OF COMMON PRAYER.

EDITORIAL NOTICE.

THE last Revision of the Book of Common Prayer was completed A.D. 1661, and the first printed copies appeared in the following year. A certain number of these were, by Royal Commissioners appointed in pursuance of the Statute, 14 Car. II. cap. 4 sec. 24, examined and compared with the original Manuscript, and such corrections made with the pen as brought them to an exact agreement therewith. These examined copies had then the Great Seal of England attached to them, and one was deposited in the Tower of London, one in each of the four Courts at Westminster, and one in the Library of every Cathedral and Collegiate Church throughout the Kingdom.

The original Manuscript remained at Westminster, annexed to the Act of Uniformity, and is said to have been seen in the Parliament Office there within the last eighteen years.* However it is now unaccountably missing, and in its absence the examined copies usually called "the Sealed Books," must be considered the standard of our present Prayer Book. Many Churchmen may rejoice to have a Copy of the Tower Book, an accurate reprint of which is here presented to them. The following qualifications however must be understood. Firstly, that the black-letter characters of the original are superseded by the Elzevir Roman type, and its Roman type by Italics. The Italics of the original, few in number, are given in spaced printing. Secondly, that the Names of the THREE PERSONS of the GODHEAD are printed in Capitals, and that the pronouns which refer to those PERSONS are distinguished by their beginning with Capitals. And thirdly, that the Rubrics, as their title requires, are printed with red ink.

* See the British Magazine for October 1846. "The attendants in the Parliament Office are quite confident that it was not burned in the fire so disastrous to the two Houses."

AN ACT
for the UNIFORMITY
PUBLICK PRAYERS,

And Administration of Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies : And for establishing the Form of Making, Ordaining, and Consecrating Bishops, Priests, and Deacons in the Church of England.

XIV. Carol. II.

WHEREAS in the first year of the late Queen Elizabeth there was one Uniform Order of Common Service and Prayer, and of the Administration ministration of Sacraments, Rites and Ceremonies in the Church of England (agreeable to the Word of God, and usage of the Primitive Church) compiled by the Reverend Bishops and Clergy, set forth in one Book, Entituled, The Book of Common Prayer, and Administration of Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies in the Church of England, and enjoyned to be used by Act of Parliament, holden in the said First year of the said late Queen, Entituled, An Act for the Uniformity of Common Prayer, and Service in the Church, and Administration of the Sacraments, very comfortable to all good people desirous to live in Christian conversation, and most profitable to the Estate of this Realm, upon the which the Mercy, Favour and Blessing of Almighty God is in no wise so readily and plentifully poured, as by Common Prayers, due using of the Sacraments, and often Preaching of the Gospel, with devotion of the hearers: And yet this notwithstanding, a great number of people in divers parts of this Realm, following their own sensuality, and living without knowledge and due fear of God, do wilfully and Schismatically abstain, and refuse to come to their Parish Churches and other Publick places where Common Prayer, Administration of the Sacraments, and Preaching of the Word of God is used upon the Sundays and other days ordained and appointed to be kept and observed as Holy days: And whereas by the great and scandalous neglect of Ministers in using the said Order, or Liturgy so set forth and enjoyned as aforesaid, great mischiefs and inconveniences, during the times of the late unhappy troubles, have arisen and grown; and many people have been led into Factions and Schisms, to the great decay and scandal of the Reformed Religion of the Church of England, and to the hazard of many souls: for prevention whereof in time to come, come, for settling the Peace of the Church, and for allaying the present distempers, which the indifposition of the time hath contracted, The King's Majesty (according to His Declaration of the Five and twentieth of October, One thousand six hundred and sixty) granted His Commission under the great Seal of England to several Bishops and other Divines to review the Book of Common Prayer and to prepare such Alterations and Additions, as they thought fit to offer; And afterwards the Convocations of both the Provinces of Canterbury and York, being by his Majesty called and assembled (and now sitting) His Majesty hath been pleased to Authorize and require the Presidents of the said Convocations, and other the Bishops and Clergy of the same, to review the said Book of Common Prayer, and the Book of the Form and manner of the Making and Consecrating of Bishops, Priests and Deacons; And that after mature consideration, they should make such Additions and Alterations in the said Books respectively, as to them should seem meet and convenient; And should exhibit and present the same to His Majesty in writing, for his further allowance or confirmation; since which time, upon full and mature deliberation, they the said Presidents, Bishops, and Clergy of both Provinces have accordingly reviewed the said Books, and have made some Alterations which they think fit to be inserted to the same; and some Additional Prayers to the said Book of Common-Prayer, to be used upon proper and emergent occasions; and have exhibited and presented the same unto his Majesty in writing, in one Book, Entituled, The Book of Common Prayer, and Administration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, according to the use of the Church of England, together with the Psalter, or Psalms of David, Pointed as they are to be sung or said in Churches, Churches; and the Form and Manner of Making, Ordaining, and Consecrating of Bishops, Priests and Deacons: All which His Majesty having duely considered hath fully approved and allowed the same, and recommended to this present Parliament, that the said Book of Common Prayer, and of the Form of Ordination and Consecration of Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, with the Alterations and Additions, which have been so made and presented to His Majesty by the said Convocations, be the Book, which shall be appointed to be used by all that Officiate in all Cathedral and Collegiate Churches and Chappels, and in all Chappels of Colledges and Halls in both the Univerſities, and the Colledges of Eaton and Wincheſter, and in all Parish-Churches and Chappels within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and by all that Make, or Consecrate Bishops, Priests or Deacons in any of the said Places, under such Sanctions and Penalties as the Houses of Parliament shall think fit: Now in regard that nothing conduceth more to the settling of the Peace of this Nation (which is desired of all good men) nor to the honour of our Religion, and the propagation thereof, than an Universal agreement in the Publick Worship of Almighty God; and to the intent that every person within this Realm, may certainly know the rule, to which he is to conform in Publick Worship, and Administration of Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church of England, and the manner how, and by whom Bishops, Priests, and Deacons are, and ought to be Made, Ordained and Consecrated;

Be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by the advice, and with the consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of the Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the

the Authority of the same, That all and singular Ministers, in any Cathedral, Collegiate, or Parish-Church or Chappel, or other place of Publick Worship within this Realm of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall be bound to say and use the Morning Prayer, Evening Prayer, Celebration and Administration of both the Sacraments, and all other the Publick, and Common Prayer, in such order and form as is mentioned in the said Book, annexed and joyned to this present Act, and Entituled, The Book of Common Prayer, and Administration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, according to the use of the Church of England: together with the Psalter or Psalms of David, Pointed as they are to be sung or said in Churches; and the form or manner of Making, Ordaining, and Consecrating of Bishops, Priests, and Deacons: and That the Morning and Evening Prayers, therein contained, shall upon every LORDS day, and upon all other days and occasions, and at the times therein appointed, be openly and solemnly read by all and every Minister or Curate in every Church, Chappel, or other place of Publick Worship within this Realm of England, and places aforesaid.

And to the end that Uniformity in the Publick Worship of GOD (which is so much desired) may be speedily effected, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Parson, Vicar, or other Minister whatsoever, who now hath, and enjoyeth any Ecclesiastical Benefice, or Promotion, within this Realm of England, or places aforesaid, shall in the Church, Chappel, or place of Publick Worship belonging to his said Benefice or Promotion, upon some LORDS day before the Feast of Saint Bartholomew, which shall be in the year of our LORD GOD, One thousand six hundred sixty and two, openly, publickly, and solemnly read the Morning and Evening

Evening Prayer appointed to be read by, and according to the said Book of Common Prayer at the times thereby appointed, and after such reading thereof shall openly and publickly, before the Congregation there assembled, declare his unfeigned assent, and consent to the use of all things in the said Book contained and prescribed, in these words, and no other;

I A. B. Do here declare my unfeigned assent, and consent to all, and every thing contained, and prescribed in, and by the Book intituled, The Book of Common Prayer and Administration of the Sacraments, and other Rites, and Ceremonies of the Church, according to the use of the Church of England; together with the Psalter, or Psalms of David, Pointed as they are to be sung, or said in Churches, and the form, or manner of Making, Ordaining, and Consecrating of Bishops, Priests, and Deacons;

And, That all and every such person, who shall (without some lawful Impediment, to be allowed and approved of by the Ordinary of the place) neglect or refuse to do the same within the time aforesaid, or (in case of such Impediment) within one Moneth after such Impediment removed, shall ipso facto be deprived of all his Spiritual Promotions; And that from thenceforth it shall be lawful to, and for all Patrons, and Donors of all and singular the said Spiritual Promotions, or of any of them, according to their respective Rights, and Titles, to present, or collate to the same; as though the person, or persons, so offending or neglecting were dead.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every person, who shall hereafter be presented, or collated, or put into any Ecclesiastical Benefice, or Promotion within this Realm of England and places aforesaid, shall in the Church, Chappel,

An Act for the Uniformity

Chappel, or place of Publick Worship, belonging to his said Benefice or Promotion, within two Moneths next after that he shall be in the actual possession of the said Ecclesiastical Benefice or Promotion, upon some LORDS day openly, publickly, and solemnly Read the Morning and Evening Prayers, appointed to be Read by, and according to the said Book of Common Prayer, at the times thereby appointed, and after such Reading thereof, shall openly, and publickly before the Congregation there assembled, declare his unfeigned assent, and consent to the use of all things therein contained and prescribed, according to the form before appointed: and That all and every such person, who shall (without some lawful Impediment, to be allowed and approved by the Ordinary of the place) neglect or refuse to do the same within the time aforesaid, or (in case of such Impediment) within one month after such Impediment removed shall ipso facto be deprived of all his said Ecclesiastical Benefices and Promotions; and That from thenceforth, it shall and may be lawful to, and for all Patrons, and Donors of all and singular the said Ecclesiastical Benefices and Promotions, or any of them (according to their respective Rights and Titles) to present, or collate to the same, as though the person or persons so offending, or neglecting, were dead.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all places, where the proper Incumbent of any Parsonage, or Vicarage, or Benefice with Cure doth reside on his Living, and keep a Curate, the Incumbent himself in person (not having some lawful Impediment, to be allowed by the Ordinary of the place) shall once (at the least) in every month openly and publickly Read the Common Prayers and Service, in, and by the said Book prescribed, and (if there be occasion) Administer each of the Sacraments and other Rites of the

I A. B. Do declare that it is not lawful upon any pretence whatsoever to take Arms against the King; and that I do abhor that Traiterous Position of taking Arms by His Authority against His Person, or against those that are Commissionated by him; and that I will conform to the Liturgy of the Church of England, as it is now by Law established. THE PREFACE.

IT hath been the Wisdom of the Church of England, ever since the first compiling of her Publick Liturgy, to keep the Mean between the two Extreame, of too much Stiffness in refusing, and of too much Easiness in admitting any variation from it. For, as on the one side common Experience sheweth, that where a change hath been made of things advisedly established (no evident necessity so requiring) fundry inconveniences have thereupon ensued; and those many times more, and greater than the evils, that were intended to be remedied by such change: So on the other side, the particular Forms of Divine Worship, and the Rites, and Ceremonies appointed to be used therein, being things in their own nature Indifferent, and alterable, and so acknowledged; it is but reasonable, that upon weighty and important considerations, according to the various exigency of times and occasions, such changes and alterations should be made therein, as to those that are in place of Authority should from time to time seem either necessary or expedient. Accordingly we find, that in the Reigns of several Princes of blessed memory since the Reformation, the Church upon just and weighty considerations her thereunto moving, hath yielded to make such alterations in some particulars, as in their respective times were thought convenient: Yet so, as that the main Body and Essentials of it (as well in the chiefeft materials, as in the frame and order thereof) have still continued the same unto this day, and do yet stand firm and unshaken, notwithstanding all the vain attempts and impetuous assaults made against it by such men as are given to change, change, and have always discovered a greater regard to their own private fancies and interests, than to that duty they owe to the publick.

By what undue means, and for what mischievous purposes the use of the Liturgy (though enjoyned by the Laws of the Land, and those Laws never yet repealed) came, during the late unhappy confusions, to be discontinued, is too well known to the World, and we are not willing here to remember. But when, upon His Majesties happy Restauration it seemed probable, that, amongst other things, the use of the Liturgy also would return of course (the same having never been legally abolished) unless some timely means were used to prevent it; those men who under the late usurped powers had made it a great part of their business to render the people insensible thereunto, saw themselves in point of reputation and interest concerned (unless they would freely acknowledge themselves to have erred, which such men are very hardly brought to do) with their utmost endeavours to hinder the restitution thereof. In order whereunto divers Pamphlets were published against the Book of Common Prayer, the old Objections mustered up, with the addition of some new ones more than formerly had been made, to make the number swell. In fine great importunities were used to His Sacred Majesty, that the said Book might be Revised, and such Alterations therein, and Additions thereunto made, as should be thought requisite for the ease of tender Consciences: Whereunto His Majesty out of His pious Inclination to give satisfaction (so far as could be reasonably expected) to all His Subjects of what persuasion soever, did graciously condescend.

In which Review we have endeavoured to observe the like Moderation, as we finde to have been used in the like case in former times. And therefore of the sundry Alterations proposed unto us, we have rejected all such as were either of dangerous consequence (as secretly striking at some established doctrine, or laudable Practise of the Church of England, or indeed of the whole Catholick Church of CHRIST) or else of no consequence at all, but utterly frivolous and vain. But such Alterations as were tendred to us (by what persons, under what pretenses, or to what purpose soever so tendred) as seemed to us in any degree requisite or expedient, we have willingly, and of our own accord assented unto: Not enforced so to do by any strength of Argument, convincing us of the necessity of making the said Alterations: For we are fully perswaded in our judgments (and we here profess it to the World) that the Book, as it stood before established by Law, doth not contain in it anything contrary to the Word of GOD, or to sound Doctrine, or which a godly man may not with a good Conscience use and submit unto, or which is not fairly defensible against any that shall oppose the same; if it shall be allowed such just and favourable construction as in Common Equity ought to be allowed to all Humane Writings, especially such as are set forth by Authority, and even to the very best Translations of the holy Scripture it self.

Our general aim therefore in this undertaking was, not to gratifie this or that party in any their unreasonable demands; but to do that, which to our best understandings we conceived might most tend to the preservation of Peace and Unity in the Church; the procuring of Reverence, and exciting of Piety and Devotion in the Publick Worship of GOD; and the cutting off occasion from them that seek occasion of cavil, or quarrel against the Liturgy of the Church. And as to the several variations from the former Book, whether by Alteration, Addition, or otherwise, it shall suffice to give this general account, That most of the Alterations ations were made, either first, for the better direction of them that are to officiate in any part of Divine Service; which is chiefly done in the Kalendars and Rubricks: Or secondly, for the more proper expressing of some words or phrases of ancient usage in terms more suitable to the language of the present times, and the clearer explanation of some other words and phrases, that were either of doubtful signification, or otherwise liable to misconstruction: Or thirdly, for a more perfect rendring of such portions of holy Scripture, as are inserted into the Liturgy; which, in the Epistles and Gospels especially, and in sundry other places are now ordered to be read according to the last Translation: And that it was thought convenient, that some Prayers and Thanksgivings, fitted to special occasions, should be added in their due places; particularly for those at Sea, together with an Office for the Baptism of such as are of riper years; which, although not so necessary when the former Book was compiled, yet by the growth of Anabaptism, through the licentiousness of the late times crept in amongst us, is now become necessary, and may be always useful for the Baptizing of Natives in our Plantations, and others converted to the Faith. If any man, who shall desire a more particular account of the several Alterations in any part of the Liturgy, shall take the pains to compare the present Book with the former; we doubt not but the reason of the change may easily appear.

And having thus endeavoured to discharge our duties in this weighty affair, as in the sight of God, and to approve our sincerity therein (so far as lay in us) to the consciences of all men; although we know it impossible (in such variety of apprehensions, humours, and interests, as are in the world) to please all; nor can expect that men of factious, peevish, and perverse spirits should be satisfied with any

Concerning the Service of the Church.

any thing that can be done in this kind by any other than themselves: Yet we have good hope, that what is here presented, and hath been by the Convocations of both Provinces with great diligence examined and approved, will be also well accepted and approved by all sober, peaceable, and truly conscientious sons of the Church of England.

CONCERNING THE SERVICE OF THE CHURCH.

THERE was never any thing by the wit of man so well devised, or so sure established, which, in continuance of time, hath not been corrupted: As, among other things, it may plainly appear by the Common Prayers in the Church, commonly called Divine Service. The first original and ground whereof if a man would search out by the ancient Fathers, he shall find, that the same was not ordained, but of a good purpose, and for a great advancement of godliness. For they so ordered the matter, that all the whole Bible, (or the greatest part thereof) should be read over once every year; intending thereby, that the Clergy, and especially such as were Ministers in the Congregation, should (by often reading, and meditation in GODS word) be stirred up to godliness themselves, and be more able to exhort others by wholesom doctrine, and to confute them that were Adversaries to the Truth; and further, that the people (by daily hearing of holy Scripture read in the Church) might continually profit more and more in the knowledge of GOD, and be the more inflamed with the love of His true Religion.

But these many years passed, this godly and decent Order of the ancient Fathers hath been so altered, broken, and neglected, by planting in uncertain Stories, and Legends, with multitude of Responds, Verses, vain Repetitions, Commemorations, and Synodals;

Synodals; that commonly, when any Book of the Bible was begun, after three or four Chapters were read out, all the rest were unread. And in this sort the Book of Isaiab was begun in Advent, and the Book of Genesis in Septuagesima; but they were only begun, and never read thorough: After like sort were other Books of holy Scripture used. And moreover, whereas St. Paul would have such language spoken to the people in the Church, as they might understand, and have profit by hearing the same; The Service in this Church of England these many years, hath been read in Latin to the people, which they understand not; so that they have heard with their ears only, and their heart, spirit, and mind have not been edified thereby. And furthermore, notwithstanding that the ancient Fathers have divided the Psalms into seven Portions, whereof every one was called a Nocturn: Now of late time, a few of them have been daily said, and the rest utterly omitted. Moreover, the number and hardness of the Rules called the Pie, and the manifold changings of the Service was the cause, that to turn the Book only was so hard and intricate a matter, that many times there was more business to find out what should be read, than to read it when it was found out.

These inconveniences therefore considered, here is set forth such an Order, whereby the same shall be redressed. And for a readiness in this matter, here is drawn out a Kalendar for that purpose, which is plain and easie to be understood; wherein (so much as may be) the reading of holy Scripture is so set forth, that all things shall be done in order, without breaking one piece from another. For this cause be cut off Anthems, Responds, Invitatories, and such like things as did break the continual course of the reading of the Scripture.

Yet, because there is no remedy, but that of necessity cessity there must be some Rules; therefore certain Rules are here set forth; which, as they are few in number, so they are plain and easie to be understood. So that here you have an Order for Prayer, and for the reading of the holy Scripture, much agreeable to the mind and purpose of the old Fathers, and a great deal more profitable and commodious, than that which of late was used. It is more profitable, because here are left out many things, whereof some are untrue, some uncertain, some vain and superstitious; and nothing is ordained to be read, but the very pure Word of GOD, the holy Scriptures, or that which is agreeable to the same; and that in such a language and order, as is most easie and plain for the understanding both of the readers and hearers. It is also more commodious, both for the shortness thereof, and for the plainness of the Order, and for that the Rules be few and easie.

And whereas heretofore there hath been great diversity in saying and singing in Churches within this Realm; some following Salisbury Use, some Hereford Use, and some the Use of Bangor, some of York, some of Lincoln; now from henceforth all the whole Realm shall have but one Use.

And for as much, as nothing can be so plainly set forth, but doubts may arise in the use and practise of the same; to appease all such diversity (if any arise) and for the resolution of all doubts, concerning the manner how to understand, do, and execute the things contained in this Book; the parties that so doubt, or diversly take any thing, shall always resort to the Bishop of the Diocess, who by his discretion shall take order for the quieting, and appeasing of the same; so that the same order be not contrary to any thing contained in this Book. And if the Bishop of the Diocess be in doubt, then he may send for the resolution thereof to the Archbishop.

THOUGH

THOUGH it be appointed, that all things shall be read and sung in the Church in the English tongue, to the end, that the Congregation may be thereby edified; yet it is not meant, but that when men say Morning and Evening Prayer privately, they may say the same in any language that they themselves do understand.

And all Priests and Deacons are to say daily the Morning and Evening Prayer, either privately or openly, not being let by sickness, or some other urgent cause.

And the Curate that ministreth in every Parish-Church or Chappel, being at home, and not being otherwise reasonably hindred, shall say the same in the Parish-Church or Chappel where he ministreth, and shall cause a Bell to be tolled thereunto a convenient time before he begin, that the people may come to hear Gods Word, and to pray with him.

Of CEREMONIES, why some be abolished and some retained.

OF such Ceremonies as be used in the Church, and have had their beginning by the institution of man, some at the first were of godly intent and purpose devised, and yet at length turned to vanity and superstition: Some entred into the Church by indiscreet devotion, and such a zeal as was without knowledge; and for because they were winked at in the beginning, they grew daily to more and more abuses, which not only for their unprofitableness, but also because they have much blinded the people, and obscured the glory of God, are worthy to be cut away, and clean rejected: Other there be, which although they have been devised by man, yet it is thought good to reserve them them still, as well for a decent order in the Church (for the which they were first devised) as because they pertain to edification, whereunto all things done in the Church (as the Apostle teacheth) ought to be referred.

And although the keeping or omitting of a Ceremony, in it self considered, is but a small thing yet the wilful and contemptuous transgression and breaking of a common order and discipline, is no small offence before GOD. Let all things be done among you, saith St. Paul, in a seemly and due order. The appointment of the which order pertaineth not to private men; therefore no man ought to take in hand, or presume to appoint or alter any publick or common Order in CHRIST'S Church except he be lawfully called and authorized there unto.

And whereas in this our time, the mindes of men are so divers, that some think it a great matter of conscience to depart from a piece of the least of their Ceremonies, they be so addicted to their old customs; and again on the other side, some be so new-fangled, that they would innovate all things, and so despise the old, that nothing can like them, but that is new: It was thought expedient not so much to have respect how to please and satisfie either of these parties, as how to please GOD, and profit them both. And yet lest any man should be offended, whom good reason might satisfie, here be certain causes rendred, why some of the accustomed Ceremonies be put away, and some retained and kept still.

Some are put away, because the great excess and multitude of them hath so increased in these latter days, that the burthen of them was intolerable, whereof St. Augustine in his time complained, that they were grown to such a number, that the estate of Christian people was in worse case concerning that

that matter, than were the Jews. And he counselled, that such yoke and burthen should be taken away, as time would serve quietly to do it. But what would St. Augustine have said, if he had seen the Ceremonies of late days used among us; whereunto the multitude used in his time was not to be compared? This our excessive multitude of Ceremonies was so great, and many of them so dark, that they did more confound and darken, than declare and set forth CHRIST'S benefits unto us. And besides this, CHRIST'S Gospel is not a Ceremonial Law (as much of Moses Law was) but it is a Religion to serve GOD, not in bondage of the figure or shadow, but in the freedom of the spirit; being content only with those Ceremonies which do serve to a decent Order, and godly Discipline, and such as be apt to stir up the dull minde of man to the remembrance of his duty to GOD, by some notable and special signification, whereby he might be edified. Furthermore, the most weighty cause of the abolishment of certain Ceremonies was, That they were so far abused; partly by the superstitious blindness of the rude and unlearned, and partly by the unsatiable avarice of such as sought more their own lucre, than the glory of GOD, that the abuses could not well be taken away, the thing remaining still.

But now as concerning those persons, which peradventure will be offended, for that some of the old Ceremonies are retained still: If they consider, that without some Ceremonies it is not possible to keep any Order, or quiet Discipline in the Church, they shall easily perceive just cause to reform their judgments. And if they think much, that any of the old do remain, and would rather have all devised anew: Then such men granting some Ceremonies convenient to be had, surely where the old may be well used, there they cannot reasonably reprove the old only for their age, without bewraying of their own folly. For in such a case they ought rather to have reverence unto them for their antiquity, if they will declare themselves to be more studious of unity and concord, than of innovations and new-fanglenes, which (as much as may be with true setting forth of CHRISTs Religion) is always to be eschewed. Furthermore, such shall have no just cause with the Ceremonies reserved to be offended. For as those be taken away which were most abused, and did burden mens consciences without any cause; so the other that remain, are retained for a Discipline and Order, which (upon just causes) may be altered and changed, and therefore are not to be esteemed equal with GODS Law. And moreover, they be neither dark nor dumb Ceremonies, but are so set forth, that every man may understand what they do mean, and to what use they do serve. So that it is not like that they in time to come should be abused as other have been. And in these our doings we condemn no other Nations, nor prescribe any thing but to our own people onely: For we think it convenient, that every Countrey should use such Ceremonies as they shall think best to the setting forth of GODS honour and glory, and to the reducing of the people to a most perfect and godly living, without error or superstition; and that they should put away other things, which from time to time they perceive to be most abused, as in mens ordinances it often chanceth diversly in divers Countreys.

The ORDER

How the Psalter is appointed to be read.

THE Psalter shall be read through once every month, as it is there appointed, both for Morning and Evening Prayer. But in February it shall be read only to the Twenty eighth or Twenty ninth day of the month.

And, whereas January, March, May, July, August, October, and December have One and thirty days apiece; It is ordered, that the same Psalms shall be read the last day of the said months, which were read the day before: So that the Psalter may begin again the first day of the next month ensuing.

And whereas the CXIX Psalm is divided into XXII Portions, and is overlong to be read at one time; It is so ordered, that at one time shall not be read above four or five of the said Portions.

And at the end of every Psalm, and of every such part of the CXIX Psalm shall be repeated this Hymn, Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON; and to the HOLY GHOST; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Note, That the Psalter followeth the Division of the Hebrews, and the Translation of the great English Bible, set forth and used in the time of King Henry the Eighth and Edward the Sixth.

The

The ORDER

How the rest of holy Scripture is appointed to be read.

THE Old Testament is appointed for the first Lessons at Morning and Evening Prayer; so as the most part thereof will be read every year once, as in the Kalendar is appointed.

The New Testament is appointed for the second Lessons at Morning and Evening Prayer, and shall be read over orderly every year thrice, besides the Epistles and Gospels; Except the Apocalyps, out of which there are only certain proper Lessons appointed upon divers Feasts.

And to know what Lessons shall be read every day, look for the day of the month in the Kalendar following, and there ye shall find the Chapters that shall be read for the Lessons both at Morning and Evening Prayer; Except only the Moveable Feasts which are not in the Kalendar, and the Immoveable, where there is a blanck left in the Column of Lessons; the proper Lessons for all which days are to be found in the Table of proper Lessons.

And note, that whensoever proper Psalms or Lessons are appointed; then the Psalms and Lessons of ordinary course appointed in the Psalter and Kalendar (if they be different) shall be omitted for that time.

Note also, that the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel appointed for the Sunday shall serve all the week after, where it is not in this Book otherwise ordered.

THE

FOR

MORNING PRAYER,
Daily throughout the Year.

¶ At the beginning of Morning Prayer the Minister shall read with a loud voice some one, or more of these Sentences of the Scriptures, that follow. And then he shall say that which is written after the said Sentences.

WHEN the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness, that he hath committed, and doth that which is lawfull and right, he shall save his soul alive. Ezek. 18. 27.

I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Pſal. 51. 3.

Hide Thy face from my sins, and blot out mine iniquities. Pſal. 51. 9.

The Sacrifices of GOD are a broken spirit: a broken, and a contrite heart, O GOD, Thou wilt not despise. Pſal. 51. 17.

Rent your hearts, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your GOD: for He is gracious, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth Him of the evil. Joel 2. 13.

To the LORD our GOD belong mercies, and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against Him: neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our GOD, to walk in His laws, which He set before us. Dan. 9. 9, 10.

O LORD correct me, but with judgement; not in Thine anger, lest Thou bring me to nothing. Jer. 10. 24. Pſal. 6. 1.

Repent ye; for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand. S. Mat. 3. 2.

I will arise and go to my Father, and will say unto him; Father, I have sinned against Heaven, and S. Luke. 15. 18, 19.

and

and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

Pfal. 143. 2.

Enter not into judgement with Thy servant, O LORD; for in Thy fight shall no man living be justified.

If we say, that we have no sin, we deceive our selves, and the truth is not in us. But, if we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

DEARLY beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in sundry places to acknowledge, and confess our manifold sins and wickedness, and that we should not dissemble nor cloak them before the face of ALMIGHTY GOD our heavenly FATHER, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end, that we may obtain forgiveness of the same by His infinite goodness, and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble, and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits, that we have received at His hands, to set forth His most worthy praise, to hear His most holy word, and to ask those things, which are requisite, and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray, and beseech you as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart, and humble voice unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

¶ A general Confession to be said of the whole Congregation after the Minister, all kneeling.

ALMIGHTY, and most merciful FATHER; We have erred, and strayed from Thy waies like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices, and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against Thy holy laws. We have left undone those things, which we ought to have done; And we have done

done those things, which we ought not to have done ;
 And there is no health in us. But Thou, O LORD, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare Thou them, O God, which confess their faults.
 Restore Thou them, that are penitent ; According to Thy promises declared unto mankind in CHRIST
 JESU our LORD. And grant, O most merciful FATHER, for His sake ; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of Thy holy Name. Amen.

* The Absolution or Remission of sins to be pronounced by the Priest alone, standing ; the people still kneeling.

ALMIGHTY GOD, the FATHER of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, Who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather, that he may turn from his wickedness, and live ; and hath given power, and commandment to His Ministers to declare, and pronounce to His people, being penitent, the absolution, and remission of their sins : He pardoneth, and absolveth all them, that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe His holy Gospel. Wherefore let us beseech Him to grant us true repentance, and His HOLY SPIRIT, that those things may please Him, which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure, and holy, so that at the last we may come to His eternal joy, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD.

* The people shall answer here, and at the end of all other prayers, Amen.

* Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lords Prayer with an audible voice ; the People also kneeling, and repeating it with him, both here, and wheresoever else it is used in Divine Service.

OUR FATHER, Which art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come.
 Thy will be done in Earth, As it is in Heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us

Morning Prayer.

our trespasses, As we forgive them, that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For Thine is the Kingdom, the Power, And the Glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say,

O LORD, open Thou our lips.

Answer.

And our mouth shall shew forth Thy praise.

Priest.

O GOD, make speed to save us.

Answer.

O LORD, make haste to help us.

¶ Here all standing up, the Priest shall say,

Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON: and to the HOLY GHOST;

Answer.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Priest.

Praise ye the LORD.

Answer.

The LORDS name be praised.

¶ Then shall be said, or sung this Psalm following: Except on Easter day, upon which another Anthem is appointed and on the Nineteenth day of every month it is not to be read here, but in the ordinary course of the Psalms.

O COME, let us sing unto the LORD: let us heartily rejoyce in the Strength of our salvation.

Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving: and shew our selves glad in Him with Psalms.

For the LORD is a great God: and a great King above all gods.

*Venite, exultemus
DOMINO.
Psal. 95.*

Morning Prayer.

In His hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hills is His also.

The sea is His, and He made it: and His hands prepared the dry land.

O come, let us worship, and fall down: and kneel before the LORD our MAKER.

For He is the LORD our GOD: and we are the people of His pasture, and the sheep of His hand.

To day if ye will hear His voice, harden not your hearts: as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the Wilderness;

When your Fathers tempted Me: proved Me, and saw My works.

Fourty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said: it is a people that do erre in their hearts, for they have not known My waies.

Unto whom I sware in My wrath: that they should not enter into My rest.

Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON: and to the HOLY GHOST;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Then shall follow the Psalms in order as they be appointed. And at the end of every Psalm throughout the year, and likewise in the end of Benedicite, Benedictus, Magnificat, and Nunc dimittis, shall be repeated,

Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON: and to the HOLY GHOST;

Answer.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Then shall be read distinctly with an audible voice the First Lesson, taken out of the Old Testament, as is appointed in the Kalendar, (except there be proper Lessons assigned for that day:) He, that readeth, to standing, and turning himself, as he may best be heard of all such as are present. And that, shall be said, or sung in English the Hymn, called Te Deum Laudamus, daily throughout the year.

¶ Note

Note that before every Lesson the Minister shall say, Here beginneth such a Chapter, or Verse of such a Chapter of such a Book: And after every Lesson, Here endeth the First, or the Second Lesson.

¶ The second Collect for Peace.

O GOD, Who art the Author of peace and Lover of concord, in knowledge of Whom standeth our eternal life, Whose service is perfect freedom; defend us Thy humble servants in all assaults of our enemies, that we surely trusting in Thy defence, may not fear the power of any adversaries, through the might of JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Kings Majesty.

O LORD our heavenly FATHER, high and mighty, King of kings, LORD of lords, the only Ruler of princes, Who doest from Thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth ; most heartily we beseech Thee with Thy favour to behold our most gracious Sovereign Lord King CHARLES, and to replenish him with the grace of Thy HOLY SPIRIT, that he may alway incline to Thy will, and walk in Thy way : Endue him plenteously with heavenly gifts, grant him in health and wealth long to live, strengthen him that he may vanquish and overcome all his enemies ; and finally after this life, he may attain everlasting joy and felicity, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Royal Family

ALMIGHTY GOD, the Fountain of all goodness, we humbly beseech Thee to bless our gracious Queen CATHERINE, Mary the Queen Mother, James Duke of York, and all the Royal Family : Endue them with Thy HOLY SPIRIT ; enrich them with Thy heavenly grace ; prosper them with all happiness ; and bring them to Thine everlasting kingdom, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, Who Alone workest great marvels; send down upon our Bishops, and Curates, and all Congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of Thy grace; and that they may truly please Thee, pour upon them the continual dew of Thy blessing. Grant this, O LORD, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediatour, JESUS CHRIST. Amen.

¶ A Prayer of Saint Cary is βm.

ALMIGHTY God, Who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto Thee, and dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in Thy Name, Thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfill now, O LORD, the desires and petitions of Thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of Thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

2 Cor. xiii.

THE grace of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, and the love of GOD, and the fellowship of the HOLY GHOST be with us all evermore. Amen.

18, 19.

I will arise and go to my Father, and will say unto him; Father, I have sinned against Heaven and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

Pfal. 143. 2.

Enter not into judgement with Thy servant, O LORD; for in Thy sight shall no man living be justified.

1 S. John 1.

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive our selves, and the truth is not in us. But, if we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

DEARLY beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in sundry places to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness, and that we should not dissemble nor cloak them before the face of ALMIGHTY GOD our heavenly FATHER, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end, that we may obtain forgiveness of the same by His infinite goodness, and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble, and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits, that we have received at His hands, to set forth His most worthy praise, to hear His most holy word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray, and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart, and humble voice unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

¶ A general Confession to be said of the whole Congregation after the Minister, all kneeling

ALMIGHTY and most merciful FATHER; We have erred and strayed from Thy waies like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices, and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against Thy holy laws. We have left undone those things things which we ought to have done ; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done ; And there is no health in us. But Thou, O LORD, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare Thou them, O GOD, which confess their faults Restore Thou them that are penitent ; According to Thy promises declared unto mankind in CHRIST JESU our LORD. And grant, O most merciful FATHER, for His sake ; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of Thy holy Name. Amen.

‘ The Absolution or Remission of sins to be pronounced by the Priest alone, standing ; the people still kneeling.

ALMIGHTY GOD, the FATHER of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, Who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness, and live, and hath given power and commandment to His ministers to declare and pronounce to His people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins : He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe His holy Gospel. Wherefore beseech we Him to grant us true repentance and His HOLY SPIRIT ; that those things may please Him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to His eternal joy, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

‘ Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the LORDS Prayer ; the people also kneeling, and repeating it with him.

OUR FATHER, Which art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in Earth, As it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them, that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation ; But deliver us pointed: And after that, Magnificat (or the Song of the blessed Virgin Mary) in English as followeth.

*Magnifi-
S. Luke 1.

MY soul doth magnifie the LORD: and my spirit hath joyced in GOD my SAVIOUR.

For He hath regarded: the lowliness of His hand-maiden.

For behold, from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed.

For He That is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is His Name.

And His mercy is on them that fear Him:
throughout all generations.

He

He hath shewed strength with His arm : He hath cattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat : and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things : and he rich He hath sent empty away.

He remembring His mercy hath holpen His servant Israel : as He promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.

Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON : and to the HOLY GHOST.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

Or else this Psalm ; Except it be on the nineteenth day of the month, when it is read in the ordinary course of the Psalms.

SING unto the LORD a new song : for He hath done marvellous things.

With His own right hand, and with His holy arm : hath He gotten Himself the victory.

The LORD declared His salvation : His righteousness hath He openly shewed in the sight of the eathen.

He hath remembred His mercy and truth toward the house of Israel : and all the ends of the world have seen the salvation of our God.

Shew your selves joyful unto the LORD, all ye ends : sing, rejoyce and give thanks.

Praise the LORD upon the harp : sing to the harp with a psalm of thanksgiving.

With trumpets also and shawms : O shew your selves joyful before the LORD the King.

Let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is : the round world, and they that dwell therein.

Let the flouds clap their hands, and let the hills be joyful together before the LORD : for He cometh to judge the earth.

*Cantate Domino.
Psal. 98.*

Evening Prayer.

With righteousnes shall He judge the world:
and the people with equity.

in English, as followeth.

*Nunc

29.

LORD, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace : according to Thy word.

For mine eyes have seen : Thy salvation, Which Thou hast prepared : before the face of all people ;

To be a light to lighten the Gentiles : and to be the glory of Thy people Israel.

Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON : and to the HOLY GHOST ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

¶ Or else this Psalm ; Except it be on the Twelfth day of the month.

Deus miserereatur.
Psal. 67.

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us : and shew us the light of His countenance, and be merciful unto us.

That Thy way may be known upon earth : Thy saving health among all nations.

Let the people praise Thee, O God : yea, let all the people praise Thee.

O let the nations rejoyce and be glad : for Thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise Thee, O God : yea let a
the people praise Thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase : an God, even our own God, shall give us His blessing.

Go.

God shall bless us: and all the ends of the world shall fear Him.

Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON: and to the HOLY GHOST;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

^c Then shall be said or sung the Apostles Creed by the Minister and the people standing.

I BELIEVE in GOD the FATHER ALMIGHTY,
Maker of heaven and earth:

And in JESUS CHRIST His only SON our LORD, Who was conceived by the HOLY GHOST, Born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried, He descended into hell; The third day He rose again from the dead, He ascended into Heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of GOD the FATHER ALMIGHTY; From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the HOLY GHOST; The holy Catholic Church; the Communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; The resurrection of the body, And the life everlasting. Amen.

^c And after that, these Prayers following, all devoutly kneeling, the Minister first pronouncing with a loud voice,

The LORD be with you.

¶ The

¶ The second Collect at Evening Prayer.

O GOD, from Whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; Give unto Thy servants that peace which the world cannot give, that both our hearts may be set to obey Thy commandments, and also that by Thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness, through the merits of JESUS CHRIST our SAVIOUR. Amen.

¶ The third Collect for aid against all perils.

LIGHTEN our darkness, we beseech Thee, O LORD, and by Thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night, for the love of Thy only SON, our SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Kings Majesty.

O LORD our heavenly FATHER, high and mighty, King of kings, LORD of lords, the onely Ruler of princes, Who doest from Thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth; most heartily we beseech Thee with Thy favour to behold our most gracious Sovereign Lord King CHARLES, and so replenish him with the grace of Thy holy Spirit, that he may alway incline to Thy will, and walk in Thy way: Endue him plenteously with heavenly gifts, grant him in health and wealth long to live, strengthen him that he may vanquish and overcome all his enemies; and finally after this life, he may attain everlasting joy and felicity, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

☩ A Prayer for the Clergy and People.

ALMIGHTY and Everlasting God, Who alone workest great marvels; send down upon our Bishops, and Curates, and all Congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of Thy grace; and that they may truly please Thee, pour upon them the continual dew of Thy blessing. Grant this, O LORD, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediatour, JESUS CHRIST. Amen.

☩ A Prayer of Saint Chrysoſtom.

ALMIGHTY GOD, Who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto Thee, and doſt promise, that when two or three are gathered together in Thy Name, Thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfill now, O LORD, the desires and petitions of Thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of Thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

2 Cor. XIII.

THE grace of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, and the love of GOD, and the fellowship of the HOLY GHOST be with us all evermore. Amen.

Here endeth the Order of Evening Prayer throughout the year.

¶ Upon

Upon these Feasts; Christmas-day, the Epiphany, Saint Matthias, Easter-day, Ascension-day, Whit-sun-day, Saint John Baptist, Saint James, Saint Bartholomew, Saint Matthew, Saint Simon and Saint Jude, Saint Andrew, and upon Trinity Sunday shall be sung or said at Morning Prayer, instead of the Apostles Creed, this Confession of our Christian Faith, commonly called The Creed of Saint Athanasius, by the Minister and people standing.

WHOSOEVER will be saved: before all things it is necessary that he hold the Catholick Faith.

Quicun-que vult.

Which Faith, except every one do keep whole and undefiled: without doubt he shall perish everlastingly.

And the Catholick Faith is this: that we worship one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Unity.

Neither confounding the Persons: nor dividing the Substance.

For there is one Person of the FATHER, another of the SON: and another of the HOLY GHOST.

But the Godhead of the FATHER, of the SON, and of the HOLY GHOST is all one: the Glory equal, the Majesty co-eternal.

Such as the FATHER is, such is the SON: and such is the HOLY GHOST.

The FATHER uncreate, the SON uncreate: and the HOLY GHOST uncreate.

The FATHER incomprehensible, the SON incomprehensible: and the HOLY GHOST incomprehensible.

The FATHER eternal, the SON eternal: and the HOLY GHOST eternal.

And yet They are not three eternals: but one eternal.

As also there are not three incomprehensibles, nor three uncreated: but one uncreated, and one incomprehensible.

So likewise the FATHER is Almighty, the SON Almighty: and the HOLY GHOST Almighty.

And

At Morning Prayer.

And yet They are not three Almightyes : but one Almighty.

So the FATHER is GOD, the SON is GOD : and the HOLY GHOST is GOD.

And yet They are not three GODS : but one GOD.

So likewise the FATHER is LORD, the SON LORD : and the HOLY GHOST LORD.

And yet not three LORDS : but one LORD.

For like as we are compelled by the Christian verity : to acknowledge every Person by Himself to be GOD and LORD ;

So are we forbidden by the Catholick Religion : to say, There be three GODS, or three LORDS.

The FATHER is made of none : neither created, nor begotten.

The SON is of the FATHER alone : not made, nor created, but begotten.

The HOLY GHOST is of the FATHER, and of the SON : neither made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is one FATHER, not three FATHERS ; one SON, not three SONS : one HOLY GHOST, not three HOLY GHOSTS.

And in this Trinity none is afore, or after other : none is greater, or less than another.

But the whole three Persons are co-eternal together : and co-equal.

So that in all things, as is foresaid : the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity is to be worshipped.

He therefore, that will be saved : must thus think of the Trinity.

Furthermore, it is necessary to everlasting salvation : that he also believe rightly the Incarnation of our LORD JESUS CHRIST.

For the right Faith is, that we believe and confess : that our LORD JESUS CHRIST, the SON of GOD, is GOD, and Man ;

GOD

GOD of the substance of the FATHER, begotten before the worlds: and Man of the substance of His Mother, born in the world;

Perfect GOD, and perfect Man: of a reasonable soul, and humane flesh subsisting;

Equal to the FATHER, as touching His Godhead: and inferiour to the FATHER, as touching His Manhood.

Who although He be GOD, and Man: yet He is not two, but one CHRIST;

One; not by conversion of the Godhead into flesh: but by taking of the Manhood into GOD;

One altogether; not by confusion of Substance: but by unity of Person.

For as the reasonable soul and flesh is one man: so GOD and Man is one CHRIST.

Who suffered for our salvation: descended into hell, rose again the third day from the dead.

He ascended into heaven, He sitteth on the right hand of the FATHER, GOD ALMIGHTY: from whence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

At Whose coming all men shall rise again with their bodies: and shall give account for their own works.

And they that have done good shall go into life everlasting: and they that have done evil into everlasting fire.

This is the Catholick Faith: which, except a man believe faithfully, he cannot be saved.

Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON: and to the HOLY GHOST;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

PRAYERS AND THANKSGIVINGS UPON SEVERAL OCCASIONS,

To be used before the two final Prayers of the Litany, or of Morning and Evening Prayer.

PRAYERS.

¶ For Rain

O GOD heavenly FATHER, Who by Thy SON JESUS CHRIST hast promised to all them that seek Thy Kingdom and the righteousness thereof, all things necessary to their bodily sustenance; Send us, we beseech Thee, in this our necessity, such moderate rain and showrs, that we

we

we may receive the fruits of the earth to our comfort, and to Thy honour, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ For fair weather.

O ALMIGHTY LORD GOD, Who for the sin of man didst once drown all the world, except eight persons, and afterward of Thy great mercy didst promise never to destroy it so again; We humbly beseech Thee, that although we for our iniquities have worthily deserved a plague of rain and waters, yet upon our true repentance Thou wilt send us such weather, as that we may receive the fruits of the earth in due season, and learn both by Thy punishment to amend our lives, and for Thy clemency to give Thee praise and glory, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ In the time of dearth and famine.

O GOD heavenly FATHER, Whose gift it is, that the rain doth fall, the earth is fruitful, beasts increase, and fishes do multiply; Behold, we beseech Thee, the afflictions of Thy people, and grant that the scarcity and dearth (which we do now most justly suffer for our iniquity) may through Thy goodness be mercifully turned into cheapness and plenty, for the love of JESUS CHRIST our Lord; to Whom with Thee, and the HOLY GHOST be all honour and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

¶ Or this.

O GOD merciful FATHER, Who in the time of Elisha the prophet didst suddenly in Samaria turn great scarcity and dearth into plenty and cheapness; Have mercy upon us, that we who are now for our sins punished with like adversity, may likewise find a seasonable relief: Increase the fruits of the earth by Thy heavenly benediction; and grant that we, receiving Thy bountiful liberality, may use the same to Thy glory, the relief of those that are needy, and our own comfort, through JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

¶ In the time of wars and tumults.

O ALMIGHTY GOD, King of all kings, and Governour of all things, Whose power no creature is able to resist, to Whom it belongeth justly to punish sinners, and to be merciful to them that truly repent; Save and deliver us, we humbly beseech Thee, from the hands of our enemies; abate their pride, asswage their malice, and confound their devices, that we, being armed with Thy defence, may be preserved evermore from all perils to glorifie Thee, Who art the onely Giver of all victory, through the merits of Thy only SON JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

¶ In the time of any common plague or sicknets.

O ALMIGHTY GOD, Who in Thy wrath didst send a plague upon Thine own people in the wilderness for their obstinate rebellion against Moses and Aaron, and also in the time of king David didst slay with the plague of pestilence three-score and ten thousand, and yet remembering Thy mercy didst save the rest; Have pity upon us miserable sinners, who now are visited with great sickness and mortality, that like as Thou didst then accept of an atonement, and didst command the destroying Angel to cease from punishing; so it may now please Thee to withdraw from us this plague and grievous sickness, through JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

¶ In the Ember weeks to be said every day, for those that are to be admitted into holy Orders.

A LMIGHTY GOD our heavenly FATHER, Who hast purchased to Thy Self an universal Church, by the precious blood of Thy dear SON; Merci-

Mercifully look upon the same, and at this time so guide and govern the minds of Thy servants the Bishops and Pastours of Thy flock, that they may lay hands suddenly on no man, but faithfully and wisely make choice of fit persons to serve in the sacred ministry of Thy Church. And to those, which shall be Ordained to any holy function, give Thy grace and heavenly benediction, that both by their life and doctrine they may set forth Thy glory, and set forward the salvation of all men, through JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

¶ Or this.

ALMIGHTY GOD, the Giver of all good gifts, Who of Thy divine providence hast appointed divers orders in Thy Church; Give Thy grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to all those, who are to be called to any office and administration in the same; and so replenish them with the truth of Thy doctrine, and endue them with innocency of life, that they may faithfully serve before Thee, to the glory of Thy great Name, and the benefit of Thy holy Church, through JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

¶ A Prayer that may be said after any of the former.

O GOD, Whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive, receive our humble petitions; and though we be tied and bound with the chain of our sins, yet let the pitifulness of Thy great mercy loose us, for the honour of JESUS CHRIST our Mediatour and Advocate. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the High Court of Parliament, to be read during their Session.

MOST gracious God, we humbly beseech Thee, as for this Kingdom in general, so especially for the High Court of Parliament, under our most religious and gracious King at this time

time assembled: That Thou wouldest be pleased to direct and prosper all their consultations to the advancement of Thy glory, the good of Thy Church, the safety, honour, and welfare of our Sovereign, and his Kingdoms; that all things may be so ordered and settled by their endeavours upon the best and surest foundations, that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety may be established among us for all generations. These and all other necessaries, for them, for us, and Thy whole Church we humbly beg in the Name and mediation of JESUS CHRIST our most blessed LORD and SAVIOUR. Amen.

¶ A Collect or Prayer for all conditions of men, to be used at such times when the Litany is not appointed to be said.

O GOD the Creator and Preserver of all mankind, we humbly beseech Thee for all sorts and conditions of men, that Thou wouldest be pleased to make Thy ways known unto them; Thy saving health unto all nations. More especially we pray for the good estate of the Catholick Church; that it may be so guided and governed by Thy good SPIRIT, that all who profess and call themselves Christians, may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. Finally we commend to Thy fatherly goodness all those who are any ways afflicted, or distressed in mind, body, or estate, [especially those for whom our prayers are desired*] that it may please Thee to comfort and relieve them according to their several necessities, giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions. And this we beg for JESUS CHRIST His sake. Amen.

* This to be said when any desire the prayers of the congregation.

THANKS-

THANKSGIVINGS.

• A General Thanksgiving.

ALMIGHTY GOD, Father of all mercies, we Thine unworthy servants do give Thee most humble and hearty thanks for all Thy goodness and loving kindness to us, and to all men [particularly to those who desire now to offer up their praises and thanksgivings for Thy late mercies vouchsafed unto them.*] We bless Thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life, but above all for Thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our LORD JESUS CHRIST; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And we beseech Thee give us that due sense of all Thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we shew forth Thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to Thy service, and by walking before Thee in holiness and righteousness all our days, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD; to Whom with Thee and the HOLY GHOST be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

* This to be said when any that have been prayed for, desire to return praise.

• For Rain.

O GOD our heavenly FATHER, Who by Thy gracious providence dost cause the former and the latter rain to descend upon the earth, that it may bring forth fruit for the use of man; We give Thee humble thanks that it hath pleased Thee in our great necessity to send us at the last a joyful rain upon Thine inheritance, and to refresh it when it was dry, to the great comfort of us Thy unworthy servants, and to the glory of Thy holy Name, through Thy mercies in JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ For fair weather

O LORD God, Who hast justly humbled us by Thy late plague of immoderate rain and waters, waters, and in Thy mercy hast relieved and comforted our souls by this seasonable and blessed change of weather; We praise and glorify Thy holy Name for this Thy mercy, and will always declare Thy loving kindness from generation to generation, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD.

Amen.

¶ For Plenty.

O MOST merciful FATHER, Who of Thy gracious goodness hast heard the devout prayers of Thy Church, and turned our dearth and scarcity into cheapness and plenty; We give Thee humble thanks for this Thy special bounty, beseeching Thee to continue Thy loving kindness unto us, that our land may yield us her fruits of increase, to Thy glory and our comfort, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ For peace and deliverance from our enemies.

O ALMIGHTY God, Who art a strong Tower of defence unto Thy servants against the face of their enemies; We yield Thee praise and thanksgiving for our deliverance from those great and apparent dangers wherewith we were compassed. We acknowledge it Thy goodness that we were not delivered over as a prey unto them; beseeching Thee still to continue such Thy mercies towards us, that all the world may know that Thou art our Saviour and mighty Deliverer, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ For restoring public peace at home.

O ETERNAL God our heavenly FATHER, Who alone makest men to be of one mind in a house, and stillest the outrage of a violent and unruly people; We bless Thy holy Name that it hath pleased Thee to appease the seditious tumults which have been lately raised up amongst us; most humbly

humbly beseeching Thee to grant to all of us grace, that we may henceforth obediently walk in Thy holy commandments, and leading a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty, may continually offer unto Thee our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving for these Thy mercies towards us, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

† For deliverance from the Plague, or other common sickness.

O LORD God, Who hast wounded us for our sins, and consumed us for our transgressions by Thy late heavy and dreadful visitation, and now in the midst of judgement remembering mercy, hast redeemed our souls from the jaws of death; We offer unto Thy fatherly goodness our selves, our souls and bodies, which Thou hast delivered to be a living sacrifice unto Thee, always praising and magnifying Thy mercies in the midst of Thy Church, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

† Or thus.

WE humbly acknowledge before Thee, O most merciful FATHER, that all the punishments which are threatened in Thy law, might justly have fallen upon us by reason of our manifold transgressions and hardness of heart. Yet seeing it hath pleased Thee of Thy tender mercy upon our weak and unworthy humiliation, to assuage the contagious sickness, wherewith we lately have been sore afflicted, and to restore the voice of joy and health into our dwellings; We offer unto Thy divine Majesty the sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, lauding and magnifying Thy glorious Name for such Thy preservation and providence over us, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

THE Collects, Epistles, and Gospels to be used throughout the year.

¶ Note, that the Collect appointed for every Sunday, or for any Holiday that hath a Vigil or Eve, shall be said at the Evening Service next before.

The first Sunday in Advent.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY GOD, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darknes, and put upon us the armour of light now in the time of this mortal life (in which Thy SON JESUS CHRIST came to visit us in great humility;) that in the last day, when He shall come again in His glorious Majesty, to judge both the quick and dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through Him Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the HOLY GHOST, now and ever.
Amen.

¶ This Collect is to be repeated every day with the other Collects in Advent, until Christmas Eve.

The Epistle.

Rom. xiii. 8.

OWE no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self. Love worketh no ill to his neighbour, therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. The night is is far spent, the day is at hand; let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. Let us walk honestly as in the day, not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying. But put ye on the LORD JESUS CHRIST, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

The Gospel.

WHEN they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then sent JESUS two disciples, saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them and bring them unto Me. And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The LORD hath need of them; and straightway he will send them. All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet, saying, Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass. And the disciples went, and did as JESUS commanded them, and brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set Him thereon. And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way, others cut down branches from the trees and strewed them in the way. And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the SON OF DAVID: blessed is He that cometh in the name of the LORD, Hosanna in the highest. And when He was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is This? And the multitude said, This is JESUS the Prophet of Nazareth of Galilee. And JESUS went into the temple of GOD; and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves, and said

The Collect.

BLESSED LORD, Who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning; Grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them; that by patience and comfort of Thy holy word, we may embrace, and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which Thou hast given us in our SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST. Amen.

The Epistle.

Rom. xv. 4-

WHATSOEVER things were written aforetime, were written for our learning; that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation, grant you to be like-minded one towards another, according to CHRIST JESUS: that ye may with one mind, and one mouth glorifie GOD, even the FATHER of our LORD JESUS CHRIST. Wherefore receive ye one another, as CHRIST also received us, to the glory of GOD. Now I say, that JESUS CHRIST was a Minister of the circumcision, for the truth of GOD, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers: and that the Gentiles might glorifie GOD for His mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to Thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto Thy Name. And again he saith, Rejoyce, ye Gentiles, with His people. And again, Praise the LORD, all ye Gentiles, and laud Him, all ye people. And again Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and He That shall rise to reign over the Gentiles, in Him shall the Gentiles trust. Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the HOLY GHOST.

The

The Gospel.

AND there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring; men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming upon the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the SON OF MAN coming in a cloud with power and great glory. And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh. And He spake to them a parable, Behold the fig-tree, and all the trees; when they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand. So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand. Verily I say unto you, this generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled: Heaven and earth shall pass away; but My words shall not pass away.

The Collect.

O LORD JESU CHRIST, Who at Thy first coming didst send Thy messenger to prepare Thy way before Thee; Grant that the ministers and stewards of Thy mysteries may likewise so prepare and make ready Thy way, by turning the hearts of the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, that at Thy second coming to judge the world, we may be found an acceptable people in Thy sight, Who livest and reignest with the FATHER and the HOLY SPIRIT, ever one GOD, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle.

LET a man so account of us, as of the ministers of CHRIST, and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man man be found faithful. But with me it is a very small thing, that I should be judged of you, or of mans judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self. For I know nothing by my self, yet am I not hereby justified; but He that judgeth me, is the LORD. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the LORD come, Who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall every man have praise of God.

The Gospel.

NOW when JOHN had heard in the prison the works of CHRIST, he sent two of his disciples, and said unto Him, Art Thou He that should come, or do we look for another? JESUS answered and said unto them, Go and shew JOHN again those things which ye do hear and see: The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them. And blessed is he whosoever shall not be offended in Me. And as they departed, JESUS began to say unto the multitudes concerning JOHN, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings houses. But what went ye out for to see? a prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet. For this is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send My messenger before Thy face, which shall prepare Thy way before Thee.

The fourth Sunday in Advent.

The Collect.

O LORD, raise up (we pray Thee) Thy power, and come among us, and with great might succour us; that whereas through our sins and wicked-wickedness, we are sore let and hindred in running the race that is set before us, Thy bountiful grace and mercy may speedily help and deliver us, through the satisfaction of Thy SON our LORD; to Whom with Thee and the HOLY GHOST be honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle.

R EJOYCE in the LORD alway, and again I say, Rejoyce. Let your moderation be known unto all men. The LORD is at hand. Be careful for nothing: but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto GOD. And the peace of GOD which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through CHRIST JESUS.

Phil. iv. 4.

The Gospel.

T HIS is the record of John, when the Jews sent Priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou? And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the CHRIST. And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No. Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thy self? He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the LORD, as said the prophet Esaias: And they which were sent, were of the Pharisees. And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that CHRIST, nor Elias, neither that prophet? John answered them saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth One among you, Whom ye know not. He it is Who coming after me, is preferred before me, Whose shoes latchet I am not worthy to unloose. These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

Christmas-day.

The Collect.

ALMMIGHTY GOD, Who hast given us Thy only begotten SON to take our nature upon Him, and as at this time to be born of a pure Virgin; Grant that we being regenerate, and made Thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by Thy HOLY SPIRIT, through the same our LORD JESUS CHRIST, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee, and the same SPIRIT, ever one GOD, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle.

Heb. i. 1.

GOD, Who at sundry times, and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by His SON, Whom He hath appointed Heir of all things, by Whom also He made the worlds. Who being the Brightness of His glory, and the express Image of His Person, and upholding all things by the word of His power, when He had by Himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the MAJESTY on high: Being made so much better than the angels, as He hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. For unto which of the angels said He at any time, Thou art My SON, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to Him a FATHER, and He shall be to Me a SON? And again, when He bringeth in the first-begotten into the world, He saith, And let all the angels of GOD worship Him. And of the angels He saith, Who maketh His angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire. But unto the SON He saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever, a scap-

the scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Thy kingdom. Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore GOD, even Thy GOD hath anointed Thee with the oyl of gladness above Thy fellows. And, Thou LORD, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of Thine hands. They shall perish, but Thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment; and as a vesture shalt Thou fold them up, and they shall be changed; but Thou art the same, and Thy years shall not fail.

The Gospel.

IN the beginning was the WORD, and the WORD was with GOD, and the WORD was GOD. The same was in the beginning with GOD. All things were made by Him, and without Him was not any thing made, that was made. In Him was Life, and the Life was the Light of men. And the Light shineth in darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not. There was a man sent from GOD, whose name was John. The same came for a witness to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe. He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light. That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made by Him, and the world knew Him not. He came into His own, and His own received Him not. But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of GOD, even to them that believe on His Name: Which were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of GOD. And the WORD was made flesh, and dwelt among us (and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the FATHER) full of grace and truth.

GRANT, O LORD, that in all our sufferings here upon earth, for the testimony of Thy truth, we may stedfastly look up to heaven, and by faith behold the glory that shall be revealed; and being filled with the HOLY GHOST, may learn to love and bless our persecuters by the example of Thy first Martyr S. Stephen, who prayed for his murtherers to Thee, O blessed JESUS, Who standest at the right hand of GOD to succour all those that suffer for Thee, our only MEDIATOUR and ADVOCATE. Amen.

Acts vii. 55.

STEPHEN being full of the HOLY GHOST, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of GOD, and JESUS standing on the right hand of GOD, and said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the SON of man standing on the right hand of GOD. Then they cryed out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, and cast him out of the city, and stoned him; and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young mans feet, whose name was Saul. And they stoned Stephen calling upon GOD, and saying, LORD JESUS, receive my spirit. And he kneeled down and cryed with a loud voice, LORD, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

BEHOLD, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes; and some of them ye shall kill and crucifie; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city city; that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel, unto the blood of Zacharias, son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar. Verily I say unto you, all these things shall come upon this generation. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not. Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. For I say unto you, ye shall not see Me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is He That cometh in the Name of the LORD.

MERCIFUL LORD, we beseech Thee to cast Thy bright beams of light upon Thy Church, that it being enlightned by the doctrine of Thy blessed Apostle and Evangelist Saint John, may so walk in the light of Thy truth, that it may at length attain to the light of everlasting life, through JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

THAT Which was from the beginning, Which we have heard, Which we have seen with our eyes, Which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled of the Word of Life; (for the Life was manifested, and we have seen It, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal Life, Which was with the FATHER, and was manifested unto us) That Which we have seen and heard, declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the FATHER, and with His SON JESUS CHRIST. And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full. This then is the message which we have heard of Him, and declare unto you, that God is Light, and in Him is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of JESUS CHRIST HIS SON cleanseth us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive our selves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His Word is not in us.

The Gospel.

S. Joh. xxi.

JESUS said unto Peter, Follow Me. Then Peter turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved, following, which also leaned on His breast at supper, and said, LORD, which is he that betrayeth Thee? Peter seeing him, saith to Jesus, LORD, and what shall this man do? Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou Me. Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, I shall not die; but, if I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote the things, and we know that his testimony is true. And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world it self could not contain the books that should be written.

For the Epistle.

I LOOKED, and lo, a Lamb ſtood on the mount Sion, and with Him an hundred forty and four thouſand, having His Fathers Name written in their foreheads. And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps: And they ſung as it were a new ſong before the throne, and before the four beaſts, and the elders; and no man could learn that ſong, but the hundred and forty and four thouſand, which were redeemed from the earth. Theſe are they which were not defiled with women, for they are virgins: theſe are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth: theſe were redeemed from among men, being the firſt-fruits unto GOD, and to the LAMB. And in their mouth was found no guile; for they are without fault before the throne of GOD.

Gal. iv. 1.

NOW I say, that the heir as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be Lord of all; but he is under tutors and governours, until the time appointed of the Father. Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world: But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth His SON, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, GOD hath sent forth the SPIRIT of His SON into your hearts, crying, Abba, FATHER. Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of GOD through CHRIST.

The Gospel.

S. Mat. i. 18.

THE birth of JESUS CHRIST was on this wife: When as His mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, (before they came together) she was found with Child of the HOLY GHOST. Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily. But while he thought on these things, behold, the Angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife; for That which is conceived in her, is of the HOLY GHOST. And she shall bring forth a Son, and thou shalt call His Name JESUS; for He shall save His people from their sins. (Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the LORD by the prophet, saying, Behold, a Virgin shall be with Child, and shall bring forth a Son, and they shall call His name Emmanuel, which being interpreted, is, God with us.) Then Joseph being raised from sleep, did as the Angel of the LORD had bidden him, and took unto him his wife: And knew her not till she had brought forth her first-born Son, and he called His name JESUS.

The Circumcision of CHRIST.

then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. And he received the signe of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith, which he had yet being uncircumcised; that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also: And the father of circumcision, to them who are not of the circumcision onely, but also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised. For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect.

The Gospel.

15.

AND it came to pass, as the Angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the LORD hath made known unto us. And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the Babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this Child. And all they that heard it, wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them. And when eight days were accomplished for the circum-circumcising of the Child, His Name was called JESUS, which was so named of the Angel before He was conceived in the womb.

The same Collect, Epistle, and Gospel shall serve for every day after unto the Epiphany.

The Epiphany, or the manifestation of CHRIST to the Gentiles.

The Collect.

O GOD, Who by the leading of a star didst manifest Thy onely begotten SON to the Gentiles; Mercifully grant, that we which know Thee now by faith, may after this life have the fruition of Thy glorious Godhead, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD.
Amen.

The Epistle.

FOR this cause, I Paul, the prisoner of JESUS CHRIST for you Gentiles, if ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of GOD, which is given me to you-ward: How that by revelation He made known unto me the mystery (as I wrote afore in few words, whereby when ye reade ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of CHRIST) which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto His holy Apostles and Prophets by the SPIRIT; That the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of His promise in CHRIST, by the Gospel: Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of GOD given unto me by the effectual working of His power. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of CHRIST: and to make all men see, what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in GOD, Who created all things by JESUS CHRIST: To the the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places, might be known by the Church the manifold wisdom of GOD, according to the eternal purpose which He purposed in CHRIST JESUS our LORD. In Whom we have boldness, and access with confidence by the faith of Him.

The Gospel.

i.

WHEN JESUS was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the King, behold, there came wise-men from the east to Jerusalem, saying, Where is He That is born King of the Jews? for we have seen His star in the east, and are come to worship Him. When Herod the King had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together; he demanded of them, where CHRIST should be born. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea: For thus it is written by the prophet, And thou Bethlehem in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: For out of thee shall come a GOVERNOUR That shall rule My people Israel. Then Herod when he had privily called the wise-men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go, and search diligently for the young Child, and when ye have found Him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship Him also. When they had heard the king, they departed; and lo, the star which they saw in the east went before them, till it came and stood over where the young Child was. When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. And when they were come into the house, they saw the young Child with Mary His mother, and fell down and worshipped Him: And when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto Him gifts, gold, and frank-Frankincense, and myrrhe. And being warned of God in a dream, that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own countrey another way.

The Collect.

O LORD, we beseech Thee mercifully to receive the prayers of Thy people which call upon Thee, and grant that they may both perceive, and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil the same, through JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

I BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of GOD, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto GOD, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of GOD. For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think soberly, according as GOD hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office; so we being many are one body in CHRIST, and every one members one of another.

The Gospel.

NOW His parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover. And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem, after the custom of the feast. And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the Child JESUS tarried behind in Jerusalem, and Joseph and His mother knew not of it. But they supposing Him to have been in the company, went a days journey, and they they sought Him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance. And when they found Him not, they turned back againe to Jerusalem, seeking Him. And it came to pass that after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions. And all that heard Him were astonished at His understanding and answers. And when they saw Him, they were amazed: and His mother said unto Him, Son, why hast Thou thus dealt with us? behold Thy father and I have sought Thee sorrowing. And He said unto them, How is it, that ye sought Me? wist ye not that I must be about My FATHERS business? And they understood not the saying which He spake unto them. And He went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but His mother kept all these sayings in her heart. And JESUS increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

The Epistle.

Rom .xii. 6.

HAVING then gifts, differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophesie, let us prophesie according to the proportion of faith; or ministry, let us wait on our ministring; or he that teacheth, on teaching; or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with chearfulness. Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil, cleave leave to that which is good. Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love, in honour preferring one another: not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the LORD; rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer; distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality. Bless them which persecute you; bless and curse not. Rejoice with them that do joyce, and weep with them that weep. Be of the same mind one towards another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate.

The Gospel.

AND the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. And both Jesus was called and His disciples to the marriage. And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto Him, They have no wine: Jesus saith unto her, woman, what have I to do with thee? Mine hour is not yet come. His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever He saith unto you, do it. And there were set there six water-pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece. Jesus saith unto them, Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. And He saith unto them, Draw out now and bear unto the governour of the feast. And they bare it. When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was, (but the servants which drew the water knew) the Governour of the feast called the Bridegroom, and saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine, and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now. This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth His glory, and His disciples believed on Him.

The Epistle.

16.

BE not wise in your own conceits. Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honestly in the sight of all men. If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men. Dearly beloved, avenge not your selves, but rather give place unto wrath; for it is written, Vengeance is Mine; I will repay, saith the LORD. Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

The Gospel.

WHEN He was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed Him. And behold, there came a leper and worshipped Him, saying, LORD, if Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean. And JESUS put forth His hand and touched him, saying, I will, be thou clean. And immediately his leprosie was cleansed. And JESUS saith unto him, See thou tell no man, but go thy way, shew thy self to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded for a testimony unto them. And when JESUS was entred into Capernaum, there came unto Him a centurion beseeching Him, and saying, LORD, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsie, grievously tormented. And JESUS saith unto him, I will come and heal him. The centurion answered and said LORD, I am not worthy that Thou shouldest come unde under my roof; but speak the word onely and my servant shall be healed. For I am a man under authority, having souldiers under me: and I say unto this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doth it. When JESUS heard it, He marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no not in Israel. And I say unto you, that many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham and Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darknes: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And JESUS said unto the centurion, Go thy way, and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the self same hour.

The Collect.

O GOD, Who knowest us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright; Grant to us such strength and protection, as may support us in all dangers, and carry us through all temptations, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

LET every soul be subject unto the higher powers; for there is no power but of GOD: the powers that be are ordained of GOD. Who-soever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of GOD: and they that resist, shall receive to themselves damnation. For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: for he is the

Rom. xiii. 1.

the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doth evil. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not onely for wrath, but also for conscience sake. For, for this cause pay you tribute also; for they are Gods ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. Render therefore to all their dues; tribute to whom tribute is due, custom to whom custom, fear to whom fear, honour to whom honour.

The Gospel.

S. Mat. viii.

AND when He was entred into a ship, His disciples followed Him. And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but He was asleep. And His disciples came to Him, and awoke Him, saying, LORD, save us, we perish. And He saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then He arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm. But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of Man is This, that even the winds and the sea obey Him? And when He was come to the other side into the countrey of the Gergesens, there met Him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way. And behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with Thee, JESUS THOU SON OF GOD? art Thou come hither to torment us before the time? And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine, feeding. So the devils besought Him, saying, If Thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine. And He said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the he sea, and perished in the waters. And they that ept them fled, and went their ways into the city, nd told every thing, and what was befallen to the ossessed of the devils. And behold the whole city ame out to meet Jesus: and when they saw Him, ey besought Him, that He would depart out of heir coasts.

The Collect.

O LORD, we beseech Thee to keep Thy Church and household continually in Thy rue religion, that they who do lean onely upon the rope of Thy heavenly grace, may evermore be de-ended by Thy mighty power, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

PUT on therefore (as the elect of God, holy and beloved) bowels of mercies, kindness, humble-nesses of mind, meekness, long-suffering, forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any; even as CHRIST forgave you, so also do ye. And above all these things, put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful. Let the word of CHRIST dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the LORD.
 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the Name of the LORD JESUS, giving thanks to God, and the FATHER by Him.

 which sowed good seed in his field. But while

while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest; and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

The sixth Sunday after the Epiphany.

The Collect.

O GOD, Whose blessed SON was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil, and make us the sons of God and heirs of eternal life; Grant us, we beseech Thee, that having this hope, we may purifie our selves, even as He is pure; that when He shall appear again with power and great glory, we may be made like unto Him in His eternal and glorious kingdom, where with Thee, O FATHER, and Thee, O HOLY GHOST, He liveth and reigneth ever One GOD world without end.
Amen.

The Epistle.

1 S. John iii.

BEHOLD, what manner of love the FATHER hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of GOD: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew Him not. Beloved, now are we the sons of GOD, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that when He shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him

Him as He is. And every man that hath this hope in him, purifieth himself, even as He is pure. Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law. And ye know that He was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin. Whosoever abideth in Him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen Him, neither known Him. Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doth righteousness is righteous, even as He is righteous. He that committeth sin is of the devil: for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the SON OF GOD was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the evil.

The Gospel.

WHEN if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is CHRIST or there: believe it not. For here shall arise false Christs and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that (if it were possible) they shall deceive the very elect. Behold, I have told you before. Wherefore, when they shall say unto you, Behold, He is in the desert, go not forth: behold, He is in the secret chambers, believe it not. For as the lightning cometh out of the east and shineth even unto the west: so shall also the coming of the SON OF MAN be. For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together. Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. And then shall appear the sign of the SON OF MAN in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the SON OF MAN coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. And He shall send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they they shall gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

The Sunday called Septuagesima, or the third Sunday before Lent.

The Collect.

O LORD, we beseech Thee favourably to hear the prayers of Thy people, that we who are justly punished for our offences, may be mercifully delivered by Thy goodness, for the glory of Thy Name, through JESUS CHRIST our SAVIOUR, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the HOLY GHOST ever One GOD, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle.

1 Cor. ix.
24.

KNOW ye not that they which run in a race, run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run that ye may obtain. And every man that striveth for the mastery, is temperate in all things: Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air: But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection, lest that by any means when I have preached to others, I myself should be a cast-away.

The Gospel.

THE kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an housholder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard. And when he had agreed with the labourers for a peny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the market-place, and said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise. And about the eleventh hour he went

went out and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive. So when even was come, the Lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny. But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny. And when they had received it, they murmured against the good-man of the house, saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have born the burden and heat of the day. But he answered one of them and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny? Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last even as unto thee. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is it thine eye evil, because I am good? So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.

The Collect.

The Epistle.

YE suffer fools gladly, seeing ye your selves are wise. For ye suffer if a man bring you into into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face. I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak : howbeit, whereinfoever any is bold (I speak foolishly) I am bold also. Are they Hebrews, so am I : are they Israelites ? so am I : are they the seed of Abraham ? so am I : are they ministers of CHRIST ? (I speak as a fool) I am more : in labours more abundant ; in stripes above measure ; in prisons more frequent ; in deaths oft. Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten with rods. Once was I stoned. Thrice I suffered shipwrack. A night and a day I have been in the deep : in journeying often ; in perils of waters ; in perils of robbers ; in perils by mine own countrey-men ; in perils by the heathen ; in perils in the city ; in perils in the wilderness ; in perils in the sea ; in perils among false brethren ; in weariness and painfulness ; in watchings often ; in hunger and thirst ; in fastings often ; in cold and nakedness ; besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the Churches. Who is weak, and I am not weak ? who is offended, and I burn not ? If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities. The GOD and FATHER of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, Which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

The Gospel.

WHEN much people were gathered together, and were come to Him out of every city, He spake by a parable ; A sower went out to sow his seed : and as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was troden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it. And some fell upon a rock, and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture. And some fell among thorns, thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it. And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundred-fold. And when He had said these things, He cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. And His disciples asked Him, saying, What might this parable be? And He said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of GOD: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand. Now the parable is this; The seed is the word of GOD. Those by the way-side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. They on the rock, are they, which when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. And that which fell among thorns, are they, which when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches, and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. But that on the good ground, are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

The Collect.

O LORD, Who hast taught us that all our doings without charity are nothing worth; Send Thy HOLY GHOST, and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of charity, the very bond of peace, and of all vertues, without which whosoever liveth is counted dead before Thee: Grant this for Thine only SON JESUS CHRISTS sake. Amen.

The Epistle.

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become become as sounding brass, or a tinckling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophesie, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have no charity, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not it self, is not puffed up, doth not behave it self unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, rejoyceth not in iniquity, but rejoyceth in the truth; beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Charity never faileth, but whether there be prophesies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away. For we know in part, and we prophesie in part. But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away. When I was a child I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things. For now we see through a glasse darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

1 Cor. xiii. 1.

S. Luke
xviii. 31.

THEN JESUS took unto Him the Twelve and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the SON OF MAN shall be accomplished. For He shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked and spitefully entreated, and spitted on. And they shall scourge Him,

Him,

Him, and put Him to death; and the third day He shall rise again. And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken. And it came to pass, that as He was come nigh into Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way-side begging: And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant. And they told him, that JESUS OF NAZARETH passeth by. And he cried, saying, JESUS THOU SON OF DAVID, have mercy on me. And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, THOU SON OF DAVID, have mercy on me. And JESUS stood and commanded him to be brought unto Him: and when he was come near, He asked him, saying, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And he said, LORD, that I may receive my sight. And JESUS said unto him, Receive thy sight; thy faith hath saved thee. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Him, glorifying God: and all the people when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting GOD, Who hatest nothing that Thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all them that are penitent; Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sins, and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of Thee, the GOD of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness, through JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

Joel ii. 12.

TURN ye even to Me, saith the LORD, with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning. And rent your heart, and not your garments and turn unto the LORD your God: for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth Him of the evil. Who knoweth if He will return, and repent, and leave a blessing behind Him, even a meat-offering and a drink-offering unto the LORD your God? Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctifie a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the people, sanctifie the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts; let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet; let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare Thy people, O LORD, and give not Thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

The Gospel.

WHEN ye fast, be not as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward. But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face, that thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy FATHER Which is in secret; and thy FATHER Which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly. Lay not up for your selves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal. But lay up for your selves treasures in Heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

The Collect.

O LORD, Who for our sake didst fast fourty days and fourty nights ; Give us grace to use such abstinence, that our flesh being subdued to the SPIRIT ; we may ever obey Thy godly motions in righteousness and true holiness, to Thy honour and glory, Who livest and reignest with the FATHER and the HOLY GHOST, One GOD, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle.

WE then as workers together with Him, beseech you also, that ye receive not the grace of GOD in vain. (For He saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee : behold, now is the accepted time ; behold, now is the day of salvation ;) giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed ; but in all things approving our selves as the ministers of GOD, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings ; by pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the HOLY GHOST, by love unfeigned, by the word of truth, by the power of GOD, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand, and on the left ; by honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report ; as deceivers, and yet true ; as unknown, and yet well known ; as dying, and behold we live ; as chastened, and not killed ; as sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing ; as poor, yet making many rich ; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

S. Matt. iv. 1.

He was afterward an hungred. And when the tempter came to Him, he said, If Thou be the SON OF GOD, command that these stones be made bread. But He answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Then the devil taketh Him up into the holy city, and setteth Him on a pinnacle of the temple, and saith unto Him, If Thou be the SON OF GOD, cast Thy Self down; for it is written, He shall give His angels charge concerning Thee, and in their hands they shall bear Thee up, lest at any time Thou dash Thy foot against a stone. JESUS said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the LORD thy God. Again the devil taketh Him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth Him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; and saith unto Him, All these things will I give Thee, if Thou wilt fall down and worship me. Then saith JESUS unto him, Get thee hence, Satan; for it is written, Thou shalt worship the LORD thy GOD, and Him only shalt thou serve. Then the devil leaveth Him, and behold, angels came and ministred unto Him.

ALMIGHTY God, Who seest that we have no power of our selves to help our selves; Keep us both outwardly in our bodies, and inwardly in our souls, that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

WE beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the LORD JESUS, that as ye have received of of us how you ought to walk, and to please God, so ye would abound more and more. For ye know what commandments we gave you by the LORD JESUS. For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication; that every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour; not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God; that no man go beyond, and defraud his brother in any matter, because that the LORD is the Avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you, and testified. For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, Who hath also given unto us His Holy Spirit.

The Gospel.

JESUS went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto Him, saying, Have mercy on me, O LORD, Thou SON OF DAVID, my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil. But He answered her not a word. And His disciples came and besought Him, saying, Send her away, for she crieth after us. But He answered and said, I am not sent, but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Then came she and worshipped Him, saying, LORD, help me. But He answered and said, It is not meet to take the childrens bread, and to cast it to dogs. And He said, Truth, LORD; yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters table. Then JESUS answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

The Epistle.

Ephes. v. 1.

BE ye therefore followers of GOD, as dear children; and walk in love, as CHRIST also hath loved us, and hath given Himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to GOD for a sweet-smelling favour. But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named amongst you, as becometh saints; neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient; but rather giving of thanks. For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of CHRIST, and of GOD. Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of GOD upon the children of disobedience. Be not ye therefore partakers with them; For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the LORD: walk as children of light; (for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, and righteousness, and truth) proving what is acceptable unto the LORD. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them: For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret. But all things that are reproved, are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest, is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and CHRIST shall give thee light.

The Gospel.

JESUS was casting out a devil, and it was dumb.

And it came to pass when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered. But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub, the chief of the devils. And other tempting Him, sought of Him a sign from heaven. But He knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against it self, is brought to desolation; and a house divided against house, falleth. If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub. And I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. But if I with the finger of God cast out evils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you. When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace; but when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. He that is not with Me, is against Me: and he that gathereth not with Me, scattereth. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house, whence I came out. And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished. Then goeth he and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first. And it came to pass as He spake these things, a certain woman of the company lift up her voice, and said unto Him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which Thou hast sucked. But He said, Yea, rather blessed are they that hear the word of God and keep it.

The Epistle.

Gal. iv. 21.

TELL me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bond-maid, the other by a free-woman. But he who was of the bond-woman, was born after the flesh; but he of the free-woman was by promise. Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendreth to bondage, which is Agar. For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerufalem, which now is, and is in bondage with her children. But Jerufalem which is above is free; which is the mother of us all. For it is written, Rejoyce thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not; for the desolate hath many more children then she which hath an husband. Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. But as then, he that was born after the flesh, persecuted him that was born after the Spirit; even so it is now. Nevertheless, what saith the scripture? Cast out the bond-woman and her son; for the son of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the son of the free-woman. So then brethren, we are not children of the bond-woman but of the free.

S. John vi. 1.

JESUS went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias. And a great multitude followed Him him, because they saw His miracles which He did in them that were diseased. And JESUS went up into a mountain, and there He sat with His disciples. And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh. When JESUS then lift up His eyes, and saw a great company come unto Him, He saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread that these may eat? And this He said to prove him; for He Himself knew what He would do.) Philip answered Him, Two hundred penny-worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little. One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother, saith unto Him, There is a lad here which hath five barley-loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many? And JESUS said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. And JESUS took the loaves, and when He had given thanks, He distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down, and likewise of the fishes as much as they would. When they were filled, He said unto His disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten. Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that JESUS did, said, This is of a truth that Prophet that should come into the world.

CHRI^ST being come an High Priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands; that is to say, not of this building; neither by the blood of goats and calves; but by His own blood He entred in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. Your Father Abraham rejoiced to see My day, and he saw it, and was glad. Then said the Jews unto Him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast Thou seen Abraham? JESUS said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, before Abraham was, I am. Then took they up stones to cast at Him: but JESUS hid Himself, and went out of the temple.

The Gospel.

xxvii. 1.

WHEN the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against JESUS, to put Him to death. And when they had bound Him, they led Him away, and delivered Him to Pontius Pilate the governour. Then Judas who had betrayed Him, when he saw that He was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, saying, I have sinned, in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that. And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself. And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for us to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood. And they took counsel, and bought with them the potters field to bury strangers in. Wherefore that field was called The field of blood unto this day. (Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of Him that was valued, Whom they of the children of Israel did value, and gave them for the potters field, as the LORD appointed me.) And JESUS stood before the governour; and the governour asked Him, saying, Art Thou the King of the Jews? And JESUS said unto him, Thou sayest. And when He was accused of the chief priests and elders, He answered nothing. Then saith Pilate unto Him, Hearest Thou not how many things they witness against Thee? And He answered him to never a word, insomuch that the governour marvelled greatly. Now at that feast the governour was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would. And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas or JESUS, Which is called CHRIST? For he knew that for envy they had delivered Him. When he was set down on the judgment-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just Man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of Him. But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy JESUS. The governour answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said Barabbas. Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with JESUS, Which is called CHRIST? They all say unto him, Let Him be crucified. And the governour said, Why, what evil hath He done? But they cryed out the more, saying, Let Him be crucified. When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just Person: see ye to it. Then answered all the people and said, His blood be on us, and on our children. Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged JESUS, he delivered Him to be crucified. Then the souldiers of the governour took JESUS into the common hall, and gathered unto Him the whole band of souldiers. And they stripped Him, and put on Him a scarlet robe. And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon His head, and a reed in His right hand: and they bowed the knee before Him, and mocked Him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews. And they spit upon Him, and took the reed, and smote Him on the head. And after that they had mocked Him, they took took the robe off from Him, and put His own raiment on Him, and led Him away to crucifie Him. And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name : him they compelled to bear His cross. And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull, they gave Him vinegar to drink, mingled with gall : and when He had tasted thereof, He would not drink. And they crucified Him, and parted His garments, casting lots : that it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by the prophet, They parted My garments among them, and upon My vesture did they cast lots. And sitting down they watched Him there ; and set up over His head His accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. Then were there two thieves crucified with Him ; one on the right hand, and another on the left. And they that passed by, reviled Him, wagging their heads, and saying, Thou That destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save Thy Self : if Thou be the SON OF GOD, come down from the cross. Likewise also the chief priests mocking Him, with the Scribes and elders, said, He saved others, Himself He cannot save : if He be the King of Israel, let Him now come down from the cross, and we will believe Him. He trusted in GOD ; let Him deliver Him now if He will have Him ; for He said, I am the SON OF GOD. The thieves also which were crucified with Him cast the same in His teeth. Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land, unto the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My GOD, My GOD, why hast Thou forsaken Me ? Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This Man calleth for Elias. And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge and filled it with vinegar, and and put it on a reed, and gave Him to drink. The est said, Let be; let us see whether Elias will come to save Him. Jesus when He had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

 And behold, the vail of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom, and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent, and the graves were opened, and many bodies of saints which slept, rose, and came out of the graves, after His resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many. Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the SON OF GOD.

 salvation unto Me, and My fury it upheld Me. And of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness towards the house of Israel, which He hath bestowed on them, according to His mercies, and according to the multitude of His loving kindnesses. For He said, Surely they are My people, children that will not lie: so He was their SAVIOUR. In all their affliction, He was afflicted, and the Angel of His presence saved them: in His love, and in His pity He redeemed them, and He bare them, and carried them all the days of old. But they rebelled, and vexed His HOLY SPIRIT, therefore He was turned to be their enemy, and He fought against them. Then He remembered the days of old, Moses and His people, saying, Where is He That brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of His flock? Where is He That put His HOLY SPIRIT within him? That led them by the right hand of Moses, with His glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make Himself an everlasting Name? That led them through the deep as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble? as a beast goeth down into the valley, the SPIRIT of the LORD caused him to rest: so didst Thou lead Thy people to make Thy Self a glorious Name. Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of Thy holiness, and of Thy glory: Where is Thy zeal, and Thy strength, the sounding of Thy bowels, and of Thy mercies towards me? are they restrained? Doubtless Thou art our FATHER, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: Thou O LORD, art our FATHER, our REDEEMER, Thy Name is from everlasting. O LORD, Why hast Thou made us to erre from Thy waies? and hardned our hearts from Thy fear? Return for Thy servants sake, the tribes of Thine inheritance. But they ſaid, Not on the feaſt-day, leſt there be an uprore of the people. And being in Bethany, in the houſe of Simon the leper, as He ſat at meat, there came a woman, having an alabaſter-box of ointment of ſpikenard, very precious, and ſhe brake the box, and poured it on His head. And there were ſome that had indignation within themſelves, and ſaid, Why was this waſt of the ointment made? For it might have been ſold for more then three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor: and they murmured againſt her. And Jeſus ſaid, Let her alone, why trouble you her? ſhe hath wrought a good work on Me. For ye have the poor with you alwayes, and whenſoever ye will, ye may do them good: but Me ye have not alwayes. She hath done what ſhe could: ſhe is come aforehand to anoint My body to the burying. Verily I ſay unto you, Whereſoever this goſpel ſhall be preached throughout the whole world, this alſo that ſhe hath done ſhall be ſpoken of for a memorial of her. And Judas Iſcariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief prieſts, to betray Him unto them. And when they heard it, they were glad, and promiſed to give him money. And he thought how he might conveniently betray Him. S. Mark xv.

I.

Munday before Easter.

Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him. And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the good-man of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with My disciples? And he will shew you a large upper room furnished, and prepared, there make ready for us. And His disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as He had said unto them: and they made ready the passover. And in the evening He cometh with the twelve. And as they sat, and did eat, JESUS said, Verily I say unto you, one of you which eateth with Me, shall betray Me. And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto Him, one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I? And He answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve that dippeth with Me in the dish. The SON OF MAN indeed goeth, as it is written of Him: but wo to that man by whom the SON OF MAN is betrayed: good were it for that man if he had never been born. And as they did eat, JESUS took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: This is My body. And He took the cup, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them: and they all drank of it. And He said unto them, This is My blood of the new testament, which is shed for many. Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, untill that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of GOD. And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives. And JESUS saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of Me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered. But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee. But Peter said unto Him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I. And JESUS saith unto him; Verily I say unto thee, that this day,

ven in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny Me thrice. But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with Thee, I will not deny Thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all. And they came to a place which was named Gethsemani, and He saith to His disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray. And He taketh with Him Peter, and James, and John, and began to be forebowed, and to be very heavy, and saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death; tarry ye here, and watch. And He went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed, that if it were possible the hour might pass from Him. And He said, Abba, Father; All things are possible unto Thee; take away this cup from Me: nevertheless, not what I will, but what Thou wilt. And while he cometh and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldst not thou watch one hour? Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation: the spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak. And again He went away, and prayed, and spake the same words. And when He returned, He found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy) neither wist they what to answer Him. And He cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come; Behold the SON OF MAN betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth Me is at hand. And immediately, while He yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords, and staves, from the chief Priests, and the Scribes, and the Elders. And he that betrayed Him, had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever he shall kiss, that same is He; take Him, and lead Him away safely. And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to Him, and saith, Master, after, and kissed Him. And they laid their hands on on Him, and took Him. And one of them that stood by, drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high Priest, and cut off his ear. And JESUS answered, and said unto them, Are ye come out as against a thief, with swords and with staves, to take Me? I was dayly with you in the temple, teaching, and ye took Me not: but the Scriptures must be fulfilled. And they all forsook Him, and fled. And there followed Him a certain young man having a linen cloth cast about his naked body, and the young men laid hold on him. And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked. And they led JESUS away to the high Priest, and with him were assembled all the chief Priests, and the Elders, and the Scribes; and Peter followed Him afar off, even into the palace of the high Priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire; and the chief Priests, and all the council sought for witness against JESUS to put Him to death, and found none. For many bare false witness against Him, but their witness agreed not together. And there arose certain, and bare false witness against Him, saying, We heard Him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three dayes, I will build another made without hands. But neither so did their witness agree together. And the high Priest stood up in the midst, and asked JESUS, saying, Answerest Thou nothing? what is it which these witness against Thee? But He held His peace, and answered nothing. Again the high Priest asked Him, and said unto Him, Art Thou the CHRIST, the SON of THE BLESSED? And JESUS said, I am; and ye shall see the SON of MAN sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses? ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned Him to be guilty; guilty of death. And some began to spit on Him, and to cover His face, and to buffet Him, and to say unto Him, Prophecy; and the servants did strike Him with the palms of their hands. And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest; and when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth. But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch, and the cock crew. And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them. And he denied it again. And a little after they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them; for thou art a Galilean, and thy speech agreeth thereto. But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not his Man of Whom ye speak. And the second time he cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock row twice, thou shalt deny Me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

For the Epistle.

THE LORD GOD hath opened Mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back. I gave My back to the smiters, and My cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not My face from shame and spitting. For the LORD GOD will help Me, therefore shall I not be confounded: herefore have I set My face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed. He is near that justifieth Me, who will contend with Me? Let us stand together; who is Mine adversary? let him come near to Me. Behold, the LORD GOD will help Me; who is he that shall condemn Me? Lo, they all shall wax old as a garment; the moth shall eat eat them up. Who is among you that feareth the LORD, that obeyeth the voice of His servant, that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? let him trust in the Name of the LORD, and stay upon his God. Behold, all ye, that kindle a fire, that compass your selves about with sparks; walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of Mine hand, ye shall lie down in sorrow.

AND straightway in the morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, and bound JESUS, and carried Him away, and delivered Him to Pilate. And Pilate asked Him, Art Thou the King of the Jews? And He answering, said unto him, Thou saiest it. And the chief priests accused Him of many things: but He answered nothing. And Pilate asked Him again, saying, Answerest Thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against Thee. But JESUS yet answered nothing: so that Pilate marvelled. Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired. And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection. And the multitude crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them. But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews? (For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.) But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them. And Pilate answered, and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto Him Whom ye call the King of the Jews? And they cried out again, Crucifie Him. Then Pilate said unto into them, Why, what evil hath He done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucifie Him. And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered JESUS, when he had scourged Him, to be crucified. And the soldiers led Him away into the hall, called Praetorium; and they call together the whole band. And they clothed Him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about His head. And began to salute Him, Hail, King of the Jews. And they smote Him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon Him, and bowing their knees, worshipped Him. And when they had mocked Him, they took off the purple from Him, and put His own clothes on Him, and led Him out to crucifie Him. And they compel one Simon a Cyrinian, who passed by, coming out of the countrey, the father of Alexander, and Rufus, to bear His cross. And they bring Him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, the place of a scull. And they gave Him to drink wine mingled with myrrhe; and He received it not. And when they had crucified Him, they parted His garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take. And it was the third hour, and they crucified Him. And the superscription of His accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS. And with Him they crucifie two thieves, the one on His right hand, and the other on His left. And the Scripture was fulfilled which saith, And he was numbred with the transgressors. And they that passed by, railed on Him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, Thou That destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save Thy Self, and come down from the cross. Likewise also the chief priests mocking, said among themselves, with the scribes, He saved others, Himself He cannot save. Let CHRIST the king of Israel descend descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with Him, reviled Him. And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land, until the ninth hour. And at the ninth hour JESUS cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me? And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, He calleth Elias. And one ran, and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave Him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Elias will come to take Him down. And JESUS cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost. And the vail of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom. And when the centurion which stood over against Him, saw that He so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this Man was the SON OF GOD.

The Epistle.

Heb. ix. 16.

WHERE a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator: for a testament is of force after men are dead; otherwise it is of no strength at all whilst the testator liveth. Whereupon, neither the first testament was dedicated without blood: For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people, according to the law, he took the blood of calves, and of goats, with water and scarlet wooll, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book and all the people, saying, This is the blood of the testament, which God hath enjoyed unto you. Moreover, he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry. And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. It was therefore necessary that that the patterns of things in the heavens should be unified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. For CHRIST not entred into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true, but into heaven self, now to appear in the presence of GOD for us; or yet that He should offer Himself often, as the high priest entreth into the holy place every year with bloud of others: for then must He often have suffered since the foundation of the world; but now once in the end of the world, hath He appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgement: so CHRIST was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for Him, shall He appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

The Gospel.

NOW the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the passover. And the chief Priests, and Scribes sought how they might kill Him; for they feared the people. Then entred Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve. And he went his way, and communed with the chief Priests, and captaines, how he might betray Him unto them. And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money. And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray Him unto them, in the absence of the multitude. Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed. And He sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat. And they said unto Him, Where wilt Thou that we prepare? And He said unto them, Behold, when ye are entred into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water, follow him into the house where he entreth in. And ye shall say unto the good-man of the house, house,

house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with My disciples? And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished; there make ready. And they went, and found as He had said unto them: and they made ready the passover. And when the hour was come, He sat down and the twelve Apostles with Him. And He said unto them, with desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer. For I say unto you I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. And He took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among your selves. For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come. And He took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is My Body, which is given for you, this do in remembrance of Me. Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in My Blood, which is shed for you. But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth Me, is with Me on the table. And truly the SON OF MAN goeth as it was determined; but wo unto that man, by whom He is betrayed. And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing. And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest. And He said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and they that exercise authority upon them, are called benefactors. But ye shall not be so; but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? But I am among you, as he that serveth. Ye are they which have continued with Me in My temptations. And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as My FATHER hath th appointed unto Me; that ye may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And the LORD said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat: but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not; and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren. And he said unto Him, LORD, I am ready to go with Thee both into prison and to death. And He said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest Me. And He said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, asked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing. Then said He unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one. For I say unto you, that this that is written, must yet be accomplished in Me, And He was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning Me have an end. And they said, LORD, behold, here are two swords. And He said unto them, It is enough. And He came out, and went, as He was wont, to the Mount of Olives, and His disciples also followed Him. And when He was at the place, He said unto them, Pray, that ye enter not into temptation. And He was withdrawn from them about a stones cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, saying, FATHER, if Thou be willing, remove this cup from Me: nevertheless, not My will, but Thine be done. And there appeared an angel unto Him from heaven, strengthening Him. And being in an agony, He prayed more earnestly; and His sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground. And when He rose up from prayer, and was come to His disciples, He found them sleeping for sorrow, and said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. And while He yet spake, behold, a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto JESUS to kiss Him. But JESUS said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the SON OF MAN with a kiss? When they who were about Him, saw what would follow, they said unto Him, LORD, shall we smite with the sword? And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. And JESUS answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And He touched his ear, and healed him. Then JESUS said unto the chief Priests and captains of the temple, and the Elders who were come to Him, Be ye come out as against a thief, with swords and staves? When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against Me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness. Then took they Him, and led Him, and brought Him into the high Priests house, and Peter followed afar off. And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them. But a certain maid beheld him, as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with Him. And he denied Him, saying, Woman, I know Him not. And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not. And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with Him; for he is a Galilean. And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately while he yet spake, the cock crew. And the LORD turned, and looked upon Peter; and Peter remembered the word of the LORD, how He had said unto him, Before the cock crew, thou shalt deny Me thrice. And Peter went out and wept bitterly. And the men that held JESUS mocked Him, and smote Him. And when they they had blind-folded Him, they struck Him on the face, and asked Him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote Thee? And many other things blasphemously spake they against Him. And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people, and the chief priests, and the Scribes came together, and led Him into their council, saying, Art Thou the CHRIST? tell us. And He said unto them, If I tell you, you will not believe. And if I also ask you, you will not answer Me, nor let Me go. Hereafter shall the SON OF MAN sit on the right hand of the power of God. Then said they all, Art Thou then the SON OF GOD? And He said unto them, Ye say that I am. And they said, What need we any further witness? for we our selves have heard of His own mouth.

The Epistle.

[N this that I declare unto you, I praise you not; that you come together not for the better, but for the worse. For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I hear that there be divisions among you, and I partly believe it. For there must be also heresies among you, that they who are approved, may be made manifest among you. When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the LORDS supper: For in eating, every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken. What, have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the Church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not: For I have received of the LORD that which also I delivered unto you, that the LORD JESUS, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread; and when He had given thanks, He brake it, and said, Take, eat, this is My Body, which which is broken for you : this do in remembrance of Me. After the same manner also He took the cup, when He had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in My Blood : this do ye as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the LORDS death till He come. Wherefore, whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the LORD unworthily, shall be guilty of the Body and Blood of the LORD. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For he that eateth, and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the LORDS Body. For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep. For if we would judge our selves, we should not be judged. But when we are judged, we are chastened of the LORD, that we should not be condemned with the world. Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another. And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

xxiii, 1.

THE whole multitude of them arose, and led Him unto Pilate. And they began to accuse Him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying, that He Himself is CHRIST a King. And Pilate asked Him, saying, Art Thou the King of the Jews? And He answered him and said, Thou saiest it. Then said Pilate to the chief priests, and to the people, I find no fault in this Man. And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place. When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the Man were a Galilean. And

And as soon as he knew that He belonged unto Herods jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who himself was also at Jerusalem at that time. And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad, for he was desirous to see Him of a long season, because he had heard many things of Him, and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by Him. Then he questioned with Him in many words; but He answered him nothing. And the chief priests, and scribes stood and vehemently accused Him. And Herod with his men of war set Him at naught, and mocked Him, and arrayed Him in a gorgeous robe, and sent Him again to Pilate. And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together; for before they were at enmity between themselves. And Pilate when he had called together the chief priests, and the rulers, and the people, said unto them, Ye have brought this Man unto me, as one that perverteth the people, and behold, I having examined Him before you, have found no fault in this Man touching those things whereof ye accuse Him: No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him, and lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto Him. I will therefore chastise Him, and release Him. For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast. And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this Man, and release unto us Barabbas: Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder was cast in prison.) Pilate therefore willing to release Jesus, spake again to them. But they cried, saying, Crucifie Him, crucifie Him. And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath He done? I have found no cause of death in Him: I will therefore chastise Him and let Him go. And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that He might be crucified: And the voices of them, and of the chief priests prevailed. And Pilate gave sentence, that it should be as they

required. And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered JESUS to their will. And as they led Him away, they laid hold upon one Simon a Cirenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after JESUS. And there followed Him a great company of people, and of women, who also bewailed and lamented Him. But JESUS turning unto them, said, Daughters of Jerufalem, weep not for Me, but weep for your selves, and for your children. For behold, the daies are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck. Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry? And there were also two other malefactours led with Him to be put to death. And when they were come to the place which is called Calvary, there they crucified Him; and the malefactours, one on the right hand, and the other on the left. Then said JESUS, FATHER, forgive them, for they know not what they do. And they parted His raiment, and cast lots. And the people stood beholding; and the rulers also with them derided Him, saying, He saved others, let Him save Himself, if He be CHRIST the chosen of GOD. And the souldiers also mocked Him, coming to Him, and offering Him vineger, and saying, If Thou be the King of the Jews, save Thy Self. And a superscription also was written over Him in letters of Greek, and Latine, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS. And one of the malefactours which were hanged, railed on Him, saying, If Thou be CHRIST, save Thy Self, and us. But the other answering, rebuked him, him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this Man hath done nothing amiss. And he said unto JESUS, LORD, Remember me when Thou comest into Thy kingdom. And JESUS said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with Me in paradise. And it was about the sixth hour. And there was a darkness over all the earth, until the ninth hour. And the sun was darkened, and the vail of the temple was rent in the midst. And when JESUS had cried with a loud voice, He said, FATHER, into Thy hands I commend My Spirit: and having said thus, He gave up the ghost. Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous Man. And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things that were done, smote their breasts, and returned. And all His acquaintance, and the women that followed Him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

The Collects.

ALMIGHTY God, we beseech Thee graciously to behold this Thy family, for which our LORD JESUS CHRIST was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer death upon the cross, Who now liveth and reigneth with Thee and the HOLY GHOST, ever to the God, world without end. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, by Whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified; Receive our supplications and prayers which we offer before Thee for all estates of men in Thy holy Church, that every member of the same in his vocation and ministry, may truly and godly

godly serve Thee, through our LORD and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST. Amen.

O MERCIFUL GOD, Who hast made all men, and hatest nothing that Thou hast made, nor wouldest the death of a sinner, but rather that he should be converted and live; Have mercy upon all Jews, Turks, Infidels, and Hereticks, and take from them all ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of Thy word; and so fetch them home, blessed LORD, to Thy flock, that they may be saved among the remnant of the true Israelites, and be made one fold under one Shepherd, JESUS CHRIST our LORD, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the HOLY SPIRIT, one GOD, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle.

Heb. x. 1.

THE law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually, make the comers there-unto perfect: for then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged, should have had no more conscience of sins. But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year. For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins: Wherefore when He cometh into the world, He saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast Thou prepared Me.
In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin Thou hast had no pleasure: Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of Me) to do Thy will, O God. Above, when He said, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt-offerings, and offering for sin Thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein which are offered by the law: Then said He, Lo
I come to do Thy will, O GOD. He taketh away the first, that He may establish the second. By
th

ie which will we are sanctified, through the offering of the body of JESUS CHRIST once for all. And every priest standeth daily ministring, and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices which can never take away sins. But this Man after He had offered one sacrifice for sins, for ever sat down on the right hand of GOD; from henceforth expecting till His enemies be made His foot-stool. For by one offering He hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified: Whereof the HOLY GHOST also is a Witness to us: For after that He had said before, This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the LORD, I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them; and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more. Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin. Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of JESUS, by a new and living way, which He hath consecrated for us, through the vail, that is to say, His flesh: And having an high Priest over the house of GOD; let us draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering: (for He is faithful That promised.) and let us consider one another to provoke unto love, and to good works; not forsaking the assembling of our selves together, as the manner of some; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

The Gospel.

DILATE therefore took JESUS, and scourged Him. And the souldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on His head, and they put on Him a purple robe, and said, Hail King of the Jews: And they smote Him with their hands. Pilate

Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring Him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in Him. Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the Man. When the chief Priests therefore, and officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, Crucifie Him, crucifie Him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye Him, and crucifie Him: for I finde no fault in Him. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law, He ought to die, because He made Himself the SON OF GOD. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid; and went again into the judgement-hall, and saith unto JESUS, Whence art Thou? But JESUS gave him no answer. Then saith Pilate unto Him, Speakest Thou not unto me? knowest Thou not, that I have power to crucifie Thee, and have power to release Thee? JESUS answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against Me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered Me unto thee hath the greater sin. And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release Him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this Man go, thou art not Cefars friend: Whosoever maketh himself a king, speaketh against Cefar. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought JESUS forth, and sate down in the judgement-seat, in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King. But they cried out, Away with Him, away with Him, crucifie Him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucifie your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cefar. Then delivered he Him therefore unto them to be crucified: and they took JESUS and led Him away. And He bearing

His

His cross, went forth into a place called the place of a scull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha: Where they crucified Him, and two other with Him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latine. Then said the chief priest of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that He said, I am the King of the Jews. Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written. Then the souldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took His garments (and made four parts, to every souldier a part) and also His coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted My raiment among them, and for My vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the souldiers did. Now there stood by the cross of Jesus, His mother, and His mothers sister, Mary, the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalen. When Jesus therefore saw His mother, and the disciple standing by, whom He loved, He saith unto His mother, Woman, behold thy son. Then saith He to the disciple, Behold thy mother. And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home. After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to His mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, He said, It is finished: and He bowed His head, and gave gave up the ghost. The Jews therefore because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath-day (for that sabbath-day was an high day) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. Then came the souldiers and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. But when they came to JESUS, and saw that He was dead already, they brake not His legs. But one of the souldiers with a spear pierced His side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe. For these things were done that the Scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of Him shall not be broken. And again, another Scripture saith, They shall look on Him Whom they pierced.

The Collect.

GRANT, O LORD, that as we are baptized into the death of Thy blessed SON our SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST; so by continual mortifying our corrupt affections, we may be buried with Him, and that through the grave and gate of death we may pass to our joyful resurrection, for His merits, Who died and was buried, and rose again for us, Thy SON JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

1 S. Pet. iii.
17.

IT is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well-doing, then for evil-doing. For CHRIST also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust; (that He might bring us to God) being put to death in the flesh; but quickned by the Spirit: By Which also He went and preached unto the spirits in prison; which sometime were dif-disobedient, when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing; wherein few, that is, eight souls, were saved by water. The like figure whereunto, even baptism, doth also now save us (not the putting away the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards God) by the resurrection of JESUS CHRIST: Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God, angels and authorities, and powers being made subject unto Him.

The Gospel.

WHEN the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus disciple. He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock; and he rolled the great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed. And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre. Now the next day that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while He was yet alive, After three days I will rise again. Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest His disciples come by night and steal Him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first. Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch, go your way, make it as sure as you can. So they went and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

1 Cor. v. 7.

CHRI^ST our Passover is sacrificed for us therefore let us keep the feast. Not with the old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness: but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Rom. vi. 9.

CHRI^ST being raised from the dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion over Him. For in that He died, He died unto sin once but in that He liveth, He liveth unto GOD. Like wise reckon ye also your selves to be dead indeed unto sin: but alive unto GOD through JESUS CHRIS^T OUR LORD.

1 Cor. xv.

CHRI^ST is risen from the dead: and become the first-fruits of them that slept. For since by man came death: by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die: even so in CHRIS^T shall all be made alive.

Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON: and to the HOLY GHOST;

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

The Epistle.

[F ye then be risen with CHRIST, seek those things which are above, where CHRIST sitteth on the right hand of GOD. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth: For ye are dead, and your life is hid with CHRIST in GOD. When CHRIST Who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with Him in glory. Mortifie therefore our members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: For which things sake the wrath of GOD cometh on the children of disobedience. In the which ye also walked sometime when ye lived in them.

The Gospel.

[HE first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalen early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre. Then she runneth and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom JESUS loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the BODY out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid Him. Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre. So they ran both together, and the other disciple did out-run Peter, and came first to the sepulchre; and he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying, yet went he not in. Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie; and the napkin that was about His head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it self. Then went in also that other disciple which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw and believed. For as yet they knew not the Scripture, that He must rise again from the dead. Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

Acts x. 34

PETER opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that GOD is no respecter of persons; but in every nation he that feareth Him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with Him. The word which GOD sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by JESUS CHRIST (He is LORD of all) That word (I say) you know, which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached: How GOD anointed JESUS of Nazareth with the HOLY GHOST, and with power, Who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for GOD was with Him. And we are witnesses of all things which He did, both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem, Whom they slew, and hanged on a tree: Him GOD raised up the third day, and shewed Him openly; not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of GOD, even to us, who did eat and drink with Him after He arose from the dead. And He commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is He Who was ordained of GOD, to be the Judge of quick uick and dead. To Him give all the prophets witnes, that through His Name, whofoever be-veth in Him, shall receive remission of sins.

The Gospel.

BEHOLD, two of His disciples went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs. And they talked together of all these things which had appened. And it came to pass, that while they communed together, and reasoned, JESUS Himself drew near, and went with them. But their eyes were holden, that they should not know Him. And He said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk and are sad? And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas answering, said unto Him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days? And He said unto them, What things? And they said unto Him, Concerning JESUS of Nazareth, Who was a prophet mighty in deed and word, before GOD and all the people: And how he chief priests, and our rulers delivered Him to be condemned to death, and have crucified Him. But we trusted that it had been He Who should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done. Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, who were early at the sepulchre; and when they found not His body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that He was alive. And certain of them who were with us, went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said; but Him they saw not. Then He said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken: ought not CHRIST to have suffered these things, and to enter into His glory? And beginning at Moses, and all the prophets, He expounded unto them in all the Scriptures, the things concerning Himself. And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went; and He made as though He would have gone further. But they constrained Him, saying, Abide with us, for it is towards evening, and the day is far spent: and He went in to tarry with them. And it came to pass as He sat at meat with them, He took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knew Him, and He vanished out of their sight. And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while He talked with us by the way, and while He opened to us the Scriptures? And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon. And they told what things were done in the way, and how He was known of them in breaking of bread.

S. Luke

Acts xiii.

MEN, and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God,

GOD, to you is the word of this salvation sent. For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew Him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath-day, they have fulfilled them in condemning Him. And though they found no cause of death in Him, yet desired they Pilate that He should be slain. And when they had fulfilled all that was written of Him, they took Him down from the tree, and laid Him in a sepulchre. But GOD raised Him from the dead: And He was seen many days of them which came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are His witnesses unto the people. And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers; GOD hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that He hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art My SON, this day have I begotten Thee. And as concerning that He raised Him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, He said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David. Wherefore He saith also in another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer Thine HOLY ONE to see corruption. For David after he had served his own generation by the will of GOD, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption. But He Whom GOD raised again, saw no corruption: Be it known unto you therefore, men, and brethren, that through this Man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins: And by Him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets; Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I will work a work in your days, a work which you shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

The Gospel.

JESUS Himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. And He said unto them, Why are ye troubled, and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? Behold My hands and My feet, that it is I My self: handle Me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see Me have. And when He had thus spoken, He shewed them His hands and His feet. And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondred, He said unto them, Have ye here any meat? And they gave Him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an hony-comb. And He took it, and did eat before them. And He said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms concerning Me. Then opened He their understanding, that they might understand the Scriptures, and said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved CHRIST to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day; and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His Name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. And ye are witnesses of these things.

ALMIGHTY FATHER, Who hast given Thine only SON to die for our sins, and to rise again for our justification; Grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness, that we may always serve Thee in pureness of living and truth, through the merits of the same Thy SON JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

WHATSOEVER is born of GOD overcometh the world; and this is the victory that vercometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that JESUS is the SON OF GOD? This is He that came by water and blood, even JESUS CHRIST; not by water only, but by water and blood: and it is the SPIRIT that beareth witness, because the SPIRIT is truth. For there are three that bear record in heaven, the FATHER, the WORD, and the HOLY GHOST: and these three are one. And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one. If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which He hath testified of His SON. He that believeth on the SON OF GOD, hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God, hath made Him a liar, because he believeth not the record that God gave of His SON. And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life; and this life is in His SON. He that hath the SON hath life, and he that hath not the SON hath not life.

The Gospel.

THE same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut, where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came JESUS and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. And when He had so said, He shewed unto them His hands and His side. Then were the disciples glad when they saw the LORD. Then said JESUS to them again, Peace be unto you: as My FATHER hath sent Me, even so send I you. And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the HOLY GHOST. Amen.

The Epistle.

THIS is thank-worthy, if a man for conscience toward GOD endure grief, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? But when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently; this is acceptable with GOD. For even hereunto were ye called: because CHRIST also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow His steps: Who did no sin, neither was guile found in His mouth: Who when He was reviled, reviled not again; when He suffered, He threatened not; but committed Himself to Him that judgeth righteously: Who His own Self bare our sins in His own Body on the tree, that we being dead to sins should live unto righteousness by Whose stripes ye were healed. For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd, and Bishop of your souls.

The Gospel.

S. John x.

JESUS said I am the good Shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth eateth the sheep, and fleeth; and the wolf catcheth hem, and scattereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good Shepherd, and know My sheep, and am known of Mine. As the FATHER knoweth Me, even so know I the FATHER: and I lay down My life for the sheep. And other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear My voice; and here shall be one fold, and one Shepherd.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY God, Who shewest to them that be in error the light of Thy truth, to the intent that they may return into the way of righteousness; Grant unto all them that are admitted into the fellowship of CHRISTs religion, that they mayeschew those things that are contrary to their profession, and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same, through our LORD JESUS CHRIST. Amen.

The Epistle.

DEARLY beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; having your conversation honest among the Gentiles; that whereas they speak against you as evil doers, they may by your good works which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. Submit your selves to every ordinance of man for the LORDs sake, whether it be to the King, as supreme; or unto governours, as unto them that are sent by him, for the punishment of evil doers, and for the praise of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness; but as the servants of God.

JESUS said to His disciples, A little while and ye shall not see Me; and again, a little while and ye shall see Me, because I go to the FATHER. Then said some of His disciples among themselves, What is this that He saith unto us, A little while and ye shall not see Me; and again, a little while and ye shall see Me; and, Because I go to the FATHER? They said therefore, What is this that He saith, A little while? we cannot tell what He saith. Now JESUS knew that they were desirous to ask Him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among your selves, of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see Me; and again, a little while and ye shall see Me? Verily, verily I say unto you, that ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoyce: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman when she is in travail, hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoyce, and your joy no man taketh from you.

The Epistle.

22.

BE ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass. For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein; he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed. If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this mans religion is vain. Pure religion, and undefiled before GOD and the FATHER, is this; To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

The Gospel.

VERILY, verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the FATHER in My Name, He will give it you. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in My Name: Ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: the time cometh when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the FATHER. At that day ye shall ask in My Name : and I say not unto you, that I will pray the FATHER for you; for the FATHER himself loveth you, because ye have loved Me, and ye have believed that I came out from GOD. I came forth from the FATHER, and am come into the world: Again, I leave the world, and go to the FATHER. His disciples said unto Him; Lo, now speakest Thou plainly, and speakest no proverb. How are we sure that Thou knowest all things, and needst not that any man should ask Thee: by this we believe that Thou camest forth from GOD. JESUS answered them, Do ye now believe? Behold the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered every man to his own, and shall leave one another alone: and yet I am not alone, because the FATHER is with Me. These things I have spoken unto you, that in Me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation, but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world.

fourty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of GOD: And being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the FATHER, which, saith He, ye have heard of Me. For John truly baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the HOLY GHOST not many days hence. When they therefore were come together, they asked of Him, saying, LORD, wilt Thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel? And He said unto them, It is not for you to know the times, or the seasons, which the FATHER hath put in His own power. But ye shall receive power after that the HOLY GHOST is come upon you; and ye shall be witnesses unto Me, both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. And when He had spoken these things, while they beheld, He was taken up, and a cloud received Him out of their sight. And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven, as He went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus Which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner, as ye have seen Him go into heaven.

The Gospel.

S. Mark xvi.

JESUS appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen Him after He was risen. And He said unto them, Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be damned. And these signs shall follow them that believe: In My Name shall they cast out devils, they shall speak with new tongues ongues, they shall take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover. So then after the LORD had spoken unto them, He was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of GOD. And they went forth and preached every where, the LORD working with them, and confirming the word with signs following.

The Epistle.

THE end of all things is at hand; be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. And love all things, have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins. Use hospitality one to another without grudging. As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of GOD. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of GOD: If any man minister, let him do it, as of the ability which God giveth, that God in all things may be glorified through JESUS CHRIST, to Whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Acts ii. 1.

WHEN the day of Pentecost was fully come they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them: And they were all filled with the HOLY GHOST, and began to speak with other tongues, as the SPIRIT gave them utterance. And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

And

and they were all amazed, and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak, Galileans? And how hear we every man in his own tongue wherein we were born? Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia and in Judea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus and Asia, Phrygia, and Pamphilia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya, about Cyrene, and the strangers of Rome, Jews and Profelytes, Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues these wonderful works of God.

The Gospel.

JESUS said unto His disciples, If ye love Me keep My commandments. And I will pray for the FATHER, and He shall give you another COMFORTER, that He may abide with you for ever; even the SPIRIT OF TRUTH, Whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth Him not, neither knoweth Him; but ye know Him; for He dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you. Yet a little while, and the world seeth Me no more; but ye shall see Me: because I live, ye shall live also. At that time ye shall know, that I am in My FATHER, and My FATHER in Me, and I in you. He that hath My commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth Me, and he that loveth Me shall be loved of My FATHER, and I will love him, and will manifest Myself to him. Judas saith unto Him, (not the traitor) LORD, how is it that Thou wilt manifest Thyself to us, and not unto the world? JESUS answered, and said unto him, If a man love Me, he will keep My words: and My FATHER will love him, and We will come unto him, and make Our abode with him. Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away and come again unto you. If ye loved Me, ye would rejoyce, because I said, I go unto the FATHER: for My FATHER is greater than I. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that when it is come to pass ye might believe. Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in Me. And we are witnesses of all things which He did, both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; Whom they knew and hanged on a tree: Him GOD raised up the third day, and shewed Him openly; not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of GOD; even to us who did eat and drink with Him after He rose from the dead. And He commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is He Which was ordained of GOD to be the Judge of quick and dead. To Him give all the prophets witness, that through His Name whosoever believeth in Him, shall receive remission of sins. While Peter yet spake these words the HOLY GHOST fell on all them who heard the word. And they of the circumcision who believed, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the HOLY GHOST. For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify GOD. Then answered Peter, Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, who have received the HOLY GHOST as well as we? and he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the LORD. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

The Gospel.

GOD so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten SON, that whosoever believeth in Him, should not perish, but have everlasting life.

For GOD sent not His SON into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved. He that believeth on Him, is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the Name of the only begotten SON OF GOD. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doth evil, hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doth truth, cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

The Collect.

GOD, Who as at this time didst teach the hearts of Thy faithful people by sending to them the light of Thy HOLY SPIRIT; Grant us by the same SPIRIT to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoyce in His holy comfort, through the merits of CHRIST JESU our SAVIOUR, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the same SPIRIT, one GOD world without end. Amen.

For the Epistle.

WHEN the Apostles who were at Jerusalem, heard that Samaria had received the word of GOD, they sent unto them Peter and John; who when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the HOLY GHOST. (For as yet He was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the Name of the LORD JESUS.) Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the HOLY GHOST.

The Gospel.

VERILY, verily I say unto you, He that entreth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entreth in by the door, is the shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice, and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him; so they know his voice. And a stranger will they not follow; but will flee from him; for they know not the voice of strangers. This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which He spake unto them. Then said Jesus unto them again; Verily, verily I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. All that ever came before Me are thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door; by Me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, Who hast given unto us Thy servants grace by the confession of a true faith to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of the livine Majesty to worship the Unity; We beseech Thee, that Thou wouldst keep us stedfast in this faith, and evermore defend us from all adversities, Who livest and reignest one God world without end. Amen.

Revel. iv. 1.

AFTER this I looked, and behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter. And immediately I was in the Spirit; and behold, a throne was set in heaven, and One sat on the throne, and He That sat, was, to look upon, like a jasper, and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald. And round about the throne were four and twenty seats; and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold. And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thundrings, and voices. And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of GOD, And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne were four beasts full of eyes before and behind. And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle. And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him, and they were full of eyes within, and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, LORD GOD Almighty, Who was, and is, and is to come. And when those beasts give glory, and honour, and thanks to Him That sat on the throne, Who liveth for ever and ever; the four and twenty elders fall down before Him That sat on the throne, and worship Him That liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, Thou art worthy, O LORD, to receive glory, and honour, and power; for Thou hast created all things, and for Thy pleasure they are and were created.

THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto Him, Rabbi, we know that Thou art a teacher come from God: For no man can do these miracles that Thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto Him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mothers womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water, and of the SPIRIT, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh, is flesh; and that which is born of the SPIRIT, is Spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof; but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth; so is every one that is born of the SPIRIT. Nicodemus answered and said unto Him; How can these things be? Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things? Verily, verily I say unto thee, We speak that We do know, and testify that We have seen, and ye receive not Our witness. If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not; how shall ye believe if I tell you of heavenly things? And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but He That came down from heaven, even the SON OF MAN, Who is in heaven. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness: even so must the SON OF MAN be lifted up; that whosoever believeth in Him, should not perish, but have eternal life.

The Collect.

O GOD, the Strength of all them that put their trust in Thee, mercifully accept our prayers; and because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without Thee, grant us the help of Thy grace, that in keeping of Thy commandments we may please Thee, both in will and deed, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

1 S. John
iv. 7.

BELOVED, let us love one another; for love is of GOD, and every one that loveth is born of GOD, and knoweth GOD. He that loveth not, knoweth not GOD; for GOD is love. In this was manifested the love of GOD towards us, because that GOD sent His only begotten SON into the world, that we might live through Him. Herein is love, not that we loved GOD, but that He loved us, and sent His SON to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if GOD so loved us, we ought also to love one another. No man hath seen GOD at any time. If we love one another, GOD dwelleth in us, and His love is perfected in us. Hereby know we that we dwell in Him, and He in us, because He hath given us of His SPIRIT. And we have seen and do testify, that the FATHER sent the SON to be the SAVIOUR of the world. Whosoever shall confess that JESUS is the SON OF GOD, GOD dwelleth in him, and he in GOD. And we have known and believed the love that GOD hath to us. GOD is love; and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in GOD, and GOD in him. Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgement, because as He is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment: He that feareth, is not made nade perfect in love. We love Him, because He first loved us. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother, whom he hath seen, how can he love God, Whom he hath not seen? And this commandment have we from Him, that he who loveth God, love his brother also.

The Gospel.

THERE was a certain rich man, who was clothed in purple, and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day. And there was a certain begger named Lazarus, who was laid at his gate full of sores; and desiring to be fed with the crumbs, which fell from the rich mans table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the begger died, and was carried by the angels into Abrahams bosom: the rich man also died and was buried. And in hell he lift up his eyes being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham said, Son, remember, that thou in thy life time receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they who would pass from thence to you, cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence. Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my fathers house: For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham; but

The Collect.

O LORD, Who never failest to help and govern them whom Thou dost bring up in Thy stedfast fear and love; Keep us, we beseech Thee, under the protection of Thy good providence, and make us to have a perpetual fear and love of Thy holy Name, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

1 S. John
iii. 13.

MARVEL not, my brethren, if the world hate you. We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren: He that loveth not his brother, abideth in death. Who-soever hateth his brother, is a murderer; and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. Hereby perceive we the love of GOD, because He laid down His life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. But whoso hath this worlds good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him; how dwelleth the love of GOD in him? My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed, and in truth. And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before Him. For if our heart condemn us, GOD is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence towards GOD. And whatsoever we ask, we receive of Him, because we keep His commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in His sight. And this is His commandment, that we should believe on the Name of His SON JESUS CHRIST, CHRIST, and love one another as He gave us commandment. And he that keepeth His commandments dwelleth in Him, and He in him: and hereby we know that He abideth in us, by the SPIRIT Which He hath given us.

The Gospel.

A CERTAIN man made a great supper, and bade many; and sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come, for all things are now ready. And they all with one consent began to make excuse: The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it; I pray thee have me excused. And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them; I pray thee have me excused. And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. So that servant came, and shewed his Lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry, said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the lame, and the halt, and the blind. And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room. And the Lord said unto the servant, Go out into the high-ways, and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. For I say unto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shall taste of my Supper.

The Epistle.

1 S. Pet. v. 5.

ALL of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility : for GOD resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. Humble your selves therefore under the mighty hand of GOD, that He may exalt you in due time ; casting all your care upon Him, for He careth for you. Be sober, be vigilant, because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about seeking whom he may devour. Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world. But the God of all grace, Who hath called us into His eternal glory by CHRIST JESUS, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. To Him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

S. Luke

THEN drew near unto Him all the publicans and sinners for to hear Him. And the Pharisees and Scribes murmured, saying, This Man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them. And He spake this parable unto them, saying, What man of you having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? And when he hath found it, he laieth it on his shoulders, rejoycing. And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours saying unto them, Rejoyce with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost. I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance. Either what woman, having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it? And when Thee, without Whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy; Encrease and multiply upon us thy mercy, that Thou being our Ruler and Guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we

The Epistle.

RECKON that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. For the creature is made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of Him Who hath subjected the same in hope: Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth, and travaileth in pain together until now. And not only so, but our selves also, which have the first-fruits of the spirit, even we with our selves groan within our selves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

For with the same measure that ye mete withall, it shall be measured to you again. And He spake a parable unto them, Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch? The disciple is not above his master; but every one that is perfect shall be as his master. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brothers eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thy self beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brothers eye.

1 S. Pet. iii.

BE ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous; not rendring evil for evil, or railing for railing, but contrarywise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit blessing. For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile. Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it. For the eyes of the LORD are over the righteous and His ears are open unto their prayers: but the ce of the LORD is against them that do evil. And ho is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of

The Gospel.

T came to pass, that as the people pressed upon Him to hear the word of GOD, He stood by the lake of Genesareth; and saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets. And He entred into one of the ships, which was Simons, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land: and He sat down and taught the people out of the ship. Now when He had left speaking,
 He said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. And Simon answering, said unto Him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing; nevertheless Thy word I will let down the net. And when they had this done, they enclosed a great multitude of fishes, and their net brake. And they beckned unto their partners which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came and filled both their ships, so that they began to sink. When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus knees, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O LORD. For he was astonished, and all that were with him at the draught of the fishes which they had taken: And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not, from henceforth thou shalt catch men,
 and when they had brought their ships to land,
 they forsook all, and followed Him.

O GOD, Who hast prepared for them that love Thee, such good things as pass mans understanding; Pour into our hearts such love toward Thee, that we loving Thee above all things, may obtain Thy promises, which exceed all that we can desire, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

Rom. vi. 3.

KNOW ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into JESUS CHRIST, were baptized into His death? Therefore we are buried with Him by baptism into death, that like as CHRIST was raised up from the dead by the glory of the FATHER; even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of His death, we shall be also in the likeness of His resurrection: Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. For he that is dead, is freed from sin. Now if we be dead with CHRIST, we believe that we shall also live with Him; knowing, that CHRIST being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over Him. For in that He died, He died unto sin once: but in that He liveth, He liveth unto God. Likewise reckon ye also your selves to be dead indeed unto sin: but alive unto God, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD.

The Gospel.

S. Mat. v. 20.

JESUS said unto His disciples, Except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the Scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven. Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill: and whosoever shall kill, shall be in danger of the judgment. But I say unto you, that whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause, shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Racha, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire. Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there remembreth that thy brother hath ought against thee; leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison. Verily I say unto thee, thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

The Epistle.

S. Mark
viii. 1.

IN those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, JESUS called His disciples unto Him, and saith unto them, I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with Me three daies, and have nothing to eat: And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way; for divers of them came from far. And His disciples answered Him, From whence can a man satisfie these men with bread here in the wilderness? And He asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven. And He commanded the people to sit down on the ground. And He took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to His disciples to set before them, and they did set them before the people. And they had a few small fishes; and He blessed and commanded to set them also before them. So they did eat and were filled: And they took up of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets. And they that had eaten were about four thousand. And He sent them away.

BRETHREN, we are debtors, not to the flesh to live after the flesh: For if ye live after the flesh esh, ye shall die : but if ye through the SPIRIT do mortifie the deeds of the body, ye shall live. For as many as are led by the SPIRIT of GOD, they are the sons of GOD. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear : but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba Father. The SPIRIT it self beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of GOD. And if children, then heirs : heirs of GOD, and synt-heirs with CHRIST : if so be that we suffer with Him, that we may be also glorified together.

The Gospel.

BEWARE of false prophets, which come to you in sheeps clothing, but inwardly they areravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits : Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit ; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit ; neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto Me, LORD, LORD, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven : but he that doth the will of my FATHER Who is in heaven.

The Epistle.

1 Cor. x. 1.

BRETHREN, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; and were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud, and in the sea; and did all eat the same spiritual meat, and did all drink the same spiritual drink: (for they drank of that spiritual rock that followed them; and that rock was CHRIST.) But with many of them GOD was not well pleased; for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. Neither let us tempt CHRIST, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents. Neither murmure ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall. There hath no temptation taken you, but such as is common to man: but GOD is faithful, Who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

ount of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward. Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my Lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig, to beg I am ashamed. I am resolved what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. So he called every one of his lords debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? And he said, An hundred measures of oyl. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore. And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light. And he say unto you, Make to your selves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness, that when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

xix. 41.

AND when He was come near, He beheld the city, and wept over it, saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes. For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, and shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee: and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another, because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation. And He went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought, saying unto them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of thieves. And He taught daily in the temple.

The Collect.

O GOD, Who declarest Thy Almighty power, most chiefly in shewing mercy and pity; Mer-mercifully grant unto us such a measure of Thy grace, that we running the way of Thy commandments, may obtain Thy gracious promises, and be made partakers of Thy heavenly treasure, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

BRETHREN, I declare unto you the Gospel which I preached unto you, which also you have received, and wherein ye stand. By which so ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all, that which I also received, how that CHRIST died for our sins, according to the Scriptures; and that He was buried; and that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures; and that He was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve. After that He was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present; but some are fallen asleep. After that He was seen of James; then of all the Apostles; and last of all He was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time: For I am the least of the Apostles, that am not meet to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am: and His grace which was bestowed upon me, was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me: Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye are relieved.

I Cor. xv. 1.

The Gospel.

JESUS spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves, that they were righteous, and despised others; Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a Publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with

xviii. 9.

with himself, GOD, I thank Thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this Publican. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. And the Publican standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, GOD be merciful to me a sinner. I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself, shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself, shall be exalted.

The twelfth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting GOD, Who art always more ready to hear, than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire, or deserve; Pour down upon us the abundance of Thy mercy, forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, but through the merits and mediation of JESUS CHRIST Thy SON our LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

2 Cor. iii. 4.

SUCH trust have we through CHRIST to GODward. Not that we are sufficient of our selves; but our sufficiency is of GOD. Who also hath made us able ministers of the new Testament; not of the letter, but of the Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giveth life. But if the ministration of death written and engraven in stones was glorious; so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away; How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be rather glorious? For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

The Gospel.

JESUS departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis. And they bring unto Him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech Him to put His hand upon him. And He took him aside from the multitude, and put His fingers into his ears, and He spit, and touched his tongue; and looking up to heaven, He sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain. And He charged them that they should tell no man; but the more He charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it, and were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well; He maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

The Collect.

ALmighty and merciful God, of Whose only gift it cometh, that Thy faithful people do unto Thee true and laudable service; Grant, we beseech Thee, that we may so faithfully serve Thee in this life, that we fail not finally to attain Thy heavenly promises, through the merits of JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

TO Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one; And to thy seed, which is CHRIST. And this I say, that the covenant that was confirmed before of GOD in CHRIST, the law which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot not disannul; that it should make the promise of none effect. For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise; but GOD gave it to Abraham by promise. Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come, to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator. Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but GOD is one. Is the law then against the promises of GOD? GOD forbid: for if there had been a law given, which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. But the Scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of JESUS CHRIST might be given to them that believe.

Gal. iii. 16.

The Gospel.

23.

BLESSED are the eyes which see the things that ye see. For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. And behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted Him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the LORD thy GOD with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind, and thy neighbour as thy self. And He said unto him, Thou hast answered right; this do, and thou shalt live. But he willing to justify himself, said unto JESUS, And who is my neighbour? And JESUS answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed leaving him half dead. And by chance there came down a certain priest that way, nd when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, and went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oyl, and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him, and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again I will repay thee. Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves? And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said JESUS unto him, Go and do thou likewise.

The fourteenth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting GOD, give unto us the increase of faith, hope, and charity; and that we may obtain that which Thou dost promise, make us to love that which Thou dost command, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

ISAY then, Walk in the SPIRIT; and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the SPIRIT, and the SPIRIT against the flesh; and these are contrary the one to the other; so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. But if ye be led by the SPIRIT, ye are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these, Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in

Gal. v. 16.

in time past, that they who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the SPIRIT is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. And they that are CHRISTs have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

The Gospel.

S. Luke
xvii. 11.

AND it came to pass, as JESUS went to Jerusalem, that He passed through the midst of Samaria, and Galilee. And as He entered into a certain village, there met Him ten men that were lepers, who stood afar off. And they lifted up their voices, and said, JESUS Master, have mercy on us. And when He saw them, He said unto them, Go shew your selves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that as they went, they were cleansed. And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified GOD, and fell down on his face at His feet, giving Him thanks; and he was a Samaritan. And JESUS answering, said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine? There are not found that returned to give glory to GOD, save this stranger. And He said unto him, Arise, go thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.

The fifteenth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

KEEP, we beseech Thee, O LORD, Thy Church with Thy perpetual mercy. And because the frailty of man without Thee cannot but fall, keep us ever by Thy help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

Gal. vi. 11.

YE see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand. As many as desire desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of CHRIST. For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh. But GOD forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, by Whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. For in CHRIST JESUS neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of GOD. From henceforth let no man trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the LORD JESUS. Brethren, the grace of our LORD JESUS CHRIST be with your spirit. Amen.

The Gospel.

NO man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve GOD and Mammon. Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on: Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? Behold the fowls of the air; for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly FATHER feedeth them: Are ye not much better than they? Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature? And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin: And yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Wherefore if GOD so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven; shall He not much more clothe you,
O ye

vi. 24.

O ye of little faith? Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or what shall we drink? or wherewithall shall we be clothed? (for after all these things do the Gentiles seek) for your heavenly FATHER knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you. Take therefore no thought for the morrow; for the morrow shall take thought for the things of it self: sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

The sixteenth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

O LORD, we beseech Thee, let Thy continual pity cleanse and defend Thy church; and because it cannot continue in safety without Thy succour, preserve it evermore by Thy help and goodness, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

Ephes. iii.
13.

I DESIRE that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory. For this cause I bow my knees unto the FATHER of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, of Whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, that He would grant you according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might by His SPIRIT in the inner man: That CHRIST may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; and to know the love of CHRIST, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God. Now unto Him That is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be glory in the Church by CHRIST JESUS, JESUS, throughout all ages, world without end.

Amen.

The Gospel.

AND it came to pass the day after, that JESUS went into a city called Naim, and many of His disciples went with Him, and much people. Now when He came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and much people of the city was with her. And when the LORD saw her, He had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not. And He came and touched the bier, (and they that bare him stood still) and He said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise. And he that was dead, sat up, and began to speak: and He delivered him to his mother. And there came a fear on all, and they glorified God, saying, that a great Prophet is risen up among us, and that God hath visited His people. And this rumour of Him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the region round about.

The Gospel.

1.

IT came to pass, as JESUS went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath-day, that they watched Him. And behold, there was a certain man before Him who had the dropsie. And JESUS answering, spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath-day? And they held their peace. And He took him, and healed him, and let him go; and answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass, or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath-day? And they could not answer Him again to these things. And He put forth a parable to those who were bidden, when He marked how they chose out the chief rooms, saying unto them, When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room, lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him: And he that bade thee and him, come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room. But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room, that when he that bade thee, cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee. For whosoever exalted himself, shall be abased; and he that humbled himself, shall be exalted.

The Gospel.

WHEN the Pharisees had heard that JESUS had put the Sadduces to silence, they were gathered together. Then one of them, who was a lawyer, asked Him a question, tempting Him, and saying, Master, which is the great commandment in the law? JESUS said unto him, Thou shalt love the LORD thy GOD with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.
 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. While the Pharisees were gathered together, JESUS asked them, saying, What think ye of CHRIST? whose son is He? They say unto Him, The Son of David. He saith unto them, How then doth David in Spirit call Him LORD, saying, The LORD said unto my LORD, Sit Thou on My right hand, till I make Thine enemies Thy footstool? If David then call Him LORD, how is He his Son? And no man was able to answer Him a word, neither durst any man (from that day forth) ask Him any more questions.

The Epistle.

Eph. iv. 17.

THIS I say therefore, and testify in the LORD, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk in the vanity of their mind ; having the understanding darkned, being alienated from the life of GOD through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their hearts : who being past feeling, have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. But ye have not so learned CHRIST : If so be that ye have heard Him, and have been taught by Him, as the truth is in JESUS : That ye put off concerning the former conversation, the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts ; and be renewed in the spirit of your mind ; and that ye put on the new man, which after GOD is created in righteousness and true holiness. Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour ; for we are members one of another. Be ye angry and sin not. Let not the sun go down upon your wrath : Neither give place to the devil. Let him that stole, steal no more ; but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. And grieve not the HOLY SPIRIT of GOD, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil-evil-speaking be put away from you, with all malice. And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as GOD for CHRISTs sake hath forgiven you.

The Gospel.

JESUS entred into a ship, and passed over, and came into His own city. And behold, they brought to Him a man sick of the palsey, lying on a bed. And JESUS seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the palsey, Son, be of good cheer, thy sins be forgiven thee. And behold, certain of the Scribes said within themselves, This Man blasphemeth. And JESUS knowing their thoughts, said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? For whether is easier to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee? or to say, Arise, and walk? But that ye may know that the SON OF MAN hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith He to the sick of the palsey) Arise, take up thy bed, and go into thine house. And he arose, and departed to his house. But when the multitude saw it, they marvelled, and glorified GOD, who had given such power unto men.

S. Matth.

JESUS said, The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, who made a marriage for his son; and sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding; and they would not come. Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them who are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready, come unto the marriage. But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise: And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them. But when the king heard thereof he was wroth; and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burnt up their city. Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they who were bidden were not worthy. Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find bid to the marriage. So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good; and the wedding was furnished with guests. And when the king came to see the guests, he saw there a man who had not on a wedding garment. And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having a wedding garment? The Epistle.

MY brethren, be strong in the LORD, and in the power of His might. Put on the whole armour of GOD, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of GOD, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breast-plate of righteousness; and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace: Above all taking the shield of faith, whereby ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the SPIRIT, which is the word of GOD: Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the SPIRIT, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints; and for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel; for which I am an ambassador in bonds, that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

S. Joh. iv.

THERE was a certain noble man, whose son was sick at Capernaum. When he heard that JESUS was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto Him, and besought Him, that He would come down, and heal his son; for he was at the point of death. Then said JESUS unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe. The noble man saith unto Him, Sir, come down ere my child die. JESUS saith unto him, Go thy way, thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that JESUS had spoken unto him, and he went his way. And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth. Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend: And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which JESUS said unto him, Thy son liveth; and himself believed, and his whole house. This is again the second miracle that JESUS did when He was come out of Judea into Galilee.

The Epistle.

Phil. i. 3.

I THANK my GOD upon every remembrance of you, (always in every prayer of mine for you all, making request with joy) for your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now; being confident of this very thing, that He Who hath begun a good ood work in you, will perform it until the day of JESUS CHRIST; even as it is meet for me to think of you all, because I have you in my heart, inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel ye all are partakers of my grace. For GOD is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST. And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all judgment: that ye may approve things that are excellent, that ye may be sincere, and without offence till the day of CHRIST: Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by JESUS CHRIST, unto the glory and praise of GOD.

The Gospel.

PETER said unto JESUS, LORD, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? JESUS saith unto him, I say not unto thee, until seven times; but until seventy times seven. Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, who would take account of his servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, who ought him ten thousand talents. But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. The servant therefore fell down and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt. But the same servant went out and found one of his fellow-servants, who ought him an hundred pence; and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest. And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

all. And he would not; but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done. Then his lord after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me: Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee? And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormenters, till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall My heavenly FATHER do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

Phil. iii. 17.

BRETHREN, be followers together of me, and mark them who walk so, as ye have us for an ensample. (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of CHRIST; whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.) THEN went the Pharisees and took counsel how they might intangle Him in His talk. And they sent out unto Him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that Thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest Thou for any man: for Thou regardest not the person of men. Tell us therefore, What thinkest Thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cesar, or not? But JESUS perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye Me, ye hypocrites? Shew Me the tribute-mony. And they brought unto Him a penny. And He saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? They say unto Him, Cefars. Then saith He unto them, Render therefore unto Cesar, the things which are Cefars; and unto GOD, the things that are GODS. When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left Him, and went their way.

truth of the Gospel; which is come unto you, as it is in all the world, and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of GOD in truth. As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of CHRIST; who also declared unto us your love in the SPIRIT. For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding. That ye might walk worthy of the LORD unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of GOD; strengthened with all might, according to His glorious power, unto all patience and long-suffering, with joyfulness; giving thanks unto the FATHER, Who hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light.

The Gospel.

18.

WHILE JESUS spake these things unto Johns disciples, behold, there came a certain ruler and worshipped Him, saying, My daughter is even now dead; but come and lay Thy hand upon her, and she shall live. (And JESUS arose, and followed him, and so did His disciples. And behold, a woman who was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind Him, and touched the hem of His garment: For she said within her self, If I may but touch His garment, I shall be whole. But JESUS turned Him about, and when He saw her, He said, Daughter, be of good comfort, thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.) And when JESUS came into the rulers house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise, He said unto them, Give place; for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed Him to scorn. But when the people

people were put forth, He went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose. And the fame thereof went abroad into all that land.

For the Epistle.

BEHOLD, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign, and prosper, and shall execute judgement and justice in the earth. In His days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is His Name whereby He shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNES. Therefore behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth Who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt: but the LORD liveth, Who brought up, and Who led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north-countray, and from all countreys whither I had driven them, and they shall dwell in their own land.

WHEN JESUS then lift up His eyes, and saw a great company come unto Him, He saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread that these may eat? (And this He said to prove him: for He Himself knew what He would do.) Philip answered Him, Two hundred peny-worth of bread not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little. One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother, saith unto Him, There is a lad lad here, who hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes; but what are they among so many? And JESUS said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. And JESUS took the loaves, and when He had given thanks, He distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down, and likewise of the fishes, as much as they would. When they were filled, He said unto His disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten. Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that JESUS did, said, This is of a truth that Prophet that should come into the world.

Saint Andrews Day.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY GOD, Who didst give such grace unto Thy holy Apostle Saint Andrew, that he readily obeyed the calling of Thy SON JESUS CHRIST, and followed Him without delay; Grant unto us all, that we being called by Thy holy word, may forthwith give up our selves obediently to fulfil Thy Holy Commandments, through the same JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

Rom. x. 9.

IF thou shalt confess with thy mouth the LORD JESUS, and shalt believe in thine heart, that God

God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made into salvation. For the Scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on Him shall not be ashamed. For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same LORD over all is rich unto all that call upon Him. For whosoever shall call upon the Name of the LORD shall be saved. How then shall they call on Him in Whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of Whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the Gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! But they have not all obeyed the Gospel. For Esaias saith, LORD, who hath believed our report? So then, faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you. But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought Me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after Me. But to Israel He saith, All day long I have stretched forth My hands unto a disobedient and gain-saying people.

JESUS walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea (for they were fishers.) And He saith unto them, Follow Me; and I will make you fishers of men. And they straightway left their nets, and followed Him. And going Saint Thomas the Apostle.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, Who for the more confirmation of the faith didst suffer Thy holy Apostle Thomas to be doubtful in Thy SONS resurrection; Grant us so perfectly, and without all doubt to believe in Thy SON JESUS CHRIST, that our faith in Thy fight may never be reprov'd. Hear us, O LORD, through the same JESUS CHRIST, to Whom with Thee and the HOLY GHOST, be all honour and glory now and for evermore. Amen.

The Epistle.

Eph. ii. 19.

NOW therefore ye are no more strangers and foreiners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of GOD; and are built upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, JESUS CHRIST Himself being the chief Corner-stone; in Whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the LORD; in Whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of GOD through the SPIRIT.

THOMAS, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when JESUS came. The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the LORD. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into His side, I will not believe. And after eight eight days again His disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came JESUS, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. Then saith He to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold My hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into My side, and be not faithless, but believing. And Thomas answered and said unto Him, My LORD, and my GOD. JESUS saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen Me, thou hast believed; blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed. And many other signs truly did JESUS in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written that ye might believe that JESUS is the CHRIST, the SON OF GOD; and that believing ye might have life through His Name.

The Conversion of Saint Paul.

The Collect.

O GOD, Who through the preaching of the blessed Apostle Saint Paul hast caused the light of the Gospel to shine throughout the world; mercifully, we beseech Thee, that we having his wonderful conversion in remembrance, may shew forth our thankfulness unto Thee for the same, by following the holy doctrine which he taught, through JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

AND Saul yet breathing out threatnings and slaughter against the disciples of the LORD, went unto the high priest, and desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem. And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus, and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven. And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou Me

 And he said, Who art Thou, LORD? And the LORD said, I am JESUS Whom thou persecutest:
 it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. And he trembling and astonished, said, LORD, what wilt Thou have me to do? And the LORD said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing voice, but seeing no man. And Saul arose from the earth, and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man; but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.
 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus named Ananias, and to him said the LORD in vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, LORD. And the LORD said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth, and hath seen in vision a man named Ananias, coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight. Then Ananias answered, LORD, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to Thy saints at Jerusalem; and here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind that call on Thy name. But the LORD said unto him, Go thy way; for he is a chosen vessel unto Me, to bear My Name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel. For I will show him how great things he must suffer for My Name sake. And Ananias went his way, and entered in the house; and putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the LORD (even JESUS That appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest) hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the HOLY GHOST. And immediately the fell from his eyes as it had been scales; and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized. And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus. And straightway he preached CHRIST in the synagogues, that He is the SON OF GOD. But all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this Name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests? But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that This is very CHRIST.

The Gospel.

PETER answered and said unto JESUS, Behold, we have forsaken all and followed Thee, what shall we have therefore? And JESUS said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ye which have followed Me in the regeneration when the SON OF MAN shall sit in the throne of His glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands for My Names sake shall receive an hundred fold, and shall inherit everlasting life. But many that are first shall be last, and the last shall be first.

Mal. iii. 1.

BEHOLD, I will send My Messenger, and He shall prepare the way before Me: and the LORD Whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to His temple; even the Messenger of the covenant, Whom ye delight in; behold, He shall come, saith the LORD of hosts. But who may abide the day of His coming? and who shall stand when He appeareth? for He is like a refiners fire, and like fullers sope. And He shall sit as a Refiner and Purifier of silver; and He shall purifie the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness. Then shall the offerings of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years. And I will come near to you to judgement, and I will be a swift Witness against the forcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not Me, saith the LORD of hosts.

S Luke

AND when the days of her purification, according to the law of Moses, were accomplished, they brought Him to Jerusalem to present Him to the LORD (as it is written in the law of the LORD, Every male that openeth the womb, shall be called holy to the LORD.) And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the LORD, A pair of turtle-doves, or two young pigeons. And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Symeon; and the same man was just and devout, evout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and he HOLY GHOST was upon him. And it was revealed unto him by the HOLY GHOST, that he should not see death, before he had seen the LORDS CHRIST. And he came by the SPIRIT into the temple, and when the parents brought in the Child JESUS, to do for Him after the custom of the law, then took he Him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said, LORD, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace, according to Thy word. For mine eyes have seen Thy salvation; which Thou hast prepared before the face of all people, a light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of Thy people Israel. And Joseph and His mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of Him. And Symeon blessed them, and said unto Mary His mother, Behold, this Child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against, (Yea sword shall pierce through thy own soul also) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed. And there was one Anna a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser; she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity. And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years; which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day. And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the LORD, and spake of Him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem. And when they had performed all things according to the law of the LORD, they returned into Galilee to their own city Nazareth. And the Child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon Him.

O ALMIGHTY God, Who into the place of the traitor Judas didst choose Thy faithful servant Matthias to be of the number of the twelve Apostles; Grant that Thy Church being always preserved from false Apostles, may be ordered and guided by faithful and true pastors, through JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

For the Epistle.

Acts i. 15.

IN those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (The number of the names together, were about an hundred and twenty) Men and brethren, this Scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the HOLY GHOST by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took JESUS: for he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry. Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity, and falling head-long he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out. And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem, insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood. For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein; and his bishoprick let another take. Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the LORD JESUS went in and out among us; beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that He was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of His resurrection. And they appointed two, Joseph called Barabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. And they prayed, and said, Thou LORD, Which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two Thou hast chosen; that he he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place. And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven Apostles.

The Gospel.

AT that time JESUS answered and said, I thank Thee, O FATHER, LORD of heaven and earth, because Thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. Even so, FATHER, for so it seemed good in Thy sight. All things are delivered unto Me of My FATHER: and no man knoweth the SON but the FATHER; neither knoweth any man the FATHER save the SON, and he to whomsoever the SON will reveal Him. Come unto Me all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you, and learn of Me, for I am meek and lowly in heart, and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For My yoke is easie, and My burden is light.

S. Luke i.

AND in the sixth month the Angel Gabriel was sent from GOD unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to a Virgin espoused to a man, whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the Virgins name was Mary. And the Angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the LORD is with thee; blessed art thou among women. And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. And the Angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary; for thou hast found favour with GOD. And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a Son, and shalt call His Name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the SON of the Highest; and the LORD GOD shall give unto Him the throne of His father David. And He shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of His kingdom there shall be no end. Then said Mary unto the Angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? And the Angel answered and said unto her, The HOLY GHOST shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that Holy Thing which shall be born of thee, shall be called the SON OF GOD. And behold, thy cousin Elizabeth she hath also conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren. For with GOD nothing shall be impossible. And Mary said, Behold the hand-maid of the LORD; be it unto me according to thy word. And the Angel departed from her.

O ALMIGHTY GOD, Who hast instructed Thy holy Church with the heavenly doctrine of Thy Evangelist saint Mark; Give us grace, that being not like children carried away with every blast of vain doctrine, we may be established in the truth of Thy holy Gospel, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

UNTO every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of CHRIST. Wherefore he saith, When He ascended up on high, He led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. (Now that He ascended, what is it but that He also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that He might fill all things.) And He gave some apostles, and some prophets, and some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of CHRIST; till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the SON OF GOD, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of CHRIST; that we henceforth be no more children tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; but speaking the truth in love, may grow up into Him in all things, Which is the head, even CHRIST. From Whom the whole body fitly joyned together, and compacted by that which every joynt supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body, unto the edifying of it self in love.

I AM the true Vine, and My FATHER is the Husbandman. Every branch in Me that beareth not fruit, He taketh away; and every branch that beareth fruit, He purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of it self, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in Me. I am the Vine, ye are the branches. He that abideth in Me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit; for without Me ye can do nothing. If a man abide not in Me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. If ye abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. Herein is My FATHER glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be My disciples. As the FATHER hath loved Me, so have I loved you; continue ye in My love. If ye keep My commandments, ye shall abide in My love; even as I have kept My FATHERS commandments, and abide in His love. These things have I spoken unto you, that My joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

The Epistle.

JAMES a servant of GOD, and of the LORD JESUS CHRIST, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting. My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of GOD, That giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not, and it shall be given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering; for he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea, driven with the wind, and tossed. For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the LORD. A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways. Let the brother of low degree rejoyce in that he is exalted; but the rich in that he is made low, because as the flower of the grafs he shall pass away. For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grafs, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways. Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he is tryed, he shall receive the crown of life, which the LORD hath promised to them that love Him.

can we know the way? JESUS saith unto him, I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life; no man cometh unto the FATHER but by Me. If ye had known Me, ye should have known My FATHER also: and from henceforth ye know Him, and have seen Him. Philip saith unto Him, LORD, shew us the FATHER, and it sufficeth us. JESUS saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known Me, Philip? He that hath seen Me, hath seen the FATHER; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the FATHER? Believest thou not that I am in the FATHER, and the FATHER in Me? the words that I speak unto you, I speak not of My Self; but the FATHER That dwelleth in Me, He doth the works. Believe Me, that I am in the FATHER, and the FATHER in Me; or else believe Me for the very works sake. Verily, verily I say unto you, He that believeth on Me, the works that I do, shall he do also, and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto My FATHER. And whatsoever ye shall ask in My Name, that will I do, that the FATHER may be glorified in the SON. If ye shall ask any thing in My Name, I will do it.

Acts xi 22

TIDINGS of these things came unto the ears of the Church which was in Jerusalem; and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.

Antioch. Who when he came, and had seen the face of GOD, was glad, and exhorted them all that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the LORD. For he was a good man, and full of the HOLY GHOST, and of faith; and much people was added unto the LORD. Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus for to seek Saul. And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the Church, and taught much people; and the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.
 And in those days came prophets from Jerusalem into Antioch. And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the SPIRIT, that here should be a great dearth throughout all the world; which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar. Then the disciples, every man according to his ability determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea. Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

The Gospel.

THIS is My commandment, that ye love one another, as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye are My friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of My FATHER, I have made known unto you. Ye have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatsoever ye shall ask of the FATHER in My Name, He may give it you.

ELIZABETHS full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son. And her neighbours and her kinsfolk heard how the LORD had shewed great mercy upon her, and they rejoiced with her. And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father. And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John. And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name. And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called. And he asked for a writing-table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all. And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake and praised God. And fear came on all that dwelt round about them; and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill-country of Judea. And all they that had heard them, laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be? And the hand of the LORD was with him. And his father Zacharias was filled with the HOLY GHOST, and prophesied, saying, Blessed be the LORD GOD of Israel, for He hath visited and redeemed His people, and hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David; as He spake by the mouth of His holy prophets, which have been since the world began; that we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember His holy covenant; the oath which He swore to our father Abraham, that He would grant unto us, that we, being delivered out of the hands of our enemies, might serve Him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before Him all the days of our life. And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest; for thou shalt go before the face of the LORD to prepare His ways; to give knowledge of salvation unto His people by the remission of their sins, through the tender mercy of our God, whereby the Day-spring from on high hath visited us; to give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace. And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit; and was in the desert till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

WHEN JESUS came into the coasts of Cesarea
 Philippi, He asked His disciples, saying,
 Whom do men say, that I, the SON OF MAN, am?
 And they said, Some say that Thou art John the the prophets. He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art CHRIST, the SON of the living God.

And I say also unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build My Church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

chap. xii.

IN those days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch. And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the SPIRIT, that there should be great dearth throughout all the world; which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar. Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea. Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul. Now about that time, Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the Church. And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also.

The Gospel.

THEN came to Him the mother of Zebedees children, with her sons worshipping Him, and desiring a certain thing of Him. And He said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto Him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on Thy right hand, and the other on the left, in Thy kingdom. But JESUS answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto Him, We are able. And He saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of My cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on My right hand, and on My left, is not Mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of My FATHER. And when the ten heard this, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren. But JESUS called them unto Him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great, exercise authority upon them. But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; and whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant: Even as the SON OF MAN came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give His life ransom for many.

But ye ſhall not be ſo: but he that is greateſt among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth ſerve. WHEREFORE seeing we have this ministry, 2 Cor. iv. 1.
 as we have received mercy we faint not; but we have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of GOD deceitfully, but by manifestation of the truth, commending our selves to every mans conscience in the sight of GOD. But if our Gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the GOD of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious Gospel of CHRIST, Who is the image of GOD, should shine to them. For we preach not our selves, but CHRIST JESUS the LORD; and our selves your servants for JESUS sake. For GOD Who commanded light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of GOD, in the face of JESUS CHRIST.

Saint Michael and all Angels.

The Collect.

O EVERLASTING GOD, Who hast ordain'd and constituted the services of Angels and men in a wonderful order; Mercifully grant, that as Thy holy Angels always do Thee service in heaven; so by Thy appointment they may succour and defend us on earth, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

Rev. xii. 7.

THERE was war in heaven: Michael and his Angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon fought and his angels; and prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the devil and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world; he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our GOD, and the power of His CHRIST: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our GOD day and night. And they overcame him by the blood of the LAMB, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. Therefore rejoyce, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Wo to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

S. Mat.

AT the same time came the disciples unto JESUS saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven? And JESUS called a little child unto Him

Him, and fet him in the midst of them, and said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little child in My Name, receiveth Me. But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in Me, it were better for him that a mil-stone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea. Wo unto the world, because of offences; for it must needs be that offences come; but wo to that man by whom the offence cometh. Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire. And if thine eye offend thee pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire. Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of My FATHER Which is in heaven.

proof of thy ministry. For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the LORD the righteous Judge shall give me at that day: and not to me onely, but unto all them also that love His appearing. Doe thy diligence to come shortly unto me: for Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia. Only Luke is with me. Take Mark and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry. And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus. The cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments. Go your wayes, behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves. Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes, and salute no man by the way. And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house. And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again. The Epistle.

JUDE the servant of JESUS CHRIST, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by GOD the FATHER, and preserved in JESUS CHRIST, and called: Mercy unto you, and peace, and love be multiplied. Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you, that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation; ungodly men, turning the grace of our GOD into lasciviousness, and denying the onely LORD GOD, and our LORD JESUS CHRIST. I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the LORD having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgement of the great day. Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

THESSE things I' command you, that ye love one another. If the world hate you, ye know that it hated Me, before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than the Lord: if they have persecuted Me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept My saying, they will keep yours also. But all these things will they do unto you for My Names sake, because they know not Him That sent Me. If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin. He that hateth Me, hateth My FATHER also. If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin; but now have they both seen, and hated both Me and My FATHER. But this cometh to pass that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated Me without a cause. But when the COMFORTER is come, Whom I will send unto you from the FATHER, even the SPIRIT of Truth, Which proceedeth from the FATHER, He shall testifie of Me. And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with Me from the beginning.

AND I saw another Angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God; and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth, and the sea, saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads. And I heard the number of them which were sealed; and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand, of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand.

Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand.

Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

Of the tribe of Nephthali were sealed twelve thousand.

After this I beheld, and lo, a great multitude which no man could number, of all nations, and kinds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, robes, and palms in their hands : And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God, Which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. And all the Angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders, and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, saying, Amen ; Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might be unto our GOD for ever and ever. v. 1.

JESUS seeing the multitudes, went up into a mountain ; and when He was set, His disciples came unto Him. And He opened His mouth, and taught them, saying, Blessed are the poor in spirit : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they that mourn : for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek : for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness : for they shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful : for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart : for they shall see God. Blessed are the peace-makers : for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness sake : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely for My sake. Rejoyce and be exceeding glad ; for great is your reward in heaven : for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

The Order

For the Administration of the LORDS Supper, or Holy Communion.

¶ So many as intend to be partakers of the holy Communion shall signifie their names to the Curate at least sometime the day before.

¶ And if any of those be an open and notorious evil liver, or have done any wrong to his neighbours by word or deed, so that the Congregation be thereby offended; the Curate having knowledge thereof, shall call him and advertise him, that in any wise he presume not to come to the LORDS table, until he hath openly declared himself to have truly repented and amended his former naughty life, that the Congregation may thereby be satisfied, which before were offended; and that he hath recompensed the parties to whom he hath done wrong, or at least declare himself to be in full purpose so to do, as soon as he conveniently may.

¶ The same order shall the Curate use with those betwixt whom he perceiveth malice and hatred to reign; not suffering them to be partakers of the LORDS Table, until he know them to be reconciled. And if one of the parties so at variance be content to forgive from the bottom of his heart all that the other hath trespassed against him, and to make amends for that he himself hath offended; and the other party will not be perswaded to a godly unity, but remain still in his frowardness and malice: the Minister in that case ought to admit the penitent person to the Holy Communion, and not him that is obstinate. Provided that every Minister so repelling any, as is specified in this, or the next precedent Paragraph of this Rubrick, shall be obliged to give an account of the same to the Ordinary within fourteen days after at the farthest. And the Ordinary shall proceed against the offending person according to the Canon.

¶ The Table at the Communion-time having a fair white linen cloth upon it, shall stand in the body of the Church, or in the Chancel, where Morning and Evening Prayer are appointed to be said. And the Priest standing at the north side of the Table shall say the LORDS Prayer, with the Collect following, the people kneeling.

OUR FATHER Which art in heaven; Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespases, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Amen.

Then shall the Priest, turning to the people, rehearse distinctly all the TEN COMMANDMENTS; and the people still kneeling, shall after every Commandment ask God mercy for their transgression thereof for the time past, and grace to keep the same for the time to come, as followeth.

People.

LORD, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, we are taught by Thy holy Word, that the hearts of kings are in Thy rule and governance, and that Thou dost dispose and turn them as it seemeth best o Thy godly wisdom; We humbly beseech Thee o to dispose and govern the heart of CHARLES Thy servant, our King and Governour, that in all is thoughts, words and works, he may ever seek Thy honour and glory, and study to preserve Thy eople committed to his charge, in wealth, peace nd godliness. Grant this, O merciful FATHER, for Thy dear SONS sake JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ Then shall be said the Collect of the day. And immediately after the Collect the Priest shall read the Epistle, saying, The Epistle [or, The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle] is written in the — Chapter of — beginning at the — verse. And the Epistle ended, he shall say, Here endeth the Epistle. Then shall he read the Gospel (the people all standing up) saying, The holy Gospel is written in the — Chapter of — beginning at the — verse. And the Gospel ended, shall be sung or said the Creed following, the people still standing, as before.

IBELIEVE in One God the FATHER ALMIGHTY, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible:

He suffered and was buried, And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures, And ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of the FATHER. And He shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead: Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the HOLY GHOST, the LORD and Giver of life, Who proceedeth from the FATHER and the SON, Who with the FATHER and the SON together is worshipped and glorified, Who spake by the prophets. And I believe one Catholick and Apostolick Church. I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, And I look for the Resurrection of the dead, And the life of the world to come. Amen.

And then also (if occasion be) shall notice be given of the Communion; and the bans of Matrimony published; and Briefs, Citations and Excommunications read. And nothing shall be proclaimed or published in the Church during the time of Divine Service, but by the Minister. Nor by him any thing, but what is prescribed in the Rubric of this Book, or enjoyned by the King, or by the Ordinarie of the place.

¶ Then shall follow the Sermon, or one of the Homilies already set forth, or hereafter to be set forth by Authority.

¶ Then shall the Priest return to the LORDS Table, and begin the Offertory, saying one or more of these Sentences following, as he thinketh most convenient in his discretion.

The Communion.

And when there is a Communion, the Priest shall then place upon the Table so much Bread and Wine, as he shall think sufficient. After which done the Priest shall say,

Let us pray for the whole state of CHRIST'S Church militant here in earth.

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, Who by Thy holy Apostle hast taught us to make prayers and supplications, and to give thanks for all men ; We humbly beseech Thee most mercifully [to accept our alms and oblations, and] to receive these our prayers, which we offer unto Thy Divine Majesty, beseeching Thee to inspire continually the universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord : and grant that all they that do confess Thy holy Name, may agree in the truth of Thy holy word, and live in unity and godly love. We beseech Thee also to save and defend all Christian kings, princes and governours ; and specially Thy servant CHARLES our King, that under him we may be godly and quietly governed : and grant unto his whole Council, and to all that are put in authority under him, that they may truly and indifferently minister justice, to the punishment of wickedness and vice, and to the maintenance of Thy true religion and vertue. Give grace, O heavenly FATHER, to all Bishops, and Curates, that they may both by their life and doctrine set forth Thy true and lively word, and rightly and duly administer Thy holy Sacraments : And to all Thy people give Thy heavenly grace ; and especially to this congregation here present, that with meek heart and due reverence they may hear and receive Thy holy word, truly serving Thee in holiness and righteousness all the dayes of their life. And we most humbly beseech Thee of Thy goodness, O LORD, to comfort and succour all them, who in this transitory life are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity. And we also bless

If there be no alms or oblations, then shall the words [of accepting our alms and oblations] be left out unsaid.

The Communion.

Thy holy Name, for all Thy servants departed this life in Thy faith and fear; beseeching Thee to give us grace so to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of Thy heavenly kingdom. Grant this, O FATHER, for JESUS CHRISTs sake our only Mediatour and Advocate. Amen.

¶ When the Minister giveth warning for the celebration of the holy Communion, (which he shall alwayes do upon the Sunday or some holy-day immediately preceding) After the Sermon, or Homily ended, he shall read this exhortation following.

DEARLY beloved, on ——— day next I purpose, through GODS assistance to administer to all such as shall be religiously and devoutly disposed, the most comfortable Sacrament of the Body and Bloud of CHRIST, to be by them received in remembrance of His meritorious Cross and Passion, whereby alone we obtain remission of our sins, and are made partakers of the kingdom of heaven. Wherefore it is our duty to render most humble and hearty thanks to ALMIGHTY GOD our heavenly FATHER, for that He hath given His SON our SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, not onely to die for us but also to be our spiritual food and sustenance in that holy Sacrament. Which being so divine and comfortable a thing to them who receive it worthily, and so dangerous to them that will presume to receive it unworthily; my duty is to exhort you in the mean season to consider the dignity of this holy mystery, and the great peril of the unworthily receiving thereof, and so to search and examine your owne consciences, (and that not lightly, and after the manner of dissemblers with GOD; but so that ye may come holy and clean to such a heavenly feast, in the marriage-garment required by GOD in holy Scripture, and be received as worthy partakers of that holy Table.

The way and means thereto is: First, to examine your lives and conversations by the rule of Gods commandments; and wherein soever ye shall receive your selves to have offended, either by will, word, or deed, there to bewail your own sinfulness, and to confess your selves to ALMIGHTY GOD, with all purpose of amendment of life. And if ye shall receive your offences to be such as are not onely against GOD, but also against your neighbours, then ye shall reconcile your selves unto them, being ready to make restitution and satisfaction according to the uttermost of your powers, for all injuries and wrongs done by you to any other; and being likewise ready to forgive others that have offended you, as ye would have forgiveness of your offences at Gods hand: for otherwise the receiving of the holy Communion doth nothing else but increase your damnation. Therefore if any of you be a blasphemer of GOD, an hinderer or slanderer of His Word, an adulterer, or be in malice, or envie, or in any other grievous crime; Repent you of your sins, or else come not to that holy Table, lest after the taking of that holy Sacrament, the devil enter into you, as he entred into Judas, and fill you full of all iniquities, and bring you to destruction both of body and soul.

And because it is requisite, that no man should come to the holy Communion, but with a full trust in Gods mercy, and with a quiet conscience; therefore if there be any of you, who by this means cannot quiet his own conscience herein, but requireth further comfort or counsel; let him come to me, or to some other discreet and learned Minister of Gods word, and open his grief, that by the ministry of Gods holy word he may receive the benefit of absolution, together with ghostly counsel and advice, to the quieting of his conscience, and avoiding of all scruple and doubtfulness.

¶ Or

¶ Or in case he shall see the people negligent to come to the holy Communion, in stead of the former, he shall use this exhortation.

DEARLY beloved brethren, on ——— I intend, by Gods grace, to celebrate the LORDS Supper: unto which in GODS behalf I bid you all that are here present, and beseech you for the LORD JESUS CHRISTS sake, that ye will not refuse to come there, being so lovingly called and bidden by GOD Himself. Ye know how grievous and unkind a thing it is, when a man hath prepared a rich feast, decked his table with all kind of provision, so that there lacketh nothing but the guests to sit down, and yet they who are called (without any cause) most unthankfully refuse to come. Which of you in such a case would not be moved? Who would not think a great injury and wrong done unto him? Wherefore, most dearly beloved in CHRIST, take ye good heed, lest ye withdrawing your selves from this holy Supper, provoke GODS indignation against you. It is an easie matter for a man to say, I will not communicate, because I am otherwise hindred with worldly businests. But such excuses are not so easily accepted and allowed before GOD. If any man say, I am a grievous sinner, and therefore am afraid to come: wherefore then do ye not repent and amend? When GOD calleth you, are ye not ashamed to say you will not come? When ye should return to GOD, will ye excuse your selves, and say ye are not ready? Consider earnestly with your selves, how little such feigned excuses will avail before GOD. They that refused the feast in the Gospel, because they had bought a farm, or would try their yokes of oxen, or because they were married, were not so excused, but counted unworthy of the heavenly feast. I for my part shall be ready, and according to mine office, I bid you in the Name of GOD, I call you in CHRISTS behalf, behalf, I exhort you, as you love your own salvation, that ye will be partakers of this holy Communion. And as the SON OF GOD did vouchsafe to yield up His soul by death upon the Cross for your salvation: so it is your duty to receive the Communion, in remembrance of the sacrifice of His death, as He Himself hath commanded: Which if ye shall neglect to do, consider with your selves how great injury ye do unto GOD, and how sore punishment hangeth over your heads for the same; when ye wilfully abstain from the LORDS Table, and separate from your brethren, who come to feed on the banquet of that most heavenly food. These things if ye earnestly consider, ye will by GODS grace return to a better mind: for the obtaining whereof we shall not cease to make our humble petitions unto ALMIGHTY GOD our heavenly FATHER.

At the time of the Celebration of the Communion the Communicants being conveniently placed for the receiving of the holy Sacrament, the Priest shall say this exhortation.

DEARLY beloved in the LORD, ye that mind to come to the holy Communion of the body and blood of our SAVIOUR CHRIST, must consider how Saint Paul exhorteth all persons diligently to try and examine themselves, before they presume to eat of that Bread, and drink of that Cup. For as the benefit is great, if with a true penitent heart and lively faith we receive that holy Sacrament (for then we spiritually eat the flesh of CHRIST, and drink His blood; then we dwell in CHRIST, and CHRIST in us; we are one with CHRIST, and CHRIST with us:) So is the danger great, if we receive the same unworthily. For then we are guilty of the body and blood of CHRIST our SAVIOUR; we eat and drink our own damnation, not considering the LORDS body; we kindle GODS wrath against us; we provoke Him to plague us with divers diseases, and sundry kinds of death. Judge therefore your selves, brethren,

brethren, that ye be not judged of the LORD; repent you truly for your sins past; have a lively and stedfast faith in CHRIST our SAVIOUR; amen your lives, and be in perfect charity with all men so shall ye be meet partakers of those holy mysteries. And above all things ye must give most humble and hearty thanks to GOD the FATHER, the SON, and the HOLY GHOST, for the redemption of the world by the death and passion of our SAVIOUR CHRIST, both GOD and Man, Who did humble Himself even to the death upon the Cross, for us miserable sinners who lay in darkness and the shadow of death, that He might make us the children of GOD, and exalt us to everlasting life. And to the end that we should always remember the exceeding great love of our Master, and onely SAVIOUR, JESUS CHRIST, thus dying for us, and the innumerable benefits which by His precious blood-shedding He hath obtained to us; He hath instituted and ordained holy mysteries, as pledges of His love, and for a continual remembrance of His death, to our great and endless comfort. To Him therefore with the FATHER and the HOLY GHOST, let us give (as we are most bounden) continual thanks, submitting our selves wholly to His holy will and pleasure, and studying to serve Him in true holiness and righteousness all the dayes of our life. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest say to them that come to receive the holy Communion, YE that do truly and earnestly repent you of your sins, and are in love and charity with your neighbours, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of GOD, and walking from henceforth in His holy wayes; Draw near with faith, and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort; and make your humble confession to ALMIGHTY GOD, meekly kneeling upon your knees.

¶ Ther

¶ Then shall this general confession be made, in the name of all those that are minded to receive the holy Communion, by one of the Ministers, both he and all the people kneeling humbly upon their knees, and saying,

ALMIGHTY GOD, FATHER of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, Maker of all things, Judge of all men; We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, Which we from time to time most grievously have committed, By thought, word, and deed, Against Thy divine Majesty, Provoking most justly Thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, And are heartily sorry for these our misdoings, The remembrance of them is grievous unto us; The burthen of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, Have mercy upon us, most merciful FATHER; For Thy SON our LORD JESUS CHRISTs sake, Forgive us all that is past, And grant that we may ever hereafter Serve and please Thee In newness of life, To the honour and glory of Thy Name, Through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest (or the Bishop being present) stand up, and turning himself to the people, pronounce this absolution.

ALMIGHTY GOD our heavenly FATHER, Who of His great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all them that with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto Him; Have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

Hear what comfortable words our SAVIOUR CHRIST saith unto all that truly turn to Him.

COME unto Me all that travel and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you.

So GOD loved the world, that He gave His onely

¶ After which the Priest shall proceed, saying,

Lift up your hearts.

Answer.

We lift them up unto the LORD.

Priest.

Let us give thanks unto our LORD GOD.

Answer.

It is meet and right so to do.

¶ Then shall the Priest turn to the LORDS Table, and say,

IT is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places give thanks unto Thee, O LORD, holy FATHER, ALMIGHTY, everlasting GOD.

These words

¶ After each of which Prefaces, shall immediately be sung or said,

THEREFORE with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of Heaven, we laud and magnifie Thy glorious Name, evermore praising Thee, and saying, HOLY, HOLY, HOLY, LORD GOD of Hosts, Heaven and earth are full of Thy glory. Glory be to Thee, O LORD, MOST HIGH. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest kneeling down at the LORDS Table say in the name of all them that shall receive the Communion, this prayer following.

WE do not presume to come to this Thy Table, O merciful LORD, trusting in our own righteousness, but in Thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under Thy Table. But Thou art the same LORD, Whose property is alwayes to have mercy; Grant us therefore, gracious LORD, so to eat the flesh of Thy dear SON JESUS CHRIST, and to drink His blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by His body, and our souls washed through His most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in Him, and He in us. Amen.

¶ When the Priest, standing before the Table, hath so ordered the Bread and Wine, that he may with the more readinesse and decency break the Bread before the people, and take the Cup into his hands, he shall say the Prayer of Consecration, as followeth.

ALmighty GOD, our heavenly FATHER, Who of Thy tender mercy didst give Thine onely SON JESUS CHRIST to suffer death upon the crosse for our

our redemption, Who made there (by His one oblation of Himself once offered) a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation and satisfaction for the sins of the whole world, and did institute, and in His holy Gospel command us to continue a perpetual memory of that His precious death, until His coming again; Hear us, O merciful FATHER, we most humbly beseech Thee, and grant that we receiving these Thy creatures of bread and wine, according to Thy SON our SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST'S holy institution, in remembrance of His death and passion, may be partakers of His most blessed body and blood: Who in the same night that He was betrayed (a) took bread, and when He had given thanks, (b) He brake it, and gave it to His disciples, saying, Take, eat, (c) this is My body which is given for you, do this in remembrance of Me. Likewise after Supper (d) He took the cup, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of this, for this (e) is My blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many for the remission of sins: Doe this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of Me. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister first receive the Communion in both kinds himself, and then proceed to deliver the same to the Bishops, Priests, and Deacons in like manner (if any be present) and after that to the people also in order, into their hands, all meekly kneeling. And when he delivereth the bread to any one, he shall say,

THE Body of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Take and eat this in remembrance that CHRIST died for thee, and feed on Him in thy heart by faith with thanksgiving.

¶ And the Minister that delivereth the cup to any one, shall say, unto everlasting life. Drink this in remembrance that CHRIST'S blood was shed for thee, and be thankful.

¶ If the consecrated bread or wine be all spent before all have Communicated; the Priest is to consecrate more according to the form before prescribed: Beginning at [Our SAVIOUR CHRIST in the same night, &c.] for the blessing of the bread; and at [Likewise after Supper, &c.] for the blessing of the cup.

¶ When all have communicated, the Minister shall return to the LORDS Table, and reverently place upon it what remaineth of the consecrated Elements, covering the same with a fair linen cloth.

¶ Then shall the Priest say the LORDS Prayer, the people repeating after him every Petition.

OUR FATHER Which art in heaven; Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation: But deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, The power and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

¶ After shall be said, as followeth.

O LORD and heavenly FATHER, we Thy humble servants entirely desire Thy Fatherly goodness, mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly beseeching Thee to grant, that by the merits and death of Thy SON JESUS CHRIST, and through faith in His blood, we and all Thy whole Church may obtain remission of our sins, and all other benefits of His passion. And here we offer and present unto Thee, O LORD, our selves, our souls and bodies to be a reasonable, holy, and lively sacrifice unto Thee; humbly beseeching Thee, that all we who are partakers of this holy Communion, may be fulfilled with Thy grace and heavenly benediction. And although we be unworthy through our manifold sins to offer unto Thee Thee any sacrifice; yet we beseech Thee to accept this our bounden duty and service; not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD; by Whom, and with Whom, in the unity of the HOLY GHOST, all honour and glory be unto Thee, O FATHER ALMIGHTY, world without end. Amen.

¶ Or this.

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, we most heartily thank Thee, for that Thou dost vouchsafe to feed us, who have duly received these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of Thy SON our SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST; and dost assure us thereby of Thy favour and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of Thy SON, which is the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs through hope of Thy everlasting kingdom, by the merits of the most precious death and passion of Thy dear SON. And we most humbly beseech Thee, O heavenly FATHER, to assist us with Thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as Thou hast prepared for us to walk in, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD, to Whom with Thee and the HOLY GHOST be all honour and glory world without end. Amen.

¶ Then shall be said or sung;

GLORY be to God on high, and in earth peace, and good will towards men. We praise Thee, we bless Thee, we worship Thee, we glorify Thee, we give thanks to Thee for Thy great glory, O LORD GOD, heavenly King, GOD the FATHER ALMIGHTY.

O LORD, the Onely begotten SON JESU CHRIST;
O LORD GOD, Lamb of GOD, SON of the FATHER,
That

That takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou, That takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou That takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou That fittest at the right hand of GOD the FATHER, have mercy upon us.

For Thou only art holy, Thou only art the LORD, Thou only, O CHRIST, with the HOLY GHOST, art most high in the glory of GOD the FATHER. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest (or Bishop if he be present) shall let them depart with this blessing.

THE peace of GOD which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of GOD, and of His SON JESUS CHRIST our LORD: And the blessing of GOD ALMIGHTY, the FATHER, the SON, and the HOLY GHOST, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

¶ Collects to be said after the Offertory, when there is no Communion, every such day one, or more; and the same may be said also, as often as occasion shall serve, after the Collects either of Morning or Evening Prayer, Communion, or Litany, by the discretion of the Minister.

ASSIST us mercifully, O LORD, in these our supplications and prayers, and dispose the way of Thy servants, towards the attainment of everlasting salvation; that among all the changes and chances of this mortal life, they may ever be defended by Thy most gracious and ready help, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

O ALMIGHTY LORD, and everlasting GOD, vouchsafe, we beseech Thee, to direct, sanctifie, and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of Thy laws, and in the works of Thy commandments, that through Thy most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved served in body and soul, through our LORD and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST. Amen.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, ALMIGHTY GOD, that the words which we have heard this day with our outward ears, may through Thy grace be so grafted inwardly in our hearts, that they may bring forth in us the fruit of good living, to the honour and praise of Thy Name, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

PREVENT us, O LORD, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help, that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy Name, and finally by Thy mercy obtain everlasting life, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, the Fountain of all wisdom, Who knowest our necessities before we ask, and our ignorance in asking; We beseech Thee to have compassion upon our infirmities; and those things which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask, vouchsafe to give us for the worthiness of Thy SON JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, Who hast promised to hear the petitions of them that ask in Thy SON'S Name; We beseech Thee mercifully to incline Thine ears to us that have made now our prayers and supplications unto Thee, and grant that those things which we have faithfully asked according to Thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the relief of our necessity, and to the setting forth of Thy glory, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

- ¶ Upon the Sundaies and other holy days (if there be no Communion) shall be said all that is appointed at the Communion, until the end of the general Prayer [For the whole state of CHRISTS Church Militant here in earth] together with one or more of these Collects last before rehearsed, concluding with the Blessing.
- ¶ And there shall be no celebration of the Lords Supper, except there be a convenient number to communicate with the Priest, according to his discretion.
- ¶ And if there be not above twenty persons in the Parish of discretion to receive the Communion; yet there shall be no Communion, except four (or three at the least) communicate with the Priest.
- ¶ And in Cathedral and Collegiate Churches and Colledges, where there are many Priests and Deacons, they shall all receive the Communion with the Priest every Sunday at the least, except they have a reasonable cause to the contrary.
- ¶ And to take away all occasion of dissension, and superstition, which any Person hath or might have concerning the Bread and Wine, it shall suffice that the Bread be such as is usual to be eaten; but the best and purest Wheat Bread that conveniently may be gotten.
- ¶ And if any of the Bread and Wine remain unconsecrated, the Curate shall have it to his own use: but if any remain of that which was consecrated, it shall not be carried out of the Church, but the Priest and such other of the Communicants as he shall then call unto him, shall immediately after the Blessing, reverently eat and drink the same.
- ¶ The Bread and Wine for the Communion shall be provided by the Curate and the Church-wardens, at the charges of the Parish.
- ¶ And note, that every Parishioner shall communicate at the least three times in the year, of which Easter to be one. And yearly at Easter every Parishioner shall reckon with the Parson, Vicar, or Curate; or his or their Deputy, or Deputies, and pay to them or him all Ecclesiastical duties, accustomedly due, then and at that time to be paid.
- ¶ After the Divine Service ended, the money given at the Offertory shall be disposed of to such pious and charitable uses, as the Minister and Church-wardens shall think fit. Wherein if they disagree, it shall be disposed of as the Ordinary shall appoint.

WHEREAS

WHEREAS it is ordained in this Office for the Administration of the Lords Supper, that the Communicants should receive the same Kneeling; (which Order is well meant, for a signification of our humble and grateful acknowledgement of the benefits of CHRIST herein given to all worthy Receivers, and for the avoiding of such profanation, and disorder in the holy Communion, as might otherwise ensue) Yet, lest the same Kneeling should by any persons, either out of ignorance and infirmity, or out of malice and obstinacy, be misconstrued and depraved; It is here declared, that thereby no Adoration is intended, or ought to be done, either unto the Sacramental bread or wine, there bodily received, or unto any Corporal Presence of CHRISTs natural Fleish, and Blood. For the Sacramental bread and wine remain still in their very Natural Substances, and therefore may not be adored, (for that were Idolatrie, to be abhorred of all faithful Christians) And the Natural body and blood of our SAVIOUR CHRIST are in Heaven, and not here; it being against the truth of CHRISTs Natural body, to be at one time in more places than one.

THE MINISTRATION OF PUBLICK BAPTISM of INFANTS

To be used in the Church.

The people are to be admonished, that it is most convenient that Baptism should not be administered but upon Sundays and other holy-dayes, when the most number of people come together: as well for that the Congregation there present may testify the receiving of them that be newly baptized into the number of CHRISTs Church; as also because in the Baptism of Infants, every man present may be put in remembrance of his own profession made to God in his Baptism. For which cause also it is expedient that Baptism be ministred in the vulgar tongue. Nevertheless (if necessity so require) children may be baptized upon any other day.

And note, that there shall be for every male child to be baptized two Godfathers and one Godmother: and for every female, one Godfather and two Godmothers.

When there are children to be baptized, the Parents shall give knowledge thereof over night, or in the morning before the beginning of morning Prayer to the Curate. And then the Godfathers and Godmothers, and the People, with the Children must be ready at the Font, either immediately after the last Lesson at Morning Prayer, or else immediately after the last Lesson at Evening Prayer, as the Curate by his discretion shall appoint. And the Priest coming to the Font (which is then to be filled with pure water) and standing there shall say, Hath this child been already baptized, or no?

Publick Baptism of Infants.

¶ If they answer, No: Then shall the Priest proceed as followeth.

DEARLY beloved, forasmuch as all men are conceived and born in sin, and that our SAVIOUR CHRIST saith, None can enter into the kingdom of GOD, except he be regenerate and born anew of water and of the HOLY GHOST; I beseech you to call upon GOD the FATHER, through our LORD JESUS CHRIST, that of His bounteous mercy He will grant to this child that thing which by nature he cannot have, that he may be baptized with water and the HOLY GHOST, and received into CHRISTs holy Church, and be made a lively member of the same.

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

Let us pray.

ALmighty and everlasting GOD, Who of Thy great mercy didst save Noah and his family in the ark from perishing by water, and also didst safely lead the children of Israel Thy people through the red sea, figuring thereby Thy holy baptism; and by the baptism of Thy wel-beloved SON JESUS CHRIST in the river Jordan didst sanctifie water to the mystical washing away of sin; We beseech Thee for Thine infinite mercies that Thou wilt mercifully look upon this child; wash him and sanctifie him with the HOLY GHOST, that he being delivered from Thy wrath, may be received into the ark of CHRISTs Church; and being stedfast in faith, joyful through hope, and rooted in charity, may so pass the waves of

of this troublesom world, that finally he may come to the land of everlasting life; there to reign with Thee world without end, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and immortal GOD, the aid of all that need, the helper of all that flee to Thee for succour, the life of them that believe, and the resurrection of the dead; We call upon Thee for this infant, that he coming to Thy holy baptism, may receive remission of his sins by spiritual regeneration. Receive him, O LORD, as Thou hast promised by Thy wel-beloved SON, saying, Ask, and ye shall have; seek, and ye shall finde; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: So give now unto us that ask; let us that seek finde; open the gate unto us that knock; that this infant may enjoy the everlasting benediction of Thy heavenly washing, and may come to the eternal kingdom which Thou hast promised, by CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ Then shall the people stand up, and the Priest shall say,

Hear the words of the Gospel, written by Saint Mark, in the tenth chapter, at the thirteenth verse.

THEY brought young children to CHRIST, that He should touch them; and His disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when JESUS saw it, He was much displeas'd, and said unto them, Suffer little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of GOD. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of GOD as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And He took them up in His arms, and put His hands upon them, and blessed them.

¶ After the Gospel is read, the Minister shall make this brief exhortation upon the words of the Gospel.

BELOVED, ye hear in this Gospel the words of our SAVIOUR CHRIST, that He commanded the children children to be brought unto Him; how He blamed those that would have kept them from Him; how He exhorteth all men to follow their innocency. Ye perceive how by His outward gesture and deed He declared His good will toward them; for He embraced them in His arms, He laid His hands upon them, and blessed them. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly believe, that He will likewise favourably receive this present Infant, that He will embrace him with the arms of His mercy, that He will give unto him the blessing of eternal life, and make him partaker of His everlasting kingdome. Wherefore we being thus perswaded of the good will of our heavenly FATHER towards this Infant, declared by His SON JESUS CHRIST, and nothing doubting but that He favourably alloweth this charitable work of ours, in bringing this Infant to His holy baptism, let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks unto Him, and say,

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, heavenly FATHER, we give Thee humble thanks, that Thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of Thy grace and faith in Thee: Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give Thy HOLY SPIRIT to this Infant, that he may be born again, and be made an heir of everlasting salvation, through our LORD JESUS CHRIST, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the HOLY SPIRIT, now and for ever. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest speak unto the Godfathers and Godmothers on this wise.

DEARLY beloved, ye have brought this child here to be baptized, ye have prayed that our LORD JESUS CHRIST would vouchsafe to receive him, to release him of his sins, to sanctifie him with the HOLY GHOST, to give him the kingdom of heaven, and everlasting life. Ye have heard also that our LORD

JESUS

JESUS CHRIST hath promised in His Gospel to grant all these things that ye have prayed for: which promise He for His part will most surely keep and perform. Wherefore after this promise made by CHRIST, this infant must also faithfully for his part, promise by you that are his sureties (until he come of age to take it upon himself) that he will renounce the devil and all his works, and constantly believe Gods holy Word, and obediently keep His commandments.

I demand therefore,

DOST thou in the name of this child renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the carnal desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow nor be led by them?

Answer.

I renounce them all.

Minister,

DOST thou believe in GOD the FATHER ALMIGHTY, Maker of heaven and earth?

And in JESUS CHRIST His onely begotten SON our LORD? And that He was conceived by the HOLY GHOST; born of the Virgin Mary; that He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; that He went down into hell, and also did rise again the third day; that He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of GOD the FATHER ALMIGHTY; and from thence shall come again at the end of the world, to judge the quick and the dead?

And dost thou believe in the HOLY GHOST; the holy Catholick Church, the Communion of saints; the remission of sins; the resurrection of the flesh; and everlasting life after death?

Answer.

Answer.

All this I stedfastly believe.

Minister.

WILT thou be baptized in this faith?

Answer.

That is my desire.

Minister.

WILT thou then obediently keep Gods holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the dayes of thy life?

Answer.

I will.

Then shall the Priest say,

O MERCIFUL God, grant that the old Adam in this child may be so buried, that the new man may be raised up in him. *Amen.*Grant that all carnal affections may die in him, and that all things belonging to the SPIRIT, may live and grow in him. *Amen.*Grant that he may have power and strength to have victory, and to triumph against the devil, the world, and the flesh. *Amen.*Grant that whosoever is here dedicated to Thee by our office and ministry, may also be indued with heavenly vertues, and everlastingly rewarded, through Thy mercy, O blessed LORD God, Who dost live and govern all things, world without end. *Amen.ALMIGHTY everliving God, Whose most dearly beloved SON JESUS CHRIST, for the forgiveness of our sins, did shed out of His most precious side both water and bloud, and gave commandment to His disciples, that they should go teach all nations, and baptize them in the Name of the FATHER, and of the SON, and of the HOLY GHOST;

GHOST; Regard, we beseech Thee, the supplications of Thy congregation; sanctifie this water to the mystical washing away of sin: and grant that this child now to be baptized therein, may receive the fulness of Thy grace, and ever remain in the number of Thy faithful and elect children, through JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest shall take the child into his hands, and shall say to the Godfathers and Godmothers, Name this child.

And then naming it after them (if they shall certifie him that the child may well endure it) he shall dip it in the water discreetly and warily, saying,

N. I baptize thee in the Name of the FATHER,
• and of the SON, and of the HOLY GHOST.
Amen.

¶ But if they certifie, that the childe is weak, it shall suffice to pour water upon it, saying the foresaid words,

N. I baptize thee in the Name of the FATHER,
• and of the SON, and of the HOLY GHOST.
Amen.

¶ Then the Priest shall say,

WE receive this child into the congregation of CHRISTS flock, † and do signe him with the signe of the cross, in token that hereafter he shall not be ashamed to confesse the faith of CHRIST crucified, and manfully to fight under His banner, against sin, the world, and the devil, and to continue CHRISTS faithful souldier and servant unto his lives end. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

SEEING now, dearly beloved brethren, that this child is regenerate and grafted into the body of CHRISTS Church, let us give thanks unto ALMIGHTY GOD for these benefits, and with one accord accord make our prayers unto Him, that this child may lead the rest of his life according to this beginning.

† Here the Priest shall make a cross upon the childs forehead.

¶ Then shall be said, all kneeling,

OUR FATHER Which art in heaven; Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

WE yield Thee hearty thanks, most merciful FATHER, that it hath pleased Thee to regenerate this infant with Thy HOLY SPIRIT, to receive him for Thine own child by adoption, and to incorporate him into Thy holy Church. And humbly we beseech Thee to grant, that he being dead unto sin, and living unto righteousness, and being buried with CHRIST in His death, may crucifie the old man, and utterly abolish the whole body of sin, and that as he is made partaker of the death of Thy SON, he may also be partaker of His Resurrection; so that finally with the residue of Thy holy Church, he may be an inheritour of Thine everlasting kingdom, through CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ Then all standing up, the Priest shall say to the Godfathers and Godmothers this exhortation following.

FORASMUCH as this child hath promised by you his sureties to renounce the devil and all his works, to believe in God, and to serve Him; ye must remember that it is your parts and duties to see that this infant be taught, so soon as he shall be able to learn, what a solemn vow, promise and profession he hath here made by you. And that he may know these things the better, ye shall call upon him to hear Sermons, and chiefly ye shall provide vide that he may learn the Creed, the LORDS Prayer, and the ten Commandments in the vulgar tongue, and all other things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his souls health; and that this child may be vertuously brought up to lead a godly and a Christian life; remembring alwayes that baptism doth represent unto us our profession, which is, to follow the example of our SAVIOUR CHRIST, and to be made like unto Him; that as He died and rose again for us; so should we who are baptized, die from sin, and rise again unto righteousness, continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all vertue and godliness of living.

¶ Then shall he adde and say,

YE are to take care that this child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him, so soon as he can say the Creed, the LORDS Prayer, and the ten Commandments in the vulgar tongue, and be further instructed in the Church-Catechism set forth for that purpose.

IT is certain by Gods word, that children which are baptized, dying before they commit actual sin, are undoubtedly saved.

TO take away all scruple concerning the use of the signe of the Crosse in Baptism; the true Explication thereof, and the just reasons for the retaining of it may be seen in the xxxth Canon, first published in the year MDCIV.

THE MINISTRATION OF PRIVATE BAPTISM of CHILDREN

In Houses.

¶ The Curates of every Parish shall often admonish the people, that they deferre not the Baptism of their children longer than the first or second Sunday next after their birth, or other holy-day falling between, unless upon a great and reasonable cause, to be approved by the Curate.

¶ And

¶ And also they shall warn them, that without like great cause and necessity they procure not their children to be baptized at home in their houses. But when need shall compel them so to do, then Baptism shall be administered on this fashion.

¶ First let the Minister of the Parish (or in his absence, any other lawful Minister that can be procured) with them that are present call upon God, and say the LORDS Prayer, and so many of the Collects appointed to be said before in the Form of Publick Baptism, as the time and present exigence will suffer. And then, the child being named by some one that is present, the Minister shall pour water upon it, saying these words;

N. I baptize thee in the Name of the FATHER, and of the SON, and of the HOLY GHOST. Amen.

¶ Then all kneeling down, the Minister shall give thanks unto God, and say,

WE yield Thee hearty thanks, most merciful FATHER, that it hath pleased Thee to regenerate this infant with Thy HOLY SPIRIT; to receive him for Thine own child by adoption, and to incorporate him into Thy holy Church. And we humbly beseech Thee to grant, that as he is now made partaker of the death of Thy SON, so he may be also of His resurrection: And that finally with the residue of Thy Saints he may inherit Thine everlasting kingdom, through the same Thy SON JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

¶ And let them not doubt, but that the child so baptized is lawfully and sufficiently baptized, and ought not to be baptized again. Yet nevertheless, if the child which is after this sort Baptized, do afterward live, it is expedient that it be brought into the Church, to the intent that if the Minister of the same Parish did himself Baptize that child, the Congregation may be certified of the true form of Baptism, by him privately before used: In which case he shall say thus,

I certifie you, that according to the due and prescribed order of the Church, at such a time, and

at such a place, before divers witnesses I baptized this child.

¶ But if the child were baptized by any other lawful Minister; then the Minister of the Parish where the child was born or christned, shall examine and try whether the child be lawfully baptized, or no. In which case, if those that bring any child to the Church, do answer that the same child is already baptized, then shall the Minister examine them further, saying,

BY whom was this child baptized?
Who was present when this child was baptized?

Because some things essential to this sacrament may happen to be omitted through fear or haste, in such times of extremity; therefore I demand further of you,

With what matter was this child baptized?

With what words was this child baptized?

¶ And if the Minister shall find by the answers of such as bring the child, that all things were done as they ought to be; then shall not he christen the child again, but shall receive him as one of the flock of true Christian people, saying thus,

I CERTIFIE you, that in this case all is well done, and according unto due order, concerning the baptizing of this child; who being born in original sin, and in the wrath of GOD, is now by the laver of Regeneration in Baptism received into the number of the children of GOD, and heirs of everlasting life: For our LORD JESUS CHRIST doth not deny His grace and mercy unto such infants, but most lovingly doth call them unto Him, as the holy Gospel doth witness to our comfort on this wise.

THEY brought young children to CHRIST, that He should touch them; and His disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when JESUS saw it, He was much displeas'd, and said unto hem, Suffer the little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And He took them up in His arms, put His hands upon them, and blessed them.

¶ After the Gospel is read, the Minister shall make this brief exhortation upon the words of the Gospel.

BELOVED, ye hear in this Gospel the words of OUR SAVIOUR CHRIST, that He commanded the children to be brought unto Him; how He blamed those that would have kept them from Him; how He exhorted all men to follow their innocency. Wherefore we being thus perswaded of the good will of our heavenly FATHER, declared by His SON JESUS CHRIST towards this infant, let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks unto Him, and say the Prayer which the LORD Himself taught us.

OUR FATHER Which art in heaven; Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, heavenly FATHER, we give Thee humble thanks, that Thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of Thy grace and faith in Thee; Increase this know-knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give Thy HOLY SPIRIT to this infant, that he being born again, and being made an heir of everlasting salvation, through our LORD JESUS CHRIST, may continue Thy servant, and attain Thy promise, through the same our LORD JESUS CHRIST Thy SON, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the HOLY SPIRIT, now and for ever. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest demand the Name of the child, which being by the Godfathers and Godmothers pronounced, the Minister shall say, DOST thou in the name of this child renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of this world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the carnal desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow nor be led by them?

Answer.

I renounce them all.

But if they which bring the infant to the Church do make such uncertain answers to the Priests questions, as that it cannot appear that the child was baptized with water, In the Name of the FATHER, and of the SON, and of the HOLY GHOST, (which are essential parts of Baptism) then let the Priest baptize it in the form before appointed for Publick Baptism of Infants; saying that at the dipping of the child in the Font, he shall use this form of words.

MINISTRATION OF BAPTISM

To such as are of riper years, and able to answer for themselves.

- ¶ When any such persons as are of riper years are to be baptized, timely notice shall be given to the Bishop, or whom he shall appoint for that purpose, a week before at the least, by the Parents, or some other discreet persons; that so due care may be taken for their examination, whether they be sufficiently instructed in the principles of the Christian Religion; and that they may be exhorted to prepare themselves with prayers and fasting for the receiving of this holy Sacrament.
- ¶ And if they shall be found fit, then the Godfathers and Godmothers (the people being assembled upon the Sunday or Holy-day appointed) shall be ready to present them at the Font immediately after the second Lesson, either at Morning or Evening Prayer, as the Curate in his discretion shall think fit.
- ¶ And standing there, the Priest shall ask whether any of the persons here presented be baptized or no: If they shall answer, No: then shall the Priest say thus,

DEARLY beloved; Forasmuch as all men are conceived and born in sin, (and that which is born of the flesh is flesh,) and they that are in the flesh cannot please GOD, but live in sin, committing many actual transgressions; and that our SAVIOUR CHRIST saith, None can enter into the kingdom of GOD, except he be regenerate and born anew of water and of the HOLY GHOST; I beseech you to call upon GOD the FATHER, through our LORD JESUS CHRIST, that of His bounteous goodness He will grant to these persons that which by nature they cannot have, that they may be baptized with water and the HOLY GHOST, and received into CHRISTs holy Church, and be made lively members of the same.

¶ Then

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

Let us pray.

(¶ And here all the Congregation shall kneel.)

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, Who of Thy great mercy didst save Noah and his family in the ark from perishing by water, and also didst safely lead the children of Israel Thy people through the red sea, figuring thereby Thy holy baptism; and by the baptism of Thy wel-beloved SON JESUS CHRIST in the river Jordan didst sanctifie the element of water to the mystical washing away of sin; We beseech Thee for Thine infinite mercies, that Thou wilt mercifully look upon these Thy servants; wash them and sanctifie them with the HOLY GHOST, that they being delivered from Thy wrath may be received into the ark of CHRIST'S Church; and being stedfast in faith, joyful through hope, and rooted in charity, may so pass the waves of this troublefom world, that finally they may come to the land of everlasting life, there to reign with Thee world without end, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and immortal God, the Aid of all that need, the Helper of all that flee to Thee for succour, the Life of them that believe, and the Resurrection of the dead; We call upon Thee for these persons, that they coming to Thy holy baptism, may receive remission of their sins by spiritual regeneration. Receive them, O LORD, and as Thou hast promised by Thy wel-beloved SON, saying, Ask, and ye shall receive; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you; So give now unto us that ask; let us that seek find; open the gate unto us that knock; that these persons may enjoy the everlasting benediction of Thy heavenly washing, and may come to the eternal kingdom which Thou hast promised by CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ Then

¶ Then shall the people stand up, and the Priest shall say,

Hear the words of the Gospel written by Saint John, in the third Chapter beginning at the first verse.

THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. The same came to JESUS by night, and said unto Him, Rabbi, we know that Thou art a teacher come from God; for no man can do these miracles that Thou dost, except GOD be with him. JESUS answered and said unto him, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of GOD. Nicodemus saith unto Him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mothers womb, and be born? JESUS answered, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the SPIRIT he cannot enter into the kingdom of GOD. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the SPIRIT is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof; but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the SPIRIT.

¶ After which he shall say this exhortation following.

BELOVED, ye hear in this Gospel the express words of our SAVIOUR CHRIST, that except a man be born of water and of the SPIRIT, he cannot enter into the kingdom of GOD. Whereby ye may perceive the great necessity of this Sacrament, where it may be had. Likewise immediately before His ascension into heaven (as we read in the last Chapter of Saint Marks Gospel,) He gave command to His disciples, saying, Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature. He that believeth lieveth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Which also sheweth unto us the great benefit we reap thereby. For which cause Saint Peter the Apostle, when upon his first preaching of the Gospel many were pricked at the heart, and said to him and the rest of the Apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we doe? replied and said unto them, Repent and be baptized every one of you for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the HOLY GHOST. For the promise is to you and your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the LORD our GOD shall call. And with many other words exhorted he them, saying, Save your selves from this untoward generation. For (as the same Apostle testifieth in another place) even Baptism doth also now save us, (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards GOD) by the resurrection of JESUS CHRIST. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly believe that He will favourably receive these present persons, truly repenting and coming unto Him by faith, that He will grant them remission of their sins, and bestow upon them the HOLY GHOST; that He will give them the blessing of eternal life, and make them partakers of His everlasting kingdom.

Wherefore we being thus perswaded of the good will of our heavenly FATHER towards these persons, declared by His SON JESUS CHRIST; let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks to Him and say,

ALMIGHTY and everlasting GOD, heavenly FATHER, we give Thee humble thanks, for that Thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of Thy grace and faith in Thee; Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore: Give Thy HOLY SPIRIT to these persons, that they may be born again and be made heirs of everlasting salvation, salvation, through our LORD JESUS CHRIST, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the HOLY SPIRIT, now and for ever. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest shall speak to the persons to be baptized on this wise.

WELL beloved, who are come hither desiring to receive holy Baptism, ye have heard how the congregation hath prayed that our LORD JESUS CHRIST would vouchsafe to receive you and bless you, to release you of your sins, to give you the kingdom of heaven and everlasting life. Ye have heard also that our LORD JESUS CHRIST hath promised in His holy Word to grant all those things that we have prayed for; which promise He for His part will most surely keep and perform.

Wherefore after this promise made by CHRIST, ye must also faithfully for your part promise in the presence of these your witnesses, and this whole congregation, that ye will renounce the devil and all his works, and constantly believe Gods holy Word, and obediently keep His commandments.

¶ Then shall the Priest demand of each of the persons to be baptized severally these questions following.

Question.

DOST thou renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the carnal desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow, nor be led by them?

Answer.

I renounce them all.

Question.

DOST thou believe in GOD the FATHER ALMIGHTY, Maker of heaven and earth?

And in JESUS CHRIST His only begotten SON our LORD? And that He was conceived by the HOLY GHOST;

GHOST; born of the Virgin Mary; that He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; that He went down into hell, and also did rise again the third day; that He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the FATHER ALMIGHTY; and from thence shall come again at the end of the world to judge the quick and the dead?

And dost thou believe in the HOLY GHOST; the holy Catholick Church, the Communion of saints; the remission of sins; the resurrection of the flesh; and everlasting life after death?

Answer.

All this I stedfastly believe.

Question.

WILT thou be baptized in this faith?

Answer.

That is my desire.

Question.

WILT thou then obediently keep Gods holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the dayes of thy life?

Answer.

I will endeavour so to do, God being my helper.

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

O MERCIFUL God, grant that the old Adam in these persons may be so buried, that the new man may be raised up in them. Amen.

Grant that all carnal affections may die in them, and that all things belonging to the SPIRIT, may live and grow in them. Amen.

Grant that they may have power and strength to have victory, and to triumph against the devil, the world, and the flesh. Amen.

Grant that they being here dedicated to Thee by our

Publick Baptism of such

our office and ministry, may also be indued with heavenly vertues, and everlastingly rewarded through Thy mercy, O blessed LORD GOD, Who dost live and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

ALMIGHTY everliving GOD, Whose most dearly beloved SON JESUS CHRIST, for the forgiveness of our sins did shed out of His most precious side both water and blood, and gave commandment to His disciples, that they should go teach all nations, and baptize them In the Name of the FATHER, the SON, and the HOLY GHOST; Regard, we beseech Thee, the supplications of this congregation; sanctifie this water to the mystical washing away of sin: and grant that the persons now to be baptized therein, may receive the fulness of Thy grace, and ever remain in the number of Thy faithful and elect children, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest take each person to be baptized by the right hand, and placing him conveniently by the Font, according to his discretion, shall ask the Godfathers and Godmothers the Name; and then shall dip him in the water, and pour water upon him, saying,

N I baptize thee In the Name of the FATHER, and of the SON, and of the HOLY GHOST. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

WE receive this person into the congregation of CHRISTs flock, and † do signe him with the signe of the crofs, in token that hereafter he shall not be ashamed to confesse the faith of CHRIST crucified, and manfully to fight under His banner against sin, the world, and the devil; and to continue CHRISTs faithful souldier and servant unto his lives end. Amen.

† Here the Priest shall make a crofs upon the persons forehead.

¶ Then

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

SEEING now, dearly beloved brethren, that these persons are regenerate and grafted into the body of CHRIST'S Church, let us give thanks unto ALMIGHTY GOD for these benefits, and with one accord make our prayers unto Him, that they may lead the rest of their life according to this beginning.

¶ Then shall be said the LORDS Prayer, all kneeling.

OUR FATHER Which art in heaven; Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespases, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

WE yield Thee humble thanks, O heavenly FATHER, that Thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of Thy grace and faith in Thee; Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give Thy HOLY SPIRIT to these persons, that being now born again, and made beirs of everlasting salvation through our LORD JESUS CHRIST, they may continue Thy servants, and attain Thy promises, through the same LORD JESUS CHRIST Thy SON, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the same HOLY SPIRIT everlastingly. Amen.

¶ Then all standing up, the Priest shall ute this exhortation following; speaking to the Godfathers and Godmothers first.

FORASMUCH as these persons have promised in your presence to renounce the devil and all his works, to believe in GOD, and to serve Him; ye must remember that it is your part and dutie to put them in mind what a solemn vow, promise and profession they have now made before this congregation, gation, and especially before you their chosen witnesses. And ye are also to call upon them to use all diligence to be rightly instructed in Gods holy Word, that so they may grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, and live godly, righteously and soberly in this present world.

(¶ And then, speaking to the new baptized persons, he shall proceed, and say,)

AND as for you, who have now by Baptism put on CHRIST, it is your part and duty also, being made the children of God, and of the light by faith in JESUS CHRIST, to walk answerably to your Christian calling, and as becometh the children of light: remembring alwayes that Baptism representeth unto us our profession; which is, to follow the example of our SAVIOUR CHRIST, and to be made like unto Him; that as He died, and rose again for us; so should we who are baptized, die from sin, and rise again unto righteousness, continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all vertue and godliness of living.

¶ It is expedient that every person thus baptized should be confirmed by the Bishop so soon after his Baptism as conveniently may be; that so he may be admitted to the Holy Communion.

¶ If any persons not baptized in their infancy shall be brought to be baptized before they come to years of discretion to answer for themselves; it may suffice to use the Office for Publick Baptism of infants, or (in case of extreme danger) the Office for Private Baptism, onely changing the word [Infant] for [Child or Person] if occasion requireth.

A CATECHISM,

That is to say,

An Instruction to be learned of every person, before he be brought to be confirmed by the Bishop.

Question.

WHAT is your name?

Answer.

N. or M.

Question.

Who gave you this name?

Answer.

My Godfathers and Godmothers in my Baptism, wherein I was made a member of CHRIST, the child of GOD, and an inheritor of the Kingdom of heaven.

Question.

What did your Godfathers and Godmothers then for you?

Answer.

They did promise and vow three things in my name. First, that I should renounce the devil and all his works, the pomps and vanity of this wicked world, and all the sinful lusts of the flesh. Secondly, that I should believe all the articles of the Christian faith. And thirdly, that I should keep GODS holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the dayes of my life.

Question.

Dost thou not think that thou art bound to believe, and to doe, as they have promised for thee?

Answer.

Yes verily; and by GODS help so I will. And I heartily thank our heavenly FATHER, that He hath called me to this state of salvation, through JESUS

JESUS CHRIST our SAVIOUR. And I pray unto GOD to give me His grace, that I may continue in the same unto my lives end.

Catechist.

Rehearfe the Articles of thy belief.

Answer.

I BELIEVE in GOD the FATHER ALMIGHTY,
Maker of heaven and earth.

And in JESUS CHRIST His only SON our LORD, Who was conceived by the HOLY GHOST, Born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead and buried, He descended into hell; The third day He rose again from the dead,
He ascended into heaven, And sitteth at the right hand of GOD the FATHER ALMIGHTY: From thence
He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the HOLY GHOST, The holy Catho-lick Church, The Communion of Saints. The forgiveness of sins, The resurrection of the body,
And the life everlasting. Amen.

Question.

What dost thou chiefly learn in these Articles of thy belief?

Answer.

First, I learn to believe in GOD the FATHER,
Who hath made me, and all the world.

Secondly, in GOD the SON, Who hath redeemed me, and all mankind.

Thirdly, in GOD the HOLY GHOST, Who sanctifieth me, and all the elect people of GOD.

Question.

You said that your Godfathers and Godmothers did promise for you, that you should keep GODS commandments. Tell me how many there be?

Answer.

Ten.

Question.

Question.

Which be they?

Answer.

THE same which GOD spake in the twentieth Chapter of Exodus, saying, I am the LORD thy GOD, Who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I. Thou shalt have none other Gods, but Me.

II. Thou shalt not make to thy self any graven image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them. For I the LORD thy GOD am a jealous GOD, and visit the sins of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me, and shew mercy unto thousands in them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the LORD thy GOD in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day. Six dayes shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to doe; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD thy GOD. In it thou shalt doe no manner of work, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, thy man-servant and thy maid-servant, thy cattel and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six dayes the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day; wherefore the LORD blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

V. Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy dayes may be long in the land which the LORD thy GOD giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbours house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbours wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is his.

Question.

What dost thou chiefly learn by these commandments?

Answer.

I learn two things: my duty towards God, and my duty towards my neighbour.

Question.

What is thy duty towards God?

Answer.

My duty towards God, is to believe in Him, to fear Him, and to love Him with all my heart, with all my mind, with all my soul, and with all my strength; to worship Him, to give Him thanks, to put my whole trust in Him, to call upon Him, to honour His holy Name and His Word; and to serve Him truly all the dayes of my life.

Question.

What is thy duty towards thy neighbour?

Answer.

My duty towards my neighbour, is to love him as my self, and to do to all men, as I would they should do unto me. To love, honour and succour my father and mother. To honour and obey the King, and all that are put in authority under him. To submit my self to all my governours, teachers spiritual pastours and masters. To order my self lowly and reverently to all my betters. To hurt no body by word, nor deed. To be true and just in all my dealing. To bear no malice nor hatred in my heart. To keep my hands from picking and stealing, and my tongue from evil speaking, lying and flandering. To keep my body in temperance, soberness, and chastity. Not to covet nor desire other mens goods ; but to learn and labour truly to get mine own living, and to do my duty in that state of life, unto which it shall please God to call me.

Catechist

My good child, know this, that thou art not able to do these things of thy self, nor to walk in the commandments of GOD, and to serve Him without His special grace, which thou must learn at all times to call for by diligent prayer. Let me hear therefore if thou canst say the LORDS prayer.

Answer

OUR FATHER Which art in heaven ; Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation : But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Question

What desirest thou of GOD in this prayer ?

Answer

I desire my LORD GOD our heavenly FATHER, Who is the giver of all goodness, to send His grace unto me, and to all people, that we may worship Him, serve Him, and obey Him as we ought to do. And I pray unto GOD, that He will send us all things that be needful both for our souls and bodies ; and that He will be merciful unto us, and forgive us our sins ; and that it will please Him to save and defend us in all dangers ghostly and bodily ; and that that He will keep us from all sin and wickedness and from our ghostly enemy, and from everlasting death. And this I trust He will doe of His mercy and goodness, through our LORD JESUS CHRIST. And therefore I say, Amen. So be it.

Question.

HOW many Sacraments hath CHRIST ordained in His Church?

Answer.

Two only, as generally necessary to salvation, that is to say, Baptism, and the Supper of the LORD.

Question.

What meanest thou by this word Sacrament?

Answer.

I mean an outward and visible signe of an inward and spiritual grace given unto us, ordained by CHRIST Himself, as a means whereby we receive the same, and a pledge to assure us thereof.

Question.

How many parts are there in a Sacrament?

Answer.

Two: the outward visible signe, and the inward spiritual grace.

Question.

What is the outward visible signe or form in Baptism?

Answer.

Water: wherein the person is baptized, In the Name of the FATHER, and of the SON, and of the HOLY GHOST.

Question.

What is the inward and spiritual grace?

Answer:

Answer.

A death unto sin, and a new birth unto righteousness: for being by nature born in sin, and the children of wrath, we are hereby made the children of grace.

Question.

What is required of persons to be baptized?

Answer.

Repentance, whereby they forsake sin; and faith, whereby they stedfastly believe the promises of God, made to them in that Sacrament.

Question.

Why then are infants baptized, when by reason of their tender age they cannot perform them?

Answer.

Because they promise them both by their sureties: which promise, when they come to age, themselves are bound to perform.

Question.

Why was the Sacrament of the LORDS Supper ordained?

Answer.

For the continual remembrance of the sacrifice of the death of CHRIST, and of the benefits which we receive thereby.

Question.

What is the outward part or signe of the LORDS Supper?

Answer.

Bread and wine, which the LORD hath commanded to be received.

Question.

What is the inward part, or thing signified?

Answer.

The body and blood of CHRIST, which are verily s and

and indeed taken and received by the faithful in the LORDS Supper.

Question.

What are the benefits whereof we are partakers thereby?

Answer.

The strengthening and refreshing of our souls by the body and blood of CHRIST, as our bodies are by the bread and wine.

Question.

What is required of them who come to the LORDS Supper?

Answer.

To examine themselves, whether they repent them truly of their former sins, stedfastly purposing to lead a new life; have a lively faith in GOD mercy through CHRIST, with a thankful remembrance of His death, and be in charity with all men

¶ The Curate of every Parish shall diligently upon Sundays and Holydayes, after the second Lesson at Evening Prayer openly in the Church instruct and examine so many children of his Parish sent unto him, as he shall think convenient, in some part of this Catechism.

¶ And all Fathers, Mothers, Masters and Dames, shall cause their children, servants and prentices (which have not learned their Catechism) to come to the Church at the time appointed, and obediently to hear, and be ordered by the Curate, until such time as they have learned all that is here appointed for them to learn.

¶ So soon as Children are come to a competent age, and can say in their Mother tongue the Creed, the LORDS Prayer and the ten Commandments; and also can answer to the other questions of this short Catechism; they shall be brought to the Bishop. And every one shall have a Godfather, or Godmother, as a witness of their Confirmation.

¶ And whensoever the Bishop shall give knowledge for children to be brought unto him for their Confirmation, the Curate of every Parish shall either bring, or send in writing with his hand subscribed thereunto, the names of all such persons within his Parish, as he shall think fit to be presented to the Bishop to be confirmed. And, if the Bishop approve of them, he shall confirm them in manner following

THE ORDER OF CONFIRMATION,

Or laying on of hands upon those that are baptized and come to years of discretion.

¶ Upon the day appointed all that are to be then confirmed, being placed, and standing in Order before the Bishop; he (or some other Minister appointed by him) shall read this Preface following.

TO the end that Confirmation may be ministered to the more edifying of such as shall receive it, the Church hath thought good to order, That none hereafter shall be Confirmed, but such as can say the Creed, the LORDS Prayer, and the ten Commandments; and can also answer to such other questions, as in the short Catechism are contained: Which Order is very convenient to be observed, to the end, that children being now come to the years of discretion, and having learned what their God-fathers and Godmothers promised for them in Baptism, they may themselves with their own mouth and consent openly before the Church ratifie and confirm the same; and also promise that by the grace of God they will evermore endeavour themselves faithfully to observe such things as they by their own confession have assented unto.

¶ Then shall the Bishop say,

DO ye here in the presence of God and of this congregation renew the solemn promise and vow that was made in your name at your Baptism; ratifying and confirming the same in your own persons, and acknowledging your selves bound to believe and to doe all those things, which your God-fathers and Godmothers then undertook for you?

¶ And every one shall audibly answer,

I doe.

The Bishop.

OUR help is in the Name of the LORD ;

Answer.

Who hath made heaven and earth.

Bishop.

Blessed be the Name of the LORD,

Answer.

Henceforth world without end.

Bishop.

LORD, hear our prayers.

Answer.

And let our cry come unto Thee.

Bishop.

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, Who hast vouchsafed to regenerate these Thy servants by water and the HOLY GHOST, and hast given unto them forgiveness of all their sins ; Strengthen them, we beseech Thee, O LORD, with the HOLY GHOST the COMFORTER, and daily increase in them Thy manifold gifts of grace ; the spirit of wisdom and understanding ; the spirit of counsel and ghostly strength ; the spirit of knowledge and true godliness ; and fill them, O LORD, with the spirit of Thy holy fear, now and for ever. Amen.

¶ Then all of them in order kneeling before the Bishop, he shall lay his hand upon the head of every one severally, saying, DEFEND, O LORD, this Thy child [or this Thy servant] with Thy heavenly grace, that he may continue Thine for ever : and daily increase in Thy HOLY SPIRIT more and more, until he come unto Thy everlasting kingdom. Amen.

¶ Then

¶ Then shall the Bishop say,

The LORD be with you.

Answer.

And with thy spirit.

¶ And (all kneeling down) the Bishop shall add,

Let us pray.

OUR FATHER Which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation: But deliver us from evil. Amen.

• And this Collect.

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, Who makest us both to will and to do those things that be good and acceptable unto Thy divine Majesty; We make our humble supplications unto Thee for these Thy servants upon whom (after the example of Thy holy Apostles) we have now laid our hands, to certifie them (by this sign) of Thy favour and gracious goodness towards them. Let Thy Fatherly hand, we beseech Thee, ever be over them; let Thy HOLY SPIRIT ever be with them; and so lead them in the knowledge and obedience of Thy word, that in the end they may obtain everlasting life, through our LORD JESUS CHRIST, Who with Thee and the HOLY GHOST liveth and reigneth, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

O ALMIGHTY LORD, and everlasting God, vouchsafe, we beseech Thee, to direct, sanctifie and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of Thy laws, and in the works of Thy commandments, that through Thy most mighty protection, Matrimony.

tection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul, through our LORD and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST. Amen.

¶ Then the Bishop shall bless them, saying thus,

THE blessing of GOD Almighty, the FATHER, the SON, and the HOLY GHOST, be upon you, and remain with you for ever. Amen.

¶ And there shall none be admitted to the holy Communion, until such time as he be confirmed, or be ready and desirous to be confirmed.

Solemnization of MATRIMONY.

¶ First the Banns of all that are to be married together, must be published in the Church three several Sundaies or Holydaies, in the time of Divine Service, immediately before the sentences for the Offertory; the Curate saying after the accustomed manner,

I PUBLISH the Banns of marriage between M. of — and N. of —. If any of you know cause or just impediment, why these two persons should not be joyned together in holy matrimony, ye are to declare it: This is the First [second, or third] time of asking.

¶ And if the persons that are to be married, dwell in divers Parishes, the Banns must be asked in both Parishes; and the Curate of the one Parish shall not solemnize Matrimony betwixt them, without a Certificate of the Banns being thrice asked, from the Curate of the other Parish.

¶ At the day and time appointed for solemnization of Matrimony, the persons to be married shall come into the body of the Church with their friends and neighbours: And there standing together, the man on the right hand, and the woman on the left, the Priest shall say,

DEARLY

DEARLY beloved, we are gathered together here in the sight of God, and in the face of this congregation, to joyn together this man and this woman in holy matrimony, which is an honourable estate instituted of God in the time of mans innocency, signifying unto us the mystical union that is betwixt CHRIST and His Church; which holy estate CHRIST adorned and beautified with His presence, and first miracle that He wrought in Cana of Galilee, and is commended of Saint Paul to be honourable among all men; and therefore is not by any to be enterprized, nor taken in hand unadvisedly, lightly, or wantonly, to satisfie mens carnal lusts and appetites, like brute beasts that have no understanding; but reverently, discreetly, advisedly, soberly, and in the fear of God, duly considering the causes for which matrimony was ordained.

First, it was ordained for the procreation of children, to be brought up in the fear and nurture of the LORD, and to the praise of His holy Name.

Secondly, it was ordained for a remedy against sin, and to avoid fornication, that such persons as have not the gift of continency, might marry, and keep themselves undefiled members of CHRISTS body.

Thirdly, it was ordained for the mutual society, help and comfort that the one ought to have of the other, both in prosperity and adversity: Into which holy estate these two persons present come now to be joyned. Therefore if any man can shew any just cause why they may not lawfully be joyned together, let him now speak, or else hereafter for ever hold his peace.

¶ And also speaking unto the persons that shall be married, he shall say,

I REQUIRE and charge you both (as ye will answer at the dreadful day of judgement, when when the secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed) that if either of you know any impediment, why ye may not be lawfully joyned together in matrimony, ye do now confesse it. For be ye well assured, that so many as are coupled together otherwise than Gods Word doth allow, are not joyned together by God, neither is their matrimony lawful.

¶ At which day of marriage, if any man do alledge and declare any impediment why they may not be coupled together in matrimony, by Gods Law, or the Laws of this Realm, and will be bound, and sufficient sureties with him, to the parties, or else put in a caution (to the full value of such charges as the persons to be married do thereby sustain) to prove his allegation: Then the solemnization must be deferred until such time as the truth be tried.

¶ If no impediment be alledged, then shall the curate say unto the man, N. WILT thou have this woman to thy wedded wife, to live together after Gods ordinance, in the holy estate of matrimony? Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honour and keep her in sickness and in health? and forsaking all other, keep thee only unto her, so long as ye both shall live?

¶ The man shall answer,

I will.

¶ Then shall the Priest say unto the woman,

N. WILT thou have this man to thy wedded husband, to live together after Gods ordinance, in the holy estate of matrimony? Wilt thou obey him, serve him, love, honour and keep him in sickness and in health? and forsaking all other, keep thee only unto him, so long as ye both shall live?

¶ The woman shall answer,

I will.

¶ Then

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

Who giveth this woman to be married to this man?

¶ Then shall they give their troth to each other in this manner.

¶ The Minister receiving the woman at her fathers or friends hands, shall cause the man with his right hand to take the woman by her right hand, and to say after him as followeth.

I N. take thee N. to my wedded wife, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to Gods holy ordinance; and thereto I plight thee my troth.

¶ Then shall they loose their hands, and the woman with her right hand taking the man by his right hand, shall likewise say after the Minister;

I N. take thee N. to my wedded husband, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love, cherish, and to obey, till death us do part, according to Gods holy ordinance; and thereto I give thee my troth.

¶ Then shall they again loose their hands, and the man shall give unto the woman a ring, laying the same upon the book, with the accustomed duty to the Priest and Clerk. And the Priest taking the ring, shall deliver it unto the man, to put it upon the fourth finger of the womans left hand. And the man holding the ring there, and taught by the Priest, shall say,

W ITH this ring I thee wed, with my body I thee worship, and with all my worldly goods I thee endow: In the Name of the FATHER, and of the SON, and of the HOLY GHOST. Amen.

¶ Then the man leaving the ring upon the fourth finger of the womans left hand, they shall both kneel down, and the Minister shall say,

Let us pray.

O ETERNAL God, Creatour and Preserver of all mankind, Giver of all spiritual grace, the Author

Author of everlasting life; Send Thy blessing upon these Thy servants, this man and this woman, whom we bless in Thy Name; that as Isaac and Rebecca lived faithfully together, so these persons may surely perform and keep the vow and covenant betwixt them made, (whereof this ring given and received is a token and pledge) and may ever remain in perfect love and peace together, and live according to Thy laws, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest joyn their right hands together, and say,

Those whom GOD hath joyned together, let no man put asunder.

¶ Then shall the Minister speak unto the people.

FORASMUCH as N. and N. have consented together in holy wedlock, and have witnessed the same before GOD and this company, and thereto have given and pledged their troth either to other, and have declared the same by giving and receiving of a ring, and by joyning of hands; I pronounce that they be man and wife together, In the Name of the FATHER, and of the SON, and of the HOLY GHOST. Amen.

¶ And the Minister shall add this blessing.

GOD the FATHER, GOD the SON, GOD the HOLY GHOST bless, preserve and keep you; the LORD mercifully with His favour look upon you, and so fill you with all spiritual benediction and grace, that ye may so live together in this life, that in the world to come ye may have life everlasting. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister or Clerks going to the LORDS table, shall say or sing this Psalm following.

Beati omnes. Pſal. cxxviii.

BLESSED are all they that fear the LORD: and walk in His ways.

Fo

For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands : O well is thee, and happy shalt thou be.

Thy wife shall be as the fruitful vine : upon the walls of thy house.

Thy children like the olive branches : round about thy table.

Lo, thus shall the man be blessed : that feareth the LORD.

The LORD from out of Sion shall so bless thee : that thou shalt see Jerusalem in prosperity all thy life long.

Yea, that thou shalt see thy childrens children : and peace upon Israel.

Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON : and to the HOLY GHOST ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

¶ Or this Psalm.

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us : and shew us the light of His countenance, and be merciful unto us.

That Thy way may be known upon earth : Thy saving health among all nations.

Let the people praise Thee, O God : yea, let all the people praise Thee.

O let the nations rejoyce and be glad : for Thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise Thee, O God : yea, let all the people praise Thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase : and GOD, even our own GOD shall give us His blessing.

GOD shall bless us : and all the ends of the world shall fear Him.

Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON : and to the HOLY GHOST ;

As

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ The Psalm ended, and the man and the woman kneeling before the LORDS Table, the Priest standing at the Table, and turning his face towards them, shall say,

LORD, have mercy upon us.

Answer.

Minister.

O LORD, hear our prayer.

Answer.

And let our cry come unto Thee.

Minister

Minister.

O GOD of Abraham, GOD of Isaac, GOD of Jacob, bleſs theſe Thy ſervants, and ſow the ſeed of eternal life in their hearts, that whatſoever in Thy holy Word they ſhall profitably learn, they may in deed fulfil the ſame. Look, O LORD, mercifully upon them from heaven, and bleſs them. And as Thou didſt ſend Thy bleſſing upon Abraham and Sarah, to their great comfort; ſo vouchſafe to ſend Thy bleſſing upon theſe Thy ſervants, that they obeying Thy will, and alway being in ſafety under Thy protection, may abide in Thy love unto their lives end, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ This Prayer next following ſhall be omitted, where the woman is paſt child-bearing.

O MERCIFUL LORD and heavenly FATHER, by Whoſe gracious gift mankind is increaſed; We beſeech Thee aſſiſt with Thy bleſſing theſe two perſons, that they may both be fruitful in procreation of children, and alſo live together ſo long in godly love and honeſty, that they may ſee their children Chriſtianly and vertuoſly brought up, to Thy praiſe and honour, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

O GOD, Who by Thy mighty power haſt made all things of nothing, Who alſo (after other things ſet in order) didſt appoint that out of man (created after Thine own image and ſimilitude) woman ſhould take her beginning; and knitting them together, didſt teach that it ſhould never be lawful to put aſunder thoſe whom Thou by matrimony haſt made one: O God, Who haſt conſecrated the ſtate of matrimony to ſuch an excellent myſtery, that in it is ſignified and repreſented the ſpiritual marriage and unity betwixt CHRIST and His Church; Look mercifully upon theſe Thy ſervants, vants, that both this man may love His wife, according to Thy Word (as CHRIST did love His spouse the Church, Who gave Himself for it, loving and cherishing it even as His own flesh) and also that this woman may be loving and amiable, faithful and obedient to her husband, and in all quietness, sobriety and peace, be a follower of holy and godly matrons. O LORD, bless them both, and grant them to inherit Thy everlasting kingdom, through JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

ALMIGHTY GOD Who at the beginning did create our first parents, Adam and Eve, and did sanctifie and joyn them together in marriage; Pour upon you the riches of His grace, sanctifie and bless you, that ye may please Him both in body and soul, and live together in holy love unto your lives end. Amen.

¶ After which, if there be no Sermon declaring the duties of man and wife, the Minister shall read as followeth.

ALL ye that are married, or that intend to take the holy estate of matrimony upon you, hear what the holy Scripture doth say as touching the duty of husbands towards their wives, and wives towards their husbands.

Saint Paul in his Epistle to the Ephesians, the Fifth Chapter, doth give this commandment to all married men, Husbands, love your wives, even as CHRIST also loved the Church, and gave Himself for it, that He might sanctifie and cleanse it with the washing of water, by the Word; that He might present it to Himself a glorious Church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife, loveth himself. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh, but nourished and cherisheth it, even as the LORD the Church : For we are members of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joyned unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery ; but I speak concerning CHRIST and the Church. Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular, so love his wife, even as himself.

Likewise the same Saint Paul writing to the Colossians, speaketh thus to all men that are married, Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

Hear also what Saint Peter the Apostle of CHRIST, who was himself a married man, saith unto them that are married, Ye husbands, dwell with your wives according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life, that your prayers be not hindred.

Hitherto ye have heard the duty of the husband toward the wife. Now likewise, ye wives, hear and learn your duties toward your husbands, even as it is plainly set forth in holy Scripture.

Saint Paul in the aforementioned Epistle to the Ephesians, teacheth you thus ; Wives, submit your selves unto your own husbands, as unto the LORD. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as CHRIST is the head of the Church : and He is the SAVIOUR of the body. Therefore as the Church is subject unto CHRIST, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. And again he saith, Let the wife see that she reverence her husband.

And in his Epistle to the Colossians, Saint Paul giveth you this short lesson, Wives, submit your selves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the LORD.

Saint Peter also doth instruct you very well, thus saying, Ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands, husbands; that if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives; while they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear. Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. For after this manner in the old time, the holy women also who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands; even as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him Lord; whose daughters ye are as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

¶ It is convenient that the new married persons should receive the holy Communion at the time of their marriage, or at the first opportunity after their marriage.

for the

VISITATION OF THE SICK.

¶ When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish; who coming into the sick persons house, shall say,

PEACE be to this house, and to all that dwell in it.

¶ When he cometh into the sick mans presence he shall say, kneeling down,

REMEMBER not, LORD, our iniquities, nor the iniquities of our fore-fathers. Spare us, good LORD, spare Thy people whom Thou hast redeemed redeemed with Thy most precious blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

Answer.

Spare us, good LORD.

¶ Then the Minister shall say,

Let us pray.

LORD, have mercy upon us.

CHRIST, have mercy upon us.

LORD, have mercy upon us.

OUR FATHER Which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation: But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Minister.

Which putteth his trust in Thee.

The Visitation of the Sick.

Minister.

O LORD, hear our prayers.

Answer.

And let our cry come unto Thee.

Minister.

O LORD, look down from heaven, behold, visit and relieve this Thy servant. Look upon him with the eyes of Thy mercy, give him comfort and sure confidence in Thee, defend him from the danger of the enemy, and keep him in perpetual peace and safety, through JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

HEAR us, Almighty and most merciful GOD and SAVIOUR; extend Thy accustomed goodness to this Thy servant who is grieved with sickness. Sanctify, we beseech Thee, this Thy Fatherly correction to him; that the sense of his weakness may add strength to his faith, and seriousness to his repentance. That if it shall be Thy good pleasure to restore him to his former health, he may lead the residue of his life in Thy fear, and to Thy glory: or else give him grace so to take Thy visitation, that after this painful life ended he may dwell with Thee in life everlasting, through JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister exhort the sick person after this form, or other like.

DEARLY beloved, know this, that Almighty GOD is the LORD of life and death, and of all things to them pertaining, as youth, strength, health, age, weakness, and sickness. Wherefore, whatsoever your sickness is, know you certainly that it is Gods visitation. And for what cause soever this sickness is sent unto you, whether it be to try your patience for the example of others, and that your faith may be found in the day of the LORD laudable, glorious, and honourable, to the increase of glory and endless felicity; or else it be sent unto you to correct and amend in you whatsoever doth offend the eyes of your heavenly FATHER; know you certainly that if you truly repent you of your sins, and bear your sickness patiently, trusting in GODS mercy, for His dear SON JESUS CHRISTs sake, and render unto Him humble thanks for His Fatherly visitation, submitting your self wholly unto His will, it shall turn to your profit, and help you forward in the right way that leadeth unto everlasting life.

¶ If the person visited be very sick, then the Curate may end his exhortation in this place, or else proceed.

TAKE therefore in good part the chastisement of the LORD: For (as Saint Paul saith in the twelfth chapter to the Hebrews) whom the LORD loveth He chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom He receiveth. If ye endure chastning, GOD dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh, which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the FATHER of Spirits, and live? For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but He for our profit, that we might be partakers of His holiness. These words, good brother, are written in holy Scripture for our comfort and instruction, that we should patiently, and with thanksgiving bear our heavenly FATHERS correction, whensoever by any manner of adversity it shall please His gracious goodness to visit us. And there should be no greater comfort to Christian persons, than to be made like unto CHRIST, by suffering patiently adversities, troubles, and sicknesses.

The Visitation of the Sick.

nesses. For He Himself went not up to joy, but first He suffered pain; He entered not into His glory before He was crucified. So truly our way to eternal joy is to suffer here with CHRIST; and our door to enter into eternal life is gladly to die with CHRIST, that we may rise again from death, and dwell with Him in everlasting life. Now therefore taking your sickness, which is thus profitable for you, patiently, I exhort you in the Name of GOD, to remember the profession which you made unto GOD in your baptism. And for as much as after this life there is an account to be given unto the righteous Judge, by Whom all must be judged without respect of persons; I require you to examine your self and your estate, both toward GOD and man; so that accusing and condemning your self for your own faults, you may find mercy at our heavenly FATHERS hand for CHRISTs sake, and not be accused and condemned in that fearful judgment. Therefore I shall rehearse to you the articles of our faith, that you may know whether you do believe as a Christian man should, or no.

¶ Here the Minister shall rehearse the Articles of the Faith, saying thus,

DOST thou believe in GOD the FATHER ALMIGHTY, Maker of heaven and earth?

And in JESUS CHRIST His only begotten SON our LORD? and that He was conceived by the HOLY GHOST, born of the Virgin Mary; that He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried, that He went down into hell, and also did rise again the third day; that He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of GOD the FATHER ALMIGHTY, and from thence shall come again at the end of the world to judge the quick and the dead?

And dost thou believe in the HOLY GHOST, the holy Catholick Church, the Communion of Saints, the the remission of sins, the resurrection of the flesh, and everlasting life after death?

¶ The sick person shall answer,

All this I stedfastly believe.

¶ Then shall the Minister examine whether he repent him truly of his sins, and be in charity with all the world; exhorting him to forgive from the bottom of his heart all persons that have offended him; and if he hath offended any other, to ask them forgiveness; and where he hath done injury or wrong to any man, that he make amends to the uttermost of his power. And if he hath not before disposed of his goods, let him then be admonished to make his will, and to declare his debts, what he oweth, and what is owing unto him, for the better discharging of his conscience, and the quietness of his executors. But men should often be put in remembrance to take order for the settling of their temporal estates, whilst they are in health.

¶ These words before rehearsed, may be said before the Minister begin his prayer, as he shall see cause.

¶ The Minister should not omit earnestly to move such sick persons as are of ability, to be liberal to the poor.

¶ Here shall the sick person be moved to make a special confession of his sins, if he feel his conscience troubled with any weighty matter. After which confession, the Priest shall absolve him (if he humbly and heartily desire it) after this sort.

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, Who hath left power to His Church to absolve all sinners who truly repent and believe in Him, of His great mercy forgive thee thine offences: And by His authority committed to me, I absolve thee from all thy sins, In the Name of the FATHER, and of the SON, and of the HOLY GHOST. Amen.

¶ And then the Priest shall say the Collect following.

Let us pray.

O MOST merciful GOD, Who according to the multitude of Thy mercies dost so put away the sins of those who truly repent, that Thou rememberest them no more; Open Thine eye of mercy mercy upon this Thy servant, who most earnestly desireth pardon and forgiveness. Renew in him (most loving FATHER) whatsoever hath been decayed by the fraud and malice of the devil, or by his own carnal will and frailness; preserve and continue this sick member in the unity of the Church; consider his contrition, accept his tears, assuage his pain, as shall seem to Thee most expedient for him. And forasmuch as he putteth his full trust only in Thy mercy, impute not unto him his former sins; but strengthen him with Thy blessed SPIRIT, and when Thou art pleased to take him hence, take him unto Thy favour, through the merits of Thy most dearly beloved SON JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister say this Psalm.

In Te, Do-MINE, spc-ravi.
Psal. lxxi.

IN Thee, O LORD, have I put my trust, let me never be put to confusion: but rid me and deliver me in Thy righteousness; incline Thine ear unto me, and save me.

Be Thou my strong hold, whereunto I may always resort: Thou hast promised to help me, for Thou art my house of defence, and my castle.

Deliver me, O my GOD, out of the hand of the ungodly: out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

For Thou, O LORD GOD, art the thing that I long for: Thou art my hope even from my youth.

Through Thee have I been holden up ever since I was born: Thou art He That took me out of my mothers womb; my praise shall always be of Thee.

I am become as it were a monster unto many: but my sure trust is in Thee.

O let my mouth be filled with Thy praise: that I may sing of Thy glory and honour all the day long.

Cast me not away in the time of age: forsake me not when my strength faileth me.

For

For mine enemies speak against me, and they that lay wait for my soul, take their counsel together, saying: God hath forsaken him, persecute him, and take him; for there is none to deliver him.

Go not far from me, O God: my God, haste Thee to help me.

Let them be confounded and perish that are against my soul: let them be covered with shame and dishonour, that seek to do me evil.

As for me, I will patiently abide alway: and will praise Thee more and more.

My mouth shall daily speak of Thy righteousness and salvation: for I know no end thereof.

I will go forth in the strength of the LORD GOD: and will make mention of Thy righteousness only.

Thou, O God, hast taught me from my youth up until now: therefore will I tell of thy wondrous works.

Forfake me not, O God, in mine old age, when I am gray-headed: until I have shewed Thy strength unto this generation, and Thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

Thy righteousness, O God, is very high, and great things are they that Thou hast done: O God, who is like unto Thee?

Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON: and to the HOLY GHOST;

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ Adding this.

O SAVIOUR of the world, Who by Thy cross and precious blood hast redeemed us, save us and help us, we humbly beseech Thee, O LORD.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

THE Almighty LORD, Who is a most strong tower to all them that put their trust in Him,

Him, to Whom all things in heaven, in earth, and under the earth do bow and obey, be now and evermore thy defence, and make thee know and feel, that there is none other name under heaven given to man, in whom, and through whom thou mayest receive health and salvation, but only the Name of our LORD JESUS CHRIST. Amen.

¶ And after that shall say,

UNTO GODS gracious mercy and protection we commit thee. The LORD bless thee and keep thee. The LORD make His face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee. The LORD lift up His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace, both now and evermore. Amen.

A Prayer for a sick Child.

O ALMIGHTY GOD and merciful FATHER, to Whom alone belong the issues of life and death; Look down from heaven, we humbly beseech Thee, with the eyes of mercy upon this child now lying upon the bed of sickness: Visit him, O LORD, with Thy salvation; deliver him in Thy good appointed time from his bodily pain, and save his soul for Thy mercies sake. That if it shall be Thy pleasure to prolong his days here on earth, he may live to Thee, and be an instrument of Thy glory, by serving Thee faithfully, and doing good in his generation; or else receive him into those heavenly habitations, where the souls of them that sleep in the LORD JESUS enjoy perpetual rest and felicity. Grant this, O LORD, for Thy mercies sake, in the same Thy SON our LORD JESUS CHRIST, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the HOLY GHOST, ever one GOD, world without end. Amen.

A Prayer for a sick person, when there appeareth small hope of recovery.

O FATHER of mercies, and GOD of all comfort, our only help in time of need; We flie

lie unto Thee for succour in behalf of this Thy servant, here lying under Thy hand in great weakness of body. Look graciously upon him, O LORD; and the more the outward man decayeth, strengthen him, we beseech Thee, so much the more continually with Thy grace and HOLY SPIRIT in the inner man. Give him unfeigned repentance for all the errours of his life past, and stedfast faith in Thy SON JESUS, that his sins may be done away by Thy mercy, and his pardon sealed in heaven, before he go hence, and be no more seen. We know, O LORD, that there is no word impossible with Thee; and that if Thou wilt, Thou canst even yet raise him up, and grant him a longer continuance amongst us. Yet, forasmuch as in all appearance the time of his dissolution draweth near, so fit and prepare him, we beseech Thee, against the hour of death, that after his departure hence in peace and in Thy favour, his soul may be received into Thine everlasting kingdom, through the merits and mediation of JESUS CHRIST Thine only SON, our LORD and SAVIOUR.
Amen.

¶ A commendatory prayer for a sick person at the point of departure.

O ALMIGHTY GOD, with Whom do live the spirits of just men made perfect, after they are delivered from their earthly prisons; We humbly commend the soul of this Thy servant, our dear brother, into Thy hands, as into the hands of a faithful Creatour, and most merciful SAVIOUR; most humbly beseeching Thee that it may be precious in Thy sight. Wash it, we pray Thee, in the blood of that immaculate Lamb that was slain to take away the sins of the world; that whatsoever defilements it may have contracted in the midst of his miserable and naughty world, through the lusts of the flesh, or the wiles of Satan, being purged and and done away, it may be presented pure and without spot before Thee. And teach us who survive, in this and other like daily spectacles of mortality, to see how frail and uncertain our own condition is, and so to number our days, that we may seriously apply our hearts to that holy and heavenly wisdom, whilst we live here, which may in the end bring us to life everlasting, through the merits of JESUS CHRIST Thine only SON our LORD. Amen.

A Prayer for persons troubled in mind or in conscience.

O BLESSED LORD, the FATHER of mercies, and the GOD of all comforts, we beseech Thee look down in pity and compassion upon this Thy afflicted servant. Thou writest bitter things against him, and makest him to possess his former iniquities; Thy wrath lieth hard upon him, and his soul is full of trouble: But, O merciful God, Who hast written Thy holy word for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of Thy holy Scriptures might have hope; give him a right understanding of himself, and of Thy threats and promises, that he may neither cast away his confidence in Thee, nor place it any where but in Thee. Give him strength against all his temptations, and heal all his distempers. Break not the bruised reed, nor quench the smoking flax. Shut not up Thy tender mercies in displeasure; but make him to hear of joy and gladness, that the bones which Thou hast broken may rejoice. Deliver him from fear of the enemy, and lift up the light of Thy countenance upon him, and give him peace, through the merits and mediation of JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

THE COMMUNION OF THE SICK.

¶ Forasmuch as all mortal men be subject to many sudden perils, diseases and sicknesses, and ever uncertain what time they shall depart out of this life; therefore, to the intent they may be always in a readiness to die, whensoever it shall please ALMIGHTY GOD to call them, the Curates shall diligently from time to time (but especially in the time of pestilence, or other infectious sickness) exhort their Parishioners to the often receiving of the holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our SAVIOUR CHRIST, when it shall be publicly administered in the Church; that so doing, they may in case of sudden visitation, have the less cause to be disquieted for lack of the same. But if the sick person be not able to come to the Church, and yet is desirous to receive the Communion in his house; then he must give timely notice to the Curate, signifying also how many there are to communicate with him (which shall be three, or two at the least) and having a convenient place in the sick mans house, with all things necessary so prepared, that the Curate may reverently minister, he shall there celebrate the holy Communion, beginning with the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel here following.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY everliving God, Maker of mankind, Who dost correct those whom Thou dost love, and chastise every one whom Thou dost receive; We beseech Thee to have mercy upon this Thy servant visited with Thine hand, and to grant that he may take his sickness patiently, and recover his bodily health (if it be Thy gracious will) and whensoever his soul shall depart from the body, it may be without spot presented unto Thee, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

The Epistle.

MY son, despise not thou the chastning of the LORD, nor faint when thou art rebuked of Him. For whom the LORD loveth, He chasteneth; and scourgeth every son whom He receiveth.

Heb. xii. 5.

The

The Gospel.

S. John v.
24.

VERILY, verily I say unto you, He that heareth My word, and believeth on Him That sent Me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation ; but is passed from death unto life.

- ¶ After which, the Priest shall proceed according to the form before prescribed for the holy Communion, beginning at these words [Ye that do truly, &c.]
- ¶ At the time of the distribution of the holy Sacrament, the Priest shall first receive the Communion himself, and after minister unto them that are appointed to communicate with the sick, and last of all to the sick person.
- ¶ But if a man, either by reason of extremity of sickness, or for want of warning in due time to the Curate, or for lack of company to receive with him, or by any other just impediment, do not receive the Sacrament of CHRIST'S Body and Blood, the Curate shall instruct him, that if he do truly repent him of his sins, and stedfastly believe that JESUS CHRIST hath suffered death upon the cross for him, and shed His blood for his redemption, earnestly remembering the benefits he hath thereby, and giving Him hearty thanks therefore, he doth eat and drink the Body and Blood of our SAVIOUR CHRIST profitably to his souls health, although he do not receive the Sacrament with his mouth.
- ¶ When the sick person is visited, and receiveth the holy Communion all at one time, then the Priest, for more expedition, shall cut off the form of the Visitation at the Psalm [In Thee, O LORD, have I put my trust] and go straight to the Communion.
- ¶ In the time of the plague, sweat, or such other like contagious times of sickness or diseases, when none of the Parish or neighbours can be gotten to communicate with the sick in their houses, for fear of the infection, upon special request of the diseased, the Minister may only communicate with him.

for

THE BURIAL OF THE DEAD.

Here is to be noted, that the Office ensuing is not to be used for any that die unbaptized, or excommunicate, or have laid violent hands upon themselves.

The Priest and Clerks meeting the corps at the entrance of the Church-yard, and going before it, either into the Church, or towards the grave, shall say, or sing,

I AM the resurrection and the life, saith the LORD: he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. And whosoever liveth and believeth in Me, shall never die. S. John xi. 25, 26.

I KNOW that my REDEEMER liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth. And though after my skin worms destroy this body; yet in my flesh shall I see GOD: Whom I shall see for my self, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another. Job xix. 25, 26, 27.

WE brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. The LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the Name of the LORD. 1 Tim. vi. 7. Job i. 21.

After they are come into the Church, shall be read one or both of these Psalms following.

I SAID, I will take heed to my ways: that I offend not in my tongue. Dixi, custodiam.
Psal. xxxix.

I will keep my mouth as it were with a bridle: while the ungodly is in my sight.

I held my tongue, and spake nothing: I kept silence, yea even from good words; but it was pain and grief to me.

My heart was hot within me, and while I was thus musing, the fire kindled: and at the last I spake with my tongue.

LORD,

LORD, let me know mine end, and the number of my days : that I may be certified how long I have to live.

Behold, Thou hast made my days as it were a span long : and mine age is even as nothing in respect of Thee, and verily every man living is altogether vanity.

For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain : he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.

And now, LORD, what is my hope : truly my hope is even in Thee.

Deliver me from all mine offences : and make me not a rebuke unto the foolish.

I became dumb and opened not my mouth : for it was Thy doing.

Take Thy plague away from me : I am even consumed by means of Thy heavy hand.

When Thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, Thou makest his beauty to consume away, like as it were a moth fretting a garment : every man therefore is but vanity.

Hear my prayer, O LORD, and with Thine ears consider my calling : hold not Thy peace at my tears.

For I am a stranger with Thee : and a sojourner as all my fathers were.

O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength : before I go hence, and be no more seen.

Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON : and to the HOLY GHOST ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

*DOMINE, Refugium.
Pfal. xc.*

LORD, Thou hast been our Refuge : from one generation to another.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the the earth and the world were made: Thou art God from everlasting, and world without end.

Thou turnest man to destruction: again Thou saist, Come again, ye children of men.

For a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday: seeing that is past as a watch in the night.

As soon as Thou scatterest them, they are even as a sleep: and fade away suddenly like the grass.

In the morning it is green, and groweth up: but in the evening it is cut down, dried up, and withered.

For we consume away in Thy displeasure: and are afraid at Thy wrathful indignation.

Thou hast set our misdeeds before Thee: and our secret sins in the sight of Thy countenance.

For when Thou art angry all our days are gone: we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

The days of our age are threescore years and ten, and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore years: yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow; so soon passeth it away, and we are gone.

But who regardeth the power of Thy wrath: for even thereafter as a man feareth, so is Thy displeasure.

O teach us to number our days: that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

Turn Thee again, O LORD, at the last: and be gracious unto Thy servants.

O satisfy us with Thy mercy, and that soon: so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.

Comfort us again, now after the time that Thou hast plagued us: and for the years wherein we have suffered adversity.

Shew Thy servants Thy work: and their children Thy glory.

And

And the glorious Majesty of the LORD our God be upon us : prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper Thou our handy work.

Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON : and to the HOLY GHOST ;

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

¶ Then shall follow the Lesson taken out of the fifteenth Chapter of the former Epistle of Saint Paul to the Corinthians.

I Cor. xv.

NOW is CHRIST risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in CHRIST shall all be made alive. But every man in his own order : CHRIST the first-fruits ; afterward they that are CHRISTs, at His coming. Then cometh the end, when He shall have delivered up the kingdom to GOD, even the FATHER ; when He shall have put down all rule, and all authority and power. For He must reign till He hath put all enemies under His feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death ; For he hath put all things under His feet. But when He saith all things are put under Him, it is manifest that He is excepted Which did put all things under Him. And when all things shall be subdued unto Him, then shall the SON also Himself be subject unto Him That put all things under Him, that GOD may be all in all. Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all ? why are they then baptized for the dead ? And why stand we in jeopardy every hour ? I protest by your rejoicing, which I have in CHRIST JESUS our LORD, I die daily. If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not ? Let us eat and drink, for to morrow morrow we die. Be not deceived; evil communications corrupt good manners. Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God. I speak this to your shame. But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come? Thou fool, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it die. And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain. But God giveth it a body, as it hath pleased Him, and to every seed his own body. All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial; but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory. So also is the resurrection of the dead; It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul, the last Adam was made a quickning SPIRIT. Howbeit, that was not first which was spiritual; but that which is natural, and afterward that which is spiritual. The first man is of the earth, earthy; the second man is the LORD from heaven. As is the earthy, such are they that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have born the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

Behold,

Behold, I shew you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump; (for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.) For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to GOD Which giveth us the victory, through our LORD JESUS CHRIST. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the LORD, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the LORD.

¶ When they come to the grave, while the corps is made ready to be laid into the earth, the Priest shall say, or the Priest and Clerks shall sing.

MAN that is born of a woman, hath but a short time to live, and is full of misery. He cometh up, and is cut down like a flower; he fleeth as it were a shadow, and never continueth in one stay.

In the midst of life we are in death: of whom may we seek for succour, but of Thee, O LORD, Who for our sins art justly displeas'd?

Yet, O LORD GOD most holy, O LORD most mighty, O holy and most merciful SAVIOUR, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death.

Thou knowest, LORD, the secrets of our hearts; shut not Thy merciful ears to our prayer; but spare us, LORD most holy, O GOD most mighty, O holy and merciful SAVIOUR, Thou most worthy Judge

Judge eternal, suffer us not at our last hour for any pains of death to fall from Thee.

☛ Then while the earth shall be cast upon the body by some standing by, the Priest shall say, FORASMUCH as it hath pleased Almighty GOD of His great mercy to take unto Himself the soul of our dear brother here departed, we therefore commit his body to the ground; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust, in sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life, through our LORD JESUS CHRIST, Who shall change our vile body, that it may be like unto His glorious body, according to the mighty working, whereby He is able to subdue all things to Himself.

☛ Then shall be said or sung,

I HEARD a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write; From henceforth blessed are the dead which die in the LORD: even so saith the SPIRIT; for they rest from their labours.

☛ Then the Priest shall say,

LORD, have mercy upon us.

CHRIST, have mercy upon us.

LORD, have mercy upon us.

OUR FATHER Which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation: But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Priest.

are in joy and felicity; We give Thee hearty thanks, for that it hath pleased Thee to deliver this our brother out of the miseries of this sinful world; beseeching Thee that it may please Thee of Thy gracious goodness, shortly to accomplish the number of Thine elect, and to hasten Thy kingdom, that we, with all those that are departed in the true faith of Thy holy Name, may have our perfect consummation and blifs, both in body and soul, in Thy eternal and everlasting glory, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

The Collect.

O MERCIFUL GOD, the FATHER of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, Who is the Resurrection and the Life; in Whom whosoever believeth, shall live, though he die; and whosoever liveth and believeth in Him, shall not die eternally; Who also hath taught us (by His holy Apostle Saint Paul) not to be sorry, as men without hope, for them that sleep in Him; We meekly beseech Thee, O FATHER, to raise us from the death of sin unto the life of righteousness; that when we shall depart this life, we may rest in Him, as our hope is this our brother doth, and that at the general resurrection in the last day we may be found acceptable in Thy sight, and receive that blessing which Thy well-beloved SON shall then pronounce to all that love and fear Thee, saying, Come, ye blessed children of My FATHER, receive the kingdom prepared for you from the beginning of the world. Grant this, we beseech Thee, O merciful FATHER, through JESUS CHRIST our Mediatour and Redeemer. Amen.

THE grace of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, and the love of GOD, and the fellowship of the HOLY GHOST, be with us all evermore. Amen.

WOMEN AFTER CHILD-BIRTH,

THE CHURCHING OF WOMEN.

¶ The woman at the usual time after her delivery, shall come into the Church decently apparelled, and there shall kneel down in some convenient place, as hath been accustomed, or as the Ordinary shall direct: And then the Priest shall say unto her,

FORASMUCH as it hath pleased Almighty God of His goodness to give you safe deliverance, and hath preserved you in the great danger of child-birth, you shall therefore give hearty thanks unto God, and say,

(¶ Then shall the Priest say the cxvi Psalm.)

I AM well pleased: that the LORD hath heard the voice of my prayer.

That He hath inclined His ear unto me: therefore will I call upon Him as long as I live.

The snares of death compassed me round about: and the pains of hell gat hold upon me.

I found trouble and heaviness, and I called upon the Name of the LORD: O LORD, I beseech Thee, deliver my soul.

Gracious is the LORD, and righteous: yea, our God is merciful.

The LORD preserveth the simple: I was in misery, and He helped me.

Turn again then unto thy rest, O my soul: for the LORD hath rewarded thee.

And why? Thou hast delivered my soul from death: mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

BRETHREN, in the primitive Church there was a godly discipline, that at the beginning of Lent, such persons as stood convicted of notorious sin, were put to open penance, and punished in this world, that their souls might be saved in the day of the LORD; and that others admonished by their example, might be the more afraid to offend.

Instead whereof (until the said discipline may be restored, again, which is much to be wished) it is thought good, that at this time (in the presence of you all) should be read the general sentences of Gods cursing against impenitent sinners, gathered out of the seven and twentieth Chapter of Deuteronomy, and other places of Scripture; and that ye should answer to every sentence, Amen: To the intent

NOW seeing that all they are accursed (as the prophet David beareth witness) who do erre and go astray from the commandments of God, let us (remembring the dreadful judgement hanging over our heads, and always ready to fall upon us) return unto our LORD GOD with all contrition and meekness of heart; bewailing and lamenting our sinful life, acknowledging and confessing our offences, and seeking to bring forth worthy fruits of penance. For now is the ax put unto the root of the trees, so that every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down and cast into the fire. It is a fearful thing to fall into the

For lo, the LORD is come out of His place to visit the wickedness of such as dwell upon the earth. But who may abide the day of His coming? Who shall be able to endure when He appeareth? His fan is in His hand, and He will purge His floor, and gather His wheat into the barn, but He will burn the chaff with unquenchable fire. The day of the LORD cometh as a thief in the night: and when men shall say, Peace, and all things are safe, then shall sudden destruction come upon them, as sorrow cometh upon a woman travelling with child, and they shall not escape. Then shall appear the wrath of God in the day of vengeance, which obstinate sinners, through the stubbornness of their heart, have heaped unto themselves, which despised the goodness, patience and long-sufferance of God, when He calleth them continually to repentance. Then shall they call upon Me (saith the LORD) but I will not hear; they shall seek Me early, but they shall not find Me, and that because they hated knowledge, and received not the fear of the LORD, but abhorred My counsel, and despised My correction. Then shall it be too late to knock when the door shall be shut; and too late to cry for mercy when it is the time of justice. O terrible voice of most just judgement which shall be pronounced upon them, when it shall be said unto them, Go ye cursed into the fire everlasting, which is prepared for the devil and his angels. Therefore, brethren, take we heed betime, while the day of salvation lasteth; for the night cometh, when none can work: but let us, while we have the light, believe in the light, and walk as children of the light, that we be not cast into utter darkness, where is weeping and gnashing of teeth. Cast away from you all your ungodliness that ye have done, make you new hearts, and a new spirit: Wherefore will ye die, O ye house of Israel, seeing that I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the LORD GOD? Turn ye then, and ye shall live. Although we have sinned, yet have we an advocate with the FATHER, JESUS CHRIST the righteous, and He is the propitiation for our sins. For He was wounded for our offences, and smitten for our wickedness. Let us therefore return unto Him, Who is the merciful Receiver of all true penitent sinners; assuring our selves that He is ready to receive us, and most willing to pardon us, if we come unto Him with faithful repentance; if we submit our selves unto Him, and from henceforth walk in His ways; if we will take His easie yoke, and light burden upon us, to follow Him in lowliness, patience, and charity, and be ordered by the governance of His HOLY SPIRIT; seeking always His glory, and serving Him duly in our vocation with thanksgiving. This if we do, CHRIST will deliver us from the curse of the law, and from the extream malediction which shall light upon them that shall be set on the left hand; and He will set us on His right hand, and give us the gracious benediction of His FATHER, commanding us to take possession of His glorious kingdom: unto which He vouchsafe to bring us all, for His infinite mercy. HAVE mercy upon me, O GOD, after Thy great goodness: according to the multitude of Thy mercies, do away mine offences.

Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness: and cleanse me from my sin.

For I acknowledge my faults: and my sin is ever before me.

Against Thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in Thy sight: that Thou mightest be justified in Thy saying, and clear when Thou art judged.

Behold, I was shapen in wickedness: and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

But lo, Thou requirest truth in the inward parts: and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness: that the bones which Thou hast broken, may rejoice.

Turn Thy face away from my sins: and put out all my misdeeds.

Make me a clean heart, O GOD: and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from Thy presence: and take not Thy HOLY SPIRIT from me.

O give me the comfort of Thy help again: and stablish me with Thy free SPIRIT.

Then shall I teach Thy ways unto the wicked: and sinners shall be converted unto Thee.

Deliver me from bloud-guiltiness, O GOD, Thou That art the GOD of my health: and my tongue shall sing of Thy righteousness.

PSALMS OF DAVID.

THE FIRST PSALM.

Beatus vir, qui non abiit.

BLESSED is the man that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of finners : and hath not sat in the seat of the scornful.

2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD : and in His law will he exercise himself day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the water-side : that will bring forth his fruit in due season.

4 His leaf also shall not wither : and look whatsoever he doth, it shall prosper.

5 As for the ungodly it is not so with them : but they are like the chaff which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

6 Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgment : neither the finners in the congregation of the righteous.

7 But the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous : and the way of the ungodly shall perish.

5 Such as be foolish shall not stand in Thy fight : for Thou hatest all them that work vanity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing : the LORD will abhor both the bloud-thirsty and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into Thine house, even upon the multitude of Thy mercy : and in Thy fear will I worship toward Thy holy temple.

8 Lead me, O LORD, in Thy righteoufness, because of mine enemies : make Thy way plain before my face.

11 Destroy Thou them, O GOD, let them perish through their own imaginations : cast them out in the multitude of their ungodliness ; for they have rebelled against Thee.

THE X. PSALM.

Ut quid, DOMINE?

WHY standest Thou so far off, O LORD : and hidest Thy face in the needful time of trouble ?

2 The ungodly for his own lust doth persecute the poor : let them be taken in the crafty wiliness that they have imagined.

3 For the ungodly hath made boast of his own hearts desire : and speaketh good of the covetous whom God abhorreth.

4 The ungodly is so proud, that he careth not for God : neither is God in all his thoughts.

5 His ways are alway grievous : Thy judgments are far above out of his sight, and therefore despieth he all his enemies.

6 For he hath said in his heart, Tush, I shall never be cast down : there shall no harm happen unto me.

7 His mouth is full of cursing, deceit, and fraud : under his tongue is ungodliness and vanity.

8 He fitteth lurking in the thievish corners of the streets : and privily in his lurking dens doth he murder the innocent ; his eyes are set against the poor.

9 For

9 For he lieth waiting secretly, even as a lion lurketh he in his den : that he may ravish the poor.

10 He doth ravish the poor : when he getteth him into his net.

11 He falleth down and humbleth himself : that the congregation of the poor may fall into the hands of his captains.

12 He hath said in his heart, Tush, GOD hath forgotten : He hideth away His face, and He will never see it.

13 Arise, O LORD GOD, and lift up Thine hand : forget not the poor.

14 Wherefore should the wicked blaspheme God : while he doth say in his heart, Tush, Thou God carest not for it.

15 Surely Thou hast seen it : for Thou beholdest ungodliness and wrong.

16 That Thou mayest take the matter into Thy hand : the poor committeth himself unto Thee ; for Thou art the Helper of the friendless.

17 Break Thou the power of the ungodly and malicious : take away his ungodliness, and Thou shalt find none.

18 The LORD is King for ever and ever : and the heathen are perished out of the land.

19 LORD, Thou hast heard the desire of the poor : Thou preparest their heart, and Thine ear hearkneth thereto.

20 To help the fatherless and poor unto their right : that the man of the earth be no more exalted against them.

THE XI. PSALM.

In DOMINO confido.

IN the LORD put I my trust : how say ye then to my soul, that she should flee as a bird unto the hill ?

2 For

2 For lo, the ungodly bend their bow, and make ready their arrows within the quiver : that they may privily shoot at them which are true of heart.

3 For the foundations will be cast down : and what hath the righteous done ?

4 The LORD is in His holy temple : the LORDS seat is in heaven.

5 His eyes consider the poor : and His eye-lids try the children of men.

6 The LORD alloweth the righteous : but the ungodly, and him that delighteth in wickedness doth His soul abhor.

7 Upon the ungodly He shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, storm, and tempest : this shall be their portion to drink.

8 For the righteous LORD loveth righteoufness : His countenance will behold the thing that is just.

THE XII. PSALM.

Salvum me fac.

HELP me, LORD, for there is not one godly man left : for the faithful are minished from among the children of men.

2 They talk of vanity every one with his neighbour : they do but flatter with their lips, and dissemble in their double heart.

3 The LORD shall root out all deceitful lips : and the tongue that speaketh proud things.

4 Which have said, With our tongue will we prevail : we are they that ought to speak, who is LORD over us ?

5 Now for the comfortless troubles sake of the needy : and because of the deep sighing of the poor ;

6 I will up, saith the LORD : and will help every one from him that swelleth against him, and will set him at rest.

8 Thou shalt keep them, O LORD : Thou shalt preserve him from this generation for ever.

9 The ungodly walk on every side : when they are exalted, the children of men are put to rebuke.

THE XIII. PSALM.

Usque quo, DOMINE?

HOW long wilt Thou forget me, O LORD, for ever : how long wilt Thou hide Thy face from me ?

2 How long shall I seek counsel in my soul, and be so vexed in my heart : how long shall mine enemies triumph over me ?

3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God : lighten mine eyes, that I sleep not in death.

4 Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him : for if I be cast down, they that trouble me, will rejoyce at it.

5 But my trust is in Thy mercy : and my heart is joyful in Thy salvation.

6 I will sing of the LORD, because He hath dealt so lovingly with me : yea, I will praise the Name of the LORD most Highest.

THE XIV. PSALM.

Dixit insipiens.

THE fool hath said in his heart : There is no God.

2 They are corrupt, and become abominable in their doings : there is none, that doth good, no not one.

3 The LORD looked down from heaven upon the the children of men : to see if there were any, that would understand, and seek after God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become abominable : there is none, that doth good, no not one.

5 Their throat is an open sepulchre, with their tongues have they deceived : the poison of asps is under their lips.

6 Their mouth is full of cursing, and bitterness : their feet are swift to shed blood.

7 Destruction, and unhappiness is in their ways, and the way of peace have they not known : there is no fear of God before their eyes.

8 Have they no knowledge, that they are all such workers of mischief : eating up my people as it were bread, and call not upon the LORD ?

9 There were they brought in great fear, even where no fear was : for GOD is in the generation of the righteous.

10 As for you, ye have made a mock at the counsel of the poor : because he putteth his trust in the LORD.

11 Who shall give salvation unto Israel out of Zion ? When the LORD turneth the captivity of His people : then shall Jacob rejoyce, and Israel shall be glad.

THE XV. PSALM.

DOMINE, quis habitabit.

Conserua me, DOMINE.

PRESERVE me, O GOD : for in Thee have I put my trust.

2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the LORD : Thou art my GOD, my goods are nothing unto Thee.

3 All my delight is upon the saints, that are in the earth : and upon such, as excel in vertue.

4 But they, that run after another god : shall have great trouble.

5 Their drink-offerings of bloud will I not offer : neither make mention of their names within my lips.

6 The LORD Himself is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup : Thou shalt maintain my lot.

7 The lot is fallen unto me in a fair ground : yea, I have a goodly heritage.

8 I will thank the LORD for giving me warning : my reins also chasten me in the night-season.

9 I have set God always before Me : for He is on My right hand, therefore I shall not fall.

Exaudi, DOMINE.

HEAR the right, O LORD, consider my complaint: and hearken unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.

2 Let my sentence come forth from Thy presence: and let Thine eyes look upon the thing that is equal.

3 Thou hast proved, and visited mine heart in the night season; Thou hast tried me, and shalt find no wickedness in me: for I am utterly purposed, that my mouth shall not offend.

4 Because of mens works, that are done against the words of Thy lips: I have kept me from the ways of the destroyer.

5 O hold Thou up my goings in Thy paths: that my footsteps slip not.

6 I have called upon Thee, O God, for Thou shalt hear me: incline Thine ear to me, and hearken unto my words.

7 Shew Thy marvellous loving kindness, Thou That art the SAVIOUR of them, which put their trust in Thee: from such as resist Thy right hand.

8 Keep me as the apple of an eye: hide me under the shadow of Thy wings.

9 From the ungodly, that trouble me: mine enemies compass me round about to take away my soul.

11 They lie waiting in our way on every side: turning their eyes down to the ground.

15 They have children at their desire : and leave the rest of their substance for their babes.

16 But as for me, I will behold Thy presence in righteousness : and when I awake up after Thy likeness, I shall be satisfied with it.

THE XVIII. PSALM.

Diligam Te, DOMINE.

Evening
Prayer.

I WILL love Thee, O LORD, my Strength ; the LORD is my stony Rock, and my Defence : my SAVIOUR, my GOD, and my Might, in Whom I will trust, my Buckler, the Horn also of my salvation, and my Refuge.

2 I will call upon the LORD, Which is worthy to be praised : so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

3 The sorrows of death compassed me : and the overflowings of ungodliness made me afraid.

4 The pains of hell came about me : the snares of death overtook me.

5 In my trouble I will call upon the LORD : and complain unto my GOD.

6 So shall He hear my voice out of His holy temple : and my complaint shall come before Him, it shall enter even into His ears.

7 The earth trembled, and quaked : the very foundations also of the hills shook, and were removed, because He was wroth.

8 There went a smoke out in His presence : and and a consuming fire out of His mouth, so that coals were kindled at it.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down : and it was dark under His feet.

10 He rode upon the Cherubins, and did flie : He came flying upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darknes His secret place : His pavilion round about Him with dark water, and thick clouds to cover Him.

12 At the brightness of His presence His clouds removed : hail-stones, and coals of fire.

13 The LORD also thundred out of heaven, and the Highest gave His thunder : hail-stones, and coals of fire.

14 He sent out His arrows, and scattered them : He cast forth lightnings, and destroyed them.

15 The springs of waters were seen, and the foundations of the round world were discovered at Thy chiding, O LORD : at the blasting of the breath of Thy displeasure.

16 He shall send down from on high to fetch me : and shall take me out of many waters.

17 He shall deliver me from my strongest enemy, and from them, which hate me : for they are too mighty for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my trouble : but the LORD was my Upholder.

19 He brought me forth also into a place of liberty : He brought me forth, even because He had a favour unto me.

20 The LORD shall reward me after my righteous dealing : according to the cleanness of my hands shall He recompense me.

21 Because I have kept the waies of the LORD : and have not forsaken my GOD, as the wicked doth.

22 For I have an eye unto all His laws : and will not cast out His commandments from me.

The 3
DAY.

23 I was also uncorrupt before Him : and eschewed mine own wickedness.

24 Therefore shall the LORD reward me after my righteous dealing : and according unto the cleanness of my hands in His eye-sight.

25 With the holy Thou shalt be holy : and with a perfect man Thou shalt be perfect.

26 With the clean Thou shalt be clean : and with the froward Thou shalt learn frowardness.

27 For Thou shalt save the people, that are in adversity : and shalt bring down the high looks of the proud.

28 Thou also shalt light my candle : the LORD my GOD shall make my darkness to be light.

29 For in Thee I shall discomfit an host of men : and with the help of my GOD I shall leap over the wall.

30 The way of GOD is an undefiled way : the word of the LORD also is tried in the fire ; He is the Defender of all them, that put their trust in Him.

31 For who is GOD, but the LORD : or who hath any strength, except our GOD ?

32 It is GOD, That girdeth me with strength of war : and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feet like harts feet : and setteth me up on high.

34 He teacheth mine hands to fight : and mine arms shall break even a bow of steel.

35 Thou hast given me the defence of Thy salvation : Thy right hand also shall hold me up, and Thy loving correction shall make me great.

36 Thou shalt make room enough under me for to go : that my foot-steps shall not slide.

37 I will follow upon mine enemies, and overtake them : neither will I turn again till I have destroyed them.

38 I will smite them, that they shall not be able to stand : but fall under my feet.

39 Thou hast girded me with strength unto the battel : Thou shalt throw down mine enemies under me.

40 Thou hast made mine enemies also to turn their backs upon me : and I shall destroy them, that hate me.

41 They shall cry, but there shall be none to help them : yea even unto the LORD shall they cry, but He shall not hear them.

42 I will beat them as small as the dust before the wind : I will cast them out as the clay in the streets.

43 Thou shalt deliver me from the strivings of the people : and Thou shalt make me the head of the heathen.

44 A people, whom I have not known : shall serve me.

45 As soon as they hear of me they shall obey me : but the strange children shall dissemble with me.

46 The strange children shall fail : and be afraid out of their prisons.

47 The LORD liveth, and blessed be my strong Helper : and praised be the GOD of my salvation.

48 Even the GOD, That seeth that I be avenged : and subdueth the people unto me.

49 It is He, That delivereth me from my cruel Enemies, and setteth me up above mine Adversaries : Thou shalt rid me from the wicked man.

50 For this cause will I give thanks unto Thee, O LORD, among the Gentiles : and sing praises unto Thy Name.

51 Great prosperity giveth He unto His King : and sheweth loving kindness unto David His Anointed, and unto His Seed for evermore.

4 Their sound is gone out into all lands : and their words into the ends of the world.

5 In them hath He set a tabernacle for the Sun : which cometh forth as a Bridegroom out of his chamber, and rejoyceth as a Giant to run his course.

6 It goeth forth from the uttermost part of the Heaven, and runneth about unto the end of it again : and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The law of the LORD is an undefiled law, converting the soul : the testimony of the LORD is sure, and giveth wisdom unto the simple.

8 The statutes of the LORD are right, and joyce the heart : the commandment of the LORD is pure, and giveth light unto the eyes.

9 The fear of the LORD is clean, and endureth for ever : the judgements of the LORD are true, and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold : sweeter also than honey, and the honeycomb.

11 Moreover by them is Thy Servant taught : and in keeping of them there is great reward.

6 But as for me, I am a worm, and no man : a very scorn of men, and the out-cast of the people.

7 All they that see me, laugh me to scorn : they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying,

THE LORD is my Light, and my Salvation ; whom then shall I fear : the LORD is the Strength of my life ; of whom then shall I be afraid ?

2 When the wicked, even mine enemies, and my foes came upon me to eat up my flesh : they stumbled, and fell.

3 Though an host of men were laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid : and though there rose up war against me, yet will I put my trust in Him.

4 One thing have I desired of the LORD, which I will require : even that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the daies of my life, to behold the fair beauty of the LORD, and to visit His temple.

7 Therefore will I offer in His dwelling an oblation with great gladness : I will sing, and speak praises unto the LORD.

8 Hearken unto my voice, O LORD, when I cry unto Thee : have mercy upon me, and hear me.

9 My heart hath talked of Thee, Seek ye My face : Thy face, LORD, will I seek.

Ad Te, DOMINE.

UNTO Thee will I cry, O LORD my Strength : think no scorn of me, lest if Thou make as though Thou hearest not, I become like them, that go down into the pit.

I cry unto Thee : when I hold up my hands towards the mercy-seat of Thy holy temple.

3 O pluck me not away, neither destroy me with the ungodly, and wicked doers : which speak friendly to their neighbours, but imagine mischief in their hearts.

4 Reward them according to their deeds : and according to the wickedness of their own inventions.

5 Recompense them after the work of their hands : pay them that they have deserved.

6 For they regard not in their mind the works of the LORD, nor the operation of His hands : therefore shall He break them down, and not build them up.

7 Praised be the LORD : for He hath heard the voice of my humble petitions.

8 The LORD is my Strength, and my Shield, my heart hath trusted in Him, and I am helped : therefore my heart danceth for joy, and in my song will I praise Him.

9 The LORD is my Strength : and He is the wholsom Defence of His Anointed.

10 O save Thy people, and give Thy blessing unto Thine inheritance : feed them, and set them up for ever.

THE XXIX. PSALM.

Afferte DOMINO.

BRING unto the LORD, O ye mighty, bring young rams unto the LORD : ascribe unto the LORD worship, and strength.

2 Give the LORD the honour due unto His Name : worship the LORD with holy worship.

3 It is the LORD, That commandeth the waters : it is the glorious GOD, That maketh the thunder.

4 It is the LORD, That ruleth the Sea ; the voice of of the LORD is mighty in operation : the voice of the LORD is a glorious voice.

5 The voice of the LORD breaketh the Cedar-trees : yea, the LORD breaketh the Cedars of Libanus.

6 He maketh them also to skip like a calf : Libanus also, and Sirion like a young unicorn.

7 The voice of the LORD divideth the flames of fire, the voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderness : yea, the LORD shaketh the wilderness of Cades.

8 The voice of the LORD maketh the hinds to bring forth young, and discovereth the thick bushes : in His temple doth every man speak of His honour.

9 The LORD sitteth above the water-flood : and the LORD remaineth a King for ever.

10 The LORD shall give strength unto His people : the LORD shall give His people the blessing of peace.

THE XXX. PSALM.

Exaltabo Te, DOMINE.

I WILL magnifie Thee, O LORD, for Thou hast fet me up : and not made my foes to triumph over me.

2 O LORD my GOD, I cryed unto Thee : and Thou hast healed me.

3 Thou, LORD, hast brought my soul out of hell : Thou hast kept my life from them, that go down to the pit.

4 Sing praises unto the LORD, O ye faints of His : and give thanks unto Him for a remembrance of His holiness.

5 For His wrath endureth but the twinkling of an eye, and in His pleasure is life : heaviness may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

THE XXXI. PSALM.

In Te, DOMINE, ſperavi.

IN Thee, O LORD, have I put my truſt : let me never be put to confuſion, deliver me in Thy righteouſneſs.

2 Bow down Thine ear to me : make haſte to deliver me.

3 And be Thou my ſtrong Rock, and Houſe of defence : that Thou mayeſt ſave me.

4 For Thou art my ſtrong Rock, and my Caſtle : be Thou alſo my Guide, and lead me for Thy Names ſake.

5 Draw me out of the net, that they have laid privily for me : for Thou art my Strength.

6 Into Thy hands I commend my ſpirit : for Thou haſt redeemed me, O LORD, Thou GOD of truth.

7 I have hated them, that hold of superstitious vanities : and my trust hath been in the LORD.

8 I will be glad, and rejoyce in Thy mercy : for Thou hast considered my trouble, and hast known my soul in adversities.

9 Thou hast not shut me up into the hand of the nemy : but hast set my feet in a large room.

10 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble : and mine eye is consumed for very heaviness ; yea, my soul, and my body.

11 For my life is waxen old with heaviness : and my years with mourning.

12 My strength faileth me, because of mine iniquity : and my bones are consumed.

13 I became a reproof among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours : and they of mine acquaintance were afraid of me, and they, that did see me without, conveyed themselves from me.

14 I am clean forgotten, as a dead man out of mind : I am become like a broken vessel.

15 For I have heard the blasphemy of the multitude : and fear is on every side, while they conspire together against me, and take their counsel to take away my life.

16 But my hope hath been in Thee, O LORD : have said, Thou art my God.

17 My time is in Thy hand, deliver me from the hand of mine enemies : and from them, that persecute me.

18 Shew Thy servant the light of Thy countenance : and save me for Thy mercies sake.

19 Let me not be confounded, O LORD, for I have called upon Thee : let the ungodly be put to confusion, and be put to silence in the grave.

20 Let the lying lips be put to silence : which cruelly, disdainfully, and despitefully speak against the righteous.

The 6
DAY.

21 O how plentiful is Thy goodness which Thou hast laid up for them, that fear Thee : and that Thou hast prepared for them, that put their trust in Thee, even before the sons of men !

22 Thou shalt hide them privily by Thine own presence from the provoking of all men : Thou shalt keep them secretly in Thy tabernacle from the strife of tongues.

23 Thanks be to the LORD : for He hath shewed me marvellous great kindness in a strong city.

24 And when I made haste, I said : I am cast out of the fight of Thine eyes.

25 Nevertheless Thou heardest the voice of my prayer : when I cryed unto Thee.

26 O love the LORD, all ye His saints : for the LORD preserveth them, that are faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

27 Be strong, and He shall establish your heart : all ye, that put your trust in the LORD.

THE XXXII. PSALM.

Beati, quorum.

*Reading
Prayer.*

BLESSED is he, whose unrighteousness is forgiven : and whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man, unto whom the LORD imputeth no sin : and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 For whilest I held my tongue : my bones consumed away through my daily complaining.

4 For Thy hand is heavy upon me day and night : and my moisture is like the drought in summer.

5 I will acknowledge my sin unto Thee : and mine unrighteousness have I not hid.

6 I said, I will confess my sins unto the LORD : and so Thou forgavest the wickedness of my sin.

7 For this shall every one, that is godly, make his prayer unto Thee, in a time when Thou mayest be found : but in the great water-floods they shall not come nigh Him.

8 Thou art a Place to hide me in, Thou shalt preserve me from trouble : Thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

9 I will inform thee, and teach thee in the way, wherein thou shalt go : and I will guide thee with Mine eye.

10 Be ye not like to horse, and mule, which have no understanding : whose mouths must be held with bit, and bridle, lest they fall upon thee.

11 Great plagues remain for the ungodly : but whose putteth his trust in the LORD, mercy embraceth him on every side.

12 Be glad, O ye righteous, and rejoyce in the LORD : and be joyful all ye, that are true of heart.

THE XXXIII. PSALM.

Exultate, just.

REJOYCE in the LORD, O ye righteous : for it becometh well the just to be thankful.

2 Praise the LORD with harp : sing praises unto Him with the lute, and instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto the LORD a new song : sing praises lustily unto Him with a good courage.

4 For the word of the LORD is true : and all His works are faithful.

5 He loveth righteousness, and judgement : the earth is full of the goodness of the LORD.

6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made : and all the hosts of them by the breath of His mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together, it were upon an heap : and laieth up the deep, in a treasure-house.

The 6
DAY.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD : stand in awe of Him, all ye, that dwell in the world ;

9 For He spake, and it was done : He commanded, and it stood fast.

10 The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought : and maketh the devices of the people to be of none effect, and casteth out the counsels of Princes.

11 The counsel of the LORD shall endure for ever : and the thoughts of His heart from generation to generation.

12 Blessed are the people, whose GOD is the LORD JEHOVAH : and blessed are the folk, that He hath chosen to Him, to be His inheritance.

13 The LORD looked down from heaven, and beheld all the children of men : from the habitation of His dwelling He considereth all them, that dwell on the earth.

14 He fashioneth all the hearts of them : and understandeth all their works.

15 There is no king, that can be saved by the multitude of an host : neither is any mighty man delivered by much strength.

16 A horse is counted but a vain thing to save a man : neither shall he deliver any man by his great strength.

17 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them, that fear Him : and upon them, that put their trust in His mercy.

18 To deliver their soul from death : and to feed them in the time of dearth.

19 Our soul hath patiently tarried for the LORD : for He is our Help and our Shield.

20 For our heart shall rejoyce in Him : because we have hoped in His holy Name.

21 Let Thy merciful kindness, O LORD, be upon us : like as we do put our trust in Thee.

He delivered me out of all my fear.

5 They had an eye unto Him, and were lightened : and their faces were not aſhamed.

him : yea, and ſaveth him out of all his troubles.

blessed is the man, that truſteth in Him.

9 O fear the LORD, ye, that are His Saints : for they, that fear Him, lack nothing.

they, who ſeek the LORD, ſhall want no manner of thing, that is good.

11 Come, ye children, and hearken unto me :
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

The 7
DAY.
*Morning
Prayer.*

PLEAD Thou my cause, O LORD, with them, that strive with me : and fight Thou against them, that fight against me.

2 Lay hand upon the shield, and buckler : and stand up to help me.

3 Bring forth the spear, and stop the way against them, that persecute me : say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

4 Let them be confounded, and put to shame, that seek after my soul : let them be turned back, and brought to confusion, that imagine mischief for me.

5 Let them be as the dust before the wind : and the Angel of the LORD scattering them.

6 Let their way be dark, and slippery : and let the Angel of the LORD persecute them.

7 For they have privily laid their net to destroy me without a cause : yea, even without a cause have they made a pit for my soul.

8 Let

8 Let a sudden destruction come upon him unawares, and his net, that he hath laid privily, catch himself: that he may fall into his own mischief.

9 And, my soul, be joyful in the LORD: it shall rejoyce in His salvation.

10 All my bones shall say, LORD, who is like unto Thee, Who deliverest the poor from him, that is too strong for him: yea, the poor, and him that is in misery, from him, that spoileth him.

11 False witnesses did rise up: they laid to my charge things, that I knew not.

12 They rewarded me evil for good: to the great discomfort of my soul.

13 Nevertheless, when they were sick, I put on sackcloth, and humbled my soul with fasting: and my prayer shall turn into mine own bosom.

14 I behaved my self, as though it had been my friend, or my brother: I went heavily, as one, that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in mine adversity they rejoyced, and gathered themselves together: yea, the very abjects came together against me unawares, making mouths at me, and ceased not.

16 With the flatterers were busie mockers: who gnashed upon me with their teeth.

17 LORD, how long wilt Thou look upon this: O deliver my soul from the calamities, which they bring on me, and my dearling from the lions.

18 So will I give Thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise Thee among much people.

19 O let not them, that are mine enemies, triumph over me ungodly: neither let them wink with their eyes, that hate me without a cause.

20 And why? their communing is not for peace: but they imagine deceitful words against them, that are quiet in the land.

21 They gaped upon me with their mouths, and said:

said : Fie on thee, fie on thee, we saw it with our eyes.

22 This Thou hast seen, O LORD : hold not Thy tongue then, go not far from me, O LORD.

23 Awake and stand up to judge my quarrel : avenge Thou my cause, my GOD, and my LORD.

24 Judge me, O LORD my GOD, according to Thy righteousness : and let them not triumph over me.

25 Let them not say in their hearts, There there, so would we have it : neither let them say, We have devoured.

26 Let them be put to confusion and shame together, that rejoyce at my trouble : let them be clothed with rebuke and dishonour, that boast themselves against me.

27 Let them be glad and rejoyce, that favour my righteous dealing : yea, let them say alway, Blessed be the LORD, Who hath pleasure in the prosperity of His servant.

28 And as for my tongue, it shall be talking of Thy righteousness : and of Thy praise all the day long.

THE XXXVI. PSALM.

Dixit injustus.

MY heart sheweth me the wickedness of the ungodly : that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For he flattereth himself in his own sight : until his abominable sin be found out.

3 The words of his mouth are unrighteous, and full of deceit : he hath left off to behave himself wisely, and to do good.

4 He imagineth mischief upon his bed, and hath set himself in no good way : neither doth he abhor any thing that is evil.

5 Thy

5 Thy mercy, O LORD, reacheth unto the heavens : and Thy faithfulness unto the clouds.

6 Thy righteousness standeth like the strong mountains : Thy judgements are like the great deep.

7 Thou, LORD, shalt save both man and beast ; How excellent is Thy mercy, O God : and the children of men shall put their trust under the shadow of Thy wings.

8 They shall be satisfied with the plenteousness of Thy house : and Thou shalt give them drink of Thy pleasures, as out of the river.

9 For with Thee is the well of life : and in Thy light shall we see light.

10 O continue forth Thy loving kindness unto them, that know Thee : and Thy righteousness into them, that are true of heart.

11 O let not the foot of pride come against me : and let not the hand of the ungodly cast me down.

12 There are they fallen, all that work wickedness : they are cast down, and shall not be able to stand.

THE XXXVII. PSALM.

Noli æmulari.

FRET not thy self because of the ungodly : neither be thou envious against the evil doers.

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass : and be withered even as the green herb.

3 Put thou thy trust in the LORD, and be doing good : dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thou in the LORD : and He shall give thee thy hearts desire.

The 7
DAY.

7 Hold thee still in the LORD, and abide patiently upon Him : but grieve not thy self at him, whose way doth prosper, against the man, that doth after evil counsels.

8 Leave off from wrath, and let go displeasure : fret not thy self, else shalt thou be moved to do evil.

9 Wicked doers shall be rooted out : and they, that patiently abide the LORD, those shall inherit the land.

10 Yet a little while, and the ungodly shall be clean gone : thou shalt look after his place, and he shall be away.

11 But the meek-spirited shall possess the earth : and shall be refreshed in the multitude of peace.

12 The ungodly seeketh counsel against the just : and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

13 The LORD shall laugh him to scorn : for He hath seen, that his day is coming.

14 The ungodly have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow : to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such, as are of a right conversation.

15 Their sword shall go through their own heart : and their bow shall be broken.

16 A small thing that the righteous hath : is better than great riches of the ungodly.

17 For the arms of the ungodly shall be broken : and the LORD upholdeth the righteous.

18 The LORD knoweth the days of the godly : and their inheritance shall endure for ever.

19 They shall not be confounded in the perillous time : and in the days of dearth they shall have enough.

20 As for the ungodly, they shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall consume as the fat of lambs : yea, even as the smoke shall they consume away.

21 The

21 The ungodly borroweth, and payeth not again : but the righteous is merciful, and liberal.

22 Such, as are blessed of GOD, shall possess the land : and they, that are cursed of Him, shall be rooted out.

23 The LORD ordereth a good mans going : and maketh his way acceptable to Himself.

24 Though he fall, he shall not be cast away : or the LORD upholdeth him with His hand.

25 I have been young, and now am old : and yet saw I never the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging their bread.

26 The righteous is ever merciful, and lendeth : and his seed is blessed.

27 Flee from evil, and do the thing that is good : and dwell for evermore.

28 For the LORD loveth the thing that is right : He forsaketh not His, that be godly, but they are reserved for ever.

29 The unrighteous shall be punished : as for the seed of the ungodly, it shall be rooted out.

30 The righteous shall inherit the land : and dwell therein for ever.

31 The mouth of the righteous is exercised in wisdom : and his tongue will be talking of judgement.

32 The law of his GOD is in his heart : and his sayings shall not slide.

33 The ungodly seeth the righteous : and seeketh occasion to slay him.

34 The LORD will not leave him in his hand : or condemn him when he is judged.

35 Hope thou in the LORD, and keep His way, and He shall promote thee, that thou shalt possess the land : when the ungodly shall perish, thou shalt see it.

36 I my self have seen the ungodly in great power : and flourishing like a green bay-tree.

The 7
DAY.

37 I went by, and lo, he was gone : I sought him, but his place could no where be found.

38 Keep innocency, and take heed unto the thing that is right : for that shall bring a man peace at the last.

39 As for the transgressours, they shall perish together : and the end of the ungodly is, They shall be rooted out at the last.

40 But the salvation of the righteous cometh of the LORD : Who is also their Strength in the time of trouble.

41 And the LORD shall stand by them, and save them : He shall deliver them from the ungodly, and shall save them, because they put their trust in Him.

THE XXXVIII. PSALM.

DOMINE, ne in furore.

Morning
Prayer.

PUT me not to rebuke, O LORD, in Thine anger : neither chasten me in Thy heavy displeasure.

2 For Thine arrows stick fast in me : and Thy hand presseth me fore.

3 There is no health in my flesh, because of Thy displeasure : neither is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sin.

4 For my wickednesses are gone over my head : and are like a fore burthen, too heavy for me to bear.

5 My wounds stink, and are corrupt : through my foolishness.

6 I am brought into so great trouble, and misery : that I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a fore disease : and there is no whole part in my body.

8 I am feeble, and sore smitten : I have roared for the very disquietness of my heart.

9 LORD,

9 LORD, Thou knowest all my desire : and my roaring is not hid from Thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength hath failed me : and the sight of mine eyes is gone from me.

11 My lovers, and my neighbours did stand looking upon my trouble : and my kinsmen stood far off.

12 They also, that fought after my life, laid snares for me : and they, that went about to do me evil, talked of wickedness, and imagined deceit all the day long.

13 As for me, I was like a deaf man, and heard not : and as one, that is dumb, who doth not open his mouth.

14 I became even as a man, that heareth not : and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For in Thee, O LORD, have I put my trust : Thou shalt answer for me, O LORD my GOD.

16 I have required that they, even mine enemies, should not triumph over me : for when my foot slipt, they rejoyced greatly against me.

17 And I, truly, am set in the plague : and my saviness is ever in my fight.

18 For I will confess my wickedness : and be sorry for my sin.

19 But mine enemies live, and are mighty : and they, that hate me wrongfully, are many in number.

20 They also, that reward evil for good, are against me : because I follow the thing that good is.

21 Forfake me not, O LORD my GOD : be not Thou far from me.

22 Hasten Thee to help me : O LORD GOD of my salvation.

THE XXXIX. PSALM.

Dixi, custodiam.

SAID, I will take heed to my waies : that I offend not in my tongue.

The 8
DAY.

2 I will keep my mouth as it were with a bridle : while the ungodly is in my fight.

3 I held my tongue, and spake nothing : I kept silence, yea, even from good words ; but it was pain, and grief to me.

4 My heart was hot within me, and while I was thus musing, the fire kindled : and at the last I spake with my tongue.

5 LORD, let me know my end, and the number of my daies : that I may be certified how long I have to live.

6 Behold, Thou hast made my daies as it were a span long : and mine age is even as nothing in respect of Thee, and verily every man living is altogether vanity.

7 For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain : he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell, who shall gather them.

8 And now, LORD, what is my hope : truly my hope is even in Thee.

9 Deliver me from all mine offences : and make me not a rebuke unto the foolish.

10 I became dumb, and opened not my mouth : for it was Thy doing.

11 Take Thy plague away from me : I am even consumed by the means of Thy heavy hand.

12 When Thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, Thou makest his beauty to consume away, like as it were a moth fretting a garment : every man therefore is but vanity.

13 Hear my prayer, O LORD, and with Thine ears consider my calling : hold not Thy peace at my tears.

14 For I am a stranger with Thee, and a sojourner : as all my fathers were.

15 O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength : before I go hence, and be no more seen.

I WAITED patiently for the LORD : and He inclined unto me, and heard my calling.

2 He brought me also out of the horrible pit, out of the mire, and clay : and set my feet upon the rock, and ordered my goings.

3 And He hath put a new song in my mouth : even a thanksgiving unto our GOD.

4 Many shall see it and fear : and shall put their trust in the LORD.

5 Blessed is the man, that hath set his hope in the LORD : and turned not unto the proud, and to such as go about with lies.

6 O LORD my GOD, great are the wondrous works, which Thou hast done, like as be also Thy thoughts, which are to us-ward : and yet there is no man, that ordereth them unto Thee.

7 If I should declare them, and speak of them : they should be more than I am able to express.

8 Sacrifice, and meat offering Thou wouldest not : but Mine ears hast Thou opened.

9 Burnt-offerings, and sacrifice for sin hast Thou not required : then said I, Lo, I come.

10 In the volume of the book it is written of Me, that I should fulfil Thy will, O My GOD : I am content to do it, yea, Thy law is within My heart.

11 I have declared Thy righteousness in the great congregation : lo, I will not refrain my lips, O LORD, and that Thou knowest.

12 I have not hid Thy righteousness within my heart : my talk hath been of Thy truth, and of Thy salvation.

13 I have not kept back Thy loving mercy, and truth : from the great congregation.

15 For innumerable troubles are come about me, my sins have taken such hold upon me, that I am not able to look up : yea, they are more in number than the hairs of my head, and my heart hath failed me.

16 O LORD, let it be Thy pleasure to deliver me : make haste, O LORD, to help me.

17 Let them be ashamed, and confounded together, that seek after my soul to destroy it : let them be driven backward, and put to rebuke, that wish me evil.

18 Let them be desolate, and rewarded with shame : that say unto me, Fie upon thee, fie upon thee.

19 Let all those, that seek Thee, be joyful, and glad in Thee : and let such as love Thy salvation say alway, The LORD be praised.

20 As for me, I am poor, and needy : but the LORD careth for me.

21 Thou art my Helper, and Redeemer : make no long tarrying, O my God.

*Evening
Prayer.*

BLESSED is he, that considereth the poor, and needy : the LORD shall deliver him in the time of trouble.

2 The LORD preserve him, and keep him alive, that he may be blessed upon earth : and deliver not Thou him into the will of his enemies.

3 The LORD comfort him, when he lieth sick upon his bed : make Thou all his bed in his sickness.

4 I said, LORD, be merciful unto me : heal my soul, for I have sinned against Thee.

5 Mine

5 Mine enemies speak evil of me : When shall he die, and his name perish ?

6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity : and his heart conceiveth falshood within himself, and when he cometh forth he telleth it.

7 All mine enemies whisper together against me : even against me do they imagine this evil.

8 Let the sentence of guiltiness proceed against him : and now that he lieth, let him rise up no more.

9 Yea, even mine own familiar friend, whom I trusted : who did also eat of my bread, hath laid great wait for me.

10 But be Thou merciful unto me, O LORD : raise Thou me up again, and I shall reward him.

11 By this I know Thou favourest me : that mine enemy doth not triumph against me.

12 And when I am in my health, Thou upholdest me : and shalt set me before Thy face for ever.

13 Blessed be the LORD GOD of Israel : world without end. Amen.

10 The LORD hath granted His loving kindness on the day-time : and in the night-season did I sing of Him, and made my prayer unto the God of my life.

11 I will say unto the God of my strength, Why hast Thou forgotten me : why go I thus heavily, while the enemy oppresseth me ?

WE have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us : what Thou hast done in their time of old.

*Morning

2 How Thou hast driven out the heathen with Thy hand, and planted them in : how Thou hast destroyed the nations, and cast them out.

3 For they gat not the land in possession through their own sword : neither was it their own arm that helped them.

4 But Thy right hand, and Thine arm, and the height of Thy countenance : because Thou hadst a favour unto them.

5 Thou art my King, O God : send help unto Jacob.

6 Through Thee will we overthrow our enemies : and in Thy Name will we tread them under, that rise up against us.

7 For I will not trust in my bow : it is not my sword that shall help me.

8 But it is Thou That savest us from our enemies : and puttest them to confusion that hate us.

10 But now Thou art farr off, and puttest us to confusion : and goest not forth with our armies.

11 Thou makest us to turn our backs upon our enemies : so that they, which hate us, spoil our goods.

12 Thou lettest us be eaten up like sheep : and hast scattered us among the heathen.

13 Thou sellest Thy people for nought: and takest no money for them.

14 Thou makest us to be rebuked of our neighbours : to be laughed to scorn, and had in derision of them that are round about us.

15 Thou makest us to be a by-word among the heathen : and that the people shake their heads at us.

16 My confusion is daily before me : and the shame of my face hath covered me ;

17 For the voice of the slanderer, and blasphemer : for the enemy, and avenger.

18 And though all this be come upon us, yet do we not forget Thee : nor behave our selves forwardly in Thy covenant.

19 Our heart is not turned back : neither our steps gone out of Thy way ;

20 No, not when Thou hast smitten us into the place of dragons : and covered us with the shadow of death.

21 If we have forgotten the Name of our God, and holden up our hands to any strange god : shall not God search it out ? for He knoweth the very secrets of the heart.

22 For Thy sake also are we killed all the day long : and are counted as sheep appointed to be slain.

23 Up, LORD, why sleepest Thou : awake, and be not absent from us for ever.

4 Gird Thee with Thy ſword upon Thy thigh, O Thou Moſt Mighty : according to Thy worſhip, and renown.

5 Good luck have Thou with Thine honour : abide on, becauſe of the word of truth, of meekneſs and righteouſneſs, and Thy right hand ſhall teach Thee terrible things.

7 Thy ſeat, O GOD, endureth for ever : the ſcepter of Thy kingdom is a right ſcepter.

13 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift : like as the rich also among the people shall make their supplication before thee.

14 The Kings daughter is all glorious within : her clothing is of wrought gold.

15 She shall be brought unto the King in raiment of needle-work : the virgins, that be her fellows, shall bear her company, and shall be brought unto Thee.

16 With joy, and gladness shall they be brought : and shall enter into the Kings palace.

17 In stead of thy fathers thou shalt have children : whom thou mayest make princes in all lands.

GREAT is the LORD, and highly to be praised : in the city of our God, even upon His holy hill.

2 The hill of Sion is a fair place, and the joy of the whole earth : upon the north-side lieth the city of the great King ; God is well known in her palaces as a sure Refuge.

3 For lo, the kings of the earth : are gathered, and gone by together.

4 They marvelled to see such things : they were astonished, and suddenly cast down.

5 Fear came there upon them, and sorrow : as upon a woman in her travail.

THE LORD, even the most mighty GOD hath spoken : and called the world, from the rising up of the sun, unto the going down thereof.

2 Out of Sion hath GOD appeared : in perfect beauty.

3 Our GOD shall come, and shall not keep silence : there shall go before Him a consuming fire, and a mighty tempest shall be stirred up round about Him.

4 He shall call the heaven from above : and the earth, that He may judge His people.

5 Gather My faints together unto Me : those that have made a covenant with Me with sacrifice.

6 And the heavens shall declare His righteousness : for GOD is Judge Himself.

7 Hear, O My people, and I will speak : I Myself will testify against thee, O Israel ; for I am GOD, even thy GOD.

8 I will not reprove thee because of thy sacrifices, or for thy burnt-offerings : because they were not alway before Me.

9 I will take no bullock out of thine house : nor he-goat out of thy folds.

10 For all the beasts of the forest are Mine : and so are the cattel upon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowls upon the mountains : and the wilde beasts of the field are in My sight.

12 If I be hungry, I will not tell thee : for the whole world is Mine, and all that is therein.

13 Thinkest thou, that I will eat bulls flesh : and drink the bloud of goats ?

14 Offer unto GOD thanksgiving : and pay thy vows unto the MOST HIGHEST.

15 And call upon Me in the time of trouble : so will I hear thee, and thou shalt praise Me.

16 But unto the ungodly said GOD : Why dost thou preach My laws, and takest My covenant in thy mouth ;

17 Whereas thou hatest to be reformed : and hast cast My words behind thee ?

18 When thou sawest a thief, thou consentedst unto him : and hast been partaker with the adulterers.

19 Thou hast let thy mouth speak wickedness : and with thy tongue thou hast set forth deceit.

20 Thou hatest, and spakest against thy brother : thou hatest, and hast slandered thine own mothers son.

21 These things hast thou done, and I held My tongue, and thou thoughtest wickedly, that I am even such a one as thy self : but I will reprove thee, and set before thee the things, that thou hast done.

22 O consider this, ye that forget GOD : lest I luck you away, and there be none to deliver you.

Miserere mei, DEUS.

HAVE mercy upon me, O GOD, after Thy great goodness : according to the multitude of Thy mercies do away mine offences.

2 Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness : and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I knowledge my faults : and my sin is ever before me.

4 Against Thee onely have I sinned, and done this evil in Thy sight : that Thou mightest be justified in Thy saying, and clear, when Thou art judged.

5 Behold, I was shapen in wickedness : and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

6 But lo, Thou requirest truth in the inward parts : and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

7 Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean : Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter then snow.

8 Thou shalt make me hear of joy, and gladness : that the bones, which Thou hast broken, may rejoyce.

9 Turn Thy face from my sins : and put out all my misdeeds.

10 Make me a clean heart, O GOD : and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from Thy presence : and take not Thy HOLY SPIRIT from me.

12 O give me the comfort of Thy help again : and stablish me with Thy free SPIRIT.

13 Then shall I teach Thy wayes unto the wicked : and sinners shall be converted unto Thee.

16 For Thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it Thee : but Thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.

17 The sacrifice of GOD is a troubled spirit : a broken, and contrite heart, O GOD, shalt Thou not despise.

18 O be favourable, and gracious unto Sion : build Thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shalt Thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt-offerings, and oblations : then shall they offer young bullocks upon thine altar.

2 I will call unto the most high God : even unto the God, That shall perform the cause, which I have in hand.

3 He shall send from heaven : and save me from the reproof of him, that would eat me up.

4 God shall send forth His mercy, and truth : my soul is among lions.

5 And I lie even among the children of men, that are set on fire : whose teeth are spears, and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

6 Set up Thy Self, O God, above the heavens : and Thy glory above all the earth.

7 They have laid a net for my feet, and pressed down my soul : they have digged a pit before me, and are fallen into the midst of it themselves.

8 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed : I will sing, and give praise.

4 They are as venomous, as the poison of a serpent : even like the deaf adder, that stoppeth her ears ;

5 Which refuseth to hear the voice of the armorer : charm he never so wisely.

6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouths, bite the jaw-bones of the lions, O Lord : let them fall away like water that runneth apace, and when they shoot their arrows let them be rooted out.

7 Let them consume away like a snail, and be like the untimely fruit of a woman : and let them see the sun.

8 Or ever your pots be made hot with thorns : let indignation vex him, even as a thing that is broken.

9 The righteous shall rejoyce when he seeth the vengeance : he shall wash his footsteps in the blood of the ungodly.

THE XI PSALM

Exaudi, DEUS.

HEAR my crying, O GOD : give ear unto my prayer.

2 From the ends of the earth will I call upon Thee : when my heart is in heaviness.

3 O set me up upon the rock that is higher than I : for Thou hast been my Hope, and a strong Tower for me against the enemy.

4 I will dwell in Thy tabernacle for ever : and my trust shall be under the covering of Thy wings.

5 For Thou, O LORD, hast heard my desires : and hast given an heritage unto those that fear Thy Name.

6 Thou shalt grant the King a long life : that his years may endure throughout all generations.

7 He shall dwell before God for ever : O prepare Thy loving mercy and faithfulnes, that they may preserve him.

8 So will I always sing praise unto Thy Name : that I may daily perform my vows.

7 In God is my health and my glory : the rock of my might, and in God is my trust.

8 O put your trust in Him always, ye people : pour out your hearts before Him, for God is our hope.

9 As for the children of men, they are but vanity : the children of men are deceitful upon the weights, they are altogether lighter than vanity itself.

10 O trust not in wrong and robbery, give not your selves unto vanity : if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

THE LXXIII. PSALM

DEUS, DEUS meus.

O GOD, Thou art my God : early will I seek Thee.

2 My soul thirsteth for Thee, my flesh also longeth after Thee : in a barren and dry land where no water is.

3 Thus have I looked for Thee in holiness : that I might behold Thy power and glory.

marrow and fatness : when my mouth praiseth Thee with joyful lips.

7 Have I not remembered Thee in my bed : and thought upon Thee when I was waking ?

8 Because Thou hast been my Helper : therefore under the shadow of Thy wings will I rejoyce.

9 My soul hangeth upon Thee : Thy right hand hath upholden me.

10 These also, that seek the hurt of my soul : they shall go under the earth.

11 Let them fall upon the edge of the sword : that they may be a portion for foxes.

12 But the King shall rejoyce in God ; all they also, that swear by Him, shall be commended : for the mouth of them, that speak lies, shall be stopped.

THE LXIV. PSALM.

Exaudi, Deus.

HEAR my voice, O God, in my prayer : preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the gathering together of the froward : and from the insurrection of wicked doers.

3 Who have whet their tongue like a sword : and shoot out their arrows, even bitter words.

4 That they may privily shoot at him that is perfect : suddenly do they hit him, and fear not.

5 They encourage themselves in mischief : and commune among themselves, how they may lay snares, and say, that no man shall see them.

6 They imagine wickedness, and practise it : that they keep secret among themselves, every man in the deep of his heart.

7 But God shall suddenly shoot at them with a swift arrow : that they shall be wounded.

8 Yea, their own tongues shall make them fall : infomuch asomuch that who so seeth them shall laugh them to scorn.

9 And all men, that see it, shall say, This hath GOD done : for they shall perceive that it is His work.

10 The righteous shall rejoyce in the LORD, and in his trust in Him : and all they, that are true of heart, shall be glad.

Thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem.

3 My misdeeds prevail against me : O be Thou merciful unto our sins.

4 Blessed is the man, whom Thou choosest, and receivest unto Thee : he shall dwell in Thy court, and shall be satisfied with the pleasures of Thy house, even of Thy holy temple.

5 Thou shalt shew us wonderful things in Thy righteousness, O GOD of our salvation : Thou, That art the Hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that remain in the broad sea.

6 Who in His strength setteth fast the mountains : and is girded about with power.

7 Who stilleth the raging of the sea : and the noise of His waves, and the madness of the people.

8 They also, that dwell in the uttermost parts of the earth, shall be afraid at Thy tokens : Thou, that makest the out-goings of the morning and evening to praise Thee.

makest it very plenteous.

THE LXVI. PSALM.

Jubilate DEO.

O BE joyful in God, all ye lands : sing praises unto the honour of His Name, make His praise to be glorious.

2 Say unto God, O how wonderful art Thou in Thy works : through the greatness of Thy power shall Thine enemies be found liars unto Thee.

3 For all the world shall worship Thee : sing of Thee, and praise Thy Name.

4 O come hither, and behold the works of God : how wonderful He is in His doing toward the children of men.

5 He turned the sea into dry land : so that they went through the water on foot ; there did we rejoyce thereof.

6 He ruleth with His power for ever, His eyes behold the people : and such, as will not believe, shall not be able to exalt themselves.

7 O praise our God, ye people : and make the voice of His praise to be heard ;

8 Who holdeth our soul in life : and suffereth not our feet to slip.

9 For

9 For Thou, O God, hast proved us : Thou also hast tried us, like as silver is tried.

10 Thou broughtest us into the snare : and laidst trouble upon our loins.

11 Thou sufferedst men to ride over our heads : we went through fire and water, and Thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

12 I will go into Thine house with burnt-offerings : and will pay Thee my vows, which I promised with my lips, and spake with my mouth, when I was in trouble.

13 I will offer unto Thee fat burnt-sacrifices, with the incense of rams : I will offer bullocks and goats.

14 O come hither, and hearken, all ye, that fear God : and I will tell you, what He hath done for my soul.

15 I called unto Him with my mouth : and gave Him praises with my tongue.

16 If I incline unto wickedness with mine heart : the LORD will not hear me.

17 But God hath heard me : and considered the voice of my prayer.

18 Praised be God, Who hath not cast out my prayer : nor turned His mercy from me.

Exurgat DEUS.

*Morning
Prayer.*

LET GOD arise, and let His enemies be scattered : let them also, that hate Him, flee before Him.

2 Like as the smoke vanisheth, so shalt Thou drive them away : and like as wax melteth at the fire, so let the ungodly perish at the presence of GOD.

3 But let the righteous be glad, and rejoyce before GOD : let them also be merry, and joyful.

4 O sing unto GOD, and sing praises unto His Name : magnifie Him, That rideth upon the heavens, as it were upon an horse ; praise Him in His Name, yea and rejoyce before Him.

5 He is a Father of the fatherless, and defendeth the cause of the widows : even GOD in His holy habitation.

6 He is the GOD, That maketh men to be of one minde in an house, and bringeth the prisoners out of captivity : but letteth the runagates continue in scarceness.

7 O GOD, when Thou wentest forth before the people : when Thou wentest through the wilderness,

8 The earth shook, and the heavens dropped at the presence of GOD : even as Sinai also was moved at the presence of GOD, Who is the GOD of Israel.

9 Thou, O GOD, sentest a gracious rain upon Thine

Thine inheritance : and refreshedst it when it was weary.

10 Thy congregation shall dwell therein : for Thou, O God, hast of Thy goodness prepared for he poor.

11 The LORD gave the word : great was the company of the preachers.

12 Kings with their armies did flee, and were discomfited : and they of the household divided the spoil.

13 Though ye have lien among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove : that is covered with silver wings, and her feathers like gold.

14 When the ALMIGHTY scattered kings for their sake : then were they as white as snow in salmon.

15 As the hill of Basan, so is GODS hill : even in high hill, as the hill of Basan.

16 Why hop ye so, ye high hills? this is GODS hill, in the which it pleaseth Him to dwell : yea, he LORD will abide in it for ever.

17 The chariots of GOD are twenty thousand, even thousands of Angels : and the LORD is among them, as in the holy place of Sinai.

18 Thou art gone up on high, Thou hast led captivity captive, and received gifts for men : yea, even for Thine enemies, that the LORD GOD might dwell among them.

19 Praised be the LORD daily : even the GOD Who helpeth us, and poureth His benefits upon us.

20 He is our GOD, even the GOD of Whom cometh salvation : GOD is the LORD, by Whom we escape death.

21 GOD shall wound the head of His enemies : and the hairy scalp of such a one as goeth on still in his wickedness.

22 The LORD hath said, I will bring My people again, again, as I did from Bafan : Mine own will I bring again, as I did sometime from the deep of the sea.

23 That Thy foot may be dipped in the blood of Thine enemies : and that the tongue of Thy dogs may be red through the same.

24 It is well feen, O GOD, how Thou goest : how Thou my GOD and King goest in the sanctuary.

25 The fingers go before, the minstrels follow after : in the midst are the damfels playing with the timbrels.

26 Give thanks, O Israel, unto GOD the LORD in the congregations : from the ground of the heart.

27 There is little Benjamin their ruler, and the princes of Judah their counfel : the princes of Zabulon, and the princes of Nephthali.

28 Thy GOD hath sent forth strength for Thee : stablish the thing, O GOD, that Thou hast wrought in us, 29 For Thy Temples sake at Jerufalem : fo shall kings bring presents unto Thee.

30 When the company of the spear-men and multitude of the mighty are scattered abroad among the beasts of the people, fo that they humbly bring pieces of silver : and when He hath scattered the people that delight in war, 31 Then shall the princes come out of Egypt : the Morians land shall soon stretch out her hands unto GOD.

32 Sing unto GOD, O ye kingdoms of the earth : O sing praises unto the LORD.

33 Who sitteth in the heavens over all from the beginning : lo, He doth send out His voice, year, and that a mighty voice.

34 Ascribe ye the power to GOD over Israel : His worship and strength is in the clouds.

35 O GOD, wonderful art Thou in Thy holy places :

aces : even the God of Israel ; He will give strength and power unto His people ; blessed be GOD.

THE LXIX. PSALM.

Salvum me fac.

SAVE me, O GOD : for the waters are come in, even unto my soul.

*Evening
Prayer.*

2 I stick fast in the deep mire, where no ground : I am come into deep waters, so that the floods run over me.

3 I am weary of crying, my throat is dry : my sight faileth me for waiting so long upon my GOD.

4 They, that hate me without a cause, are more than the hairs of my head : they, that are mine enemies, and would destroy me guiltless, are mighty.

5 I paid them the things that I never took : GOD, thou knowest my simpleness, and my faults are not hid from Thee.

6 Let not them, that trust in Thee, O LORD God of hosts, be ashamed for my cause : let not those, that seek Thee, be confounded through me, LORD GOD of Israel.

7 And why? for Thy sake have I suffered reproof : shame hath covered my face.

8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren : even an alien unto my mothers children.

9 For the zeal of Thine house hath even eaten me : and the rebukes of them, that rebuked Thee, are fallen upon me.

10 I wept and chastened my self with fasting : and that was turned to my reproof.

11 I put on sackcloth also : and they jested on me.

12 They, that sit in the gate, speak against me : and the drunkards make songs upon me.

13 But, LORD, I make my prayer unto Thee : and thou shalt answer me in an acceptable time.

The 13
DAY.

14 Hear me, O GOD, in the multitude of Thy mercy : even in the truth of Thy salvation.

15 Take me out of the mire, that I sink not : O let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.

16 Let not the water-flood drown me, neither let the deep swallow me up : and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

17 Hear me, O LORD, for Thy loving kindness is comfortable : turn Thee unto me according to the multitude of Thy mercies.

18 And hide not Thy face from Thy servant, for I am in trouble : O haste Thee and hear me.

19 Draw nigh unto my soul and save it : O deliver me because of mine enemies.

20 Thou hast known my reproof, my shame, and my dishonour : mine adversaries are all in Thy sight.

21 Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness : I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me.

22 They gave me gall to eat : and when I was thirsty, they gave me vinegar to drink.

23 Let their table be made a snare to take themselves withal : and let the things, that should have been for their wealth, be unto them an occasion of falling.

24 Let their eyes be blinded that they see not : and ever bow Thou down their backs.

25 Pour out Thine indignation upon them : and let Thy wrathful displeasure take hold of them.

26 Let their habitation be void : and no man to dwell in their tents.

27 For they persecute him whom Thou hast smitten : and they talk how they may vex them whom Thou hast wounded.

28 Let

28 Let them fall from one wickedness to another :
and not come into Thy righteousness.

29 Let them be wiped out of the book of the living : and not be written among the righteous.

30 As for me, when I am poor and in heaviness :
Thy help, O GOD, shall lift me up.

31 I will praise the name of GOD with a song :
and magnifie it with thanksgiving.

32 This also shall please the LORD : better than bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

33 The humble shall consider this and be glad :
seek ye after GOD and your soul shall live.

34 For the LORD heareth the poor : and despiseth not His prisoners.

35 Let heaven and earth praise Him : the sea and all that moveth therein.

36 For GOD will save Sion, and build the cities of Juda : that men may dwell there, and have it in possession.

37 The posterity also of His servants shall inherit it : and they, that love His name, shall dwell therein.

THE LXX. PSALM.

DEUS in adiutorium.

IASTE Thee, O GOD, to deliver me : make

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded, that and put to confusion, that wish me evil.

3 Let them for their reward be soon brought to shame : that cry over me, There, there.

4 But let all those, that seek Thee, be joyful and rejoice in Thee : and let all such as delight in Thy salvation, say always, The LORD be praised.

In Te, DOMINE, speravi.

Morning
Prayer.

IN Thee, O LORD, have I put my trust, let me never be put to confusion : but rid me, and deliver me in Thy righteousness ; incline Thine ear unto me and save me.

2 Be Thou my strong Hold, whereunto I may always resort : Thou hast promised to help me, for Thou art my House of defence and my Castle.

3 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the ungodly : out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

4 For Thou, O LORD GOD, art the Thing that I long for : Thou art my Hope, even from my youth.

5 Through Thee have I been holden up ever since I was born : Thou art He That took me out of my mothers womb, my praise shall be alwaies of Thee.

6 I am become as it were a monster unto many : but my sure trust is in Thee.

7 O let my mouth be filled with Thy praise : that I may sing of Thy glory and honour all the day long.

8 Cast me not away in the time of age : forsake me not when my strength faileth me.

9 For mine enemies speak against me, and they, that lay wait for my soul, take their counsel together, saying : GOD hath forsaken him, persecute him and take him, for there is none to deliver him.

10 Go not far from me, O God : my God, haste Thee to help me.

11 Let them be confounded and perish, that are against my soul : let them be covered with shame and dishonour, that seek to do me evil.

12 As

12 As for me, I will patiently abide alway : and will praise Thee more and more.

13 My mouth shall daily speak of Thy righteousness and salvation : for I know no end thereof.

14 I will go forth in the strength of the LORD God : and will make mention of Thy righteousness only.

15 Thou, O God, hast taught me from my youth up until now : therefore will I tell of Thy wondrous works.

16 Forsake me not, O God, in mine old age, when I am gray-headed : until I have shewed Thy strength unto this generation, and Thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

17 Thy righteousness, O God, is very high : and great things are they that Thou hast done ; O God, who is like unto Thee ?

18 O what great troubles and adversities hast Thou shewed me ! and yet didst Thou turn and refresh me : yea, and broughtest me from the deep of the earth again.

19 Thou hast brought me to great honour : and comforted me on every side.

20 Therefore will I praise Thee and Thy faithfulness, O God, playing upon an instrument of musick : unto Thee will I sing upon the harp, O Thou holy One of Israel.

21 My lips will be fain when I sing unto Thee : and so will my soul whom Thou hast delivered.

22 My tongue also shall talk of Thy righteousness all the day long : for they are confounded and brought unto shame, that seek to do me evil.

3 The mountains also shall bring peace : and the little hills righteousness unto the people.

4 He shall keep the simple folk by their right : defend the children of the poor, and punish the wrong-doer.

5 They shall fear Thee, as long as the sun and moon endureth : from one generation to another.

6 He shall come down like the rain into a fleece of wooll : even as the drops that water the earth.

7 In His time shall the righteous flourish : yea, and abundance of peace, so long as the moon endureth.

8 His dominion shall be also from the one sea to the other : and from the flood unto the worlds end.

9 They, that dwell in the wilderness, shall kneel before Him : His enemies shall lick the dust.

10 The kings of Tharsis, and of the Isles shall give presents : the kings of Arabia and Saba shall bring gifts.

11 All kings shall fall down before Him : all nations shall do Him service.

12 For He shall deliver the poor, when he cryeth : the needy also, and him that hath no helper.

13 He shall be favourable to the simple and needy : and shall preserve the souls of the poor.

14 He shall deliver their souls from falsehood and wrong : and dear shall their blood be in His sight.

15 He shall live, and unto Him shall be given of the gold of Arabia : prayer shall be made ever unto Him, and daily shall He be praised.

17 His Name shall endure for ever, His Name shall hall remain under the sun among the posterities : which shall be blessed through Him, and all the heathen shall praise Him.

THE LXXIII. PSALM.

Quam bonus Israel.

TRULY GOD is loving unto Israel : even unto such as are of a clean heart.

2 Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone : my readings had well-nigh slipt.

3 And why? I was grieved at the wicked : I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

4 For they are in no peril of death : but are stift and strong.

5 They come in no misfortune like other folk : neither are they plagued like other men.

6 And this is the cause that they are so holden with pride : and overwhelmed with cruelty.

7 Their eyes swell with fatness : and they do even what they lust.

8 They corrupt other, and speak of wicked blasphemy : their talking is against the most HIGH.

9 For they stretch forth their mouth unto the heaven : and their tongue goeth through the world.

10 Therefore fall the people unto them : and hereout suck they no small advantage.

11 Tush, say they, how should God perceive it : there knowledge in the most HIGH?

13 All the day long have I been punished : and chastened every morning.

14 Yea, and I had almost said even as they : but lo, then I should have condemned the generation of Thy children.

15 Then thought I to understand this : but it was too hard for me,

16 Until I went into the sanctuary of God : then understood I the end of these men ;

17 Namely, how Thou dost set them in slippery places : and castest them down, and destroyest them.

18 Oh how suddenly do they consume : perish, and come to a fearful end !

19 Yea, even like as a dream when one awaketh : so shalt Thou make their image to vanish out of the city.

20 Thus my heart was grieved : and it went even through my reins.

21 So foolish was I, and ignorant : even as it were a beast before Thee.

22 Nevertheless, I am alway by Thee : for Thou hast holden me by my right hand.

4 Lift up Thy feet, that Thou maist utterly destroy every enemy : which hath done evil in Thy sanctuary.

5 Thine adversaries roar in the midst of Thy congregations : and set up their banners for tokens.

6 He that hewed timber afore out of the thick trees : was known to bring it to an excellent work.

7 But now they break down all the carved work thereof : with axes and hammers.

8 They have set fire upon Thy holy places : and have defiled the dwelling-place of Thy Name, even unto the ground.

9 Yea, they said in their hearts, Let us make havock of them altogether : thus have they burnt up all the houses of God in the land.

10 We see not our tokens, there is not one prophet more : no, not one is there among us, that understandeth any more.

11 O God, how long shall the adversary do this dishonour : how long shall the enemy blaspheme Thy Name, for ever ?

dren of the generations to come : but to shew the honour of the LORD, His mighty and wonderful works that He hath done.

5 He made a covenant with Jacob, and gave Israel a law : which He commanded our forefathers to teach their children ;

6 That their posterity might know it : and the children which were yet unborn ;

7 To the intent, that when they came up : they might shew their children the fame ;

8 That they might put their trust in God : and not to forget the works of God, but to keep His commandments ;

9 And not to be as their forefathers, a faithless and stubborn generation : a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit cleaveth not stedfastly unto God ;

10 Like as the children of Ephraim : who being harnessed, and carrying bows, turned themselves back in the day of battel.

11 They kept not the covenant of God : and would not walk in His law ;

12 But forgot what He had done : and the wonderful works that He had shewed for them.

13 Marvellous things did He in the sight of our forefathers, in the land of Egypt : even in the field of Zoan.

14 He divided the sea, and let them go through : He made the waters to stand on an heap.

15 In the day-time also He led them with a cloud : and all the night through with a light of fire.

16 He clave the hard rocks in the wilderness and gave them drink thereof, as it had been out of the great depth.

17 He brought waters out of the stony rock : so that it gushed out like the rivers.

18 Yet for all this they sinned more against Him him : and provoked the MOST HIGHEST in the wilderness.

19 They tempted God in their hearts : and required meat for their lust.

20 They spake against God also, saying : Shall God prepare a table in the wilderness ?

21 He smote the stony rock indeed, that the water gushed out, and the streams flowed withal : but can He give bread also, or provide flesh for His people ?

22 When the LORD heard this, He was wroth : so the fire was kindled in Jacob, and there came up a heavy displeasure against Israel ;

23 Because they believed not in God : and put not their trust in His help.

24 So He commanded the clouds above : and opened the doors of heaven.

25 He rained down Manna also upon them for to eat : and gave them food from heaven.

26 So man did eat Angels food : for He sent them meat enough.

27 He caused the east-wind to blow under heaven : and through His power He brought in the south-west-wind.

28 He rained flesh upon them as thick as dust : and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea.

29 He let it fall among their tents : even round about their habitation.

30 So they did eat, and were well filled, for He gave them their own desire : they were not disappointed of their lust.

31 But while the meat was yet in their mouths, the heavy wrath of God came upon them, and slew the wealthiest of them : yea, and smote down the chosen men that were in Israel.

32 But for all this they sinned yet more : and believed not His wondrous works.

37 For their heart was not whole with Him : neither continued they stedfast in His covenant.

38 But He was so merciful, that He forgave their misdeeds : and destroyed them not.

39 Yea, many a time turned He His wrath away : and would not suffer His whole displeasure to arise.

40 For He considered that they were but flesh : and that they were even a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

41 Many a time did they provoke Him in the wilderness : and grieved Him in the desert.

42 They turned back and tempted GOD : and moved the HOLY ONE in Israel.

43 They thought not of His hand : and of the day when He delivered them from the hand of the enemy ;

44 How He had wrought His miracles in Egypt : and His wonders in the field of Zoan.

45 He turned their waters into bloud : so that they might not drink of the rivers.

46 He sent lice among them, and devoured them up : and frogs to destroy them.

47 He gave their fruit unto the caterpillar : and their labour unto the grasshopper.

48 He destroyed their vines with hailstones : and their mulberry-trees with the frost.

49 He smote their cattel also with hail-stones : and their flocks with hot thunder-bolts.

50 He cast upon them the furiousness of His wrath, vra^h, anger, displeasure and trouble : and sent vil angels among them.

51 He made a way to His indignation, and pared not their soul from death : but gave their life over to the pestilence.

52 And smote all the first-born in Egypt : the most principal and mightiest in the dwellings of lam.

53 But as for His own people, He led them orth like sheep : and carried them in the wilderness like a flock.

54 He brought them out safely, that they should ot fear : and overwhelmed their enemies with the a.

55 And brought them within the borders of His inctuary : even to His mountain which He purchased with His right hand.

56 He cast out the heathen also before them : aused their land to be divided among them for an eritage, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in heir tents.

57 So they tempted and displeased the most high od : and kept not His testimonies ;

58 But turned their backs, and fell away like heir forefathers : starting aside like a broken bow.

59 For they grieved Him with their hill-tars : and provoked Him to displeasure with heir images.

61 So that He forsook the tabernacle in Silo : ven the tent that He had pitched among men.

62 He delivered their power into captivity : and heir beauty into the enemies hand.

19 For the LORD is our Defence : the HOLY ONE of Israel is our King.

20 Thou spakest sometime in visions unto Thy saints, and saidst : I have laid help upon one that is mighty, I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

21 I have found David My servant : with My holy oil have I anointed him.

22 My hand shall hold him fast : and My arm shall strengthen him.

23 The enemy shall not be able to do him violence : the son of wickedness shall not hurt him.

24 I will smite down his foes before his face : and plague them that hate him.

25 My truth also and my mercy shall be with him : and in My Name shall his horn be exalted.

26 I will set his dominion also in the sea : and his right hand in the floods.

27 He shall call Me, Thou art My FATHER : my God, and my strong Salvation.

28 And I will make him My first-born : higher than the kings of the earth.

29 My mercy will I keep for him for evermore : and My covenant shall stand fast with him.

30 His seed also will I make to endure for ever : and his throne as the daies of heaven.

31 But if his children forsake My law : and walk not in My judgements ;

32 If they break My statutes, and keep not My commandments : I will visit their offences with the rod, and their sin with scourges.

33 Never-

33 Nevertheless, My loving kindness will I not utterly take from him : nor suffer My truth to fail.

34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of My lips : I have sworn once by My holiness, that I will not fail David.

35 His seed shall endure for ever : and his seat is like as the sun before Me.

36 He shall stand fast for evermore as the moon : and as the faithful witnesses in heaven.

37 But Thou hast abhorred, and forsaken Thine Anointed : and art displeased at Him.

38 Thou hast broken the covenant of Thy servant : and cast his crown to the ground.

39 Thou hast overthrown all his hedges : and broken down his strong holds.

40 All they that go by, spoil him : and he is become a reproach to his neighbours.

41 Thou hast set up the right hand of his enemies : and made all his adversaries to rejoice.

42 Thou hast taken away the edge of his sword : and givest him not victory in the battel.

43 Thou hast put out his glory : and cast his throne down to the ground.

44 The dayes of his youth hast Thou shortned : and covered him with dishonour.

45 LORD, how long wilt Thou hide Thy Self, for ever : and shall Thy wrath burn like fire ?

46 O remember how short my time is : wherefore hast Thou made all men for nought ?

47 What man is he that liveth, and shall not see death : and shall he deliver his soul from the hand of hell ?

48 LORD, where are Thy old loving kindneses : which Thou swarest unto David in Thy truth ?

THE XC. PSALM.

Morning
Prayer.

DOMINE, Refugium.

LORD, Thou hast been our Refuge : from one generation to another.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made : Thou art GOD from everlasting, and world without end.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction : again Thou sayest, Come again, ye children of men.

4 For a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday : seeing that is past as a watch in the night.

5 As soon as Thou scatterest them, they are even as a sleep : and fade away suddenly like the grass.

6 In the morning it is green, and groweth up : but in the evening it is cut down, dried up, and withered.

7 For we consume away in Thy displeasure : and are afraid at Thy wrathful indignation.

8 Thou hast set our misdeeds before Thee : and our secret sins in the light of Thy countenance.

9 For when Thou art angry, all our dayes are gone : we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

10 The days of our age are threescore years and ten, and though men be so strong, that they come to fourscore years : yet is their strength then but labour, and sorrow ; so soon passeth it away, and we are gone.

11 But who regardeth the power of Thy wrath : for even thereafter as a man feareth, so is Thy displeasure.

12 So teach us to number our dayes ; that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

13 Turn Thee again, O LORD, at the last : and be gracious unto Thy servants.

14 O satisfie us with Thy mercy, and that boon : so shall we rejoyce and be glad all the dayes of our life.

15 Comfort us again now after the time that Thou hast plagued us : and for the years wherein we have suffered aduersity.

16 Shew Thy servants Thy work : and their children Thy glory.

17 And the glorious Majesty of the LORD our GOD be upon us : prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper Thou our handy-work.

4 He shall defend thee under His wings, and thou shalt be safe under His feathers : His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afraid for any terrour by night : nor for the arrow that flieth by day ; enemies shall perish : and all the workers of wickedness shall be destroyed.

9 But mine horn shall be exalted like the horn of an unicorn : for I am anointed with fresh oil.

10 Mine eye also shall see his lust of mine enemies :
and mine ear shall hear his desire of the wicked that arise up against me.

O LORD GOD, to Whom vengeance belongeth : Thou GOD, to Whom vengeance belongeth, shew Thy Self.

2 Arise, Thou Judge of the world : and reward the proud after their deserving.

3 LORD, how long shall the ungodly : how long shall the ungodly triumph ?

4 How long shall all wicked doers speak so disdainfully : and make such proud boasting ?

6 They murder the widow, and the stranger : and put the fatherless to death.

7 And yet they say, Tush, the LORD shall not see : neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

9 Even the covenant that He made with Abram : and the oath that He sware unto Isaac ;

10 And appointed the same unto Jacob for a w : and to Israel for an everlasting testament.

11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of anaan : the lot of your inheritance.

12 When there were yet but a few of them : and they strangers in the land ;

13 What time as they went from one nation to another : from one kingdom to another people ;

14 He suffered no man to do them wrong : but reproved even kings for their sakes.

15 Touch not Mine Anointed : and do My prophets no harm.

16 Moreover He called for a dearth upon the land : and destroyed all the provision of bread.

17 But He had sent a man before them : even Joseph, who was sold to be a bond-servant ;

18 Whose feet they hurt in the stocks : the iron entered into his soul ;

19 Until the time came that his cause was known : the word of the LORD tried him.

20 The king sent, and delivered him : the prince of the people let him go free.

21 He made him lord also of his house : and ruler of all his substance ;

22 That he might inform his princes after his will : and teach his senators wisdom.

23 Israel also came into Egypt : and Jacob was a stranger in the land of Ham.

24 And He increased His people exceedingly : and made them stronger than their enemies ;

25 Whose heart turned so, that they hated His people : and dealt untruly with His servants.

26 Then sent He Moses His servant : and Aaron whom He had chosen.

27 And these shewed His tokens among them : and wonders in the land of Ham.

28 He

28 He sent darkness, and it was dark : and they were not obedient unto His word.

29 He turned their waters into blood : and slew their fish.

30 Their land brought forth frogs : yea, even in their kings chambers.

31 He spake the word, and there came all manner of flies : and lice in all their quarters.

32 He gave them hailstones for rain : and flames of fire in their land.

33 He smote their vines also and fig-trees : and destroyed the trees that were in their coasts.

34 He spake the word, and the grasshoppers came, and caterpillers innumerable : and did eat up all the grass in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

35 He smote all the first-born in their land : even the chief of all their strength.

36 He brought them forth also with silver and gold : there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

37 Egypt was glad at their departing : for they were afraid of them.

38 He spread out a cloud to be a covering : and fire to give light in the night-season.

39 At their desire He brought quails : and He filled them with the bread of heaven.

40 He opened the rock of stone, and the waters flowed out : so that rivers ran in the dry places.

41 For why? He remembered His holy promise : and Abraham His servant.

42 And He brought forth His people with joy : and His chosen with gladness ;

43 And gave them the lands of the heathen : and they took the labours of the people in possession ;

44 That they might keep His statutes : and observe His laws.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for He is gracious : and His mercy endureth for ever.

2 Who can express the noble acts of the LORD : or shew forth all His praise ?

3 Blessed are they that alway keep judgement : and do righteoufness.

4 Remember me, O LORD, according to the favour that Thou bearest unto Thy people : O visit me with Thy salvation.

5 That I may see the felicity of Thy chosen : and rejoyce in the gladness of Thy people, and give thanks with Thine inheritance.

6 We have sinned with our fathers : we have done amiss, and dealt wickedly.

7 Our fathers regarded not Thy wonders in Egypt, neither kept they Thy great goodness in remembrance : but were disobedient at the sea, even at the red sea.

8 Nevertheless He helped them for His Names sake : that He might make His power to be known.

9 He rebuked the red sea also, and it was dried up : so He led them through the deep, as through wilderness.

10 And He saved them from the adversaries : and delivered them from the hand of the nemy.

11 As for those that troubled them, the waters overwhelmed them : there was not one of them left.

12 Then believed they His words : and sang praise unto Him.

13 But within a while they forgot His works : and would not abide His counsel.

The 21
DAY.

14 But lust came upon them in the wilderness :
and they tempted GOD in the desert.

15 And He gave them their desire : and sent leanness withall into their soul.

16 They angered Moses also in the tents : and Aaron the faint of the LORD.

17 So the earth opened, and swallowed up Dathan : and covered the congregation of Abi-ram.

18 And the fire was kindled in their company :
the flame burnt up the ungodly.

19 They made a calf in Horeb : and worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus they turned their glory : into the similitude of a calf that eateth hay.

21 And they forgot GOD their Saviour : Who had done so great things in Egypt ;

22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham : and fearful things by the red sea.

23 So He said, He would have destroyed them, had not Moses His chosen stood before Him in the gap : to turn away His wrathful indignation, lest
He should destroy them.

24 Yea, they thought scorn of that pleasant land :
and gave no credence unto His word.

25 But murmured in their tents : and harkned not unto the voice of the LORD.

26 Then lift He up His hand against them : to overthrow them in the wilderness ;

27 To cast out their seed among the nations :
and to scatter them in the lands.

28 They joyned themselves unto Baal-peor : and ate the offerings of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked Him to anger with their own inventions : and the plague was great among them.

30 Then stood up Phinees and prayed : and the plague ceased.

31 And

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness : among all posterities for evermore.

32 They angered Him also at the waters of strife : so that He punished Moses for their sakes ;

33 Because they provoked his spirit : so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34 Neither destroyed they the heathen : as the LORD commanded them ;

35 But were mingled among the heathen : and earned their works.

36 Inasmuch that they worshipped their idols, which turned to their own decay : yea, they offered their sons and their daughters unto devils, 37 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters : whom they offered unto the idols of Canaan, and the land was defiled with blood.

38 Thus were they stained with their own works : and went a whoring with their own inventions.

39 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against His people : inasmuch that He abhorred His own inheritance.

40 And He gave them over into the hand of the heathen : and they, that hated them, were lords over them.

41 Their enemies oppressed them : and had them in subjection.

42 Many a time did He deliver them : but they rebelled against Him with their own inventions, and were brought down in their wickedness.

43 Nevertheless when He saw their adversity : He heard their complaint.

44 He thought upon His covenant, and pitied them, according unto the multitude of His mercies : yea, He made all those that led them away captive, to pity them.

THE CVII. PSALM.

Morning
Prayer.

Confitemini DOMINO.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for He is gracious : and His mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let them give thanks whom the LORD hath redeemed : and delivered from the hand of the enemy ;

3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west : from the north, and from the south.

4 They went astray in the wilderness out of the way : and found no city to dwell in ;

5 Hungry and thirsty : their soul fainted in them.

6 So they cried unto the LORD in their trouble : and He delivered them from their distress.

7 He led them forth by the right way : that they might go to the city where they dwelt.

8 O that men would therefore praise the LORD for His goodness : and declare the wonders that He doth for the children of men ;

9 For He satisfieth the empty soul : and filleth the hungry soul with goodness ;

10 Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death : being fast bound in misery and iron.

11 Because they rebelled against the words of the LORD : and lightly regarded the counsel of the MOST HIGHEST ;

12 He also brought down their heart through heaviness :

heaviness : they fell down, and there was none to help them.

13 So when they cried unto the LORD in their trouble : He delivered them out of their distress.

14 For He brought them out of darkness, and out of the shadow of death : and brake their bonds in sunder.

15 O that men would therefore praise the LORD for His goodness : and declare the wonders that He doth for the children of men ;

16 For He hath broken the gates of brass : and smitten the bars of iron in sunder.

17 Foolish men are plagued for their offence : and because of their wickedness.

18 Their soul abhorred all manner of meat : and they were even hard at death's door.

19 So when they cried unto the LORD in their trouble : He delivered them out of their distress.

20 He sent His word, and healed them : and they were saved from their destruction.

21 O that men would therefore praise the LORD for His goodness : and declare the wonders that He doth for the children of men ;

22 That they would offer unto Him the sacrifice of thanksgiving : and tell out His works with gladness.

23 They that go down to the sea in ships : and occupy their business in great waters,

24 These men see the works of the LORD : and His wonders in the deep.

25 For at His word the stormy wind ariseth : which lifteth up the waves thereof.

26 They are carried up to the heaven, and down again to the deep : their soul melteth away because of the trouble.

27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man : and are at their wits end.

28 So when they cry unto the LORD in their trouble :

The 22
DAY.

trouble : He delivereth them out of their distresses.

29 For He maketh the storm to cease : so that the waves thereof are still.

30 Then are they glad, because they are at rest : and so He bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.

31 O that men would therefore praise the LORD for His goodness : and declare the wonders that He doth for the children of men !

32 That they would exalt Him also in the congregation of the people : and praise Him in the seat of the elders !

33 Who turneth the floods into a wilderness : and drieth up the water-springs.

34 A fruitful land maketh He barren : for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

35 Again He maketh the wilderness a standing water : and water-springs of a dry ground.

36 And there He setteth the hungry : that they may build them a city to dwell in.

37 That they may sow their land, and plant vineyards : to yield them fruits of increase.

38 He blesteth them, so that they multiply exceedingly : and suffereth not their cattel to decrease.

39 And again, when they are minished and brought low : through oppression, through any plague or trouble ;

40 Though He suffer them to be evil intreated through tyrants : and let them wander out of the way in the wilderness ;

41 Yet helpeth He the poor out of misery : and maketh him households like a flock of sheep.

42 The righteous will consider this and rejoyce : and the mouth of all wickedness shall be stopped.

43 Whoso is wise will ponder these things : and they shall understand the loving kindness of the LORD.

3 I will give thanks unto Thee, O LORD, among the people : I will sing praises unto Thee among the nations.

4 For Thy mercy is greater than the heavens :
and Thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.

5 Set up Thy Self, O GOD, above the heavens :
and Thy glory above all the earth.

6 That Thy beloved may be delivered : let Thy right hand save them, and hear Thou me.

7 GOD hath spoken in His holiness : I will re-joyce therefore and divide Sichem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine and Manasses is mine : Eph-raim also is the strength of my head.

9 Juda is my law-giver, Moab is my wash-pot :
over Edom will I cast out my shoe ; upon Philistia will I triumph.

10 Who will lead me into the strong city : and who will bring me into Edom ?

11 Hast not Thou forsaken us, O GOD : and wilt not Thou, O GOD, go forth with our hosts ?

4 Thus have they rewarded me evil for good : and hatred for my good will.

5 Set Thou an ungodly man to be ruler over him : and let Satan stand at his right hand.

6 When sentence is given upon him, let him be condemned : and let his prayer be turned into sin.

7 Let his dayes be few : and let another take his office.

8 Let his children be fatherless : and his wife a widow.

9 Let his children be vagabonds, and beg their bread : let them seek it also out of desolate places.

10 Let the extortioner consume all that he hath : and let the stranger spoil his labour.

11 Let there be no man to pity him : nor to have compassion upon his fatherless children.

12 Let his posterity be destroyed : and in the next generation let his name be clean put out.

13 Let the wickedness of his fathers be had in remembrance in the sight of the LORD : and let not the sin of his mother be done away.

14 Let them alway be before the LORD : that He may root out the memorial of them from off the earth ;

15 And that, because his mind was not to do good : but persecuted the poor helpless man, that he might slay him that was vexed at the heart.

16 His delight was in cursing, and it shall happen unto him : he loved not blessing, therefore shall it be far from him.

17 He clothed himself with cursing, like as with a rai-raiment : and it shall come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

18 Let it be unto him as the cloak that he hath upon him : and as the girdle that he is alway girded withal.

19 Let it thus happen from the LORD unto mine enemies : and to those that speak evil against my soul.

20 But deal Thou with me, O LORD GOD, according unto Thy Name : for sweet is Thy mercy.

21 O deliver me, for I am helpless and poor : and my heart is wounded within me.

22 I go hence like the shadow that departeth : and am driven away as the grasshopper.

23 My knees are weak through fasting : my flesh is dried up for want of fatness.

24 I became also a reproach unto them : they that looked upon me, shook their heads.

25 Help me, O LORD my GOD : O save me according to Thy mercy.

26 And they shall know, how that this is Thy hand : and that Thou, LORD, hast done it.

27 Though they curse, yet bless Thou : and let them be confounded that rise up against me ; but let Thy servant rejoyce.

28 Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame : and let them cover themselves with their own confusion as with a cloak.

29 As for me, I will give great thanks unto the LORD with my mouth : and praise Him among the multitude.

Ad DOMINUM.

WHEN I was in trouble, I called upon the LORD : and He heard me.

2 Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips and from a deceitful tongue.

3 What reward shall be given or done unto thee, thou false tongue : even mighty and sharp arrows, with hot burning coals.

4 Wo is me, that I am constrained to dwell with Mefech : and to have my habitation among the tents of Cedar.

5 My soul hath long dwelt among them : they are enemies unto peace.

6 I labour for peace, but when I speak unto them thereof : they make them ready to battel.

THE CXXI. PSALM.

2 My help cometh even from the LORD : Who hath made heaven and earth.

3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved : and He That keepeth thee will not sleep.

4 Behold, He That keepeth Israel : shall neither slumber nor sleep.

3 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us : for we are utterly despised.

4 Our soul is filled with the scornful reproof of the wealthy : and with the despitefulness of the proud.

3 For the rod of the ungodly cometh not into the lot of the righteous : lest the righteous put their hand unto wickedness.

4 Do well, O LORD : unto those that are good and true of heart.

THE CXXVI. PSALM.

WHEN the LORD turned again the captivity of Sion : then were we like unto them that dream.

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter : and our tongue with joy.

4 Yea, the LORD hath done great things for us already : whereof we rejoyce.

DOMINE, probasti.

The 29
DAY.

Morning
Prayer..

O LORD, Thou hast searched me known me : Thou knowest my ting, and mine up-rising, Thou underst thoughts long before.

2 Thou art about my path, and abou and spiest out all my wayes.

3 For lo, there is not a word in my t
Thou, O LORD, knowest it altogether.

4 Thou hast fashioned me behind a and laid Thine hand upon me.

5 Such knowledge is too wonderful a for me : I cannot attain unto it.

6 Whither shall I go then from Thy Spirit : or whither shall I go then from Thy presence ?

7 If I climb up into heaven, Thou art there : if I go down to hell, Thou art there also.

8 If I take the wings of the morning : and remain in the uttermost parts of the sea ;

9 Even there also shall Thy hand lead me : and Thy right hand shall hold me.

10 If I say, Peradventure the darkness shall cover me : then shall my night be turned to day.

11 Yea, the darkness is no darkness with Thee, but the night is as clear as the day : the darkness and light to Thee are both alike.

12 For my reins are Thine : Thou hast covered me in my mothers womb.

13 I will give thanks unto Thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made : marvellous are Thy works, and that my soul knoweth right well.

14 My bones are not hid from Thee : though I be made secretly, and fashioned beneath in the earth.

15 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect : and in Thy book were all my members written ;

16 Which day by day were fashioned : when as yet there was none of them !

17 How dear are Thy counsels unto me, O God : O how great is the summe of them !

18 If I tell them, they are more in number than the sand : when I wake up, I am present with Thee.

19 Wilt Thou not slay the wicked, O God : depart from me ye bloud-thirsty men.

20 For they speak unrighteously against Thee : and Thine enemies take Thy Name in vain.

21 Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate Thee : and am not I grieved with those that rise up against Thee ?

22 Yea,

The 29
DAY.

22 Yea, I hate them right fore : even as though they were mine enemies.

23 Try me, O GOD, and seek the ground of my heart : prove me, and examine my thoughts.

24 Look well if there be any way of wickedness in me : and lead me in the way everlasting.

THE CXL. PSALM.

Eripe me, DOMINE.

DELIVER me, O LORD, from the evil man : and preserve me from the wicked man.

2 Who imagine mischief in their hearts : and stir up strife all the day long.

3 They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent : adders poison is under their lips.

4 Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the ungodly : preserve me from the wicked men, who are purposed to overthrow my goings.

5 The proud have laid a snare for me, and spread a net abroad with cords : yea, and set traps in my way.

6 I said unto the LORD, Thou art my GOD : hear the voice of my prayers, O LORD.

7 O LORD GOD, Thou Strength of my health : Thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

8 Let not the ungodly have his desire, O LORD : let not his mischievous imagination prosper, lest they be too proud.

9 Let the mischief of their own lips fall upon the head of them : that compass me about.

10 Let hot burning coals fall upon them : let them be cast into the fire, and into the pit, that they never rise up again.

11 A man full of words shall not prosper upon the earth : evil shall hunt the wicked person to overthrow him.

12 Sure

12 Sure I am, that the LORD will avenge the poor : and maintain the cause of the helpless.

13 The righteous also shall give thanks unto Thy Name : and the just shall continue in Thy fight.

The 29
DAY.

THE CXLII. PSALM.

DOMINE, clamavi.

LORD, I call upon Thee, haste Thee unto me : and consider my voice, when I cry unto Thee.

2 Let my prayer be set forth in Thy fight as the incense : and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening-sacrifice.

3 Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth : and keep the door of my lips.

4 O let not mine heart be inclined to any evil thing : let me not be occupied in ungodly works, with the men that work wickedness, lest I eat of such things as please them.

5 Let the righteous rather smite me friendly : and reprove me.

6 But let not their precious balms break my head : yea, I will pray yet against their wickedness.

7 Let their judges be overthrown in stony places : that they may hear my words, for they are sweet.

8 Our bones lie scattered before the pit : like as when one breaketh and heweth wood upon the earth.

9 But mine eyes look upon Thee, O LORD GOD : in Thee is my trust, O cast not out my soul.

10 Keep me from the snare that they have laid for me : and from the traps of the wicked doers.

11 Let the ungodly fall into their own nets together : and let me ever escape them.

Evening
Prayer.

THE CXLII. PSALM.

Voce mea ad DOMINUM.

I CRIED unto the LORD with my voice : yea, even unto the LORD did I make my supplication.

2 I poured out my complaints before Him : and shewed Him of my trouble.

3 When my spirit was in heaviness, Thou knewest my path : in the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me.

4 I looked also upon my right hand : and saw there was no man that would know me.

5 I had no place to flee unto : and no man cared for my soul.

6 I cried unto Thee, O LORD, and said : Thou art my Hope and my Portion in the land of the living.

7 Consider my complaint : for I am brought very low.

8 O deliver me from my persecutors : for they are too strong for me.

9 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks unto Thy Name : which thing if Thou wilt grant me, then shall the righteous resort unto my company.

THE CXLIII. PSALM.

DOMINE, exaudi.

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, and consider my desire : hearken unto me for Thy truth and righteousnes sake.

2 And enter not into judgement with Thy servant : for in Thy sight shall no man living be justified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul, he hath smitten my life down to the ground : he hath laid hid me in the darkness, as the men that have been long dead.

4 Therefore is my spirit vexed within me : and my heart within me is desolate.

5 Yet do I remember the time past, I muse upon all Thy works : yea, I exercise my self in the works of Thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands unto Thee : my soul gaspeth unto Thee as a thirsty land.

7 Hear me, O LORD, and that soon, for my spirit waxeth faint : hide not Thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8 O let me hear Thy loving kindness betimes in the morning, for in Thee is my trust : shew Thou me the way that I should walk in, for I lift up my soul unto Thee.

9 Deliver me, O LORD, from mine enemies : for I flee unto Thee to hide me.

10 Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth Thee, for Thou art my GOD : let Thy loving SPIRIT lead me forth into the land of righteousness.

11 Quicken me, O LORD, for Thy Names sake : and for Thy righteousness sake bring my soul out of trouble.

12 And of Thy goodness slay mine enemies : and destroy all them that vex my soul, for I am Thy servant.

THE CXLIV. PSALM.

Benedictus DOMINUS.

respect unto him : or the son of man, that Thou so regardest him ?

4 Man is like a thing of nought : his time passeth away like a shadow.

5 Bow Thy heavens, O LORD, and come down :
touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

6 Cast forth Thy lightning and tear them : shoot out Thine arrows and consume them.

7 Send down Thine hand from above : deliver me, and take me out of the great waters, from the hand of strange children ;

8 Whose mouth talketh of vanity : and their right hand is a right hand of wickedness.

9 I will sing a new song unto Thee, O God :
and sing praises unto Thee upon a ten-stringed lute.

10 Thou hast given victory unto kings : and hast delivered David Thy servant from the peril of the sword.

11 Save me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children : whose mouth talketh of vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of iniquity.

12 That our sons may grow up as the young plants : and that our daughters may be as the polished corners of the temple.

13 That our garners may be full and plenteous with all manner of store : that our sheep may bring forth thousands, and ten thousands in our streets.

14 That our oxen may be strong to labour, that there be no decay : no leading into captivity, and no complaining in our streets.

15 Happy are the people that are in such a case :
yea, blessed are the people who have the LORD for their God.

I WILL magnifie Thee, O God, my King : and I will praise Thy Name for ever and ever.

2 Every

2 Every day will I give thanks unto Thee : and praise Thy Name for ever and ever.

3 Great is the LORD, and marvellous, worthy to be praised : there is no end of His greatness.

4 One generation shall praise Thy works unto another : and declare Thy power.

5 As for me, I will be talking of Thy worship : Thy glory, Thy praise and wondrous works ;

6 So that men shall speak of the might of Thy marvellous acts : and I will also tell of Thy greatness.

7 The memorial of Thine abundant kindness shall be shewed : and men shall sing of Thy righteousness.

8 The LORD is gracious and merciful : long-suffering, and of great goodness.

9 The LORD is loving unto every man : and His mercy is over all His works.

10 All Thy works praise Thee, O LORD : and Thy saints give thanks unto Thee.

11 They shew the glory of Thy kingdom : and talk of Thy power ;

12 That Thy power, Thy glory, and mightiness of Thy kingdom : might be known unto men.

13 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom : and Thy dominion endureth throughout all ages.

14 The LORD upholdeth all such as fall : and lifteth up all those that are down.

15 The eyes of all wait upon Thee, O LORD : and Thou givest them their meat in due season.

16 Thou openest Thine hand : and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

17 The LORD is righteous in all His ways : and holy in all His works.

18 The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon Him : yea, all such as call upon Him faithfully.

19 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear Him : He also will hear their cry, and will help them.

PRAISE the LORD, O my soul, while I live will I praise the LORD : yea, as long as I have any being, I will sing praises unto my GOD.

2 O put not your trust in princes, nor in any child of man : for there is no help in them.

3 For when the breath of man goeth forth, he shall turn again to his earth : and then all his thoughts perish.

4 Blessed is he that hath the GOD of Jacob for his help : and whose hope is in the LORD his GOD.

5 Who made heaven and earth, the sea and all that therein is : Who keepeth His promise for ever.

6 Who helpeth them to right that suffer wrong :
Who feedeth the hungry.

LORD giveth sight to the blind.

LORD careth for the righteous.

fendeth the fatherless and widow : as for the way

FORMS OF PRAYER TO BE USED AT SEA.

¶ The Morning and Evening Service to be used daily at Sea shall be the same which is appointed in the book of Common Prayer.

¶ These two following Prayers are to be also used in His Majesty's Navy every day.

O ETERNAL LORD GOD, Who alone spreadest out the heavens, and rulest the raging of the sea ; Who hast compassed the waters with bound until day and night come to an end ; Be pleased receive into Thy Almighty and most gracious protection the persons of us Thy servants, and the Fleet in which we serve. Preserve us from the dangers of the sea, and from the violence of the enemy, that we may be a safe-guard unto our most gracious sovereign lord King Charles and his kingdoms, and a security for such as pass on the seas upon their lawfull occasions ; that the inhabitants of our Island may in peace and quietness serve Thee our GOD, and that we may return in safety to enjoy the blessings of the land, with the fruits of our labours ; and with thankful remembrance of Thy mercies to praise and glorifie Thy holy Name, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

The Collect.

PREVENT us, O LORD, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help ; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in Thee, we may glorifie Thy holy Name, and finally by Thy mercy obtain everlasting life, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

Prayer

Prayers to be used in Storms at Sea.

O MOST powerful and glorious LORD GOD, at Whose command the winds blow, and lift up the waves of the sea, and Who stillest the rage thereof; We Thy creatures, but miserable sinners, do in this our great distress cry unto Thee for help: save, LORD, or else we perish. We confess, when we have been safe, and seen all things quiet about us, we have forgot Thee our GOD, and refused to hearken to the still voice of Thy Word, and to obey Thy commandments: But now we see how terrible Thou art in all Thy works of wonder, the great GOD to be feared above all: And therefore we adore Thy divine Majesty, acknowledging Thy power, and imploring Thy goodness. Help, LORD, and save us for Thy mercies sake in JESUS CHRIST Thy SON, our LORD. Amen.

Or this.

O MOST glorious and gracious LORD GOD, Who dwellest in heaven, but beholdest all things below; Look down, we beseech Thee, and hear us, calling out of the depth of misery, and out of the jaws of this death, which is ready now to swallow us up: Save LORD, or else we perish. The living, the living shall praise Thee. O send Thy word of command to rebuke the raging winds, and the roaring sea; that we being delivered from this distress may live to serve Thee, and to glorify Thy Name all the daies of our life. Hear, LORD, and save us, for the infinite merits of our blessed SAVIOUR Thy SON, our LORD JESUS CHRIST. Amen.

The Prayer to be said before a Fight at Sea against any Enemy.

O MOST powerful and glorious LORD GOD, the LORD of hosts, That rulest and commandest all things; Thou sittest in the throne judging right, and therefore we make our address to Thy Thy divine Majesty in this our necessity, that Thou wouldst take the cause into Thine own hand, and judge between us, and our enemies. Stir up Thy strength, O LORD, and come and help us; for Thou givest not alway the battel to the strong, but can save by many or by few. O let not our sins now cry against us for vengeance, but hear us Thy poor servants begging mercy, and imploring Thy help and that Thou wouldst be a defence unto us against the face of the enemy. Make it appear that Thou art our SAVIOUR and mighty Deliverer, through JESU CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen.

Short Prayers for single persons, that cannot meet to joyn in Prayer with others by reason of the Fight, or Storm.

O LORD, arise, help us, and deliver us for Thy Names sake.

Short Prayers in respect of a Storm.

THOU, O LORD, That stillest the raging of the sea, hear, hear us, and save us, that we perish not.

O blessed

O blessed SAVIOUR, That didst save Thy disciples ready to perish in a storm, hear us and save us, we beseech Thee.

LORD, have mercy upon us.

CHRIST, have mercy upon us.

LORD, have mercy upon us.

O LORD, hear us.

O CHRIST, hear us.

GOD the FATHER, GOD the SON, GOD the HOLY GHOST, have mercy upon us, save us now and evermore. Amen.

OUR FATHER, Which art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdome come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. For Thine is the kingdome, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ When there shall be imminent danger, as many as can be spared from necessary service in the Ship, shall be called together, and make an humble Confession of their sin to God: In which every one ought seriously to reflect upon those particular sins of which his Conscience shall accuse him: Saying as followeth,

The Confession.

ALmighty GOD, FATHER of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, Maker of all things, Judge of all men; We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness which we from time to time most grievously have committed, by thought, word, and deed against Thy divine Majesty, provoking most justly Thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, and be heartily sorry for these our misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous unto us; the burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful FATHER,

FATHER, for Thy SON our LORD JESUS CHRIST'S sake, forgive us all that is past, and grant, that we may ever hereafter serve and please Thee in newness of life, to the honour and glory of Thy Name, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest, if there be any in the Ship, pronounce this Absolution.

ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly FATHER, Who of His great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all them which with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto Him; Have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins; confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

Thanksgiving after a Storm.

Jubilate DEO. Psal. LXVI.

O BE joyful in GOD, all ye lands : sing praises unto the honour of His name, make His praise to be glorious.

Say unto GOD, O how wonderful art Thou in Thy works : through the greatness of Thy power shall Thine enemies be found liars unto Thee.

For all the world shall worship Thee : sing of Thee, and praise Thy Name.

O come hither, and behold the works of GOD : how wonderful He is in His doing towards the children of men.

He turned the sea into dry land : so that they went through the water on foot; there did we rejoyce thereof.

He ruleth with His power for ever, His eies behold the people : and such as will not believe, shall not be able to exalt themselves.

O praise our GOD, ye people : and make the voice of His praise to be heard ;

Who

Who holdeth our soul in life : and suffereth not our feet to slip.

For Thou, O GOD, hast proved us : Thou also hast tried us, like as silver is tried.

Thou broughtest us into the snare : and laidst trouble upon our loins.

Thou sufferedst men to ride over our heads : we went through fire and water, and Thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

I will go into Thy house with burnt-offerings : and will pay Thee my vows which I promised with my lips, and spake with my mouth when I was in trouble.

I will offer unto Thee fat burnt-sacrifices, with the incense of rams : I will offer bullocks and goats.

O come hither and hearken, all ye, that fear GOD : and I will tell you what He hath done for my soul.

I called unto Him with my mouth : and gave Him praises with my tongue.

If I incline unto wickedness with mine heart : the LORD will not hear me.

But GOD hath heard me : and considered the voice of my prayer.

Praised be GOD, Who hath not cast out my prayer : nor turned His mercy from me.

Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON, and to the HOLY GHOST ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Confitemini DOMINO. Psal. CVII.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for He is gracious : and His mercy endureth for ever.

Let them give thanks whom the LORD hath redeemed : and delivered, from the hand of the enemy.

And

And gathered them out of the lands, from the east and from the west : from the north and from the south.

They went astray in the wilderness out of the way : and found no city to dwell in ;

Hungry and thirsty : their soul fainted in them.

So they cried unto the LORD in their trouble : and He delivered them from their distress.

He led them forth by the right way : that they might go to the city where they dwelt.

O that men would therefore praise the LORD for His goodness : and declare the wonders that He doth for the children of men.

For He satisfieth the empty soul : and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

Such as sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death : being fast bound in misery and iron ;

Because they rebelled against the words of the LORD : and lightly regarded the counsel of the most High ;

He also brought down their heart through heaviness : they fell down, and there was none to help them up.

So when they cried unto the LORD in their trouble : He delivered them out of their distress.

For He brought them out of darkness, and out of the shadow of death : and brake their bonds in sunder.

O that men would therefore praise the LORD for His goodness : and declare the wonders that He doth for the children of men.

For He hath broken the gates of brass : and smitten the bars of iron in sunder.

Foolish men are plagued for their offence : and because of their wickedness.

Their soul abhorred all manner of meat : and they were even hard at death's door.

So when they cryed unto the LORD in their trouble : He delivered them out of their distress.

He sent His word and healed them : and they were saved from their destruction.

O that men would therefore praise the LORD for His goodness : and declare the wonders that He doth for the children of men ;

That they would offer unto Him the sacrifice of thanksgiving : and tell out His works with gladness.

They that go down to the sea in ships : and occupy their business in great waters ;

These men see the works of the LORD : and His wonders in the deep.

For at His word the stormy wind ariseth : which lifteth up the waves thereof.

They are carried up to the heaven, and down again to the deep : their soul melteth away because of the trouble.

They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man : and are at their wits end.

So when they cry unto the LORD in their trouble : He delivereth them out of their distress.

For He maketh the storm to cease : so that the waves thereof are still.

Then are they glad, because they are at rest : and so He bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.

O that men would therefore praise the LORD for His goodness : and declare the wonders that He doth for the children of men ;

That they would exalt Him also in the congregation of the people : and praise Him in the seat of the elders ;

Who turneth the floods into a wilderness : and drieth up the water-springs.

A fruitful land maketh He barren : for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

Again

Again He maketh the wilderness a standing water : and water-springs of a dry ground.

And there He setteth the hungry : that they may build them a city to dwell in ;

That they may sow their land, and plant vineyards : to yield them fruits of increase.

He blesteth them, so that they multiply exceedingly : and suffereth not their cattel to decrease.

And again, when they are minished and brought low : through oppression, through any plague or trouble,

Though He suffer them to be evil-entreated through tyrants : and let them wander out of the way in the wilderness ;

Yet helpeth He the poor out of misery : and maketh him households like a flock of sheep.

The righteous will consider this, and rejoyce : and the mouth of all wickedness shall be stopped.

Who so is wise, will ponder these things : and they shall understand the loving kindness of the LORD.

Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON, and to the HOLY GHOST ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Collect of Thanksgiving.

O MOST blessed and glorious LORD GOD, Who art of infinite goodness and mercy ; we Thy poor creatures, whom Thou hast made and preserved, holding our souls in life, and now rescuing us out of the jaws of death, humbly present our selves again before Thy divine Majesty, to offer a sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, for that Thou heardest us, when we called in our trouble, and didst not cast out our prayer, which we made before Thee in our great distress ; even, when we gave all for lost, our ship, our goods, our lives, then didst Thou mercifully mercifully look upon us, and wonderfully command a deliverance; for which, we now being in safety, do give all praise and glory to Thy holy Name, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

Oratio.

O MOST mighty and gracious good GOD, Thy mercy is over all Thy works, but in special manner hath been extended toward us, whom Thou hast so powerfully and wonderfully defended. Thou hast shewed us terrible things, and wonders in the deep, that we might see how powerful and gracious a GOD Thou art; how able and ready to help them that trust in Thee. Thou hast shewed us, how both winds and seas obey Thy command, that we may learn even from them, hereafter to obey Thy voice, and to do Thy will. We therefore bless and glorify Thy Name for this Thy mercy in saving us, when we were ready to perish. And we beseech Thee, make us as truly sensible now of Thy mercy, as we were then of the danger: And give us hearts alwayes ready to express our thankfulness, not only by words, but also by our lives, in being more obedient to Thy holy commandments. Continue, we beseech Thee, this Thy goodness to us, that we, whom Thou hast saved, may serve Thee in holiness and righteousness, all the dayes of our life, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD and SAVIOUR. Amen.

A Hymn of Praise and Thanksgiving after a dangerous Tempest.

O COME, let us give thanks unto the LORD, for He is gracious: and His mercy endureth for ever.

Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; let the redeemed of the LORD say so: whom He hath delivered from the merciless rage of the sea.

The

Forms of Prayer

The LORD is gracious and full of compassion flow to anger, and of great mercy.

He hath not dealt with us according to our sins :
neither rewarded us according to our iniquities.

But as the heaven is high above the earth : so great hath been His mercy towards us.

We found trouble and heaviness : we were even at death's door ;

The waters of the sea had well nigh covered us :
the proud waters had well nigh gone over our soul ;

The sea roared : and the stormy wind lifted up the waves thereof ;

We were carried up, as it were, to heaven, and then down again into the deep : our soul melted within us, because of trouble ;

Then cryed we unto Thee, O LORD : and Thou didst deliver us out of our distress.

Blessed be Thy name, Who didst not despise the prayer of Thy servants : but didst hear our cry, and hast saved us.

Thou didst send forth Thy commandment : and the windy storm ceased, and was turn'd into a calm.

O let us therefore praise the LORD for His goodness : and declare the wonders that He hath done, and still doth for the children of men.

Praised be the LORD daily : even the LORD That helpeth us, and poureth His benefits upon us.

He is our GOD, even the GOD of Whom cometh salvation : GOD is the LORD, by Whom we have escaped death.

Thou, LORD, hast made us glad through the operation of Thy hands : and we will triumph in Thy praise.

Blessed be the LORD GOD : even the LORD GOD,
Who only doth wondrous things ;

And blessed be the Name of His Majesty for ever : and let every one of us say, Amen, Amen.

Glory

Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON, and to the HOLY GHOST;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

2 Cor. xiii.

THE grace of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, and the love of GOD, and the fellowship of the HOLY GHOST, be with us all evermore. Amen.

After Victory or Deliverance from an Enemy.

A Psalm or Hymn of praise and thanksgiving after Victory.

IF the LORD had not been on our side, now may we say : if the LORD Himself had not been on our side, when men rose up against us ;

They had swallowed us up quick : when they were so wrathfully displeas'd at us.

Yea the waters had drowned us, and the stream had gone over our soul : the deep waters of the proud had gone over our soul.

But praised be the LORD : Who hath not given us over as a prey unto them.

The LORD hath wrought : a mighty salvation for us.

We gat not this by our own sword, neither was it our own arm that saved us : but Thy right hand, and Thine arm, and the light of Thy countenance, because Thou hadst a favour unto us.

The LORD hath appeared for us : the LORD hath covered our heads, and made us to stand in the day of battel.

The LORD hath appeared for us : the LORD hath overthrown our enemies, and dashed in pieces those that rose up against us ;

Therefore not unto us, O LORD, not unto us : but unto Thy Name be given the glory.

The

The LORD hath done great things for us : the LORD hath done great things for us, for which we rejoyce.

Our help standeth in the Name of the LORD : Who hath made heaven and earth.

Blessed be the Name of the LORD : from this time forth for evermore.

Glory be to the FATHER, and to the SON, and to the HOLY GHOST ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

¶ After this Hymn may be sung the Te DEUM.

• Then this Collect.

O ALMIGHTY GOD, the soveraign Commander of all the world, in Whose hand is power and might which none is able to withstand ; We bles and magnifie Thy great and glorious Name for this happy victory, the whole glory whereof we do ascribe to Thee, Who art the only Giver of victory. And, we beseech Thee, give us grace to improve this great mercy to Thy glory, the advancement of Thy Gospel, the honour of our Sovereign, and, as much as in us lieth, to the good of all mankind. And, we beseech Thee, give us such a sense of this great mercy, as may engage us to a true thankfulness ; such as may appear in our lives by an humble, holy, and obedient walking before Thee all our dayes, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD : To Whom with Thee, and the HOLY SPIRIT, as for all Thy mercies, so in particular for this victory and deliverance, be all glory and honour world without end. Amen.

2 Cor. xiii.

THE grace of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, and the love of GOD, and the fellowship of the HOLY GHOST, be with us all evermore. Amen.

At the Burial of their Dead at Sea.

¶ The Office in the Common Prayer-book may be used; Only in stead of these words [We therefore commit his body to the ground, Earth to Earth, &c.] say,

We therefore commit his body to the Deep, to be turned into corruption, looking for the resurrection of the body, (when the sea shall give up her dead,) and the life of the world to come, through our LORD JESUS CHRIST; Who at His coming shall change our vile body, that it may be like His glorious Body, according to the mighty working, whereby He is able to subdue all things to Himself.

 of
MAKING, ORDAINING, AND CONSECRATING
 of

BISHOPS, PRIESTS AND DEACONS,

According to the Order of the Church of England.

THE PREFACE.

IT is evident unto all men diligently reading Holy Scripture and ancient Authors, that from the Apostles time there have been these Orders of Ministers in CHRIST'S Church; Bishops, Priests, and Deacons. Which Offices were evermore had in such reverend estimation, that no man might presume to execute any of them, except he k k were

were first called, tried, examined, and known to have such qualities as are requisite for the same ; and also by publick prayer, with imposition of hands, were approved and admitted thereunto by lawful Authority. And therefore, to the intent that these Orders may be continued, and reverently used and esteemed in the Church of England ; No man shall be accounted or taken to be a lawful Bishop, Priest, or Deacon in the Church of England, or suffered to execute any of the said Functions, except he be called, tryed, examined and admitted thereunto, according to the Form hereafter following, or hath had formerly Episcopal Consecration, or Ordination.

And none shall be admitted a Deacon, except he be Twenty-three years of age, unless he have a Faculty. And every man which is to be admitted a Priest, shall be full Four and twenty years old. And every man which is to be Ordained or Consecrated Bishop, shall be fully Thirty years of age.

And the Bishop knowing either by himself, or by sufficient testimony, any person to be a man of vertuous conversation, and without crime, and after examination and tryal, finding him learned in the Latine Tongue, and sufficiently instructed in holy Scripture, may at the times appointed in the Canon, or else on urgent occasion, upon some other Sunday or Holy-day, in the face of the Church, admit him a Deacon, in such manner and form as hereafter followeth.

THE FORM AND MANNER
of
MAKING OF DEACONS.

¶ When the day appointed by the Bishop is come, after Morning Prayer is ended, there shall be a Sermon or Exhortation, declarin' declaring the Duty and Office of such as come to be admitted Deacons; how necessary that Order is in the Church of CHRIST; and also, how the people ought to esteem them in their Office.

¶ First the Arch-Deacon or his Deputy shall present unto the Bishop (sitting in his chair, near to the holy Table) such as desire to be ordained Deacons (each of them being decently habited;) saying these words, REVEREND FATHER in GOD, I present unto you these persons present to be admitted Deacons.

The Bishop.

TAKE heed that the persons, whom ye present unto us, be apt and meet, for their learning and godly conversation, to exercise their Ministry duly, to the honour of God, and the edifying of His Church.

¶ The Arch-Deacon shall answer,

I HAVE enquired of them, and also examined them, and think them so to be.

¶ Then the Bishop shall say unto the people,

BRETHREN, if there be any of you who knoweth any impediment, or notable crime, in any of these persons presented to be ordered Deacons, for the which he ought not to be admitted to that Office, let him come forth in the Name of GOD, and shew what the crime or impediment is.

¶ And if any great crime or impediment be objected, the Bishop shall surcease from Ordering that person, until such time as the party accused shall be found clear of that Crime.

¶ Then the Bishop (commending such as shall be found meet to be Ordered, to the Prayers of the congregation) shall, with the Clergy and people present, sing or say the Litany, with the Prayers, as followeth.

¶ Then shall be sung or said the Service for the Communion, with the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel, as followeth.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY God, Who by Thy divine Providence hast appointed divers Orders of Ministers in Thy Church, and didst inspire Thine Apostles to choose into the Order of Deacons the first Martyr S. Steven, with others; Mercifully behold these Thy servants now called to the like Office and Administration. Replenish them so with the truth of Thy doctrine, and adorn them with innocency of life, that both by word and good example, they may faithfully serve Thee in this Office, to the glory of Thy Name, and the edification of Thy Church, through the merits of our SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the HOLY GHOST now and for ever. Amen.

The Epistle.

1 Tim. 3.
8.

LIKELIKEWISE must the Deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre, holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. And let these also first be proved, then let them use the Office of a Deacon, being found blameless. Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

things. Let the Deacons be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. For they that have used the Office of a Deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in CHRIST JESUS.

¶ Or else this out of the Sixth of the Acts of the Apostles.

THEN the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables. Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the HOLY GHOST and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. But we will give our selves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word. And the saying pleased the whole multitude. And they chose Steven, a man full of faith, and of the HOLY GHOST, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas, a proselyte of Antioch: Whom they set before the Apostles; and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. And the word of God increased, and the number of the Disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly, and a great company of the Priests were obedient to the faith.

Acts vi. 2.

• And before the Gospel, the Bishop sitting in his Chair shall cause the Oath of the Kings Supremacy, and against the power and authority of all foreign Potentates to be ministred unto every of them that are to be Ordered.

The Oath of the Kings Sovereignty.

I *A. And therefore I do utterly renounce and forsake all foreign jurisdictions, powers, superiorities and authorities; and do promise, That from henceforth I shall bear faith and true allegiance to the Kings Highness, His Heirs and lawful Successors, and to my power shall assist and defend all jurisdictions, privileges, preeminences and authorities granted or belonging to the Kings Highness, His Heirs and Successors, or united and annexed to the Imperial Crown of this Realm; So help me God, and the Contents of this Book.

¶ Then shall the Bishop examine every one of them that are to be Ordered, in the presence of the people, after this manner following.

DO you trust that you are inwardly moved by the HOLY GHOST, to take upon you this Office and Ministration, to serve GOD for the promoting of His glory, and the edifying of His people?

Answer.

I trust so.

The Bishop.

DO you think that you are truly called according to the will of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, and the due Order of this Realm, to the Ministry of the Church?

Answer.

I think so.

The Bishop.

DO you unfeignedly believe all the Canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testament?

Answer.

I do believe them.

The

The Bishop.

WILL you diligently read the same unto the people assembled in the Church where you shall be appointed to serve?

Answer.

I will.

The Bishop.

IT appertaineth to the Office of a Deacon in the Church where he shall be appointed to serve, to assist the Priest in Divine service, and specially when he ministrerth the holy Communion, and to help him in the distribution thereof, and to read holy Scriptures and Homilies in the Church; and to instruct the youth in the Catechism; in the absence of the Priest to Baptize infants, and to Preach, if he be admitted thereto by the Bishop. And furthermore, it is his Office, where provision is so made, to search for the sick, poor and impotent people of the Parish, to intimate their estates, names, and places where they dwell, unto the Curate, that by his exhortation they may be relieved with the alms of the Parishioners or others. Will you do this gladly and willingly?

Answer.

I will so do by the help of God.

The Bishop.

WILL you apply all your diligence to frame and fashion your own lives, and the lives of your families, according to the doctrine of CHRIST, and to make both your selves and them, as much as in you lieth, wholesome examples of the flock of CHRIST?

I will so do, the LORD being my Helper.

The Bishop.

WILL you reverently obey your Ordinary, and other chief Ministers of the Church, and them to whom the charge and government over you is committed, following with a glad mind and will their godly admonitions?

Answer.

I will endeavour my self, the LORD being my Helper.

¶ Then the Bishop, laying his hands severally upon the head of every one of them, humbly kneeling before him, shall say,

TAKE thou authority to execute the Office of a Deacon in the Church of GOD committed unto thee; In the Name of the FATHER, and of the SON, and of the HOLY GHOST. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Bishop deliver to every one of them the New Testament, saying,

TAKE thou authority to read the Gospel in the Church of GOD, and to preach the same, if thou be thereto licensed by the Bishop himself.

¶ Then one of them appointed by the Bishop shall read
The Gospel.

S. Luke 12.

LET your loins be girded about, and your lights burning; and ye your selves like unto men that wait for their LORD, when He will return from the wedding; that when He cometh and knocketh, they may open unto Him immediately. Blessed are those servants, whom the LORD when He cometh, shall find watching. Verily I say unto you, that He shall gird Himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them. And if He shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

¶ Then

¶ Then shall the Bishop proceed in the Communion, and all that are Ordered, shall tarry and receive the holy Communion the same day with the Bishop.

¶ The Communion ended, after the last Collect, and immediately before the Benediction shall be said these Collects following.

ALMIGHTY God, Giver of all good things, Who of Thy great goodness hast vouchsafed to accept and take these Thy servants unto the Office of Deacons in Thy Church; Make them, we beseech Thee, O LORD, to be modest, humble, and constant in their Ministration, to have a ready will to observe all spiritual discipline; that they having always the testimony of a good conscience, and continuing ever stable and strong in Thy SON CHRIST, may so well behave themselves in this inferiour Office, that they may be found worthy to be called unto the higher Ministries in Thy Church, through the same Thy SON our SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST; to Whom be glory and honour world without end.
Amen.

PREVENT us, O LORD, in all our doings with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy Name, and finally by Thy mercy obtain everlasting life, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

THE peace of GOD which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of GOD, and of His SON JESUS CHRIST our LORD. And the blessing of GOD ALMIGHTY, the FATHER, the SON, and the HOLY GHOST be amongst you, and remain with you alwaies. Amen.

whole year (except for reasonable causes it shall otherwise seem good unto the Bishop) to the intent he may be perfect, and well expert in the things appertaining to the Ecclesiastical administration. In executing whereof, if he be found faithful and diligent, he may be admitted by his Diocesan to the Order of Priesthood, at the times appointed in the Canon; or else on urgent occasion, upon some other Sunday, or Holy-day, in the face of the Church, in such manner and form as hereafter followeth.

THE FORM AND MANNER of ORDERING OF PRIESTS.

¶ When the day appointed by the Bishop is come, after Morning Prayer is ended, there shall be a Sermon or Exhortation, declaring the Duty and Office of such as come to be admitted Priests; how necessary that Order is in the Church of CHRIST; and also how the people ought to esteem them in their Office.

¶ First the Arch-Deacon, or in his absence, one appointed in his stead, shall present unto the Bishop sitting in his Chair near to the holy Table, all them that shall receive the Order of Priesthood that day (each of them being decently habited) and say, REVEREND Father in God, I present unto you these persons present, to be admitted to the Order of Priesthood.

¶ The Bishop.

TAKE heed that the persons whom ye present unto us be apt and meet, for their learning and godly conversation, to exercise their Ministry duely, to the honour of God and the edifying of His Church.

¶ The Arch-Deacon shall answer.

I have enquired of them, and also examined them, and think them so to be.

¶ Then the Bishop shall say unto the people,

GOOD people, these are they whom we purpose, God willing, to receive this day unto the holy holy Office of Priesthood : For after due examination we find not to the contrary, but that they be lawfully called to their Function and Ministry, and that they be persons meet for the same. But yet if there be any of you who knoweth any impediment or notable crime in any of them, for the which he ought not to be received into this holy Ministry, let him come forth in the name of God, and shew what the crime or impediment is.

¶ And if any great crime or impediment be objected, the Bishop shall surcease from Ordering that person, until such time as the party accused shall be found clear of that crime.

¶ Then the Bishop (commending such, as shall be found meet to be Ordered, to the prayers of the congregation) shall, with the Clergy and people present, sing, or say the Litany, with the prayers, as is before appointed in the Form of Ordering Deacons, save only that in the proper Suffrages there added, the word [Deacons] shall be omitted, and the word [Priests] inserted in stead of it.

¶ Then shall be sung or said the Service for the Communion ; with the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel, as followeth.

¶ The Collect.

ALMIGHTY GOD, Giver of all good things, Who by Thy HOLY SPIRIT hast appointed divers Orders of Ministers in the Church, mercifully behold these Thy servants now called to the Office of Priesthood, and replenish them so with the truth of Thy doctrine, and adorn them with innocency of life, that both by word and good example they may faithfully serve Thee in this Office, to the glory of Thy Name, and the edification of Thy Church, through the merits of our SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the HOLY GHOST, world without end. Amen.

¶ The Epistle.

UNTO every one of us is given grace, according to the measure of the gift of CHRIST. Wherefore he saith, When He ascended up on high, high, He led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. (Now that He ascended, what is it, but that He also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? He That descended, is the same also That ascended up far above all heavens, that He might fill all things.) And He gave some Apostles, and some Prophets, and some Evangelists, and some Pastours, and Teachers, for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of CHRIST; till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the SON of GOD, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of CHRIST.

S. Matth.
9. 36.

WHEN JESUS saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. Then saith He unto His disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few. Pray ye therefore the LORD of the harvest, that He will send forth labourers into His harvest.

¶ Or else this that followeth out of the Tenth Chapter of Saint John.

VERILY verily I say unto you, He that entreth not by the door into the sheep-fold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entreth in by the door, is the shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth, and the sheep hear his voice; and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him; for they know his voice. And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him; for they know not the voice of strangers. This parable spake

JESUS

JESUS unto them, but they understood not what things they were which He spake unto them. Then said JESUS unto them again, Verily verily I say unto you, I am the Door of the sheep. All that ever came before Me, are thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not hear them. I am the Door, by Me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. I am the good Shepherd: the good Shepherd giveth His life for the sheep. But he that is an hireling and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth; and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good Shepherd, and know My sheep, and am known of Mine. As the FATHER knoweth Me, even so know I the FATHER; and I lay down My life for the sheep. And other sheep I have which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear My voice; and there shall be one fold, and one Shepherd.

¶ Then the Bishop sitting in his Chair shall minister unto every one of them the Oath concerning the Kings Supremacy, as it is before set forth in the Form for the Ordering of Deacons.

¶ And that done, he shall say unto them as hereafter followeth.

YOU have heard, brethren, as well in your private examination, as in the exhortation which was now made to you, and in the holy Lessons taken out of the Gospel, and the writings of the Apostles, of what dignity, and of how great importance this Office is, whereunto ye are called. And now again we exhort you in the Name of our

LORD JESUS CHRIST, that you have in remembrance into how high a dignity, and to how weighty an office and charge ye are called: That is to say, to be messengers, watchmen, and stewards of the LORD; to teach and to premonish, to feed and provide for the LORDS family; to seek for CHRISTs sheep that are dispersed abroad, and for His children who are in the midst of this naughty world, that they may be saved through CHRIST for ever.

Have always therefore printed in your remembrance, how great a treasure is committed to your charge. For they are the sheep of CHRIST, which He bought with His death, and for whom He shed His blood. The Church and Congregation whom you must serve, is His spouse, and His body. And if it shall happen the same Church, or any member thereof to take any hurt or hindrance by reason of your negligence, ye know the greatness of the fault, and also the horrible punishment that will ensue. Wherefore consider with your selves the end of your ministry towards the children of GOD, towards the spouse and body of CHRIST; and see that you never cease your labour, your care and diligence, until you have done all that lieth in you, according to your bounden duty, to bring all such as are or shall be committed to your charge, unto that agreement in the faith and knowledge of GOD, and to that ripeness and perfectness of age in CHRIST, that there be no place left among you, either for error in Religion, or for viciousness in Life.

Forasmuch then as your Office is both of so great excellency, and of so great difficulty, ye see with how great care and study ye ought to apply your selves, as well that ye may shew your selves dutiful and thankful unto that LORD Who hath placed you in so high a dignity; as also to beware that neither you your selves offend, nor be occasion that others offend. Howbeit ye cannot have a mind and will thereto hereto of your selves; for that will and ability is given of GOD alone: Therefore ye ought, and have need to pray earnestly for His HOLY SPIRIT. And seeing that you cannot by any other means compass the doing of so weighty a work, pertaining to the salvation of man, but with doctrine and exhortation taken out of the holy Scriptures, and with a life agreeable to the same; consider how studious ye ought to be in reading and learning the Scriptures, and in framing the manners both of your selves, and of them that specially pertain unto you, according to the rule of the same Scriptures: And for this self-same cause, how ye ought to forsake and set aside (as much as you may) all worldly cares and studies.

We have good hope that you have well weighed and pondered these things with your selves long before this time; and that you have clearly determined, by GODS grace, to give your selves wholly to this Office, whereunto it hath pleased GOD to call you: So that as much as lieth in you, you will apply your selves wholly to this one thing, and draw all your cares and studies this way; and that you will continually pray to GOD the FATHER, by the mediation of our onely SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, for the heavenly assistance of the HOLY GHOST; that by daily reading and weighing of the Scriptures, ye may wax riper and stronger in your ministry, and that ye may so endeavour your selves from time to time, to sanctifie the lives of you and yours, and to fashion them after the rule and doctrine of CHRIST, that ye may be wholsom and godly examples and patterns for the people to follow.

And now that this present congregation of CHRIST here assembled, may also understand your minds and wills in these things, and that this your promise may the more move you to do your duties, ye shall answer answer plainly to these things, which we in the Name of GOD, and of His Church, shall demand of you touching the same.

DO you think in your heart that you be truly called, according to the will of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, and the Order of this Church of England, to the Order and Ministry of Priesthood?

Answer.

I think it.

The Bishop.

ARE you persuaded that the holy Scriptures contain sufficiently all Doctrine required of necessity for eternal salvation through faith in JESUS CHRIST? And are you determined out of the said Scriptures to instruct the people committed to your charge, and to teach nothing (as required of necessity to eternal salvation) but that which you shall be persuaded may be concluded and proved by the Scripture?

Answer.

I am so persuaded, and have so determined by GODS grace.

The Bishop.

WILL you then give your faithful diligence always so to minister the Doctrine and Sacraments, and the Discipline of CHRIST, as the LORD hath commanded, and as this Church and Realm hath received the same, according to the Commandments of GOD; so that you may teach the people committed to your Cure and Charge, with all diligence to keep and observe the same?

Answer.

I will so do by the help of the LORD.

The

The Bishop.

WILL you be ready with all faithful diligence to banish and drive away all erroneous and strange doctrines, contrary to Gods word; and to use both publick and private monitions and exhortations, as well to the sick, as to the whole within your Cures, as need shall require, and occasion shall be given?

Answer.

I will, the LORD being my Helper.

The Bishop.

WILL you be diligent in prayers, and in reading of the holy Scriptures, and in such studies as help to the knowledge of the same, laying aside the study of the world and the flesh?

Answer.

I will endeavour my self so to do, the LORD being my Helper.

The Bishop.

WILL you be diligent to frame and fashion your own selves and your families, according to the Doctrine of CHRIST, and to make both your selves and them, as much as in you lieth, wholsom examples and patterns to the flock of CHRIST?

Answer.

I will apply my self thereto, the LORD being my Helper.

The Bishop.

WILL you maintain and set forwards, as much as lieth in you, quietness, peace and love among all Christian people, and especially among them that are or shall be committed to your charge?

Answer.

The Ordering of Priests.

Answer.

I will so do, the LORD being my Helper.

The Bishop.

WILL you reverently obey your Ordinary, and other chief Ministers, unto whom is committed the charge and government over you; following with a glad mind and will their godly admonitions, and submitting your selves to their godly judgements?

Answer.

I will so do, the LORD being my Helper.

¶ Then shall the Bishop standing up, say,

ALMIGHTY GOD, Who hath given you this will to do all these things, Grant also unto you strength and power to perform the same; that He may accomplish His work which He hath begun in you, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD.
Amen.

¶ After this the Congregation shall be desired, secretly in their prayers to make their humble supplications to GOD for all these things: For the which prayers there shall be silence kept for a space.

¶ After which shall be sung or said by the Bishop (the persons to be Ordained Priests, all kneeling) Veni, CREATOR SPIRITUS; the Bishop beginning, and the Priests, and others that are present, answering by Verses, as followeth.

COME, HOLY GHOST, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire.
Thou the anointing SPIRIT art,
Who dost Thy sevenfold gifts impart.
Thy blessed Unction from above,
Is comfort, life, and fire of love.
Enable with perpetual light
The dulness of our blinded sight.
Anoint and cheer our soiled face
With the abundance of Thy grace.

Keep,

Keep far our foes, give peace at home :
Where Thou art guide, no ill can come.
 Teach us to know the FATHER, SON,
And Thee, of both, to be but One.
 That through the ages all along,
This may be our endless song ;
 Praise to Thy eternal merit,
 FATHER, SON, and HOLY SPIRIT.

• O R D E R .

COME, HOLY GHOST, eternal GOD, proceeding from above,
Both from the FATHER and the SON,
the GOD of peace and love.
 Visit our minds, into our hearts
 Thy heavenly grace inspire,
That truth and godliness we may pursue with full desire.
 Thou art the very Comforter in grief and all distress :
The heavenly Gift of GOD most high,
no tongue can It express.
 The Fountain and the living Spring of joy celestial :
The Fire so bright, the Love so sweet,
the Unction spiritual.
 Thou in Thy gifts art manifold,
 by them CHRIST'S Church doth stand :
In faithful hearts Thou writ'st Thy law,
the Finger of GODS hand.
 According to Thy promise, LORD,
 Thou givest speech with grace,
That through Thy help GODS praises may resound in every place.
 O HOLY GHOST, into our minds send down Thy heavenly light ;
Kindle our hearts with fervent zeal, to serve GOD day and night.

Our

The Ordering of Priests.

Our weakness strengthen and confirm (for LORD, Thou knowst us frail)
That neither devil world nor flesh against us may prevail.

Put back our enemy far from us,
 and help us to obtain
*Peace in our hearts with GOD and man
 (the best, the truest gain ;)*

And grant that Thou being, O LORD, our Leader and our Guide,
*We may escape the snares of sin,
 and never from Thee slide.*

Such measures of Thy powerful grace, grant, LORD, to us, we pray,
That Thou maist be our Comforter at the last dreadful day.

Of strife and of dissension
 dissolve, O LORD, the bands,
And knit the knots of peace and love, throughout all Christian lands.

Grant us the grace that we may know the FATHER of all might,
*That we of His beloved SON
 may gain the blissful sight,*

And that we may with perfect faith ever acknowledge Thee,
The SPIRIT of FATHER, and of SON, one GOD in Persons Three.

To GOD the FATHER, laud and praise,
 and to His blessed SON,
And to the HOLY SPIRIT of grace, Co-equal Three in One.

And pray we that our only LORD would please His SPIRIT to send
On all that shall profess His Name, from hence to the worlds end.

Amen.

¶ That

¶ That done, the Bishop shall pray in this wise, and say,

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY GOD and heavenly FATHER, Who of Thine infinite love and goodness towards us, hast given to us Thy only and most dearly beloved SON JESUS CHRIST, to be our Redeemer, and the Authour of everlasting life; Who after He had made perfect our Redemption by His death, and was ascended into heaven, sent abroad into the world His Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Doctors and Pastors, by whose labour and ministry He gathered together a great flock in all the parts of the world, to set forth the eternal praise of Thy holy Name: For these so great benefits of Thy eternal goodness, and for that Thou hast vouchsafed to call these Thy servants here present, to the same Office and Ministry appointed for the salvation of mankind, we render unto Thee most hearty thanks, we praise and worship Thee; and we humbly beseech Thee by the same Thy blessed SON, to grant unto all, which either here or elsewhere call upon Thy holy Name, that we may continue to shew our selves thankful unto Thee for these and all other Thy benefits, and that we may daily encrease and go forwards in the knowledge and faith of Thee and Thy SON, by the HOLY SPIRIT. So that as well by these Thy Ministers, as by them over whom they shall be appointed Thy Ministers, Thy holy Name may be for ever glorified, and Thy blessed Kingdom enlarged, through the same Thy SON JESUS CHRIST our LORD, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the same HOLY SPIRIT, world without end. Amen.

¶ When this Prayer is done, the Bishop, with the Priests present, shall lay their hands severally upon the head of every one that receiveth the Order of Priesthood; the receivers humbly kneeling upon their knees, and the Bishop saying,

Receive

RECEIVE the HOLY GHOST for the Office and work of a Priest in the Church of GOD, now committed unto thee by the Imposition of our hands. Whose sins thou dost forgive, they are forgiven; and whose sins thou dost retain, they are retained. And be thou a faithful Dispenser of the Word of GOD, and of His holy Sacraments; in the Name of the FATHER, and of the SON, and of the HOLY GHOST. Amen.

¶ Then the Bishop shall deliver to every one of them kneeling, the Bible into his hand, saying,

TAKE thou authority to preach the Word of GOD, and to minister the holy Sacraments in the Congregation, where thou shalt be lawfully appointed thereunto.

¶ When this is done, the Nicene Creed shall be sung or said, and the Bishop shall after that go on in the Service of the Communion, which all they that receive Orders, shall take together, and remain in the same place where hands were laid upon them, until such time as they have received the Communion.

¶ The Communion being done, after the last Collect, and immediately before the Benediction, shall be said these Collects.

MOST merciful FATHER, we beseech Thee to send upon these Thy servants, Thy heavenly blessing, that they may be clothed with righteousness, and that Thy word spoken by their mouths, may have such success, that it may never be spoken in vain. Grant also that we may have grace to hear and receive what they shall deliver out of Thy most holy Word, or agreeable to the same, as the means of our salvation; that in all our words and deeds we may seek Thy glory, and the increase of Thy Kingdom, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

PREVENT us, O LORD, in all our doings with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help, that in all our works begun, begun, continued, and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy Name, and finally by Thy mercy obtain everlasting life, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

THE peace of GOD which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of GOD, and of His SON JESUS CHRIST our LORD. And the blessing of GOD ALMIGHTY, the FATHER, the SON, and the HOLY GHOST be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

¶ And if on the same day the Order of Deacons be given to some, and the Order of Priesthood to others; The Deacons shall be first presented, and then the Priests: And it shall suffice that the Litany be once said for both. The Collects shall both be used; first that for Deacons, then that for Priests. The Epistle shall be Epb. iv. 7—13, as before in this Office. Immediately after which, they that are to be made Deacons, shall take the Oath of Supremacy, be Examined and Ordained, as is above prescribed. Then one of them having read the Gospel (which shall be either out of S. Matth. ix. 36—38, as before in this Office; or else S. Luke xii. 35—38, as before in the Form for the Ordering of Deacons) they that are to be made Priests shall likewise take the Oath of Supremacy, be Examined and Ordained, as is in this Office before appointed.

THE FORM OF ORDAINING OR CONSECRATING

of an

ARCH-BISHOP, or BISHOP;

Which is always to be performed upon some Sunday or Holy-day.

¶ When all things are duly prepared in the Church, and set in Order; after Morning Prayer is ended, the Arch-Bishop (or some other Bishop appointed) shall begin the Communion Service; in which this shall be

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY GOD, Who by Thy SON JESUS CHRIST didst give to Thy holy Apostles many excellent excellent gifts, and didst charge them to feed Thy flock; Give grace, we beseech Thee, to all Bishops, the Pastors of Thy Church, that they may diligently preach Thy Word, and duly administer the godly Discipline thereof; and grant to the people that they may obediently follow the same, that all may receive the crown of everlasting glory, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ And another Bishop shall read
The Epistle.

1 Tim. iii. 1.

THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the Office of a Bishop, he desireth a good work. A Bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach, not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; one that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the Church of God?) Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devil. Moreover, he must have a good report of them which are without, lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the devil.

¶ Or this, for the Epistle.

Acts xx. 17.

FROM Miletus Paul sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the Church. And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, serving the LORD with all humility of mind, and with many tears and temptations which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews: And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house, house, testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our LORD JESUS CHRIST. And now behold, I go bound in the Spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there; save that the HOLY GHOST witnesseth in every city, saying, That bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto my self, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I have received of the LORD JESUS, to testify the Gospel of the grace of God. And now behold, I know that ye all among whom I have gone preaching the Kingdom of God, shall see my face no more. Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. Take heed therefore unto your selves, and to all the flock over the which the HOLY GHOST hath made you Overseers, to feed the Church of God, which He hath purchased with His own blood. For I know this, that after my departing, shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears. And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. I have coveted no mans silver or gold, or apparel, yea, you your selves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the LORD JESUS, how He said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

¶ Then

¶ Then another Bishop shall read

The Gospel.

S. John xxi.
15.

JESUS saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou Me more than these? He saith unto Him, Yea, LORD, Thou knowest that I love Thee. He saith unto him, Feed My lambs. He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou Me? He saith unto Him, Yea, LORD, Thou knowest that I love Thee. He saith unto him, Feed My sheep. He said unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou Me? Peter was grieved because He said unto him the third time, Lovest thou Me? And he said unto Him, LORD, Thou knowest all things; Thou knowest that I love Thee. JESUS saith unto him, Feed My sheep.

¶ Or else this.

19.

THE same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut, where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came JESUS and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. And when He had so said, He shewed unto them His hands and His side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the LORD. Then said JESUS to them again, Peace be unto you: As My FATHER hath sent Me, even so send I you. And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the HOLY GHOST. Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

¶ Or thus.

S. Mat.
xxviii. 18.

JESUS came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto Me in heaven and earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the FATHER, and of the SON, and and of the HOLY GHOST: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: And lo I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

¶ After the Gospel, and the Nicene Creed, and the Sermon are ended, the Elected Bishop (vested with his Rotchet) shall be presented by two Bishops unto the Arch-Bishop of that Province (or to some other Bishop appointed by lawful Commission) the Arch-Bishop sitting in his Chair near the holy Table, and the Bishops that present him, saying,

MOST Reverend Father in God, we present unto you this godly and well-learned man, to be Ordained and Consecrated Bishop.

¶ Then shall the Archbishop demand the Kings Mandate for the Consecration, and cause it to be read. And the Oath touching the acknowledgement of the Kings Supremacy, shall be ministered to the persons Elected, as it is set down before in the Form for the Ordering of Deacons. And then shall also be ministered unto them the Oath of due obedience to the Archbishop, as followeth.

The Oath of due Obedience to the Archbishop.

IN the Name of God. Amen. I. N. chosen Bishop of the Church and See of N. do profess and promise all due reverence and obedience to the Archbishop, and to the Metropolitan Church of N. and to their successors; So help me GOD, through JESUS CHRIST.

¶ This Oath shall not be made at the Consecration of an Archbishop.

¶ Then the Archbishop shall move the Congregation present to pray, saying thus to them,

BRETHREN, it is written in the Gospel of S. Luke, That our SAVIOUR CHRIST continued the whole night in prayer, before He did choose and send forth His twelve Apostles. It is written also in the Acts of the Apostles, That the Disciples who were at Antioch, did fast and pray before they laid hands on Paul and Barnabas, and sent

sent them forth. Let us therefore, following the example of our SAVIOUR CHRIST and His Apostles, first fall to prayer, before we admit and send forth this person presented unto us, to the work whereunto we trust the HOLY GHOST hath called him.

¶ And then shall be said the Litany, as before, in the Form of Ordering Deacons: Save only that after this place, That it may please Thee to illuminate all Bishops, &c. the proper Suffrage there following, shall be omitted, and this inserted in stead of it:

THAT it may please Thee to bless this our brother Elected, and to send Thy grace upon him, that he may duly execute the Office whereunto he is called, to the edifying of Thy Church, and to the honour, praise and glory of Thy Name.

Answer.

We beseech Thee to hear us, good LORD.

¶ Then shall be said this prayer following.

ALMIGHTY GOD, Giver of all good things, Who by Thy HOLY SPIRIT hast appointed divers Orders of Ministers in Thy Church, mercifully behold this Thy servant now called to the work and Ministry of a Bishop, and replenish him so with the truth of Thy doctrine, and adorn him with innocency of life, that both by word and deed, he may faithfully serve Thee in this Office, to the glory of Thy Name, and the edifying and well governing of Thy Church, through the merits of our SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the HOLY GHOST, world without end. Amen.

¶ Then the Archbishop sitting in his Chair, shall say to him that is to be Consecrated,

BROTHER, forasmuch as the holy Scripture, and the ancient Canons command, that we should not be hasty in laying on hands, and admitting any any person to government in the Church of CHRIST, which He hath purchased with no less price than the effusion of His own blood; before I admit you to this Administration, I will examine you in certain Articles, to the end that the Congregation present may have a trial, and bear witness how you be minded to behave your self in the Church of GOD.

ARE you persuaded that you be truly called to this Ministration, according to the will of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, and the Order of this Realm?

Answer.

I am so persuaded.

The Archbishop.

ARE you persuaded that the holy Scriptures contain sufficiently all doctrine required of necessity to eternal salvation through faith in JESUS CHRIST? And are you determined out of the same holy Scriptures to instruct the people committed to your charge; and to teach or maintain nothing as required of necessity to eternal salvation, but that which you shall be persuaded may be concluded and proved by the same?

Answer.

I am so persuaded and determined by GODS grace.

The Archbishop.

WILL you then faithfully exercise your self in the same holy Scriptures, and call upon God by prayer, for the true understanding of the same; so as ye may be able by them to teach and exhort with wholesome doctrine, and to withstand and convince the gain-sayers?

Answer.

I will so do, by the help of GOD.

M m 2

The

The Consecration of Bishops.

The Archbishop.

BE you ready with all faithful diligence to banish and drive away all erroneous and strange Doctrine, contrary to Gods word; and both privately and openly to call upon, and encourage others to the same?

Answer.

I am ready, the LORD being my Helper.

The Archbishop.

WILL you deny all ungodliness and worldly lusts, and live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world, that you may shew your self in all things an example of good works unto others, that the adversary may be ashamed, having nothing to say against you?

Answer.

I will so do, the LORD being my Helper.

The Archbishop.

WILL you maintain and set forward, as much as shall lie in you, quietness, love, and peace among all men; and such as be unquiet, disobedient, and criminous within your Diocess, correct and punish, according to such authority as you have by Gods word, and as to you shall be committed by the Ordinance of this Realm?

Answer.

I will so do by the help of GOD.

The Archbishop.

WILL you be faithful in ordaining, sending, or laying hands upon others?

Answer.

I will so be by the help of GOD.

The Archbishop.

WILL you shew your self gentle, and be merciful for CHRISTS sake to poor and needy people, and to all strangers destitute of help?

Answer.

Answer.

I will so shew my self, by GODS help.

¶ Then the Archbishop standing up, shall say,

ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly FATHER, Who hath given you a good will to do all these things, grant also unto you strength and power to perform the same; that He accomplishing in you the good work which He hath begun, you may be found perfect and irreprehensible at the latter day, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Bishop Elect put on the rest of the Episcopal habit, and kneeling down [Veni, CREATOR SPIRITUS] shall be sung or said over him, the Archbishop beginning, and the Bishops, with others that are present, answering by Verses, as followeth.

COME, HOLY GHOST, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire.

Thou the anointing SPIRIT art,
Who dost Thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Thy blessed Unction from above,

¶ Or this

&c. as before in the Form of ordering Priests.

¶ That

The Consecration of Bishops.

¶ That ended, the Archbishop shall say,
LORD, hear our prayer.

Answer.

And let our cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY GOD, and most merciful FATHER,
 Who of Thine infinite goodness hast given Thy only and dearly beloved SON JESUS CHRIST, to be our Redeemer, and the Author of everlasting life; Who after that He had made perfect our redemption by His death, and was ascended into heaven, poured down His gifts abundantly upon men, making some Apostles, some Prophets, some Evangelists, some Pastors and Doctors, to the edifying and making perfect His Church; Grant, we beseech Thee, to this Thy servant such grace, that he may evermore be ready to spread abroad Thy Gospel, the glad tidings of reconciliation with Thee, and use the authority given him, not to destruction, but to salvation; not to hurt, but to help; so that as a wise and faithful servant, giving to Thy family their portion in due season, he may at last be received into everlasting joy, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD, Who with Thee and the HOLY GHOST liveth and reigneth One GOD, world without end. Amen.

¶ Then the Archbishop and Bishops present shall lay their hands upon the head of the Elected Bishop, kneeling before them upon his knees, the Archbishop saying,

RECEIVE the HOLY GHOST, for the Office and work of a Bishop in the Church of GOD, now committed unto thee by the Imposition of our hands; In the Name of the FATHER, and of the SON, and of the HOLY GHOST. Amen. And remember that thou stir up the grace of GOD which is given thee by this Imposition of our hands: For GOD

God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and love, and soberness.

¶ Then the Archbishop shall deliver him the Bible, saying,

GIVE heed unto reading, exhortation and doctrine. Think upon the things contained in this Book. Be diligent in them, that the increase coming thereby may be manifest unto all men. Take heed unto thy self, and to doctrine, and be diligent in doing them: for by so doing, thou shalt both save thy self, and them that hear thee. Be to the flock of CHRIST a shepherd, not a wolf; feed them, devour them not. Hold up the weak, heal the sick, bind up the broken, bring again the outcasts, seek the lost. Be so merciful that ye be not too remiss; so minister discipline, that you forget not mercy: that when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye may receive the never-fading crown of glory, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

¶ Then the Archbishop shall proceed in the Communion-Service; with whom the new Consecrated Bishop (with others) shall also communicate.

¶ And for the last Collect, immediately before the Benediction, shall be said these Prayers.

MOST merciful FATHER, we beseech Thee to send down upon this Thy servant Thy heavenly blessing, and so endue him with Thy HOLY SPIRIT, that he preaching Thy Word, may not only be earnest to reprove, beseech, and rebuke with all patience and doctrine; but also may be to such as believe, a wholesome example in word, in conversation, in love, in faith, in chastity, and in purity; that faithfully fulfilling his course, at the latter day he may receive the crown of righteousness laid up by the LORD, the righteous Judge, Who liveth and reigneth one GOD with the FATHER, and the HOLY GHOST, world without end. Amen.

PRE-

The Consecration of Bishops.

PREVENT us, O LORD, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorific Thy holy Name, and finally by Thy mercy obtain everlasting life, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

THE peace of GOD, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of GOD, and of His SON JESUS CHRIST our LORD. And the blessing of GOD ALMIGHTY, the FATHER, the SON, and the HOLY GHOST be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

FINIS.
