Who cannot believe it to be true of the glorious Deity? Certainly, none but fuch as are able to apprehend it, which, I am fure, I cannot, and believe, no other Creature can. And, because no Creature can possibly conceive how it should be for I therefore believe it really to be fo, viz. That the Being of all Beings is but One in Effence, yet Three in Subfiltence; but One Nature, yet Three Perfons; and that these Three Perfons in that One Nature, the' abfolutely diffinet from one another, are yet but the fame GQD. And I believe, thefe Three Perfors in this One Nature, are indeed to GRC one another as they are express'd to be to us: that the One is really a Father to the Other, that the Other is really a Son to Him, and the Third the Product of Both; and yet, that there is neither First, Second nor Third, amongst them, either in Time, or Nature. So that He that begat was not at all before Him that was begotten, nor He that proceeded from them Both, any whit after either of them. And therefore, that GOD is not term'd Father, Son, and Holy Ghoft, as if the Divine Nature of the One should beget the Divine Nature of the Second : or the Divine Nature of the First and Second should iffue forth the Divine Nature of the Third; (for then there would be three Divine Natures, and fo three Gods effentially diffinet from one another; by this means alfo, only the Father would be truly GOD, becaufe He only would be effentially of and from Himfelf, and the other Two from Him:) But what I think myfelf oblig'd to believe, is, that it was not the Divine Nature, but the Divine Person of the Father, which did, from Eternity, beget the Divine Perfon of the Son; and from the Divine Persons of the Father and of the Son, did, from Eternity, proceed the Divine Perfon of the Holy Ghost; and fo One not being before the Other, in Time or Nature, as they are from Eternity Three perfectly-diftinct Perfons, fo they are but one co-effential GOD. But dive not, O my Soul, too deep into this bottomlefs Ocean, this Abyis of Mysteries ! 'Tis the Holy of Holies, prefume not to enter into it; but let this fuffice thee, that He, who best knows Himself, hath avouch'd it of Himfelf, and therefore thou ought'st to believe See Matt. xxviii. 19. Go ye, therefore, and teach it. all Nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghoft. And again, I John V. 7. There are Three that bear Record in Heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Gbost, and these Three are One.

ARTICLE IV.

I believe, that I was conceived in Sin, and brought forth in Iniquity; and that, ever fince, I have been continually conceiving Mischief, and bringing forth Vanity.

HIS Article of my Faith I must of necession believe, whether I will or no; for if I could not believe it to be true, I should therefore have the more Cause to believe it to be so; because unlefs my Heart was naturally very finful and corrupt. it would be impossible for me not to believe that which I have fo much Caufe continually to bewail; or, if I do not bewail it, I have still the more Caufe to believe it ; and, therefore, am fo much the more perfuaded of it, by how much the le/s I find myself affected with it. For, certainly, I must be a hard-hearted Wretch indeed, steep'd in Sin, and fraught with Corruption to the higheft, if I know myfelf fo oft to have incenfed the Wrath of the moft High GOD against me, as I do, and yet not be. fenfible of my natural Corruption, nor acknowledge. myself to be, by Nature, a Child of Wrath, as well as others. For, I verily believe, that the Want of fuch a due Senfe of myfelf argues as much Original Corruption, as Murder and Whoredom do actual Pollution. And, I shall ever suspect those to be the most under the Power of that Corruption, that labour most, by Arguments, to divest it of its Power.

AND, therefore, for my own part, I am refolved, by the Grace of GOD, never to go about to confute That by wilful Arguments, which I find fo true by woful Experience. If there be not a bitter Root in my Heart, whence proceeds to much bitter Fruit in my Life and Converfation? Alas! I can neither fet my Head nor Heart about any thing, but I fill fhew myfelf to be the finful Offspring of  $C_2$  inful finful Parents, by being the finful Parent of a finful Offspring. Nay, I do not only betray the inbred Venom of my Heart, by poifoning my common Actions, but even my most Religious Performances alfo, with Sin. I cannot pray, but I fin; I cannot hear, or preach a Sermon, but I fin; I cannot give an Alms, or receive the Sacrament, but I fin; Nav, I cannot fo much as confess my Sins, but my very Confessions are still Aggravations of them; my Repentance needs to be repented of, my Tears want Washing, and the very Washing of my Tears need still to be wash'd over again with the Blood of my Redeemer. Thus, not only the worft of my Sins, but even the best of my Duties, speak me a Child of Adam : Infomuch that whenfoever I reflect upon my paft Actions, methinks I cannot but look upon my whole Life, from the time of my Conception to this very Moment, to be but as one continued Act of Sin.

AND whence can fuch a continued Stream of Corruption flow, but from the corrupt Ciftern of my Heart? And whence can that corrupt Ciftern of my Heart be fill'd, but from the corrupt Fountain of my Nature? Ceafe therefore, O my Soul, to gainfay the Power of Original Sin within thee, and labour now to fubdue it under thee. But, why do I fpeak of my fubduing this Sin Myfelf? Surely, this would be both an Argument of it, and an Addition to it. 'Tis to Thee, O my GGD, who art both the Searcher and cleanfer of Hearts, that I defire to make my Moan? 'Tis to Thee I cry out in the Bitternefs of my Soul, O wretched Man that I am, who shall deliver me from the Body of this Death? Who Shall? Oh ! Who can do it, but Thy felf ? Arife Thou, sherefore, O my GOD, and shew Thy felf as infinitely Merciful in the Pardoning, as thou art infinitely Poworful in the Purging away my Sins.

ARTICLE V.

I believe, the Son of GOD became the Son of Man, that I the Son of Man, might become the Son of GOD.

O H! How comfortably does this raife me from the lowest Abasement of Sin and Misery, which I have before acknowledg'd to be my Natural State, to the highest Exaltation of Happiness and Glory, in a Spiritual one ! This is that great Article of Faith, by which all the Benefits of our Saviour's Death and Paffion are made over to me in the New Covenant, and by which, if I perform the Conditions therein requir'd, I shall not only be retriev'd from the Bondage and Corruption that is inherent in me, as a Child of Wrath, but be juftify'd and accepted as the Son of GOD, and be made a Joint-Heir with CHRIST. This is a Point of the greatest Moment and Concern, which, by the Grace and Affiftance of Him of whom I speak, and in whom I thus believe, I shall, therefore, be the more exact and particular in the fearching and examining into.

Now, when I fay, and believe, that GOD became Man, I do not fo understand it, as if the Divine Nature took upon it a Humane Person, but that a Divine Perfon took upon Him the Humane Nature, i. e. it was not the Divine Nature, in general, without respect to the Persons, but one of the Perfons in the Divine Nature, which took Flefh upon Him. And yet, to speak precisely, it was not the Divine Perfon abstracted or diffinct from the Divine Nature, but it was the Divine Nature in that Perfon which thus took upon it the Humane. And this was not the First or Third, but the Second Person only in the Sacred Trinity, that thus affum'd our Nature ; as confidering the mysterious Order and C<sub>3</sub> OEconomy OEconomy of the Divine Perfons, it feems to be necessary that it should.

FOR, first, the Father could not have become this son of Man, becaufe, then, He that had begotten from Eternity, fhould have been begotten in Time; by which means, as He was the Father to the Son, fo would the Son alfo have been the Father unto Him; and fo the Order betwixt the Father and the Son deftroy'd.

NOR, fecondly, cou'd the Holy Ghoff have taken our Nature upon Him, becaufe the Bond of Perfanal Union betwixt the Divine and Humane Nature, is from the Spirie, (and thence it is, that every one that is Partaker of CHRIST'S Perfon, is Partaker of His Spirie alfo) which cou'd not be, if the Spirie itfelf had been the Perfon affuming. For, I cannot conceive, how the fame Perfon could unite itfelf, by itfelf, to the affum'd Nature: And therefore we sead, that in the Virgin's Conception of our Saviour, it was neither the Father, nor the Son Himfelf, but the Spirie of the most High, which did overfhadew her, Luke i. 35.

AND, farther, if the Holy Ghoff had been my Redcemer, who should have been my Sanstifier ? If He had died perfonally for me, who should have applied His Death effectually to me? That I cou'd not do it My/elf, is beyond Contradiction, evident : and that either the Father, or the Son, shou'd do it. is not agreeable to the Nature or Order of the Divine Operations; they, as I believe, never acting any thing ad extra, perfonally, but by the Spirit proceeding from them both. And therefore it is, that CHRIST, to comfort His Disciples after His Death, promifeth them in His Life-time, that He would fend them the Comforter, John xvi. 7. which is the Spirit of Truth, y. 13. He doth not fay, He will come again perfonally, but my fically to them, by His Spirit.

Bur now, that the spirit, whole Office it is to apply the Merit and Mediation of God-Man to me, could could not have done it, if Him/elf had been that God-Man. feems to me as clear and manifest as the other: For, if He had done it, He should either have done it by the Father, by the Son, or by Himself. He could not do it by the Father, nor the Son, because He does nothing by Them, but all things from Them. The Father acts in the Son by the Spirit, the Son from the Father by the Spirit, the Spirit from the Father and the Son. And therefore it likewise follows, that as the Spirit could not unite Itself before, so neither can It apply Itself here, to the Humans Nature; for, to assume the Humane Nature into the Divine, and to apply the Divine Nature to the Humane, are two distinct Offices, and, therefore, to be perform'd by two diffinet Perfons. The first could have been done only by one that was really Man, as well as GOD; the other, only by one that was merely GOD, and not Man.

AND that must needs be fo; for, otherwife, GOD fhould act upon Man by Man, by the Perfon Man, as well as GOD; and, by Confequence, all the Difpenfations, of his Grace, towards us, would have been ftopp'd in the Frailty of the humane, though perfect Nature. So that it would have avail'd me nothing, if the Spirit had taken my Nature upon Him; becaufe, tho' he had affumed the Humane, I could not thence have participated of the Divine Nature; Nay, therefore I could not have participated of This, becaufe He had affumed That, by which alone I could be brought into this Capacity; and fo by this means, I fhould be farther off than I was before.

A N D, laftly, as, if the Father had become Man, there would have been two Fathers; fo, if the Spirit had become Man, there would have been two Sons, the Second Perfon begotten from Eternity, and the Third Perfon begotten in Time. But now, by the Son's taking our Nature upon Him, thefe and far greater Difficulties are avoided, which we might eafily perceive, could we fufficiently dive into the C 4 Depth Depth of that Wisdom of the Father, in /fending His Son, rather than His Spiris, or coming Him/olf in His own Person. Howsoever, to us it cannot but seem most equitable, (if Reason may hold the Balance) that He, who is the middle Person, betwist the Father and the Spirit, should become the Mediator betwist GOD and Man; and that He, who is the Son of GOD in the glorious Trinity, should become the Son of Man in this gracious Mystery.

B w T, on the other fide, as it was not the Divine Nature, but a Divine Person that did affume, so neither was it a Humane Person, but the Humane Nature, that was affumed; for otherwise, if He had affumed the Person of any one Man in the World, His Death had been beneficial to none but him, whose Person He thus affum'd and represented. Whereas, now that He has affum'd the Nature, are capable of partaking of the Benefits He purchas'd for us, by dying in our flead. And thus, under each Adam, as the Representation was universal, so were the Effects defign'd to be: For as in Adam all died, even so in CHRIST shall all be made alive, I Cor. XV. 22.

AGAIN, When I fay, the Son of GOD became the Son of Man, I do not mean, as if, by this, He should cease to be, what He was before, the Son of GOD, for He did not leave his Godhead to take upon him the Manhood; but I believe He took the Manhood into his Godhead: He did not put off the one to put on the other, but He put one upon the other: Neither do I believe, that the Humane Nature, when affum'd into the Divine, ceafed to be Humane; but as the Divine Person, so affum'd the Humane Nature as still to remain a Divine Person. to the Humane Nature was fo affumed into a Divine Perfon, as still to remain a Humane Nature : GOD, therefore, fo became Man, as to be both perfectly GOD, and perfectly Man, united together in one Perfon.

I fay,

I fay, in one Perfon ; for if He should be GOD and Man in distinct Persons, this would avail me no more, than if He should be GOD only, and not Man, or Man only, and not GOD; because the Merit and Value both of His active and paffive Obedience is grounded merely upon the Union of the two Natures in one and the fame Person. He. therefore, by His Life and Death, merited fo much for us, because the same Person that so lived and died, was GOD, as well as Man; and every Action that He did, and every Passion that He suffer d, was done and fuffer'd by Him that was GOD, as well as Man. And hence it is, that CHRIST, of all the Persons in the World, is fo fit, yea, only fit, to be my Redeemer, Mediator, and Surety; because He alone, is both GOD and Man in one Person. If He was not Man, He could not undertake that Office : if He was not GOD, he could not perform it: If He was not Man, He could not be capable of being bound for me; if He was not GOD. He would not be able to pay my Debt. It was Man by whom the Covenant was broken; and therefore, Man must have suitable Punishment laid upon him : It was GOD with whom it was broken; and, therefore, GOD must have sufficient Satisfaction made unto Him : And, as for that Satisfaction, it was Man that had offended, and, therefore, Man alone could make it fuitable; it was GOD that was offended, and therefore, GOD alone could make it fufficient.

THE Sum of all is this: Man can fuffer, but he cannot fatisfy; GOD can fatisfy, but He cannot suffer ; but CHRIST being both GOD and Man. can both suffer and satisfy too; and fo, is perfectly fis both to (uffer for Man, and to make Satisfaction unto GOD, to reconcile GOD to Man, and Man to GOD. And thus, CHRIST having affum'd my Nature into His Perfon, and fo fatisfy'd Divine Justice for my Sins, I am receiv'd into Grace and Favour again with the most High GOD. C 5

UPON this Principle, I believe, that I, by Nature the Son of Man, am made, by Grace, the Son of GOD, as really as CHRIST, by Nature the Son of GOD, was made, by Office, the Son of Man: And so, tho' in myself, I may say to Corruption, show ors my Mosher, yet in CHRIST, I may fay to GOD. Abba Father. Neither do I believe this to be a metaphorical Expression, viz. because He doth that for me, which a Father doth for his Child. even provide for me whilst young, and give me my Portion, when come to Age; but I believe, that, in the fame Propriety of Speech, that my Earthly Father was call'd the Father of my Natural Self, is GOD the Father of my Spiritual Self: For, why was my Earthly Father call'd my Father, but becaufe that I, as to my Natural Being, was born of what proceeded from him, viz. his Seed? Why fo, as to my Spiritual Being, am I born of what proceeds from GOD, His Spirit : And as I was not born of the very Substance of my Natural Parents, but only of what came from them; fo neither is my Spiritual Self begotten again, quickned, and conflituted of the very Substance of my Heavenly. Pather, GOD, but of the Spirit, and Spiritual Influences, proceeding from Him. Thus, therefore, it is, that I believe, that CHRIST the Son of GOD. became the Son of Man; and thus it is, that I believe myfelf, the Son of Man to be made, thereby, the Son of GOD. I believe, O my GOD and Father, do Thou help mine Unbelief ! and, every Day more and more increase my Faith, till itself shall be done away, and turn'd into the most perfect Vision and Irnition of thine own most gloniom Godhead !

ARTICLE VI.

I believe, that CHRIST liv'd to GOD, and died for Sin, that I might die to Sin, and live with GOD.

ND thus, by Faith, I follow my Saviour from A the Womb to the Tomb, from His Incarnation to His Death and Paffion, believing all that He did or fuffer'd, to be for my Sake; for CHRIST did not only take my Nature upon Him, but He fuffer'd and obey'd; He underwent Mileries, and undertook Duties, for me; fo that not only His paffive, but likewise His active Obedience unto GOD, in that Nature, was still for Me. Not as if I believ'd, His Duty, as Man, was not GOD's Debt, by the Law of Creation; Yes, I believe, that He ow'd that Obedience unto GOD, that if he had committed but one Sin, and that of the lightes Tincture. in all his Life-time, He would have been fo far from being able to fatisfy for my Sins, that he could not have fatisfy'd for His Own; For fuch an High-Priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, feparate from Sinners, and made higher than the Heavens; Who needeth not daily, as those High-Priests to offer up Sacrifice, first for his own Sins, and then for the Peoples, Heb. vii. 26, 27. So that if He had not had these Qualifications in their absolute Perfection. He could not have been our High-Prieft, nor, by confequence, have made Atonement for, nor expiated any Sins whatfoever. But now, tho' both as Man, and as God-Man or Mediator too, it behov'd Him to be thus faithful and spotles; yet, as being GOD coequal and coeffential with the Father, it was not out of Duty, but merely upon our Account that He thus subjected His Neck to the Yoke of His own Law; Himfelf, as GOD, being the Legislator or Law-giver, and fo no more under it, than the Father Himfelf.

AND hereupon it is, that I verily believe, that whatfoever CHRIST either did or fuffer'd in the Fleth, was meritorious; not that His Life was righteous towards GOD, only that His Death might be meritorious for us, (which, I believe otherwife it could not have been) but that His Life was equally meritorious, as righteous. So that, I believe, My Perfon is as really accepted, as perfectly righteous, by the Righteousness of His Life imputed to Me, as my Sins are pardon'd by GOD, for the Bitterness of the Death he suffer'd for them ; His Righteoufness being as really by Faith, imputed to Me, as my Sins were laid upon Him : As those are fet upon His, fo is that fet upon my Score; and fo every thing He did in His Life, as well as every thing he fuffer'd in His Death, is mine; by the latzer, GOD looks upon me as perfectly innocent, and therefore, not to be thrown down to Hell; by the former, He looks upon me as perfectly righteens, and, therefore, to be brought up to Heaven.

AND, as for His Death, I believe, it was not only as much, but infinitely more, fatisfactory to Divine Juffice, than the' I should have died to Eternity. For, by that means, Justice is actually and perfectly fatisfy'd already, which it could never have been, by my fuffering for my Sins Myfelf; for, if Justice by that means cou'd ever be fatisfy'd, if it could ever fay, It is enough, it could not fland with the fame Justice, now fatisfy'd, still to inflict Punishment, nor, by consequence, could the Damned juffly fcorch in the flames of GOD's Wrath, for ever. Neither did the Death of my Saviour reach only to the condemning, but likewife to the commanding Power of Sin ; it did not only pluck out its Sting, but likewise deprive it of its strength; fo that He did not only merit by His Death, that I thould never die for Sin, but likewife, that I should die to it. Neither did He only merit by His Life, that I fould be accounted righteous in Him before GOD; but likewife that I should be .

made righteous in Myfelf by GOD. Yea, I believe that CHRIST, by His Death, hath fo fully discharg'd the Debt I owe to GOD, that now, for the Remiffion of my Sins and the Accepting of my Perfon, (if I perform the Conditions He requires in His Covenant) I may not only appeal to the Throne of Grace, but likewife to the Judgment-Seat of GOD; I may not only cry Mercy, Mercy, O gracious Father, but Justice, Justice, my righteous GOD; I may not only fay, Lord, be gracious and merciful, but be just and faithful, to acquit me from that Debt, and cancel that Bond which my Surety hath paid for me, and which Thou haft promis'd to accept of; being not only gracious and merciful, but just and faithful, to forgive me my Sins, and to cleanse me from all Unrighteousness. I John i. Q.

ARTICLE VII.

I believe, that CHRIST role from the Grave, that I might rife from Sin; and that He is afcended into Heaven, that I may come unto Him.

S CHRIST came from Heaven to Earth, fo, I A believe, He went from Earth to Heaven, and all for the Accomplishment of my Salvation; that, after He had liv'd a most holy Life, He died a most cruel Death; that He was apprehended, arraign'd, accus'd, and condemn'd, by fuch as could not pronounce the Sentence against Him, did not himself, at the fame time, vouchsafe them Breath to do it : and that He that came into the World to take away the Sins of it, to bring Sinners to the Joys of Life, was Himfelf by those very Sinners brought into the Pangs of Death. But yet, as it was not in the Power of Death, long to detain the Lord of $ Life; fo. tho' Worms had Power to fend him to the Grave, yet I believe they had not Power or Time

Kź.

Time to feed upon Him there; for He rofe agains from the Dead the third Day : He lay three Days, that I might believe. He was not alive, but dead : He role the third Day, that I might believe, He is not dead but lives : He descended down to Hell. that He might make full Satisfaction to GOD's Juftice for my Sins; but He is now afcended up into Heaven, that he may make Interceffion to GOD's Mercy for my Soul: Thither I believe He is gone, and there I believe He is, not as a private Perfon. but as the Head and Saviour of His Church. And. under this Capacity, as I believe that CHRIST, is there for Me. fo I am there in Him: For where the Head is, there must the Members be also; that is, I am as really there in Him, my Reprefentative now, as I shall be in my own proper Person hereafter; and He is as really preparing my Manfion for me there, as I am preparing myself for that Mansion here. Nay, I believe, that He is not only preparing a Mansion for me in Heaven, but that Himfelf is likewife preparing me for this Mansion upon Earth, continually fending down and iffuing forth. from Himfelf fresh Supplies and Influences of His. Grace and Spirit; and all to qualify me for His Service, and make me meet to be Partaker of His Inheritance with the Saints in Light.

WHICH Inheritance, I believe, He doth not fo much defire His Father to beftow upon me, as elaimm it for me; Himfelf having purchas'd it with the Price of His own Blood. And as He hath purchas'd the Inheritance itfelf, fo likewife the Way unto it for me; and, therefore, fues out for the Pardon of thofe Sins, and fubduing thofe Corruptions, which wou'd make me unworthy of it; and for the Conveyance of thofe Graces to me, whereby I may walk directly to it; Not only faying to His Father, concerning me, as Paul faid to Philemon concerning Onefimus, If this thy Servant oweth thee any thing, fet it upon my Account, I will repay it; but what this thy Servant oweth thee, fee, 'tis fet upon My Score already, and I have paid it; what Punishments he is indebted to Thee, for all the Offences he hath committed against Thee, behold, I have born them already; fee, how I have been wounded for his Tran (greffions, and bruised for his Iniquisies; the Chaftifement of his Peace was upon me : with My Stripes, therefore, let him be healed, Ifa. liji. And thus, as He once fhed His Blood for me 5. amongst Men, He now pleads it for me before GOD : and that not only for the Washing out the Guilt of my Transgreffions, but likewife for the Washing away the Filth of my Corruptions; Himfelf having, purchased the Donation of the Spirit from the Father, He there claims the Communication of it unto Me.

AND that He hath thus undertaken to plead my Caufe for me, I have it under His own Hand and Seal; Himfelf, by His Spirit, affuring me, that if I Sin, 1 have an Advocate with the Father, even JEsus CHRIST the Righteons, I John ii. I. So that. I believe, he is not fo much my Solicitor at the Mercy-Seat, as my Advocate at the Judgment-Seat of GOD, there pleading my Right and Title to the Crown of Glory, and to every Step of the Way that I must go thro' the Kingdom of Grace unto it. In a Word, I believe that CHRIST, upon Promise and Engagement to pay such a Price for it in Time, did purchase this Inheritance for me from Eternity; whereupon, I was even then immediateby chosen and elected into it; and had, by this means, a Place in Heaven, before I had any Being upon Earth: And when the Time appointed, by Covenant, was come, I believe CHRIST, according to his Promise, paid the Purchase Money, even faid down his Life for me; and then forthwith went up and took Poffeffion of this my Kingdom, not for Himfelf, but for me, as my Proxy and Reprefentative : So that, whilft I am in my Infancy, under Age, I am in Poffeffion, though I have not as yet the Enjoyment of this my Inheritance; but that that is referved for me till I come at Age. And howfoever, tho' I do not enjoy the Whole as yet, my Father allows me as much of it as he fees convenient, fo much Grace and fo much Comfort as He thinks beft; which are as a Pledge of what He hath laid up for Me in His Kingdom, which is above.

ARTICLE VIII.

I believe that my Person is only justify'd by the Merit of CHRIST imputed to me; and that my Nature is only santlify'd by the Spirit of CHRIST implanted in me.

A ND thus I do not only believe CHRIST to be my Saviour, but I believe only CHRIST to be my Saviour. 'Twas He alone that trod the Wine-Press of his Father's Wrath, filled with the four and bitter Grapes of my Sins. 'Twas He that carry'd on the great Work of my Salvation, being Himfelf both the Author and the Finisher of it. I fay, It was He, and He alone; for what Perfon or Perfons in the World could do it, befides Himfelf? The Angels could not if they would, the Devils would not if they could; and as for my Fellow Creatures, I may as well fatisfy for their Sins, as they for mine; and how little able even the beft of us are to do either, i. e. to atone either for our own Tranfgreffions, or those of others, every Man's Experience will fufficiently inform him. For, how shou'd we poor Worms of the Earth, ever hope, by the Slime and Mortar (if I may fo speak) of our own Natural Abilities, to raife up a Tower, whole Top may reach Heaven? Can we expect, by the Strength of our own Hands, to take Heaven by Violence? or by the Price of our Works, to purchafe eternal Glory? 'Tis a Matter of Admiration to me, how any one, that pretends to the Use of hìs his Reason, can imagine, that he should be accepted before GOD, for what comes from Himfelf! For, how is it poffible, that I should be justified by Good Works, when I can do no Good Works at all, before I be first justify'd? My Works cannot be accepted as good, till my Perfon be fo; nor can my Person be accepted by GOD, till first engrafted into CHRIST; before which Engrafting intto the true Vine, 'tis impoffible I should bring forth good Fruit; for the Plowing of the Wicked is Sin, fays Solomon, Prov. xxi. 4. yea, the Sacrifices of the Wicked are an Abomination to the Lord, cap. xv. 8. And, if both the Civil and Spiritual Actions of the Wicked be Sin, Which, of all their Actions, shall have the Honour to juffify them before GOD? I know not how it is with others, but for my own part, I do not remember, neither do I believe, that I ever pray'd, in all my Life-time, with that Reverence, or heard with that Attention, or receiv'd the Sacrament with that Faith, or did any other Work whatfoever, with that pure Heart, and fingle Eye, as I ought to have done. Infomuch that I look upon all my Righteousness but as filthy Rags; and 'tis in the Robes only of the Righteoufnels of the Son of GOD, that I dare appear before the Majefty of Heaven. Nay, suppose I could, at length, attain to that Perfection, as to do Good Works, Works exactly conformable to the Will of GOD, yet they must have better Eyes than I, that can see how my Obedience in one kind, can satisfy for my Difobedience in another; or, how that which GOD commands from me, should merit any thing from Him.

No, I believe there is no Perfon can merit any thing from GOD, but he that can do more than is requir'd of him; which it is impossible any Creature fhould do. For, in that it is a Creature, it continually depends upon GOD, and, therefore, is bound to do every thing it can, by any means, possibly to do for him; especially, confidering, that the Creature's ture's Dependence upon GOD is fuch, that it is beholden to Him even for every Action that iffues from it; without whom, as it is impossible any thing should be, fo likewise that any thing should act, especially, what is good. So that, to fay, a Man of bimself can merit any thing from GOD, is as much as to fay, that he can merit by that which of bimself he doth mos do; or, that one Person can merit by that which another performs, which is a plain Contradiction. For in that it merits, it is necessarily imply'd, that itself acts that by which it is faid to merit, but in that it doth not depend upon itself, but upon another; in what it acts, it is as necessarily imply'd, that itself doth not do that by which it is faid to merit.

UPON this Account, I shall never be induced to believe, that any Creature, by any thing it doth or can do, can merit or deferve any thing at the Hand of GOD, till it can be proved, that a Creature can merit by that which GOD doth; or that GOD can be bound to beflow any thing upon us, for that which Himfelf alone is pleased to work in us, and by us; which in plain Terms, would be as much as to fay. That because GOD hath been pleased to do one good Turn for us, He is therefore bound to do more; and, because GOD hath enabled us to do our Duty, He should therefore be bound to give us Glory.

Tis not, therefore, in the Power of any Perfon in the World, to merit any thing from GOD, but such a one who is abfolutely coeffential with Him, and fo, depends not upon Him, either for His Existence or Actions. And, as there is no Perfon can merit any thing from GOD, unless he be effentially the fame with Him, fo likewife, unless he be perforally diffind from Him; forafmuch as, tho' a Perfon may be faid to merit for himfelf, yet he cannot be faid, without a gross Solecism, to merit any thing from himfelf. So that he that is not as perfectly another Perfon from GOD, as really the fame fame in Nature with Him, can never be faid to merit any thing at His Hands.

BUT farther, GOD the Father could not properly be faid to do it in His own Perfon, becaufe. being (according to our Conception) the Party offended. should He have undertaken this Work for me. He, in His own Person, must have undertaken to make Satisfaction to His own Person, for the Offences committed against Himself; which if He should have done, His Mercy might have been much exalted, but His Justice could not have been fatisfy'd by it. For Juffice requires, either that the Party offending should be punish'd for these Offences, or, at least, some fit Person in his stead. which the Father Himfelf cannot be faid to be, in that He was the Party offended, to whom this Satisfaction was to be made; and tis abfurd to suppofe, that the fame Perfon should be capable of making Satisfaction, both by and to Himfelf, at the fame time.

IT remains, therefore, that there were only Two Perfons in the Holy Trinity, who could poffibly be invefted with this Capacity; the son, and the spirit : As to the latter, tho' he be indeed the fame in Nature with the Father, and a difinit Perfon from Him, and fo far in a Capacity to make Satiffaction to Him; yet not being capable both of affuming the Humane Nature into the Divine, and alfo muiting and applying the Divine Nature to the Humane, (as I have thew'd before, in the fifth Article) He was not in a Capacity of making Satisfaction for Man ; none being fit to take that Office upon Him, but He that, of Himfelf, was perfectly GOD, and likewife capable of becoming perfectly Man, by uniting both Natures in the (ame Perfon: which the Holy Ghoft cou'd not do, becaufe He was the Perfon by whom, and therefore could not be the Perfon alfo in whom, this Union of the two Natures was to be perfected. And yet, it was by this Means, and this Method only, that any Perfon could have been been completely capacitated to have born the Punishment of our Sins: He that was only Man could not do it, because the Sin was committed against GOD; and He that was only GOD could not do it, because the Sin was committed by Man.

FROM all which, as I may fairly inferr, fo, I hope, I may fafely fix, my Fairb in this Article, wiz. That there was only one Perfon in the whole World, that could do this great Work for me, of juftifying my Perfon before GOD, and fo glorifying my Soul with Him; and that was the Son of GOD, the second Perfon in the glorious Trinity, begotten of the Subfance of the Father from all Eternity; whom I apprehend and believe to have brought about the great Work of my Jufification before GOD, after this or the like manner.

HE being, in and of Himfelf, perfectly coequal, coeffential, and coeternal with the Father, was, in no fort, bound to do more than the Father Himfelf did; and fo whatfoever He should do, which the Father did not, might justly be accounted as a Work of Supercrogation ; which, without any Violation of Divine Justice, might be fet upon the Account of fome other Perfons. even of fuch whom He pleas'd to do it for. And hereupon out of Mercy and Compassion to fallen Man, He covenants with His Father, that if it pleas'd His Majesty to accept it, He would take upon Him the fuffering of those Punishments which were due from Him to Man, and the Performance of those Duties which were due from Man to Him; fo that whatfoever He should thus humble Himfelf to do or fuffer, should wholly be upon the Account of Man, Himfelf not being any ways bound to do or fuffer more in Time, than He had from Eternity.

THIS Motion, the Father, out of the Riches of His Grace and Mercy, was pleas'd to confent unto: And hereupon, the Son affuming our Nature into His Deity, becomes subject and obedient both to the Moral and Ceremonial Laws of His Father; and, at last to Death itself, even the Death of the Cross. In the one, He paid an Active, in the other a Pallive Obedience: and fo did not only fulfil the Will of His Father, in obeying what He had commanded, but fatisfy'd his Juffice in fuffering the Punishment due to us for the transgressing of it. His Attive Obedience, as it was infinitely pure and perfect, did, without doubt, infinitely transcend all the Obedience of the Sons of Men. even of Adam too in his primitive State. For, the Obedience of Adam, make the best of it, was but the Obedience of a finite Creature; whereas the Obedience of CHRIST was the Obedience of one that was infinite GOD, as well as Man. By which means, the Laws of GOD had higher Obedience perform'd to them, than themselves, in their primitive Institution, requir'd; for being made only to finite Creatures, they could command no more than the Obedience of finite Creatures; whereas the Obedience of CHRIST was the Obedience of one who was the infinite Creator, as well as a finite Creature.

Now, this Obedience being more than CHRIST was bound to, and only perform'd upon the account of those whose Nature He had assumed; as we, by Faith, lay hold upon it, fo GOD, through Grace, imputes it to us, as if it had been perform'd by us in our own Perfons. And hence it is, that as, in one place. CHRIST is faid to be made Sin for us, 2 Cor. v. 21. fo, in another place, He is faid to be made our Righteousness, 1 Cor. i. 30. And in the forecited Place, 2 Cor. v. 21. as He is faid to be made Sin for un, fo we are faid to be made Righteouinels in Him : But what Righteouinels? Our own? No, The Righteou (ne/s of GOD, radically His, but imputatively Ours: And this is the only way, whereby we are faid to be made the Righteou/ne/s of GOD, even by the Righteousness of CHRIST's being made ours, by which we are accounted and reputed as Righteous before GOD.

THESE

THESE things confider'd, I very much wonder, how any Man can prefume to exclude the Affive Obedience of CHRIST from our Juftification before GOD; as if what CHRIST did in the Flefh, was only of Duty, not at all of Merit; or, as if it was for Himfelf, and not for Us. Especially, when I confider, that Suffering the Penalty is not what the Law primarily requireth; for the Law of GOD requires perfect Obedience, the Penalty being only threaten'd to (not properly requir'd of) the Breakers of it. For, let a Man fuffer the Penalty of the Law in never so high a manner, he is not therefore accounted obedient to it; his Puniforment doth not speak his Ismecence, but rather his Tranfgreffion of the Law.

HENCE it is, that I cannot look upon CHRIST, as having made full Satisfaction to GOD's luftice for Me, unless He had perform'd the Obedience I owe to GOD's Laws, as well as born the Punishment that is due to my Sins: for tho' He should have born my Sins, I cannot fee how that could denominate me Righteous or Obedient to the Law. fo as to entitle me to eternal. Life, according to the Tenor of the Old Law, Do this and live, Lev. xviii. c. Which old Covenant is not difannull'd or abrogated by the Covenant of Grace, but rather eftablish'd, Rom. iii. 31. especially as to the Obedience it requires from us, in order to the Life it promifeth; otherwife, the Laws of GOD would be mutable, and fo come fhort of the Laws of the very Medes and Perfians, which alter'd not. Obedience, therefore, is as strictly requir'd under the New, as it was under the Old Testament, but with this Difference: there, Obedience in our own Persons was requir'd as absolutely necessary; bere, Obedience in our Surety is accepted as completely sufficient.

But now, if we have no fuch Obedience in our Surety, (as we cannot have, if He did not live, as well as die, for us) let any one tell me, what Title he hath, or can have, to eternal Life? I suppose, he'll he'll tell me, he hath none in himfelf, becaufe he hath not perform'd perfect Obedience to the Law. And I tell him, he hath none in CHRIST, unlefs CHRIST perform'd that Obedience for him, which none can fay, He did, that doth not believe His affive as well as paffive Obedience, to be wholly upon our Account.

AND NOW I fpeak of CHRIST's being our Surety, as the Apoftle calls Him, Heb. vii. 22. methinks, this gives much Light to the Truth in hand: For, what is a Surety, but one that undertakes to pay whatfoever he, whofe Surety he is, is bound to pay, in cafe the Debtor prove non-folvent or unable to pay it himfelf? And thus is CHRIST, under the Notion of a Surety, bound to pay whatever we owe to GOD, becaufe we ourfelves are not able to pay it in our own Perfons.

Now, there are two things that we owe to GOD, which this our Surety is bound to pay for us, viz. Firft, and principally. Obedience to His Laws, as He is our Creator and Governor: And, Secondly, By Confequence, the Punifhment that is annex'd to the Breach of these Laws, of which we are Guilty. Now, though CHRIST should pay the latter part of our Debt for us, by bearing the Punishment that is due unto us; yet, if He did not pay the former and principal Part of it too, i.e. perform the Obedience which we owe to GOD, He would not fully have perform'd the Office of Suretiship, which he undertook for us; and so would be but a Half-Mediator, or Half-Saviour, which are fuch Words, as I dare scarce pronounce, for fear of Blasphemy.

So that, tho' it is the Death of CHRIST by which I believe my Sins are pardon'd; yet, it is the Life of CHRIST, by which I believe my Person is accepted. His Passions GOD accounts as suffer'd by me, and therefore, I shall not die for Sin: His Obediance GOD accounts as perform'd by me, and thereore, I shall live with Him. Not as if I believed, that that CHRIST fo perform'd Obedience for Me, that I should be discharged from my Duty to Him; but only, that I should not be condemn'd by GOD, in not discharging my Duty to Him, in so strict a manner, as is requir'd. I believe, the active Obedience of CHRIST will stand Me in no stead, unless I endeavour after fincere Obedience in mine own Person; His Active, as well as His Passive Obedience, being imputed unto none, but only to fuch, as apply it to themfelves by Faith; which Faith in CHRIST will certainly put fuch as are posses'd of it upon Obedience unto GOD. This, therefore, is the Righteousness, and the manner of that Justification, whereby I hope to stand before the Judgment-Seat of GOD; even by GOD's imputing My Sins to CHRIST, and CHRIST'S Righteou [ne [s to Me; looking upon me as one not to be punish'd for my Sins, because CHRIST hath fuffer'd, but to be receiv'd into the Joys of Glory, because CHRIST hath perform'd Obedience for me, and does, by Faith, through Grace, impute it to me.

AND thus, it is into the Merit of CHRIST, that I refolve the whole Work of my Salvation; and this, not only as to that which is wrought without me, for the Juftification of my Perfon, but likewife as to what is wrought within me, for the Sanstification of my Nature. As I cannot have a Sin pardon'd without CHRIST, fo neither can I have a Sin fubdued without Him; neither the Fire of GOD's Wrath can be quench'd, nor yet the Filth of my Sins wash'd away, but by the Blood of CHRIST.

So that I wonder as much at the Doctrine that fome Men have advanc'd concerning Free-will, as I do at that which others have broach'd in Favour of Good Works; and 'tis a Mystery to me, how any that ever had Experience of GOD's Method in working out Sin, and planting Grace in our Hearts should think they can do it by themselves, or any thing in order to it. Not that I do, in the least question, but that every Man may be faved that that will; (for this, I believe, is a real Truth) but I do not believe, that any Man, of himfelf, can will to be faved. Wherefoever GOD enables a Soul effectually to will Salvation; He will certainly give Salvation to that Soul; But, I believe, it is as impoffible for my Soul to will Salvation, of himfelf, as to enjoy Salvation without GOD.

AND this my Faith is not grounded upon a roving Fancy, but the most folid Reasons: Forafmuch as of ourfelves, we are not able, in our Underflandings, to discern the Evil from the Good; much lefs, then, are we able, in our Wills, to prefer the Good before the Evil; the Will never fettling upon any thing, but what the Judgment discovers to it. But now, that my natural Judgment is unable to apprehend and reprefent to my Will, the true and only Good under its proper Notion, my own too fad Experience would fufficiently perfuade me, though I had neither Scripture, nor Reason for it. And yet, the Scripture also is so clear in this Point. that I could not have denied it, though I should never have had any Experience of it; the most High exprefly telling me, that the natural Man receiveth not the Things of the Spirit of GOD, for they are Foolishness unto him; neither can be know them. because they are spiritually discerned, I Cor. ii. 14. Neither can he know them, i. e. there is an absolute Impoffibility in it, that any one remaining in his Natural Principles, without the Affiftance of GOD, fhould apprehend or conceive the Excellency of Spiritual Objects. So that a Man may as foon read the Letter of the Scripture without Eyes, as underfland the Mysteries of the Gospel without Grace. And this is not at all to be wonder'd at: especially. if we confider the vast and infinite Disproportion betwixt the Object and the Faculty; the Object to be apprehended being nothing lefs than the beft of Beings, GOD; and the Faculty whereby we apprehend it, nothing more than the Power of a finite Creature, polluted with the worft of Evils, Sin.

So that, I believe, it is a thousand times easier for a Worm, a Fly, or any other despicable Infect whatfoever, to understand the Affairs of Men, than for the best of Men, in a Natural State, to apprehend the Things of GOD. No; there is none can know GOD, nor, by Confequence, any thing that is really Good, but only fo far as they are Partakers of the Divine Nature : We must, in some measure, be like to GOD, before we can have any true Conceptions of Him. or be really delighted with Him : We must have a spiritual Sight, before we can behold (piritual Things; which every natural Man being deftitute of, he can fee no Comeliness in CHRIST, why He should be desir'd; nor any Amiableness in Religion, why it shou'd be embrac'd.

AND hence it is, that I believe, the first Work which GOD puts forth upon the Soul, in order to its Conversion, is, to raise up a Spiritual Light within it, to clear up its Apprehensions about Spiritual Matters, fo as to enable the Soul to look upon GOD as the chiefest Good, and the Enjoyment of Him as the greatest Blifs : whereby the Soul may clearly difcern betwixt Good and Evil, and evidently perceive, that nothing is good, but fo far as 'tis like to GOD; and nothing Evil, but fo far as it refembles Sin.

Bur this is not all the Work that GOD hath to do upon a finful Soul, to bring it to Himfelf; for tho' I must confess that in Natural Things, the Will always follows the ultimate Dictates of the Understanding, fo as to chuse and embrace what the Understanding reprefents to it, under the comely Drefs of good and amiable, and to refuse and abhor whatever, under the fame Representation, appears to be evil and dangerous; I fay, tho' I must confels, 'tis fo in natural, yet, I believe, it is not to in spiritual matters. For, tho' the Understanding may have never fuch clear Apprehenfions of fpirisual Good, yet the Will is not at all affected with it, it, without the joint Operations of the Grace of GOD upon us; All of us too fadly experiencing what St. Paul long ago bewail'd in himfelf, that what we do, we allow not, Rom. vii. 15. that tho' our Judgments condemn what we do, yet we cannot chuse but do it; tho' our Understandings clearly discover to us the Excellency of Grace and Glory, yet our Wills, overpower'd with their own Corruptions, are strangely hurry'd into Sin and Milery. I must confess, it is a Truth which I should scarcely have ever believ'd, if I had not fuch daily Experience of it: But alas! there is scarce an Hour in a Day, but I may go about lamenting, with Medea, in Seneca, Video meliora, proboque; deteriora sequor: Tho' I fee what is good, yea, and judge it to be the Better, yet I very often chule the Worle.

AND the Reafon of it is, becaufe, as by our Fall from GOD, the whole Soul was desperately corrupted; fo it is not the Rectifying of one Faculty, which can make the Whole fireight; but as the Whole was changed from Holiness to Sin, fo must the Whole be changed again from Sin to Holiness, before it can be inferted into a State of Grace, or so much as an Act of Grace be exerted by it.

Now, therefore, the Understanding and Will being two diffiner Faculties, or, at leaft, two difinct Acts in the Soul, it is poffible for the Understanding to be fo enlighten'd, as to prefer the Good before the Evil, and yet for the Will to remain fo corrupt, as to chuse the Evil before the Good. And hence it is, that where GOD intends to work over a Soul to Himfelf, He doth not only pass an enlightning Act upon the Understanding and its Apprehensions, but likewise a sanctifying Act upon' the Will and its Affections, that when the Soul perceives the Glory of GOD, and the Beauty of Holinefs, it may prefently clofe with, and entertain it with the choiceft of its Affections. And without GOD's thus drawing it, the Understanding could never allure the Soul to Good.

AND

AND therefore it is. that for all the clear Difcoweries which the Understanding may make to itfelf concerning the Glories of the invitible World, yet GOD affures us, 'tis Himfelf alone that affects the Soul with them, by inclining its Will to them ; for it is GOD. which worketh in us both to will and to do of his own good Pleasure, Phil. ii. 13, So that, tho' GOD offer Heaven to all that will accept of it, in his Holy Scripture; yet none can accept of it, but fuch whom Himfelf flirs up by His Holy Spirit, to endeavour after it. And thus we find it was in I/rael's Return from Babylon to Jeru/alem. tho' King Cyrus made a Proclamation, that whofoever would might go up to worship at the Holy City, Ezra i. 3. yet there was none that accepted of the Offer, but those whose Spirit GOD had raised to go up, y. 5. So here, the GOD doth, as it swere, proclaim to all the World, that wholeever will come to CHRIST shall certainly be faved, yet it doth not follow, that all shall receive Salvation from Him, becaufe it is certain, All will not come : or rather. none can will to come unless GOD enables them.

Г AM fure, to fay none shall be faved, but those that zoill of themselves, would be fad News for me. whole Will is naturally fo backward to every thing that is good. But this is my Comfort, I am as certain, my Salvation is of GOD, as I am certain, it cannot be of myfelf. 'Tis CHRIST who vouchfafed to die for me, who hath likewife promis'd to live within me; 'tis He that will work all my Works, both for me, and in me too. In a Word, 'tis to Him I am beholden, not only for my (piritual Bleffings, and Enjoyments, but even for my temporal ones too, which, in and thro' His Name, I daily put up my Petitions for. So that I have not fo much as a Morfel of Bread, in Mercy, from GOD, but only upon the Account of CHRIST; not a Drop of Drink, but what flows unto me in His Blood. Tis He that is the very Bleffing of all my Bleffings, without without whom my very Mercies would prove but Curfes, and my Prosperity would but work my Ruin.

Whither, therefore, should I go, my dear and bleffed Saviour, but unto thee? Thou hast the Words of eternal Life. And how shall I come, but by Thee? Thou hast the Treasures of all Grace. O Thou, that hast vorought out my Salvation for me, be pleas'd likewise to work this Salvation in me; Give me, I besech thee, such a Measure of Thy Grace, as to believe in Thee here upon Earth; and then give me such Degrees of Glory, as fully to enjoy Thee for ever in Heaven.

ARTICLE IX.

I believe, GOD enter'd into a double Covenant with Man, the Covenant of Works made with the first, and the Covenant of Grace made in the second Adam.

HAT the most High GOD should take a Piece of Earth, work it up into the Frame and Fashion of a Man, and breathe into his Nostrila. the Breath of Life, and then should enter into a Covenant with it, and should fay, Do this and live, when Man was bound to do it, whether he cou'd live by it or no, was, without doubt, a great and amazing Act of Love and Condescension; but that, when this Covenant was unhappily broken by the first, GOD should instantly vouchsafe to renew it in the fecond Adam; and that too upon better Terms, and more easy Conditions than the former, was yet a more furprizing Mercy : For, the fame Day that Adam eat of the Forbidden Fruit, did GOD make him this Promise, That the Seed of the Woman shou'd' break the Serpent's Head, Gen. iii. 15. And this Promile He afterwards explain'd and confirm'd by the Mouth of His Prophet Jeremy, faying, This is the Covenant that I will make with the House of Israel, after those days; I will put my Law into their inward D 3 Parts.

Parts, and write it in their Hearts; And I will be to them a GOD, and they shall be to Me a People, Jer. XXXI. 33. And again, by St. Paul, under the New Testament, almost in the self same Words, Heb. Viii. 10.

A Covenant fo gracious and condescending, that it feems to be made up of nothing elfe but Promifes. The first was, properly speaking, a Covenant of Works, requiring, on Man's Part, a perfect and unfinning Obedience, without any extraordinary Grace or Affiltance from GOD, to enable him to perform it; but here, in the fecond, GOD undertakes both for Himfelf and for Man too, having digested the Conditions to he perform'd by us, into Promifes to be fulfill'd by Himfelf, viz. That He will not only pardon our Sins, if we do repent, but that He will give us Repensance, that fo we may deferve His Pardon ; that He will not only give us Life, if we come to CHRIST, but even draw us to CHRIST, that fo He may give us Life; and fo, not only make us bappy, if we will be boly, but make us holy, that fo we may be happy : For the Covenant is, not that He will be our GOD, if we will be His People, but He will be our GOD, and we shall be His People. But still, all this is in and thro CHRIST, the Surety and Mediator of this Covenant, in whom all the Promises are Yea and Amen. 2 Cor. i. 20. So that CHRIST may be look'd upon, not only as a Surety, but as a Party in this Covenant of Grace, being not only bound to GOD, but likewise covenanting with Him for us. As God-Man He is a Surety for us, but as Man He must needs be a Party with us, even our Head in the Covenant of Grace, as Adam was in the Covenant of Works.

WHAT therefore, tho' I can do nothing in this Covenant of myjelf? yet this is my Comfort, that He hath undertaken for me, who can do all things. And therefore is it called a Covenant of Grace, and not of Works, because in it there is no Work requir'd requir'd from me, but what, by Grace, I shall be enabled to perform.

AND as for the Tenor in which this Covenant runs, or the Habendum and Grant which each Party covenants for, it is express in these Words. I will be your GOD, and you shall be My People. GOD covenants with us, that we shall be His People ; we covenant with GOD, that He shall be our GOD. And, what can GOD flipulate more to us, or we reflipulate more to Him, than this? What doth not GOD promise to us, when He promises to be our GOD? and what doth He not require from us, when He requires us to be His People?

First, He doth not fay, I will be your Hope, your Help, your Light, your Life, your Sun, your Shield, and your exceeding great Reward; but I will be your GOD, which is ten thousand times more than poffibly can be couch'd under any other Expressions whatfoever, as containing, under it, whatfoever GOD is, whatfoever GOD hath, and whatfoever GOD can do. All his effential Attributes are ftill engag'd for us; we may lay claim to them, and take hold on them : So that what the Prophet faith of his Righteousness and Strength. Surely (hall one fay, in the Lord have I Rightcoufnefs and Strength, Ifa. xlv. 24. I may extend to all His other Attributes, and fay, Surely in the LORD have I Mercy to pardon me, Wildom to instruct me, Power to protect me, Truth to direct me, Grace to crozun my Heart on Earth, and Glory to crown my Head in Heaven: And if what He is, then, much more. what He hath, is here made over by Covenant to me. He that (pared not His own Son, faith the Apofile, but deliver'd Him up for us all; how shall He not but with Him likewise freely give us all things? Rom. viii. 32. But what hath GOD to give me? Why, all He hath is briefly fumm'd up in this fhort Inventory; whatfoever is in Heaven above, or in the Earth beneath, is His; and that this Inventory is true, I have feveral Witneffes to prove it, Melchizedech, Gen.

Gen. xiv. 19. and Moses, Deut. x. 14. and David, I Chron. xxix. 11. Indeed, Reason itself will conclude this, That He that is the Creator and Preferver, must, of Necessity be the Owner and Possesson, of all things; fo that let me imagine what possibly I can, in all the World, I may with the Pen of Reafon, write under it, This is GOD's; and if I take but the Pen of Faith with it, I may write, this is mine in JESUS CHRIST.

As for Example; Hath He a Son? He hath died for me. Hath He a Spirit? It shall live within me. Is Earth His? It shall be my Provision. Is Heaven His? It shall be my Portion. Hath He Angels? They shall guard me. Hath He Comforts? They shall support me. Hath He Grace? That shall make me Holy. Hath He Glory? That shall make me Happy. For the Lord will give Grace and Glory, and no good thing will He withhold from those that walk uprightly, Pfal. lxxxiv. 11.

AND as He is nothing but what He is unto us fo He doth nothing but what He doth for us. So that whatfoever GOD doth by His ordinary Providence, or (if our Neceffity requires) whatfoever He can do by His extraordinary Power, I may be fure, He doth and will do for me. Now He hath given Himfelf to me, and taken me unto Himfelf. what will he not do for me that He can? And what can He not do for me that He will? Do I want Food? GOD can drop down Manna from the Clouds, Exod. xvi. 4. or bid the Quails come down and feed me with their own Fleih, as they did the Ifraelites, y. 13. or He can fend the Ravens to bring me Bread and Flesh, as they did His Prophet Elijah, 1 Kings zvii. 6. Am I thirsty? GOD can broach the Rocks, and diffolve the Flints into Floods of Water, as He did for I/rael, Deut. viii. 1 c. Am I cast into a fiery Furnace? He can suspend the Fury of the raging Flames, as He did for shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, Dan. iii. 25. Am I thrown amongst the devouring Lions? He can stop their their Mouths, and make them as harmle's Lambs, as He did for Daniel, Dan. vi. 22. Am I ready to be: fwallow'd up by the merciless Waves of the tempestuous Ocean? GOD can command a Fish to come and ship me fafe to Land, and that in its own Belly, as He did for His Prophet Jonah, Jon. i. 17. c. ii. 10. Am I in Prifon? GOD can but speak the Word, as He did for St. Peter, and the Chains shall immediately fall off, and the Doors fly open, and I shall be fet at Liberty, as He was, Acts xii. 7, 8, 9, 10. And thus, I can have no Wants, but GOD can fupply them, no Doubts but GOD can refolve them, no Fears but GOD can difpell them, no Dangers but GOD can prevent them. And 'tis' as certain, that He will, as that He can, do thefe things for me, Himfelf having, by Covenant, engag'd and given Himfelf unto me.

AND as, in GOD's giving Himfelf, he hath given whatfoever He is, and whatfoever He hathunto me, and will do whatfoever He can do for me; fo in my giving myself to Him, whatsoever I have I am to give to Him, and whatfoever I do I am to do for Him. But now, tho' we shou'd thus give ourfelves up wholly to GOD, and do whatever He requires of us (which none, I fear, without some Degree of Prefumption, can say he has done) yet there is an infinite Disproportion betwixt the Grant on GOD's part, and that on ours, in. that He is GOD, and we but Creatures, the Work-manihip of His own Hands, to whom it was our Duty to give ourfelves, whether He had ever given Himfelf to us or no : He is ours by Covenant only. not by Nature; we are His both by Covenant and Nature too.

HENCE we may infer, That it is not only our Duty to do what He hath commanded us, becaufe He hath faid, Do this and live; but becaufe He hath faid do this; yea, tho' He fhould fay, Do this and die, it would full be our Duty do it, becaufe we are His, wholly of His making, and therefore D 5 wholly wholly at His Dispofing; Infomuch that fhould He put me upon the doing that which would inevitably bring Ruin upon me, I am not to neglect obeying Him for fear of defroying myfelf, His Will and Pleasure being infinitely to be preferred before my Life and Salvation.

Bur, if it were my Duty to obey His Commands, though I should die for it, how much more, when He hath promifed, I shall live by it? Nay, I shall not only live, if I obey; but my Obedience itself shall be my Life and Happiness; for if I be obedient unto Him, He is pleased to account Himself as glorified by me ; for herein is my Father glorified, af ye bring ferth much Fruit, John xv. 8. Now, what greater Glory can possibly be defired, than to glorify my Maker? How can I be more glorified by GOD, than to have GOD glorified by me; It is the Glory of GOD to glorify Himfelf; and what higher Glory can a Creature afpire after, than that which is the infinite Glory of its All-glorious Creator? It is not, therefore, my Duty only, but my Glory to give myself, and whatfoever I am, unto Him, to glorify Him both in my Body and in my Spirit, which are His, I Cor. vi. 20. to lay out whatfoever I have for Him. to Honour Him with all my Substance, Prov. iii. o. and whether I eat or drink, or what soever I do, to do all to His Glory, I Cor. x. 31. Not as if it was possible for GOD to receive more Glory from me now, than He had in Himfelf from all Éternity. No; He was infinitely glorious then, and 'tis impossible for Him to be more glorious now; all that we can do, is duly to acknowledge that Glory which He hath in Himfelf, and to manifest it, as we ought, before others; which, tho' it be no Addition to His Glory, yet it is the Perfection of ours, which He is pleafed to account as His.

As for the Grant, therefore, in the Covenant of Grace, I believe it to be the fame on our Parts, with that in the Covenant of Works, i. e. That we Christians are as much bound to obey the Commands He He lays upon us now, as the Jews under the Old Covenant were. What difference there is, is wholly and folely on GOD's part; who, inftead of expecting Obedience from us, is pleas'd, in this new Covenant, to give this Obedience to us. Inflead of faying, Do this and live, He hath, in effect, faid, I will enable you to do this, that fo you may live. I will put my Laws into your Minds, and write them in your Hearts; and I will be to you a GOD, and you shall be to Me a People, Heb. viii. 10. Not, I will, if you will; but I will, and you fall. Not, if you will do this, you shall live; but, you shall do this, and live. So that GOD doth not require lefs from us, but only hath promifed more to us, in the New, than He did in the Old Covenant. There, we were to perform Obedience to GOD, but it was by our own Strength : Here, we are to perform the fame Obedience still, but 'tis by His Strength. Nay as we have more Obligations to Obedience upon us now, than we had before, by reason of GOD's expressing more Grace and Favour to us than formerly He did; fo, I believe GOD expects more from us, under the New, than He did under the Old Covenant. In that, He expected the Obedience of Men; in this, He expects the Obedience of Christians, fuch as are by Faith united unto CHRIST, and, in CHRIST, unto Himfelf; and fo, are to do what they do, not by the Strength of Man, as before, but by the Strength of the eternal GOD Himfelf; who, as He at first created me for Himfelf, fo He hath now purchased me to Himfelf, received me into Covenant with Him, and promifed to enable me with Grace to perform that Obedience He requires from me; and, therefore, He now expects I should lay out myself. even whatfoever I have or am, wholly for Him and His Glory.

THIS, therefore, being the Tenor of this Covenant of Grace, it follows, that I am now none of my own, but wholly GOD's: I am His by D 6

Creation.

Creation, and His by Redemption, and, therefore, ought to be His by Conversation. Why, therefore, should I live any longer to myfelf, who am not mine own, but GOD's? And why should I grudge to give myself to Him, who did not grudge to give Himfelf for me? or rather, Why should I steal myself from Him, who have already given myself to Him? But did I fay, I have given myself to my GOD? Alas! it is but the reftoring myfelf to Him, whole I was ever fince I had a Being, and to whom I am still infinitely more engaged, that I can thus cordially engage myself to Him; for as I am not my own, but His, fo the very giving of myself to Him, is not from myself, but from Him. I could not have given myself to Him, Had he not fift given Himfelf to me, and even wrought my Mind into this Refolution of giving myfelf to Him.

Bur, having thus folemnly by Covenant, given myfelf to Him, how doth it behove me to improve myfelf for Him? My Soul is His, my Body His, my Farts His, my Gifts His, my Graces His, and whatfoever is mine, is His; for, without Him I cou'd not have been, and, therefore could have had nothing. So that I have no more caufe to be proud of any thing I have, or am, than a Page hath to be proud of his fine Cloaths, which are not his, but his Mafters; who beftows all this Finery upon him, not for his Page's Honour or Credit, but for his own.

AND thus it is with the beft of us, in respect of GOD; He gives Men Parts and Learning, and Riches, and Grace, and desires and expects, that we shou'd make a due Use of them: But to what End? Not to gain Honour and Esteem to ourselves, to make us proud and haughty, but to give Him the Honour due to His Name; and so employ them as Instruments in promoting His Glory and Service. So that, whensoever we do not lay out ourselves to the utmost of our Power for Him, it is downright Sacrilege; 'tis Robbing GOD of that which which is more properly His, than any Man in the World can call any thing he hath his own.

HAVING, therefore, thus wholly furrender'd and given up myfelf to GOD, fo long as it fhall pleafe His Majefty to entruft me with myfelf, to lend me my Being in the lower World, or to put any thing elfe into my Hands, as Time, Heakh, Strength, Parts, or the like; I am refolved, by His Grace, to lay out all for His Glory. All the Faculties of my Soul, as I have given them to Him; fo will I endeavour to improve them for Him; they fhall fill be at His moft noble Service; my Understanding thall be His, to know Him; my Will His, to chuse Him; my Affections His, to embrace Him; and all the Members of my Body fhall act in Subferviency to Him.

AND thus, having given myfelf to GOD on Eatth, I hope GOD in a fhort time, will take me to Himfelf in Heaven; where, as I gave myfelf to Him in Time, He'll give Himfelf to me unto all Eternity.

ARTICLE X.

I believe, that as GOD enter'd into a Covenant of Grace with us, fo hath He fign'd this Covenant to us by a double Seal, Baptism, and the Lord's Supper.

A S the Covenant of Works had two Sacraments, viz. The Tree of Life, and The Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil; the first fignifying and fealing Life and Mappine's to the Performance, the other Death and Mifery to the Breach of it: So the Covenant of Grace was likewife feal'd with two Typical Sacraments, Circumcifion, and the Paffover. The former was annex'd at GOD's first making His Covenant with Abraham's Perfon; the Other was added, at His fulfilling the Promifes of it, it, to his Seed or Pofferity, which were, therefore ftyl'd, The Promifed Seed. But thefe being only Typical of the true and Spiritual Sacraments, that were afterwards to take place upon the Coming of the Meffuh, there was then, in the Fulne's of Time, two other Sacraments substituted in their stead, viz. Baptifm, and the Supper of the Lord. And these Sacraments were both correspondent to the Types by which they were represented.

As to the first, viz. Circumcision, whether I confider the Time of conferring it, or the End of its Inflitution, I find it exactly answers to the Sacrament of Baptism in both these Respects. For, as the Children under the Law were to be circumcis'd in their Infancy, at eight Days old: fo are the Children under the Gospel to be baptiz'd in their Infancy too. And as the principal thing intended in the Rite of Circumcifion, was to initiate or admit the Children of the Faithful into the Fewish Church ; fo the chief Defign of Baptism now, is to admit the Children of fuch as profess themselves Christians into the Church of CHRIST. And, for this Reafon. I believe, that as, under the Old Testament Children had the Grant of Covenant-Privileges, and Church-Membership, as really as their Parents had; fo this Grant was not repeal'd, as is intimated, Afts ii. 39. but farther confirm'd in the New Teltament, in that the Apofile calls the Children of believing Parents Holy, I Cor. vii, 14. Which cannot be understood of a real and inherent, but only of a relative and covenanted Holinefs, by virtue of which, being born of believing Parents, themfelves are accounted in the Number of Believers, and are therefore call'd Holy Children under the Gospel, in the fame Senfe that the People of I/rael were call'd a Holy People under the Law, Deut. vii. 6. and chap. xiv. 2, 21. as being all within the Covenant of Grace, which, through the Faith of their Parents, is thus feal'd to them in their Baptifm.

Nor

Not that I think it necessary, that all Parents shou'd be endu'd with what we call a Saving Faith, to entitle their Children to thefe Privileges, (for then none but the Children of fuch who have the Spirit of CHRIST truly implanted in them, wou'd be qualify'd to partake of the Covenant) but even fuch, who by an outward historical Faith, have taken the Name of CHRIST upon them, are, by that means, in Covenant with GOD, and fo accounted Holy in respect of their Profession, whatever they may be in point of Practice. And if they are themfelves Holy, it follows, on courfe, that their Children must be fo too, they being esteem'd as Parts of their Parents, till made diffinct Members in the Body of CHRIST; or, at least, till they come to the Use of their Reason, and the Improvement of their Natural Abilities.

AND, therefore, tho' the Seal be changed, yet the Covenant-Privileges, wherewith the Parties ilipulating unto GOD were before invested, are no. whit alter'd or diminish'd; Believers Children being as really Confederates with their Parents, in the Covenant of Grace now, as they were before under the Jewish Administration of it. And this feems to be altogether neceffary ; for otherwife, Infants should be invested with Privileges under the Type, and be deprived of, or excluded from them. under the more perfect Accomplishment of the fame Covenant in the thing typify'd; and fo, the Difpenfations of GOD's Grace would be more freight and narrow fince, than they were befare the Coming of our Saviour, which I look upon to be no lefs than Blafphemy to affert.

A N D, upon this ground, I believe, it is as really the Duty of Christians to baptize their Children now, as ever it was the Duty of the Israelites to circumcife theirs; and therefore, St. Peter's Question, Can any Man forbid Water, that these should not be baptized, who have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? Acts x. 47. may very properly be apply'd to this Cafe. Can

Can any one forbid Water, that Children fhould not be baptiz'd, who are in Covenant with the most High GOD as well as we? For what is it, I pray, that the Right to Bapiilm doth depend upon? Surely, not upon performing the Conditions of the Covenant ; for then none should be baptiz'd, but such as are true Believers in them felves, and known to be fo by m, and, by confequence, none at all: it being only GOD's Prerogative to fearch their Hearts. and to know the Truth of that Grace, which Himfelf hath been pleas'd to beftow upon them. But Children's Right to Baptism is grounded upon the outward Profession of their Believing Parents; for that, as a King may be crown'd in his Cradle, not because he is able to weild the Scepter, or manage the Affairs of his Kingdom, but because he is Heir to his Father; fo here, Children are not therefore baptized, because they are able to perform the Conditions of the Covenant, which is feal'd to them, but because they are Children to Believing Parents. And this feems yet to be farther evident. from the very Nature of Seals, which are not administred or annex'd to any Covenant, because the Conditions are already perform'd, but rather, that they may be perform'd; and fo Children are not baptized, because they are already true Christians. but that they may be fo hereafter.

As for a Command for Infant-Baptifm, I believe, that the fame Law that enjoin'd Circumcifion to the Jewif, enjoins Baptifm likewife to Chrifian Children, there being the fame Reafon for both. The Reafon why the Jewif Children were to be circumcifed, was becaufe they were Jewif Children, born of fuch as profes'd the true Worfhip of GOD, and were in Covenant with Him; and there is the fame Reafon, why Chriftian Children are to be baptized, even becaufe they are Chriftian Children, born of fuch as profes the true Worfhip of the fame GOD, and are Confederates in the fame Covenant with the Jews themfelves. And.

And, as there is the fame Reafon, fo likewife the fame End for both, viz. That the Children might be actually admitted into the fame Covenant with their Parents, and have it vilibly confirm'd to them by this initiating Seal put upon them : So that Circumcifion and Baptism are not two diffinct Seals, but the fame Seal diverfly apply'd; the one being but as a Type of the other, and fo to give place to it, whenfoever, by the Inftitution of CHRIST, it should be brought into the Church of GOD. And, therefore, the Command for initiating Children into the Church by Baptism, remains still in Force. tho' Circumcifion, which was the Type and Shadow of it, be done away. And for this Reason, I believe, that was there never a Command in the New Testament for Infant-Baptifm, yet, feeing there is one for Circumcifion in the Old, and for Baptism, as coming into the place of it, in the New, I should look upon Baptism as necessarily to be apply'd to Infants now, as Circumcifion was then.

But why shou'd it be suppos'd, that there is no Command in the New Teftament for Infant-Baptifm? There are feveral Texts that feem to imply its being practis'd in the first Preaching of the Gospel. as particularly in the Case of Lydia and the Keeper of the Prifon, Acts xvi. 15, 33. who had their whole Families baptiz'd, and we no where find, that Children were excepted. On the contrary, St. Peter exhorting the converted Jews to be baptiz'd, makes use of this Argument to bring them to it, For the Promise, fays he, is unto you, and to your Children, Acts ii. 38, 39. which may as reasonably be understood of their Infants, as of their adult Posterity. But, befides, it was the express Command of CHRIST to His Difciples, that they should go and teach all Nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Matt. xxviji. 19. The Meaning of which Words I take to be this; Go ye, and preach the Gofpel amongst all Nations, and endeavour vour thereby to bring them over to the embracing of it; that leaving all Jewi/h Ceremonies and Heatheni/h Idolatries, they may profefs my Name, and become My Dircip'es, receive the Truth and follow Me; which if they do, I charge you to baptize them in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghoft: For the Word  $\mu$  adorts' or alt doth not fignify to teach, but to make Difciples, denoting the fame here, that  $\mu$  adorts's motion doth upon the like Occasion, John iv. I.

AND this is the Senfe that all the ancient Tranflations agree in; nor, indeed, will the Text itfelf bear any other; e pecially, not that of Teaching: for tho' the Apostles should have taught all Nations, yet they were not prefently to baptize them, unlefs they became Difciples, and Profeffors of the Doctrine that they were taught. A Man may be taught the Doctrine of the Gospel, and yet not believe it ; and even tho' he should believe, yet unles he openly profeties his Faith in it, he ought not presently to be baptiz'd. For, without this outward Profession, the very Possessing of Christ cannot entitle a Man to this Privilege before Men, tho' it doth before GOD; because we cannot know how any one flands affected towards CHRIST, but only by his outward Profession of Him. 'Tis the inward Possession of CHRIST's Person that entitles us to the inward spiritual Grace? but 'tis the outward Profession of His Name only, that entitles us to the outward visible Sign in Baptism: So that a Man must of Necessity, be a profes'd Disciple of the Go/pel, before he can be admitted into the Church of CHRIST. And hence it is, that the Words must neceffarily be underftood of discipling, or bringing the Nations over to the Profession of the Christian Religion : or elle, we must suppose, what ought not to be granted, that our Saviour muft command many that were visible Enemies to His Cross, to be receiv'd into His Church; for many of the Jews were taught and inftructed in the Doctrine of the Gofpel. Golpel, who, notwithftanding, were inveterate Enemies unto CHRIST. They were taught, that He was the Meffiab, and Saviour of the World, and that whofoever believed in Him, flould not perifh, but have everlafting Life; and they had all the Reafon in the World to be convinc'd of it: Yet, I hope, there is none will fay, that the bare Knowledge of, or tacit Affent unto, thefe Things, are a fufficient Ground for their Reception into the Church.

Now, as it was in the Jewish Church, when any one became a Profelyte, not only himfelf, but whatfoever Children he afterwards had, were to be circumcifed: fo in the Church of CHRIST. whenfoever any Perfon is brought over into the Profession of the Christian Religion, his Seed are all equally invefted with the outward Privileges of it with himfelf, tho' they be not as yet come to Years of Difcretion, nor able, of themfelves, to make their Profession of that Religion they are to be receiv'd and baptiz'd into. For, fo long as Children are in their Infancy, they are (as I before observ'd) look'd upon as Parts of their Parents, and are therefore accounted holy, by the outward Profession which their Parents, under whom they are comprehended, make of it: And in this Senfe, I Cor. viii. 14. the unbelieving Husband is faid to be fanctified by the believing Wife, and the unbelieving Wife by the believing Hulband, that is, Man and Wife being made one Flesh, they are denominated, from the better Part, Holy, and fo are their Children too.

AND hence it is, that I verily believe, that in the Commission which our Saviour gave to His Apossibles, to difciple and baptize all Nations, He meant, that they should preach the Gospel in all Nations, and thereby bring over all Persons of Understanding and Difcretion to the Profession of His Name, and in them, their Children; and fo engraft both Root and Branch into Himself, the true Vine, by baptizing both Parents and Children in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghosf.

THE main Objection against this is, That Infants are not in a Capacity either to learn and understand their Duty in this Covenant, or to stipulate and promife for their future Performance of the Conditions of it. But this Difficulty is eafily removed, when I confider, that 'tis not by virtue of their own Faith or Knowledge, but that of their Parents, that they are admitted to this Sacrament; nor is it requir'd, that they should stipulate or promise in their own Persons, but by their Godfathers or Sponsors, who enter into this Engagement for them, and oblige them, when they come of Age, to take it upon themfelves; which accordingly they do. And this Engagement, by Proxy, does as effectually bind them to the Performance of the Conditions, as if they were actually in a Capacity to have flipulated for themselves, or seal'd the Covenant in their own Perlons. For these spiritual Signs or Seals are not defign'd to make GOD's Word furer to us, but only to make our Faith fronger in Him; nor are they of the Substance of the Covenant, but only for the better Confirmation of it.

A N D, as Baptifm thus comes in the place of the Jews Circumeifion, fo doth our Lord's Supper anfwer to their Paffover. Their Pafchal Lamb reprefented our Saviour CHRIST, and the Sacrificing of it the Shedding of His Blood upon the Crofs; and as the Paffover was the Memorial of the Ifraelites Redemption from Egypt's Bondage, Exod. xii. 14. fo is the Lord's Supper the Memorial of our Redemption from the Slavery of Sin, and Affertion into Chrifian Liberty: Or rather, it is a folemn and lively Reprefentation of the Death of CHRIST, and offering it again to G O D, as an Atonement for Sin, and Reconciliation to His Favour.

So that, I believe, this Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, under the Gofpel, fucceeds to the Rite of Sacrificing under the Law, and is properly call'd the Chrifian Sacrifice, as reprefenting the Sacrifice of CHRIST upon the Crofs. And the End of both is the the fame: Fot, as the Sacrifices under the Law were defign'd as a Propisiation or Atonement for Sins, by transferring the Punishment from the Offerer, to the thing offer'd, which is therefore call'd, The accurfed thing, as we read, Lev. xvii. 11. So, under the Go/pel, we are told, That it was for this end that our Saviour died, and fuffer'd in our ftead; that He might obtain the Pardon of our Sins, and reconcile us to His Father, by laying the Guilt of them upon His own Perfon. And accordingly, He fays of Himfelf, that He came to give His Life a Ranfom for many, Matt. xx. 28. And St. Paul tells us; 2 Cor. v. 21. that He was made Sin for us, who knew no Sin.

AND as the End of both Inflitutions was the fame, fo they were both equally extended. The Pafchal Lamb was offer'd for all the Congregation of Ifrael, and fo is the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper to be adminifer'd to all the Faithful People in CHRIST, that do not exclude themfelves from it. And for this Reason, I believe, That as all the Congregation of Ifrael was to eat the Passover, fo is all the Society of Christians to receive the Lord's Supper; those only to be excepted, who are altogether ignorant of the Nature of that Covenant it feals, or openly and fcandaloufly guilty of the Breach of the Conditions it requires.

BUT why, fay fome, fhould there be any Exception? Did not CHRIST die for all Mankind? And is not that Death faid to be a full, perfect, and fufficient Satrifice, Oblation and Satisfaction for the Sins of the whole World? All this is true, but it does not from hence follow, that all Men muft be actually fav'd and abfolv'd from their Sins, by virtue of His Death. No, 'tis only they, who apply to themfelves the Merits of His Paflion, by partaking duly of this Holy Sacrament, which is the proper Means by which thefe Bleffings are convey'd to us, whereby we are feal'd to the Day of Redemption. I fay duly, becaufe tho' this Sacrament was ordain'd for all, yet 94

yet all will not make themfelves worthy of it; and thole that are not fo, are fo far from reaping any Benefit from it, that, as the Apoftle fays, they eas and drink their own Damnation, not differing the Lord's Body, I Cor. xi. 29. And therefore, I believe, That as in the Infitution of the Paffover, there were fome particular Duties and Ceremonies enjoin'd for the better Solemnization of it; fo there are fome preparatory Duties and Qualifications neceffarily requir'd for the Celebration of the Lord's Supper, which, before I prefume to partake of it, I muft always use my utmost Endeavours to exercise myfelf in. And thefe are,

FIRST, That I should examine, confefs, and bewail my Sins before GOD, with a true Sense of, and Sorrow for, them; and taking firm Resolutions for the time to come utterly to relinquish and forfake them, folemnly engage myself in a new and truly Christian Courie of Life. SECONDLY, That I should be in perfect Obarity

SECONDLY, That I should be in perfect Oharity with all Men, i. e. That I should heartily forgive those who have any ways injur'd or offended me; and make Restitution or Satisfaction to such whom I have, in any respect, injur'd or offended myself. And then,

THIRDLY, That I should with an humble and obedient Heart, exercise the Acts of Faith, and Love, and Devotion, during the Celebration of that holy Mystery; and express the Sense I have of this Mystery, by devout Praises and Thanksgivings for the great Mercies and Favours that GOD vouchsafes to me therein; and by all the Ways and Measures of Charity that He has prescribed, manifest my Love and Beneficence to my Christian Brethren.

THESE are the proper Graces, this the Wedding Garment that every true Chrifian, who comes to be a Gueft at this Holy Supper, ought to be cloath'd and invefted with.

Do Thou, O Bleffed JESUS! Adorn me with this Hoby Robe, and infpire my Seul with fuch Heavenly Quadities lities and Dispositions as these; and then I need not fear, but that as oft as I eat the Flesh of CHRIST, and drink His Blood, I shall effectually obtain the Pardon and the Remission of my Sins, the fanctifying Influences of His Holy Spirit, and a certain Interest in the Kingdom of Glory.

See farther, Treatife of the Sacrament.

ARTICLE XI.

I believe, that after a fort Separation, my Soul and Body fhall be united together again, in order to appear before the Judgment-Seat of CHRIST, and be finally fentenc'd according to my Deferts.

KNOW, this Body, which, for the prefent I am ty'd to, is nothing elfe but a Piece of Clay, made up into the Frame and Fashion of a Man; and therefore, as it was first taken from the Dust, so shall it return to Duft again: But then I believe, on the other hand, that it shall as really be rais'd from the Earth, as ever it shall be carry'd to it; yea, tho' perhaps it may go through a hundred, or a thousand · Changes, before that Day come. There are, I confels, some Points in this Article, which are hardly to be folv'd by human Reason; but, I believe, there are none fo difficult, but what may be reconcil'd by a divine Faith : Tho' it be too hard for me to know, yet it is not too hard for GOD to do. He that should have told me fome Years ago, that my Body then was, or should be, a Mixture of Particles fetch'd from fo many Parts of the World, and undergo fo many Changes and Alterations, as to become in a manner new, should scarce have extorted the Belief of it from me, tho' now I perceive it to be a real Truth; the Meats, Fruits, and Spices, which we eat, being transported from several different Places and and Nations, and, by natural Digeftion, transfus'd into the Conftitution of the Body. And why fhould not I believe, that the fame Almighty Power, who made thefe feveral Beings, or Particles of Matter, by which I am fed and fuftain'd, can as eafily, with his Word, recal each Part again from the most fecret or remote Place, that it can poffibly be tranfported to? Or, that He who fram'd me out of the Duffy- can with as much eafe gather all the fcatter'd Parts of the Body, and put them together again, as He at first form'd it into a fuch a Shape, and infus'd into it a fpiritual Being?

AND this Article of my Faith, I believe, is not only grounded upon, but may, even by the Force of Reason, be deduced from, the Principles of Juflice and Equity; Justice requiring, that they who are Copartners in Vice and Virtue, should be Copartners also in Punishments and Rewards. There is fcarce a Sin a Man commits, but his Body hath a thare in it: for the 'the Sin committed would not be a Sin without the Soul, yet it could not be committed without the Body; the Sinfulness of it depends upon the former, but the Commission of it may lawfully be charg'd upon the latter : The Body could not fin. if the Soul did not confent; nor could the Soul fin, (efpecially fo oft) if the Body did not tempt to it. And this is particularly observable in the Sins of Adultery, Drunkenness and Gluttony, which the Soul of itself cannot commit, neither would it ever confent unto them, did not the prevalent Humours of the Body, as it were, force it to do fo. For in these Sins, the AE that is finful, is wholly perform'd by the Body, tho' the Sinfulness of that Act doth principally depend upon the Soul.

NEITHER is the Body only Partner with the Soul in these groffer Sins; but even the more spiritual Sins, which seem to be most abstracted from the Temperature of the Body, as if they depended only upon the Pravity and Corruption of the Soul; I say, even these are partly to be ascribid to the Body.

Body. For Inftance, an Atheiftical Thought, which. one would think, was to be laid only upon the Soul, because the Thought takes its Rife from thence ; yet if we ferioully weigh and confider the Matter, we shall find, that it is usually the finful Affections of the Body that thus debauch the Mind into thele blasphamous Thoughts; and that it is the Pleasures of Sense that first fuggest them to us, and raile them in us. And this appears, in that there is no Perfon that ever was, or indeed ever can be, an Atheist at all Times; but such Thoughts spring up in the Fountain of the Soul, only when mudded with flethly Pleasures. And thus it is in most other Sins; the carnal Appetue having gotten the Reins into its Hand, it milleads the Reason, and hurries the Soul wherefoever it pleafeth. And what, thep, can be more reasonable, than that the Body should be punish'd, both for its usurping the Soul's Prerogative, and for its tyraphizing fo much over that, which, at the first, it was made to be subject to?

But farther, it is the Body that enjoys the Pleafure, and therefore, good Reafon, that the Body should likewife bear the Punifamens of Sin. Indeed, I cannot conceive, how it can fland with the Principles of fuffice, but that the Body, which both accompanies the Soul in Sin, enjoys the Pleafures of it, and leads the Soul into it, thould bear a Share in the Miferies which are due to, and inflicted upon it. For whath doth Juffice require, but to punifh the Perfon that offends, for the Offence he commits? Whereas, it the Soul only, and not the Body, were to fuffer, the Perfon would not fuffer at all; the Body being Part of the Perfon, as well as the Soul, and atherefore, the Soul no Perfon without the Body.

HEIN CE it is, That tho' the Scripture had been filent in this Point, yet methinks I could not but have believ'd it: How much more firm and ftedfaft, then, ought I to be in my Faith, when Truth itfelf hath been pleas'd fo expressly to affirm it? For thus faith the LORD of Holts, Thy dead Men fhall live, E together rogesher with My dead Body shall they arife, Isaiah XXVI. 19. And many of them that sleep in the Dust of the Earth hall awake, fome to everlasting Life, and Some to Shame and everlasting Contempt. Dan. xii, 2. And thus faith the Saviour of the World, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life; the Hour is coming, in which all that are in the Graves shall hear his Voice, and shall come forth; they that have done Good, unto the Resurrection of Life; and they that have done Evil, unto the Resurrection of Damnation, John The fame hath it pleas'd His Divine v. 28, 29. Majesty to affert and prove with His own Mouth, Mat. xxii. 31, 32. and by His Spirit, 2 Cor. xv. and in many other Places: From all which, I may, with Comfort and Confidence, draw the fame Conclufion that holy Job did, and fay, I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter Day upon the Earth; and though after my Skin, Worms destroy this Body, yet in my Flesh shall I see GOD; whom I shall see for my self, and mine Eyes [hall behold, and not another, though my Reins be consumed within me, Job xix. 25, 26, 27.

AND, as I believe my Body shall be thus rais'd from the Grave, fo I believe the other part of me, my Soul, shall never be carry'd to it; I mean it shall never die, but shall be as much, yea, more alive, when I am dying, than it is now; by fo much my Soul shall be the more active in itself, by how much it is less tied and subjected to the Body.

AND, farther I believe, That fo foon as ever my Breath is out of my Nostrils, my Soul shall remove her Lodging into the other World, there to live as really to Eternity, as I now live here in Time. Yea, I am more certain, that my Soul shall return to GOD that gave it, than that my Body shall return to the Earth, out of which I had it. For I know, 'tis possible my Body may be made immortal. but I am sure, my Soul shall never be mortal. I know, that, at the first, the Body did equally participate of Immortality with the Soul, and that had had not Sin made the Divorce, they had liv'd together, like loving Mates, to all Eternity. And I dare not affirm, that Enoch and Elias underwent the common Fate; or suppose they did, yet, sure I am, the Time will come, when Thousands of Men and Women shall not be diffolv'd and die, but be immediately chang'd and caught up into Heaven, or to their eternal Confusion, thrust down into Hell; whole Bodies, therefore, shall undergo no fuch thing as Rotting in the Grave, or being eaten up of Worms, but, together with their Souls, shall immediately launch into the vaft Ocean of Eternity. But who ever yet read or heard of a Soul's Funeral? Who is it? Where is the Man? or, What is his Name, that wrote the History of her Life and Death? Can any Difease arise in a Spiritual Substance, wherein there is no fuch thing as Contrariety of Principles or Qualities to occation any Diforder or Distemper? Can an Angel be sick, or die? And, if not an Angel, why a Soul, which is endow'd with the fame (piritual Nature here, and shall be adorn'd with the fame eternal Glory hereafter? No, no; deceive not thy felf, my Soul; for 'tis more certain, that thou shalt always live, than that thy Body shall ever die.

Not that I think my Soul must always live, in despight of Omnipotence itself, as if it was not in the Power of the Almighty, to take my Being and Existence from me; for I know, I am but as a Pot-Cheard in the Potter's Hand, and that it is as easy for Him to dash me in Pieces now, as it was to raise it up at the first. I believe, it is as easy for Him to command my Soul out of its being, as out of its Body ; and to fend me back into my Mother Nothing, out of whole Womb he took me, as it was at first to fetch me thence. I know, he could do it, if He would, but Himself hath said, He will not, and, therefore, I am fure, He cannot do it; and that, not because He hath not Power, but because He hath not Will to do it; it being impossible for Him Εı

Him to do that which He doth not will to do. And that it is not His Will or Pleafure ever to annihilate my Soul, 'I have it under His own Hand, that my Duff final recars to the Earth as it was, and my Spirit ro'GOD that gave it, 'Ecclef, 'aii. 7. And if it return to 'God, it is fo 'far from returning to Nothing, 'that it returns to the Being of all Beings; and 'fo, 'Death to me will be nothing more, than going home to 'my Pather' and 'Mother; 'my Soul goes 'to 'my Pather, 'GOD, and 'my Body to 'my Mother, 'Earth.

THUS, likewife hath it pleafed His Sacred Majefty to affure 'me, that if our earthly Houfe of this Tabernacle were diffolivid, we have a Ballding of GOD, an House not made with Hands, eternal in the Heavens, 2 Cor. v. 1, fo clearly hath the great GOD brought Life and Immortality to Light, through the Gospel, 2 Tim. i. 10. The Light of Nature thews. the Soul can never perifh or be diffolv'd, without the immediate 'interpolition of GOD's Omnipotence, and we have His own Divine Word for it. that He will never ule that Power, in the Diffolution of it. And, therefore, I may, with the greatelt 'Affurance, affirm and believe, that as really as I now live, fo really shall I never die : but that my Soul, at the very Moment of its Departure from the Flesh, thall immediately mount up to the Tribanal of the Moft High GOD, there to be judg'd. first privately, by itself, (or perhaps with fome other Souls, that thall be fummon'd to appear before GOD the fame Moment !) And then, from thefe private Seffions, I believe, that every Soul that ever was, or shall be separated from the Body, must either be receiv'd into the Manfions of Heave., or elfe fent down to the Dungeon of Hell, there to remain till the Grand Affizes, the Judgment of the Great Day, when the Trumpet shall found, and the Dead thall be rais'd incorruptible, and we that be chang'd, I Cor. xv. 52. And when our Bodies, by the Word of the Almighty GOD, fhall be thus call'd together together again. I. beliave, that our Soule shall; be allpreparid to meet them, and be united again to them, and so both appear before the Judgment-State of CHRIST, to receive Sentence according to unbat they leave done in the Flass, whether is be Goad, on unbether is be Rwil. And, tho' it is very difficults or rather impossible, for me to conceive or determine the particular. Circumstances of this Grand Alline, or the Manner and Method how, in shall be manag'di yet from the Light and Intimations that GOID has vouch afed to give us of it. I have Grounds to beliave, it will be order d and carry d on affect this, op the like, Manner.

THE Day and Place being appointed by the King of Kings, the glorious Mately of Heaven, and Saviour of the World, Issue Charge, who long ago receiv'd His Commiffion from the Father, to be the Judge of Quick and Dead, John v. 22. Acts svii. 31. Thall descend from Heaven, wish the shout of the Archangel, and with the Trump of GOD, I Theff. iv. 16. royally attended with an innumerable Company of glorious Angels, Matth. xxv. 31. Thefe Ho shall fend with the great Sound of a Trumpet, and they Mall gather together His Elast from the four Winds, from the one End of Heaven to the other, chap, new 31, yes, and the Wiched too, from whatthever Place they fhall be in; and then fhallite favor the Wiched from the Juft, Matthe xill. 40. So that all Nations, and every particular Person, that ever did, or ever shall live upon the Face of the Earth, thall be gather'd together before Him, and He hall (operate the one from the other, as a Shephard divides his sheep from the Goats, and He (ball fet the Sheep en His night Hand, but the Goats upon the Left, Matthe $$ . 33, 33.

THINGS being thus for in Order, the Judge shall read His Committion, i. c. declare and manifelt Himfelf to be the Judge of all the Earsh, fint by the GOD of Heaven to judge Them that had condemn'd Him, and, in that very Body, that once E 3 was crucified upon the Crofs at Jerufalem, for our Sins, So that all the World fhall then behold Him fhining in all His Glory and Majefly, and fhall acknowledge Him to be now, what they would not believe Him to be before, even both GOD and Man, and fo the Judge of all the World, from whom there can be no appeal.

A'N D having thus declar'd His Commission, I believe the full Work He will go upon, will be to open the Book of GOD's Remembrance, and to caule all the Indictments to be read, that are there found on Record against those on His Right Hand; but behold, all the black Lines of their Sins being blotted out with the red Lines of their Saviour's Blood. and nothing but their good Works, their Prayers, their Sermons, their Meditations, their Alms, and the like, to be found there; the righteous Judge, before whom they stand, turning Himself towards them, with a ferene and fmiling Countenance, will declare to them, before all the World, that their Sins are pardon'd, and their Perfons accepted by Him, as having believ'd in Him ; and, therefore, will He immediately proceed to pronounce the happy Sentence of Election upon them, faying, Come, ye bleffed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the Foundation of the World.

THE Sentence being thus pronounc'd, the Righteous (and I hope my felf among the reft) shall go up with Shouts of Joy and Triumph, to fit with our bleffed Redeemer, to judge the other Parts of the World, who stand at the Left Hand of the Tribunal, with ghassly Countenances and trembling Hearts, to receive their last and dreadful Doom. Against these all the Sins that ever they committed, or were guilty of, shall be brought up in Judgment against them, as they are found on Record in the Book of GOD's Remembrance, and the Indictment read against every particular Person, high or low, for every particular Sin, great or small, which they have committed.

AND the Truth of this Indictment shall be attested by their own Confciences, crying, Guiley, Guiley s I fay, by their own Confciences, which are as a thoufand Witneffes: yea, and by the Ommifciences of GOD too, which is as a thousand Confsiences. And therefore, without any farther Delay, shall the Judge proceed to pronounce the Sentence, the doleful Sentence of Condemnation upon them, Depart, ye Curfed, into everlassing Fire, prepared for the Devil and his Angels.

THIS, I believe, or fuch like, will be the Method of CHRIST'S proceeding with us in that great and terrible Day of Tryal and Retribution.

OH! may these awful Thoughts and Ideas of it always accompany me, and firike such a deep and lively Impression upon my Heart, in every Attion of Life, as to deter me from offending this Just and Almighry Being, in whose Power it is, to defiroy both Body and Soul in Hell; and engage me in such a regular, firits, and conscientions Course of Life, as to be always ready, whenever He shall please to summon me, to give in my Accounts at the grand Audit, and with a holy Assurance, fly for Mercy and Succour into the Hands of my Redeemer, and be permitted to enter into the Joys of his Reft!

ARTICLE XII.

I believe, there are two other Worlds, befides this I live in; a World of Misery for unrepenting Sinners, and a World of Glory for believing Saints.

WHEN Death hath open'd the Cage of Flefh, wherein the Soul is penn'd up, whither it flies, or how it fubfifts, I think it not eafie to determine, or indeed to conceive. As for the Platonick Aerial and Ætherial Vehicles, fucceeding this Terreftrial one, I find neither Mention of, nor War-EA fant for them, in the Word of GOD. And, indeed, to fuppole that a Spiritual Subfrance cannoe fublift of itlelf, without being fupported by a Corporeal Vehicle, is, in my Opinion, too grofs a Conceit for any Philofopher, much more for one that profefles himfelf a Divine, to advance or entertain. Only this I am fute of, that according to the Difunction of Lives here into good or bad, and the Sentences pais'd upon all hereafter, of Abfolution of Condemnation, there will be a swofold Receptacle for the Souls of Men, the one of Happinefs, the other of Milery.

As to the first, I believe, that at the great and general Affizes of the World, there will be a glorious Entrance open'd for the Righteons into the Holy of Holies, the Seat and Fountain of all Blifs and Happiness, where they shall draw nigh to the most High GOD, behold His Presence in Righteons nefs, and reign with Him for ever in Glory, where they thall fee Him Face to Face, 1 Cor. xiii. 12. and know Him the only true GOD, and JESUS CHRIST whom He hath fent, John xvii. 3. And this Knowing and Beholding GOD Face to Face, is, I believe the very Heaven of Heavens, even the higheft Happiness that it is possible a Creature should be made capable of : For in having a perfect Knowledge of GOD, we shall have a perfect Knowledge of all things that ever were, are, fliall, yea, or can be, in the World. For GOD being the Being of all Beings, in feeing Him, we shall not only fee whatfoever hath been, but whatfoever can be communicated from Him. The Contemplation of which, cannot but ravifh and transport my Spirit beyond itfelf; especially, when I confider, that in knowing this One-All-Things, GOD, I cannot but enjoy whatfoever 'the pollible any Greature flould chioy. For the knowing of a thing is the Soul's Enjoyment of it; the Underfanding being to the Soul, what the Senies are to the Body. And, therefore, at the Body chioys nothing but by its Senfer, ſo fo neither doth the Soul enjoy any thing but by its Underftanding, And, as the Body is faid to have whatfoover affects its proper Senfee, fo may the Soul be faid to have whatfoover comes under its Knowledge. Nay, the Soul fo far kate what it knows, that, in a manger, it is what it knows, its foll being, in a fpiritual manner, enlarged, according to the Extent of the Objects which it knows, as the Body is by the Meat it cats; the Truths we know turning into the Subfance of our Souls, as the Meat we eat doth into the Subfance of our Bodies.

BUT Oh! what a rare Soul than I then have. when it shall be extended to every thing that over was, or over could have been ! What a happy Creature shall I then be, when I shall know, and so enjoy Him that is all things in Himfelf ! What can and Creature defire more ) yea, What more can a Creature be made capable of enjoying or defiring? And that which will always accompany this our Knowledge and Enjoyment, is, perfect Love to what we enjoy and know, without which we fould take Pleafure in nothing, the' we should have all things to, take Pleasure in. But who will be able not to love the chiefeft Good, that knows and enjoys Him, and therefore enjoys Him becaufe he knows Him? Oucfionlefs, in Heaven, as I shall enjoy what foever I can love, fo shall I love whatfoever I enjoy. And. this, therefore, I believe to be the Perfection of my: Happinels, and the Happinels of my Perfection, in the other World; that I shall perfectly know and. love, and fo, perfectly enjoy and rejoice in the most. High GOD; and shall be, as known, to perfectly loved, and rejoiced in by Him. And, queltionlefs. for all our shallow Apprehensions and low Estimations of these things now, they cannot chuse but be vaft and unconceivable Pleasures, too great for any, Creature to enjoy, whilf here below.

Is we have but the leaft Drop of these Pleasures diffill'd into us here upon Earth, how ftrangely dothey make us, as it were, besides ourfelves, by lift- $E_5$  ing:

ing us above our felves! If we can but at any time get a Glymple of GOD, and of His Love to us, how are we immediately carried beyond all other Pleasures and Contentments whatsoever ! How apt are we to fay with Peter, It is good for us to be here ! And if the Fore-taftes of the Bleffings of Cansan. if the dark Intimations of GOD's Love to us, be fo unspeakably pleasant, fo ravishingly delightsome, Oh! What will the full Poffession of Him be! What transporting Extailes of Love and Joy shall those bleffed Souls be poffeffed with, who shall behold the King of Glory imiling upon them, rejoicing over them, and thining forth in all his Love and Glory upon them ! Oh ! what aftonishing Beauty will they then behold ! What flowing, what refreshing Pleafures shall then solace and delight their Spirits, unto all Eternity! Pleafures! far greater than I am able either to express or conceive, much less to enjoy. on this fide Heaven ! My Faculties are now too narrow and fcanty for fuch an Entertainment: and therefore, till they are fpiritualized and enlarged, they can't receive it ! This is the Portion only of another World, this the Crown of Righteou [nefs, which the Lord the Righteous Judge referves in Heaven for me, and which, at His fecond Coming, He has promis'd to beftow upon me, and not upon me only, but upon all them also that love his Appearing.

As to the other State, viz. That of the Wicked in another Life, I believe it will be as exquisitely miferable and wretched, as that of the Righteous is happy and glorious: They will be driven for ever from the Prefence of the LORD, from those bright and bleffed Regions above, where CHRIST firs at the Right Hand of GOD, to those dark and dismal Dungeons below, where the Devil and his Angels are for ever doom'd to be tormented.

WHAT fort of Torments or Punishments they are there to undergo, I am as unable to express, as I am unwilling ever to experience; but, according to the Notions which Scripture and Reason give me of these Matters, I believe, they will be twofold, viz. 1. Privative, and, 2. Positive, i.e. The Wicked will not only be deprived of all that is good and happy, but actually condemn'd to all that is evil and: mijerable; and that in the most transcendent Degree.

THE first Part of their Punishment will confist in Envious, Melancholy, and Self-condemning Reflexions upon their having defeated, and deprived themfelves, not only of their carnal Mirth and fenfual Enjoyments, their Friends, Fortunes, and Eftates in this World, but also of all the infinite Joya and Glories of the next, the Prefence of GOD, the Society of Saints and Angels, and all the refreshing and ravishing Delights which flow from the Fruition of the chiefeft Good: And what adds yet farther to their Anguish and Remorfe, is, that they have loss the very Hopes of ever regaining any of these Enjoyments!

OH! how infinitely tormenting and vexatious muft fuch a Condition be, which at once gives them a View both of the greateft Happinefs, and the greateft Mifery, without the leaft Hopes either of recovering the one, or being delivered from the other! How muft they tear, torment, and curfe themfelves, for their former Follies; and too late, with that they had been flifted in the Womb, or drown'd in the Font which was to be their fecond Birth!

AND, if the bare Privation of Heaven and Happinefs be fo miferable and tormenting, how will it rack their Confciences, and fill their Souls with Horror and Amazement, to behold the Eternal GOD, the glorious Jehovah, in the Fiercenefs of His Wrath, continually threatning to pour out His Vengeance upon them! How much more, when He pofitively configns them over to the Power of the Devil, to execute His Judgment in full Meafure! when they are gnaw'd upon by the Worm of their own Confciences, feel the Wrath of the Al-E 6 mighty mighty flaming in their Hearts, and Fire and Brimfrone their continual Torsure ! And all this, without the leaft Allay or Mixture of Refreshment, or the leaft Hopes of Ending or Cellation.

In a word, when they have nothing elfe to expect but Mifery for their Portion, Weeping and Wailing for their constant Employment, and the Devil and Dama'd Fiends their only Companions to all Eremity! And this is that World of Mifery, which all that will not be perforded to beliege in CHRAST here, must be doom'd for ever to live in hereafter !

I KNOW, the Subjects of this Article were never the Objects of my Sight, the' they are of my Faith. I never yet faw Heaven or Hell, the Places I am now freaking of; but why thou'd my Faith be flagser'd or diminish'd because of that? I never faw Rome or Comfantinople ; I never faw the flaming Sieilian Hill Æina : yet I can believe there is fuch a barning Mountain, and fuch glorious Cities ; becaule others, who have been there, have told me fo: and faithful Writers have related and deferib'd them to me. And thall I believe my Fellow Worms, and not ony great Creator, who is Truth itfelf? What sho' I never did fee the New Jernfalem that is above, nor the flaming Topher that is below; yet, fince GOD Himfelf hath both related and deferibed them to me, why fhould I doubt of them? Why should not I, a thousand times sooner, believe them to be, than if I had feen them with mine own Eyes? I cannot fo much believe, that I have now a Pen in my Hand, have a Book before me, and am writing in it, as I do and ought to believe, that I fhall, one Day, and that e'er long, be either in Heavan, or in Hell; in the Height of Happinefs, or the Depth of Wifery.

I were w, my Senfes are fallible, and, therefore, may deceive me, but my GOD, I am fure, cannot. And therefore, let others raife Doubts and Seruples as they please, I am as fully fatisfy'd and comvinc'd vinc'd of the Truth of this Article, as any of the reft.

Do then, O my GOD, heep me fieldfaft in this Faith, and give me Grace fo to fit and prepare myfelf to appear before Thee, in the white Robes of Parity and Holinefs in another World, that whenever my Diffolation comes, I may chearfally rofige my Spirit into the Hands of my Creater, and Redeemer; and, from this Crazy Houfe of Clay, take my Flight into the Manfoons of Glery, where CHRIST fits at the Right Hand of GOD; and, with the joyful Quire of Saints, and Angels, and the Bleffed Spirits of Jult Men made perfect, chant forth Thy Praifes so all Esernity.

Resolutions form'd from the foregoing Articles.

S Obsdience without Fairb is impossible, fo Fairb without Obedience is vain and unprofftable: For as the Body, fays St. James, without the Spirie is dead, fo Faith, without good Works is dead allo, lames ii. 26. Having, therefore, I hope, laid a fure Foundation, by refolving what, and how, to believe, I shall now by the Grace of GOD, refeive so to order my Convertation, in all Circumstances and Conditions of Life, as to raife a good Superfructure upon it, and to finish the Work GOD has given me to do, i.e. fo to leve and pleafe GOD in this World, as to enjoy and he happy with Him for ever, in the next. And tis ablolutely necessary. that I shou'd be speedy and serious in these Refolutions; especially, when I reflect with Myself, how much of my Time I have already fpent upon the Vanities and Follies of Youth, and how much enhanc'd and increas'd this Work, by acquir'd Guilt. is settled and repeated Habits of Sin, which are not without great Difficulty to be aton'd for, and remov'd.

mov'd. My Heart, alas ! is now more harden'd in Iniquity, more puff'd with Pride, and more averse from GOD, than when I first enter'd into Covenant with Him : And I have added many actual Sins and Provocations to my Original Guilt and Pollution ; instead of glorifying GOD, I have difhonour'd Him; and, inftead of working out my own Salvation, I have taken a Pleafure and Delight in fuch things, as would, in the End, be my Ruin and Destruction. So that, before I can be able to make any Progress in the Duties of Religion, or walk in the Paths that lead to Life, I must first be freed and difentangled from these Weights and Incumbrances that clog and retard me in my fpiritual Course; I must have my Heart cleans'd and softened, humbled and converted to GOD, and all my Transgreffions purg'd and pardon'd by the Merits of my Redeemer. And then, being fully perfuaded, that there is no way for me to come to the Joys of Heaven, but by walking according to the firicteft Rules of Holineis upon Earth, I must endeavour for the future, by a thorow Change and Reformation of my Life, to act in Conformity to the Divine Will and Pleafure in all things and perfet Holinefs in the Fear of the LORD : For the most High has told me in His Word, that without Holine's no Man shall see the LORD.

IN order, therefore, to qualify Myfelf for this Happinels, it will be neceffary for me to fettle firm and fteady Refolutions, to fulfil my Duty, in all the feveral Branches of it, to GOD, my Neighbour, and myfelf; and to take care, these *Refolu*tions be put in Practice, according to the following Method.

RESOLUTION I.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to walk by Rule, and, therefore, think it neceffary to refolve upon Rules to walk by.

ND this rather, becaufe I perceive, the Want of fuch Rules has been the Occasion of all, or most of my Miscarriages. For, what other Reafon can I affign to myfelf, for having trifled and finn'd away fo much Time, as I have done in my younger Years, but because I did not thoroughly refolve to spend it better ? What is the Reason, I have hitherto liv'd fo unferviceably to GOD, fo unprofitably to others, and fo finfully against my own Soul; but because I did not apply myself, with that Sincerity of Refolution, Diligence, and Circumfpection, as a wife Man ought to have done, to discharge my Duty in these Particulars ? I have, indeed, often refolv'd to bid adieu to my Sins and Follies, and enter upon a new Course of Life : but these Refolutions being not rightly form'd upon fteady Principles, the first Temptation made way for a Relapse, and the same Bait that first allur'd me, has no fooner been thrown in my way, but I have been as ready to catch at it again, and as greedy to fwallow it, as ever. At other times, again, I have acted without any Thought or Refolution at all; and then, tho' fome of my Actions might be good in themselves, yet being done by chance, without any true Defign or Intention, they cou'd not be imputed to me as good, but rather the quite contrary: So that, in this respect, the Want of Resolution has not only been the Occasion of my linful Actions, but the Corruption of my good ones too. And shall I still go on in this same loose and carelefs manner, as I have formerly done? No, I now y refolve with myfelf, in the Prefence of the most High and Eternal GOD, not only, in general, to 11/2 walk by Rule, but to fix the Rule I defign to walk by; fo that, in all my Thoughts, and Words, and Actions, in all Places, Companies, Relations, and Conditions, I may fill have a fure Guide at hand to direct me, fuch a one as I can fafely depend upon without any Danger of being deceived or mifled, i.e. the Holy Scripture. And therefore,

RESOLUTION II.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to make the Divine Word the Rule of all the Rules I propose to myself.

S the Will of GOD is the Rule and Measure of all that is goed, fo there is nothing deferves that Name, but what is agreeable and conformable thereto : And this Will being fully reveal'd and contain'd in the Holy Scripture, it will be negetiary for me, in diroching my Courfe over the Qeean of this World, that I shou'd fix my Eye continually upon this Star, fleer by this Compais, and make it the only Land-Mark ; by which I am to be guided to my wich'd-for Haven. I must not, therefore, have Recourfe to the inward Workings of my own roving Fancy, or the corrupt dictates of my own carnal Reason; These are but blind Guidos, and will certainly lead me into the Ditch of Error, Herefy and Irreligion, which, in these our Self admiring Days, fo many poor Souls have been plung'd Alas! how many hath the impetuous Torrent ia. of blind Zeal and erroneous Confcience, born down into a Will-Worfhip, and voluntary Subjection of themselves to the spurious Offspring of their own deluded Fancies ! If the Light that is within them doth but distate any thing to be done; or rather, if the Whimly doth but take them, that they must do thus or thus, they prefently fet about 4, without over confuling the Sacred Writings, to ſee fee whether 'tis acceptable to GOD, or difpleafing to Him. Whereas, for my own part, I know not how any thing thould be worthy of GOD's Accepting, that is not of GOD's Commanding. I am fute. the Word of GOD is the good old Way that will certainly bring me to my Father's Heule; for how should that Way but lead me to Heaven, which Truth itself has chalk'd out for me? Not as if it was necessary, that every one of my Refolutione should be contain'd. Word for Word, in the Holy Scriptures; 'his fufficient, that they be implied in, and agreeable thereto. So that, tho' the Manner of my Expressions may not be found in the Word of GOD, yet the Matter of my Refolations may clearly be-drawn from thence. But let me dive a little into the Depth of my finful Heart ! What's the Reafon of my thus refolving upon fuch an exact Conformity to the Will and Word of GOD? Is it to work my Way to Heaven with mine own Hands ? to purchase an Inheritance in the Land of Canaan, with the Price of my own Holiness and Religion ? or to fwim over the Ocean of this World, into the Haven of Happiness, upon the empty Bladders of my own Refolutions ? No.

RESOLUTION IIL

I am resolved, That as I am not able to think or do ony thing that is Good, without the Influence of the Divine Grace; fo I will not pretend to merit any Favour from GOD, upon Account of any thing I do for His Glory and Service.

A ND indeed, I may very well put this Refolution amongst the rest; for should I resolve to perform my Refolutions by mine own Strength, I might as well resolve never to perform them at all: For

II7

For Truth itfelf, and mine own woful Experience hath convinc'd me. That I am not able, of myfelf. fo much as to think a good Thought : And how, then, shall I be able of myself, to resolve upon Rules of Holinefs, according to the Word of GOD. or to order my Conversation according to these Refolutions, without the Concurrence of the Divine Grace? Alas! fhould the Great GOD be pleafed to leave me to myfelf to refolve upon what is agreeable to my corrupt Nature, what strange kind of Refolutions fhould I make ? What fhould I refolve upon? Certainly, only nothing but to gratify my carnal Appetite with fenfual and finful Pleafures, to indulge myself in Riot and Excess, to spend my Time, and ravel out my Parts and Talents, in the Revels of Sin and Vanity. But now, to live holily, righteously, and godlily in this present World, to deny my own, that I may fulfil the Will of GOD; alas t fuch Refolutions as these would never so much as come into my Thoughts, much lefs would they difcover themselves in my outward Conversation.

BUT, fuppole I should be able to make good Refolutions, and fulfil them exactly in my Life and Actions; yet, What show'd I do more than my Duty? And what should I be effeem'd of, for doing that? Alas! this is fo far from puffing me up, that I am verily perfuaded should I spend all my Time, my Parts, my Strength, my Gifts, for GOD, and all my Eftate upon the Poor; fhould I water my Conch continually with my Tears and fast my Body into a Skeleton; should I employ each Moment of my Life in the immediate Worship of my Glorious Creator; fo that all my Actions, from my Birth to my Death. should be but one continued A& of Holiness and Obedience ; In a word, should I live like an Angel in Heaven, and die like a Saint on Earth, yet I know no truer, nor should I defire any better Epitaph to be engraven upon my Tomb than this, Here lies an unprefitable Servant. No. no; 'tis CHRIST, and CHRIST alone, that my Soul muft must fupport itself upon. It is Holiness, indeed, that is the Way to Heaven; but there is none, none but CHRIST can lead me to it. As the worst of my Sins are pardonable by CHRIST, fo are the best of my Duties damnable without Him.

BUT if fo, then whither tend my Refolutions? Why fo ftrict, fo circumspect a Conversation? Why, tis to justify that Faith before others, and mine own Conscience, which, I hope, through CHRIST, shall justify my Soul before GOD. And I believe farther, That the Holier I live here, the Happier I shall live hereafter; For though I shall not be fav'd for my Works, yet I believe, I shall be fav'd according to them. And thus, as I dare not expect to be fav'd by the Performance of my Refolutions, without CHRIST's Merit, fo neither do I ever expect to be enabled to perform my Refolutions, without His Spiric affifting me therein.

No; 'tis Thyfelf, my GOD, and my Guide, that I wholly and folely depend upon ! Oh ! for Thine own Name's Sake, for Thy San's Sake, and for Thy Promife Sake, do Thou both make me to know what Thou would ft have me to do, and then help me to do what Thou would ft have me to know ! Teach me first what to use would ft have me to know ! Teach me first what to refolve upon, and then enable me to perform my Refolutions; that I may walk with Thee in the Ways of Holinefs here, and reft with Thee in the Joys of Happinefs bereafter !

Concerning my Conversation in general.

H AVING thus far determin'd in general, to form Refolutions for the better regulating of my Life, I muft now defcend to Particulars, and fettle fome Rules with myfelf, to refolve my future Life and Conversation wholy into Holinefs and Religion. I know, this is a hard Tafk to do; but I am fure, 'tis no more than what my GOD and my my Father has fet me: Why, therefore, fould I think much to do it? Shall I grudge to fpend my, Life for Him, who did not grudge to found His own Blood for me? Shall not I fo live, that He may be glorified here on Earth, who died, that I might be glorified in Heaven; Especially, confidering, that if my whole Life could be sublimated into Holinels, and moulded into an exact Conformity unto the Will of the most High, I should be happy beyond Expression? Oh! what a Heaven should I then have on Earth ! What Ravishments of Love and Loy would my Soul be continually posses'd with ! Well ; I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to try; And to that End, do, this Morning, wholly fequelter and fer myfelf apart for GOD, refolving, by the Affiftance of His Grace, to make all and every Thought, Word, and Action, to pay their Tribute unto Him. Let This Man mind his Profit, a Second his Pleafures, a Third his Honours, a Fourth himfelf, and All their Sins z I am refolv'd to mind and ferve my GOD, fo as to make Him the Alpha and Omega, the first and the haft of my whole Life. And, that I may always have an exact Copy before me, to write and frame every Lester of this my Life by,

In order, therefore, to prevent this,

RESOLUTION II.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to walk by Faith, and not by Sight, on Earth, that fo I may live by Sight, and not by Faith, in Heaven.

ND truly, this Refolution is fo necellary to the Performance of all the reft, that without it I can do nothing, with it I can do every thing that is required. The Reafon why 'I am fo much taken with the Garnifh and feeming Beauty of this World's Vanities, fo as to flep out of the Road of Holinefs to catch at, or delight my felf in them, is only becaufe I look upon them with an Eye of Senfe. For could I behold every thing with the Eye of Faish, I fhould judge of them, not as they fermitome, but as

as they are in themselves, Vanity and Vexation of Spirit. For, Faith has a quick and piercing Eye, that can look through the outward Superficies, into the inward Effence of Things. It can look through the pleafing Bait to the hidden Hook, view the Sting, as well as the Honey, the everlafting Punifhment, as well as the temporal Contentment there is in Sin. It is, as the Apostle very well defines it, the Substance of Things hoped for, and the Evidence of Things not Seen, Heb. xi. 1. 'Tis the Substance of whatfoever is promifed by GOD to me, or expected by me from Him : So that, by Faith, whatfoever I hope for in Heaven, I may have the Substance of upon Earth : And 'tis the Evidence of Things not feen, the Prefence of what is absent, the clear Demonstration of what wou'd otherwife feem impoffible : fo that I can clearly difcern, as through a Prospective, hidden Things, and Things afar off, as if they were open, and just at hand; I can bok into the deepest Mysteries, as fully reveal'd, and see Heaven and Eternity as just ready to receive me.

AND, Oh! could I but always look through this Glafs, and be constantly upon the Mount, taking a View of the Land of Canaan, what Dreams and Shadows would all things here below appear to be? Well; by the Grace of GOD, I am refolv'd no longer to the myfelf to Senfe and Sight, the fordid and trifling Affairs of this Life, but always to walk as one of the other World, to behave myfelf in all Places, and at all Times, as one already possified of my Inheritance, and an Inhabitant of the New Jorufalem: By Faith affuring myfelf, I have but a few more Days to live below, a little more Work to do; And then I shall lay afide my Glafs, and be admitted to a nearer Vision and Fruition of GOD, and fee Him Face to Face.

Br this means, I thall always live, as if I was daily to die; always fpeak, as if my Tongue, the next Moment, were to cleave to the Roof of my Mouth; and continually order my Thoughts and Affections

z

Affections in fuch a manner, as if my Soul were just ready to depart, and take its Flight into the other World. By this means, whatfoever Place I am in, or whatfoever Work I am about, I shall still be with my GOD, and demean myself fo, as if with St. Jerome, I heard the Voice of the Trumpet crying out, Awake ye Dead, and some to Judgment.

AND thus, though I am at prefent here in the Flesh, yet I shall look upon my felf as more really an Inhabitant of Heaven, than I am upon Earth. Here I am but as a Pilgrim or Sojourner, that has no abiding City; but there I have a fure and everlasting Inheritance, which CHRIST has purchas'd and prepar'd for me, and which Faith has given me the Possession of. And, therefore, as it is my Duty, fo will I conftantly make it my Endeavour, to live up to the Character of a true Christian, whose Portion and Conversation is in Heaven, and think it a Difgrace and Difparagement to my Profession, to ftoop to, or entangle myself with, such Toys and Trifles, as the Men of the World buly themfelves about; or to feed upon Hu/ks with Swine here below, when it is in my Power, by Faith, to be continually fupply'd with spiritual Manna from Heaven, till at last I am admitted to it. And that I may awe my Spirit into the Performance of these, and all other my Resolutions,

RESOLUTION III.

I am refolved, by the Grace of GOD, always to be looking upon GOD, as always looking upon me.

WHERESOEVER I am, or whatfoever I am a doing, I muft ftill confider the Eye of the Great GOD, as directly intent upon me, viewing and obferving all my Thoughts, Words, and Actions, and writing them down in the Book of his Remembrance s brance; and that all these, unles they be mainial out with the Tears of Repostance, and crois'd with the Blood of my cracify d Saviour. must still demain on Record, and be brought in Judgmont against me at the Great Day, That therefore, I may always behave myfelf as in His Prolence, it behoves me throughly to confider, and be perfuaded, not only that my outward Man, but even all the secret Thoughts, the inward Motions and Retirements of my Soul, all the feveral Windings and Turnings of my Heart, are exactly known and manifeft, as anatomiz'd before Him. He knows what I am now a thinking, doing, and writing, as well as I do myfelf; yea, He fees every Word whill its in my Heart, before it be brought forth and fet down. He knows all the Refolutions I have made, and how often, poor Creature ! I have broken them already, fince I made them.

UPON this Confideration, I refolve to fand my Ground against all Temptations, and whenever I find myfelf in danger to be drawn afide by them, to oppose the Bent of my corrupt Affections, by these or the like Queftions: Am I really in the Prefence of the Almighty, the great Lord of Heaven and Earth, and shall I prefume to affront Him to His Face, by doing fuch things as I know are odious and difpleafing to Him ! I would not commit Adultery in the Prefence of my Fellow-Creatures, and shall I do it in the Presence of the glorious Jehovah? I would not feal in the Sight of an earthly Judge. and shall I do it before the Judge of all the World? If Fear and Shame from Men have fuch an Influence upon me, as to deter me from the Commiffion of Sin, how ought I to be mov'd.with the Apprehension of God's Inspection, who does not only know my Transgreffions, but will eternally punith me for them?

MAY these Thoughts and Confiderations always take Place in my Heart, and be accompany'd with fuch happy Effects in my Conversation, that I may live live with GOD upon Earth, and fo love and fear His Presence in this World, that I may for ever enjoy His Glory in the next !

$$$$$$

Concerning my THOUGHTS.

BUT who am I, poor, proud, finful Duft and Afhes, that I fhould expect to live fo Holy, fo Heavenly, as is here suppos'd! Can Grapes be gather'd from Thorns, or Figs from Thiftles? Can the Fruit be fweet, when the Root is bitter? Or the Streams healthful, when the Fountain's poifon'd ? No, I must either get me a new and better Heart. or elfe it will be impossible for me ever to lead a new and better Life. But how must I come by this Pearl of ineftimable Value, a new Heart? Can I purchase it with my own Riches ? or find it in my own Field? Can I raife it from Sin to Holinefs? from Earth to Heaven? or from myself to GOD? Alas! I have endeavour'd it, but I find, by woful Experience, I cannot attain to it: I have been lifting and heaving again and again, to raife it out of the Mire and Clay of Sin and Corruption; but alas! it will not flir: I have rubb'd and chaf'd it with one Threatning after another, and all to get Heat and Life into it : but still 'tis as cold and dead as ever: I have brought it to' the Promifes, and fet it under the Droppings of the Sanctuary; I have thewn it the Beauty of CHRIST, and the Deformity of Sin; but yet 'tis a hard and finful, an earthly and fenfual Heart still, What, therefore, shall I do with it? O my GGD, I bring it unto Thee! Thouthat madest it a Heart at first, canst only make it a new Heart now ! O do Thou purify and refine it, and renew a right Spirit within me ! Do Thou take it into Thy Hands, and out of Thine Infinite Good-nels. new mould it up, by Thine own Grace, into F an an eract Conformity to Thine own Will? Do Thou but give me a new Heart, and I shall promise Thee, by Thy Grace, to lead a new Life, and become a new Creature! Do Thou but clear the Fountain, and I shall endeavour to look to the Streams that flow from it ! which that I may be able to do, with the better Success,

RESOLUTION I.

I am refolv'd by the Grace of GOD, to watch as much over the inward Motions of my Heart, as the outward Attions of my Life.

COR, my Heart, I perceive, is the Womb, in which all Sin is first conceiv'd, and from which, my Saviour tells me, proceed evil Thoughts, Adulteries, Fornications, Murders, Thefts. Covetousnefs, Wickednefs, Deceit, Lascivioussnefs, an evil Eye, Blasphemy, Pride, Foolishness, Mark vii. 21, 22. So that, as ever I would prevent the Commission of these Sins in my Life, I must endeavour to hinder their Conception in my Heart, following the Wife Man's Counsel, to keep my Heart with all Diligence, becaule out of it are the Issues of Life, Prov. iv. 23. Neither is this the only Reason, why I should set fo strict a Watch over my Heart, because sinful Thoughts lead to finful Acts; but because the Thoughts themselves are finful, yea, the very Firstborn of Iniquity; which though Men cannot pry into or discover, yet the All-seeing GOD knows and observes, and remembers them, as well as the greatest Actions of all my Life. And Oh! what wicked and prophane Thoughts have I formerly entertain'd, not only against GOD, but against CHRIST, by queftioning the Justice of His Laws, and doubting of the Truth of His Revelation, fo as to make both His Life and Death of none effect to me ! Which that they may never be laid to my Charge hereafter.

hereafter, I humbly befeech GOD to pardon and abfolve me from them, and to give me Grace, for the Remainder of my Life, to be as careful of thinking, as of doing well, and as fearful of offending Him in my Heart, as of transgreffing His Laws in my Life and Conversation. To this end,

RESOLUTION II.

I am refolu'd, by the Grace of GOD, to flop every Thought, at its first entring into my Heart, and to examine it, whence it comes, and whither it tends.

S O foon as ever any new Thought begins to bubble in my Soul, I am refolv'd to examine what Stamp it is of, whether it fpring from the pure Fountain of Living Waters, or the polluted Streams of my own Affections; as also, which way it tends, or takes its Course, towards the Ocean of Happinefs, or the Pit of Destruction. And the Reason of this my Refolution, I draw from the Experience I have had of the Devil's Temptations, and the Working of my own Corruptions; by which I find, that there is no Sin I am betray'd into, but what takes its Rife from my inward Thoughts. These are the Tempters that first prefent some pleasing Object to my View, and then byass my Understanding, and pervert my Will, to comply with the Suggestions. So that, though the Spirit of GOD is pleas'd to dart a Beam into my Heart at the fame time, and thew me the odious and dangerous Effects of fuch Thoughts; yet, I know not how or why, I find a prevailing Suggestion within, that tells me, 'tis but a Thought, and that io long as it goes no farther, it cannot do me much Hurt. Under this fpecious Colour and Pretence, I fecretly perfuade myself to dwell a little longer upon it; and finding my Heart pleas'd and delighted with its natural Issue, I give it a little farther Indulgence, till. at last, my Defire breaks out into a Flame, and will be fatisfied with nothing lefs than the Enjoyment of the Object it is exercis'd upon. And what Water can quench fuch a raging Fire, as is thus kindled by the Devil, and blown up by the Bellows of my own inordinate Affections, which the more I think of, the more I increase the Flame? How nearly, therefore, does it concern me to take up this Re-Colution, of fetting a constant Watch and Guard at the Door of my Heart, that nothing may enter in without a firict Examination? Not as if I could examine every particular Thought that arifes in my Heart, for by that means I should do nothing elfe but examine my Thoughts without Intermission. But this I must do: when soever I find any Thought , that bears the Face or Appearance of Sin, I must throw it afide, with the utmost Abhorrence: And when it comes in Difguife, as the Devil under Samuel's Mantle, or when it is a Thought I never conceiv'd before, and know not but it may be bad, as well as good; then, before I fuffer it to fettle upon my Spirits, I must examine, as well as I can, whether it be fent from Heaven or Hell, and what Meffage it comes about, and what will be the Iffue of it. And thus, by the Divine Affiftance, I shall let nothing into my Heart, but what will bring me nearer to my GOD, and fet me at a greater Diftance from the Evil and Punishment of Sin. Neither do I think it my Duty only to be fo watchful against fuch Thoughts as are in themselves finful; but.

RESO-

RESOLUTION III.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to be as fearful to let in vain, as careful to keep out finful Thoughts.

Do not look upon vain Thoughts as only tending to Sin, but as in themfelves finful; for that which makes Sin to be Sin, is the want of Conformity to the Will of GOD; and that vain Thoughts are not conformable and agreeable to the Divine Will, appears, in that GOD Himself, by the Mouth of His Royal Prophet, expressly faith, I hate vain Thoughts, Pfal. cxix. 113. Again, vain Thoughts are therefore finful, because they have in them nothing that can denominate them good: For, as in a Moral Senfe, there is never a particular Individual. Act, fo neither is there any particular Thought, but what is either good or bad, in some respect or other. There is not a Moment of my Life; but 'tis my Duty either to be thinking, or fpeaking, or daing Good : So that whenfoever I am not thus employ'd, I come fhort of my Duty, and by confequence, am guilty of Sin.

BUT what are these vain Thoughts I am thus refolving against? Why all Wandrings, and Distractions in Prayer, or in Hearing the Word of GOD; all useless, trifling and impertinent Thoughts, that do not belong to, nor further, the Work I am about, the grand Affair of my Salvation, may properly be call'd vain Thoughts. And alas! What Swarms of these are continually crowding into my Heart? How have I thought away whole Hours together, about I know not what Chimeras, whereof one scarce ever depends upon another : Sometimes entertaining myself with the Pleafures of Sense, as eating and drinking, and fuch like earthly Enjoyments; fometimes building Caftles in the Air, and clambering up to the Pinacle of Wealth and Honour, Honour, which I am not half way got up to, but down I fall again into a Fool's Paradife?

On, if I chance, at any time, to think a good while upon one thing, it is just to as much purpose as the Man's Thoughts were, which I have fometimes heard of, and fmil'd at, who having an Egg in his Hand, by a fort of Chimerical Climax, improv'd it into an Effate: but while he was thus pleafing himfelf with these imaginary Products, down dropt the Egg, and all his Hens, and Cattel, and House, and Land, that he had rais'd from it, vanish'd in the Fall. These, and such like, are the wain Thoughts, that I must for the future, endeavour to avoid; and though it will be impossible for we wholly to prevent their first entring into my Mind, yet I refolve, by the Grace of GOD, not to harbour or dwell upon, or delight myself in them. And then, notwithitanding they are, in fome fense, finful, yet they will not be imputed to me as fuch, provided I use my utmost Endeavours to avoid them. Which that I may be the better able to do,

RESOLUTION IV.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to be always exercifing my Thoughts upon good Objects, that the Devil may not exercife them upon bad.

THE Soul, being a fpiritual Subfance, is always in Action, and its proper and immediate Act is Thinking, which is as natural and proper to the Soul, as Extension is to the Body: 'Tis that upon which all the other Actings of the Soul are grounded; fo that neither our Apprehensions of, nor Affections to, any Object can be acted without it. And hence it is, that I think the Soul is very properly properly defined, Subfantia cogitans, a thinking Subfance; for there is nothing elfe but a Spirit can think, and there is no Spirit but always doth think. And this I find, by Experience, to be fo true and certain, that if at any time I have endeavour'd to think of nothing, (as I have fometimes done) I have fpent all the time in thinking upon that very Thought.

How much, therefore, doth it concern me to keep my Soul in continual Exercife upon what is Good? for, be fure, if I do not fet it on work, the Devil will: and if it do not work for GOD, it will work for Him: I know, finful Objects are more agreeable to a finful Soul ; but I am fure, Holy Thoughts are more conformable to a Holy GOD. Why, therefore, should I spend and ravel out my Thoughts upon that which will deftroy my Soul ? No. no: I shall henceforth endeavour always to be employing my Thoughts upon fomething that is Good; and, therefore, to have good Subjects confantly at Hand to think upon (as the Attributes of GOD, the Glory of Heaven, the Milery of Hell, the Merits of CHRIST, the Corruption of my Nature, the Sinfulness of Sin, the Beauty of Holines, the Vanity of the World, the Immortality of the Soul, and the like; and likewife to take Occafion. from the Objects I meet or converse with in the World, to make fuch Remarks and Reflections, as may be for my Advantage and Improvement in my Spiritual Affairs. For, there is nothing in the World, though it be never fo bad, but what I may exercise good Thoughts upon : And my Neglect in this kind, has been the real Occafion of all those vain Thoughts that have hitherto poffefs'd my Soul. I have not kept them close to their Work, to think upon what is good, and therefore, they have run out into those Extravagancies, which, by the Blesfing of GOD, in the Performance of these Refolutions. I shall endeavour to avoid.

Iτ

IT is, indeed, a fingular Advantage of that High and Heavenly Calling, in which the Moft High, of His Wildom and Goodnels, has been pleas'd to place me, that all the Objects we converfe with, and all the Subjects we exercise our Thoughts upon, are either GOD and Heaven, or fomething relating to them. So that we need not go out of our common Road to meet with this heavenly Company, Good Thoughts. But then, I do not account every Thought of GOD, or Heaven, which only fwims in my Brain, to be a Good and Holy Thought, unless it finks down into my Heart and Affections, i.e. unless to my Meditations of GOD and another World, I join a longing for Him, a rejoicing in Him, and a folacing myself in the Hopes of a future Enjoyment of Him. Neither will this be any Hinderance, but a Furtherance to my Studies; for, as I know no Divine Truths as I ought, unlefs I know them practically and experimentally; fo I never think I have any clear Apprehenstons of GOD, till I find my Affections are inflamed towards Him: or that I ever understand any Divine Truth aright, till my Heart be brought into Subjection to it.

THIS Refolution, therefore, extends itfelf, not only to the fubject Matter of my Thoughts, but alfo to the Quality of them, with regard to Practice, that they may influence my Life and Conversation, that whether I fpeak, or write, or est, or drink, or whatfoever I do, I may fill feason all; even my commoneft Actions, with Heavenly Meditations; there being nothing I can fet my Hand to, but I may likewife fet my Heart a working upon it. Which accordingly I shall endeavour, by the Bleffing of GOD, to do. And, for the better ordering of my Thoughts,

RESO-

RESOLUTION V.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, fo to marshal my Thoughts, that they may not one justle out another, nor any of them prejudice the Business I am about.

Y Soul being by Nature fwift and nimble, and by Corruption inordinate card rations, I can never fet myfelf to think upon one thing, but prefently another preffes in, and another after that, and fo on, till by thinking of fo many things at once,. I can think upon nothing to any purpose. And hence it is, that I throw away thousands of Thoughts each Day for nothing, which, if well managed, might prove very profitable and advantagious to me. To prevent, therefore, this tumultuous, defultory, and useless working of my Thoughts, as I have already refolv'd to fix my Heart upon necessary, and uleful, and good Objects, fo, to prevent my Thoughts rolling from one thing to another, or leaping from: the Top of one, to the Height of another Object, I must now endeavour to rank and digest them into Order and Method, that they may, for the future. be more fleady and regular in their Pursuits. I know, the Devil and my own corrupt Nature will labour to break the Ranks, and confound the Order of. them: What Stratagem, therefore, shall I use, to prevent this Confusion? I shall endeavour, by the Grace of GOD, whenfoever I find any idle Thoughts begin to frisk and rove out of the way, to call them. in again, and fet them at work upon one or other of these Objects before mention'd, and to keep them, for some time, fix'd and intent upon it; and, confidering the Relations and Dependencies of one. thing upon another, not to fuffer any foreign Ideas, fuch, I mean, as are impertment to the Chain of Thoughts I am upon, to justle them out, or divert my Mind another way. No, not though they be otherwife otherwife good Thoughts; for Thoughts in themfelves good, when they crowd in unfeasonably, are fometimes attended with very ill Effects, by interrupting and preventing some good Purposes and Refolutions, which might prove more effectual for promoting GOD's Glory, the Good of others, and the Comfort of our own Souls.

THESE, and fuch like, are the Methods by which I defign and refolve to regulate my Thoughts: And fince I can do nothing without the Divine Affuftance, I earneftly beg of GOD to give me fuch a Measure of his Grace, as may enable me effectually to put these Refolutions in Practice, that I may not think and resolve in vain.

Concerning my AFFECTIONS.

DUT whilft I am thus ranging my Thoughts, I find fomething of a Paffion or Inclination within me, either drawing me to, or driving me from, every thing I think on; fo that I cannot fo much as think upon a Thought, but 'tis either pleafing or difpleasing to me, according to the Agreeableness er Disagreeableness of the Object it is placed upon, or to my natural Affections. If it comes under the pleasing Drefs and Appearance of Good, I readily chuse and embrace it; if otherwise, I am as eagerly bent to refuse and reject it. And these two Acts of the Will are naturally founded in those two reigning Paffions of the Soul, Love and Hatred, which Is cannot but look upon as the Grounds of all its other Motions and Affections. For what are those other Passions of Defire, Hope, Joy, and the like, but Love in its feveral Postures? And what elfe can we conceive of Fear, Grief, Abhorrence, or, but fin many different Expressions of Hatred, according, to the feveral Circumstances that the displeating Objeđi jeft appears to be under. Doth my Underftanding reprefent any thing to my Will, under the Notion of good and pleafant; My Will is prefently taken and delighted with it, and fo places its Love upon it; and this Love, if the Object be prefent, inclines me to embrace it with Joy; if abfent, it puts forth it felf into Defire; if eafy to be attain'd, it comforts it felf with Hope; if difficult, it arms itfelf with Courage; if impoffible, it boils up into Anger; if obftructed, it prefently falls down into Defpair.

On the other hand, Doth my Understanding represent any Object to my Will, as evil or painful, or deformed ? How doth it immediately thrink and gather up itself into a Loathing and Hatred of it ! And this Hatred, if the ungrateful Object be prefent, puts on the mournful Sables of Grief and Sorrow: if it be at any Diftance from it, it boils up into Deteftation and Abhorrence; if ready to fall upon it, it shakes for Fear; if difficult to be prevented, it ftrengthens itself with Courage and Magnanimity, either to conquer or undergo it. These Affections, therefore, being thus the conftant Attendants of my Thoughts, it behoves me as much to look to those, as to the other; especially, when I confider, that not only my Thoughts, but even my Actions too, are generally determin'd to Good or Bad, accordingly as they are influenc'd by them. That my Affections, therefore, as well as my Thoughts, may be duly regulated,

RESOLUTION I.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, always to make my Affections subservient to the Distates of my Understanding, that my Reason may not follow, but guide my Affections.

THE Affections, being of themselves, blind and inordinate; unless they are directed by F& Reason Reason and Judgment, they either move toward a wrong Object, or pursue the right in a wrong Way. And this Judgment must be mature and deliberate, fuch as arises from a clear Apprehension of the Nature of the Object that affects me, and a thorow Confideration of the several Circumstances that attend it. And great Care must be taken, that I do not impose upon my fell by Fancy and Imagination, that I do not mistake Fancy for Judgment, or the capricious Humours of my roving Imagination, for the folid Dictates of a well-guarded Reason: For, my Fancy is as wild as my Affections; and if the Blind lead the Blind, they will both fall into the Dirch.

Ann alas! how oft am I deceiv'd in this manner! If I do but fancy a thing good and lovely, how eager are my Affections in the Purfuit of it? If I do but fancy any thing evil and hurtful to me, how doth my Heart prefently rife up against it, or grieve and forrow for it? And this, I believe, hath been the Occafion of all the Enormities and Extravagancies I have been guilty of, through the whole Course of my past Life, divesting me of my reasonable Faculties, as to the Acts and Exercises of them, and subjecting my Soul to the Powers of Senfe, that I cou'd not raife my Affections above them. Thus, for inftance, I have not lov'd Grace, becaufe my Fancy cou'd not fee its Beauty; I have not loath'd Sin, because my Fancy cou'd not comprehend its Mifery; and I have not truly defir'd Heaven, because my Fancy cou'd not reach its Glory : Whereas if the transient Beauty and Lustre of this World's Vanities was but prefented to my view, how has my Fancy mounted up to the highest Pitch. of Pleafure and Ambition, and inflam'd my Heart with the Defire of them.

AND thus, poor Wretch, have I been carry'd about with the powerful Charms of Senfe, without having any other Guide of my Affections, but what is common to the very Brutes that perifh; Fancy fu, plying that Place in the Senfitive, which Reafon does

does in the Rational Soul. And, alas! What is this, but, with Nebuchadnezzar, to leave Communion with Men, and herd myself with the Flocks of the Beasts of the Field ? And, what a Shame and Reproach is this to the Image of GOD, in which I was created.

OH! Thou, that art the Author of my Nature, help me, I befeech Thee, to act more conformably to it, for the time to come; that I may no longer be bewilder'd or mifled by the blind Conduct of my ftraggling Fancy, this Ignis fature, that hurries me over Bogs and Precipices to the Pit of Defruction, but that I may bring all my Affections and Actions to the Standard of a found and clear Judgment; and let that Judgment be guided by the unersing Light of Thy Divine Word; that fo I may neither love, defire, fear, nor deteft any thing, but what my Judgment, thus form'd, tells me I ought to do !

I KNOW, it will be very hard thus to fubject my Affections to the Dictates and Commands of my Judgment: But howfoever, it is my Refolution, this Morning, in the Prefence of A mighty GOD, to endeavour it, and never fuffer my Heart to fettle its Affections upon any Object, till my Judgment hath pafs'd its Sentence upon it. And as I will not fuffer my Affections to run before my Judgment; fo, whenever that is determin'd, I ftedfaftly refolve to follow it; that fo my Apprehenfions and Affections always going together, I may be fure to walk in the direct Path of GOD's Commandments, and enter the Gate that leads to everlafting Life. And, the better to facilitate the Performance of this general Refolution, it being neceffary to defeend to Particulars;

RESO.

RESOLUTION II.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to love GOD, as the best of Goods, and to bate Sin, as the worst of Evils.

A S GOD is the Center of our Concupicible Affections, fo Sin is the Object of those we call Irafcible: And the Affections of Love and Hatred being the Ground of all the reft, I must have a great Care, that I do not missive or miscarry in them: For if these be plac'd upon wrong Objects, 'tis impossible any of the reft should be plac'd upon right ones. In order, therefore, to prevent such a Miscarriage, as GOD is the greatest Good, and Sin the greatest Evil, I resolve to love GOD above all things else in the World, and to hate Sin to the fame degree; and so to love other things, only in relation to GOD; and to hate nothing, but in reference to Sin.

As for the first, the loving GOD above all things, there is nothing feems more reafonable; inafmuch as there is nothing lovely in any Creature, but what it receives from GOD; and by how much the more 'tis like to GOD, by fo much the more 'tis lovely unto us. Hence it is, that Beauty, or an exact Symmetry and Proportion of Parts and Colours, so attracts our Love, because it so much refembles GOD, who is Beauty and Perfection itfelf. And hence it is likewise, that Grace is the most lovely thing in the World, next to GOD, as being the Image of GOD Himfelf ftamp'd upon the Soul; nay, it is not only the Image and Reprefentation, but 'tis the Influence and Communication of Himfelf to us; fo that the more we have of Grace, we may fafely fay, fo much the more we have of GOD within us. Why, therefore, fhould I grudge my Love to Him, who only deferves it : who is not only infinitely lovely in Himfelf, but the Author and Perfection of all Lovelinefs in his Creatures? Why, the true Reafon is, that my Affections have run a gadding without my Judgment, or elfe my Judgment hath been balk'd or anticipated by my Fancy ; whereas, now, that my Apprehenfions of GOD are a little clear'd up, and my Judgment leads the Way, tho' no body fees me, yet, methinks I cannot but blufh at myfelf, that I fhould ever lie doting upon these Dreams and Shadows here below, and not fix my Affections upon the infinite Beauty and All-fufficiency of GOD above, who deferves my Love and Admiration fo infinitely beyond them. Howfoever, therefore, I have heretofore plac'd my Affections upon other things above GOD. I am now refolv'd to love GOD. not only above many, or most things, but above all things elfe in the World.

AND here, by loving GOD, I do not underftand that fenfisive Affection I place upon material-Objects; for it is impoffible, that that fhould be fixed upon GOD, who is a pure fpiritual Being; but that, as by the deliberate Choice of my Will, I take Him for my chiefeft Good, fo I ought to prefer Him as fuch, before my neareft and deareft Poffeffions, Interests, or Relations, and whatfoever elfe may at any time ftand in Competition with Him.

A N D thus, as I shall endeavour to love GOD, fo likewife to bate Sin, above all things: And this is as necessfary as the former; for all things elfe have fomething of Good in them, as they are made by GOD; but Sin being, in its own Nature, a Privation of Good, and directly opposite to the Nature and Will of GOD, (as I have before shew'd) it has nothing of Beauty or Amiableness to recommend it to my Affections. On the contrary, 'tis a Compound of Deformity and Defilement, that is always attended with Punishment and Misery; and must, therefore, be the Object of my Matreed and Abhorrence, wherefoever I find it. For, as GOD is the Center of all that is Good, fo is Sin the Fountain of all the Evil in the World. All the Strife and Contention, Ignominy and Difgrace, Misfortunes and Afflictions that I observe in the World; all the Difeases of my Body, and Infirmities of my Mind; all the Errors of my Underftanding, and Irregularities of my Will and Affections; in a word, all the Evils whatfoever, that I am affected with, or fubject to, in this World, are still the Fruits and Effects of Sin: For, if Man had never offended the chiefest Good, he had never been subject to this Train of Evils which attended his Transgreffion. Whensoever, therefore, I find myfelf begin to deteft and abhor any Evil, I shall for the future, endeavour to turn my Eyes to the Spring-Head, and loath and detelt the Fountain that Sends forth all those bitter and unwholfome Streams, as well as the Chanels of those corrupt Hearts in which they flow. And, for this Reafon, I refolve to hate Sin wherefoever I find it, whether in mylelf or in others, in the best of Friends, as well as the worft of Enemies. Love, I know, and Charity, covers a Multitude of Sins, and where we love the Man, we are all of us but too apt to overlook, or excuse his Faults. For the Prevention. of this, therefore, 1 firmly refolve, in all my Ex-prefitions of Love to my Fellow Creatures, fo to love the Person, as yet to hate his Sins; and so to hate his Sins, as yet to love his Perion. The laft: of which, I hope, I shall not find hard to practile, my Nature, by the Bleffing of GOD, being not eafily inclin'd to hate any Man's Perfon whatfoever: and the former will not be much more difficult, when I confider, that by how much more I love my Friend, by fo much more shou'd I hate. whatfoever will be offenfive or deftructive to him.

HAVING thus fix'd my Refolutions, with regard to those two Commanding Passions of my Soul, Love and hatred,

RESOLUTION III.

I am refolv'd, by the Affiftance of Divine Grace, to make GOD the principal Object of my Joy, and Sin the principal Object of my Grief and Sorrow; fo as to grieve for Sin more than Suffering, and for Suffering, only for Sin's fake.

THE Affections of Joy and Grief are the immediate Issues of Love and Hatred, and, therefore, not at all to be feparated in their Object. Having therefore, refolved to love, I cannot but resolve likewise to rejoice in GOD above all things; for the fame Measure of Love I have towards any thing, the fame Measure of Complacency and Delight I must necessarily have in the Enjoyment of As, therefore, I love GOD above all things, and H. other things only in Subferviency to Him, fo muft I rejoice in GOD above all things, and in other things only as coming from Him. I know, I not only may, but must rejoice, in the Mercies and Bleffings that GOD confers upon me; but 'tis ftill my Duty to rejoice more in what GOD is in Himself, than in what He is pleased to communicate to me: So that I am not only bound to rejoice in GOD, when I have nothing elfe, but when I have all things elfe to rejoice in. Let, therefore, my Riches, Honours, or my Friends fail me; Let my Pleafures, my Health, and Hope, and All, fail me; I am still resolv'd, by His Grace, to rejoice in the LORD, and to joy in the GOD of my Salvation. On the other hand, Let Honour or Riches be multiplied upon me, Let Joy and Pleafure, and all that a carnal Heart, (like mine) can wish for or defire, be thrown upon me; yet am I still resolv'd, that as it is my Business to ferve GOD, so shall it be my Delight and Comfort to rejoice in Him.

AND

AND as GOD shall thus be my chiefest lov. fo fhall Sin be my greatest Grief; for I account no Condition milerable, but that which refults from. or leads me unto Sin: So that when any thing befalls me, which may bear the Face of Suffering and fill my Heart with Sorrow. I shall still endeavour to keep off the Smart, till I know from whence it comes. If Sin has kindled the Fire of GOD's Wrath against me, and brought these ludgments upon me, Oh! what a heavy Load shall I then feel upon my Soul? and how shall I groan and complain under the Burden of it; But if there be nothing of the Poifon of Sin dropp'd into this Cup of Sorrows, tho' it may perhaps prove bitter to my Senfes, yet it will, in the end, prove healthful to my Soul: as being not kindled at the Furnace of GOD's Wrath, but at the Flames of His Love and Affection for me. So that I am fo far from having Caule to be forry for the Sufferings he brings upon me, that I have much greater Caufe to rejoice in them, as being an Argument of the Love and Affection He bears to me; For whom the LORD loveth He chafteneth, and (courgeth every Son whom He receiveth. Heb. xii. 6.

AND having thus refolv'd to rejoice in nothing but GOD, and grieve for nothing but Sin, I must not be caft down and dejected at every Providence which the Men here below count a Lois or Affliction; for, certainly, all the Mifery I find in any thing extrinfical, is created by myfelf; nothing but what is in me being properly an Affliction to me; fo that 'tis my Fancy that is the Ground of Mifery in all things without myfelf. If I did not fancy fome Evil or Mifery in the Lofs of fuch an Enjoyment, it would be no Mifery at all to me; becaufe I am still the fame as I was, and have as much as I had before. For 'tis GOD that is the Portion of my Soul; and, therefore, should I lose every thing I have in the World befides, yet having GOD, I cannot be faid to lofe any thing, because I have Him

Him that hath, and is, all things in Himfelf. Whenfoever, therefore any thing befalls me, that uses to be Matter of Sorrow and Dejection to me, I must not prefently be affected with, nor dejected at it, but fill behave myself like an Heir of Heaven, and fiving above the Smiles and Frowns of this World, account nothing Matter of Joy, but fo far as I enjoy of GOD's Love; nor any thing Matter of Sorrow, but so much as I see of His Anger in it.

R É S O L U T I O N. IV. I am resolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to defire fpiritual Mercies more than temporal; and temporal Mercies only in reference to fpiritual.

HAVING rectify'd the Balance of my Judg-ment according to Scripture; when I would begin to weigh temporal Things with spiritual, I find there is no Proportion, and fo no Comparison to be made betwixt them. And will any wife Man, then, that pretends to Reason, be at a fland which of these to chuse, which to esteem the best, or defire most? Alas! What is there in the World, that can fill the vaft Defires of my Soul, but only He, who is infinitely above Me and my Defires too? Will Riches do it? No, I may as foon undertake to fill my Barns with Grace, as my Heart with Gold, and as cafily fluff my Bags with Virtue as ever fatisfy my Defires with Wealth. Do I hunt after Pleafures? Thefe may, indeed, charm and delight my Brutish Senses, but can never be agreeable, or proportionate to my Spiritual Faculties. Do I grafp at Honour and Popularity? Thefe, again, are as empty and unfatisfying as the former; they may make me look High and Great in the Eye of the World, turn my Head giddy with Applause, or puff up my Heart with Pride, but they can never fill fill up the Measure of its Defires. And thus, if I fhou'd have the whole World at my Command, and cou'd, with Alexander, wield both Sword and Scepter over all the Nations and Languages of it, wou'd this content me? or rather, thou'd I not fit down and weep, with him, that I had not another World to conquer and poffefs? Whereas, GOD being an infinite Good, 'tis impossible for me to defire any thing, which I may not enjoy in Him and His Mercies: Let me, or any other Creature, extend our Defires never fo far, still the Graces and Bleffings of this Infinite GOD will be infinitely beyond them all: Infomuch that tho' Ten Thoufand Worlds are not able to fatisfy One Soul, yet One GOD is able to fatisfy Ten Thoufand Souls; yea, and Ten Millions more to them, as well as if there was only One Soul in all the World to fatisfy.

COME, therefore, my dear Lord and Saviour ! whilft thy Servant is breathing after Thee ; and poffels my Heart with the Spiritual Bleffings of Grace and Faith, Peace and Charity; and let none of these empty and transient Delights of this World ftand in Competition with them ! Thou art the Source and Center of all my Wishes and Defires ; even as the Hart panteth after the Water-brooks, fo panteth my Soul after Thee, O GOD ? When shall I appear in Thy Prefence? When, when fhall that bleffed Time come, that I fhall fee Thy Sacred Majefty, Face to Face? This is a Mercy, I confes, which I cannot expect, whilit imprison'd in the Body; but, howfoever, tho' I must not yet appear before Thee, do Thou vouchfafe to appear in Me, and give me fuch Glymples of Thy Love and Graces here, as may be an Earnest of the Bliss and Glory I am to enjoy hereaster!

RESOLUTION V.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to hope for nothing (o much as the Promifes, and to fear nothing fo much as the Threatnings of GOD.

M Y Soul being inflamed with Holy Defires after GOD, my Heart cannot but be big with the Hopes and Expectation of Him: And, truly, as there is nothing that I can abfolutely defire, fo neither is there any thing that I can affuredly hope for and depend upon, but GOD Himself, and the Promiles He has made to me in His Divine Word, For, as all things derive their Being and Subfiftence. from Him, fo they are all at His Beck and Command, and are acted and influenced as His Wildom: and Pleasure sees fit to order them. All the Secondary Caules are in His Hand, and He turns them which way foever He will; fo that, however improbable and difproportionate the Means He uses may appear to be, He never fails to accomplish the End, or whatever he wills or decrees to be done. And, therefore, where-ever I meet with any Promiles made over to the faithful in His facred Word (fince they are the Promifes of one who is infinitely just and true, who can neither diffemble, nor deceive) I cannot in the leaft doubt but they will be punctually fulfill'd; and if I am of that happy Number (as I truft, thro' the Merits of GHRIST, and my own fincere Endeavours, I shall approve myself to be) I have as much Assurance of being Partaker of them, as if I had them actually in Poffeffion, or as any of the faithful Servants of GOD, who have already experienc'd the Accomplishment of them.

BUT, suppose GOD shou'd not favour me with the bright Part of His Promises, but, instead of the Blefsings of Health and Prosperity, shou'd visit me with-Croffes Croffes and Afflictions; yet, I have still the same Grounds for my Hope and Confidence in Him, and may fay, with the Pfalmist, The Lord is my Helper, I will not fear what the Devil, or Man, can do unto me. For, tho' their Spite and Malice may fometimes crofs, afflict, and perfecute me; vet, fince I am affur'd, they are only as Inftruments in the Hand of GOD, that cannot go beyond their Commission, nor make me suffer more than I am able to bear, I may comfort myfelf, under all these Afflictions, by the fame Divine Promife that S. Paul had recourse to, on the like Occasion, to wit, That all shall work together for Good to them that love GOD. who are the called, according to His Purpole, Rom, viji. 28. The Devil cou'd not touch the Poffessions of Job. till he had receiv'd a Commission from GOD: nor could He come near His Body till that Commiffion was renew'd; and fo, neither can He, or any Creature whatfoever, throw any Evil upon me, without the Divine Permission; and even That, tho' it feems to be Evil, shall really, in the End turn to my Benefit and Advantage. Oh! What a Sovereign Antidote is this against all Despondency and Despair, even under the deepeft and fevereft Trials? Permit me. O my GOD, to apply this facred Promife to myself, and fay, I am assur'd of it; by my own Experience. For I can hardly remember any one thing that ever happen'd to me, in the whole Courfe of my Life, even to the Crofling of my most earnest Defires, and highest Expectations, but what I must confeis, to the Praise of thy Grace and Goodness, has really, in the End, turn'd to my Advantage another way: Oh! make me truly fenfible of all thy Promifes to, and Dealings with me, that whatever Storms and Surges may arife in the tempestuous Ocean of this transient World, I may still fix the Anchor of my Hope and Happiness in Thee, who art the Source and Spring of all Bleflings, and without whom no Evil or Calamity cou'd ever befall me!

AND as the Promises of GOD, upon all these Accounts. are to be the Object of my Hope; fo are His Threatnings to be of my Fear and Aver [ation : As the former are of excellent use to raile and revive the most drooping Hearts, so the latter are of Weight enough to fink and depress the stoutest and most undaunted Spirits, and make them lick up the Duft of Horror and Despair. Not to mention any thing of the exquisite and eternal Miseries denounc'd against the Wicked in the next World, with which the Scriptures every where abound, there is one Punishment threaten'd to be inflicted here, which is, of itfelf, fufficient to this; and that is, in Mal. ii. 2. If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to Heart, to give Glory to My Name, faith the LORD of Hofts, I will even fend a Curfe upon you, and 1 will curfe your Bleffings. Most dreadful Sentence ! which none, that confider aright, can be able to read, without Trembling and Aftonishment. Alas! if GOD should curse me, where should I seek for Bleffing, fince He is the only Fountain from which it flows, and by which it is convey'd and communicated to me? And if He should curfe my very Bleffings, what cou'd I hope for, but Mifery and Despair? My Health, my Wealth, my Preferments, my Relations, nay, my very Life itself, wou'd all be accurs'd to me; and what is yet worfe, even my fpiritual Exercifes and Performances, upon which I chiefly build my Hopes of Happiness, my Preaching, Praying, and Communicating, wou'd all become a Snare and a Curfe to me: Yea, and CHRIST Himself, who came into the World to bless and redeem me, if I walk not in His Fear, believe not His Gospel, or give not Glory to His Name, will Himfelf be a Curfe and Condemnation to me. So that I may fay of every thing I have, or enjoy, or expect, All these GOD has made Curses to me, because I have not bless'd and glorify'd Him in them. Oh! who would not tremble and be wrought upon by these Threatnings? Who wou'd not fear Thee. O King

O King of Nations, who are thus terrible in Thy Judgments? Who wou'd not love and obey Thee, who art fo gracious in Thy Promifes? Teach me, I befeech Thee, fo to place my Fear upon the former, that I may ftill fix my Hope upon the latter, that tho I fear Thy dreadful Curfes, yet I may never defpair of Thy tender Mercies.

RESOLUTION VI.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to arm my/elf with that fpiritual Courage and Magnanimity, as to prefs through all Duties and Difficulties what foever, for the Advancement of GOD's Glory, and my own Happine fs.

CHRISTIANITY is well term'd a Warfare, for a Warfare_it is, wherein no Danger can be prevented, no Enemy conquer'd, no Victory obtain'd, without much Courage and Refolution. I have not only many outward Enemies to grapple with, but I have myfelf, my worft Enemy, to encounter and fubdue. As for those Enemies which are not near me, by the Affiftance of GOD's Spirit, I can make pretty good Shift to keep them at the Sword's Point : But this Enemy, that is gotten within me, has fo often foil'd and difarm'd me, that I have Reason to say, as David did of his Enemies, It is too ftrong for me : And, as he faid of the chief of his; I shall, one Day, fall by the Hands of Saul; to I have too much Occasion to say, I shall fall by myfelf, as being myfelf the greateft Ehemy to my own spiritual Interest and Concerns. How necessary is it, then, that I should raife and mufter up all my Force and Courage, put on my fpiritual Armour, and make myfelf ftrong in the Lorp, and in the Power of His Might? I know, I must strive; before before I can enter in at the firaight Gate; I must win the Crown, before I can wear it; and be a Member of the Church Militant, before I be admitted into the Church Triumphant. In a word, I must go through a folitary Wilderness, and conquer many Enemies, before I come to the Land of Canaan; or elfe I must never be posses d of it. What then? shall L lose my Glory, to balk my Duty? fhall I let go my glorious and eternal Poffeffion, to fave myself from a feeming Hardship, which the Devil wou'd perfuade me to be a Trouble and an Affliction? Alas! if CHRIST had laid afide the great Work of my Redemption, to avoid the Undergoing of GOD's Anger and Man's Malice, what a miferable Condition had I been in? And, therefore, whatever Taunts and Reproaches I meet with, from the Presumptuous and Prophane, the Infidel and Atheistical Reprobates of the Age; let them laugh at my Profession, or mock at what they are pleas'd to call Precifeness; let them defraud me of my just Rights, or traduce and bereave me of my Good Name and Reputation ; let them vent the utmost of their poifonous Malice and Envy against me: I have this comfortable Reflexion still to support me. that if I fuffer all this for CHRIST'S fake. 'tis in the Caule of one who fuffer'd a thouland times more for mine; and, therefore, it ought to be Matter of Joy and Triumph, rather than of Grief and Dejection to me : Especially confidering that these my light Afflictions, which are but for a Moment, will work out for me a far more exceeding and eternal Weight of Glory. Upon the Prospect of which, I firmly refolve, notwithftanding the growing Strength of Sin, and the over-bearing Prevalency of my own corrupt Affections, to undertake all Duties, and undergo all Miseries, that GOD, in His Infinite Wildom, thinks fit to lay upon me, or exercise my Patience in.

RESOLUTION VII.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, fo to be angry, as not to fin, and, therefore, to be angry at nothing but Sin.

T HE former Part of the Refolution is founded in the express Command of St. Paul, Be ye angry, and fin not, Eph. iv. 26. And the latter is an Explication of, as well as an Inference drawn from it. For, if Anger be not only lawful, but a Duty, as is here suppos'd, when it does not involve us in Sin; the only Difficulty is, to know how that Paffion ought to be qualify'd, to justify the Exercise of it, without being guilty of Sin : And the Circumfances or Qualifications requir'd for this, are, first, that it be plac'd upon a due Object; and, fecondly, that it do not exceed its proper Bounds.

Now, as nothing can deferve my Anger, but what is difagreeable to my Nature, and offenfive to the Author of it, fo nothing but Sin can properly be call'd its Object, The chief thing that I am to aim at in my Actions, is the honouring, ferving, and pleafing of GOD; and how can I ferve and pleafe GOD, in being angry at any thing but what I know is difpleafing to Him? I may be fcorn'd, reproach'd, and vilify'd among my Equals, or accus'd, condemn'd, and punish'd by my Superiors, and these are Treatments that are but too apt to raise and transport Men into Anger and Revenge : But then, before I fuffer this Paffion to boil up in me, I ought to confider whether I have not behav'd my felf fo, as to deferve this fort of Treatment; if I have, then there is no Injury or Injustice done me thereby, and, therefore, I ought not to be angry at it: If I have not, I must not be angry at the Perfons who acts thus falfly and unjustly against me, but only at their Sin; for to fpeak properly, it is not the Perion that offends me, but the Sin. And this, this, not becaufe it is injurious to me, but becaufe it is offenfive and difpleafing to GOD Himfelf; for, to be angry at any thing but what difpleafes GOD, is to difpleafe GOD in being angry. Whenever, therefore, I receive any Affronts or Provocations of this Nature, I am refolv'd, by GOD's Grace affifing my Endeavours, never to be moved or troubled at them, farther than they are in their own Nature finful, and at the fame time abfracting the Sin from the Perfons, to pray for the Pardon of those that are guilty of it; and not only fo, but according to the Command and Example of my Saviour, even to love them too.

BUT, how shall I be fure to be angry at nothing but Sin, and fo not to fin in my Anger, when every petty Trifle or crofs Accident is fo apt to raife this Passion in me? Why, the best Method I can take, is, that which the Wife-man directs me to, not to be hafty in my Spirit, Ecclef. vii. 9. but, to defer my Anger according to Discretion, Prov. xix. 11. So that, whenfoever any thing happens that may incenfe and inflame my Paffion, I must immediately ftop its Career, and fuspend the Acts of it, till I have duly confider'd the Motives and Occasions that rais'd it. And, as this will be a very good Means to regulate the Object of my Anger, fo likewife the Measure of it: For, he that is flow to Wrath, takes Time to confider, and, by Confequence, puts his Paffion under the Conduct of his Reason; and whoever does fo, will never fuffer it to be transported beyond its proper Bounds. Whereas he, whofe Anger is like Tinder, that catches as foon as the Spark is upon it, and who uses no Means to ftop its fpreading, is prefently blown up into a furious Flame, which, before 'tis extinguish'd, may do more Mischief than he is ever able to repair; for, no Man knows, whither his Anger may hurry him, when once it has got the Mastery of him. In order, therefore, to prevent the fatal Confequences of this Paffion, I now refolve never to fpeak or do anything, while I am under the influence of it, but take time to confider with myfelf, and reflect upon the feveral Circumstances of the Action or Object it arifes from, as well as the Occafion and Tendency of it; and as oft as I find any thing in it difpleafing to GOD, to be regularly angry at that, to correct, rebuke, and reprove it, with a Zeal and Fervour of Spirit, fuitable to the Occasion; but still to keep within the Bounds of the truly Christian Temper, which is always diffinguish'd by Love and Charity, and exercifes itfelf in Meeknefs and Moderation. And, Oh ! what a fedate and contented Spirit will this Resolution breed in me? How easy and quiet shall I be under all Circumstances ? Whilst others are peevifh and fretful, and torment themfelves with every petty Trifle that does but crofs their Inclinations, or feem to be injurious to them; or fall into the other Extreme, of a Stoical Apathy or Infenfibility; I shall, by this Resolution, maintain a Medium betwixt both, and poffe/s my Soul in Peace and Patience.

Concerning my Words.

Hart, with regard to my Thoughts and Aftectnons, which are the immediate lifues of my active Soul, the next thing incumbent upon me, is to regulate my outward Conversation, both with respect to my Words and Actions. As to the first, the Holy Scripture affures me, that the Tongue is a World of Iniquity, Jam. iii. 6. And again, that it is an unruly Evil which no Man can tame,  $\dot{y}$ . 8. But is it, indeed, so unruly? Then there is the more Occasion to have it govern'd and fubdu'd; and, fince that is not to be done by Man alone, it is still more neceffary, that I shou'd call in the Affistance of that Divine Divine Spirit that gives this Character of it, first to fix my Refolutions, and then to ftrengthen me in the Performance of them. I stedfastly purpose to imitate the Royal Pfalmift, in this Particular, and to take heed to my Ways, that I offend not with my Tongue, Pfal. xxxix. r. Yea, I am refolv'd, with Holy Job, that all the while my Breath, and the Spirit of GOD, is in my Nostrils, my Lips shall not (peak Wickedness, nor my Tongue utter Deceit, Job xxvii. 3, 4. But, fince it is fuch an unruly Inftrument, so very difficult to be bridled or restrain'd, Do thou, O GOD, who first madest it, enable me to get the Mastery of it ! Set a Watch, O Lord, before my Mouth, and keep the Door of my Lips, that with St. Paul, I may speak forth the Words of Truth and Soberness, and make this unruly Evil a happy Inftrument of much Good! which that I may do,

RESOLUTION I.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, never to fpeak much, left I often fpeak too much, and not fpeak at all, rather than to no purpofe.

I T is the Voice of Fools that is known by the Multitude of Words, Eccl. v. 3. In which there are divers Vanities,  $\dot{y}$ . 6. and Sin too, Prov. x. 19. whereas, he that refraineth his Lips, is wife. This is that Piece of Chriftian Wifdom, which I am now refolving to look after; and, therefore, never to deliver my Words out to the World by Number, but by Weight, not by Quantity but Quality: not hiding my Meaning under ambiguous Terms and Exprefiions, but fitting Words exactly to express my Meaning: Not amufing those I converse with, with Circles of Impertinence and Circumlocution, but coming directly to the Matter by the fireight Line of apt Expressions; fo as never to speak more than the Matter requireth, nor to fpeak at all, when no Matter requireth. For, why should I spend my Breath for nothing? Alas! that is not all; if I fpend it ill. it will be far worfe than spending it for nothing; for our Bleffed Saviour has told me, that I must an-Swer for every idle and unprofitable, as well as pro-phane Word, Mat xii. 36. But now, if all the vain Words I ever spoke, shou'd be written. as I have caule to believe they are, in the Book of GOD's Remembrance, how many vast Volumes must they make! and if an Index should be made, where to find profitable, and where idle Words, how few References wou'd there be to the former ? What Multitudes to the latter? and (what is yet more terrifying) if all these Words shou'd be brought in Judgment against me, at the Last Day, how wou'd those very Words then make me fpeechlefs? and what Shame and Confusion of Face wou'd they then firike me with? But I truft, through the Blood of my Redeemer, and the Tears of my Repentance, they will all be wash'd and blotted out, before I come to appear before Him. In order to this, as I heartily bewail and deteft my former Follies in this respect; so I firmly purpose and resolve to use my utmost Endeavours, for the time to come, not to give way any more to fuch idle Words and Exprefiions, as are likely to be thus prejudicial to my eternal Intereft ; but always to confider well beforehand, what, and how, and why I speak, and suffer no corrupt Communication to proceed out of my Mouth, but that which is good, to the use of Edifying, that it may minifler Grace to the Hearers, Eph. iv. 20.

I KNOW, there are fome Words, that are purely joco/e, fpoken with no other Intent, but only to promote Mirth, and divert Melancholy; and thefe Words, fo long as they are harmlefs and innocent, fo long as they do not reflect Difhonour upon GOD, nor injure the Character and Reputation of my Neighbour, are very lawful and allowable; inafmuch afmuch as they conduce to the refreshing and reviving of my Spirits, and the Prefervation of my Health. But then, I must always take care, fo to wind and turn my Difcourse, that what recreates me in speaking, may profit others when spoke; that my Words may not only be such as have no Malignity in them, but such as may be useful and beneficial; not only fuch as do no Hurt, but likewise fuch as may do much Good to others, as well as to mysself. To this end, I firmly refolve, by the Grace of GOD, never to speak only for the sake of speaking, but to weigh each Word before I speak it, and consider the Consequence and Tendency of it, whether it may really be the Occasion of Good or Evil, or tend to the edifying or scandalizing of the Person I speak it to.

RESOLUTION II. I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, not only to avoid the Wickednefs of Swearing falfly, but likewife the very Appearance of Swearing at all.

ERJURY is a Sin condemn'd by the very Laws of Nature; infomuch that I fhould wrong my natural Faculties, should I give way to, or be guilty of it. For, the fame Nature that tells me, the Perfon of GOD is to be adored, tells me likewife, His Name is to be reverenced; and what more horrid Impiety can possibly be imagined, than to proflitute the most facred Name of the most High GOD. to confirm the Lyes of finful Men? I know, Swearing in a just Matter, and right Manner, may be as lawful under the New, as under the Old Testament; for thus I find St. Paul faying, As GOD is true, 2 Cor. i. 18. and V. 23. I call GOD for a Record upon my Soul; wherein is contain'd' the very Nature of an Oath, which is, the calling GOD for a Record G 4.

cord and a Witness to the Truth of what we speak : But when it is to maintain Fallhood, which is to an ill Purpofe, or lightly and vainly, which is to no Purpole at all, it is a Sin of the highest Aggravation. that ought, with the greatest Detestation and Abhorrence, to be shunn'd and avoided. God faith, by Moles, Lev. xix. 12. Thou shalt not swear by my Name failiy, neither shalt thou prophane the Name of thy GOD: I am the LORD. And, Exod. xx. 7. Deut. v. 11. Thou Chalt not take the Name of the Lord thy GOD in vain, for the Lord will not bold bim guiltless that taketh His Name in vain. But farther, GOD fays by CHRIST, Swear not at all, neither by Heaven, for it is GOD's Throne; nor by the Earth, for it is His Footflool, &c. So that not only, By GOD, and By Jesus, are Oaths, but Swearing by anv of GOD's Creatures, is, in a manner, to fwear by GOD himfelf. I fwear by the Heavens: can the Heavens hear, or witness what I say? No, it is the Glorious Majesty that rules there, that I call upon to witnefs the Truth of the Words I speak, and the Sinfulness of my Heart for Swearing to them. Do I fwear by my Faith? But how is that? Can Faith teffify what I fay? No, 'tis only He that wrought this Faith in my Heart, can witnefs the Truth of my Words. And, if I fwear by the Gifts of GOD, I do in effect, fwear by GOD Himfelf; otherwife. I afcribe that to the Creature, which is only compatible to the Glorious Creator, even the Knowledge of the Thoughts of my Heart, how fecret foever they be.

But, again, there is more in the third Commandment, than the Devil would perfuade the World there is; for, when GOD commands me not to take His Name in vain, 'tis more than if He had commanded me only not to fwear by it: For, I cannot perfuade myfelf, but that every time I fpeak of GOD, when I do not think of Him, I take His Name in vain; and, therefore, I ought to endeavour to avoid even the mentioning of GOD, as well well as Swearing by Him, unlefs upon urgent Occafions, and with Reverence and Refpect becoming. His Majefty; for, queftionlefs, O Lord, and O GOD, may be fpoken as vainly, as By Lord, and By GOD. And therefore, I ought never to fpeak fuch Words, without thinking really in my Heart, what I fpeak. openly with my Mouth, left my Name be written amongft thofe that take the Name of GOD in vain. But farther fill, I am refolved not only to avoid downright Swearing, but likewife the very Appearance of it: So that what doth but look like an Oath, fhall be as odious to me, as what looks like nothing elfe.

RESOLUTION III.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, always to make my Tongue and Heart go together, fo as never to fpeak with the one, what I do not think in the other.

A .S my Happiness confisteth in Nearness and Vicinity, fo doth my Holinefs in Likenefs and Conformity to the Chiefest Good. I am fo much. the Better, as I am liker the Beft; and fo much the Holier, as I am more conformable to the Holieft. or rather, to Him who is Holinefs itfelf. Now, one great Title which the Most High is pleased to give to Himfelf, and by which He is pleas'd to reveal Himfelf to us, is, the GOD of Truth: So that I shall be fo much the liker to the GOD of Truth. by how much I am more constant to the Truth of GOD. And the farther I deviate from this, the nearer 1 approach to the Nature of the Devil, who is the Father of Lyes, and Lyars too, John viii. 44. And hence it is, that of all the Sins the Men of Fashion are guilty of, they can least endure to be charg'd of Lying. To give a Man' the Lye, or tofay, You lye, is look'd upon as the greatest Affront thap G S that can be put upon them. And why fo? But only, because this Sin of Lying makes them so like their Father the Devil, that a Man had almost as well call them Devils, as Lyars; and, therefore, to avoid the Scandal and Reproach, as well as the dangerous Malignity of this damnable Sin, I am refolv'd, by the Bleffing of GOD, always to tune my Tongue an Unifor to my Heart, so as never to speak any thing, but what I think really to be true. So that, if ever I speak what is not true, it shall not be the Error of my Will, but of my Understanding.

I BNOW, Lyes are commonly diffinguish'd into-Officious, Pernicious, and Jocole: And some may fancy fome of them more tolerable than others. But, for my own part. I think they are all pernicious, and, therefore, not to be jefted withal, nor indulg'd, upon any Pretence or Colour whatfoever. Not as if it was a Sin, nor to speak exactly as a Thing is in itfelf, or as it feems to me in its literal Meaning, without fome Liberty granted to Rhetosical Tropes and Figures ; [for, fo the Scripture itfelf would be chargeable with Lyes: many things being contain'd in it, which are not true in a litesal Senfe.] But, I must fo use Rhetorisal, as not to abuse my Christian Liberty ; and, therefore, never to make use of Hyperboles, Ironies, or other Tropes, and Figures, to deceive or impose upon my Auditors, but only for the better adorning, illustrating, or confirming the Matter.

Bur, there is another fort of Lies most Men are apt to fall into, and they are Promiffory. Lies; to avoid which, I am refolv'd never to promife any thing with my Mouth, but what I intend to perform in my Heart; and never to intend to perform any thing but what, I am fure, I can perform. For, this is the Caufe and Occafion of most Promiffory. Lies, that we promife that abfolutely, which we fhould promife only conditionally: For, the' I may intend to do as I fay now, yet there are a thougand thousand weighty things may intervene, which may turn the Balance of my Intentions, or otherwile hinder the Performance of my Promife. So that, unlefs I be abfolutely fure I can do a thing, I must never abfolutely promife to do it; and, therefore, in all fuch Promifes, shall still put in GOD willing, or, by the Help of GOD; at the fame time, listing up my Heart to GOD, left I take His Name in vain.

RESOLUTION IV.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to fpeak of other Mens Sins only before their Faces, and of their Virtues only behind their Backs.

O commend Men, when they are present, I efteem almost as great a Piece of Folly, as to reprove them, when they are absent; tho' I do confels, in fome Cales, and to fome Persons, it may be commendable; especially where the Person is not apt to be puffed up, but spurred on by it. But, to rail at others, when they hear me not, is the highest Piece of Folly imaginable; for, as 'tis impossible They should get any Good, fo 'tis impossible but that I should get much Hurt by it. For, fuch fort of Words, make the best we can of them, are but idle and unprofitable, and may not only prove injurious to the Person of whom, but even to whom they are fpoken, by wounding the Credit of the former, and the Charity of the latter, and fo, by Consequence, my own Soul; nay, even tho' I speak that which is true in itfelf, and known to be fo to me: And, therefore, this way of Backbiting ought, by all means, to be avoided.

Bur, I must, much more, have a care of raising, false Reports concerning any one, or of giving Credit to them that raise them, or of passing my

G. 6.

Judgmenti,

Judgment, till I have weighed the Matter; left I transgress the Rules of Mercy and Charity, which command me not to cenfure any one upon others Ramours, or my own Surmifes; nay, if the thing be in itself true, still to interpret it in the best Sense. But, if I must needs be raking in other Mens Sores, it must not be behind their Backs, but before their Faces; for, the one is a great Sin, and the other may be as great a Duty, even to reprove my Neighbour for doing any thing offenfive unto GOD, or destructive to his own Soul; still endeavouring fo to manage the Reproof, as to make his Sin loathfome to him, and prevail upon him, if poffible, to forfake it : But, there is a great deal of Christian Prudence and Discretion to be used in this, left others may justly reprove me for my Indiscreet Reproof of others. I must still fit my Reproof to the Time when, the Perfon to whom, and the Sin against which, 'tis design'd; still contriving with myself, how to carry on this Duty fo, as that by converting a Sinner from the Evil of his Ways, I may fave my Soul from Death, and hide a Multitude of Sins, James v. 29. Not venting my Anger against the Person, but my Sorrow for the Sin that is reprov'd. Hot, Paffionate, and Reviling Words, will not fo much exafperate a Man against his Sin that is reprov'd, as against the Perfon that doth reprove it. 'Tis not the Wrath of Man that workesh the Righteen/nefs of GOD, James i. 10. But this, of all Duties, must be perform'd with. a Spirit of Love and Meeknels; I must first infinuate myself into His Affections, and then press his Sin upon his Confcience, and that directly or indirectly, as the Perfon, Matter, or Occasion shall sequire, that so he that is reproved by me now, may have Caule to blefs GOD for me to all Eternity.

RESO-

RESOLUTION V.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, always to speak reverently to my Superiors, humbly to my Inferiors, and civilly to All.

HE most High GOD, the Master of this great Family the World C great Family, the World, for the more orderly Government of it, hath, according to His Infinite Wifdom, fet some in higher, some in lower Places, hath made fome as Stewards, others as Under-fervants; and, according to every Man's Work that He expects from him, He measures out his Talents to him. Bleffed be His Name for it. He hath fet me in a middle Form, giving me Agur's With, fubject neither to Envy on one Hand, nor Pity on the other; fo that I have both Superiors to reverence, and Inferiors to condescend to. And. accordingly, it is my Duty fo to behave myfelf towards them, that the reverend Expressions of my Mouth, may manifest the obedient Subjection of my Heart, to the Power and Authority GOD has given them over me. 'Tis the express Command of the Gofpel, that we shou'd render to every Man his Due, Fear to whom Fear, Honour to whom. Honour belongeth, Rom. xiii. 13. which Words plainly imply, both that 'tis fome Mens Due to receive. Honour, and other Mens Duty to give it. And, accordingly, we find, Paul, when he was brought before Festus, doth not fay, Are thou He, whom they call Feftus? or Those Feftus, as the milguided Enthufiafts, in our Days, would have faid ; but, Moff. Noble Festus, Asts xxvi. 25. In like manner S. John doth not call Her he writes to, in his Second Epiftle, being a Person of Quality, Woman, but Elect Lady. And, this fort of Reverence is farther confirm'd to us, not only by the constant Custom of all Nations, in all Ages of the World, but 'tis like-б.

wife highly agreeable to the Rules of Right Reafon, as well as the Order of Government. For, as there is both a Natural and Civil Superiority, a Superiority in Gifts and Age, and a Superiority likewife in Office and Station; fo there is nothing ean be more neceffary, than that there fhould be, in both these respects, a Reverence and Respect paid to the Persons of Men, answerable to these Distinctions. And therefore, I cannot but condemn that rude and unmannerly Behaviour of fome of our Modern Schismaticks, towards their Superiors, as factious and unreasonable, as well as repugnant to the Distates of the Divine Spirit, which the Prophets and Apostles were inspirid and influenced by.

AND, as there is a Reverence due from Inferiors to their Superiors, in Point of Conversation, folikewife are there fome decent Regards and Civilities to be fnew'd, even by Superiors to their Inferiors, who are always to be treated with Candour and Condescension, in their ordinary Capacities; and even where they are confider'd as Criminals. with Meekness and Moderation. Infomuch that, methinks, it is one of the worft Sights in the World, to see some Men, that are gotten upon a little higher Ground than their Neighbours are, to look proudly and fcornfully down upon all that are below them, difdaining to vouchfafe them the leaft Favour or Refpect whatfoever. Such churlifh, haughty, and foul-mouth'd Nabals as thefe, are not only very unjust, and unreasonable in their Behaviour to others, but they are certainly the greateft Enemies to themfelves, that they have in all the World befides; not only by drawing upon them the Hatred and Enmity of all that are about them, but likewife by tormenting themfelves with fuch frivolous things, as fuch Spirits commonly do. Wherefore, that I may pleafe GOD, my Neighbour, and Myself, in what I speak, tho' I cou'd exceed other Men (which is impossible for me to fuppole) pofe) in every thing; I refolve, by GOD's Grace, always to behave myfelf fo, as if I excell'd them in nothing; and not only to fpeak reverently to them that are above me, but humbly and civilly to those that are beneath me too. I will always endeavour to use fuch humble winning Words, as to manifest more of my Love to them than my Power over them: I will always feasion my Tongue with favowry, not bitter Expressions, not making my Mouth a Vent for my Fury and Passion to sume and Affection in by; fill speaking as civilly unto others, as I would have them speak civilly to me.

Concerning my ACTIONS.

THE other Way of my Soul's putting forth, and fhewing herfelf to the World, is by her Actions, which ft concerns me as much to look to and regulate, as my Words; forafmuch as there is not the leaft ill Circumftance in any Action, but what, unlefs it be repented of, muft be brought into Queftion, and answer'd for, at the Laft Day: For tho' an Action cannot be denominated good, unlefs it be good in all Circumftances and Respects; yet'tis always denominated bad, if it is bad only in me. As it is in Amsfiek, if but one String jar, or be out of Tune, the whole Harmony is fpoil'd; fo here, if but one Circumftance in an Action be wanting on defective, the whole Action is thereby render'd immoral.

How much, therefore, doth it behove me to keep a ftrict Watch over myfelf, and so to perform every Astion, and place every Circumstance in it, that it may have its Approbation in the Court of Heaven? Well; I am resolv'd, by the Grace of GOD.

GOD, to try what I can do. I know, it is impoffible for me to refolve upon particular Actions: But, howfoever, I fhall refolve upon fuch general. Rules, the Application of which to particular Acts may make them pleafing and acceptable to the Sight of GOD; always premifing this which I have refolv'd upon before, as the beft Foundation, viz. to fquare all my Actions by the Scripture Rule, and to do nothing, but what I have, fome Way or other, a Warrant for in the Word of GOD. Upon this fix'd and fteady Principle:

RESOLUTION I.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to do every thing in Obedience to the Will of GOD.

T is not fufficient, that what I do is the Will of GOD, but I must sherefore do it, because it is the Will of GOD. For, what faith my Father? My Son, give me thine Heart, and let thine Eyes obferve my Ways, Prov. xxiii. 26. So that my Father will not only have my Hand, but my Heart too: And my Feet must not walk in the Ways of GOD, till my Eyes have obferv'd and difcern'd them to be fo. I may do an Action that in itself is good, and yet, at the fame time, not do a good Action, if I do not sherefore do it, because it is so; Ex. gr. I may give an Alms to the Poor, feed the Hungry, or cloath the Naked; But let me examine and confider well, upon what Principle these Actions are founded, whether I therefore do them, because GOD hath commanded them; if not, my Feeding of the Poor will be no more a good Action, than the Rayons feeding the Prophet was, I Kings xvii. 6. Their Feeding of the Prophet was commanded by GOD, as well as my Feeding of the Poor; but I cannot fay, they did a good Action, becaufe tho' they did do do this which was commanded by GOD, yet being irrational Creatures, they could not reflect upon that Command, and fo cou'd not do this in Obedience to it.

THERE are fome Perfons, to the very Frame and Disposition of whose Spirits some Sins are, in their Nature, odious and abominable. Thus I have known fome, whole very Conflitutions have carried them into an Antipathy to Luft and Luxury; and others again, who cou'd never endure to drink beyond their Thrift, much less to unman and be-beast themfelves by drinking to Excess. And the like may be observ'd of Covetousness, which Luther was such an Enemy to, that it is faid to be against his very Nature. Now, I fay, tho' the abstaining from these Sins be highly commendable in all Sorts of Perfons, yet, unlefs, together with the Streams of their natural Disposition, there run likewise a fpiritual Defire to please GOD, and obey His Commands, their abstaining from these Vices is no more than the Brute Beafts themfelves do, who always act according to the Temper of their Bodies, and are never guilty of any Excelles that are prejudicial to them.

HENCE, Servants are commanded to be obedient to their Masters, with Good-will doing Service as to the Lord, and not to Men, Eph. vi. 5, 6, 7. Which clearly shews, that tho' a Servant doth obey his Master, yet if he doth not do it in Obedience unto GOD, he will not find Acceptance with Him. So that, whenfoever I fet my Hand to any Action that is good, I muss fill fix my Eye upon GOD's commanding of it, and do it only in respect to that; as knowing, that if I give but a Farthing to the Poer, in all my Life, and do it in Obedience to GOD's Commands, it shall be accepted soner than theirs, who feed hundreds at their Table every Day, and have not respect to the fame Command.

Do I fee a poor Wretch ready to fall down to the Earth, for want of a little Support, and my Bowels

Digitized by Google

Bowels begin to yern towards him? let me fearch into my Heart, and fee what it is that raifes this Compassion in me. If it flows only from a natural Tenderness to a Brother in Misery, without regard to the Love of GOD, who has commanded and enjoin'd it, the poor Man may be fuccour'd and reliev'd, but GOD will not be pleas'd or delighted with it. Again, Do my Friends flir me up to pray or hear, or do any other Spiritual or Civil Action, and I therefore only do it, because of their Importunity? I may fatisfy my Friends Defire, but can-not properly be faid to obey the Commands of GOD, in fuch a Performance; fo that the great and only Foundation that I must refolve to build all the Actions of my Life upon, is an uniform Obedience to that GOD, by whom alone. I am enabled to perform them.

RESOLUTION II.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to do every thing with Prudence and Difcretion, as well as with Zeal and Affection.

TTHILST I am penn'd up in this earthly Tabernacle, I live almost as in a darksome Dungeon having no Light to work by, but a little that fprings in at the narrow Crevices of my Understanding. So that I had need to make use of all that little Light and Knowledge I have, to regulate the Heat and Zeal that fometimes fits upon my Spirit. For, good Paffions may fometimes carry me into bad Actions; my Zeal, when hot in the Pursuit of GOD's Glory, may fometimes hurry me beyond His Laws; especially, where Christian Prudence hath not first chalk'd out the Way, and set the Bounds for it: As, in Discourse, my Zeal may put me upon throwing Pearls before Swine, or using Words, when Silence may be more commendable; So.

Digitized by Google

So, in my Actions too, unlefs Wifdom and Difcretion govern and command my Affections, I shall frequently run into such as would be altogether needlefs and impertinent, and therefore ought to be omitted; and daily neglect several Duties, which ought to be perform'd.

Bur, my Understanding and Discretion is chief-ly requisite for the Ordering of Time and Place, and other particular Circumstances, the irregular Management of which may eafily fpoil the best of Actions. For inftance, that may be a good Work at one Time and Place, which is not at another; and may be very innocent and becoming in one Perfon, tho' quite contrary in another. It is therefore, the proper Office of my Understanding, to point out the fittest Time and Place, and Person, for the Performance of each Aflion I engage in. As for Example, In diffributing to the Poor, my Hand of Charity must be either guided by the Eye of Understanding, where, when, how much, and to whom, to give; or elfe I may, at the fame time, not only offend GOD, but wrong my Neighbour, and Myself too. And fo for all other Actions what-foever; which I ought therefore never to fet Myfelf about, tho' it be of the lowest Rank, without confulting the Rules of Wildom model'd by the Law of GOD.

RESOLUTION III.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, never to fet my Hand, my Head, or my Heart, about any thing, but what I verily believe is good in itfelf, and will be effeem'd fo by GOD.

WITHOUT Faith, the Apossile tells me, it is impossible to please GOD, Heb. xi. 5. For whatsoever what sever is not of Faith, is Sin, Rom. xiv. 23. Where, by Faith, we are not to understand that faving Faith, whereby I believe my Person is justified through CHRIST; but that, whereby I believe my Works shall be accepted by GOD: For Faith here is opposed to Doubting; and that, not about CHRIST'S Dying for Me, or my Living in Him, but about the particular Actions of my Life. He that doubteth, faith the Apostle, is damned if he eat : that is. He that eateth that, which he doubteth whether he may lawfully eat or no, is damn'd, because he fins in doing it, and, therefore, may be damn'd for it. But, why fo? Because he eateth not of Faith : because he doth that, which he knows not whether he may do or no, not believing it to be really good in itself, or acceptable unto GOD. And, tho' the Apostle here instances only in that particular Action of Eating, yet what he fays with relation to that, is properly applicable to all the other Actions of Life : For, he afterwards subjoins, What sever is not of Faith, is Sin: Whatfoever it is, good, or bad, if not done by Faith, 'tis Sin.

AND truly, this Particular will be of great Ufe through my whole Life, for the avoiding of many Sins, and for the Doing of much Good: For, many things, which are good in themfelves, may, for want of Faith, become quite otherwife to me; my Heart not believing what I do is good, my Hand can never make it fo. Or, if I think what I do is bad, tho' it be not fo in itfelf, yet my very thinking it fo, will make it fo to me.

AND this is that which we call Doing any thing with a good Conficience, or Keeping, as St. Paul did, our Conficience void of Offence. And, to go contrary to the Dictates of my Conficience in this Particular, is to transgrefs the Command of GOD. For in this, Conficience is as GOD's Vicegerent in my Soul; what Conficience commands, GOD commands; what Conficience forbids, GOD forbids; that is, I am as really under the Power of Confi-ence,

ence, as the Commands of GOD, in fuch a cafe. So that, if I do not obey the former, 'tis impoffible for me to obey the latter. But how much, then, doth it behove me, to fee, that my Confcience be rightly inform'd in every thing? For as if a Judge be mifinform'd, 'tis impoffible he fhou'd pafs righteous Judgment; fo, if Confcience be mifinform'd, 'tis impoffible I fhould do a righteous Act. And, what a miferable Cafe fhall I then be in? If I do what in itfelf is finful, tho' my Confcience tells me, 'tis good, yet I fin, becaufe the Act in itfelf is finful; and if I do what in itfelf is good, and my Confcience tells me 'tis bad, I fin becaufe my Confcience te'ls me 'tis fo: So that as my Confcience is, fo will my Actions be.

For this Reafon, I refolve, in the Prefence of my great Creator, never to do any thing, till I have first inform'd my Confcience, from the Word of GOD, whether it be lawful for me to do it, or no; or, in cafe it be not determin'd there, to make a strict Search and Enquiry into each Circumstance of it, confidering with myself what Good or Evil may iffue from it, and fo what Good or Evil there is in it; and according as my Confcience, upon the hearing of the Arguments on both fides, shall decide the Matter, I shall do, or not do, it; never undertaking any thing upon mere Surmises, because it may be good, but upon a real and thorow Perfuation that it is fo.

RESOLUTION IV.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to do all things for the Glory of GOD.

A S I was not made by, to neither for myfelf; for GOD, fays the Wifeman, made all things for Himfelf, Prov. xvi. 4. And being thus made for GOD, it follows on courfe, that I ought to act for GOD; otherwife I shall frustrate the End of my Creation. ?

Creation. Infomuch that whatfoever I make my chief Aim in what I do, I make that my GOD: Do I aim at the Glory of the All-glorious Jehovah? 'tis Him I make my GOD; Do I aim at Riches? then 'tis Mammon I make my GOD : And And therefore is it, that Coverous ness is called Idolatry, Col. iii. 5. Do I aim at Pleasures ? 'tis my Senses I make my GOD, Phil. iii. 19. Do I aim at Popular Applause, or worldly Advancements? or, Do I aim at my own Health or Life? These are my Gods. For what is worfhipping, but making all the Powers of my Soul, and Actions of my Body, to bow and floop to them? Hence it is, that the most High GOD, who hath faid, He will not give His Glory to another, hath been fo express in commanding me to do all things to His Glory, Whether we eat or drink, fays the Apostle, or what sever ye do, do all things to the Glory of GOD, I Cor. x. 31.

BUT how can I, poor Worm, be faid to do any thing to the Glory of the Eternal GOD? Why, in the fame Manner as He is faid to do what He doth for His own Glory. And how is that ? By manifefting His Glory unto others. Thus, if I can but fo live and act, as thereby to evidence, that the GOD I ferve is a glorious GOD. Glorious in Holinefs, Glorious in Goodnefs, Glorious in Wifdom, Glorious in Power, and the like; this is Doing all things to the Glory of GOD. For Example, By praying to GOD, I avouch Him to be a GOD, infinite in Knowledge, that He is present with me, and hears me pray, wherefoever I am : and I own Him to be infinite in Mercy, in that He will fuffer fuch a finful Creature as I am, to address myself to Him, cre. And fo there is not the least Action I undertake, but I am fo to manage it, as to manifest the Glory of GOD by it, making it my End and Defign fo to do; otherwife let me do what I will, I am fure to fin; for tho', I confess, a good End can never make a bad Action good, yet a bad End will always make a good Action bad : So that, as CVCL ever I would do any thing that is good, I must be fure to do it to the Glory of GOD.

RESOLUTION V. I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to mingle fuch Recreations with my Busines, as to further my Busines by my Recreations.

AVING wholly devoted myfelf to GOD, All I have, or am, is ftill to be improv'd for Him; infomuch that was it not for the Neceffities of Nature, every Moment of my Life fhould, and ought to be fpent in the immediate Worfhip and Service of Him. But tho' Nature requires fome Time from my folemn Serving of Him, for the Recreating of myfelf; yet Grace requireth, that this Recreating of myfelf fhould ftill be for the Promoting His Service: So that my Recreations do not only fit me for farther Service, but they, in themfelves, fhould be fome way or other, ferviceable to Him; which that they may be, I muft have as great a Care in the Choice, as in the Ufe of my Recreations.

THERE are fome Recreations that are fo far from conducing to His Service, that they may make more for the incenfing of His Wrath : As Drinking and Gaming, which, tho' in themfelves lawful, yet, as they often prove an Occafion of Swearing, Lying. Cheating, and Contention amongst Men, and, by Confequence, of Wrath in GOD; fo they ought, by all means, to be shunn'd and avoided. Indeed, it may be queftion'd, whether Gaming be ever a lawful Recreation ? For, either it is a Lottery, or not. If it be a Lottery, it is not lawful, because 'tis a great Prefumption and Sin, to fet GOD at Work to recreate ourfelves; for poor Nothings to employ the chiefest Good, immediately to determine fuch frivolous and trifling Impertinencies. lf

If it be not a Lottery, then it is not a pure Recreation; for if it depends upon Man's Wit and Study, it exercises his Brain and Spirits, as much as if he was about other things: So that being on one fide, not lawful; on the other fide, no Recreation; it can, on no fide, be a lawful Recreation.

FOR, what is the End of Recreation, but to revive my languishing Spirits, to let them reft and be quiet a little, when they are tired with too much Exercife, that they may be fresher, livelier, and fitter for Work afterwards? Hence is it, that GOD indeed hath provided a Recreation for all fenfible Creatures; Sleep, which is the Reft of the Spirits in the Nerves. When the little Animal Spirits have been, all the Day, running up and down upon the Soul's Errands, then to lie down still and quiet, is a great Refreshment and Revivement to them. provided, still that it be moderately used. Whereas, the indulging ourfelves too much in it, is rather a clogging and flupifying of them : as we fee in our Bodies, which, when not accustom'd to, are most averfe from, and unfit for Exercife.

So that the chief and only Time for Recreation. is, when my Spirits are either weary with Labour and Study, or elfe call'd in to fome necessary Employment in fome other Place; as at and after Meals, especially such as are of a hard Digestion : for then the Spirits have enough to do, to turn the Food we eat into good Nourishment. And, therefore, the Intenfeness of Study, Running, Wrestling, and fuch like violent Exercifes, are not proper at fuch a time; because, as in Studying, we draw the Spirits from the Stomach to the Head; fo, in the other Exercifes, fuch as moderate Walking, Conference, and free Difcourse, about common but neceffary Points, we fend them from the Stomach into other Parts of the Body, where they are to be fet on work.

Bur, that which I have found the best Recreation, both to my Body and Mind, whenfoever either of

of them stands in need of it, is Musick, which exercifes, at once, both my Body and my Soul; espe-cially, when I play myself. For then, methinks, the fame Motion that my Hand makes upon the Infirument, the Inftrument makes upon my Heart; it calls in my Spirits, composes my Thoughts, delights my Ear, recreates my Mind, and fo, not only fits me for After-Business, but fills my Heart, at the prefent, with pure and useful Thoughts; fo that when the Musick founds the sweetliest in my Ears, Truth commonly flows the clearest into my Mind. And hence it is, that I find my Soul is become more harmonious, by being accustom'd fo much to Harmony, and fo averfe to all manner of Difcord, that the leaft Jarring Sounds, either in Notes or Words, feem very harsh and unpleasant to me.

THAT there is fomething more than ordinary in Mulick, appears from David's making ule of it, for driving away the evil Spirit from Saul, and Elifha for the bringing of the Good Spirit upon Himfelf. From which I am induc'd to believe, that there is really a fort of fecret and charming Power in it, that naturally difpells from the Mind, all or moft of those black Humours, which the evil Spirit ules to brood upon, and, by composing it into a more regular, fweet and docible Difpofition, renders it the fitter for the Holy Spirit to work upon, the more fusceptive of Divine Grace, and more faithful Meffenger, whereby to convey Truth to the Understanding. But however that be, I must neceffarily acknowledge, that of all Recreations, this is by far the more fuitable to my Temper and Difpofition, in that it is not only an Exercise to my Body. but to my Mind too; my Spirits being thereby made the more nimble and active, and, by Confequence, the fitter to wait upon my Soul, and be employ'd, by her, in whatfoever Bufinels the is engaged.

Bur in this, and all other Recreations, I must always take care, not to exceed my Measure, either in Point of Time, or Intention : I mult not fellow them them too close, nor spend too many Hours in them, but still resolve to use them, as that they may not become a Snare to me, but answer the Ends for which they were defign'd, that when GOD shall call me to it, I may give him as good an Account of my Recreations, as of my necessary Duties.

Concerning my Relations.

B UT be not deceived, O my Soul; thou art not yet advanc'd far enough: 'Tis not fufficient, to pretend to Holinefs in my Thoughts and Affections, and in my Words and Actions; unlefs I exprefs it likewife in all the Relations and Conditions of Life. The Commandments of GOD are faid to be exceeding Broad; they extend themfelves to every Capacity I can poflibly be in, not only enjoining me to live foberly in respect to Myfelf, but righteoufly to my Neighbour, obediently to my Sovereign, lovingly to my Wife, and faithfully to my People; otherwife, I cannot live holidy unto GOD : And, therefore, if I would be thorowly Religious, I must farther endeavour to fix my Refolutions with regard to the feveral Duties the most High expects from me, in all these particular Relations I bear to Him, dwring my fojourning here on Earth.

RESOLUTION I.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to bonour and obey the King, or Prince, whom GOD is pleafed to fet over Me, as well as to expect He should safeguard and protest Me, whom GOD is pleas'd to set under Him.

THE King of Kings, and Lord of Lords, the great and glorious Monarch of all the World, having enacted many gracious Laws, is pleas'd to fet over every Kingdom and Nation, fuch Perfons as may put them in Execution. So that I cannot but look upon a lawful King, as truly a Reprefentative of the most High GOD, as a Parliament is of the People; and am, therefore, perfuaded, that whofoever rebels against Him, rebels against GOD Himfelf; not only in that He rebels against the Ordinance of GOD, and fo, against the GOD of that Ordinance; but because he rebels against him, whom GOD hath fet up as His Vicegerent, to represent His Perfon, and execute His Laws in such a Part of His Dominions.

HENCE it is, that thefe two Precepts, Fear GOD, and honour the King, are fo often join'd together in Holy Writ; for he that fears GOD's Power, cannot but honour his Authority; and he that honours not the King, that reprefents GOD, cannot be faid to fear GOD, who is reprefented by Him. And hence, likewife, it is, that GOD hath been as firied and express in enjoining us Obedience to our Governours, as to Himfelf: For, thus faith the Lord of Hofts, Rom. xiii. I. Let every Soul be fubject to the Higher Powers. Why? because there is no Power but of GOD; the Powers that be, are ordained of GOD.

AND

AND He has denound'd as great a Judgment againft fuch as rebel againft the Magistrate He hath ordain'd, as againft those that rebel againft Himself: For, whosever resister the Power, resister the Ordinance of GOD; and they that resist, shall receive to themselves Damnation, y. 2. So that the Wrath of GOD fhall as certainly fall upon those that rise up againft the King, as upon those that fight againft GOD. And no wonder, that the Punishment should be the fame, when the Fault is the fame: For he that fights againft his King, fights againft GOD Himself, who hath invested him with that Power, and Authority to govern his People, representing His own Glorious Majesty before them.

UPON this Ground it is, that I believe, the Wickednels of a Prince cannot be a fufficient Plea for the Difobedience of his Subjects; for it is not the Holinels, but the Authority of GOD that he reprefents, which the most wicked, as well as the most holy, Perfon may be endow'd with: And, therefore, when the Gospel first began to foread itfelf over the Earth, tho' there was no Christian King, or Supreme Magistrate, of what Title foever, to cherisch and protect it; nay, tho' the Civil Pow-'ers were then the greatest Enemies to it; yet, even then were the Difciples of CHRIST enjoin'd to fubmit themselves to every Ordinance of Man, for the Lord's (ake.

IN SOMUCH that did I live amongst the Turks, I should look upon it as my Duty to obey the Grand Seignior, in all his lawful Edicts, as well as the most Christian and Pious King in the World. For, suppose a Prince be never so wicked, and never so negligent in his Duty of presesting Me; it doth not follow, that I must neglect mine of obeying Him. In such a case, I have another Duty added to this; and that is, to pray for him, and to intercede with GOD for his Conversion: For, thus hath the King of Kings commanded, that Prayers, Supplications, Inserceffions, and Giving of Thanks, be made, as for all Man.

Men, fo more especially, for Kings and those that are in Authority, that we may live a quiet and peaceable Life, in all Godliness and Honessy. I Tim. ii. I, 2. So that, whensoever I address to the Court of Heaven, I must be fure to remember my Sovereign on Earth, that GOD would be pleas'd to enable His Servant to reign on Earth, as Himself doth in Heaven, in Righteoussis and Mercy. But especially, in case of any seeming or real Default, or Defect, tho' I do not think it a Subjects Duty to judge or censure his Sovereigns Actions, I am to be the more earness in my Prayers and Intercessions for him; but, upon no Account, to fight or rebel against him.

AND, if I am thus firicity obliged to honour, obey, and pray for a bad Prince, how much more shou'd I pay those Duties to one, who represents GOD, not only in His Authority, but in His Holinefs too? In this cafe, fure, as there is a double Engagement to Reverence and Obedience, fo I amdoubly punishable, if I neglect to shew it, either to the Prince himfelf, or those that are fet under him: for the fame Obligations that lie upon me, for my Obedience to the King, bind me likewife to obey his inferiour Officers and Magistrates, that act under him; and that for this Reason, because, as he reprefents GOD, fo they reprefent him; and, therefore, whatever they command, in his Name, I look upon it as much my Duty to obey, as if it was commanded by his own Mouth, and, accordingly, do, from this Moment, by the Grace of GOD, refolve to put this Duty in Practice.

RESOLUTION II.

I am refolv'd, by the fame Divine Grace, to be as conftant in loving of my Wife, as cautious in chufing ber.

T HOUGH it be not neceffary for me to refolve upon Marrying, yet it may not be improper, to refolve, in cafe I should, to follow these Rules of Duty; first, in the Choice of a Wife: and, fecondly, in the Affection that I ought to bear towards her.

As for the first, I shall always endeavour to make Choice of fuch a Woman for my Spoule, who hath first made Choice of CHRIST as a Spoule for herself; that none may be made one Flesh with me. who is not made one Spirit with CHRIST my Savi-For, I look upon the Image of CHRIST, as our. the best Mark of Beauty I can behold in her; and the Grace of GOD, as the best Portion I can receive with her. These are Excellencies, which, tho' not visible to our Carnal Eyes, are nevertheles agreeable to a Spiritual Heart; and fuch as all Wife and Good Men cannot chuse but be enamour'd with. For my own part, they feem to me fuch neceffary Qualifications, that my Heart trembles at the Thoughts of ever having a Wife without them. What? Shall I marry one that is wedded already to her Sins? or have Poffession of her Body only, when the Devil has Poffeffion of her Soul? Shall fuch a one be united to me here, who shall be separated from me for ever hereafter? and condemn'd to fcorch in everlafting Burnings? No, if ever it be my Lot to enter into that State, I beg of GOD, that He would direct me in the Choice of fuch a Wife only, to lie in my Bofom here, as may afterwards be admitted to reft in Abraham's Bosom to all Eternity; fuch a one, as will fo live, and pray, and converse with me upon Earth, that we may both both be entitled to fing, to rejoice, and be bleffed together, for ever, in Heaven.

THAT this, therefore, may be my Portion and Felicity, I firmly refolve, never to fet upon fuch a Defign, before I have first folicited the Throne of Grace, and begg'd of my Heavenly Father, to honour me with the Partnerschip of one of His beloved Children; and shall afterwards be as careful and cautious as I can, never to fix my Affections upon any Woman for a Wife, till I am thoroughly perfuaded of the Grounds I have to love her, as a true Christian.

IF I cou'd be thus happy, as to meet with a Wife of thefe Qualities and Endowments, it wou'd be impoffible for me not to be hearty and fincere in my Affection toward her, even tho' I had the greateft Temptations to place them upon another: For, how cou'd I chufe but love her, who has GOD for her Father, the Church for her Mother, and Heaven for her Pottion; who loves GOD, and is belov'd of Him? Efpecially, when I confider, that thus to love her, will not only be my Duty, but my Happinefs too.

As to the Duty, it is frequently inculcated in Scripture, that Husbands (hould love their Wives, and that not with a common Love, but as CHRIST loved His Church, Eph. V. 25, yea, as their own Bo-dy, y. 28. or, as themselves, y. 33. and they are fo to love them, as not to he bister against them. Col. iii. 10. not to be paffionate or angry with them upon every light Matter, nor fuffer their Refentments to rife to that Height, upon any Occasion whatfoever, as to abate the least Spark of Conjugal Affection towards them, but to nourif and cherif them. even as the Lord the Church. In a word, To do all the kind Offices they can for them, in their Civil Capacities, and to help and forward them, by all means possible, in the Way that leads to Heaven; that as they are united in the Flesh, fo they may H 4 likewile likewife be united in the Spirit, and rais'd and rewarded together, at the General Refurrection.

AND. as Love is the Great Duty, fo is it, likewife, the Chief Happiness of a marry'd State. 1 do not mean that Love whereby the loves me, but that wherewith I love her ; for, if I myfelf have not a cordial Efteem and Affection for her, what Happiness will it be to me, to be belov'd by her ? or rather, what a Mifery wou'd it be to be forced to live with one I know I cannot love? As ever, therefore, I defire to be happy, I must perform my Duty in this Particular, and never aim at any other End, in the Choice of a Wife, or expect any other Happinels in the Enjoyment of her, but what is founded in the Principle of pure and inviolable Love. If I fhould court and marry a Woman for Riches, then, whenever they fail, or take their Flight, my Love and my Happiness must drop and vanish together with them. If I chuse her for Beauty only. I shall love her no longer than while that continues, which is only till Age or Sickness blafts it, and then farewel, at once, both Duty and Delight.

But if I love her for her Virtues, and for the fake of GOD, who has enjoin'd it as a Duty, that our Affections shou'd not be alienated, or separated, by any thing but Death; then, though all the other fandy Foundations fail, yet will my Happiness remain entire; even 'tho' I shou'd not perceive those mutual Returns of Love, which are due to me from her upon the fame Bottom. But Oh ! the Happinefs of that Couple, whofe Inclinations to each other are as mutual as their Duties: whole Affections, as well as Perfons, are link'd together with the fame Tye! This is the chief Condition requir'd to make the State of Matrimony happy or defirable. and shall be the chief Motive. with me. to induce me to enter into it. For, tho' it be no Happiness to be belov'd by one I do not love; yet it is, certainly, a very great one to be belov'd by one I do.

I do. If this, then, be my Lot, to have mutual Expressions of Love from the Person I fix my Affections upon, what Joy and Comfort will it raise in my Heart; With what Peace and Amity shall we live together here? and, What Glory and Felicitymay we not promise ourselves hereaster.

WHAT is here faid of the Duty in chuing and loving of a Wife, may be likewife apply'd to the Woman's Duty in chuing and loving her Hufband. But being not fo immediately concern'd in this, I<sup>2</sup> pafs on to my next Refolution.

RESOLUTION III.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to do my Endeavour to give to GOD whatfoever Children He fhall be pleas'd to give to me ythat as they are mine by Nature, they may be His by Grace.

I. HAVE fometimes wonder'd at the Providence of GOD, in bringing fo many Millions of People out of the Loins of one Man; and cannot but make this Use of it, even to ftir up myself to a double Diligence, in bringing up my Children in the Nurture and Admonition of the Lord. For who knows; but the Salvation of ten thousand Souls may depend upon the Education of one fingle Child ?

IF I train up my Son in the Ways of Religion, and teach him what it is to keep a Conficience woid of Offence, towards GOD, and towards Man; he will then not only have an inward Senfe of his own Duty, but take all poffible Care to inftil it into others, whether Children or Servants; that are committed to his Charge: And thefe, again, will do the fame to theirs, by teaching them to walk in the fame Path; till, by degrees, the Piety and Holine's of one Man has diffus d itfelf to all fucceeding Generations. But now, on the other H 5 hand, hand, if I neglect the Care of my Son's Education, and fuffer the Leprofy of Sin and Wickednefs to taint and corrupt him, 'tis great odds, without an extraordinary Interpolition of Divine Grace, but the Infection may fpread itfelf over all my Posterity; and fo draw down upon me the Curfes and Accufations of ten thousand Souls in Hell, which might otherwife have been praising and bleffing GOD, for me, to all Eternity, in Heaven.

HENCE it is, that I am refolv'd to endeavour to be a Spiritual, as well as Natural Father to my Children; yea, to take more Care to get a Portion for their Souls in Heaven, than to make Provision for their Bodies upon Earth. For, if he be accounted worfs than an Infidel, that provides not for his Family, the Sustemance of their Bodies, what is he that fuffers his Family to neglect the Salvation of their Souls?

THAT nothing of this, therefore, may be laid to my Charge, if ever Providence fees fit to bless me with Children of my own, I'll take effectual Care, fo foon as conveniently I can, to devote them unto GOD by Baptism; that what Guilt they have contracted, by coming through my Loins, may be wash'd away by the Laver of Regeneration; and then to be constantly foliciting the Throne of Grace, that He who hath given them to me, would be pleased to give Himself to them.

THE next thing to be done, as foon as they come to be capable of Inftruction, is, to take all Occasions, and make use of all Means, to work the Knowledge of GOD into their Heads, and the Grace of CHRIST into their Hearts; by teaching them to remember their Creator in the Days of their Youth; by acquainting them with the Duties that He that made them expects from them; with the Rewards they shall have, if dutiful; and the Punishments they shall heel, if disobedient Children; full accommodating my Expressions to the shallow Capacity of their tender Years. And, according to their doing, or not doing, of what they have been told, I fhall reward them with what is moft pleafing, or punifh them with what is moft difpleafing to their Years. To fpeak to them of Heaven, and Eternal Glory, will not encourage them fo much, as to give them their Childifh Pleafures and Defires : And the denouncing of a future Hell will not affright them fo much, as the inflicting a prefent Smart. Hence it is, that Solomon fo oft inculcates this upon Parents, as their Duty to their Children, that they fhould not fpare the Rod, left they fpoil the Child.

BUT I must still take care, to let them underfland, that what I do is from a Principle of Love and Affection to them, not of Fury and Indignation against them. For, by this means, GOD may correct me for correcting them; I may fet before my Children fuch an Example of indifcreet and finful Paffion, as they'll be apt enough to learn, without my teaching them. On the other hand, it behoves me, if possible, fo to order my Family, that my Children may not fee or hear, and fo not learn, any thing but Goodness in it; for commonly, according to what we learn when we are young, we practife when we are old. And therefore, as I shall take great Care, that my Children learn nothing that is evil or finful at home; fo likewife, that they do not come into fuch Company abroad, where their Innocence may be affaulted with Swearing, Curfing, or any kind of prophane or obscene Difcourfe, which the generality of our Youth are fo obnoxious to.

OR, at leaft, if this is not wholly to be avoided, to prevent these possions Weeds from taking Root in the Heart, it behoves me to take all Opportunities of discourting to them of GOD and CHRIST, of the Immortality of their Souls, and the future State they are to be doom'd to in another World, when they have liv'd a little while in this; that, according as they grow in Years, they may grow in Grace, H 6 and and in the Knowledge of our Lord and Savious CHRIST. And when they come to Years of Difcretion, capable of doing farther Honour and Service to GOD and their Country, by fome Calling or Profession, I must be sure to place them in such a ore, as may be no Hindrance to that High and Meavenly Calling, which they have in CHRIST JEsus, but rather contribute to further and promote it; that, being like tender Plants, engrafted into the true Vine, they may bring forth much Fruit, to GOD's Glory, to my Comfort, and their own Salvation.

RESOLUTION IV.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to do my Duty to my Servants, as well as expect they should do theirs to me.

T was Joshua's, and by GOD's Grace, it shall be my Resolution, that I and my House will serve the Lord. I, in the first place, and then my House; for if I myself do not, I cannot expect that they should. So that, for the ordering of my Family in general, I must not only press their Duty upon them. but likewise practife my own Duty, in supprefling all vicious and lewd Conversation, and compofing all Strife and Contention amongst them; in praying every Day, at the leaft, twice with them; in cat chizing and expounding the Principles of Religion to them, and in calling for an account of every.Sermon and godly-Difcourse they hear, either. in private or in publick; in feeing that they conftantly frequent the Divine Ordinances, and that they behave themselves fo confcientiously therein, . that they may be, fome way or other, the better by them. And to these Ends, I think it my Duty, to allow my Servants fome Time, every Day, wherein to ferve GOD; as well as to fee they spend : their their other Hours in ferving me; and to make them fenfible that they do not ferve me only for myfelf, but ultimately and principally in reference unto GOD; their ferving me making way for my-better ferving GOD.

AND, for this Reafon, I cannot believe, but 'tis as great a Sin, to cumber my Servants, as myfelf, with too much worldly Business. For how can they fpend any Time in the Service of GOD, when I require all their Time in my own ? And, how justly should I be condemn'd, if by this means, I shou'd Bring them into a fort of Necessity of finning, either in not obeying GOD; or not obeying me? Not that I think it a Servant's Duty, to neglect His Creator to ferve his Master; on the contrary, he is obliged, in all Cafes, where their Commands interfere, to obey GOD rather than Man. But where they do not, there is a strict Injunction upon all Servants, that they flou'd be obedient to their Masters according to the Flesh, with Fear and Trembling. in Singlene(s of Heart, as unto CHRIST, Ephel. vi. c. But, how with Fear and Trembling? Why, fearing left they should offend GOD, in offending them. and trembling at the Thoughts of being difobedient to the Divine Command, which enjoins them to be obedient to their Masters in all things, not answering again, Tit. ii. 9. that is, not repining at their Mafter's lawful Commands, nor muttering and maundring against them, as some are apt to do : For 'tis as great a Sin in Servants, to fpeak irreverently to their Masters, as in Masters to speak passionately to their Servants.

BUT how are Servants to give Obedience to their Mafters, with Singlenefs of Heart, as unto CHRIST? Why, by obeying them only in Obedience unto GHRIST; that is, they are therefore to do their Mafter's Will, becaufe 'tis the LORD's Will they fhould do it; ferving them, not with Eye-fervice, as Men-pleafers, but as the Servants of CHRIST, doing the Will of GOD from the Heart, with Good Will doing à.

ing Service, as to the Lord, and not to Men, Eph. vi. 6, 7. Col. iii. 22. This is the Duty therefore, that I fhall be oft inculcating upon my Servants, and fhail as oft be reflecting upon my felf, that what I require for my own Service may be always in Subordination to GOD's, who is our common Lo d and Mafter, whole Laws are equally obliging to all Ranks and Conditions of Men, and in whole Sight there is no Respect of Persons.

RESOLUTION V.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to feed the Flock, that GOD fhall fet me over, with wholfome Food, neither ftarving them by Idleness, poisoning them with Error, nor puffing them up with Impertinencies.

ND here I cannot but declare, that ever fince I knew what it was to fludy, I have found. by Experience, that Spiritual and Intellectual Pleafures do as far furpais those that are Temporal and Senfual, as the Soul exceeds the Body. And, for this Reafon, as I always thought the Study and Profession of Divinity to be the noblest and most agreeable of all others, as carrying with it its own Encouragement and Reward; fo I have often wonder'd with myself, that the greatest Perfons in the World should not be defirous and ambitious of exercifing their Parts in the Study of this neceffary, as well as fublime Science, and even devoting themfelves to the Profession of it. For, do they afpire after Honour? What greater Honour can there be, than to be the Mouth of GOD to the People, and of the People unto GOD; have the Moft High Himfelf, not only to speak when, but in them too? What greater Honour, than than to have a Commiffion from the King of Kings, to reprefent Himfelf before His People, and call upon them, in His Name, to turn from the Error of their Ways, and walk in the Paths of GOD to everlafting Glory? What greater Honour, than to beran Inftrument, in His Hand, to bring poor Souls from the Gates of Hell, to fet them among Princes in the Court of Heaven? Do they thirft after Pleafures? What greater Pleafure can they have, than to make it their Bufinefs to feed themfelves and others, with the Bread and Water of Life?

BUT flay, my Soul, let not thy Thoughts run only upon the Dignity of thy Function, and the Spiritual Pleasures that attend the faithful Discharge of it; but think, likewife, upon the ftrict Account thou must give of it in another Life: The ferious Confideration of which, as it cannot but be a great Comfort to the true and faithful Paffor, who has diligently fed his Flock with the fincere Milk of GOD's Word; fo must it be a great Terror and Confusion to the flothful and negligent, the falle and deceitful Dispensers of the Divine Mysteries, who have either carelefly loft, or treacheroufly deluded, the Souls of those committed to their Charge, which they must, one Day, answer for, as well as for their own. And, therefore, that nothing of this kind may ever be laid to my Charge, I folemnly promife and refolve, before GOD, fo to demean myfelf in the Exercife of my Ministerial Function, as to make the Care of Souls, especially of those committed to my Charge, the chief Study and Bufinefs of my Life.

AND that without Partiality or Exception; I must not fingle out fome of the best of my Flock, fuch as I have the highest Respect for, or have receiv'd the greatest Obligations from; but minister to every one, according to their several Necessities. If I meet with Men of Knowledge and Virtue, my Bufiness must be to confirm and establish them therein; if with those that are ignorant and immoral, to teach and and instruct them in the Ways of Religion, and by all means possible, to reclaim and reduce them to the Exercise of their Duty; always remembring, that as the Bleffed JEsus, the great Shepherd and Bishop of our Souls, was not sent, save white the lost Sheep of the House of Israel; and came not to call the Righteous, but Sinners to Repentance; fo it is the indifpenfable Duty of his Apostles and Ministers, (and by the Grace of GOD, I shall make it mine) to follow His Example in this Particular; to spare no Time nor Pains in the Reformation of Sinners. though it be never fo irkfome and difficult to accomplifh; even though I shou'd meet with such as the Prophet David speaks of, who have to be reformed, and caft my Words behind them. And, therefore, as I know 'tis my Duty, fo I shall always endeayour to take Pleafure in the feveral Offices I perform of this kind, to strengthen the weak, heal the wounded, and bind up the broken Heart; to call in those that err and go aftray, and to feek and fave. those that are lost.

To these Ends, tho' Preaching is, without doubt, a most excellent and useful, as well as necessary Duty, (especially, if it be perform'd, as it ought, with Zeal and Reverence, and the Doctrine apply'd and prefs'd home, with Sincerity of Affection) yet, I shall not think it sufficient to instruct my People only from the Pulpit, but take all Opportunities to inftil good Thoughts and Principles into their Minds in my private Conversation. I know, it is imposfible for all Ministers frequently to visit every particular Person or Family in their Parish, there being, in fome Parishes, especially in and about London, fo many thousands of Souls : But, howsoever, if it should please the Lord, to call me to such a Flock. though I cannot visit all, I shall visit as many as I can; especially, those that are fick and infirm, and be fure to feed them with the fincere Milk of the Word, fuch as may turn to their Spiritual Nourishment, and make them grow in Grace, and in the Knowledge.

Knowledge of our Lord and Saviour JESUS CHRIST. I will not fill their Heads with Speculative Notions and Niceties in Divinity; (which, among the lefs judicious, are very often the Occafion of Herefy and Error, and fometimes alfo, of Delufion and Diftraftion:) But my chief Care shall be to instruct them in those necessfary Truths, which their Christian Faith indispensably obliges them to know and believe, and prefs them to the Performance of those Duties, without which they cannot be fav'd; meekly and impartially reproving the particular Vices they are most inclin'd and addicted to, and chearfully encouraging and improving whatever virtuous Actions they are, any of them, exemplary in, and whatever good Habits and Inclinations the Divine Grace has put into their Hearts.

AND fince Love and Charity is the great Chasacteristick of our Profosion, the Bond and Cement of all other Christian Duties, in order to make my Ministry the more fuccessful, I resolve, in the last place, not only to avoid all Differences and Difputes with them myfelf, but amicably to compose all fuch as may arife among the Neighbours. În a word, I shall make it my Endeavour, in all things, to to approve myself as a faithful Minister, both in Life and Doctrine, before them, that, at the laft Day, when the great GOD shall call for my Parish, and myfelf to appear before Him, I may be fitly prepared to give an Account of both; at leaft, to answer for as many of them as He requires; and may, with Joy and Comfort, pronounce this Sentence of my Saviour, if it may, without Offence, be apply'd to His Ministers, Behold, I and the Children which. Thou haft given me.

RESO.

RESOLUTION VI.

I am refolved, by the Grace of GOD, to be as faithful and conftant to my Friend, as I would have my Friend to be faithful and conftant to me.

H AVING before refolv'd to be zealous in loving GOD, I here refolve to be as conftant in loving my Friend. But why do I refolve upon this? Is it poffible to live, and not to love? This to me feems as plain a Contradiction, as to live, and not to live. For Love, in my Opinion, is as much the Life of the Soul, as the Soul is the Life of the Body. So that, for my own part, I fhall expect to ceafe to live, at the very Moment that I ceafe to love; nay, I do not look upon Love only as my Life, but as the Joy and Comfort of it too. And, for this Reafon, I fhall never envy any Man his Riches, Pleafures, or Preferments, provided that I can but enjoy the Perfons my Soul delights in, wit: CHRIST in the firft place, and my Friend and Neighbour in the fecond.

But then I must have a great Care, where, and how, I place this Affection; for if I place it wrong, my very Loving will be Sinning. And, therefore, I shall always endeavour to make fuch only my Friends, as are Friends to GOD. Not that I look upon it as neceffary to love my Friends always under that Notion only as they are Friends of GOD ; for then, no Love but that which is Spiritual would be lawful; whereas, there is, doubtless, a Natural Love, that it no lefs a Duty, and, by Confequence, no lefs lawful, than the other; as, the Love of Parents towards their Children, and Children towards their Parents; and the mutual Complacency that arifes betwixt Friends, as well as Relations, from the Harmony and Agreement of Humours, and Tempers. Thus our Saviour is faid to have lov'd St. John more more than any of His other Difciples, which cannot be underflood of a spiritual Love; for this, undoubtedly, was equal to all; but being a Man fubject to the like Paffions (tho' not Imperfections) as we are, He placed more Natural Affection upon, and might have more Natural Complacency in, John, than in His other Difciples.

AND, therefore, when I fay, I am to make fuch my Friends only, as are Friends to GOD, my Meaning is, That I will make none my Friends, but fuch as I know to be good Men, and good Christians, such as deserve my Love in a Spiritual, as well as a Natural, Senfe: And fince I may lawfully love my Friend in both these Senses, the one is fo far from being exclusive, that it is really perfective of the other. And for this Reason, as the Spiritual Good of my Friend is always to be preferr'd before that which is Temporal, I am refolv'd to found the one upon the other. I will always be ready, as oft he flands in need, either for my Advice, Encouragement, or Aflittance, to do him all the kind Offices I can in his worldly Affairs, to promote his litereft, vindicate his Character from fecret Afperfions, and detend his Perfon from open Affaults: to be faithful and punctual in the Performance of my Promifes to him, as well as in keeping the Secrets he has entrusted me with. But all these things are to be done with a tender Regard to the Honour of GOD, and the Duties of Religion; fo that the Services I do him in his Temporal Concerns, must still be confistent with, and subservient to, the Spiritual Interest and Welfare of his Immortal Soul, in which I am principally obliged to manifest my Friendship towards him. If I fee him wander out of the right way, I must immediately take care to advertise him of it, and use the best means I can to bring him back to it. Or if I know him to be guilty of any reigning Vices, I must endeavour to convince him of the Danger and Malignity of them, and importune and perfuade perfuade him to amend and forfake them. And lastly, I must be as constant in keeping my Friend, as cautious in chusing him; still continuing the Heat of my Affections towards him, in the Day of his Affliction, as well as in the Height of his Prosperity.

THESE are the Rules, whereby I refolve to exprefs my Friendship unto Others, and whereby I would have Others to express Their Friendship unto Me.

Concerning my Talents.

HAVING fo folemnly devoted myfelf to GOD, according to the Covenant He hath made with me, and the Duty I owe to Him; not only what I am, and what I do, but likewife what I have, is ftill to be improv'd for Him. And this I am bound to, not only upon a Federal, but even a Natural, Account ; for whatfoever I have, I receiv'd from Him, and, therefore, all the Reafon in the World, whatsoever I have, should be improv'd for Him. For, I look upon myfelf, as having no other Propriety in what I enjoy, than a Servant hath in what he is entrusted with to improve for his Master's Use : Thus, tho' I should have Ten Thousand Pounds a Year, I should have no more of my own, than if L had but two Pence in all the World. For it is only committed to my Care for a Seafon, to be employ'd and improv'd to the best Advantage, and will be call'd for again at the grand Audit, when I must answer for the Use or Abuse of it; fo that whatfoever in a Civil Senfe, I can call my own, that, in a Spiritual Sense, I must esteem as GOD's. And, therefore, it nearly concerns me, to manage all the Talents I am entrusted with, as things I must give a strict Account for, at the Day of Judgment. As GOD bestows His Mercies upon me, thro' the Greatnels ۰.

Greatnels of His Love and Affection fo I am to reftore His Mercies back again to Him, by the Holinels of my Life and Conversation. In a word, whatever I receive from His Bounty, I must, fome way or other, lay out for His Glory, accounting nothing mine own, any farther than as I improve it for GOD's fake, and the spiritual Comfort of my own Soul.

IN order to this, I shall make it my Endeavour, by the Blessing of GOD, to put in Practice the following Refolutions.

RESOLUTION I.

I am refolv'd, if possible, to redeem my Time past, by using a double Diligence for the future, to employ and improve all the Gists and Endowments, both of Body and Mind, to the Glory and Service of my great Creator.

IME, Health, and Parts, are three precious Talents, generally beftow'd upon Men, but feldom improv'd for GOD. To go no farther than myfelf; How much Time and Health have I enjoy'd, by GOD's Grace? and, how little of it have I laid out for His Honour? On the contrary, how oft have I offended, affronted, and provok'd Him, even when he has been courting me with His Favours, and daily pouring forth His Benefits upon me? This alas! is a fad Truth, which when sever I ferioufly reflect upon, I cannot but acknowledge the Continuance of my Life as the greatest Instance of GOD's Mercy and Goodness, as well as the greatest Motive to my Gratitude and Obedience. In a due Senfe, therefore, of the Vanities and Follies of my younger Years, I defire to take Shame to myself for what is past, and do, this Morning, humb humbly profirate myfelf before the Throne of Grace, to implore GOD's Pardon, and to make folemn Promites and Refolutions, for the future, to caft off the Works of Darkness, and to put on the Armour of Light; And not only fo, but to redeem the precious Minutes I have squander'd away, by hufbanding those that remain to the best Advantage. I will not trifle and fin away my Time in the Pleafures of Senfe or the Impertinencies of Business. but shall always employ it in Things that are necesfary and uleful, and proportion it to the Weight and Importance of the Work or Business I engage myfelf in; allotting fuch a Part of it for This Bufinefs, and fuch a Part for That, fo as to leave no Intervals for unlawful, or unnecessary Actions to thruft themselves in, and pollute my Life and Converiation.

For, fince it has pleas'd GOD to favour me with the Bleffing of Health, and I am not certain how foon I may be depriv'd of it, and thrown upon a Bed of Sicknefs, which may deprive me of the Ufe of my Reafon, or make me uncapable of any thing elfe, but grappling with my Diftemper; it highly concerns me to make a due Ufe of this Bleffing, while I have it; to improve thefe Parts and Gifts that GOD has endow'd me with, to the Manifeftation of His Glory, the Salvation of my Soul, and the publick Good of the Community, whereof I 'am a Member.

To these Ends, it will be requisite for me frequently to consider with myself, which way my weak Parts may be the most usefully employ'd, and to bend them to those Studies or Actions, which they are naturally the most inclin'd to, and delighted in, with the utmost Vigour and Application; more particularly, in Spiritual Matters, to make use of all Opportunities for the convincing other's of GOD's Love to them, and their Sins against GOD; of their Misery by Nature and Happines by CHRIST, and when the Truth of GOD happens to be any ways ways traduc'd or oppos'd, to be 2s valiant in the Defence of it, as its Enemies are viclent in their Affaults against it. And as I thus refolve to employ my inward Gifts and Faculties for the Glory and Service of GOD; fo,

RESOLUTION II.

I am refolv'd, by the Divine Grace, to employ my Riches, the outward Bless of Providence, to the same end; and to observe such a due Medium in the Dispensing of them, as to avoid Prodigality on the one Hand, and Covetousses on the other.

THIS, without doubt, is a neceffary Refolution, but 'tis likewife very difficult to put in Practice, without a careful Observance of the following Rules:

FIRST, Never to lavish out my Substance, like the Prodigal, in the Revels of Sin and Vanity, but, after a due Provision for the Necessities and Conveniencies of Life, to lay up the Overplus for the Acts of Love and Charity toward my indigent Brethren. I must confider the Uses and Ends for which GOD has entrusted me with fuch and fuch Possessions; that they were not given me for the Pampering my Body, the Feeding my Lufts, or Puffing me up with Pride and Ambition; but for Advancing His Glory, and my own and the publick Good. But why do I fay given? When, as I be-fore obferved, I have no Propriety in the Riches I poffefs: They are only lent me for a few Years to be difpens'd and diffributed, as my Great Lord and Master sees fit to appoint, viz. for the Benefit of the Poor and Necessitous, which he has made His Deputies, to call for and receive His Money, at my Hands.

Hands. And this, indeed, is the beft Ufe I can put it to, for my own Advantage, as well as theirs: For the Money I beftow upon the Poor, I give to GOD to lay up for me, and I have his infallible Word and Promife for it, that it thall be paid me again with unlimited Intereft, out of His Heavenly Treafure, which is Infinite, Eternal, and Inexhauftible. Hence it is, that whenfoever I fee any fit Object of Charity, methinks I hear the Moft High fay unto me, Give this poor Brother fo much of My Stock, which thou haft in thy Hand, and I will place it to thy Account, as given to Myfelf; and, Look what thou layeft out, and it fhall be paid thee again.

THE second Rule is, Never to spend a Penny. where it can be better fpar'd ; nor to fpare it, where it can be better fpent. And this will oblige me. whenfoever any Occasion offers, of laving out Money, confiderately to weigh the Circumstances of it, and, according as the Matter, upon mature Deliberation requires. I must not grudge to spend it: Or. if, at any time, I find more Realon to spare, I must not dare to spend it; still remembring, that as I am frictly to account for the Money GOD has given me, fo I ought neither to be covetous in faving, or hoarding it up, nor profuse in throwing it away, without a just Occasion. The main thing to be regarded, is, the End I propose to myself in my Expences, whether it be really the Glory of GOD, or my own carnal Humour and Appetite. For Instance. If I lay out my Money in cloathing my Body, the Question must be, whether I do this only for Warmth and Decency, or to gratify my Pride and Vanity? If the former, my Money is better fpent ; if the latter, 'tis better spar'd than spent : Again, Do I lay it out in Eating and Drinking? If this be only to fatisfy the Neceffities of Nature, and make my Life the more easy and comfortable, it is, without doubt, very well spent; but if it be to feed my Luxury and Intemperance, 'tis much better spar'd; better for my Soul in keeping it from Sin.

Sin, and better for my Body in preferving it from Sicknefs. And this Rule is the more firicity to be obferv'd, becaufe 'tis as great a Fault in a Servant not to lay out his Mafters Money when he should, as to lay it out when he should not.

IN order, therefore to avoid both these Extremes. there is a third Rule to be observ'd under this Refolution; and that is, to keep a particular Account of all my Receipts and Disburfements, to fet down, in a Book every Penny I receive at the Hands of the Almighty, and every Penny I lay out for His Honour and Service. By this means, I shall be, in a manner, forc'd both to get my Money lawfully, and to lay it out carefully; for how can I put that amongst the Money I have receiv'd from GOD, which I have got by unlawful Means? Certainly, fuch Money I may rather account as receiv'd from the Devil for his Use, than from GOD, for His. And fo must I either lay every Penny out for GOD, or otherwise I shall not know where to fet it down : for I must fet down nothing but what I lay out for His Use; and if it be not for His Use, with what Face can I fay it was? And, by this means, alfo, when GOD fhall be pleas'd to call me to an Account for what I receiv'd from Him. I may with comfort appear before Him; and having improv'd the Talents he had committed to my Charge, I may be receiv'd into His Heavenly Kingdom, with a Well done good and faithful Servant, enter those into thy Mafter's Joy.

RESOLUTION III.

I am refolved, by the Grace of GOD, to improve the Authority GOD gives me over others, to the Suppression of Vice, and the Encouragement of Virtue; and so for the Exaltation of GOD's Name on Earth, and their Souls in Heaven.

HAT all Power and Authority hath its Ori-ginal from GOD, and that one Creature is not over another, but by the Providence and Will of Him, who is over all; and, by Confequence, that all the Authority we have over Men is to be improv'd for GOD, is clear, not only from that Question, Who made thee to differ from another? and, what haft thou, which thou didft not receive ? I Cor. iv. 7. but likewife, and that more clearly, from that politive Allertion, The Powers that be, are ordain'd of GOD, Rom. xiii. 1. That, therefore, I . may follow my Commission, I must stick close to my present Resolution, even in all the Power GOD gives me, to behave myfelf as one invefted with that Power from above, to reftrain Vice and encourage Virtue, as oft as I have an Opportunity fo to do, always looking upon myfelf, as one commillion'd by Him, and acting under Him. For this Reafon, 1 must still endeavour to exercise my Authority; as if the most High GOD was in my Place in Perfon, as well as Power. I must not follow the Dictates of my own carnal Reason, much less the Humours of my own biass'd Passion, but itill keep to the Acts which GOD Himself hath made either in the general Statute Book for all the World, the Holy Scriptures, or in the particular Laws and Statutes of the Nation wherein I live.

AND queftionlefs, if I difcharge this Duty as I ought, whatever Sphere of Authority I move in, I ana am capable of doing a great deal of Good, not only by my Power, but by my Influence and Example. For common Experience teaches us, that even the Inclinations and Defires of those that are eminent for their Quality or Station, are more powerful than the very Commands of GOD himself; espe-cially, among Persons of an inferior Rank, and more fervile Disposition, who are apt to be more wrought upon by the Fear of prefent Punishment, or the Lofs of fome temporal Advantage, than any thing that is future or (piritual. Hence it is. that all those whom GOD entrusteth with this precious Talent, have a great Advantage and Opportunity in their Hands, for the suppressing Sin, and exalting Holiness in the World: A Word from their Mouths against Whoredom, Drunkenness, Prophanation of the Sabbath, or the like; yea, their very Example and filent Gestures, being able to do more than the Threatnings of Almighty GOD, either pronounc'd by Himfelf in His Word, or by His Ministers in His Holy Ordinances.

THIS, therefore, is my Refolution, that whatfoever Authority the most High GOD shall be pleas'd to put upon me, I will look upon it as my Duty, and always make it my Endeavour, to demolifh the Kingdom of Sin and Satan, and eftablifh that of CHRIST and Holiness in the Hearts of all those to whom my Commission extends; looking more at the Duty GOD expects from me, than at the Dignity He confers upon me. In a Word. I will fo exercife the Power and Authority GOD puts into my Hands here, that when the particular Circuit of my Life is ended, and I shall be brought to the general Affize to give an Account of this amongst my other Talents, I may give it up with Joy; and fo exchange my Temporal Authority upon Earth, for an Eternal Crown of Glory in Heaven.

RESO;

RESOLUTION IV.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to improve the Affections GOD firs up in others towards me to the firring up of their Affections towards GOD.

F the Authority I have over others, then questi-onless, the Affection others have to me, is to be improv'd for GOD; and that because the Affection they bear to me in a natural Sense hath a kind of Authority in me over them in a spiritual one. And this I gather from my own Experience; for I find none to have a greater Command over me, than they that manifest the greatest Affections for me. Indeed, 'tis a Truth generally agreed on, that a real and fincere Efteem for any Perfon, is always attended with a Fear of displeasing that Person; and where there is Fear in the Subject, there will, doubtless, be Authority in the Object; because Fear is the Ground of Authority, as Love is, or ought to be, the Ground of that Fear. The greatest Potentate, if not fear'd, will not be obey'd; if his Subjects stand in no Awe of him, he can never firike any Awe upon them. Nor will that Awe have its proper Effects in curbing and reftraining them from Sin and Disobedience, unless it proceeds from, and is join'd with. Love.

1 KNOW, the Scripture tells me, There is no Fear in Love, but that perfect Love caffesh out Fear, 1 John iv. 18. But that is to be underflood of our Love to GOD, not to Men, and that a perfect Love too, fuch as can only be exercis'd in Heaven. There, I know, our Love will be confummate, without Mixture as well as without Defect; there will be a perfect Expression of Love on both fides, and so no Fear of Displeasure on either. But this is a Happines which is not to be expected here on Earth; so long as we are cloath'd with Flesh and Blood, we shall in one degree or other, be still under the Influence of our Paffions and Affections. And. therefore, as there is no Person we can love upon Earth, but who may fometimes fee Occasion to be displeas'd with us; fo he will always upon this Account, be fear'd by us. This I look upon as the chief occasion of one Man's having to much Power and Influence over another.

But how comes this under the Notion of a Talent receiv'd from GOD, and fo to be improv'd for Him? Why, because 'tis He, and He alone, that kindles and blows up the Sparks of pure Love and Affection in us. and that by the Breathings of His own Spirit. It was the LORD that gave Joseph Favour in the Sight of the Keeper of the Prison, Gen. xxxix. 21. And that brought Daniel into Favour and tender Love with the Prince of the Eunuchs. Dan. i. o. And fo of all others in the World: For we are told elsewhere, that as GOD fashioneth the Hearts of Men, so he turneth them, which way soever be will. Infomuch that I can never fee any express their Love to me, but I must express my Thankfulnels to GOD for it: Nor can I feel in myfelf any Warmth of Affection towards others, without confidering it as a Talent hid in my Breaft, which I am oblig'd in Duty to improve for Him by ftirring up their Affections unto Him, whose Affections Himfelf hath ftirr'd up towards me. And this will be the more easy to effect, if I take care, in the first place, to express the Zeal and Sincerity of my own Love to GOD, by making Him the chief Object of my Efteem and Adoration, and manifeft my Averfion to the Sins they are guilty of, by reprefenting them as most loathfome and abominable, as well as most dangerous and damnable. For, whereever there is a true and cordial Affection to any Perfon, it is apt to biafs those that are under the Influence of it, to chuse the same Objects for their Love or Aversion, that such a Person does, i.e. to love what he loves, and hate what he hates. This, I 3 therefore.

therefore, is the first thing to be done, to stir up the Affections of others to love and serve GOD.

ANOTHER way of my improving the Affections. of others to this End, is by fetting them a good Example; for commonly what a Friend doth, be it good or bad, is pleafing to us, becaufe we look not at the Goodness of the Thing which is done, but at the Loveliness of the Person that doth it. And if the Vices of a Friend feem amiable, how much more will their Virtues thine? For this Reafon, therefore, whenfoever I perceive any Perfon to shew a Respect for, or Affection to, me, I shall always look upon it as an Opportunity put into my Hands, to ferve and glorify my great Creator, and shall look upon it as a Call from Heaven, as much as if I heard the Almighty fay to me, I defire to have this Perfon love me, and therefore have I made him to love thee; do thou but fet before him an Example of Goodnefs and Virtue, and his Love to thy Perfon shall induce and engage him to direct his Actions according to it. This, therefore is the Rule that I fully refolve to guide my felf by, with relation to those who are pleas'd to allow me a Share in their Efteem and Affection, which I hope to improve to their Advantage in the End: That as they love me, and I love them now, fo we may all love GOD, and GOD love us to all Eternity.

RESOLUTION V.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to improve every good Thought to the producing of good Affections in myfelf, and as good Actions with respect to GOD.

WHATSOEVER comes from GOD, being a Talent to be improv'd to Him, I cannot but but think good Thoughts to be as precious Talents, as 'tis poffible a Creature can be bleffed with. But let me efteem them as I will, I am fure my Mafter will reckon them amongst the Talents he entrusts me with. and will call me to an Account for; and, therefore, I ought not to neglect them. The Scripture tells me, I am not sufficient of myself to think any thing, as of my (elf, but that my Sufficiency is of GOD. 2 Cor. iii. c. And if I be not sufficient to think any thing, much lefs am I able of myfelf to think of that which is good; forafmuch as to good Thoughts there must always be supposed a special Concurrence of GOD's Spirit ; whereas to other Thoughts there is only the general Concurrence of His Prefence. Seeing, therefore, they come from GOD, how must I lay them out for Him? Why, by fublimating good Thoughts into good Affections. Does GOD vouchfafe to fend down into my Heart a Thought of Himself? I am to send up this Thought to Him again, in the fiery Chariot of Love, Defire, and Joy. Doth he dart into my Soul a Thought of Holinefs and Purity? I am to dwell and meditate upon it, till it break out into a Flame of Love and Affection for him. Doth he raise up in my Spirit a Thought of Sin, and shew me the Uglinefs and Deformity of it? I must let it work its defir'd Effect, by making it as loathfome and deteftable, as that Thought represents it to be.

But good Thoughts must not only be improved to produce good Affections in my Heart, but likewife good Actions in my Life. So that the Thoughts of GOD should not only make me more taken with His Beauty, but more Active for His Glory; and the Thoughts of Sin should not only damp my Affection to it, but likewife deter and restrain me from the Commission of it,

AND thus every good Thought that GOD puts into my Heart, inftead of flipping out, as it does with fome others, without Regard, will be cherifh'd and improv'd, to the producing of good Actions: Thefe

These Actions will entitle me to the Bleffings of GOD, and That to the Kingdom of Glory.

RESOLUTION VI.

I am refolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to improve every Affliction GOD lays upon me, as an Earneft or Token of His Affection towards me.

EVERY Thing that flows from GOD to His Servants, coming under the Notion of Talents, to be improv'd for Himfelf, I am fure Afflictions as well as other Mercies, must needs be reckon'd amongst those Talents GOD is pleas'd to vouchfafe. Indeed, it is a Talent, without which I should be apt to forget the Improvement of all the reft; and which, if well improv'd itfelf will work out for me a far more exceeding and eternal Weight of Glory, 2 Cor. iv. 7. 'Tis the Non-improvement of an Affliction that makes it a Curfe; whereas, if improv'd, 'tis as great a Bleffing, as any GOD is pleafed to scatter amongst the Children of Men. And therefore it is, that GOD most frequently entrusteth this precious Talent with his own pecu'iar People; You only have I known of all the Families of the Earth ; therefore will I punish you for your Ini-quities, Amos iii. 2. Those that GOD knows the beft, with them will He entrust the most, if not of other Talents, yet be fure of this; which, is fo ule-ful and neceffary to bring us to the Knowledge of ourfelves and our Creator that without it we should be apt to forget both.

'T is this, that fnews us the Folly and Pride of Prefumption, as well as the Vanity and Emptinefs of all worldly Enjoyments, and deters us from incenfing and provoking Him, from whom all our Happiness as well as our Afflictions, flow: Let, therefore, fore, what Croffes or Calamities foever befal me, I am still refolv'd to bear them all, not only with a patient Refignation to the Divine Will, but even to comfort, and rejoice myfelf in them, as the greatest Bleffings. For Instance, am I feiz'd with Pain and Sickness? I shall look upon it as a Meffage from GOD, fent on purpose to put me in mind of Death, and to convince me of the Necessity of being always prepar'd for it by a good Life, which a State of uninterrupted Health is apt to make us unmindful of. Do I fustain any Losses or Crosses? The true Use of these is, to make me sensible of the Fickleneis and Inconftancy of this World's Bleffings, which we can no fooner caft our Eye upon. but they immediately sake to them felves Wings, and By away from us. And fo, all other Afflictions GOD fees fit to lay upon me, may, in like manner, be, some way or other, improv'd for my Happinefs.

Bur, befides the particular Improvements of particular Chastifements, the general Improvement of all is the Increasing of my Love and Affection to that GOD, who brings these Afflictions upon me. For how runs the Mittimus, whereby he is pleas'd to fend me to the Dungeon of Afflictions ? Deliver such a one to Satan to be buffited in the Flesh, that the Spirit may be saved in the Day of the Lord JESUS, 1 Cor. v. 5. By this it appears, that the Furnace of Afflictions, which GOD is pleas'd, at any time, to throw me into, is not heated at the Fire of His Wrath, but at the Flames of His Affection to me. The Confideration whereof, as it should more infame my Love to Him, fo shall it likewife engage me to express a greater Degree of Gratitude towards Him, when He fingles me out, not only to fuffer from Him, but for Him too. For this is an Honour, indeed peculiar to the Saints of GOD, which if He should be pleas'd ever to prefer me to. I shall look upon it, as upon other Afflictions, to be improv'd improv'd for His Glory, the good of others, and the everlafting Comfort of my own Soul.

THUS have I reckon'd up the Talents GOD hath, or may, put into my Hands, to be improv'd for His Glory. May the fame Divine Being that entrusted me with them, and infpir'd me with these good Refolutions concerning them, enable me, by His Grace, to make a due Use of them, and carefully to put in Practice, what I have thus religiously refolv'd upon !

THERE are fome other Mercies, which might be fet down in the Catalogue of Talents, as the Graces and Motions of GOD's Holy Spirit, and the Ule of His Holy Ordinances, under the Ministry of the Gospel; but these being included and infisted on, under several of the foregoing Heads, will not require a distinct Confideration.
