Some ACCOUNT of her

LIFE and DEATH.

LONDON: Printed in the Year M.DCC.LXIV.

PREFACE.

HE Good Armelle has been heard of far and wide. Her Life has been written at large, containing feveral hundred Pages traiflated into various Languages, and publifhed almost in all Parts of Europe, by Perfons of various Perfuasions. Her deep, folid, unaffected Piety, has recommended her to those of all Denominations, who regarded not mere Opinions, but the Genuine Work of GoD; Righteoulnes, and Peace, and Joy in the Holy Gbolt.

2. But it is impossible to give to full an Account of the good young Woman, whole Station in Life was the fame for fome Years. She had no fuch Directer of her Confcience, who was informed (like those in the Roman Church) of the minutest Particulars, relating either to her Internal or External Walking with God. And the wrote no cir-A 2. cum-cumflantial Account of herfelf. We have only fome Hints occafionally written, either for her own private Ufe, or the Satisfaction of her Friends. And the greatest Part even of her Letters is lost: Particularly of those which she took the most Pains in Writing. So that what follows is little more than Fragments.

" But though they're little, they are golden Sands."

In feveral Respects not inferior to any Thing in the Life of Armelle Nicholas: In others greatly superior thereto: For First, All here is Genuine: Which I fear is not the Case in the Account given us of Armelle. For Words are there put into her Mouth, which I think she could not possibly utter. For instance. She is made to fay, "I had always such a Sense of my Sins, that I never felt Pride in my Life." Could any one born of a Woman fay this? Is it not an Embellishment added by her Historian?

3. Secondly, All here is ftrong, sterling Sense, strictly agreeable to found Reason. Here are no extravagant Flights, no Mystic Reveries, no unscriptural Enthusias.

thusias in the sentiments are all just and noble; the Result of a fine natural Understanding, cultivated by Conversation, Thinking, Reading, and true Christian Experience. At the fame time they shew an Heart as well improved as the Understanding; truly devoted to God, and filled in a very uncommon Degree, with the entire Fruit of his Spirit.

4. Thirdly, This ftrong-genuine Senfe is expressed in such a Stile, as none would expect from a young Servant Maid: A Stile simple and artless in the highest Degree, but likewife clear, lively, proper: Every Phrase, every Word being so well chosen, yea and so well placed, that it is not easy to mend it. And such an inexpressible Sweetnefs runs through the whole, as Art would in vain strive to imitate.

SOME

A C C O U N T OF THE LIFE and DEATH OF JANE COOPER.

YANE COOPER was born at Hingbam in the County of Norfolk, in. the Year 1738. Her Father died when the was very young, and fome Time after, her Mother married again. She was a Daughter of Affliction from her Childhood; her Father-in-law meeting with many Miffortunes : But rather than be burdensome to any, when the was about twenty Years of Age, the chole to go out to Service. For this Purpose the came to London, and undertook to do all Work in a small Family. What fweeten'd all her Labour was, that the had frequent Opportunities of hearing what she believed to be the pure Gospel. But after some Months, she judged it best to leave this Place, though much against the Defire of her Master. She then lived lived with a Gentlewoman in Pall mall, who for a confiderable Time, ufed her more like a Companion than a Servant, Her Miffres afterwards removing to Brentford, the remained with her till. Spring 1762, though exceedingly to the Prejudice of her Health, which, continually decayed. When the quitted Brentford, finding her Strength fo entirely loft that the was no longer capable of Service, she hired a'Lodging in London, by the Advice of her Friends, defigning to work Plain work . But before fine fettled. fhe tock a Journey into Norfolk, to vifit her Friends and Relations. Part of the Time she was in the Country was spent at Norwich. where the indeed " lived as an Angel here below, ""vomforting the fick and afflicted, supporting the weak, lifting up the Hands that hung down, confirming the wavering, and in every possible Way, ministring to the Heirs of Salvation.

2. Of her spiritual Experience during this Time, we have no Account, but in fome of ther Levers, and in her Diary: Part of which runs thus: "(it is dated Jan. 26, 1762.)

"I received Peace in believing four Years ago. For fome Time after, l'felt no Sin, and thoughel never thould any more i How far it was owing to my own Upfaithfulness, Teannot tell; but it was not long, before I found found my inward Parts were very Wickednefs. I was amazed to feel that notwithflanding this, I loved Him who died for me, that I flill retained my Confidence in GoD, and had the Witnefs in myfelf, that I was a Child of GoD. But with all I thought, I fhould always have a carnal Mind, which would fometimes be at enmity with GOD.

" In this Belief I continued, till about two Years ago, God brought me to hear the whole Gofpel. Not long after, those Words were continually on my Mind, Once bave I beard, yea twice bath GOD spoken, that Power belongeth unto GOD; and I was deeply convinced, that I had in Effect denied his Power. Even after I had tafted his Love, I limited the Holy One of Sprael: And from this Time I began to plead the Promises of Sanctification: but I ftill fet them at a Diftance, supposing the Accomplishment of them to be afar off.

" In March following I heard a Letter read from one, who had entered into the Reft of the People of God. It defcribed a Happinefs in Religion, which I was a Stranger to: I was much firred up to feek after it, and was determined to wreftle with God till I prevailed. One Day in Prayer, that Promife was applied, The Lord whom you feek fall fuddenly come to his Temple. From

From that Time I expected him, in every Means I used, to come and destroy the Works of the Devil: I was agonizing with God in Family Prayer, when he gave me Power to venture upon Jesus, as of GOD made unto me Wisdom and Righteousnef, and Santlification and Redemption. He spoke into my Heart, "The Lord even the King of Ifrael is in the midst of thee; and the Enemies thou haft feen this Day, thou shalt fee them no more for ever." From this Time I have rejoiced indeed, and yet loathed myfelf in my own Sight : I feel Ao Defire but to please him, and know of nothing in me that is not fubjected to Jefus; I depend upon him every Moment, as my Advocate with the Father : I daily feel my coming fhort of what I would be, yet without any Condemnation. (The Blood of Sprinkling speaks me clean. Indeed if I could perform the Obedience I defire, I - fhould ftill be afhamed before him."

3. In the midft of various Outward Trials, her Soul was now kept as a watered 'Garden. She was fatisfied with the Favour, and full of the Bleffing of the Lord. She enjoyed deep Communion with GoD, and that without any Interruption: She fought for and found Direction from him, In every Circumstance of Life. She truly proved him to be her Counfellor, who instructed her by his fmall still Voice. She walked continually in his Prefence, and felt her Soul always approved of him. She ufed to fay, "Would Jefus on this or the other Occation, have acted or fpoken thus?" And this Rule fhe fteddily copied after, in all her Life and Conversation. She knew a little of what our Lord meant when he faid, The Father which dwelleth in me, he doth the Works. To his Will she was intirely given up, in Sickness and Health, Ease and Pain.

4. In the Beginning of November, the feemed to have a Fore light of what was coming upon her, and used frequently to fing these Words,

"When Pain o'er this weak Flefh prevails, With lamb-like Patience arm my Breaft." And when the lent to let I'me know the was ill, the wrote in her Note, "I fuffer the Wil of Jefus: All he fends is fweetned by his Love. I am as happy, as if I heard a Voice fay.

For me my elder Brethren flay, And Angels beckon me away,

And Jelus bids me come.

5. Upon my telling her, "I can't chule Life of Death for you," the faid, "I alked the Lord, that if it was his Will, I might, die first 5 and he told me, you should furvive mest and chat you should elose my i Eyes."

Eyes." When we perceived it was the Small-pox, I faid to her, " My dear, you won't be frighted if we tell you what is your Diftemper." She faid, " I can't be frighted at bis Will."

6. The Diftemper foon was very heavy upon her: But fo much the more was her Faith strengthned. Tue/day, Nov. 16. She faid to me, "I have been worshippingwith you before the Throne in a glorious Manner, my Soul was fo let into God." I faid, "Did the Lord give you any particular Promife?" "No, replied the; it was all

That facred Awe that dares not move, And all the filent Heaven of Love.

7. Wednefday 17. Mrs. C. faid to her, " Is there any Thing you think me particularly deficient in?" She answered, " No, Love. He will guide you by his Eye, and be your only Counfellor. All around you is God and Heaven. You little know, how dearly Jefus loves you." To Mr. M. fhe faid, " I thank God for your Preaching. You must fill preach fimple Faith. Man will defpife you, but God will love you; and yourfelf must believe." On Thurfday, upon my asking, " What have you to fay to me?" She faid, " Nay, nothing but what you know already, God is Love." I asked, " Have you any particular Promife?"

mife? She replied, "I don't feem to want any. I can live without. I shall die a Lump of Deformity, but shall meet you all-glorious: And mean Time, I shall still have Fellowship with your Spirit."

8. When Mr. M---- came again, he asked, "What she thought the most excellent Way to walk in, and what were it's chief Hindrances ?" She answered, "The greatest Hindrance is generally from the Natural Constitution. It was mine, to be referved, to be very quiet, to fuffer much, and to fay little. Some may think one Way more excellent and fome another. But the Thing is, to live in the Will of Gop. For fome Months paft, when I have been peculiarly devoted to this, I have felt fuch a Guidance of his Spirit, and the Unstion which I have , received from the Holy One, has so taught me of all Things, that I needed not any Man should teach me, save as this anointing teacheth."

"When you fpeak upon Acquaintance with Jefus, it is Food to the Soul. And when you preach of Devotedneis to Gon and living to him, it is the Joy of one's Heart." He afked, "Have you any Con-viction you shall die?" She answered, " No; only from the Diforder. But I feel his Will fo precious to me, that it is impossible for me to chuse." He faid, "We R

leave you in our Lord's Hands." She faid, "We shall meet above. I have no Doubt of it."

9. On Friday Morning, fhe faid, "I believe I fhall die." She then fat up in her Bed and faid, "Lord, I blefs thee that thou art ever with me, and all thou haft is mine. Thy Love is greater than my Weaknefs, greater than my Helplefnefs, greater than my Unworthinefs. Lord, thou fayeft to Corruption, thou art my Sifter! And Glory be to thee, O, Jefus, thou art my Brother! Let me comprehend with all Saints, the length, and breadth, and depth, and beight of thy Love! Bl.fs thefe: (fome that were prefent) Let them be every Moment exercifed in all Things, as thou wouldit have them to be."

10. Some Hours after, it feemed as if the Agonies of Death were just coming upon her. But her Face was full of Smiles of Triumph, and the clapped her Hands for Joy. Mrs. C. faid, "My dear, you are more than Conqueror, through the Blood of the Lamb." She anfwered, "Yes, O yes, fweet Jefus. O Death, where is thy Sting?" She then lay as in a Doze for fome Time. Afterwards the ftrove to fpeak, but could not. However the testified her Love, by thaking Hands with all in the Recom. Then the took Mifs M—'s Hand, with with Mrs. C. and Mrs. D-'s, and put them to her Heart.

11. The Apothecary foon came in. She ftrove to fpeak to him, but had not utterance. One afked of the Lord, to give her Power to speak; and in a few Moments fhe fpoke diftinctly. Immediately fhe exhorted him to believe. He faid, "I hope I do." " Do you then, replied the earneftly, find in Chrift all you want? You may. And I want you to be happy now. Why won't you believe, when Chrift has given all his Divinity to fave you?" He flarted, and faid, "I hope I fhall." "Hope! faid fhe, that is not the Thing. The bope of the Hypocrite shall perifs. Indeed you are not an Hypocrite. Yet unless you are on the Rock, when the Winds and Floods come, your Building will not ftand."

12. Mr. W. then came. She faid, " Sir, I did not know that I should live to see you. But I am glad the Lord has given me this Opportunity, and likewise Power to speak to you. I love you. You have always preached the firiciest Doctrine. And I loved to follow it. Do fo still, whoever is pleased or difpleased." He asked, " Do you now believe you are faved from Sin?" She faid. "Yes. I have had no Doubt of it for many Months. That I ever had, was because I did not abide in the Faith. I now feel feel, I have kept the Faith: And perfet Love caffetb out all Fear." Mr. W. faid, "Loving Faith is all." She anfwered, "Ah Sir, I never had a Grain of Faith but what brought Love, and I never had any Love but by Faith. As to you, the Lord promifed me, your latter Works (hould exceed your former, though I do not live to fee it." He faid, "Perhaps the Lord may reftore you." She faid, "His Will be done. I have been a great Entluftaf (as they term it) thefe fix Months; but never lived fo near the Heart of Chrift in my Life. You, Sir, defire to comfort the Hearts of Thoufands. Comfort the Hearts of Hundreds, by following that Simplicity your Soul loves."

13. To one who received the Love of GOD under her Prayer, fhe faid, "I feel I have not followed a cunningly devifed Fable; for I am as happy as I can live. Do you prefs on, and ftop not fhort of the Mark." To Mifs M——s fhe faid, "Love Chrift. He loves you. I believe I fhall fee you at the Right hand of GOD. But as one Star differs from another Star in Glory, fo fhall it be in the Refurrestion. I charge you, in the Prefence of GOD, meet me at that Day all-glorious within. Avoid all Conformity to the World. You are robbed of many of your Privileges. I know, I fhall be found blamelefs. Do you labour to be found of him in Peace, without Spot."

14. Saturday Morning, fhe prayed nearly, as follows. "I know, Lord, my Life is prolonged, only to do thy Will; and though I fhould never eat or drink more, (fhe had not fwallowed any Thing for near eight and twenty Hours) thy Will be done. I am willing to be kept fo a Twelvemonth: Man livetb not by Bread alone. I praife thee, that there is not a Shadow of Complaining in our Streets. In that Senfe we know not what Sicknels means. Indeed, Lord, neither Life, nor Deatb, nor Things prefent, nor Things to come, no nor any Creature, fhall feparate us from thy Love one Moment. Blefs thefe, that there may be no Lack in their Souls. I believe there fhall not. I pray in Faith."

On Sunday and Monday fhe was lightheaded, but fenfible at Times. It then plainly appeared her Heart was ftill in Heaven. One faid to her, "Jefus is your Mark." She replied, "I have but one Mark. I am all fpiritual." Mifs M. faid to her, "You dwell in God." She anfwered, "Altogether." A Perfon afked her, "Do you love me?" She faid, "O, I love Chrift: I love my Chrift." To another fhe faid, "I fhalt not long be here. Jefus is precious, very precious indeed." She faid to Mifs M. "The Lord is very good. He keeps my Soul above all." For fifteen Hours before fhe died, fhe was in ftrong Con-B 3 vulfions.

vultions. Her Sufferings were extreme. One faid, "You are made perfect through Sufferings." She faid, "More and more fo." After lying quiet fome Time, fhe faid, "Lord, thou art ftrong!" Then pauling a confiderable Space, fhe uttered her laft Words, "My Jefus is all in all to me: Glory be to Him through Time and Eternity." After this fhe lay ftill for about half an Hour, and then expired without a Sigh or Groan,

JANE COOPER.

LETTERS to Mrs. M. M.

Aug. 29, 1757.

SINCERELY rejoice, to find you are convinced of a most important but selfabafing Truth, That you are your felf utterly unable to Work out your own Salvation, or to form fo much as one good Thought, or one Defire towards it. Reft not in this Conviction, but feek, afk, knock: And you shall affuredly obtain that Faith which is the Gift of God. Give me leave to repeat, that Religion confifts, first, in a true Knowledge of our Want of Chrift: Secondly, in knowing him to be not only the Saviour of the World, but our Saviour in particular; in knowing him to have died for us, that we might live through bim. There is a great Difference between this Scheme of Religion, and that we form to ourfelves when we begin to defire eternal Happinefs. I then 7

I then thought I must refrain from evil-Words, and be constant at Church. And I should doubtless go to Heaven, though I walked not in a narrow, but much frequented Way. I faw not that Chrift alone was the Way to Heaven; but though I could not but see my Works were infufficient, yet I hoped GOD would accept this patchwork Obedience, and fupply what was wanting. Beware of building your Hopes on this fandy Foundation. Seek, but feek Forgiveness and Acceptance with GoD, through him who is the Rock of Ages. Let him not go until he blefs you. For there is no Safety, but in his Friendship, and no Peace, but in his Favour.

May every Bleffing attend my dear Friend. Wherever her Abode is, she has a Place in my Heart.

Nov. 9.

DON'T you think me cruel, that I can rejoice to fee you under the Crofs? I believe both our Souls would wither, did not the rough Wind arife to blow away the Duft from our Branches. When this is done, how falutary is the Rain of Grace, how refreshing the Beams of Love! I am perfuaded there is not one Tree of the Lord's planting, but must be purged that it may bring forth much Fruit. If you have have been on the Mount with Peter, James and John, remember that was not the only Proof our Lord gave them of his peculiar Love: They and they only were admitted to Getbfemane. Think on this, my dear Friend, when you are under the Crofs, and wonder at the Grace that calls, and that enables you to drink of that Cup, and to have fome Fellowship with Chrift in his Sufferings. I believe your Heart and mine have faid,

• No Crofs, no Suffering I decline: Only let all my Heart be thine.

This was recorded in the Courts above, and is answered as we are able to bear. Look not fo much at the Trial, as at the Grace which keeps you from finking under it. You may be greatly oppressed: But Omnipotence shall undertake for you. The Enemy may thrust fore at you that you may fall: But claim bis Help who can and will deliver you. The Floods of Temptation may feem ready to overflow your Soul. But the Lord fitteth chove the Water floods, and remainelb a King for ev r. He shall give Strength to bis People; the Lord shall give his People the Bleffing of Peace. Fear not then, thou Worm in thine own Eyes. Since thou hast been precious, being bought with Blood, thou art fair in his Sight, who yet is of purer Eyes, than to behold Iniquity. Therefore he fits as a Refiner's Fire,

Fire, and as Fuller's Soap on the Souls of his People.

I feel Jesus near; He is better to me than I could ask or think. May your Spirit find him nigh at this hour, and to the End of your Warfare !

London.

YOUR Letter came in an acceptable Time: I feared you would not write fo foon, and the Thought pained me. I found fuch Union of Heart with you last Week, as it is pleafing Pain to experience. I looked upon your's as an Answer to Prayer. The Lord generally caufes me to ask for a Letter before it comes: How shall I speak his Praise? He is indeed Immanuel: And what can we ask more? That we may each Moment feel his Power on our Hearts, and teffify to all, that God is with us. But what are we, that Gop should dwell on Earth! I am loft in the Enquiry. And will God make a Sinner happy? Or what is the fame Thing, will he make us holy ? He will, our Hearts cry out, he will! We shall be filled with the Fullness of his Love. He knows I pant, I thirst to prove this, to know more fully the Grace of our Lord Jefus Chrift: The Lord lets me drink of the Brook in the Way, before I reach the Fountain head. And I feel Love to you, fuch fuch Love as only Friendship knows animated by the Love of God.

I am better in Body, but I believe the Days of my appointed Time are fhort. O bleffed Prospect beyond the Grave! There I shall see him Face to Face! Help me by your Prayers to keep the bright Prize in View, that I may be ever running toward the Mark. Jesus direct us to aim aright, and keep us from swerving aside into crooked Paths!

Let me recommend much Prayer to you: Not only that praying Frame of Mind, which a Chriftian fhould continually poffers, but frequent Acts of fecret Prayer. And not only pray, but wait and expect the Anfwer. I long, I love to hear, that you are finking deep in the Knowledge of yourfelf, and rifing higher in the Love of God.

If I had Time I fhould give you a Week's Journal. Sunday Se'night 1 received the Sacrament from Mr. Madan. It was indeed the Communion of the Body and Blood of Chrift. His Banner over me was Love. I was confirmined to fay, How plentiful is thy Goodnefs, which thou haft laid up for the Sons of Men!

I hear frequent Mention of Perfons who have great Grace; some of whom are called perfect.

perset. I do not much like the Term: But I am perfoaded, the only Way to overcome Sn, and to inherit all Things, is by enjoying uninterrupted Communion with our Gop. I found fomething of this on Monday, and was much refreshed with the Prefence of the Lord. But on Tue/day I found my Heart ready to depart from the living God. Yet I had Reafon to wonder and adore the Grace that would not let me go. On Thursday I heard Mr. Whitefield. and had caufe to rejoice with Reverence. On Friday Night a Watch was kept at the Fourdery, and I found the Promise literally fulfilled; They that trust in the Lord shall renew their Strength. Indeed his Mercies are fo oft repeated, that if I had not the most ungrateful Heart, I should be always praifing him. But I often find fuch an inward Contest with Pride, Self-will, Im-· patience, and all that Legion which is contrary to the Mind of Chrift, that I groan being burdened: Yet I am perfuaded he can fave unto the uttermost, and believe he will fave even me. Even now my Soul rejoices in Hope. He will perfect what is lacking in either of our Spirits. O truft in him with all your Heart! Lean not to your own Understanding. Believe the Lord; fo shall you prosper. Be vigilant in all Things; fo fhall you difappoint cur Enemy, and bring Glory to our everlatting Friend.

Friend. Unto his Protection I commit you, until the Day we meet to part no more.

May 6, 1760.

I AM glad you are fo confcious of Danger. It is neceffary to be exceedingly afraid of our Hearts departing from the living God; this never goes without Correction: And although these Chastisements are Proofs of his Love, yet beware you do not bring them upon yourself.

I look upon your being at that Place, as a very particular Providence; yet I feel for you. I know many of Nature's latent Mazes will be discovered to you. Perhaps the Caufe and the Effects will pain you. And what shall I fay to comfort my Friend? I cannot give the Waters of Confolation : Such Power belongeth to GOD only. Ο may he undertake for you in every Hour of Oppression ! You may this Moment find Relief, by looking to an exalted Redeemer. I have been afking that we might drink Deep into the Spirit of a crucified Sa-viour; indeed I knew not the Depth of what I asked. Lord, make us strong to bear the Answer of our Request! Make us esteem it our greatest Privilege, to taste that Cup of which thou drankest so largely ! Only

Only faying with thee, If it may not pass from me, Father, thy Will be done.

It is his abfolute Promife, From all your Idols will I cleanse you; and your Heart hath faid Amen! Do you now retract your Patition? Do you not rather fay ftill, in spite of Nature's Struggle, "Let all my Heart be thine?" Is your Isaac called for? Afcend the Mount, bid all Things contrary to Refignation stay behind. Have you endeavoured to do this, and are you still interrupted by the Birds of Prey? Are you ftill molested, when you would offer the Sacrifice which God requires? O watch to keep off these Enemies to your Peace! And he that is your Peace shall give you Power.

Yes, "when your all of Strength doth fail You fhall with the GOD-man prevail."

He loves, he pities you, he requires your Heart. And he is worthy to have it. O may he now reign therein, the Lord of every Motion there !

Jefus has not left me comfortlefs. He ftill fustains me with his Grace. May he bring us through this Wildernefs, to meet and part no more !

Dec. 4.

KNOW not whether the Providence of God will ever permit me to fee you again. But I can leave it to him, in fure Hopes that I shall meet your happy Spirit, in the Realms of endless Day. There we shall furely exult in a Redeemer's prefence. We shall fee him as he is. And indeed when I have a View, though a tranfient one, of the Glory which shall be revealed, I am almost impatient of Delay: I am ready to cry out, why are thy Chariot Wheels fo long in coming? I want leave to go hence and be no more feen as an Inhabitant of Earth. This has been for fome Time past my habitual Desire. I cannot help being glad at Night, that one Day more of my allotted Portion is paft, and Eternity is nearer to me than when 1 first believed. Yet at the fame Time, I have Reafon to be ashamed before the Lord, that I do not live to his Glory. I do not love him with all my Heart and Strength; fo far from it, that I fometimes feel I never did one Action with a fingle Eye to his Glory. My own Will has mixed,

And " Pride, that bufy Sin, Spoiled all that I perform'd."

Tis well for me, that our High-prieft bears the Iniquity of my holy Things. Indeed if the Altar did not fanctify the Gift, I C 2 could could not approach with one Offering. O may he purify the Sacrifice which I have often made, of all I have, or can, or am!

Watch! Stand stedfast my dear Friend, and be strong in the Lord! Remember, the God of Peace shall shortly bruise Satan under your Feet. May he give you every Thing that will forward your Growth in Grace!

Norwich, May 11. 1762.

A M but weak, but my Soul is kept in Peace. Who can express the Bleffing of feeling Christ our Friend every Moment? Indeed I see no other Way to profit my Soul, but to come the present Moment, as I am, to Jesus: He never sends me empty away. If I wish any Thing, it is for more Opportunity for private Prayer. Between the Sick, the afflicted, and those seeking the Lord, I have very little Time to myself. However I seel no Desire, but to do and fuffer his Will. While I speak to you I taste his Goodness, above what Words can describe. He knoweth I defire to glorify him, to be altogether his, and to feel him all my own. I know of nothing in my Soul, which is not given up to God. Pray him to examine and prove me, and to supply what is lacking.

To Mrs. 7. C. M.

Nov. 29, 1761.

KNOW nothing of myfelf. But I know and feel that Gop is Love. feel, I love him in a Measure, and long for full Conformity to Jefus. My Soul is happy in him, and though I have not what I used to think was implied, in the Bleffing which has been poured out upon many, yet, I have (what I am not fufficiently thankful for) a deeper Union with the Source of Bleffednefs, a constant Sense of his unmerited Love, and a frequent Knowledge that I am lefs than the least of all Saints. I am perfuaded nothing shall separate me from the Lord Jefus. From him is my Fruit found. In him are the Springs of Confolation, which revive and endue my Soul with much Strength. I truft in him, and know in whom I truft : Therefore Life or Death is equal.

Labour still for all the Spirit's peaceful Fruit. Jefus will blefs your Attempts to glorify him. He will make you unblameable in love before Men, and unreprovable before God. Know that the Eye of Earth and Heaven is upon you. Many wait for your C 2 your halting: More, I truft, with you Succefs in the Name of the Lord : I am fure I do, and therefore write without Referve. Take heed of your own Uunderstanding. Do not fuffer yourfelf to think of it, but with Abasement, that you have made no better Use of it. Excuse this Freedom: The Motive is Love unfeigned. I find the Fruit of the Crofs even while I write. I fit under the Shadow of my beloved, and feel him fustaining my Soul. O Jesus, great is thy Goodness! Great is thy Mercy! Even toward the meaneft, me. Blefs, I pray thee, the Sifter of my Spirit. Let her

I feel my Infufficiency to fpeak of the Goodnefs of God. It is more than I can express. He deals tenderly with me, and if I follow the best Pattern, I shall be patient toward all. I have felt much bodily Weaknefs, but no Power to chuse its Removal or Continuance. I seem to enjoy all I want, while I persue what I have not attained. I am daily more fensible how little I am. I think never one Soul fo utterly wanted a complete Saviour.

I have taken the first Opportunity to write, in Hopes of profiting by your Anfwer. I want to know the most effectual Way

_____Digitized by Google

Way to grow in Grace; how to improve by all Things; how to make a good Ufe of the Dulness which often creeps upon my Mind, and makes my Soul stupidly unactive. I want to be all Attention to GoD; to have every Faculty of my Mind fixedly waiting upon him: But I find myfelf beat off of this by Wearinefs or Liftleffnefs. I often feem to ftand fast in the Lord, and am fteddily looking unto him; but (I suppole, through Unwatchfulnes) often lofe 'the deep Consciousness, that "God is here:" Yet he does not condemn me; but I abhor myfelf, while I fee the Saviour graciously near. My Heart crieth without a Voice, " Come and mould thy paffive Clay. Keep my Attention rightly exercifed every Moment." And while I call, my Jefus anfwers. O, did I pray without fainting, I fhould then be what I wifh.

I praise the Lover of your Soul, that he delights to bles you. May you ever see his full Sufficiency to fave, and live in the Fountain-head of Bliss!

January 26, 1762.

BLESSED be God, I only feek his Approbation, and am content with that alone. The Night you wrote, the Lord fpake to my Heart, "All is yours." I 3 feel feel it true, for Chrift is mine. Indeed he is precious to me: My Soul is fatisfied with its Portion. Yet "eager I alk and pant for more." But my Wants do not difcourage me. I delight to feel them, for I am perfuaded out of his Fulnefs I fhall receive a Supply. Even while I am receiving from him, he makes me capable of more. I am amazed at his Grace.

" I cannot praise him as I wou'd,

But he is merciful and good,"

and does not despise the Day of small Things.

I know I have been unfaithfull to the Grace of GoD; yet he pardons without upbraiding. O that every future Moment may prove, I feel the Time past fufficeth! When I confider you as a younger Scholar, I am ashamed; yet I rejoice the Master loveth us both. And though he may justly fay to me, "O, flow of Heart to understand," yet he teaches me, as I am able to receive the Leffon of his Love. I often meet your Spirit, when I go in Secret before our Lord. He only knows, how much I defire you may increase, with all the Increase of God. May you follow the Lamb in all Things! I praife him that he unites me to himfelf, and to all whole Fellowship is with him: I thank him who gives us to drink into one Spirit. My Heart feels God

GOD continually nigh. My only Wifh is his Will: My only Defire his Glory.

Good Friday.

It is given to you to fuffer: And happy are you, if our Lord counts you meet to be his Companion in the Garden. I love his tempted Followers above all: And his peculiar Care is toward fuch as drink of his Cup. I am thankful to him on behalf of your Soul. Faithful is he that hath called you. He will establish your Heart, and keep you from all Evil, unto his heavenly Kingdom.

I always find a Fight before a Conqueft. I am generally warned of approaching Trials, and when I am moft filled with the Confolations of God, fee how amiable it is to follow my Captain, who was made perfect through Sufferings. He is daily teaching me the Leffon of his Crofs. When it ceafes to be neceffary, I fhall fuffer no more, I am often fentible, my own Folly obliges him to put me to Pain. I know he never willingly afflicts, but chaftens in order to make us Partakers of his Holinefs.

O praise our everlasting Friend, who never shews us a Defect, but in order to amend it: My Soul longeth to live to him. I feel his Mercies new every Morning. My My Spirit is fo united to the Lord Jefus, that I am perfuaded nothing fhall feparate me from his Love. But I have no Fruit of the Spirit, in the Fulnefs I defire or expect. I am fenfible my Privileges are far higher than my Attainments: And I want to be flirred up daily, to take the Kingdom which is before me by Violence.

Of late I have found private Prayer the Means which brought me neareft to GoD: But this he often varies, as his Wifdom fees beft. My Soul is more fimple than it was: I am learning to leave others to the Care of our Shepherd, and defire only to hear and follow him. Let your Soul delight itfelf in him: Learn to know how he hath loved you. Be very active in his Caufe, and paffive to his Will. My Spirit is all Peace. May yours be preferved in Chrift Jefus, who hath called you to Glory and Immortality.

April 21.

PEACE be with your Spirit! The Lord fhall guide thee continually, and fatisfy thy Soul in Drought: Thou fhalt be like a watered Garden; for the Lord Jefus is your Well of Salvation. With Joy may you draw from his Fulnefs, Grace for every Moment's Want. His Defign is fill to to do us good; his Delight is with the Sons of Men.

I find my Fellowship with Heaven is increased fince I wrote last: The King of Eternity makes me capable of communing with him, and though I tread but the outmost Borders of his Sanctuary, he causes me to hear his Voice, inviting me to come forward. He affures me, he will help me to overcome, and gives me to inherit all Things. But at the fame Time, he fhews me my Works are not perfect; and that I must watch and strengthen the Things that remain. I find my Safety and Happinefs depend, upon my Dependence on Jefus. I want every Moment to begin afresh the Life of Faith; to forget all Things elfe, and be (as you faid) " a Person of one Busines," I have been much tempted lately, but I count it all Joy, for it profiteth my Soul. I have gained more Self-contempt, and I love an empty Spirit, because then there is Room for Telus.

"O what are all our Sorrows here

If, Lord, thou count us meet

With that inraptur'd Hoft to appear And worship at thy Feet?"

It will foon be our Employ. O let us now live in Eternity! Antedate the Joys above, by bringing all you have and are, to his Feet. Caft all you have before him, and afcribe Salvation to him, who of a Stone hath made a Daughter of Abrabam.

I think the Grace you want most is Thankfulness. Stir me up to Patience, Pray that I may be nothing.

" Mean and vile in my own Eyes,

Only in his Wifdom wife."

Norwich, May 6.

THE Lord hath of late kept me much from reafoning myfelf into perplexity. When any Thing occurs which I cannot underftand, I carry it to him, who is a wonderfull Counfellor: And he wipes away the Tears from my Eyes, by affuring me he is all my own. I feel a conftant Neceffity of Walking with the Lord, as I first received him: And I retain Peace, as it was imparted, by fimple Faith. Who knows the Value of Faith? None but they who conftantly exercife it, to their own Profit, and the Redeemer's Glory.

I think your Fears of deceiving the People, are only the Refult of ftrong Temptation. We cannot fee clearly in the Time of a Storm. This is not a Seafon to examine whether we be in the Faith: Neither is Reafon alone fufficient to determine in fpiritual Matters. One Thing is needful in your prefent Situation, even to caft yourfelf upon upon the Lord, just as you are. Now come to him who waiteth to be gracious; who faith concerning Sin or Infirmity, "I will cleanfe the Blood which I have not cleanfed." I fear, you have reasoned with the Enemy, while you should have been looking unto Jesus; and by living a little beneath your Privileges, have been ready to give up your claim to them. But Jesus was prefent, though your Eyes were holden: And

" Round you and beneath are fpread The everlafting Arms."

Sunday Night.

THE Lord who inclined your Heart to write, will reward your Labour of Love. I find him Faithful who hath promiled, My Grace is sufficient for thee. I feel a Measure of that Love, which shall overcome by enduring: All I have and am is but a small Offering; but this I can give up to Jesus. Ever since I tasted his Love, I have been led in the Way of the Cross. It is a Royal Way: The King of Kings walked in it: And while I tread in his Steps, I experience the rugged Way is Pleafantnefs, and the thorny Path is Peace. Since I have more than ever gone through evil Report, I have found more Increase of Faith and Love. I cannot fufficiently praife the Friend who sticketh closer than a Brother.

His

His banner over me is Love, and my Soul confession he doth all Things well.

I praife him on your Behalf alfo. He rejoices over you to do you good. O lean on your Beloved with all your Weight; fo fhall you find a fure Support. If Storms rife and Winds blow, they will only fettle you on the Rock which cannot be moved. Believe fimply; believe conftantly; fo fhall you love fteddily and entirely. I know no other Way for the Juft to live, but by Faith; and as we exercife Faith it grows, till we can fay in all Circumftances, This is the Viflory.

I blefs my God, I feel no Defire to vindicate my Conduct. I know the Light of Heaven fhone on my Path, and I am content to be approved of God alone. I feel my Heart is given up without referve, and fee fresh Cause to be daily more devoted to h.m. Bleffed be God for Jesus Christ! In him I enjoy all I want. Bear me on your Heart before him, and ask him to lead me to the Thing and Place he chuseth.

July 22.

OUR's came in a feafonable Time, as the Return of Prayer. I felt fome Pain becaufe I did not hear from you fooner. But our GoD doth all Things well; he he shall fupply all your Wants, and make all Grace to abound towards you. He del ghts to complete the Work he begins, and happy is the Soul that does not result his Will. He will call for the Corn and will increase it, and will lay no Famine upon you. Great is his Faithfulnes! Harken diligently to the Shepherd's Voice. He will teach us to profit by the prefent Crois, and keep us in the Spirit of Sacrifice.

I feel my Need of Patience. I am clofely and conftantly exercifed, but his Grace is fufficient even for me. He generally teaches me by applying his Word to my Heart, fo that I have Caufe to effeem it more than fine Gold. I was greatly opprefied fome Nights ago, and found immediate Deliverance from these Words, As Birds flying, fo will the Lord of Hosts defend Jerusalem. Defending also be will delver, and passing over be will preferve it. I find much Union with you, and believe you bear my Burdens, and abide in Prayer for me. I cannot forget you, and our Friend in Heaven remembers you for good.

I can no longer refrain from faying, Be ftrong in the Grace that is in Chrift Jelus. Let none beguile you of your Simplicity, or the Reward that attends it. I believe your Light is fhining out of Obfcurity, and will fhine unto the perfect Day.

You are coming unto the Light that your Deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. In his Light you behold yourself of the Circumcifion, who worship GOD in the Spirit; rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no Confidence in the Flesh.

They have great Peace who love his Law, and nothing shall offend them; he keeps us Night and Day. I pleaded this Promife last Night, and made it my own by believing. He did keep my Imagination, while I sheet to himself. Since I returned into the Country, I have been bleft with Peace, which Temptation of various Kinds did not ruffle. My Determination to know nothing but Jefus crucified, is much strengthened. This Moment I can give up all for him, and do all Things through him strengthening me. I have a Testimony that I please him, and count his dear Reproach greater Treasure than the Wealth or Praise of Men.

Be faithful in all Things; this is your Privilege; live up to it this Moment. You know the Way, walk therein, and pray always for and obliged Friend.

REJOICE in the Lord always; again 1 fay rejoice. For he is become your everlasting Light, and the Days of your Mourning are ended. I believe your Sun fhall no more go down, but you fhall dwell on high. Your Place of Defence is the Munition of Rocks; Bread of Life is given you; your Waters shall not fail. Your Eyes fee the King in his Beauty, and he will cause you to know him who was from the Beginning, I drink with you into one Spirit. Help me to blefs GoD for the Confolation; it increases by being mutual. My Soul seems lost in Wonder, Love and Praise, and is melted into thankful Tears. Every Senfation of Gratitude in Earth or Heaven is bought with thy Blood, O precious Jefus! The Power to feel my Obligations to him, proceedeth from above, and when we reach the Top-flone, we shall still shout, "Grace, grace unto 46 it."

I have all this Day been in a Difposition to caft my Crown at his Feet. I cannot express, how much I choose to give all the Glory to Chrit my Lord. All within me acknowledges he is worthy to receive all Glory. My Love to Mrs. _____. Tell her, not one Tittle shall fail of all the good Things God hath spoken to her of. Only D 3 let [42] let her be strong, and not stagger at any of the Promises.

I believe, I need not fay, pray always for

Your most affectionate Sister in Jesus.

To Mrs. E. D.

My dear Friend,

I KNOW you will rejoice to hear, GOD has gotten himfelf the Victory, in the most stubborn Heart, that ever submitted to Jesus.

He is my King, and makes me fit, In willing Bonds beneath his Feet.

Praise him, O my Soul, praise him, O my Sister, for still he is bringing lost Sinners to God. Yea, he has brought me to God. I feel myself weak as helples Infancy; but Christ my Strength is with me: At last I am a Fool for his Sake.

When I left you on Friday, and had finished my Business, I fat down alone and in Misery. The Lord directed me to those Words: Be not affrighted: I know whom ye feek; Jesus of Nazareth: He is not here, he is risen, and lo he goeth before you into Galike; there shall you see him. I believed I should, should, agertame home in peaceful Ex-pectation. One who had seen his great Salvation prayed, that he would blefs me alfo: But my own Wildom opposed his coming, and the Conflict was great. At length my vehement Soul flood ftill, and the Mountains flowed down at his Prefence. My Heart was filled with holy Shame and humble Joy: I was a little Child. entered the Kingdom; we praifed our King till Morning, and his Braife is even new. and fweet. The Lord caufes us to ceafe. from our own Works, and he is glorified. O pray for us! Pray for me, who every. Moment need the Merit of his Death. I can fay no more, but I do love Christ, and I love you better than ever...

My dear Friend,

T RULY God is loving unto Ifrael, even unto me: Neverthelefs my Feet had well nigh flipt, for I was grieved at the Wicked, and pained by the Good. I have been more exercifed in Mind than ever I was before, and the laft Conflict always felt fevereft; but I begin to fee that all thefe Things work together for my Good. I never was fo much faved from trutting in any Creature; Jefus was never more lovely in my Eyes; I f.el him only defirable; I cannot repeat his Compaffions, for they are endlefs. I proved them to be fufficient for 3 me, Teacher of Ifrael rectifies Miftakes with Teacher of Ifrael rectifies Miftakes with Tendernefs known only to himfelf. At prefent my Defire is, to overcome by eaduring. I want to think and act under the Eye of him who loves me, and every Moment to feel it upon me. My Soul longs for nearer Acquaintance with God. I know meither Man nor Devils need hinder my Intercourfe with Jefus. O that I were wife to improve what: I receive, and faithful to retain what his Mercy gives!

. Use your latereft for me at the Throne of Grace: And go on through your Groud of Difficulties, aiming at Jefus. He alone is worthy your Pursuit!

We are forced to feel as well as fee: God. calone is our Support. I have had much of his peaceful Prefence. He is indeed greater than our Fears, and better than our Hopes. I was much tried on Friday; but fince that I have had no painful Emotion. I feel for y:u in the tendereft Manner my Heart is capable. I fee Jefus will vindicate his own, and claim all your Heart for himfelf. He fees what wounds it, and will give Medicine to heal all its Sicknefs. I believe " all you feel is Mercy." But are you ftrong enough to fupport the Weight? Why

-...y der his Bleffings be infupportable, through our Softnefs of Spirit? O that my Friend were lefs fufceptible of those Imprefions! O that a dull Disciple might teach you to be in some Matters more flow of Understanding, of a more infensible Spirit!

I fee the Commandment is exceeding broad, and this makes Chrift exceeding precious. How valuable the Advocate with the Father! My Soul defires to know nothing but him crucified. May you feel Life, abundant Life in that Knowledge! O how much my Saviour loves you? I feel a little of the founding of his Bowels toward you, and my Heart cleaves to him, for his Goodnels to you. He counts you worthy to fuffer. O be thankful for this fpecial Mark of his Love!

A LL this Week I have been tried, but with Intervals of Reft. GOD is a jealous God, and will be loved alone: Jefus will convince us in Time, that he alone is worthy of every Power of the Soul. If he a Field of Religion before me, which I want to walk in. I know I am called to make a perpetual Offering of myfelf, and every Enjoyment, to the Will of GoD. I do long to be a Chriftian: My Heart goeth out after this; When will it once be? That Promife is now brought to my Mind, They shall grow as Willows by the Water-courfes.

⁹Tis a mournful Tree: I think we shall be weeping Lilies till we are taken into the Paradife of God. The peculiar Privilege there is, all Tears shall be wiped away from our Eyes.

O how little do I know the Meaning of Jefus? Surely 'tis Mercy all. Even the minuteft Circumftance is by his Order, and under his Infpection. And he will fuffer nothing to hur, the Apple of his Eye.

I am to Day very weak in Body. I feel the Power of fympathizing with all in the Houfe. All are tried. O Adam, what haft thou done? O Jefus, what haft thou fuffered? How thou canft recover! Lord, let us know thy utmost Power to fave!

MY Heart feels pure Union with yours. I love you as difinterefledly as I think I can. Sure the Lord is pouring upon you the Spirit of facrificing all to him. I with you good Luck in his Name! Go on, my dear Friend. Life is a noble Thing, while our Employment is doing the Will of GoD from the Heart. May you clearly fee what it is concerning you. I have at prefent, Peace inward and outward. "Be thankful and humble, But never ftand ftill." I WANT your Prayers and Advice. I feel myfelf daily weaker, and more foolifh than ever. I am as a little Child learning to walk, and cannot go alone. At prefent I am guided by Jefus, and feel his Grace fufficient for me: But there are Depths of the Deity I want to fathom. I long to be loft in the Immenfity of his Love!

My Soul enjoys Peace, folid Peace at Bottom; but it's Surface is filled with Fights and Fears. I am afraid of being too outward; I want Grace to deepen in my Soul. Bieffed be GoD, my every Want shall be supplied, from bis Fulness who filleth all.

M Y dear Friend gave me another Preof of her Tendernefs, by not upbraiding me with Neglect. I think you ought to go to the Meetings [on Fridays] by all Means: Pray for thole who fpeak not according to the Law and the Teftimony. You will feel more deeply the help that is done upon Earth; the Lord doth it himfelf. What is Man, that he is mindful of him! What is GoD, that he can be gracious to us! O may our Souls every Moment know, by a nearer Acquaintance with him, that he is Love!

You are laid upon my Heart to pray for: Sure God is faithful to his Word, he will hear hear and answer, and endue your Soul with much Strength.

" Suffering Faith shall brighter grow, As Gold when in the Furnace tried."

I am perfuaded your Lord will be with you, and make your Weakness more than con-He is Wonderful in Counfel: He quer. has a Way in the Whirlwind : He cannot mean any Thing but Mercy to your Soul; for he has given himfelf and all that he counted dear to you! What then would you withhold from him? Methinks I hear you fay, "Nothing. I would offer all I have or am to his Will, when I know it is bis." And can you doubt this? Is there an Evil in the City, and the Lord bath not done it? Can a Sparrow fall, or Sbimei curse David without Permission? Nay, Satan himself can do nothing without Leave. O my GOD, shine on thy Servant's Heart, that she may fee, thy Hand of Love holds the Cup. And if the is called

"To bear the full Anguish The uttermost Load, Yet give her to languish And suffer like Gop !"

My dear Friend, what shall I fay, to diffuade you from over much Sorrow? I can only love you, and speak to Jesus, that he may order your Conduct to his Glory.

May, 1762. Norwich.

OIN to praife the Lord, who still fupports my Feebleness of Mind, carries all my Burdens, and fuffers me to defire nothing but his righteous, glorious Will. I fee infinite Wifdom and unfathomable Love, in all his Dispensations towards me; I can now believe, that all Things shall work together for good : I want Words to tell you the Sense I have of the Goodness of God, far better felt than described : I find his Confolations fufficient to fupport me under present Difficulties, and am persuaded his Grace will be equal to every future Trial. I like your Proposal, but dare scarce form one Plan. May the Lord do with me as is good in his Sight.

YOUR obliging Requeft lays me under a happy Neceffity, of calling to Mind the paft Mercies of God. May every Review of them bring Truft for future Bleffings, and Thankfulnefs for the prefent!

Ever

Ever fince I can remember, I was defirous of Happinefs; but I did not feek it n God. I thought if I was religious, I should go to Heaven; but I knew not the Nature of true Religion, and I was unwilling to be under the Restraint of that I did know: Yet fo great a Stranger was I to myself, that I often thought, if I knew what God required I would perform it. At Sixteen I was confirmed, and made many Refolutions; but they foon wore off. I had a ftrong Impression on my Mind, that I should die when I was four and twenty. I reflected on those who were put Apprentice feven Years to learn a Trade, and thought I ought to use like Application, to learn the Business of Eternity.

I went to the Sacrament the Day I was Eighteen, and found uncommon Satisfaction: I exhorted others to do the fame, thinking I had now done all that was commanded me, and that if I continued in the fame Way, I fhould be a very profitable Servant,

Soon after this I went to London for eight Weeks, where I heard Mr. Jones (of Southwark) preach, and was affected at hearing of the Sufferings of Chrift, much as I ufed to be at feeing or reading of a Tragedy. I was afterwards afked to hear Mr. Romaine. I did fo, but could not underftand him. The

The Night I left London, fome Perfons were debating about the Millennium. One of them repeated part of the 20th Chapter of the Revelation. I was ftruck at the awful Words, and thought if Chrift was then to come, I was not prepared to meet him. I went Home very ferious, and began to fearch the Scriptures, and to be more strict than ever. I was often troubled, but knew not the Caufe, and was ashamed to confess my Fears. My Friends thought I had a Fever on my Spirits, and I thought fo too; but as I read much, I began to fear, that with all my Religion I was not converted. I wanted to go to London, that I might hear Mr. Romaine. A Year after I went to Londan with my Father-in-law. At the Inn where we lay, I faw Mr. Whitefield's Sermons. I read what I could, and determined to hear him. He was not in Town; but I was much affected with Mr. Dyer's preaching. Afterwards I not only went to St. Dunstan's, but to all the Methodist Places of Worship I knew, and one Evening heard Mr. Walfb at West-freet. He preached the Neceffity of that Holine (s without which none can see the Lord, His Words were as Arrows in my Heart: I found all my former Righteoufnels deficient : I knew this could not obtain Mercy; but I did not feel I deferved Hell. I wrote to Mr. Romaine to know, what I should do to be faved? He defired to fee me, and told me, two Things E 2 were were neceffary, to know my Want of Chrift, and my Interest in him. I went Home with the greatest Reluctance; for I knew no Christians in the Town where I lived. My former Acquaintance thought me mad: My Mother was greatly alarmed. Not long after I went to Norwich for a few Days, and found out Mr. Mitchell. He spoke to me of the Peace which Faith brings to the Confcience. I knew myfelf a Stranger to this; but would willingly have fuffered the Rack, fo I might attain it. I went Home, and was, for five or fix Weeks, in a most unhappy Situation. Before, I was not bad enough to come to Chrift; now, I was too bad for him to receive : Yet the Lord deals tenderly with me, and at different Times brought many encouraging Scriptures to my Mind. But still the Stupidity and Unbelief I felt, caused me to mourn in secret. Still I was constrained to fay,

" Scarce I begin my fad Complaint, When all my warmeft Wiftes faint: Hardly I lift my weeping Eye, When all my kindling Ardors die: Nor Hopes nor Fears my Bosom move, For ftill I cannot, cannot love!"

I could not reft thus, though I concluded, it would always be the Cafe: I expected to be miferable all my Life, and to perifn at the laft: I found it as easy to reach Heaven with my Hand, as to believe Jefus died for me: I felt, na ene can come to Chrift, except the Father, draw bim. Now I knew, it was the Work of God, to believe on him whom he had fent. I prayed, he would work Faith in me, but feened as diftant from God as Hell from Heaves: I was a Sinner firing of all.

I was on my Knees ftriving to pray, when I heard inwardly a Voice fay, "Thy Sins are forgiven thee." I felt the Truth of it in my Heart, and in a Moment Prayer was loft in Praife. I called upon the Angels to join with me, in Bleffing him who died for me! He caufed his Goodnefs to pafs before me, and I rejoiced with Joy unfpeakable.

Yet in a few Hours after I began to fear, I had deceived myfelf, and all was Delufion. I was much diffressed, and had recourse to Prayer, and the Lord repeated his Mercies, and impressed the fame Words on my Mind, more strongly than before. I was more affured of his forgiving Love, and enjoyed much Peace in believing. I now thought I never could fin more. My Mind was taken up with GoD, and I conversed with him as a Man would with his Friend. My Confidence in him was unshaken, and my Hope full of Immortality.

I want-

I wanted others to rejoice with me; but they were Strangers to Jefus, and intermeddled not with my Joy. I lamented being alone: My neareft Friends thought I carried Things too far. My Mother was more alarmed; for I could not fpeak but on religious Subjects. A neighbouring Clergyman advised her to confine me, if I offered to hear the Methodists. This I did at all Opportunities, though none was nearer than four Miles off. Her Tendernefs gave me much Pain. I was forry to grieve her in any Thing; and yet I did not dare to oblige her, by acting contrary to my Confcience. I could not play at Cards, nor join in trifling Difcourfe, though my Refusal was deemed Precisenefs.

I was near two Years at Home after this. Then the Lord fulfilled his Promife: He gave me the Bread of Adversity and the Water of Affliction; but my Eyes did see my Teachers. I was now more defirous than ever, to be made conformable to the Will of God: But I thought, to believe the Doctrine of Perfection, was derogating from the Prieftly Office of Chrift.

When I first faw you, Sir, at Norwich, notwithstanding my Prejudice to your Opinions, I found that Reverence and Effect for you, which have increased ever fince. My Understanding was then better informed, and and my Defires more fervent for all the Grace Gop had in Store for me. I truft my Soul is still alive to GoD, and athirst for Righteousnefs. He has borne my Manners in the Wilderneis, and fuffains me in my utter Helplesness. He continues to multiply his Pardons, and heap his Benefits upon me. Every Trial is fent in Mercy; every Temptation is permitted for my good; every Crois has proved a Bieffing in difguifer In bis Light I fee this : I believe he is able to keep me from falling, and to make me perfect and entire, lacking nothing. My prefent Situation requires more of every Grace, than any I have been in before : But I truft, He in whom all Fulnefs dwells, will fupply my every Want.

I would not have troubled you with folong a Letter, but indeed "I had not Time to make it fhorter." And I am defirous to prove by every Means, that I regard your Advice, and on all Occasions speak with Freedom. I am, Dear Sir,

Your obliged Servant,

T.

April 14, 1761.

Reverend and dear Sir,

O D has been more gracious to my Soul than I could aik or think. I find him as a Place of broad Waters, deep and large, and I feel my Inability to fathom that Depth of Love. In Jefus are all the Treasures of Wisdom and Knowledge hid i And be has begun to reveal them to the most ignorant Soul. But it is impossible to describe the Goodness of GoD, the great GoD, to fo unworthy an Object!

. From the last Morning you preached, I was ftirred up to feek him more diligently than ever. You then difcovered my Heart to me, and what was wanting there. I was kept in Prayer, and would have parted with all Things, fo I might win Christ. E wanted to love him with all my Heart; but my own Wildom was his Rival. Nothing lefs than Omnipotence could deftroy this: And his own Right hand got the Victory. I was made fensible how completely fourish, and entirely helplefs I was. My vehement Soul ftood ftill; and I faw Jefus was all my Salvation. He was all my Defire; and I knew he was made unto me Sanctification and Redemption. He appears as a Prieft, upon the Throne, who shall bear the Glory for ever. I feel my continual Need of him, in in all his Offices. He is truly precious to my Soul; but I want to know him more, and the Power of his Refurrection. I am happy in his Love: But I want more intimate Acquaintance and a deeper Union with him. I fee the Juft fhall live by Faith: And unto me, who am lefs than the leaft of all Saints, is this Grace given. If I were an Archangel, I fhould veil my Face before him, and let Silence fpeak his Praife!

I Believe while Memory remains in me, Gratitude will continue. I know many are the Troubles of the Righteous; but out of them all doth the Lord del ver. I have never defired to hide any Diffrefs or Difficulty from you at any Time. Is this any Reafon, why you fhould tell me, what those are which now furround you? If I could remove the leaft of them by knowing it, I fhould be importunate.

May 2.

From the Time you preached on Galatians v. 5. I faw clearly the true State of my Soul. That Sermon defcribed my Heart, and what it wanted to be truly happy. You read Mr. M's Letter, and it defcribed the Religion which I defired. From that Time the Prize appeared in View, and I was enabled to follow hard after it. I was kept watching unto Prayer, fometimes in much Diftrefs, at others in patient Ex-

Expectation of the Bleffing. For fome Days before you left London, my Soul was flayed on a Promife I had appled to me in Prayer; The Lord whom you feek, shall fuddenly come to bis Temple. I believed he would, and that he would fit there as a Refiner's Fire. The Tuefday after you went, I thought I could not fleep, unlefs he fulfilled his Word that Night. I never knew as I did then the Force of those Words, Be still and know that I am GOD. I became nothing before him, and enjoyed perfect Calmness in my Soul. I knew not whether he had destroyed my S.n.: But I defired to know, that I might praise him. Yet I foon found the Return of Unbelief, and groaned, being burdened. On Wednefday I went to London, and fought the Lord without ceasing. I promised, if he would fave me from Sin, I would praise him. I could part with all Things, fo I might win Christ. But I found all these Pleas nothing worth, and that if he faved me, it must be freely for his own Name's Sake. On Thursday, after I had been with S. Guilford, and B. Dixon, I was fo much tempted, that I thought of destroying myfelf, or never conversing more with the People of God. And yet I had no Doubt of his pardoning Love: But "'twas worfe than Death my Gop to love, and not my Gop alone." On Friday my Diftrefs was deepened. I endeavoured to pray, and could not.

I went to Mrs. D. who prayed for m-, and told me, it was the Death of Nature. I opened the Bible on the fearful and unbelieving-fall bave their Part in the Lake which burneth with Fire and Brimstone. I could not bear it. I opened it again on Mark xvi. 6 and 7. Be not affrighted: Ye feek Jesus of Nazareth.—Go your Way; tell his Disciples, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him. I was encouraged, and enabled to pray, believing I should fee Jefus at Home. I returned that Night, and found Mrs. G. She prayed for me : And the Predefinarian had no Plea, but, " Lord, thou art no Refpecter of Perfons." He proved he was not, by bleffing me. I was in a Moment enabled to lay hold on Jefus Chrift, and found Salvation by fimple Faith. He affured me, the Lord, the King was in the Midst of me, and that I should se Evil no more. I now bleffed him who had visited and redeemed me, and was become my Wildom, Righteoufnels, Sanctification, and Redemption. I faw Jefus altogether lovely, and knew he was mine in all his Offices. And Glory be to him, he now reigns in my Heart without a Rival. I find no Will but his : I feel no Pride, nor any Affection, but what is placed on him. I know, it is by Faith I Itand, and that watching unto Prayer must be the Guard of Faith. I am happy in God this Moment, and I believe for the next. I have often read the Chapter you mention, and compared my Heart and Life with it. In fo doing I feel my Short-comings, and the Need I have of the atoning Blood. Yet I dare not fay I do not feel a Meafure of the Love there deferibed: Though I am not all I fhall be, I defire to be loft in that Love which paffeth Knowledge. I with for no Joy, but what increafes Love.

Reverend and dear Sir,

SY:

T THANK you for another Proof of your Care for my Soul, in the Enquiries you make. I blefs my Lord, his Grace is fufficient to make me answer without Hesitation every Question you propose. I have for many Months enjoyed fuch a Continuance of the Prelence of my Beloved, as makes me feel I am less than the least of his Mercies. The Beholding of him, who is fairer than the Sons of Men, the Sight of Chrift crucified, prevents the Touch of Pride, and makes me hate the Garment fpotted by the Flesh. The Testimony that I defire is not from Man, and the Approbation of GoD never makes me high-minded. Rather I rejoice unto him with Reverence. He teaches me to delight myself in And I feel, I cannot be d.fpleafed him. with any Thing that is his Choice. I know that I pleafe him; for he teftifies of my Works, that they are wrought in him.

Indeed Jefus is unfpeakably precious.

"Words are too mean to fpeak his Worth, , Too mean to fet my Saviour forth,"

He daily makes to me new Discoveries of his Grace and Power, and every fresh Manifestation more effectually unites my Heart to him who is altogether lovely : I love my Friends in him : He gives the Affection I feel, and it always leads to him. I believe. when I quit the Inconveniencies of Mortality, I shall love with greater "Strength. and Elegance," every Friend to whom Jefus has now united my Soul. And what we now know in Part, we shall prove in Eternity, GOD is Love, and whole dwelleth in love, dwelleth in GOD and GOD in : him. My Defire for you is, that you may increase with all the Increase of God, and return to us in the Fulnefs of the Gofpel: of Peace. I believe you will, and that you will be a Bleffing to me and many.

È

I think Mr. Bell is willing to take any Advice you think proper to give. I repeat what I have faid before; they that feek Differition are not Friends to the Work of GOD. I truft you labour for Peace, and the GOD of Peace fhall be with you always. I daily give up all to Jefus, and have no Sacrifice to make which is not offered up already. He gives me Strength for all he calls me to bear: And I find it eafy for the Love which believes, to endure all Tbings.

May the God whom you ferve blefs your Labours with great Succefs! I with you good Luck in his Name. The Weapons of your Warfare are mighty through 'Him: You need not fight uncertainly, as one that beateth the Air, but prove in every Circumstance; This is the Victory, even our Faith. Continue to shew your Care over me, by reproving and adviling me as you judge needful. I am fensible of all my Obligations to you, and am,
