This is a reproduction of a library book that was digitized by Google as part of an ongoing effort to preserve the information in books and make it universally accessible.

Google[®] books

https://books.google.com

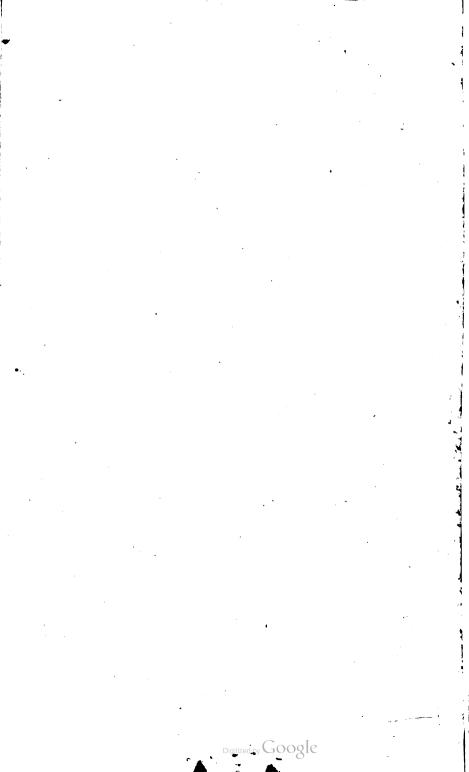

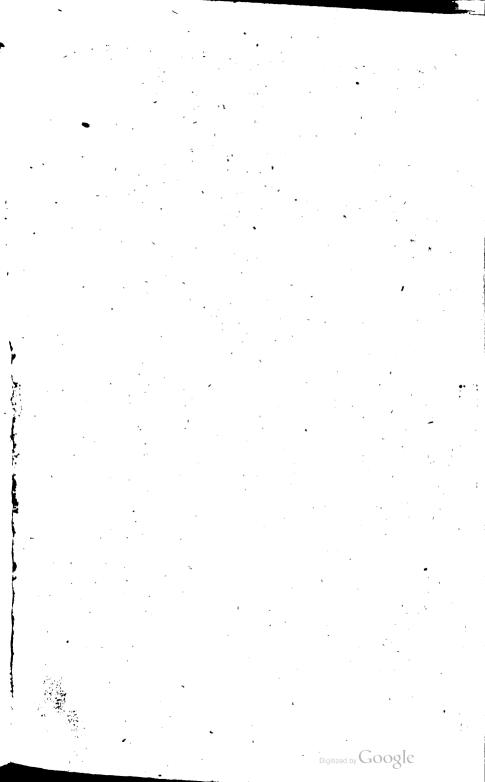

KW 299.

Richard Walds Sibthorp.

13,1543-Digitized by Google . ~

THE

O R K

fi72 S

OF THE REVEREND

GEORGE WHITEFIELD, M.A.

Late of PEMBROKE-COLLEGE, OXFORD,

And Chaplain to the Rt. Hon. the Counters of HUNTINGDON.

CONTAINING

All his SERMONS and TRACTS Which have been already published :

WITH

A SELECT COLLECTION of LETTERS,

Written to his most intimate Friends, and Perfons of Distinction, in England, Scotland, Ireland, and America, from the Year 1734, to 1770, including the whole Period of his Ministry.

ALSO

Some other PIECES ON IMPORTANT SUBJECTS, never before printed; prepared by Himfelf for the Prefs.

To which is prefixed,

An ACCOUNT of his LIFE, Compiled from his Original PAPERS and LETTERS.

VOL. I.

LONDON:

Printed for EDWARD and CHARLES DILLY, in the Poultry 3 and Meffrs. KINCAID and BELL, at Edinburgh.

MDCCLXXI. 3000le

Entered at STATIONERS-HALL, agreeable to Act of Parliament.

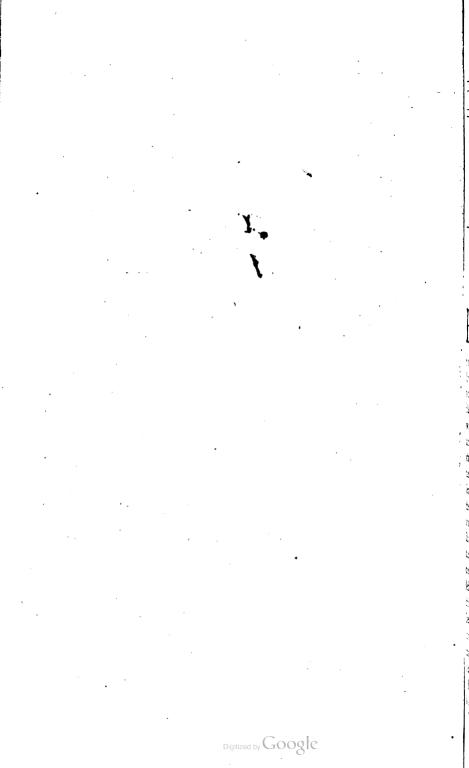

Digitized by Google

A D V E R T I S E M E N T.

THIS complete Edition of the late Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD'S Works (printed under the Direction of his Executors) it is prefumed, will be highly acceptable to all his Friends, as the juft and proper Monument of his Memory and Merit; and both pleafing and ufeful to the Public in general, but especially to those who defire to cherist and promote the Spirit of primitive Christianity.

To the Sermons and Tracts formerly published, and which are now ranged in their proper Order, are also added other Pieces, on the most Important Subjects : together with a valuable Collection of Letters, felected and prepared by himfelf for Publication; in which is displayed, that native Spirit and Simplicity, fo eminently confpicuous in his Life and Conversation. His Friends, and even his Enemies (fhould there be any fuch) will here openly behold his unwearied Diligence, undaunted Firmnels, noble Difinterestedness, and exceeding Usefulness in the Work of the Ministry; also, his remarkable Fidelity in Friendship, exemplary Piety, and fervent Zeal for the Prosperity of pure and undefiled Religion.

The Letters and Works can ftand in no need of any Recommendation: Connected with the account of his Life, (now drawn from original Papers) they exhibit a plain and undifguifed View of the worthy Author, in all Parts of his public Service, as well as in his private Retirements, and inward Trials; faithfully fhewing the Whole of that living Temple, which was facred to God, and happily inftructing Mankind in the Ways of Godlinefs and eternal Life.

LETTER

LETTER I. To Mr. G. H.

Oxon, July 18, 1734. Dear Sir. AVING heard the melancholy news of your brother's death, I could not help fending you a line, to let you know how much I am concerned. Indeed, I cannot fay, I am fo much grieved on his account, as for that forrow, which the loss of fo valuable a youth must necessarily occasion to all his relations. No! I rather envy him his bleffed condition. He, unquestionably is divinely bleffed, whilft we are still left behind to wrestle with unruly passions, and by a continued looking unto JESUS and running in our christian race, to prefs forward to that high prize, of which he, dear Youth, is now in full fruition. These are my true fentiments about his death; I leave you to judge then, when ther I had need be concerned on his account; and furely was it to be put to your choice, whether to religious a young man should live or die, no one could be fo cruel, as to wifh to detain him from his wished-for glory. Be not then too much concerned at his death, but let us rather learn that important lefton, which his whole life taught us : 46 That there is nothing comparable to an early piety." I thought to have spent many agreeable hours with him in christian and edifying conversation, when I came to Gloucefter; but he is gone to more agreeable company, and long before now has joined the heavenly choir.

I shall only add, that as your brother imitated our bleace SAVIOUR in his life, fo I pray Gon, he may refemble him in VOL. L B bie his death, and be a means, like his beloved Redeemer, of reconciling all former animofities, which is the hearty with of, dear Sir,

Your fincere friend and humble fervant, G. W.

LETTER II.

To Mr. G. H.

Briftol, Sept. 10, 1734. Dear Sir. THIS morning I wrote to you in hafte, expecting Mr. I. would foon be going; but to my great fatisfaction. he came hither this night, and foon afterwards, your very much wished-for letter was brought to hand; which (after ten thoufand thanks for fo many repeated favours) I fhall now beg leave to answer. You tell me " Mr. P. likes N." GOD be praifed ! That he hath recommended fomething to my perusal. I'll read it, GOD willing, with care, at my return. " That he wants to know my quality, flate, condition, circum-" ftances, &c." Alas! that any one fhould enquire after fuch a wretch as I am. However, fince he hath been fo kind, pray tell him, that as for my quality, I was a poor, mean drawer; but by the diffinguishing grace of GoD, am now intended for the ministry. As for my estate, that I am a fervitor: and as to my condition and circumstances, I have not of my own any where to lay my head. But my friends, by GOD's providence, minister daily to me, and in return for such unmerited, unspeakable bleffings, I trust the fame good Being will give me grace to dedicate myfelf without referve to his fervice. To " fpend and be fpent " for the welfare of my fellow-creatures, endeavouring to promote the golpel of his Son as much as lies in my poor power. But "observe his " humility," fays Mr. H. Aye, catch an old Christian without profound humility, if you can. Believe me, Sir, it is nothing but this flesh of ours, those cursed feeds of the proud apostate, which lie lurking in us, that make us to think ourfelves worthy of the very air we breathe. When our eyes are opened by the influences of divine grace, we then shall begin to think of ourfelves as we ought to think, even, that GOD is all, and we are lefs than nothing. Well, you may cry, O happy temper, could I but learn of CHRIST to be meek and and lowly in heart, I should certainly find reft to my foul. May GOD, for his dear SON's fake, give it to you, to me, and to all our dear friends! " Some like, fome diflike the ex-" tract," you fay. I did not do it, to please man, but GOD. " Mr. W. is too much engaged in temporals." Is he? Oh dear Sir, pray that when I enter the ministry, I may be wholly engaged in spirituals: But " Mrs. H. has been ill, and is " now recovered." GOD be praised for both ! Our Saviour, Sir, learnt obedience by the things which he fuffered, fo must we. Pain, if patiently endured, and fanctified to us, is a great purifier of our corrupted nature. It will teach us excellent leffons. I hope Mr. H. has been enabled to learn fome So much in answer to your kind letter. You fay of them. " it was too long," Believe me, Sir, it was much too fhort; but a line is more than I deferve. However, I have made out in mine, what was wanting in yours. My Mother's journey to Gloucester, I fear, is spoiled by the weather. God's bleffed will be done! I hope to be with you about next Tuelday fevennight. " I am miffed," you fay; and you may well mifs fuch a troublesome guest. Well, GOD will reward you richly. Never despair of my brother; when GOD acts upon I truft. the foul, he makes quick work of it. Be pleafed to tell Mr. M. that his remiffness hath occasioned me many a figh, and his return from his relapse, matter of abundant thanks to Gop in his behalf. Oh let us young, unexperienced foldiers, be always upon our guard; the very moment we defert our post, the enemy rufhes in; and if he can but divert our eyes from looking heavenward, he will foon fo blind us, that we shall not look towards it at all. A great deal may be learned from a little fall. But I must not detain you any longer, than to affure you how much I am, Dear Sir,

LETTER.

Your and Mrs. H.'s fincere friend and fervant, in our common LORD,

G. W.

LETTER III. To Mr. H.

Dear Sir, Dxon, Šept. 17, 1734. Had the favour of your letter last Friday, which brought me the agreeable news of your and Mrs. H.'s welfare, to-B 2 gether gether with the much-defited account of your approving the scheme, inclosed in my last. Indeed, I did not doubt of its meeting with a candid reception, from all those perfons to whom it was recommended. Their known concern for religion, giving me sufficient assurance, that nothing can be unacceptable to them, which any way tended to promote their improvement in the divine life. It must be confessed, indeed, as you very justly observed, that we must make a great progrefs in religion, and be inured by frequent prayer and mediration, to the extatic contemplation of heavenly objects, before we can arrive at true heavenly-mindedness; and, perhaps, after all our endeavours, whilst our fouls are immersed in these stefhly tabernacles, we shall make but very fmall advances in fo delightful and glorious an undertaking. But believe me, Sir, you cannot imagine, how vaftly ferviceable the conflant use of all the means of religion will be, in acquiring this bleffed habit of mind. Such, as an early rising in the morning, public and private prayer, a due temperance in all things, and frequent meditation on the infinite love and putity of that unparalleled pattern of all perfection, our dear Redeemer. As for your mentioning, Sir, the degeneracy of the age, as the least objection against our making further advances in any religious improvement, I cannot by any means admit of it. The fcriptures (as I take it) are to be the only rules of action. And the examples of our bleffed Lown and his apostles, the grand patterns whereby we are to form the conduct of our lives. It is true, indeed, that inflances of an exalted piety are rately to be met with in the prefent age, and one would think, if we were to take an effimate of our religion, from the lives of most of its proteflors, that christianity was nothing but a dead letter. But then it is not our religion, but ourfelves that are to be blamed all this while. Would we live as the primitive christians did, we might no doubt have the fame affistance vouchsafed us, as they had. GoD's grace is never restrained, and though we should not arrive at those heights of heavenly-mindedness, as some of the primitive christians were eminent for, yet, methinks we should imitate them as far as we can, and rely on the divine goodness for grants of such a fupply of grace, as he, in his good pleafure, shall judge most convenient for us. Be pleafed to fend for Mr. Law's Christian Perfection

Digitized by Google

LETTERS.

Perfection for me against my coming into the country, if printed in a small edition. I am, with due respects to self, spoulo, and all other friends,

> Your's fincerely, G. W.

LETTER IV.

To the Same.

Oxon, Dec. 4, 1734. Dear Sir. Am heartily glad to hear that the country parfon has had fo good an effect upon you, and that you are refolved to fet in earnest, about working out your falvation : Be fure quench not these first motions; but go on vigorously and manfully, without the leaft regard to what the world may fay; if you can once break with that, you are fafe. The prayers, I hope to fend you next week. Only let me give you this caution, not to depend on any advice or book, that is given you; but folely on the grace of GoD attending it. The book which I have fent to my brother, and would recommend to you and all my Gloucefter friends, will foon convince you how dangerous it is to be a lukewarm christian, and that there is nothing to be done without breaking from the world, denying ourfelves daily, taking up our cross, and following JESUS CHRIST. These things may feem a little terrible at first, but believe me, they are nothing but fuggestions of our enemy to deter us from fetting out; and if you can credit me, mortification itfelf, when once practifed, is the greatest pleasure in the world. But hold, I shall transgress the time prescribed me, therefore give me only leave to add my hearty prayer for your successful progrefs in religion, and to subscribe myself in great hafte, Dear Sir,

Your fincere friend and humble fervant,

G. W.

LETTER V.

To the Same.

Dear Sir, Selieve you think me a ftrange fort of a perfon, for not being to good as my word in coming down this winter; B 3 and

Digitized by Google

5

6

and what is worfe, in not letting you have a line to acquaint you of my reasons for it. And, indeed, I am not as yet determined; providence having ordered (I hope) that this feeming unkindnefs shall, in the end, prove very ferviceable on all fides. However, though I have been thus hindred, yet. I think you heard from me last, and am really surprized to find you should, now so long fince, have defired that collection of prayers, and be wholly unconcerned about them ever after. Indeed, they will be of no fervice to you, unlefs you grant me this one postulatum : " That we must renounce ourfelves." What the meaning of this phrase may be, the preface to the prayers will best inform you. I did not doubt of its meeting with but a cold reception, it being (at first view) fo very contrary to flesh and blood. For, perhaps, you may think, that this renouncing of ourfelves, must necessarily lead us (as it certainly does) to acts of felf-denial and mortification; and, that we probably may be faved without them. And left you should after all imagine, (which I trust you will not) that true religion does confift in any thing, befides an entire renewal of our natures into the image of God; I have fent you a book entitled, The Life of GOD in the Soul of Man, written by a young, but an eminent christian, which will inform you, what true religion is, and by what means you may attain it. As likewife, how wretchedly most people err in their fentiments about it, who suppose it to be nothing elfe (as he tells us page 3d) but a mere model of outward performances; without ever confidering, that all our corrupt paffions muft be fubdued, and a complex habit of virtues, fuch as meeknefs, lowliness, faith, hope, and the love of GoD and of man, be implanted in their room, before we can have the least title to enter into the kingdom of GoD. Our divine master having exprefsly told us, that " unlefs we renounce ourfelves, and take " up our crofs daily, we cannot be his difciples." And again, " unlefs we have the fpirit of CHRIST, we are none of his." You will fcarce have time, I imagine, before Mr. H. leaves Gloucefter, to revife, what I have recommended to your perufal. However, be pleafed to let me hear from you by him, together with an account of your free fentiments about this matter. Ι trust (by God's grace) we shall, at last, rightly understand one another's meaning. I fhould be glad to hear too, whether you keep keep morning prayers, and how often you receive the holy communion, there being nothing, which fo much be-dwarfs us in religion, and hinders our progress towards the heavenly Canaan, as starving our fouls by keeping away from the heavenly banquet. I have nothing more to add at prefent on this fubject, till you favour me with a line, which, I hope, you will not fail doing by Mr. H. who will willingly bring it to, Dear Sir,

> Your fincere friend and very humble fervant, G. W.

LETTER VI.

To the Same.

Oxon, March 6, 1735. Dear Sir, T Had the favour of your letter by Mr. H. and, as defired, I have made enquiry about the post-masters and clerks of Merton. As to the former, I hear, that the five fenior fellows have each a power to elect one in his turn, and that there is now a vacancy, but one ready on the fpot to fupply it, and no likelihood of there being another this long while. The latter, are folely in the power of the warden, and though all the places are at prefent filled up, yet, there will be a vacancy next term, fo that, perhaps, by a feafonable application, your brother may get a friend in. Thus much for bufinefs. As for the other particular, specified in the latter part of your last; I find by what I can gather from your own and my brother's expressions, as well as from Mr. H.'s discourse, that my late letters have met with but a cold reception ; and that you feem defirous of hearing no more of fo feemingly ungrateful a fubject, as fubmitting our wills to the will of GOD; which, indeed, is all that is implied in that phrase (which our enemy would reprefent as fo formidable to us) of renouncing our felves. Alas, Sir ! what is there that appears fo monftroufly terrible in a doctrine that is, (or at least ought to be) the constant subject of our prayers, whenever we put up that petition of our LORD's: " Thy will be done in earth, as it is in Heaven." The import of which feems to be this. Ift. That we do every thing that GOD wills, and nothing but what he willeth. 2dly, That we do every thing he wills, only in the manner he willeth. 3dly, That we do those things he willeth, only becaufe because he willeth. This is all, Sir, I have been endeavouring to inculcate in my late letters; and though it feems as clear as the light, upon an impartial and confiderate view. yet, our grand impostor (whose very corruption is having a will distinct from, and therefore contrary to GoD's) would fain fet it out in the most hideous colours, as though we were * Setters forth of ftrange doctrines ;" or proposing fome higher degrees of perfection, than every ordinary christian is obliged to afpire after; whereas, in truth, it is nothing but the fimple and evident language of the gospel. It must be confessed, that through the corruption of our depraved nature, and that power, which felf-will has, fince the Fall, usurped in the foul, we must necessarily break through a great many ob-But, dear Sir, be not difmayed, the difficulty lies only flacles. in our first fetting out. Be but vigorous at the first onset, and never fear a conquest. The renewal of our natures is a work of great importance. It is not to be done in a day. We have not only a new house to build up, but an old one to pull But then, methinks, this would be an odd way of down. reasoning, " Because a thing requires some pains, I therefore will never fet about it." No, Sir, rather up and be doing. Exert your utmost efforts at your first setting out, and take my word, your strength as well as resolution will increase daily. The means also which are necessary to be used in order to attain this end, our curfed adverfary the devil would reprefent to us in the most hideous forms imaginable. But believe me, Sir, the difficulty here too, only lies in our first breaking from ourfelves, and that there is really more pleafure in thefe formidable duties of felf-denial and mortification, than in the highest indulgences of the greatest epicure upon earth. Give me leave, dear Sir, only to remind you of one particular. which, if duly observed, will vastly facilitate your future endeavours. Let the scriptures, not the world, be your rule of action. By those you are to form your practice here, and to be judged hereafter. Upon this account, for the future, I fhould be glad, if you would communicate what paffes between you and me, to none but my brother and your fpouse. And if you have any, the least scruple, be pleased to fend me word of it by a letter in an open, friendly manner; and, by Gon's bleffing, all things will be yet fet right; only be fervent vent in prayer. As for what the Rev. Mr. Hoar has been pleased to fay, either to you or Mr. H. it is not my business (our of deference, as he is to much my superior, as to the dignity of his office, his age, and his learning) to make any reply. I shall only add, what I am fure I can prove, " That "the gospel tells us that there is but one thing needful. " That we cannot fit down content with just fuch a degree " of goodness, and claim just fuch a proportionable degree of " glory ;" but that " we are to love the LORD with all our " fouls, firength, &c." and that " he who endureth to the "end, (and he only) shall be faved." There is a little treatife lately come out, which I have made bold to fend to Mr: Hear, where we may be fully convinced by argument deducible merely from reason, " that GOD is our fole end," and that barely upon a principle of prudence, (fuppofing we could be happy without it) we ought to prefs forward, in order to attain the greatest degrees of happiness hereafter. Whether this letter. Sir, may prove as offenfive as the former, is not my bufinefs to enquire. God's will be done in all things. He, and he alone can (and indeed will, if we are defirous of it ourselves) work this conviction in our minds. Give me leave just to add, that I thought it my duty to answer these few objections, that have been raifed against the difficulty of conforming our wills to the will of GoD, by fhewing that the greatest struggle lies only at our first beginning, and that it is no more than what is indifpenfably necellary for our falvation. As for the means to be employed for the attainment of this end, I thall be wholly filent : Being feafible, that if you are once fully convinced of the greatness of it, you will be necessarily carried on to the use of such means as Gop hath conffituted for that purpole. I hope my writing after this manner, Sir, will not be esteemed a piece of felfconceit. or be an inftrument of unlooking our former band of friendlhip, which was once defigned to be bound the faster, by tying it with a religious knot. But whether this proves to be the event, or not, of my telling my friends the truth, I wholly leave to GoD's Providence. Be pleafed however to favour me with a line in return, and give me leave to fubscribe myfelf, Dear Sir,

BA

LETTERS.

Your fincere friend and most obliged humble fervant,

G. W. LETTER

Q

Digitized by Google

[10] LETTER VII.

To the Same.

My dear Friend, Bristol, June 12, 1735. AST night about eight o'clock, your good spouse and myself came fafe to our journey's end, and met with a very kind reception from all parties. After you left us, the ladies grew more ferious, and at last by the affistance of Mr. Norris, our discourse ran into a proper channel. My brother does not propofe failing this fortnight; but tho' he flays longer than he proposed, yet I hope to be at Gloucester on Wednefday, for methinks my heart is still there, tho' my body be at thirty miles distance. On whose account, I leave you to guess. I cannot help reflecting on Sunday. Did not those fights, think you, Sir, proceed from fome unufual meditations on the importance of religion ? Were they not fome infant ftrugglings after the new birth? Surely they were. And I truft ere long, after a few ftrugglings with corrupted nature, the Holy Ghoft will replenish your heart with comfort and peace. Proper retirement and folitude are no bars; but rather great helps to a religious life. We find, our Saviour was led into a wildernefs, before he entered on his publick ministry, and so must we too, if we ever intend to tread in his fteps. As for my brother, I truft the cares of the world, the defire of riches, &c. will not always choak the good feed. However, I hope you my dear friend will not defer fo important a thing. But, why do I fay hope, when I am affured you will not. Methinks, I would willingly undergo the pangs, fo you might enjoy the pleafures of the new birth. But this must not be. All we can do is to fympathize with and pray for each other, which I hope will not be wanting on either fide, as fuch a close friendship has commenced between dear Mr. H. and

Your fincere friend and humble fervant,

G. W.

LETTER VIII. To the Same.

Bristol, Sept. 5, 1735.

HOW welcome is a line from a faithful friend? even as welcome as a fhower of rain in a droughty feafon. But here's

Dear Sir.

here's the misfortune, the very kindness of friends may be cruelty: Commendations, or even the hinting at them, are poifon to a mind addicted to pride. A nail never finks deeper than when dipt in oil. A friend's words may be fofter than butter, and notwithstanding be very fwords. Pray for me, dear Sir, and heal the wound you have made. To Gon alone give glory. To finners nothing belongs, but fhame and confusion. So much in answer to one part of your too kind letter. Mrs. Powell you fay continues very ill. No wonder, Sir; desperate diseases must have desperate remedies. Satan has defired to fift her as wheat; but CHRIST will pray for her, I truft, and then her faith will not fail. Oxford friends have not been wanting in letters, and I find I must not stay much longer here. For fome are going to travel, fome are dead, and one is married, fo that we must join and warm one another, as well as we can in their absence. I hope to feaft with you at Crypt next Sunday. Amazing, that ever finners should fit with their Saviour! To what dignity has CHRIST exalted human nature. And how did he do it? Why, by humbling himfelf. Let us go and do likewife. Give me leave, with due respects to all friends, to subscribe myself,

Your and spouses very humble servant and fincere friend,. G. W.

P. S. If Mr. Pauncefort's petitions run after this manner for me, I fhould be thankful: " That GoD would finish the good work he has begun in me, that I may never seek nor be fond of worldly preferment; but employ every mite of those talents it shall please GoD to entrust me with, to his glory and the church's good, and likewise, that the endeavours of my friends to revive true religion in the world, may meet with proper fuccess."

LETTER IX.

To the Same.

Dear Sir, Briftol, Sept. 18, 1735. A S you did not expect to hear from me till Mr. B - dcame, I hope you have not as yet accufed me of being too dilatory in writing. Now I have taken the freedom, what can be more proper for me to begin with, than to return ten

ten thousand thanks for those innumerable favours conferred on me at your house? I trust they are all registered in the court of heaven, and will in due time meet with a fuitable return from my all-gracious and good benefactor. Next to this, I imagine you will enquire, how I like Briftol ? As for the place itself, that, like all others, is indifferent to me, who have here no continuing city, but feek one to come; and as for the inhabitants, tho' they teach me nothing elfe, yet I may learn this one important lesson, that unless I am very vigilant, the children of this world, will be much wifer in their generation, than I, who, by the grace of GOD, hope am a child of light. Alas ! was I half fo folicitous to attain heavenly, as they are worldly riches, I should be rich indeed. That you all may be rich towards GoD, is the hearty prayer of, dear Sir, Your very unworthy, but fincere friend and humble fervant,

G. W.

LETTER X.

To the Same.

Oxon, March 13, 1736. Dear Sir, Have now but just time to acquaint you, that GoD gave I me a pleasant and safe journey, and what was still a greater bleffing, a joyful meeting with my zealous, hearty, fincere friends. The alderman bore my expences, and was very agreeable company; fo that on all accounts I have great reason to thank my good and gracious GoD, and to beg others to join with me in that important, that delightful You will not forget retaining your old cuftom of dutv. reading and finging. It's bad to leave off a good cuftom, and the best way to make a progress in religion, is to perfift in, and to improve on the means we enjoy. I suppose honeft James by this time is with you. My hearty love to him, and tell him, it would do his heart good to fee what a number of true altogether christians here are of his rank. I hope he will let none of them outfirip him : He must watch and pray against self-indulgence, floth, &c. especially if he to a place where plenty of all things abound. My due due respects and hearty thanks to Mrs. H. and all friends. I hope none of their kindnesses will ever be forgotten by Your fincere friend in great haste,

L E T T E R S.

G. W.

13

LETTER XI.

To the Same.

Deareft Sir, Oxon, April 2, 1736. WHAT a comfort is it for christian friends to relate to each other the loving-kindness of the LORD? O let his praises be ever in our mouths, that we may be telling of his falvation from day to day. O dear Sir, I heartily join with you in the delightful duty of thanksgiving: I hope that you will have every day more and more experimental proofs of that intercours which is carried on between GOD in heaven, and faints on earth.

I must now inform you, that the person, who under GOD has given me the annuity, is Sir John Philips of London. The occasion of it was as follows. Upon my coming up, two or three of our trufty friends were called from us, and being folicitous to keep up our fociety here, the gentleman to whom you feat the book, wrote to Sir John Philips and proposed me (alas! how unfit) as a proper perfor to flay here and encourage our friends in fighting the good fight of faith. Accordingly he immediately offered me an annuity of twenty pounds. To shew his difinterestedness, he has promifed me that, whether I continue here or not; and if I refolve to flay at Oxon, he'll give me thirty pounds a year. If that will not do, I may have more; fo that you fee, my dear friend, what a critical point it is. All that we have to to is to pray, and watch Providence between this and Fine, when I propose, GOD willing, to enter into orders, and then no doubt my call will be clear. What makes me to think that this is a call from GoD is, that it will be convenient for taking my degree, and improving me in my ftudies. Whether it be or no, GOD only knows ; Father, therefore into thy hands I commend my fpirit, for thou haft redeemed me, O LORD thou GOD of truth. I approve greatly of your reading HENRY. GOD works by him here greatly, and may the LORD profper it in your hands. Good dear Sir, never never leave off watching, reading, praying, firiving, till you experimentally find CHRIST JESUS formed within you. In a particular manner, my dear friend, watch againft all temptations to floth. When you receive the facrament, earneftly endeavour to be inwardly bettered by it the week following. Live every day as holily as you can. Be frequent in felfexamination morning and evening. Pray carnetly from your heart. Wreftle with GOD, beg him to haften the new birth. Moreover be careful, diligent in your calling, labour hard with your own hands, that you may have to give to him that needeth. And labour not fo much for the meat that perifheth, as to neglest purfuing that which endureth to eternal life. O Mr. H. my bowels are enlarged towards you. Believe me to be your fincere, tho' unworthy friend, $G. W_{*}$

Digitized by Google

LETTER XII.

To the Same.

Dear Mr. H. Oxon, April 22, 1736. N OW tell me the truth, have not you called me und prateful? If you have grateful? If you have not, it is more than I deferve. I have nothing to plead but bufinefs, as an excuse for not answering your last kind letter. Well, forgive me this once, and if I offend fo again, then call me ungrateful indeed. You order'd me to make no acknowledgments for kindnesses received. You'll fuffer me to alk another favour, if not to return any more thanks. Be fo kind then, dear Sir, to defire your brother to write to me as foon as poffible. My good friend, Sir John Philips, has promised me thirty pounds a year, if I'll continue at Oxford, and yet I am in doubt, whether that annuity, and the being appointed to ferve the prison here, will be a fufficient title for orders, therefore I beg both his advice and prayers. This is all I think that concerns outward affairs. But this folemn feason naturally leads me to fay a word or two on a more important fubject, "the death and paffion of our bleffed Lord and Saviour." If I miltake not, you commemorate it tomorrow at Crypt. And bleffed be GOD, I do at Chrift Church. And oh that we may commemorate it as we ought; that that we may fix our thoughts intenfely on that great examplar and all atoning blood; that we may grow in love with his meeknefs and patience, and endeavour daily to be conformed to his most bleffed image. Surely we cannot grow angry at trifles, when the Son of GOD endured fuch bitter usage, without the least murmur or complaint. Surely, we cannot repine at any dispensations of Providence tho' ever fo fevere, when we confider, how it pleafed GOD to bruife our Saviour and lay upon him the iniquities of us all. Whatever befalls us, is but the due reward of our crimes; but this Redeemer had done nothing amifs: he was bruifed for our iniquities. I could run through every part of our LORD's fufferings, and thew how necefary it is that we fhould fympathize with him in every particular. But as it now grows late, and I want a little time to prepare for to-morrow's folemnity, you'll excuse me if I now only paraphrafe a little on the prayer of the thief on the crofs. LORD remember us and pray for us; LORD remember us and rule us; LORD remember us and prepare a place for us. LORD remember us in the hour of death, and in the day of judgment. My due respects to all friends, and am fincerely

Yours,

G. W.

15

LETTER XIII.

To Mr. S.

My dear Friend, Gloucester, June 20, 1736. THIS is a day much to be remember'd, O my foul! for about noon, I was folemnly admitted by good Bishop Benson, before many witnesses, into holy orders, and was, bleffed be GoD, kept composed both before and after imposition of hands. I endeavoured to behave with unaffected devotion; but not fuitable enough to the greatness of the office I was to undertake. At the fame time, I truft, I answered to every question from the bottom of my heart, and heartily prayed that GOD might fay Amen. I hope the good of fouls will be my only principle of action. Let come what will, life or death, depth or heighth, I shall henceforwards live like one who this day, in the prefence of men men and angels, took the holy faerament, upon the profeffiont of being inwardly moved by the Holy Ghoft to take upon me that ministration in the church. This I began with reading prayers to the prifoners in the county goal. Whether I myfelf shall ever have the honour of stilling myfelf a prifoner of the LORD, I know not; but indeed, my dear friend, I can call heaven and earth to witness, that when the Bishop laid his hand upon me, I gave myfelf up to be a martyr for him, who hung upon the cross for me. Known unto him are all future events and contingences; I have thrown myfelf blindfold, and I truft without referve, into his almighty hands; only I would have you observe, that till you hear of my dying for, or in my work, you will not be apprized of all the preferment that is expected by

Yours, &c. G. W.

LETTER XIV.

To the Same.

Dear Friend, Gloucester, June 23, 1736. TEVER a poor creature fet up with fo fmall a ftock. When the good Bifhop, who ordained me on Sunday, gave out last year in his visitation charge, that he would ordain none under full three and twenty, my heart leap'd for joy, for then I thought my friends would not only be difappointed in their hope of having me enter into orders fo foon; but that I should also have time (as was my intention) to make at least a hundred fermons, with which to begin my ministry; but this is to far from being the cafe, that I have not a fingle one by me, except that which I made for a fmall christian fociety, and which I fent to a neighbouring clergyman, to convince him how unfit I was to take upon me the important work of preaching. He kept it for a fort. night, and then fent it back with a guinea for the loan of it; telling me he had divided it into two, and had preached it morning and evening to his congregation. With this fermos I intend to begin, GoD willing, next Sunday, not doubting, but that he, who increased a little lad's loaves and fifnes for the feeding of a great multitude, will from time to time, in the proper use of appointed means, supply me with spiritual ritual food for whatever congregation he in his all-wife Providence fhall be pleafed to call me to. Help, help me, my dear friend, with your warmeft addresses to the throne of grace, that I may not only find merey, but grace to help in time of need. At prefent this is the language of my heart;

Ë Ë T T Ë R Š.

A guilty weak and helpless worm into thy arms I fall,

Be thou my strength, my righteoufness, my JESUS, and my all.

Oh ceafe not, for I must again repeat it, cease not to pray for Yours, &c.

LETTER XV.

Dear Mrs. H. Gloucester, June 28, 1736. CCORDING to my promise I am now seated to write A you a farewell letter. For providence feems to demand my prefence at Oxford immediately, and therefore I propose being there, GOD willing, on Monday night. But first let me return dear Mrs. H. my heartieft thanks for all past kind. neffes, and affure her, that my inceffant prayers shall never be wanting, that GOD may not forget her labour of love, in that the has to plentifully administered to me his unworthy fervant. and yet does minister. To-morrow I am to preach at Crypt. but believe I shall displease some, being determined to speak against their affemblies. But I must tell them the truth, or otherwife I shall not be a faithful minister of CHRIST. Had providence so ordered, I should have been glad to have given you the cup of bleffing ; but fince that favour is denied to me, I am refigned. However, I hope I shall not be unmindful of you, when I come near your place, nor be wanting in my prayers, that GOD would mercifully fupply the want of outward means to you, by the operation of his Holy Spirit. I fuppose you are, by this time, pretty well reconciled to Worcefter, and that providence has fhewn you that we may ferve God acceptably in any place. Yes, Madam, let but our hearts be upright towards him, and by faith united to our dear LORD JESUS, we shall find that wherever we are, he will be with us, and we shall be with him. So far I had written on Saturday night; but being detained here in expectation of feeing my brother James, (who has not as yet been Vol. I. ſo fo good as his word) I believe I can now acquaint you that I must fet out on Wednefday morning. I preached yesterday at Crypt, and was mercifully fupported and affisted, for which great bleffing, I hope you will return hearty thanks in my behalf. I truft Miss James continues her former earnest desires to be renewed in the spirit of her mind; for nothing will do but Indeed we may flatter ourfelves, that we may go to that. heaven without undergoing the pangs of the new birth; but we shall certainly find ourselves desperately mistaken in the end. For till we are changed, till we are made meet for, we cannot in the nature of the thing be partakers of the heavenly inheritance with the faints in light. Let us therefore never cease praying and striving, till we find this bleffed change wrought in us, and thereby we ourfelves brought off from relying on any or all outward ordinances for falvation. Our good bifhop Benson was pleased to give me another present of five guineas, a great supply for one who has not a guinea in the world. May the great Bishop of fouls amply reward both him and you, for all favours conferred on > Your funcere friend and humble fervant, G. W.

I

Digitized by Google

17

LETTER XVI.

To Mr. H.

My Dear Friend,

Gloucester, June 30, 1736.

GLORY! glory! glory! be afcribed to an almighty triune GoD.—Laft Sunday in the afternoon, I preached my firft fermon in the church of St. Mary De Crypt, where I was baptized, and alfo firft received the facrament of the LORD's fupper. Curiofity, as you may eafily guefs, drew a large congregation together upon the occafion. The fight at firft a little awed me; but I was comforted with a heart-felt fenfe of the divine prefence, and foon found the unfpeakable advantage of having been accuftomed to public fpeaking when a boy at fchool, and of exhorting and teaching the prifoners and poor people at their private houfes, whilft at the univerfity. By thefe means I was kept from being daunted over much. As I proceeded, I perceived the fire kindled, till at laft, though fo young, and amidft a croud of thofe, who knew me in my infant infant childish days, I trust, I was enabled to speak with some degree of gospel authority. Some few mocked, but most for the prefent feemed ftruck; and I have fince heard, that a complaint had been made to the bishop, that I drove fifteen mad the first fermon. The worthy prelate, as I am informed, wished that the madness might not be forgotten before next Sunday. Before then, I hope, my fermon upon He that is in CHRIST, is a new creature, will be compleated. Bleffed be GoD, I now find freedom in writing. Glorious JESUS, > Unloofe my flamm'ring tongue to tell Thy love immense, unsearchable.

Being thus engaged, I must hasten to subscribe myself, my dear Sir, Your's, &c.

G. W.

ÍØ

LETTER XVII.

To Mrs. H.

Dear Mrs. H. Oxon, July 7, 1726. WHAT shall I say in defence of my seemingly ungrate-ful silence ? Why, I hope, your kindness will accept of the reasons I gave in Mrs. Well's letter, as a sufficient excuse for it, nothing but those, I affure you, being the cause of it. Well then, prefuming on your kind pardon, give me leave, (after all acknowledgments of gratitude for kindneffes received) to bid you once more welcome to Gloucester, and to with you and Mr. H. with all my foul, the greatest comfort. that either this or the other world can afford you. It's true. indeed, we must not expect much comfort here, except what refults from a good conviction that we are in a fafe state, by being born again of the Holy Ghoft. This, will afford us inexpressible fatisfaction, even on this fide the grave. It will give us ease in pain, because we know, if we bear it patiently, it will end in glory. This, will make us meek and gentle under croffes and difappointments, becaufe we know we are taught to expect them, and that our bleffed Malter has gone before us in them. In short, it will make us easy in every station, because we have a general promise, that all things shall work for good to them that love God. But supposing we were to have no pleasure on this fide of Heaven, yet the C 2 thoughts thoughts of being happy, and that too for all eternity hereafter, methinks fhould teach us to bear up under every calamity here, not only with fubmission, but a hely joy. Good Gop ! the very idea of what we are to be in glory, transports me while I am writing. There, there, Mrs. H. we shall see the bleffed JESUS, whom our fouls have to eagerly thirsted after in this life, furrounded with glory, and attended with myriads of his holy angels, who will rejoice at our fafe arrival to their happy manfions, and with repeated echocs welcome us to heaven. There, there, we shall not only see, but live with him and enjoy him too, not for a day, a month, a year, an age, but to all eternity. And who can tell the pleasure, comfort, peace, joy, delight, and transport, a glorified faint will feel in the poffeffion of his wifhed-for, longed-for, ever adorable, ever gracious, bleffed, beloved, triune GoD, and that for ever? Surely the happiness will be fo great, that eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither can the heart of man conceive the thousandth part thereof. And yet, great as it is, I not only wifh, but have good hope through CHRIST, that not only you- and Mr. H. but all my christian friends, and even I myfelf through grace, shall one day be partakers of it. The way and means we know. "If any one, fays CHRIST, will come after me (to glory) let him renounce himfelf," i. e. make his own will no principle of action, be no felf-pleafer, "and take up his crofs" patiently (whether of fickness or outward circumstances, &c.) "and then let him follow me," follow me in a way of duty here, and he shall follow me to glory hereafter. May we all be fuch followers of the bleffed JESUS! And why fhould we defpair of becoming fuch ? What is there in CHRIST's doctrine or example but that we may all, through the affiftance of the Holy Spirit, imitate him in ? Suppose it does oblige us to be a little stricter than our neighbours? Suppose it does forbid us fpending too much time in the feemingly-innocent entertainments of the age ? Suppose it does command us to be conftant and frequent in prayer, in watchings, fastings, and other acts of mortification ? Suppose it does bid us not to indulge our unruly paffions; but to learn of CHRIST to be meek, patient, and lowly ? Suppose it does compel us to redeem our sime, to fill up every day with proper duty and devotion? Yet, what in all this, that is terrible ? Has not fuch a behaviour

20

Digitized by Google

4 ----

LETTERS.

our a natural tendency to make us calm, eafy, peaceful, happy? And then, why fhould we refufe fo eafy a yoke, fo light a burden? I am fure the little (alas! too, too little) time I have drawn in it, I have found it not galling but healing, and the longer I bear it, the eafier and pleafanter it is. Let us then, Dear Mrs. H. chearfully take it upon us, and then

> No mortal living of us all can mifs A permanent, a fure fubflantial blifs.

Your fincere, though very unworthy friend and humble fervant,

G. W.

LETTER XVIII.

To Mr. H.

DeareA Sir,

Oxon, Oct. 14, 1736.

T Was agreeably detained, as you was pleafed to term it, I laft Tuefday, in reading your kind letter, and had I not been affifted by the grace of GOD to receive every thing with an equal, undisturbed mind, perhaps the contents of it might have given me some small uneasiness. But religion quite changes the nature of man, and makes us to receive all the difpenfations of providence with refignation and thankfulnefs. Of this, dearest Sir, I hope you have had an experimental proof, in bearing up with courage and refolution under those acute pains the Almighty was pleafed to vifit you with laft Sunday. and with which, perhaps, his infinite wildom and goodnefs may continue to visit you longer. My dear friend (if I mistake not) used to fay, he was afraid Gon did not love him, becaufe he did not chaften him. Behold then, now the hand of the LORD is upon you, not fo much to punish, as to purify your foul. Not in anger but in love. Pray therefore in your eafy intervals, that you may know, wherefore the LORD contendeth with you, and that you may not come cankered out of the furnace of affliction. Offer up every groan, every figh, in the name of your dying, rifen Redeemer, and doubt not, but they will be as prevalent as fet times of prayer. Our being enabled to pray when fickness comes on us, doubtless, is to teach us the necessity of praying always, when we are in health. But, dear Mr. H. wants no fuch leffons, or excitements, I C₃ believe, believe, to prayer. Methinks I could bear fome of your pain for you, if that would give you comfort. But as it is impoffible. O let me never cease most earnestly to besech my heavenly Father, that he would fanctify this his fatherly correction to you, and that the fense of your weakness may add ftrength to your faith, and feriousness to your repentance. Poor Mr. Pauncefoot, I find, is visited in a far more grievous manner. Dear good man, furely the time of his diffolution (I should fay of his coronation) draweth near, See, dear Mr. H. through what tribulations we must enter into glory. Be pleafed to give my hearty love and thanks to him for his laft kind letter. Beg him not to cease praying for me, unworthy as I am. And, I hope, I shall not be wanting in returning his kindness in the same manner. But alas, I have nothing to depend on, but the merits of a crucified Redeemer to have my poor petitions answered. But does dear Mrs. H. complain of deadness and coldness in devotion? Alas poor woman ! let her not be difheartened. This is a complaint. which all the children of Gop have made. And we muft take a great deal of pains with our hearts, must pray often and long, before we shall be able to pray well. And the only way I can think of, to fhame ourfelves out of deadness in prayer, is to cenfure and condemn, to humble and bewail ourfelves for it every time we go upon our knees, at leaft every time we folemnly retire to converse with GoD. But why does dear Mrs. H. fo much as think of omitting but once the receiving of the holy facrament? Or if fatan does put fuch thoughts in her head, why does not fhe repel them with the utmost abhorrence ? Alas! should the devil gain his point here, would not the ridiculing world fay, Mrs. H. began to build, but had not wherewith to finish. I have feen too many fatal inftances of the inexpressible danger and fad confequences of leaving off any one means of grace, not to encourage Mrs. H. stedfastly to perfevere in the good way the has begun; and would exhort her, in the name of the LORD JESUS CHRIST, to labour daily to mortify and fubdue her corruptions, not wilfully to indulge herfelf in any ill habit, cuftom, or temper, and then affure herfelf, one time or another, CHRIST will be made known unto her in breaking of bread. But what shall I fay, dear Sir, about Mr. W. I

W. &c. &c.! Alas! I find, they are all in the gall of bitternefs, in the very bondage of iniquity, and all I can do, is to pity and pray for them. I find more and more, that where true religion is wanting, there is confusion and every evil work. But why is my honoured mother fo folicitous about a few paultry things, that will quickly perifh ? Why will fhe not come and see her youngest son, who will endeavour to be a Foleph to her, before the dies ? What makes my dear friend and his kind wife, give me another invitation to Gloucester ? Alas! have I not wearied and been expensive enough to you already ? I hope to fend you, in a fhort time, two guineas towards paying for Mr. Henry's Exposition. I with I could fpare more, but time will bring all things to pass. You fee what a large letter I have written to you to make amends for the many fhort ones, I have fent lately. Though I believe you may fay of mine, the quite contrary to what I fay of yours; the fhorter the better. My due respects to all friends, and believe me to be, in the utmost fincerity, Dearest Sir,

Your and Mrs. H.'s affectionate friend and humble fervant, G, W.

LETTER XIX.

To the Same.

Dearest Sir. Oxon, Nov. 5, 1736. HEREWITH I have fent you feven pounds to pay for Mr. Henry's Commentary. Dear Efqr. Thorold lately made me a present of ten guineas, fo that now (for ever bleffed be the divine goodness) I can fend you more than I thought In time, I hope to pay the apothecary's bill. If I forfor. get your favours, I shall also forget my GOD. Say nothing of your receiving this money, only give thanks, give hearty thanks to our good and gracious GOD for his infinite, unmerited mercy to me, the vileft of the fons of men. Oh, dear Sir, may fuch instances of free grace strengthen your faith, and make you put your fole truft and confidence in the LORD your God. For he hath faid, I will never leave thee nor forfake thee. Have not you experienced his loving kindnefs and mercy, in supporting you under your fickness ? Methinks I feel you have. May you experience it more and more ! Did not CHRIST give you the meeting last Sunday? I hope he did,

Digitized by Google

nay

hay I am fure he did, if our hearts were duly prepared by faith and repentance to receive him ; but without an entire refignation of ourfelves to God, and a thorough renunciation of all worldly and corrupt affections, all Gon's ordinances will profit nothing. Your reverend brother's kind letter I hope to anfwer foon, and to fend him alfo a fmall parcel of books.. The good LORD functify them to his own glory, and the good of I find dear Mr. Pauncefoot is still afflicted, but bid him fouls. be of good cheer. In his latter end he may yet greatly increase. When we are weak, then are we strong. There is hope concerning his legacy. Let us in the mean while continue inftant in prayer in behalf of this our dear and worthy friend. Good man! falute him kindly in my name. Beg his prayers for my unworthy felf, and tell him I will write as foon as possible. The gospel flourishes at Oxon. Our fociety here, bleffed be GOD, goes on well. I received the papers and thank you. How does dear Mrs. H.? The divine bleffing reft on you both. My prayer night and day is, that you may be faved. Salute all friends by name. From Deareft Sir,

Your unworthy friend and humble fervant,

G. W.

LETTER XX.

To the Same.

Dear Sir, Briftol, Feb. 10, 1737. W HAT fhall I fay? I cannot be with you this week. Methinks, it would be almost finful to leave Briftol at this critical juncture, there being now a prospect of making a very confiderable collection for the poor Americans. The whole city feems to be alarmed. Churches are as full week days, as they use to be on Sundays, and on Sundays fo full, that many, very many are obliged to go away, because they cannot come in. Oh pray, dear Mr. H. that GOD would always keep me humble, and fully convinced that I am nothing without him, and that all the good which is done upon earth, GOD doth it himfelf. Quakers, baptists, prefbyterians, &c. all come to hear the word preached. Sanctify holy Eather to the power and they people's good 1. I holy Father, to thy own glory and thy people's good ! I hope

Digitized by Google

LETTERS.

hope to be with you without fail on Tuefday morning. What letters you have, pray fend to, Dear Sir,

Your unworthy friend, &c.

G. W.

LETTER XXI.

To the Same,

Dear Sir, Stoneboufe, April 26, 1737. B E pleafed to fend the Poor Country Curate, and Flavel's Husbandry Spiritualized. I know not what to do for want of a clock in the house. How shall I know, how my precious time passes away? You'll mind your promise to come. Here are lovely, folitary, and pleasant walks to commune with your own heart, and search out your spirit. Has Mr. Pauncefoot wrote to me? My dear stratford's death affects me still. Methinks I long to be above, employed as he is. But alas, I am not ripe for glory; if I was, my heavenly Father would gather me into his garner. Farewell, Dear Sir; remember I am alone, and pray accordingly for Your fincere, though weak friend,

G. W,

LETTER XXII.

To the Same.

Dear Sir,

Stoneboufe, May 4, 1737.

W HY does not Mr. H. let me hear from or fee him? Surely no evil has befallen either him or his family in their way to eternity. Why then tarry their horfes? Why are they fo long in coming to vifit the country, which now looks like a fecond paradife, and which, to me, feems the pleafanteft place I ever was in, through all my life? Surely I can never be thankful enough for being fent hither; people flock to hear the word of GOD from the neighbouring villages, as well as our own. They gladly receive me into their houfes, and I have no let or hindrance to my minifterial bufinefs; and what is ftill better, GOD has opened my heart, and enabled me to finifh a fermon on " Remember thy Creator, &c."—If you will come on Sunday you may hear it perhaps. — Your fifter in-law talks of being here again on Fridax; but I believe lieve it will be more agreeable, if you chufe another opportunity, that we may have our own conversation. I hope that dear Mrs. H. took nothing ill, that was in my last. I meant it well, and wrapt up the pill in as much sugar as I could. My hearty love to her and Miss J. Poor Mr. M. and Mr. W. will set out to morrow, I suppose. The LORD prosper them and be with them wherever they go, and make them good foldiers of JESUS CHRIST, and finally bring them and us to his heavenly kingdom ! So wishes, so prays, Your's affectionately,

G. W.

LETTER XXIII.

To the Same.

Dear Sir, Stoneboufe, May II, 1737. I Thank you for your laft, and blefs GOD that you got home fafe: your obfervations on the weather were pertinent and fpiritual. Honeft Junes and I, were out in the midft of the lightning, and never were more delighted in our lives. May we be as well pleafed, when the Son of GOD cometh to judgment. What I no news from your brother? Well, Stoneboufe people and I agree better and better. I believe we fhall part weeping. Had I time I would now write to Mifs J. but I muft away among my flock, and fo deny myfelf that pleafure till another opportunity is given to, Dear Sir,

Your fincere friend and humble fervant,

G. W.

LETTER XXIV.

To the Same.

Dear Sir,

Briftol, May 24, 1737.

BY the particular good providence of GOD, I got fafe to Briflol yesterday by ten in the morning, and was received (unworthy as I am) with the utmost civility and kindnefs. I have learnt from hence the benefit of fetting out on our journey to eternity betimes, and what a pleafing reflection it will be to look back, though not to depend, on one's past life, and find a great deal of work done in a little time. The people here are exceeding kindly affected towards me; and,

LETTERS.

and, I hope, I have feen the effects of my doctrine in the reformation of fome of their lives. Remember me always in your prayers. Accept my hearty thanks for all favours, and believe me to be,

Ever your's,

G. W.

LETTER XXV.

To Mrs. H.

Dear Mrs. H. Oxon, July 14, 1737. F you remember, I promised you a long and particular L letter when I was at Gloucefter, and nothing hinders but I may now perform it. Permit me then first, to begin this, as I would all my letters, with thanks to you and kind Mr. H. for your inexpressible favours conferred on the most unworthy of my master's fervants; and, withall, to affure you, how inceffantly I pray, that the GOD of all grace and mercy, for the fake of his dear Son JESUS CHRIST, would reward you in spirituals, for what you have done to me in temporals, and feed your foul with his heavenly graces, as plentifully as you have fed my body with nourifhing food. But as, in all probability, this will be the last letter I shall write to dear Mrs. H, before I fail, what can I fill the remainder with better, than by exhorting you, to lay afide every weight, particularly the fin that does most easily befet you, and fo run with patience the race fet before you. I fay, the fin that most eafily befets; for unlefs we lay the ax to the root, unlefs we fincerely refolve in the firength of JESUS CHRIST to fubdue our favourite, our darling paffion, and spare not one Agag, though ever fo engaging, ever fo beautiful, all our other facrifices will avail us nothing. Suppose therefore, for instance, PAs-SION be our greatest foible. A fincere perfon will never ceafe night or day, till he is made meek and lowly in heart. But if it be asked, how he shall do this? I answer, first, let him confider how odious it is in the fight of GoD, and how contrary to the lamb-like meekness of the holy JESUS. Secondly, Let him reflect how troublefome it must be to others, (for alas what unnecessary diforders, what needless troubles doth the paffionate perfon occasion to all that are round about him?)

27

him?) Thirdly, Let him confider how exceeding hurtful and unpleasant it is to himself; how it ruffics and discomposes his mind; unfits him for every holy duty, and in fhort makes him a torment to himfelf and a burden to others. Well, after he has thus feen the deformity of his darling paffion, the next enquiry must be, how to get the mastery over it. The first and grand thing, is to get a true and lively faith in CHRIST JESUS, feeking for it by earnest prayer. To this, we must have recourse in all our struggles; for it's God alone, who can subdue and govern the unruly wills of finful men, and it is his grace which alone can enable us to mortify our corrupt paffions. But then we must take care not to rest in general petitions for conquering this or that corruption; but muft descend to particulars. For instance, supposing I am angry with a fervant or hulband without a caufe ; What must I do? Why, take the very first opportunity of retiring from the world, and after having bewailed my being angry, earneftly befeech the LORD of all power and might to enable me to withstand fuch and fuch a provocation for the future, and notwithstanding I should fail again and again in the very fame instance, yet I would again and again renew my petitions to the throne of grace, and never cease praying and striving, till instead of a blind, perverse, troublesome passion, I had the lovely, calm, and delightful grace of meekness and humility planted in its room. Now would dear Mrs. H. take fome fuch method as this (for I suppose by this time, the guesses to whom all this points) I dare fay, the would quickly find as much difference in herself as there is between a wife man and an idiot .- And that fhe may both begin and fucceed in this method, is the earnest prayer of, Dear Mrs. H.

Your affectionate friend, &c.

G. W.

LETTER XXVI. To M. H.

My Dear Friend, I Thank you for your laft kind letter and kinder wifnes. May they be turned into prayers, and heard at the throne of grace. Bleffed be GoD for your new correspondence with our Oxford friends. I hope you will be instrumental to build each each other up in the knowledge and fear of our LORD and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, GOD still works powerfully here. People flock more than ever, and flew the fincerity of their hearts by giving liberally to the poor. I have preached four charity fermons within this little while, and the collections were larger than ever were known. Not unto me, O LORD. not unto me; but unto thy Name be the glory and praise thereof ! I am glad, fince its the divine will, that my brother is coming up, though my ability as to temporals you know is fmall. But I have an all-fufficient GoD to apply to in all emergencies. I am forry for for my brother's lofs; but I fear he must have greater, before he is awakened out of his spiritual lethargy. God fanctify all his dispensations to him, I know not why we go not to Georgia; but there is no likelihood of it yet, as I fee. Friends univerfally diffuade me from going by myfelf; but I hope it will not be long now. before we shall launch into the deep. To-night I preach again at Bow church, before the religious focieties. Gon opens my heart to compose freely. O praise him, dear Mr. H. for this and all his other mercies, conferred on, Dear Sir, Your and Mrs. H.'s affectionate friend,

G. W.

LETTER XXVII.

To the Same.

Deareft Sir. London, Oct. 25, 1737. MULTIPLICITY of bufiness prevented my writing WI to you before. But though you have not heard from me by letter, yet you may affure yourfelf, dear Sir, I never forget mentioning you in my prayers. God knows that I and fome other friends intercede most fervently for you, and very frequently even at midnight. May GOD, for CHRIST's fake, hear and answer them ! We fail not for Georgia this month. I suppose you have heard of my mighty deeds, falsely to called, by reading the news-papers; for I find fome backfriend has published abroad my preaching four times in a day; but I beleech Mr. Raikes, the printer, never to put mo into his news upon any fuch account again, for it is quite contrary to my inclinations and politive orders. God still works ٠.

works here. The collections for the charity fchools, in all the churches where I preach, are very large. All London is alarmed. Many youths here fincerely love our LORD JESUS CHRIST; and thoufands, I hope, are quickened, ftrengthened, and confirmed by the word preached. I was never in better health, and never composed more freely. O praife the LORD, dear Sir, and pray that I may not be felf-fufficient but humble. I am glad dear Mrs. H. is recovered. May fhe, with Peter's wife's mother, arife and minifter to JESUS CHRIST. GOD reward her for all her works and labours of love. Bleffed be GOD my hands are full of bufinefs. A third edition of my fermon on regeneration is coming out. Write to me quickly, accept my hearty thanks and love, and expect to hear again from, Dear Sir,

Ever your's,

G. W.

LETTER XXVIII.

To the Same.

Dear Sir,

Nov. 14, 1737.

Heartily thank you for your laft, and having a few moments, fit down to answer it. Let not my friends trouble - me with temporal offers, I shall accept (GOD affilting me) of no place this fide Fordan. We embark for Georgia in about three weeks or a month at farthest. You wish me good luck in the name of the LORD. I hope to fend to you again before I fail. Mr. M ---- n is going among ft she colliers again at Briflol, and a church, I hope, will be built for them. Prosper, O LORD, the work of his hands upon him !-- Mrs. Farmer, whenever my circumstances will admit, shall be paid all that is due to her on my mother's account. Gop still works more and more by my unworthy ministry. Last week, save one, I preached ten times in different churches; and the laft week feven; and yefterday four times, and read prayers twice, though I flept not above an hour the night before, which was fpent in religious conversation, and in interceding for you, Mrs. H., good Mr. Pauncefoot, &c. I now begin to preach charity fermons twice or thrice a week, befides two or three on Sundays, and fixty 64 or feventy pounds are collected weekly for the poor children." Thousands would come in to hear, but cannot. This night I preached a funeral fermon before a most crouded audience. and God. I believe, worked upon the people's hearts. O' pray for me still, dear Sir, that I may renew my strength. that I may walk and not be weary, run and not be faint. Admire God's free grace in CHRIST JESUS, and let his goodness to me, the worst of finners, strengthen your faith, and make you never to defpair of mercy. Farewell. My love to all, and am, Dear Sir, in fincerity, '

LETTERS.

Your friend, &c.

LETTER XXIX. To Mrs. H.

Dear Mrs. H.

London, Dec. 23, 1737. NCE more I fend you a line. Nothing but an excess of bufinels, should have prevented me writing to you oftner. Your favours, I hope, will never be forgotten, and never cease to be mentioned before the throne of grace. Gop only knows, how earnestly I have recommended you and your's to his never-failing mercy. On Wednefday night eighteen of us continued all night in praises, and praying for you and our other friends. I know, that paffion is the fin, which most cally befets you, and therefore I always pray that you may have grace given you to conquer it, and to learn of JESUS CHRIST to be meek and lowly in heart. Then, and not till then, you will find reft to your foul. Pardon me, dear Mrs. H. for being thus free. Your kindnefs compels me to it. Had I not a fincere regard for you, I should not express myself thus. Besides, it's the last time, perhaps, I shall write to you in this world, and therefore would have this letter contain some instructive hints. We fail, God willing, next week. Great things have been done for us here. Perhaps upwards of a thousand pounds have been collected for the poor, and the charity fchools, and I have preached above an hundred times, fince I have been here. A visible alteration is made also in hundreds. Last Sunday at fix in the morning, when I gave my farewell, the whole church was drowned in tears : they wept and cried aloud, as a mother weepeth weepeth for her first born. Since that, there is no end of perfons coming and weeping, telling me what GOD has done for their fouls : others again beg little books, and defire me to write their names in them. The time would fail me, was I to relate how many have been awakened, and how many pray for me. The great day will discover all. In the mean while. I befeech you Mrs. H. by the mercies of GOD to pray, that the goodness of GOD may make me humble. As yet the divine Arength has been magnified in my weakness. Many have opposed, but in vain. God's power conquers all. I am now going as Abraham did, not knowing whither I go; but I commit myself to the guidance of GoD's good providence and spirit. He that has and doth, will deliver me out of all my troubles. I only wifh, I could debafe myfelf low enough, that I might be more fitted for the high and lofty one who inhabiteth eternity, to work by. I am a proud, imperious, finful worm; but God, I hope, in time, will conform me to the image of his dear Son. He has begun (for ever adored be his free grace), and I truft, he will finish his good work in me. Out of the money that GOD has fent me, I will pay all the debts I can. I have fent fome of it to Mrs. Wells, with particular orders how to be difposed of; two guineas are for Mrs. Farmer towards the debt due to her from my mother. My farewell fermon will be published thortly, with two or three more. Dear Mrs. H. farewell. GOD reward you and your's for all your works of faith and labours of love, and grant we may to believe, and to live here, as to meet in eternal glory hereafter,

31

G. W.

> Ever your's, G. W.

LETTER XXX.

To Mr. H.

Margate, 7an. 9, 1738.

Dear Sir, TITHER the good providence of God has fafely brought us; our ship cast anchor near this town, and my dear fellow-traveller and I came on those (to our great comfort) to buy fome things we wanted. We have been most courteously treated by the curate of the place, and had some chriftian conversation. . The winds and storms are blustering about about our ears, and teaching us lesions of obedience to him, whom winds and ftorms obey. GOD give us grace to learn them. Mr. B. can inform you, what other particulars have happened to us, fince we left you; I need only add, that the divine goodness attends us wherever we go. Oh dear Sir! who would but leave their few ragged, tattered nets to follow JESUS CHRIST? Who would but follow the Lamb wherefoever he shall be pleafed to lead? Pray, dear Sir, that I may always do fo, and then, I am fure, God will never leave or forfake me. You fee, dear Sir, I have answered your kind letter much sooner than expectation, in order to express how fincerely I value your friendship, though you differ from me in some outward modes. Indeed, Sir, I hope the favours I have received from you and others of your christian brethren, will never go out of my mind; but I shall often plead them (as I have done already) at the throne of grace. I would willingly be of fo catholic a fpirit, as to love the image of my divine master, wherever I see it : I am far from thinking GoD's grace is confined to any fet of men whatfoever : no, I know the partition-wall is now broken down, and that JESUS CHRIST came to redeem people out of all nations and languages and tongues; and therefore his benefits are not to be confined to this or that particular fet of professions. I only with, that I may have grace given me to preach the truth, as it is in JESUS; and then, come what will, I hope I shall (as I do, bleffed be GOD) rejoice:

You know, Sir, what a defign I am going upon, and what a ftripling I am for fo great a work; but I ftand forth as David againft Goliab in the name of the LORD of HOSTS, and I doubt not, but he that has and doth, will ftill deliver unto the end. GOD give me a deep humility, a well-guided zeal, a burning love, and a fingle eye, and then let men or devils do their worft. Dear Sir, I could write more, but nature calls for reft. Be pleafed to give my hearty love to all you and I know, and acquaint them, how fafe I am here; for otherwife the tempeftuous night might put them and others in pain for, Dear Sir,

Your unworthy, though affectionate friend,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

Vol. I.

LETTER

LETTER XXXI. To Mrs. H.

Deal, 7an. 11, 1738. Dear Mrs. H. ITHER has God fafely brought us. Pray give thanks on my behalf. We have had two little ftorms, the one we escaped by being at Margate, the other we were enabled to bear manfully, and to pray for you and yours on open deck in the midst of it. All the officers are exceeding civil. The captain gives me the free use of his cabin, and fome impression is made on the foldiers. I read prayers and preach twice every day, and, would you think it, the very foldiers stand out to fay their catechism. Oh that they may be foldiers of JESUS CHRIST. God gives me great joy, and excites me to adore him more and more, when I behold his wonders in the deep. I am but a fresh-water failor; but God's strength will be magnified in my weaknefs, and I verily believe we shall arrive at the haven, where we wou'd be. Oh that we may all fo pafs thro' the waves of this troublefome world, that at last we may arrive at the port of everlasting reft ! Expect to hear from me at Gibraltar, and affure yourfelf your favours shall never be forgotten by

Your fincere friend,

G. W.

LETTER XXXII.

To Mr. _____.

Deal, Jan. 21, 1738. S UPPOSE I answer dear Mr. — before I reach Georgia, Will he be angry ? I fancy not. I had a mind to write to you again, before I received yours. For as you have been fo liberal in your prefents, it would be unpardonable in me, was I niggardly in my letters. No, my dear friend, I hope I never shall cease praying for you and yours, fo long as I live. Hitherto I have not. I was praying for you just as I received yours: I am glad to hear you prayed before you wrote to me. Surely GoD will blefs fuch a correspondence. O my friend, let us still wrestle with God, that we may be ftedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the LORD. For it is perfeverance crowns our labours. He, and He

He only can be faved. The world, the flefh and the devil are three such potent enemies, that we must strive, we must perfevere, if we will gain a conquest. Strive then; let us, my dear friend, ftrive as perfons ftriving for eternity. Let us abitain from all appearance of evil, and avoid all company. that doth not directly tend to the promoting our fpiritual welfare. Whether one of the focieties you frequent, my dear friend, has a tendency that way, I leave you to judge. I think I have heard you fay, it keeps you from family and fecret prayer. If that is not a sufficient reason for absenting from it, I'll fay no more. I believe you to be fincere, and therefore, if you confult GOD by prayer and reading his word, your way will be made clear before you. I only add, that I could wifh, inftead of frequenting that, you would fet up another fociety of a quite contrary nature on the fame night of the week. I know Mr. ---- had fome fuch defign on foot, and defired me to mention it. I with you good fuccefs in this and every pious undertaking in the name of the LORD. May GOD reward you for all your kindneffes, and make you to abound in every good word and work ! may you walk by faith and not by fight; and tho' you are in the world, may you not be of it! I preach here, GoD willing, to-morrow, there's likely to be a great congregation. O pray, that they may not be fent away empty, but converted by, dear Mr. -----,

Your affectionate friend,

G. W.

LETTÉR XXXIII.

Dear Sir,

Deal, Jan. 25, 1738. I Am ashamed of my ingratitude in not writing to you be-fore; but you'll not wonder I am ungrateful to my friends, when I tell you I am ungrateful to my GOD. However, as I always remark'd you for your charity, I know you will imitate Him you to refemble, and upon my promife of amendment for the future, will pardon what is paft. Oh dear Sir, how shall I express my gratitude to dear -----? But above all, what return shall I make to my ever-bleffed RE-DEEMER for all the favours he hath bestowed upon me ? Help, I entreat you, help me to be thankful, and as you abound in prayer, abound in praises." I find my heart too backward to D 2 to this divine exercife. I am ready enough to alk for mercies, but alas ! how flow to return thanks ! Indeed fometimes GOD touches me from above, and my heart, hard as it is, is melted down and quite overcome with the fense of his free grace in CHRIST JESUS towards me. But I want always to go on my way rejoicing; I want the heart of a feraphim;

LETTERS.

36

> I want to fing as loud as they, Who shine above in endless day.

I could almost fay more than they, and why fhould I not return angelic thanks? But my heart is as yet unhumbled, I fee not what I am, what I deferve, and therefore fet not a due value on the divine mercies. Pray therefore, dear Mr. ---that I may receive my fight, that my eyes may be opened. and that feeing what GOD hath done for me, I may break out into fongs of praife, and by fuch heart-transforming. divine exercises be gradually trained up for eternal uninterrupted communion with that heavenly choir, who ceafe not chanting forth day and night hallelujahs to Him that fitteth upon the throne and to the Lamb for ever. Dear Mr. -... I can relate to you fresh matter for praise and thanksgiving; a divine fire feems to be kindling in Deal. I preached on Sunday, and this day. The inhabitants are quite affectionate, and fo defirous to hear the word, at my private lodgings, as well as at public churches, that I am obliged to divide them into two companies. And GOD, bleffed be his free grace in CHRIST JESUS, helps me through. I suppose my dear friend has heard how affairs go on fhipboard. I need only add, that GOD makes his power to be known among those that fail with me, and there are great hopes of the captain's conversion. O pray, that he may not be an almost, but an altogether chriftian. Dear Mr. ----, farewell. It's late, and many other friends must have a line to-night. May GOD reward you for all kindneffes, and keep you stedfast unto the end. Pray return my hearty thanks to all your Brethren ; tell them I fincerely pray for their growth and perfeverance in holinefs, and am, dear Mr.

Your affectionate, tho' unworthy friend and fervant in CHRIST JESUS,

Digitized by Google

LETTER

G. W.

LETTER XXXIV.

Dear Mr. Gibraltar Harbour Feb. 24, 1738. T Blefs GOD for inclining your heart to take my advice. I I know it was intended well, and I hope proceeded from the spirit of God. The many fatal confequences I have daily feen, proceeding from conversing with lukewarm christians, makes me jealous of my dear friends, lest they fhould be infected by them; and the great tendency I find in my own heart to catch every infection, makes me to refolve for myfelf, and to put others on refolving to keep no fet company but with religious perfons. I hope by this time I may with you joy of fettling a new fociety with Meffrs. ---- ; and I doubt not but your hearts have already burnt within you, whilft you talked to one another of the scriptures of truth. I am fure there is fcarce a night has paffed over my head but I have wreftled with GOD for you, and prayed that he would profper this work of your hands upon you. My hearty defire and daily petition at the throne of grace is, that you may be faved; and tho' I know not much of your dear wife's temper, yet I pray, that fhe may be meek and lowly in heart, not eafily provoked, nor answer unnecessarily again. I pray, that you both may walk as Zachary and Elizabeth did before the LORD blameles, that you may love one another, as CHRIST and the church, and fee your children like olivebranches round about your table. I pray, that you may perfevere in the good way you have begun, that you may abftain from all appearance of evil, and dare to be exemplarily good. I pray, that you may practice an universal felf-denial, and perfect holines in the fear of God. I could fay much more, but must away to Gibraltar; one of the Majors of the regiments has fent for me, having provided a lodging at a merchant's house unknown to me. Oh admire God's goodness ! Aacept my thanks and love, and believe me to be, more than words can express,

Your affectionate friend in CHRIST,

G. W.

D 3

LETTER

LETTER XXXV. To Mr.

Gibraltar, Feb. 25, 1738, Dear Mr. ----, T Should think myself unworthy of your friendship, did I not fend you a line now GOD has brought me in fafety hither. I know you will give thanks, and therefore, God forbid I should fin against the LORD in not informing you of it.-Your prayers have already been heard; for GOD (ever adored be his free grace in CHRIST JESUS) hath been with us of a truth. He hath led us through the fea, as through a wilderness, and brought us to a haven, where I am honoured with many honours.-Any one that knows Gibraltar would be apt to fay, Can any good come out from thence ? Yes, I affure you, there may; for there are some that are not ashamed of the gospel of CHRIST. About fix o'clock this morning I went to the church, where was affembled a number of decent foldiers praying and finging plalms to CHRIST as GOD. They meet conftantly three times a day, and I intend, GOD willing, henceforward to meet them. For my delight is in the faints who are in the earth, and those that excel in virtue. I have talked with some of them, and, bleffed be Gon, can find the marks of the new birth in them. They pray without cealing, have overcome the world, hate fin, as fin, love their enemies and one another. They glory in the crofs of CHRIST, and rejoice that they are accounted worthy to fuffer fhame for the fake of CHRIST. O, who would but travel to fee how the spirit of God is moving on the faces of poor finners souls up and down the world ! GOD, I find, has a people every where; CHRIST has a flock, though but a little flock, in all places .---GOD be praifed, that we are of this flock, and that it will be our Father's good pleasure to give us the kingdom !-Gibraltar is bleffed with a governor, who hath not abfented himfelf from public worfhip, unlefs when he was fick, for thefe feven years, and yet is very moderate towards the diffenters. Both conformists and nonconformists perform public worship, though at different times of the day, in the fame place : They also have a religious fociety. The good LORD profper this work of their hands upon them. Whenever we go away, may we leave a bleffing behind us. He is a prayer-hearing GOD .-Yesterday

39

Yefterday a major of one of the regiments, unknown to me, took two handfome rooms, and fent for me from on board, defiring me to lodge in them; and I find the people of the houfe fear GoD.—" When I fent you without fcrip or fhoe, lacked you any thing?" faid our LORD. They faid nothing, —O, dear Mr. —, I befeech you abound in thankfgiving, and pray that all thefe bleffings may humble my proud heart, and make me willing to follow the Lamb whitherfoever he fhall lead me. Affure yourfelf, that you and all your chriftian frienda are conftantly prayed for by, dear Sir, > Your's most affectionately in the LORD JESUS, G. W.

LETTER XXXVI.

Gibraltar, Feb. 27, 1738. Dear Sir, VER fince I left Gravefend, I remember the fulness of your heart. I have been a constant petitioner at the throne of grace for you, and intended writing to you before, but was lett hitherto. However, GoD has now brought me fafe to Gibraltar, and as I have time, I should think myself inexcufable, did I not fend a line to dear Mr. -----, to affure him. I forgot not his tears, and with him to be not only an almost, but an altogether christian. Dear Sir, you are young and in the bloom of youth, and it would rejoice my heart to fee you triumph over the luft of the eye, the luft of the flefh, and the pride of life, and to become a poor defpifed fervant of JESUS CHRIST. Others, indeed, may wish you wealth, may with you pomp and grandeur ; but believe me, my dear friend. these will not, these cannot, make you happy : No, nothing but GOD can fatisfy the heart of man; nothing but an affurance, that we are born again, that we are members of CHRIST. that we are united to him by one and the fame fpirit with which he himfelf was actuated. Without this, if we were to have our appetites regaled with the richeft dainties, be cloathed with purple and fine linen, and fare fumptuoufly every day, yet the hand-writing upon the wall, the confideration, that all these things are quickly to be taken away, would make our vifage to change, and our knees, like Bel/hazzar's, to fmite one against another. Strive then, my dear friend, to get the D 4 fpirit 40 fpirit of CHRIST, who will keep clofe to you, when all other comforts fail; will make you happy here, and unfpeakably happy hereafter.—Never fear the contempt you will meet with; yet a little while, and they that call you fool, will call themfelves fo, and curfe that worldly wifdom, which tempted them to evade the crofs of CHRIST. Strange ! that any one fhould let a little reproach deprive them of an eternal crown ! LORD, what is man ! How blind as to the knowledge of his true intereft ! How backward in the purfuit of his eternal good ! O, dear Mr. ———, let us not be of the number of thofe, who defire the honour that cometh of man; but be content with that which cometh from GOD. In a fhort time, we fhall have praife enough. Heaven will echo with the applaufe that fhall be given to the true followers of the Lamb, and then you will fee how fincerely I was, dear Sir,

> Your affectionate friend and fervant, G. IV.

LETTER XXXVII.

To Mrs. H.

Dear Mrs. H. At Sea, April 14, 1738, THOUGH through excess of business, and the shortnels of the time, that was allotted me, I wrote but a few lines to you from Gibraltar, yet, what hinders, but that I may fend you a longer letter now ? It's true we are now near a thousand miles from Georgia; but as I shall have an opportunity of fending immediately on our arrival, I chufe to take time by the forelock, and embrace the first opportunity of acknowledging my obligations to dear Mrs. H. and her hufband'; for whom I pray withour ceafing. Your past favours are feldom out of my mind; I plead them daily before GoD in prayer, and hope, if it is ever in my power, I shall imitate the example of pious David in yesterday evening's first lesion, and requite my friends, particularly dear Mrs. H. and her spoule, for the kindneffes they have fhewn me. However, fuppoling this fhould not happen, they will in no-wife lofe their reward. But I know you do not care I fhould dwell on this. You want to be informed, how GOD has dealt with me fince I left Gibraltar ? Exceeding gracioufly indeed. He has contforted forted me on every occasion, most remarkably bleffed my unworthy ministry on board the ship, fent us most delightful weather, and made us to ride as it were on the wings of the wind. We live in perfect love and harmony one with ano-I know but little difference between fea and land, and ther. have great reason to bless GOD for fending me abroad. A grievous fickness has been sent amongst us, by which most of the thin have been chaftened and corrected but only two given over unto death; and GOD hath been fo good to me, that, except for a little time after we failed from Gibraltar, I have been in perfect health, and now GOD fatisfieth my mouth with good things, making me ftrong and lively as a young eagle. I have nothing to difturb my joy in GOD, but the diforder of my [paffions. Were these once brought into a proper subjection to divine grace, O well would it be with me, and happy fhould I be. But fo long as I am angry for trifles, and throw myfelf into needless diforders, fo long must my heart be like the troubled fea, fo long confequently must I be unhappy. Pray therefore, dear Mrs. H. that I may lay the ax of mortification to the root of my most darling corruptions, and fince I have but little, if any thing, to difturb me without, O pray that I may meet with no diffurbance from myfelf within. The farther particulars of my voyage, you will fee in my journal, which I have fent to Mr. Hutton, and for the bleffings contained therein, I befeech you to return GoD most humble and hearty thanks. About Christmas next, GOD willing, I purpole to come to England to take priefts orders, and to return as foon as poffible to Georgia. In the mean while, dear Mrs. H. let us firive to enter in at the firait gate, that we may be christians indeed, and know what it is truly to be born again from above, and to be renewed by the fpirit in our minds. Remember me most affectionately to all friends. I am, Your's, &c.

LETTERS.

G. W.

LETTER XXXVIII.

To Mr. ____.

Dear Mr. —, On board the Whitaker, April 17, 1738. T O affure you I do not forget you, I write to you, as yet, eight hundred, miles off fhore. Your honest heart has won

41

won my affections. I make mention of you and your's continually at the throne of grace in my prayers, and fhall have no greater pleafure than to hear you walk in the truth. In your laft, I think you faid, you would defift from frequenting any other focieties, but what immediately tended to the promoting of true religion, and ere now, I doubt not but you have feen the benefit of it. I have often pleased myself with the hopes, that you, dear Mr. _____, had fet up another fociety among yourfelves, and often have I thought, I felt the benefit of your prayers; for GOD hath bleffed me exceedingly, and brought us on our way rejoicing; and has thewn me, that he doth not fend me abroad in vain.-How Gop will deal with me at Savannah, I know not; however, let my friends be always lifting up their hands in interceffion, and then our spiritual Amalek will not prevail. Hitherto I have been made to go on from conquering to conquer. God gives me a chearful fpirit, and crowns my feeble labours with fuccefs. And why should I despair of future affiftance? Are not these earnests of future mercies? And may I not expect, when I am duly prepared, to fee greater things than these? Cry therefore mightily unto the LORD, that I may be humble, and that I may tremble at his word, and then he will delight to honour me. I live in hopes of feeing you and your wife again (growing in grace) in England. You told me, the defired I would draw her picture ; but alas! fhe has applied to an improper limner. However, though I cannot defcribe what fhe is, I can tell what fhe ought to be .- Meek, patient, long-fuffering, obedient in all things, not felf-willed, not foon angry, no brawler, fwift to hear, flow to fpeak, and ready to every good word and work. But I can no more, I dare not go on in telling another what the ought to be, when I want fo much myfelf ; only this I know, when possefied of those good qualities before-mentioned, she will then be as happy as her heart can with, and afford great reason of thanksgiving to, dear Mr.

> Your and Mrs. ——'s affectionate friend, G. W.

> > Digitized by Google

LETTER

LETTER XXXIX. To Mr. -----.

R

c

Ņ

ŗ

q

٦

Q

G

C

.

N,

ġ,

N)

nl.

11

N

d,

ID)

ĩ

i

i

t;

ĩ,

b

ŗ,

ø

18 ht

1

l

)1

ľ.

R

On board the Whitaker, May 6, 1738. My dear Friend. TOW goes time? I can fcarce tell; for I have been fome time paft, as one would think, launching into eternity. GOD has been pleased graciously to visit me with a violent fever, which he notwithstanding fo fweetened by divine confolations, that I was enabled to rejoice and fing in the midft of Indeed, I had many violent conflicts with the powers of it. darknefs, who did all they could to difturb and diftract me: but JESUS CHRIST prayed for me : And though I was once reduced to the laft extremity, and all fupernatural affiftance feemed to be suspended for a while, and fatan as it were had dominion over me, yet GOD fuffered not my faith to fail; but came in at length to my aid, rebuked the tempter, and from that moment I grew better. Surely God is preparing me for fomething extraordinary: For he has now fent me fuch extraordinary conflicts and comforts as I never before experienced. I was as I thought on the brink of eternity. I had heaven within me; I thought of nothing in this world; I earneftly defired to be diffolved and go to CHRIST ; but GOD was pleafed to order it otherwife, and I am refigned, though I can scarce be reconciled to come back again into this vale of mifery. I had the heavenly Canaan in full view, and hoped I was going to take possession of it; but GOD faw I was not yet ripe for glory, and therefore in mercy fpared me, that I may recover my fpiritual ftrength before I go hence and am no more seen. Oh pray, my dear friend, that I may not grow lukewarm, or flothful, but arife from my late bed of fickness, and administer with ten times more alacrity to my blessed Mafter, than ever I did before. I would write more, but my firength faileth me. We hope to be at Savannab on Monday.

Your's,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

43

LETTERS.

LETTER XL.

To Mr. H.

Savannah, June 10, 1738. · Dearest Sir, A BOUT five weeks I have been at Savannah, where reprovidence feems to intend continuing me for fome time. God has graciously visited me with a fit of fickness; but now I am lively as a young eagle. All things have happened better than expectation. America is not fohorrid a place as it is reprefented to be. The heat of the weather, lying on the ground, &c. are mere painted lions in the way, and to a foul filled with divine love not worth mentioning. The country, mornings and evenings, is exceeding pleafant, and there are uncommon improvements made (confidering the indifference of the foil) in divers places. With a little affiftance the country people would do very well. As for my ministerial office, I can inform you, that GOD (fuch is his goodnefs) fets his feal to it here, as at other places. We have an excellent chriftian school, and near a hundred constantly attend at evening prayers. The people receive me gladly, as yet, into their houses, and seem to be most kindly affected towards me. T / have a pretty little family, and find it poffible to manage a houfe without diffraction. Provisions we do not want to feed on, though we are cut off from all occasions to pamper our bodies. Bleffed be God, I visit from house to house, catechife, read prayers twice and expound the two fecond leffons every day; read to a house-ful of people three times a week; expound the two leffons at five in the morning, read prayers and preach twice, and expound the catechilm to fervants, &c. at feven in 'the evening every Sunday. What I have most at heart, is the building an orphan-houle, which I truft will be effected at my return to England. In the mean while, I am fettling little schools in and about Savannah; that the rifing generation may be bred up in the nurture and admonition of the LORD. The LORD profper my weak endeavours for promoting his glory and his people's good. Oh, dear Mr. H. pray for me. For I do, indeed I do, pray for you and your's. Remember me to dear Mrs. H. and exhort her to perfect holinefs in the fear of Remind Mr. W-----, (fince he will not hearken GOD. to

I

L E T T E R S.

to me) to work out his falvation with fear and trembling, and beg him to pray for, though he will not write to, dear Mr. H.

Ever, ever your's,

G. W.

Kilrush, (Ireland) Nov. 16, 1738. Dear Mr. ----, T Have not forgot you; and as a proof of it, fend you this to acquaint you of my fafe arrival here. I know you will rejoice and give thanks, and pray that my coming to London may be in the fulnefs of the bleffing of the gospel of peace. Gop has done for me more abundantly than I could dare afk or think. The feed of the glorious gofpel has taken root in the American ground, and, I hope, will grow up into a great tree. By my friends prayers I believe it hath been planted. Oh that they may continue to water it with the fame means, and then our great GOD will give it an effectual increase.-I hope to see you in a few days at my old lodgings, and to rejoice with you for what GOD has done for our fouls. Indeed, I have felt his power; I have tafted and known of a truth, that the LORD is gracious! America, infant Georgia, is an excellent foil for christianity; you cannot live there without taking up a daily crofe. Therefore, I shall haften back as foon as possible after Christmas. Oh! that, in the mean while, I may be enabled to be inftant in feason and out of season, and preach with demonstration of the spirit, and with power! Methinks I see Mr. ----- lifting up his eyes towards heaven, and filently faying, Amen.-I hope you will excufe Mr. D.'s letter. I have forgot his house, though not his person and his love. No, all your kindnesses, O my friends, are engraven upon my heart, and I truft will never be forgotten by, dear Sir,

Your affectionate friend and humble fervant,

G. W.

LETTER

45

LETTER XLII.

To Mr. H.

London, Dec. 30, 1738.

Am appointed by the truffees to be minister of Savannab. The bishop of London (Doctor Gibson) accepts the title, and has given me letters demisory to any other bishop. I have waited also on Doctor Secker, bishop of Oxford, who acquaints me that our worthy diocefan, good Bifhop Benfon. ordains for him to-morrow fortnight at Oxford, and that he will give me letters demisory to him. GOD be praifed; I was praying night and day, whilst on ship-board, if it might be the divine will, that good Bishop Benson, who laid hands on me as a deacon, might now make me a priest.-And now my prayer is answered .- Be pleased to wait on his Lordship, and defire him to inform you, when I must be at Oxford in order to receive imposition of hands. Oh pray that I may be duly prepared. It will be a month before I can fee Gloucefler. I long to fee you. I love you and your's in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST; but I have scarge time to subscribe myself. dear Sir.

Your's eternally,

G. W.

LETTER XLIII.

To the Same.

London, Jan. 27, 1739.

T F I forget Mr. H. and his wife, may my right-hand forget her cunning. Excefs of bufinefs alone was the caufe of my filence. I fleep but little, very little. Had I a thoufand hands, I could employ them all. I fcarce know what it is to have an idle moment. It is late now. I have juft been expounding. God fills me with his fpirit, and I must redeem a little time to write to dear Mr. H. Indeed, indeed I love you in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST. O when shall I return your past favours ! I thank you for bleffing God on my behalf. I want a thoufand tongues to praife him. He still works by me more and more. Subfcriptions for erecting an orphanhouse come in a-pace. On Monday sevennight, God willing,

My dear Friend,

Dear Sir,

I fet out for Briflel, with Mr. Seward, and from thence propole coming to Gloucefter. Oh that it may be in the fulnels of the bleffing of the golpel of peace! Mr. Howel Harris, and I, are correspondents, bleffed be God! May I follow him, as he does JESUS CHRIST. How he outfirips me! Fye upon me, fye upon me. How does my brother? My love to him and all. I long to fee you and yours, and to give you repeated affurances of my being, dear Sir,

Your's eternally,

G. W.

47

LETTER XLIV.

To the Mr. -----

Dear Sir, E

¢

2

3

ø

C,

N a ir ű

d ł

į

(

1

1

Basing floke, Feb. 8, 1739.

HOUGH I defired you to write first, yet the love I bear you, will not fuffer me to wait fo long before you hear from me .- Just now has GOD brought us to Bafing floke, where I hope an effectual door will be opened before we leave it, as well as at Windfor .-- Oh my dear friend, more and more do I fee the benefit of confessing our bleffed LORD before men.-You have not been ashamed of the cross.-No, dear Mr. ---- has put his hand to the plough ; he will not, furely he cannot look back; but JESUS CHRIST alone can keep me and my dear friend from falling. He has begun and he will carry on, he will finish the good work in our souls.-We have nothing to do, but to lay hold on him by faith, and to depend on him for wildom, righteoulnels, fanctification and redemption. Not but we must be workers together with him; for a true faith in JESUS CHRIST will not fuffer us to be idle .- No, it is an active, lively, reftless principle; it fills the heart, so that it cannot be easy, till it is doing fomething for JESUS CHRIST. -Methinks I hear my dear friend crying out, "LORD, evermore give me this faith !" Believe me, I heartily fay, Amen. Afk then, my dear Sir, and it fhall be given you, feek and ftrive for it, and yet a little while and I shall see you a new creature; your heart I hope is fomewhat broken already .--- All praife be to GoD's free grace in CHRIST .- Go on, my dear friend, and never cease till you know you are CHRIST's, by the spirit that shall be given you. Never-fear your carnal friends, renounce them 5 them and every thing elfe that flands in competition with your duty to GoD.—What have we to do to know any one after, the flefh ? Let him, who doth the will of our Father in heaven, be our brother, our fifter, our mother. For this reafon I subscribe myfelf, dear Sir,

Your's most affectionately in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER XLV.

To Mr. H____. Oxon, April, 24, 1739. Dear Mr. H-___, DLESSED be God for working upon your heart by my D ministry. I hope the wish'd-for time will come, when I shall fee you full of faith and the Holy Ghost. Copies may be taken of my letter; but I would not have it printed, because I intend, when retir'd from the world, to make some difcourses on the subject of free grace. Pray acquaint your mother, that I interceded for her folemnly last night. I befought GOD, that fhe might have het Saviour revealed in her heart : that is the only way to get above the fears of death. Chrift in us is the hope of glory. I rejoice to hear Mr. Cole builds' you up in your most holy faith. I exhort you to go on, and who knows but dear Mr. H. may, under Gon, keep up religion in Gloucester. Mr. Kinchin's conduct in fearing the church, and giving up the parfonage, has fadly grieved the spirit of many good souls here; but I bless God they are now a little comforted. Oh dear Mr. H-, my heart is drawn towards London most strangely. Perhaps you may hear of your friend's imprisonment. I expect no other preferment. God grant I may behave fo, that when I fuffer, it may not be for my own imprudencies, but for righteousness fake, and then I am fure the spirit of CHRIST and of glory will reft upon my foul. Oh dear Mr. H-, I befeech you, break off from the world. Shake off every fetter that keeps your foul from GOD, and then how will it rejoice the heart of, dear Sir,

Your's eternally,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

LETTERS.

LETTER XLVI.

To the Same.

London, April 27, 1730. Dear Mr. H— T Rejoice to hear of the affection of my countrymen. It is a good fign, that the word has taken deep root in their hearts. But above all, do I rejoice that dear Mr. H- is truly fenfible of the free grace of GOD in CHRIST. Now, my dear friend, you will-begin to be a chriftian indeed. Bleffed be God, I hear my honoured M----- is becoming a fool for CHRIST's fake. I do not despair of Mr. W. nay, I cannot despair of any one, when I confider, what I once was myfelf. Let but GOD speak the word, and the work shall be done. I always hope well of oppofers. To-day, my mafter by his providence and fpirit compelled me to preach in the church-yard at Islington. To-morrow I am to repeat that mad trick, and on Sunday to go out into Moor Fields. The word of the LORD runs and is glorified. Peoples hearts seem quite broken. GOD firengthens me exceedingly. - I preach till I fweat through and through. All is well at Savannah. Brave news from Gibraltar. Innumerable bleffings does GOD pour down upon me. Oh that I had a thankful heart. I love you both fincerely; I thank you both heartily. I falute all our dear friends most affectionately, and am, dear Sir,

Ever, ever yours,

G. W.

LETTER XLVII.

To the Same.

Dear Mr. H— London, May 10, 1739. T HE hour for my imprifonment is not yet come. I am not fit as yet to be fo highly honoured. God only knows the treachery of my heart; but amidft all my late fuccels, I have fcarce felt one felf-complacent thought. I fpeak this to the honour of God's free grace. In about three weeks, God willing, we embark for Penfilvania. The truftees have granted to me land and every thing upon my own terms; the officers and general are exceeding kind to my friend Haberfham upon my account, fo that all things fucceed beyond my expectations. I am forry to hear Vol. I.

2

50

of Mr. W-----'s conduct--Poor man! The love of money is rooted in his heart. Where is the honefty he fo much boafts of and relies on ? Does not this more and more convince you that nothing but a true faith in JESUS CHRIST will enable you to act aright? However, he is not to be envyed. I pity him. Money, thus got, will never prosper. I rejoice that you and your spoule are content. I wish you both may have JESUS CHRIST formed in your hearts, and am > Ever, ever yours, &c. G. W.

LETTER XLVIII.

To -

My dear Brethren in CHRIST, Blendon, June 12, 1739. Am jealous over you with a godly jealoufy, and therefore L write to you this fecond letter. I find more and more that fatan has defired to have fome of you in particular, that he may fift you as wheat, and will strive if possible to divide and separate you all .--- I hear there is a woman among you, who pretends to the fpirit of prophecy, and what is more unaccountable, I hear that Brother ---- (whom I love in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST) feems to approve of her. Need therefore, great need have you, my brethren, at this time to take the apofile's advice, and to try the fpirits whether they be of GoD. For the devil is beginning to mimic GoD's work, and because terrors will not do, he is now transforming himfelf into an angel . of light in order more effectually to gain his point. Brother ----- alfo, I cannot but think, at present is under a spirit of delusion. He, as well as brother -----, I believe imagines there will be a power given to work miracles, and that now CHRIST is coming to reign a thousand years upon the earth .-- But alas! what need is there of miracles, fuch as healing fick bodies, and reftoring fight to blind eyes, when we fee greater miracles every day done by the power of God's word ?. Do not the fpiritually blind now fee? Are not the fpiritually dead now raifed, and the leprous fouls now cleans'd, and have not the poor the gospel preached unto them ? And if we have the thing already, which fuch miracles were only intended to introduce, why fhould we tempt GoD in requiring further figns?

figns ? He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. And as for our LORD's coming at this time to reign upon the earth, I answer, it is not for us to know the times and seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power .- That a great work is begun is evident, that it will be carried on I doubt not; but how it will end. I know not, neither do I defire to know. It is fufficient for me to do the work of the day in its day. and to reft fatisfied in this, that all will end in GOD's glory. Lately, brother ---- told me he. was fhortly, he believed, to be called to fome public work.-I pray GOD he may not run before he is called. To teach, I know, is a pleafing thing ; but to begin to teach too foon or without a commission, will be destruction to ourselves, and of ill confequence to others. Uzzah might mean well, when he touched the ark, but his good intention did not preferve him from the just judgments of GOD. Be not many maîters, fays the apostle. Oh that that verse was deeply engraven on the tables of our hearts ! My dear brethren, be not offended at this plainnefs of speech. I would all the LORD's fervants were prophets, but then F would not have people think themfelves prophets of the LORD, when they are only enthuliafts-If Mr. ---- is acted by a good spirit, why is he not patient of reproof? Why does he fly in a paffion, when contradicted ? why does he pretend to be infallible, and that God always speaks in him? May GOD give us all a right judgment in all things. Pure unfeigned love caufes me to use this freedom. Many of you GOD has worked upon by my ministry, and therefore I would not have you ignorant of fatan's devices. O beware of him at this time. Do not conceive prejudices against each other. Do not difpute, but love; purge out the old leaven from amongst you. Have no fellowship with any that converse with Mr. ----- If they have a mind to depart from you, let them depart. Do you build up each other in your most holy faith. My dear brethren,

I am your common servant in our dear LORD JESUS,

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER XLIX.

To the Rev. Mr. ____

Leachlade, July 18, 1739. Dear Sir, HE scene this morning much affected me; you both put me in mind, how that happy pair, Adam and Eve, looked when arraign'd by the Almighty after having eaten the forbidden fruit. Behold the fame remedy reached out to your as to them. - The feed of the woman shall bruile the serpent's head.-Look up to him whom you have pierced.-He will heal your backflidings and love you freely-Had he not loved you both, both of you ere now would have been given over to a reprobate mind. I know the time, when you both were enlightned, when you tafted the good word of GOD, and felt the powers of the world to come.-Honour, fallely fo called, has caused you to draw back, but I believe not unto perdition. JESUS is still striving with your heart. Come to him by faith, renounce the world, and he will yet delight to honour you. " Now is the accepted time, now is the day of falvation." Mention not old things, let all things become new. I love both of you from my heart. Come forth, and be ye feparate, faith the LORD almighty. Break with the world at once, and you shall become fools for CHRIST's fake. What if your wife fent fome fuch letter as the following to her parents.

Honoured Father and Mother,

THE contents of this letter will furprize you, but I can no longer halt between GoD and the world; the happy convictions, that GoD once put into my heart, now arife in my mind, I will no longer be an almost chriftian. I am refolved to become a fool for CHRIST'S fake. Bleffed be GoD Mr. M— is like-minded.—Hitherto have I hindered him in his fpiritual progress, GoD forbid I should do it any longer. Hence forward will we go hand in hand together, and naked follow a naked CHRIST.—

Dearest Mr. ----, I am ever yours, G. W.

Digitized by Google

LETTER

LETTER L.

London, July 23, 1739. YOUR letter filled me with joy and with pity. Pity, to fee you tempted joy to fee Dear Madam. you tempted, joy, to find you are thought worthy of enduring temptation. Satan hath defired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat. But be not afraid, JESUS CHRIST is praying for you, and your faith shall not fail. Your master hath been in the wilderness before you, and knows by experience, how to fuccour those that are tempted. Lift up then the hands that hang down, and ftrengthen the feeble knees. Infidel books have poifoned your understanding, and rivetted great pride therein. Strong temptations are necessary to mortify that pride, and to teach you that lowlinefs of heart, which our LORD calls all that are weary and heavy laden to learn of him. Look up then to JESUS, the author and finisher of your faith. He will fend you help in every time of need. Indeed he will never leave you, nor forsake you. Follow him as the poor Syrophænician woman did, and though he may now turn away his face feemingly for a while, yet he will always support you inwardly by a living faith, and shortly give you the fpirit of adoption, whereby you will be enabled to cry, "Abba, Father." I speak this by happy experience. I have mourned, but now I am comforted. I have gone through the fpirit of bondage, and, for ever be adored GoD's free ; grace, he has given me the spirit of adoption. And that you also will have this in GOD's due time and way, is the firm belief of

.

;

2

e

Your unworthy brother, and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER LI.

Dear Mr. H— London, July 23, 1739. I Wifh you joy of your new-born fon. Oh that it may be made a real child of GoD. I purpole, God willing, to fland to my promile, either in perfon, or by proxy. I know not yet, how providence will be pleafed to difpole of me. I have written to the Lords of the Admiralty for a licence. Saturday evening next, I hope you will fee Mr. Charles Wefley. He intends to preach at Gloucefter, Raindwick, &c. E 3

Pray defire Mr. Cole and our other dear friends to appoint places. Matters go on most bravely here. I think people are ten times more affected than ever. The audiences full and numerous, and they give their mites for the orphan house with a chearful and ready heart. Have you heard how I preached upon the stage among the cudgel players at Basing floke, and got a blow? Both I and my companions were also turned out of our inn, and in danger of being beaten heartily. Blessed be GOD! My fermon comes out on Wednefday. Heartiest love to dear Mrs. H—. That JESUS CHRIST may be fully formed in both your hearts, is the prayer of,

Ever, ever yours,

G. W.

LETTER LII.

Honoured Sir,

54

London, July 24, 1739.

HOUGH but a child in grace, and a novice in the things of GoD, yet I could not escape this opportunity of fhewing you, how dear you are to my foul. Though unknown in perfon, yet you have long fince been known to me in spirit. I hoped to have seen you ere I left London. I hafted up to town hoping to have fome fpiritual gift imparted to me by that means, but I was not worthy of it, I was not prepared for fuch a bleffing .- You went before I came. A great work of GOD is doing here. The LORD JESUS gets himself the victory every day; free grace compels poor finners to come in. Our brother ---- can inform you of particulars. As for my own foul, Gop mightily strengthens me in the inward man, and gives me often fuch foretaftes of his love, that I am almost continually withing to be diffolved, that I may be with CHRIST. -But I am only beginning to begin to be a chriftian.-I muft fuffer also, as well as do for my dear Master. Perhaps a storm is gathering. I believe GOD will permit it to fall on my head first .- This comes then, honoured Sir, to defire your prayers, that none of those things may move me; and that I may not count even my life dear unto me, fo that I may finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I have received of the LORD JESUS. Though I die for him, yet, I befeech you, honoured Sir, to pray that I may not in any way deny him. But what am am I doing? I fear, honoured Sir, I am too free. A fenfe of your humility and love for the bleffed JESUS makes me thus open. How fhould I rejoice, if you would honour me with a line.—I am young, and therefore a word of exhortation and advice, would much profit, honoured Sir,

Your very humble fervant, in our dear LORD JESUS, G. W.

LETTER LIII.

London, July 25, 1739. Dear Sir. TOT a want of love, but of time, has obliged me to fhorten N my late letters. Had I an hundred hands I could employ them all. The harveft is very great. I am ashamed I can do no more for him, who hath done fo much for me; not by way of retaliation, but gratitude. Fain would I love my mafter, and will not go from him; his fervice is perfect free. dom; his yoke is easy, his burden light. Still he is pleafed to shew us greater things. Every day affords fresh instances of the power of his word. I am now about to attack fatan in one of his ftrong-holds, if I perifh.-To-night I preach, God willing, where an horfe-race is to be. I find my Master ftrengthens me for the work. O, dear Sir, pray for me, that my faith fail not, and that my zeal be tempered with knowledge. Our brother ---- will prove an agreeable correspondent. If bufiness prevents my writing, he will inform you what happens from time to time to, dear Sir,

> Your most affectionate in CHRIST JESUS, G. W.

LETTER LIV.

Rev. Sir, London, July 26, 1739. JUST now I received your kind letter, and am endeavouring to catch a few moments to anfwer it. I thank you for your encouraging hints. O! dear Sir, continue to exhort, and provoke me to love and to good works, that I may with patience run the race that is fet before me. Hitherto my dear Mafter. magnifies his ftrength in my weaknefs. Ever fince he honoured me to fuffer a little reproach for his name's fake, at Bafing foke, he has caufed me to rejoice with exceeding great joy. E 4 My fpirit was ftirred within me. Methinks I could willingly have died to have borne my testimony against the lying vanities, and devilish entertainments of this generation. By the help of my Master, I will go on and attack the devil in his strongest holds. O pray, dear Sir, that my zeal may be always tempered with true christian prudence. It would grieve me, should I bring sufferings causeletsly upon myself. A trying time, perhaps, is at hand. O that I may be found faithful I If providence permits, I will perform my promise. I am blind, I am a child, I know nothing. I only defire the whole will of Gon may be done, in, by, and upon, dear Sir,

Your unworthy brother and fellow-labourer in our dear LORD JESUS,

G. W.

LETTER LV.

London, July 26, 1739.

I Received your kind letter, but muft beg to be excufed from diffuading your fon to go with ——. The employment in which he is engaged will, in the end, if faithfully improved, tend much to GoD's glory and his own good. He now fits by me; I read over your letter to him, and he continues as refolute as ever. The being difinherited does not terrify him at all. He has a more abiding inheritance, and is willing naked to follow a naked CHRIST.—Dear Sir, let me advife you to do nothing rafhly. If you can pray for a bleffing on your will when you are about to difinherit your fon, I fhall wonder. Have a little patience, and then you will find that your fon is about to act wifely. If I thought otherwife, no one would be more forward to diffuade him, than, Sir,

> Your very humble fervant, G. IV.

LETTER LVI.

London, July 31, 1739.

O H that my head was water and my eyes fountains of tears, that I might weep over my dear Mr. _____. What ? And has my familiar friend, who has been dear to me as my own foul, has he taken part with, and gone back to the enemy ?

Digitized by Google

56

Sir.

enemy? Surely it cannot be !-And yet I must believe it.--But if any one had told my dear friend, that he would have behaved thus, would he not have cried out, " Is thy fervant a dog that he should do this ?" Oh, my dear friend, I am in pain for you! Alas! who hath bewitched you, that you should not obey the truth ? You did run well; who, or what hath hindered you ! Not a fear of man, I hope; not a defire of that praife, that cometh of man. I know the time when my dear friend's heart flood fledfast. I know the time when my dear friend was willing to be accounted a fool for CHRIST's fake, and chose rather to fuffer affliction with the people of GOD, than to enjoy the pleafures of fin, of falle politeness, for a feason. And why should I despair of my dear friend now? No, I know JESUS CHRIST was fet for the falling and rifing again of many in Ifrael. Our LORD, I truft, has prayed for you, and I hope your faith will not totally fail. Forgive me, I must stop and figh: GOD forbid I should be called, at the great day, to fay, that my dear Mr. ----- put his hand to the plough and turned back unto perdition. Good GOD ! the thought strikes me as though a dart was shot through my liver. Return, return. My dear friend, I cannot part from you for ever. Do not speak peace to your foul, when there is no peace. Do not turn factor for the devil. Do not prejudice or hurt my brother, and thereby add to the grief you have already occafioned

Your most affectionate friend and servant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER LVII.

My dear Brother, Briftol, July 31, 1739. BLESSED be God for bringing you in fafety home.— He is a God hearing prayer. May he fanctify our meeting. I hope to fee you here this week. I fhall fet out for Deāl on Monday.—I long to hear how the foul of my dear brother profpers.—I long to embrace you in these unworthy arms.—Methinks I could now fing my nunc dimittis with pleasure, if my eyes could fee my dear brother's falvation. I, hope you have conversed with Mr. Wesser. It will require fome degree of boldness to own either of us before men. God vouchsafes vouchfafes to honour us : No wonder our names are caft out as evil.—Dear Mr. —, I hear, is ftaggered with the fear of man.—Sifter, I truft, is in a good way. When fhall I fee you? Come, Oh come and warm my heart, by telling me what GOD hath done for your foul. Eternity will be too fhort to praife him for what he has done for > Your affectionate brother, G. W.

58

LETTER LVIII.

Reverend and dear Sir, London, August 3, 1739. HIS morning I received yours, and though I leave London this evening, yet I cannot but fnatch a few moments to fend you an anfwer. I love all that love our LORD JESUS CHRIST. The spirit of CHRIST, with me is the center. I love the man, and you in particular, though in all things he may not follow with me. I rejoice there is a revival of true religion in Scotland. The spirit of GOD is moving on the faces of thousands of fouls in England. The word runs very fwift, and fatan falls like lightning from heaven. God hath fent me into the highways and hedges, to compel poor finners to come in; many are left to water, what GOD hath been pleafed to plant; I doubt not of his giving a great increafe. But I am a child, I cannot speak, yet GOD will magnify his free grace. GOD will work, and all oppofitions must forward, but not hinder it .- Inclosed I have fent you a fermon just published.-You may judge of my principles from that. The picture I highly honour.-May I follow them as they follow CHRIST. I am no friend to finless perfection .-- I believe the being (though not the dominion) of fin remains in the hearts of the greatest believers .- Time and business will not give me leave to enlarge.-Befides, I am but a novice in the school of CHRIST; and therefore most earnestly beg your prayers, that I may grow in the knowledge of our common LORD. At his call, I am now going abroad, and expect to fuffer many things ere I return home.-Reverend and dear Sir, I wish you much success in the name of the LORD, and am

Your brother and fervant in the beft bonds,

G. W. LETTER

LETTERŠ.

LETTER LIX.

London, August 3, 1739. Dear Sir, T Cannot leave London without answering your last letter. I am convinced that GOD calls me now to Georgia, and fo are our friends. God's ways are like the great deep .- He will go a way by himfelf. Exitus acta probat. The prophecy you mention, I dare not apply to myself. What am I, that GOD fhould fo delight to honour me? However, I believe the LORD will work a great work upon the earth. Whatever inftruments he shall make use of in effecting it, I care not. If CHRIST be preached, if my dear LORD be glorified, I rejoice; yea, and will rejoice. I wish all the LORD's fervants were prophets. Oh, dear Sir, my heart is now melted down with a fense of the divine love! Never was a greater instance of GOD's free grace in CHRIST. What am I, O LORD, that thou shouldest delight to honour me ? Even so, Father, for so it feemeth good in thy fight ! Dear Sir, I could now write all day; but other business demands my attendance .--- Yet a little . while, and we shall fit down in the kingdom of GOD for ever. Dear Sir adieu. Oh give thanks, give thanks, and pray for Your's most affectionately in CHRIST JESUS, G. W.

LETTER LX.

Blendon, August 6, 1739.

A ND would not dear Mr. —— ftay for my laft letter ? What, is he retired into the country to learn how to forget his GOD ? Is he got into favour with the polite world ? Are not thefe fad fymptoms, that my deareft Mr. —— is falling away a-pace ? He runned into one extreme lately, and now fatan is driving him into another. Did not I forwarn you of this ? O my dear friend, my brother, return to your firft love, otherwife you will find the fpirit of GOD deferting you more and more every day. Nemo repente fuit turpiffimus. But I can fay no more.—Perhaps I am troublefome. However, give me leave to weep. Permit me to pray for you. Though you are now dead comparatively, yet, I truft, you will be alive. alive. Though now feemingly loft, yet furely you shall be found again. God only knows how fuch news would rejoice the heart of, dear Sir,

> Your affectionate friend in the beft bonds, G. W.

LETTER LXI.

Dear Mr. — August 7, 1739. Thank you most heartily for your last: Had you been more particular, I should have thanked you still more. May GOD reward you for watching over my foul! Pride and selfisshnels are the tempers of the devil. By the help of my GOD I will never rest till my Master gives me power to overcome them. It is difficult, I believe, to go through the fiery trial of popularity and applause untainted. Blessed be GOD, I am now sweetly retired. O help me, my dear Sir, by your prayers, as well as your advice, and believe me defirous to subscribe myself, > Your's most affectionately in our dear LORD JESUS, G. W.

LETTER LXII.

On board the Elizabeth, Gravefend, August 14, 1739. Reverend and dear Sir, TOUR kind letter gave me much fatisfaction. It breathed the language of one, who is a Boanerges in the church Excess of buliness prevented my answering it sooner. of God. As I am now retired from a public life, I truft I shall have time to try my heart and fearch out my spirit. Forget me not, dear Sir, when you are praying for all those, who travel by land and by water, when ftorms and winds are blowing over I hope I shall always carry you, and others of my dear me. friends in Wales, upon my heart, whenever I go in and out before the LORD. It would rejoice my foul to hear from you, when abroad. Exhort me, oh exhort me, to be valiant for the truth. Bid, oh bid me, dear Sir, to be mindful of a dying and rifen Jesus .- Bid me to remember the riches of his free grace in pulling me as a brand out of the fire, and exhort me to lay down my life for his fake.-Brother Harris, I find, has come

j, ż

.

5. 11

2

0 cr.

:: |::

ΪĊ.

2

Ľ,

ć

Ē

Ņ

come off triumphantly.—The hour of fuffering is not yet come. GOD prepare us all for it ! I expect to fuffer for my bleffed mafter's name fake. But, wherefore do I fear ? My mafter will pray for me.—Dear Sir, adieu. I know you not in perfon. Perhaps I may never fee your face in the flefth. However, I fhall fee you in heaven, and then you fhall fee how fincerely I now fubfcribe myfelf,

. Your unworthy brother and fellow-fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER LXIII.

On board the Elizabeth, Gravefend, August 14, 1739. Dear Madam,

I Cannot think of your favours, and yet forbear writing a letter of thanks. I cannot think of your parting tears, and not inform you, how fincerely I pray GOD to comfore and refresh your soul .--- Oh Madam, your kindness to such a dead dog as I am, quite furprizes me. How much more ought you and I, and all mankind, to adore the unspeakable good, nefs of our heavenly Father, who has fo loved the world, as to give his only-begotten Son, that whofoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. Dear Madam. never reft till you have a lively faith in CHRIST JESUS. GOD has put into your heart good defires after it. Continue inftant in prayer; apply to JESUS CHRIST, as a poor finner, and yet a little while, and dear Mrs. ---- fhall be a chriftian indeed. Haften, O LORD, that bleffed time. Oh let thy kingdom come, in full power, into this thy handmaiden's heart ! Innumerable temptations furround you, to make you take up your reft here. But, I hope, Madam, you will be upon your guard, and let nothing be thought of, or done, by you, which may any way tend to indulge the luft of the eye and the pride of life. Simplicity is the very fpirit of the gofpel; therefore, the more we learn CHRIST, the more regardlefs we shall be of worldly vanities. God of his infinite mercy make you a widow indeed ! You fee, Madam, how freely I have wrote to you. It is because I value your welfare.-It is the best return that can be / made, for all favours conferred on, Madam,

Your most obliged friend and servant in our dear LORD JESUS,

G. W. LETTER

Digitized by Google

61

LETTER LXIV.

On board the Elizabeth, Gravefend, August 14, 1739. Dear Madam,

VOUR affectionate parting, and the tears I observed you to fhed, even when I was at a diffance from you, made me almost ready to cry out "What mean you to weep and to break my heart ?" Oh may our dear LORD put your tears into his bottle, and reward you a thousand fold for all the kindneffes you have fhewn to me! Indeed I am lefs than the leaft of his fervants. But yet, fo loving is my dear Mafter, that he will not let a cup of cold water given in his name, to pass by unobserved or unrewarded. When partaking of your bounty of flour, I hope I shall pray that you and your's may eat bread in the kingdom of GOD. You have all good defires; I hope you are not far from the kingdom of GoD.-Oh let there not be any thing lacking. Give GOD your hearts, your whole hearts; let JESUS CHRIST's be your whole wifdom, your whole righteousness; and then he will be your whole fanctification and eternal redemption. I write this from my floating habitation, to affure you how fincerely I am

Your most obliged friend and affectionate humble fervant, G. W,

LETTER LXV.

On board the Elizabeth, August 14, 1739.

My dear Mr. ——

A T length we are embarked; 'our fhip is now going to the Downs.—Yet a little while, and, GoD willing, I fhall fee you once more in the flefh. My family confifts of more than twelve, befides two children; I hope all are defirous to know CHRIST. GOD ftrengthens me mightily in the inner man. The fermon I have fent you is one of my extempore fermons.—The journal will acquaint you with particulars.— My brother, the captain, hath been with me this laft week.— If he leaves off difputing, and will come to CHRIST as a poor loft finner, he will do well.—The bifhop of London has lately wrote againft me; I truft GoD hath affifted me in writing an anfwer.—It is now in the prefs.—All the felf-righteous are up in

ì

4

in arms.-My Maftermakes me more than a conqueror through Mr. ---- has about forty focieties in Yorkshire. his love. Both the Mr. Wefley's go on well.-Go where you will, religion (either for or against it) is the talk .--- Probably a fuffering time will come. You will not be ashamed of me, though I fhould be a prisoner. Perhaps you will be put to the trial: But how does my dear friend's heart? Have you found CHRIST? Does he live in you, fo as to be the alpha and omega. the beginning and end of all your actions? Are you enlightened to fee the exceeding great riches and fulnefs of his grace ? Oh how will it rejoice my foul to fee you a proficient in the school of CHRIST? How will it delight me to fee your little flock preffing towards the mark .- Soon after this reaches Georgia, I hope to fee you .- My flay will be as fhort as possible at Philadelphia. I must not delay coming to my dear, though poor charge .- I expect to find Savannah almost desolate ; but our extremity is God's opportunity. I believe it will lift up its drooping head.-For the prefent, my dear friend, farewell.

Your's most affectionately in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER LXVI.

On board the Elizabeth going to the Downs, Augu/t 15, 1739. My dear Brother,

THE agony I was in at your departure, and the many ftrong cryings and tears which I offered up to Gon afterwards, plainly fhew, that I love you in fincerity and truth. Though I am now about to launch into the great deep, vet I must write you a parting line. I cannot but think you will come to CHRIST in earnest. GOD has most remarkably met you by his providence .- His fpirit has been ftriving with you. and I doubt not but it will get the victory over your carnal reasonings, and the rebellion of a depraved heart. But do not, my dear brother, I beseech you, dispute against your own happinefs.-Be not unwilling to confeis that you are not yet a Remember what our LORD hath faid : " Whofochriftian. ever receiveth not the kingdom of Gop, as a little child, shall in no-wife enter therein."-I befeech you, by the mercies of GOD in CHRIST JESUS our LORD, to leave off difputing. You have have been, I think, frequently convinced; but nature, I find, has as frequently interpoled, and perfuaded you that you had gone far enough already .- But does not my dear brother find, that he yet lacks fomething ? Have not his tempers and corruptions; nay, hath not fin itfelf dominion over him? Are his affections weaned from the world? Does he feel himfelf a poor loft finner? Is he willing the LORD JESUS fhould be his whole righteousness ! Is he convinced of the freenefs, as well as of the riches of his grace? You fee, my dear brother, how freely I deal with you. It is becaufe I love you with a peculiar love .-- Never did my heart exult at the fight of any relation, as at the fight of you. Surely GOD intends to give me my dear brother. He is already an almost ; hasten, O LORD, that bleffed time, when he shall be an altogether chriftian, and let thy kingdom, with full power, come into my dear brother's heart !---How shall I say farewell ? If you have opportunity, pray write to

64

Your most affectionate, though unworthy brother,

G. W.

LETTER LXVII.

On board the Elizabeth going to the Downs, August 16, 1739. Dear Mr. ____

Thank GOD for his goodnefs to brother Howell Harris. I thank you for informing me of it. The form is diverted for a while, but I expect it to break upon my head one time or another. GoD has, for a while, prepared me a place of refuge in the fhip, from whence I write this. Oh befeech him, that I may improve the retirement by fearching out my spirit. I have almost forgot, that I was in the world. My family on board is quite fettled, and we live and love like christians. GOD only knows where you and I shall meet again; whether in time or eternity. However, this we know, that both must be tried to the uttermost. Inward and outward afflictions await us, and all the children of GOD. I am now reading the book of martyrs. They make me blufh to think how little I fuffer for CHRIST's fake. They warm my heart, and make me think the time long till I am called to refift even unto blood : But I fear the treachery of this heart of mine. Dear Mr. Mr. ——, to your paft, add one more favour, "pray that I may be found faithful." I truft I fhall have a fweet remembrance of you and my other dear friends, when I go in and out before the LORD. Salute them most affectionately. Exhort them, oh exhort them to continue in the grace of GoD; and forget not to write to, dear Mr. ——,

Yours most affectionately in our dear LORD JESUS,

G. W.

65

LETTER LXVIII.

Reverend and dear Sir, Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739: HOUGH bufiness prevents my corresponding with you fo frequently as I did when in England, yet what can hinder me now, but a want of gratitude and love? Accept then, dear Sir, my fincere, though late thanks, for all favours conferred upon me, and affure yourself, I remember both you and your beloved people at the throne of grace. Nothing will rejoice me more than to hear, that the good pleasure of the LORD prospers in your hand. Oh dear Sir, what a gracious Mafter do we ferve ! His loving-kindness ftill prevents, accompanies, and follows me. He has not given me over unto death, but is still pleased to dig and dung round me, and not cut me down as a cumberer of the ground. I long to be purged, dear Sir, that I may bring forth more fruit. Since my retirement from the world, I have feen more and more how full I am of corruption. Nothing could poffibly support my foul under the many agonies which oppreffed me, when on board, but a confideration of the freenels, eternity, and unchangeablenels of GoD's love to me, the chief of finners.-In about a twelvemonth, probably, I shall return again to my native country. Satan no doubt will endeavour to ftir up all his forces against me. Bv the help of my Gon, I will once more come forth with my fling and my ftone .--- I fhall wait with impatience to hear how the work goes on in my absence. I trust, GOD, by this time, has fent forth more labourers into his harvest. I heartily with all the LORD's fervants were prophets. I verily believe, the right-hand of the LORD will not only have the pre-eminence, but also bring mighty things to pais. O how do I long,

• Many of the letters of this date were written on fhip-board during the paffage, but dated when fent off from Philadelphia.

Vol. I. 2

F

dear

dear Sir, to fee bigotry and party-zeal taken away, and all the LORD's fervants more knit together. Pray, my due respects to all that are so kind as to enquire after me. Exhort them to pray and give thanks for,

Your unworthy friend, brother, and fervant in our dear LORD's vineyard,

G. W.

LETTER LXIX.

Reverend and dear Sir. Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. AN appoints, but GOD difappoints. No doubt it was M beft, that I should not see your answer to the bishop's letter before I left England. I hope it was wrote with the meekness and gentleness of CHRIST, and then no doubt GOD will give his bleffing. Oh, dear Sir, how is the glory departed from Ifrael ! In what dregs of time are we born ? Boafting of our orthodoxy and primitive purity, and yet alas! but ----- is not this enough, dear Sir, to excite our zeal even till it do eat us up? Wherefore hath GOD called us by his free grace, and made a difference between us and others, but that we fhould stand up in defence of his injured honour ? Your friend, Mr. -----, has told me how plentifully you once tafted of the good word of life, and felt the powers of the world to come. Oh that the divine fpark may again kindle in the heart till it become a flame of fire ! Nothing will fo much enforce your arguments as a life exactly conformable to the holy JESUS.-When with you last, I thought you spoke too favourable of horse-races, and fuch things. But what diversion ought a christian or a clergyman to know or speak of, but that of doing good ? Many who are right in their principles, are worfe than I could with in their practice. Oh for a revival of true and undefiled religion in all fects whatfoever ! I long to fee a catholic fpirit over-fpread the world; may GOD vouchfafe to make me an inftrument of promoting it ! Methinks, I care not what I do or fuffer, fo that I may fee my LORD's kingdom come with power. But I know not my own weaknefs, till I am tried. Dear Sir, pray for me, that I may be found faithful in an hour of temptation. I expect to be tried to the uttermost, and to hear, that many are become my enemies, who once would, as it were, have plucked out their eyes - for

Digitized by Google

L E T T E R S:

for me: It is necessary that such offences should come; otherwife, how can I know that I am, what I defire to be, dear Sir,

Your affectionate friend and true brother in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER LXX.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739.

67

My dear Brethren, and worthy fellow-labourers in CHRIST, HOUGH I know none of you in perfon, yet, from the time I heard of your faith and love towards our dear LORD JESUS, I have been acquainted with you in spirit, and have constantly mentioned you in my poor prayers. The good pleasure of the LORD, I find, prospers in your hands; and I pray God increase you more and more, both you and your chiklren. Scotland, like England, hath been fo much fetiled upon it's lees for fome time, that I fear our late days may properly be called the midnight of the church. Blelled be Gon. the Father of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, who hath fent forth many of his fervants with this cry, " Behold the bridegroom cometh." Thousands obey the call, and are trimming their spiritual lamps, in order to go forth to meet him. I cannot but think a winnowing time will come after this in-gathering of fouls. O that we may fuffer only as christians, and then the fpirit of CHRIST and of glory will reft upon us. In patience pollels your fouls, and I will leave my caufe to Gon. You, my reverend Brethren, I am perfuaded, are no otherwife minded; may we go on then in the power, and under the guidance of the LORD of HOSTS. The eternal GOD will be your perpetual refuge. He that employs, will protect; as your day is, so shall your strength be. Let not our dear LORD's lambs perifh for lack of knowledge. "Give ye, give ye them to eat," methinks, is the endearing, constraining command of the great Shepherd and Bishop of fouls. And O that a due obedience may be paid to it by me, your unworthy brother. But I blush almost, when I stile myself your brother; for I am a child, and all of you are fathers. Oh, strive together with me in your prayers, that the divine ftrength may be ftill magnified in my weakness. You will intreat the LORD to F 2 blefs

;

ŀ

Ė

68

blefs the orphan-house. I have reason to think, GOD will bring great good out of it. Oh that I may be prepared for future favours ! Oh that pride and felf-love may thoroughly be fubdued ! Brethren, I befeech you by the mercies of GOD in CHRIST JESUS, to pray for me, whilft winds and ftorms are blowing over me. You are not forgotten by him, who, though the most unworthy of his LORD's fervants, defires to fubscribe himfelf,

> Your affectionate brother, and fellow-pilgrim and labourer in CHRIST JESUS,

G. W.

LETTER LXXI.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. My dear Friend. BECAUSE I will not forget you, I begin to write before We get on fhore. How is dear Mr. ----'s heart? Has he yet recovered his first love? And is that prophecy, " This child is fet for the falling and rifing again of many in Ifrael," as yet fulfilled in him. I cannot but think a good work was once wrought upon your foul. I cannot but think, GoD will yet fulfil his whole will in you. But let not my dear friend linger any longer. If there is mercy with GoD, let him be feared, not difobeyed. If he has promifed to heal our backflidings, and love us freely, let his goodnefs lead us to repentance. Prosperity hath been a snare to you; every day I see the excellency of that part of Agur's, prayer, "Give me not riches, left I be full and deny thee, and fay, who is the LORD." And that petition in our liturgy, " In all time of our wealth. good LORD deliver us." I always take particular notice of it. I believe you will not be at all richer this year, than you was the laft .- For as riches increase, our wants increase with them. -I write not this to have you defert your flation, but to excite a holy jealoufy in your heart .- Oh, what would I give to fee my dear friend, as formerly, " Fervent in fpirit, ferving the LORD." If GOD fends me to England again, I shall try my However that be, I am perfuaded, that fuffering for friends. righteousness fake, is the best, the greatest preferment in the church of CHRIST. But how does your little - I would not willingly fay, your great idol. Pray accept a quarto bible for him.

him. Oh, my friend, give him up to GoD, and do not provoke him, by over-fondnefs and too great indulgence, to take him from you. The little lambs on board improve bravely; they bear the voyage beft of all. They are as lufty as eagles: GoD has dealt moft gently with us. I hope I may fay, the church in my houfe falute you and your wife.—I do not forget her; may fhe never reft till fhe comes into the glorious liberty of the children of GoD ! It is a bleffled thing, my dear friend, to be the LORD's freeman. My heart is full; I repent I have not allowed more paper. My dear Sir, excufe and pray for > Your molt affectionate, though unworthy friend, G. W.

LETTER LXXII.

My dear Sister in CHRIST, Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. TANT of time, not want of respect, has prevented my answering your kind letters. I efteem you highly for CHRIST's fake. I believe you to be one whom GOD has cholen out of the world, and hath fealed to the day of redemp-Nothing, therefore, shall pluck you out of his hands. tion. Was it not for this promife, my foul would be exceeding forrowful at the profpect of what I may undergo. The innumerable temptations that attend a popular life, fometimes make me think it would be best for me to withdraw. But then I confider, that He, who delivered Daniel out of the den of lions, and the three children out of the fiery furnace, is able and willing to deliver me also out of the fiery furnace of popularity and applaule, and from the fury of thole, who, for preaching CHRIST, and him crucified, are my inveterate enemies. In his ftrength therefore, and at his command, whenever his providence shall call, I will venture out again. As yet my trials have been nothing. Hereafter a winnowing time may come; then we shall see, who is on the LORD's fide, and who dare to confeis CHRIST before men. None but those who wholly rely on the Redeemer's righteoufnefs, and are truly born again of God. Oh pray, that I may be found faithful. Satan hath been very bufy with me fince I faw you, but I truft the LORD, by these inward trials, will purge me, that I may F₃ bring bring forth more fruit. the happy cafe of, it. Cease not to pray, that this may be

70

Your fervant in the gospel,

G. W.

LETTER LXXIII.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Dear Mr. -TOU cannot well conceive how confantly you have been upon my heart, fince I faw you. I think there has been a fympathy between your heart and mine. I have often pitied my dying friend, and as often prayed, that he may leave a word for GOD. I fay, prayed, for GOD alone can remove the load. -I know too well what fuch temptations are, to think they may be overcome by our own strength. But, my dear Friend, you and I, weak as we are, can do all things through CHRIST ftrengthening us.-Do you believe on the Son of Gop? All things are poffible to him that believeth. If the devil therefore continues his affaults, refußt him, stedfast in the faith. Refift him, my dear Friend, and he will flee from you; rather fuffer any thing, than be unequally yoked with an unbeliever. If you cannot overcome where you are, ablence, perhaps, may Methinks, I would do and fuffer any thing, rather cure you. than dear Mr. ---- fhould be led away,---My companions in travel have an equal respect for you. We have often joined in prayer for you, when eating your cake. May GOD reward you for that, and all your other kind respects and favours conferred on, dear Mr. ----

> Your's most affectionately in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER LXXIV.

Dear Madam, Philadelphia, Nev. 10, 1739. I Should think myfelf highly ungrateful, did I not take all opportunities of acknowledging the many kindneffes I have received at your hands. Your laft prefents have been exceeding ferviceable on board the fhip, and every time we have taffed your bounty, I have endeavoured to dart up a fhort ejaculation for our kind benefactrefs. You cannot conceive, dear Madam, I how

LETTERS.

how loving the LORD has dealt with us; he has given us all things richly to enjoy, and comforted us on every fide. Indeed sometimes he has been pleased to withdraw from me, and to permit fatan to fend me a thorn in the flefh .--- But that was only to fhew me my vilenefs, and to prepare me for further manifestations of his goodness to my foul. Our voyage though long has not been telious or burdenfome. My foul wants retirement .--- I dread coming out into the world again. I am confident, dear Madam, that you will pray for me, that I may be kept unspotted from it. Oh what a bleffed Master do we ferve ! His rod as well as staff comforts the foul. His corrections are all loving, and are only intended to make us truly great. Though you feemed to doubt, yet I hope to fee you once more before you go hence. I cannot fay I expect liberty long, if I fpeak boldly the truth as I ought to fpeak .---Indeed there is no being a true christian, and yet holding with the world, fo much as fome may imagine. JESUS CHRIST calls us to fimplicity. I have often thought, dear Madam, that you did not fee through the world enough. Numbers are accounted chriftians, who have only a name to live. I pray Gon to open all our cyes, that we may fee every thing clearly. A time of perfecution will flow who are Ifraelites indeed, and who outfide professors.- I hope, Madam, that, when tried, you will come forth as gold purified feven times in the fire. I only fear for, and fuspect myself .- The LORD my righteoufnels will uphold me. Dear Madam, God only knows with what gratitude I defire to subscribe myself

Your most obliged friend and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER LXXV.

ŀ

Ľ

Dear Mrs. — Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. WHEN laft abroad, I could not write to you for want of knowing your name. Bleffed be God we have fince been better acquainted, and I now know your name and place of abode. May the God, whom I defire to ferve, richly reward you for receiving me into your houfe. You were one of my most constant hearers; may you be my joy and crown of rejoicing in the day of the LORD JESUS. I truft ere now, F 4 you have felt, that the kingdom of GoD does not confift in word, but in power. J know that Mrs. — would have me deal plainly with her foul; therefore I fhall not fcruple to tell her, how I have fometimes thought fhe was not yet clearly enough convinced of fin, and of the perfect righteoufnefs wrought out for, and to be imputed to her, by the LORD JESUS CHRIST, through faith in his blood.—Since I have been on fhipboard, bleffed be GOD, his name has made my foul to fmart, and caufed me to fee more of my own wretchednefs. Oh, Mrs. —, you know not, neither do I myfelf know as yet, what a myftery of iniquity is hid even in a heart timely renewed. I faw a little of it the other day; and had I not known my Redeemer liveth, and that he ever liveth to make interceffion for me, I muft have funk into defpair:

74 .

> But there's a voice of fovereign grace Sounds from the facred word; Here ye despairing finners come, And trust upon the LORD.

May GOD of his infinite mercy fo work upon you, that, at at the laft day, you may be found having on the weddinggarment ! was I to fludy to eternity, I could wifh you nothing better. May the ever-blefled GOD fay Amen to it. I hope your little daughters are in good health. Dear Mrs. ——, exhort them to renounce the luft of the eye and the pride of life, and to abstain from all appearance of evil. I have a fincere concern for you and yours, and with all possible thanks for your kind prefents and affection, I fubscribe myself

Your fincere friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER LXXVI.

Dear Mrs. — Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. A S I do not forget to pray for, fo I do not forget to write to you, to make a proper acknowledgment of your and your hufband's love; exhorting you to fave yourfelves from this untoward generation. Before I left London, I perceived GOD was working upon your foul. I truft the fame GOD, fince my departure, has carried it on, and that you are convinced vinced of the fin of unbelief. Oh dear Mrs. ____, it is a difficult thing to believe aright; it can only be given from above. I know many of my acquaintance, who love to hear me talk and preach, and who receive me gladly into their houfes; but alas! I fear they are felf-righteous, and were never yet truly convinced of fin. They have good defires, and therefore flatter themfelves, that they are good christians: But I fear many of them are only foolish virgins. I would not have dear Mrs. ----- or her hufband of this number. If the hath followed on to know the LORD, I am perfuaded ere now, the is in fome measure brought out of herielf, and taught of GOD to rely only on JESUS CHRIST for wildom, righteousness, sanctification, and redemption. If thus minded, your foul is at peace with GOD, itfelf, and the world. If not, let her ask and it shall be given her, let her feek and the thall find, let her knock and a door of mercy shall be opened unto her .- All things are possible to him that believeth-Oh dear Mrs. -----, my heart is inharged towards you; I long for your falvation : prefs on and faint not. Whenever 1 come, I shall expect to fuffer. But though we die for CHRIST, oh let us pray that we may not deny him in any wife. Nothing but the free almighty grace of GOD can uphold,

Your fincere friend in CHRIST,

G. IV.

LETTER LXXVII.

Rev. and Dear Sir, Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Think I may fay of you, as the Samaritans did upon another occafion, I believe you to be a true lover of our dear LORD JESUS. Not merely becaufe my brother told me fo, but becaufe I have it under his own hand. Your laft kind letter has knit my heart most closely to you. I love those that thunder out the word. The christian world is in a deep sleep. Nothing but a loud voice can awaken them out of it. I pray GOD to strengthen you more and more, and cause you to triumph in every place. Though absent in body, I am prefent with you in spirit. It would rejoice me to hear of your fuccess in the LORD. In about a twelvemonth I purpose, GOD willing. willing, to return to England; who knows but then I may feg you face to face, and have fome fpiritual gift imparted to my foul ? I long to die to myfelf, and to be alive unto GoD. Methinks I would be always upon the wing; but alas! I have a body of fin, which at times makes me cry out, " who shall deliver med?" I thank GOD, our LORD JESUS CHRIST will deliver. But I never expect intire freedom, till I bow down my head, and give up the ghoft. Every fresh employ, I find brings with it fresh temptations. GOD always humbles before he exalts me. Sometimes I speak and write freely, at other times I am comparatively barren; one while on the mount, another while overshadowed with a cloud ; but bleffed be God, at all times at peace with him, and affured that my fins are forgiven. I want to leap my feventy years; I long to be diffolved, and to be with CHRIST. But I must be made perfect by fufferings. I expect no other preferment, And you no doubt will have your share. This is our comfort, if we suffer we shall also reign with CHRIST; hasten on, O LORD, that bleffed time, when dear Mr. ----- fhall fit down at thy right hand, with all the fpirits of just men made perfect in heaven ! where I truft a feat, though of the loweft class, is prepared for

Your unworthy friend and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER LXXVIII.

Rev. and Dear Sir,

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739.

S INCE I faw you laft, you cannot well tell with what pleafure I have reflected on the uncommon power that frequently attended the word at Bexley. It was to me a fign of GoD's good will, both to minifters and people. The former I was convinced of, before I left England. The laft fermon I heard you preach, gave me much fatisfaction.' I hope ere now you are convinced of the latter alfo, and have feen fome good effects amongft your parifhioners. However, this I am affured of, we fhalt all in due time reap the fruit of our labours, if we faint not. Let me therefore exhort you, by the mercies of GOD in CHRIST JESUS, to continue unwearied in well doing. You have feen the afflictions of GOD's fpiritual spiritual Ifrael. " Do and live," is most they hear. But what is this, but requiring them to make bricks without ftraw? Arife, arife, then, my dear Mr. -----; proclaim the LORD to be their righteoufnefs. The everlasting I AM now fends you forth : fay not they will difbelieve my report, for Gon feems to have given his people the hearing ear and obedient heart. Fear not the face of man, for the LORD, if you go out in his strength, shall be with you, whithersoever you go. I hope my dear and honoured friend ere now hath prevented my exhortations. Methinks I fee him, with all boldnefs declaring the whole counfel of GoD, and the attentive people receiving joyfully the gracious words, which proceed out of his mouth. Go on, my dear brother, go on; may the LORD blefs you more and more, daily adding to the number of your fpiritual children. ----- I thank you, from my foul, for all favours conferred on me, and I pray you may always confeis our LORD and his disciples before men. My most fincere refpects attend your help-mate and true yoke-fellow. You are conffantly upon my heart. My next journal will acquaint you how lovingly GOD hath dealt with Your most unworthy friend and fervant, -

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER LXXIX.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739.

L^P E T' T' ET R S.

76

the LORD. Alas! I fear I do not improve my retirement as I ought. GOD has graciously pleafed to conduct me in mercy. The tempter has been bufy with me, and I never before was more deeply wounded for fin. CHRIST's love will let nothing pluck us out of his hands. However, let us conftantly watch and pray, that we enter not into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak. In about a twelvemonth, GoD willing, I think of returning to England. I fhould rejoice, if you would come and fupply my place at Savannah. If not, I must refign the parlonage, and take upon me only the care of the orphans. I intend bringing up two or three, that are with me, for the ministry : more, no doubt, will fhortly be added to their number. If you could come and teach them the languages, for an hour or two in the day : we could ferve both the orphan-houfe and parfonage together. Great things I truft will come out of Georgia. The LORD JESUS direct your spirit, and if it be his will, fend you as a help to, dear Sir.

Your's most affectionately in CHRIST JESUS, G. W.

LETTER LXXX.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Rev. and dear Sir. HOUGH but little acquainted with you, yet I write this to affure you, what a cordial respect I have for you. The love of GOD, which I truft, through his free grace. is shed abroad in both our hearts, constrains me to love you in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST. I remember you in my unworthy prayers, and am perfuaded I am not forgotten in your's. No one more needs them, whether confidered as a private christian, or a public minister; thousands are waiting for my halting ; and I know fo much of the corruption of my own heart, that was GOD to leave me to myfelf but one moment, I should with oaths and curfes deny my master. As for my final perfeverance, I blefs God; I have not the leaft doubt thereof. The gifts and callings of Gob are without repentance. Whom he loves, I am perfuaded, he loves to the end. But then I fear, left being puffed up with abundance of fuccels, I fhould provoke the Logit to let file fall into fome fome heinous fin, and thereby give his adversaries reason to rejoice. A public life is attended with innumerable fnares a and a fense of my unworthiness and unfitness to weighs me down, that I have often thought it would be best for me to retire. But I know these are all suggestions of the enemy. Why should I distrust omnipotence ? Having had a legion of devils cast out of my heart by the power of CHRIST, why fhould I not tell what he hath done for my foul, for the encouragement of others. By the help of GoD, I will speak ; and the more fatan bids me to hold my peace, the more earneftly will I proglaim to believing faints, that JESUS the fon of David will have mercy on them; nay, I do not despair of publishing these glad tidings even at Wethersfield. In a little above a twelvemonth, GOD willing, I intend returning. But ere that time comes, I trust my dear LORD will purge me, that I may bring forth more fruit .- Satan has not been wanting to fift me as wheat; but my friend, the friend of all, even Jesus, has prayed for me, and as yet my faith bath not failed. Oh had I a thousand lives, my dear LORD JESUS should have them all ! For he is worthy, he hath plucked me as a brand out of the burning, and is continually comforting me on every fide-Read, read, dear Sir, the account I have fent over to be published of what GoD hath done for me in the days of my youth, and it will afford more thankfgiving and praife .- Pray in the behalf of, Sir,

77

Your most affectionate friend, brother, and fervant, G. W.

LETTER LXXXI.

My dear Friend and Brosber, Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. I Love you in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST, as a proof of it, I fend this. I heartily wifh I could correspond with you oftener. Your advice would always be seasonable to me; because you have been a long time in the school of CHRIST. I am but just now entering the list, and frequently tremble at the confideration of what I am to do and fuffer. ---- But when I confider it is for JESUS CHRIST, who has called me by his free grace into his marvellous light, and has promifed to be with us always, even unto the end of the world, a divine vine fire kindles in my heart, and I long to call the lingring battle on. Satan hath been buly with me fince I faw you. effectially fince my retirement on fhip-board. I have often thought of the folly of those, who go out of the world to avoid temptation. Satan now buffets me more than when confined in a fhip. I receive this as a great mercy at the hands of the LORD to keep me in action, and to prepare me for greater tokens of his love. Before I am exalted, I am always humbled by fome inward trials. They are the most foulgrieving, but they are the most foul-improving conflicts. My dear friend, I can fay from my heart, "I am the chief of finners : " I feel myfelf fo wretched and miserable, fo blind and naked in myself, that fatan would tempt me to write to no one. But the LORD hath rebuked him, and after a long tedious hour of temptation, fills my foul as it were with marrow and fatnels, and maketh my pen the pen of a ready writer. Oh that my mouth was filled with his praise! As vet, bleffed be GOD, in my darkest hours my evidences have not been in the leaft clouded. I have been allured my LORD hath forgiven all my iniquities, transgreffions and fins, but I cannot forgive myself. Oh that I should ever offend against fuch dying love ! Pray for me, my dear brother, pray for me, that I may never by pride or floth tempt the bleffed fpirit to depart from me. I fear not falling finally; for GOD I believe choic me in CHRIST before ever the earth and the world were made, as a veffel of his faving mercy; but I fear I shall provoke him to let me fall foully, and then how will the Philistines rejoice ? This confideration fometimes makes me to wish that the LORD would cut off my strength in my journey, and shorten my days. But wherefore do I fear ? Ah me of little faith ! You fee, my dear friend, how freely I have unbosomed my heart to you. I cannot call you my friend, and yet hide from you GoD's dealings with my foul. Salute all that love our LORD JESUS in fincerity, and befeech them to pray for your fincere friend, but the most unprofitable of his dear LORD's servants,

4

78

G. W.

LETTÉŘ

LETTER LXXXII.

Rev. and Dear Sir, Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. VOUR kind letters, and kinder vifit, have made me frequently to long for a more close correspondence with you. I find my heart drawn out in love towards you, and had GOD fo ordered it, could have wifhed to have perused what you have written in my defence. I pray GOD to confer on you that reward, which he has promifed to give those who confels him before men. If the golpel continues to run and have such free course, I must fuffer, as well as preachfor my dear LORD JESUS. Oh lift up your hands, dear Sir, in the congregations of the faithful, that I may willingly, (if need be) refift even unto blood; but not with carnal weapons. Taking the fword out of the hand of GOD's fpirit, I fear has more than once stopped the progress of the gospel. The Quakers, though wrong in their principles, yet I think have left us an example of patient fuffering, and did more by their bold, unanimous and perfevering testimonies, than if they had taken up all the arms in the kingdom. In this respect I hope I shall follow them as they did CHRIST, and though I die for him, yet take up no carnal weapon in defence of him in any wife. The doctrines of our election. and free justification in CHRIST JESUS, are daily more and more preffed upon my heart. They fill my foul with a holy fire, and afford me great confidence in Gon my Saviour. Surely I am safe, because put into his almighty arms. Though I may fall, yet I shall not utterly be cast away. The spirit of the LORD JESUS will hold, and uphold me. That GOD may every day enrich you more and more with the anointings of this spirit, is the hearty prayer of, Reverend and dear Sir,

Your most obliged friend, brother, and servant in CHRIST, G. W.

Digitized by Google

LETTER

04. ten to heg nda for 13 ;]. đ, fei Ŀ. rite 11 nich adr As 378 29 but nił fo: ni. 1 影 21 1 s

. hay

LETTER LXXXIII.

To the brethren in _____ Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. WICE did I purpofe to come and fee you at -----, but was prevented by that all-wife providence, which ordereth all things for the best : however, though absent, I am not unmindful of you. As a testimony thereof I fend you this. And oh that you may be filled with an holy fire. and fuch an ardent zeal for GOD as even to eat you up! Look round, look round, my brethren, and in imitation of your common LORD, weep over the defolations of the univerfity wherein you live. Alas ! how is that once faithful city become an harlot ! Have pity upon her, ye that are friends, and whatever treatment you may meet with from an ungrateful world, endeavour at least to refcue some of her sons out of that blindnefs, ignorance, bigotry and formality, into which the is unhappily fallen. Arife, ye fons of the prophets; fhine forth, ye who are appointed to be the lights of the world. The rulers of this world will endeavour to put you under bushels ; but if your light is of GoD's kindling, all the devils in hell shall not be able to extinguish it. Be not therefore, my brethren, weary of well doing. Have you true faith'? keep it not to yourfelves; be willing, as occasion offers, freely to communicate it to others. How will you be apt to teach hereafter, unless you begin to teach now? None but those, who are of a different spirit from that meek man Meles, will be offended at you. All GoD's people will with you GoD speed. I am fure I do with all my heart. And I pray GOD to fanctify your whole fpirits, fouls and bodies, and make you vessels meet for our common Master's use ! for none but those who have felt the spirit themselves, can freely or feelingly speak of him to others. My dear brethren, forget not to pray for,

Your affectionate, though weak brother and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER LXXXIV.

To -

My dear Brethren in CHRIST, Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. THE cordial love I bear you, will not fuffer me to neglect writing to you: as GOD has been pleafed to blefs my ministry to your fouls, fo I think it my duty to watch over you for good, and affure you, conftantly you are all upon my Your last letter gave me great pleasure; but it was heart. too full of acknowledgments, which I by no means deferve. To him alone, from whom every good and perfect gift cometh, be all the thanks and glory; I heartily pray GOD, that you may be burning and fhining lights in the midft of a crooked and perverse generation. Though you are not of the church of England, yet if you are perfuaded in your own minds of the truth of the way wherein you now walk, I leave it. However, whether Gonformifls, or Nonconformifls, our main concern fhould be, to be affured that we are called and taught of GoD; for none but fuch are fit to minister in holy things. Indeed, my dear brethren, it rejoiced me much to fee fuch dawnings of grace in your fouls; only I thought most of you were bowed down too much with a fervile fear of man : but as the love of the Creator increases, the fear of the creature will daily decrease in your hearts. Nicodemus, who came at first by night to our LORD, afterwards dared to own him before the whole council in open day. I pray GOD make you all thus minded. For unless your hearts are free from worldly hopes and worldly fears, you never will fpeak boldly, as you ought to speak. The good old Puritans, I believe, never preached better, than when in danger of being taken to prifon as foon as they had finished their fermon. And however the church may be at peace now, yet I am perfuaded, unlefs you go forth with the fame temper, you will never preach with the fame demonstration of the spirit, and of power. Study therefore, my brethren, I beseech you by the mercies of GOD in CHRIST JESUS, fludy your hearts as well as books-ask yourselves again and again, whether you would preach for CHRIST, if you were fure to lay down your lives for fo doing? If you fear the difpleasure of a man for doing your duty now, affure VOL. I. G yourfelves

2

ŀ

¢

::

ŧ

Digitized by Google

18

yourfelves you are not yet thus minded. But enough of this. I love to hope well of you all. I truft, as you are enlightened with fome degree of knowledge in the myfteries of godlinefs, you will henceforth determine not to know any thing but JESUS CHRIST, and him crucified. This is, and this, the LORD being my helper, fhall be the only fludy of, my dear brethren,

Your affectionate friend, brother,

and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

to

LETTER LXXXV.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Rev. and Dear Sir. TTHY fo long filent during my ftay in England? why did you not write me a letter of reproof, and fmite me friendly for what you thought amifs in the difcourfe between me and a friend at Briflol? I should have taken it kindly at your hands. When I am unwilling to be told of my faults, dear Sir, correspond with me no more. If I know any thing of this treacherous heart of mine, I love those most, who are most faithful to me in this respect : henceforward, dear Sir, I befeech you by the mercies of GOD in CHRIST JESUS, fpare me not. I am blind, I am full of felf-pride, and felf-. love, and yet know it not. Bleffed be GoD, who during my retirement has been pleafed to let me fee fomething of my own vileness. I truft he will never leave nor forfake me, till I know myself even as I am known. I need not fear the fight of fin, when I have a perfect everlasting righteoufnels wrought out for me by that GOD-man CHRIST JESUS. The riches of his free grace, caufe me daily to triumph over all the temptations of the wicked one, who is very vigilant, and feeks all occasions to disturb me. The LORD CHRIST is my helper, and the lifter up of my head. It is good for me to be tempted. By inward trials I truft my divine mafter will prepare me for his future mercies. I am perfuaded I shall yet fee great things, and be called to fuffer for his name fake. Through much tribulation, I must enter into glory. Lift up your hands, dear Sir, when praying at the fancturary, in my behalf; intreat the fame favour of the elect lady. As I am enabled, it shall be returned; and, GOD willing, when I come next to England, you may expect a vifit from, dear and reverend Sir,

82

4

Your most obliged friend and fervant,

G. W.

83

LETTER LXXXVI.

My Rev. and very dear Brother, Philadelphia, Nov. 10. 1739. TVER fince I was favoured with your last most en-L dearing letter, you have been upon my heart more and more. As I with all the LORD's fervants were prophets, fo it gives me uncommon pleasure, when the LORD raises up one of our own church. Believe me, dear Sir, when I look upon her defolations, I can fcarce forbear weeping over her. But bleffed be God, who has been pleas'd to visit her in this our day. Henceforward, I truft she will be a joyful mother of spiritual children. Many of late, under GoD, have been begotten by fome of her fons through the gofpel, amongft whom I may reckon ------: He has been I believe, and truff will still be the ghostly father of many fouls. May he increase with all the increase of GoD, and appear before his redeemer at the last day, faying, " Behold me, O LORD, and the children which thou haft given me." Oh dear Sir, words cannot express how affectionately I defire to effeem and love you. None but the all-feeing GOD knows how earneftly I pray and defire to labour for the prosperity of Jerusalem. Had we a thousand hands and tongues, there is employment enough for them all : people are every where ready to perifh for lack of knowledge. As the LORD has been pleafed to reveal his dear Son in us, Oh let us stir up that gift of GoD, and with all boldness preach him to others. Freely we have received, freely let us give ; what CHRIST tells us by his spirit in our closets, that let us proclaim on the house top. He who fends, will protect us. All the devils in hell fhall not hurt us, till we have finished our testimony. And then, if we should feal it with imprisonment or death, well will it be with us, and happy fhall we be evermore! But the proof of our fincerity, will be when we come to the trial. I fear for no one for much as myfelf. Dear Sir, pray that you never may have reason to be ashamed of the

.

.

ï

ĥ

ł

Most unprofitable of our Lord's servants,

Digitized by Google

G 2

G. W. LETTER:

LETTER LXXXVII.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Dear Mr. — Hope dear brother —— hath fatisfied you about the que-ries in your laft. I truft you are not angry with me for being fo long filent. Excess of bufiness was the cause. I write you this, my dear brother, to assure you I have not forgotten you. No, you are upon my heart; I pray for your profperity both in body and foul, and hope ere we die to take another tour with you round Wales. God has dealt most lovingly with us on fhip-board. We had very fair weather most part of our way. Both the good and bad spirit have been with us in the fhip. The one to tempt and terrify, the other to support and comfort. I need not tell you which has prevailed. Who fhall ftand before the fpirit of JESUS CHRIST ? I have had great intimations from above concerning Georgia. Who knows but we may have a college of pious youths at Savannah ? I do not defpair thereof. Profeffor Franks's undertaking in Germany has been much preffed upon my heart. F really believe that my prefent undertaking will fucceed. My dear brother, call down a bleffing by your prayers. The LORD will hear those who put their trust in his mercy through CHRIST. You fee, you know, how many would rejoice at, and do wait for my halting. Befeech the LORD that they may be difappointed of their hope; intreat the people of Wales to join with you. I love them most tenderly. I hope, at my return, to fee them grown in grace. I pray GOD fo to improve my retirement, that my progress may be made known. unto them all. Salute them most affectionately in my name, and exhort them to continue instant in prayer and thankfgivings for, dear and honoured Sir,

Your fellow pilgrim and labourer in our dear LORD JESUS,

G. W.

LETTER LXXXVIII.

My dear brother in Chrift, Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. A S there has been joy in heaven at your conversion, fo I can affure you there has been on earth. I, and my friends, have not failed to give thanks, that you our brother was was dead, but is alive again; was loft, but is found. Oh bleffed be GOD for calling you at the eleventh hour. Doth not this difplay the riches of his free grace; and ought it not to fill you with his praise all the day long? I wonder not that you are already become a fool for CHRIST's fake. All that will live godly in him must fuffer perfecution. But fear not man. The LORD OF HOSTS thall be with you; the ftrength of that GOD who hath called you fhall be your refuge. As you have not long to live in this world, Satan, no doubt, will rage most horribly against you. Watch and pray that you enter not into temptation. Your cafe, GOD willing, I intend to publish in my next journal. It is good to keep close the fecrets of a king, but it is honourable to fpeak of the works of the LORD. That GOD may carry on and finish the good work begun in your foul, is the hearty prayer of

Digitized by Google

Your affectionate friend and brother in CHRIST,

G. W.

85

LETTER LXXXIX.

Dear Mils B. Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. HOUGH, when I came first to London, I thought you had not made the progrefs which might be expected in the twelve months, for want of company; yet your last behaviour gave me reason to think that you was yet alive to GOD. Oh, dear Miss B-----, do not flumber or fleep, but be always trimming your spiritual lamp, knowing you are shortly to meet the Bridegroom. Study to fhew the fimplicity of JESUS CHRIST, and strive to imitate those holy matrons, who not only administred to our LORD of their substance, but also followed him to the accurfed tree. Love, love to JESUS, cafts No doubt they were reproached for his name fake, out fear. and accounted mad women; but they had a faith which enabled them at that time to overcome the world, and by which they climbed up to heaven. May dear Mils B---- be thus minded! And may I fee her at the last day amongst the wife yirgins! Cultivating an acquaintance with Mils D-, and the Mils C----'s, will be a ftep towards bringing you thither. Dear Mils B-----, I am your friend and fervant

> G. W. LETTER

G3

LETTER XC.

To my Brother.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739.

HOUGH I have wrote now for fome years to my dear brother, and have availed nothing, yet I cannot ceafe ftriving with him; who knows but at length the Almighty may remove the scales from his eyes, and enable him to fee the want of a Redeemer. Indeed, my dear brother, you do not fee it yet, becaufe you do not feel it; your moral honefty and good nature deceives you. You think you are rich, and increased in goods, and do not confider that you are poor and miserable, blind and naked. You are self-rightcous, and do not rely on the rightcoulnels of the God-Man, CHRIST IESUS, for falvation. What would I give was my dear brother convinced of this? For, till he is convinced, he is miferable, and does not know it. I pray GOD to open your eyes with a fense of his love. Send me a line to Georgia. GOD has fent us a comfortable passage. In about a twelvemonth I expect to return. Be not surprised if you hear of my being more caft out. We must suffer, as well as do, for If you are one of his you will rejoice CHRIST.

Your affectionate brother,

G. W.

LETTER XCI.

To Madam M----.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739.

I Cannot think of the repeated affiftances you gave me by the loan of your coach, and at the fame time forbear fending you a line of thanks. But what is of greater concern, I think it my duty to write to you about a more important affair; I mean the falvation of your precious and immortal foul. GoD was pleafed to incline your heart, Madam, to hear and receive the word with joy. Neither the cares of the world, nor the deceitfulnefs of riches, I truft have been permitted to choak, and hinder the growth of it in your foul. Indeed, Madam, you cannot be too watchful. It is a bleffed, and careful thing, to be a true Chriftian. The firft ftep to it is a broken heart, a heart melted down with a fense of fin, and flying to JESUS CHRIST for righteouinels, fanctification and eternal redemption. Thousands indeed place christianity in good defires, and the having good defires; but this and much more a perfon may have, and yet mifcarry at last. Pure. and undefiled religion confifts in a lively faith in JESUS CHRIST, as the only mediator between GOD and man. A faith that changes and renews the whole foul, takes it entirely off the world, and fixes it wholly upon GOD. This, Madam, is the faith that you have fo often heard me preach, and of which I pray GOD you may be a partaker. Though you have it not yet, you need not despair; GOD will give it to all who fincerely afk of him. It is true, Madam, that not many mighty are called; but it is not your riches shall keep you from heaven if you truly believe on the LORD JESUS. Faith in him will enable you to overcome the world, and caufe you even to triumph over the luft of the eye and the pride of life. Faith will fet you above the fear of man, and enable you to rejoice in being accounted a fool for CHRIST's fake. That GOD may impart this faith to your own, and little master's soul, is the hearty prayer of, Madam,

İŞ

Your obliged humble fervant,

G. W.

LETTER XCII.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Dear brother H. I Congratulate you on your fuccels at Monmouth. GOD has yet further work for you to do, ere you are called before rulers and governors, for his name fake. By divine permiffion, in about a twelve-month, I hope to make a fecond use of your field pulpits. Our principles agree, as face anfwers to face in the water. Since I faw you, GOD has been pleafed to enlighten me more in that comfortable doctrine of Election, &c. At my return, I hope to be more explicit than I have been. God forbid, my dear brother, that we should fhun to declare the whole counfel of God. The people of Wales are much upon my heart. I long to hear how the Golpel flourishes among you. How prospers your inward man? Being always doing, no doubt you grow in G 4 grace.

87

grace. May you increase with all the increase of GoD ! You will fee my letters to Mr. Jones, &c. As fast as I can, the reft of our Welch friends shall hear from me. Oh that I may never forget their works of faith and labours of love l Salute them most affectionately in my name; and exhort them, my dear brother, to contend earneftly for the faith once delivered to the faints. Put them in mind of the freeness and eternity of GoD's electing love, and be inftant with them, to lay hold on the perfect righteousness of JESUS CHRIST by faith. Talk to them, oh talk to them, even till midnight, of the riches of his all-fufficient grace. Tell them, oh tell them, what he has done for their fouls, and how earnestly he is now interceding for them in heaven. Shew them in the map of the word, the kingdoms of the upper world, and the tranfcendent glories of them; and affure them all shall be theirs, if they believe on JESUS CHRIST with their whole hearts. Prefs them to believe on him immediately. Intersperfe prayers with your exhortations, and thereby call down fire from heaven, even the fire of the Holy Ghoft,

To foften, fweeten and refine, And melt them into love.

Speak every time, my dear brother, as if it was your laft; weep out, if poffible, every argument, and as it were compel them to cry, Behold how he loveth us. Remember me, Remember me in your prayers, as being ever, ever

> Yours, &c. G. W.

LETTER XCIII.

To Mr. and Mrs. D-----.

My dear Friends, Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. W HEN I confider how conftantly you attended my miniftry, how gladly you received me into your houfe, and how affectionately you took your laft farewell; methinks gratitude obliges me to fend you a line. It hath often given me pleafure to fee in what harmony you feem to live, and how you walked to hear the word of GOD as friends. Surely, thought I, thefe are a happy pair. Thefe I truft are help-meets belp-meets for each other. Oh that you may go on and profper, and be plentifully rewarded for the favours fhewn to me, the moft unprofitable of our LORD's fervants: he will not forget your works of faith and labours of love. Whenever you attend his word preached, I hope he will fend you replenifhed away. Oh that all knew what it is to believe in JESUS! How foon would they renounce the world, take up their crofs and follow him ! LORD evermore give us all this faith, even a faith working by love; a faith that will enable us to overcome the world, and caufe us to fhake off all fear of man. Pray give my due refpects to your friend and his wife, who ufed to dine with us. I pray GoD fanctify you all in fpirit, foul and body, and caufe you to fit down on his right hand with

Digitized by Google

Your affectionate, though most unworthy,

' Friend and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER XCIV.

To the Rev. Mr. P

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Reverend Sir, TOU may justly cenfure me as unkind for not answering your kind letter. I can only plead by way of excufe an hurry of business, and my fudden departure from Eng-At my return, GoD willing, I purpose to see Newland. bury, and there to preach the Gofpel of the Prince of Peace. Perhaps my enemies may have fo much power given them from above, as to confine my body: but if 1 am bound, the word of the LORD will not be bound. GOD will speak, and great shall be the company of preachers. It often rejoices me to think what a prospect we have once again of hearing the truth preached as it is in JESUS. I hope we fhall catch fire from each other, and that there will be an holy emulation amongft us, who shall most debase man and exalt the LORD JESUS. Nothing but the doctrines of the Reformation can do this. All others leave freewill in man, and make him, in part at least, a Saviour to himself. My soul come not near the fecret of those who teach fuch things, mine honour be not not thou united to them. I know CHRIST is all in all. Man is nothing: he hath a free will to go to hell, but none to go heaven, till GoD worketh in him to will and to do after his good pleafure. It is GoD must prevent, GoD must accompany, GoD must follow with his grace, or JESUS CHRIST will bleed in vain. That GoD may continue his bleffing to us both, is the hearty prayer of, reverend and dear Sir,

89

Digitized by Google

Your obliged brother and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER XCV.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Dear Mr. -----, TTAS not my heart with your heart, when we rode by the way and talked to each other concerning the Scriptures ? I thought our fouls tallied together, and that we had both drank of the fame fpirit. I have often, fince that time, admired the grace of GOD in you, and even now feel my foul, whilft I am writing, intimately united with yours. What is all this, but the effect and fruit of GOD's everlafting love through CHRIST our LORD ? What is it, but an inftance of the fovereign will and good pleafure of GOD, who will have mercy on whom he will have mercy? Oh how doth the free, the diffinguishing grace of GOD excite the love of those, who are made partakers of it ! What was there in you and in me, dear Mr. O----, that fhould move GOD to chufe us before others ? Was there any fitnels foreseen in us. except a fitness for damnation ? I believe not. No. Gop chose us from eternity, he called us in time, and I am perfuaded will keep us from falling finally, till time shall be no more. Confider the Gospel in this view, and it appears a confistent fcheme, though directly contrary to the natural man; and nothing convinces me more of the truth of these doctrines, than the enmity that is in the heart of carnal minds against them. However, the power of GoD is able to pull down every thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of our LORD JESUS CHRIST. Henceforward I hope I shall speak boldly and plainly as I ought to fpeak, and not fail to declare the whole counfel of GoD. I pray daily, that I may know his will more perfectly, not only that I may do it myfelf, but that that I may teach it to others. If I die for it, I cannot but Ipeak the things which I know. Oh my dear friends, lift up your hands for me in the fanctuary. The prayers of the faithful, GoD will hear. Entreat the fame favour of your brother. I love you both in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST, and remember you often when I go in and out before the LORD : He has been with us in the fhip. His rod has corrected, his ftaff has comforted us; both his rod and ftaff have edified and ftrengthened our fouls. In a year's time I hope to fee England, My love to all friends, and befeech them to pray that I may be prepared for whatever awaits

Your affectionate brother and fervant in CHRIST JESUS, G. W.

LETTER XCVI.

To Mrs. Ann D.

1

.

ł

à

ċ

Ē

ġ

Ľ

ł

ť

My dear Sister in CHRIST, Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. T Owe you feveral letters, I will pay you one now; have patience with me and I will pay you all. If any one ought to long to enjoy the communion of faints hereafter, I ought in a particular manner. GoD has highly favoured me in the acquaintance of numbers of his dearest children. I cannot 'fee fome, and to but few of them can I write, on account of other bufinels. Haften, O LORD, that bleffed time, when we shall all fit down to eat bread in thy kingdom !- My dear Sifter. pray that I may patiently wait till my change fhall come. I want to leap my feventy years. I long to be diffolved to be with CHRIST. Sometimes it arifes from a fear of falling, knowing what a body of fin I carry about me. Sometimes, from a prospect of future labours and sufferings, I am out of humour, and wish for death as Elijah did : At others, I am tempted, and then I long to be freed from temptations. But it is not thus always : There are times when my foul hath fuch foretaftes of Gon, that I long more eagerly to be with him ; and the frequent prospect of the happiness which the spirits of just men made perfect now enjoy, often carries me as it were into another world. Many fuch fweet meditations hath my foul been favoured with; but in the midft of all, I have felt, and do feel, that I am the chief of finners. A mystery of iniquity quity that lay in my heart undifcovered, has been opened to my view, fince my retirement in the fhip. ' May he enlighten me more and more, to know and feel the mystery of his electing, foul-transforming love, Nothing like that, to support us under present, and all the various future trials which await us. But the LORD has apprehended us, and will not let us go. Men and devils may do their worft; our Jesus will fuffer nothing to pluck us out of his Almighty hands; for he has loved us with an everlafting love, and therefore his right-hand shall uphold us. By his affiftance, we shall hold out to the end. By his grace, I, you, and all his chofen ones shall finally be faved. Then, my dear Sister, shall we converse, not with ink and paper, but face to face. Then, but not till then, shall we fully know what a legion of devils JESUS CHRIST hath cafe out of our fouls, and how, after all our firivings against, and quenching many of the motions of his fpirit, he at laft brought us to glory. Ceafe not to pray for

Your unworthy brother in CHRIST, G. W,

LETTER XCVII,

To the Rev. Mr. R.

My dear Brother R. Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. DEFORE I left England, I heard of your progress in D Leicestershire and Nottingham. I then rejoiced, yea, and I do now rejoice that GOD hath fent you forth into his vineyard. I wifh you all imaginable fuccefs with my whole heart, The next news I hear from England, I suppose, will inform me of your fuffering, as well as preaching for CHRIST. But I am perfuaded a prospect of suffering does not damp, but excite the zeal of my dear fellow-labourer. He lives in a place where honest John Bunyon was a prisoner of the LORD for twelve years. And oh, what fweet communion did he enjoy in Bedford gaol ! I really believe a minister will learn more by one month's confinement, than by a year's fludy. Press on then, my dear Brother, press on and faint not; speak till you can speak no more. Wait upon the LORD, and you shall renew your ftrength. Though fometimes faint, yet still pursue. Up and be doing, and the LORD be with you. See how the fields are

92

1

¥

Ι,

•

5.

)-

ά

2

k

5

1

ŝ

ę.

1

t

1

ŝ

are white, every where ready to harveft. See how our LORD's fheep are fcattered abroad, having too, too few true fhepherds; I befeech you, go on, and point out to them the Redeemer's good paftures. Say not, wherewithal fhall I feed them? The great fhepherd fhall furnifh you with food enough, and to fpare. Give of your loaves, and you fhall take up of the fragments that remain. To him that hath, fhall be given. Satan no doubt will refift you; he will bid you, out of a falfe humility, to hold your peace; but let my friend fpeak out boldly as he ought to fpeak. The Holy Spirit will give him utterance, and apply the word to the hearers. If prayers may water the good feed, you may depend on mine. I remember the dear Bedford people. O let them not forget

> Your poor weak brother in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER XCVIII.

To the Rev. Mr. T.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Reverend and dear Sir, DEFORE I faw, I loved you. Ever fince our perfonal ac-D quaintance, I have often thought, what a noble inftrument you might be of turning many to righteousness, if your heart was entirely freed from the world, and inflamed with the love of God. Your vivacity of spirit, your warm imagination, the energy and firength of your endearing manner of writing, together with your loving, tender disposition, if once duly influenced by the fpirit of GOD, could not fail of winning fouls to CHRIST. Come out therefore my brother, my friend ; come out from among your carnal connections, and " be thou separate," faith the LORD Almighty. Throw off a false politeness, study the fimplicity of JESUS CHRIST, and be despifed for something. O pity, pity the church of England. See how too, too many of her fons are fallen from her articles, and preach themselves, not CHRIST JESUS the LORD. My dear friend, I could with my head was waters, and my eyes fountains of tears, that I might weep day and night before the LORD. O let us befeech him to fpirit up more of his faithful servants, to go out into the highways and hedges, and compel poor finners to come in. Oh that dear Mr. T. may be one of them!

them ! How would the spirit of CHRIST and of glory reft upon his soul ! Arife, arife, my dear brother, and gird up the loins of your mind. Arife, arife, and be not of the number of those who only fleece their flocks. Lift up your voice like a trumpet, and preach the truth as it is in JESUS. Dear Mr. T. forgive this freedom. My heart is full. I long to have the purefcripture truths, as delivered in our homilies and our articles, preached up univerfally. This is all that is contended for, by

Your most unworthy friend, brother, and servant in our dear LORD JESUS,

G. W.

LETTER XCIX.

To the Rev. Mr. D. W.

Reverend and dear Sir, Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. T Love you, though I have been fo ungrateful as not to write to you. I love you in the bowels of our common Master whole name we bear, and in whole glorious fervice we are both employed. Oh, dear Sir, what are we that we fhould be fo highly favoured ! Why are we honoured ? Why are we called to the ministry, and others that are effectually called by grace, yet advanced no higher than private chriftians? I can only cry out, Oh the depth of Gon's fovereign, electing, unmerited love. Even fo Father, for fo it feemed good in thy fight ! Surely, dear Sir, the love of CHRIST must constrain us to fpend and be fpent for the good of fouls. Never was the harvest greater; never were the labourers fewer. If we do not now lift up our voices like trumpets, the very ftones would cry out against us. I could almost fay, " the glory is departed from I/rael; the ark of the LORD is fallen into enemics hands." Oh let us endeavour, dear Sir, let us endeavour to bring it back, by preaching and living the truth as it is in JESUS. The light that has been given us, is not to be put under a bushel, but on a candlestick. Satan, indeed, by blafts of perfecution, will do all he can to put it out. If our light be the light of CHRIST, those blasts will only cause it to fhine the brighter. You have happily, dear Sir, experienced this. You, I believe, was both in CHRIST and in the ministry ministry before me. I præ, fequar, etfi non passibus equis. The devil and all his hosts will set their battle in array against us. My LORD has given me a sling and a stone; stripling as I am, I will go forth then in his strength, make mention of his righteousness only, and by that lay prostrate the strong Goliahs. By your prayers I trust to be sent to Wales once more. The simplicity of that people much delights me. What shall, what can I do for them? My prayers they have, and whatever GOD shall enable me to do, they may demand a share from, dear Sir,

2

R

Ś

Your affectionate friend, brother, and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER C.

To the Rev. Mr. H.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Dear Mr. H. T Received no answer to my last, yet I must write to you again. L The many happy hours I fpent with you when at Oxon, and the benefit I have received from your instructions and example, are yet fresh upon my memory. I long to have my dear friend come forth, and preach the truth as it is in TESUS. Not a righteoufnefs or inward holinefs of our own, whereby we may make ourselves meet, but a righteousness of another, even the LORD our righteoufness; upon the imputation and apprehending of which by faith, we shall be made meet by his Holy Spirit to live with, and to enjoy God. Dear Mr. H. it is an excellent thing to be convinced of the freeness and riches of GOD's grace in CHRIST JESUS. It is fweet to know and preach, that CHRIST justifies the ungodly, and that all truly good works are not fo much as partly the caufe, but the effect of our justification before GOD. Till convinced of these truths, you must own free-will in man, which is directly contrary to the holy scriptures, and the articles of our church. Let me advise dear Mr. H. laying afide all prejudice, to read and pray over Saint Paul's epiftles to the Romans and Galatians. and then let him tell me what he thinks of this doctrine. Moft of your old friends are now happily enlightened. GOD fets his feal to fuch preaching in an extraordinary manner, and I am perfuaded the gates of hell shall never be able to prevail againft 96 against if. Oh that dear Mr. H. would also join with us? Oh that the LORD would open his eyes to behold aright this part of the mystery of godlines? How would it rejoice my heart! How would it comfort his own foul! He would then no longer groan under the spirit of bondage: No, he would be brought into the glorious liberty of the fons of GOD. I have wrote to dear Mr. O. as well as to you; out of the fimplicity of my heart.

Ever your's in CHRIST;

G. W.

LETTER CI.

To the Rev. Mr. K.

Dear Brother K. Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1720. Long to hear how it is with you, and the church in your house. I verily believe, though it is but a little flock, yet it will be our heavenly Father's good pleafure to give you the kingdom. How happy is it, when all are of one mind in a house; all agreed to entertain and love the LORD JESUS. Their heaven is begun on earth. I pray GOD to continue this bleffing, and caufe you daily to build up each other in the knowledge of our LORD and Saviour JESUS CHRIST. He is a gracious Master. Oh that I knew and loved him more ! for he is altogether lovely. Has he yet revealed himfelf in dear Mr. K.'s heart ? Is he affured that his beloved is his? Is he brought into the glorious liberty of the children of GOD? Is his mind free from fcruples ? Is he active ? Is he punctual ? Is he ftrong in the LORD and in the power of his might? Is the meekness of the lamb and the boldness of the lion blended in his foul? Do his parishioners fear, yet love him? Is he a Boanerges, and yet a Barnabas in the church of GOD ? Does he thunder against obstinate finners, and by displaying the riches of the promifes, comfort and build up the faints ? Does he preach as the fpirit gives him utterance? Can he rely on the promife, " Lo I am with you always, even unto the end of the world ?"

Forgive this freedom, my dear brother. Love makes me thus impertinent. I want to fee you perfect, entire, lacking nothing. May GOD from day to day fupply what is still deficient eient in you and in me, till we come to the fulnels of the meafure of the flature of CHRIST. He is faithful that has promifed. GOD has been gracious to me his fervant. In about a twelvemonth, I hope you will again fee and rejoice with Your affectionate brother in CHRIST,

G. W.

97

LETTER CII.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Dear Mrs. F. THE LORD reward you for all your works of faith and labours of love! They shall be brought forth as for many evidences of your lively faith, when we meet before our LORD in judgment. Does not the prospect of that glorious day, often fill your foul with joy ? It does mine. Why ? Becaufe I know my Redeemer is to be my judge. Satan will accuse me; my answer shall be, the LORD JESUS is my righteoulnels, how dareft thou to lay any thing to the charge of GoD's Elect? I stand here not in my own, but his robes ; and though I deferve nothing as a debt, yet I know he will give me a reward of grace, and recompence me for what he has done in and by me, as though I had done it by my own power. Oh, dear Mrs. F. how ought this to excite our zeal and love for the boly JESUS. Why should we defire to plead for a righteoufnels of our own, and cry up freewill, when we have an infinitely. better righteousness than our own to appear in, and a GoD that will crown us with eternal glory for working in us both to will and to do after his good pleasure? Happy are you and your's, that have been taught these glorious principles from your youth ! Oh shew them forth more and more by your works, and let the world fee what it is to have a faith working by love. Study, oh study, day by day, the simplicity of JESUS CHRIST. Caft away every thing from you that favours of the luft of the eye and pride of life. Be quick to hear, flow to fpeak, and let your conversation always be seafoned with grace. Oh, dear Mrs. F. my heart is enlarged towards you : My kind, my liberal hoftefs, what shall I say or do to express my gratitude ? I will, I do fpeak for you to the king of kings. Though I am fo great a finner, he frequently admits me into his privy chamber, and then I often figh out, " O that my dear Hertford friends may live VOL. I. H before

3

1

ċ

7

7

5

t

Digitized by Google

98

before thee." This is all the return, dear Mrs. F. that I can make. It is a prophet's reward. Being my all, though but two mites. I know you will accept it from Your most obliged friend and fervant, G. W.

LETTER CIII.

To Mr. S.

Reverend and dear Sir, Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. T Rejoice that GOD fent you fo opportunely to Monmouth : I find every day that two are better than one. GoD fuffers his dear children to fall into little miscarriages, that the eye may not fay to the hand, " I have no need of thee ;" or again, the head to the foot, " I have no need of thee." We must be helps to each other on this fide eternity. Nothing gives me more comfort, next to the affurance of the eternal continuance of Gon's love, than the pleafing reflection of having to many christian friends to watch with my foul. I with they would fmite me friendly, and reprove me oftner than they do ; I would force my proud heart to thank them. But I am amazed at your coming off fo triumphantly. Surely the devil is afleep, or rather that roaring lion thinks to break out upon us with double fury hereafter. It often shames me, when I read St. Paul's account of his fufferings, to think in how few particulars I can as yet sympathize with him. It as often makes me long to be like him, and yet I fear how I shall act when put to the trial. This, however, is my comfort, " JESUS CHRIST the fame yesterday, to-day, and for ever." He faw me from all eternity; he gave me being; he called me in time; he has freely justified me through faith in his blood; he has in part fanctified me by his spirit; he will preferve me underneath his everlafting arms, till time shall be no more. Oh the bleffedness of these evangelical truths! These are indeed gofpel; they are glad tidings of great joy to all that have ears to hear. These, bring the creature out of himself. These, make him to hang upon the promifes, and caufe his obedience to flow from a principle of love. They are meat indeed, and drink indeed unto my foul. I am perfuaded they are fo likewife ...

Digitized by Google

. 5

a

2

.

wife to you and dear Mrs. S-----. I hope fhe is yet in the land of the living, and that fhe, yourfelf, and your fon, are daily preparing for eternity. I pray GOD fanctify your whole fpirits, fouls, and bodies, and reward you for all kindneffes fhewn to, dear Sir,

> Your unworthy brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CIV.

To the Rev. Mr. T.

Reverend and dear Sir, Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. CHALL I promife and not perform ? GOD forbid. When J I faw you first at Cardiff, it rejoiced my heart to hear what Gop had done for your foul. You was then under fome difpleasure of your rector, if I mistake not, for speaking the truth as it is in JESUS. Ere now, I hope dear Mr. T. has had the honour of being quite thrust out. Rejoice, my dear brother, and be exceeding glad, for thus was our LORD and SAVIOUR ferved before you. Naked therefore follow a naked CHRIST. Freely you have received, freely give. If you preach the gofpel, you shall live of the gospel. Though you go out without fcrip or fhoe, yet shall you lack nothing. Rather than you shall want, ravens, those birds of prey, shall be commanded to feed you. It is a bleffed thing to live upon GoD. Did ever any truft in him and was forfaken ? No; fearch the generations of old, climb up into heaven if you can, and all with one confent will declare,

The LORD their passure did prepare, And fed them with a shepherd's care.

I, though hell²deferving, am a living witnefs of his good providence; having nothing, I poffefs all things; he has fed me with the kidneys of wheat, and commanded fome one or another to fuftain me whitherfoever I was fent on his errand. JESUS is the fame yefterday, to-day, and for ever. If we go forth in the fpirit of the firft apoftles, we fhall meet with apoftolical fuccefs. And never was there more occasion for the revival of fuch a primitive fpirit. Alas, the life, the power H 2 of religion is almost lost amongst us. Stir up then, dear Sir, the gift of GOD, which is in you. Be instant in feason and out of feason. Debase man and exalt JESUS. Self-righteoufness overturn, overturn. The people of Wales, the common people at least, will receive you gladly. The LORD shall fight all battles for you here, and reward you with a crown that never fadeth hereafter. If I have but the lowest place in your affections, it will abundantly fatisfy

Your most affectionate brother,

G. W.

LETTER CV.

To Mr. M.

Dearest Sir, Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. VER fince you opened your heart fo freely in the garden, Lyou have been much upon my heart. Though absent from, yet I have been prefent with you. I am acquainted in fome measure with the strugglings of a foul just awakening into new life. I know too many have stifled their convictions, and therefore am importunate on your behalf. I hope you have taken my advice, and laid the ax to the root of the tree. Oh pray for a new heart and a new spirit, and then all old things will fublide and give way of themselves. The ftrong man armed must go out when the stronger than he, even the spirit of Gon, comes to take possession of your foul. What therefore have you to do, dear Sir, but to throw yourfelf as a poor finner at the feet of the holy JESUS? You need not doubt his holding out the golden sceptre to you. Whofoever cometh to him by faith, he will in no-wife caft out. He calls, he draws you : what is it for, but to affure you he will make you happy? Come then, dear Sir, weary and heavy laden as you are, the LORD your righteousness shall give you reft: He shall refresh you with a multitude of peace, and cause you to rejoice in his falvation; there is nothing too hard for the LORD CHRIST. He can draw your mind from the creature, he can fix it upon himfelf; he can enable you to live above the world, whilf you are in it; he can translate you to heaven, when he has taken you away from earth. As the LORD

100

Digitized by Google

LETTERS.

ŝ

1Ż

'n.

Z,

Ē

Ľ

THE N

ť

W.

d :

.

).

10

Ľ.

Ý

1 ģ

2

LORD JESUS can, fo that he may do all these things for your foul, is the hearty prayer of, dear Sir,

> Your fincere friend and fervant, G. W.

LETTER CVI.

To the Rev. Mr. H.

Reverend and dearest Sir, Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. T often concerned me, when in London, that I could not L enjoy more of your company. Your conversation was always feafoned with grace, and fuch as became the gospel of CHRIST. Your great kindnefs, in publicly praying for me, can never be fufficiently acknowledged. The thought almost makes me to weep for joy. Surely the LORD will not let me miscarry, fince he has stirred up the choicest of his servants to intercede in my behalf. The fearcher of all hearts alone knows, what agonies my poor foul has undergone fince my retirement from the world. The remembrance of my paft fins has overwhelmed my foul, and caufed tears to be my meat day and night. Indeed I have mourned as one mourneth for a first born: But I looked to him whom I have pierced. I was enabled to fee the freenefs and riches of his grace, the infiniteness and eternity of his love, and my foul received comfort. Oh the excellency of the doctrine of election, and of the faints final perfeverance, to those who are truly fealed by the fpirit of promife! I am perfuaded, till a man comes to believe and feel these important truths, he cannot come out of himfelf; but when convinced of thefe, and affured of the application of them to his own heart, he then walks by faith indeed, not in himfelf, but in the Son of GOD, who died and gave himfelf for him. Love, not fear, conftrains him to obedience. The promises of GOD are all Yea and Amen to his foul. Supported by these convictions, in about a twelvemonth, GOD willing, I intend returning to England, and to begin my testimony afresh. I trust I shall . not be ashamed to declare the whole counsel of God. Satan, no doubt, and his emiffaries, will endeavour to block up my way; but the faints of GOD are praying for me on earth, and the holy JESUS is interceding in heaven. Why fhould I not

H 3

Digitized by Google

not go forth and offer his everlafting and perfect righteoufnefs to all that fhall be brought to believe on him? Satan fuggefts even whilf I am writing, "How canft thou fpeak, feeing thou art fuch a finner?" But therefore will I fpeak, becaufe I can fay, by happy experience, that JESUS CHRIST will have mercy on the chief of finners; for among fuch you may truly rank

Your unworthy brother, and unprofitable fellow-labourer, in our dear LORD's vineyard,

G. W.

LETTER CVII.

Dear Mrs. D. Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. FIN thousand bleffings light upon you and yours! The LORD reward you ten thousand-fold for receiving me and my friends into your house. The LORD shower down his heavenly manna, and feed you with the bread of life for those comfortable meals we have had of your providing fince we came on board. We have not been flack to pray for you ; my heart is now full of a fense of your kindness. I know not when to begin and when to leave off adoring the Gop and Father of our LORD JESUS CHRIST for these and all other of his love-tokens: He is the father of mercies, and the GOD of all comfort; he hath comforted me in all my tribulation, and, I am affured, will still comfort me in whatfoever I am to do or fuffer for his name's fake. You, dear Mrs. D. can fubscribe to this truth, that GOD is a God of all comfort. You have been comforted on every fide ; you have been filled as it were with new wine; you have tafted that the LORD is gracious, and yet the best wine is and will be always referved till the last. The LORD's compassions fail not; they are, they will be renewed to you every morning; and though. through much tribulation, you, as well others, must enter into glory, yet you will find GOD to be your consforter in all tribulation. God has made you a joyful mother of christian children; remember the mother in the Maccabees; and, if ever your children are called to fuffering, beg of GOD that you may stand by and encourage them to die for CHRIST. Oh that would be a spectacle indeed ! A spectacle worthy of men and and angels ! I pray GOD to arm you with this mind, and then you will find that GOD's rod as well as his ftaff will comfort you; nay, though you pais through the valley of the fhadow of death, yet fhall the Holy Spirit refresh you; your heart fhall ftand fast, and be stedfast in the LORD. Oh, my dear Madam, my heart is enlarged towards you: I pray GOD to fill you with all his divine fulness, and make you daily more and more meet to be an inheritor among the faints in light. With much love I have wrote to dear Mr. D. Oh pray him not to be angry with > Your most affectionate friend and brother, G. W.

103

LETTER CVIII.

To Mr. N.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Honoured Sir, B^E not difpleafed at the contents of this; if I was not perfuaded that love to your foul, and my duty towards GOD, moved me to write, I should be filent. When last at Gloucefler, I heard you was highly offended at my meetings in the fields, and at the fame time countenanced and encouraged the acting of plays in the Boothall. This I thought highly unbecoming the character of a christian magistrate, whose peculiar business it is to be a terror to evil doers, and a praise to This made me to fpeak against those prothem that do well. ceedings in my fermons. This is the occasion of my troubling you with a letter. I cannot think I have delivered my foul, unless, with all meekness and humility, I exhort you henceforward not to promote or fo much as any way countenance the stage-players. In our common law they are stilled flurdy beggars. As a minister of the king, upon that account it is your duty to put a stop to them : As a disciple and minister of JESUS CHRIST, the king of kings, you are obliged, bonoured Sir, to exert your authority in suppressing them. It is notorious that fuch meetings are the nurferies of debauchery; they, are the peft of our nation, and the bane of true christianity :-To be present at, or in the least to contribute towards their: support, is therefore a great fin; but to countenance them by: our authority, and lot them act by our permission, what is this H 4 but but becoming public patrons for vice and immorality? It is not only finning ourfelves, but it is taking pleafure in the fins of others. This the apoftle accounted the higheft pitch of heathenifh wickedness. Honoured Sir, pray be not offended: These are not the words of a madman; no, they are the words of truth and foberness, and words which our LORD will approve of, when I ftand with you before him in judgment. However men may now put wrong names to things, and call that an innocent amufement, which has no other tendency but to corrupt and debauch the heart, yet then, Sir, we fhall fee all things clearly; then shall you know that it was my duty to write as I have done, and will confess before men and angels that you had an humble and affectionate warning given you, by, honoured Sir,

104

Your very humble fervant,

Ģ. W.

LETTER CIX.

To Mr. Thomas P.

Dear Sir, Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. HOUGH unknown to you in person, yet as you was pleafed to think me worthy of the care of your dear fon, I think it my duty to acquaint you of his welfare. I blefs GOD that he came with me. He is diligent and pious, and I trust will be a comfort to you in your declining years : His mind feems fettled and composed, and by reading and following the bible, he is partaker of that peace which the world cannot give. His dear and honoured father is much upon his heart. How would it rejoice him to hear that you also was become a christian indeed ? Be not offended, dear Sir, at my expressing myself thus. Assure yourself that christianity is fomething more than a name and a bare outward profession. Morality of itself, dear Sir, will never carry us to heaven; no, JESUS CHRIST is the way, the truth, and the life. There is no being happy without a lively faith in him, wrought in the heart by the bleffed spirit of GOD. This faith transforms the whole man, delivers him from the tyranny of his passions, and. makes him entirely a new creature. This is the reason why it is foolifhnefs to the world, Your fon's cafe in this respect WAS was not fingular. As foon as ever we commence chriftians, we commence fools for CHRIST's fake. Every truly religious man must be deemed a madman. Forgive this freedom, dear Sir; whilft I am writing, I find a love for your foul arifing in my heart, and methinks I could do any thing to bring your grey hairs with comfort to the grave. Dear Sir, there is mercy with CHRIST even for those who come in at the eleventh hour. CHRIST came to fave poor finners; he came to fave you, dear Sir, if you lay hold on him by a living faith. That GOD may give you this faith, and thereby make you happy in time and to eternity, is the hearty prayer of, dear Sir,

Digitized by Google

Your obliged friend and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CX.

To the Rev. Mr. R. D.

Reverend and dear Sir. Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Think I am a little in your debt; if not, love and gratitude L call upon me to fend you a line. Man appoints, but God difappoints: His providence called me away, before I could poffibly fee Cornwall. In about a twelvemonth I purpose returning. Who knows but then I may be enabled to perform. my promise? The whole world is now my parish. Wherefoever my mafter calls me, I am ready to go and preach his everlasting gospel. My only grief is, that I can do no more for CHRIST; for I am fure I ought to love and do much, having had to much forgiven; not that I expect in the leaft to be justified by any or all the works I either can or shall do : No, the LORD CHRIST is my righteousness, my whole and perfect righteousness; but then I would shew forth my faith, I would declare to the world the fincerity of my love, by always abounding in the works of my LORD. Oh pray, dear Sir, that I may be never weary in well-doing. The devil and his fervants will fhoot fore at me that I may fall; but this confideration comforts and supports me, " The LORD is my helper ;" he has, he does, he will deliver. I am perfuaded you feel his gracious prefence, and the influences of his bleffed fpirit, whenever you go forth to speak in his name. May a double portion of his spirit and precious anointings descend upon upon your foul! May you be filled with all his fulnefs, and be enabled thereby to turn many to righteoulnefs here, and fo fhine as the firmament of heaven for ever hereafter ! Oh that a place at fome faints feet may be affigned to, dear Sir,

LETTERS.

106

Your weak though affectionate brother in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CXI.

To the Rev. Mr. B.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Reverend and dear Sir, VOU have been too kind, and I have been too ungrateful. I Bufinefs would not permit me to have fo much private conversation with you as I ought. Success I fear elated my mind. I did not behave towards you, and other ministers of CHRIST, with that humility which became me. I freely confels my fault; I own myself to be but a novice. Your charity, dear Sir, will excite you to pray that I may not through pride fall into the condemnation of the devil. Dear Sir, fhall I come out into the world again or not? Muft I venture myfelf once more among fire brands, arrows, and death? Methinks I hear you reply, "Yes, if you come forth in the firength of the LORD GOD, and make mention of his righteoufnels only." It is my defire fo to do. I would have JESUS all in all. Like a pure chrystal, I would transmit all the light he poureth upon me. Oh pray, dear Sir, that I may be thus minded, and then, GOD willing, in about a twelvemonth, I intend visiting the Bristol brethren once again. In the mean while, I hope the LORD will purge me, that I may bring forth' more fruit, and work upon me mightily in the inner-man, for otherwife his bleffings will prove curfes to me. He has been pleased to dig and dung round me, during my retirement; he has shewn me fomething of the treachery of my own heart, and more and more convinced me that I am the chief of finners. Oh that my heart may fhew forth the eternity and fovereignty of his love ! for never furely was there a greater instance of it than myfelf. Happy are those that are brought to an experimental knowledge of these mysteries of the kingdom of God. Many of your charge have been, I believe; I pray GOD to increase the number of your spiritual children more and

í, t

.

)i-

s,

Ţ

Ľ,

.

s:

td -

1053

5 (2

Ċ.

Ŋ

8 2

s i or::

1...

ic :

. .

بوا jŀ

. .

Ľ.

2.

,

C.

1

187 173

ļ

and more, and to add daily to the church fuch as fhall be faved. My cordial refpects attend your fellow-labourers, and all who are fo kind as to alk for me; as falt as opportunity permits, they may expect to hear from, reverend Sir,

> Your unworthy brother and fellow-labourer, G. W.

LETTER CXII.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Dear Mrs. F. T Have now time to answer your last letter. It gave me much L fatisfaction. I rejoice that you begin to know, yourfelf. If possible, fatan will make us to think more highly of ourfelves than we ought to think. I can tell this by fatal experience. It is not fudden flashes of joy, but having the humility of CHRIST JESUS, that must denominate us christians. If we hate reproof, we are fo far from being true followers of the Lamb of GOD, that in the opinion of the wileft of men, we are brutish. I love you and your dear husband in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST. Under GOD, I begot you both through the gospel. I therefore think it my bounden duty, from time to time, more particularly to watch over your precious fouls. Never account me your enemy for speaking the truth. Tell me of my faults in your turn. I will pray GOD to give me an hearing ear and an obedient heart. But how do our brethren after their late difpersion ? I heard they had in part recovered them-Ere now, I truft, they have refumed their courage, felves. and stand stedfast as a wall of brass. If you were all to be carried to prifon the next moment, I think you fhould not decline your christian fellowship and society meetings. Mγ brethren, in this respect, I beseech you to obey GOD rather Happy are you, if you patiently fuffer in fuch a than man. caufe. Our LORD will stand by you; he will fight all your battles, and make you more than conquerors through his love. My heart would fay more; but other letters must be wrote. Salute all the brethren by name, and accept this as a token of your not being forgotten by

Your affectionate brother and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER.

į

LETTER CXIII.

To the Rev. Mr. S.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Reverend and dear Sir. THE favours received at Hertford, from you and your dear flock, are not yet out of my mind : They were exceeding endearing, and deferve my utmost acknowledgments. Had providence permitted, I should have paid you another wisit; but GoD's thoughts are not as our thoughts: However, in about a twelvemonth, by his leave, I hope to return amongst you once more. Oh! that I may come in the bleffing of the gospel of peace ! The doctrines I have already preached come with double evidence upon my mind day by day. I am more and more convinced that they are the truths of GOD; they agree with the written word, and the experience of all the faints in all ages: Nothing more confirms me in the belief of them, than the opposition that is made against them by natural men. Election, free grace, free justification without any regard to works foreseen, are such paradoxes to carnal minds, that they cannot away with them. This is the wifdom of GOD, which is foolifhness with man, and which, the LORD being my helper, I intend to exalt and contend for more and more; not with carnal weapons, that be far from me, but with the fword of the fpirit, the word of GoD: No fword like that. Dear Sir, pray for me that I may rightly divide the word of truth, and give to each his portion in due feafon. The LORD has been exceeding gracious to me fince I faw you laft. Oh let your fongs be of him, and praise him for all his wonderful works. As I am enabled I remember you and yours. Many, when I was with them, were mourning; cre now I hope they are comforted. He is faithful who has promised, who also will do it. If they hunger and thirst after CHRIST's righteousness, verily they shall know that it is imputed to them. That you and your whole charge may be filled with all the fulness of GOD, is the earnest prayer of, dear Sir, Your's most affectionately in CHRIST JESUS, G. W.

Digitized by Google

LETTER

.

LETTER CXIV.

To Mr. Wm. D----.

i I Cé

G)

æ

ų,

D,

n.

ŝ

'n

à

٤t.

X.T

i i

T.

تنا انتا

Ŀ

21 21

17. 13.

Ż

F£.

ļ.

3

đ

ŗ,

ż

5

ŝ

د ایم ور در های و ه

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. My Dear Brother, OUR last brought glad tidings. I endeavour to give thanks for you with my whole heart. I truft God has enabled you to take the advice you gave me, and that you have been kept from idolatry. Oh my dear brother, let us watch and pray, that we may not be led into temptation. The fpirit is willing in both; but the flefh, mine in particular, is exceeding weak. Bleffed be GOD for fending me on fhipboard. He has given me to fee fomething of that mystery of iniquity, which was in my heart. I have loathed and abhorred my own felf. Tears have been my meat day and night; but glory be to GOD, who has lately affured me of a victory through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. At prefent my heart is quite free. You will fee what I have written to those of your household. I pray the LORD to fend you and many more such labourers into his harvest. I intend refigning the parsonage of Savannah. Th Orphan Houfe I can take care of, fuppofing I should be kept at a distance; befides, when I have refigned the parish, I shall be more at liberty to take a tour round America, if GOD should ever call me to such a work. However, I determine nothing, I wait on the LORD. I am perfuaded he will fhew what is his will; though my heart is as yet perverfe, in time I hope to drink deeper into his fpirit. How earnestly do I defire to be disfolved, that I may be with CHRIST ! Sometimes my weak body gives me hopes, that I shall not be long in the flesh; but then, the strength that is communicated to me, and the confideration, that I have but just begun my testimony, fills me with fears, left I should live to be greyheaded. But I endeavour to refign myfelf wholly to GoD. I defire his will may be done in me, by me, and upon me. If the LORD preferves me from falling into fin, and difhonouring his holy name, let him do what feemeth him good with

Yours most affectionately in CHRIST JESUS,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CXV.

To Madam C-----.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Madam. O be made good by the righteoufness and spirit of JESUS CHRIST, is a diffinguishing bleffing. To be made good, and yet to be great and rich in this world's goods, is still more extraordinary. Bleffed be GOD, who has thus highly favoured you. I trust he hath given you that faith, which enables you to overcome the world, and emboldens you to confess both our LORD and his servants, in the midst of a wicked and adulterous generation. Once indeed I feared you had been offended. Dear Mr. M _____ foon convinced me of my error. Yourfelf, Madam, amply fatisfied me before I left London, that you were not ashamed of the gospel and ministers of CHRIST. May the LORD enable you more and more to fet your face as a flint, and entirely to live above the fear of man. If the work goes on in England, a trying time will come. I pray GOD, the fame fpirit may be found in all that profess the LORD JESUS, as was in the primitive faints, confessors and martyrs. Further opposition then will not hurt, but highly profit the church. The chaff will be winnowed from the wheat, and they that are approved be made manifest. As for my own part, I expect nothing but afflictions and bonds. The spirit, as well as the doctrine of popery, prevails much in many protestants hearts; they already breathe out threatnings. What wonder, if when in their power, they fhould breathe out flaughters also? This is my comfort, the doctrines I have taught are the doctrines of fcripture, the doctrines of our own and of other reformed churches. If I fuffer for preaching them, fo be it. " Thou shalt answer for me, 'O LORD my GOD !" I rejoice in the prospect of it, and beseech thee, my dear redeemer, to ftrengthen me in a fuffering hour. You, dear Madam, and the reft of my friends, will not be wanting in praying for

Your most obliged humble servant,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CXVI.

To Mr. D_____.

Dear Sir,

2

٢.

;

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739.

RATITUDE and love call upon me to write a letter J of acknowledgment for favours received when lately The LORD remember them at that day! You have at -----. confessed his fervants before men, he has promised to confess fuch, before his angels in heaven. The principles which I maintain, are purely scriptural, and every way agreeable to the church of England articles. What I have been chiefly concerned about is, left any fhould reft in the bare speculative, knowledge, and not experience the power of them in their own hearts .- What avails it, Sir, if I am a patron for the righteousness of JESUS CHRIST in behalf of another, if at the fame time I am felf-righteous myself? I am thus jealous, I trust with a godly jealousy, because I see so many felf-deceivers among my acquaintance. There is one in particular (whom I love, and for whom I most heartily pray) who approves of my doctrine, and hath heard it preached many years paft, but I could never hear him tell of his experiences, or of what GOD has done for his foul. He hath excellent good defires and intentions, but I think he wants fomething more : LORD, for thy infinite mercy's fake, grant he may know himfelf even as he is known ! I need not tell Mr. D-, who this dear friend is - you are intimately acquainted with him, you love him as you do your own heart; you are never out of his company. Oh, dear Sir, be not angry. Methinks. I hear you, by this time, making an application, and faying, " Then I am the man." True, dear Sir, I confefs you are. But love, love for your better part, your foul, your precious foul, this love conftrains me to use this freedom. You are more noble than to take it ill at my hands; I could not bear even to fuspect that you deceived yourself, dear Sir, and not tell you fuch a fuspicion was in my heart. That GOD may powerfully convince you of felf-righteoufnefs, and cloath you with the rightcoulnels of his dear. Son ; that he may fill you with with his grace, and thereby fit you for, and at last tranflate you to, his glory, is the hearty prayer of, dear Sir,

. . .

Your most obliged and affectionate friend and humble fervant.

G. W.

LETTER CXVIL

To a Servant.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739.

THEN I was at Mr. _____, I fear I did not alk you ' often enough what GOD had done for your foul. I write this to beg your pardon. Want of time was the caufe. I believe CHRIST hath manifested himself to your foul. Shew it, I entreat you, by labouring to adorn his gospel in all things. A meek and quiet spirit is in the fight of GOD of great price. You are happy in a place. I hope you know and are thankful for it. Take heed that you ferve with fingleness of heart, as unto CHRIST. Go when you are bid to go, come when you are bid to come; when commanded to do this, do it with all your might. Bear with the perversenefs of others. Remember how filent Mary was, when her fifter Martha peevishly faid, " LORD, careft thou not that my fifter has left me to ferve alone?" My unfeigned love attends all the Martha's and Mary's of your acquaintance. I pray they may in all things walk as women professing godlinefs. To hear of your progress in the gospel, would much pleafe

Your fincere friend and fervant.

G. W.

LETTER CXVIII.

To the Rev. Mr. -

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Rev. and dear Sir, THE many favours I have received at your hands, are still deeply impressed upon my heart; as I have often faid, fo I fay again, I hope they will never be forgotten by me for long as I live. But, reverend Sir, I have obferved fome particulars in your principles and conduct, which I must confess have given me much concern, and of which, from love and gratitude, gtatitude, I think myself obliged to inform you. ---- I believe, dear Sir, you have often been inwardly offended at me, because you suspected, I thought you to be no true christian. Your fuspicions were not groundlefs. I cannot yet think, that a thorough work of conversion was ever wrought upon your foul. I fear you deny, that " JESUS CHRIST is truly and properly GoD." I infer this, from your not reading the Nicene Greed, and your palliating that text I once urged to prove it. "I and my Father are one." I doubt alfo, your owning " Original Sin." This I gather from your wondering I should touch on such a point, when I preached my fermon on justification by JESUS CHRIST. Besides, the fad definition you once gave of religion in a letter to your brother ----- 3 the ftranger alfo which you feemed to be to the " devil's temptations," when I conversed with you; and your fuppoling, that conversion was to be wrought in the foul by moral perfuasion; all these put together, dear Sir, convince me, that you were never yet truly and effectually born again of GoD. Befides, Reverend Sir, does your going weekly to a club, where the company play at cards, and fit up late at night, does this, dear Sir, agree with your holy vocation, either as a christian or a minister ? Be not offended, Rev. Sir. at this plainnefs of speech. I have forborne a long while; love and gratitude would not fuffer me to forbear any longer. I wish I had no occasion to write in this manner. I believe you fo ingenuous as not to be angry with me. I pray Gor to quell all refentment in your heart, and fend you his holy fpirit to guide you into all truth. Your brother's eyes are now in some measure opened : he is convinced of the perfect righteousnels wrought out for him by JESUS CHRIST, and ere now I hope hath received faith to apply it to his heart. This is the doctrine of the church of England. Unless you hold this and other evangelical principles, how, dear Sir, is it confistent with fincerity to eat her bread ? With humility, respect, and love, do I offer these things to your confideration-Be pleafed to weigh them in a proper balance, and reflect from what principle they are wrote, and I am perfuaded you will not be offended at, reverend and dear Sir, You most obliged friend and fervant,

Vot. I. I

,

$

Digitized by Google

LETTER

G. W.

LETTER CXIX.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739-Dear Mr. S-Love an Ifraelite indeed, I love a catholic spirit destitute of L guile; you I am perfuaded are thus minded. The LORD hath highly favoured you : he hath given you a meek and quiet spirit. My heart hath been knit to you, ever fince God first brought us together. Oh pray, that what I admire in another, I may imitate myfelf, and have the graces of JESUS CHRIST stamped upon my heart. It fills me with confusion, whenever I confider how far I am from his likenefs. Alas ! What would become of me, was I to be faved by any thing within myfelf. Bleffed be GoD, the LORD JESUS is my whole righteousnels. By virtue of that I know I am justified, I believe I shall be fanctified, and am assured I shall be everlaftingly redeemed : for God loved me with an everlafting love. Oh, dear Sir, the prospect of an hereaster fills my toul with comfort. Then shall I have enough of your company, and of the other children of Gon. The LORD give me patience to wait till my bleffed change cometh. He often gives me fuch foretaftes of the glory to be revealed in us, that I want to leap my feventy years. But in a degree, I may fay with my bleffed mafter, "I have a cup to drink of, and a baptism to be baptized with." Dear Mr. S----- will fes me humbled, I believe, as much as once exalted; I look for " Away with him, away with him," every day. Then, I truft. I shall begin in earnest to be a disciple of JESUS CHRIST. Even in fuch an hour, I believe dear Mr. S----- will dare оwп

His affectionate though most unworthy friend, brother and fervant,

G. W..

LETTER CXX.

Dear Sir, Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. TO think, that you fhould be engaged publickly to pray for me, hath often given me much fatisfaction, and now excites me to fend you this letter of thanks : help me I fill,

1.14

Digitized by Google

Aill, help me, dear Sir, by your prayers. They will be a means of lifting up my hands when they hang down, and of ftrengthning my feeble knees. Though in all things we do not, yet in effentials we both think and speak the same things. I wifh all names among the faints of GOD were fwallowed up in that one of Gbriflian. - I long for professors to leave off placing religion in faying "I am a Churchman," " I am a Diffenter." My language to fuch is, " Are you of CHRIST ? If fo, I love you with all my heart :" for this reafon chiefly, dear Sir, my heart is drawn out towards you. On this account, though to long in CHRIST before me, I make bold to call you brother, and to with you GOD fpeed : bleffed be his name, you have little reason to cry out ; " My leannels, my leannels." Many gracious fouls are among your flock, they love to be fed with the fincere milk of the word. I hope they will be your joy and crown of rejoicing in the day of the LORD JESUS. I often think of them with pleasure; pray falute them most affectionately in my name, and exhort them to entreat the LORD that I may make full proof of my ministry. In about a twelvemonth, God willing, I intend returning to England; I, with it may be in the fulnels of will be as good as he is great, and after he is made perfect through manifold temptations and trials, fit down with you, and all the other spirits of just men made perfect, in heaven. This is the hearty prayer of, dear Sir,

Your affectionate brother and fellow labourer

in our LORD's vineyard,

G. W.

LETTER CXXI.

My dear Brother,

.

1

-

*

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739.

Y OU cannot conceive how often you have been upon my thoughts, fince I faw you. Eternity itself I hope will not diminish, but more and more increase that love, which I bear you from my heart. Your stature reminds me of little Zaccheus: he that called him, I am perfuaded hath called you: Have you not heard him fay to your foul, "I am your fal-I 2 yation?

vation?" If fo, fear not, thou art a fon of David. Let worldly affairs be ever fo bad; he that has given you his own' dear Son, will make you more than conquerot in all things. Still dare to own our dear LORD before men. It is no fcandal for a follower of JESUS CHRIST to be poor. Our LORD was poor before us-So that we are rich in faith and good works, it is not much mater if we are not rich in this world's goods. Having CHRIST, though we have nothing elfe, we poffess all things. However, fince godliness hath the promise of the life that now is, as well as that which is to come, I would advife you to plead the promifes for temporal bleffings. In the name of Jesus, many a fweet morfel and opportune fupply, have I fetched in from God by this means. That is the way I live, and hope fhall continue fo to live till death is swallowed up in victory. Death what a comfortable word is that for a believer ! CHRIST hath taken the fling of it away; henceforward it is no longer a king of terrors, but a welcome messenger to conduct the faints to glory. My dear brother, let us comfort one another with these things. We are not to live here always; our inheritance is above. When CHRIST who is our life shall appear, then shall we also appear with him in glory. Why then should we value these light afflictions, which are but for a moment ? No, let us patiently bear our crofs, fince we are fo fhortly to wear a crown. Oh the riches of free, diftinguishing grace ! Why were you and I taken into favor? " Even fo Father, for fo it feemed good in thy fight." O! my friend, my brother, let us for ever extol free grace ! However others exalt man and debafe GOD, let us exalt GOD and debase man. Let JESUS CHRIST have all the glory: for he is the author, carrier on, and finisher of our faith. He hath begun it in time, he fhall compleat it in eternity. ---My brother, I have been to expanded whilft writing, that I must refer you to other friends, to know how graciously God hath dealt with

> Your affectionate brother in CHRIST, G. W.

> > Digitized by Google

LETTER

LETTERS.

LETTER CXXII.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. Dear Mr. W. T Long to be in heaven, chiefly to fee GOD even as he is ; I next, that I may have my foul fatisfied with the blifsful communion of faints. There I hope to fee you and your wife, and to shew how fincerely I love you both in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST. My heart has went along with my hand, when I used to stretch it out to you in the field. I only wanted more time to converse with you. Oh my dear brother, let us keep ourfelves in the love of GoD through faith in CHRIST JESUS, and then, yet a little while we shall meet in glory. As faith is the beginning, fo faith is the end of the christian course. Let us keep this grace in continual exercife, and we may bid death and hell defiance. Faith makes us more than conquerors over all; I fpeak thus to you. because I hope you and dear Mrs. ----- have been in some measure made partakers of this free gift of GOD. I pray GOD to increase it more and more, till it be swallowed up in the fruition of our supreme good. Perhaps our faith may be put to the trial ere it be long; Lexpect nothing but fufferings. pray that I may be faithful unto the end, and that a crown of life may be given to

Your affectionate brother in CHRIST.

G. W.

LETTER CXXIII.

To Mr. H.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. My dear Brother, HE christian love I bear to both your fister and you, excites me to fend you a line. Providence prevented your failing with us; but as we have drank into the fame fpirit, I hope brotherly love will continue and increase between us, to all eternity. I have often wrestled in prayer for you fince we have been on board. Your fifter has watered those prayers with her tears, and I trust the LORD was entreated of us. Our voyage has been highly profitable to our fouls. Ι can never be thankful enough for this fweet retreat. My dear brother, how do you find your heart ? Mine is like Ezekiel's kiel's temple, the farther I fearch into it, the greater abominations I difcover; but there is a fountain opened for fin and all uncleannefs. There, my dear brother, we may both wafh and be made clean. The LORD hath already vouchfafed us fome affurances of his love. Oh let us continually keep faith in exercife, till it be entirely fwallowed up in the boundlefs ocean of the beatific vifion. That GOD may daily renew you by his fpirit, and more and more fit you for the happinets which awaits you above, is the hearty prayer of

Your affectionate though weak brother in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CXXIV. To Mrs.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10. 1739. My Dear Friend, CHALL I have any leifure time and not write you a line O of thanks for your works of faith and labours of love? Gop forbid. I know not your name, but I neither forget your house, nor favours. The LORD reward you a thousand fold ! I only fear that you have my perfon too much in admiration. If you look to the inftrument lefs, and to God more, it will be better. By the grace of GOD alone, I am what I am. If any good hath been done to you or others, it was not I, but the grace of GOD that was in me. Oh, not unto me, not unto me, but unto God's name be all the glory. I pray GOD to make you partaker of the fame grace: for I would not have you an hearer only, I would have you a docr also. Surely you are more noble and wife, than to deceive your own foul. And yet it is but too notorious. that numbers reft in the outward form, and are strangers to the inward power of godliness in their hearts. Do not you fo learn CHRIST. Beg of GOD that you may feel his fpirit working mightily in your foul, and witneffing with your fpirit that you are a child of GOD. I could go on, but other letters must be wrote-Pray tender my love to all that dined with me at your house; exhort them to keep close by faith to CHRIST, and to pray to and give him thanks in my behalf; for he hath dealt most graciously with

Your obliged friend and fervant,

G. W. LETTER

LETTER CXXV.

Dear Mrs. _____, Philadelphia, Nov. 10. 1739. CTILL I must repeat my former request. Be not angry D because I did not visit you oftener. I love, I honour you the more for being of low degree. You are thereby rendered more conformable to our dear and common LORD. His bufiness alone prevented my feeing you fo often as I would. However, though abfent, I rejoice that our Saviour has dealt fo lovingly with you. As afflictions have abounded, confolations have much more abounded. I am perfuaded, you can affirm that GOD is the father of all mercies, and the GOD of all comforts. Has he not comforted you my dear fifter in all your tribulation ? He that hath, and does, will ftill deliver you. Yet a little while, and he that cometh will come, and will not tarry. Shortly I suppose the earthly house of this your tabernacle will be diffolved : fear not, you fhall then be cloathed upon with your house which is from heaven. Oh pray that fuch honour may be also conferred on

Your unworthy brother in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CXXVI.

Dear Mr. C ----, Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1739. T Cannot forget your frequent attendance on my ministry when last at London. I am pressed in spirit to write you a line, to exhort you to contend earneftly for the faith once delivered to the faints. You have learned the truth as it is in JESUS. You have been taught it of GOD. Electing love hath inatched you as a brand out of the fire, and you have followed our LORD without the camp, bearing his reproach. The LORD's tabernacle has lately been pitched in the fields. Ere long it may be driven into the wilderness. I hope you will follow it even there. The divine prefence, I am perfuaded, will accompany it. Hath not your heart often burnt within you when the Scriptures have been opening to you, though not under a church roof? GOD is not confined to places. Wherever his people are, he will find and visit them. Our LORD (oh stupendous love!) has been pleased to fail with 14 with us. I have tafted both of his rod and ftaff; each has given me unspeakable comfort. My dear brother, help me to praise him. Who so great, so good a Gon, as our Gon? In about a twelve-month I hope to see you again. Oh pray for me, my dear brother, that I may meanwhile be let further into the mysteries of godlines, "Gon manifest in the flefh." As yet, I find I am but a child, and a meer novice. But this is my comfort, "The LORD who has begun will carry on the good work," till I am grown a strong man in CHRIST JESUS. I long to know more of his love, I hunger and thirst after the teachings of his bless on and faint not. Yet a little while and you shall enter into perfect joy with

Your affectionate brother in our dear LORD JESUS,

5 . . . . .

G. W.

.

Ĺ

LETTER CXXVII.

New-York, Nov. 16, 1739. Reverend Sir, CEEING a paffage in your letter to Mr. P--- concerning D me, I find my heart immediately fet to fend you a line, I love to be acquainted with the true and old fervants of JESUS CHRIST, because I delight to fit at their feet and receive instruction from them. You faid right, reverend Sir, when you faid " I was but a young divine." Indeed I am a novice in the things of GOD. I can only fay, that I defire to know the whole will of GOD, that I may communicate it to others. CHRIST is fo good a master, that I would have all men drawn after him. He is pleafed to let me experience daily teachings of his bleffed fpirit, and to fhow me the riches, freenefs, and eternal duration of his love. ---- But as yet I only fee men as trees walking. Oh pray, reverend Sir, that the LORD would again touch me, and enable me to fee all things clearly. I defire it only for the good of his church. Reverend Sir, into' what a lethargy is the chriftian world fallen ! Foolifh and wife virgins are all flumbering and fleeping. It is high time for all that love the LORD JESUS to lift up their voices like trumpets, and to give warning of the bridegroom's coming; many I hope are already alarmed. ----- Philadelphia 4

Digitized by Google

.

phia people receive the gofpel gladly. Here, indeed, has been fome little opposition, and therefore I hope fuccess will be given to the word, and what has been done in England, the journal fent with this will inform you. Oh reverend Sir, I befeech you give thanks for me with your whole heart. Entreat the LORD that I may be kept humble and dependent upon our dear LORD JESUS. GOD willing, in about feven months I hope to fee New England in my return to Europe. An effectual door is there opened, and no wonder that there are many adversaries. Shortly I expect to suffer for my dear master. May I not deny him in that hour! If you would please to favour me with a line, I should be glad to continue this correspondence, and acquaint you from time to time how the work of GOD goes on. Mr. N------ will conyey any thing you shall fend. May the LORD richly reward both him and you, for your love to

The most unprofitable of all his fervants,

G. W.

LETTER CXXVIII.

Rev. Sir,

t: C

lia Ér

2

11. 9]

ני קי

Ŀ

(. ... (.....

; -

ľ,

ł

1

10

.

2

j$

:

ć

.

5

ĩ

1

i

5

New York, Nov. 16, 1739.

R. N-----, and the report of your fincere love for our M dear LORD JESUS, embolden me to write this. I rejoice for the great things GOD has done for many fouls in Northampton. I hope, GOD willing, to come and fee them in a few months. The journal fent with this, will shew you what the LORD is about to do in Europe. Now is the gathering time. A winnowing time will fhortly fucceed. Perfecution and the power of religion will always keep pace. Our LORD's word begins to be glorified in America. Many hearts gladly receive it. Oh Rev. Sir, it grieves me to fee people, every where ready to perifh for lack of knowledge. I care not what I fuffer, fo that fome may be brought home to CHRIST. I am but a stripling, but the LORD chooses the weak things of this world to confound the ftrong. I should rejoice to be inftructed by you. Mr. N----- will convey a letter to me-May the GOD of all grace give you all peace and joy in believing ! May he increase you more and more, both you and your children ! May you every day be feafted, and built Built up with fresh anointings of his blessed spirit ! And by your fervent prayers, may you be enabled to hold up the hands of, reverend Sir,

Your unworthy brother, fellow labourer and servant in our dear LORD,

G. W.

LETTER CXXIX.

New York, Nov. 16, 1739. - Hon. Mether. AST night GOD brought me hither in health and fafety. I must not omit informing you of it. Here is likely to be fome opposition, and confequently a likelihood that fome good will be done. New friends are raifed up every day. whitherfoever we go; the people of Philadelphia have used me most courteously, and many I believe have been pricked to the heart. GOD willing, I leave this place next Monday, and in about a fortnight think to fet out for Virginia by land. In about a twelvemonth, I propose returning to England; expect then to have the happine's of feeing me fuffer for my master's fake. Oh that GOD may enable you to rejoice in it ! If you have the spirit of CHRIST you will rejoice, if not, you will be forrowful. Oh my honoured mother, my foul is in diffress for you: Flee, flee I beseech you to JESUS CHRIST by faith. Lay hold on Him, and do not let Him go. Gon hath given you convictions. Arife, arife, and never reft till they end in a found conversion. Dare to deny yourself. My honoured mother, I befeech you by the mercies of GOD in CHRIST JESUS, dare to take up your crofs and follow CHRIST.

I am, honoured mother, your ever dutiful though unworthy ion,

G. W.

LETTER CXXX.

To the Rev. Mr. P

Rev. and dear Sir, Philadelphia, Nov. 28, 1739. I HAVE been much concerned fince I faw you, left I behaved not with that humility toward you, which is due from a babe to a father in CHRIST: but you know, reverend Sir, how difficult it is to meet with fucces, and not be puffed puffed up with it, and therefore if any fuch thing was differnible in my conduct, oh pity me, and pray to the LORD to heal my pride. All I can fay is, that I defire to learn of JESUS CHRIST to be meek and lowly in heart; but my corruptions are fo ftrong, and my employ fo dangerous, that fometimes I am afraid. But wherefore do I fear ? He that hath given me himfelf, will he not freely give me all things? By his help then I am refolved to afk till I receive, to feek till I find, and to knock till I know myfelf. Bleffed be GoD, I have had 'a fweet retirement to fearch out my fpirit and bewail the infirmities of my public ministrations. Alas ! who can hope to be juffified by his works? My preaching, praying, &c. are only splendida peccata. The blood of CHRIST applied to my foul by a living faith, is the only thing that can render them acceptable. This is the doctrine which you, reverend Sir. have been enabled to preach, and for which no doubt you have suffered reproach : But you are now almost at your journey's end. Yet a little while, and you shall enter into your Master's joy. In the mean while the LORD, I am perfuaded, will keep you as the apple of his eye. He will not forfake you when you are grey-headed, and your ftrength faileth you. The moment you are ripe for our common Master, he shall translate you to glory; I præ, sequar. I am a child ; I must be tutored and made meet by fufferings to be a partaker of the heavenly inheritance with the faints in light: But I am perfuaded GOD will for CHRIST's fake finally fave, reverend Sir,

Digitized by Google

.

Your unworthy brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CXXXI.

Dear Brother J. Philadelphia, Nov. 28, 1739. INDEED I love you. Why? Becaufe I hope you are an Ifraelite indeed; and one of those babes to whom it has been our LORD's good pleasure to reveal the mysteries of the kingdom of GOD. It is special; it is a diffinguishing gift. Be humble, dear James, be humble. Talk little, and think much. A wise man will guide his words with discretion. Be zealous for your dear Matter. Let a zeal for his honour even eat eat you up; but then beg of GoD that it may be according to knowledge. Stand faft in the liberty wherewith CHRIST hath made you free, and be not again entangled with a yoke of bondage. Join not one of your works with your faith, in order to juftify you before GoD: And if GoD gives you a fpirit of prayer and fupplication, fear not to pray as the fpirit gives you utterance. Man may deride, but CHRIST will approve and accept you. Dear James, you fee I do not forget you. I hope your little fociety increases, and that the LORD will always be adding to it fuch as fhall be faved. Salute them all most kindly in my name. Exhort them to continue in the grace of GoD, and to pray for, dear James,

Digitized by Google

> Your affectionate triend, brother, and fervant, G. W.

LETTER CXXXII.

Philadelphia, Nov. 28, 1739. Dear Mrs. S. AS the LORD yet heard your prayer ? Often have I heard I you fay, " Oh ! that I had received the faith !" As often, to the beft of my knowledge, have I faid, " Amen." Ere now, I hope our common Master has fulfilled all your petitions, and given you your heart's defire. If not, what hinders ? Our LORD doth not want power, for he is Almighty; he does not want a will, for he invites you to come unto him. Search your heart, and fee what is the reason the King of glory does not enter in. Is it too full of the world? Renounce it. Do you not alk often enough? Resolve to alk oftener. Do you look too much to fome who fay they have received faith, but do not bring forth good fruit ? Henceforward look only to GOD and your own foul. Or do you not know the reason? Ask our LORD to shew you, and indeed he will; for he hath promifed to fulfil the defires of them that fear him. Your Coulin can affure you of this. Oh follow him, as he does CHRIST, and you will be as happy as your heart can wifh. Dear Mrs. S----, I am, with all poffible thanks for paft favours,

Your obliged friend and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER

ŀ

÷.

1 а 11

r.

Ċ

ī

....

1

~

1

'n

!...

î.

1

LETTER CXXXIII.

To Mrs. Martha B.

My dear Sifter, Philadelphia, Nov. 28, 1739. I Call you not Martha, but MARY, for I hope you have chofen the better part, which shall not be taken from you: And yet not fo properly may you be faid to chufe, as the LORD to have chosen you; for we love GOD, because he first loved us. I can trace my conversion through its several steps, but cannot find one step I first took towards GOD. I have been a backflider from my very infancy. Had not GOD called after me, and by his spirit said unto me, as unto Adam, " Where art thou ? Into what a dreadful condition hast thou plunged thyfelf?" I fhould have fled from him (if poffible) for ever. I am perfuaded you, my dear Sifter, can readily fay the fame; for otherwise how can we truly value our LORD's redeeming blood ? How can we relish the doctrine of GoD's free grace, and our being freely justified by faith which is in CHRIST JESUS ? Oh let us beg of GOD to teach us these divine truths more and more, (for he alone can teach them) and let us lay out ourfelves to teach them to others. You are happy in being in fellowship with fome, who I hope will be ready, if need be, to feal these truths with their blood. Be humble, my dear Sifter, be humble; and cease not to pray for

Your affectionate brother and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CXXXIV.

Dear Mrs. H. Philadelphia, Nov. 28, 1739. RACHEL brings me glad tidings: She tells me the LORD hath touched your heart by the power of his word, and that your relations have threatened to caft you out for our LORD's fake. Rejoice and be exceeding glad. If you endure to the end, and naked follow a naked CHRIST, great fhall be your reward in heaven. There is no being a chriftian without enduring contempt; no being happy hereafter, without fuffering reproach here. The world can only love its own. As they hate GOD, fo they muft hate those that are defirous to be like him: But be not difmayed; CHRIST's ftrength fhall be be magnified in your weaknefs: A living faith will fupport you under all. When your father and mother forfake you, the LORD will take you up. The greateft foes you will find to be those of your own heart. Subdue these, and outward crosses will affect you but little. To conquer yourself will be a laborious task; but if you believe, JESUS CHRIST shall even do this for you. Get out of yourself, rely wholly on, and be a co-worker with him, and he shall be to you wisdom, righteousness, fanctification, and redemption. Rachel greatly wishes this, but not more fincerely than

Your friend and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CXXXV.

Philadelphia, Nov. 28, 1739. . Dear Mr. P. TTHAT a divine fympathy and attraction is there between all those who by one spirit are made members of that mystical body, whereof JESUS CHRIST is the head! I loved your departed wife, now with GoD. I love your daughter, and the church in your house, in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST. Bleffed be GOD that his love is fo far fhed abroad in our hearts, as to caufe us to love one another. though we a little differ as to externals : For my part, I hate to mention them. My one fole queftion is, Are you a christian? Are you fealed by CHRIST's spirit to the day of redemption ? Are you hungering and thirfting after the perfect, everlafting righteousness of JESUS CHRIST ? If for- you are my brother. my fifter, and mother. I defire to love you as myfelf. This is my temper; I am perfuaded it is your's. Why otherwife did you fo gladly receive me into your house? The LORD reward you and the reft of your christian brethren. Indeed I am prefent with you in fpirit, and with you good luck in the name of the LORD. O be not flack to praise him in my behalf; for I have experienced fome rich anointings of his holy fpirit, and have been made to fee more into the wonders of redeeming love. Did I know more of your names, I would write to more. This is my comfort, I truft our names are written in the book of life. Yet a little while, and we shall fit

÷

ł

Ŧ

1

Ξ

ž

î.

Ľ

Let down together in the kingdom of our Father. A place, shough on a lower form, is, I humbly hope, prepared for Your affectionate friend and fervant,

G.W.

LETTER CXXXVI.

Philadelphia, Nov. 28, 1739. Dear Mr. H. TF I remember, you used to express a great value for my L perfon and doctrine, otherwife why should you defire a line from fuch a wretch as I am ? When I look into myfelf, and confider how poor and miferable, and blind and naked my foul is, I wonder that any one should pay me the least regard. But what shall we fay ? GOD will have mercy upon whom he will have mercy. I am entirely indebted to free grace for all I have, am, or shall be. You also, I trust, dear Sir, are ready to fubscribe to this; for what have we but what we have received ? What should we have been had GOD left us to ourfelves ? Oh let a fehle of this free, diftinguishing love constrain us to obedience : A christian needs no other motive. That is a true gospel-faith which works by love. I often think it almost prefumption to think of rewards in a future state; my Mafter amply rewards me in this : But prefent mercies are only earnests of future favours. Be not therefore, dear Sir, weary of well-doing, for in due time we shall reap, if we faint not. The LORD hath multiplied his favours towards me fince I faw you laft. We have had a long but pleafant and profitable voyage. Oh fing praises unto our GOD in behalf of, dear Sir,

> Your affectionate friend and fervant, G. IV.

LETTER CXXXVII.

Dear Mrs. A. Philadelphia, Nov. 28, 1739. THESE words of the pfalmift, "Let us rejoice in the ftrength of our falvation," often come with great power and comfort upon my foul. You and I need take much notice of them: For otherwife how often fhould we have fallen away from GoD fince our first looking Zion-wards? But the LORD LORD as he loves us freely, fo he will heal our backflidings. He neither will let us fall into fin or error, fo as finally to deftroy our fouls. GOD forbid this fhould encourage us in fin. It is only intended to fupport us in danger, and to ftrengthen us under temptations. Since there is fuch infinite mercy with GOD, it is a cogent reason why he fhould be loved and feared; but not why he fhould be difobeyed : And fince GOD has lately led you out of delufion, be more watchful over yourfelf, my dear Sifter, to follow thole who truly fhew you the way of falvation.—To hear of your ftanding ftedfaft in the LORD, will highly delight

Your affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CXXXVIII.

To the Rev. Mr. R. E.

Rev. and Dear Sir. Philadelphia, Nov. 28, 1739. HE cordial and tender love which I bear you, will not permit me to neglect any opportunity of fending to you. I bless the LORD from my foul, for raising you and several other burning and fhining lights to appear for him in this midnight of the church. My heart has been much warmed during my voyage, by reading fome of your fermons, especially that preached before the affociate prefbytery. I long more and more to hear the rife and progress of your proceedings, and how far you would willingly carry the reformation of the church of Scotland. There are fome expressions which I suppose will be interpreted to your difadvantage, both by your domeftic and foreign enemies. I should be glad to know who are those martyrs to which you refer, and of what nature those covenants were which you mention in your fermon. My ignorance of the conftitution of the Scotch church is the caufe of my writing after this manner. I fhould be obliged to you, if you would be pleafed to recommend to me fome ufeful books, especially such which open the holy factament, for in GoD's law is my delight. Bofton's fourfold State of Man I like exceedingly. Under GOD it has been of much fervice to my foul. I believe I agree with you and him in the effential traths truths of christianity. I bless God, his spirit has convinced me of our eternal election by the Father through the Son, of bur free justification through faith in his blood, of our fanctification as the confequence of that, and of our final perfeverance and glorification as the refult of all. These I am perfuaded God has joined together; these; neither men nor devils shall ever be able to put afunder. My only fcruple at prefent is, " Whether you approve of taking the fword in defence of your religious rights?" One of our English bishops I remember, when I was with him, called you Cameronians. They, I think, took up atms, which I think to be contrary to the foirit of JESUS CHRIST and his apostles. Some few paffages in your fermon before the prefbytery, I thought were a little sufpicious of favouring that principle. I pray God your next may inform me that I am miftaken : For when zeal carries us to fuch a length, I think it ceafes to be zeal according to knowledge. Deareft Sir, be not angry at my writing thus freely. I love, I honour you in the bowels, and for the fake of JESUS CHRIST, from my foul. 1 with you good luck in all your pious undertakings. I pray GOD to profper the works of your hands; and to make you a noble inftrument in bringing many fons to glory. Pray fend an immediate answer, directed as usual, and care will be taken to have it remitted to, reverend and dear Sir,

Digitized by Google

Your most affectionate brother, friend, fellow-labourer, and obliged fervant,

G. W.

;

129

LETTER CXXXIX.

Dear Brother, , Philadelphia, Nov. 28, 1739. I T is much upon my heart to fend you a line. Although you are not with me, yet as GOD was pleafed to touch you by my unworthy miniftry, I love you with a peculiar love. Bufinefs prevented my writing to you when in York/hire. I was forry to hear that Brother J—had reafon to blame your conduct. My dear brother, be not offended, if in the meeknefs and gentlenefs of CHRIST, I exhort you to be foberminded. Follow after, but do not run before the bleffed Spirit, if you do, although you may benefit others, and GOD may Vot. I. K over-eu:

Digitized by Google

3

5

t:

nië t

(12)

W II

RE,

6,1

S, r,

1, T.

ng tri enta

i in r Mi

re t: 1

 \mathbf{r}

іс. Т.

efit. Veti

092

ļ

ĊĽ

9 F. - 10

3 (fž

lk:

ф.

مين ماريخ

over-rule every thing for your good, yet you will certainly deflroy the peace of your own foul. GoD has been pleafed to call you by his grace, and to give you joy in the Holy Ghoft: But, my brother, I hope it will be more fettled and fubftantial, and joined with mecknefs and humility of heart. A joy which is the refult of inward trials, and flowing from a long experience of the buffeting of fatan. Such a joy will make you apt and fit to teach, and keep you from being puffed up above meafure. It will exalt, at the fame time as it humbles your foul. The LORD direct my dear brother in all things: I wifh all his fervants were prophets; but let every one be rightly perfuaded of his call to public teaching. It is dangerous to touch the ark, though it be falling, without a commiffion from above. But no more. I am

Your most affectionate brother in CHRIST,

G. W.

to

LETTER CXL.

Dear Mr. B.

Philadelphia, Nov. 28, 1739.

TOUR kind prefent of flour has been of fingular use to me and my family; I pray GoD, in return, to feed you with that bread which cometh down from heaven. You are one of my first and choicest friends. You have not been ashamed to own me, or to attend on my ministry. It will wonderfully rejoice me, to fee you exalted at our LORD's righthand in a future state. The way you know. JESUS CHRIST is the way, the truth, and the life. Through faith in his blood fhall you have free accefs into the holy of holics. I hope dear Mr. B. is not in the number of those, who want to make a Saviour of their own works, and thereby deny the LORD, who has fo dearly bought them with his precious blood : No, 1 am perfuaded you are more noble. Mr. $B \rightarrow -$ has not fo learnt CHRIST. He is willing, I truft, to afcribe his falvation to GOD's free grace, and to let JESUS CHRIST be all in all. I hope your brother, and those young men you brought with you out of Spittlefields, are likewise thus minded. Though abfent, yet I do not forget them. O exhort them from me, to fave themfelves from this untoward generation. My dear friend, do you go before them, and let them learn of you how to walk with GOD. It is a difficult thing to be a chriftian indeed. Numbers are Pharifees, and do not know it. I pray GOD you may be delivered from them, and be made experimentally to know that no one can call JESUS CHRIST " his LORD," till he has really received the Holy Ghoft. I could dwell on this, but other bufinefs obliges me to haften to fubfcribe myfelf, dear Mr. B----,

Digitized by Google

Your most obliged friend and fervant,

G: W:

LETTER CXLI.

Reverend Sir,

W., C.

i Xay

20 e les Styd

w.::- y ili Y ili

siit 122

ret -Loc

. 101. -

HRS

Ĝ

2.255

ing i i i

1, 10 I 11. 15

are a Irri i

,orti: Ses(i

102

3.

19

iat Bai

نې مە مەر

|3-|---- jć?

Philadelphia, Nov. 28, 1739.

T AM not willing to go on fhore till I have performed my L promise, and sent you a line. I heartily wish I could write fomething which might advance the glory of GOD and the good of his church. As we both profefs ourfelves minifters of the gospel, these two things ought to be our chief and only concern, and more especially at this time, when men feek their own and not the things of the LORD JESUS. Oh, dear Sir. the care of fouls I find to be a matter of the greatest importance. You have a great number committed to your charge. What a dreadful thing will it be for any of them to perifh through your neglect? And yet I fear, Sir, you do not walk worthy of the holy vocation wherewith you are called. It is no good report that I hear of you in common life. Your practice contradicts your doctrine, and what good can you do, if every one of your parishioners, whilst you are preaching, may reply, " Phyfician heal thyfelf ?" Befides, Sir, how can you preach CHRIST to others, when you are a stranger to his power yourfelf? It is next to impossible. I make no apology for this plainnels of speech. Simplicity becomes embassiadors of CHRIST. I am, reverend Sir,

Your obliged friend and fervant,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CXLII.

1 Dear Mr. G.

Philadelphia, Nov. 28, 1739

-TNDEED I love you, though it was to long before I came I to fee you. Want of time, not of respect, was the cause. GOD is my judge how earnestly I long after your falvation, and how willingly I would fpend and be fpent in order to promote it. Oh how closely does true faith in JESUS CHRIST our head, knit all his members in love to one another; what a divine harmony and attraction is there between them, when they have drank into and been made partakers of one and the fame spirit ? How does the love of GOD dilate and enlarge their hearts ! How do all little diffinctions about externals fall away, and every other name is swallowed up in the name of IESUS CHRIST ? This, my dear brother, is that catholic fpirit, which will cement all denominations of fincere professors together. This is the fpirit of which free diffinguifhing grace has made you a partaker, and which I pray GOD we both may partake of every day more and more. He is faithful who has promised, who also will do it. I find it is not in vain that we have believed in JESUS. He is GOD, and his work is perfect; his love is like himfelf unchangeable; his gifts and calings are without repentance, and therefore, though I am but a babe in CHRIST, yet I am perfuaded I shall fee you crowned with glory. Then, my dear brother, we shall have time enough together. Then, there will be no parting, no fear of falling; but we shall drink eternally of those pleasures which flow from God's right hand for evermore. Supported with this hope, what hinders but I may come once again, when the LORD permits, and offer CHRIST's everlafting righteoufnefs to poor perifhing finners. The devil and his fervants will rage horribly, and perhaps caft me into prifon, nay, put me to death : But if you will come and vifit me, by the help of my God, I will preach to you even there; for I am not ashamed of the gospel of CHRIST. I have felt it to be the power of GOD unto my falvation. Oh, my brother, the fire kindles whilft I am writing; but I must have done. Pray falute those dear fouls that I spoke to at your house, and all other ,r; ale ia.

the.

17.

Car e; f e za:

ere z

: 22

to.

pick

l Th

12 cri 🗄

33

Iz

ار ا

11 :0 É

5

ر میں

1

1

Ì

;

Ċ

2

í

133 other friends. Entreat them to pray and give thanks for me; and affure them they are not forgotten by 1 1 Ever yours in CHRIST,

: G. W.

LETTER CXLIII.

Mr. H-Philadelphia, Nov. 28, 1739. A S you fland to nearly related to your daughter, who is 1 with me, though I am unknown to you in perfon, yet I make bold to fend you a line to inform you of her welfare. I find the did not confer much with you about her intended voyage; but I hope both you and her will have great reafon to rejoice in the end. GOD has been pleafed to visit her with fome illness, but now the is perfectly recovered. What is best of all, I hope her foul profpers, and is fitting more day by day for the enjoyment of God. This was the chief end of her going abroad, and give me leave to tell you, this is the chief thing you ought, and must pursue at home. But why do I fay at home? A christian hath no home but heaven. He is a ftranger and pilgrim while here on earth. I hope you know better, Mr. H----, than to think you was born to drive a team, or plough a piece of ground. These things must be done, but then they fhould be done in fubordination to the care of your better part, the foul. Your daughter tells me, you are now grey headed. Take heed, dear Mr. H----, to make your calling and election fure. Reft not in outward things. Do not flatter yourself that you are a christian, becaufe you go to church, and do no one any harm. Nothing but a living faith in CHRIST JESUS our dear LORD, can qualify you for eternal life. Without this, GOD will be to us a confuming fire ; and unlefs we are born again, and made new creatures in CHRIST, we never shall enter into the kingdom of GOD. If you know not what I mean by these terms, you may depend upon it, you are a stranger to this new-birth, and confequently in a state of death : but you need not fear ; even at the eleventh hour CHRIST will accept you, if you come to him by faith. He hath fhewn mercy to your fon and daughter. Why may he not fhew mercy to their father also? Whofoever cometh to him, he will in no-wile caft out. Hafte then, dear Sir.

Sir, out of your spiritual Sodom. Linger not. Nothing will more rejoice your dear children, than to see you brought to an experimental knowledge of the truth, that you may be saved. For their fakes, you are particularly remembered by

Your unknown but fincere friend

and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CXLIV.

'To the Rev. Mr. P-----.

Upper Marlborough (Mary Land) Dec. 8, 1739.

Rev. and dear Sir,

134

TILL now, I have neither had leifure nor freedom to answer your kind letter. Bleffed be Gon, who has opened the hearts of fome of his people at New York to receive the word. May he enable you to water what his own right hand hath planted, and grant to your labours a divine increase ! Indeed I with you good luck in the name of the LORD. I with all his fervants were prophets. Oh that he would be pleafed to fend forth experimental labourers into his harveft : -for I fear amongst you, as well as in other places, there are many who are well versed in the doctrines of grace, having learned them at the university, but notwithstanding are heart-hypocrites, and enemies to the power of godlinefs.-----Dear Sir, I use this freedom, because I love fimplicity. I confess I am but a child in grace, as well as years. Pardon this freedom, for out of the fulnels and fincerity of my heart my pen writeth. - I thank your fon and dear Mr. S---- for what they did on my account. Alas, I fear they think too highly of me. Oh dear Sir, entreat the Gop of all grace to give me humility, fo fhall fuccess not prove my ruin. My most cordial respects and hearty thanks attend dear Mrs. P-----, I pray GoD in all things to make her a help meet for you-As fast as I can fuatch a few moments from public bufinefs, more New York friends may expect to hear from me -A fense of their favours is still upon my heart-I would willingly remember them, whenever I go in and out before Mr. N----'s letter, and my next journal, will the Lord. acquaint you, how the LORD JESUS has been getting himfelf

felf the victory, fince I left New York-There has been fuch little opposition, that I have been tempted almost to cry out, " Satan, why fleepest thou ?" But GoD pities my weaknefs. Oh, dear Sir, thank him in my behalf, for indeed he deals moft lovingly with, Rev. Sir,

۱ٿ

6.C

: m:: here:

Cel

Cett

6 ή.

D, T.

rłp;

071 ne 22

[6

22 Ni

135

1

3

i î

أرست

ن^غ میں

1

1

Your most unworthy brother and fellow-labourer,

; ;

G. W.

135

LETTER CXLV.

Upper Marlborough, Dec. 8, 1739. Dear Sir, I Cannot defer writing to dear Mr. N—— any longer. —This afternoon God brought us hither. Some are folicitous for my flaying here to-morrow. As it feems to be a call from providence, I have complied with their request. Oh that I may be enabled to lift up my voice like a trumpet, and to fpeak with the demonstration of the fpirit and with power. These parts are in a dead sleep. At Anapolis, I preached twice, and spoke home to some ladies concerning the vanity of their But alas, they are wedded to their Quadrille false politenes. and Ombre. The minister of the place was under convictions-He wept twice, and earneftly begged my prayers. He will not frighten people I believe with harfh doctrine, --he loves to prophefy fmooth things .- GOD bleffed the word wonderfully at Philadelphia. I have great reafon to think many are brought home to GOD. When I return, it will then be feen, who has received the word into an honeft and good heart. By the divine affiftance, I propose revisiting Philadelphia, New York, and to go as far as Boston, and fo return to Georgia, before I take fhipping again for England ---- The LORD direct my going in his way ! About May you may expect to fee me. My dear friend, pray that I may fo improve the time of my absence, that at my return my progress may be made known to all men. It fhames me to fee what little proficiency I have made in the school of CHRIST. If I do not begin to prefs forwards, how fhall I appear before my bleffed LORD? I feel myself to be the chief of finners; furely never was a greater inftance of redeeming diftinguishing love. Gon forbid that I fhould glory in any thing but free grace: had not God plucked me as a brand out of the fire, I had now K 4 either either been given over to a reprobate mind, or caft into a place of torment. Oh help me, help me, deareft Mr. N——, help me to be thankful, and accept my thanks, though late, for all favours received when at New York. Indeed I love you in the bowels of our dear LORD JESUS. Salute your dear wife my kind hoftefs : exhort her to be feverely kind to her little boy.—My moft cordial refpects attend all who afk after me. Entreat them to continue their prayers, deareft Mr. N——, for Your weak, but affectionate friend, brother

136

and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CXLVI.

To Mr. B----.

Upper Marlborough, Dec. 8, 1739. Dear Sir, G RATITUDE obliges me to fend you a letter of thanks for your laft kind prefent, and all other favours ; but the love of our LORD JESUS CHRIST constrains me to write to you, exhorting you earnestly to contend for the faith once delivered to the faints. I humbly hope the LORD has been pleafed to blefs my coming in thefe parts to many, and amongft them to you alfo. It rejoiced me to find dear Mr. B was convinced that I preached the truth as it is in JESUS. It plcafed me exceedingly, to find how his eyes were opened to fee the direct contrariety there is, between the fpirit of CHRIST and the fpirit of the world. What has my dear friend now to do, but to profecute these convictions, and never reft till they end in a found conversion. God has given you richly all things to enjoy. Be perfuaded henceforward not to be fo cumbered about the many trifles of this life, as to neglect the one thing needful. Dare, Sir, to be fingularly good, Oh dare to let your light fhine before men-Be not ashamed of CHRIST and his gospel. Come out from your carnal acquaintance, and live as becomes a true follower of our LORD JESUS. Dear Mr. B____, I hope will join with you. God's spirit has been and is now striving with his heart. I pray GOD to make this the accepted time, and caufe it to be the day of his falvation. How will it fill me with joy

LETTERS

::;

ņ

ż.

Ņ.

ć:

i

į.

ere: G

ξŗ:

ni:

) S.:

. 1 (1)2

ha:

727

12

122

ក្ខុះ(

er bi

21 M

0103

G::

e (* .

n).

: C

ن م (ر) ج

r i).

e Ril

5

ال[

31

Your most obliged friend and servant,

G. W.

¥37

LETTER CXLVII.

To Captain B_____

Williamsburgh, (Virginia) Dec. 15, 1739.

HITHER GOD brought us last night; I trust the same gracious being, by his good providence, has conducted you safe to Philadelphia. I cannot say, I have met with so much as even an almost christian, fince I parted from you, till I came to Colonel Whiting's ---- There, God put in my way a planter, that is feeking to know the way of GoD more perfectly-He is now with us, and I hope our conversation will be bleffed unto him. Oh dear Mr. B-----, ftrive, I beseech you by the mercies of GOD in CHRIST JESUS, strive to enter in at the ftrait gate. GOD of late has loudly called you - Take heed that neither the luft of the eye, the luft of the flefh, nor the pride of life prevail on you to lie down in a carnal fecurity again. I am confident you will be most heartily despised, if you are a real christian; but dear Mr. B----'s resolution will be built on a better foundation, than to let a little breath blow it down. In CHRIST is your ftrength; look up to him day by day, and as your day is, fo shall your ftrength be, I fear and pray for you. GOD only knows, how often you have been upon my heart. We have not failed interceding for you at the throne of grace. I shall be much mistaken, if Mr. B----- does not prove a christian indeed. About May I propose, GOD willing, to be with you again. Then I shall rejoice to fit and hear you tell what GOD has done for your foul - Be not afraid of conviction. Be not afraid of inward feelings. Now pray to the LORD JESUS, to lay the ax of mortification to the root of your heart. Make thorough thorough work with it. Do not fpare yourfelf in the leaft.--Now is the accepted time, and that it may be the day of falvation, is the earneft prayer of, dear Mr. B-----,

L E T T E R S.

Your obliged affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CXLVIII.

To the Rev. Mr. G- T-.

. My dear Brother. Williamsburgh, Dec. 15, 1739. DE not angry becaufe you have not heard from me. Indeed I love and honour you in the bowels of JESUS You are feldom out of my thoughts ; but till now CHRIST. I have not had liberty given me, to fend you a line - I truft the work goes on glorioufly in your parts. The hand of the LORD brought wondrous things to pais, before we left Penfilvania; but in these parts fatan feems to lead people captive at his will. The diffance of the plantations prevents people's affembling themfelves together .- Here are no great towns, as in other provinces, and the commonalty is made up of Negroes and convicits, and if they pretend to ferve GoD, their masters, Pharash like, cry out, "Ye are idle, ye are idle." Laft night I read the affecting account of your brother John ; let me die, O LORD, the death of that righteous man, and let my future ftate be like his ! O my dear friend, my brother, entreat the LORD that I may grow in grace, and pick up the fragments of my time, that not a moment of it may be loft. Teach me, oh teach me the way of GOD more perfectly. Rebuke, reprove, exhort me with all authority-I feel I am but a babe in Chrift. I long to know more of the holy JESUS. He has manifested himself to my foul, both in a way of humili-Since I faw you, both his rod and staff ation and exaltation. have comforted me. At prefent, he makes me young and lively as an eagle; I only with I was more worthy to fubfcribe myself

> Your affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

> > LETTER

LETTER CXLIX.

To Mrs. C.

Newton, Cape Fear, Dec. 28, 1739.

My dear Sister in CHRIST,

tia Vi

) 320

6.1

.....

īć,

高度计算法 医普里达属

.

Re.

n k

Ľŝ.

18

121

UST now we have been finging the hymn, which we fung at Broad-oak; and as I generally do at fuch feafons, I thought of that happy time wherein we fung it in your great It was a time much to be remembered, an anticipation, hall. I believe, of that bleffed time when we all shall meet to fing the fong of the Lamb in the heavenly Jerusalem ------ For the adoption of the fpirit, if truly received, is the earnest of our promifed inheritance. We are fealed thereby to the day of redemption, and therefore may give both men and devils the challenge to leparate us, if they can, from the love of GOD which is in CHRIST JESUS our LORD-I am verily perfunded, that fince I left you, all things have worked together for your good. As I am travelling, often does my foul think both of you and yours, and out of the fulness of my heart, do I often pour forth this or fuch like petitions, " Deareft LORD, be for ever gracious to the houfhold of ----!" My confcience hath fmote me frequently, for not writing you a longer letter. I fend this to afk pardon, and to affure you how often you and your daughters are upon my heart, when I go in and out -before the LORD-I long to hear how the LORD JESUS hath magnified his ftrength in your weaknefs. It would fill a volume to tell his goodnefs and truth; and my bafe ingratitude fometimes comes with fuch conviction upon my heart, that I can fcarce forbear getting off my horfe, and humbling myfelf in the way fide. Indeed, I am the chief of finners, and yet overflowing hath the LORD JESUS been in his love. You will hear more foon by the journal which will be fent. Dear Mrs. C-----, my love to all.

Your affectionate though unworthy brother in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CL.

Reverend and dear Sir, Savannah, Jan. 16. 1740. WITH much pleasure (tho' not till last week) I received your kind affectionate letter. I thank you for it with all all my foul, and pray GOD to reward you for this, and all other your works of faith and labours of love. You may depend on my not being prejudiced against you or your brethren, by any evil report. They only endear you to me more and more; and were your enemies to represent you as black as hell, I fhould think you were the more glorious in the fight of heaven. Your fweet criticifms and remarks upon my journal and fermons, were exceeding acceptable, and very just. I affure you, dear Sir, I am fully convinced of the doctrine of election, free justification, and final perfeverance. My observations on the Quakers, were only intended for those particular perfons with whom I then conversed. The tenets of the quakers in general, about ju/lification, I take to be falle and unscriptural. Your adversaries need take no advantage against you, by any thing I have written so for I think it every minister's duty to declare against the corruptions of that church to which they belong, and not to look upon those as true members of their communion, who deny its publick conftitutions. This is your cafe in Scotland, and ours in England. I fee no other way for us to act at prefent, than to go on preaching the truth as it is in JESUS; and then if our brethren caft us out, GOD will direct us to take that course which is most conducive to his glory, and his people's good. I think I have but one objection against your proceedings; "Your infifting only on presbyterian government, exclusive of all other ways of worthipping Gob." Will not this, dear Sir, necessarily lead you (whenever you get the upper-hand) to oppofe and perfecute all that differ from you in their church government, or outward way of worshipping God? Our dear brother and fellow-labourer Mr. G----- T----- thinks this will be the confequence, and faid he would write to you about it. As for my own part, (though I profess myself a minister of the church of England) I am of a cathelic fpirit; and if I fee a man who loves the LORD JESUS in fincerity, I am not very folicitous to what outward communion he belongs. The kingdom of GOD, I think, does not confift in any fuch thing. These are my sentiments, dear Sir, and I write them out of love-I am ashamed (because only a babe in CHRIST) to pretend as it were to direct; but true friendship needs no apology. GOD is doing great things in America. My journal, which which I fend over with this, will fhew you what he has done already. Your welfare is much upon my heart, and as I am enabled, I make mention of you in my prayers. Affairs of the Orphan-houfe go on well. Some few, even here, hove the LORD JESUS. Oh, dear Sir, pray for us, and effectially for

139

140

LETTERS.

Your weak unworthy brother and fellow-labouter in Christ, G. W.

LETTER ELL.

Savannah, Jan. 22, 1740.

My Hon. Friend and Brother in CHRIST,

c

3

3 7

.

Ç.,

2

0 '

ċ

in F:

С. Г

2

ţ.

.

Ń

b

Ĭ

Ņ

ß

~

Ċ

1

TOUR last letter quite confounded me. What am I, that I should be thus highly favoured ! I can only fay, that " Lefs than the leaft of all GOD's mercies," fhall be my motto ftill. I have experienced many inward trials, fince I faw But I find they work continually for my good. you laft. . I rejoice in what our dear LORD JESUS has done for your foul. May a double portion of his bleffed spirit rest upon you; may our glorious ever-bleffed Emanuel caufe all his glory to pafs before you, and may you be filled with all the fulnels of Gop ! Since my arrival here, I have received a fweet endearing inftructive letter from Mr. Ralph E-----; I have anfwered it, and told him you promifed to write about the neceffity of a catholic spirit. Dr. C---- also has favoured me with a loving epiftle. I have received and read his fermions fince I faw you: they are acute and pointed, but I think not fearching enough by many degrees-My dear brother, I love writers that go to the bottom - GOD willing, I hope to be with you at the fynod-But what think you ? I am fometimes doubting, whether I shall have sufficient matter given me to preach upon. Methinks I hear you fay, "O thou of little faith ! wherefore doft thou doubt ? As thy day is, fo fhall thy ftrength be." Michael and the dragon, I hear, are carrying on war most bravely in England. I really believe we shall not die, till we fee the kingdom of GOD come with power. The affairs of the orphan-house are in great forwardness. I have much to fay; but time and bufinefs will not permit. Bleffed be GOD, eternity is at hand, and then we shall have time time enough. I have read fome of your books to my great profit. I want to be taught the way of GOD more perfectly all the day long. My tendercft respects await the brethren; my dear fellow-travellers falute you—You are often remembered both by them, and

Your affectionate though very weak and unworthy brother, fervant and fellow-labourer in CHRIST, G. W_i

LETTER CLII.

To the Rev. Mr. C.

Savannah, Jan. 24, 1740 Rev. and dear Sir. T Received your kind, though undeferving letter, and now I fnatch a few moments from my other avocations, in order to fend you a fhort answer. May GoD who knits the elect in one communion and fellowship, fanctify our friendship and correspondence to the flirring up each other to love and to good works !-It pleafed me to find you breathe fo catholic a fpirit. - O that bigotry and party zeal were not fo much as once named amongft us, as becometh faints ! Since CHRIST is not divided in himfelf, why fhould chriftians be divided one amongst another ? Bigotry, I am fure, can never be the fruit of that wildom which cometh from above.-No, it is carthly, fenfual, and devilifh. When I come to New England I shall endeavour to recommend an universal charity amongst all the true members of CHRIST's myflical body. Perhaps therefore, the fields may be the most unexceptionable place to preach You and your brethren, I am perfuaded, will follow our in. LORD even without the camp, and rejoice to bear his facred reproach. Affift me, dear Sir, in your prayers, that my coming may be in the fulnefs of the gofpel of peace-I shall come only with my fling and with my ftone .--- If the LORD fhall be pleafed to to direct me, that I may ftrike fome felf-righteous Goliahs to the heart, I know you will rejoice with, Rev. and dear Sir, Yours most affectionately in the love of our dear LORD JESUS, G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CLHI.

To Mr. W. D.

Savannah, Jan. 31, 1740.

143

My dear Brother in CHRIST,

BLESSED be GOD, for the good report I hear of your zeal for our dear Emanuel. Go on, I befeech you by the mercies of GOD in CHRIST JESUS; go on, and I am perfuaded the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in your hands. If I am thrown aside as a broken vessel, fo I fee you and others ftirred up to carry on our dear LORD's kingdom, if my heart does not deceive me, I shall rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. GOD bleffes the affairs of the orphan-house. The work is large, but we have omnipotence for our fupport .--- I believe I shall take in near fifty children. God lets me fee every day, that he orders my goings. He vifits me with inward trials ; but if I had not fuch thorns in the flefh, what would become of me ? Fear not to speak the truth ; if driven out of England, here is a noble range for you in America. At prefent I am restrained; but I could not rest, without letting you have a line from

Your most affectionate friend brother, and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CLIV.

To Mrs. D.

Dear Madam,

Savannah, Jan. 31, 1740.

I REJOICE to hear that you are likely to be cast out of your mother's Will only for following CHRIST. This may be only the beginning of temptations. God, I believe, out of love will try you to the uttermost. You have drank deep of heavenly comforts; you must pledge our LORD in his cup of fufferings. Those who faw him on mount Tabor afterwards were with him in the garden. But fear not-The LORD is with you-Neither men nor devils shall hurt you. The fweet communion we have had with GoD, and through him with one another, often comforts my foul. Who knows, but but that time may be again repeated ? Indeed, I want words as well as time to express with what thankfulness I defire to fubscribe myself, dear madam,

Your unworthy brother and obliged fervant in our common LORD, G. W.

LETTER CLV.

-To Captain M.

Dear Sir; Savannah, Jan. 31, 1740. T Rejoice to hear of your good health, and take this opportunity of fending you Mr. Law's and Mr. Haliburton's life; which I pray GOD to fanctify to your benefit and comfort. hope you will watch over your heart, and take care to keep up those convictions, which GOD once put into your foul. I am afraid of Mr. B. The world, the world I fear has got hold of him. Dear Captain Marin, I truft, will not defert his Mafter .--- I am fure he would die, rather than prove false to an earthly prince.-Oh let him not defert his dear Redeemer's colours. Dear Sir, beg of GOD to root out of your heart a defire for that honour which cometh of man. Till dead to the world you will not be alive to Gob. Honour, falfely fo called, has deftroyed millions. That you may be never -carried away with, or ruined by it, is the hearty prayer of; dear Sir.

. Your's, &c.

G. W.

۱. ۲۵

> 108 11e

> £.

109

02

IJ

I R I si

Éne

63 zh

6 alo

27

32.0

21 ۵۵۲) فکر

cann ceás, choi had

Ser

33t

åi,

1. C

 d_2

lk:

1

E

He

(;e

LETTER CLVI.

To the Rev. Mr. W. T.

Savannah, Jan. 31, 1740.

My dear and honoured Brother,

BLESSED be GOD, who hath pleafure in the profperity of his fervants.—I am abafed to think what our all-gracious Redeemer hath done by my unworthy hands, and rejoice to hear that he is working by your's. Oh that you may experience frefh anointings and teaching from above 1 O that you may be firengthened by God's mighty gower in the inner man, and pull down fatan's firong-holds daily. God willing, I hope to be with you at the Synod. I find as yet I feared know know any thing; but if I give out of my little flock, I frush the LORD will increase it, as he did the little lad's loaves and fifthes. My journal, which I have fent to Philadelphia, will tell you what GOD has done in Maryland and Virginia. A foundation of great things I believe is laying here. Oh pray that a fense of his own littleness, may be given to

> Your affectionate, though unworthy brother and fellow-labourer in CHRIST,

> > G. W.

LETTER CLVII.

My dear Sifter, Savannah, Jan. 31, 1740. Rejoice to hear that you are enabled to fee not only the I freeness but eternal duration of God's grace. Till the finner is convinced of this, I am perfuaded he can neither work from a principle of true love, nor give JESUS CHRIST the honour due unto his name. He must always be making his falvation to depend partly at least on his own doings; " If I do fo and fo, JESUS CHRIST will give me his grace :" But can any believer who knows himfelf, help confeffing, that after he had received grace, he should have finally fallen from it, had the continuance of it depended on his own will ? Indeed, my dear Sifter, nothing fo much comforts my own foul as the thought that GOD will never leave me nor forfake me; if he does, it must be for my unworthines : But on that account it cannot be; for he never chofe me on account of my unworthinefs. He loved me freely, he prevented me by his grace; he chole me from eternity, he called me in time, and I am perfuaded will keep me till time shall be no more.-This confideration makes my faith to work by love. Now, I can live not barely upon my frames, which notwithstanding are bleffed things, but on the promifes. Now, I can go on my way rejoicing, and, amidit all dejections, lift up my head in prospect of a certain and exceeding weight of glory. Though I fall, I know I fhall rife again ; for he that is brought truly to believe on JESUS CHRIST, his faith shall never die. The LORD JESUS will not fuffer to be loft the purchase of his blood. He knew for whom he died, and neither men nor devils shall ever pluck them out of his hands. Such as have been taught Vol. I. L moff

4

7

82,

6:

11

z.

. U.

:::

k.

i:

C: 1

i.

. 1

d çî.

,

ŀ

ć

1

ŗ

Ç

Ľ

ġ

F

most of Gob, I find, are thus minded. And I am perfuaded were the effects of our LORD's redemption to depend on a man's own compliance, or was the continuance of GoD's grace to depend folely on man's improvement, JESUS CHRIST would have died in vain. Adam could not ftand in paradife when left to his own free-will, how then can we ? No, bleffed be God, our falvation is put into better hands than our own. JESUS CHRIST has purchased not only wildom, righteousnels, and fanclification, but also eternal redemption for us. Let this thought, my dear Sifter, lift up our hands when they hang down, and strengthen our feeble knees; GoD's gifts and callings are without repentance. There is no condemnation to them that are truly in CHRIST JESUS. And I write thus peremptorily to you, because I find now you are able to bear it. -Bleffed be GOD ! my dear Sifter, flefh and blood has not revealed this unto you. I hope ere long our brethren will lay all carnal reafoning afide, and fee and preach the truth in this respect, as it is in JESUS. My kindest love to your fister .--What I write to one, I write to both, The LORD direct your going in his way, and caufe you to continue inftant in prayer for Your weak brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CLVIII.

To Mrs. Elizabeth IV-----.

Savannah, Jan. 31, 1740. My dear Sifter, T Have been just reading over your letter, and felt a fweet I fympathy with the writer. Oh that it may increase till we are filled with all the fulnefs of GoD! Some paffages in your letter were dangerous to my foul. Whenever you fee any growth of grace, pray that I may grow in humility in particular. Oh that I was lowly in heart ! Honour and difhonour, good report and evil report would then be alike, and prove a furtherance to me in my christian cause.-I believe the time is fhortly coming in which I am to endure fomething for my LORD and Mafter; then will I cry out, Who is on the LORD's fide ? Nothing supports me under a prospect of a trying time, fo much as a fense of GoD's everlasting love. I am persuaded, that neither men nor devils shall ever pluck me out of his Almighty

Digitized by Google

Almighty hands. Let this fupport you, my dear Sifter, in your change of life. Wherever you are, I am confident you will have reason to fay, "Surely GOD is in this place." That you may wax ftronger and ftronger, and ripen daily for glory, is the hearty prayer of Your affectionate brother and servant in our dear Emanuel, G. W.

LETTER CLIX.

To Mr. J. N.

Dear Sir,

Ċ,

7

23

ς,

R.

u riz

ų.

36

e 🖬

to in 125 1

i L

nt: Liñ

10 in r

10

Ĝ.

1, 🛱 kra 1965

ŋ X.

مذكلام

, IUG

orth

hera Ig fei e Lii

g LO

ș.

)IR is

n'E.

Savannah, Jan. 31, 1740.

Hope you will excuse my not answering your kind letter I fooner.—The many avocations that at prefent furround me. prevented it. I rejoice to hear that our LORD JESUS is getting himself the victory in the hearts of poor finners. I hope many will now rejoice in his falvation. One good fign is, that he has employed the meanest, as well as vilest wretch, that he ever yet fent forth .--- When I hear that any good is done by my unworthy hands, it almost makes me to blush.-Oh that I could humble myself in the dust, that the LORD alone may be exalted in his ftrength. I purpose to revisit New-York at the appointed time. You told me, " Our LORD has not fent me into his vineyard at my own charge." Indeed, I always find he furnishes me with things convenient : Nay, he is often. fo abundant in goodnefs and truth, that I am obliged to cry out in holy admiration, " My LORD and my GOD !" Dear Sir, help me to be thankful. Bleffed be GoD, the Orphanhouse affairs fucceed well. Many fouls will be redeemed by it from temporal, and I truft, from eternal bondage. I have taken in upwards of twenty children already, and I take in more daily. - I am building a large house, have many fervants, and a good flock of cattle. It will coft much money. -But our LORD will fee to that. My friends at New-York will affift me when I come amongst them. Oh that my coming may be in the fulness of the bleffings of the gospel of peace! I am persuaded, you will not be wanting in your prayers on behalf of, dear Sir,

Your obliged friend and fervant in CHRIST JESUS,

Digitized by Google

LETTER

LETTER CLX.

To Mrs. Elizabeth D----.

My dear Sister in CHRIST, Savannab, Feb. 1, 1740. I Generally observe that whom the LORD loves, for the most part he keeps from preferment.—Your grandmother cannot do any more than she is permitted. It is GoD's free grace alone, that has made the difference between us and others. Oh that we were duly fenfible of electing love ! Indeed it must necessarily constrain us to obedience. I am glad you like Boehm. His works are truly evangelical, and afford fweet nourishment to the new-born foul. The nearer we come to GoD, the better we shall relish fearching books. It is an evident fign of a falle heart, when it is unwilling to be probed. Bleffed be GOD, you are not thus minded. I truft the LORD JESUS has apprehended you, and will henceforward never let you go. O that I may hear of your growth in grace, and of your zeal for the LORD OF HOSTS .- You do well to go about doing good ; your Master did so before you. Dare, dear Mils, to follow his good example, and never fear the revilings of men. Set your face as a flint against all the adverfaries of our LORD; for fhortly you shall tread all your enemies under feet. I befeech you by the mercies of GOD in CHRIST JESUS our Saviour, to keep up a close walk and communion with God. Nothing elfe can preferve you from idols; and you know when once the foul is off its watch, the devil makes fad ravages in it. There is nothing I dread more than having my heart drawn away by earthly objects .--- When that time comes, it will be over with me indeed; I must then bid adieu to zeal and fervency of spirit, and in effect, bid the LORD JESUS to depart from me. For alas, what room can there be for GoD, when a rival hath taken possession of the heart? Oh my dear Sifter, pray that no fuch evil may befal me. My blood runs cold at the very thought thereof. I cannot, indeed; I cannot away with it. In a multiplicity of business, have I wrote you these lines. I thank you for your kind letter, and hope I shall always retain a grateful sense of the many favours I have received from your dear family. My kindeft respects attend your fister; I long to hear of her being brought brought into the glorious liberty of the children of GOD. How does your father ? Oh that he may have a well-grounded intereft in CHRIST ! How does my dear brother Charles ? I pray GOD to fill him with all joy and peace in believing. And how does your little fifter ? Deareft Redeemer, keep her unfpotted from the world ! My heart is now full. Writing quickens me. I could almost drop a tear, and wifh myself, for a moment or two, in England. But hush, nature : GOD here pours down his bleffings on

> Your fincere friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CLXI.

To the Rev. Mr. D. R.

Savannah, Feb. 4, 1740.

My reverend and dear Brother,

Ľ

Y

.

-

.

2

.

:...

.

. .

):

.....

Ċ,

Ĵ.

. د انا

.

2

1

...,

1

Ľ,

5.

3

C.

1

ί.,

T Received your kind letter just on my arrival at this place.-My journal, which I suppose you will have read ere this reaches Wales, can best inform you what GOD hath done for my own and other people's fouls .- Even here, he is pleafed to be with and affift us. The Orphan-house goes on bravely. I believe I shall take in near fifty children before I return to England. He that feedeth the young ravens which call upon him, will not fuffer them to want.-I rejoice to hear that the LORD JESUS is fo publicly confessed among your countrymen.-If the LORD is pleafed to fend me, I shall gladly take a tour into Wales .- In this time of retirement, I expect many inward conflicts. How otherwife shall I be prepared for future mercies? Experience of GoD's work upon our own fouls, is the best qualification to preach it effectually to others. In about two months I take another tour round America. The gofpel, I believe, will come with power in these parts. I expect to fuffer in the flefh for what hath been done already: But what have we to do with the confequences of performing our duty ? Leave them to GOD. Oh, my dear brother, pray for me that my faith fail not, and then I care not what perfecution befals

Your weak unworthy brother in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER

LETTERS.

LETTER CLXII.

To Mr. H. H.

Savannah, Feb. 4, 1740. My dear Brother, TILL this find you in prifon or not? Your last letter (which I received upon my arrival here) gave me fome expectations that ere long you would be both in prifon and bonds. By and by, I shall follow perhaps .- The LORD fanctify all his difpenfations to us, and make us not only willing to be bound, but even to die for the fake of our dear Master. When I read how my letters, &c. are blessed to your comfort, it quite confounds me. Oh the free-grace of CHRIST JESUS our LORD ! My dear Brother, let us continue inftant in feason and out of season.-Let us continually preach up free-grace, though we die for it; we cannot lose our lives in a better cause. As I am enabled, I remember you at the throne of grace; in general I figh out my prayers .- But the spirit, I trust, makes intercession for me with groanings that cannot be uttered.

I have not had much enlargement in preaching, fince I have been here; but my heart is often weighed down, and torn to pieces with a fenfe of my defperately wicked and deceitful heart. I can fubscribe to what you fay, "Was GoD to leave me to myself, I should be eminent for, and a ring-leader in fin." I sometimes think my heart is more vicious and perverse than any one's; and yet JESUS CHRIST will come and dwell in me.—Methinks I hear you fay, "Glory be to free grace: All praise be given to electing love."—Let all that love the LORD JESUS fay, Amen! Pray write to me as often as possible.—GoD, I believe, is laying a foundation for great things in Georgia. I am building a large house, and taking in many children. Wreftle with GoD in behalf of, Brother,

Your's eternally in CHRIST JESUS,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CLXIII.

To Mr. H_____

Savannah, Feb. 4, 1740.

151

HOW is it with your heart? I hope the LORD JESUS leads you on from conquering to conquer, and gets himself the victory every day. I cannot but think that hereafter great things will be done in America. GoD feems to have given some earnests of it already. My next journal will acquaint you what they are. It often pleafes me, to reflect how CHRIST's kingdom is fecurely carried on in fpite of men and devils, and that too by the weakest instruments in different parts of the world. Surely we shall unite at last, and that glorious time will come, when, with one heart and with one voice, we shall fing praises to him who sitteth upon the throne for eyer. A glorious epiphany, I truft, will thortly be made in the hearts of many fouls. My dearest Brother, let us do or fuffer any thing, fo we may be made inftruments of beginning and carrying on fo divine a work. As for my own part, I often fland aftonished at the riches of free diffinguishing grace, and I often feel myfelf fo great a finner, that I am tempted to think, nothing can be bleffed which comes from fuch unhallowed hands and lips; but yet the LORD is with me, and attended his word with mighty power on Christmas day. Pray remember me to all friends. I expect you will receive the letters I fent from Philadelphia, ere this comes to hand. I depend on feeing your journal, and hope you will accept of my most cordial love from, dearest Brother, > Your's eternally in CHRIST JESUS, G. W.

LETTER CLXIV.

To Mr. H. G.

My dear Brother, Savannah, Feb. 4, 1740. TTHAT shall I say to your kind letter ? I bless the LORD for awakening you to fee the necessity of trufting in a better righteousness than your own, and I adore him for making use of fo mean an inftrument as I am. It is is a plain proof that the power is not of man, but of GOB alone. Labour, dear Sir, to keep up these convictions in your heart. Now Gop has called you, take care of lying down again .- Be always trimming your lamp, as though you were in expectation every moment to meet the heavenly Bridegroom .-- Search more and more into the corruption of your heart, and never rest till God's spirit witnesseth with your fpirit, that you are a child of Gop. Let the deadness of those around you, excite your zeal. See that you are a burning and a fhining light in the midft of fuch a crooked and perverse generation .- And let a sense of Gon's diffinguishing love to you above others, excite you to diffinguish yourfelf by your obedience; ftill remembering that the LORD JESUS is our whole and everlafting righteousness. That we both may be found in him, is the hearty prayer of

Your fincere friend and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CLXV.

To the Rev. Mr. 7----.

Reverend and dear Sir. Savannab, Feb. 29, 1740. TTTH great pleafure I answer your kind letter, and earnestly pray that GOD would be pleased to fanctify our correspondence. It rejoices my foul, when I find a clergyman that loves our LORD JESUS in fincerity. It is with regret that I speak against any of the facred function; but when their preaching and walk are directly contrary to the gospel of our LORD JESUS, I cannot but speak to them, as well as to the laity. To the best of my knowledge, I preach the truth as it is in JESUS, and fimply aim at bringing fouls Bleffed be his free grace for the fuccess he hath been to him. pleased to give me. Not unto me, not unto me, but unto his holy name be all the glory ! Daily I am convinced, that Gop's hand is not fhortened-He bleffes me here as well as elfewhere. The Orphan-houfe is in great forwardness. I feed near an hundred mouths daily, and am affured I ferve a GOD who will fupply all our wants. It would rejoice me to see you at Savannab, if your business will permit.-I can now now provide things convenient for your reception.—In about fix weeks I propose, God willing, to go northward.—If you can, pray favour me with your company before that time.— My friends will rejoice to hear and fee you.—They join with me in affectionate respects to yourself and Mrs. \mathcal{I} —. I have fent you a few little tracts, and long for opportunities to convince you, reverend and dear Sir, how fincerely I subscribe myself

152

Your affectionate brother and fellow-labourer in our dear LORD JESUS,

G. W.

LETTER CLXVI.

Te Captain H. M.

Dear Sir,

ł

1

C

2

3

3

2

۲

1

A

Ľ

Savannab, March 2, 1740.

TTITH pleafure I received your kind letter laft night. and immediately prayed, that GOD would never leave you before he had finished the good work begun in your heart. He has given you a rational, I hope ere long, he will give you a (piritual conviction of fin and of CHRIST. When that comes, all opposition will fall before it. The world will be as nothing in your eyes, and you will act like a foldier of JESUS CHRIST. Indeed, dear Sir, I travail as it were in birth, till JESUS CHRIST be thoroughly formed within you. If I do not forget my promise, I do not forget your favours .-- I make mention of you in my prayers. Linger not, dear Sir, but hafte out of your spiritual Sodom. Flee, flee to JESUS CHRIST, whose facred blood has made an atonement for finners. Lay hold on his everlafting righteoufnefs, and chufe rather to fuffer affliction with the people of GOD, than to enjoy any thing which this world may afford, for a feafon. Accept the fermons I have herewith fent, and believe me to be, dear Sir,

Your affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CLXVII.

To Mr. James S----.

Dear Mr. S. March 2, 1740. DLESSED be God, that you are yet alive as to your D body; bleffed be GOD, that fome fparks of divine light are yet discernible in your foul. Indeed, I have been frequently distressed for you and your companions, left stan, through the corruption of your hearts, and the deceitfulnefs of worldly bufinels, should get an advantage over you. Oh watch, my dear friend, watch unto prayer; keep close to Gon through a living faith in his dear Son; forget not your first love; forget not a bleeding GOD; forget not that time, when your foul was about to take its last flight. O that I may meet you in triumph at the last day ! Providence thwarts my seeing you. Adieu; write as often as you can. You have my prayers, and as a token of my love, be pleafed to accept this letter and the books fent with it, from > Your affectionate friend and fervant, G. W.

LETTER CLXVIII.

To the Hon. 7. W.

Honoured Sir.

Savannah, March 10, 1740.

ESTERDAY, after public worfhip, I received with L pleafure your kind letter, and was immediately ready to cry out, Why do fo many of my LORD's fervants take notice of fuch a dead dog as I am. Surely fovereign, rich, and free grace was never exalted more than in the mercy shewn to me, who am in truth the unworthleft of the fons of men .- Honoured Sir, it rejoices me to hear that there are fo many at New England, who love the LORD JESUS in fincerity, and dare to fhine as lights in the world amongft a crooked and perverse generation.-I with they may be all Aquila's and Priscilla's to me, and teach me the way of Gon more perfectly; for I long to grow in grace, and in the knowledge of my LORD and Saviour JESUS CHRIST. Oh he is a iwcet mafter; even here do I feel his bleffed influences, and rejoice rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory.-He is often with us in the midft of his fanctuary, and much fucceeds the Orphan-houfe .-- I have digged low, and intend to build it high, because I have a great GOD to pay the charges. I have about thirty-fix children which I maintain and cloath, and have upwards of forty perfons more who are employed in the work. The plantation is in great forwardnefs .-- Many families are kept here by my employing them, and I hope to fee many a youth bred up for GOD; for I defign to breed up for the miniftry, all that at any time I shall perceive to be renewed by the Holy Ghoft, and endued with fuitable natural abilities. The work, I am perfuaded, is of GoD, and I know he will raife up inftruments to support it. Let him chuse whom feemeth him good .--- In about three months, GOD willing, I hope to be near, or at New England. I thank you from my foul, honoured Sir, for your kind invitation; but, I be-ward both him, and all others who receive me in his name ! I have not yet received the books, which you was pleafed to fend me, because they are sent to the southward, but I expect them daily, and doubt not of their being profitable. I know not how to express my gratitude for your great condescension in writing to me, but that I may always behave fo as not to be ashamed of subscribing myself

Your obliged humble fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CLXIX.

To the Rev. Mr. J. W.

Honoured Sir, Savannah, March, 26, 1740. SINCE I returned here, I received your letter and journal. — I thank you for both, and fhall wait almost with impatience to see a continuance of your account of what God is doing or has done amongst you—He knows my heart, I rejoice in whatever God has done by your hands. I, præ, sequar, etfi non passibus equis.

I could now fend a particular answer to your last; but, my honoured friend and brother, for once hearken to a child, who is willing to wash your feet. I befeech you by the mercies of God in CHRIST JESUS our LORD, if you would have my love

Ľ

5

X

Ì0

k

h

h ų V

ю

K)

3

Ξų

ŗ.

1

b

æ

1 le

Ņ

156

love confirmed towards you ; write no more to me about mifrepresentations wherein we differ. To the best of my knowledge at prefent, no fin has dominion over me, yet I feel the ftrugglings of indwelling fin day by day; I can therefore by no means come into your interpretation of the passage mentioned in the letter, and as explained in your preface to Mr. Halyburton-The doctrine of election, and the final perfeverance of those that are truly in CHRIST, I am ten thousand times more convinced of, if possible, than when I faw you laft ---You think otherwife : why then fhould we difpute, when there is no probability of convincing ? Will it not in the end deftroy brotherly love, and infenfibly take from us that cordial union and sweetness of soul, which I pray GOD may always fubfift between us? How glad would the enemies of the LORD be to fee us divided ? How many would rejoice, fhould I join and make a party against you? And in one word, how would the caule of our common mafter every way fuffer by our raising disputes about particular points of doctrines ? Honoured Sir, let us offer falvation freely to all by the blood of JESUS; and whatever light GOD has communicated to us, let us freely communicate to others. I have lately read the life of Luther, and think it in no wife to his honour, that the last part of his life was fo much taken up in difputing with Zuinglius and others; who in all probability equally loved the LORD JESUS, notwithftanding they might differ from him in other points. Let this, dear Sir, be a caution to us, I hope it will to me; for by the bleffing of GOD, provoke me to it as much as you please, I do not think ever to enter the lifts of controverly with you on the points wherein we differ. Only I pray to GoD, that the more you judge me, the more I may love you, and learn to defire no ones approbation, but that of my LORD and master JESUS CHRIST .---- Ere this reaches you, I suppose you will hear of my late excursion to Charles Town. A great work I believe is begun there. Enclosed I have fent vou Mr. Garden's letters-They will ferve to convince you, more and more, of the neceffity you lie under to be inftant in feason and out of season. Oh, dear honoured Sir, I wish you as much fuccefs as your own heart can wifh. Was you here, I would weep over you with tears of love, and tell you what great things Gop hath done for my foul, fince we parted laft.

2

2

2

ĉ

;

ľ

1

3

s

2

3

2

į

laft. Indeed and indeed, I often and heartily pray for your fuccefs in the gospel: May your inward firength and outward fphere increase day by day! May GoD use you as a choice and fingular instrument of promoting his glory on earth, and may I see you crowned with an eternal and exceeding weight of glory in the world to come! This is the hearty defire of, honoured Sir,

Yours most affectionately in CHRIST JESUS,

G. W.

LETTER CLXX.

To Mr. W.

Savannab, March 26, 1740.

ND how does dear Mr. Wal-? His letter lies by me. A and I now am inclined to answer it. My dear brother, how do you feel your heart? Is it grown fick of original and actual fin ? Is it grown fick of unbelief and felf-righteoufnels ? Is it closely united to the holy JESUS? Do you feed on him in your heart by faith ? And do you receive of his fulnefs day by day? I afk these questions, because I want to see you writeof the inward life, and to hear you talk of your having a feeling poffeffion of your God. For he that believeth aright, hath the witness within himself. How do the brethren ? I hope there: is no more faying "I am of Paul," or "I am of Apollos," but that you are only defirous of being one in CHRIST. I. pray for, though diftant from you. I believe I am preparing. a place for many. Our work goes on bravely. I have near forty little ones now in my house. Some of them I trust will be effectually wrought upon, and made christians indeed. We all live in love and unity, and most I hope are seeking after JESUS CHRIST. He is pleased from time to time to manifest himself to my foul, and to shew me how unworthy I are of the least mercy. Shortly I shall go northward, to preach the golpel and collect fresh contributions for my orphans. GoD has given me an earnest of what he will do in America, by the farge collection that was made at Charles Town - I live every day in expectation of hearing from my London friends. My brother, the captain, refreshed my foul with glad tidings and letters from Briflol. GOD gave me great comfort and fatiffaction faction in conversing with him, and I hope he will be a chriftian indeed. Adieu. All falute you and the brethren.

I am yours most affectionately in CHRIST JESUS, G. W.

LETTER CLXXI.

To the Rev. Mr. B. I.

Savannab, March, 28, 1740.

I I? When shall my foul be refreshed, with hearing that the work of the LORD profpers in his hand? I fuppole before now you have received my letters, and feen my journal, and I believe GOD is yet preparing great things for us. Many at Charles-town, lately were brought to fee their want of JESUS CHRIST-Next week, GOD willing, I purpose going to Philadelphia, and then perhaps may fee England the latter end of this year, or beginning of the next. The orphanhouse goes on bravely. I have forty children to maintain, befides workmen and affiftants - The great housholder of the world does, and will I am perfuaded richly provide for us all. The colony itself is in a very declining way. But our extremity is GOD's opportunity-Our brethren I truft go forwards in the fpiritual life. I have often great inward trials-Pray that I may be kept in all changes, and feeming chances of this mortal life. I believe it to be Gop's will that I should marry. One, who may be looked upon as a fuperior, is abfolutely necessary for the due management of affairs. However, I pray GOD, that I may not have a wife, till I can live as though I had none-You may communicate this to fome of our intimates; for I would call CHRIST and his disciples to the marriage. If I am deluded, pray that GOD would reveal it to

Your most affectionate brother and servant,

Digitized by Google

G. IV.

LETTER

LETTER CLXXII.

To Mr. and Mrs. D.

On board the Savannah, bound to Philadelphia from Georgia, April, 4, 1740.

My dear friends,

ċ

Б.

7

12

W.

6.2

Ŀ

e1 :

gi

. T

k:

d c

n:>

2.5

e.

51

dĽ

ł.

.

X

٢.

22

t.

CINCE I wrote last, we have buried our Sister L----. Rachel I left at Philadelphia, and fifter T----- feems to be in a declining flate; fo that fifter A----- alone is like to be left of all the women which came over with me from England. I find by experience, that a miffres is abfolutely neceffary for the due management of my increasing family, and to take off fome of that care, which at prefent lies upon me. Besides, I shall in all probability, at my next return from England, bring more women with me : and I find. unless they are all truly gracious (or indeed if they are) without a fuperior, matters cannot be carried on as becometh the gospel of JESUS CHRIST. It hath been therefore much impreffed upon my heart, that I fhould marry, in order to have a help meet for me in the work whereunto our dear LORD JESUS hath called me. This comes (like Abraham's fervant to Rebekah's relations) to know whether you think your daughter, Mils E----, is a proper perfon to engage in fuch an undertaking? If fo; whether you will be pleafed to give me leave to propose marriage unto her ? You need not be afraid of fending me a refusal. For, I bless Gop, if I know any thing of my own heart. I am free from that foolifh paffion, which the world calls LOVE. I write, only because I believe it is the will of Gop, that I should alter my state; but your denial will fully convince me, that your daughter is not the perfon appointed by GoD for me. He knows my heart; I would not ~ marry but for him, and in him, for ten thouland worlds, -But I have fometimes thought Mils E----- would be my help-mate; for fhe has often been impreffed upon my heart. I should think myself fafer in your family, because for many of you love the LORD JESUS, and confequently would be more watchful over my precious and immortal foul. After frong crying and tears at the throne of grace for direction, and after unspeakable troubles with my own heart, I write this. Be

Be pleafed to fpread the letter before the LORD; and if you think this motion to be of him, be pleafed to deliver the inclofed to your daughter — If not, fay nothing, only let me know you difapprove of it, and that fhall fatisfy, dear Sir and Madam,

> Your obliged friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CLXXIII.

To Miss E-----.

On board the Savannah, April 4th, 1740.

DE not surprised at the contents of this :- The letter fent D to your honoured father and mother will acquaint you with the reasons. Do you think, you could undergo the fatigues, that must necessarily attend being joined to one, who is every day liable to be called out to fuffer for the fake of JE-SUS CHRIST ? Can you bear to leave your father and kindred's house, and to trust on him, (who feedeth the young ravens that call upon him) for your own and childrens support, supposing it should pleafe him to bless you with any? Can you undertake to help a hufband in the charge of a family, confifting perhaps of a hundred perfons? Can you bear the inclemencies of the air both as to cold and heat in a foreign climate? Can you, when you have an hufband, be as though you had none, and willingly part with him, even for a long seafon, when his LORD and master shall call him forth to preach the gospel, and command him to leave you behind? If after feeking to GOD for direction, and fearching your heart, you can fay, " I can do all those things through CHRIST ftrengthening me," what if you and I were joined together in the LORD, and you came with me at my return from England, to be a help meet for me in the management of the orphan-house? I have great reason to believe it is the divine will that I should alter my condition, and have often thought you was the perfon appointed for me. I fhall still wait on Gop for direction, and heartily intreat him, that if this motion be not of him, it may come to nought .--- I write thus plainly, becaufe, I truft, I write not from any other principles but the love of GoD.-I shall make it my bufines to call on the LORD JESUS, and would advise you to confult both him and

160

LETTERS.

16t and your friends ------ For in order to attain a bleffing, we fhould call both the LORD JESUS and his disciples to the marriage-I much like the manner of Ifaac's marrying with Rebekab, and think no marriage can fucceed well, unlefs both parties concerned are like-minded with Tobias and his wife-I think I can call the God of Abraham, Ifaac and Jacob, to witness that I defire " to take you my fifter to wife, not for luft, but uprightly;" and therefore I hope he will mercifully ordain, if it be his bleffed will we should be joined together, that we may walk as Zachary and Elizabeth did, in all the ordinances of the LORD blameless. I make no great profession to you, because I believe you think me fincere. The paffionate expressions which carnal courtiers use, I think, ought to be avoided by those that would marry in the LORD. I can only promise, by the help of GoD, " to keep my matrimonial vow, and to do what I can towards helping you forward in the great work of your falvation." If you think marriage will be any way prejudicial to your better part, be fo kind as to fend me a denial. I would not be a fnare to you for the world. You need not be afraid of fpeaking your mind. I truft, I love you only for God, and defire to be joined to you only by his command, and for his fake. With fear and much trembling I write, and fhall patiently tarry the LORD's leifure, till he is pleafed to incline you, dear Miss E----, to fend an answer to Your affectionate brother, friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CLXXIV.

To Mr. H

On board the Savannah, April 10, 1740.

4 OL.

ĥ

6

1

Ŧ

i.

05

X.

eť

r ί.,

ž

ī,:

٤:

ŗ

b

1.

لير لير

Y

1

1

ı. f

đ

1

Ľ.

ţĻ

2

ø

į.

ţ

3

t

162 crucified JESUS. Does he not, my dear brother, often manifeft himfelf fweetly to your panting foul? Does he not often teach you the hidden things of the kingdom of GOD? Does he not tell you that he loves you, and will fuffer nothing to pluck you out of his almighty hand? Thus often is he pleafed to manifeft himfelf to me: and who then dares defpair? No; I can affure the worft, the chief of finners, that JESUS CHRIST came to fave them. My dear brother, here are glad tidings of great joy! The fite kindles whilft I am mufing. Oh let us call all to come and fee Him, who has forgiven us all the fins that ever we committed. Is not this the CHRIST? Adieu. My hearty and deareft love to all. Fail not writing to

Your affectionate friend and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CLXXV.

On board the Savannah, April 10, 1740. My dear Brother. KJOU, as well as your dear affociates, are much upon I my heart. I long to hear that you are advanced in grace, and grown in the knowledge of CHRIST JESUS your LORD. I fay your Lord; for I hope, ere now, you can appropriate CHRIST to yourfelf, and, without the least diffidence or doubt, cry out affuredly, " My LORD and my GOD." When the foul fays this, then, but not till then, is it truly married to the dear LORD JESUS; then are we true children of the bridegroom, and are real partakers of the Supper of the Lamb. This, this is faith : this is believing; not with the head; not in notion only; but with the heart, indeed and in truth. The foul now puts its qmen, and fets the feal to GoD's everlafting promifes; it now foars upwards towards heavenly things, and feels continually the invisible realities of another world. Though fometimes overshadowed by a cloud, yet still it knows that its Redeemer liveth, and justifieth the ungodly. It cannot doubt of his favour, though fometimes he is pleafed to withdraw his fensible presence. The root of the matter is twifted round every faculty of the foul, which daily is fupported with this affurance, that CHRIST can no more forfake the foul he loves, than he can forfake himfelf. Oh my dear brother, ιċ.

i ler

Ga:

nbb

dirz

, tir henr

I a:

35 (g. -

th:G Sil e

ıt, G

bril D.

EX.

:der

EU

701 0

aft dik

l m G

, s#

يني ثلاثار من ثلاثار

iper t

ot në

deci # abbh

i kr

(i il

出职

215

مخلقا :

揮

0.4

17

Ļ

103

ther, I find myself much carried out to write of that divine life, that divine mystery of godlines, the hidden kingdom of GOD in the heart. If any thing I can fay, or do, or write, may be any way ferviceable to dear Mr. G...., it will much tes joice

His most unworthy brother and servant in CHRIST,

G. ₩s

LETTER CLXXVI.

To Mr. I ____ B____.

On board the Savannah, April 10, 1740.

My dear, dear Friend,

T Remember your words that day I took my leave of youd L with Dr. John S., at London. I have not forgotten you, therefore do I now write a line to my dear Mr. B. May the Holy Ghost come upon him, and the power of the Highest overshadow him; and may our glorious Redeemer never ceale firiving with him, till he hath a witness within himself that he is a true child of Gob. Ob, when will you answer the character of your name-sake and forefather Isaach When, like him, will my dear friend give himfelf up a whole burnt-offering unto the LORD! May I hear that you have recovered your first love, and are, as formerly, zealous of good works ! I think I never yet really doubted of your return. If prayers to GOD, if entreaties to him, can bring my doar friend back, he shall not be led away captive by the world; he shall, he shall be a Christian indeed. I long to see you, and till shen thall wreftle with frong cryings and many tears with my dear LORD JESUS, in your behalf. I feel, I feel CHRIST's love 1 I can no more doubt of my interest in him, than I can of the fhining of the fun at noon day. He fills, he fweetens and gladdens my foul; he loves me freely: he will bring me to behold his glory. I think I could now bid to men and devils defiance. Who is he that condemneth? It is CHRIST that juffifies, who even now fitteth in heaven to make intercellion for me. You fee, my dear friend, I am upon the mount. I know not how to ftop. It is true, I must come down ; but it is only that I may go up again, and take a view of the heavenly Canaan. I am now near the port whither we are bound i M 2 yes yet a little while, and I shall be in heaven; and shall I not meet my dear I--- there ? God forbid! No, no; I cannot bear the thought of it. Away, my dear, dear brother, to JESUS CHRIST. Lay hold on his everlafting righteoufnefs: look, look unto him by faith, and be faved. Call your dear wife to look alfo. Help, oh help her in the great work of her falvation; and breed up your dear child in the nurture and admonition of the LORD. Adieu. My heart is full. With fincerity I fubscribe myself

Your's most affectionately in our dearest,

dearest LORD JESUS,

G. W.

LETTER CLXXVIL

To Mr. N-----

My Dear Brother, On board the Savannah, April 10, 1740. T Have been a few days returned from Charles-Town, where our dear LORD JESUS, I truft, has begun a glorious work. Many came to me under convictions, and were made to cry out, "What shall we do to be faved ?" The people were exceeding defirous of my return amongst them. If I call there, as I come northward, it may prevent my being at New-York to foon as was proposed. The LORD direct my going in his way. A Fosterian Preacher loft ground there. I think you are not much to be blamed for going out of church; but perhaps it might be better, on another fuch occasion, to hear the whole difcourfe, and then go and converfe with the preacher upon it; otherwife a man may fay, you are angry, and could not judge, because you did not hear all. Praise is more dangerous than contempt : but when our LORD's honour can be promoted by the display of our graces, we need not fear. His grace will be fufficient for us. I know not what perfon it is that you would not have me be fo open to, unlefs it be Mr. ----. I had rather be too open than too referved. Simplicity much becomes the Ilrael of GOD. A few days past, with full affurance of faith, I laid the first brick of our great house: Feremiab bought land when the people were leading into captivity. My family daily increase, and, bleffed be GOD, as yet I am kept from doubting. Pray that my faith may never fail. Some of : - :

the

the Germans in America are holy fouls, and deferve the character they bear. . They keep up a close walk with GoD, and are remarkable for their sweetness and simplicity of behaviour. They talk little, and think much. Most of them, I believe, are Lutherans. But where there is the image of my dear Mafter, there are my affections drawn. This is the catholic fpirit . you breathe after : the LORD, I am perfuaded, will give it to your foul. All that people do fay of me, affects me but little; because I know worse of myself than they can fay concerning me. My heart is desperately wicked. Was GOD to leave me, I should be a remarkable sinner. But redeeming love, I believe, will not let us go. Oh ! dear Mr. N. pray, and give , thanks for me. I daily tafte that the LORD is gracious. All . things go on well. My dear brethren falute you, as does Your affectionate, unworthy brother and fervant in CHRIST.

G. W.

165

LETTER CLXXVIII.

Willingtown, (Penfylvania) April 14, 1740. R E A D where I am, and judge whether or not I am a ftranger and pilgrim upon earth. Yesterday, after a fhort paffage of ten days, did GoD bring us from Georgia to New-Cafile : there I preached twice. To-day I shall preach here, and in the evening hope to reach Philadelphia. People are much alarmed already; and great things, I find, GOD has been pleafed to do, by what he enabled me to deliver when last here. Two ministers have been convinced of their formal flate, notwithstanding they held and preached the doctrines. of grace. One plainly told the congregation he had been deceiving himfelf and them, and could not preach any more, but defired the people to pray with him. Another is as a flame of fire, and hath been much owned of GOD. An oppofer reading my fermon, in order to convince them I did not preach as Mr. T----, was much difappointed; for power went along with the fermon, GoD's spirit fell on the people, and formal oppofers went affrighted away. It is unknown what a glorious ftir here is in the province. Many, very many, I be-M 3 lieve.

lieve, of late have been brought favingly to believe on the LORD lesus. The work much increases, and here is employment for many months : but I must return thortly to Savannah. A primitive fpirit revives; and many, I hope, will be brought to live stedfast in the apostles doctrine, in fellowship, and breaking of bread, and in prayer. Perhaps dear Mr. Smay be one of them. Pray how does that young man do? Is -he deeply humbled, and clofely united to the deat Lorn JESUS ? Does he feel himfelf a poor finner, and daily experience the outgoing and incoming of the bleffied fpitit in the fanctuary of his heart ? Bleffed be Gon, I do : even whilft I am writing I feel his power. I am perfuaded I shall be more than conqueror over every evil, through my Redeemer's love. Oh ! my dear friend, keep close to the dear LORD JESUS! Do not go without his leading, and then you are fafe, though in the midft of devils. Adieu.

Ever, ever yours,

G. W.

LETTER CLXXIX. To Madam C-----.

Madam.

New Bran (wick, April 27, 1740.

A LL things go on well in America-nay, better than I dare alk, or could think. Our LORD's kingdom comes with power. It is amazing to fee how Gob is prefent in our affemblies: I refer you to dear brother S----- for particulars. My animal fpirits are exhausted, but I am filled within. Nature would fometimes cry out, "Spare thyfelf;" but when I am offering Jtaus to poor finners, I cannot forbear exerting all my powers. Oh that I had a thousand lives I my dear LORD JESUS should have them all. I long to be out of the body, that I may love and ferve him as I would: but I muft fuffer before I can reign with him. That you and I may never deny our LORD, is the earnest prayer of, Madam,

Your obliged humble fervant,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

167

LETTER CLXXX. To Mr. M-----.

ji

New Brunswick, April 28, 1740. DLESSED be God, I can fend you glad tidings of great D joy. Our LORD JESUS is getting himself the victory in these parts. The Orphan-house affairs go forward beyond expectation. I have upwards of farty children in my house at Savannah, near seventy persons in family, and upwards of an hundred people to provide for every day. As yet we want for nothing. The great housholder of mankind gives us all things richly to enjoy, and, I am perfuaded, will provide for us whilft we truft in him. I had rather live by faith, and depend on GOD for the support ofmy great, and yet increasing family, than to have the largest visible fund in the universe. About five weeks ago the LORD firred up the Charles-Town people to contribute upwards of feventy pounds sterling towards the fupport of my little ones. A glorious work was also begun in the hearts of the inhabitants; and many were brought to cry out, " What shall we do to be faved !" A fortnight ago, after a fhort paffage of ten days, I landed in Penfylvania, and have had the pleafure of feeing and hearing, that my poor endeavours for promoting CHRIST's kingdom, when there laft, were not altogether vain in the LORD. I cannot well tell you how many have come unto me, labouring under the deepest convictions, and feemingly defirous of finding reft in JESUS CHRIST. Several have, I humbly hope, actually received him into their hearts by faith, and have not only righteousness and peace, but also joy in the Holy Ghost. In short, the word hath run and been much glorified; and many Negroes also are in a fair way of being brought home to GOD. I daily receive fresh and most importunate invitations to preach in all the adjacent countries. Gon is pleased to give a great bleffing to my printed Sermons : they are now in the hands of thousands in these parts, and are a means, under GoD, of enlightening and building up many in their most holy faith. Since fuch an effectual door is opened for preaching the everlasting gospel, you will not be furprized if I acquaint you there are many adverfaries. The Clergy, I find, are greatly offended at me. The Μ4 comcommiffary of Philadelphia, having got a little ftronger party than when I was there last, has thrown off the mask, denied me the pulpit, and last Sunday preached up an bistorical faith, and justification by works. But people only flock the more to me. The power of God is more visible than ever in our affemblies ; and more than ever before are convinced that I preach the doctrine of JESUS CHRIST. Some few bigotted felf-righteous Quakers also, now begin to spit out a little of the ierpent : they cannot bear the doctrine of original fin, or of imputed righteousness as the cause of our acceptance with Gon. One calls original fin " original nonfenfe;" and feveral have been to me, under the apprehension of being thrust out, for owning and confessing what I take to be the truth as it is in TESUS. God has now brought me to New Brunswick, where I am bleffed with the conversation of Mr. G-T-. Indeed he is a good foldier of JESUS CHRIST, and GOD is pleafed in a wonderful manner to own both him and his brethren. The congregations where they have preached have been furprizingly convicted and melted down. They are unwearied in doing good, and go out into the highways and hedges to compel poor finners to come in. Yesterday also I heard of two ministers in Long Island, near New-York, who had large communications from GOD, and have been instrumental in bringing many fouls to CHRIST. I could add more; but I must away: the people are waiting for a spiritual meal. They fly to the doctrine as doves to the windows, and I truft the LORD is now reviving his work in the midst of the years. With great difficulty I have redeemed time to fend you thefe few I hope you and the reft of my dear friends continue to lines. pray for me : for I believe never was fo weak a wretch fent on fuch an important errand. But when I am weak, then am I strong. My bodily strength, by frequent journeying and continued speaking, sometimes fails me; but the LORD quickens and strengthens me by his mighty power. The more I am opposed, the more joy I feel; and the first fruits of Gon's fpirit, which he hath imparted to my foul, are fo fweet, that I almost with impatience wait till I reap a full harvest in the fruition of my GoD, Continue, I beseech you, to intercede for for me; and reft fatisfied that both you and my other English friends are always remembered by

168

ŗ,

ά: 12

.

or Ga

Ľ2

, .

Ś

ар 203

d :-... ie.

р:

'n

....

12

2

h

53

Ϊ.

5

22

....

. .

Γ.

.

2

.

Yours,

G. W.

°169

LETTER CLXXXI. To W. S. Efg.

Reedy Island, May 19, 1740. My dear Brother, T Know very well what it is to part from a friend which is as one's own foul; and therefore could in fome measure fympathize with you in what you felt when parting from me. The good LORD fanctify my friendship to you, and grant we may go hand in hand to heaven. One of the inclosed papers will thew you the event of what you inferted (unknown to me) in the News. However, be not disheartened; GoD shall make even this to work together for your good. The war between Michael and the dragon has much increased. Mr. Chas preached most of his people away from him. He lashed me most bravely the Sunday before I came away. Mr. A---also preaches against me. Mr. C- did not come to take his leave of me; and Mr. 7- is very inveterate. Now I believe our LORD's kingdom will come with power. At New-York the word ran. Twice or thrice our LORD appeared for us in a most glorious manner. Mr. T- and his brethren glow with divine warmth; and I have conversed with one of the minifters of Long Island, whom GOD has lately fent forth : he is a fweet zealous foul. Laft week, at Nottingham and Mr. B-'s. how did God manifest his glory ! We had about twelve thousand hearers; and such a melting, such a crying, (they fay) was fcarcely ever feen. Bleffed be GOD, the devil's children begin to throw off the mark. I want to draw the lingering battle on. At Philadelphia affairs go on better and better; only Satan now begins to throw many into fits. I have generally preached twice and rode near thirty miles a-day fince you left me. The LORD hath been my support, and has often fo melted me with a fenfe of his free, fovereign, and everlafting love, that fome thought I was giving up the ghoft. Oh never let go your sense of God's sovereign, everlasting love! It is food to my poor foul. Was it not for that, furely I must fink under under the prospect of the labours and fufferings that are before me. My dear brother, What is the LORD doing in these parts? I believe the work will go on better here than in England. We are more united in our principles, and do not print one against another. Pray observe the hint given to Captain G-----, and let the LORD order for me as it shall feem good in his fight. We are now at Reedy Island waiting for a wind. I heard of a ship going to Dublin, and could not lose the opportunity of writing to my dear brother S_____. I need not remind you to haften over as fast as poffible-Out LORD has taught you not to flay by the way-I have rebuked Mr. C---- tharply, and I truft have gotten forme gracious fouls on board-The LORD is with me; I am somewhat berter as to bodily health, but I live chiefly on inward fupplies from above. My matter never fails me. Oh exhort all to fall in love with JESUS, and to pray for, Ever yours in the beft bonds, G. W.

LETTER CLXXXII.

To Mr. M, an Indian Trader.

Reedy Island, May 19, 1740. Dear Mr. M-----T Received your letter, and have been reading part of your journal. I think it your bounden duty to go amongft the Indians again, not as a minifler, but as a private christian, whose duty it is, when converted himself, to ftrengthen his brethren. An effectual door, I would hope, is opening amongst some of the heathen. I remember, when it was first impressed upon me, that I should go to Georgia, this promile came with fuch power as never will be forgotten, and that too, long before I had any outward call-" I have made thee the head of the heathen."--- I speak this for your encouragement, but defire you would not mention it to others. Who knows but that time may be now near at hand ?-However that be, it is plain GOD calls you, and I with you good fuccels in the name of the LORD. Be fure you keep a close walk with GOD. -Be much in prayer, and prepare for the greatest hardships. Your greatest perils will be amongst your own countrymen. The heathens will be firred up by them, as the Gentiles were by

Digitized by Google

.....

.

4

1

;

by the Jews; but the LORD JESU's will make you more than. conqueror over all. The word of the LORD will make its own way. Beg of GoD to give you true notions of our free fuffification by faith in JESUS CHRIST. Bring your Indian hearers to believe, before you talk of baptifm, or the supper of the LORD. Otherwife they will catch at a fhadow, and neglect the fubftance. Improve the leifure you now enjoy, and fee that you feel the truths you speak. Feed on this promife, "It shall be given you in that hour what you shall fay." Your circumftances call for a fulfilling of it --- Tell thomas what GOD has been doing here, and how happy JESUS CHRIST will make them. Be fure tell them, tell them, that true faith is not merely in the head, but in the heart, and that it will certainly be productive of good works. Frequently meditate on Gon's free love to yourfelf, and that will best qualify you to speak of it affectionately to others. I could fay more, but time will not permit. Pray for me. All with me falute you. My poor petitions you may depend on, as the LORD shall enable me. My love to all, and believe me to be

Your affectionate friend, brother, and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CLXXXIII.

To the Allegany Indians.

Reedy Island, May 21, 1740. My Dear Brethren, OR fo I call you, because you, and I, and all, have one common father, ONE GOD, in whom we live, move and have our beings We all came at first out of the dust of the earth. For after God made the fun, moon, stars, and every thing you fee, he also made a creature called man, and breathed into him the breath of life; he then became a living foul. He could not only walk and fpeak, but he could also think, and reason, and was full of goodness, peage, and joy. This man, this happy creature GOD placed in a garden, which his own right hand had planted. He then caft him into a deep fleep, and out of one of his ribs made what we call a woman, that the might be his wife. Their names were Adam and Epc. With these, Gop made an agreement that they should cat cat of every tree of that garden, except one; but if they ate the fruit of that particular tree, they should die; they should return to the dust from whence they were taken, lose the comforts they enjoyed in their fouls, and be unhappy for ever in another world. But if they did not eat this fruit, none of these things should come upon them. A being, which we call the devil, (and who for his pride had been cast out of heaven) envying their happines, tempted them to eat the forbidden fruit. They confented, they ate, they died. Their bodies became mortal, their fouls were deprived of the prefence and love of GOD; and unlefs a way was found out to make fatisfaction for what they had done, they must have been lost for ever. These were our parents, and GOD made this agreement with us their children, as well as with them. For they acted in our name, as a king acts in the name of his people, or a father in the name of a child-What therefore befel them, befel us. We died in them; and come into this world poor and miferable, blind and naked, as they were, when they had eaten of the forbidden tree. Hence it is, that we are given to luft, anger, envy, hatred, pride, and malice, and. all those troublesome paffions which you all must feel in your own hearts, and cannot but fee even in the hearts of your children. If then, you only look into yourfelves, you must confess these things are so. But GOD hath given us a book, wherein he affures us of the truth of all this: - And we know that book came from GOD, becaufe none but GOD could tell us the things therein contained. And I speak first of this, because 'till you feel and believe this, you cannot come to the knowledge of JESUS CHRIST; and without the knowledge of JESUS CHRIST you cannot be faved. For after our first parents, Adam and Eve, had taken the forbidden fruit, and with all their children, thereafter to be born, became guilty before GoD, GOD out of his own free love fent his only begotten Son into the world, to die, and fo to make an atonement for the fin of fallen man, and also to obey the law, which man had broken; fo that though fallen man had no righteousnels of his own, yet upon believing in GoD's Son, he should find a perfect righteousness in him. This Son is called JESUS, "A Saviour," because he was to fave us from the 172

171

ł

2 č

ľ

.

3 2

.

.

2

ž

E

1

ŀ

the guilt and power of our fins. He was truly God. and therefore could fatisfy; he was truly man, and therefore could obey and fuffer in our stead. He was GOD and man in one perfon, that GOD and man might be happy together again. My dear brethren, (for fo I must call you, though I never faw you) these are strange things. But if you are willing to learn, the holy fpirit fhall teach you. For JESUS CHRIST by dying, and obeying GoD's law, hath bought for us the holy fpirit, who fhall change your corrupt natures, and fit you for happiness hereafter with the ever-bleffed GOD, if you do but believe in your hearts .- Thousands of white people only believe in their heads, and therefore are no more christians than those who never heard of JESUS CHRIST at all. They call CHRIST, "Lord, Lord," but they do not live as JESUS CHRIST hath commanded. No, they curfe and fwear, they break the fabbath, they get drunk, they play, they whore, they commit adultery, and have taught many poor Indians to do these abominable things as well as themselves. Do not you therefore learn of them. For true christians are fober, chafte and holy. They will not get drunk, they will not play the whore, they will not cheat, lie, curfe or fwear ; but they will blefs and praise GoD, keep the fabbath, and do all the good they can; for thus JESUS CHRIST, their LORD and mafter, lived when he was here on earth. I fay, when he was here on earth; for after he died, he role again, and went up into heaven from whence he came, and there he fits praying for all that shall believe on Him to the end of the world. For as the world had a beginning, fo it also will have an end. And JESUS CHRIST will come again in the clouds to judge all mankind; and then he that hath believed in CHRIST, and hath fhewn forth his faith by his works, fhall be faved; and he that hath not believed in CHRIST, shall be damned for ever, and be caft into a lake of fire and brimítone. But before he comes, he hath promifed that the heathen shall be brought to believe on him, and therefore I write this letter to you. I would come myfelf, and preach the glad tidings of falvation among you, as the bearer of this could interpret for me; but my other business will not permit. I am a minifter of the fame JESUS, and once was as ignorant of Him comparatively as you may be. I once lived like other people ; but but the LORD JESUS hath brought me to believe on Him, and I now do to no more. I once was full of envy, hatred, malice, and fuch like curied tempers; but now I have love, and peace, and joy. And because JESUS CHRIST hath shewn fuch mercy to me, I defire that all others should be made as happy, nay happier than I am myfelf. - Hearken therefore now to the voice of the LORD. Pray to GOD that you may feel yourfelves poor, milerable finners, and come by a living faith to JESUS CHRIST. Then he will pardon you of all your fins, make you holy by his spirit here, and take you into everlasting happiness hereafter. Your traders, some of them at least, will tell you, that you must be miserable, if you will be christians. But these know nothing of JESUS CHRIST; for they are ungodly men, walking after their own wicked Justs. Whofoever will follow JESUS CHRIST, though happy in himfelf, must be looked upon as a fool by others. The fpirit of the world, and the spirit of JESUS are quite contrary one to the other; and therefore if you will live godly in Him, you must fuffer perfecution ; you must have all manner of evil fpoken against you fallely, and be called madmen and fools; but let not that daunt you, or make you afraid. There is a world to come, there is a judgment-day, and then JESUS CHRIST fhall crown all those with glory, who have fuffered for his name's fake. Once more, therefore, hearken to the voice of the LORD. For the LORD JESUS died for you, as well as for the white men among you, and that you might be taught the golpel; but they have made you worle than you we're before, and therefore shall receive the greater damnation. He who brings this, no doubt, will be defpifed amongst them. because he will, I hope, neither get drunk, nor curse, nor fwear .- But I truft the LORD will flrengthen him, and caufe him to fhew many of you the true way of falvation - I fhall not fail to pray for him, and for you; for though I know you not, yet if I could thereby fave your precious fouls, I think I could die for your fake. May the LORD JESUS blefs you, and bring you out of darkness into his marvellous light, for his infinite mercy's fake. This is the prayer of, dear brethren,

Your foul's well-wisher and servant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CLXXXIV.

To the Rev. Mr. 1--, at Philadelphia

Reedy Island, May 21, 1740. My dear Brother, CTILL our LORD is with me both in the fhip and on the J fhore. Adore him for his free grace. Sailors, I believe. are coming to JESUS. One or two of our crew are under convictions. The LORD does not keep me here for nothing. I defire to learn of winds and ftorms to obey Him. I pray daily for your success. May the LORD make you a happy instrument of bringing many fons to glory. Your weaknefs need not discourage you. The LORD is pleased to make use of me. He ftrengthens me mightily in the inner man. Oh grace, grace ! " Leis than the least of all," shall be my motto still. I need not exhort you to feed the flock of GoD; he has purchafed them with his own blood. Oh admit of a mined communion. I think the glory of GOD requires this at your hands. May the LORD give you a right understanding in all things. and enable you to remember

Your unworthy brother and fellow-labourer

in our dear LORD JESUS,

G. W.

LETTER CLXXXV.

To Mr. M-, at Philadelphia.

Dear Mr. M.

.

2

ĩ.

ŗ

ü

Ţ

5

.

.

i

Reedy Island, May 21, 1740.

A S the LORD is pleafed to detain me here by contrary winds, why fhould I not fend you a line? You have ftood up for the truths of GOD, and, I truft, will not be afhamed of our LORD and his gofpel. I expect a great falling away amongft those that followed me: But I hope dear Mr. M. will continue ftedfaft and unmoveable to the laft. The only way, is to keep a conflant eye to CHRIST, to go forth in his ftrength, and never to reft till you feel his bleffed truths copied and transcribed on your heart. You have often heard me exclaim against refting on a head-knowledge. You are a man of strong passion, and strongerly imagination, and therefore (I know you will not be affronted) you will make either a great faint, or an accomplifhed -----. I believe the former, though, as a friend, I remind you of, and caution you against the latter. You love to be dealt plainly with. Oh, dear Sir, I feel that I love you, and have a real concern for you and your houfhold.-What would I give to fee your daughters become wife virgins, and fallen in love with the bleffed JESUS. How amiable would they then appear ! But before this can be done. all pertnefs, and lightnefs of spirit, must be taken away, and they must not only leave off dancing, but be made new crea-How is your fon ? Pray tell him it is time for him to tures. come home. The fatted calf waits for him. I could fay more; but time will not permit. Dear Sir, pray for me. Indeed I will endeavour to return the favour ; many are waiting for, and would rejoice at my halting; but the LORD is my helper. He is with me in my little cabin, and gives me a feeling possession of his bleffed spirit. May the LORD enrich you with a great measure of it, and fill you with all his fulnels ! Methinks I fee you lifting up your eyes, and faying, Amen .--And fo faith, dear Mr. M.

175

Your affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CLXXXVI.

To Mr. R-, at Philadelphia.

Dear R.

Reedy Ifland, May 22, 1740.

L ET nothing faid to you in my absence affect you. GOD has lately delivered you out of one fnare; take heed how you fall into another. If you watch unto prayer, who knows but GOD may bles your endeavours amongst the poor negro women and children? I could not wish you more happily fituated.—My love to all the fociety.—Exhort them not to reft in good defires. Shew them, O shew them the ncceffity of being deeply wounded, before they can be capable of healing by JESUS CHRIST. Bid them to beware of a light behaviour, and light company. Both do grieve the blessed finares. I could fay more, but time will not permit. My love to the Negro Peggy, and all her black fisters. Bid them to pray for me, May the blood of JESUS wash away all the pollutions of of their fin-fick fouls! What if they were put into a fociety by themfelves, and you, or fome white woman, meet with them? The good LORD direct and blefs you in all things.— This is the hearty prayer of

Your fincere friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CLXXXVII. To Mr. E-----.

Reedy Ifland, May 22, 1740.

OD only knows when the wind will favour our removal hence; I defire patiently to tarry the LORB's leifure, and to wait the moving of the cloud of his providence. However, in the mean while I fend you a line amongst my other friends. Gon, I believe, hath ftruck you to the heart, and fhewn you the rottenness of that foundation whereon you was once building. O keep close to our dear LORD JESUS, and never fear what men or devils can fay of, or do unto you. I am perfuaded you must be buffeted.-You must be perfecuted, if you will live godly in CHRIST JESUS. Let this be your comfort, when the world forfakes you, the LORD whom you ferve, shall take you up. I pray for you, and my other dear Philadelphia friends daily. The LORD be with you all. Adieu. You would do well to publish, " that all who have not been baptized already, and thall appear to be prepared for it, I will, by God's leave, baptize, at my return to Philadelphia." O that all who followed me were haptized with the Holy Ghoft ! But there must be a falling away,-Dear Mr, E-, I truft, will not defert his LORD. Trust in his, and not in your owa strength, and you shall be fafe. Once more farewel. All with me falute you. The people on fhore wait for me. Remember me in your prayers as

> Your affectionate fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

> > Digitized by Google

Vot. I.

LETTER

L E T T E R CLXXXVIII.

To the Members of a Society at Philadelphia.

Reedy Island, May 22, 1740. My dear Friends, A S the LORD, for wife reasons, detains me here, I cannot A but fend you a line as a token of my unfeigned concern for the welfare of your better part. I must confess, that the account many of you gave of your experiences, was not fo fatisfactory as I could wifh; but I hope you will none of you reft in good defires, or think you are christians, because you have followed after me. I thank you, God knows my heart. I thank you for all expressions of your love: But I befeech you to remember, that the kingdom of GOD does not confist in word, but in power. Keeping company with Gon's people, does not give you a title to the privileges of Gon's child.en. It may increase, but not extenuate your condemnation, if you are not found in heart, and truly converted to our dear LORD JESUS CHRIST. I am perfuaded you will not be offended at this plain dealing. God has been pleased to work upon you by my unworthy ministry. I would therefore watch over you for good, and warn you against those fnares which await all the true followers of the Lamb of GOD. At my next return, I hope I shall fee you are that inwardly, which you would be efteemed outwardly. The fearcher of hearts knows I long for your salvation. My dear friends, adieu. Pray for me. Re humble, be ftrong in the LORD and in the power of his might. A fiery trial awaits you. There is no being a christian without giving up all for CHRIST. We must all have the spirit of martyrdom, though we may not all die martyrs .- That the LORD may keep you by his power unto falvation, and make you more than conquerors through his love, is the hearty prayer of

Your affectionate friend and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CLXXXIX.

To Mr. A- S-, at Philadelphia.

Dear Mr. S. Reedy Island, May 22, 1740. TDefire that you and your wife would accept of these few farewel lines as a token of my love. My heart's defire and and prayer to GOD is, that you both may be faved.—Your wife was mourning when I faw her laft. The LORD JESUS prepare her thereby for true, folid, and lafting comfort! The more we are humbled, the more will the glorious Emmanuel exalt us; but we muft wait his time. JESUS is love, and never corrects us but for our own good. I find it is always thus with me. I am a flubborn, ungrateful, difobedient child, and often oblige him to flrike me feverely; but love, I find, holds the rod, and therefore his rod, as well as his flaff comforts me. Farewel; the LORD be with you both !—John S—— and all friends falute you. We live and walk in love. My tendereft refpects await all that truly follow the Lamb. I befeech you forget not to pray for Your affectionate friend, brother, and fervant, G. IV.

LETTER CXC.

Reedy Island, May 22, 1740.

N Thursday last, in the evening, the Rev. Mr. Whitefield went on board at New-Cafile, in order to fail to Georgia, after having been on thore thirty-three days, and travelled fome hundreds of miles, and preached fifty-eight times in the provinces of New-Jersey, New-York, and Pensylvania .- His congregations confifted fometimes of four, fometimes of five, fometimes of eight, twelve, fifteen, and once at Philadelphia; of twenty thousand people. He had gotten near five hundred pounds sterling, in money and provisions, for the Orphanhouse at Georgia. Great and visible effects followed his preaching, almost wheresoever he went, especially in Philadelphia. There was never fuch a general awakening, and concern for the things of GOD known in America before. He intended to vifit New-England foon after his arrival at Georgia, and to come by land as far as Philadelphia, at the latter end of the year."

The above Advertisement may fuffice for the prefent, 'till I have an opportunity of fending you my journal. That will fhew you wonderful things. I fuppofe ere this reaches you, our dear brothers, S—— and G——, will be arrived : I have N 2 fent fent a packet of letters to them, by the way of Dublin. I am now waiting for a fair wind, and can fay the LORD is with me of a truth. Several thips are lying by us, and the captains and their companies come to our thip to prayers. Sailors weep: It is unknown how many are under conviction. I long to hear what is doing in England. The embargoes, I fuppole, prevent your fending ; however my heart is with you. I do not forget you. I hope there is a door opening among the Allegany Indians. I have read M----'s journal, and have wrote both to him and them. We have been near a week at Reedy Island: I have preached there five times. The captains and their crews come constantly to public worthip on thore, and to private prayer in our floop. We have fome with us that love our dear LORD JESUS in fincerity. My heart is exceedingly drawn towards Savannah; but the LORD's time is the best. The LORD JESUS bless you all, and reward you for all kindnesses thewn to his unworthy fervant, but

179

Your affectionate brother in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CXCI.

To W----- S----, E/q; in London.

Lewis-Town, (Penfylvania) May 24, 1740. My dear Friend and Brother,

MY will is much to go to Georgia, but my dear LORD JESUS is pleafed to crofs me. For ever bleffed be his great and glorious name. Juft now the LORD hath brought me hither. Your letter pleafed me. I hope our LORD is now beginning to anfwer my prayers, and that my dear Brother S——•• is about to know himfelf. You know I have often told you, that you ought to fulpect your experiences. You have miftaken, in my opinion, preparation, for conversion itself. Your nine years round of duties, were no effects of the new-birth at all. How could they be? when you did not know you was to be born again, before you heard Mr. C—— W—— expound the feventh chapter of the Romans: Then, but not till then did you begin to be enlightened, and illumination and conversion are two different things. All my great trials

ï

q

2

2

. .

2

•

5

trials were confequent on this. Not that GOD's way of dealing with me, ought to be a rule for others : But I think your cafe and mine fomewhat parallel.-Those that have been most bumbled, I find, always make the most folid, useful christians. It stands with reason : The more a man is emptied of himself. the more room is there made for the spirit of GOD to dwell in him.-Your caution to dear Mr. H. was very good. Opennefs is the best prefervative of spiritual friendship. I would behave so, that no one might be afraid to confult me; but if people will not open their hearts, let them not blame me ; I cannot fpeak, where I perceive a fhynefs, and where I fee perfons are afraid of me. I am fure they must harbour fome ungenerous fuspicions or other against me, and how then can there be a harmony of foul. My dear brother, my friend, now I have told you my heart : Be not angry, I am just ready to weep .--- Indeed, I am willing to wash your feet, and to acknowledge all favours under GoD that I have received from you. Be stable, be willing to confult others that have trod in the fpiritual road before you; do not miftake working for life, for working from life. Watch unto prayer, and do not be carried away by every wind of doctrine. How could you not fee through L----- of German-Toson? But I must not chide. but love. Much I owe you; have patience with me and I will endeavour to pay you. I thall long to fee you at Savannab. Once more, my dear friend and brother, adieu. My heart is much melted down. God continually fills me with himself. O give thanks for, dear Sir,

> Your brother and fervant in CHRIST. G. W.

LETTER CXCIL

To the Rev. Mr. 7. W.

Honoured Sir. Gape-Lopen, May 24, 1740. I Cannot entertain prejudices against your conduct and principles any longer, without informing you. The more I examine the writings of the most experienced men, and the experiences of the most established christians, the more I

N 3

I differ from your notion about not committing fin, and your denving the doctrines of election, and final perfeverance of the faints. I dread coming to England, unlefs you are refolved to oppose these truths with less warmth, than when I was there last. I dread your coming over to America; because the work of GOD is carried on here (and that in a most glorious manner) by doctrines quite opposite to those you bold. Here are thousands of God's children, who will not be perfuaded out of the privileges purchased for them by the blood of JESUS. Here are many worthy experienced ministers, who would oppose your principles to the utmost. God direct me what to do ! Sometimes I think it beft to ftay here, where we all think and speak the same thing : The work goes on without divisions, and with more fuccess, because all employed in it are of one mind. I write not this, bonoured Sir, from heat of spirit, but out of love. At present, I think you are entirely inconfistent with yourself, and therefore do not blame me. if I do not approve of all that you fay. GoD himfelf, I find, teaches my friends the doctrine of election. Sifter H---- hath lately been convinced of it; and, if I miftake not, dear and honoured Mr. IV---- hereafter will be convinced alfo. From my foul I with you abundant fuccets in the name of the LORD. I long to hear of your being made a foiritual father to thousands. Perhaps I may never see you again, 'till we meet in judgment ; then, if not before, you will know, that fovereign, diftinguishing, irrefistible grace brought you to heaven. Then will you know, that God loved you with an everlafting love, and therefore with loving-kindnefs did hedraw you. Honoured Sir, farewel. My prayers conftantly attend both you and your labours. I neglect no opportunity of writing. My next journal will acquaint you with new and furprizing wonders. The LORD fills me both in body and foul. I am supported under the prospect of present and impending trials, with an affurance of GoD's loving me to the end; yea, even to all eternity. Ere this reaches you, I fuppose you will hear of my intention to marry. I am quite as free as a child : If it be Gon's will, I beseech him to prevent it. I would not be hindered in my dear LORD's bufinefs for the world. I am now waiting for a fair wind. Gop bleffes the the Orphan-house. Do not be angry with, but pray for, honoured Sir,

LETTERS

Your unworthy brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CXCIII.

C

2

2

....

٣,

2

::

Ц.

ţ.

- 6.4

ì

:'

1 )î

Ľ

٢.

ز ſ

-

٢

5

To Mr. S , in Charles-Town.

Savannah, June 7, 1740. Dear Sir. DEFORE I knew you by name, my heart was uncommon-D ly affected towards you. Whenever I faw you at church, I enquired concerning you, and to my great but pleafing furprize, when I came to your house, found you was the man I was enquiring after. Your letter gives me still hopes, that our dear LORD JESUS is about to awaken you from a carnal fecurity in which you have long lain. He is now calling you, dear, dear Sir. I befeech you, by the mercies of GOD in CHRIST JESUS our Saviour, take heed that you do not lie down again. If you will be a follower of the Lamb of God, you must prepare your foul for manifold temptations; you must become the fong of the drunkard, and have all manner of evil spoken against you fallely for CHRIST's fake ! But let none of these things move you, dear Sir. Dare, I beseech you, to be fingularly good .- Be not afhamed of your glory .- Learn a leffon of boldness even from the devil's children. How resolute, how daring are they in their mafter's caufe? Why fhould not we be equally courageous in the caufe of JESUS CHRIST? O Sir, I feel a concern for the welfare of your better part. Gob hath vouchfafed you fome convictions; do not reft in them. Catch not too greedily at comfort. Beg of GOD that you may be thoroughly wounded, before you defire to be made whole; otherwife you will go but half way, and be only an unstable, double-minded man at last. God forbid that dear Mr. S---- fhould ever fettle in fuch a dangerous ftate ! Ere long I hope to fee you in Charles-Town, and then I shall have an opportunity of enquiring more particularly into the flate of your foul. I came home but two days ago, and therefore could not answer your letter before. If I can be serviceable to you in any respect, be pleased to command, dear Sir,

Your affured friend and fervant,

183

G. W.

LETTERS

184

LETTER CXCIV.

To Mr. 7- H-, in London.

My dear, dear Brother, Savannah, June 7, 1740. X/ITH great comfort I received your long withed-for Letter. It warmed my heart, and knit my foul to you much more than ever. Whenever I fee the child-like fimplicity and love of JESUS, it quite melts me down. Let all former mifunderstandings between me and your friends be entirely forgotten. I always pitied your parents, and most earnestly prayed for them and you. Bleffed be Gop that you are come home. You are now, I believe, as I always did believe, in your proper station. May GoD give you a settled habit of devotion, and fo fill you with his fpirit, that whilst you are working for Gop on earth, you may be like those bleffed angels, who, though ministring to us, yet do always behold the face of our Father who is in heaven,. My dear brother, let the love of JESUS conftrain you to love him with all your foul. A fense of his divine love now melts down my beart, and draws tears from my eyes. O what wonderful things is GOD doing in America ! Savannah allo, my dear Sawannab, especially my little orphans, now begin to feel the love of JESUS CHRIST, I arrived here but about two days ago, in an hour quite unexpected by my friends. How did we weep over one another for joy ! Perhaps I may never feel the like again, till I meet with the fons of GOD in glory : But oh what a scene was to be seen last night in the congregation | How did the stately steps of our glorious Emmanuel appear! His glory fhone with exceeding brightnefs. The power feemed to be coming on all the day. My foul has been much carried out in behalf of this place, and now the LORD is about to answer my prayer. T - D - was yesterday in a glorious agony. I prayed with three of the girls before I went to church, and their hearts were ready to break ; I prayed alfo, with ftrong cryings and tears, with my other dear friends, and Gop was much with us then; but when we came to church, oh what was to be feen, and heard, and felt there ! The power of the LORD came as it were upon all. Most of the

2

the children, both boys and girls, cried bitterly, and most of the congregation were drowned in tears, and mourned as a woman mourneth for her first-born. Expence of spirits made my body weak, but my foul still wrestled earnestly with GOD. When I came home, I lay upon my bed; but feeing the children and people come home crying, I went to prayer again, and a greater power than ever still attended it. O how was my foul carried out, and how did the Holy Ghoft fill the room ! At last I thought proper to difmis them; but it would have . charmed your heart to hear the little ones in different parts of the house praying, and begging of JESUS to take full poffeffion of their hearts. The fame power continues to-day : For near two hours, four or five of the girls have been before the LORD weeping most bitterly, and under fuch agonies, as gives me hope our LORD will foon fend them deliverance. I have not yet talked with the boys, who also have been under great concern, and one efpecially in great agonies. I believe two or three will be truly gracious. I have brought with me a Latin master, and on Monday laid a foundation in the name of out dear Jesus for an university in Georgia. God bleffes me (O free and fovereign grace) in every thing I undertake. Our Orphan-house comes under better regulations every day, and I am perfuaded, in the end, will produce fome true followers of JESUS CHRIST. I am now looking for fresh attacks from the enemy, after fuch inroads. He has been bufy fince my departure, but the LORD hath vouchfafed to rebuke and difappoint him. My dear brother, may the LORD be with you! For CHRIST's fake defire dear Brother W---- to avoid difputing with me. I think I had rather die, than to fee a division between us; and yet, how can we walk together, if we oppose each other? Adieu. Dear James, with much senderness I subscribe myself

à

Ever yours,

Ģ. W.

LETTER

Digitized by Google

LETTER CXCV.

To T- T-, E/q; in London.

My dear Friend and Brother, Savannah, June 7, 1740.

I Wrote to you very lately; but your kind letter is now before me, and I cannot forbear answering it: Blessed be Gon, that you still look upon me as your friend. May the friend of all, unite us in the best bonds, and bring us to himfelf at last ! I long to fee the fon of man coming in the clouds of heaven. I have now fuch large incomes from above, and fuch precious communications from our dear LORD JESUS, that my body fometimes can scarcely suffain them. Our dear Brother H---'s letter (which I defire you may fee) will • fhew you what a work is begun at Savannah. I am in great hopes, that fix or feven boys and girls are really coming to JESUS CHRIST. Dear Brother H---n sojourns with us. I love him, and all the brethren, in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST. I am now looking for fome ftrong attacks from fatan. The LORD comforts me on every fide, and lets me fee my defire in the falvation of many fouls. O, dear Mr. T---, forget not

Your weak unworthy friend and brother in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CXCVI.

Dear Mr. M-

Savannah, June 11, 1740.

Am not uneafy, but rather joyful, to find GOD lets you fee more and more into the mifery of your depraved nature. I pray GOD, these convictions may fill increase, and that you may not fall short of a faving union with JESUS CHRIST. I am concerned to find you have lost a sense of your first love. —Take heed, my dear friend, and wrestle with your dear LORD, till he lets you see the root of bitterness that must certainly be in some corner of your heart. Perhaps you have not renounced the world and your own righteousness, and then no wonder our LORD doth not manifest himself to your foul. Sometimes, Sometimes, indeed, GOD withdraws on purpole to wean us from fenfible devotion, and to take us off from feeking any felfcomplacence in our duties. If this be the cafe of you and your friends, you are patiently to tarry the LORD's leifure, and to continue flriving with all your might till he is pleafed to lift up the light of his bleffed countenance upon you. You muft feek JESUS though it be forrowing, and then, after three days, you will find him; for the LORD will not always be chiding, neither keepeth he his anger for ever. That GOD may daily renew you in the fpirit of your mind, is the hearty prayer of, dear Sir,

Your affured friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER. CXCVII.

To Mr. W- W-, in London.

Dear W---

Savannah, June 11, 1740.

I Am forry to hear, that you and your mafters cannot agree; but this I know, fuppofing the cafe to be as you reprefent it, you muft notwithftanding "be obedient, not only to the good and gentle, but alfo to the froward."—Rough ufage will do you good, if you are fincere; GoD fees the pride and ftubbornnefs of your heart, and therefore fends you thefe trials to beat it down: I find the benefit of croffes. What fhould I do without them? Dear brother S—— would write to you, I believe, but is much engaged.—We love one another in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST. O, dear W. keep clofe to GoD, and fee you are that inwardly, which you would be effeemed outwardly.—Reft in nothing fhort of a found and thorough conversion. That GoD may blefs you, and all the brethren, with all fpiritual bleffings, is the hearty prayer of

Your affured friend and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CXCVIII.

To the Rev. Mr. 7-B-, at New York.

Reverend and dear Brother, Savannah, June 13, 1740. I Have just been reading the three letters you fent some time ago to our dear brother N, and find my heart much inclined to write you a line. Whatever others may do, yet I am far from judging you on account of GoD's dealings with your soul. I rather rejoice in them, having myself been bleffed with many experiences of the like nature. But, my dear brother, if GoD works upon us in an extraordinary manner, we must prepare for temptation, even from our christian brethren.

Most judge of others from what has passed within themfelves; and many of the dear children of GoD are too apt to confine Gop to this or that particular way of acting; whereas he is a fovereign agent: his facred fpirit bloweth when, and where, and how it lifteth; and when an uncommon work is to be done, no doubt he will work upon his chofen inftruments in an uncommon manner. What the event of the prefent general awakening will be, I know not. I defire to follow my dear LORD blindfold, whitherfoever he is pleafed to lead me; and to do just fo much, and no more, as his providence points out to me. Wonderful things have been done ever fince my arrival at Savannab: fuch an awakening among little children, I never faw before. Our dear brother N----'s letter will acquaint you with particulars. O my dear brother, how ought fuch manifestations of GoD's glory, to guicken our fouls, and excite us to lay out ourfelves more and more in the fervice of the best of Masters, JESUS CHRIST ! Every day he fills me with himfelf, and fometimes brings me even upon the confines of eternity. Methinks I often fland upon Mount Pifgab, and take a view of the heavenly Canaan, and then long to be gathered to my people : but, my dear brother, both you and I must fuffer, and that great things. before we enter into glory. My work is scarce begun; my trials are yet to come. What is a little fcourge of the tongue? What is a thrufting out of the fynagogues? The time of temptation will be, when we are thrust into an inner ner prison, and feel the iron entering even into our souls. Then, perhaps, even GoD's people may be permitted to forfake us for a while, and none but the LORD JESUS to stand by us. "But if thou, O dearess Redeemer! wilt strengthen me in the inner man, let enemies plunge me into a fiery furnace, or throw me into a den of lions." My dear brother, my heart is enlarged towards you: though I never faw, yet I love you most tenderly. How does dear brother D? Does he yet walk in the light of GoD's countenance? Pray falute him lovingly in my name. In the fall, I hope to fee you in Long Island, and to be somewhat filled with your company. In the mean while, let us all keep a close walk with JESUS; and be pleased, in an especial manner, to remember

Digitized by Google

Your unworthy, though affectionate brother, fellow-labourer, and servant in our common LORD,

G. W.

LETTER CXCIX.

To the Rev. Mr. J. W.

Savannah, June 25, 1740.

My bonoured Friend and Brother, 51

ġ.

ż

ņ

::

t i

2

22 ζ.

Ċ

2

13

5

e! ¢!

5

n,

÷

Thank you for, and heartily fay amen to all the petitions L you have put up in my behalf. I want to be as my Mafter would have me; I mean, meek and lowly in heart. Dear Sir, bear with me a little longer; pray for me with great earneftness; and who knows but my GoD may give me to abhor myself in dust and ashes ! He that hath given us his Son, will he not with him freely give us all things ? For CHRIST's fake, if poffible, dear Sir, never speak against election in your sermons: no one can fay that I ever mentioned it in public difcourses, whatever my private fentiments may be. For CHRIST's fake, let us not be divided amongst ourselves : nothing will fo much prevent a division as your being filent on this head. I should have rejoiced at the fight of your Journal. I long to fing a hymn of praise for what GoD has done for your foul. I am glad to hear that you fpeak up for an attendance on the means of grace, and do not encourage perfons who run (I am perfuaded) before they are called. The work of GOD will fuffer much by fuch imprudence. I truft you will ftill ftill perfift in field-preaching. Others are ftrangers to our call. I know infinite good hath been done by it already, and greater good will yet be done thereby every day: but we muft be judged of our brethren. May GOD blefs you more and more every day, and caufe you to triumph in every place. Next Monday, GOD willing, I go to Charles-Town. My family is well regulated; but I want fome more gracious affiftants. I have near an hundred and thirty to maintain daily, without any fund. The LORD gives me a full undifturbed confidence in his power and goodnefs. Dear Sir, adieu. I can write no more; my heart is full. I want to be a little child. O continue to pray for

Your most unworthy, but affectionate brother and servant in our dear LORD JESUS CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CC. To Mr. J---- H----.

Dearest 7-Savannah, June 25, 1740. VERY letter you write, knits my heart more and more to you in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST. Your last I received on Saturday. GOD had been preparing me for it, by a week's intimation upon my heart, and by an inexpreffible agony in my foul just before it came to hand. Bleffed be GOD that our friends preach up poverty of spirit, for that is the only foundation whereon to build folid abiding comfort. The ftony ground received the word with joy; but how did those hearers ftand in a day of temptation ? They fell away; for it is very poffible that the heart may have much joy floating on the top of it, and yet be as hard as the nether millstone. Hence it is that fo many, who boaft of reft in their flashes of joy, are felfwilled, impatient of reproof, despifers of others in a mourning state, and wife in their own conceits : whereas the believer, that hath been with his LORD in the wilderness, and has a truly broken and contrite heart, though his joy may not be fo extravagant, yet it is substantial. Such a soul hangs upon GOD; thinks before he speaks; and is continually hearkening for what the LORD will fay to him, by the fmall still voice of his fpirit. This is the flate I want all our friends to arrive at. I canI cannot fee how they can, with affurance, talk of their enjoying folid fellowship with the Father, and his dear Son CHRIST TESUS. I shall not be surprized if many, who seemingly began in the spirit, do end in the flesh, and turn persecutors of the doctrines and disciples of JESUS CHRIST. How can they poffibly stand, who never felt themselves condemned criminals? who were never truly burthened with a fenfe not only of their actual, but original fin, especially that damning fin of unbelief? who were never brought to fee and heartily confers, that after they had done all, Gon might, notwithstanding, deny them mercy; and that it is owing merely to his fovereign love in CHRIST JESUS our LORD, that they can have any hopes of being delivered from the wrath to come? It is for preaching in this manner that I like Meff. T----s. They wound deep before they heal; they know that there is no promife made but to him that believeth; and therefore they are careful not to comfort over much those that are convicted. I fear I have been too incautious in this respect, and have often given comfort too foon. The LORD pardon me for what is past, and teach me more rightly to divide the word of truth for the future. Dearest 7-----, pardon this freedom; I am constrained to write in this manner. I thank you most heartily for your historical letter. Fail not writing to me often. Dearest 7help me by your prayers : for CHRIST's fake help me. Our LORD is yet with us. I hear different accounts of things : but I pray for all, and fuspend my judgment till you fee

Your affectionate brother and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CCI.

1

5

.

ŝ

3

(,

To Mrs. E- C-

My dear Sister, Savannah, June 25, 1740. YOUR letter afforded me much inward pleafure. Surely it bespeaks the writer not to be far from the kingdom of GOD. You was then waiting for our LORD's falvation: ere now, I truft, CHRIST hath manifested his glory, filled you with his bleffed spirit, and thereby sealed you to the day of redemption. 'Tis good to be long in an humbled state: it is the best preparation for solid, lasting comfort. Bleffed are 5 they they that mourn most, for they shall be the most comforted : not that we are violently to keep ourfelves in fuch a state; but when GOD's hand lies heavy upon us, we are patiently to tarry the LORD's leifure, till he reveals himfelf to our fouls. I was a mourner a long while; but, glory be to Gop! I have for fome years been almost continually comforted; at least kept from doubting of my intereft in JESUS CHRIST. I can with an humble boldness cry out, " My LORD and my GOD!" He daily manifests himself to my foul, and causes me to feel my dependance on his free grace and fovereign love. Th s is the kingdom of GOD within us. O, my dear fifter, what would I give, were all the world partakers of this unspeakable gift ! I long, I burn with an ardent zeal after the falvation of my dear brethren, who are dead in trefpasses and fins. Poor fouls! Why am I taken, and they left? O the fovereign, free, unmerited, diffinguishing love of my and your JESUS! My dear fifter, let us love him, let us obey him; let us fuffer for him with a chearful heart ! His love will fweeten every cup, though never fo bitter. Let us pledge him willingly, and continue faithful even unto death. A fcene of fufferings lies before us. Who knows but we may wade to our Saviour through a fea of blood ? I expect (O pray that I may be ftrengthened if called to it) to die for his great name's fake. 'Twill be fweet to wear a martyr's crown. Dear Madam, I remember Gop's goodness to us at Broad-Oaks. I adieu. pray for you and yours. I trust your daughters keep close to JESUS. Salute them kindly in my name. Read my Journal, and give hearty thanks for

191

Your unworthy brother and fervant in CHRIST JESUS, G. W.

LETTER CCII.

To the Rev. Mr. S-, in London.

Rev. and dear Sir, Sovannah, June 26, 1749. A ND is one of the priefts also obedient to the word! Bleffed be GoD, the Father of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, who hath translated you from darkness to lights from the power of Satan to the fervice of the ever-living GoD. Now know I, that our glorious Emmanuel has not commanded us

Digitized by Google

us to pray in vain. Surely we shall never taste of death, till we fee our dear LORD's kingdom coming with greater power. He feems to be thrusting out more labourers into his harvest. Glory be to his free grace that you are one of the happy number. O dear Sir, rejoice and be exceeding glad; and let the love of JESUS confirain you to go out into the highways and hedges to compel poor finners to come in. Some (even that are true lovers of the Lamb) may fay " this is not proceeding with a zeal according to knowledge :" but I am perfuaded, when the power of religion revives, the gospel must be propagated in the fame manner as it was first established, " itinerant preaching." Go on, dear Sir, go on, and follow your glorious Mafter without the camp, bearing his facred reproach. Never fear the fcourge of the tongue, or the threatnings that are daily breathed out against the Lorp, and against his CHRIST. Suffer we must, I believe, and that great things. Our LORD, by his providence, begins to fhew it. Ere long, perhaps, we may fing in a prifon, and have our feet fet fast in the ftocks. But faith in JESUS turns a prison into a palace, and makes a bed of flames become a bed of down. Let us be faithful to-day, and our LORD will support us to-morrow. O dear Sir, though I know you not, yet my heart is enlarged towards you, and I make mention of your name in my prayers. I pray GOD to give you ftrength to bear the heat and burden of every day, and to enable you to preach with fuch wifdom, that all your adversaries may not be able to gainfay or refift. Bleffed be his holy name, I drink deep of his love every moment. A greater power than ever attends my poor labours; and feveral of my own houfhold, both boys and girls, I really believe, are coming favingly to JESUS CHRIST. I am now about to go to Charles-Town; a work of GOD is begun there. Who knows but I may fee my dear brother. S----- in America? But future things belong to GOD; to his grace and love I commend you. Keep close to your dear JESUS, and pray that a child-like, humble fpirit, may be given to

Your unworthy brother and fellow-labourer

G. W.

: Vol. I. 5

ł

1

D

U

à

H

G

::

ī,

r, i

Кï

22 , i

Ĉ.

J£

ž

ír

ig:

١¢

ţ.

t le d.

ź

ĽБ

L.P

01.

Ϊ.

F

"P ťð.

ļ,

طينا) موجع لازل

jk

LETTER

Digitized by Google

LETTER CCIII.

To IVm. S____, E/q; in London.

My dear Brother S-Savannah, June 26, 1740. T Sent you a packet of letters from Charles-Town, the middle of this month. Since that time. I have received many agreeable letters from England; but find from Blendon letters that Mils E---- D---- is in a feeking flate only. Surely that will not do: I would have one that is full of faith and the Holy Ghoft. Just now I have been weeping, and much carried out in prayer before the LORD. My poor family gives me more concern than every thing elfe put together. I want 2 gracious woman that is dead to every thing but JESUS, and is qualified to govern children, and direct perfons of her own fex. Such a one would help, and not retard me in my dear LORD's work. I wait upon the LORD every moment ; I hang upon my JESUS : and he is fo infinitely condescending, that he daily grants me fresh tokens of his love, and affures me that he will not permit me to fall by the hands of a woman. I am almost tempted to wish I had never undertook the orphan-house. At other times, I am willing to contrive matters fo that I may not marry : but I am always checked ; and looking back upon the workings of my heart in this affair, I am more and more convinced that it is of Gop; and therefore know he will order affairs for me, as will best promote his own glory. So that my dear LORD's honour does not fuffer, I care not what trouble in the flesh I undergo. His glory, to the beft of my knowledge, is my only aim, in my thoughts, words, and actions. My dearest brother, adjeu. By this time, I trust, you are near England. Dear brother Sgoes with me to Charles-Town. Brother B---- keeps house in my absence. Take heed that the people you bring believe on Expect to hear fhortly again from TESUS.

> Your affectionate brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

> > Digitized by Google

LETTER

LETTER CCIV.

To Mr. W____ D____.

My dear Brother, Savannab, June 28, 1740. Thank you for your kind letters and friendly cautions ; and trust shall always reckon those my choicest friends, who, in fimplicity and meeknefs, tell me the corruptions of my heart. It is that faithfulnels which hath endeared 7-----S----- to me. I think I never was obliged to any one fo much before : for that reason also I find my heart knit to you. O my dear brother, still continue faithful to my foul: do not hate me in your heart; in any wife reprove me. Exhort all my dear brethren to forgive my past (I fcar) too imperious carriage; and let them pray that I may know myfelf to be what I really am, lefs than the least of them all. I have abundant reason to bless GOD for sending me abroad. I cannot fay I have improved my retirement as I ought; but I can fay it hath been highly beneficial to my foul. I have a garden near at hand, where I go particularly to meet and talk with my God, at the cool of every day. I often fit in filence, offering my foul as fo much clay, to be stamped just as my heavenly potter pleafes : and whilft I am musing, I am often filled. as it were with the fulness of GOD. I am frequently at Calvary, and frequently on Mount Tabor ; but always affured of my LORD's everlasting love. O continue to pray for me, that I may know myfelf even as I am known. I want to have a proper mixture of the lion and the lamb, of the ferpent and the dove. I do not defpair of attaining it. JESUS is love; TESUS willeth my perfection ; JESUS hath died for me; JESUS can deny me nothing. He hath given me himfelf; will he not then freely give me all things befides ? I wait for thy compleat falvation, O LORD! My dear brother, my heart is now enlarged. Your prayer is answered. The whole Godhead now fills my foul. O grace, grace ! O Jefu, Jefu ! was ever love like thine ! LORD, I abhor myself in dust and ashes. O that I could praise thee ! that I could love thee as I ought! My dear brother, I hear you have been zealous for the LORD your GOD fince my departure. You have done well : you never can be zealous for a better mafter : but why O 2 filent ?

.

7

|:

2

W.:

12

.::

1.

i.

ÌΖ

),".

۵.

4

нці Ві

م ز .

شارا

10

Eh

65

ŢĮ.

ī.ģ6

filent? why withdrawn? Did you go before you was called or qualified? If fo, you have done right: but I fulpend my judgment; for I find there is no judging at a diftance. I only oray GoD that you may always feel yourfelf a very poor finner, and find refuge in the wounds and blood of the Lamb. I rejoice to hear the work of GOD goes on, and heartily wifh you may not be divided among yourfelves. Our dear LORD is with us here: I only want a few more gracious, folid affiftants. The LORD will fend them in his due time to

Your affectionate brother and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCV.

To 7-- B-----.

Good Hope, (South-Carolina) July 2, 1740. My dear Brother B-----,

IS it true, that one night whilst you was expounding, you told your hearers, from your own experience, that " they could not go on without throwing afide the means of grace ?" or words to that purpole ? If fo, I pity you; for you are not only mifled yourfelf, but are also miguiding others. But this is no more than I expected. I think you begun to teach too foon, and before you had a commission given you from above. Brother 7- was of the fame opinion, before I left England. For that reason, I would not take you to Georgia. Bleffed be GOD, I have no such over-forward spirits there. My dear B----, I write in love. For CHRIST's fake try your spirit: I fear you was never yet truly humbled. I know you have had joy; but I always thought it was joy floating on the furface of an unmortified heart. From fuch a joy, good LORD deliver us ! O that you had been in the wilderness a little longer ! then you might have been an experienced teacher ; but I fear you are now only a novice. May the LORD keep you from falling into the condemnation of the devil. I write not this to damp, but to regulate your fpirit; if you are humble, you will take it kind. GOD knows, I wish all the LORD's fervants were prophets; but I would not have my Master's work fuffer by a too heady way of proceeding. Why thould you diffeonour him by acting above your fphere; whereas whereas you might honour him by acting in it. Every one is not fit to be a public expounder. To build up awakened finners in private, is what is more wanted at prefent than young unexperienced preachers. But I have done; I fear I have offended my brother : forgive me this wrong. As God was pleafed first to work upon you by my ministry, you must always expect to be watched over by

Your affectionate friend, brother and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CCVI.

Charles-Town, July 11, 1740. Dear Mr. R-----VOUR letter much rejoiced me. O that you may still I follow on, till you truly know the LORD! I shall be glad to have you for a fcribe, if you are well instructed in the things which belong to the kingdom of heaven. Keep clofe, my dear friend, keep close to the dear Mr. T----s: under Gop, they will build you up in your most holy faith. It gladdens my heart to hear of their fuccess in the LORD. The LORD increase them more and more, and multiply the number of their fpiritual children ! I fuppose brother G-----'s letter informed you what a speedy passage the LORD gave us, and how we were received at Georgia. Surely I shall never fee the like again, till I meet the fons of GoD in glory. Praise the LORD, O my foul ! my dear friend, help me to praife the LORD. I have been here above a week. The LORD hath been pleased to work on many hearts. On Sunday the commissary denied me the facrament; but my dear Master fed me, notwithflanding, with the bread which cometh down from heaven. Perfecution feems to be coming on more and more. My dear friend, see that you are rooted and grounded in love and faith; or how will you ftand fast in a dying hour? With difficulty I write this before morning fervice. I preach generally, in town or country, twice a-day. The heat is great; but the LORD enables me to bear the burden of it. Next month, GOD willing, I go to New-England, and hope to fee Philadelphia in November. On Tuefday next 1 am cited to appear before the commiffary and his court in a judicial way; the event I leave to my dear LORD JESUS. O dcar 03 Mr.

197

Mr. R—, let not the crofs keep you from JESUS. If we fuffer, we fhall reign with him. Salute your honoured mother in my name, and all that love our dear LORD in funcerity, from, dear Mr. R—,

Your affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCVII.

To Mr. 7------.

Charles-Town, July 15, 1740. Dear 7-----TAY you answer your name, be freely gracious, and filled with as much love as he was, who leaned on the facred bosom of our dear Redeemer. I believe GOD has begun; if fo, GOD will carry on the good work in your heart. It is the LORD's doing. Not unto me, not unto me; but to free, rich, diftinguifhing, fovereign grace, be all the glory ! The wearing off, or forgetting your convictions formerly, ought to make you more jealous of yourfelf now. The more you fee the enmity of the heart, the better : you cannot then avoid abhorring yourfelf in dust and ashes. I rejoice you have been at Nefhamini. I can fay of Mr. T--- and their brethren, as David did of Goliab's fword, "None like them." I am glad you and my friend R---- are acquainted. O fee that you keep one another warm, and be zealous for the LORD your GOD. I wonder not at your master's infinuations. Indeed, dear 9-----, you must be tried thoroughly, if you would approve yourfelf to the glorious Emmanuel. Exhort all to die for him, rather than deny him in any wife. I find my fuffering time at hand: but my dear LORD comforts me with his gracious and refreshing presence. A good work is carrying on here : let my dear friends help it forwards by their prayers. My love to all at the fociety; and accept of the fame from

Your affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CCVIII.

To Mr. B-, in Penfylvania.

Charles-Town, July 18, 1740. My dear Brother, DRAISE the LORD, O my foul ! Our glorious Emmanuel feems to have girt his fword upon his thigh, and to be riding on from conquering to conquer. He gets himfelf the victory in Philadelphia. He is getting himfelf the victory in Charles-Town alfo. Indeed a glorious work is begun, and carrying on here. Many fouls are awakened to a fenfe of the divine life.—The alteration in the people fince I came here at first, is surprizing. I preach twice a day, generally, either in town or in the villages around. The commiffary fhoots out his arrows, even bitter words. He hath denied me the facrament, and cited me to appear before him and his court: I was obliged to appeal home. O my dear brother, pray that I may be humble and of a child-like spirit. Every day GOD shews me fresh instances of his love. Here are some faithful ministers amongst the baptists. One of them, Mr. C-----, has wrote to you; pray answer him. Some time next month I hope to be at New England, and to return to you according to promife. Be pleafed to falute the brethren in my name. Indeed I honour and love you in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST. O that I was worthy of your acquaintance ! But I am not. All that I can fay is, that I will endeavour to approve myfelf

÷

2

Z

::

7

.

.

ġ

Ľ

í.

F.

3

Your affectionate friend, brother,

and servant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCIX.

My Dear Friend, Charles-Town, July 18, 1740. Thank you for going with friend E and B to Nazareth. May God blefs you, and caufe great good to come to that place! God feems to be carrying on as great a work in Charles-Town, comparatively fpeaking, as in Philadel-O 4 phia.

Digitized by Google

phia. Surely our LORD intends to fet the world in a flame. O that the holy fire of his divine love was kindled in every heart ! Be pleafed to read what I have fent to Mr. N-----. If you please you may print that extract, which I sent from my journal : Goo willing, I hope to be at New England by the beginning of September, and to be refreshed with your and my dear friend's letters. Indeed, I love you all in the bowels of my dear LORD JESUS. Do not let us forfake him. Let us not be ashamed of him, though we live in a crooked and perverse generation. I thank my dear friends for their zeal in building a house; * but defire it may not have any particular name, or be put to any particular use, till my return to Phihadelphia. I with them good luck in the name of the Lorn. Laft night I appeared a third time in a public court ; but they not accepting my Recufatio judicis, I appealed home; fo that now I have free liberty to embark when providence pleafeth. O my dear friend, think of a bleeding, dying LORD. Keep close to him, and exhort all friends to pray and give thanks for > Your affured friend and fervant, G. W.

LETTER CCX.

Dear Brother L-----, Charles-Town, July 18, 1740. YOD will work, and who shall hinder? The facrament G hath been refused to me, and I have appeared thrice in open court, before the commiffary and fome of his clergy ; but our LORD rides on, from conquering to conquer. Many, I believe, are really pricked to the heart. The commiffary's detaining me here, has much tended to the furtherance of the gospel. I put in my exceptions against his fitting as my judge, and they were repelled; fo that I have appealed home, and all other proceedings here are stopped. By this means I shall have liberty to preach the gofpel without further interruption, and my call to England will be more clear. The enclosed paper will shew you what is doing in Philadelphia. Private letters received from thence last night and this morning, have much refreshed my heart. Many souls are flocking to the LORD

* This is now the college at Philadelphia,

Digitized by Google

3

LORD JESUS. I need not exhort you to praise the LORD. You may advertife what paragraphs you think proper, only add that Philadelphia people are building a house for me to preach in, 106 feet long and 74 feet wide. The LORD is bringing mighty things to pals. I am furprizingly frengthened to bear the heat and burden of every day. My dear LORD never leaves nor forfakes me, but works by my unworthy ministry more and more. O that I was humble ! O that I was a little, little child ! I know not how foon I may be called to England. The inhabitants here are wondrous kind. They attend morning and evening most chearfully on my preaching. We often see the flately steps of our dear LORD in his fanctuary. I am more than happy. I am amazed at the divine goodness. LORD, I abhor myself in dust and ashes ! See the wonders of the LORD; help us to praise him. Excuse me to all my dear friends. For this fortnight past I have not wrote a word of my journal. My fermons, &c; are bought off exceedingly, northward. O pray that an humble child-like fpirit may be given to

i.

7

1

ď

7

3 î.

í,

с а

-

÷

5

ģ

2

5

Ever yours in CHRIST, G. W.

L, E T T E R CCXI.

To the Reverend Mr. D----.

Savannah, August 15, 1740. My dear Brother D-, OUR dear LORD (after being pleafed to bring me low by bodily ficknefs) now gives me liberty to write to you. Whilft I am writing, I find my heart united with yours. I hope we have both drank into the fame fpirit, and are both inftances of the fame fovereign, diftinguishing, everlafting love. O let us extol it ! O let us improve daily ! And fince God sees fit that we shall not die, but live, let us lay ourfelves out to declare the works of the LORD. I am ashamed of my past unfruitfulness. Had others received the flock, that hath been intrusted to me, how would they have improved it ? Indeed I am an unprofitable fervant. In the righteousness of JESUS my LORD, is my only refuge. Well may God afflict me; I richly deferve it; and when he brings me low, nothing grieves me fo much, as to think that I fhould fhould be fo froward as to oblige the GOD of love to ftrike me with his rod. But oh the goodness of the LORD! His rod, as well as ftaff, do comfort and build up my foul. I would not but be tried for ten thousand worlds. Bleffed be GOD, I am enabled to class the cross, and defire to glory in nothing more. Dear brother, help me with your prayers. Our victorious JESUS makes his power to be known; many have I feen ftruck quite down by the power of the word. The holy Ghost hath often come like a mighty rushing wind. Satan has defired to fift us as wheat. But our LORD still thews me, that the orphan-house will go on and flourist. It is often a great weight upon my foul; but through your and my dear friends prayers, the LORD I am perfuaded will still fupport it.

201

Yours eternally in CHRIST JESUS,

G. W.

LETTER CCXII.

To Mr. N-, in New York.

Savannah, Aug. 15, 1740. My dear Brother, VOUR letter rejoiced my heart. May our dear LORD's I kingdom be advanced more and more every day! O that I may meet you at New-England ! Bleffed be GOD that Mr. M---- is yet alive. Salute him from me; I hope to fee him before I die, and so be taught the way of GOD more perfectly, I thank you for your kind hints; I have always paid great deference to dear Mr. N---'s judgment : indeed I love him in the bowels of JESUS. GOD has been pleased to bring me low, for fome time, by inward weaknefs, and faintnels of spirits. The first strength that is given me to write, I make use of in writing to you. The LORD is purging me. that I may bring forth more fruit. I long to die, not that I may be rid of croffes, but that I may be with CHRIST. He draws me more and more to him every day. I have had many close domestic trials of late. But these words, "David ftrengthened himself in the LORD his GOD," came with sweet power to my foul. I find, the nearer I come to CHRIST, the clofer my trials are. I have been fometimes through weaknefs kept from preaching; but when I have fpoken, the word has has come with power. I have reason to think, that three perfons who came to fee the orphan-house, have been effectually called by our LORD JESUS. I have now fome Carolina vifitors in my house; two of them, I believe, are coming truly to JESUS .- The word runs like lightning in Charles-Town. A ferious lively Baptift minister, named Tilly, is here also; he has preached often for me, and last Sunday received the facrament in our way. - O bigotry, thou art tumbling down a-pace ! Bleffed be GOD .- Next week, GOD willing, I embark for Charles-Town, shall stay there a few days, and from thence purpose going to New-England. GOD wonderfully provides for my orphans.-I am kept from every degree of doubting; nay, the LORD fills me daily with a full affurance of faith. He chaftens and corrects me, but it is all in love. O help me to praife him, and thereby add to the obligations already laid on, dear Mr. N-----, Ever yours, G. W.

LETTER CCXIII.

To Mrs. L----.

Charles-Town, Aug. 22, 1740. Honcured Mother, LTHOUGH I had not the pleafure of receiving one Ine, either from your dear felf, or from any other of my beloved friends; yet my heart was rejoiced just now by a failor, who told me, that he faw and converfed with you the twenty-ninth of May laft. I thank you for the falutation fent to me by him. Indeed I thank you from my very heart: for I feel myfelf unworthy of your notice. Every day I love and honour you more and more; and when you come to judgment, God will shew you how many tears I have shed in secret for you and my dear fifter. O let them not be in vain ! Honoured Mother, fly to JESUS .- Behold, with open arms, yonder he stands, ready to embrace you, if you feel your mifery, and are willing to come to him to find reft. May the great GOD, who only can govern the wills and affections of finful men, make you willing in the day of his power ! Yefterday GOD brought me hither again. In a few days, I hope to embark for New-England; thence, GOD willing, you may expect expect another letter. For near fix weeks paft I have been under great weaknefs of body; but notwithflanding have been enabled fometimes to preach with great power. I am now fomewhat better, bur, without a miracle, cannot think of being long below. Indeed, honoured Mother, I every day long to be diffolved and to be with CHRIST. Pray tell Mr. W_{---} , that Mr. H_{---} , and $I_{---}B_{---}$, with one or two more of their relations, I believe, are effectually called of GOD. We had much power at Savannab. GOD hath fent me fome family trials; but all things are working for good. I am, honoured Mother,

;

203

<

Your ever dutiful son,

G. W.

١_ể

P

5

ĵ

LETTER CCXIV.

To the Reverend Mr. 7--- W----. Charles-Town, Aug. 25, 1740. Dear and Honoured Sir, AST night I had the pleafure of receiving an extract of your journal.—This morning I took a walk and read it. I pray God to give it his bleffing. Many things I truft will prove beneficial, especially the account of yourself. Only, give me leave with all humility to exhort you not to be ftrenuous in opposing the doctrines of election and final perfeverance, when, by your own confession, "you have not the witness of the spirit within yourself," and consequently are not a proper judge. I remember dear brother E---- told me one day, that " he was convinced of the perfeverance of the faints." I told him, you was not. He replied, but he will be convinced when he hath got the fpirit himfelf. I am affured, God has now for fome years given me this living witness in my foul. I cannot fay, I have fince indulged any doubts (at least for no confiderable time) about the forgiveness of my fins; nay, I can fcarce fay, that I ever doubted at all. When I have been nearest death, my evidences have been the clearest. I can fay, I have been on the borders of Canaan, and do every day, nay, almost every moment, long for the appearing of our LORD JESUS CHRIST; not to evade fufferings, but with a fingle defire to fee his bleffed face. I feel his bleffed fpirit daily filling my foul and body, as plain as I feel the air which .

1

4

,

.

1

ż

1

٣.

::

ŗ

y.

i.

¢,

Į:

÷

÷

يو در

:.

2

ъ

which I breathe, or the food I eat,-Perhaps the doctrines of election and of final perfeverance hath been abused, (and what doctrine has not,) but notwithstanding, it is children's bread, and ought not in my opinion to be with-held from them, fuppoling it is always mentioned with proper cautions against the abuse. Dear and Honoured Sir, I write not this to enter into disputation. I hope, at this time, I feel fomething of the meekness and gentleness of CHRIST. I cannot bear the thoughts of opposing you : but how can I avoid it, if you go about (as your brother C--- once faid) to drive John Calvin out of Briftol. Alas, I never read any thing that Calvin wrote ; my doctrines I had from CHRIST and his apoftles ; I was taught them of GOD; and as GOD was pleafed to fend me out first, and to enlighten me first, so I think he still continues to do it. My business feems to be chiefly in planting; if GoD fend you to water, I praise his name .--- I wish you a thoufandfold increase. I find, by young W---'s letter, there is difputing among you about election, and perfection .- I pray God to put a ftop to it, for what good end will it answer ?-I wish I knew your principles fully; did you write oftner, and more frankly, it might have a better effect than filence and referve. I have lately had many domestic trials, and that about points of doctrine, not by myself, but from others in my absence. I daily wait upon GOD, depending on his promise, that all things, even this, shall work together for my good. Many in Charles-Town, I believe, are called of GOD, You may now find a christian, without searching the town as with a candle. Mr. G----- is lefs furious, at leaft in public. He hath expended all his ftrength, and finds he cannot prevail. Adieu, Honoured Sir, Adieu ! My health is better, fince I last left Charles Town, and am now freed from domeftic cares. With almost tears of love to you, and the brethren, do I subscribe myself, honoured Sir,

Your most affectionate brother and servant in CHRIST,

G. ₩.

LETTER

Digitized by Google

LETTER CCXV.

To Mrs. 7- L-, in Briftol.

Charles-Town, Aug. 26, 1740. Dear 7----, Hope you and your little fociety go on and profper. I hear there are divisions among you. Avoid them if poffible. The doctrines of election, and of final perfeverance, I hold as well as you. - But then, they are not to be contended for with heat and paffion. Such a proceeding will only prejudice the caufe you would defend. Pray fhew this to your other friends .- Exhort them to avoid all clamour, and evil speaking, and with meekness receive the ingrafted word which is able to fave your foul. GOD has begun a great work here, and in other parts of America; but yet, I believe, I shall shortly have a call to England. O pray it may be the divine will, that I may have a profperous journey; and that you may fee me grown in grace, and in the knowledge of our LORD and Saviour JESUS CHRIST .- With tenderest love to all, I am

Your affectionate brother and servant,

G. W.

LETTER CCXVI.

To the Right Reverend Father in GOD, Edmund Lord Bishop of London.

On board the Savannah, bound from Charles-Town to Boston, September --, $740.

My Lord,

A LTHOUGH your Lordship has been pleafed to caution the people against running into those extremes, to which your Lordship apprehended my doctrine would lead men; yet I am perfuaded that will not any way influence your Lordship, as to the contents of this letter. The one fingle point which it contains, is this query, "Whether the commission of South Carolina has power given him from your Lordship, to exercise any judicial authority against me, or any other clergyman, who doth not belong to his province?" The reason of my putting this question, I suppose your Lordship will be apprized of, before this reaches your Lordship's hands. I have I have been lately cited to appear in an ecclefiaftical court, erected by the Reverend Mr. G——, for not reading the common prayer in the meeting-houle, which I was obliged to preach in at Charles-Town, (unlefs I would be filent) becaufe the commiffary would not let me have the ufe of his church. I appeared, and have appealed, according to law, to four of his majefty's commiffioners for reviewing appeals, to know, whether the commiffary ought not to have accepted a Recufatio judicis, which I lodged in court. This, I fuppofe, they will determine. I only defire your Lordfhip's explicit opinion and determination, whether Mr. G——, (fuppofing he hath power over his own clergy,) has authority to erect fuch a court to arraign me, who belong to the province of Georgia. The bearer hereof will give me your Lordfhip's anfwer. In favouring me with which, your Lordfhip will oblige, my Lord,

Your Lordship's obedient fon and fervant,

G. W.

207

LETTER CCXVII. To Mr. P----.

My dear Brother, Bofton, Sept. 19, 1740. have just now read your kind letter. Bleffed be the LORD. for imparting fomewhat of his divine prefence to your foul. O may he fill you brimful, and enable you to to preach, that all your adverfaries may not be able to gainfay or refift. Never fear undertaking to preach without notes; remember the promile, "Lo I am with you always, even to the end of the world." By my mafter's leave, I propose to preach with you. and dear brother W----. I am a worm and no man : I deferve to be the outcast of the people. On Sunday I arrived at Rbode-Island. Our LORD called fome. Yesterday I came hither, to-day I preached. May the LORD give a divine increase to the feed fown ! A great work is carrying on at Charles-Town. The spirit of GOD is moving in different parts of the world. O my dear, dear brother, let us up and be doing, and the LORD will be with us. The world is lying in the wicked one. May GOD make you inftrumental to deliver thousands from his cursed slavery ! With difficulty I redeem time to write this. Brother B----, and B-----, are with

4

2 ſ

ſ

with me. I will endeavour to give you notice of my coming. In the mean while, ceafe not praying for > Your weak and unworthy brother, G. W.

LETTER CCXVIII.

To Mr. N-, at New-York.

Boston, Sept. 23, 1740. My dear Brother, TITHER GOD brought me on Thursday evening : I preached once on Friday, and twice every day fince. The power of the LORD advances fweetly. Our LORD, I believe, will revive his work in the midft of the years; he enables me to preach plainly. Some ministers, I hope, will be quickened, as well as people. They attend, and are exceeding civil, as alfo the governor. I wrote to you from Rhode Island; I shall call there, as I come to you. On Monday, GOD willing, I shall fet out to fee Mr. M----, and on Monday fortnight hope to go to Northampton. All the packets of letters came fafe. God blefs my dear, dear Brother N--- for his great care. Friends from England write strange things; GOD, I believe, calls me thither. Mr. W---- and the M----s, I think, are fadly erroneous in fome points of doctrine. When I fee you, I will communicate many particulars; now, I have fcarce time to write this. Our dear LORD fweetly fills me with his prefence. My heaven is begun indeed. I feast on the fatted calf. The LORD strengthens me mightily in the inner man. I find a few fouls left in Sardis that have not defiled their garments. Excuse me to Mr. P--; I have not time to answer his kind letter ! Adieu; I hope to be with you in about five weeks.--I pray for dear Brother T----, that he may espouse more fouls to the LORD JESUS CHRIST .- My hearty love tc all.

Ever yours,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CCXIX.

To Mr. A,

My dear Brother A-Boston, Scpt. 23, 1740. I Thank you for your letter: May the LORD enable me to fend you an answer of peace. Sinless perfection, I think, is unattainable in this life. Shew me a man that could ever juftly fay, " I am perfect." It is enough if we can fay for when we bow down our heads and give up the ghoft. Indwelling fin remains till death, even in the regenerate, as the article of the church expresses it .- There is no man that liveth and finneth not in thought, word, and deed : However, to affirm fuch a thing as perfection, and to deny final perfeverance, what an abfurdity is this? To be incapable of finning, and capable of being finally damned, is a contradiction in terms. From fuch doctrine may I ever turn away! Labour, dear Mr. A. to be holy, even as GOD is holy; but do not look for complete perfection here below. What is this, but in effect to vacate the righteoufness of CHRIST ? I hear many amongst you who begun in the fpirit, are now ending in the flefh. CHRIST hath freely justified them, i. e. entitled them to all his merits. and yet they must do so and so to keep themselves in a justified flate. Alas, this is forry divinity; I have not to learned CHRIST. No, his gifts and callings are without repentance. Whom he loves, he loves to the end. Work I will, but not to keep myself in a justified state. My LORD hath secured that; but I will work to fnew my gratitude for his putting me into a justified flate. O that all would study the covenant of grace. Dear Mr. A. I feel that I love you, and I find myfelf carried out to write in this manner. My LORD bleffes me with all fpiritual bleffings; he caufes me to rejoice in his falvation. , I pray him to carry on his work in London, and to keep his church from errors; but there must be a fifting as well as a gathering time. It'is meet that fuch offences flould come. All shall work together for good to those who are called after GoD's purpole: They shall finally be faved. This much comforts, dear Brother A____,

Your affectionate brother in CHRIST,

Digitized by Google

` Yol. I. 5

17

22

ĥ

3

Ċ

32

E

k

ic

. .

k

rż

7

C.

1

3

í.

R.

Ħ

ŀ.

r.

)ľ

¢.

Ċ

į,

, i

LETTER

G. IV.

LETTER CCXX. To H. H. in Wales.

Boston, Sept. 24, 1740. ND is dear Brother. H. H. yet alive in body and foul? Bleffed be GOD, who caufes those that wait on him to renew their strength. I rejoice in your success: May you mount with wings like eagles, walk and not be weary, run and not be faint ! You shall not be taken or hurt, till the appointed hour is come. I hope your conversation was bleffed to dear Mr. W. O that the LORD may batter down his freewill, and compel him to own his fovereignty and everlafting love! Some of F---- Lane fociety, I fear, are running into fad errors; but this happens for our trial, especially mine. Those that before, I suppose, would have plucked out their eyes for me, now I fuspect, I shall fee very shy, and avoiding me. This is my comfort, the LORD is a never-failing friend; his truth will make its way in fpite of all carnal reafoning. pray for me that I may have the spirit of judgment and a found mind. My coming to England will try my fidelity to my Master : Nothing but his strength can enable me to hear all contradictions with meeknefs, and to preach with love his everlafting truths. O that all would fludy the covenant of grace! The more I look into it, the more is my foul delighted. Dear Brother H. adieu. My dear friend 7. S. fits by and cordially falutes you. I hope you have received my letters. I expect to hear from you by dear Brother S. GOD is working powerfully in America. He fills me with his prefence, and caufes me to go on my way rejoicing. Grace ! grace ! I greet all most affectionately, and am, dear Brother H.

Yours eternally,

G. W.

(10- Bar.

LETTER CCXXI.

To the Rev. Mr. 7. W.

Honoured Sir, Honoured Sir, Bofton, Sept. 25, 1740. THIS is fent in anfwer to your letter dated March 25... I think, I have for fome time known what it is to have righteoufnefs, peace, and joy in the Holy Ghoft. Thefe, I 5 believe,

210

ľ.

1

r

а.

5.

ċ

ż

ц,

.

π

Ţ

t.

-

1

ī.

1

72

Ľ

, r

Ę

5

۲

2

. از و

1

,

I

ŗ. ¢

ţ,

۶

2

believe, are the privileges of the fons of GOD : But I cannot fay I am free from indwelling fin; no, I find a law in my members warring against the law of my mind: Thisemakes me to cry out, even now, "Who shall deliver me from the body of this death ?" I thank GOD, our LORD JESUS CHRIST will. I cannot fee wherein the heterodoxy of the article of our church doth confift, which fays, " That this corruption remains even in the regenerate;" and if that after conversion we cannot fin in thought, word or deed, I do not know why our LORD taught us to pray to our heavenly Father, " Forgive us our trespasses." I am forry, honoured Sir, to hear by many letters, that you feem to own a finlefs perfection in this life attainable. I think I cannot answer you better, than a venerable old minister in these parts answered a Quaker. " Bring me a man that hath really arrived to this, and I will pay his expences, let him come from where he will." I know not what you may think, I do not expect to fay indwelling fin is finished and destroyed in me, till I bow down my head and give up the ghost. There must be fome Amalekites left in the Ifraelites land, to keep his foul in action, to keep him humble, and to drive him continually to JESUS CHRIST for pardon and forgiveness. I know many abuse this doctrine, and perhaps wilfully indulge fin, or do not afpire after holinefs, becaufe no man is perfect in this life. But what of that ? must I therefore affert doctrines contrary to the golpel ? GOD forbid. Whether the feventh to the Romans, is applicable to a converted perfon (as many very eminent faints have thought) is not at all to the purpole : There are other paffages of fcripture, which plainly thew that finless perfection is not attainable here below. Such as thefe, " There is no man that liveth and finneth not." " In many things we offend all." And I know no fin except the fin against the Holy Ghost, of which a child of GOD may not be guilty, if GOD should withdraw his grace.

Whatever you may think of David, the scripture fays, "He was a man after God's own heart ;" yet how did he fall ? And if you will not permit Peter to have been converted when he denied his Master; what will you fay to St. Paul? Did not he fin, do you think, (at least were not his passions irre-P 2 gular gular, and what is that but fin) when he fpoke to the High Prieft, and called him whited wall ? Befides, dear Sir, what a fond conceit is it to cry up perfection, and yet cry down the doctrine of final perseverance? But this, and many other absurditics you will run into, becaufe you will not own Election : And you will not own Election, because you cannot own it without believing the doctrine of Reprobation. What then is there in reprobation fo horrid? I fee no blafphemy in holding that doctrine, if rightly explained. If GOD might have, paffed by all, he may pafs by fome. Judge whether it is not a greater blasphemy to fay, " CHRIST died for fouls now in hell." Surely, dear Sir, you do not believe there will be a general gaol delivery of damned fouls hereafter. O that you vipuld fludy the covenant of grace ! O that you were truly convinced of fin, and brought to the foot of fovereign grace ! Eligha Cole on GOD's fovercignty, and Veritas Redux, written by Doctor Edwards, are well worth your reading. But I have done; if you think fo meanly of Bunyan, and the Puritan writers, I do not wonder that you think me wrong. I find your fermon has had its expected fuccels; it hath fet the nation a disputing; you will have enough to do now to answer pamphlets; two I have already feen. O that you would be more cautious in caffing lots! O that you would not be too rafh and precipitant ! If you go on thus, honoured Sir, how can I concur with you? It is impossible; I must speak what I know.-Thus I write out of the fulness of my heart : I feel myself to be a vile finner.---I look to CHRIST; I mourn becaufe I have pierced him. Honoured Sir, pray for me. The LORD be with your dear foul. About Spring you may expect to fee,

211

Ever, ever yours in Christ, G. W.

L E T T E R CCXXII. $\mathcal{T}_{\theta} Mr. G \longrightarrow L \longrightarrow$.

My dear Friend and Brother, Bofton, Sept. 26, 1740. Wrote to you about a month ago from Charles-Town.— Since I came here I have received two letters from you. May the great GOD of heaven and earth blefs your dear foul for thus affifting his poor unworthy fervant : A fenfe of my ingratitude

Digitized by Google

212

LET-TERS.

i.

1

ł

1 53 ñ.,

i.

an,

i.

a'

l

. 33

X

):

rii:

t)

Ľ,

à

t:

6

4 ņĭ

(j.

ŗ,

Į,

5

ł

Í

213

ingratitude almost melts me into a flood of tears .- Indeed I am the very chief of finners .- O the love, the fovereign, diffinguishing, everlasting love of GOD my Saviour ! Praise him, praife him, dear Mr. L----, with all your foul.-I hope nothing will caufe a division between me and Meffrs. W---s: But I must speak what I know, and confute error wherefoever I find it. About Spring I hope to come over if the LORD will.-Be pleafed to inform my friends, that last Sunday was fevennight I arrived at Rhode-Ifland, where I preached and read prayers in the church on Monday and Tuefday to very large and affected auditories .- On Wednesday I preached at Briflol, in my way to Boston.-On Thursday night I got there, and on Friday preached, and have preached once or twice every day fince.-Almost all the ministers, and vast bodies of people, -have been continually preffing to hear the word of Gon, fometimes in the fields, and fometimes in the meeting-houfes. My health is much reftored by the coolnefs of the air.-I intend flaying about a month in these parts, then to go to Philadelphia by land, from thence to Georgia by water, and I hope to embark for England the beginning of the Spring .- You fee by this, dear friend, how our LORD works by my unworthy hands. Ministers and people, I believe, will be much quickened.-I hope your dear foul profpers. For CHRIST's fake avoid difputing; fludy your heart and the fcriptures; get nearer and nearer to CHRIST, he will lead you into all truth. My most tender love to all; if opportunity any way offers, every letter received shall be answered by, dear dear Mr. L----,

> The meaneft of all your chriftian friends, G. W.

LETTER CCXXIII. To Mr. I-

My dear Brother, I----, Boston, Sept. 26, 1740. Thank you for your kind letter. It is the first I have re-ceived from you fince I left England. — I blefs GOD the work goes on in York/bire .- May our glorious, fin-forgiving LORD blefs you and your fpiritual children more and more ! I find, our friends are got into difputing one with another .---O that the GOD of peace may put a ftop to it ! I with many may not be building on a falle foundation, and reft in a falle peace, peace. They own free justification, and yet feem to think, that their continuance in a justified state depends on their doings, and their wills .- This, I think, is establishing a righteoufnels of our own. My dear brother, if we fearch the fcriptures, we shall find that the word justified implies not only pardon of fin, but also all its confequences. - " Thus (fave Saint Paul) those whom he justified, them he also glorified;" · fo that if a man was once justified, he remains fo to all eternity. -Here lies the anchor of all my hopes. - Our LORD having once loved me, he will love me to the end. - This fills me with joy unspeakable and full of glory.-I now walk by faith. -I work not to keep mylelf in a justified state, (for men or , devils can never pluck me out of CHRIST's hands,) but to exprefs my love and gratitude for what JESUS hath done for my foul. This, I think, is what the apoftle calls " faith working by love." My dear brother, my heart's desire and prayer to GOD is, that we may all think and speak the same things. ---For, if we are divided among ourfelves, what an advantage will fatan get over us ? Let us love one another, excite all to come to CHRIST without exception, and our LORD will fhew us, who are his. The work of GOD goes on exceedingly in America. The LORD is pleafed to manifest himself unto my foul more and more. I am a naughty, flubborn child; but my dear LORD will have mercy because he will have mercy. It is owing to his diffinguishing love that I am not hardened. Here is, and I believe will be a great quickning in these parts. --The cloud feems to be moving. Perhaps in the Spring we may meet face to face. With difficulty I get time to write this, but I must answer dear Brother I----'s letter.---May the LORD JESUS be continually with your spirit, and make your foul brimful of peace and joy in the Holy Ghoft. I love you in the bowels of the crucified Lamb. May he unite us more and more intimately to his dear felf, and to one another. Salute all that love him in fincerity .- Brethren, pray for us.-That you may be kept by Gop's power to eternal falvation, is the prayer of

> Your most affectionate, though unworthy brother and poor weak fervant in CHRIST,

> > Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

ī.

1

LC I

i

Ċŗ.

x

hr.

Ľİ.

R

西山

ġ.

ģ

Ta

Ľ.

15 įā

85 di l

ø

ŗ,

3

1

đ

1

3

t

ł:

ġ

ø

1

ľ,

$L \in T T \in R \quad CCXXIV.$ $T_0 Mr. W \longrightarrow D \longrightarrow$

Dear Brother W----. Boston, September 28, 1740. Thank you for your kind letter from Offet; I wish it was written with more life. I fear you are turning almost to a fpirit of bondage: but it is good for you to be fifted, to make an experienced minister of JESUS CHRIST. I could not but smile, to find you wink at the decency of my dress. Alas ! my brother, I have known long fince what it is to be in that state you are (in my opinion) about to enter into. I myself thought once that christianity required me to go nafty. I neglected myfelf as much as you would have me, for above a twelvemonth : but when GOD gave me the fpirit of adoption, I then dreffed decently, as you call it, out of principle : and I am more and more convinced, that the LORD would have me act, in that respect, as I do. But I am almost ashamed to mention any such thing : rather let us talk and write of the love of JESUS; " Let us fland fast in the liberty wherewith JESUS CHRIST hath made us free, and not be again entangled in a yoke of bondage." GOD only knows whether you have done right in leaving the univerfity, or in declining to exhort. If you do not preach till you are perfectly free from all fin, I believe you will never preach again. I could never hear of fuch a minister or christian yet. My dear brother, I speak freely to you, because I love you in the bowels of IESUS CHRIST. He fent his disciples to preach before they were perfect; nay, when they were weak in grace. Exercise the talents you have, and that is the way to get more. Thus has GOD dealt with me for these seven years. "To him that hath, shall be given." Many of our friends talk against election : a good reason may be given. I believe they have never taken pains to fearch into the true state of the case. What if fome abuse that doctrine ; is it therefore false? No; by no I am perfuaded, if any of our friends would examine means. their experiences, they would find that JESUS CHRIST freely prevented them by his grace; that he compelled them to come in; and that it is not owing to themfelves, but to the will and promise of GoD, that they are now kept in a state of P 🖌 grace.

grace. But I will fay no more. My dear brother, I love you. May the LORD lead you into all truth. Our dear Mafter is doing wonders among us. Praife him luftily, and with a good courage. Adieu. Dear \mathcal{J} —— S—— falutes you and the brethren, as does Yours affectionately,

G. W.

LETTER CCXXV.

To the Rev. Mr. Z _____ M_____. Reverend and dear Brother, Boston, Sept. 28, 1740. I Received—I felt your letter. Surely there is a sympathy between souls that have drank into the same spirit. GOD willing, I purpose to come and see you; and will endeavour to send you timely notice: but oh do not expect too great things from me; for if you do, who knows but my LORD may defert me; and then what am I? Excuse the brevity of this. So many perfons come to me under convictions, and for advice, that I have scarce time to eat bread. Wonderful things are doing here. The word runs like lightning. Dagon daily falls before the ark. I know you will, in spirit, pray that a due fense of his own vileness may be continually given to

Your affectionate, though unworthy, brother and fervant in our glorious Emmanuel,

G. W.

LETTER CCXXVI.

To Mr. W____, at Briftol.

Dear Brother W_{----} , Bofton, Sept. 28, 1740. W HAT mean you by difputing in all your letters? May GOD give you to know yourfelf, and then you will not plead for al-folute perfection; or call the doctrine of election a " doctrine of devils." My dear brother, take heed; fee you are in CHRIST a new creature. Beware of a falfe peace: ftrive to enter in at the ftrait gate; and give all diligence to make your calling and election fure. Remember you are but a babe in CHRIST, if fo much. Be humble, talk little, think and pray much. Let GOD teach you, and he will lead you into all truth. I love you heartily: I pray you

Digitized by Google

4

216

LETTERS.

you may be kept from error, both in principle and practice. Salute all the brethren. If you must dispute, flay till you are master of your subject; otherwise you will hurt the cause you would defend. Study to adorn the gospel of our LORD in all things; and forget not to pray for

Your affectionate friend and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CCXXVII.

To Mr. G_____ L____

Bojton, October 9, 1740. My dear Brother L----, Write to you again by this fhip, though I have scarce I time to write a line. GOD works by me, I think, more than ever. I am quite well in bodily health. Ministers as well as people are flirred up, and the government is exceeding civil. In fhort, GOD is doing greater things than can be expressed. Oh exhort all to pray, and to give thanks for me with their whole hearts. The bearer brings the authentic copy of my appeal; I fent you another copy before from Carolina. Be pleafed to keep this I have now fent, till you hear of my coming to England: if I come in the Spring, I will lodge it myfelf; if not, be pleafed to lodge it for me, and I will pay all expences. O dear brother L-----, what a fcene of labours and fufferings lies before me ! My dear JESUS will make memore than conqueror over all: he ftrengthens and comforts, he converfes with me by night and by day : he gives me all peace and joy in believing. I pray GOD to keep our dear brother S---- and others from a falle ftillnefs. I am forry to hear fuch errors are rifen amongst the brethren. Adieu; the LORD be with your fpirit. I have already collected upwards of four hundred pounds sterling for the Orphan-house. God shews me that America must be my place for action. Once more adieu. Ceafe not to pray for,

> Ever, ever yours, G. W.

Digitized by Google

LETTER

217

LETTER CCXXVIII.

To Mr. 7- H-.

· Newbayen, Oct. 24, 1740.

My very dear Friend and Brother,

TOUR letter, just now brought to me by dear brother N-----, gave me great comfort. With fear and trembling, ever fince the late difputations, have I opened letters fent from Savannab; but bleffed be GOD, our dear LORD is with my dear friend H----. Bleffed be GoD, my family dwell together in unity. The GOD of love fill you with all peace and joy in believing. I hope a fupply for your then prefent wants, came to you foon after you fent your letters : fince that, I have fent from Bofton 1001. fterling; next week I hope to fend again from New-York, and before Christmas I truft I shall see you face to face. Wonderful things GOD does for me. I am enabled to preach and travel better than ever. There has been joy in heaven, I believe, over many fouls repenting. There are fome hopes of dear, dear brother N----'s coming with me. Mr. B----, one of the young ministers of Long Island, with his wife, accompanies me also: and another fettled christian, who holds and experiences the truth as it is in JESUS. O that all my family may be thus minded ! I suppose by this time you know how matters are determined for me, if Mr. C---- is arrived. God keeps me in fuspense : suspense did I fay ? Bleffed be his holy name, I am quite eafy : I am perfuaded he will chufe for me a daughter of Abraham. I know not but it may be the divine will that you should abide in Georgia, whilft I go to England. Be refigned : fee if GoD does not bring all things about for your good : there is but little comfort to be expected in England. I find I must, if I am faithful, oppose the errors of many who, I believe, fear GoD: O that I may do it with meekness and wildom. Methinks I now long to be with you all at Savannah. Pray for my speedy passage. I am glad Gon is scourging out the children of Belial : you have often heard me fay GOD would do fo. Never fear; a remnant will be left, which shall take root downwards, and bear fruit upwards, and yet fill the land. My dear brother, adieu : I am called away. I love you more folidly than ever. Dear \mathcal{J}_{---} , \mathcal{S}_{---} , $\mathcal{M}r. F_{---}$, and \mathcal{P}_{----} , love you too: we travel very comfortably: thousands of prayers are continually put up for me and mine. My love to all, without exception. Feed the lambs, fludy the purity of their hearts, and thereby rejoice the foul of

C

2

2

7

6

ť

2

G

à

ĩ

r œ

a 11 τ.

Z

1

G.

ŗ

5

t

3

Ľ,

F.

đ

Ż

ķ

ī.

ł

Yours most affectionately and eternally in CHRIST JESUS,

G. W.

LETTER CCXXIX.

To Mr. 7- W--.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9, 1740. Dear and honoured Sir, Received your's, dated March 11, this afternoon. Oh L that we were of one mind : for I am yet perfuaded you greatly err. You have fet a mark you will never arrive at, till you come to glory. I think few enjoy fuch continued manifestations of GoD's prefence as I do, and have done, for fome years ; but I dare not pretend to fay I shall be absolutely perfect. O. dear Sir, many of GoD's children are grieved at your principles; O that GOD may give you a fight of his free, fovereign, and electing love ! But no more of this : why will you compel me to write thus? why will you difpute? I am willing to go with you to prison, and to death; but I am not willing to oppofe you. My heart is now much affected : indeed I love and honour you. Dear, dear Sir, study the covenant of grace, that you may be confiftent with yourfelf : haften O LORD, the bleffed time ! I fancy I shall embark for England about Spring; but am not yet determined. GOD fhews me his goodness plenteously every day. I dwell in CHRIST, and CHRIST in me : glory be to fovereign grace. I feem to have a new body, and the LORD JESUS greatly enriches my foul. O I am a poor finner ! but our LORD frequently manifests himself in such a manner, that it throws me into an agony which my body is almost too weak to bear. Honoured Sir, adieu. O build up, but do not lead into error, the fouls once committed to the charge of

Your affectionate, unworthy brother and fervant, in the loving JESUS,

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CCXXX.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9, 1740.

My very dear Brother H-----, T Wrote to you from Boston. Your letter, written near a twelve-month ago, came to my hand this afternoon. My foul is knit to you: we both speak and think the fame things. The LORD be with your fpirit. JESUS manifests forth his glory daily in these parts. Though I am fuch a vile, worthlefs, ungrateful wretch, yet the LORD fills me out of his divine fulnefs day by day. His word is like a fire, and a hammer : last week I faw many quite struck down. Our LORD is working upon little children. America, ere long, will be famous for christians. Surely the candlestick will shortly be removed from England. Little did I think, when Mr. E----9----- wrote, that I should preach in all the chief places of America: , but that is now done; glory be to rich, free, and fovereign grace ! Perhaps about Spring I may embark for my native country: the LORD vouchfafe us a happy meeting. O Wales, thou art dear to my foul ! My love to all the brethren. Dear brother H-----, I pray GOD you may profper, even as your foul profpers. Expect another journal fhortly : but wait till we come to glory, fully to fee and hear what Gon hath done for

Your affectionate brother and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCXXXI.

To bis Excellency Jonathan Belcher, Efg; in Bofton.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9, 1740.

THOUGH late, I now fnatch a few moments to fend your excellency my acknowledgments for all honours received at Bofton: they are much upon my heart. I pray GOD to reward your excellency a thoufand-fold.

Great things hath the glorious Emmanuel done for me and his people on the way: the word has been attended with much power. Surely our LORD intends to fet America in a flame. This

LETTERS

This week Mr. G-- T-- purposes to set out for Boston, in order to blow up the divine fire lately kindled there. I recommend him to your excellency as a folid, judicious, and zealous minister of the LORD JESUS CHRIST : he will be ready to preach daily : I suppose his brethren will readily open their doors: may the LORD at the fame time open the people's hearts, that they may diligently attend to the things that fhall be spoken. Dear Mr. R-grows in grace: I left him at Brunfwick, full of gratitude for his late journey. I am perfuaded it was of GOD. I hope he will be inftrumental in quickening both minifters and people. He is worthy of your excellency's particular regard : under GOD he may need it. I expect he will foon be reviled and perfecuted for his bleffed Master's fake : may the LORD enable him to rejoice and be exceeding glad. Dear Sir; the welfare of dear Boston people, especially the welfare of your own foul, lies upon me night and day. I remember your tears : I remember your excellency's words, " Mr. Whitefield, pray that I may hunger and thirst after righteousness." O how did these words rejoice me ! for I thought your excellency wanted a more clear view of your own vilenefs, and of the all-fufficiency of JESUS CHRIST; I mean a more clear, experimental view : for what is all head-knowledge without that of the heart ? it only fettles. people more upon their lees. May GOD give you to fee and to follow the fimplicity of the bleffed JESUS. Whilft you are in the world, may you not be of it : may you be dead to magnificence, and alive to nothing but what leads you directly to your 'God.

ť

.

. ?

Honoured Sir, I make no apology for this freedom: your excellency bid me not fpare rulers; no, not the chief of them. Indeed I long after your falvation; O that I could do any thing to promote it! If my prayers, or any thing within my power may be inftrumental thereunto, your excellency may command, honoured Sir,

Your Excellency's obliged humble fervant; G. W.

Digitized by Google

LETTER

22I

LETTER CCXXXII.

To Mr. M-, at London.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10, 1740. My dear Brother, CTILL my LORD shews me greater things. At New-Tork the Holy Ghoft came down like a mighty rufhing wind. At Baskenridge still a greater awakening among young and old. One that received CHRIST cried out, " He is come! He is come !" &c. The poor creature was wrapped up in the LORD JESUS: and both there and at New-York my foul was taken almost out of the body. At Newark the LORD worked wonderfully amongst fome young men; and here at Philadelphia the word runs very fwiftly. This afternoon, how beautiful did the LORD appear in his fanctuary! I would cry out, "How amiable are thy dwellings, thou LORD of hofts !" In feveral places, almost as large as Northampton, are many faithful labourers. We all think and fpeak the fame things : O that it was fo at London! The LORD enables me to confute error wherever I fee it. Pray for me, that I may be made faithful to my LORD and Master : he is dearer to me every day : he will have mercy, because he will have mercy. See brother L---'s letter. Another journal comes out fhortly. My hearty love to all. Stand fast in the faith : guit yourfelves like men : be ftrong. Above all, give thanks to GoD; and pray in behalf of, dear Mr. M-----,

Your most affectionate brother and fervant, G. W.

LETTER CCXXXIII.

To Mr. G----- L-----.

Dear Brother L., Pbiladelphia, Nov. 10, 1740. I Wrote to you laft week from New-York. You may give friends this brief account of me : On laft Saturday evening I arrived at this place, having preached at Staten Ifland, Newark, Bajkenridge, New Brunfwick, and Trenton, in my way hither from New York. A wonderful prefence of GoD was observable at New-York, Baskenridge, and Newark. I preached here twice twice yefterday, and also to-day, in a large house built by the people fince I was here last. It is an hundred feet long, and feventy feet wide; and is intended for a school, as well as a place for public worship. The walls are brick, and the roof is now almost ready to be put up. GOD hath remarkably appeared in the carrying on the building; and the holy spirit hath sweetly moved on the hearers souls every time I preached in it. I intend, GOD willing, to stay here this, and to embark for Georgia the latter end of next week; and propose, GOD willing, to return to England for a short time, in the Spring.

r N

.

1

G,

2

2

i.

.

1

. .

ſ

¢.,

c

Ī

The LORD highly favours me; I am more fiek of myfelf, and more in love with CHRIST daily: he is a dear, dear Mafter: Oh that all would love him with all their hearts ! Adieu: it is late. The LORD be with your fpirit.

Your affectionate friend, brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCXXXIV.

To the Rev. Mr. D-, at New Brunfwick.

My very dear Brother, Salem, Nov. 20, 1740. E XCESS of businefs, not a want of love, prevented my writing to you from Philadelphia. I feel that I love you in the bowels of the dear Jefus, our ever bleffed and glotious Emmanuel: he hath done great things for me fince you left us. Yesterday at Cobanfie the spirit of the LORD moved over the whole congregation: what reason have we to be thankful for the great things we both see and hear! My dear brother, indeed I defire to lie in the dust. O how good is my LORD to me I thoughts cannot conceive, or words express it! I long to be in glory, that I may praise him as I would. I rejoice to hear that the LORD is with you. Shortly, I believe, you will evangelize. All friends kindly falute you. Adicu. In great hafte, I am

Your very affectionate, though unworthy brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CCXXXV.

To Mr. 7---- H----.

Bohemia, (Maryland) Nov. 24, 1740.

My very dear Brother,

T. Rejoice to hear that you are married : I falute your wife and my fifter in CHRIST : may you love one another, as CHRIST and his church. 'I have lately converfed clofely with P - B - B alas! we differ widely in many refpects; therefore, to avoid disputation and jealousies on both fides, it is best to carry on the work of GoD apart. The divisions among the brethren sometimes grieve, but do not surprize me. How can it be otherwife, when teachers do not think and fpeak the fame things? God grant we may keep up a cordial undiffembled love towards each other, notwithstanding our different opinions. O how do I long for heaven! Surely, there will be no divisions, no strife there, but who shall fing with most affection to the Lamb that fitteth upon the throne. Dear James, there I hope to meet thee; for the dear JESUS, I believe, hath locked thee fast in his almighty arms. Lean thou on his facred bofom night and day; keep close to him, and be what I long to be, a little child. Adieu. I am ready to weep tears of love. My dear brother, I fhould be glad to wash any of the brethren's feet : indeed I am now willing to be the fervant of all. The more the LORD honours me, the more I feel my unworthinefs. I am fometimes fick of love, and often, often fick of felf. O that GoD fhould have mercy on such a sinner ! Help me, dear James, to praise my Saviour. A glorious church is raifing in America. The LORD mightily reveals his arm. It would pleafe you to fee his outgoings, his flately fleps in the great congregation. I only want fellow-labourers. I look to JESUS for this, and for every thing. I defire you to print nothing against your confcience : only do not immediately cenfure every thing that may not seem clear to you : our LORD may guide me, even into things which as yet you may not fee into. The day of judgment will discover all. Adieu.

Ever, ever yours in our bleffed Emmanuel,

· Digitized by Google

G. W.

LET•TER

LETTER CCXXXVI.

To the Rev. Mr. 7. W.

Bohemia (Maryland) Nov. 24, 1740.

225

Dear and Hon. Sir,

24, 1

te me -

200¹2

Cole-

DY E

both in The dif

farm t dii

upac: Bacic en! in ho fhi.

: them

der 1

omia la Icieto E

1177 iki

Wills

17.72

. .

narezi n èr-

he Letii

. I::

52

REE

hin:

្លះ៖ ្

1

, G. -

ToTE

AST night brother G---- brought me your two kind I letters. O that there may be harmony, and very intimate union between us ! Yet it cannot be, fince you hold universal Redemption. But no more of this. Perhaps, in Spring, we may fee each other face to face. This evening, GOD willing, I propose to embark for Georgia. Wonderful things our LORD brings to pass, in these parts, every day. Here is a close opposition from some of the Presbyterian Clergy. The feed of the ferpent is the fame in all, of whatever communion. I expect much more opposition every hour. The devil rages in London. He begins now to triumph indeed. The children of GOD are difunited among themselves. The king of the church shall yet over-rule all things for good. My dear brother, for CHRIST's fake avoid all disputation. Do not oblige me to preach against you; I had rather die. Be gentle towards the ----. They will get great advantage over you, if they difcover any irregular warmth in your temper. I cannot for my foul unite with the Moravian Brethren. Honoured Sir, Adieu !

> Yours eternally in CHRIST JESUS; G. W.

LETTER CCXXXVII.

Saint George's (Penfylvania) Nov. 24, 1740.

Digitized by Google

Dear Brother T----,

G OD has revived his own, work in Philadelphia. His glory filled the great house. The affairs belonging thereto, I believe, are well settled. We have had precious times at Cobanfi, Salem, Fogs-mannor, Nottingham, Whiteclay, Creek and Bohemia. Brother G—— is come from England very opportunely. Brother S—— comes about Christmas. The brethren I think do grow, though fadly divided. But our LORD will order all for good. — Upon several accounts, I VOL. I. Q think

5

G. W.

LETTER CCXXXVIII.

Dear Mr. F., Reedy-Ifland, Nov. 26, 1740. I Thank you for your letter.—You may print my life, as you defire. God willing, I shall correct my two volumes of fermons, and fend them the very first opportunity.— Pray write to me by every ship, that goes shortly to Charles-Town.—

I shall embark for England, GOD willing, about February.-I defire I may hear from you there also, as often as possible. I have prefaced Jenks, and Prefumptuous finners detected. Mr. Bradford has the laft, becaufe he faid he was to print it. You may have it of him.-The Ornaments of the daughter of Sion, vou may have hereafter. Dear Sir, Adieu. I do not despair of your feeing the reasonableness of christianity. Apply to Gop ; be willing to do the divine will, and you fhall know it. I have heard from Mr. S----; all is well. To-day feveral friends have taken leave of me at this place, waiting for a fair wind in order to embark for Georgia. I think I have been on shore 73 days, and have been enabled to travel upwards of 800 miles, and to preach 170 times, befides very frequent exhortations at private houses. I have collected, in goods and money, upwards of 7001. sterling, for the Orphanhouse ; bleffed be GOD! Great and visible are the fruits of my late, as well as former feeble labours, and people in general feem more eager after the word than ever. O the love of Gop to

Your unworthy friend,

. Digitized by Google

G. W. LETTER

LETTER CCXXXIX.

To Mr. N. in New-York.

My very dear Brother, Charles-Town, Dec. 10, 1740. TN eight days, the LORD brought us hither. We arrived 1 last night, when the Redeemer vouchsafed to to fill me with his divine confolations, that I could scarce sleep. I have been preaching this morning on the fire that happened of late from these words, Isa. i. q. " Except the LORD of HOSTS had left unto us avery fmall remnant, we fhould have been as Sodam, and we fhould have been like unto Gomorrah." I am now determined to fee England as foon as possible. I have had much of God's presence in our passage hither from Philadelphia, and have many precious letters to fend you. O follow me with your prayers. I leave Charles-Town, GOD willing, to-night, in order to haften to their relief, and shall go in the fame floop which brought me here, to my beloved Georgia. As foon as poffible, I will fend you a long letter. In the mean while, accept of my love from, dear Mr. N---,

Ē

: _____

5

5

.

Your very affectionate friend and brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

227

LETTER CCXL.

On board the Savannah for Georgia, Dec. 11, 1740. Dear Brother C-----, V OUR late letters, efpecially that which you fent me by way of Charles-Town, made me fmile. — I was glad to find that you had not fo far thrown off all outward things, as to refolve not to write to any one; and I thought I knew the frame of your heart, as though I was within you. My dear, dear George C—, I love you tenderly in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST, and therefore would not have you be deceived. Alas, why do you pervert this text of fcripture, " Be ftill, and know that I am the LORD," as if it was defigned to keep a chriftian from ftriving, or meant a ftillnefs of body, or waiting upon GOD only in filence? The expression is taken out of the 46th Pfalm, where GOD's fury against the heathen is Q 2 defcribed in the most lively colours; and then left his people fhould complain of the feverity of his dispensations, GOD commands them to be flill, " not to murmur or repine, knowing that he was the LORD, and might do what feemed him good." Thus Tate and Brady in their translations explain it, and thisis the true and genuine meaning of that fentence. It hath no reference to stillness in prayer, or stillness of body. Dear brother, I speak to you plainly, because I love you. I think I know what it is to wait upon the LORD in filence, and to feel the fpirit of GOD making interceffion for me with groanings which cannot be uttered. Often have I been at fuch times filled as it were with the fulness of GoD, and I do now daily carry on a communion with the most high GOD and the ever-bleffed JESUS. But all this I fear is contrary to the falfe fillness, you and fome others feem to have fallen into. I was just in the fame cafe fome years ago at Oxford, when I declined writing, reading, and fuch like exercises, because I would be still. The LORD convinced me; I pray he may alfo convince you of this delusion. Dear George, confider how contrary your maxim is to our Saviour's. You fay, "Be fill." He fays, " Strive." As in an agony, " Strive that you may enter in at the strait gate." Indeed, my dear man, I pity you, knowing you have but a weak judgment, though a wellmeaning heart. You once thought that you was born again ; then, you found it was only an elapfe of the Holy Ghoft. You ufed to fay, you wished you could believe from experience in the doctrine of election; now, you find as yet no evidence within yourfelf that you are a real christian. You take too much refuge, I fear, in the doctrine of universal redemption. It is the finest doctrine in the world to cause a foul to be falfely still, and to fay Peace, Peace, when there is no peace. You feem to infift upon finless perfection, and to think a man hath no real falvation till he literally cannot commit fin. From whole experience do you write this ? Not from your own, dear George; for I much question, if ever your heart was truly broken or had a faving clofure with CHRIST. You feem to mention Peter Bochler as an inftance; but alas, though he has been washed in the blood of the Lamb, fo as to be justified from all his fins, yet like me his feet want washing still, and will, till till he bows down his head and gives up the ghost. I have converfed with him intimately. Take heed, brother, of having -any thing too much in admiration, or of thinking you must neceffarily find CHRIST at fuch and fuch a place. You have been at M----. I believe you have feen many dear children -of GoD; but have you returned home with CHRIST in your heart? Your letters do not speak much improvement in the school of CHRIST. If GOD loves you, he will let you fee the vanity of your prefent imaginations, and bring you to fee that falvation is not of him that willeth, or of him that runneth, but of GOD that sheweth mercy. Dear George, be not given to change; be not too fond of new things. "To the law and to the testimony," and see what CHRIST and his apostles have spoken. I speak this out of love, and not in reference to myself. If God bleffes another ministry to your soul, I rejoice, yea and will rejoice. But if I fee you fall into errors, do not be angry if I tell you the truth. If you are, I will notwithstanding love and pray for you. That errors are crept in among you, I think is too plain : but I fuspend my judgment till the Spring, when, GOD willing, I hope to be in In the mean while pray for me, that I may with London. joy bear to be deferted by those, who once were bleffed and awakened by my ministry, and to whom I am a spiritual father, though they may have many inftructors. Dear George, . may the LORD be with you. He only knows how dear you are to my heart. It is near midnight; but it was much upon my heart to write you this letter. That GOD may fanctify it to your edification and comfort, is the hearty prayer of

LETTER

S.

229

> Your affectionate friend, brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCXLI.

To the Rev. Mr. C----. Good-Hope (South-Carolina) Jan. 1. 1741.

Rev. and dear Sir,

.

2

÷

İī

Ľ.

r.

я.

÷

Ģ

01

1

.

97

1

it

ŗC,

. موز

> I am now going to Charles-Town, in order to embark for England; the cloud of God's providence feems to be Q3 moving moving that way; I have enjoyed much of the divine prefence fince I left Bofton, and have had a comfortable Christmas with my dear family at Georgia. At my return, I found my Orphanhoushold removed from Savannah to Bethefda, and great improvements made during the time of my absence. The great house will be finished, GOD willing, fo as to be habitable, in about two months. It would have been finished so far by this time. if the Spaniards had not taken a schooner loaded with bricks and other provisions to a confiderable value; but GOD about the fame time ftirred up the heart of a planter in South-Carolina, lately brought home at the orphan-house to GOD, to fend my family fome rice and beef. At other times, when they have wanted food, the Indians have brought plenty of venifon. Gop. every day, more and more convinces us that this work is of him. His power has been made known, especially among the young ones. I blefs GOD, I have fettled my family to my great fatisfaction, and verily believe I shall live to fee great things come from the Orphan-house. GOD works upon the hearts of the labourers. One woman hath had a glorious difcovery of CHRIST made to her heart : laft week, two or three men where brought into heart-diffrefs, and another young man that came to fee us, was made fo fick of fin, as to feel the want of, and to enquire after the great and all-powerful phyfician of fouls. My family, I think, confifts now of 89 perfons. Next year my expences will be contracted much; but at present, I am in debt about 500l. fterling. However. I know in whom I have believed, ONE who is able to pay it. My public accounts will be published as soon as I arrive at London, with a prospect of the Orphan-house, and other little houses and gardens annexed unto it. I am now at the house of one Mr. Jonathan B-, who, I truft, with his brother Mr. H---B---, and another young man, lately a player in New-York, are settled by a living faith in JESUS CHRIST. The latter, I intend for the ministry. Mr. H - B -'s wife died not long fince, rejoicing in GOD her Saviour. Several others also in these parts are grown in grace, and Mr. C---'s ministry hath been much bleffed.--Satan hath been fowing tares in old England. Oh that Bofton ministers and people

ETTERS.

L

1

Z

ni Ti

G

1

2

Ŧ.

5

9

51

2

Q

¢Ĵ

E

¢:

ņ,

R.

Ø.

2

6

Ē

1

ť.

.

15 6 3

people may pray for me ! Indeed, I love them in the bowels of the bleffed JESUS. Vale ! longum etfi fpero non in æternum, vale. That CHRIST's kingdom may flourish in your heart, and that you may greatly promote it in the fouls of others, is the hearty prayer of, Reverend and dear Sir,

Your affectionate unworthy fellow-fervant,

in our common LORD,

G. W.

LETTER CXLII.

To the Rev. Mr. C------

Charles-Town, Jan. 12, 1741. Dear and Reverend Sir. AST Saturday I was taken up for being concerned in La correcting the inclosed printed letter, written by Mr. H-B whole conversion you have an account of in the other letter fent herewith. I think it may be for God's glory to have them all printed in Bofton. I am bound over to appear enext feffions, as well as Mr. B----. He, I believe, for libelling the king, and I for libelling the clergy, in faying they break the Canons daily. I think, dear Sir, thefe are earnests of what I must expect to meet with in my native country. Opposition, as yet, feems to be only like a cloud rifing out of the fea, no bigger than a man's hand. Perhaps it will gather to a great body, and break upon the church of GOD. Our LORD will be our refuge in every ftorm. He is much with my foul, and fills me abundantly, I could almost fay superabundantly, with his prefence. We have feen precious times. One perion had a glorious discovery of CHRIST about two days ago. I expect my family will be like the burning bufh. I find I am in debt for them upwards of fix hundred pounds : but the LORD will provide.---My most tender love awaits all that love him. 'I am to appear at the feffions by an attorney. Dear Sir, remember,

Ever yours in CHRIST,

Digitized by Google

C. W.

LETTER

LETTER CCXLIII.

To the Rev. Mr. C-, at Rhode Ifland. Reverend and Dear Sir. Charles-Town, Jan. 16, 1741. T Snatch a few moments to write you a line before I embark I for England. Bleffed be God, you are near your defired haven. Yet a little while, and you fhall fafely arrive in Abraham's bosom. I præ, sequar, esti non passibus equis. - Great things God is doing daily. The kingdom of heaven (I hope) is at hand. I am bound over to appear at the feffions here, by my attorney, for libelling the clergy, because I corrected the letter inclosed. A scene of suffering lies before me, but wherefore fhould I fear ? Our LORD ftrenghthens me mightly in the inner man. We have had much of his prefence in our affemblies. But I must have done. Dear and Reverend Sir. adieu. I scarce expect to see you again in the flesh ; but this is my comfort, I shall see and rejoice with you above. There, I will fit and tell you what GOD hath done for

Your unworthy brother and fervant in CHRIST JESUS, G. W.

LETTER CCXLIV.

To the Rev. Mr. C-, in Boston.

Reverend and dear Sir, Charles-Town, Jan. 16, 1741. HOUGH I have packed up two letters for you already. yet I cannot refrain from fending you a . third. Just now I was favoured with yours dated last December 1. Indeed, it gave me much comfort, and endeared the writer of it to me more and more. Sir, why am I thus highly favoured ! I now with to fink exceeding low, and cry out, Grace, grace ! O the love of GOD ! The fovereignty of CHRIST ! The unchangeable loving-kindnefs of our heavenly Father ! Excufe me, dear Mr. C----; my heart is full. I want for all men to love the LORD JESUS. It greatly rejoices me, to hear fo many are coming to him. He is a loving tender mafter. attends to my minutest wants, and furprizingly helps me in every emergency. I thank dear Mr. C-----, for the kind token of his love. Good measure pressed down and running over, may God

Gop return into your bofom ! You will be pleafed to correct. the prefs. I am filled with comfort to hear of the conduct of the dear governor, &c. I cannot but think our LORD will let his word run, and be abundantly glorified in America. Boston people are much upon my heart. The memory of their forefathers is precious to my foul. May you live to fee the fpirit of fcriptural Puritanifm univerfally prevail ! I hope you will write every opportunity. If I am in prifon, it will make me arife at midnight to fing praifes to GOD, to hear that Boston people are alive to CHRIST. At prefent, my heart is full of peace We have had folemn meetings. I am much and joy. Arengthened on every fide; but I must not fay more. Time is fhort. Dear Mr. C-----, adieu. May the LORD be with you and yours. I could now drop a tear of loye.--My loye to all.

I am yours &c.

G. W.

233

LETTER CCXLV.

To Mr. W_____, at Boston.

On board the Minerva, for England, Jan. 17, 1741.

Dear Sir,

i

Ľ.

È

Ľ,

63 īī

Œ

11

13

2.

73

X

Е. (;)

1

ŀ.

ŝ

1

,

M. R. P----- hath juft brought me your kind letter. Bleffed be GOD, that his word runs and is glorified in Bofton. Surely, dear Sir, I shall never forget that people; indeed, they are very near and dear unto my foul. May those of your own household, in particular, be not only convicted but converted; may the dear JESUS fill you with all peace and joy in believing, and enable you to pray for, dear Sir,

Yours in the bleffed Jesus,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

P. S. Excuse great hafte; our ship is just under sail. My dear companions kindly salute you and yours.

LETTER

LETTER CCXLVI.

To Mr. Wm. G

On board the Minerva, Feb. 8, 1741. in latitude 35, 24 N. My dear brother, CEE how foon I write to you, and from thence infer how D I love you. Whether it proceeds from the pride and naughtiness of my heart, I cannot tell; but, I frankly confes, I love to fee perfons humble, kind, and courteous to thofe, whom GOD hath made their spiritual fathers. I believe it is well pleafing to GoD, and very amiable in the fight of all good men. Your christian grateful behaviour to me in this refpect, hath much endeared you to me. Gop only knows how I love you. I bear you upon my heart, and often fecretly figh out before the LORD,-"" O let my dear brother G—— live before thee." This is the defire of my foul for you. I cannot wifh you a better thing. Yet a little while, and we shall be together again. But, before that time, I expect to fuffer great things. The LORD is able to deliver me out of I have just now experienced his divine affistance in comall. pofing a fermon. This is the fixth which he has enabled me to finish, fince I have been on board. O my dear brother, love a precious CHRIST, and fhew it by adorning his gofpel in all things. He has highly favoured you, indeed he hath. If you and I are not eminently holy, if you and I think any thing too much to be done for the LORD, we are of all men the most ungrateful. O the love of CHRIST ! I feel it, I feel it. GOD now sheds it abroad in my heart. May it abundantly also be shed on you by the Holy Ghost. Write to me if in prifon, my friends will bring it to me there. GOD will hear me for you even in a dungeon. Methinks F fee you weep; but weep not for me, unless it be before the LORD, and then I care not how foon you retire, and pour out your prayers in behalf of, dear Mr. G----,

Your affectionate friend, brother and fervant, G. W.

Digitized by Google

LETTER

LETTER CCXLVII.

To Mrs. L-, at Charles-Town.

On board the Minerva, Feb. 11, 1741. Dear Mrs. L-----,

VOU was upon the mount when I left Charles-Town; I hope you have not thrown yourfelf down. Keep clofe to CHRIST, and cash not off your first love. Remember what GOD has done for your foul. Forget not the glorious difcovery JESUS CHRIST has made of himfelf to your heart; and though a cloud fhould overshadow you, let not Satan make you doubt of your being a child of GOD. O Mrs. L----, how holy ought you to be in all manner of conversation and godliness! Why are you taken? Why are you in the arms of everlafting love ? Methinks I hear you cry out, Grace ! grace ! And well you may; for indeed you are faved by grace. The free grace of our LORD JESUS CHRIST be with you now and for ever more. Bleffed be GoD, I experience much of it in the fhip. I hope divine grace moves me to fend you this small letter. If God bleffes it to your soul, put up a fhort prayer for > Your affectionate friend and servant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCXLVIII.

To Mrs. W----, at James-Island.

Dear Madam, On board the Minerva, Feb. 11, 1741.

M Y heart's defire and prayer to GoD is, that you may be faved. I hope you will find, it is not impoffible for you to be born again when you are old. GOD forbid. Though at the eleventh hour, I truft our LORD will meet you, and caufe you, whenever you depart, with good old Simeon, to depart in peace. I heartily thank you, madam, for all favours conferred on me and mine. We have not forgotten you on board. I do not forget to mention you in my fecret prayers. May GOD reveal his dear Son in your foul, and fill you with all peace and joy in believing ! O what a ftaff will this be to you in your old age ! How pleafantly then will you walk by your vault, and fay, "There fhall I lay my weary bones ere long."

ċ

7

Ċ

2

Ė

t!

1

21

æ

Z.

é

ģ

Ś

ų L

t) İ

l

í

7

d, r (long." I hope you do not flartle at the thoughts of death. Believe in CHRIST. Get a faving intereft in his blood, and then you may cry out, "O death, where is thy fting ! O grave, where is thy victory ?" Bleffed be GoD, the profpect of death is pleafing to my foul. I would not live here always: I want to be gone. That you and I, whenever our appointed time is come, may live with CHRIST, is the earneft prayer of, madam,

> Your obliged friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCXLIX.

On board the Minerva, Feb. 12, 1741. Dear Mrs. T. MUST I pray for you in the language of Martha and Mary, faying, " LORD, fhe whom thou lovest is fick !" Or hath he who touched Peter's wife's mother, rebuked 'the illness that was coming upon you, when I faw you last, and caused it to leave you ? But, however the LORD has dealt with you, I hope he hath been glorified in and by you. I "heard he had by his word and fpirit fpoken to your foul, and given you fatisfaction, that he had loved you with an everlafting love, I rejoice in it from my foul. The LORD increase your comforts daily, and shew you all his glory. Dear Mrs. T--, think often of your departed fifter. Follow her * as fhe did CHRIST; and then fhortly, where fhe is you fhall be alfo. O the happiness the now enjoys ! It is too dazzling for mortal eyes. I want to leap my feventy years, and fly away to Gop. Well, it will not be long. Dear Mrs. 7-, let us patiently tarry till our change come. Our LORD will carry us fafe through time, and waft us triumphantly into eternity. The love of CHRIST constrained me to write these lines; accept them for his fake, from

> Your affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

> > Digitized by Google

LETTER

LETTER CCL.

To Mr. H----, at Port-Royal, South-Carolina. Dear Mr. H. On board the Minerva, Feb. 16. 1741: HE love of CHRIST confirmings me to write you a line,

L though as yet no further than the western islands. I trust the LORD hath called you by name, and enabled you to. fay "Speak LORD, for thy fervant heareth." Who knows but he may call you yet further, even to minister before him? Whether it be fo or not, make it your daily fludy to prepare your heart to ferve the LORD in any station. To be a doorkeeper in the house of GOD, is a glorious post. Surely, you and I may fing of mercy and electing love. How often have we acted a part for the devil? The remembrance of it is grievous unto me. Let us both now labour daily to act a part for GOD. He heaps kindneffes on me every hour. We have hitherto had a wonderful pleasant passage. I hope it is in fome measure owing to your prayers. Let this encourage you to pray again. Our GoD is a GOD hearing prayer. I write now, left excess of business should prevent my writing in England. The LORD is girding me for the battle, and ftrengthening me mightily in the inner man. "O give thanks unto the LORD of all Lords, because his merey endureth for ever," You will not fail writing to

1

.

5. ° 7 *

2Ż

Ę.

ií.

1

5

Fi

ņ

χÇ

Ŀ

Ш.

T.

Ë.

ĥ

1

Your affectionate friend, brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCLI.

To the Reverend Mr. C--, in Charles-Town.

My dear Brother, On board the Minerva, Feb. 17, 1741. THE LORD hath been with me, and is now with me in an efpecial manner. I have been enabled to prepare nine difcourfes for the prefs. My body waxes ftronger, and laft night the great GoD in a glorious manner filled and overfhadowed my foul. I am panting after the compleat holinefs of JESUS my LORD. I have various fcenes of action lying before me, and am waiting upon the LORD my GoD for direction. He affures me that he will be with me. He faith unto me, "Fear not, fpeak out, no one fhall fet upon thee to hurt 3 thee." Dear Mr. C----, GoD's goodnefs quite furprizes me. I cannot express myself better, than in a ftanza or two of Erskine in his Paraphrase upon Solemon's fong.

238

I.

What wonders LORD dost thou perform, That stoopest thus so low, To put thy beauty on a worm, And then commend it so. II.

What, doft thou praife a native black? I blufh to find it true; O lend me words to render back The praife to whom 'tis due.

I hope my love will find acceptance with all your flock who know me, and who love the LORD JESUS in fincerity. I have often comforted myself and companions with this faying, "Now Mr. C and our other friends are praying for us." At the receipt of this, 'turn your prayers into praises, and then turn your praises again into prayers, in behalf of, dear Mr. C ,

Your affectionate brother and fellow-labourer

in CHRIST JESUS, G. W.

LETTER CLII.

To Mr. H. B.

On board the Minerva, Feb. 16, 1741.

My dear brother in CHRIST,

BEFORE this is brought to your hands, I fuppole you will have been arraigned before the Chief Juffice. I am perfuaded our LORD will plead on your behalf, and ftrengthen you with his mighty power in the inner man. The greater progrefs you make in the divine life, the more you will difcover of the enmity that is in the feed of the ferpent. It bruifed our mafter's heel; it will alfo bruife ours. Here is our comfort, GOD who cannot lie, hath told us, that " we fhall bruife his head." In the ftrength of this promife, I can give men and devils the challenge. Whole legions are ready to befet me.

me. By the help of my GOD, I fhall triumph over all. —I hope we fhall grow in grace before we meet again. You and I have weak crazy tabernacles; I hope you rejoice in the profpect of putting them off fhortly; bleffed be GOD, I do.— Dear Sir, get acquainted more and more with electing love; ftudy the covenant of redemption, and fee how GOD loved you with an everlafting love. This will caufe you to glory only in the LORD, and to pafs through the valley of the fhadow of death, with a full affurance of faith; knowing that CHRIST hath engaged to lodge you fafe in eternal glory. Thither your dear wife is gone before us; I often think of, I could almost fay envy her; but perhaps that is wrong. Yet a little while, and our precious LORD fhall take both you, and

Your affectionate friend, brother,

and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCLIII.

To Mr. B-, at Port-Royal.

Dear Mr. B. On board the Minerva, Feb. 16. 1741. Hope you will never forget that day, hour, or moment, wherein GoD met you at Savannah. If you have in fome meafure, do fo no more. "Awake thou that fleepeft, and CHRIST fhall give thee light." Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. No man can ferve two mafters. Use the world, but let it be as though you used it not. The fashion of this world will foon, very foon, fade away. Dear Mr. B..., I am perfuaded, will not be offended at this plain dealing. He knows I love him. GOD knows it also. With much affection, I subscribe myself

Your friend and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CCLIV.

5

; ;;

To Mrs. B.

Dear Mrs. B. On board the Minerva, Feb. 16, 1741. WHEN you read that JESUS loved Lazarus, Mary, and their fifter Martha, do you not make a particular application plication to your own family? I think our LORD has been equally kind to your houfhold. Walk as becometh members of the houfhold of faith. I hope you have had full fatisfaction about your flate, and know affuredly that CHRIST is your Saviour. If not, be not difcouraged; go on the way of duty, is the way of fafety. By-and-by your foul fhall magnify the LORD, and your fpirit rejoice in GOD your Saviour. This is the hearty defire of, dear Mrs. B----,

> Your affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

L E T T E R CCLV. $T_0 Mr. \tilde{\gamma} - B -$.

Dear Mr. B-, On board the Minerva, Feb. 16. 1741. OUR name, Jonathan, puts me in mind of a good old testament worthy. Follow him in his faith, and dare to fcale the wall of the Philistines. Be not afraid, though already bound over as a libeller; fhortly you shall shine in the kingdom of your Father; I lay, your Father; for GOD is your GOD, and will be your guide and guard unto death. Does not this aftonish you ? Do not you feel your heart melt ? Are you not ready to cry out, " Why me, LORD ?" The oftener you repeat fuch language the better. I love to fee a foul lie in the dust under a sense of electing love; you and yours have been highly favoured. May GOD give you all grace to walk worthy of the holy vocation wherewith you are called. I write. this out of the fulnels of my heart. Though not prefent, yet I fain would converse with you. O that I may fee you grown in grace ! Remember me to your wife. The LORD be with you both : He hath been, he is now with me. You are often upon my heart. Gon reward you for your kindnefs to the Orphans. Do not flack your hands towards them. Our bountiful master will richly reward you. Go on steadily in the use of, but do not trust in ordinances. You know what I mean. Be fleady and bold, yet meek and catholic in your conversation and practice; and if GoD hath influenced you by my ministry, give him the glory, and for CHRIST's fake pray for

Your affectionate brother and fervant in CHRIST,

Digitized by Google

G. W. LETTER

LETTER CCLVI.

To Mr. B-, in Charles-Town.

Dear Mr. B. On board the Minerva, Feb. 16, 1741. Think of you often, indeed I do. I long to hear that complete falvation is come to your foul. I fay complete falvation, for my dear friend knows that reformation is not converfion. O that you may experience a life hid with CHRIST in Gon ! Some who feemingly put their hands to the plough, have already fhamefully looked back; will Mr. B. alfo go away? Methinks I hear him fay, "Whether shall I go? JESUS CHRIST alone hath the words of eternal life." True, JESUS alone is the way, the truth and the life; flee, flee to him, my dear friend; with arms he flands ready to embrace, and will fave you to the uttermost. Remember, my friend, the vows of the LORD are upon you. These hands reached out to you the facred fymbols of his precious body and blood. Thefe eyes faw you eat and drink of his bread and his wine. O do not betray, but manfully ftand up for the LORD JESUS. You was once bold for fatan, be now bold for your CHRIST. His love excites me to write to, and pray for you. Your wife alfo I intreat the LORD to blefs, together with your children. My friends join me in hearty wishes for your welfare. I am, dear Mr. B----,

Your affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCLVII.

To the Rev. Mr. D-, at Edinburgh.

On board the Minerva, Feb. 16, 1741.

Reverend and dear Sir,

IF I miftake not, Mr. M. informed me, that you was entered into the miniftry; I pray GOD to enable you to make full proof of it. O dear Sir, how holy ought we to be, who are called to ftand before the LORD.—When I confider the greatnefs of the office and my own unworthinefs, I am fometimes quite abafhed. This promife, "Lo I am with you always," is my daily fupport. Bleffed be GOD, I find it fulfilled in my VoL. I. R foul.

6

I:

Ç.

2

l

k

ŗ

z

hr

13

n.

ù.

Ŋ.

e:

5

25

::

á.

Ľ.

iai Cùi

) 🕅

64ľ

منیا: مندا

) II

U)

Ţ

241

foul. A great work is begun in America, at Georgia, South-Carolina, New-York, Philadelphia, and New-England. GOD has confirmed the word by fpiritual miracles and figns. You will fee what I have wrote to dear Mr. T---. Your affiftance in refpect to the Orphan-houfe will be very acceptable. I am several hundreds of pounds in debt on that account. The GOD whom I ferve is able to discharge it. You have heard of the liberality of the New-England people; dear Mr. D----God's goodness aftonishes me. What ! can I think any thing too much to do, or to fuffer for fo dear a Master ? I was lately bound over at Charles-Town in South-Carolina, for libelling the clergy. The libel, falfely fo called, I fhall foon fend you after my arrival. Thus opposition is coming on gradually : pray that the LORD may cover me with all his armour. I am a weak defenceless creature in myself; JESUS alone is my ftrength and my Redeemer. I write this on board, that you may know, you are not forgotten; no, tho' I never faw you in the flefh, you are much beloved by, dear Sir,

Your affectionate brother and fellow-labourer

in our dear LORD's vineyard,

G. W.

LETTER CCLVIII.

To the Rev. Mr. T-, at Edifto.

On board the Minerva, Feb. 17, 1741.

Dear Mr. T.

PROVIDENCE prevented my coming to fee you at Edi/fo, - however, I muft not omit writing to you now. How is it with your heart i I hope you are not nimis uxorius; take heed, my dear B-, take heed. Time is flort. It remains that those who have wives, be as tho' they had none. Let nothing intercept, or interrupt your communion with the bridegroom of the church. I hope you do not feel fuch damps of foul, as you used to complain of. May the LORD of glory dispel every black cloud, and cause you continually to rejoice in his falvation. You have ftrong paffions. The LORD JESUS is ftronger: In his ftrength may you subdue them, till you are meck

r

S.

42 ě.

rz

R.

M kz Iz

z,

Xì

ir Ir

s:

tμ

174

%-

сĩ

l

Ľ,

ġ.

5

i = ke

ø

FE COS

) (

hei Die

¢

ineek as a lamb, and are become a very little child. I write thus, because I pray for you most heartily. Deal with me in the fame manner; and now, dear brother, farewel. The LORD be with you. He is pleased to refresh my foul, and give me the prospect of a short passage. I commend myself and affairs to the prayers of your slock, and I earnessly recommend you to the GoD of all grace. That he may bles you and give you an inheritance among all them that are fanctisfied, is the earshest prayer of, dear Mr. T.....,

Your affectionate brother and fellow-labourer in the LORD, G. W.

LETTËR CCLIX.

To Mrs. B-, in Charles-Town.

Dear Mrs. B. On board the Minerva, Feb. 17, 1741.

T Am much obliged to you many ways. The LORD reward L you a thoufand-fold. Your prayers are heard. Gob is carrying us upon the wings of the wind. The angel of the covenant accompanies us in the way. The prefent featon is a time of refreshing to my foul. I hope it will be a profitable voyage. I think I fee more into the wickedness of my own heart, and the unfearchable riches of the LORD JESUS, who hath redeemed me by his precious blood. I believe you can fay fo: Why do you shake your head ? Woman, why doubtest thou? Has not the LORD visited your foul? Have you not heard him fay in his word, applied by his fpirit, " I have loved thee with an everlasting love ?" And do you think Gon would tell you fo, if it was not fo? Away therefore with all desponding fears; come boldly, with a full affurance of faith, and draw water plentifully out of the wells of falvation. O that all were comforted, as I am now comforted of Gon. I would not eat my spiritual morfels alone. I hope, a letter from you will acquaint me, how good the LORD has been to your foul. I have no greater joy, than to hear that my christian friends walk in the truth. The LORD be with you. Remember me to your father and fifters. That you all may be true members of the houshold of faith, prays

Your affectionate brother and servant

Digitized by Google

R 2

LETTER

G. ₩.

LETTERS.

LETTER CCLX.

To Mr. B. and bis wife at Betbefda.

Dear brother B-, On board the Minerva, Feb. 17, 1741. THEN I left Charles-Town, the LORD feemed to give me a full affurance, that we should have a speedy paffage .----- We have hitherto had fcarce any contrary winds, and are now very near the Western Islands. We had one form the first week, but almost ever fince have been favoured with weather as well as wind. O that you would call the family together, and praise the LORD for the mercies conferred on us the unworthieft of the fons of men! I do not know that I have failed praying for you one day, fince I have been out. I long to hear what the LORD hath done for your fouls. What fay you? Do you live in love? Do you strive together with me in your prayers? Are any of the Orphan Lambs bleating after their great Shepherd? Is your mouth opened? Is your heart enlarged ? Is your foul swallowed up in GOD ? Does Bethelda answer its name ? Is it, indeed, an house of mercy ? These queftions, I hope to have answer'd in the affirmative. If you afk, how it is with my foul? Bleffed be GOD, I can reply, " Very well." The LORD gives me a feeling poffeffion of himfelf. I have been enabled to compose nine discourses for the prefs. GOD willing, you shall hear from me often. I write this, that I may be ready, if I fhould hear of any fhip coming vour way immediately upon my arrival; receive it as a token of my love, which GOD knows is unfeigned, from

Your affectionate brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCLXI.

To Mr. J. B-, Charles-Town.

Dear Mr. B., On board the Minerva, Feb. 17, 1741. Think I owe you a letter; I believe you love me in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST. I hope our love is reciprocal. How can it be otherwise with those, who have drank of the fame spirit? I long for that happy time, when we shall be swallowed up in the vision and full fruition of the glorious Godhead. Godhead. The bunch of grapes makes me long to eat of the full clufters in the heavenly Canaan. The firft-fruits make me pant after the full harveft. "Perhaps you may go and partake of it firft, and drink new wine before me in the kingdom of our Father; I hope I fhall not flay long after you, if not called before. My foul is fick of love. Nothing can fatisfy it, but the full fight and enjoyment of Chrift. He now vifits my foul, and caufes it mightily to rejoice in his falvation. How lovingly he hath dealt with me in other respects, letters fent to other friends can beft inform you. Haste, read, hear, and join with them in giving thanks and praying for

ł

ŋ

T,

3

ŝ

R

ş

IJ

107

:!

ſ

73

Ľ

É

ţ,

1

Ľ

ļ

5

1

Your affectionate friend and brother and fervant in CHRIST, G, W.

LETTER CCLXII.

To Mrs. S, in Charles-Town.

Dear Mrs. S-, On board the Minerva, Feb. 17, 1741. TY foul is now in an heavenly frame, fwallowed up in M God, and melted down by the love of my dear LORD JESUS. It is almost too big to speak. I will give it vent by writing to you. Our mafter hath been exceeding gracious, and has fhewn me feveral tokens for good, which I defired of him in fecret prayer. Laft night, I think I received as full fatisfaction as I could defire, in respect to my marriage. I believe what I have done, is of GOD; tho' I know not when my heart was more difengaged from earthly thoughts than now. I only defire, that the dear Jesus may be glorified in me, whether it be by life or by death. I depend on your fending me a particular account of affairs at Charles-Town. I have wrote to many; you will hear how my letters are received. I fhall be glad to hear how it is with your own foul. I befeech you to live near to CHRIST, and to keep up a holy walk with GOD. Be inward with GOD in your duties. Trust and hang on God, even when he hides himfelf from you. He will be your guide unto death. Hunger and thirst daily after the righteoufnefs of CHRIST. Be content with no degree of fanctification. Be always crying out, "LORD, let me know more of myfelf and of thee; O let me receive grace for grace of thy dear Son." R 3 This

This, at prefent, is the full defire of my foul. I am perfuaded the LORD will fatisfy it. GOD is love; we cannot think too highly of him; we cannot expect too great things to be done by him. His right hand, I believe, will bring mighty things to pafs. I am now entering on a fcene of trials. The LORD bath fent me on the feas to prepare me for them. Not that I depend on any flock of grace already received. I would look to CHRIST continually. But whither am I running? I forget myfelf. I almoft fancy, I am talking with you. I have only room to acquaint you, that dear \mathcal{J} — fits by me, and cordially falutes you, with

Your affectionate friend, brother, and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCLXIII.

To the Rev. Mr. S-, Charles-Town.

Rev. and dear Sir, On beard the Minerva, Feb. 17, 1741. TOU have been very kind to me in many respects; but I have been ungrateful to you, and infinitely more to to my gracious Gop. I have not failed frequently to bemoan my unworthinefs. Since I have been on board, the LORD hath heard the voice of my weeping, and now fills my foul with all peace and joy in believing. I have been much affifted in composing fermons for the prefs. At prefent my foul is closely adverting to Gop, who, I believe, will bring me fafe to glory. My bodily ftrength is much renewed. In fhort, I am comforted on every fide. Dear Sir, praise the LORD in my behalf. O let us magnify his name together. I hope you feel what it is to have fellowship with the Father and the Son, and experience the influences of the Holy Ghoft, in delivering your bleffed master's message. I falute Mr. P---- and your whole church. My request is, " Brethren, pray and give thanks for us."---When you write to New-England, pray remember me to all friends in the kindest manner. That country, and the people, lie very near my heart. I hope to be favoured with a line from you ere I return from England. Great perils there await me; but JESUS CHRIST will fend his angel, and roll away every ftone of difficulty. In his ftrength alone 15

Digitized by Google

Is my truft, and for his fake and in his name, I fubscribe myfulf, reverend and dear Sir,

Your affectionate brother and fellow-labourer in the LORD, Ga W.

LETTER CCLXIV.

To Mr. J H H, at Bethefda. On board the Minerya, Feb. 18, 1741.

My dear Friend and Brother,

3

s,

13

2

1

만 ŧ

ľ,

ÌT;.

X

) in

x.

3

h ğΪ

K)

ХĻ

1:

ß

a.

έ¢.

gi.

ø

R

ø

ţ

¥

2

1

KTESTERDAY we humbled ourfelves before GoD, and by prayer and fasting fought for a bleffing, and direction in all our affairs. I wish I had kept family fasts at Sayannah. Suppose you had one monthly at Bethefda? You will fee, by dear Brother B----'s letter, the frame of my mind. Since that, I have been a little in the valley, but the LORD is my comforter. I hope I grow in grace, and in the knowledge of myfelf, and the LORD JESUS CHRIST. My heart is much united to Meffrs. W----s, tho' we differ in fome particulars. May GOD make us of one mind, as well as heart. I shall make all possible haste back, and remit money to you as often as I can. Mr. P---- tells me, his brother is to fend you upwards of a hundred pounds, and I suppose other supplies will be sent from the Northward. I have also wrote to Charles-Town. I am per-Suaded GOD will not let you want. I would not have any thing left undone, that is necessary for the family's comfortable subfistence. The LORD is our Shepherd, therefore we fhall not lack. I fhall long to hear how the bleffed JESUS deals with you. He is wonderfully gracious unto me, and hath made this voyage profitable to my foul. O my friend, my friend, the LORD be with you. My love is firm to you at the , bottom, tho' fometimes it hath ebbed and flowed; in heaven it will not be fo. On earth it is needful it fhould; otherwife, how should we learn to cease from man? But I am a worm and no man, and deferve to be the outcast of all people. My eyes are now ready to guth out with water. O the fovereign love of CHRIST in chusing me! My dear friend, let us study to be holy even as he is holy, and walk even as he alfo walked. Let these be your daily questions, " Am I more like CHRIST ? R 4 Am

Am I more meek and patient? Does my practice correspond with my knowledge, and am I a light to enlighten and enflame all that are around me?" I could fay more, but I think to write again when I get on fhore. GOD blefs you and yours. I fuppose you have heard that Mr. P----- fails with

Your affectionate friend, brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

On board the Minerva, Feb. 20, 1741.

ND does my friend W---- look again towards GoD? Never did the Father with greater joy receive the returning prodigal, than I shall embrace you in these unworthy arms, if you are alive to GOD. I truft your late tepidity will now make you more fervent in spirit. I pray GOD to give you a settlement in CHRIST, that you may be rooted and grounded in love. My brother, the captain, gave me a particular account of your foul. I hope he will yet appear for GOD; will you also appear with him? Why thould you ftrive to pleafe a pleafure-taking world ? Why fhould you keep in league with the apparent enemies of GOD? But no more of this. Let old things pass away, let all things become new. I believe GOD fuffered you to fall, because you thought more highly of yourfelf than you ought to think. My love to all. I feel a great union of foul with Mr. W-----; we differ in principles, but I hope the LORD will make us of one mind. You muft not be furprized, if I publish an answer to Mr. John W----'s fermon, entitled, Free Grace. It is wrote in much love and meekness. Adieu for the present. Give thanks on my behalf. The LORD hath dealt wonderously kind with, dear Mr. W_____

Yours eternally in CHRIST,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CCLXVI.

To Mr. T------, in London.

My dear Brother, On board the Minerva, Feb. 20, 1741. T Have kept your letter by me till now, that I might answer it on my voyage. It fpeaks the language of a perplexed heart, and plainly fhews me, that fatan loves to keep us in bondage. My dear Brother, I think you have done wrong in holding your peace. I am fure you once felt that freedom of foul, which you are a stranger to now. The way of duty is the way of fafety. Whatever you may fay to the contrary, unlefs you will give the lie to your own experiences, you muft confels, that you have indeed tafted of the good word of life. You fhould, therefore, have went forwards, and not have turned back again, and thereby plunged yourfelf into darknefs; darknefs that may be felt. Alas, you have too eagerly embraced principles (I fear) contrary to the gofpel of CHRIST. You are aiming at a false voluntary humility, and are returning back to the flefh pots of Egypt. I know my words will have but little force with fome, but I must deliver my foul. GOD was once pleafed to work upon you by my ministry, and therefore I am more folicitous for your welfare. I know the advice you would give me is, " be still." I hope I am, fo far as really to know the LORD; but yet I will strive, yet will I walk in all the ordinances of GOD, and go on from ftrength to ftrength till I come to appear before him in his heavenly Zion. I write this, out of the fulnels of my heart. Indeed I love you, and the brethren; I am willing to be the fervant of you all. I am less than the least. However, I dare not embrace tenets that are not agreeable to the form of found words. Let me see you as foon as may be after my arrival. and in the mean while accept of hearty love, from 8

è

Ł

C.

Ľ

ť

11 á

1

5

.....

1

P, I

Π.

1

Your affectionate brother and fervant in CHRIST,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CCLXVII.

To Mrs. A. D.

My dear Sifter, On board the Minerva, Feb. 20, 1741. TY confeience almost reproaches me, that I have not wrote to you often, nor full enough ; accept this as an acknowledgement of my fault. I am forry for it. We are now about a thousand miles off England. I hope this will provoke you to fend me a letter immediately after my arrival. I find Luther's observation to be true : " Times of reformation are times of confusion;" as yet the churches in America are quiet, but I expect a fifting time ere long. My family in Georgia was once fadly fhaken, but now, bleffed be Gon, it is fettled, and, I hope, established in the doctrines of grace. Your name is precious among them. I with you would fend them a long letter. Your book on walking with Gon has been bleffed to one Mr. B----, and others in South-Carolina. It hath alfo been ferviceable to a dear friend now with me, as also to myself. I cannot well tell you what great things are doing abroad. I have a fcene of fufferings lying before me; I expect fhortly to cry out with the fpoufe, " Look not upon me, becaufe I am black, becaufe the fun hath looked upon me, my mother's children were angry with me." My LORD's command, now, I believe, is, " Take the foxes, the little foxes that spoil the vines; for our vines have tender grapes."-Help me by your prayers. It is an eafe thus to unbosom one's self to a friend, and an instance of my confidence in you. O, my dear Sifter, I am lefs than the least of all faints, I am the chief of finners, and yet Jesus loves me, and theds his love abroad in my heart abundantly by the Holy Ghoft. I have been much affifted in composing some gospel fermons, which I intend for the prefs. I have fought the LORD by prayer and failing, and he affures me, that he will be with me, Whom then flould I fear ? Hitherto we have had an extraordinary passage, praise the LORD. Herewith I fend you a letter from one of the children which Gon has given me : He will rejoice to receive a line from you. If poffible, I hope, tho' you are in the decline of life, to fee you face to face before fore I leave England. I should be glad to hear how you are as to worldly circumstances; if I can help you in any degree, freely command

> Your affectionate friend, brother, and servant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCLXVIII.

On board the Minerva, Feb. 20, 1741.

r.

br. Öst

W:

ģ

5E

Ŕ.

14 14

b.)

Ξz

ri.

in: Ek

ieres hate

12

. 1

210

2 2

;].

÷

ł

2 ŗ,

:

Ĺ

۲ſ

1

Ţ:

5

٤,

5

Received your kind letter at Savannah, and though I hope to fee you face to face foon after you receive this, yet love to your dear foul confirmings me to write you an answer before I come on thore.

I find, fince my departure, the brethren have fallen into errors. Dear Brother K---- will not be offended, if I fay, "He, I fear, is one of them;" for his letter bewrayeth him. My dear Brother, you fay, " You have been ftriving a long, long while, but to very little purpole, &c." By this, I suppole, you have left off the means, and fallen into stillnoss ; expecting now, that JESUS CHRIST will fo work upon your heart, that you shall not feel the least stirring of indwelling corruption in your foul; in thort, that you shall be completely perfect ; This was pretty near my cafe about fix years ago, and now I fee why Gop fuffered me thus to be tempted, * that I might be more capable of fuccouring my brethren, now they are tempted." My dear Brother, let us reason together, "You have been ftriving (you fay) a long while, but to very little purpose." And what then ? must you be therefore still, and strive no more? God forbid : No, you are yet to wait at the pool. "Conftantly attend on ordinances;" and who knows but by-and-by the loving Saviour may pass by and visit your soul. Have you not, in some degree at least, felt his divine power in the use of the means? Why should not that encourage you to expect more in the fame way ? But you fay, " I find all that is of felf is fin." And do you expect ever to de any thing, or to offer up to Gop one facrifice, without a mixsure of fin in it? If you do, indeed you are building a fpiritual Babel. My dear Brother, even our most holy thoughts are tinctured tinctured with fin, and want the atonement of the Mediator ; and therefore, if you leave off striving, because " whatever is of felf is fin," you must never attempt to do any duty whatfoever again. Your stillness hath as much a mixture of felf in it, as your firiving, and if you proceed in this manner, you must become a professed Quietist. Six weeks did satan keen me under this delusion, but the LORD helped me in the hour of extremity: May he also help my dear Brother K----! Another error you feem to be fallen into is, " that a man cannot be a christian, at least that he is a very weak one. so long as he finds corruption ftirring in his heart." If I was to urge the feventh to the Romans, you would fay, St. Paul only fpeaks of a man under first-awakenings, and not of a converted man; but my dear Brother, did you ever know a man, that was not really converted, delight in the law of GOD after the inner man ? And yet fuch an one the Apostle speaks of in the latter part of that chapter. Be not deceived, we are to be holy as CHRIST is holy; we are to receive grace for grace; every grace that is in the bleffed JESUS, is to be transplanted into our hearts; we are to be delivered from the power, but not from the indwelling and being of fin in this life. Hereafter, we are to be prefented blamelefs, without fpot, or wrinkle, or any fuch thing. If you labour after any other perfection here. you will labour in vain. St. Paul had attained no other. when he wrote to the Philippians, and to the other churches : But my dear Brother K------ feems to think, "I did wrong in writing to Mr. H----- to know his fentiments upon feveral texts of fcripture, and in fending for feveral of Calvin's books." And why, my dear Brother, was this wrong ? Why you fav. " you think it is contrary to St. Paul in his Epiftles, when he fays, he would not speak other men's words ;" but St. Paul fays no fuch thing : The place you aim at, I believe, is 2 Cor. x. 16. "And not to boaft in another man's line, of things made ready to our hand." My dear Brother, examine the context, and you will find the Apostle means no more than that he would not enter into other men's labours, as ver. 15. He would not preach where churches were already fettled, but go where the gospel had not been delivered. This, and this only, is the meaning of the passage, which dear mistaken Mr. K------

LETTERS.

K—— has wrongly quoted. My dear Brother, did not St. Paul bid Timothy to give himfelf to reading? What, if the Holy Spirit is to lead us into all truth, does not the Holy Spirit make use of, and lead us by the means? Has he not indited the foriptures? Has he not helped holy men to explain those foriptures? And why may I not, in a due subordination to the Holy Spirit, make use of those men's writings? Has not my dear Brother K—— bought fermons? And why then does "He make use of other men's words?" O, my dear brother, you are in the wildernes; God bring you safe out of it.

I fuppofe, becaufe the Diffenters oppofe fome of your new principles, you term them enemies; but, my dear Brother, though there are many Chriftles talkers, and hypocritical formalifts among the Diffenters, as no doubt there are fome fuch in the pureft church under heaven; yet many of them hold and practice the truth as it is in JESUS. But I have done. Count me not your enemy, becaufe I tell you the truth. I expect that great numbers will look fly on me, for thus opposing what I think to be error. Thus the Galatians treated St. Paul; but I must be tried every way. I could add a thousand kind things, but I hope you shortly will have a perfonal interview with

Your affectionate brother and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

2

LETTER CCLXIX.

To Mrs. J F F, in Charles-Town. On board the Minerva, Feb. 25, 1741.

My very dear Friend,

2

č

₽

2

t

٤.

Ŀ,

[_

::

3

1

2

2

Z

ż

6:

-

.

ĸ

Ŀ

ï

¢)

.

5

Ś

h: r:

٢í

5

:

:

5

5

č

Ľ

2

ł

I Know you will rejoice at the receipt of this: You have abundant reafon; the LORD hath been wonderous kind. We are now flying on the wings of the wind, and if it continues, we hope to be at Cowes the beginning of next week. Your kind prefents were of great fervice to my crazy body. The woman paffenger has been ferviceable in making us bread; and in fhort, GOD has wonderfully ordered all things for our great conveniency and comfort. O that my dear friends at Charles-Town, may hereby be excited to thankfulnefs on our behalf.

behalf. I have frequently prayed for you both with my friends, and when in fecret before the LORD. Indeed you are feldom out of mind. Dear Mrs. F----, I believe Gon fent you to invite me to your house, and I believe the LORD will plentifully reward both of you, for all your works of faith and labours of love. I think henceforward I must call you Mary. and your husband, I hope, will be truly stiled James the fervant of the LORD. I truft you will both ferve the LORD CHRIST. and give yourfelves up to the guidance of his bleffed word and providences day by day. It is a glorious privilege to be led by the spirit of God. I think I have felt, and do feel, at this time, his facred influences upon my foul. My body is but weak, though better by much than when I left Charles-Town ; however, my foul hath confidence in GoD. The archers will shoot forely at me that I may fall; but GOD will cause my bow to abide in ftrength, and my arms shall be ftrengthened by the hands of the mighty GOD of Jacob. I need not alk for a continuance of your prayers, nor you for mine. I hope we shall be always present with each other in spirit, at the throne of grace. My dear friend, adieu : All with me falute Write often to you.

Your unworthy guest, but truly affectionate servant, friend, and brother in the LORD,

G. W.

LETTER CCLXX.

To Mrs. F, in Charles-Town.

On board the Minerva, Feb. 25, 1741.

I Hope dear Mrs. F— will not be offended with these few lines; they are written with a fincere defire to promote your welfare. I want to see you entirely dead to the world, and alive to God. You have been often convinced under the word; may it fink deep into your heart. God, by the late fire, hath shewn you the vanity of all things here below; henceforward set your affections on things above. You are old, and at the head of a great family; you have sealed your promile to lead a holy life, more than once, by receiving the symbols of the bleffed body and blood of CHRIST.

Digitized by Google

Hencefortb

Henceforth let no profane delight Divide your confecrated foul; But give it CHRIST, who has the right, As Lord and Master of the whole.

Be not afhamed to own you have vowed never to dance again: Dear Mrs. F...., fear not contempt. What is it? only a little breath. Reft not in dutics; reft not in outward partial reformation.—He that is in CHRIST, is a new creature. That old things may pass away, and all things become new in your heart, is the hearty prayer of, Madam,

Your fincere friend and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCLXXI.

To the Rev. Mr. C ..., in Boston.

On board the Minerva, Feb. 26, 1741.

Reverend and dear Sir,

2

è

Ξ

t:

53

7

i

1

1

.

ų.

2.

12

G.;

Γ.

5

تلکن

1

سية. معاذ

忱,

بعلا

5

25

,

Ţ,

CCEPT a few lines from one, who defires feelingly A to ftile himfelf, lefs than the least of all. I hope you received my packet from Charles-Town: What happened to me there, was only an earnest of future trials. GoD hath bleffed the reading of the prophecy of the prophet Feremiab to my foul; as also the history of Joseph, and hath let me see more into the covenant of redemption between the Father and the Son : I am more and more in love with the good old Puritans; I am pleased at the thoughts of fitting down hereaster with the venerable Cotton, Norton, Elliot, and that great cloud of witnesses, which first crossed the Western ocean for the fake of the gospel, and faith once delivered to the faints. At prefent, my foul is fo filled, that I can fcarce proceed. Dear Sir, God is with me of a truth; he now gives me a feeling possession of himfelf : I blefs his holy name for fending me to sea; it is profitable both for foul and body. I find the Plalmist's words to be true, " The fecret of the LORD is with them that fear him." O that I may walk humbly with my Goo! The language of my foul is this :

Correla

Correct me when I go astray, And lead me in thy perfect way.

And now, dear Mr. C----, I have in fome measure unbofomed my heart. What shall I fay more ? Pray for me both in public and private; give thanks, as well as pray, especially for the mercies of this voyage. Dear Sir, adieu till I come on shore, which I hope will be very speedily, being now in foundings; then you shall hear again, GoD willing, from Your truly affectionate friend, brother, and fervant, G. W.

My dear Sir,

London, March 25, 1741.

Y

Wrote to you immediately on my coming on fhore. We arrived at Falmouth last Wednesday was fevennight, and got here the Sunday following .- Bleffed be GoD, we had a fummer's paffage. Many of our friends, I find, are fadly divided, and, as far as I am able to judge, have been fadly mifled. Congregations at Moorfields, and Kennington Common, on Sunday, were as large as usual.—On the following week days, quite contrary : Twenty thousand dwindled down to two or three hundred. It has been a trying time with me. A large orphan family, confifting of near a hundred, to be maintained, about four thousand miles off, without the least fund, and in the dearest part of his Majesty's dominions; also, above a thousand pounds in debt for them, and not worth twenty pounds in the world of my own, and threatened to be arrefted for three hundred and fifty pounds, drawn for in favour of the Orphan-house, by my late dear deceased friend and fellowtraveller Mr. S-----. My Bookfeller, who, I believe, has got fome hundreds by me, being drawn away by the M---ns, refuses to print for me; and many, very many of my spiritual children, who, at my last departure from England, would have plucked out their own eyes to have given to me, are so prejudiced by the dear Meffrs. W.'s dreffing up the doctrine of Election in fuch horrible colours, that they will neither hear, fee, nor give give me the least affistatice: Yea, some of them send threatening letters, that GOD will speedily destroy me. As for the people of the world, they are fo imbittered by my injudicious, and too fevere expressions against Archbishop Tillotson, and the Author of the old Duty of Man, that they fly from me as from a viper; and what is most cutting of all, I am now conftrained, on account of our differing in principles, publicly to feparate from my dear, dear old friends Meffrs. 7- and C-W-----, whom I still love as my own foul : But, through infinite mercy, I am enabled to ftrengthen myself in the LORD my God. I am cast down but not destroyed, perplexed but not in defpair. A few days ago, in reading Beza's Life of Calvin, these words were much pressed upon me, " Calvin is turned out of Geneva, but, behold a new church arifes !"-IESUS, the ever loving, altogether lovely JESUS, pities and comforts me. My friends are erecting a place, which I have called a Tabernacle, for morning's exposition. I have not, nor can I as yet, make any collections; but let us not fear .-- Our heavenly Father, with whom the fatherless find mercy, will vet provide; let us only feek first the kingdom of GoD, and his righteoufnefs, and all other neceffary things shall be added unto us. In about a fortnight, though I fcarce know an oak from a hickery, or one kind of land from another, I am fubpœna'd to appear before parliament, to give an account of the condition of the province of Georgia, when I left it. This, I fuppole, is occasioned by the party, which hath been to inveterate against the honourable the trustees, whom they accuse of mifemploying the public monies. The event, which undoubtedly will be in favour of the truft, you may know hereafter. In the mean while, believe me to be > Yours most affectionately, G. W.

Digitized by Google

LETTER CCLXXIII.

To Mr. J----C----. My very dear Brother, London, March 25, 1741. HASTEN hither with all fpeed, and then we fhall fee what GoD intends to do for and by us. It is a trying time now in the church.-The LORD give us a due mixture Vol. I. S of

6`

."

•

Ľ.

i.

Ľ.

:

٢.

ġ.

1

Ŀ

ý.

ŝ

r

Ţ

Ż

.

5

of the lamb and lion. Some that have been led aftray, begin to recover. The LORD make way for his own truths. My love to the Colliers, and all friends. Many, I fuppofe, will be fly. I am become a monfter even to feveral who were wrought upon by my miniflry; but it must needs be that offences fhould come: otherwife, how fhould I learn to cease from man? Adieu; excuse brevity—Haften, and speak face to face with

Yours most affectionately in CHRIST JESUS, G. W.

LETTER CCLXXIV.

To Mr. H----.

London, April 10, 1741. My very dear Friend. Ordered Mr. H---- to fend you fome fermons and ac-L counts, fome time ago : I suppose he has done it. I have been at the Parliament-house; the Georgia affair was adjourned. The gentlemen scemed apprehensive that my account of the colony, would have too much weight. It was fomewhat of a trial to be in the House. I then remembered what the Apostle faid, "We are become a spectacle to men and to angels." My appeal will come to nothing, I believe. I have waited upon the Speaker; he received me kindly. I cannot yet determine when I shall see you. If you fear, I hope you will pray for me. The LORD bleffes my ministry. Salute dear Mrs. H---: I will write to her next; but you two are one. The LORD be with you both. At prefent I am weak in body, and therefore must beg leave to fubfcribe myfelf ·

Yours, &c.

G. W.

LETTER CCLXXV.

To Mr. S _____, at London.

My dear Friend and Brother, Briftol, April 27, 1741. O^N Tuesday, April 22d, I left London, and preached on Wednesday and Thursday morning at Newbury, to large congregations. On Friday evening I preached at Bristol, and have continued to do so twice every day to great and affected auditories.

Your affectionate friend, brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCLXXVI.

My dear Brother,

z

D

R.

ų,

ÚŬ.

Ď

'n.

k

f

Ц.

62 .

5

25 (33

8

ពរ ខ

k

h

, i

13 ŝ

j, ſ.

ė

ĵ

Briftol, April 28, 1741.

BLESSED be GOD for knitting us together in love. May it continue, and increase till confummated in eternity ! The LORD JESUS direct you. It is now a trying time with the church. Our LORD is now chiefly wounded in the house of his friends. The LORD keep us both from a party spirit on one hand, and from too much raihness and positivenels on the other. I Tpeak thus, becaule you feem offended that fome affirm, " That there is no luch thing as dominion over indwelling fin, nor reft from working for life wholly." Now this is certainly true in one fense. We shall never have fuch a dominion over indwelling fin, as entirely to be delivered from the ftirring of it; and the greatest faint cannot be affured, but some time or other for his humiliation, or punishment for unfaithfulnefs, GOD may permit it to break out into fome actual breach of his law, and in a grofs way too. Let us not be high-minded, but fear. It is equally true, that we fhall not reft wholly from working for life. For whilft there is any part of us unregenerate, that part will be always leading us to the old covenant. Luther often complained of the, propenfity of his heart this way. If we know ourfelves, we chall find it to be fo with us; but I suppose you have been S 2 · tinctured tinctured with the doctrine of finless perfection. No wonder therefore you write thus. May Gon give you a right judgment in all things, and enable you rightly to divide the word of truth ! As for affurance, I cannot but think, all who are truly converted must know that there was a time in which they closed with CHRIST : But then, as fo many have died only with an humble hope, and have been even under doubts and fears, though they could not but be looked upon as chriftians; I am less positive than once I was, lest haply I should condemn some of GOD's dear children. The farther we go in the fpiritual life, the more cool and rational shall we be, and yet more truly zealous. I fpeak this by experience. Dear brother H---- will not be angry with me. I hope, and believe, you pray for me. The LORD JESUS carries me on. Many have been convinced at London. I preach here twice daily, to large congregations, with great power. The LORD, I believe, will yet bring mighty things to pass. I am, dear H-----,

Your most affectionate brother

in our dear Lord Jesus,

G. W.

LETTER CCLXXVII.

To the Rev. Mr. S------. Rev. and dear Sir, Briftol, May 1, 1741. I Am glad to hear by brother M----, that the LORD is with you. May you increase with all the increase of GOD. The more we do, the more we may do for the dear LORD

JESUS. He ftrengthens me here mightily.—I am enabled to fpeak here with great power, rather greater than when at London. My congregations are as large as ufual, and they go refreshed away. This is the LORD's doings; may all that is within us praise his holy name ! Exhort the dear London people to pray for us. The LORD be with you all. Dear Sir, pray for Your affectionate brother and unworthy fellow-labourer in our LORD, G. W.

Digitized by Google

LETTER

2

1

ł

1

Č,

it.

:

1 2

2.

Ľ

-

j,

Ĺ

Ŀ

Ċ.

3

5.

l.

11 Ċ

14

Ħ

Į:

ŀ

Ţ,

LETTER CCLXXVIII.

To Mr. S _____, at Worcefter. Reverend and dear Sir, Gloucester, May 5, 1741. X / ITH this, I fend you my answer to brother Wesley's fermon, and my account of the Orphan-house. Ι have feen your letter to Mr. N----, and thank you for espousing the caule of a poor despiled minister of JESUS CHRIST. I hope as I make advances in the fpiritual life, I fhall flow my zeal more and more tempered with true christian knowledge I would willingly have none of my wild-fire and prudence. mingled with the facred fire that comes down from GoD's altar. I defire not only to do things for GOD, but to do them in the best manner. I am a poor unworthy finner, and yet, (O fovereign grace !) the LORD works by me day by day. At Bristol, error is in a great measure put a ftop to. The LORD manifested himself in the great congregation there, and doth likewite here. Laft night, we faw and felt his power. I have had the pleafure of feeing dear Mr. P----, and I long for that time when I shall fee you, Reverend Sir, and all the chosen of GOD in the kingdom of heaven. But I defire to wait till my change shall come. Dear Sir, be pleased to pray for me. I have prayed for you often. I am a weak finful worm. As fuch pray remember, Reverend Sir,

Your affectionate though unworthy brother

and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

261

LETTER CCLXXIX. To Mr. Wm. W--, at Edinburgh,

Dear Sir. Briftol, May 16, 1741. I Received both your kind letters, and with this fend you my hearty thanks for them. I also thank you for your kind invitation of me to Scotland. GOD only knows when I can come.-All I can fay at prefent is, I will come when the Sad tares have been fown here. It will re-LORD permits. quire fome time to pluck them up. The doctrines of the golpel are fadly run down, and most monstrous errors propagated. -They affert, " That the very in-being of fin must be taken out of us, or otherwise we are not new creatures." O dear Sir, S 3

Sir, exhort all to pray for me, that I may be faithful to my LORD, and yet kept gentle in my temper. At prefent, our dear LORD caules me to triumph in every place. His gofpel gets ground, and his power is manifelted among us day by day. The fields are white, every where ready unto harveft. Our LORD I truft will gather his wheat into his heavenly garners. My kind respects attend Mr. M—— and Mr. D——. Had I time I would write a long letter to each. But I am interrupted. However, I am glad to fnatch a few moments to beg a continuance of your prayers for a poor unworthy worm, and to affure you that I am, dear Sir,

Your affectionate brother and servant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCLXXX.

To Mr. E- E-, at Sterling.

Reverend and dear Sir,

Briflol, May 16, 1741.

I Owe you much love. Only want of time, prevents my I writing to you ofther. This morning I received a kind Isttter from your brother Ralph, who thinks it best for me wholly to join the affociate prefbytery, if it fhould pleafe Gonto find me into Scotland. This I cannot altogether come into. I come only as an occasional preacher, to preach the fimple gofpel to all that are willing to hear me, of whatever denomi-It will be wrong in me to join in a reformation as to nation. church government, any further than I have light given me from above. If I am quite neuter as to that in my preaching, I cannot fee how it can hinder or retard any defign you may have on foot. My bufiness feems to be, to evangelize, to be a Prefbyter at large. When I fhall be fent into your parts I know not. I write this, that there may not be the leaft misunderstanding between us. I love and honour the affociate Prefaytery in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST. With this I fend them my due respects, and most humbly beg their prayers. But let them not be offended, if in all things I cannot immediately fall in with them. Let them leave me to Gon. Whatever light he is pleafed to give me, I hope I shall be faithful to it. Our dear and precious mafter still carries me on. God enables me to fight my way through. The gospel doctrines, ductrines, I believe, will yet prevail. I feel a divine power attending my ministrations. I preach twice daily, 'and am invited to many places. I believe the LORD intends to keep me on this fide the water for fome time. Bleffed be GOD, all places are alike to me. O dear Sir, pray for me.—I am a poor unworthy worm. I love you tenderly, but am almost assumed to fubfcribe myfelf

Your brother in the best of bonds,

G. W.

١

LETTER CELXXXI.

To D-----, in London.

Brifts, May 16, 1741.

I Am glad to receive a line once again from dear brother. Λ . I rejoice that God lets you fee more and more into the corruptions of your heart. The more perfect you are, the more will you fee and bewail your imperfections in thought, word, and deed; the more will you be made to fing, "In the LORD alone, and not in myfelf, have I compleat righteousness and ftrength." The doctrine of electing love, is precious to my foul. I am enabled to fpeak of it feelingly to others. My foul is kept in peace and fweetnefs. Our LORD's cause needs not noise and rafhness. I defire that none of my wild-fire may be mixed with the pure fire of holy zeal coming from Gon's altar. I think it my duty to wait, to go on fimply in preaching the everlafting gospel, and I believe we shall yet fee the falvation of GOD. Methinks, the cloud begins to break off your mind; I pray GOD to keep you from extremes. Brother H---- is more and more enlightned; but withal. more and more quickened every day. He finds there is no fach thing as finlefs perfection, and yet is preffing after holinefs of heart and life rather more than ever. May GOD make my dear brother A---- thus minded ! For indeed I love him in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST. We have had frequently fweet communion with GOD, and one another. I should have rejoiced to have conversed with you at Brislol. This is my comfort, yet a little while and we shall converse in the kingdom of heaven, for ever and ever. My foul is waiting for this falvation. I know not when I shall go to Axminster. When S 4

LETTERS.

When I do, you shall have timely notice. God bleffes my ministry, wherever he sends me. I am invited to fresh places daily. Dear Mr. A----, I, even worthless I, subscribe my-fclf, Yours most affectionately in the loving JESUS, G. W.

LETTER CCLXXXII.

To Mr. I---- C-----.

Dear Brother C _____,

264

Brifiol, May 18, 1741.

I Received your letter this morning, and am juft fetting out for Willshire. The LORD hath been much with us. Yefterday I preached three times. At every fermon, a fweet melting was obferved in the congregation. Laft night I gave your fifter the facrament; fhe is recovering. I afterwards, administered the facrament at Mr. T——'s, and had a love feaft. JESUS was in the midst of us. I know not but I may come towards London next week. I wonder not at your heavines. —Before every increase of your work, you must expect fome trials. Humblings are necessary for your spirit, and mine. I return my love to all. I must away. Brother H—— rejoices in spirit, and joins with me, who am,

> Ever yours in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCLXXXIII.

To the Rev. Mr. 7.

My dear Brother, Briftol, May 23, 1741. I Blefs GoD for making any thing of mine ufeful to your foul. May the bleffed JESUS breathe upon you day by day, and make you eminently ufeful to the church of GOD. I think you write with a kind of prophetic fpirit. The LORD only knows how he will be pleafed to difpofe of me. Great afflictions I am fure of having, and a fudden death, bleffed be GOD, will not be terrible. I know that my redeemer liveth. I every day long to fee him, that I may be free from the remainder of fin, and enjoy him without interruption for evermore. I defire patiently to wait, till my bleffed change fhall come. come. The LORD hath been with me here. There is a great awakening in Wilt/bire, and the work is most wonderfully carried on in New-England. I hope to fend you a letter, thortly, that will rejoice your heart. I leave Bri/tol, and go through Wilt/bire to London next Manday. — I then purpose going to Stafford/bire, and then through Wales to Scotland. A wider door than ever is opened for preaching the everlasting gospel. I have now only time to beg your prayers, and to affure you that I am

Your most affectionate though weak and unworthy

brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER. CCLXXXIV. To Mr. I—— R——, at Philadelphia.

Dear I-----,

į.

ż

Ľ,

Ê

(;

à ۲,

ļ.

Ċ,

l:

Ľ,

b:

le:

-0

Ю.

Ê

3

ţ.

30 el

5

Briftol, May 23, 1741.

T Rejoice to find, that you fee, feel, and bewail, the plague I of your heart. May the LORD fhew it you more and more ! It will excite your love to the dear LORD JESUS more fervently .--- I return my love to your fifter. I thought ere now she had been with JESUS. I believe, she has the grace of GOD in truth, and therefore our LORD will make her conqueror over all. I am glad to hear of the success of the gospel in Boston. It is a gathering time there, but a winnowing time with us All is ordered for the good of the church, by CHRIST here. JESUS: Let us, my dear brother, keep close to him in this and every trying time. We shall find but few, very few, true followers of the Lamb of GOD. May you and I be in the happy number ! Gon is pleafed to give fuccefs to the word preached. Though I am opposed much, JESUS is my strength. The LORD will enable me to fight his battles. My love to Peggy, and all that love JESUS. Forget not to pray for

Your affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

Digitized by Google

LETTER

LETTERS.

LETTER CCLXXXV.

Briftol, May 23, 1741. Dear Sir. T Am glad to receive a letter from you. I was fearful, left I I had done fomething to offend you. I thank you and the other gentlemen for their kind invitation of me to Scotland. I believe it will be near three months before I can fee Edinburgh. On Monday I fet out for London : then I purpole, GOD willing, to go into Effex, and then to return through Briftol and Wales in my way to you. I intreat all the brethren to pray for me. that I may come in the fulnels of the bleffing of the golpel of CHRIST. I am a poor, weak, unworthy worm. GOD hath been with me here, and in Gloucestersbire. In Wiltsbire there is a great awakening. Abroad in New-England the work goes on wonderfully. O dear Sir, never was fuch a weak wretch fent on fuch an important errand. I have many trials of various kinds. JESUS fupports me; JESUS makes me more than conqueror. He is a dear and a tender master. Dear Sir, help me to praise him. I will write to all the gentlemen that wrote to me, if I can any way redeem time. In the mean while, be pleased to remember me to them in the kindest manner, and believe me to be

Your affectionate though unworthy brother

and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCLXXXVI. To Mr. J H, at Savannah. London, June 1, 1741.

My very dear Friend and Brother,

I Received a fhort letter from you, but it was dated in January laft.—I have fent feveral to Georgia, and lately alfo a parcel of things for the children. GOD appears much in our congregations. We feldom or never have a dry meeting. As to outward things, I never was more embarraffed; but my confolations are equivalent. Praife the LORD, O my foul ! I am apprehensive of no opposition from the government. I have waited waited on the Speaker. He treated me kindly, and affared me that there would be no perfecution in this king's reign : they know I am loyal from principle, but I believe I fhall yet be greatly humbled. The fløry of Joseph in the prifon, and David in his troubles before he came to the throne, has been much and comfortably prefied upon my foul. I hope you enjoy peace! May the LORD blefs you and the whole household. I am fometimes enabled to pray with great faith for you all. The LORD will yet provide. I am to preach thrice to day. It is now paft five in the morning. I am going to the tabernacle lately erected for a morning lecture. We have fweet meetings, bleffed be God! In the bowels of our common Jusus, I subferibe myfelf

2

 \dot{z}

1

T,

.

.

1. T

;a 3 2

l

1 2

i

2

X

ć

15 ί.,

ï

;

Yours cternally, G. W.

267

LETTER CCLXXXVII.

To Mr. I. C-, at Briftol.

London, June 3, 1741.

I Have enjoyed the especial prefence of GOD ever fince I came to London. I preach three times daily. The LORD is remarkably with me. Congregations increase. I am going to have a fociety-room joined to the tabernacle. The LORD is really on our fide.—O let us be meek and quiet ! O let us wait, and we shall see the falvation of GOD. I preach daily at Deptford. Our dear master helps me to preach and pray with great power. Your ministry hath been blessed. Let us both give all the glory to everlassing Love. Salute the dear brethren. Remember me most kindly to all in Wine-firest.

Ever yours in the bleffed JESUS,

G. W.

L E T T E R CCLXXXVIII.

To Mr. R----- E-----.

Reverend and dear Sir,

London, June 4, 1741.

Have now a little time to myfelf. I muft improve it and answer your kind letter. Bleffed be GoD, for enabling me me to write any thing, that may be of fervice to his church, and of comfort to your foul. Glory be to our dear and com. mon LORD, his cause here succeeds. Truth gets ground. The LORD ftrengthens me mightily. His power is manifested in our congregations. Conversion work is going on apace among us. I am not yet determined, about the exact time of coming to Scotland: but I believe, I shall be with you in about three months. I can't but think the affociate prefbytery, are a little too hard upon me. If I am neuter as to the parcular reformation of church government till I have further light, it will be enough. I come fimply to preach the gofpel, and to be received only as an occasional itinerant preacher by all, and not to enter into any particular connection whatever. The LORD, I hope, will order my goings in his ways. I defire to hear frequently from you. I have need of your prayers. My trials are great, my comforts far greater. I am a poor worm, and yet JESUS delights to honour me. We are likely to have fettled focieties in feveral places. JESUS rides on from conquering to conquer. I am, Reverend and dear Sir,

> Your unworthy fellow-labourer and affectionate brother and fervant in CHRIST,

> > G. W.

B-

LETTER CCLXXXIX.

London, June 6, 1741. Do affure you, that my heart is as your heart. I am quite I fick of Chriftlefs confenters. They talk, and that is all. I (like you) am heartily defnifed by most of them. I am refolved to open against their luke-warmness, and worldly-mindedness. May GoD open my mouth wide when I come to Wales. Outward enemies are now more quiet. Enemies within the church, carnal profeffors, and felf-righteous Pharifees, most try us. Let us not fear, JESUS CHRIST will give us the victory over all. GOD mightily frengthens me. Our congregations are very large and folemn. I never had greater freedom in preaching. GOD enables me to cast all my care upon him, with a full affurance that he careth for me. You need not fear my believing any reports to your difadvantage. I love you in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST. I was not in the least offended, when

B----- Wrote me word that " you thought in fome things I did not act as a little child." The more open you are with me the better. If nature and pride rife in my heart, I will go to JESUS, abhor myself, and pray for my dear reprovers. All that I' can fay is, that I defire to be a very little child. All things are possible with JESUS CHRIST. He is wonderfully kind to me. Truth, I believe, will prevail. I want to fee you face to face. Satan does not love that CHRIST's ministers should come together. I wish you could come up immediately, and flay at London whilft I am in the country : or rather go and preach at B--- l, Gloucefler, and Wiltsbire, for about a fortnight, and then come up to London. This, I believe, will be best. About that time, GOD willing, I shall return from Effex, and then we can confult what is best to be done for the cause of our dear master. O JESUS is love ! I am glad to hear brother Rowl-d is with you. Go on in the grength of our dear LORD, and you shall see satan like lightning fall from heaven. Times are not yet dark enough for the dawning of a thorough reformation. At even-tide God foeaks. My love to all that follow JESUS CHRIST with an unfeigned fimplicity. May the LORD hide your precious foul under the fhadow of his almighty wings! Ceafe not to prav for

Yours eternally in CHRIST JESUS,

G. W.

LETTER CCXC.

To the Rev. Mr. D-, at Dedham in Effex. Rev. and dear Sir, London, June 6, 1741.

MULTIPLICITY of business has prevented my anfwering your kind letter. However, I have often borne you upon my heart before the LORD. Your case, methinks, is somewhat like that man of GOD, J. Bunyan's. He was often so depressed with a sense of fin in the pulpit, that he has been tempted to hold his peace. This has been my case also both in public and in private. I find the best way is to press forward, and to look up to JESUS CHRIST. He is faithful to his promises. I write but short, having but little time, and because I hope foon to see you in Effex. I pray GOD to clear up your evidences, and give you no rest till he fills you with a full full affurance of faith. Our LORD rides on triumphantly here. He enables me to go on from conquering to conquer. I am a poor weak unworthy worm. As fuch, be pleased to remember, Reverend and dear Sir,

Your unworthy brother and fellow-labourer in the golpel, G, IV.

LETTER CCXCI.

Dear Mrs. R.

London, June 6, 1741.

Have been much hindred in answering your letter. Perhaps you have expected too much comfort from man. That comfort is alone lafting, which comes from GaD. I know not your experiences, and therefore cannot fo well judge of your cafe: however, I would have you prefs forward, and labour after a full affurance of faith. Judge not yourfelf by others joys and comforts. Look not too much upon the happipels you think others may enjoy. This may lead you to repine and murmur against Gon. Look to yourfelf, and to CHRIST. Remember, you deferve nothing, and therefore he does you no wrong. Remember also, that he is full of love. and therefore in his own due time will manifest himself to your foul. That you may patiently tarry the LORD's leifure. and be bleffed with abundance of peace, is the hearty prayer of, dear Mrs. R----,

Your affectionate friend and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CCXCII.

To Mr. K

Dear Sir,

London, June 8, 1741.

Like your laft letter best. There is one thing you still lack, "to be convinced of unbelief." By faith, and not by works, are you to be justified in the fight of God. Make use of the means. You must take care that you do not rest in them. You must not think any thing you can do, will in the least recommend you to the favour of God; and yet you must strive, as if you were to be faved by your striving. The only the strive of the striv

,

÷

4

1.

4 .

١, ,

lı T

£.,

72

11.

r.

i, i

257

1

......

5.

. F

; ;;

Ľ

64). 1

Ľ,

1

1

ů,

(al S

.

ţ, caule of our acceptance with GOD lies at the feet of fovereign mercy, through CHRIST. Entreat the LORD to give you faith, and who knows but he may have mercy upon you. Remember you are a poor fianer, and deferve nothing. That GOD may reveal his dear Son in you, is the hearty prayer of

Your affectionate friend and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CCXCIII.

To Mr. J C , at Kingswood.

My dear Brother, London, June 8, 1741.

HOW sweetly does providence order all things for us! Just before yours came, I was refolved to fend you 20%. to begin the fociety-room at King fwood. Mrs. C----- gives it, and I believe will make it up fifty. This gentlewoman hath been made happily inftrumental in relieving me out of my late ' distress. You know how I was threatened to be arrested, soon after my arrival, for above three hundred pounds, due on account of the Orphan-house in Georgia, and I do not know but a writ was actually taken out. This drove me to my knees. GOD gave me to wreftle, with ftrong cryings and many tears, both before and after I went to reft-I could plead with him that it was not for myfelf but his poor. The example of Profeffor Frank encouraged me to pray, tho' I found he ventured only week by week; but my fituation in fuch a foreign climate confirained me to run upon larger arrears .- GOD was pleafed to give me an answer of peace. Having as I thought a full affurance of immediate help from fome quarter or another, I went to fleep most comfortably. Early the next morning a friend came to me to enquire, if I knew where a gentlewoman of his acquaintance might put out three or four hundred pounds. I replied, let her lend it to me, and in a few months, GOD willing, the thall have it again .-- Upon being acquainted with my circumstances, she most chearfully sent me the sum I wanted, and thus my enemies were difappointed of their Praise the LORD, O my foul !-But to return. hope. Ι would have you lay the foundation immediately, but take care of building too large or too handsome. Notwithstanding my present present embarrassiments, who knows, but it may be in my power to discharge my Orphan-house debt, and make collections here for King (wood-school too? When I could get no affiftance at all from my old friends and fpiritual (prejudiced) children, and was almost quite pennyless, and left to fit alone like a sparrow upon the house-top, a ferious person, whom I never faw or heared of, came the other day and put a guinea into my hand. At receiving it, fomething as it were faid to me, " Cannot that GOD who fent this perfon to give thee this guinea, make it up fifteen hundred?" As I told a friend immediately, to whom I ran down, fo I shall tell you; I doubt not but this will be the cafe. My debt is all for GOD, and contracted in providing for the fatherless and widow. As to the work here, though perhaps I may be blamed by fome for venturing fo far, bleffed be GoD, it goes on fweetly. All things happen for the furtherance of the golpel. I have wrote brother S---- to let you have twenty pounds.

Yours eternally in CHRIST JESUS,

G. W.

LETTER CCXCIV.

To the Rev. Mr. S-, at Charles-Town.

London, June 9, 1741. Rev. and dear Sir, Wrote you a few lines lately from Briftol. Since that, I have had the pleafure of receiving a letter from you; for which I thank you heartily. What Mr. P--- brings with him, will inform you how affairs stand here. Blessed be GOD, the word runs and is glorified. The heat of the battle is now, I hope, pretty well over. God is pleased to give me great power, and to strengthen me both in body and soul. Our congregations are large and awful. We generally fee and feel much of the divine prefence in the fanctuary. Many are pricked to the heart. I have three truly experienced young men that joined me. Affairs being fomcwhat fettled here, I am going a long journey of feveral months, thro' feveral counties in England, Wales, and Scotland. The door was never opened wider for my preaching the everlasting gospel. I am glad to hear by Mrs. S-, &c. of your faithfulnefs to our common LORD.-O, dear Sir, what are we that we are called out out to fpeak in his great name! Let us never fear fuffering for owning his eternal truths.— The witneffes cannot be flain 'till they have finished their testimony. At present here is no great fear of opposition from the men in power; tho' I hear the House of Lords intend to give a hearing to my appeal. However it be, I am easy. The LORD JESUS over-rules every thing for the good of his church. I suppose I cannot come over to you 'till about next Spring. In the mean while, tho' absent in body, I am present with you in spirit, and am, reverend and dear Sir,

Digitized by Google

> Your very affectionate, but unknown brother and fervant in CHRIST,

> > G. W.

LETTER CCXCV. To Mr. 7-P-, in Georgia.

Dear brother P____,

.

e.

ŝ

۳.

::

12

1

۲.

ŝ

ŝ

.

ī

ŀ

1

í¢

Ľ

|: | London, June 9, 1741.

T Am forry to hear you are still in darkness. Let the little L light you have, make you hold up your head, and think not of changing your station without a proper call. We are apt to place our happiness in places, and often think we do not please GoD, because we do not please ourselves. But I find the fault is in the heart, not the place. Wait, therefore, my dear brother, ftill patiently upon the LORD. Who knows, but by and by JESUS CHRIST may lift up the light of his bleffed countenance upon your foul? Why fhould you doubt it ? My dear brother, CHRIST is love. He tries, but yet fupports me; nay, makes me more than conqueror thro' his love. You will hear by other letters, how it goes with the church She is shaken, but it is only that she may be the in England. more fettled. My love to your wife. I hope you find her an help-meet for you. May the GOD of Abraham, I/aac and Jacob, blefs, preferve, and keep you. May you both walk in the comforts of the Holy Ghost, and be edified; and may GoD give you hearts to remember.

Your affectionate friend, and brother,

and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

Digitized by Google

Vol. I.

Т

LETTER

LETTER CCXCVI.

To the Rev. Mr. F, at Southampton.

Rev. and dear Sir, London, June 13, 1741. UST now I received your kind letter, and the generous benefaction of you and your friends for the Orphan-house. It came very opportunely, and strengthens my faith in the bleffed Jesus. I find he will help me by ways I know not. O, dear Sir, the love of GOD to fuch an unworthy worm quite amazes me. Surely, if I did not stand up for free distinguifhing grace, the very ftones would cry out against me. Bleffed be our glorious Emmanuel, the gospel runs and is glorified. A wonderful power attends the word preached. Everv day, I believe, fome or other are pricked to the heart. I have alfo glad tidings from abroad. In New-England there is an extraordinary work of GoD. I hope the dear JESUS will fet the whole world in a flame. Dear Sir, help me with your prayers. The archers shoot fore at me that I may fall, but the LORD is my helper. I hope my thanks will find acceptance with your other friends, who joined in helping my poor Orphans. Good measure prefied down and running over, may the LORD return into your bosoms. Dear Sir, I pray Gop to make you a flaming fire, and fill you with a holy burning zeal for promoting our dear Redeemer's kingdom. I find but few truly zealous. The love of too, too many is waxed cold. I thank you, dear Sir, for encouraging me, and beg leave to subscribe myself, reverend and dear Sir,

> Your affectionate brother in CHRIST JESUS, G. W.

LETTER CCXCVII.

To the Rev. Mr. H-----.

Reverend and dear Sir, London, June 13, 1741. I Received your kind letter. You do not know, and therefore think too highly of me. "Lefs than the leaft of all," fhall be my motto ftill. Providence is pleafed to prevent my leaving London on Monday next. I muft neceffarily defer my journey to Heriferd/hire and Effex, till the Monday following.— I approve 1 approve of the circuit you have fixed, but I chufe to preach at each place twice. Dear Sir, I most heartily thank you for promifing me your affistance in respect to the orphans. I am perfuaded our LORD will be well pleased. He gives me great encouragement. We daily feel and see his prefence in the great congregation. I hear glorious news from abroad : New-England is in a holy flame. O that we at home, may be flirred up to spend ourselves, and be spent, for the good of souls ! Dear Sir, pray that such a mind may be given to ١,

Ľ

ļ

11 1

C nt Íne

iji. di

ż.

Ш.

Ì

57

È

27 1

. Listi

28

115 ÿ.

2 10

02

N 5

19, 5

jë

;; : ;

3

الملة

(10

Ċ,

51

15

Your most affectionate, though unworthy brother

and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

275

LETTER CCXCVIII.

To the Rev. Mr. S----, at Worcester. Reverend and dear Sir, London, June 13, 1741. I Thank you heartily for your last kind letter : As you are fo aged and infirm, I take it as an especial favour, that you are pleased to write to me. You need make no apology, reverend Sir, for your plain dealing : I love those best, who deal most fincerely with me. Whatever errors I have been, or shall be guilty of in my ministry, I hope the LORD will shew me, and give me grace to amend. This is the language of my heart :

Correct me when I go aftray, And lead me in the perfect way.

I also thank you, dear Sir, for your kind benefaction. My arrears upon the Orphan-house are yet large; but I hope ere long the LORD will enable me to pay them all. At present, I am kept from doubting. Unworthy as I am, JESUS CHRIST is yet with me, and is pleased daily to firengthen me both in foul and body. My ministry (for ever adored be fovereign grace) is attended with a continual power. I am shortly going a large circuit, perhaps as far as Scotland. Dear Sir, let your prayers follow after me.—I am a poor, weak, unworthy worm; as such be pleased to remember; reverend and dear Sir,

Your obedient, though unworthy brother and fervant in our common Lord, G. W.

Digitized by Google

T 2

LETTER

LETTER CCXCIX.

To Mr. J- C-, at Briftol.

My dear Brother,

Hertford, July 1, 1741.

THE LORD has been with me greatly, ever fince I left London.—I have been enabled to preach twice every day, and to ride feveral miles. The congregations have been every where very large. GoD's prefence has accompanied the word. People's hearts have been enlarged. Within thefe few days, we have collected near a hundred pounds for the poor orphans. Numbers of fouls, I believe, are under convictions. In fome places we have had near ten thoufand hearers. Invitations are fo prefling, that I purpofe going another circuit to Bedford, and to preach in the counties round about for near a fortnight, and then return to London. I hope the LORD is with you; I am fomewhat weak in body, but fweet and comfortable in my foul. Dear \mathcal{J} —— joins with me in love to you and all. Pray for,

Yours in the best bonds,

G. W.

LETTER CCC.

To Mr. J H---, at Savannah. Collbefler, July 12, 1741.

My very dear Friend and Brother,

I Have not heard from you fince you wrote last January. I have been a circuit into Hertford/hire, Effex, Bedford/hire, Cambridge/hire, and Suffolk. I have been enabled to preach twice daily, and to ride feveral miles. Congregations have been furpifingly large; the word is attended with power, and the alarm in the country rather greater than ever. Contributions arife and increase. You are all much upon my heart. Gop will yet provide for you. I write this in great haste. GoD gives me much of his prefence. I am more and more convinced, that evangelizing is my proper business at prefent. GoD gives me great access every where. The LORD be with you you all, Amen and Amen! To the best of my knowledge, I have neglected no opportunity of writing. I am Ever yours in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTERS.

277

LETTER [CCC.]

ŗ

ĩ

I

Ľ.

5

ł

(

Ľ.

;,

5

ţ,

My dear Sifter,

To Mr. J H H, at London.

Coggeshall, July 13, 1741.

T Received your letter at Bury; but cannot think matters are quite ripe, or you duly qualified for fettling a church. GOD lets me see more and more, that I must evangelize. Ι find you are for fettling : do as GOD shall direct, I am easy. I only wifh you may find fettled perfons to be your affiftants, Without this, a church cannot be rightly ordered. I have no freedom, but in going about to all denominations. I cannot join with any one, fo as to be fixed in any particular place. Every one hath his proper gift. Field-preaching is my plan : In this I am carried as on eagles wings. GOD makes way for me every where. The work of the LORD increases. Ι am comforted night and day. O free grace to fuch an helldeferving finner ! I pray GOD to give you a right judgment in all things. I am, dear brother H----,

> Yours most affectionately in CHRIST JESUS, G. W.

LETTER CCCI.

To Mrs. D-, at Gransden.

London, July 17, 1741.

I Blefs GoD that I faw you at Granfden. The LORD was with us, and has been with me the remaining part of my journey. We shall yet fee greater things than thes. Wonderful things from abroad. The inclosed will shew you, how defirous my family is of corresponding with you. Pray write to my dear little orphans, boys and girls. GoD, I hear, hath been working powerfully upon their hearts. I would have you also write to Mr. $\mathcal{I}_{---} B_{----}$, a converted planter; to Mrs. B_{----} , his kinswoman, who has lately received the affurance of faith; to Mr. C_{----} , a dear baptist minister; to Mrs. T 3

S-----, who is carried on the wings of faith and love; and to my dear Mr. H-----, who is Superintendant of the Orphanhoufe affairs. You will excufe this freedom. I am willing your ufefulnefs fhould be as extensive as may be. May the LORD blefs you ever, more and more. I expect to go to Scotland fhortly. A thip will foon fail towards Georgia. Write foon, dear Mrs. D----, to

Your affectionate brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCII.

To Mr. G .-- H .---, in Gloucefter. -

My dear Friend,

London, 'July 18, 1741.

GOD has mightily bleffed my journey in the country. Thoufands, and ten thoufands, have flocked to hear the word. It was attended with power, and near a hundred and eighty pounds were collected for the Orphan-houfe. I know you will give thanks on my behalf. On Thurfday morning, GOD willing, I hope to embark for Scotland: I am perfuaded the LORD calls me thither. Invitations, both from the Sceders, and others that do not feecede from the Kirk, are very firong. I should be glad of a line next poft. It is now near eleven at night. I hope my friends will accept my thanks for their kind Benefactions to the dear orphans, and with their prayers follow, dear Mr. H—, Ever yours in CHRIST JESUS, G. W.

LETTER CCCIII.

To Mr. B---- S----.

Dear Sir, Lewifham, July 23, 1741. THOUGH I have but little time, yet I muft redeem a little to answer your kind letter. God is doing great things, both at home and abroad. The inclosed will in some measure inform you. Every day our LORD appears for us in the great congregations. Weak as I am in myself, the LORD is my strength. O, dear Sir, I am a worm and no man; I deferve to be the outcast of the people, and yet the LORD delights to honour me. Free, free grace I long to be above, that that I may praife GOD as I defire. In about two days I hope to embark for Scotland. I will come and vifit you when providence permits. In the mean while, I beg that you will pray that the glorious JESUS would blefs all my poor endeavours to promote his glory ! My love to all that love the dear Emmanuel. In his great name, I fubfcribe myfelf

Your affectionate brother and fervant,

G. W.

279

LETTER CCCIV. To Mr. G-H-, at Gloucefter.

My very dear Friend,

Ę

r

..,

Ľ.

k

n N

1.7

ŗ!

F

5

í

Lewisham, July 23, 1741.

Thought to have embarked this morning for Scotland, but am likely to be detained a day or two. I muft therefore fend you a line. Wonderful things is the LORD doing for me. In the country I meet with furprifing fuccefs. In London I fee fuch things that I never faw in England before. A mighty power almost continually accompanies the word. The LORD JESUS is pleafed to ftrengthen me very much in the inner man. O, my dear friend, give thanks for, and pray that I may walk humbly with my GOD. The LORD be with you and yours. I hope both you and dear Mrs. H---- do keep clofe to GOD. My love to all that love the dear LORD JESUS. GOD willing, you shall have a line from Scotland. Wonderful news is come from abroad, which will ere long rejoice your heart, and caufe you to give thanks in behalf of, my dear Mr. H----, Ever yours in CHRIST JESUS,

G. W.

ing

LETTER CCCV.

To Mr. T, at Colchefter.

Dear Sir,

Lewisham, July 23, 1741.

PROVIDENCE detaining me one day more, I fnatch a few moments to anfwer your kind letter, and to return Mr. A—— thanks for his kind prefent. How good is the bleffed JESUS to me the chief of finners! He takes care both of my body and foul. His power has attended me lately, more than ever it did before in England. God's right hand is bring280

ing mighty things to país. I earneftly intreat our LORD, that you may live above the world, and be dead to all things here below. Dear Sir, there is nothing like a life of faith. It is a glorious thing to be able to fay, "Not I live, but CHRIST liveth in me." Then, are we chriftians indeed, when we come to live on the invifible realities of another world. This, and this only, is true and undefiled religion. May GOD make you a lively partaker thereof. I hope my kind respects will find acceptance with Messre. V_{---} , D_{---} , J_{---} , and all friends. Fail not to pray for

Your affectionate friend and fervant, G. W.

LETTER CCCVI.

My very dear B----, Greenwich, July 24, 1741. O-MORROW, GOD willing, I embark for Scotland, and hope to redeem time abroad to answer my dear lambs letters : They rejoiced me exceedingly. What I have done with yours, the inclosed will fnew. Pray be particular in your accounts. Much good has been done by those fent already. You cannot tell how many hearty prayers are put up for you all, daily. May they enter into the ears of the LORD of Sabasth ! The work is beginning afresh in England. The Holy Ghost descends in a glorious manner, amidst the congregation. Weak, unworthy as I am, JESUS CHRIST works in and by me. O fovereign free grace ! I have fent the letter to Mrs. D-----. I have lately feen her. Her conversation is as weighty as her letters. You will receive more from her. I hope, before it be long. I believe you are where GOD would have you to be. I despair not of seeing your mouth opened remarkably for GOD. O that the dear JESUS may blefs you, and the whole houshold ! I should rejoice to see you, but GoD, I believe, will detain me here the Winter. Mr. P---'s brother is to pay for the use of the Orphan-house feventy-five pounds. Shortly I hope to fend you fresh supplies. In the mean while I affure you all, that you are constantly upon my heart. My head pains me; good night. The LORD be with you

Digitized by Google

LETTERS.

you all. Expect to hear again very speedily from, dear Brother B-----

Yours most affectionately in CHRIST JESUS, G. W.

LETTER CCCVII,

Ė

ĩ

i. į,

7,

Ĵ,

T

. .

1.1

.

17

đ

1

Ţ 3.

Ċ

ũ.

C f Ľ,

5

ł

)7

l P

Ľ,

To Mr. I-B-, at South-Carolina. Dear Mr. B----, Greenwich, July 24, 1741. TTTH much pleafure I received your kind letter. Bleffed be GOD, even the Father of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, who I trust hath begotten you, and called you out of darkness into his marvellous light. What an honour is it, that we should be counted worthy to suffer the least degree of reproach for his great name fake? I am ashamed to think how little I do, or fuffer for him. O free grace ! fovereign and electing love! how fweet to the foul, who really feels the power of it ! May we walk worthy of that holy vocation wherewith we are called ! I hear your brother is dead; happy foul ! you and I shall go and fee him by and by. I thank you heartily for your kindness to the dear orphans. I am fure God will amply repay you. The LORD be with you and yours. I must away to the ship bound for Scotland. I will answer dear Mrs. B----'s letter, when I get on board. Adieu. O pray for Ever yours in JESUS CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCCVIII.

To Mr. I F_, at Charles-Town.

Dear Mr. F----, Greenwich, July 24, 1741. Rejoice to hear the LORD is carrying on a good work in I your foul. I hope you will not think all is done, because you have been baptized and received into full commu-I know too too many that " make a CHRIST of their nion. adult baptism," and reft in that, instead of the righteousness of the bleffed JESUS. GOD forbid that you should fo learn . CHRIST. O my dear friend, feek after a settlement in our dear LORD, fo that you may experience that life which is hid with CHRIST in GOD. Dear Mrs. F-, I thank you heartily for your kind letter. It rejoices my foul to hear, that you and Mr,

Digitized by Google

Mr. F—— are going on hand in hand to heaven. This is the facred end of marriage; to be helpers of each other in the great things of Gon. I am not yet entered into that flate. I am looking up to CHRIST, and fhall wait his direction. The gofpel runs, and is glorified. The work is beginning a frefh in England. Never was my preaching attended with fo great power on this fide the water. Our LORD pours his comforts into my foul, and rejoices me with the glad news I hear from your parts. May you all increase and multiply in every good word and work. My most tender love to all. As faft as poffibly I can, each fhall hear from, my dear friends, > Ever yours, G. W.

LETTER CCCIX.

To Mr. H-, at Georgia. Greenwich, July 24, 1741.

My very dear Friend and Brother,

TEFORE the boat comes to take me down to the ship, D I would write you a line or two. I greatly rejoice to hear that you live in love. But I shall not be furprifed, if, after this remarkable work of the fpirit, you meet with fome trials. But fear not : we are all in the Mediator's hands. I find all things work together for my good, and fo I am fure you will. My dear friends, I know you fympathize with me. -Indeed, I also do with you. My dear, dear family, you are continually upon my heart. I redeem a moment or two as often as I can to write to you. God only knows how I love and long after you in the bowels of the ever-bleffed JESUS. O may you lean on his bolom, and may his banner over you be love. Adieu ! for the prefent. I must foon away to the ship. I have ordered hats and thoes for the children, and intend fending brother H---'s order and other things, with fome cafh, very fhortly. But the arrears hang on me yet. My LORD bears my burden; may he bear all yours for you ! I am perfuaded he will. With great tendernels I fubscribe mylelf, dear Mr. H---,

Your most affectionate, though unworthy brother

Digitized by Google

and servant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER

283 .

LETTER CCCX.

To Mrs. S-, at Charles-Town.

In a boat going to Gravefend, July 24, 1741.

Dear Mrs. S-,

1

5

a, ļI

. 1

Ċ,

PE.

4.

Ċ

Ŕ

ŢĒ

W.

s İm

[2

٢.

1,1

đ?

17

ES Rã

13 er:

ly l

ĩ

e L

k

6 6

1:

I Am now in a boat, in order to embark for Scotland. I have , the conveniency of writing upon a trunk, and therefore cannot be easy without fending you a line. I rejoice to hear that, you are carried upon the wings of love. Methinks I fee you fitting under the Redeemer's fhadow with great delight, and exalting his free grace in plucking you as a brand out of the fire. O when shall we go to heaven, that we may praise GOD for what he hath done for our poor fouls ! The LORD is better to me than ever. Conviction, and conversion, both in town and country, are beginning again. The divine prefence is much manifested in our affemblies. Bleffed be the LORD, who is also working with you. The fpiritual prosperity of the orphan family, rejoices my heart. GOD will ere long, I believe, make a feparation between the precious and the vile. Poor Mr. G-, Commiffary G-d, and Chief Juffice W----, bitter, bitter, though unfuccefsful perfecutors, what will become of you? O that GOD may grant them repentance unto life! What reason have you and I, dear Mrs. S----, to exalt rich diffinguishing grace ! 'Tis that alone hath made the difference. I believe I need not remind you to pray, dear Mrs. S-, for

> Yours most affectionately in CHRIST JESUS, G. W.

LETTER CCCXI.

To Serjeant B-, at Gibraltar.

On board the Mary and Ann, bound from London to Leith, July 25, 1741.

Dear Mr. B----,

Am glad to hear that you are yet alive, and what is more, I truft you are alive to GoD. Perhaps I may never fee you again on this fide eternity. O that we may approve ourfelves good foldiers of JESUS CHRIST ! How bright will our crown be then, at that last great day ! I find there is nothing like like being valiant for the truth. JESUS CHRIST is a glorious captain. He makes me more than conqueror through his love. I have feen great things, within thefe few months. I should have answered you sooner, but could not get time till now: I am embarked for Scotland. I hope you take particular care to beat down felf-righteousness, and exalt the LORD JESUS alone in your hearts. I find, the only happines is to lie down as a poor finner at the feet of the once crucified, but now exalted Lamb of GOD, who died for our fins and role again for our justification. I rejoice to hear, that fome even at Gibraltar ftill dare to own a too too much neglected Saviour. Bleffed be GoD, the governor is fo favourable to you. This is a great motive to love and thankfulness. The work of GOD ftill goes on in England, and other parts. O for that glorious period, when the whole earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the feas! That our dear LORD may every day reign as king in all your fouls, is the prayer of, dear Serjeant,

Digitized by Google

284

> Your affectionate friend and fervant, G. W.

LETTER CCCXII.

To Mils R-----

On board the Mary and Ann, July 25, 1741. Dear Mils,

A Few hours ago I came on board. To fhew that you are in my mind, I employ fome of my firft leifure time in anfwering your letter. The condition you are in now, ought not to make you think that JESUS CHRIST has caft you off, and that it will be prefumption in you to believe on him. The LORD is now fhewing you, that you are poor, and miferable, and blind; and naked, and fuch only are the perfons that think they want his almighty aid. I fear you look too much into yourfelf, and from thence are difcouraged. Whereas you fhould look directly to CHRIST, and come to him in all your blood. You will always fly from him, as long as you count him your enemy. But do not think fo hardly of him; JESUS is the finner's friend. O how doth his bowels yearn towards you ! Are you made willing to be made whole ? CHRIST invites and commands you to come to him; venture then upon him.

, Digitized by Google

If

If you never have believed yet, it is time for you to believe now. "LORD, give me faith !" for faith is the free gift of GOD. What if your heart be hard, JESUS can foften it. What if you have yet no marks of your election? furely you dare not fay, "You are not elected," or that CHRIST hath not died for you, even for you. It is, indeed, a bad thing to have only notions in the head, and no folid experience in the heart. But it is a good thing to be convinced of this. Bleffed be GoD, who hath given you to bewail it. Look upon this as a token for good. - Trust not to means; when they are taken from you, CHRIST can and will work without them. The LORD may bring you help in a way, and at a time you know not of. Your extremity shall be God's opportunity. If the LORD vouchfafes to blefs this letter in the leaft degree to your comfort, it will much rejoice the heart of, dear Mifs,

Your affectionate friend and servant in CHRIST.

G. W.

LETTER CCCXIII.

To' Mr. 7- H-, at Georgia. On board the Mary and Ann, July 25, 1741.

My dear Brother,

1

1

. î.,

i,

Ľ

Э;

Ľ3

Ċ,

tÊ.

:]

i3.

6:

22 ģ

2 ŗ,

ż

R

. [] (

ï

σ.

5

2

¢!

5

Ê

ï

F

¢

1

ţ

WITH much pleasure I have again read over your kind letter. God is a God hearing prayer. My dear brother H---- is awakened out of fleep. Help me men, help me angels, to praife GOD in his behalf ! My dear brother, I pray God you may never lie down again. CHRIST is now giving you light; walk and rejoice in that light. Keep clofe, keep close, my dear man, and let nothing steal away your poor heart from the bleffed JESUS. Give it all to him, give it to him, hard, earthly, fenfual, devilish, as it is. He will wash it in his precious blood. Do not tie him down to any degree of conviction. So that he brings you home, let him do it in that way he shall think best. What a loving Saviour have you to deal with ! You cannot conceive how kind he is, even to me every day. I feel and fee his power more and more. He feems to be beginning his work afresh in England, and it gladdens my heart to hear he is among you at Bethe/da. O do nothing to grieve the bleffed spirit ! Let your conversation be fuch fach in all things, as becomes the golpel of the bleffed Jzsus. Have the greatest regard for the little lambs. Do nothing that may prove a flumbling block to their precious fouls. Warm yourfelf by talking to them. Be not one moment idle. Redeem your precious time; for you know not when your LORD may come. My brother, my heart is full of love to thee.—May you be a beloved phyfician ! Beloved of the LORD, beloved of the LORD's people, and a continual comfort to

286

Your most unworthy, though truly affectionate brother, and fervant in the dear JESUS, G. W.

LETTER CCCXIV.

To Mr. Wm. G

On board the Mary and Ann, July 25, 1741. My dear Brother G----,

TOUR kind letter I have just been reading over a fecond. time. It gave me comfort; but the high flile extorted a finile or two from me. I believe you have been reading over Mrs. D----'s letters. You wanted to imitate her way of writing, but fail for want of her experience. It is a good thing not to go out of our depth. Methinks I fee you look down and blufh; but look up again immediately to JESUS CHRIST: He knows whereof we are made, and remembers we are but dust. Indeed I write to my dear man out of much love. Bleffed be GOD, that all things are carried on with fuch decency and order. I pray GOD that you may fo live, that all who come to fee you may fay, " Surely GOD is in this place." Your prayers in my behalf are heard. I am quickened, and ftrengthened mightily both in foul and body : controversial points are ended, and the LORD JESUS CHRIST triumphs glorioufly. I find my heart often drawn towards Bethefda. I hope I shall yet meet you again in the flesh, and embrace you one by one in my unworthy arms. In the mean time, I commit you to the bosom of JESUS. May you lean upon his breaft, and fit under his shadow with great delight ! May you be truly fimple, truly childlike, and every way conformable

LETTERS.

formable to our great exemplar the spotles Lamb. I long for that time, when we shall fit down at his marriage supper: though I have the lowest place, it will fuffice, dear brother G------,

> Your affectionate brother, friend and fervant, G. W.

LETTER CCCXV.

To Mr. 7- S-, at Georgia. On board the Mary and Ann, July 25, 1741.

Dear John,

ţ

.

1

1

13

3 9

đ. Ņ

:;

Ĉ, ł

ηÖ

(1

77 1 劃 Ð ŧ Ħ 2

7 OUR cafe puts me in mind of that paffage, where we are told that our LORD looked upon Peter. Surely, he has looked upon and prayed for you, otherwife how would Satan have fifted you ? But fee what comfort another paffage may afford you, "Go tell my brethren and Peter." Poor, weeping, penitent Peter must in no wile be forgotten. "Go tell them that I am rifen." Here are glad tidings of great joy to a disconsolate foul. May GOD apply it to your's in particular. Dear John, may you learn from hence to stab your dear Saviour no more. I wonder not that you are in darkness. God will furely vifit your offences with a rod, and your backflidings with fome fpiritual fcourge. That is enough to keep us from finning, though we know that his loving-kindness he will not utterly take from us, nor fuffer his truth to fail. How dearly did David pay for his ftolen fweets ? What anguish has your poor soul felt, fince I left you. Bleffed be GoD. that he has awakened you out of sleep. O free grace ! I rejoice, yea and I will rejoice. That you may never provoke GOD to leave you to yourfelf, is the earnest prayer of, dear John,

Ever yours,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER CCCXVI.

To Rebekah B——, an Orphan at the Orphan-house. On board the Mary and Ann, July 25, 1741. Dear Bekky, ND is the LORD ftill ftriving with you ? O then ad-A mire his patience, and give him your whole heart. I had no other end in bringing you to Bethelda, but that you might be brought to JESUS. I hope you will yet find it a . house of mercy to your foul. Take heed of refting in conviction. You know by experience how fadly it wears off. You may well wonder, that GOD has not fent you to hell long ago. I pray GOD, that his goodness may lead you to repentance, and that you may walk before the LORD in all well-pleafing, fo long as you live. What fweet opportunities do you enjoy ! How freely may you go into the woods, and pour out your heart before the dear JESUS. How early was Samuel acquainted with the LORD, and why fhould not you be acquainted with him? Unlefs you are, you can never be at peace. Come then, my dear lamb, and wander no longer; return to the fhepherd and bifhop of your foul. Behold, he fhed his blood for you, and will carry you to heaven, rejoicing over you to all eternity. Away to him then in all vour blood, just as you are; and when you are near to GoD, forget not

Your affectionate friend,

G. W.

LETTER CCCXVII.

To Elizabeth G-, an Orphan.

On board the Mary and Ann, July 25, 1741. Dear Betty,

Digitized by Google

I Am glad you begin to feel the hardnefs of your heart, and your utter inability to pray. I pray GOD you may in all things fee your helplefinefs, that you may come as a poor helplefs nothing to JESUS CHRIST, and take him for your all in all. I wonder not that fatan endeavours to terrify your foul. You know how he tore the young child in the Gofpel, whilft he was coming to JESUS CHRIST. Your convictions at prefent fent seem to arise from a fear of hell; but before you receive this, I hope the LORD JESUS will have fealed your pardon, and have faid, " Be of good cheer, thy fins are forgiven thee." O Betty, why has GOD fingled you out? Why was you brought to Bethefda? Away when you read this, and blefs Gop for it, and devote yourfelf again and again to that LORD, who has bought you with his precious blood. Having much forgiven you, love much. Lie down in the dust, and be continually looking to the rock from whence you are hewn. To hear that you, and my dear family, love the LORD JESUS in fincerity, will much rejoice the heart of

Your fincere friend,

G. W.

LETTER CCCXVIII. To Mary A-, an Orphan.

On board the Mary and Ann, July 25, 1741.

Dear Molly.

Ċ

ģ

2

[:

3

TPON reading your letter, I put up this prayer, " Lord lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon her foul." You once had joy. I found it puffed you up. I pray GOD to humble you by your prefent darknefs. You may now fee what a poor wretch you are, how proud, how earthly, how fenfual, how devilish; and yet, stupendous love! JESUS CHRIST will still receive you. Your loving Saviour opens his arms, and invites you to throw the whole of your load upon him. I am perfuaded he will receive you: go to him then, and confess that you have finned. He will receive you; for what fays the scripture ? " Look unto me, all ye ends of the earth, and be ye faved." Surely Molly A ----- is included here. The dear JESUS is all love. He has brought you to a house of mercy. Out of love, keep his commandments, and love all that are around you. Be willing to be the fervant of all, and from gratitude to GOD study to be a comfort to

Your fincere friend in CHRIST,

Digitized by Google

VOL. I. 7

LETTER

LETTER CCCXIX.

To the Honourable 7- B-, Ejq;

On board the Mary and Ann, July 26, 1741. Hon. Sir. TTTH much pleafure I received yours by the hands of your fon, who offered to do me any fervice that lay in his power. This, as well as your other past favours, quite furprize, and ought to humble me; for who am I, that I fhould be thus highly honoured? O fovereign grace ! O diltinguifhing love ! If I did not stand up in defence of that, the very stones would cry out against me. Indeed, honoured Sir, your kindness makes me almost to blush, and the love of JESUS quite confounds me. I am loft, I want to fink into nothing whenever I think of CHRIST's dying for me. I really think, I am the most ungrateful finner that ever was, and yet the Redeemer follows me with his mercies every day. Unfpeakable are the trials wherewith I have been vifited fince my arrival. But out of all the LORD delivers me. I experience daily much of his divine prefence; a wider door than ever is opened for preaching the everlafting gospel, and GOD feems to be beginning his work again in Old-England : it adds to my joy, to hear what the LORD is doing amongst you. Blessed, for ever bleffed be GoD, for caufing fuch a ftirring among the dry bones. I pray the glorious Redeemer, to carry on the good work begun, and to make New-England the joy of the whole earth. I suppose you have heard, honoured Sir, of the remarkable effusion of the spirit among the children of the orphan-Surely, JESUS CHRIST is about to bring mighty houfe. things to pass. Whilst the kings of the earth are enlarging their dominions, I truft our LORD will usher in his .- I shall not be furprized, if after this great commotion in New-England, I hear that fome outward troubles befal them. The removal of you, honoured Sir, from being governor, I take to he no good fign. I hope this has no other effect upon your own heart, than to make you more and more hunger and thirst after that rightcousness, which neither men nor devils fhall ever be able to take from you. GOD only knows, how often I have prayed, that this affliction may be fanctified unto you. I think, honoured Sir, I cannot forget you and your people.

Digitized by Google

people. Both are dear, very dear to my foul. I fometimes long to fee Byfan again, that I may rejoice in what great things the LORD has done; but various circumftances concur to detain me on this fide the ocean, all the next Winter. I am now in my paffage to Scotland. What the LORD is pleafed to do there, your honour may hear in my next. I rejoice, that I am a little retired from the world, and have the opportunity, honoured Sir, of writing to you. How fweet is retirement when CHRIST is prefent in the heart? Having him, I find I poffers all things. Happy they that can wrap themfelves in GOD. May you and yours be thus happy ! This will enable you, honoured Sir, to rejoice in tribulation, and give thanks for every thing that does befal you. Tho' the fhip is moving, and I am fomewhat fick, I know hot how to leave off. Indeed, I love and honour you in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST. That you and yours may be rooted and grounded in his love, and filled with all the fulnels of GOD, is the hearty prayer of, honoured Sir.

> Your most affectionate, obliged humble fervant, G. W.

LETTER CCCXX.

To the Reverend Dr. C---, at Boston. On board the Mary and Ann, July 26, 1741.

Rev. and dear Sir,

.

4

.

.

i.

م. زر

. .

.

.

Ĩ,

ż

5

;

T Had the pleafure of yours, and have taken the freedom L to publish part of it, because I thought our LORD's cause might be promoted thereby. Glory be to the ever bleffed JESUS, for the great work begun in your province. Glory be to his great name, for raifing up inftruments to carry it on; especially for working to powerfully among the fons of the prophets. A most promising omen this for dear New-England. Reverend Sir, the fearcher of hearts only knows, how deeply the welfare of your people is imprefied upon my foul. I continually make mention of them in my poor prayers, both . public and private, and have not failed to give thanks in their behalf. You seem a little offended, that I did not mention old Mr. W----s. It was, becaufe by his conversation I could not find he came up to that character which you gave him. Mr. S-----U 2

S----- I truly value, and lately have had reason to think much better of him than formerly, when his experiences to me feemed too superficial; but I am a poor, weak, fallible worm, and therefore my judgment is of little worth. I rejoice to hear that the ministers with you help forward the work of Gop. I find no fuch enemies to the crofs of CHRIST, as those who keep up the form of religion, and are orthodox in their notions, but are ignorant of an experimental acquaintance with JESUS. However, the work of GOD is beginning afresh. I have free accefs every where, and have been upon the full ftretch preaching to large auditories twice a day, for some time past. The LORD is pleased to strengthen me both in body and soul. His prefence fills the affemblies, and, I verily believe, we shall yet fee glorious days. I have fweet accounts from the Orphans. I thank you, dear Sir, for your care concerning them. I have been in great straits; but the dear JESUS helps me through them all. Help me, dear Sir, help me to praife him. Mv tender love awaits both you and your people. I am glad to hear, that my kind hoftefs is recovered. May the LORD ftrengthen her mightily, and cause her to go down to the grave in peace ! I earneftly defire a continuance of your own and people's prayers in behalf of, reverend Sir,

Your affectionate brother in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCCXXI.

To John D-, at Boston.

On board the Mary and Ann, July 26, 1741. My dear child,

I Thank you for your letter: I neither forgot you nor my promife. O that GOD may effectually work upon your heart betimes, for you cannot be good too foon, or too good. The little orphans at Georgia are crying out, "What fhall we do to be faved ?" And I am glad to hear, that this is the language of fome little ones in New-England. If you know any of them, pray give my love to them, and tell them, I pray that JESUS CHRIST may be revealed in their dear hearts. How early was JESUS CHRIST in the Temple, firft hearing, and then afking queftions? How did he love the little children, how did he take them up in his facred arms and blefs them; them; and when he was just ascending to the highest heaven, how tenderly did he speak to Peter, and bid him "feed his lambs." Let all this encourage you to come unto him. He will certainly receive you, tho' you have been wicked; nay, he will abundantly pardon you. And what comfort will you enjoy, when you know your fins arc forgiven you? You will then have a heaven upon earth. In expectation of seing you a christian indeed, and grown in grace, I subscribe myself

Your affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

111

::

3

Ľ.

j, ż

3

Ë,

0

n.

đ

ġ

Ŀ

17. 5

;)

¥

iii X On board the Mary and Ann, July 26, 1741. Honoured Sir, RESUMING it would not be difagreeable to you, I have taken the liberty to print part of the letter you was fo kind as to fend me. Surely it will rejoice the hearts of thousands, to hear what good things the LORD is doing in these parts. It has put much gladness into my heart, and caused me to give many thanks in behalf of the people of New-England. How good is our GOD! When things are a little troublefome without, he fends his gospel to comfort his children within. Surely JESUS CHRIST is about to fet the world in a flame. He is working powerfully at home; he is working powerfully abroad. I truft he will continue working, 'till the earth be filled with the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the fea. I hope you will yet feel more of this light and life in your own heart, before you go hence, and be comforted with the comforts wherewith I am daily comforted of GOD. Dear Sir, JESUS is a precious Master. He, as it were, dandles me upon his knees. He carries me in his arms, he fights all my battles, and makes me more than conqueror thro' his love. My work is great, but my supports are greater. He affures me from day to day, that he will never leave me nor forsake me. My infirmities often make me blufh, and yet JESUS passes them all by. Dear Sir, think often on the love of CHRIST: think of his dying love; that must give you comfort. I rejoice at this opportunity of writing

to

to you. I thank you for your kind caution. I pray God to teach me how to improve it. Help me, dear Sir, with your prayers; and accept of these few lines from, honoured Sir,

Your most affectionate brother and servant in CHRIST.

G. W.

LETTER CCCXXIII.

To Mr. E-D-, at Bofton.

On board the Mary and Ann, July 26, 1741.

Dear Mr. D----,

Am to be blamed for not fending you a line. I am an ungrateful creature; ungrateful to my earthly friends, unfpeakably more fo to the friend of all. Pardon me this once. GOD willing, you fhall have no reafon to complain of me any more. If you remember, once in my fermon I faid, "O that New-England was full of new creatures !" I hope the LORD in some measure is going to answer that prayer .- It rejoices my heart, to hear that the gospel runs fo fwiftly, and is fo remarkably glorified amongst you. This is the LORD's doings, and it ought to be marvellous in our eyes. Bleffed are the eyes that fee the things which we fee; bleffed are the ears that hear the things which we hear, for many righteous men have defired to fee and hear them, and have not. I refoice also to hear, that there is like to be a church in your house. O, dear Sir, take care that none of you rest, till you have got fast hold of the bleffed JESUS. My kind love to dear Mrs. D--. May CHRIST's justifying blood be upon you and your children. I return my love to all that are fo kind as to remember me. I believe I shall not fee you this Winter. The work is very great, and goes on very profperous in Eng-However, you are all upon my heart, and the more land. heartily you pray for me, the fooner shall I be restored unto you. I hope I feel the benefit of your dear people's prayers; for GOD comforts and ftrengthens me daily, and carries me on from conquering to conquer. On fhore, I have fcarce time to write a line; being now on board, I take this opportunity of returning you my hearty thanks for your kind letter, and of affuring you that I am, dear Mr. D----,

Your affectionate friend and servant,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CCCXXIV.

To the Rev. Mr. R-, at Bofton,

On loard the Mary and Ann, July 26, 1741.

My dear Brother R-----, TOW glad was I to receive a letter from your hands, having heard nothing of, or from you particularly; fince we parted. What great things has the LORD fnewn us fince that time. Methinks I hear you fay, " and yet I can tell of greater things." I believe we shall fee far greater yet before we die. The work is beginning afresh here. I fometimes think of our London ministers too much shun the cross, and do not appear boldly for GOD.- Now the LORD hath worked fo powerfully in your college, I have lefs to fay against your joining with Mr. W----. I am glad to hear you fpeak plainly and closely. What comfort will this afford you in a dying hour? Go on, my dear brother, go on ; venture daily upon CHRIST, go out in his ftrength, and he will enable you to do wonders. He is with me more and more. I have been fweetly carried thro' the heat and burden of every day's labour. JESUS bears all my burdens. JESUS enables me to caft all my cares upon him. O then let us magnify his name together ! I am now going to Scotland, knowing not what will befal me. What GOD does, you may expect to hear fhortly. In the mean while, let us pray for and write to each other. As iron fharpeneth iron, fo doth the letters of a man his friend. Your last I have printed : God's glory called me to it. My dear brother, adieu ! Dear Brother S---- fits by and falutes you. My kind love awaits Mr. W----, and all that love the LORD JESUS in fincerity. In hopes of receiving another letter from vou shortly, I subscribe myself, dear Mr. R.

2

Í

::

.

2

. .

3

ľ

Your very affectionate, tho' very unworthy brother

U 4

and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

Digitized by Google

LETTER CCCXXV.

To the Students, &c. under convictions at the colleges of Cambridge and New-baven,—in New-England and Connecticut.

Dear Gentlemen,

XXTITH unspeakable pleasure have I heard, that there feems to be a general concern among you about the things of God. It was no fmall grief to me, that I was obliged to fay of your college, that " your light was become darknes;" yet are ye now become light in the LORD. I heartily thank GOD, even the Father of our glorious Redeemer, for fending dear Mr. T- among you, What great things may we not now expect to fee in New-England, fince it has pleafed GoD to work fo remarkably among the fons of the prophets? Now we may expect a reformation indeed, fince it is beginning at the house of GOD. A dead ministry will always make a dead people. Whereas, if ministers are warmed with the love of GoD themselves, they cannot but be inftruments of diffusing that love among others. This, this is the best preparation for the work whereunto you are to be called. Learning without piety, will only make you more capable of promoting the kingdom of fatan. Henceforward, therefore, I hope you will enter into your studies not to get a parish, nor to be polite preachers, but to be great faints. This, indeed, is the most compendious way to true learning : for an understanding enlightened by the spirit of GoD, is more susceptible of divine truths, and I am certain will prove most useful to mankind. The more holy you are, the more will GOD delight to honour you. He loves to make use of inftruments, which are like himfelf. I hope the good old divinity will now be precious to your fouls, and you will think it an honour to tread in the fleps of your pious forefathers. They were acquainted with their own hearts .- They knew what it was to be tempted themselves, and therefore from their own experience knew how to fuccour others. . O may you follow them, as they followed CHRIST. Then great, very great will be your reward in heaven. I am fure you can never ferve a better Master than JESUS CHRIST, or be engaged in a higher employ than in calling home fouls to him. I truft, dear gentlemen, you will not -

Digitized by Google

not be offended at me for fending you thefe few lines. I write out of the fulnels of my heart. I make mention of you always in my prayers. Forget me not in yours. I am a poor weak worm. I am the chief of finners, and yet, O flupendous love! the LORD's work ftill profpers in my unworthy hands.—Fail not to give thanks, as well as to pray for

Your affectionate brother and fervant,

in our common Lord,

G. W.

LETTER CCCXXVI.

To Mr. D-, at Bofton.

17

:7

2

Ľ

5

....

-

6. E.

ń.

ς.

5

ł

ī.,

Ξ.

:: :

13 ______

(ii.

سن متر: 11.

On board the Mary and Ann, July 25, 1741. Dear Sir, COUR's as well as other letters, which I received from Bofton, gave me no imall fatisfaction. Now, now I live, if poor finners are flocking for life to the dear LORD JESUS. How may we suppose the angels to be rejoicing over Boston, and other places in New-England ! How glad are they to fee the lectures frequented as in times of old, and the spirit of your good forefathers reviving among you ! Sure it must be delightful to fee black and white, young men and maidens, old men and children, praifing the name of the LORD. Bleffed be Gon, who in this great awakening hath not paffed by your house. Fear not, dear Sir: Who knows but the bleffed JESUS may yet visit you with the light of his bleffed countenance? I rejoice to hear he has been gracious to your wife and daughter, I pray GoD, you may be all built up in our most holy faith, and go on from strength to strength, till you come to appear before the LORD CHRIST in glory. I thank GOD, who hath heard prayer on my behalf. I am ftrengthened daily both in body and foul, and have reason to think my ministry is bleffed more and more. Let GoD's goodness to me, encourage you to expect great things from our LORD. He is able and willing to do for us more abundantly than we can afk or think. That you and your dear family may daily drink of his divine pleasures, as out of a river, is the earnest prayer of, dear Sir,

Your affectionate friend and fervant,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CCCXXVII.

To John R—, an Orphan, at the Orphan house. On board the Mary and Ann, July 27, 1741.

Dear John,

Remember you once wanted to go away from Bethefda. Adore the free grace and mercy of that GoD, who has kept you there. I truft, it will prove the faving of your precious and immortal foul. To fee onefelf loft and condemned by nature, is the first step to conversion. I hope before this time you have found yourfelf faved by grace : for " by grace alone you are to be faved, and that not of yourfelves, it is the gift of Gop." The LORD JESUS hath indeed been knocking at the door of your heart. I truft, now he will break the door open, and give himfelf admission. Dear John, you may well wonder, that the LORD hath not fent you to hell. I truft, that you feel you deferve it. O that GOD may pluck you as a brand out of the burning. This was my only view in bringing you to Bethefda. This is the only defire of the dear friends who have the rule over you; they watch for your foul, &c. The devil (as you observe) watches to destroy it : and, therefore, my dear boy, away to JESUS CHRIST. He can take away the heart of ftone : he can give you an heart of flefh." All things are possible with Him. That GOD may give you grace to take the kingdom of heaven with a noly violence, is the hearty prayer of, dear John,

Your fincere friend,

G. W.

LETTER CCXXVIII.

To James M-, an Orphan. On board the Mary and Ann, July 27, 1741.

Dear James, I Am glad to hear by dear brother B——'s letters, that your foul has received comfort. I am comforted at the news. May GOD increase it daily, 'till your joy be full. I must think GOD loves you, and that he has begun a good work in your foul. I hope to find at my return that it is carried on, and that you have been prefing forward towards the mark for the prize of your high calling in CHRIST JESUS your faviour. Dear

Digitized by Google

Dear James, I do not forget you. I hope you never will forget the love of CHRIST, who died and hath given himfelf for you. Does not the very thought of this make you even to weep? Do you not want fome private place where to vent your heart ? Away then, I will detain you no longer. Retire into the woods. Go look to him whom you have pierced, and with a godly forrow mourn for your fins, as a woman for her firstborn. At the fame time, forget not to figh out a prayer in behalf of, dear James,

Your affectionate friend and fervant, G. W.

LETTER CCCXXIX.

To Thomas Webb, an Orphan.

On board the Mary and Ann, July 27, 1741.

Dear Themas,

TOW inconfistent is the devil! How artfully does he ftrive to keep poor, fouls from CHRIST ! Sometimes he labours to drive poor fouls into defpair; fometimes to pre-These are the two rocks, against which he would fumption. fain have poor fouls to make shipwreck of faith and a good confcience. I pray God to enable you to fteer a middle courfe.-May you fee your mifery, and at the fame time fee your remedy in the crofs and wounds of JESUS CHRIST. He calls to all weary heavy laden fouls; confequently he calls you. Your coming to him, will be a proof of your election. The devils know nothing of GoD's decrees. If ever he should tempt you so again, fay, " If I do perish, I will perish at the feet of CHRIST." He is willing to fave, to fave to the uttermost. He sees, he seels your anguish. He longs to rejoice over you. Venture therefore upon him. Thomas, be not faithless, but believing. CHRIST shall yet shew you his hands and his feet. He is the fame now, as he was yefterday, full of love and condescention to felf-condemned finners. That you may experience the full power and efficacy of the Redsemer's blood, is the ardent prayer of, dear Thomas,

Your fincere friend,

G. W.

LETTER

Digitized by Google

LETTER CCCXXX.

To William B

On board the Mary and Ann, July 27, 1741. Thought your father had fent for you from Betbefda; but I hope your heavenly Father has kept you there to bring you home to himfelf. Your deadness has often grieved me, O that I may have reason to fing, at my return, " Billy B---was dead, but is alive again; he was loft, but is found." You do well to pray to GOD, to fearch your heart, and to try your reins; for otherwise your treacherous heart will deceive you. I would not have you forget what the LORD is doing for you, for ten thousand worlds. O defer not repentance to a death-bed. It will be hard to ftrive with principalities and powers, when you can fcarce turn in your bed. A man, at that time, can hardly bear up under his bodily infirmities; but a wounded spirit who can bear ? Reject, therefore, fuch a horrid temptation, with the utmost abhorrence. Be a worker together with Gop; and now Gop is working in you to will and to do, fee that you work out your own falvation with fear and trembling. Do not ftab your Saviour any more. Dear Billy, think on his bitter agony and bloody fweat, and fly to him, as a Redeemer ready and willing to receive you. That you may be happy in him here, and with him hereafter, is the hearty prayer of

Your fincere friend, G. W.

LETTER CCCXXXI.

To R-----, an Orphan.

On board the Mary and Ann, July 27, 1741. Dear Richard,

Digitized by Google

THE contents of your letter pleafed me. I have fometimes thought, if God did not convert Richard W______, he would be one of the most unhappy boys in the world. You have head-knowledge; and unless you are made to see the finfulness of your heart, it will much increase your condemnation. Bleffed be God, who yet hath patience with you, and seems to be striving with your soul. I do not wonder that the devia devil tells you, " it is time to repent when you are a man." You may well fay, it is the devil that tells you fo: Such a fuggestion cannot come from God. Behold, now is the accepted time, now is the day of falvation ! Jefus will even now accept you, vile as you are, and ungrateful as you have been: if you feel your misery, and fly to him for fuccour, he will accept you. Every conviction cries, " Come, Richard, come to me, that thou mayest have rest." Let me advise you, as old Eli advised young Samuel: fay, " Speak, LORD, for thy fervant heareth."

I am your fincere friend,

LETTER CCCXXXII.

To John F____, an Orphan.

On board the Mary and Ann, July 27, 1741.

Dear John,

2

Ţ

2 1_

2

1

1

ċ,

,1

(T

72

1

.

::

1

مت زبا

ŗ,

21

5-

ł.

;;;

فتت

ł

J

T Willingly fulfil your requeft, and fit down to write you a line or two. I am glad you begin to fee the wickednefs of your own heart. You cannot conceive what a mystery of iniquity is hid therein. The more you fee it, the more you will find the want of a faviour, and adore GOD for giving his dear Son to die for finners. There was once a young man, named John, who leaned on the Saviour's bosom, and was his particular favourite. What if you fhould be thus highly honoured. Would it not be an amazing inftance of love and condescension ? And what doth the Saviour do less, for all that feel themfelves poor, loft, undone finners? Nay, does he not do for them infinitely more? Yes, he does. Come to him, therefore, by faith, and he shall embrace you in the arms of his mercy, clothe you with his righteoulnels, fanctify you by his fpirit, guide you by his counsel, and after death receive you up into glory. Look up, then, and never reft till you have it. Conviction is not conversion. But you know who has promifed not to quench the fmoaking flax, or break the bruifed reed. That this promife may be fulfilled in your foul, is the hearty prayer of,

> Your fincere friend, G. W.

> > LETTER

G. W.

LETTER CCCXXXIII.

To L----, an Orphan.

On board the Mary and Ann, July 27, 1741.

Dear L-M-ND are little boys and girls, at this and that corner of L the wood, crying unto the LORD? I hope you, dear L, are always among them; and may the LORD hear your prayers, when you cry unto him ! Surely he will, if you feel yourfelves poor finners. Never did JESUS reject an humble fuppliant. " Suffer (fays he) little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of fuch is the kingdom of heaven." Dear L----, take all poffible care to cherish your convictions. God has spoken once, yea twice to you, in an extraordinary manner. You are one of the oldest; you ought to go before the rest, and to encourage them to follow the ever-bleffed JESUS. Satan will, no doubt, be very bufy; and therefore you ought to be bufy alfo. You fight under a good captain, even JESUS CHRIST, who will tread all enemies under your feet. My dear child, redeem your precious time. Fight the good fight of faith; and when you are wreftling with GOD, fail not to pray for > Your fincere friend, G. IV.

LETTER CCCXXXIV.

To Mr. Thomas J-----, at Savannab. On board the Mary and Ann, July 29, 1741.

Dear Sir,

I Thank you for your continued kindnefs to my dear family. The God whom I ferve, will richly reward you: I am more and more convinced, that the Orphan-houfe is of God. He will uphold it with his mighty arm. Dear Sir, there is nothing like a life of faith. It is more and more pleafant to me every day. I pray God, you may experience it every moment, and be enabled entirely to overcome the world. My letters, to my dear family, will inform you, how the L'ORD hath been pleafed to deal with me. Bleffed be his name, he hath delivered, he does he will yet deliver. My foul foul has been among lions. JESUS hath been my helper. I am very comfortable within, and experience more of the divine prefence in preaching, I think, than ever I did before in England. I fuppofe I fhall not embark for America till Spring. Whatever good offices you are pleafed to do for my family, fhall be then fully acknowledged by, dear Sir,

Your obliged friend and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCCXXXV.

To Mr. L-, at Briftol.

On board the Mary and Ann, July 29, 1741.

Dear Mr. L-----

ار

.....

ż

Ç

....

...

c

Ľ.

ç,

W E are now within thirty miles of our defired haven. We have had a pleafant paffage. Before I go afhore, I would fain answer your kind letter. Fear not for Brifed. No weapon formed against Zion shall prosper. Let us wait patiently, and we shall certainly fee the falvation of GoD. The LORD is beginning his work afrefh. I suppose brother C------ has told you fomething of it. I never felt greater power in England. I have had GOD's continued prefence during the passage. God has given me sweet sleep at night, and a good appetite to my food by day. Faithful is he who hath promised, that those who wait upon the LORD shall renew their ftrength. I speak thus freely to you, because I know you will be thankful on my behalf. I hope both you and your dear wife, are making daily advances in the divine life. Whilft others are disputing, let us be growing. This will be the best way to convince those, who you find will not be convinced any other way. Adieu ! The LORD be with you. May your foul breathe nothing but gentieness and love !

I am, dear Sir,

Your affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

Digitized by Google

LETTER

LETTER CCCXXXVÍ,

To Mr. H-, at the Orphan-boufe.

On board the Mary and Ann, July 30, 1741. My very dear Friend and Brother,

Have been five days on board, and am now just at our defired haven. Gon's prefence has fweetened the paffage, and I have had freedom to write many letters befides those fent to Bethefda. If you, and dear brother B_____, think proper, the little ones may be called, and the letters read before you. A word of exhortation, and a fhort prayer, may not be unfeasonable. I thank you all for the tender care you take of the dear lambs. You ferve a master, who will richly reward all your pains. I hope there will come a time, when I shall embrace and weep over you all with tears of love! At prefent, I feel myfelf a poor finner, and stand amazed at God's goodness and patience extended towards me. I am lefs than the leaft of his mercies. You may expect to hear from me again fhortly. O do not forget to pray for me. My dear friends, for the prefent, adieu ! The LORD be with your fpirit.

Ever, ever yours,

G. W.

LETTER CCCXXXVII.

To Mr. 7- C-.....

My very dear Brother, Edinburgh, Aug. 1, 1741.THE LORD was very gracious to me on board. He gave us a pleafant paffage. As you know that the Meffrs. Er/kines gave me the first invitation to Scotland, and hath been praying for me in the most public, explicit, I could almost fay extravagant manner, for near two years last past, I was determined to give them the first offer of my poor ministrations. Accordingly, I went yesterday to Dumfermling, where dear Mr. R - E hath got a large and feparate, or, as it is commonly termed, feceding meeting-house. He received me very lovingly. I preached to his and the town's people people.---A very thronged affembly---After I had done prayer, and named my text, the ruftling made by opening the bibles all at once, quite furprized me : a scene, I never was witness to before. Our conversation after fermon, in the house, was fuch as became the gospel of CHRIST. They entertained me with various accounts of the fuccefs of the Seceders labours; and, as a proof of God's being with them, Mr. R ---- 's fon-in law told me, that, at one of their late occasions, a woman was fo deeply affected, that the was obliged to ftop her mouth with an handkerchief to keep herfelf from crying out. They urged a longer ftay, in order to converse more closely, and to fet me right about church government, and the folemn league and covenant. I informed them, that I had given notice of preaching at Edinburgh this evening; but, as they defired it, I would in a few days return, and meet the affociate presbytery in Mr. R----'s house. This was agreed on. Dear Mr. E----- accompanied me, and this evening I preached to many thousands, in a place called The Orphan-house Park. The LORD was there. Immediately after fermon, a large company, among whom were fome of the nobility, came to falute me. Amidst our conversation, came in a portly, welllooking Quaker, nephew to Meffrs. E----, formerly a Baptist minister in the north of England, who, taking me by the hand, faid, " Friend George, I am as thou art ; I am for bringing all to the life and power of the everliving GOD : and, therefore, if thou wilt not quarrel with me about my hat, I will not quarrel with thee about thy gown." In this respect, I wish all, of every denomination, were thus minded. I find GOD has bleffed my works in these parts. I am most cordially received by many that love the LORD JESUS. I have just been in company with a nobleman, who, I believe, truly fears GOD; and also with a lady of fashion, that discovers a christian spirit indeed. I already hear of great divisions. But JESUS knows how to bring order out of confusion. I hope the LORD is much with you, my dear brother. O may you be anointed more and more, till you are filled with all the fulnefs of God. Be pleafed to read this to all in Wine-fireet; and remember me kindly to all that love the glorious Redeemer. He is a dear, dear JESUS. Tho' we die for, yet Vol. I. let Х

Digitized by Google.

X

r.

2.

1.

et.

12 ć

ļ

Ì

$

306

LETTERS.

let us not deny him in any wife. Pray that fuch a mind may be always given to

Your weak and unworthy brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCXXXVIII.

To the Rov. Mr. G. W-, at Maxton.

Dear Sir,

Edinburgh, Aug. 1, 1744.

ā

3 [

ł.

ł

Ċ.,

1

ιį

37

1

T

1 è j

٩.

1

Э

â

e

2

l.

q

R)

1 ł

0

h

1

VOUR kind letter, like all other tokens of my precious Master's love, quite amazes me. I hear you are a good old foldier of JESUS CHRIST. O that you had wrote to me fooner ! I want the advice and exhortation of those who have been in CHRIST before me. The LORD is pleafed greatly to blefs me. His work feems to be beginning afresh in England. How it goes on abroad, the papers fent with this will inform you. Help me, dear Sir, help me with your prayers, that the LORD may blefs my coming here. I hope fome have felt the divine presence in this evening's exercise. Thro' grace I can fay, I did, and do now. O that I could be humble and thankful ! O that my heart glowed with the love of GOD and men ! I would breathe nothing but love. I would love all that love the LORD JESUS, of whatfoever denomination. May the LORD heal our divisions, and grant that we may not thereby provoke him to fend us a common perfecution to drive us together ! O that we may fland in a trying hour. Dear Sir, I shall be glad to fee you at Edinburgh any day after Wednesday next, and then we can fettle when to come into your parts. I am willing to preach the gospel to all. It is now late, but I was willing to write, left fomething fhould hinder me on Monday. Dear Sir, good night. I commend you to GOD, thank you for your prayers, and defire a continuance of them in behalf of

> Your affectionate younger brother, and fellow-labourer in the Redeemer's vineyard, G. W.

> > Digitized by Google

LETTER

LETTER CCCXXXIX.

To Mr. Thomas N-, at New-York.

My dear Brother, Edinburgh, Aug. 8, 1741. T Have written you feveral letters; and I rejoice to hear that the work of the LORD prospers in the hands of Meffrs. T------s, &c. am glad they intend to meet in a fynod by themfelves. Their catholic fpirit will do good. The affociate presbytery here, are so confined, that they will not so much as hear me preach, unless I only will join with them. Mr. Ralph E, indeed, did hear me, and went up with me into the pulpit of the Cannon-gate church-The people were ready to shout for joy; but, I believe, it gave offence to his affociates. I met most of them, according to appointment, on Wedne/day last .- A fet of grave venerable men ! They foon proposed to form themselves into a presbytery, and were proceeding to chule a moderator-I asked them for what purpole ? They answered, to discourse, and set me right, about the matter of church-government, and the folemn league and covenant. I replied, they might fave themfelves that trouble, for I had no fcruples about it; and that fettling church-government, and preaching about the folemn league and covenant, was not my plan; I then told them fomething of my experience, and how I was led out into my prefent way of acting. One in particular faid, he was deeply affected; and the dear Mr. E----- defired they would have patience with me, for that having been born and bred in England, and never fludied the point, I could not be supposed to be so perfectly acquainted with the nature of their covenants. One, much warmer than the reft, immediately replied, " that no indulgence was to be shown me; that England had revolted most with refpect to church government; and that I, born and educated there, could not but be acquainted with the matter now in debate." I told him, I had never yet made the folemn league and covenant the object of my fludy, being too bufy about matters, as I judged, of greater importance. Several replied, that every pin of the tabernacle was precious .--- I faid, that in every building there were outfide and infide workmen; that the latter, at prefent, was my province; that if they X 2 thought thought themfelves called to the former, they might proceed in their own way, and I should proceed in mine. I then asked them feriously, what they would have me to do; the answer was, that I was not defired to fubfcribe immediately to the folemn league and covenant; but to preach only for them till I had further light. I asked, why only for them ? Mr. Ralph E_____ faid, " they were the LORD's people." I then afked, whether there were no other LORD's people but themfelves; and supposing all others were the devil's people, they certainly had more need to be preached to, and therefore I was more and more determined to go out into the highways and hedges; and that if the Pope himfelf would lend me his pulpit, I would gladly proclaim the righteoufnefs of Jesus CHRIST therein. Soon after this, the company broke up; and one of these, otherwise venerable men, immediately went into the meeting-house, and preached upon these words, "Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night? The watchman faid, The morning cometh, and also the night, if ye will enquire, enquire ye : return, come." I attended ; but the good man fo fpent himfelf in the former part of his fermon, in talking against prelacy. the common-prayer book, the furplice, the rofe in the hat, and fuch like externals, that when he came to the latter part of his text, to invite poor finners to JESUS CHRIST, his breath was fo gone, that he could fcarce be heard. What a pity that the laft was not first, and the first last ! The confequence of all this was, an open breach. I retired, I wept, I prayed, and after preaching in the fields, fat down and dined with them. and then took a final leave. At table a gentlewoman faid, the had heard that I had told fome people, that the affociate presbytery were building a Babel. I faid, " Madam, it is quite true : and I believe the Babel will foon fall down about their ears :" but enough of this. LORD, what is man, what the beft of men ? but men at the best ! I think I have now feen an end of all perfection. Our brethren in America, bleffed be GOD, have not fo learned CHRIST. Be pleafed to inform them of this letter. I have not time to write now. The LORD bleffes my preaching here, and the work, I think, is begun afresh in London. I preach to many thousands daily, and feveral have applied to me already under convictions. T have have been here about eight days. You may expect to hear from me shortly again. The LORD be with you. I love you in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST : He will blefs you for what you have done for the poor orphans. He comforts me on every fide. O free grace ! Dear brother S----- falutes you all.

•

Digitized by Google

Digitized by Google

Ever yours in our common LORD.

G. IV.

309

LETTER CCCXL. To Mr. T-- G---, at London.

Edinburgh, Aug. 8, 1741.

VOU will fee, my dear brother, by the following, what I GOD is still doing for me. On Sunday evening, I preached in a field near the Orphan-house, to upwards of fifteen thousand people; and on Monday, Friday, and Saturday evening, to near as many. On Tuefday I preached in the Cannongate church; on Wednefday and Thurfday at Dumfermling; and at my return on Friday morning, at about eight o'clock, I preached at a town called Queens-Ferry, feven miles from Edinburgh. Every where the auditories were large, and very attentive. Great power accompanied the word. Many have been brought under convictions; and I have already received feveral invitations to different places, which, God willing, I intend to comply with. At prefent I can fay no more, but defire you to pray for, and expect foon to hear further from,

Your affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST.

G. II.

L E T T E R CCCXLI.

To the Rev. Mr. W----, at Dundee.

Edinburgh, Aug. 10, 1741.

Reverend and dear Sir.

I Just now had the pleasure of your letter; for which be pleased to accept my hearty thanks. I trust your prayers will be heard in my behalf. Glory be to free grace ! many are here brought under convictions. Unworthy as I am, the glorious Emmanuel is pleafed to clothe his word with power. I am X 3

Digitized by Google

I am amazed at his loving-kindnefs, and want heaven and earth to join with me in praifing his holy Name. By your fon I have fent fome papers, and fhall gladly receive any from I wifh you would not trouble yourfelf or me in writing vou. about the corruptions of the Church of England. I believe there is no church perfect under heaven; but, as GOD, by his providence, is pleafed to fend me forth fimply to preach the golpel to all, I think there is no need of caffing myfelf out. The divisions in Scotland are affecting, and undoubtedly they will occasion great fearchings of heart. I pray GOD to fupport us in a trying hour. I am not yet determined, when I shall come your way. I can only promise, it shall be the first opportunity, and that you shall be apprized of it some time In the mean time, be pleafed to bear me upon your before. heart. I am a weak helplefs worm. Your correspondence will always be agreeable to me. That you may daily receive fresh anointings from above, is the hearty prayer of, reverend and dear Sir.

Your affectionate, tho' younger brother and fervant in the Golpel,

G. W.

T.

武

æ

LETTER CCCXLII.

To the Rev. Mr. O-----.

Edinburgh, Aug. 10, 1741. Reverend and dear Sir,

I Thank you for your kind and obliging letter.—I had not time to anfwer it before. God willing, I hope to come into the northern parts. The precife time I cannot yet tell. For ever adored be the LORD for his free grace ! the word is accompanied with great power. Several apply to me daily under convictions. I find it beft fimply to preach the pure gofpel, and not to meddle at all with controverfy. The prefent divifions are a fore judgment to Scotland. This is my comfort, JESUS is king. He will either heal, or bring good out of them. I have been with feveral of the affociate prefbytery; but I fee no hopes of accommodation. O that the power of religion may revive ! Nothing but that can break down the partition wall of bigotry. Dear Sir, forget not to pray for me. I fee more and more that I am nothing, and that

Digitized by Google

LETTERS.

that JESUS is all in all. Did I know how, I would fend you fome papers; but I hope ere long to have a perfonal interview; and in the mean while, I beg leave to fubscribe myself, reverend and dear Sir,

> Your affectionate brother and fervant, G. W.

LETTER CCCXLIII.

To the Right Honourable the Lord R

My Lord,

Edinburgh, Aug. 11, 1741.

HOUGH I am just going out, yet I cannot fatisfy myfelf without fnatching a few moments to write to you. I hope this will find your Lordship safe at your journey's end, rejoicing in GOD for giving his angels charge concerning you in the way. It will please your Lordship, to inform you that the LORD of all Lords hath dealt most lovingly with me, fince your departure hence. His power hath been frequently made known in the great congregation, and many come to me daily, crying out, "What thall I do to be faved ?" The work of the LORD also goes on in America, and in England, fo that I hope we shall see the kingdom of GOD come with power. This is the full defire of my foul. I am determined to feek after and know nothing elfe. For befides this, all other things are but dung and drofs. O my Lord, why should we that are pilgrims, mind earthly things? Why fhould we that are foldiers, entangle ourselves with the things of this life? Heavenly-mindedness is the very life of a christian. It is all in all.-I pray the LORD that your heart may be drawn more and more towards him, and be fill'd with all his fulnefs. I could fay more, but Mr. G--- W--- waits for me. I am, my Lord,

> Your Lordship's most obedient humble fervant, G. W.

> > Digitized by Google

LETTER

LETTER CCCXLIV.

Edinburgh, Aug. 11, 1741.

My very dear Brother H---, THOUGH my eyes are dim, and my body calls for reft, yet I would fain fend you a line before I go. The LORD JESUS is getting himfelf into many hearts. I fcarce feel any reftraint in preaching. Both in public and private, the LORD clothes his word with power. Poor fouls come to me under deep convictions. Sweet letters are fent to me of the fuccefs of my writings and fermons; and feveral preffing invitations to many places. I hope GoD is beginning fuch a work here, as he begun, and is now carrying on in New-England. Night and day JESUS fills me with his love. My bodily ftrength is daily renewed. The LORD is pleafed to open my mouth wide; praife him for it. I have preached twice, and talked, and walked much to day. My dear man, good-night. The LORD be with you !

> Ever, ever yours, in the most adorable JESUS, G. W.

LETTER CCCXLV.

To the Most Henourable the M-fs of L-n. My Lord, Edinburgh, Aug. 12, 1741. Am furprized to find your Lordship to condescending as to write to me. How bright does humility thine in great personages ? It is this renders GOD so amiable to his creatures. He is infinitely good, and withal infinitely condescending. What an unparalleled inftance was that of his loving kindnefs, his giving his only begotten Son to die for finful man. How low did JESUS stoop when he lay in a manger, much more when he hung upon the accurfed tree. When I think of this mystery of godlines, I am lost in thought. This makes me to defpise all human happiness, and sets my foul a longing for a full fruition of my JESUS. I pray GOD to give your Lordfhip grace to determine to know nothing but JESUS CHRIST, and him crucified. He is the only center of true happinefs. In him alone, folid, lafting joys are to be found. Having JESUS, I find in him I poffers all things. But whither am I going? 5

• Digitized by Google

going? Your Lordship will excuse me. My heart at present is enlarged. I pray GOD to visit your Lordship with his great falvation. I thank your Lordship for your intended benefaction to the poor Georgia orphans. I hope the glorious Emmanuel will accept it at your hands. I have fent your Lordship another parcel, feeing the first hath miscarried. I shall follow it with my poor prayers, being, my Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient humble fervant, G. W.

LETTER CCCXLVI.

To Mr. H----- H-----.

My very dear Brother, Edinburgh, Aug. 13, 1741. Longed to receive a letter from you. Bleffed be GOD, my longing was fatisfied this day. My heart is much united to you, and carried out for you. I utterly difapprove of fome perfons separating principles. I find, Satan now turns himfelf into an angel of light, and ftirs up GoD's children to tempt me to come over to fome particular party. The affociate Presbytery have been hard upon me; but I find no freedom, any longer than I continue just as I am, and evangelize to all. I know not that I differ from you in one thing. Glory be to GOD for what he has done at London ! He is doing great, things here. . I walk in the continual funfhine of his countenance. Every day, fresh seals are given of my ministry. This morning GoD opened my voice to speak to preachers of the golpel. Be pleafed to accept of this fummary account of my proceedings. On Sunday morning, I visited and preached to the orphans here, and in the evening to as many people as the Sunday before. Every day fince, excepting Monday, I have preached either in the churches or field twice a day, and yesterday I collected upwards of ninety-three pounds for the Georgia orphans. People are daily coming under deep convistions, and fresh invitations are sent me to preach at divers places round about. On Sunday, I purpose to preach in the country, and also the greatest part of the following week, and fhall return again, GOD willing, about Friday to this city. O my brother, exhort all to praise the LORD. I have most sweet letters from many awakened ones. God, I believe, will will work in the ministens and young students hearts. Even to LORD JESUS. Amen. Pray fail not writing to Ever yours, G. W.

ŧ.

LETTER CCCXLVII.

To Mr. D-E-, at Sterling. Edinburgh, Aug. 13, 1741. My dear Brother, Received your kind letter, and heartily blefs GOD, if any thing dropping from my unworthy lips was made of fervice to your foul. I believe, GOD inclined me to fpeak to you. The fons of the prophets are much upon my heart. I pray GOD that you may be polished shafts, and noble infruments in his hands, of building up living temples for the Holy Ghoft. The treatment I met with from the affociate presbytery, was not altogether such as I expected. It grieved me, as much as it did you. I could scarce refrain from burfting into a flood of tears. I wish all were like-minded with your honoured father and uncle: matters then would not be carried on with fo high an hand. I fear they are led too Such violent methods, fuch a narrow way of acting, much. can never be the way to promote and enlarge the kingdom of the bleffed Jefus. It furely must be wrong to fix fuch bounds to ourfelves, as forbid even our hearing those who love the LORD JESUS in fincerity, and have also been owned of him. CHRIST would not have done for.-Supposing the fcheme of government which the affociate prefbytery contend for to be fcriptural, yet forbearance and long-fuffering is to be exercised towards such as may differ from them; and I am verily perfuaded, there is no fuch form of government prefcribed in the book of GOD, as excludes a toleration of all other forms what foever. Was the New Testament outward tabernacle to be built as punctual as the old, as punctual directions would have been given about the building it; whereas, it is only deduced by inference, and thus we see Independents, Presbyterians, and Episcopalians bring the fame text to support their particular scheme, and I believe JESUS CHRIST thereby would teach us to exercise forbearance and long-fuffering to each other. Was the affociate prefbytery fcheme to take effect, out of confcience, if they acted confistently, they must restrain, and grieve, if not perfecute

1

Digitized by Google

314 perfecute many of Gon's children who could not possibly come into their measures; and I doubt not but their prefent violent methods, together with the corruptions of that affembly, will caufe many to turn Independents, and fet up particular churches of their own. This was the effect of archbishop Laud's acting with fo high an hand; and whether it be prefbytery or episcopacy, if managed in the fame manner, it will be productive of the fame effects. Bleffed be GOD, I have not fo learned CHRIST. I preach the simple gospel, and our glorious Jesus is pleased to attend it with his power. Everv day I feel more and more of the divine prefence, and people are coming to me crying, "What shall we do to be faved." The love of JESUS fills my foul, and constrains me to write thus freely to you. O dear Sir, I love and honour your pious father. Remember me in the kindest manner to the good old man. I pray GOD, his last days may not be employed too much in the non-effentials of religion. My heart is knit to the family. God forbid, that any thing fhould hinder us from taking fweet counfel together. GoD willing, I am to preach at Falkirk on Tuefday evening, and purpose to be at Sterling that night, and to preach twice there the next day. If it was thought advisable, I would collect for the Orphanhouse at Georgia in the afternoon. The LORD be with you, and all the family. Forget me not in your prayers. - I am a poor unworthy wretch. As fuch, pray for 18

5

T.

ç

2 ć

•

:

ţ

Your affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST,

FTTED COCVIDUI

My very dear Brother, Edinburgh, Aug. 15, 1741. I T would make your heart leap for joy, to be now in Edinburgh. I queffion if there be not upwards of 300 in this city feeking after JESUS. Every morning, I have a conftant levee of wounded fouls, many of whom are quite flain by the law. GOD's power attends the word continually, juft as when I left London. At feven in the morning, we have a lecture in the fields, attended not only by the common people, but perfons of great rank. I have reafon to think feveral of the latter fort are coming to JESUS. Little children alfo also are much wrought upon. GoD much bleffes my letters from the little orphans. He loves to work by the most contemptible means. O my dear brother, I am quite amazed, when I think what GOD hath done here in a fortnight. My printed journals and fermons have been bleffed in an uncommon manner. I am only afraid left people should idolize the inftrument, and not look enough to the glorious JESUS, in whom alone I defire to glory. Congregations confift of many thousands. Never did I fee fo many bibles, nor people look into them, when I am expounding, with fuch attention. Plenty of tears flow from the hearers eyes. Their concern appears various ways. I preach twice daily, and expound at private houfes at night, and am employed in speaking to fouls under diffress great part of the day. I have just fnatched a few moments to write to my dear brother. O that GOD may enlarge your heart to pray for me. This afternoon I shall preach out of town, and also to-morrow. Next post, GOD willing, you shall have another letter. I walk continually in the comforts of the Holy Ghoft. The love of CHRIST quite strikes me dumb. O grace ! grace ! Let that be my fong. Adieu. My dear fellow-traveller joins with me in hearty love to you all. I must away.

315

G. W.

316

> Ever yours in Christ, G. W.

LETTER CCCXLIX.

To Mr. J — H — , at Georgia. Edinburgh, Aug. 24, 1741.

My very dear Friend and Brother, WITH very great difficulty I get time to write this. The LORD is doing great things in Scotland. I preach twice daily to many thousands with great power. I have collected here very near two-hundred pounds, and have a profpect of collecting much more. Mr. N— has drawn upon me for three hundred pounds fterling. I have paid two of it. Some hundreds remain yet unpaid. GOD gives me to put my

Some hundreds remain yet unpaid. GOD gives me to put my truft in him. I have bought five hundred yards of cloth for the dear orphans winter's wear, and fhall fend you the other things you mentioned. I rejoice to hear that the LORD is with you. I do not wonder at the contempt you meet with,

Digitized by Google

or

or the calumnies which are spread abroad. Remember the burning bufh. O my friend, my dear friend, how fhall I thank you for your prayers, care, and love? I am willing to wash all your feet. Perhaps in the Spring, I may embark ; but cannot yet determine. I have written to you many letters. and I always remember you in my prayers. I am glad to hear that you can go to market without money. The LORD increase your faith. My dear brother, I love you in the bowels thank dear Mr. 7----, from my heart, for his great kindnefs. I wrote to him and to Mr. B---, and near thirty more, a month ago. Expect also fome money shortly. I had rather bear any burden, than have my dear family burdened. I thank Mr. W---- for his care. His brethren here are well. I have not time to tell you, how I love and effeem you for the care you take of the dear lambs. I long to weep over you all. Excuse me for not writing particularly. The LORD be with you all As foon as I can possibly redeem time, you shall hear again, my dear Mr. H---, from

Ever yours in Christ Jesus, G. W.

LETTER CCCL. To the Rev. Mr. R— E—. Edinburgh, Aug. 24, 1741.

Reverend and dear Sir,

I Thank you for your kind letter. I believe it proceeded from love; but, as yet, I cannot think the folemn league and covenant is any way obligatory upon me. Indeed, dear Sir, you miftake if you think I temporize on account of the orphans. Be it far from me. I abhor the very thought of it. I proceed now, juft as I have done ever fince I came out in the miniftry; and fo far from not fetting a hedge about our LORD's garden, that was I called to it, I fhould fet a much clofer hedge than that which the affociate prefbytery are planting. I fhould enquire into people's experiences, before I admitted them to the LORD's table. I would have church members meet in church fellowfhip, and tell one another what GOD has done for their fouls. You feem to think I am not open to light. That I may give you fatisfaction, I am willing

ing to confer with Mr. W—— at Perth, where I am to be by divine permiffion on Thurfday, September 3. On Tuefday next, about four in the afternoon, I purpose preaching at Dumfermling.—I am engaged to sup at your collegue's house, but intend to lie at yours. In the mean time be pleased to pray for me, and to remember my love to all your family; and believe me, reverend Sir, to be

Your most affectionate, though unworthy

brother and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER ČCCLI.

To the Reverend Mr. O---, at Aberdeen. Perth, Sept. 3, 1741.

Reverend and dear Sir,

318

T Have received two letters from you, which much affect me, knowing how unworthy I am of fuch endearing expreffions, or indeed of any notice at all. But what shall I fay ? Grace ! grace ! JESUS loves me, and fo does his fervant for JESU's fake. O free grace ! I am forry to find that any fhould infinuate, my not coming to Aberdeen is owing to your cold invitation. Such a thought never entered my heart, but quite the contrary. The diffance of the way, and my preffing call to England, will keep me from you, and nothing elfe. I love and honour you for my mafter's fake. I should be glad to wash your feet, and if possible I will yet fee you. But if GOD should not permit me, dear Sir, be not offended. The LORD is pleafed to give me much freedom and power in preaching. Congregations are every where large, and they have been very liberal to my poor orphans. O that I was humble, and thankful ! I am the chief of finners: I feel myfelf fuch. O the efficacy of CHRIST's blood ! It is omnipotent; it hath faved me. Dear Sir, my heart is melted down with the love of JESUS. He is a dear master. He hath suffered no evil to befal me, as you have already heard. I have not fo much as hurt my foot against a stone. Help me to praise him. Worthy is the Lamb that was flain, to receive all honour and glory and riches and and power and bleffing! With much difficulty, I get time to fend you there few lines.—Reverend and dear Sir,

Your very affectionate, obedient friend, younger brother, and fervant in the gofpel,

G. W.

P. S. For nine days paft, I have continued preaching with great power twice every day, to very large and affected auditories in many towns and villages.

LETTER CCCLII.

To the Rev. Mr. W------. Edinburgh, Sept. 19, 1741.

Reverend and dear Sir,

HOUGH nature calls for reft, and I am to preach four times to-morrow, yet I cannot go to bed without answering your kind letter. Bleffed be GoD for any good done at Dundee ! Not unto me, not unto me, but unto JESUS CHRIST be all the glory. Thanks be to GOD, I can yet fend you more glad tidings. At Creif we had a moft precious meeting. At Glafgow I preached ten times. The LORD was with me of a truth. The congregations were very large, as were the contributions, and many were brought under the deepest convictions. With great regret we parted, and with great joy was received at Edinburgh. I had fome thoughts of abiding in Scotland longer, but last night I received a letter, which almost determined my return to England. Next Saturday, GOD willing, I purpose to leave this place, and shall return into these parts, if providence points a way, in the Spring. I do not defpair of feeing Scotland like New-England. Reverend Sir, for the present adieu. Mv poor body bids me to ftop. O when fhall I fleep no more ! I am exceedingly weary, but am affectionately, Reverend and dear Sir,

Your most unworthy and obedient brother,

Digitized by Google

and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CCCLIII.

To Mr. T----- G-----, in London. Edinburgh, Sep. 24, 1741.

My very dear Brother,

THIS ferves to inform you, that on Sunday laft I preached here four times, twice in a church, and twice in the fields; in the evening I collected twenty pounds for the royal infirmary. On Monday morning, I vifited the children in three holpitals, and preached in the evening in the park; alfo at Kinglaffy, Aberdour, and Innerkeithing, on Tuefday and Wednefday. On Thurfday I vifited the prifon, and in the evening preached to the children of the city, with a congregation confifting of near twenty thousand in the park. It is remarkable that many children are under convictions, and every where great power and apparent fuccefs attend the word preached. Calls to divers places, are fo numerous and importunate, that I think it my duty to flay in Scotland fome time longer: being in hafte, can fay not more at prefent. My love to all that love the LORD JESUS.

> Your most affectionate friend, brother, and fervant, G. W.

LETTER CCCLIV.

To the Right Honourable Lord L-

My Lord,

Edinburgh, Sept. 25, 1741.

THOUGH nature calls for reft, yet love and gratitude oblige me to fit up to anfwer your Lordfhip's letter, left I fhould not have time in the morning. Bleffed be the glorious Redeemer I who feems in fome degree to be working upon your heart. My prayer to GOD is, that these convictions may continue, 'till they end in a found conversion. You do well, my Lord, to fear, left they should wear off. I have not had fo much acquaintance with the world as your Lordfhip; but I know it is a deceitful thing, and without the utmoss care and watchfulness, will infensibly divert the foul from GoD. Your Lordfhip is in a dangerous situation. A fear of contempt, and a love for honour, falsely fo called, render religion unfathionable

Diaitized by Google

320

fashionable amongst the rich and polite part of mankind. But the blood of JESUS is almighty, and makes the foul more than conqueror. Here is the fountain to which you and I must apply, to wash away all our fins. And is it yet open for all poor finners? Come then, my Lord, and lay yourfelf at the feet of the bleffed JESUS. He can, he will, if you believe on him, abundantly pardon you. But faith is the gift of God. I pray GOD to give you no reft, 'till you have received the full affurance of faith. Then will you recover your primitive dignity, trample earth under your feet, and with your foul be panting after GOD. O my Lord, it is a bleffed thing to have fellowship with the Father, and with the Son. I am a poor despised minister of JESUS CHRIST; but I would not change my Master for ten thousand worlds. I have food to eat, that the world knows nothing of. I long to have your Lordship tafte of it too, and shall as it were travail in birth 'till JESUS CHRIST is formed in you. Your Lordship need not remind me to pray for you. Your eternal welfare is much upon my heart. My Lord, now is the accepted time, now is the day of falvation. The bleffed spirit is now striving with you, and faying, " My fon, give me thy heart; what haft thou to do any more with idols?" I hope your reply will be, " LORD, I give thee my heart, my whole heart, and will no longer keep back from thee the least part." Then will your Lordship be truly happy ; for so far as we are void of GOD, so far we are miserable. But whither am I running ? It is late; but your Lordship defired a long letter, and therefore I have taken the liberty to write freely. I am fenfible of the honour put upon me by your Lordship, and hope I shall never betray any trust reposed in me. I pray God to fanctify this, and blefs our fellowship when we meet together. I thank your Lordship for your concern about the orphans. I am perfuaded you will in no wife lofe your reward. I hope your Lordship received my last letter, which gave an account of my intended preaching at Kinglaffie and May the glorious JESUS fanctify my continuance in Coubar. these parts, to the promoting his own glory and the good of fouls! I think I can fay, " to me to live is CHRIST." It revives me to fee fo many feeking after JESUS. At Kinglaffie the power was extraordinary. O free grace! that God should make use of such a wretch as I am. I defire to lie Vol. I. Y. humbly

7

ŗ

Ĵ,

i.

Ľ.

k:

5

X:

4 1

z. ċ:

i:

5 έŢ

į

.

-يسر ما

r. Is ، أمعاً

منه. مدر

ŗ.

į į

5

Ľ,

تر

Digitized by Google

22 I

humbly in the duft, and fay, "Why me, LORD, why me? Fear not, my Lord, I have received remiffion of fins by the blood of JESUS. Into his arms, I am juft about to commend your Lordfhip. 1 pray GOD to vifit your foul with his falvation; and hoping my humble refpects will find acceptance with your Lordfhip, your lady, and lady Ann, I beg leave to fubfcribe myself,

> Your Lordship's most obedient humble fervant, G. W.

LETTER CCCLV.

To the Right Honourable Lord R .----.

Gallashiels, Sept. 28, 1741.

TOUR letter I fear has been too long unanfwered, but gratitude will not permit me to defer answering it any longer. I have also received your Lordship's liberal benefaction for the orphans, for which and all other favours, your Lordfhip hath my hearty thanks .- The innumerable inftances of GoD's goodnefs quite melt me down. The word of GoD prevails more and more. Every where JESUS CHRIST is getting himfelf the victory in poor finners hearts. Young and old from many quarters fly to the gospel, as doves to the windows. I truft, your Lordship's daughters will feel the power of. CHRIST's blood. Happy they, who do feel it. They reft in GOD. They are fons and daughters of the LORD Almighty. What a rich perfon is the pooreft christian? He is joint heir with JESUS CHRIST. Supported with this thought, and feeling the power of it in my foul, I can despise all sublunary enjoyments, and long to be wholly fwallowed up in God. Happy day, when we shall converse with the world no more! I pray GOD to give me patience to wait 'till JESUS comes. I would leap my feventy years, and fly upon the wings of faith and love, into the bleffed Redeemer's prefence. I hope your Lordship is thus minded. May the glorious Emmanuel keep you fo, 'till your foul is carried into Abraham's bofom. This is the hearty prayer of, my Lord,

> Your Lordship's most obedient and obliged humble fervant,

> > Digitized by Google

G. W. LETTER

My Lord,

LETTER CCCLVI.

To the Right Honourable lord L-

My Lord,

2

i.

χż.,

Ũ

ï:

(C*

in F

1:1

52

Ę.

5 ì

ζ.

J

Ľ,

r ß

ÍS.

ġ.

ĩ

Edinburgh, Oct. 2, 1741.

AST night I returned from the fouth country, and receiv'd your Lordship's kind letter. My invitation to Coupar was in the name of many : who the perfons were that figned the letter I cannot tell. I have fent it inclosed in this. Had I known it to have been more agreeable to your Lordship, I would have appointed the meeting at Melvill; but I fear, as fuch public notice has been given, it will be now impracticable. I cannot poffibly ftay with your Lordship all Tuesday, being to preach at Dundee. But in my return from Aberdeen, I hope to be at your Lordship's house. I am glad your Lordship intends to be at Kinglassie. I shall have both fermons very early, and hope the glorious JESUS will be with us in our going to Melvill. O my LORD, I want a thousand tongues to fet off the Redeemer's praise. Having him, tho' I have nothing elfe, I find I poffes all things. I have not forgotten your Lordship fince I wrote last. You are, and will be much upon my heart. I have heard of the piety of your Lordship's anceftors, and hope many prayers are yet in ftore for you. Above all, I truft, JESUS prays for you, and then you cannot but be a conqueror; nay, more than conqueror over the world, the' flesh and the devil. Take courage then, my Lord, and fear not to follow a crucified JESUS without the camp, bearing his facred reproach. Beware of honour, falfely fo called : dare to be fingularly good, and be not ashamed of JESUS or his gospel. O that you may find it to be the power of GOD to your falvation! Look but to CHRIST by faith, and your Lordship's great poffessions will not retard, but further and promote your progress in the divine life. What sweet communion will your Lordship then enjoy with GOD, in your walks and gardens? It will then be a little paradife to your foul, and every thing you meet with, will only draw you fo much nearer to Jehevah, in whom all fulness dwells. This I find by daily experience; and that your Lordship may daily experience the fame, is the earnest prayer, my Lord, of

Your Lordship's most obliged humble fervant,

Digitized by Google

G. W. LETTER

LETTER CCCLVII.

To Mr. H-----,

Melvill, October 5, 1741.

My very dear Friend and Brother,

Have, by the fhip that brings you this, fent you 701. worth of different forts of goods to be difposed of, and the money to be applied for the use of the Orphan-houle. You are to let Mr. B---- have 201. I have also fent 600 yards of cloth, a present of my own, to make the boys and girls gowns and coats, fome whereof I have had made up here. The other things were given by various perfons. Amongst these, you will find some damask table-cloths, which I defire you will fell, they being too good, in my opinion, for our ufe. O my dear friend, how faithful is the LORD JESUS ! He has now enabled me to pay my brother, and Mr. N---'s bill of three hundred pounds ferling. There is yet 2001. to be paid, which I borrowed fince my arrival in England; but very fhortly I hope to discharge that also. I have been in Scotland about two months, and think to be here about a fortnight longer. GOD is pleased to give me health, and to bless my ministrations in an abundant manner. The little children in the hofpitals, are much wrought upon. Saints have been flirred up and edified, and many others, I believe, are translated from darkness to light, and from the kingdom of fatan to the kingdom of GOD's dear Son. The good that has been done, is inexpreffible. I am intimate with three noblemen, and feveral ladies of quality, who have a great liking for the things of GOD. I am now writing in an earl's house, furrounded with fine furniture; but glory be to free grace! my foul is in love only with JESUS: he helps me more and more. I feel but little straitness in preaching, and we have often fweet appearances of the divine presence in our large affemblies. As tomy own foul, it is very comfortable and composed ; I feel the power of Jesus more, and the power of indwelling fin lefs. I am daily waiting for the coming of the Son of Gop. I fear I am too impatient to be gone; but what can the foul do, when fick of love? I have fome thoughts of vifiting Ireland. Whether I shall do that, or come to America in the Spring, God

God only knows. I pray for, and long to fee you and the reft of my dear family. I truft, I then shall behold, what I long to behold, a houfhold of faith, a company of poor finners walking in the fimplicity and love of the meek and lowly IEsus. O that you may fo live, that whofoever comes amongst you may fay, "Surely GOD is in this place." Thousands of prayers are put up for us, and thousands of lies are spread abroad against us. But JESUS enables me to fight my way through all, and I am perfuaded he will make me more than conqueror through his love. In England, the work goes on well. Brother C--- is much bleffed in Wilt/hire; and brother H---- wrote me word fome time ago, that he had examined about three hundred fouls of our fociety, most of which had been wrought upon fince my return from Georgia. Help me to cry, Grace! grace! My dear friend and brother, for the prefent adieu! I love you in the bowels of a crucified JESUS. Brethren, pray for us.

> I am ever, ever yours in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCLVIII. To Mr. H—— in Edinburgh. Melvill, October 5, 1741.

Dear Mr. H----,

.

:

. 2

ć.

T.

2

:7

2.

3 :

-

I

5 ŧ.

Ē

d;

;)

2

ø

1

Ľ,

į,

4

6 ŗŕ

¢

¢

ł

1

3

Received your kind letter with the bill, and also that figned by you, and my other friends at Edinburgh. I take all they fay in good part, but think fome of their reasonings a little too worldly. The calumnies of evil men are not to be regarded. I value them not in the leaft. My largeft donations have been from the rich and fubstantial. The mites which the lower fort of people have given, I am perfuaded will not prevent their paying their debts, or impoverish their families. Mr. W----, in a letter to Mr. S----, withes there may be a private contribution for myfelf; but I know nothing of, and will not admit of any fuch thing. I make no purfe; what I have, I give away .--- Freely I have received, freely I defire to give. " Poor, yet making many rich," fhall be my motto My great and professed defign, is to bring poor finners fill. to JESUS CHRIST; but as my orphan family abroad is now Y 3 large, large, and daily to be provided for, without the least visible fund, and I believe much glory will redound to GOD from that house; I think it my duty to speak to those, who I believe, for CHRIST's fake, are willing to help them. I would have no one afraid of doing too much good, or think, that a little given in charity will impoverish the country .--- May Gon reward you, and all others that have affifted me for his dear Son's fake! My poor prayers will always attend my Scotch friends. When I shall go to England, I know not, but I hope GOD will direct me. I must have done. Dear Sir, may the LORD be with you, and be your ease in pain. My kindeft respects attend your kind wife, and all my dear friends. I · thank you and them for their advice, and defire to fubscribe myself, with much affection, dear Sir,

Your obliged, and affectionate friend and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CCCLIX.

To the Rev. Mr. M-, at Dornock. Aberdoen, October 9, 1741.

Reverend and dear Sir,

S O M E time paft, I received a letter from your Prefbytery of Sutherland, and if I miftake not, with your name fubfcribed. However, as I this night have feen your fon, I think it my duty in a letter to you, to thank the reverend prefbytery for their kind invitation; but as my ftay in Scotland is fo fhort, and Sutherland fo far Northward, I cannot think of going thither at this time. Notwithstanding, my prayer to GoD is, that the glorious gospel may flourish in your hands, and that you may bring many, very many fouls to JESUS. This, reverend Sir, unlefs my heart deceives me, is my only aim.

> For this let men revile my name, I fhun no Crofs, I fear no fhame; All hail reproach, and welcome pain, Only thy terrors, LORD, restrain!

O, dear Sir, my heart is warmed with the love of JESUS; whilft I am writing, the fire kindles. Amazing, that JESUS should fuffer me to speak for him! But what shall we fay?

Digitized by Google

His

His grace is free. Dear Sir, help me to cry, Grace ! grace ! Surely I shall fing it in heaven. I long to be there, but am willing to tarry the LORD's leifure. Dear Sir, excufe this freedom; I hope I am writing to one that loves JESUS. I would write more, but must away to give a word of exhortation. That the LORD JESUS may fill you with all joy and peace in believing, is the hearty prayer of, Reverend and dear Sir,

> Your affectionate friend, brother, &c. in CHRIST,

> > G. W.

LETTER CCCLX. To Major M_____.

Dear Sir,

Aberdeen, October 9, 1741.

EING come thus far Northward, and hearing that you are this way, I cannot forbear writing, though nature calls for fleep. I was concerned I could not fee you at London; but hope this will find you retired from a noify world, and walking with your dear spouse as becometh the gospel of JESUS CHRIST. It is what I have longed and prayed for many a time. I am of the fame mind as formerly. Nothing but JESUS can fatisfy the foul. Aided by his Almighty power, I still go on through good report and evil report, preaching the gospel. Blessed be Gop, I am not ashamed of it. For, I find it, as do many others, to be the power of GOD to our eternal falvation. O, dear Sir, I feel more and more of the love of CHRIST every day. It is past expression. I hope ere now you have had it fhed abroad in your heart abundantly, by the Holy Ghoft. A letter informing me of this, will rejoice my foul. Be pleased to direct to me at Mr. T----'s, Edinburgh. GOD willing, I purpose leaving Scotland in about a fortnight. Whether I shall see you in the flesh, I know not. However, fince I know what GOD once did for you, be not offended, if I charge you, dear Sir, not to let me mis you at GoD's right-hand in the great day. But GoD only can bring this to pass: That you and your dear wife may be kept by his mighty power unto falvation, prays, dear Sir,

Y 4

Ever yours,

Digitized by GOOGLE

G. W.

LETTER

327

LETTER CCCLXI.

To Mrs. Ann D-, at great Gransden. My dear Sister, Aberdeen, October 9, 1741.

HIS evening your letter came to hand. Though it is paft eleven at night, and I have rode many miles this day, yet I cannot go to-bed without fending you a line. I fear, by your manner of writing, you are offended with me for my last letter. I knew very well, it would be a trial to you; but I wrote out of pure love, and am glad it is now in your power to clear your husband, which I much defired to do. I have too many afperfions of the fame nature caft upon me, not to fympathize with you both. But JESUS is our advocate, and ere long we shall see all the accusers of the brethren cast down. In spite of all, JESUS has been, and is getting himfelf the victory in many finners hearts. I am yet carried on day by day, ftrengthened in body, and much refreshed and comforted in foul. Your letter gives me a little present pain, lest my last should have pained you. But GOD permits these things to happen among ourfelves, to teach us to look off from all creatures, and to centre all our happiness in himself. Glory be to GOD for his almighty love ! At my first coming here, things looked a little gloomy; for the magistrates had been fo prejudiced by one Mr. B----, that when applied to, they refused me the use of the kirk-yard to preach in. This Mr. B---- is collegue with one Mr. O-----, at whofe repeated invitation I came hither. Though collegues of the fame congregation, they are very different in their natural tempers. The one is what they call in Scotland, of a fweet blooded, the other, of a choleric difposition. Mr. B---- is neither a Seceder, nor quite a Kirk-man, having great fault to find with both. Soon after my arrival, dear Mr. O---- took me to pay my respects to him; he was prepared for it, and immediately pulled out a paper, containing a great number of infignificant queries, which I had neither time near inclination to answer. The next morning, it being Mr. O---'s turn, I lectured and preached; the magistrates were present. The congregation very large, and light and life fled all around. In the afternoon Mr. B--- officiated; I attended. He began his prayers

328

10

1:

43

+

17,

2.1

12

a:

E. 1

ŵ.

t:

02

94

er

5.1

000

e

31 , si

T.

4

ŧi.

11

ſ

Ű

ý.

.

Ĵ

5

Ċ

ers as usual; but in the midst of them naming me by name, he intreated the LORD to forgive the diffonour that had been put upon him, by my being fuffered to preach in that pulpit; and that all might know what reason he had to put up such a petition, about the middle of his fermon, he not only urged that "I was a curate of the church of England," but also quoted a paffage or two out of my first printed fermons, which he faid were grossly Arminian. Most of the congregation feemed furprized and chagrined, especially his good-natured collegue Mr. O -----, who immediately after fermon, without confulting me in the leaft, flood up and gave notice, that Mr. Whitefield would preach in about half an hour. The interval being fo fhort, the magistrates returned into the feffion'shouse, and the congregation patiently waited, big with expectation of hearing my refertment. At the time appointed, I went up, and took no other notice of the good man's ill-timed zeal, than to observe in some part of my discourse, that if the good old gentleman had feen fome of my later writings, wherein I had corrected several of my former mistakes, he would not have expressed himself in such strong terms. The people being thus diverted from controverly with man, were deeply imprefied with what they heard from the word of GoD. All was hushed ! and more than solemn ! and on the morrow the magistrates sent for me, expressed themselves quite concerned at the treatment I had met with, and begg'd I would accept of the freedom of the city. But of this enough. The LORD, my dear fifter, is my fupport; let us both continually fly to him, and then let men or devils do their worft. CHRIST will by and by take away our reproach. Into his hands I commend your fpirit. Good night; the LORD be with you and vours ! I hope to fet out for England foon. Pray write when you hear of my arrival there, and fo convince me, that you are not angry with

> Your affectionate the' unworthy brother and fervant in CHRIST,

> > Digitized by Google

G. W.

329

LETTER

LETTER CCCLXII.

To Mr. W-, at Edinburgh.

Dear Sir,

Aberdeen, October 10, 1741.

Just fnatch a few moments to answer your letter. Want L of leifure prevented my doing it before. I have not as yet feen your mother's memoirs. Happy are you in having fuch a parent. No doubt many prayers are in ftore for you. As for your entering upon the ministry, I cannot advise you, 'till you have gotten full fatisfaction that you are born again of GOD. I know more than one, who are ready to give up their ministry for want of this; and as for my own part, I could not feelingly prefs the love of GoD to others, unlefs I was fure of his love to myfelf. I know not what may have paffed between GOD and your foul. You can tell, I fuppofe, whether or not GoD's spirit witnesseth with your spirit, that you are a. child of GOD ? For he that believeth, hath the witness in himfelf. If you have got this with a moderate fhare of learning, a good ; elocution and a burning love for precious fouls, then, I think you may do fervice in a public station. If godly, and real experienced friends are for your entering into the ministry, their advice is fomewhat to be regarded. If their advice proceeds from worldly motives, do not mind them at all. The difcouragements you meet with from fome, are not worth your notice. If GOD loves you, he will try you every way. Prayer, meditation, and temptation, are three necessary qualifications for a golpel minister. I know not what to fay about your going to Georgia. In Penlylvania, and other places, there are, most noble opportunities of preaching the gospel of Jesus. But I hope to be in Edinburgh in about ten days, and then. fhall be glad to converfe with you. In the mean time, dear, Sir, I commend you to GOD, and defire you would not forget. the unworthy creature, who now fubscribes himself

> Yours in Christ Jesus, G. W.

Digitized by Google

LETTER

LETTER CCCLXIII.

Aberdeen, October 10, 1741.

321

Reverend and dear Brother,

Have for a long time expected that you would have fent me an answer to my last; but I suppose that you are afraid to correspond with me, because I revealed your fecret about the lot. Though much may be faid for my doing it. yet I am forry now, that any fuch thing dropped from my pen, and I humbly afk pardon. I find I love you as much as ever, and pray GOD, if it be his bleffed will, that we may be all united together. It hath been for fome days upon my heart to write to you, and this morning I received a letter from brother H----, telling me how he had conversed with you and your dear brother. May GOD remove all obstacles that now prevent our union ! Though I hold particular election, yet I offer JESUS freely to every individual foul. You may carry fanctification to what degrees you will, only J. cannot agree that the in-being of fin is to be deftroyed in this life. O, my dear brother, the LORD hath been much with me in Scotland. I every morning feel my fellowship with CHRIST, and he is pleafed to give me all peace and joy in be-In about three weeks I hope to be at Briftol. May lieving. all disputings cease, and each of us talk of nothing but JESUS. and him crucified ! This is my refolution. The LORD be with your spirit. My love to brother C----, and all that love the glorious Emmanuel. I am, without diffimulation,

Ever yours,

G. W.

LETTER CCCLXIV. To Peter B------

Aberdeen, October 10, 1741.

My dear Brother,

Write this, to ask pardon for mentioning your name in my answer to brother W---'s fermon. I am very forry for it. Methinks I hear you fay, for CHRIST's sake I forgive you. I thank thank you, and shall be glad of a conference with you when I come to London. There have been faults on both fides. I think, my dear brother, you have not acted fimply in fome things. Let us confeis our faults to one another, and pray for one another, that we may be healed. I wish there may be no diffention between us for the time to come. May GoD preferve us from falling out in our way to heaven! The world and the devil are united against us; O that we could all unite against them ! " GOD is love, and he that dwelleth in love. dwelleth in God." I long to have all narrow-spiritedness taken out of my heart. JESUS is able to deliver me. His blood is Almighty. I truft I shall not reft, 'till I have felt the full power of it in my foul. Bleffed be GOD, I am still carried on from conquering to conquer. JESUS caufes me to triumph in every place. I defire to lie as a poor finner at his feet, and to cry, Grace ! grace ! I find I am fhortly to be called before the higher powers. Help me, my dear brother, by your prayers. In about nine days I think to leave Scotland. I commend you to JESUS, and defire to subscribe myself, dear brother B-

> Yours affectionately in the bleeding Lamb, G. W.

LETTER CCCLXV.

To the Reverend Mr. C----

Aberdeen, October 13, 1741.

3

1

72

-22

t

ř

My dear Brother,

è

I Received your letters, and am glad to hear that the glorious Emmanuel is pleafed to countenance your ministry. May he finile on you more and more, and make you the fpiritual father of many children ! I have very great reason to be thankful to our common Saviour. He hath been with me greatly, both in England and Scotland. I generally preach twice every day, fometimes three, even four times, and generally expound in private every night. The LORD has fought many battles for me, and ftill continues to make me more than conqueror through his love. This morning I felt his power in the pulpit, and now feel it much in my foul. O what a bleffed thing it is, to have Gop's fpirit witness with our fpirit, that we are Gop's GoD's children ! This, glory be to free grace! I have continually; and let me be in what frame foever, my foul is waiting for the coming of the Son of Man. Bleffed be GoD, it will not be long ere I fhall fee him as he is. The fight I have of him by faith, ravifhes my foul: how fhall I be ravifhed when I fee him face to face ! "LORD, purify me, even as thou art pure; for only the pure in heart fee thee !" My dear brother, the love of GOD now fills my foul. May you feel it fhed abroad abundantly in your heart ! About Spring, perhaps, I may leave England. Forget not to pray for me.

I am, dear Mr. C-----,

Ever yours in CHRIST JESUS,

G. W.

333

LETTER CCCLXVI.

My Lord, Brechen, October 17, 1741. Would have wrote to your Lordship from Aberdeen, but L could not then determine when I should be at Melvill. This comes to acquaint your Lordship, that, GOD willing, I hope to be at your Lordship's house on Wednesday night, and to preach at Coupar on Thursday. I should be glad if the magistrates were apprized of it, and the tent fixed in a more convenient place, and at a lefs diffance from the ground. I cannot tell your Lordship, how good the glorious Emmanuel has been unto me. He has caused me to triumph in every place, and fills my foul with joy unspeakable, even with joy that is full of glory. I wish your Lordship was not almost, but altogether fuch as I am, excepting my indwelling corruptions. O my Lord, none but Christians know the pleafure of renouncing the world for God. I am perfuaded you felt unspeakable pleasure at Coupar. I hope those days have continued with you. Happy are you in having a confort that will forward you in the fpiritual life. That you may both live together as becomes heirs of the grace of Gon, and have all joy and peace in believing, is the earnest prayer of, my Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient humble fervant,

Digitized by Google

LETTER

G. W.

LETTER CCCLXVII.

To Mr. Thomas G-, at London.

Dundee, October 21, 1741.

ċ

(1

ý

Di

Dear Brother G-----,

VOU will fee, by the following, what GOD is still doing for me. On Wednesday night laft I left Aberdeen, after preaching there feven times, besides expounding in private. Before I came among them, numbers were much prejudiced against me; but GOD was pleased to attend my ministry with such power, that all opposition fell before me. Many were brought under great convictions. The magiftrates made me free of the city; and the people much regretted my speedy departure from them. On Thursday last I preached at Stonbithe and Benham; on Friday, thrice at Montrole; on Saturday twice, and on Sunday thrice at Brechen, and lectured in the evening at a private house. On Monday I preached twice at Forfar; on Tuesday twice at Coupar, in Angus; and once at Dundee, five miles from Coupar, at four in the afternoon, and again at night; here I have also preached twice this day. The prefence of GOD accompanies me more and more. Wherever I have preached, I hear of the good fruits of it, both in convicting finners, and reviving faints. At Dundee, the concern among the hearers is very remarkable. People are still more defirous to hear the word. But, GOD willing, I purpose shortly to set out for England. My dear brother, pray for me, that I may be humble and thankful. I am glad to hear your wife is recovered. My love to her, and all friends. I am, with cordial affection,

> Dear brother G------, Ever yours in CHRIST,

> > G. ₩.

LETTER

LETTER CCCLXVIII.

To the Right Honourable the Lord L-----.

My Lord, Edinburgh, October 26, 1741. T is now past eleven at night; all is wrapt in awful filence. My foul is in a quiet composed frame. I have been giving your Lordship's letter a fecond reading, with aspirations to GOD whilft I perused it. Surely GOD has not let me wreftle with him in vain. The Holy Spirit feems to be moving upon the face of your foul. I truft GOD hath faid, "Let there be light," and therefore there is light. O that the work may be carried on, till you enter into that reft which remains for the people of GoD. I truft your Lordship will now awake into a new world, and know what it is to live by faith. Did I not know the power of CHRIST's blood, I should fear for you. But I commend you to a glorious Redeemer, that will certainly take care of you. As I left your Lordship's house, I was thinking, that the narrow escape your Lordship had between the stones, foreboded something good. JESUS has taken care of you when in your blood. I hope he is now paffing by you, and faying unto you, "Live." O that the ftone of infidelity, which before lay at the door of your heart, may be now rolled away ! O that you may rife, be loofed from your corruptions, and go about doing good ! Satan will not let you go without much opposition. He will defire to have you, that he may fift you as wheat. But if JESUS prays for you, all will be well. The comfort which you had with him in reading the pfalms, is a tafte of the food believers daily eat, and which the carnal world knows nothing of. My Lord, if you could be brought once to love fecret prayer, and to converse feelingly with GoD in his word, your heaven will begin on earth; you will enjoy more pleasure than in all manner of riches. What will those avail, if you are not rich towards GoD? Be, therefore, my Lord, much in fecret retirement. Commune with your own heart in your chamber, and be still, and you will then hear the fecret whispers of the Holy Ghoft. As for praying in your family, I intreat you, my Lord, not to neglect it. You are bound to do it. Apply to CHRIST for ftrength to overcome your prefent fears. They are the effects of pride, or infidelity, or of both. After once or twice, the difficulty will be over. O that the bleffed Spirit may enable you to make interceffion with groaning that cannot be uttered ! It rejoices me to think, that I shall one day perhaps fee a church in Melvill houfe. Happy, happy are you. my Lord, in having fuch a confort, who will forward your Lordship in every good word and work. How fweet will it be for you to go early to your devotions, ftriving to live like the first happy pair, before they had eaten the forbidden fruit. As GOD shall enable me, I shall bear you both upon my heart. God forbid that I should fin against him in ceasing to pray for you. My riding upon your Lordship's horse, will often remind me to pray for the donor. My Lord, you are upon my heart. Methinks I would undergo the pangs of the new birth for you; but JESUS can carry you through. Fear not. Go on in his ftrength, and your Lordship will be enabled to ftand the flock of all. I flould be glad to hear, from time to time, what the Lord is doing for your foul. Since your Lordship has laid your commands upon me, I shall write as often as poffible. If your Lordship is pleased to write within this week, a letter may be directed to me at Mrs. J----'s, in Abergavenny. If afterwards, at Mr. S----'s. Grocer, in Wine-fireet, Briftol. Your Lordship may depend on my fecrefy; no one hath feen your Lordship's letter, but Mr. S-----, who copies this, and who is as my own foul-His prayers, I truft, will benefit your Lordship. His humble respects await both you and your lady. Once more, I pray GOD to blefs you both together. But it is late, the clock has ftruck twelve. Methinks I could with the cry was now made, "Behold, the bridegroom cometh." My foul longs to go forth to meet him. This evening I was greatly refreshed by preaching on these words, " This is my beloved, and this is my friend, oh daughters of Jerufalom." O when shall I fee him as he is ! Well may your Lordship fay, "He is altoge= ther lovely." The more you know him, the more you will have reason to commend him. Eternity is too short to utter all his praife. With a heart full of affection and thanks for all favours, I beg leave to subscribe myself, my Lord,

335

10

Your Lordship's most obliged humble fervant,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

Ľ

ġ

R

LETTER

LETTER CCCLXIX.

Edinburgh, October 27, 1741.

337

My very dear Brother,

. - 3 ± -

LTHOUGH it be past eleven at night, yet I cannot mils a post. The LORD is doing very great things here. At Dundee the C----- was very extraordinary. On fabbath-day, the LORD enabled me to preach four times, and to lecture in the evening at a private house. Yesterday I preached three times, and lectured at night. This day JESUS has enabled me to preach feven times. Once in the church, twice at the girl's hospital, once in the park, once at the old people's hospital, and afterwards twice in a private house. Notwithstanding, I am now as fresh as when I arose in the morning. " They that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength ; they shall mount on wings like eagles." It would delight your foul to fee the effects of the power of GoD. Both in the church and park the LORD was with us. The girls in the hospital were exceedingly affected, and fo were the flanders-by. One of the miftreffes told me, the is now awakened in the morning by the voice of prayer and praise; and the master of the boys fays, that they meet together every night to fing and pray; and when he goes to their rooms at night to fee if all be fafe, he generally disturbs them at their devotions. The prefence of GOD, at the old people's hospital, was really very wonderful. The Holy Spirit feemed to come down like a mighty rufhing wind. The mourning of the people, was like the weeping in the valley of Hadadrimmon. They appear more and more hungry. Every day I hear of fome fresh good wrought by the power of GOD. I fcarce know how to leave Scotland. I believe I fhall think it my duty to pay the inhabitants another vifit as foon as poffible. May the LORD order my goings in his ways ! Above five hundred pounds hath been collected, in money and goods, for the poor orphans. Let all that is within me praife God's holy name. To-morrow, God willing, I shall leave this place, and go through Wales, in my way to London. You may hear from me on the read. At prefent, I must con-VOL. I. clude:

Digitized by Google

.8

clude; it is very near twelve. I intreat you to pray and give thanks for, dear brother G------, Your's most affectionately in CHRIST. JESUS, G. W.

LETTER CCCLXX.

To the Right Honourable the Lord L----.

Abergavenny, Nov. 10, 1741. My Lord, T Cannot bear the thoughts of forbearing to write to your Lordship any longer. I know your Lordship will be pleased to hear that we had a good journey. CHRIST's prefence made it fo. The horfe carried me exceeding well. My heart was often drawn out to pray for the donor. Does your Lordship's foul prosper ? Has JESUS faid, " Be of good cheer, it is I; be not afraid, thy fins are forgiven thee." Can it vet be faid, " Behold, he prayeth." I find a reftraint upon me now, fo that I cannot write. GoD calls me to retirement; being to enter into the marriage flate to-morrow. I am perfuaded your Lordship will not fail to pray, that we may, like Zachariah and Elizabeth, walk in all the ordinances and commandments of the LORD blamelefs. I hope my most humble respects will find acceptance with your Lady. Indeed, my Lord, you are both much upon my heart. Though I have only liberty now to subscribe myfelf, with all gratitude, my Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient and obliged humble fervant.

G. W.

married,

LETTER CCCLXXI.

To Mr. T-, at Edinburgh.

Abergavenny, Nov. 19, 1741. THIS morning I received your kind letter; for which, and all other favours, you have my most hearty thanks. I remembered you in prayer, foon after your's came to hand: bleffed be GoD for the news which it contained. I yet expect to hear of, if not to fee far greater things in Scotland. The LORD has begun, and he will carry on a work, which shall make the ears of his enemies to tingle. I have enjoyed much of the divine prefence fince we parted. On Saturday I was 338

2

ŗ

t

•,

01

21 iş i

RIS.

e en f e' be itti Mi

il P inc e a è.

R.

Ľ.

S.

ł

Ľ

Į.

Ľ,

ç i ļŗ

3

i.

s

6). 5

]. .

married, in the fear of GoD, to one who, I hope, will be a help meet to me. GoD has been pleafed to work, by my hands, fince I have been in Wales. O flupendous love ! O infinitely condefcending GoD ! Be pleafed to direct your next to London. I hope to be there in about three weeks. My wife I fhall leave in the country for fome time. Dear, Mr. T_{-----} , pray for us. I do for you and yours. Labour after an abiding of GoD in your foul, fo that you may continually by faith fee him who is invifible. Do not be content with being adwarf in religion : afpire after the utmost degrees of inward purity and holinefs. I could go on, but must write fome more letters. Dear brother S_{----} , and my dear wife, falute you and all friends. They are not forgotten, dear Mr. T_{-----} , by

Your most unworthy, but most affectionate friend and servant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCLXXII.

To the Right Honourable Lady D-, in Scotland.

Honoured Madam, Briftol, Nov. 22, 1741. A T length I have a little leisure. I must improve it, LA by writing a letter to your Ladyship. The many favours conferred on me, loudly called for a more speedy acknowledgment; but hitherto, business for my Master has prevented. Dear Mrs. C-----'s letter will inform your Ladyfhip that I have altered my ftate; I truft for the better; for I think my foul is more intimately united to JESUS CHRIST than ever. I would humbly hope your Ladyship can fay fo too; for there is no happiness till we can feel an union of foul with God. That, and that only, as your Ladyship has often heard me affert, is true and undefiled religion. Your own experience will best convince you of the truth thereof. Your Ladyship enjoys great advantages, and glorious means of making progress in spiritual things. You are rich in this world's goods; may GOD make you rich in faith and good works! My Mafter will not forget the kindness you have shewn to one of the leaft of his fervants. It gives me comfort to think, what fweet freedom of fpirit I have enjoyed, when opening the fcriptures Z 2 fcriptures in your Ladyship's house. Surely GOD was with us of a truth. The favour of it is not yet gone off my own foul, nor, I hope, from your Ladyship's also. Since I left Edinburgh, I have put up many hearty prayers for you and your family. The LORD make it an houfhold of faith, and make you perfect, entire, lacking nothing! The glorious Emmanuel feems to be repairing the breaches of his tabernacle, which were fallen down. In Wales we had much of the divine prefence. The people there are fo hungry after the word, that they are refolved not to leave wreftling with the Most High, till he shall be pleased to fend me thither. O that GOD may incline your Ladyship to intercede in my behalf! for I long to be humble, and to lie low as a very poor finner at the Redeemer's feet. I think I can fay, he brings me nearer and nearer to himfelf daily; and I will not reft, till I am moulded into the image of my bleeding LORD. I pray GOD that your Ladyfhip may be content with no degrees of holines; but may be daily preffing forward, till you arrive at the mark of the prize of the high calling in CHRIST JESUS. Mr. S---- defires to join with me in fending our most affectionate respects and thanks to your Ladyship and all friends. Our particular respects await dear Mr. M^c V-----. I truft he will yet live to fee glorious days of the Son of Man. Surely CHRIST is getting himfelf the victory. May he long reign king in your foul, and reward you a thousand-fold for every token of love shewn to, honoured Madam,

339

340

Your Ladyship's most obedient humble servant,

G. W.

of

LETTER CCCLXXIII.

To the Right Honourable the Earl of L-----.

My Lord, Briftel, Nov. 24, 1741. My Lord, Briftel, Nov. 24, 1741. MY heart longs to fend you another letter. I wifh, above all things, that your foul may prosper. I had an extraordinary power given me to pray for you lately in Wales. Gon gave me to wreftle, and I think an affurance that I fhould prevail. I am looking out for an answer. Your Lordfhip's next letter, I hope, will afford me matter for rejoicing in your behalf. Your Lordship is now entered on the field ia,

1

1

2:

2

Υ.

3

ŝ

ĩ

X.

. K

5 ł

x.

1

-

-;

Ţ.

.

6

È.

F.).

6

T

É.

j:

Ľ,

e,

لكر

÷

3

My dear Friend,

of battle : you are engaged in a cruel, but a glorious warfare. Go on ; though faint, yet ftill pursue : nil desperandum, Christe duce, auspice Christe. My prayer for your Lordship is this :

> Give him a will, give him the pow'r, Still equal to the war; Great Captain of Salvation, thou Thy trembling foldier chear.

O, my Lord, it is a bleffed thing to fight the Redeemer's battles: I find he makes us more than conquerors through his love. I ftill enjoy much of the divine prefence, and hope I pafs from glory to glory daily. I preach here at fix in the morning, and alfo in the evening. Gop caufes his goodnefs to pafs before us. In a week I hope to fet out for London. Be pleafed to direct your next thither. The lords have returned my appeal. At prefent, a hook is put in the leviathan's nofe. "When a man's ways pleafe the LORD, he maketh his enemies to be at peace with him." I hope your Lady profpers both in body and foul. My own, and dear fellow-travellers moft humble refpects and prayers attend your whole houfhold. I am, with great affection, my Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient humble servant,

G. W.

LETTER CCCLXXIV.

To T_____ E____, in Edinburgh.

Briftol, Nov. 27, 1741.

W HEN we parted, I promifed your wife to write upon the road; but I found it impracticable. Since I came to Wales I have had no time. Now I have, GoD gives me freedom. Though late, be pleafed to accept a letter of thanks for all favours. I think we felt each others fpirits, both, I truft, united myftically, really, and eternally to CHRIST, our common head, and to one another in love. O that all would center here. It would then be faid once again, "See how these Christians love one another."—As for my own part, I am felolved not to reft till every thing, contrary to true, catholic, christian love, be rooted out of my foul. Z 3 CHRIST's CHRIST'S blood and spirit are able to do this for me. I only need to pray to GOD to make me willing to have it done. Be pleased to help me, my dear friend, when GOD enables you to draw near unto him. My dear companion would beg the fame. Our tender love awaits both you and your wife. I am lately entered into the marriage relation. JESUS was called to; JESUS was present at the marriage. We have lately enjoyed much of the divine presence. Many precious promises have been pressed upon my foul. I believe I shall se greater things than ever. We cannot expect too great things from GOD. But I must have done. I am waited for. Accept these few lines in love, from

> Your affectionate friend and brother in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER. CCCLXXV. To Mr. A-----, in London.

Briftol, Nov. 30, 1741.

My

Ň

ú

My very dear Brother,

Thank you for your kind letter. Though I hope to fee you on Friday, yet love conftrains me to fend you an anfwer. I rejoice that your foul is thirfting for holinefs. Gongrant, it may never ceafe till you experience the full and glorious liberty of his children. I fee plainly how fatan loves to drive to extremes. Since there is no fuch thing as having the in-being of fin deftroyed, he would not have people prefs after a delivery from the power of it. This is also owing to the corruption of our own hearts. The old man doth not love to be crucified and flain; but I hope the language of your heart and mine is this,

> Reign in me, LORD, thy foes controul, 'That would refuse thy sway; Diffuse thy image thro' my soul, And bring the perfect day.

> > · Digitized by Google

Scatter the last remains of fin, And feal me thine abode; O fet me purified within; A temple meet for Gop.

342

Ex 13

My root of bolinefs thou art, For faith bath made thee mine; With all thy fulnefs fill my heart, Till I am wholly thine.

No wonder, when we come to be thus minded, if carnal ministers, and carnal professors of all kinds, cry out against us. Nay, even some who have tasted that the LORD is gracious, having flumbered and flept, and mixed too much with the world, even such frequently fight against their privileges, and reft in an infant state of piety. But, I believe, the LORD will roufe them, and let the world know, what the blood of JESUS can and will do. Bleffed be his name, we have a growing church at Briflol. Yesterday, and several other times, the LORD hath filled many as with new wine. Sometimes I fcarce have known whether I have been in or out of the body : but. I find, the more I receive of grace, the more I defire to lie as a poor, very poor finner at the feet of the wounded Lamb. Several have just now been with me, who have this last week, especially yesterday, drank deep of divine love. They are now full of the comforts of the Holy Ghoft. Ι pray that they may walk humbly with their GOD; for it is a good thing to know how to manage a manifestation aright : nature to frequently and artfully blends with grace, that, for want of a close watch and tender walk, we grieve the Holy Spirit. Hence arife deadness and darkness in the foul. Unbelief creeps in, the chariot wheels of divine love are taken off, and the foul drives heavily. Let us, therefore, my dear brother, live a life of great nearness to JESUS; and labour day by day to perfect holiness in the fear of God. There is a glorious reft to be entered into even here. May the LORD make us partakers of it ! But why fhould I in the least doubt it h

Thou will give Arength, thou wilt give power, thou wilt in time fet free ;

This, great Deliverer, let me hope ; this, not for felf, but Thee.

For the prefent, adieu! "

Yours most affectionately in CHRIST,

Z 4

LETTER

London, Dec. 7, 1741.

My very dear Friend and Brother,

Came hither last Friday, and received a packet of letters from Betbesda; but wonder to find none from you. When I read brother Grant's account of the circumftances of the family, I remember what the LORD preffed upon my foul on fhip-board, " The bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast in those days." However, be not difcouraged; professor F-----'s students were once obliged to fell their cloaths to buy candles. The work of GOD advances here greatly. We have a large fociety, confifting of feveral hundreds, and a noble place to meet in : I have called'it a Tabernacle, because, perhaps, we may be called to move our tents. In Wilt/hire, and at King/wood, there are many good fouls, and two new houses built. In Wales the door is opened wider than ever. From thence (Abergavenny) the LORD has given me a wife. Her name was James, a widow, between' thirty and forty years of age. She has been a housekeeper many years. Once gay; but, for three years last past, a despifed follower of the Lamb of Gon. I left her about three weeks ago, and am going to-morrow to fettle affairs, and to bring her up to London. I thank your dear wife for her letter : had I freedom I would answer it : but I have essaved feveral times before I could finish this. My fister G---- is dead : I trust she slept in JESUS. GOD is pleased to let me feel more of his power than ever. O that his whole mind was in me! I hunger and thirst after righteousnels; bleffed be GOD, there is a promise that such shall be filled. By the letters fent with this, my dear family will fee that I have not forgotten them. No: I pray for them continually. I cannot certainly tell when I shall leave England. Providence detains me here. The work is very extraordinary in Scotland. I hear dally accounts of its continuance and increase. The door is opened in all places. The Lords fee through Mr. G----'s enmity, and will have nothing to do with my appeal: fo that a hook is put into the leviathan's jaws. I believe we shall see greater greater things than ever. My dear friend, falute all most tenderly in my name; I am exceedingly engaged, or each of them fhould hear particularly from,

Digitized by Google

344

> Ever, ever yours in Christ, G. W.

LETTER CCCLXXVII,

To the Right Honourable Lord R-----.

-My Lord,

í:

1

T

Ø

6.2

:z

22 ĺΤ

1 22

27 !

37

ĴĒ.

1

j,

£;

r:

Ę

ł

2

-

ļ

p,

5

ŗ

a.

۵

م م

ķ

¢

/

Gloucester, Dec. 19, 1741.

HIS comes to acknowledge the receipt of your Lordship's kind letter, dated November 9th. Business has prevented my answering it sooner. The LORD is yet pleased to deal bountifully with me. In England, as well as Scotland, the Redeemer is riding on from conquering to conquer. About Spring I hope to fee Scotland again, and then, if poffible, I will come as far as your Lordship's house. I have lately been at Briftol, and London, and have had the pleasure of feeing the church walk in the comforts of the Holy Ghoft. I have preached here twice every day, for fome days last past. The LORD greatly countenances my administrations, and gives me conftant peace and uninterrupted joy in believing. This is what, I truft, our glorious Emmanuel will confer upon your Lordship. CHRIST wills that our joy should be full; but we entangle ourfelves with the world, we indulge ourfelves in sensual pleasures, we trifle away our time in what the world calls innocent diversions, and thereby we grieve the spirit of GOD, and lofe the comforts we should otherwise enjoy, from a close walk and communion with GoD. Most complain of a deadness and leanness in their souls; what is it owing to? Not to God, but to ourfelves. We leave God, and then God leaves us. Not that we can keep ourfelves by our own faithfulness; but notwithstanding, we must be faithful, and workers together with God. I know not why I am led to write thus to your Lordship, but nothing else occurs to my mind at prefent. I am athirst for holiness myself, and long to see others athirst also. O my LORD! I see such beauty and transcendent excellencies in CHRIST, that I long to have his whole mind and image stamped upon my foul. Nothing can fatisfy me, but the highest degrees of fanchification and inward . ward holinefs. Here, I believe, I am laudably ambitious. My Saviour wills my fanctification, my Saviour would have me filled with all the fulnefs of GOD. Even fo LORD JESUS come quickly! Dear Mr. S----- humbly falutes your Lordfhip, and prays for your temporal and eternal welfare, with, my LORD,

Your Lordship's most obedient,

obliged humble fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CCCLXXVIII.

To Mr. 7- C-, at London.

My dear Brother,

346

Gloucester, Dec. 22, 1741.

AST Thurfday evening the LORD brought me hither. I preached immediately to our friends in a large barn, and had my mafter's prefence. On Friday and Saturday I preached again twice. Both the power, and the congregation increased. On Sunday GOD by a particular providence opened a door for my preaching in St. John's, one of the parish churches. The late incumbent was my grand opposer. He being dead, and the new minister not having taken polfeffion, the power of the pulpit was in the church-wardens hands. God inclined them to let me preach there on Sunday morning, and yesterday afternoon. Great numbers came, and the LORD gave me unspeakable power. On Sunday afternoon, after I had preached twice at Gloucester, I preached at Mr. F---'s at the hill, fix miles off and again at night at Stroud. The people feem to be more hungry than ever, and the LORD to be more amongft them. Yesterday morning I preached at Painfwick in the parish church, here in the afternoon, and again at night in the barn. God gives me unspeakable comfort, and uninterrupted joy. Here feems to be a new awakening, and a revival of the work of God. I find, feveral country people were awakened when I preached at Tewk/bury, and have heard of three or four that have died in the LORD, who were called under GOD by me. We shall never know what good field-preaching has done, till we come to judgment. Many who were prejudiced against me, begin to be of of another mind, and GOD fhews me more and more, " that when a man's ways pleafe the LORD, he will make even his enemies to be at peace with him." To-morrow morning I purpofe to fet out for Abergavenny, and to preach at Briflol, in Wilts, Gloucefler, and Gloucefler/bire, before I fee London. The people in these parts feem excellently well disposed. I hope the work of the LORD prospers in your hand; though absent in body, I am present with you in spirit. May the LORD Jebovab comfort you continually with those comforts wherewith I am comforted in him ! I hope my comforts are of a right nature; they humble at the same time that they exalt me. I find all my happines lies in a crucified GoD.

> To the bleft fountain of thy blood, Incarnate God, I fly; Here let me^{*}wash my spotted soul, From crimes of deepest dye. A guilty, weak, and helples worm, Into sby arms I fall; Be thou my strength and righteousness, My JESUS, and my all.

Pray for

¢

i,

12

ż

1

5

L

:-

£

11

Ŀ

: C

ř

K.

: -

ł,

:: |2

22

Ľ

.

ŗ

5

Your unworthy brother, and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCLXXIX.

To the Right Honourable the Lord L----.

My Lord, THIS day I received a letter from your Lordfhip, which, I find, your Lordfhip wrote before my third and laft came to hand, wherein I gave your Lordfhip an account of the circumffance of my marriage. As foon as I received your Lordfhip's letter, I kneeled down and prayed, that your Lordfhip might be entirely delivered from unbelief, and be made a partaker of that faith, which will make you more than conqueror over all. Bleffed be GoD, for convincing you thus far. I hope the event will prove, that JESUS is taking poffeffion of your whole heart. Your Lordfhip's opinion of thofe who call themfelves chriftians, is very juft. Free grace has opened your eyes. Your Lordfhip can therefore join in the following 348 following verfes, which I think applicable to your Lordfhip's cafe.

L

Long did my foul in JESU's Form, No comeliness or beauty see ; His facred name by others priz'd, Was taflefs still, and dead to me.

II.

Men call'd me christian, and my heart On that delusion fondly staid; Moral, my hope, my Saviour felf, Till mighty grace the cheat display'd.

III.

Thanks to the hand that wak'd my foul, That shew'd me wretched, naked, poor ; That fweetly led me to the rock, Where all falvation stands fecure, IV.

Glad, I forfook my righteous pride, My moral, tarnish'd, sinful dress; Exchang'd my lofs away for CHRIST, And found the robe of righteousness.

If your Lordship from your soul can fing thus, fear not that JESUS will leave you.

> O unbelief, injurious bar, Source of tormenting fruitless fear; Wherein thy loud objections fall, " Tis finished," still shall answer all.

Remember, my Lord, the Redeemer's love is everlafting. If he has pafied by, and faid unto you " Live," you shall live for evermore; for whofoever liveth and believeth in JESUS, shall never die. Does my Lord believe this? Then welcome into the new world, welcome among the defpifed I/rael of Gon, welcome into the Mediator's kingdom, where you shall have all peace and joy in believing. When first I was awakened, > Refreshed, I thought my joys compleat, . When lo ! Immanuel's bounties rife ; Still fresh discoveries be unfolds, The lovely treasures yet furprise !

My Lord, I now wonder no longer at the choice of Moles. Well might he count the reproach of CHRIST of more value. than all the riches of Egypt. GOD forbid, therefore, that you or I should henceforth glory, fave in the cross of CHRIST. It will be more honour to be a fuffering fervant of CHRIST, than to be the king's commissioner. Your Lordship will pardon this freedom. Methinks I hear you fay, " There is no comparison." Indeed there is none. I would not change my post for ten thousand kingdoms. Blessed be God, that has given you a diftant view of the emptinels of all things here below, and the infufficiency of every thing to make us happy besides GoD. May these things be realized, and stamped upon your Lordship's heart ! Then what a happy creature will your. Lordship be ? How will it rejoice me to see your Lordship next Spring. I know not but my friends prayers may draw me there, about that time. In the mean while, I pray God from time to time to grant you a growth of grace, that you may know what it is to abide in GOD, and have a conftant indwelling of the Holy Ghoft. I rejoice to hear that lady Ann feems to look heavenward. May JESUS make her a wife virgin! For her encouragement, I have fent an extract of a letter lately feat to me by a friend in London; and that your Lordship may know how it is with me, I have fent a copy of a letter I wrote to that friend a day or two ago. Laft night I came hither, and preached this afternoon. I purpose shortly to go to Gloucefter, Briftol, Wiltshire, and fo to London. The church there as well as elfewhere flourishes. The time for favouring Zion, I believe, is indeed come. You fee, my Lord, how long my letters are, when I have freedom and leifure. I have thought feveral times to write to your Lordship, but was reftrained till I received your Lordship's letter this morning. Be pleafed to direct your next to be left with Mr. P-S----, Leadenhall-street, London. My prayers shall follow this. O may JESUS breath upon it, and then it must be bleffed to your foul ! I heartily and humbly falute the elect lady your wife. -May you both be filled with all the fulness of Gon! My dear wife and Mr. S---- join heartily with me. We all plead at the throne of grace in your behalf, and GOD alone. knows.

.

-

j.

ŗť.

1

1 ji ji

349 knows, how often you are remembered and wrestled for, by, my Lord,

Your Lordship's most obliged humble servant, G. W. 3 2

:6

LETTER CCCLXXX.

To the Right Honourable Lady Mary H------. Abergavenny, Dec. 24, 1741.

Honoured Madam,

350

THIS morning I received your Ladyfhip's kind letter; when perused, I laid it before the LORD of all Lords, and prayed for you and yours with all my power. My dear wife and Mr. S----- joined heartily with me, and by this send their most humble respects. We do not despair of waiting upon your Ladyship next Spring: but ere that time, we may be all launched into the world of spirits, where we shall fing glory to him that fitteth upon the throne for ever. Does not your Ladyship long for that happy hour ? Methinks I hear you ready to say

I.

How long, great GOD! bow long must I, Immers'd in this dark prison lie? When shall I leave this dusky sphere, And be all mind, all eye, all ear?

II.

I long to fee that excellence, Which at fuch diftance strikes my fense; My foul attempts to difengage Her wings from this her earthly cage.

Ш.

Woulds thou, Great Love, once fet her free, Hast'ning she'd quick unite to thee; She'd for no guardian angels stay, But fly and love thro' all the way.

This, I believe, was the language of your honoured mother's heart, who is now joined with the heavenly choir above. Methinks I hear her fay, "Daughter, follow me as I followed CHRIST; afpire after the higheft degrees of holinefs, for the more holy you are, the nearer fhall you fit to the GoD-Man CHRIST CHRIST JESUS, the deeper infight fhall you have into the beatific vision." This, honoured Madam, is a great motive to my foul to copy after my glorious JESUS. Bleffed be GOD, that made my letter favory to your foul. For this, and all other mercies, I defire to lie in the duft, and kifs the Redeemer's feet. I do not wonder that Mary loved to fit there: L do not wonder that another Mary wiped them with the hairs of her head. Was my LORD here, I should wish for a thoufand alabaster boxes of ointment, to break for him. But JESUS fays, "Give me thy heart, and I defire no more." My foul replics, > Take my poor heart, and let it be For ever clos'd to all but thee; Seal thou my breast, and let me wear That pledge of love for ever there.

How bleft are they who still abide, Close shelter'd in thy bleeding side; Who life and strength from thence derive, And by thes move, and in thee live.

O honoured Madam, I am amazed at JESUS'S love. I willingly, join with you in faying, "Amen, Halleluiah! Worthy, indeed, is the Lamb that was flain." I blefs GOD for enlarging your heart, and giving you freedom to write. It is fweet to communicate our thoughts of JESUS. I hope the LORD will blefs this to your Ladyfhip, and reward you for all paft favours. My humble refpects attend Mr. H—, and my hearty love to your little lambs. I prayed for them this morning. When I go to town, I hope to wait upon the Marquis.—I have been a fhort circuit into Glouceflerfbire, and find the divine prefence accompanying me more and more. O that I was humble ! O that I was thankful !

Digitized by Google

And can it be that I foould gain An intereft in the Saviour's blood? Died he for fuch as caus'd his pain, Sinners who him to death purfu'd?

П;-

I.

'Tis mystery all, Messiah dies; Who can explore this strange design? In vain the curious seraph tries To sound the depths of love divine.

But whither am I going ? Your Ladyship will excuse me; whilf I am writing, the fire kindles.

> Thro' all eternity to GOD, A grateful fong I'll raife; But O eternity's to fhort, To utter all his praife.

With expectation of another letter, and with hearty prayers for your temporal and fpiritual welfare, I fubscribe myself, honoured Madam,

Your Ladyship's obedient servant,

G. W.

LETTER CCCLXXXI.

To Mr. Samuel M____, in London.

Dear Mr. M----, Briftol, Dec. 28, 1741. OTH my wife and I received your letters. I fend this, B to thank you for them. I came from Abergavenny on Saturday night. My dear wife was pretty well; I expect her here on Friday. We shall bring no more goods to London." than we shall use; but I know not what to fay about coming to your house, for brother S---- tells me, you and your family are dilatory, and that you do not rife fometimes till nine or ten in the morning. This, dear Mr. M-, will never do for me; and I am perfuaded fuch a conduct tends much to the difhonour of GoD, and to the prejudice of your own precious foul. Sometimes I have looked upon you with grief; you have busied yourself about the outward affairs of religion in respect to others, and all the while I fear neglected to look into, and study the improvement of your own heart. I think you go backwards instead of forwards. I fear your present business will not answer, and I am fure you will have no folid comfort, till you look lefs abroad and more at home. Somebody faid, you was like the Athenians, who defired to hear hear fome new-thing. I thought the observation was too just. You are jealous about principles, (which is right) but all the while your own practice is not fufficiently watched over. I have heard that you fpend much time in coffee-houses, and from your own house. I hope these things are not so; and it is with grief and out of tender love that I now mention them to you. For fome time I felt my heart quite locked up from writing to you. Mr. M--- will not be offended with me for this plain dealing. You know I love you, and I am fure this letter proceeds from love. I know too much of my own weakness and infirmities to infult others; and when a brother is overtaken in a fault, I defire to reftore him in the spirit of meekness. But I know how much the glory of God is concerned in our walk. The eyes of the world are now in an effectial manner upon you. How holy ought you and I, dear Mr. M---, to be, in all manner of conversation and godlinefs ! Labour therefore, my dear brother, to get an abiding prefence of GoD in your heart. Be willing to be fearched. Pray that you may feel the full power of the Redeemer's blood ; and walk in the continued comforts of the holy ghost. Be not flothful in busines. Go to bed feasonably, and rife early. Redeem your precious time : pick up the fragments of it, that not one moment may be loft. Be much in fecret prayer. Converse less with man, and more with Gon. Accept this advice, given in great love. I purpose staying here about a fortnight. Dear Mr. M., I am

LETTËRS.

Your affectionate though unworthy brother,

and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

353

LETTER CCCLXXXII.

To the Rev. Mr. W--, at Dundee.

Reverend and dear Sir, Briftol, Dec. 30, 1741. I Should blame myfelf much, for not writing to you before now, was I confcious it was owing to any wilful neglect i but my mafter's bufinefs hath fo engaged me, that I really have not had an opportunity. Gon gave us a fweet journey to England. Since my return hither, I have been at Gloucefler; Briftol, in Wales, and at London, and have great reafon to Vol. I. A 2 blefs

8

87

1 ć

....

6.

1

:-

C.

1

t.

C

Ż

354

blefs our Emmanuel for what he has done for his church. My foul hath drank largely of the divine love. I have been carried as on eagles wings, and am now better in health than perhaps ever fince I have been in the ministry. I preach here twice daily. In about a fortnight, I shall remove to London, where I purpose to continue, GoD willing, till the weather permits of field-preaching again. About Spring, if Providence favours, I hope to pay you a fecond visit. In the mean while, I should be glad to hear from you, what fruits you have feen fpring from my first. I hope the LORD will make your latter end greatly to increase. I shall rejoice to hear of your success. My foul is much engaged for poor Scotland. I shall be glad to hear who has fucceeded the good Mr. W---- of Perth. Ah dear man! He is now gone into the world of fpirits, where there is no feceding, but all join in one common strife, who shall praise their LORD and master in the most exalted strains. I long to follow, but defire patiently to wait till my bleffed change come. What a comfort, dear Sir, is it to think, that death is conquered. How fweet to be one of CHRIST's waiting fervants! It is a bleffed poft! And fuch honour belongs to all his faints. Thanks be to GOD for this unfpeakable gift. Dear Sir, whilst I am writing, the fire kindles. I long to leap my feventy years. Welcome eternity; I want to fee time swallowed up. But I must have done, having other letters to write. My kind love to your household and all friends. I hope ere long you will fend a line to, reverend and dear Sir.

Your most affectionate, though unworthy

brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCLXXXIII.

To the Reverend Mr. O_____, at Aberdeen.

Reverend and dear Sir, Briftel, Dec. 30, 1741. I Long to write you a line, to teftify the undiffembled love my foul bears towards you. I also long to hear what JESUS hath done at Aberdeen. I believe he fent me thither, and I am perfuaded he did not fend me there in vain. I have experienced fresh wonders of mercy, fince I faw you. The LORD 3

20

÷

n

Ő Į

21

4

ť.

Ľ

Ľ.

ż

.

15

i:

2

T

its cili

į,

oti Ioci

. L

5 rti CEL

].

20

÷

للملتقيا مدن مدن

ł

LORD has bleffed my ministry in England, and in Wales, where I trust I was married in the LORD; and as I married for him, I truft I shall thereby not be hindered, but rather forwarded in my work. O for that bleffed time when we shall neither marry nor be given in marriage, but be as the angels of GOD ! My foul longs for that glorious feason. Perhaps, fometimes I am too impatient. But who that has tafted of JESUS'S love, can forbear longing to be with him? I long to fee him as he is, and my foul will never be compleatly fatisfied till 1 arife after his divine likenes. This, I believe, is the defire, and frequently the frame of dear Mr. O---'s foul. But 1 believe we both have croffes to take up, and many trials to undergo, before we shall be admitted to the beatific vision. Alas ! What a stranger am I to the meekness which was in JESUS ? How much acrimony is there in my temper, that wants to be taken away? Bleffed be God, my Saviour is omnipotent. He can, he will deliver me. He can, he will conform me to himfelf. I think I can fing thefe lines,-

> My root of bolinefs thou art, For faith hath made thee mine: With all thy fulnefs fill my heart, Till all I have be thine.

Dear Sir, what a fulnefs is there in JESUS? What a pity is it, that we fhould not draw largely out of it? Why fhould we be content with low degrees of holinefs? Why fhould we be always dwarfs in religion? I am quite afhamed of my low ftature. I am an unprofitable fervant. O dear Mr. O----, pray for me, that the LORD may purge me, and that I may bring forth more fruit. I have lately been at London, Gloucefter, Wilts, and Wales. The work of the LORD profpers. I preach here twice every day. That GOD may blefs and reward you all, is the earneft prayer of, dear Mr. O----,

Yours most affectionately in CHRIST, G. W,

Digitized by Google

A a 2

LETTER

LETTER CCCLXXXIV.

To the Rev. Mr. W---, at Gallishiels. Bristal, December 30, 1742.

Reverend and dear Sir,

THE love of JESUS confirains me to trouble you with a letter at this time. Nothing but his work fhould have, prevented my writing to you fooner. But you know how it used to be with me. O how little do I for JESUS, who has done fo much for me! I abhor myself in duft and ashes. I run to hide myself in his wounds. His righteowsness, his blood a-Jone can recommend me to the Father. O that I was like CHRIST, that his whole mind was wrought in my foul ! I am now panting after his image; I am now thirfting after his purity and holines; help me, dear Sir, help me by your prayers, that I may feel the power of the Redeemer's blood. He hath done great things already for me; but as yet I have afked nothing. Greater things are yet before me. There is an inexhaustible fulness, out of which the Redeemer would have me draw continually. O for faith, for ftrong faith !

> I more would blefs, I more would thank, I more would live to Jefu's praise.

Since my return, I have been visiting the churches. They grow and increase daily. I preach twice every day. The LORD is among us. I hope I shall hear the fame from you. In about fourteen days I go to London. About Spring I hope to fee Scotland once more. I have good news from the Orphan-houfe. As yet, I have not freedom to write out the fermon which you mention. Through inadvertence, I did not fend you Mr. M---'s letter. God's time is best. Perhaps difputes about church-government had better fublide. I am determined to know nothing but JESUS CHRIST, and him crucified. Be pleafed to remember me to dear Mr. O-, at Kelfo. I hope he behaves like a good foldier of JESUS CHRIST. My kind respects attend your fon. Be pleased to accept of the fame in a most tender manner from dear Mr. S----, and from, dear Sir,

Yours most affectionately in CHRIST, G. IV. L E T T E R

LETTER CCCLXXXV.

To Mr. R _____ S ____, in London. Briflol, Jan. 2, 1742.

My dear Brother S_____ Find freedom to answer your kind letter immediately. Ι thank GoD for bleffing my writing to your poor foul. Your falvation I long, and pray for. So that fouls are built up in their holy faith, let the Redeemer make use of what inftrument he pleases. Brother Robert, it is a bleffed thing to have always a Catholic spirit. I am persuaded, JESUS will give it to me. I am refolved never to reft, 'till felf-love, bigotry, prejudice, and all narrowness of spirit be expelled out of my foul. Bleffed be the Redeemer's free grace ! I fee more and more into the inward receffes of my mind. Dear Robert, there is fuch a thing as passing from glory to glory. For JESUS CHRIST's fake, strive to enter in at the straight gate, and never ceafe striving 'till you enter into that rest which awaits the people of GoD. It is a fweet thing to abide in JESUS'S wounds, and from a feeling poffession of GOD in the heart, to be able to fay, " My fellowship is with the Father and the Son." It is true we are not to live, or rely on our frames. The righteousness of JESUS CHRIST alone, and not our doings or fufferings, can recommend us to the Father. But however, we ought always to labour to be in a fweet and humble frame, and be watchful against any thing whatever, that may interrupt our communion with GOD. Peace and joy should flow in a believer's foul, like a river. If any thing fhould obstruct the paffage, he fhould not reft 'till faith overflows, and drives it away before him. I know not what others may fay, but thro' grace I can fing with bishop Ken,

Go my foul it's hell to be,But for a moment void of thee."

O the fulnefs that there is in CHRIST! It fills my heart, and out of the abundance of my heart my pen writeth. Dear Robert, may the LORD blefs it to your foul, and that will greatly rejoice

> Your most unworthy, though most affectionate friend, brother and fervant in CHRIST,

> > Digitized by Google

Aa 3

357

G. W. LETTER

7

LETTER CCCLXXXVI.

:

21 (C)

т Э

i.

ŋ

į.

To Mr. I H-, in London.

Briftol, Jan. 2, 1742. My dear Brother H-----, I Owe you a letter, and very much love. I thank you for calling to fee me, when last in London. May the love of JESUS be fhed abroad abundantly in your heart by the Holy Ghoft. My foul is now thirfting after the Redeemer's love. I truft you and I, and all the brethren, fhall watch and pray against every thing in our hearts, that is any way felfish, or contrary to the boundlefs love of our exalted head. I long after a folid, real, undiffembled union with all that bear the Redeemer's image. If I know any thing of my heart, I care not how the old man be crucified and cut to pieces, fo that I may put on the new man, which is created after GOD in righteoufnefs and true holinefs. Bleffed be the free, rich, and fovereign grace of our glorious Redeemer! who has begun the good work in my foul. Great, very great things hath JESUS done for me, a worthlefs worm : but I fee infinitely greater things lying before me. There is an inexhauftible fulnefs in JESUS CHRIST, out of which I hope to draw to the endless ages of eternity. O the meeknefs, the love, purity and holinefs, that is in JESUS. Why fhould we be dwarfs in holinefs? If CHRIST came into the world, that we might have life, and fo much the more abundantly, why fhould we not afk and feck for it, especially fince we are fure to obtain ? My dear brother, you see how free I write. Love constrains me to do so. 0 that I was a flame of fire ! I have lately been at Gloucefler. The LORD was with us of a truth. In Briftol, GOD attends me with his mighty power. Last night JESUS rode on triumphantly indeed. Sometimes my heart is fo full, that I am tempted to think

> My joy complete : When lo ! Emmanuel's mercies rife, Still fresh discoveries he unfolds, The lovely treasures yet surprize.

Unbelief fays, this will not hold to-morrow; when lo, "tomorrow is as the day paft, and much more abundant." I find find there is yet oil, if there be yet a vefiel, and an empty heart to contain it. Pray that my heart may be emptied of felf, and that JESUS may be my all in all. I pray GOD, that none of us may give in to narrownefs of fpirit, but look up to JESUS for power over felf, in all its fhapes. Yefterday I went to hear Mr. C----. The LORD helped him, I believe, in fome part of his difcourfe. I would be free; I would meet more than half way; but we are all too fhy. The LORD fill his foul with more of the difinterefted love of JESUS. To-night I begin a general monthly meeting to read correfponding letters. Pray give thanks for the fuccefs of the gofpel in my unworthy hands. It fhall be returned, as JESUS fhall enable Yours most affectionately in CHRIST, G. IV.

LETTER CCCLXXXVII.

To Mrs. K-, in London.

My dear Sister, T HIS morning, in a letter from brother C—, I heard that your dear husband was dangerous ill of the fmallpox. I was touched with a tender sympathy of your case; I immediately kneeled down, and laid your circumstances before our compassionate high-priest. I doubt not, but he is touched with a feeling of your afflictions, and will give you grace to help in time of need. I hope the language of your heart is this:

Thy gifts, if call'd for, I refign, Pleas'd to receive, pleas'd to reftore; Gifts are thy work, it shall be mine The giver only to adore.

I was, before I received the news of your dear hufband's illnefs, thinking that GoD's people muft meet with uncommon trials. We fhall often find GoD's providences as it were contradicting his promifes. Thus it was with Abraham and Jacob, and thus I believe it is in fome degree or other with all the children of GoD; for otherwife, how can faith be exercifed ? I doubt not but the enemy of fouls will now be very bufy with you, and break in with his fiery darts upon A a 4 your 360 your foul; but I pray JESUS to keep you from ftaggering through unbelief. May you be ftrong in faith, giving glory to Gop! Againft hope, may you believe in hope. However your hufband may be difpofed of, my prayer for you is, "LORD! make her ftill and refigned." I think the love of CHRIST conftrains me to write you this letter. Who knows but the LORD may blefs it to your foul? However, as you love the LORD JESUS, I hope you will receive it as a token of unfeigned chriftian fympathy and affection from, dear Sifter,

Your most unworthy brother and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCCLXXXVIII,

To Mr. Peter S-, in London.

Briftol, Jan. 7, 1742.

T Have been obeying your request : I mean, bowing my knees before the GOD and Father of our LORD, JESUS CHRIST in your behalf. O that he may live before thee; that he may escape the pollutions that are in the world through luft : that he may be filled with all the fulnels of GOD, was the breathing and language of my heart. I truft the LORD is now working upon brother S----. He feems to have had fome discoveries of the Redeemer's love. May my dear Peter receive the full affurance of faith, and be truly fixed upon the rock of ages ! " Even fo LORD JESUS come quickly. Amen and amen." Excuse my writing to you in this manner, but GOD has put into my heart fuch an undiffembled love for you, and your dear brothers, that I cannot be fatisfied 'till I fee the Redeemer's love fhed abroad in all your hearts by the Holy Ghoft. Ah Peter, Peter, I truft JESUS prays for thee, and then the world shall not steal away thy heart from Gop. Satan hath been fifting me feverely, these two or three days. I have had fome close combats with the great dragon, but IESUS hath gotten himfelf the victory, I am enabled greatly to rejoice. For, " Bleffed is the man that endureth temptations; when he his tried, he shall receive the crown of life." The brightness of it, even at this distance, dazzles my fight. Yet a little while, and JESUS CHRIST shall give it unto us. Dear brother brother K—— has got the flart of us. Happy man! He is at the end of his race. I fympathize with, and have been praying for his furviving friends. The LORD enable us all to walk fo circumspectly, that the common enemy may not have an occasion to speak reproachfully of us. But whither am I running? Excuse me, dear Peter. GOD gives me freedom in writing to, and praying for you. I hope dear brother R— received my last in good part. GOD only knows how the happines of both of you is longed for by, dear brother,

Yours in the crucified JESUS,

LETTER CCCLXXXIX. To Mr. J C , in London. Gloucester, Jan. 28, 1742.

My very dear Brother,

ť,

i:

j.

13 12

ie i ori.

ĮĮ.

:

:;;

15 -

Ċ.

ŗ

2

.

1

Υ.

e.

ıŀ,

Ľ.

1.2

مر بر مر مر بر بر

3

2

2

្ពរ

N Friday last 1 left Briflol, having first settled affairs al-most as I could wish. At King fwood, I administred the facrament. On Wednesday night it was the LORD's paffover; on Thursday we had a sweet love-feast; on Friday the LORD was with me twice at Tockington; on Saturday morning I broke up fome failow ground at Newport, by preaching with power to about two thousand people, and in the evening to many thousands at Stroud with wonderous power; on Monday morning at Painfwick, and ever fince twice a day here. Our congregations I think are larger than at Briflol. The word proves tharper than a two-edged fword. Every fermon is bleffed. These words follow, " I have much people in this city." I am just now going to Chafford. To-morrow I expect my wife. In my next, I will fend you word what I intend to do. I was one day at Bath. I should be glad to see brother R---'s defence before it be published. I told him of it; I believe he will be upon his guard. His foul profpers. Sinless perfection I fear will be propagated in these parts. The LORD in his due time will root out that pernicious weed. I thank you for writing to me. Pray write to me often. Gop willing, I fhall examine Hampton Society to-night. The fame I think to do in Wiltshire. I want to be in London as foon as may be, Pray that I may know the LORD's will. We muft away ,)

361

G. IV.

LETTERS.

away to Chafford. The LORD be with you, and abundantly refresh you. My most tender love awaits all. Brethren, pray for Yours most affectionately in JESUS, G. W.

Glouce fter, Feb. 2, 1742.

of

L E T T E R CCCXC. To the Rev. Mr. G _____.

Reverend and dear Brother,

16z

Have longed for fome time to fend you a line, and have wondered that I have heard no oftener from you; but as I know my own circumstances, I can the more easily guess how it is with you. GOD has been very good to me fince my arrival. I found when I came at first, I had all my work to begin again. Brother W---- had fo prejudiced the people against me, that those who were my spiritual children would not fo much as come and fee me; nay they have gone by me whilft preaching in Moor-fields, and ftopped their ears. This I find in some measure hath been your case, and God wifely permits this, to teach us to cease from man. Paul's Epiftles to the Galatians much comforted me. Befides, I was embarraffed with brother Seward's death. He died without making any provision for me, and I was at the fame time much indebted for the Orphan-houfe.-But all this was to humble and prepare me for future bleffings. The LORD hath enabled me, bleffed be his name, to keep fleady to my principles and usual practice. A new and numerous chutch has been raifed at London. In Effex, the LORD was wonderfully with mc. Every where the congregations increase. In Briflol God enabled me to fight my way through. We have hired a large hall, and have expounded there twice a day. In Scotland, the work, for its beginning, is rather greater than at New-England. I hear continually of the feed fown increasing, and fpringing up. God willing, I purpose paying Scotland another visit. I have lately been at Briftol, and both there, and here, and alfo at London, the word runs and is glorified. Through the tender mercies of our God, I have been carried as on eagles wings through a variety of outward and inward trials. The greatness of which none knows but GoD and my own foul. About eleven weeks ago I married, in the fear of GOD, one who was a widow, of about thirty-fix years of age, and has been a housekeeper for many years; neither rich in fortune, nor beautiful as to her perfon, but, I believe, a true child of GOD, and would not, I think, attempt to hinder me in his work for the world. In that respect, I am just the same as before marriage. I hope GOD will never fuffer me to fay, "I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come." I am glad that matters are fettling fo amicably at Philadelphia. What a pity is it, that we should fall out in the way to heaven ! I would do any thing except defiling my confcience, and giving up what I think is truth, to prevent it. The affociate brethren are much to be blamed; I never met with fuch narrow fpirits. I do not forget you, or your brethren, or the churches in your parts. The LORD be with you. He is pleafed to shew me more and more of my own heart, and day by day refreshes my foul. My body is weak as usual; but JESUS is my ftrength. Help me to praife him. Pray fend a line to, reverend and dear Sir,

- Digitized by Google

5

LETTERS.

Your most affectionate, though most unworthy brother and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

262

LETTER CCCXCI.

To Mr. S, at New-Brunfwick.

Dear Mr. S----,

č,

÷.

. .

-

ź

1

.

1

ĥ

.

Ż

Gloucester, Feb. 2, 1742.

L AST week I received your kind letter. Bleffed be GoD, who hath brought you out of darknefs into his marvellous light. I hope the Redeemer hath now fhewn you his hands and his feet, and you can now fay, "My LORD and my GoD." What have you to do now but to walk humbly with your GoD, and daily to afpire after the whole mind that was in JESUS? I find but few truly labouring after this. Who can fay, "My foul is athirft for GoD, yea even for the living GoD:" and yet to fuch only is the promifed bleffednefs, of being filled, given. As for my own part, I am afhamed to think how unlike I am to my Saviour; I fee fuch beauty in him, that I long to be conformed to his divine image and likenefs. May you and I, dear Mr. S----, never reft reft till we have attained unto it; and the more we do attain, the more willing we fhall be to come, as poor finners, to JESUS CHRIST; it is a bleffed thing, dear Sir, to be brought out of felf. It will be continually creeping in: happy they who have power over it. I do not wonder at your being united with Mr. \mathcal{J} ---- C ----- : he is a dear foul, and one whom the LORD delights to honour. Bleffed be GOD, the work in our hands every where increafes. I am fupported and encouraged, quickened and comforted day by day. JESUS loves and bleffes me. May he blefs you and yours more and more, and caufe you to walk in the comforts of the Holy Ghoft. My tender love to all. I hope yet to fee you once more in the flefh. In the mean while I beg leave to fubfcribe myfelf, dear Sir,

> Your most affectionate friend, brother, and fervant in CHRIST,

> > G. W.

ţ

LETTER CCCXCII.

To Mr. W_____

Dear Mr. W-----Gloucester, Feb. 2, 1742. Thank you for your kind letter. It fhould have been an-fwered fooner, had an opportunity offered. I blefs GOD for you, who carries on in your foul the fpiritual building. I doubt not but the top-ftone will yet be brought out, and the builders be made with fhouting to cry, "Grace ! Grace !" I fhould think it was not of GoD, if the work was not opposed.-What difficulties did Nehemiah go through in building the wall? But fear not, the LORD is with you. He built not for man, but for the LORD. By his leave, I propole bringing a school-master and mistress with me. When I shall embark, I know not. The calls here are fo loud and numerous, and fo few labourers fent forth to act in a popular way, that I think it my duty not to leave England yet. GoD is pleafed to work by my ministry more and more. My foul is refreshed, and my body ftrengthened and renewed day by day. In Scotland there is a very great awakening; and also in London, Briflel, Willfbire, and Gloucesterschire. But, notwithstanding all this, my American friends are by no means forgotten. I continually pray for them.

them. The LORD, in his due time, will fend me to you. In the mean time, be pleafed to remember me in the tendereft manner to all that love the glorious Redeemer. Grace, mercy, and peace be multiplied upon them and you: fo prays, dear Mr. W_____,

Your most affectionate friend and servant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCXCIII.

To Mr. James R, in Philadelphia,

Dear Mr. R-----,

2

0

7.3

2

....

....

2

2

5 14

f

ţ

1

5

r

5.

1

;

í r

ŝ

Gloucester, Feb. 2, 1742.

265

I Was glad to hear (though by another hand) of your fafe arrival. May your foul profper, being rooted and grounded in love, and built upon the rock of ages, the dear LORD JESUS. Bleffed be GOD, the church is in much greater peace than when you left England. There hath been a very great awakening in feveral places. God hath brought order out of confusion; and (as he always will) hath caused even our divisions, though no thanks to us, to work for good. hear you have had a fifting time at Philadelphia. I never yet heard of a work of GoD, but fome fuch thing happened. This is my comfort, the government of the church is upon the Redeemer's shoulders; and therefore the gates of hell shall never be able to prevail against it. I hope ere now CHRIST has revealed himself in your heart, and given you the witnefs of the Spirit. For he that believeth, hath the witnefs in himfelf. I fuppose you will be glad to hear, that the LORD hath, in a good degree, delivered me from the embarraffments with which I was environed when you embarked. GOD was then preparing me for further mercies. We must be humbled before we are exalted. I suppose you have heard of my marriage. The LORD hath given me a daughter of Abraham; the joins in fending love to you and all, with, dear Mr. R-----

Your affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CCCXCIV.

Gloucester, Feb. 5, 1742.

Reverend and dear Brother,

Dear Mr. B-----,

1 . .

N Tuefday I received yours. I blefs GOD for delivering brother R _____ out of the hands of his enemies. am perfuaded he will deliver your brother William alfo. By your defertion and temptations, I believe God is preparing you for a fresh work. I believe you would be better, if you would always evangelize. I fhall write to fome friends about Mr. C----'s principles. I thank you for your kind caution. My mistakes often humble me. Never did JESUS fend out a more weak and worthlefs wretch. I have not freedom now to continue writing a journal as usual. I shall proceed, for the future, in a more compendious way. Since I wrote the inclosed, we have seen a glorious appearance of the Son of Man. O infinite condescension ! The LORD is with me. That he may be abundantly with you, and blefs your labours more and more, is the hearty prayer of, Reverend and dear Sir,

Your most affectionate and loving, though most unworthy brother in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCXCV.

To Mr. B----, at Philadelphia.

Gloucester, Feb. 5, 1742.

Was much rejoiced to receive a letter from your hands. Bleffed be GOD for carrying on the work, which, I hope,. was begun in your heart long ago ! I truft you will never reft till you are possefied of the whole mind which was in CHRIST JESUS. He is our pattern; and if we have true grace in our hearts, we shall be continually labouring to copy after our. great exemplar. O the life of JESUS ! How little of it is to be feen in those that call themselves his followers. Humility, meekness, love, peace, joy, goodness, faith, and the other bleffed fruits of the Spirit, whither are they fled ? I fear most take 366

Ľ,

14

÷

.....

s.

ň.

يد.

T

ý

Ż

.

E

ŗ.

5

l

ľ

3

1

3

1 ś

í

;

· 367

take up with the shadow, instead of the substance. GoD forbid that I, or dear Mr. B-----, fhould be of that unhappy number. Dear Sir, there is an unspeakable fulness, unfearchable riches in CHRIST. Out of him we ate to receive grace for grace. Every grace that was in the Redeemer, is to be transcribed and copied into our hearts. This is Christianity; and without this, though we could difpute with the utmost clearness, and talk like angels, of the doctrines of grace, it would profit us nothing. To prevent the growth of this inward life, I am perfuaded fatan introduces herefies in the church, hoping thereby to ftir up ftrife, envy, prejudice, and narrownefs of fpirit; and where thefe are, there will be every evil work. To this end, finlefs perfection hath been propagated in England, and Antinomian principles fuffered to be fpread among you. But, bleffed be Gop, both in England, and with you. I truft disputations and distractions are abated, and love and unity once more are lifting up their heads. This, at present, is the language of my heart :

> Lee u: find out the ancient way, Our wond ring foes to move; And force the heathen world to fay, See how these Christians love.

" Love is of GOD; and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in GOD." I am glad you are erecting a fociety to promote this love. Fear not the fmallness of your beginning. What is begun in the fear of GoD, he will profper. I believe them to be true followers of JESUS CHRIST ; and though we agree not in all things, yet I pray GOD to make us one in heart. Now, dear Mr. B-----, what shall I fay more. The bleffed JESUS has been superabundantly good to my foul fince my I have been carried, though through much weaknefs, arrival. as on eagles wings. In England, Wales, and Scotland, GOD hath bleffed my poor labours more than ever. The calls to divers places, are loud and importunate; and, as GoD has raifed up many labourers among you, I think it my duty to flay here fome time longer, and to vifit Scotland once, more. However, my friends abroad are continually upon my heart. I pray Gon for you night and day. 'May the LORD fill you with all his fulnefs! I defire to be remembered bered to all mentioned in your's, and to all that love the LORD JESUS. I love you unfeignedly, and entreat you to write again to, dear Sir,

Your most affectionate friend and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CCCXCVI.

To the Reverend Mr. C-, at Bath.

Gloucefter, Feb. 5, 1742.

My dear. Friend and Brother,

O fhew you how willing I am to comply with your requeft, and make dear Mr. C---- one of my clofe correspondents, I fit down this evening to write an answer to your kind letter. What has been doing lately, the tranfcript on the other fide will fhew you. Since the writing of that, the bleffed JESUS hath been wondrous kind. Yesterday I preached three times, and vifited a private fociety in the evening. To-day I was enabled to preach three times, with great power. Here is fuch an awakening in this country, as I never heard of, or faw in these parts before : " The fields are white already unto harvest." It is pleasant to hear the people come and tell how GOD wrought upon them by my unworthy ministry two years ago. The fruits of the Spirit are now apparent in their lives and conversations. Letters from Scotland bring bleffed tidings, as also from Philadelphia. O the bleffed effects of field-preaching ! O that I was humble, that I was thankful ! Help me, my dear friend, to entreat the Redeemer to make me as a little, a very little child. The beginning of next week I hope to be at Bath; but cannot tell exactly the day. I thank my friends for their kind. intention to meet me, but I had rather avoid it : the lefs parade the better. Let us fland still, and we shall see the falvation of God. He will not blefs what doth not come from himself. May the LORD make me an Ifraelite indeed, in whom is no allowed guile! I am glad dear Mr. F---- is coming. My hearty love to him. O that our meeting may? be bleffed, and all three of us be made a flame of fire ! Dear Mr. C-----, I love you unfeignedly. I wiftr, above all things, your toul may prosper. Good night. My foul is filledwith with Jzsus's love. I am going to pray for you and yours, being, dear Mr. C-----, without diffimulation, > Yours most affectionately in JESUS CHRIST, G. W.

369

LETTER CCCXCVII.

To the Right Honourable the _____;

Thales, near Reading, Feb. 23, 1742. I would join with angels and archangels in finging "Glory to GoD on high." Welcome, my ----, into the world of new creatures. You are infinitely more happy than those who have lately been preferred, and kiffed his Majefty's hand. JESUS hath holden out his golden scepter, and given you a patent for eternal life. Methinks I hear your ----- now faying, "I account the reproach of CHRIST, of more value than all the riches of Egypt."

> Be gone, vain world, my heart resign, For I can be no longer thine ; A nobler, a diviner guest, Hatb took pofferfion of my breaf.

Well may your ------ fay, " you have been in a dream." When GoD first shewed me that I must be a new creature, I awaked as it were, into a new world. I ftood quite amazed. I was aftonished to think, what a deep fleep the world around me was in. Thought I, O that I was made inftrumental to fome of them ! The LORD heard my prayer. He has fent me to awaken the dear man I am now writing to. Not unto me, O God, not unto me, but to thy free grace and rich mercy be all the glory ! With your Lordship's letter to-day, came feveral others from different parts, all with glad tidings of great joy. O that I was humble and thankful! Why me, LORD, why me? Surely I will join with your ------ in faying, not because I chose Gon, but Gon (O infinitely confcending majefty !) did chuse me. What shall we render to the glorious Emmanuel? Methinks I hear your ----- faying, "Behold, LORD, henceforward I look upon myself as Вь a steward, VOL. I.

8

ņ

Ľ

ţ,

T.

ų.

Ċ

Ċâ. ...

Ŀ

.....

.

-

, i ſ.

a'

-

ġ

تتنا

1 15

, N

مآ

1

Ţ.

j

a fleward, and not as a proprietor of thy manifold gifts; Iwill live no longer to myfelf, but to him that died for me." Amen, LORD JESUS, amen and amen! Be pleafed to excufe the defects of this, being written upon the road. I am now going to London. There has been a great awakening lately in Glouceflerfbire. I rejoice to hear that the lady — is fo well difpofed. May a church be always in your — houfe; and every one of your — family be made a living member of the houfhold of faith! No greater thing can be defired in your behalf by, my —,

> Your — most obedient humble fervant, G. W.

LETTER CCCXCVIII.

Thales, (near Reading) Feb. 23, 1742.

Honoured Madam,

270

Am now upon the road to London. This morning your acceptable letter came to hand. Though fomewhat wearied, I would fain answer it before I retire to reft. Bleffed be GOD who caufes your Ladyship to be never less alone, than when alone. O Madam, what a comforter is the Holy Ghoft? What fweet company is JESUS CHRIST? What a privilege is it to have fellowship with the great Three-One? A world lying in wickedness knows nothing of it. Every thing vields comfort when the bleffed Spirit breathes upon it. Even this fcribble, from the chief of finners, from one who is lefs than the leaft of all faints, fhall again refresh your soul, if JESUS speaks the word. Amazed am I, that GOD should work by my hands. But JESUS is love. He yet delights to honour me. I have lately feen the Redcemer riding in his strength, and getting himself the victory in poor finners hearts. Letters from abroad inform me of the fame. O that our glorious JESU'S may fet the world in a flame of love! Haften that time, O bleffed JESUS : O let thy kingdom come! I have heard from my dear Orphans to-day. They have been reduced to straits; but the LORD hath stirred up a wealthy friend or two to affift them. The everlafting GOD reward all their benefactors ! I find there has been a fresh awakening . among Ś attong them. I am informed, that twelve negroes, belonging to a planter lately converted at the Orphan-house, are favingly brought home to JESUS CHRIST. This will rejoice your Ladyship's heart. I am glad to hear that the work goes on in Scotland. The LORD, I trust, will ripen your foul apace for glory. He hath various ways of perfecting his faints. Methinks I fee your Ladyship fitting in your chair, and ravished with the Redeemer's beauty day by day. Sometimes you are as it were washing his feet with your tears; at other times fitting by faith at his feet, and hearing or reading his word. Sometimes your heart is too big to speak; then again, out of the abundance of your heart, your mouth poureth forth hallelujahs. Sometimes you are lost in wonder; at all times longing to be diffolved and to be with CHRIST; for, when you hear him fay, "Rife up, my love, and come away,"

LETTIE R.S.

1

d.

5

3

52

j

11 21

ļŗ

.

(ť

C

6 e, i

1 ñ.

Ś

Ľ,

Your heart would fain outfly the wind, And leave all earthly loves behind.

This, I truft, is the life your Ladyship lives. This is life indeed. They who live otherwife, are dead whilst they live. They call for our compassion and prayers; for who hath made the difference? Diffinguishing grace ! O the unfearchable riches of CHRIST? I could speak of him for ever; but it grows late : nature calls for reft.

> O when shall I in endless day, For ever chase dark sleep away; And hymns with the celessial quire Incessant sing, and never tire?

Come, LORD JESUS, come quickly! The LORD be with your fpirit, and abundantly blefs both you, Mr. H------, and your child. Indeed I do not forget your Ladyfhip; your laft fhould not have remained fo long unanfwered, but it came only to-day into the hands of, honoured Madam,

Your Ladyship's most obedient humble servant,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

Bb 2

LETTER

871

LETTER CCCXCXIX.

To Mr. Thomas N-, at New-York.

London, Feb. 26, 1742.

My very dear Brother,

872.

T Have herewith fent you a parcel. Be pleafed to read the L letters, and fend them as directed. I received your kind Tetter, dated in December, and thank you for all kindneffes fhewn to the poor orphans. The LORD JESUS will richly reward you. Before yours came, the LORD had given me an enlarged heart, and unfeigned love and freedom to converse with all his dear children, of whatever denomination. I talk freely with the Meffrs. W----'s, though we widely differ in a certain point. Most talk of a catholic spirit; but it is only till they have brought people into the pale of their own church. This is downright sectarianism, not catholicism. How can I act confiftently, unless I receive and love all the children of GOD, whom I efteem to be fuch, of whatever denomination they may be? Why fhould we dispute when there is no probability of convincing? I think this is not giving up the faith, but fulfilling our LORD's new command, "Love one another :" and our love is but feigned, unless it produces proper effects. I am perfuaded, the more the love of Gop is fhed abroad in our hearts, the more all narrowness of spirit will fubfide and give way : befides, fo far as we are narrow fpirited, we are unealy. Prejudices, jealoufies, and fuspicions make the foul miferable, fo far as they are entertained. But enough of this: my dear brother N---- is of my mind. Only let me give you one caution: Take heed that your getting acquainted with any new fet of Christians, does not -lead you infenfibly to defpife others of your old acquaintance. Watch, and deal very tenderly with all; otherwife you will grow referved and artful, and lose a fimple, open, guileles, Israelitish spirit, before you are aware. There needs a close adherence to the motions of the Holy Spirit, and a conftant watching over the corruptions of our own hearts, in order that we may walk before GOD as very little children. O that I was a little child indeed ! JESUS can make me one. My dear brother, I thank you for your kind invitation. God willing,

ĩ

LETTERS.

willing, I shall accept it, if ever I see New-York. But I think Providence calls me once more to Scotland. I have been lately plowing up fome fallow ground, and now preach twice every day. The LORD does indeed blefs the word, and gives me to rejoice in the felicity of his chosen. Be fo kind now and then to drop a line to my dear orphan-family. As opportunity offers, and the LORD gives freedom, you shall hear from, dear brother N-----, > Yours most affectionately in JESUS CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCC.

- ----, at Edipburgh. To Mils ----

Dear Mis,

١ζ

) 7

īα,

Ľr. Ð

02 22.

4

; 1

C.

r'i

ct:

ġ.

11

X 🗇

ny.

Ţ Q.

ģ 1

3

ميم معطاء

F

قة إ

; C

. الحد إ

ġ

, 5

÷4.

16

s, 5

1.

¢.

3

London, Feb. 27, 1742.

373

T Did not receive your letter till this night. Whilft I was L reading it, my heart grew warm with thankfulness to that GOD, who, I truft, by his almighty Spirit hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light. In his light you now see. light. Do you not, dear Miss W-----, find what I faid to be true, " That JESUS CHRIST is the fairest among ten thoufands." Is he not altogether lovely? Henceforth you may well fay,

I bid this world of noise and shew, With all its flattering snares, adicu.

The greater advances you make in the divine life, the more you will fee what a dream you and the polite world have been in. And Q the diffinguishing grace of GOD to you! Methinks I hear you calling on angels and archangels to join in praifing our common LORD. Well may you fay, "You are not henceforth your own :" No, dear Miss, let JESUS have your whole heart. Let his blood, his wounds be continually before you. GoD forbid that you should now glory, fave in the cross of CHRIST, by whom the world is crucified to you, and you unto the world. Pity the poor chriftless creatures about you. Pray for them, as the Holy Spirit gives you freedom. Tell them of the love of JESUS. They need no other motive. This, backed with almighty power, must break she most hardened heart. With much pleasure I reflect on the

374

1

· ...

the bleffed confolations I have been favoured with, whilft explaining the fcriptures to you and your honoured relations. O that not one may remain unconverted ! May JESUS look on them; then will they look on him and be faved. Bleffed be GOD for fending me to Scotland, if it was only to bring you home. Ere long I hope to vifit your country again; and then, O that I may fee you all meek, humble, heavenlyminded, clofe followers of the bleeding Lamb ! Thanks be to GOD, he hath directed me to a wife, who was once gay, but now with you can fing, Come, Saviour JESUS, from above, Affift me with thy beavenly grace; Withdraw my heart from worldly love, And for thyfelf prepare the place.

II.

O let thy facred prefence fill, And fet my longing fpirit free; Which pants to have no other love, But night and day to feast on Thee.

That path with humble speed I'll seek, Wherein my Saviour's sootsleps shine; Nor will I bear, nor will I speak Of any other love but thine.

IV.

To Thee my ling'ring foul afpires; To Thee I offer all my vows; Keep me from vain and falfe defires, My God, my Saviour, and my fpoufe.

Wealth, honour, or whatever elfe This transitory world can give, Tempt as you will, my heart repels, To CHRIST alone refolved to live. VI.

Thee I can love, and thee alone, With inward joy and holy blifs; To find thou tak ft me for thy own, O what a happinefs is this!

Dear

I.

Dear Mifs, whilft I am writing, the love of JESUS fills my foul. I have been talking to night of his love to poor finners. O that his fpirit may break afrefh upon your foul when you are reading this! I muft now commend you to the Redeemer's care. In the world you fhall have tribulation; be not afraid, JESUS hath overcome the world. — I have many letters before me unread; but I could not help writing this long one to you. Accept it as a token of unfeigned regard for the good of your precious foul, and depend on the prayers of, dear Mifs W——,

Your most affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

375

LETTER CCCCI.

To the Reverend Mr. C-----. London, March 4, 1742.

My dear Friend and Brother,

T Remember my promife. You are to be one of my close correspondents. I am unworthy to write to any; but love, the love of JESUS will conftrain me frequently to write to you. I hope you are not offended, because you did not see me in Bath again. The glorious Emmanuel pointed out my way hither. Since I came (O amazing goodness!) he has been wonderfully kind to me, and to his people. I am much affisted daily, in preaching to poor finners the unfearchable riches of CHRIST. Life and power fly all around, and the Redeemer is getting himfelf the victory daily in many hearts. Letters from abroad give me glorious accounts. In New-England, the work goes on amazingly. In Scotland, the awakening is greater and greater. The fpirit of GOD has been Ariving among the little orphans in Georgia, and in Carolina I hear that twelve negroes belonging to a planter, converted at the Orphan-houfe, are favingly brought home to JESUS CHRIST. Indeed the LORD is about to do great things. " Bleffed are the eyes that fee the things which we fee; bleffed are the ears that hear the things that we hear;" bleffed are those that the LORD employs as his own children, to bring about his great defigns. O that my dear Mr. C---may be made a flaming fire, and a spiritual father to thou-Bb4 fands I fands ! Dear Mr. 7-----, who was fo kind as to come and fee me last night, I trust is coming on. I hope both you and him will experience a folid establishment in the grace of our LORD JESUS CHRIST. There is no reft here, no true folid lafting reft, till we come to this. Our hearts are deceitful above all things. We feek reft in outward things. We change our places, circumstances, and stations ;- but if Jesus loves us, he will put a thorn in the place where we would fain neftle. A foul that has had fome awakenings, and been wandring from CHRIST, is like Noah's dove which could find no reft for the fole of its foot, till it came back to the ark again. This ark is CHRIST, and when we are fafely locked in there, and the foul hath received an abiding witnefs, then out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. This is the reafon why JESUS bid his disciples to wait for the promife of the Father. Filled with this, the woman of Samaria could not but call on others to come and fee. And were we but animated. led and influenced by this spirit, what a blessed union would there be among all the churches of JESUS CHRIST ? It is a want of more of this, that now at prefent difunites us. I despair therefore of a greater union, till a greater measure of the spirit be poured from on high. Hence, therefore, I am refolved fimply to preach the gospel of CHRIST, and leave others to quarrel by and with themselves, To contend, where there is no probability of convincing, only feeds and adds fuel to an unhallow'd fire, which a mifguided zeal kindles in the heart. Love, forbearance, long-fuffering, and frequent prayer to your dear LORD JESUS, is the best way to extinguish and put it out. O love, true, fimple, christian, undissembled love, whither art thou fled ! The language of my heart is, -But whither am I going? You fee, my friend, how freely I write. The bleffed IESUS warms and fills me, whilft I am writing. I know, though I am unworthy, you will fend me a line in return. Methinks I could wash your feet. Methinks, I long to fee your fhackles drop off, and your foul free for the uninterrupted fervice of the best of masters. Faith in his bloody wounds is the only means. LORD, evermore give my dear friend and his wife living faith, which may purify their hearts, enable them to overcome the world, and will work

376

LETTERS.

377 work by love ! The LORD make you both as little children before him ! This is the prayer of, dear Mr. C-----, (m oth

1.1 10 78

in è ink, ba i

e R:

[5, Z

h cz

herr

in :

29.01

5 8 *

c.:

01

ut Z uùx'

st .

n a

101

ICI,

T, 17

636

130

p. :

qić

n K

)II

ъ.

j i 1

15

°]> , r

16 ļĭ

Yours affectionately in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCCII.

To Mr. A -----London, March 4, 1742. Dear Mr. A-Received your comfortable letter concerning the dear lambs at Heriot's hospital. I pray GOD give you grace to feed them, that they may grow in grace as they grow in years, and make perpetual advances in the knowledge of JESUS CHRIST. Be pleased to salute them from me, in the kindest manner. Entreat them, O exhort them to remember their Creator in the days of their youth, and to keep close by his wounded fide. Tell them, dear Sir, from time to time, of the power and efficacy of his all-atoning blood : it purifies the heart, overcomes the world, and fills the believer with joy unspeakable and full of glory. Watch over their dear souls day by day, and wait closely upon the LORD yourself, that you may be taught of him to feed his lambs. It is a work of the utmost importance. No less than infinite wildom can be fufficient for you; but if any man lack wildom, let him afk it from above; GoD giveth liberally to the lovers of his dear Son, and upbraideth not. Dear Sir, GOD is love. He hath loved me, and is pleafed to work by me more and more. At home, and abroad, JESUS CHRIST rides on glorioufly. I hope, at my return to Scotland, to fee greater things than ever. When it shall be, I know not yet. GoD's people must pray me to them. With difficulty I get time to write this. I once more falute you and the dear lambs, and am, dear Sir,

Your most affectionate friend and fervant, G. W.

LETTER CCCCIII.

To Mr. 7- K--, at Exon.

Dear Sir, London, March 6, 1742. Now inatch a few moments to answer your kind letter. As yet, I have no intimation from providence in respect to coming 378 coming into your parts. The cloud at prefent doth not feem to move that way. So many places want supplies, that I could wifh I had a thousand lives and tongues. JESUS CHRIST should have them all. Only I am astonished, that the LORD of the harvest should fend out such a worthless labourer, or rather loiterer as I am. But his grace is free, like himself infinite ; "For to me, who am less than the least of all faints, is this grace given, that I should preach to poor finners the unsearchable riches of CHRIST." Bleffed be GOD, I do not preach in vain. The accounts from New-England, Scotland, and Carolina, are furprizing. In London, the word of the LORD runs and is glorified. E-very day we fee the Redeemer's flately fleps. I have not time, dear Sir, to tell you what great things our great mafter is doing for his people, and yet I believe we shall see greater things than these. From Georgia alfo, I have great accounts. The fpirit of the LORD hath been breathing upon the orphans. I thank you, dear Sir, for your intended benefaction, and kind invitation. If ever our dear LORD calls me your way, I shall accept it : though I am utterly unworthy to come under any one's roof, but more especially that JESUS should come under the roof of the house of my foul.-But JESUS is love. That his love may be abundantly fhed abroad in your heart, by the Holy Ghoft, is the hearty prayer of, dear Sir,

Your most affectionate friend and servant unknown,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCIV.

Dear Mr. H----, London, March, 12, 1742. BY no means leave off reading to the fociety. It is not taking too much upon you, or going out of your depth. The caufe of your fo much as thinking to decline, is not good. The more unworthy you are, the more glory will you give to a glorious Redeemer: the greater finner you are, the more feelingly will you read of, and recommend the glorious Ranfom paid for finners. Go on, my dear man; venture boldly to the throne of grace; fear not.--GoD will heal our backflidings; he loves us freely. JESUS hath been my glorious Saviour. I would have mentioned this affair of the fociety in my laft, but I was then ignorant L E T T E R S.

ignorant of it.—My dear wife has written to dear Mrs. H—... How does the dear woman as to fpirituals? I do not defpair of feeing you both good chriftians. JESUS is almighty. Go to him juft as you are. The LORD be with you both ! I fuppofe you have feen the letter fent to dear M. C— by brother S—... My tender love to him, and all that love the bleffed Emmanuel. I have feen Mr. \mathcal{J} —... The LORD is wonderfully good to me. Pray fend a line to, dear Sir, Yours affectionately in CHRIST JESUS, G. W.

LETTER CCCCV. To Mils R------.

Dear Miss,

ाट 3, च.

; (a≻

he 12

. 30112

te ir

2.2

innz: , I è:

i, 850

ni i Reitr

why:

22

ກີ່ສ

JOED 1

ear S:

íæ

01 þ::

i th

r ka

icių i

3013

6

(î. l'-

مند مين سر آمان

1

1.7

. سندان

おけるが

London, March 18, 1742.

379

Am yet of opinion, there is mercy and love laid up for you. I in the heart of the bleffed JESUS. You look backward, instead of forward. You look into yourself, instead of looking up to Him, who is mighty and willing to fave. O that you may have firength to go to him just as you are! You would then be delivered from your bondage. The cafe of the poor Syrophænician woman may give you comfort. How did the Lamb of GOD feem as it were to turn lion? How did he feem to turn a deaf ear to her complaints? And yet heard and loved her all the while. Why may not you believe? He will yet fay to you, "Be it unto you even as thou wilt." I fear fome tell you, that it is well to doubt. Indeed they are mistaken. Dear Miss, expect great things from JESUS CHRIST. "He is able to do abundantly for you above what you can ask or think." His name, his nature is Love. Fear not; be not faithlefs, but believing. Wait, and you shall yet fee the falvation of GOD. In JESUS there is plenteous redemption. That you may feel the full power of his blood, prays, dear Mils,

Your affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CCCCVI.

To Mr. W-, in Briftol.

London, April 6, 1742.

My dear, yea very dear Brother,

YOU mutt needs think, that your kind letter gave me no fmall pleafure. Glory be to GOD for that rich love wherewith he hath loved you! Surely JESUS CHRIST will be now exceeding precious to your dear foul. What does he now require of you, but to walk humbly, closely, and with a child-like fimplicity before him? He hath followed you, as well as prevented you with his mercies, and would fuffer nothing to take you out of his hands. Satan hath defired you, fatan has fifted you as wheat; but JESUS, that friend of finners, hath prayed for you, and therefore your faith hath not failed. The LORD hath looked upon my dear Samuel. Methinks I fee him weeping tears of love, and faying, "Speak, LORD, thy fervant heareth now."

I doubt not but many will reproach you for your past backfliding, and queftion your future stability. Let all ferve to humble you in the dust, and drive you to the loving Jesus for refuge. "In him," furely shall my dear friend fay, "I have righteoufnefs and ftrength." Look up to him, and you shall be delivered from, nay, made more than conqueror over every temptation. He will fight your battles for you, and crown you when you have done. Dear Mr. W----, the love of JESUS now fwallows up my foul. I fee him more and more lovely every day. In JESUS there is plenteous redemption. He came, that we might have life, nay that we might have it more abundantly. O what a bleffing is it to be redeemed from a vain conversation, and from this present evil world. O that every poor finner felt it ! Then would his children agree in one, and divisions would be at an end. Bleffed be our LORD, there is a greater prospect of union than ever. It is what my foul longs after, and labours for. It is a great pity that poor pilgrims should fall out in their way to heaven; but this will be, till we get more of the divine fpirit. Pray we therefore for a great effusion of the Holy Ghoft. Bleffed be Gon,

380

Digitized by Google

WØ

we feel the Holy Ghoft daily in our congregations. It furprizes me to fee what a company of fettled, folid chriftians are amongft us. The work goes on daily. This morning, how did JESUS pierce and melt poor finners hearts? Amazing accounts are brought from abroad.—Frefh awakenings in many places at home. Does not your foul long to tell finners, JESUS is Love. I am glad to hear you are fo active. Go on in the firength of the triumphing Lamb. My heart is warm. Welcome home again, my dear friend, welcome to JESUS your LORD and your GOD. Pray write often, dear Mr. W----, to

Your most affectionate friend, brother and fervant in the glorious Emmanuel, G. W.

LETTER CCCCVII.

To Mr. O , in Leominster.

My dear Brother, London, April 6, 1742. YOUR letter gave me uncommon pleasure, and confirm'd me more in the opinion, that where our LORD gives a will, he will also give an opportunity of glorifying his great and most adorable name. Indeed, I believe there is such a work begun, as neither we nor our fathers have heard of. The beginnings are amazing; how unfpeakably glorious will the end be ! From New-England, fresh and furprizing glad tidings are fent; the LORD takes poor finners there by hundreds, I may fay by thoufands. In Scotland, the fruits of my poor labours are abiding and apparent. In Wales, I hear the word of the LORD runs and is glorified, as also in many places in England. In London, our Saviour is doing great things daily; we have many dear growing children among us, who can fay, " Our fellowship is with the Father and the Son." We fcarce know what it is to have a meeting without tears, Our LORD always meets with us. My dear brother, I rejoice to hear that you are helped in your work. Let this encourage you; go on, go on; the more we do, the more we may do for JESUS. I fleep and eat but little, and am conftantly employed from morning till midnight, and yet I walk and am not weary, I run and am not faint. My ftrength is daily renewed. My bow abides in ftrength, and my hands are ηr.

R:

Ľ,

3157

rżr.

a:

10

nii Cra ali İst

₁۴} pż:

. N

1 1 1

jā.

orci od T

e 🖗

33) (Tr

8

. The

FŰ.

1 ιĿ

çi,

ŗ.

x

ėŻ

eĥ

382 are upholden by the arms of the mighty GOD of Jacob. O free grace ! It fires my foul, and makes me long to do fomething more for JESUS. It is true indeed, I want to go home; but here are fo many fouls ready to perifh for lack of knowledge, that I am willing to tarry below, as long as my mafter hath work for me to do.—When I fhall come your way, I cannot determine. All I fay is, I will come when the LORD gives me leave. At prefent my call is in London, where I propole ftaying for fome time. My wife came up laft Saturday, and joins with me in wifhing you all manner of fuccels. I am, my dear brother, Yours most affectionately in our glorious Emmanuel, G. W.

LETTER CCCCVIII.

To Mr. J .-- C -----, in Gloucestershire.

London, April 8, 1742.

Y OURS came to hand laft night. I rejoice to hear that the LORD is with you, and that he was pleafed to blefs my poor labours in Gloucefler/bire. I would have you to difpute as little as poffible. Awakened fouls fhould be told to look continually to the LORD JESUS. The more you are acquainted with CHRIST, and the more deeply you drink into his fpirit, the more folid you will grow. Fear not becaufe of your prefent trials; "the LORD is thy GOD; he will never leave thee nor forfake thee." Caft all your care upon him, he careth for you. Your wife's illnefs fhall work for good. The things I promifed, are provided and fhall be fent fpeedily. Brother H—— will be with you, GOD willing, next week; I pray GOD that his coming may be in the fulnefs of the bleffing of the gofpel of peace ! Our LORD is with us much

Dear Mr. 7- C-,

here. I preach twice daily. Our fociety grows. My mafter fills me with his prefence, and continually meets with us. My tender love awaits all the fociety. Be ftrong in the LORD, and in the power of his might. Seek after a nearer nearer conformity to the bleffed JESUS. Grow in grace; and as you are enabled, dear John, pray for

Your affectionate friend, brother,

and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

382

LETTER CCCCIX.

To Captain G-, in Philadelphia.

Dear Brother G-----, London, April 22, 1742. T Hope this will find you very happy in the love of CHRIST. I was glad to hear you had fo good a time, before our friends left you. I wish you no less, than that you may be filled with all the fulnefs of GOD. We have had a glorious Easter, or rather a Pentecost. JESUS CHRIST is rifen indeed. I have been preaching in Moorfields, and our Saviour carries all before us. Nought can refift his conquering blood. It would have delighted you, to have feen the poor finners flock from the booths, to fee JESUS lifted up on the pole of the gofpel. I have received many tickets from young apprentices, &c. &c. Our fociety goes on wonderfully well. Every day we hear of fresh conquests. God's children are expecting very great things. I believe they will not be difappointed of their hope. But I am in haste. Your wife was well the laft time I faw her. Brother S---- and his wife have been to fee her.-My dear wife and brother S---- kindly falute you, and all that love our glorious Emmanuel. Pray write a line to, dear brother G-----,

Yours, &c.

G. W.

LETTER CCCCX.

To the Reverend Mr. J ..., in Yorkshire.

My dear Brother, London, April 22, 1742. Thank you and your wife for your kind benefaction. Our Saviour, I believe, will take it kindly at your hands. I rejoice that the work of our common mafter is carried on in York/hire. We fee greater things than ever at London. The awakening is quite frefh. I never was ftrengthened more. Every day, poor finners are brought home to JESUS CHRIST. Our Our people are filled as with new wine; it feems to be a Pentecoft. I have preached fix or feven times in Moorfields, thefe holidays. It would rejoice you to fee the people flock from fatan's booths to hear the gofpel of the Son of Gon. The people feem to have fuch a fpirit of fupplication poured out upon them, that I believe we fhall fee great things. I am often weak in body, but, as my work requires, I am proportionably ftrengthened in the inner man. Was there ever fuch a finner as I am? Was there ever fuch a Saviour as my Saviour ?

Low at thy feet, O JESUS, let me lie, And love and praise to all eternity.

I falute all that love the LORD JESUS in fincerity, and am, dear brother 7-----,

Yours most affectionately in JESUS CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXI.

London, May 11, 1742.

TITH this, I fend you a few out of the many notes I have received from perfons, who were convicted, converted, or comforted in Moorfields, during the late holidays. For many weeks, I found my heart much preffed to determine to venture to preach there at this feason, when, if ever, fatan's children keep up their annual rendezvous. I must inform you, that Moorfields is a large spacious place, given, as I have been told, by one Madam Moore, on purpose for all forts of people to divert themselves in. For many years past, from one end to the other, booths of all kinds have been erected, for mountebanks, players, puppet shows, and fuch like. With a heart bleeding with compation for fo many thousands led captive by the devil at his will, on Whis-Monday, at fix o'clock in the morning, attended by a large congregation of praying people, I ventured to lift up a standard amongst them in the name of JESUS of Nazareth. Perhaps there were about ten thousand in waiting, not for me, but for fatan's inffruments to amuse them .--- Glad was I to find, that I had for once as it were got the flart of the devil. I mounted my

É.

5,

ļ,

11

Ø,

#!

ġ

r

尨

S,

5

Ţ;

j,

Ø,

Ċ

χĺ

1.

يتز

Ŀ,

,

1

ø

my field pulpit, almost all flocked immediately around it. I preached on these words, " As Moles listed up the serpent in the wildernefs, fo shall the fon of man be lifted up. &c." They gazed, they listened, they wept; and I believe that many felt themfelves flung with deep conviction for their paft fins. All was hushed and solemn. Being thus encouraged, I ventured out again at noon; but what a scene ! The fields, the whole fields feemed, in a bad fense of the word, all white, ready not for the Redeemer's, but Beelzebub's harveft. All his agents were in full motion, drummers, trumpeters, merry andrews, masters of puppet shows, exhibiters of wild beasts. players, &c. &c. all bufy in entertaining their refpective auditories. I suppose there could not be less than twenty or thirty thousand people. My pulpit was fixed on the opposite fide, and immediately, to their great mortification, they found the number of their attendants fadly leffened. Judging that like faint Paul, I fhould now be called as it were to fight with beafts at Ephefus, I preached from these words : " Great is Diana of the Ephefians." You may eafily guels, that there was fome noife among the craftsmen, and that I was honoured with having a few ftones, dirt, rotten eggs, and pieces of dead cats thrown at me, whilft engaged in calling them from their favourite but lying vanities. My foul was indeed among lions ; but far the greatest part of my congregation, which was very large, seemed for a while to be turned into lambs. This encouraged me to give notice, that I would preach again at fix o'clock in the evening. I came, I faw, but what-----thoufands and thousands more than before if poffible, still more deeply engaged in their unhappy diversions; but some thoufands amongst them waiting as earnessly to hear the gospel. This fatan could not brook. One of his choiceft fervants was exhibiting, trumpeting on a large flage; but as foon as the people faw me in my black robes and my pulpit, I think all to a man left him and ran to me. For a while I was enabled to lift up my voice like a trumpet, and many heard the joyful found. GoD's people kept praying, and the enemy's agents made a kind of a roaring at fome diffance from our camp. At length they approached nearer, and the merry andrew, (attended by others, who complained that they had taken many pounds lefs that day on account of my preaching) got Vol. I. Ce up upon a man's fhoulders, and advancing near the pulpit attempted to flash me with a long heavy whip feveral times, but always with the violence of his motion tumbled down. Soon afterwards, they got a recruiting ferjeant with his drum, &c. to pals through the congregation. I gave the word of command, and ordered that way might be made for the king's officer. The ranks opened, while all march'd quietly through, and then closed again. Finding those efforts to fail, a large body quite on the opposite fide affembled together, and having got a large pole for their standard, advanced towards us with steady and formidable fleps, till they came very near the fkirts of our hearing, praying, and almost undaunted congregation. I faw, gave warning, and prayed to the captain of our falvation for prefent support and deliverance. He heard and answered; for just as they approached us with looks full of refentment. I know not by what accident, they quarrelled among themfelves. threw down their staff and went their way, leaving however many of their company behind, who before we had done. I trust were brought over to join the besieged party. I think I continued in praying preaching and finging, (for the noife was too great at times to preach) about three hours. We then retired to the tabernacle, with my pockets full of notes from perfons brought under concern, and read them amidft the praifes and fpiritual acclamations of thoufands, who joined with the holy angels in rejoicing that fo many finners were fnatched, in fuch an unexpected, unlikely place and manner, out of the very jaws of the devil. This was the beginning of the tabernacle fociety .- Three hundred and fifty awakened fouls were received in one day, and I believe the number of notes exceeded a thousand ; but I must have done, believing you want to retire to join in mutual praife and thanksgiving to GOD and the Lamb, with

9

Digitized by Google

Yours, &c. G. IV.

LETTER CCCCXII. To the fame.

1

Ç.

ŗ

Ĩ.

Ċ

2

7

÷

ĩ

3

;:

.....

::

Ľ

1

J

2 π.

Ē

!

ļ,

3

j,

l

My dear Friend, London, May 15, 1742. RESH matter of praise; blefs ye the LORD, for he hath triumphed glorioufly. The battle that was begun on Monday, was not quite over till Wednesday evening, though the scene of action was a little shifted. Being strongly invited, and a pulpit being prepared for me by an honeft quaker, a coal merchant, I ventured on Tuesday evening to preach at Mary le bon fields, a place almost as much frequented by boxers, gamesters, and such like, as Moor-fields. A vast concourse was assembled together, and as soon as I got into the field pulpit, their countenance bespoke the enmity of their hearts against the preacher. I opened with these words-"I am not ashamed of the gospel of CHRIST, for it is the power of GOD unto falvation to every one that believeth." I preached in great jeopardy; for the pulpit being high, and the fupports not well-fixed in the ground, it tottered every time 1 moved, and numbers of enemies strove to push my friends against the supporters, in order to throw me down. But the Redeemer stayed my foul on himself, therefore I was not much moved, unlefs with compassion for those to whom I was delivering my mafter's meffage, which I had reafon to think, by the ftrong impressions that were made, was welcome to many. But fatan did not like thus to be attacked in his ftrong-holds, and I narrowly escaped with my life: for as I was passing from the pulpit to the coach, I felt my wig and hat to be almost off. I turned about, and observed a sword just touching my temples. A young rake, as I afterwards found, was determined to ftab me, but a gentleman, feeing the fword thrusting near me, ftruck it up with his cane, and fo the deftined victim providentially efcaped. Such an attempt excited abhorrence; the enraged multitude foon feized him, and had it not been for one of my friends, who received him into his houfe, he must have undergone a fevere discipline. The next day, I renewed my attack in Moor-fields; but would you think it ? after they found that pelting, noife, and threatnings would not do, one of the merry Andrews got up into a tree very near the pulpit, Cc 2 and and fhamefully exposed his nakedness before all the people. Such a beaftly action quite abathed the ferious part of my auditory; whilft hundreds of another ftamp, inftead of rifing up to pull down the unhappy wretch, expressed their approbation by repeated laughs. I must own at first it gave me a fhock; I thought fatan had now almost ourdone himself; but recovering my fpirits, I appealed to all, fince now they had fuch a spectacle before them, whether I had wronged human nature in faying, after pious Bifhop Hall, " that man, when left to himfelf, is half a devil and half a beaft ;" or as the great Mr. Law expressed himself, " a motley mixture of the beaft and devil."-Silence and attention being thus gained, I concluded with a warm exhortation, and closed our feftival enterprizes, in reading fresh notes that were put up, praising and bleffing GOD amidst thousands at the tabernacle, for what he had done for precious fouls, and on account of the deliverances he had wrought out for me and his people. I could enlarge; but being about to embark in the Mary and Ann, for Scotland, I must hasten to subscribe myself,

387

Yours, &c. G. W.

P. S. I cannot help adding, that feveral little boys and girls who were fond of fitting round me on the pulpit, while I preached, and handing to me peoples notes, though they were often pelted with eggs, dirt, &c. thrown at me, never once gave way: but on the contrary, every time I was flruck, turned up their little weeping eyes, and feemed to wifh they could receive the blows for me. GoD make them in their growing years great and living martyrs for him, who out of the mouth of babes and fucklings perfects praife !

LETTER CCCCXIII.

Å.S

To the Rev. Mr. M____, in the Iste of Man. On board the Mary and Ann, bound to Scotland, May 26, 1742. Rev. and dear Sir,

I Received your letter on Saturday laft, and felt great concern on my foul, while perufing it. One thing especially pleased me; I found by the contents, that a report I had lately

Digitized by Google

388

389

lately heard concerning you was falfe; for I had heard, that the bishop feeing your zeal, and finding his opposition had inflamed, at last had ordered the clergy to open the church doors for you, and that now you had done with appearing openly in the defence of the glorious Gofpel. Bleffed be God this is not true! Though I find, both you and your people have been greatly difcouraged. I fee no way of extricating yourfelf, but by acting up to the dictates of your own confcience, and leaving the confequences to the great head and king of the church. You find, dear Sir, a fenfible withdrawing of the spirit ever fince you gave way. It would not have been fo, had you obeyed GOD rather than man. Up then, and be doing, and the LORD will be yet with you. If you cannot preach freely in the Ifle of Man, go whitherfoever the LORD shall be pleased to lead you. Our commission is very extenfive : "Go into all the world, and preach the gofpel to every creature." We want labourers much in England. If our afcended Saviour hath given you popular gifts, and freedom and authority in speaking without notes, you need not fear. He will affift you from time to time, and make you a bleffing to many fouls. Your being a minister of the established church, will be an advantage, and your age also will give you yet more authority; but an unction from the Holy One of Ifrael is the beft qualification; I would therefore, dear Sir (if fuch a one as I, am capable of advifing) by all means perfuade you to humble yourfelf before the great bifhop of your foul, and afk him again and again what he would have you to do? I am apt to think, he will not reftore to you the comforts of the Holy Ghoft, or stablish you with his free spirit, 'till you give up yourself simply to follow the dictates of his providence and fpirit. Then let men or devils fay or do their worft. How can we know God's power unlefs we try it ? Not that I would have you, dear friend, do any thing rafhly. 'No, " he that believeth doth not make hafte." Wait upon the LORD, and he will certainly flew you what he would have you to do. I wonder not that your brother's love is grown cold. It is hard for one in his station, unless he be thoroughly inured to contempt, and will give GOD leave to act in his own way, to withstand a whole body of lukewarm, prejudiced, envious, malignant clergy. These, have always been the greatest opposers of true Cc3 vital

r.

T,

ł

G ü

k

í

55 ġ,ſ

ġ,

C.

jk

5

ĊŢ

Ī

į,

1

5

Ż

vital religion. These, were our Saviour's most bitter enemies. These, will be ours also, if we come forth in his spirit, and preach by his power. But bleffed be God, I can fay by happy experience, our glorious Emmanuel will make us more than conquerors over them all. He hath continually fought my battles for me, and I am perfuaded will do fo to the end. Of late. I have feen more of his power and goodness than ever, and I trust we shall yet see greater things than these. I am now once more going to Scotland, and purpose (GOD willing) the latter end of the year to embark for America. Pray let me hear from you, and if possible let me have a personal interview. I hope this will reach you. In the next, be pleafed to tell me how to direct, for I have forgotten. The LORD be with you. I wish you abundant prosperity in the name of the exalted Redcemer, and am

Your affectionate brother and fervant, &c.

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXIV.

To Mr. S-M-, in Gainfborough.

On board the Mary and Ann, May 26, 1742.

My dear Brother.

ż90

TOUR letter dated May 5th was very agreeable to me. I think it favoured of a true Israelitish spirit, and therefore I find freedom to fend you a plain and fimple answer. Who $\gamma - H -$ is, I cannot tell. If he was converted by my unworthy ministry, or others by his means, let our dear JESUS have all the glory. I shall know who they are, at the great day. Mr. P----- I know very well. I believe he is a good man, but am not enough acquainted with his proceedings, either wholly to commend or condemn them, Whether he preaches in public, or converses only in a private manner, I know not. This one thing I know, if he be fent of Gon, I wifh him prosperity. The answer which our LORD gave to those who forbad such as were caffing out devils in his name, because they followed not with them, makes me particularly cautious, how I interrupt any one that feems to fpeak of JESUS with fincerity of heart. As for his fpeaking fo little against the church of England, I cannot difcommend him for that. I find 2 . .

2 .

5

3

13 lz Ľ,

23

.

۵:

R.

ż

Ľ,i η,

ż ä

ġ,

î.

1

ï. ¢

j, F

ŝ

ý,

5

ŀ

ŝ

6

find it beft to talk only of JESUS's blood, and the power of his Redemption, and not dwell much on outward things or outward worfhip. When the woman of Samaria asked our LORD, " where men ought to worfhip," he diverted the difcourse from the outward to the inward worship. " The worthip of the Father in fpirit and in truth." Some things may be wrong in the church of England, and in this mixed flate we must never expect to see a perfect church, or a perfect man. It is therefore my conftant aim to agree with all the children of GOD, as far as I can, and not to quarrel though we differ in fome points. In civil fociety, one family does not differ with another, because it hath not the fame orders in every respect. Would to GOD we observed the same rule in spirituals. The world falls out enough with us; it is pity we should fall out among ourfelves. My brother, I have written to you out of the fulnels of my heart; whether I shall see your face in the flefh, I know not. At prefent, my call is to Scotland .--- If the cloud fhould move towards Lincolnshire, my answer is, " LORD, lo I come !" I am quite confounded when I think that fuch a wretch as I should ever be employed in preaching the everlasting gospel. I often fall down under a fense of GoD's diffinguifhing mercy, and with awful adoration am frequently made to cry out, "Why me, LORD; why me ?" O my brother, help me to praise the Lamb of GoD, that taketh away the fins of the world. A wonderful work is carried on both at home and abroad. I fhall be glad to hear from you again. Be pleafed to direct as before. I am, in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST,

Your affectionate friend, brother and fervant,

G. W.

391

LETTER CCCCXV.

To Mr. 7-B-, in London. On board the Mary and Ann, May 27, 1742.

Digitized by Google

My dear Brother B_____,

TOUR letter was fweet to my heart. Bufinels prevented my answering it on shore. Our Saviour is pleased at this time to give me leifure and freedom. I will now endeavour to answer it on board. I need not tell you, I love you. God has often bore witness to our fellowship, by giving us

ť

b tl fr us his prefence, and filling us as with new wine. What has happened of late to difunite, will in the end, I am perfuaded. only promote a clofer union. " Out of the eater will come forth meat, and out of the ftrong will come forth fweetnefs." Bleffed be our Saviour's free grace ! I feel my heart more and more enlarged towards, and more and more disposed to love and honour all denominations of believers, than ever I experienced before. In all focieties of chriftians under heaventhere must necessarily be perfons of a different standing in the school of CHRIST. Those who are not folidly established in the love of GoD, will fall too much in love with the outward form of their particular church, be it what it will. But as the love of GoD gets the afcendency, the more they will be like him and his holy angels, and confequently rejoice when fouls are brought to JESUS, whatever inftruments may be made use of for that purpose. If therefore some that you and I know, are too confined (as I believe is too much the cafe); if they do not preach more frequently, and abound more in good . works, I think it is for want of having their hearts more inflamed with the love of GOD, and their graces kept in more constant exercise. To stir up the gift of GOD that is in us, is an apoftolical injunction; and if we do not keep upon our watch we shall fall into a false stillness. Nature loves eafe; and as a blind zeal often prompts us to fpeak too much, fo tepidity and lukewarmness often cause us to speak too little. Divine wildom alone, is profitable to direct; and I would be very cautious how I fpeak, least I should take too much upon me. I love those you mention, from my foul; and all I can fay is, " LORD, do thou lead and guide both them and us." We are blind helpless creatures. I with there was more confidence between us all; but I fee that none but the spirit of GOD can outwardly unite us, and therefore I have now given it up into the Redeemer's hand. Only this I pray, that I may be one of the first and not the last in bringing back the king. If I have at any time fet improper bounds to the fpirit of God, or grieved it in his children, I defire to be very low, and to be broken hearted for it. I am fure it hath not been done willingly. I must own, I have fometimes opposed you, because I think you have made, and are yet making, too much hafte, You feen to be like-minded with those, who in our Saviour's timg

392

LETTERS.

time thought that the kingdom of GOD would then come :but you know how our LORD checked them for it, and told them, " it was not for them to know the particular times and feasons of his coming to fet up his kingdom." I believe with you, that our glorious Emmanuel is about to do great things. But how, when, and where, I leave to his divine, fovereign disposal. I defire strictly to mind the particular plan assigned me; at the fame time to look about, and fee what others the wonderful counfellor is pleafed to employ in other diffricts: and though they may differ from me in fome points, I with them abundant prosperity in the name of our common LORD. I am of your mind with respect to the church of England. This, this is the constant, abiding, intense language of my heart; "LORD JESUS, let thy kingdom come." You fee, my dear brother, how fully I write to you. It is becaufe I love you. O that we may be taught to bear one another's burdens, and fo fulfil the law of CHRIST ! May the LORD keep us all from falling out in our way to heaven. Amen and amen ! You and yours will join heartily in the fame petition, with

Your affectionate brother and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

393

LETTER CCCCXVI.

To the Rev Mr. O , at Leominster, On board the Mary and Ann, May 27, 1742.

My dear Brother,

ċ

1.

1 1

3

Ł

r,

(T

I Have not till now had time to anfwer your kind letter. I rejoice abundantly in the ufe our dear LORD is beginning to make of you. May he ufe and blefs you ever more and more. Our LORD loves to encourage faith. They that truffe in him, fhall find now as well as formerly, that " it fhall be given them in that hour what they fhall fpeak." This I find true by happy experience, and am perfuaded fhall prove the truth of it more and more. Since my laft, the captain of our falvation has carried me on to frefh conqueft, and caufed his people to rejoice exceedingly in his great falvation. Our fociety is in great order. If the LORD gives us a true catholic fpirit, free from a party fectarian zeal, we fhall do well. I am forry to hear that there is fo much narrownels among fome of the

Digitized by Google

2

the brethren in Wales. Brother H—— complains fadly of it. I hope dear Mr. O—— will be kept free, and not fall into difputing about Baptifm or other non-effentials; for I am perfuaded, unlefs we all are content to preach CHRIST, and to keep off from difputable things, wherein we differ, GOD will not blefs us long. If we act otherwife, however we may talk of a catholic fpirit, we fhall only be bringing people over to our own party, and there fetter them. I pray the LORD to keep dear Mr. O—— and me from fuch a fpirit. Dear Sir, may the LORD be with you ! Remember us poor but willing pilgrims, effectially him who is lefs than the leaft of all, but

> Your affectionate brother and fervant in CHRIST, G, W.

LETTER CCCCXVII. To the Rev. Mr. J ..., at Stockport. On board the Mary and Ann, May 29, 1742.

Rev. and dear Sir,

394

T Received your letter fome time ago, but through multiplicity of bufiness could not possibly answer it on shore. I do not remember feeing you at London; but if you love the Redeemer in fincerity, and preach the gospel in the demonstration of the fpirit and with power, I with you all possible fuccess in the name of the LORD. As for coming into your parts, it is intirely uncertain. My prefent call is to Scotland. How my Mafter will dispose of me hereafter, I know not. I fimply defire to go whither he shall be pleafed to call me. I am amazed that he should call me any where, or employ me as his ambaffador to befeech poor finners to be reconciled to Gon. But what shall we fay ? I can only fall down at the feet of the Lamb, and cry, Grace ! grace ! Of late the LORD hath done greater things for me, and his church, than ever; and yet greater things I am perfuaded he is about to bring to país. Dear Sir, help me at the throne of grace, and as you feem to have a thirst for the Redeemer's glory, recommend me to the prayers. of GoD's people, being the chief of finners, but, for the Redeemer's fake,

> Your most affectionate friend, brother and fervant, G. W.

> > Digitized by Google

LETTERS.

LETTER CCCCXVIII.

To the Rev. Mr. D-, in Effex.

My very dear Brother,

May 29, 1742.

TOUR letter lies by me, yet unanfwered; the contents however have not been forgotten before the LORD. Surely the days of your pilgrimage will ere long be ended, and the ftar which you once faw, appear to you again, and caufe you to rejoice with exceeding great joy. I think there is fomething very extraordinary in the LORD's dealing with you. I can only refolve it into the divine fovereignty, and fay, " even fo, Father, for fo it feemeth good in thy fight." This is often the language of my heart, with respect to GoD's dealing with my own foul. Many things our Saviour does to me, which I know not now. It is sufficient that I shall know hereafter. and that I know thus far even now, " that all things are working together for good." Dear Mr. D----, indeed I love and pray for you. Our Saviour, I truft, will yet fet your feet in a large room, and enable you to run the way of his commandments;

Thro' winds, and clouds, and florms, he'll gently clear the way; Wait then his time, fo fball this night foon end in joyous day.

My tender love await the flock at D - m; I pray for them and you. Our Saviour hath done great things of late in London. I believe he will yet do more in Scotland. O my brother, forget not to pray for the chief of finners.

Your truly affectionate friend, brother and fervant in JESUS CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXIX.

To the Rev. Mr. C ..., at Bath.

On board the Mary and Ann, May 29, 1742.

My very dear Friend and Brother,

NOT want of love, but excels of bufinels prevented my answering your kind letter dated April 6th. In London I had scarce time to eat bread, or to take my natural reft. Our

395

Our bleffed Saviour, with his own right hand got himfelf the victory in many hearts, and brought mighty things to pafs. I never faw the like before. I must renew my old request. "Help, my dear friend, help me to be thankful." I am now going a fecond time to Scotland, and purpole, GOD willing, at the latter end of the year to embark for America. My foul is a thirst for the falvation of poor finners. These words, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature, &c," have been particularly preffed upon my heart. dear Mr. C-----, if the LORD has accounted us worthy, putting us into the ministry, how careful should we be to make full proof thereof ? GOD willing, when I come on fhore I will begin in earnest. For alas! backenus nibil feci.-Indeed I am ashamed of myself from the bottom of my heart. Was not my Mafter's love like himfelf, infinite, I fhould have been caft off long before this time. But I find those whom he loves, he loves to the end. Mr. W----, myfelf, and others, are infances of this. I hope our great Shepherd will now carry him in his arms, and not let him to flay again. I have wrote to Mr. T---- from on board.---If you go to him, or labour elsewhere, that the bleffed Jesus may be always with you, is the hearty prayer of, dear Mr. C----,

Your most affectionate brother and servant

in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXX.

To Mr. 7- H-, in London.

On board the Mary and Ann, May 29, 1742.

Dear Sir,

396

Y OUR letter much affected me. I hope the contents have made the angels to rejoice, and that before this time you have found reft in the wounded Lamb. That Gop, who first spoke light out of darkness, I truth is beginning to fhine into your heart, and to perfect a new creation in your soul. You are not the first, dear friend, by thousands, who have thought themselves rich and increased in goods, not confidering they were poor and miserable and blind and naked. I suppose you can now join with me in the following verses:

Long

ł.

Long did my foul in Jefu's form · No comelinefs nor beauty fee; His facred name by others priz'd, Was taftelefs still and dead to me.

II.

Men call'd me Christian, and my heart On that delusion fondly stay'd; Moral my hopes, my Saviour self, 'Till mighty grace the cheat display'd.

III.

Thanks to the hand that wak'd my dream, That shew'd me wretched, naked, poor; That sweetly led me to the Rock, Where all salvation stands secure.

î.

.

V.

r

1

ţ,

11

21

Ċ.

. Cli

í

12

Υ.

ili Lin

$

IV.

Glad, I forfook my righteous pride, My moral, tarni/b'd, finful drefs, Exchanged my drofs away for Chrift, And found the robe of righteoufnefs.

These lines, dear Sir, I think are very emphatical. I wust you can now repeat them from your heart. If so, hail happy man! JESUS hath washed you in his blood, and given you eternal life. You now then have nothing to do, but to live to him, who hath lived and died for you, and if necessary would die again for you with all his heart. Surely our Saviour loves you, otherwise he would not have shewed you all these things. I love you for his take (though unknown); and if he hath been pleased to work by my unworthy ministry, let him have all the glory, and forget not to pray for the poor, weak inftrument, who has not forgotten to pray for you, being, dear Sir,

Your most affectionate friend and servant,

in CHRIST,

G. W.

397

LETTER CCCCXXI.

To Mr. H-H-, in Wales.

On board the Mary and Ann, May 29, 1742.

My very dear Brother,

THOUGH I could not write to you on shore, yet I must not omit writing to you on board. I am heartily forry that fuch a narrow spirit prevails in Wales. I have written to Mr. H-----. But what shall we fay ? The Redeemer's love alone can unite and keep together his flocks. Difouting with bigots and narrow-spirited people will not do. I intend henceforward to fay lefs to them, and pray more and more to our LORD for them. " LORD, enlarge their hearts." is my continual prayer for fuch, who are fo ftreightened in their own bowels. Bleffed be Gon, this partition-wall is breaking down daily in fome of our old friends hearts in London. I exhort all to go where they can profit most. I preach what I believe to be the truth, and then leave it to the foirit of GOD to make the application. When we have done this, I think we have gone to the utmost bounds of our commilfion. O my brother, I find more and more, nothing but that wildom, which is from above, can teach us how to build up fouls. I never was fo much affisted in this kind of work. as fince I came to London last. We have public focieties twice a week, and a general meeting for reading letters once a month. Our LORD has been much with us. We feem to move on now in gofpel dignity, and are terrible as an army with banners. If the LORD inclines you, a visit to London would be very acceptable. Our people can now bear fearching more than formerly. I find that our LORD hath particularly bleffed you that way. We have had a most bleffed funeral of one of our fifters in CHRIST, and the awakening, I think, has been as great as when I first came out, and abundantly more folid. The Easter Holidays were high days indeed. My wife doth not forget her friends in Wales. But our LORD has seen fit to exercise her with exceeding close inward trials. She and all with me most cordially falute you. I expect great things in Scotland. If poffible, at my return, I hope to fee you in Wales. But future things belong to GoD. Adieu. Forget not to pray for Your affectionate brother pilgrim,

G.W. LETTER

LETTER CCCCXXII.

To Mr. A , in London. Edinburgh, June 4, 1742.

My dear Brother A-----,

Ľ

3.

ilz M7

-

.).

α.

11

Ξz

(1-L)

15 L.

1:

С.

ia:

17

y k

سلأ(

N

:51

11

U

r:i

防

5

Ġ.

ġ:

č.

α.

ġ.

1

ŝ

¢.

ıĮ,

p

ROM a heart overflowing with a fense of GoD's love, I write you these few lines. Yesterday our Saviour brought us hither. On board, I spent most part of my time in fecret prayer. Satan fhot many of his fiery darts against me. Our great Michael gave me a fhield of faith, by which I was enabled to repel them all. As foon as I came on fhore, the holy spirit filled my foul. The LORD commanded people to receive me and my fellow pilgrim into their houses. Our fouls rejoiced in him. The people were foon alarmed at my arrival. As foon as I came on fhore at Leith, many came bleffing me, and weeping, took hold of me. About four in the afternoon we came to Edinburgh. Great numbers followed our coach, and almost catched me in their arms, as foon as I came out of it. How did they weep for joy ! It would have melted you down to have feen them. When I came to my lodging. many dear friends came to falute us in the name of the LORD. About feven o'clock I went to fee fome perfons of diffinction, whole hearts the LORD reached, when I was here laft. Some were ready to faint with excess of joy : with these I prayed and gave thanks. The Holy Ghoft filled us with all joy and peace in believing .- At eight I went to a nobleman's house, where his lady and feveral other dear friends received us with great gladness. The cushions and bible were immediately brought. I gave a word of exhortation. We fung, and prayed, and spent the remainder of the evening most delightfully in talking of the things of God. When we came home, we joined in bleffing God's holy name. Though late, I fcarce knew how to go to reft. - This morning I received glorious accounts of the carrying on of the Mediator's kingdom. The work of Gop is beyond expression. Three of the little boys that were converted when I was last here, came to me and wept, and begged me to pray for and with them. A minister tells me, that fearce one is fallen back, who was awakened, either among old or young. The ferjeant, whofe letter, brother ther C— has, goes on well with his company. O my dear brother, help me to praife the Lamb that fitteth upon the throne for ever; and defire all the fociety to join with you. I believe within these four months you will hear of very great things. Pray that I may be very little in my own eyes, and not rob my dear Master of any part of his glory. We do not forget you. Once a day we meet together and pray for abfent friends. He gives us leave, as it were, to ask of him what we will, and promises never to leave or forsake us. For the present, my dear brother, adieu ! As opportunity offers, and if possible every poss, form or other of my dear friends shall hear, dear brother Λ —, from

,

Your most affectionate, though most unworthy brother and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXXIII.

To the Right Honourable Lord R

Edinburgh, June 4, 1742. My Lord, TESTERDAY morning our glorious Emmanuel brought us hither. Your Lordship's kind letter was put into my hands. I heartily fympathize with your Lordship; but could not help rejoicing on your honoured lady's account, knowing the is now entered into her bleffed Mafter's joy. Indeed, my Lord, I think, among christians, death hath not only loft its fling, but its name. I never was fo joyful as I am now at the death of those who die in the LORD; and never was to reconciled to living myfelf. My general language, when I hear of the faints departure, is, " Let them go." Lately at London we had a fifter in CHRIST departed. Her last words were, " Holy, holy, holy !" fhe could fay no more here ; but our Saviour fent for her to finish her fong in heaven. I preached over her corpfe; our fociety attended : but furely never did fouls triumph over death more than we did that night. Many would fay, " O death ! where is thy fting ? O grave ! where is thy victory ?" As for my own part, I was enabled to trample death under my feet : and, bleffed be Gon, through rich grace I can do that daily. But then your Lordship may afk, " Why are you reconciled to life?" Becaule Eaufe I can do that for JESUS on earth, which I cannot do in heaven : I mean, be made inftrumental in bringing fome poor, weary, heavy laden finners to find reft in his blood and righteoufnefs : and, indeed, if our Saviour was to offer either to take me now, or to flay only to take one finner more, I would defire to flay to take him with me. But whither am I running? O my Lord, death is a delightful topic. Excuse me if I forget myself when writing about it. Bleffed be our GOD for fupporting your foul under fo close a trial ! How fweet will it be to meet your Lady glorified at the great day ! Yet a little while, and that happy day shall come. But it is time to answer your Lordship's question : " How was you on the 24th of last November ?" I thank GOD, very well. My foul was much refreshed with the Redeemer's presence; and I was rejoicing in hope of the glory of God. I hear of wonderful things in Scotland. I can only fall down and worship. I have feen greater things than ever in England. I expect to fee far greater in Scotland. Our LORD will not let his people be disappointed of their hopes. But I must away. We were very happy together with fome other dear friends laft night. I have not feen your Lordship's daughters, though they have been to kind as to fend to enquire after my health. I hope to fee them to-day; and am, my Lord, with all poffible respect, my Lord,

> Your Lordship's most obedient humble servant, G. W.

LETTER CCCCXXIV. To the Reverend Mr. M-, at Cambuflang. Edinburgh, June 8, 1742.

Reverend and very dear Brother,

F Heartily rejoice at the awakening at Cambuslang, and elsewhere. I believe you will both see and hear of far greater things than thefe. I trust that not one corner of poor Scotland will be left unwatered by the dew of God's heavenly bleffing. The cloud is now only rifing as big as a man's hand; yet a little while, and we shall hear a found of an abundance of gospel rain. Our glorious Emmanuel has given us much of his divine presence fince my arrival. Q that it D d VOL. I. may may accompany me to Cambuflang! GOD willing, I hope to be with you the beginning of next week; but cannot exactly tell the day. In the mean while, forget not to pray for, reverend and dear brother, > Yours most affectionately in CHRIST, G. W.

9

LETTER CCCCXXV.

Edinburgh, June 10, 1742.

Reverend and very dear Sir,

Am now at Mr. G-----'s houfe; and finding his wife about to fet out for Sterling, the love which I bear you, for my dear Master's fake, constrains me to fend you a line. It is fome concern to me, that our difference as to outward things, should cut off our sweet fellowship and communion with each other. Goo knows my heart, I highly value and honour you. Reverend and dear Sir, I do affure you I love you and your brethren more than ever. I applaud your zeal for GoD; and though, in fome respects, I think it not according to knowledge, and to be levelled frequently against me, yet indeed I feel no refentment in my heart, and fhould joyfully fit down and hear you and your other brethren preach. I falute them all; and pray our common LORD to give us all a right judgment in all things. I hope the glorious Emmanuel will be prefent at the facrament, and make himfelf known to you in breaking of bread. I have made bold to fend you the inclosed pamphlets, and should be glad to know your opinion of them. When I shall come to Sterling, I know not. However, I earnestly pray for you and yours. I could drop a tear. O when fhall the time come, when the watchmen will fee eye to eye? Haften that time, our LORD and our GOD! But perhaps I am troublesome. Forgive me, reverend and dear Sir, being, without diffimulation, your > Younger brother and fervant in the gofpel of CHRIST,

G. W.

5

ł

Я

È

٥.

5

Ľ.

N

Ľ.

R

Ŀ

π.

ŝ.

ü

7

Ç,

0 h ū.

5

0 برز

r.

^a j,

j,

ĩ

LETTER CCCCXXVI.

403

Edinburgh, July 7, 1742. Dear Friend, T Arrived here last Saturday evening from the West, where I preached all the last week : as, twice on Monday at Paisley, fix miles from Gla gow; on the Tuefday and Wednefday, three times each day, at Irvine, 16 miles from thence; on Thurfday, twice at Mearns, fifteen miles from that; on Friday, three times at Cambernauld; and on Saturday, twice at Falkirk, in my way to Edinburgh. In every place there was the greatest commotion among the people as was ever known. Their mourning in most of the places, was like the mourning for a first-born. The auditories were very large, and the work of Gon feems to be fpreading more and more. Laft fabbath-day I preached twice in the park, and once in the church, and twice every day fince. A number of feats and shades, in the form of an amphitheatre, have been erected in the park, where the auditory fit in a beautiful order. I have received very agreeable news from my family abroad.-- I purpole going to Cambuflang to-morrow, in order to affift at the communion; and shall preach at various places westward before I return here. I intend to embark for America as foon as poffible after I leave Scotland. Thus you fee, my dear brother, how I have been employed. O give thanks to our bleffed Saviour, for his great unparalleled goodneis to a most unworthy worm. Indeed I have feen and felt fuch things, as I never faw and felt before. I never was enabled to preach fo powerfully as whilft I have been in the Weft. I hear that brother \mathcal{C} is in the country, and that you exhort in the fociety. May the LORD open your mouth, and caufe your lips to fhew forth his praife ! Let us talk of his loying-kindnefs all the day long. GOD gives me faith for my poor orphans. Help me with your prayers. GoD will fupply all my wants. Glory be to his name, I am kept from doubting. My brother, I love you dearly. You have been a close and faithful brother. May the LORD blefs you and yours. Adiau Pray fail not of writing as particular as may be, to,

Most affectionately yours in CHRIST, G. W.

D d 2

LETTER CCCCXXVII.

To Mr. H-, at the Orphan-house. Edinburgh, July 7, 1742.

My very dear friend, faithful steward, and brother in CHRIST,

AST Monday I received an agreeable packet of letters from you. I think they are dated in October and December laft. They rejoiced our hearts. As foon as I read yours. my wife faid, let us give thanks and pray. Accordingly we kneeled down, and had very near access to the Father of Mercies on your behalf. At night, after our coming home, we did the fame. Our common LORD enabled us to wreftle in faith. We all felt our hearts drawn mightily towards you. I could with for wings to fly unto you. I long to thank you in perfon, for your faithfulnefs to your poor unworthy, but most affectionate friend. My dear brother, GoD is still doing greater things for me than ever. The awakening here in Scotland is unspeakable. The congregations in the West, are just like those which you and I faw at Foggs-Manor, in Pensylvania. God feems to awaken scores together. I never was enabled to preach so before. O that I may lie low at the feet of my dear Redeemer ! to whole image I am fludying to be more conformed every day. Your letter to dear brother A---- pleased us very much. I have defired him to print it. I paid a three hundred pound bill drawn upon me by Mr. N-----, as well as Mr. B-----'s: whether you include that in the eleven thousand pounds, I know not. However, bleffed be GoD, if it were eleven thousand more I hope I should be kept from doubting. At prefent, I am looking up to our great Housholder for fresh supplies; which I believe he will give me, and which I will fend to you as foon as possible. I hope to fee you foon, and to thank you in particular for your faithfulnefs to me. My friend and brother, you fhall in no wife lose your reward. I believe GOD will take Georgia into his own hands. Its affairs have lately been before the House of Commons. Mr. Ste---- was reprimanded for his abufe of the truftees ; the use of rum was granted, but the use of flaves denied. Let us ftand still, be instant in prayer, and we shall certainly LETTERS.

certainly see the falvation of GOD. I am yet made to hope against hope, in behalf of poor Georgia. The LORD ftrengthen your weak body, and continually comfort your soul. That you may be filled with all the fulness of GOD, is the hearty prayer of, dear Mr. H-----, > Yours eternally in the firictest bonds of gospel love, G. W.

LETTER CCCCXXVIII.

è

1

2

2.

ł

Ē

E

11

r.

s.

ĥ

ŀ

Π,

.

z,

Z

it.

ŧ.

1

5

انی) مدر

53

E

8

с. С

Ċ

31

2

To Mrs. Whitefield.

My dear Love, Edinburgh, July 7, 1742. CINCE I wrote the laft, I have feen fuch things as I N never beheld before. Yesterday morning I preached at Glafgow to a very large congregation. At noon I came to Cambussiang, the place which GOD hath fo much honoured. I preached at two, to a vaft body of people, and at fix in the evening, and again at nine at night. Such a commotion furely never was heard of, especially at eleven at night. It far out-did all that I ever faw in America. For about an hour and a half there was fuch weeping, fo many falling into deep diffress, and expressing it various ways, as is inexpressible. The people feem to be flain by fcores. They are carried off, and come into the house like foldiers wounded in, and carried off a field of battle. Their cries and agonies are exceedingly affecting. Mr. M----- preached after I had ended, till paft one in the morning, and then could scarce persuade them to depart. All night in the fields, might be heard the voice of prayer and praise. Some young ladies were found by a gentlewoman praising GOD at break of day. She went and joined with them. The LORD is indeed much with me. I have preached twice to-day already, and am to preach twice, perhaps three times more. The commotions increase. Tomorrow, and on fabbath-day, I fhall preach at Calder; on Monday, here again; and on Tue/day at Kil/yth, and then, GOD willing, at Glafgow. I am perfuaded the work will fpread more and more. My kindeft respects to all. Accept of the fame from, my dear love,

Yours, &c.

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXXIX.

To the Reverend Mr. W-, of Dundee.

Reverend and dear Sir,

YOUR letter gave me fome little concern. I thought it breathed much of a fectarian fpirit; to which I hoped dear Mr. W---- was quite averse. Methinks you seem, dear Sir, not fatisfied, unless I declare myself a Presbyterian, and openly renounce the church of England. GOD knows that I have been faithful in bearing a teftimony against what I think is corrupt in that church. I have fhewn my freedom in communicating with the church of Scotland, and in baptizing children their own way. I can go no further. As for what you mention about the Quakers, I know not what particular exceptionable paffages there were in my fermons, in which I That fome good fouls are among the mentioned them. Quakers, I doubt not.-For fuch I have charity, because our LORD hath given to them his fpirit.-Though I am a Arenuous defender of the righteousness of CHRIST, and utterly deteft Arminian principles, yet I know that GOD gave me the Holy Ghoft, before I was clear in either as to head-knowledge: and therefore, dear Sir, I am the more moderate to people who are not clear, fuppoling I fee the divine image flamped upon their hearts. Mr. W---, Mr. L---, &c. I take to be holy men of GoD, though they think far widely from me, and from each other in fome particular branches of doctrine. Dear Sir, be not offended at my plain speaking. I find but few of a truly catholic spirit. Most are catholic till they bring perfons over to their own party, and there they would fetter them. I have not fo learned CHRIST. I defire to act as Gop acts. I shall approve, and join with all who are good in every fect, and caft a mantle of love over all that are bad, fo far as is confistent with a good confcience. This I can do without temporizing; nay I should defile my conscience if I did otherwise. As for my answer to Mr. M---, dear Sir, it is very fatisfying to my own foul. Morning and evening retirement is certainly exceeding good; but if through weakness of body, or frequency of preaching, I cannot go to Gos

Edinburgh, July 7, 1742.

God in my usual set times, I think my spirit is not in bondage. It is not for me to tell how often I use fecret prayer: if I did not use it, nay, if in one sense I did not pray without ceasing, it would be difficult for me to keep up that frame of foul, which by the divine bleffing I daily enjoy. If the work of Gop profpers, and your hands become more full, you will then, dear Sir, know better what I mean. But enough of this. God knows my heart, I would do every thing I poffibly could, to fatisfy all men, and give a reason of the hope that is in me with meekness and fear; but I cannot fatisfy all that are waiting for an occasion to find fault : our LORD could not : I therefore despair of doing it. However, dear Sir, I take what you have faid in very good part : only I think you are too folicitous to clear up my character to captious and prejudiced men. Let my master speak for me. Bleffed be GOD, he will, fo long as I fimply throw myfelf into his almighty arms. I am glad the work goes on with you. Glory be to God, we have feen glorious things in the Weft. My tender love to all that are pleafed to remember me. When I shall come your way, I know not. On Friday, GOD willing, I go to Cambuflang, where I expect to fee great days of the fon of man. That GOD may blefs you abundantly more and more, and caufe your latter end greatly to increase, is the hearty prayer of, reverend and dear Sir,

> Yours &c. G. W.

LETTER CCCCXXX.

To the Reverend Mr. A-, in Dublin. Glafgow, July 12, 1742.

Reverend and dear Sir,

O N Saturday I received your very kind letter, and being juft now returned from Cambuflang, I fnatch a few moments to acknowledge it. I have long fince waited for a call to Ireland. In fuch an important ftep, I care not to proceed without great caution. When I find the cloud of divine providence moving your way, I truft the language of my heart will be, LORD, I come to do or füffer thy will ! In the mean while, I will watch unto prayer. I doubt not but you, reve-D d 4. 408

rend and dear Sir, will help me herein. I thank you most heartily, for being jealous over me. I believe it is with a godly jealoufy. I with I was more jealous over myfelf. But bleffed be GOD, this I can fay in the midft of the honours wherewith the glorious Emmanuel hath honoured me, "Not unto me, O LORD, not unto me, but unto thy name be all the glory." Dear Sir, I think I am the worst of the sons of men. Yet I dare not deny what the bleffed Jesus hath done for my finful foul. He is pleafed (O infinitely condefcending God !) to honour me still more and more. Saturday last I came to Cambuslang, and I think I never faw fuch things before. The work feems to be fpreading. O that it may reach and overfpread poor Ireland alfo! All things are possible with God. Now the LORD is watering fo many other places, I pray he may not leave that intirely defitute and dry.-O for faith to expect great, and very great things from GOD ! He does not love to disappoint people of their hope. Dear Sir, my heart is now enlarged with a fense of the freeness and fulness of the Redeemer's loving-kindness. You, dear Sir, are an old weather beaten foldier. You are ripened for glory, and are ready to fing your Nunc dimittis *...- I am just about to begin to be a foldier. But, bleffed be GOD, I shall follow foon. The hopes of bringing more fouls to JESUS CHRIST, is the only confideration that can reconcile me to life. For this cause I can willingly stay long from my wish'd-for home. my wished-for JESUS. But whither am I going ? I forget myself when writing of JESUS. His love fills my foul, O free grace ! Surely I shall fing the loudest in heaven ; but I must have done; nature calls for rest. Depending on the continuance of your prayers, and with my hearty falutation to all that love the bleffed JESUS, I subscribe myself, reverend and dear Sir,

Your most affectionate, though younger and most unworthy brother and fervant in the gospel of Gon's dear Son, G. W.

* Now letteft thou thy fervant, &c.

LETTER CCCCXXXI.

To Mr. J---- C-----, in London. New-Kilpatrick, July 15, 1742.

100

My dear Brother,

F all my fellow-labourers letters, I think yours come the fweeteft to my foul. You do not forget the rock from whence you was hewn, and therefore the LORD will honour you more and more. Though I have fo fmall a degree of humility myfelf, I can fee and admire it in others. It is the queen of graces. O beg of the exalted JESUS to make me humble. Indeed I have need of humility, for I am honoured more and more. What I have fent you already, does not near come up to what I have feen fince. Laft Thur day night, and Friday morning, there was fuch a fhock in Edinburgh as I never felt before. O what a melting and weeping was there ! I have heard bleffed effects of it fince, All glory be to GOD through CHRIST. On Friday night I came to Cambuflang, to affift at the bleffed facrament. On Saturday I preached to above twenty thousand people. In my prayer the power of GOD came down and was greatly felt. In my two fermons, there was yet more power. On fabbath day, fcarce ever was fuch a fight feen in Scotland. There were undoubtedly upwards of twenty thousand people. Two tents were fet up, and the holy facrament was administered in the fields. When I began to ferve a table, the power of GoD was felt by numbers; but the people crouded fo upon me, that I was obliged to defift and go to preach at one of the tents. whilft the ministers served the rest of the tables. Gop was with them, and with his people. There was preaching all day by one or another, and in the evening, when the facrament was over, at the request of the ministers I preached to the whole congregation. I preached about an hour and a half, Surely it was a time much to be remembered. On Monday morning, I preached again to near as many; but fuch an universal stir I never saw before. The motion fled as swift as lightning from one end of the auditory to another. You might have seen thousands bathed in tears. Some at the same time wringing their hands, others almost fwooning, and others crying 410 crying out, and mourning over a pierced Saviour. But I must not attempt to describe it. In the afternoon, the concern again was very great. Much prayer had been previoufly put up to the LORD. All night in different companies, you might have heard perfons praying to, and praifing God. The children of GOD came from all quarters. It was like the paffover in Josiah's time. We are to have another in about two or three months, if the LORD will. One Mr. W----, s minister, who has great popular gifts, was as well as others much owned and helped at this time. On Tuefday morning I preached at Gla/gow, (it was a most glorious time) and in the sfternoon twice at Inchannon. The LORD gave a blow to many. Yefterday morning I preached there again, and here twice. Every time there was a great ftir, especially at this place. A great company of awakened fouls is within the combass of twenty miles, and the work seems to be spreading apace. I am exceedingly firengthened, O unmerited mercy ! both in foul and body, and cannot now do well without preaching three times a day. The LORD gives me great confidence about the Orphan-house, and affures me that he will provide for me and mine. O help me to thank him. Call upon all to blefs his holy name. I know you will not be flack to praise him. I rejoice, my dear brother, to find that you enjoy to much of Gop. May be fill you with all his fulnefs. The trials you meet with, will only make you a more able minister of the New Testament. I am of your mind with respect to ----. He will not prosper. The LORD hates sectarian zeal. Dear brother, adieu. Expect to hear every opportunity from

Yours most affectionately and eternally

in the bleffed JESUS,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXXXII.

To the Reverend Mr. R, in London.

Inchannon, July 21, 1742.

· Reverend and dear Sir,

Heartily rejoice that the LORD is bleffing and owning you, Go on, dear Sir, go on, and you will certainly find the glorious plorious Emmanuel will be with you more and more. It is observable, that there is but one thing in fcripture, that we are commanded to do out of feason, preaching. Be instant therefore, dear Sir, in feafon and out of feafon. The LORD will fland by you and ftrengthen you, and deliver you from wicked and unreafonable men. You will find the bleffednefs of the crois, and the spirit of CHRIST and of glory to reft upon your foul. The Meffrs. E---- and their adherents. would you think it, have appointed a publick fast to humble themselves, among other things, for my being received in Scotland, and for the delusion, as they term it, at Cambuslang, and other places; and all this, because I would not consent to preach only for them, till I had light into, and could take the folemn league and covenant. - But to what lengths may prejudice carry even good men ?-From giving way to the first rifings of bigotry and a party spirit, good LORD deliver us !

Your most affectionate brother in CHRIST,

G. W.

411

LETTER CCCCXXXIII.

To Mr. M- A-, at Morpeth.

Dear Sir,

Edinburgh, July 26, 1742.

Juft now received and read your letter. It much affected me. It befpeaks the language of an unealy reftlefs heart. In reading it, I thought of the great Auftin, who used, when he prayed against lust, fecretly to wish that his prayer might not be answered, and yet he made a most eminent faint, and fhone in the church as a ftar of the first magnitude. I likewife thought how our Saviour would receive you, if here on earth; even as he received and answered the poor woman taken in adultery .--- I am fure he would fay, " Neither do I condemn thee." Another text offers itfelf, " I will heal their backflidings, and love them freely." God does not fay, I will heal thy backfliding for any certain term of years, but I will heal thy backflidings in general. Dear Sir, if you have been a backslider these fifty years, nay, was it possible for you to have been a backflider a thousand years, yet if with hearty repentance and true faith you turn unto him, he will abundantly pardon you. O dear Sir, if any one had need to defpair of mercy, mercy, I had; but JESUS has washed me in his blood, and I know that my Redeemer liveth. Your temptations, and atheifm, and hard thoughts of GOD, do not furprize me. Dear. Sir, what elfe can be expected from a heart desperately wicked. and deceitful above all things? Dear Sir, let all this driveyou to the fountain which is open for fin and all uncleannefs. I once, in your circumftances, thought CHRIST was hardhearted; but now I find, nay have long fince found, that his heart is full of love. Take courage, dear Sir; draw near to the Lamb of GOD that taketh away the fin of the world. Return, thou wandering prodigal, thy heavenly father is running to meet thee .--- Come back, thou fluttering dove, JESUS is ready to take thee into the ark. May GOD blefs this to you ! If he does, I will blefs his name. I am a vile finner, and have need to lie low before him, whom I have pierced by my tranfgreffion and unprofitableness, times without number. In his. blood and righteousness I find perpetual refuge. Many in these parts are flying to him. May you, Sir, add to the happy number. You are but a finner, and JESUS died for finners. Come and welcome to JESUS CHRIST. I expect to remain in Scotland a few months, and hope to be your way, if the LORD direct. If your way should be directed hither, I should be glad to fee you; if not, you are welcome to write to me. As my multiplicity of affairs will admit, you shall be answered by, dear Sir,

3

Your truly affectionate friend and servant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCCXXXIV.

To the Reverend Mr. Mc L-----,

Edinburgh, July 28, 1742.

Reverend and dear Sir,

WITH this, I suppose, you will receive several young ones, who I think have acted wrong in leaving their respective employs under parents and masters to go after me. Be pleased to examine them, and fend them home. The LORD was with me at Falkirk, and is pleased to work by me here. O free grace ! I am persuaded I shall have more power, since dear Mr. G---- hath printed such a bitter pamphlet. Now

Digitized by Google

I bea

I begin to be a disciple of JESUS CHRIST, I rejoice and am exceeding glad. The archers shot fore at me that I might fall, but the LORD is, and the LORD will be my helper. At present I can add no more; but beg the continuance of your prayers for me and mine. We all join in hearty falutation to you and your whole houshold. I am, reverend and dear Sir,

Your most obedient humble fervant, and brother in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCCXXXV.

To Mr. D _____, in London. Edinburgh, July 30, 1742.

Dear Brother A_____,

W HAT is the meaning I hear no oftner from you? It always gives me great pleafure to hear of your welfare. I write to you as often as poffible. At prefent I am fomewhat indifpofed in body; but, glory be to GoD, the joy of the LORD is in my foul. I feel a bleffing I cannot express.

July 31.

So far I wrote yesterday, but was obliged through illness to leave off .-- Notwithstanding, in the pulpit the LORD out of weakness makes me to wax strong, and causes me to triumph more and more. One of the aflociate prefbytery has published the most virulent pamphlet I ever faw, ascribing all that has been done here, and even in New-England, &c. to the influence of the devil. O how prejudice will blind the eyes even of good men. Last night some of my friends thought I was going off; but how did JESUS fill my heart! To-day I am, as they call it, much better; next post, if able, I will fend you fome more news. My health will not permit me to enlarge now. In lefs than a month, we are to have another facrament at Cambuslang, a thing not practifed before in Scotland. I entreat all to pray in an efpecial manner for a bleffing at that time. Our bleffed mafter is exceeding good to us. O help help me to praise him for the fignal unmerited mercies conferred on, dear brother A-----,

LETTERS.

Your most affectionate brother and servant in CHBIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXXXVI.

To Mr. H----- B-----, in South-Carolina.

Dear Mr. B----

414

August 6, 1742.

Have just been walking with a nobleman in his fine house, and likewise talking with him about the house not made with hands, of which you and I are heirs. Bleffed be GOD, who has given us the earnest of an inheritance amongst all them that are fanctified. This you shall furely in a very little time be a posseffor of, notwithstanding of late fatan has bruifed your heel. That cunning, cruel archer has thot forely at you, that you might fall, but the LORD has been, and the LORD will be your helper. Even this shall work together for good to your own and many other fouls. Our Saviour would never have given fatan leave to have fifted you, had he not prayed for you, and intended to bring great good out of it. If it makes you more like a little child, and your friends and acquaintance more watchful and felf-diffident, it will be very well. O dear Sir, I fee every day plainer and plainer that I am nothing, have nothing, and can do nothing, and yet I can do all things through JESUS CHRIST ftrengthening me, What GOD has lately done for me and his church, is unspeakable. Ere long I hope to tell you face to face. In the mean time, be pleased to remember me in your prayers and praises, Accept my hearty thanks for all favours conferr'd on my orphan family. Be pleased to remember me in the kindest and most cordial manner, to all your dear relations, and believe me to be, dear Mr. B----,

Your most obliged affectionate friend, brother

Digitized by Google

and fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXXXVIL.

Strath-martin, August 10, 1742.

Dear brother Robert,

à,

ľ,

t.

11

e(

i.

ġ

d

Ź:

:

X?

17

B

, 1

Ť.

۲I

i.

d ?

. 13.1

Ċ2

5

3

Ţ,

Ċ,

13

Eh Gi

T.

I Can never let a letter of yours lie long unanswered. The love I bear to you and yours is unfeigned, and I continually remember you before the LORD. His word runs and is much glorified in these parts. I trust it also makes advances in your foul. How is it with you, my dear brother R ---? Do you grow in grace ? Is the world more under your feet than ufual ? Do you find a real, folid, abiding reft in JESUS CHRIST ? Or is it only transitory and superficial? It is a very uncommon thing to be rooted and grounded in the love of JESUS. I find perfons may have the idea, but are far from having the real fub-'To fay, "I am a poor finner," and to be a poor ftance. finner indeed, are two different things. Methinks I hear my dear man fay, and fo they are. Well then, let us go to JEsus, and he will make us poor and yet free. Bleffed be his name, I feel the power of his precious, life-giving, all-atoning blood more and more every day. I was happy when at London. I am ten times happier now. The LORD hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad. How is my dear Peter ? Is his heart yet established and settled upon the rock ? Or is the dove only fluttering about the door of the ark? If fo, may the dear Redeemer reach out his almighty and extended arm, and take him in ! Dear B--- I hope grows, because he feems to see more of his heart. We shall certainly bear fruit upwards, in proportion as we take root downwards. May the eternal fpirit breathe upon this letter, and blefs it to your foul ! O my brother, keep clofe to JESUS. Do not be content, unless you feel a sensible growth in your foul. Accept my hearty love from,

Ever yours,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXXXVIII.

To P____, at London.

Strath-martin, August 10, 1742.

HE great trouble which I gave you when at London, and the readiness you shewed in waiting upon a poor unworthy minister of CHRIST, hath made me often to pray for you, and also to hope, that in time you would be brought to love the LORD JESUS himfelf. I truft that time is now come, and that the glorious Emmanuel hath at length captivated and taken full possession of your heart. Will you give me leave to alk a few friendly questions ? Has religion funk out of your head into your heart? You was civilized when I was at London : Are you yet really converted ? Your affections were now and then raifed towards,-are they now centered in and fixed on the LORD JESUS? If you can answer these questions in the affirmative, I pronounce you a wile virgin, even wife to eternal falvation ; bleffed art thou among women. If not, I do not despair of you. JESUS can change the heart. JESUS can make of a proud pharifee, a poor finner. Let you and I then, dear P----, apply to the Redeemet's blood. He can wash us as white as snow. I feel his power every day more and more, and fo do those with me. May we go on from ftrength to ftrength, till grace be fwallowed up in glory. We fee great days of the fon of man in Scotland. May the kingdom of God come with full power over all the earth ! The Lord be with you. Accept this as a token of unfeigned love, from

> Your affectionate friend and servant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCCXXXIX.

To Mr. B-, at the Orphan-houfe.

Cambuflang, August 17, 1742. A ND has my dear brother B—— got the flart of me? What, put into prifon before me? I with you joy, my dear brother, with all my heart. Had I been at Savannab, furely I would gladly have come (and if there had been need)

- 416

Dear P-

417 need) gladly have washed your feet. I doubt not but your imprisonment was for CHRIST's fake. I am perfuaded, the letter from your friend that doubted, was the forest stab of all ; but all is intended to draw us from the creature, even from the new creature, and bring us nearer to the Creator, God bleffed for evermore. Paul's friends deferted, and no doubt judged him. " All they in Afia forfook me," fays he; and again, "At my first trial no man stood by me;" and what follows? but "the LORD flood by me :" and will he not, dear brother, also stand by you ? I cannot help believing but that Georgia will yet be a glorious colony. The counfel of Gon shall stand. He furely put it into my heart to build the Orphan-houfe. He certainly brought you to Georgia to fuperintend it. He will blefs you and yours. I join in bleffing GOD with you, and in admiring how he has foread a table for my dear family in that wilderness. But what shall we fay? The LORD loves to encourage faith ; and fince his honour is fo much concerned, I am fure he will vindicate it, and never fuffer his enemies to fay thus of us, ". There, there, fo would we have it." I am kept from the least doubting; and GOD only knows how many prayers of faith I have put up for you. I have often wished as it were for the wings of a dove, that I might fly unto you, and take you one by one into my unworthy arms, and weep over you with tears of love. Bleffed be GoD, the time draws near apace. I am just now about to publish a further account of the Orphan-house, and hope fhortly to collect fome more money towards its support. I am bleffed with far greater fuccess than ever, and fatan roars louder. You will fee by what I here fend, how the archers of different classes shoot at me; but the LORD (for ever adored be his never-failing love) causes my bow to abide in ftrength, and enables me to triumph in every place. The comforts and fuccels the LORD gives to me, is unspeakable. Laft LORD's day, I believe there were here thirty thousand people, and above two thousand five hundred communicants. The work foreads, and I believe will yet foread. My bodity ftrength is daily renewed, and I mount on the wings of faith and love like an eagle. I can only cry Grace ! grace ! My dear brother, I feel every day more and more, that I am a poor, very poor finner. I often wonder why JESUS fuffers me to Εe Vol. I. live, 9

ľ,

5

1.

:

.....

٤.

7

jı

Ľ

n:

IC.

T

37

Ęĩ

(Y)

Ŀ

4 ŗ.'

1

ŗ.

Ś

í.

7

Ś

f

5

į

1

live, much more to speak for him. But he will have mercy on whom he will have mercy. O free grace ! Oh unparalleled love of an infinitely condescending GoD ! Whilft I am mufing. the fire kindles. Surely we shall have a happy meeting in Georgia. My Master will, I trust, come along with me. Otherwife, may I not go up hence. In the mean while, I pray him to quicken and revive your dear fouls, and fill you as with new wine. Thus he deals with me and mine daily. I am retired for a day, on purpole to write letters. The LORD blefs them to your dear fouls, whom I love in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST. I wish you had told me who ftood by at Savannah and brought you refreshment. Greet them, and give them particular thanks in my name. My heart is full; I know not how to flop. But I must write to the truftees, and to others. ' I heard nothing of the affair, till I received your letter last week. A word or two of yours to Mr. O----, I think a little too harfh; but Paul spoke once a little too harsh to the high-priest. Our JESUS will overlook this; and reward you for your imprisonment by and by. Adieu ! my dear man, adieu ! Forget not,

Ever yours,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXL.

To the Honourable Truftees for Georgia.

Cambustang, Aug. 17, 1742.

Honoured Gentlemen,

418

S OME letters, which I received laft week from Georgia, occafion my troubling you with this, which I doubt not will meet with a candid reception at your hands. I find that Mr. H— and Mr. B— have been taken up by a warrant, and were imprifoned above a week, for a thing which, I believe, none of you, honoured gentlemen, will judge cognízable by the civil magiftrate. It feems that Mr. B—, in a private converfation with Mr. O—, (who, I fuppofe, is the prefent minifter of Savannab) told him, "He was no " chriftian; that he wondered at the impudence of young men in fubfcribing articles they did not believe; and that he fhould think it his duty to warn his friends not to hear him." I acknow-

Digitized by Google

- Alic

L E T T E R S.

2

-

č,

2

Ľ,

æ.

Ľ

51) 1

L.

E.

Èr

ź

11

d.

.

71

Г,

1

Ľ

51

ţ,

]:

Ť

À

5

J

ł

Ŋ

Ú

knowledge that fuch language was too harfh; but Mr. H----, who did not fay near fo much, was linked in the fame profecution, and imprisoned with him. Mr. 7-----, who was then at Frederica, being informed of it, declared fuch a procedure to be illegal; and his Excellency General Oglethorp, defired my friends to lay the matter before the board of the Honourable Truftees. I being now upon the fpot, they have fent to me a very particular account of what has passed; which, if you please, honoured gentlemen, I will transmit unto you, or, when I come to London, will wait upon you in I find also, that my friends were denied a copy of the perfon. proceedings of the court : in which, I am perfuaded the honourable gentlemen to whom I am writing, will think they have been wronged. My friends require no fatisfaction, but only defire fuch a proceeding may be animadverted upon; knowing that otherwife it will be a great discouragement to people's fettling in Georgia. I am forry also to inform you, honoured gentlemen, that five very fmall children, (Swifs or Dutch) whose parents lately died in their passage from England, have had their goods fold at Vendue, and are bound out till the age of twenty-one years. This I think directly contrary to the grant given me by you, honoured gentlemen; for thereby I was impowered to take as many orphans into the house as my fund would admit of. The magistrates, I understand, have also been at the Orphan-house, and claim a power to take away the children when they pleafe, whether the children chuse it, or complain of ill-treatment, or not. This grieves fome of the children, and makes others of them infolent, who are hereby taught, that they have a power to go away when they will. This, honoured gentlemen, must be very difcouraging to those who are entrusted with their education; and who, I am perfuaded, aim at nothing but the glory of GOD, the welfare of the colony, and the falvation of the children's fouls. I suppose that the magistrates (I mean Mr. P----and Mr. T-----) have taken fuch a liberty from the inftructions which were fent, honoured gentlemen, from you fome sime ago. But Mr. 7----- has told them, they have mifunderftood you; and his Excellency General Oglethorp I find has wrote to you, honoured gentlemen, about it. By the Ee 2 accounts accounts I have, our plantation thrives well; and Mr. H---hopes we fhall do with white fervants alone. I do affure you, honoured gentlemen, I will do all I can, with the most difinterested views, to promote the good of Georgia : only I beg the management of the Orphan-house, and orphans, may be fecured to me and my fucceffors for ever; and that the magistrates be not fuffered to disturb us, when there is no ground of complaint. They acknowledged, when at the Orphanhouse last, that the children were taken good care of, both as to their bodies and fouls; and will it not then, honoured gentlemen, tend much to the welfare of the colony, that the Orphan-house should meet with all possible encouragement. His Excellency General Oglethorp has informed my friend Mr. H----, that, if I defired it, he thought you would grant me a greater tract of land, which I should be obliged to give away in a certain term of years, and that we might have our own magistrates, as have the people of Ebenezer. Whether I shall defire fuch a favour, I know not; but, if I should, I defire to know, what you, honoured gentlemen, would fay to it. Many have applied to me to fettle in Georgia; hitherto I could give them no encouragement. I with I may be enabled to give them a great deal for the future. Indeed, honoured gentlemen, I do not defire to find fault. I doubt not but you have been prejudiced both against me and my friends. The event will shew what friends we are to Georgia. The Orphan-houfe will certainly be of great utility to the colony; and the children educated therein, I truft, will be the glory of the fociety to which they belong. They are bred up to industry, as well as to other things ; and are taught to fear GOD. and honour the king. I am glad to hear that you have lately fent over a gentleman who (I fuppofe) will do justice. I think I defire nothing elfe; and heartily pray GoD to blefs him, and you, honoured gentlemen, and all that are concerned in the management of Georgia affairs. I hope to be in town in about two months; in the mean while, I would beg the favour of a line by your fecretary; and alfo entreat you, honoured gentlemen, to write to the magistrates of Savannah, to let the Orphan-house managers alone. If I or my friends should happen to fay or do any thing amifs, I affure you, honoured gentle-gentlemen, you shall have all possible satisfaction given you by them, and also by, honoured gentlemen,

419

Your very humble fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXLI.

To Mr. H-, in Georgia.

Cambuslang, Aug. 17, 1742.

My very dear Friend and Brother,

TTH a great deal of pleasure I received your letters dated May 14th, 26th, 29th, and June 1st. Bleffed be GOD ! for all his goodness, in providing for my dear family in that wilderness, by fuch various unexpected ways. It caufed my heart to leap for joy. I find you have been wrongfully imprisoned. I should have been glad (if time had permitted) that you had wrote me word, how it has been with your foul under fuch a circumstance. I hope the spirit of CHRIST and of glory refted upon you. Glad fhould I have been to have fung and prayed with you; but my hour is not yet come. I have just now wrote to the trustees, and intend waiting upon them as foon as I come to London. I am perfuaded the LORD will influence their hearts to do us justice. I am glad you wrote fo properly to the General, and that Gop hath given you favour in his fight. "When a man's ways please the LORD, he makes his very enemies to be at peace with him." I intend fending him and Mr. Jones a letter of thanks. I owe Mr. S---- only about ninety pounds, and about a hundred and fifty more in all, upon the Orphan-house account in England. I am just publishing a further account, which I am perfuaded the LORD will bless. I would not have you to undertake any business you do not like. I think the LORD has fitted you for your present station. Professor Franck held it dangerous to change perfons frequently, who were entrusted with the care of the orphans. I am of your opinion as to hiring fervants.-It is impoffible to tell you, my dear man, what I have feen, heard, and felt fince I came laft to Scotland. The glorious Emmanuel rides daily on in the chariot of his gospel, from conquering and to conquer. The Ee 2 con-congregations are just like that at Fogg-Manor .- - I am opposed on all fides. Dear Mr. E____'s people have lately kept a fast upon my account. The kirk presbyters also, now they fee the Seceders splitting, notwithstanding I have been instrumental in GOD's hands, in fome degree, in ftopping the feceffion, begin to call fome of their ministers to account for employing me: but who can fland before envy? In the midft of all, my dear Mafter keeps me leaning upon himfelf, and causes me to walk in the comforts of the Holy Ghoft from morning to night. I with time would have allowed you to have wrote a little about his love, and to have abounded more in thanks for the opportune fupplies which he fent you. But I am fure that my dear Mr. H---- is not wanting in either of these. I think that I see you grow in grace. I assure vou, vou are dearer to me than ever. My wife readily excuses your not writing, knowing what it is to be in a hurry of bufinefs. O pray that we may have a prosperous voyage to you, by the will of GOD. By this time I suppose you are a father. May GOD teach you and your wife how to order the child ! I have much to fay to you both, when I fee you. My dear old friend, and first fellow-traveller, GOD has yet great bleffings in flore for us. He will give grace and glory, and no good thing will he with-hold from them that lead a godly life. Methinks I am converfing with you now. May GOD give us a 'happy meeting ! He will, he will ! For the prefent I must bid my dear man good night. I ftole this day from public preaching, to difpatch my private affairs. All join in hearty love to, and prayers for you. Accept of the fame in the most tender manner, from, my dear Mr. H----,

421

Your most affectionate friend, brother, and fervant till death,

Digitized by Google

- G. H.

LETTER

LETTERS.

LETTER CCCCXLII.

To his Excellency General Oglethorp.

Cambuslang, Aug. 18, 1742.

Honoured Sir,

Moft heartily thank you for being fo kind to my family in Georgia, and for elpoufing my friends caufe when I think they were apparently wronged. In a letter, I yesterday laid the cafe before the honourable truftees, not doubting but they will preferve us from oppreffion, and from perfecution in all its shapes. I think we have only the glory of GOD, and the good of the colony at heart. Prejudices may be raifed against us by evil reports and misrepresentations; but your Excellency is more noble than to hearken to infinuations, which are not supported by evident matters of fact. I am fure GoD will bles you for defending the cause of the fatherlefs, and espouling the cause of injured innocence. My friends, I truft, will at all times readily acknowledge any thing they may either fay or do wrong; and, if I know any thing of my own heart, I would not offend any one caufelefsly and wilfully, for the world. In a few months I hope to fee Georgia. In the mean while, I beg your Excellency to accept these few lines of thanks from, honoured Sir,

Your Excellency's most obliged humble fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXLIII. To Themas J----, Efq; in Georgia. Cambuflang, Aug. 18, 1742.

Dear Mr. J-----, W ITH this I fend you my repeated thanks for your great kindnefs to my dear family. The Father of Mercies and the God of all Confolations will plentifully reward you for fuch well-doing. In a few months I hope to thank you in perfon. GOD hath done, and is ftill doing greater things for me than I am able to express. Indeed many fouls have been born again, both in England and Scotland, fince I left you at Georgia. I defire to caft my crown at the E e 4 feet feet of JESUS, and to cry Grace ! grace ! Dear Sir, what a charming word is that ! I am fure I can freely own, that all my falvation is of grace, unmerited, diffinguifhing, electing grace ! If I could be faved by my own righteoufnefs, I had rather be faved by the righteoufnefs of CHRIST; becaufe that way of falvation brings most glory to our glorious GOD. I doubt not but Mr. \mathcal{F} —— is like-minded. May he be fo more and more, and daily feel the full power of the Redeemer's blood ! Be pleafed to remember me to all that are pleafed to enquire after unworthy me, who am, dear Sir,

Digitized by Google

423

Your most obliged friend and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXLIV.

To Mrs. B-, at the Orphan-houfe.

Cambuslang, Aug. 18, 1742.

Dear Sifter B----,

424

TAS the LORD called for your dear lambs? If fo, I truft you have been enabled to fay, " The LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away: bleffed be the name of the LORD." I am glad to find you was fo well reconciled to your dear hufband's imprisonment. It is fweet when wives are ftrengthened to encourage their husbands in a fuffering hour. Then are they helps meet for them indeed. You do well, my dear fifter, to lament the vileness of your heart. I find more and more that my heart is desperately wicked. But, bleffed be GOD, I have a fountain to go and wash in every moment. even the bleffed fountain of the Mediator's blood. There I can have free access; there I can wash, and daily be made clean. Indeed, my dear fifter, without diffimulation, I am a poor, very poor finner; but I am rich in JESUS, and rejoice in his great falvation from day to day. I long to fee you and my dear family, to acquaint you what GoD hath done for my foul: and yet he is still doing more and more. He does, he will delight to honour me. I thank you for the great respect you pay me for his great name's fake. I will endeavour not to be behind with you, and the reft of my dear friends, in humility and love. I am, my dear fifter, most fincerely,

Your affectionate friend, brother, and

· Digitized by Google

fervant in JESUS CHRIST,

G. W. LETTER

LETTER CCCCXLV. To Mr. B-----

Cambuslang, Aug. 18, 1742.

Think there is a mystery in the LORD's dealing with you and your brother. Surely he would never fuffer you to be thus tempted, did he not intend to honour you by and by. What our Saviour does to us now we know not; it is enough that he hath affured us we shall know hereafter. I rejoice to hear that you have fo many christian negroes. I hope they are only the first-fruits of a more glorious harvest. Though the work may be at a ftop for a while, fear not; JESUS will revive his own work in his own time. Notwithstanding our blunders, imprudence, and the opposition of enemies from without, yet the counfel of the LORD fhall ftand, and he will fet his king upon his holy hill of Zion. The Mediator's kingdom makes glorious advances here. I cannot tell you the hundredth part. I verily believe we shall see greater things abroad. I know you pray that I may have a prosperous journey to you, by the will of GOD. I expect to embark for Georgia in a few months. In the mean while, you shall not be forgotten by, dear Mr. B----,

Your most affectionate friend, brother and servant,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXLVI. To Mrs. T., in South-Carolina.

Cambuslang, Aug. 18, 1742.

My dear Friend,

Dear Mr. B---,

I Am glad to hear by your fifter, that you are become a defpifed follower of the lowly JESUS.—O glorious character ! I am perfuaded you had rather have that title truly applied to you, than to be emprefs of the univerfe. I long to fee you, and to hear you tell what a happy change you feel. How does dear Mr. T—? Is he yet truly broken, and going, hand in hand with you to heaven ? Happy pair !—I know, by fweet experience, the comforts you enjoy. Death itfelf fhall fhall not part you. I hope, nothing that has happened to dear Mr. B—— will prove a flumbling block to your foul. Such things muft be glory to him, that has faid " all things fhall " work together for good." My dear friends, what a my-flery is the chriftian life? Happy those, who are acquainted with it. That it may be revealed more and more in your hearts, is the earneft prayer of, dear friends,

Your most affectionate friend, brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCCXLVII.

Cambuslang, Aug. 26, 1742.

My very dear Brother,

LAD was I last night to receive a letter from your J hands. I love your fimple honeft heart, and earneftly pray the dear Redeemer to give you a true, lasting, abiding reft in himself. Bleffed be his name, I think I can fay, through free grace, that I am in a measure entered into it, and know what it is by happy experience, to pais from glory to glory every day. My dear brother, I am opposed on every fide; the archers shoot fore at me that I may fall, but the LORD is my helper. He causes my bow to abide in strength. and makes me more than conqueror through his love. The account fent with this, will thew you how often I have been enabled to preach; but with what efficacy and fuccess, pen cannot describe. The glorious Redeemer seems to be advancing from congregation to congregation, carrying all before him. The Meffrs. E____'s people have kept a fast for me, and give out, that all the work now in Scotland is only delufion, and by the agency of the devil. O, my dear brother, to what great lengths in bigotry and prejudice may good men run? Bleffed be GOD, I can fee the differences between GoD's children, and yet love them from my heart. What you faid about poor Wales, affected me. I laid upon my face this day, and for fome time pleaded with groans unutterable, for direction in that, and feveral other matters of great confequence. I fear my dear brother thinks too highly of me. Indeed, I feel myfelf to be a poor finner, and yet I am rich in CHRIST,

Digitized by Google

LETTER'S.

CHRIST, and lean upon his bosom from morning to night; nay, all the night long. By his grace alone I am what I am; and if he is pleafed to honour me fo far, I fhould be glad to help the brethren in Wales. I am forry to hear there has been fuch divisions. But dividing times generally precede fettling times. Upon the receipt of your last, I wrote to Mr. O-----. Last night I received his answer. He speaks very honourably of you, but thinks that you are too cenforious, in condemning a whole fociety for the faults of but fome, and too bigotted also to your own way. My dear brother will excuse this. I would not deal fo freely, or take fuch liberty, did I not believe you would take it kindly. My brother, my foul loves you. Dear Mils Nancy wrote me word you was at my house, (I rejoiced) and that you prayed heartily for unworthy me. The LORD reward, and fill you with all joy and peace in believing ! Our LORD is fovereign in his dealing with his dear children. I walk in much liberty. O free grace! Your being fo exercised with inward conflicts, helps you to search hypocrites. But glory be to our heavenly Father, there is a glorious rest awaits us, and all the children of GOD. I think I feel a foretafte of it now; nay, I believe I feel the thing itfelf in a degree, and when I speak of it, I speak what I know. O infinitely condescending Gop! My brother, my heart is full. The LORD JESUS bless you, and fill your dear foul with all his fulnefs ! So prays, with his whole heart,

Your most affectionate though most unworthy brother, and willing fervant in CHRIST,

G. W.

427

LETTER CCCCXLVIII.

To Mrs. L-, in Briftol. Cambusfang, Aug. 26, 1742.

Honoured Mother,

L

5

Ē

í

1

1

I

,Ł ۱

ű.

3

2

1:

1

ţ

Ţ.

а (Г

۲. ج

į.

Ľ

r F

٢

5

5

$

ġ

ţ,

ţ

I Rejoice to hear that you have been fo long under my roof. Bleffed be GOD, that I have a house for my honoured mother to come to. You are heartily welcome to any thing my house affords, as long as you please. I am of the same mind now, as formerly. If need was, indeed these hands fhould should administer to your necessities. I had rather want myfelf than you should. I shall be highly pleased when I come to Briftol, and find you fitting in your youngest fon's house. O that I may fit with you, in the house not made with hands eternal in the heavens! Ere long, your doom, honoured mother, will be fixed. You must shortly go hence, and be no more feen. Your only daughter, I truft, is now in the paradife of Gon. Methinks I hear her fay, " Mother, come up hither." JESUS, I am fure, calls you in his word. May his fpirit enable you to fay, " LORD, lo I come !" My honoured mother, I am happier and happier every day. JESUS makes me exceeding happy in himfelf. I hope by Winter to be at Briflol. If any enquire after me, pleafe to tell them, I am, well both in body and foul, and defire them to help me to praife free and fovereign grace ? O that my dear, my very honoured mother may be made an everlafting monument of it ! How does my heart burn with love and duty to you ? gladly would I wash your aged feet, and lean upon your neck, and weep and pray 'till I could pray no more. With this I fend you a thousand dutiful falutations, and ten thousand hearty and most humble thanks for all the pains you underwent in conceiving, bringing forth, nurfing, and bringing up, honoured mother,

> Your most unworthy, though most dutiful son, 'till death,

> > G. W.

LETTER CCCCXLIX. To Mr. A., in London.

Cambuslang, Aug. 27, 1742.

My very dear Brother A,

THIS day fortnight I came to this place, to affift at the facramental occafion with feveral worthy ministers of the church of Scotland. Such a passover has not been heard of. The voice of prayer and praife was heard all night. It was supposed, that between 30 and 40,000 people were assembled, and 3000 communicated. There were three tents, The ministers were enlarged, and great grace was among the people. I preached once on Saturday, once on the LORD's Day z

Ŀ

2

11

t

L, .

1

17

ĩ

h

Σİ

c,

Ĩ.

Y.C

12

ية. سر

6

ľ.

Ŀ,

j,

n,

Į.

3Í

큀

9Ê

Ċ,

Day morning, ferved five tables, and preached about ten at night to a great number in the Church-yard. Though it rained much, there was a great awakening. On Monday at fevon in the morning, the Reverend Mr. Webster preached, and there was a very great commotion, and also in the third fer-' mon when I preached, a very great and ferious concern was visible through the whole folemnity. The LORD's people went home much refreshed. On Thur/day I preached twice at Greenock ; on Friday three times at Kilbride, and again on Saturday once, and twice at Stevenson; on Sunday four times at Irvine. On Monday once at Irvine, and three times at Kilmarnock; on Tuefday once at Kilmarnock, and four times at Stewarton; on Wednefday once at Stewarton, and twice at the Mearnes; and yesterday twice at this place. I never preached with fo much apparent fuccels before. At Greenock, Irvine, Kilbride, Kilmarnock, and Stewarton, the concern was great : at the three last very extraordinary. The work feems to fpread more and more. O, my friend, pray and give praise in behalf of the most unworthy wretch that was ever employed in the dear Redeemer's fervice. I speak this from my inmost foul. I must cry out continually, "Why me LORD, why me?" My dear brother A-----, I love you dearly in the bowels of the LORD JESUS CHRIST. I think I could live with you always. The LORD, I think, hath given you a meek and teachable disposition. O what is it to be as little children ! I am glad to find, you fo hunger and thirst after a continual abiding reft in GOD. Affure yourfelf, the LORD will fill and fatisfy your foul. He is faithful, who hath promised, who also will do it. Wait, and thou shalt see and feel the falvation of GOD. I think I have feen it more for some days past, than in any journey before. Our Saviour loves to let us fee yet greater things. O for a large heart to receive all the fulnels of Gon! I rejoice to hear that the LORD is with you at the Tabernacle. May his glory appear, and fhine in it more and more ! I believe it will. I believe Gop will blefs your fchool. Our LORD's Difciples are generally too much in a hurry; at least I am. They are not content to wait. "He that believeth, doth not make hafte." O for a paffive, tender, truly broken, child-like heart ! that we could watch watch in reality, and from moment to moment hear the cry of every Chriftian, with every call from GOD, whether by his providence or fpirit. It is faid, that GOD brought and kept Abraham at his feet. O that we were always there, waiting for divine direction ! Bleffed be his name, I am for the most part at the feet of JESUS, and indeed he graciously teaches me moment after moment. I have many things before me now. I know brother A---- will help me by his prayers. Bleffed be GOD, our heaven is begun here.

429

> Your truly affectionate brother and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCCL. To Mr. S---- C----, in Deptford. Glafgow, Sept. 2, 1742.

My very dear Brother C-----,

Am just now come from the pulpit, wherein I have experienced much of the Redeemer's power, and feen his flately outgoings in the fanctuary. My brother, the cry of my heart is, " and will God indeed dwell with fuch a wretch as I am." Methinks a voice echo's from above, "I have dwelt in thee, I do dwell in thee, I will dwell in thee for evermore." My heart replies, " LORD, I believe and worfhip."

> A heart that no defire can move, But fill to adore, believe, and love.

This, my dear brother, is the prefent, and indeed continual bent of my foul, which I truft profpers. I feel myfelf to grow more poor inwardly; I fee, I am but a learner in the fchool of CHRIST, and my dear Mafter teaches me new leffons every day. About a week ago, I think he did more for me than ever I faw before. Glory be to GOD, that he is fo much with you at London. I rejoice, yea and I will rejoice. I am amazed when I hear, as I do almost every day, of fome frefh perfons wrought upon by my unworthy ministry. This humbles me very much, and brings me very low at the feet of the ever-loving JESUS. I dare not deny that I am one of his chofen; but I am jealous for myfelf and for those about me, left we fhould grieve the holy fpirit, and oblige him to withdraw for

3 ì

i

4 :0

ă.

11

C

it.

r.

ģ

2

5

1

¢.

5

٢

Ļ

ø

j,

¢,

b

3 12 for our ingratitude, unfruitfulness, pride, selfishness, and infenfibility of the bleffings we enjoy. Laft night I went to fleep quite angry, but chiefly with myfelf .-- I faw that I had received much, and did fo little for my GOD, and CHRIST, that I could feelingly fmite upon my breaft, lay my head upon my . pillow, and close my eyes with these words, "Gop be merciful to me a finner ?" And to-day, what have I feen and felt, yea what do I now feel? My foul is fwallowed up in GOD. His prefence is filling my foul, and renewing my bodily ftrength. Here is free grace, my dear brother. Was you here, I think I could now warm your heart with a lecture upon the unparalleled love of JESUS; but time is fhort : bleffed be GoD, an eternity is before me, but " eternity too fhort to utter all his praise." I think I love you and yours unfeignedly, and rejoice that you enjoy fweet fellowship together. Glory be to GoD, that you have gotten many living frones. Trust the great Redeemer, the all-wife contriver and perfecter of his fpiritual temple, to put them together. I have been faulty in looking too much to foreign help, and despising that which GOD had given me. When our LORD was to feed the multitude, he would not create new bread, but multiplied the loaves that were already at hand. "Ye need not fend them away, give ye them to eat," faid he : fo fay I to my dear brethren at the tabernacle. "Work with the materials you have." In doing the work, GOD will teach you how to do it .- Experience will grow up with the work itfelf. Thus GoD hath dealt with me, and fo he continues to deal. May his bleffed spirit guide you all into all truth, and give you a right judgment in all things! I love to fee the little child in others, though I fee to little of it in my unworthy felf. But I muft not exceed ; other bufiness demands my attention. Write to me often about the flate of the church. Mr. E----'s people rather run greater and greater lengths in mifguided zeal. Our love to all. I intreat a continuance of your prayers, because the archers are shooting from every quarter at, dear brother C----,

Your poor weak brother in the kingdom and patience of JESUS CHRIST,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

431

LETTER

LETTER CCCCLI.

To Brother T-, in London. Glasgow, September 4, 1742.

My dear Brother,

I Hope this letter will find you, where your last left you, at the feet of the meek and lowly JESUS. My dear brother, it is a delightful fituation : Mary found it fo. O true poverty of fpirit, what a rare, yet what a precious thing it is ! The foundation of it, is a deep, abiding knowledge of the corruption of the heart, and its desperate wickedness. I find more and more the neceffity of leaning upon my beloved, whilft travelling through the wilderness of this world. I find I am yet but learning in the school of CHRIST, and scarce know any thing as I ought to know. I often bluth at a fenfe of my unfruitfulnels, ingratitude, &c. and yet am made continually to rejoice in his great falvation. My brother, prefs on and faint not; though faint, yet still pursue. When your father and mother forfake you, the LORD will take you up. I do not wonder at your father's opposition. His letter bespeaks him to be a man of a very bad fpirit. I thought proper to burn it. My brother, pray for him, and beg of Jesus that you may behave with all meeknefs, humility and love. I would enlarge, but time is short, and much of my dear Master's business is lying before me. For the prefent, adieu ! My kind love to all. May the LORD keep you unfpotted from the world. You fhall overcome by the blood of the Lamb. We fee wond'rous things here. Pray and give thanks for Your affectionate friend, and fervant in CHRIST.

G. W.

LETTER CCCCLII.

To Mr. B-, in London.

Glafgow, Sept. 4, 1742.

My dear Brother B-,

Embrace a few moments to answer your kind letter. Not want of love but leifure prevented my doing it before; yet I have not forgotten you in my prayers. Your cafe hath 2 been 432

Digitized by Google

. been upon my heart. I pray GOD you may be enabled, at this time especially, to plead the promise of temporal bleffings. Remember, my dear brother, you can call GoD, your GoD and Father : if fo; your GoD will fupply all your wants. Thefe words were fo preffed upon my foul once when in extremity, that I hope I shall never forget them : " Be careful for nothing, but by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto GoD." I have for these eight or nine years past, had no visible settled fund, but setched in all temporal supplies by pleading the promises. My Gon never failed me, he never will. This morning I have been lecturing upon Elisha's multiplying the widow's oil. The LORD GOD of Elisha is yet living. O that you may have faith to apply to him. O that you may be willing to be made poor. My brother, I find freedom in writing to you. Bleffed be GoD, who hath made any thing that I have spoken of use to your soul. Tell your wife, she must take my advice, and pray with you. She fins, I think, in omitting it. I rejoice to hear that the LORD is with you at the tabernacle. May he be with you more and more ! My brother, GoD is doing wonders here indeed. Every day he fhews us great things. Yefterday, and the day before, how did he difplay his power? I am loft when I think of it. O that GOD fhould ever dwell with fuch an fill and hell-deferving wretch as I am ! Amazing ! Thy mercies, O Goo, they humble me. Adieu.

Your unworthy and affectionate friend and brother,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCLIII.

My very dear brother N____,

Have just been writing to our dear brother G - T - T, and now fit down to write to you. Both your letters came to me at the fame time, and had I not been used to trials of that nature, would have affected me much. Dear Mr. T - f peaks many things, that I know are too true of the Moravian Brethren; but his fpirit feems to be too much heated, and I fear fome of his own wild-fire is mixed with that facred fire of zeal, which comes from God. My dear bro-Vol. I. F f 10

Ľ,

Ľ

7

١.

ũ

s.

j.

Iz

35

1

SU

α.

ł

lt

Ċİ.

obi

i.

Ľ

. 1

γ.

Ìα

NÏ

s. G

176

6

1

فت

433

434

ther, I want to be more like unto GOD, who fees and corrects all things that are amifs, and vet continues unmoved in his own nature. I want to be more like unto JESUS, GOD bleffed for evermore ! who fees all the quarrels and heart-rifings of his children one amongst another, and yet bears with, and loves them still. My heart doth not reproach me, for my kindnefs and friendfhip with those that differ from me. I think I have been led by the word and spirit of GOD into this part of my conduct; but I confeis that I am jealous, and truft with a godly jealoufy, over many who talk and write of the Lamb, and who mimic fome particular perfons in their outward way of behaviour, but yet are not truly poor in fpirit. They act too much like me, who at my first fetting out imitated the outward fnew of humility in Monfieur Dezenly, before I got true fimplicity of heart. Indeed, I have too little of it now. But, bleffed be GOD by his free grace, I am what I am. think I can fay I am made unfeignedly happy in the LORD JESUS CHRIST, and can discover in some measure between a falle and difguiled holinefs. Glory be to the Redcemer's name, I walk in light and liberty, and am enabled to rejoice in the LORD always. Though can fay to corruption, " Thou art my fifter," yet I can with a full assurance of faith at all times fay, "Gon is my father, and all is mine, becaufe I am CHRIST's." My dear, very dear hoft and brother, I pray Gon that you and I may more experience the glorious liberty of the children of Gon: a liberty not from the in-being, but from the reigning power and dominion of fin. JESUS came to make us kings, as well as priefts, and it is our privilege to reign upon the earth. We that believe, do enter into reft. Faith is of an all-conquering nature, and caufes us to trample fin, death, and hell under our feet. My dear brother, I experience more, unspeakably more of the Redeemer's power, than when I faw you laft. My happiness increases daily, and I am perfuaded will increase, 'till grace is swallowed up in glory. My principles as to the fundamentals of the gospel are just the fame as yours. I cannot renounce those precious truths, that I have felt the power of, and which were taught me not of man but of Gon. At the fame time, I would love all that love JESUS, though they differ from me in fome points. The angels love all the true worfhippers of JESUS every where,.

and

ŗ. ċ

0 ģ

ĩ.

G.

ŝ

11

Ċ

25

5.

Ъ

- 45

Í.

i.

Ľ.

Ø

25

Ľ,

Ċ

j.

F

1 ÿ

÷

.

Ċ

$

٢

j,

and why should not we? If our brethren will quarrel with us, let us not quarrel with them. O my dear brother, I pray our dear Redeemer to give you meeknels to thole, who may not fee fo far as you do. I entreat you, my dear brother, to overcome their evil with your good. Zeal for God may excite others to oppose you, as well as you to oppose them; therefore bear with and love them.. This will fhew you to be a disciple indeed, and to have that mind, which was in CHRIST JESUS. O that we grew up into his divine likeness, and were indeed conformed to our great Exemplar | How truly fimple and void of guilt fhould we be ! Our brother, I fear, has not dealt uprightly with me. At first he called me a fervant of GOD, and then a blasphemer and deceiver, and faid, I should be in a miferable condition. Pray tell P---- of it, and acquaint him at the fame time, that I grow happier and happier in the Lamb every day, and more and more honoured by the great Head and King of the Church. O fimplicity ! whether art thou fled ?--- In a fhort time I hope to embark for Georgia, and then, GOD willing, I shall see you face to face. Wonderful things have been doing here; things unspeakable and full of glory. The confusions abroad are no greater than what I expected to hear of. Just fuch a fcene hath been at home; but the glorious Emmanuel will over-rule all for good. Why have you not written to my poor family in Georgia ? I am perfuaded great things will come from the orphan-house. O remember, my dear brother, to exercife catholic love in all its branches. I love and long much to fee you. I shall write, GOD willing, to Mr. W-----. I find his fpirit is also imbittered. May the LORD fweeten all your hearts! With hearty thanks for all favours, I am, my very dear brother,

Most affectionately yours in the glorious Issus,

G. W.

435

LETTER CCCCLIV.

To Mr E-, in Philadelphia. Edinburgh, Sept. 14, 1742.

My very dcar Brother,

COUR kind letter came to hand a few days ago, and I rejoice to hear that you are now happy. I with you may be really fettled and rooted and grounded in love, and Ff 2 no no longer fo toffed about as you have been in times saft. I find many talk and boaft of reft, of which I fear they have not vet got a feeling possession. There is as much difference between these two, as between a shadow and the substance. Far be it from me, to think thus of you, my dear brother. No, I believe our Saviour has really loved and washed you in his blood, and redeemed you unto GOD, that you might be a king and prieft, and reign upon the earth. There is plenteous redemption in the blood of JESUS. He came, not only that we might have life, but that we might have it more abundantly. He that believeth on JESUS, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. They that believe enter into reft. O glorious redemption ! O glorious liberty of the children of Gon ! Bleffed are they who have not feen, and yet have believed; they, who having not feen, yet have loved JESUS, and do rejoice with joy unspeakable, even with joy that is full of glory. Bleffed be Gon, that you feel more of this than you did a twelvemonth ago. In a year's time, you will be ashamed to think what a dwarf you are now. A believer is to pafs from glory to glory. It is ignorance and pride that makes us think we have already attained. The more we are acquainted with IESUS, the more we shall be acquainted with our own hearts, and grow more truly poor in fpirit every day. Indeed, my dear brother, I am a thousand times happier than when you faw me. JESUS hath faved me from many corruptions, and is every day transforming me more and more into his own likeness. I cannot reft, unless I feel a sensible growth in my foul, and find that I get more of the true artles fimplicity that was in JESUS. Bleffed be GOD for that fulnels which is in CHRIST, out of which we are all to receive grace for grace. Many, many fouls have lately been drawing out of this fulnefs. I am amazed at his love to me! O free grace! O fovereign, diftinguishing, unmerited love !---I think you did well in receiving fome particular perfons into your houfe. " Be not forgetful to entertain strangers," fays the Apostle. I cannot think it is right, to be fo far carried away with an orthodox scheme, as to neglect acts of love to the members of CHRIST's body. Give me leave, my dear brother, to behave with all meeknels toward thole, who may not be fo well affected toward fuch whom you love. If you do not take care, and kecp

L E T T E R S.

426

f

incep close to the bleffed JESUS, your fpirit may be imbittered, and you may yet infenfibly fink into bigotry. Some of our Englifb friends, I am fure, have done fo. It is a bleffed thing to be kept free. JESUS can do this for you, my dear brother, and I am perfuaded he will. In the love of a crucified JESUS,

Ever yours,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCLV.

To Mr. M-, at Cambuslang. Edinburgh, Sept. 15, 1742.

Rev. and dear Brother,

2

T

E.

Ľ

1

ł

4Ţ

۵.

x. Y

iir.

b.

E.

'n

1

Xá

5.

T

e.

k

霰

5

5

1

3

52

1

n A

ţ.

ď.

ł

ĸ

th:

DÌ.

ļ

مقا

VOUR kind letter I received this morning. I wonder you can love me, for I feel myfelf more unworthy every day; and yet, dear Sir, the King of Kings still delights to honour me. At Cumbernauld, and Torphichen, the LORD was with me. I was much led to difcourfe upon walking with GOD, and had a fweet opening upon those words, "And " Enoch walked with GOD, &c." Since I have been at Edinburgh, the LORD has much bleffed me, and given me fome fresh teachings from his blessed spirit. I believe hundreds are fed day by day. O dear Sir, help me to adore free grace. May GOD reward you for all kindnesses shewn to me and mine! Indeed, dear Sir, I have fcarce patience with myfelf. I can do fo little in the day for GOD, that when I go to bed at night, I am quite ashamed. I trust I shall begin to do fomething now. Dear Sir, help me, help me by your prayers, that I may flir up the gift of GOD that is in me. I shall not cafily forget you; fear not, the LORD will yet be with you. I have fent to Meffrs. O---- and L-----. I fear I cannot reach either of their places; but, GOD willing, I purpose to come home once more to Cambuflang, and then must take a long, long farewel. Bleffed be Gon, we shall meet by and by, never to part any more. Then, dear Sir, our warfare will be accomplifhed, and the archers will fhoot at us no more. Mγ foul glows with love whilft I am writing. Sometimes I am enabled to look within the veil, and to take a view of the promised land. I am nothing, but CHRIST is my all. For the present, adieu ! Dear Sir, adieu ! My love to Robert, surnamed Ff3 Nathanicl.

428

Nathaniel. All with me dearly love him. O join with him in praying, and giving thanks for us, especially, dear Mr.

> Your weak, unworthy, though happy brother and fervant in JESUS CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCCLVI. To Mr. F____, in Penfylvania. Edinburgh, Sept. 22, 1742.

My dear Brother F_____, I Received your two kind letters, dated June the 1st and 6th, and can only fay, CHRIST is king in Zion, and orders all things well. I think you cannot have a scene of greater confusion among you, than there has been in England. But bleffed be GoD, matters are brought to a better iffue, and though we cannot agree in principles, yet we agree in love. Tho', as you know, I am clear in the truths of the gospel, yet I find that principles of themfelves, without the fpirit of GoD, will not unite any fet of men whatever; and where the spirit of GOB is in any great degree, there will be union of heart, though there may be difference in fentiments. This I have learnt, my dear brother, by happy experience, and find great freedom and peace in my foul thereby. This makes me to love many, though I cannot agree with them in fome of their principles. I dare not look upon them as wilful deceivers, but as perfons who hazard their lives for the fake of the gospel .- Mr. W----- I think is wrong in fome things, and Mr. L---- wrong alfo; yet I believe that both Mr. L---- and Mr. W-----, and others, with whom we do not agree in all things, will fhine bright in glory. It is best therefore for a gospel-minister, simply and powerfully to preach those truths he has been taught of God, and to meddle as little as possible with those who are children of Gon, though they should differ in many things. This would keep the heart fweet, and at the fame time not betray the truths of JESUS. I have tried both the disputing, and the quiet way, and find the latter far preferable to the former. I have not given way to the Moravian Brethren, or Mr. W-r. or to any, whom I thought in an error, no not for an hour. But

Digitized by Google

٢

LETTERS.

31

٣

ġ,

11

:ċ

ί,1

ģ

:1

Ņ.

60

, 1

ų

1

Ċ

5

): |:

Ì,

*

i

ť

439

But I think it best not to dispute, when there is no probability of convincing. I pray you, for CHRIST's fake, to take heed left your fpirit fhould be imbittered, when you are fpcaking or writing for God. This will give your adverfaries advantage over you, and make people think your passion is the effect of your principles. Since I have been in England this time, Calvin's example has been very much pressed upon me. You know how Luther abused him. As we are of Calvinistical principles, I truft we shall in this respect imitate Calvin's practice, and fnew all meeknefs to those who may oppose. My dear brother, you will not be offended at my using this freedom. I am a poor creature, unworthy to advife you; but I fimply tell you a little of my own experience. May the LORD give you, and all that fland up for the doctrines of the gospel, a right judgment in all things ! For JESUS CHRIST'S fake, as much as in you lies, put a ftop to difputing. It imbitters the spirit, ruffles the soul, and hinders it from hearing the fmall still voice of the Holy Ghost. May you be filled with all joy and peace in believing! GOD has been very gracious to me here. Wonderful things have been done in Scotland. When I shall come to you, I cannot as yet determine. I hope to embark in a few months. In the mean time, be pleased to remember me to all that love the glorious Emmanuel. and accept this in tendereft love from, my very dear brother, Your most affectionate though most unworthy brother and > fervant in the kingdom and patience of Jesus, G. W.

LETTER CCCCLVII.

To Mr. H_____.

Edinburgh, Sept. 24, 1742.

My most endeared Friend and Brother,

Y O UR fhort letter, dated July the 14th, I received two days ago, to my great fatisfaction. I am glad my dear family is removed to Mr. B——, and rejoice that our glorious GoD had raifed him and his brother up, to be fuch friends in time of need. Our all-wife Saviour faw this, and therefore fent them to be converted at the Orphan-houfe. O LORD, thou art fearful in praifes, glorious in holinefs, doing F f 4 wonders! 440 wonders ! I truft this will find you, my dear friends, and my dear lambs, happily settled at Bethesda. I cannot think, God will give you over into the enemies hands, or that he will fuffer the enemy to abide in Georgia for any confiderable time. My thoughts have been variously exercised, but my heart kept stedfast and joyful in the LORD of all Lords, whose mercy endureth for ever. The kings taking Lot, and Abrabam recovering him out of their hands, hath been much preffed upon my heart. Abraham's going into the land of Canaan, and being driven out by a grievous famine foon after he came there, has also been applied to my foul. And those words of Moles, " These enemies which you fee, you shall see them no more," have fallen with great warmth, and wait upon me. These things put together, keep my mind humbly depending upon GOD, in a full assurance that some great and good event for the kingdom of JESUS will ere long be brought about. I am fupported in a peculiar manner, and kept from flaggering through unbelief .- With this, I fend you a continuation of the Orphan-house account, which I printed to fatisfy the public, and to promote future collections. The news about the Spaniards, perhaps may strike a damp upon the collection at this time; but even this shall work for good. Gon has a wheel within a wheel. O, my dear brother, how do I long to be with you ! You need not fay, " if poffible now come over," for I have long wifhed for the wings of a dove to fly to Georgia. I yet owe upwards of two hundred and fifty pounds in England, upon the Orphan-house account, and have nothing towards it. How is the world miftaken about my circumstances : worth nothing myfelf, embarrassed for others, and yet looked upon to flow in riches? Our extremity is Gon's opportunity. O faith, thou hast an all-conquering power! furely, my dear man, you and the reft of you will grow now, in this time of trial. Fear not, neither be difmayed : the LORD your GOD will fight for you. I put my truft in him, and through his mercy I shall not miscarry. He still strengthens me to go on from conquering to conquer. I pray for you, I think and dream of you almost continually. I long, I long to be with you, and methinks could willingly be found at the head of you kneeling and praying, though a Spaniard's fword fhould be put to my throat. But alas ! I know not how I thould

l

į

. . j

1

71 sile.

іст; (Цт

21;

012) 012

C X:

È R

tiz

.7

*

х.

ΰz

ķ

112

70

i)a

l.

Qi.

Ľ?

ä

CC,

5

Ċ

z

đ

ý

į.

r.

3

S.

441

should behave, if put to the trial: only we have a promife. " that as our day is, fo our firength fhall be." I would gladly write to you all, but being fo varioufly employed, having the fuperintendency of fo many fouls and fo many fpiritual affairs, in many different places, I feel a little of what St. Paul fays, when he wrote these words, " besides that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches." What am I? LORD, I adore and worship! I hope ere now you have had letters from brother G----- and Philadelphia friends. Some there, are fuspicious that I am joined with the Moravian Brethren, but indeed I am not. My principles are still the fame; only as I believe many of them love the LORD JESUS, I would love and be friendly to them, as I would be to all others, who I think bear the image of our common Mafter, notwithstanding fome of my principles differ from theirs, and are as far diftant as the East is from the West. Glory be to GoD, for keeping me ftedfaft to those truths, which himself and not man hath taught me. I feel the power of them more and more every day, and am continually made happier and happier in the righteousness of the glorious Redeemer. O free, fovereign, diftinguishing, electing, everlasting, infinitely condescending love ! it quite amazes me. The thoughts of this love carry me above every thing. My dear friend, the Spaniards cannot rob us of this, nor can men, or devils. It is immutable and eternal as God himfelf. May the meditation on this, lead us nearer and nearer to God in CHRIST, that we may every day, every hour, every moment be more and more conformed to his bleffed image, and ripen more and more for eternal glory. But I must have Adieu ! my dear man, adieu ! I am ready to weep done. tears of love. Humbly hoping, that I shall shortly hear of the foiritualand temporal welfare of you all, I fubscribe myself, with the utmost fincerity and affection,

Ever, ever yours,

Digitized by Google

LETTER

G. W.

LETTER CCCCLVIII.

To the Reverend Dr. C-----, in Boston.

Edinburgh, Sept. 24, 1742.

Reverend and dear Sir,

442

O my great and abundant fatisfaction, I received your long withed-for letter of June 3. It was late at night ere it came to hand ; but I could not go to relt without reading it. I read, and rejoiced, and prayed for the writer with my whole heart. O reverend and dear Sir, GOD only knows how closely I am knit to the dear ministers and people of New-England. They are ever upon my heart, and it rejoiced me to find I was not forgotten (unworthy as I am) by them. Dear Sir, I am glad to hear that the work still goes on; be not surprized, if you are forsaken. Paul was served so, and when I came to England most of my old friends and spiritual children were exceedingly prejudiced against me. Our great high-priest fees these trials to be necessary for us, to try our faith, and teach us to ceafe from man. I hope they have produced this bleffed effect in some measure upon my soul. There feems to be such a scene in Philadelphia, as we have had in old England. I have wrote to Mr. T----. He in a late letter thinks me too charitable; but my confeience doth not reproach me for that. My principles are still the fame. I embrace the calvinifical scheme, not because Calvin, but JESUS CHRIST, I think, has taught it to me. I go on preaching the crofs and power of the Redeemer, and defire to fay as little as poffible about others, left thereby I should divert people's minds from the fimplicity of the golpel. I have often found that oppofing, inftead of hurting, makes erroneous people become more confiderable. This made me with, that the Boffon ministers would not take up fo much time in speaking against the Exhorters. It will only fet the people the more upon following after them; but I cannot well judge at fuch a diftance, and indeed I find I am fuch a poor creature, that I fcarce know any thing yet, as I ought to know. At the fame time, I will not deny what I have received; no, this would be difhonouring my dear Saviour. He makes me daily more and more happy in himfelf, and I continually rejoice in his great falvation.

faivation. At prefent he fupports me in an uncommon manner, and the news of the Spaniards attacking Georgia affects me no otherwife, than to increase my faith and confidence in him, whom I am fure careth for me and mine. O dear Sir, what a glorious thing is divine faith ! May you have much of it, and feel the power of it more and more every day ! With repeated falutations and returns of love, I once more fubfcribe myfelf, reverend and dear Sir,

Your most affectionate friend, younger brother, and fervant in the glorious gospel of the ever bleffed JEsus,

G. W.

442

LETTER CCCCLIX.

To. Jonathan B-----, Efg; in New-England.

Edinburgh, Sept. 25, 1742. Honoured Sir, Rejoiced to hear by the reverend and dear Dr. C----, that you are retired from the world, full of piety and devotion. I congratulate you, honoured Sir, upon your happy change, and pray that you may be filled with all the fulnels of Gop. Exceedingly engaged as I am, I could not but fend a line to you, because I love you in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST. I remember your command; I have you upon my heart, and pray the glorious Emmanuel to do more abundantly for you and yours, than you are able to afk or think. It is impossible to tell you what the LORD hath done for unworthy me. Honoured Sir, I feel a blifs I cannot express. My happines in JESUS increases daily. I am only ashamed of my unfruitfulncis, and the little I do for GOD. Indeed, honoured Sir. I could with for a thousand lives. My JESUS should have them all. Methinks I hear you fay, "thus it is with me." Hail then happy man ! All generations shall call you bleffed, Honoured Sir, my foul is full in the midft of many trials. Q what a glorious redemption hath JESUS purchased for us I Indeed it is a plenteous redemption. By the power of his death we are enabled to tread fin, death, and fatan under our Act. This is the present frame of my foul. O free grace ! unsearchable riches ! The brightness of it dazzles the eyes of by faith. LORD, I adore and worthip in the temple of my heart !

heart! Honoured Sir, be pleafed to accept thefe few lines from a heart overflowing with love to GOD, and for his great name fake to you. With most humble respects, and affectionate returns of gratitude for all favours, I beg leave to subferibe myself, honoured Sir,

> Your most obliged humble fervant, G. W.

LETTER CCCCLX.

To Mr. E____, in Philadelphia. Edinburgh, Sept. 25, 1742.

My very dear Brother E-----,

CINCE I wrote last, your other kind letter, dated July 24, J came to hand, by which I find matters at Philadelphia are much the fame as when you wrote before. I pray GOD to give me wildom, and a right understanding, to judge of those different jarring accounts that are fent me. As far as I am able to determine, I think fome who have the truths of GOD on their fide, defend themselves with too great a mixture of sheir own fpirit, and by this means perhaps fome perfons may be prejudiced even against truth itself. This is one rock, I pray GOD, my dear brother, to keep your foul from splitting against. Again, I think the M----n Brethren shew a better and milder (pirit in the general; but many of their principles deviate as far from the truths of JESUS CHRIST, as the caft is from the weft, or the north from the fouth. I with you may not have gone a flep too far. It was unjust for Mr. B-----'s brother to be denied preaching in the new building, Shall I commend Mr. B---- for this? I commend him not, The brethren should have some other place to preach in, and not make that house a Babel. I cannot give up truth for them, or for any other under heaven. I find they are as weak and fallible as those whom they judge not to have drank to deeply of the spirit of CHRIST; and therefore, my dear man, though we love all, we must be upon our guard, and follow not man's teaching, but the teaching of the Holy Ghoft. Though principles are not to be refled in, yet it is a good thing to have a clear head as well as a clean heart. Some people make nothing of principles; but why are they fo zealous in propagating their own? I think, my dear brother, I am a happy finner, finner, and have really entered into an abiding reft in GOD. through the LORD JESUS CHRIST; but yet the ftirrings of corruption I expect in some degree or other, till I breathe my laft. This I hope is all that dear Mr. T---- infifts on. My dear brother, love the brotherhood, but do not give up the truths of GoD; and when you are brought off from idolizing one creature, take care you do not infenfibly fall into idolizing another. Do not think that all things the most refined chriftian in the world does, is right; or that all principles are wrong, because some that hold them are too imbittered in their fpirits. It is hard for good men, when the truths of GOD are opposed, to keep their temper, especially at the first attack. Nothing but the all-conquering blood of the dear Redeemercan deftroy the wild-fire in the heart. You will fee what I have wrote to the dear Truftees. I hope our loving Saviour will incline you to comply with my advice. I believe it is from him, and will much tend to the prosperity of Zion. That, I truft, we have all at heart. I pray GOD we may be enabled fo to act, as to do nothing to obstruct it, but bear and forbear with one another in love, and give way in fome things to promote the common good. You fee, my dear man, how freely I write to you. It is out of the fulness of my heart. I hope you and I shall be happily surprized, in finding each other better than we expected. God forbid that we should live one hour without growing more like the bleffed Lamb of GOD. I am too credibly informed, that fome make it their business to prejudice my friends against me. Such wildom cometh not from above. They are as the falle apostles, of whom Saint Paul spoke, " They would exclude us, that you might affect them." But glory be to free grace ! I can repole myself in JESUS, and am happy in him. However I may be dealt with by man, bleffed be his name, I am now happy in the midft of various trials, even beyond expression. I only add, through grace I have laid the foundation; let others beware how they build thereon. Adieu, my dear brother. I am, with cordial respects and affection,

> Ever, ever yours, G. W.

> > LETTER

Digitized by Google

LETTER CCCCLXI.

To the Reverend Mr. E ____ J ____, in Wales. Edinburgh, OS. 6, 1742.

My very dear Brother,

YESTERDAY your kind and profitable letter came to hand. My dear wife being embarked, I opened, read, and now fnatch a few moments to answer it. I took your hints upon Facob's ladder, and preached upon it with freedom yesterday in the afternoon. I truft fome will be induced to begin to climb, and others be stirred to climb faster; at least I shall myself for one, for indeed I am afhamed I have mounted no higher yet. Bleffed be God, I am ascended to far as to have the world almost out of my fight, and I fee my dear master standing at the top reaching out his hand, ready to receive me up into heaven. Indeed, my dear brother, the LORD hath dealt most bountifully with me; he gives me to rejoice in all his dispensations towards me. It well becometh GoD's children to give thanks for all things that befal them, fince it is GoD's will concerning them. I am taught more and more every day to live by faith in the Son of GOD, who loved and gave himfelf for me. God keeps me, and brings me where I would defire to be, at his feet, waiting his will, and watching the motions of his bleffed fpirit, word, and providence. Here I find fafety and refuge amidst the various storms of opposition and reproach which I daily meet with. GOD is on my fide, I will not fear what men nor devils can fay of, or do unto me. The dear Meffrs. E------s have dreffed me in very black colours .-- Mr. G-----'s pamphlet will shew you how black. Dear men, I pity them. Writing I fear will be in vain. Surely they must grieve the holy spirit much. O for a mind divefted of all fects and names and parties! I think it is my one fimple aim to promote the kingdom of TESUS, without partiality and without hypocrify, indefinitely amongst all. I care not if the name of George Whitefield be banished out of the world, fo that JESUS be exalted in it. Glory be to his great name, we have feen much of his power and greatness in Scotland. The work in the west still goes on and increases. Last fabbath-day, and Monday, very great things, greater than ever, were feen at Kilfyth. There is a great

Digitized by Google

J,

z

3

2

h

te

:

٥Ż

2

.

ŧ.

7Ż

.

é

il

2

TR!

11

Æ

.

P

.

ŗ,

1

ġ.

ī,

t

ś

ė great awakening alfo at Muthel, and many living ftones building up in Edinlurgh. I preach twice every day with great power, and walk in liberty and love. At the fame time I fee and feel my vileness, and take the bleffed Jesus to be my righteousness and all. I purpose, GOD willing, to go through Newcafile and Yorkshire to England, Ireland I believe must be left till another circuit. In about three weeks, I purpole, Gon willing, to leave Scotland, and hope to fpend a month ere long My dear and honoured brother, I hope the LORD in Wales. will give you an heart to pray for me, for indeed I am a verw poor finner, and many are waiting for my halting; but JESUS is able and willing to make me fland. I have been much ftrengthened, fince the Spaniards have invaded Georgia. I think I am like the ark furrounded on all fides with waves, but through free rich grace am enabled to fwim above all. Ere long, I shall reft on mount Zion in the arms of my beloved IESUS. Here is love would make me drop a tear, and fet my pen a writing quicker, but other bufiness calls for me. Dear Sir, be pleafed to pray for me, and remember me to your dear wife, and all the followers of the Lamb. Pray write to Mr. M^c C----- immediately, and fend as often as you can, dear Mr. 7-----, to

Your weak, unworthy,' but truly affectionate brother and fervant, in the kingdom

and patience of JESUS,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCLXII.

To Colonel G-----.

Honoured Sir, Edinburgh, October 7, 1742. THOUGH I never had the pleafure of feeing you, yet I have often prayed for you, and can affure you I love you in the bowels of JESUS CHEIST. I hope you will not be offended with me, for troubling you with this. Your honoured lady tells me, you will not. Love, I am perfuaded, inclines me to write, and I doubt not but you will receive it in the fame fpirit. Dear Sir, I rejoice to hear that you are a good foldier of JESUS CHRIST, and that you delight to fight the Redeemer's battles. May you be covered with all his armours and filled with all his fulnefs! I have the pleafure fure often to go without the camp, and to bear a little of his facred reproach, and I prefer it to all the treasures in the world. Weak as I am, my JESUS makes me more than conqueror through his love. He has brought mighty things to pais here, and gotten himfelf the victory in many hearts. I truft, there is not a day passes but some poor creature or another is plucked as a brand out of the burning. I wifh I could hear GOD was more in the camp. Bleffed be his name for raifing you up, honoured Sir, to lift a ftandard for him. May you be endued with the meeknels of Moles, the courage of Jofhua, the zeal of Paul, and a large portion of the bleffed spirit of CHRIST ! I hope, honoured Sir, you will now and then remember me a poor finner, and speak a word for me to the King of kings and LORD of lords, that I may not turn my head in the day of battle, but rather die for, than deny him in any wife. Neither you nor yours are forgotten by me. Indeed I am a poor creature, but happy, very happy in the once crueffied, but now exalted JESUS. For his fake, and in his great name, I beg leave to fubfcribe myfelf, honoured Sir, Your affectionate humble servant, &c.

447

G. W.

LETTER CCCCLXIII.

Reverend and dear Sir,

BOUT ten days ago, I fent you a packet by my dear wife, which I hope you will have received ere this comes to hand. Yesterday morning I had your kind letter dated Offober 5. In answer to the first part of it, I fay, " Let old things pais away, and all things become new." I can heartily fay, "Amen" to the latter part of it. " Let the king live for ever, and controverfy die." It has died with me long ago. I fhall be glad to fee the extract of your journal. Be pleafed to fend it immediately, under cover, to Mr. E-----, member of parliament in Edinburgh. I shall not leave Scotland in lefs than three weeks. Before yours came, I had cagaged to go through Newcastle in my way to London. I rejoice to hear the LORD has bleffed your dear brother's labours. I am enabled to preach twice daily with great power, and find • I walk

I walk in light and liberty continually. Like the ark, I am furrounded on all fides, but enabled to fwim triumphantly over all. O free grace ! I thank you, dear Sir, for praying for me, and thank our common LORD for putting it in your heart fo to do. I have been upon my knees praying for you and yours. O that nothing but love, lowlinefs, and fimplicity may be among us. It grieves me to fee what a fad fpirit prevails among Mr. E----'s people. Father, forgive them ! I truft you will remember my poor orphans. GOD gives me ftrong faith for them, though no news yet of the Spaniards leaving Georgia. Yesterday morning a dear little hospital girl went off in triumph. The work is still increasing in Scotland, especially at Kilfyth. Surely we shall see great things ere long. Dear friend, my foul is on fire. O let us not fall out in the way! Let us bear with, and forbear one another in love. God be praifed for giving you fuch a mind. My kind love to all that love the LORD JESUS in fincerity. In much hafte, and with great thanks for your last letter, I subscribe myself, reverend and very dear Sir,

Your most affectionate, though younger brother, in the gospel of our glorious Emmanuel, G. W.

LETTER CCCCLXIV.

To Mrs. Ann D----, in Huntingdon/bire. Edinburgh, October 13, 1742.

My very dear Sifter,

TITH great pleafure I received your kind letters. They increased that love, which I had before to the writer of them. I redeem a few moments to return you an answer to them, and am ashamed to think how I put you off; but I see you consider my circumstances, and love to our dear JESUS inclines you to excuse me. Bleffed be GoD. I can still fend you an account of the increase of Emmanuel's kingdom. I preach always twice, fometimes three or four times in a day. The people are more eager than ever. and much folid work is done for GOD. My strength is daily renewed. Still I defire to cry, grace ! grace ! I am fondled exceedingly, I scarce have any damp. My foul continually magnifies the LORD, and my spirit rejoices in GOD VOL. I. Ga my my Saviour. I know you will help me to praife him. I collected last week 1281. for my poor orphans. I have fent you an account of them. You will continue writing to, and praying for my dear family. I hope to see you before I embark. By this, you will receive a line from one Mr. R., an humble walker with GoD, and Mr. T----, a bookfeller, who I believe loves the LORD JESUS in fincerity. Pray anfwer them. I would have your correspondence enlarged, and therefore I fet other people writing to you, though I cannot write fo much myfelf. My dear fifter, adieu. The LORD be with you, and yours. I am now in a lady's family, whom GOD has bleffed .- We have feveral fuch here. With great fincerity and affection, I fubscribe myfelf, > Ever yours, in yours and mine, G. W.

10

LETTER CCCCLXV.

To Mr. T____, in Edinburgh. Glasgow, October 20, 1742.

Dear Mr. T----

450

YOUR letter much refreshed me. Thanks be to GOD, for putting it into your heart to write to unworthy me. The bleffed JESUS hath been the author of our friendship, and therefore it will be bleffed. I rejoice much, that the LORD is with you and your ministers. May you all increase with all the increase of GoD! O that the societies may remember to pray and give thanks on my behalf. Dear Mr. T---, what deliverances hath the LORD wrought for me ? Before the news came of the Spaniards leaving Georgia, the words came to my mind, that were prefied on me in the park with great power : " These enemies which you have now seen, you fhall fee no more." What a life is a life of faith? I know I am reckoned enthuliastic, even by many christian friends, in respect to my Orphan-house; but " he that believeth, doth not make hafte." I find we must be tried by friends, as well as by foes. All is intended to bring us nearer to the friend of all. I hope I improved my interest in him just now, for you and yours, and for all Edinburgh friends. As foon as we had perused the letters, we kneeled down, and prayed, and gave thanks. Good news came from London. I hope, next poft, 2 to

LETTERS.

_____ 11

Ì-

4 ł

iy F

r

Ľ

1 ġ

ź

1

ت هز

ŗ,

ĺ

ø

6

¢

s

1 to hear that our dear friends have got fafe thither. O what reafon have I to be thankful! Help me ftill, my dear Mr. T_{---} , to praife the LORD. I hope to be with you next week. In the mean time pray for, and if leifure permit, drop a line to, dear Mr. T_{----} , Ever yours, &c.

G. W.

LETTER CCCCLXVI.

To Mr. J _____, in Edinburgh. Dear Mr. T _____, London, Nov. 6, 1742. A BOUT five this evening, our ever bleffed JESUS brought us hither, and gave us a happy meeting with our dear friends. How good is JESUS to the chief of finners! He folaced my foul all the way, and gave his angels charge concerning us, otherwife we must have been frequently hurt in our ways: but he heard the prayers of his people. I am perfuaded he gave them a fpirit of fupplication in our behalf. I felt it, I feel it now, and long to preach again. My dear friend, remember us in the dearest manner to all. I hope to write to feveral on Monday next. How fweet is reft after fatigue ! How fweet will heaven be, when our journey is ended. Forgive the brevity of this.

Ever yours,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCLXVII.

London, 'Nov. 12, 1742.

My dearest Friend and Brother in a crucified JESUS,

HOW do I long to come over to fee you, and the reft of my dear family? How do I long to hear how it is with your dear fouls, and that you are returned to Bethefda in fafety! The cloud feems now to be moving toward America. I truft I shall be with you in a few months. Wonderful great things did the LORD perform for me and his people in Scotland. The concern expressed at my departure, was really unspeakable. O my dear, my very dear brother, the love of GOD to fuch an unworthy wretch quite amazes me. I rode Gg 2 post. post, and came here in rather less than five days from Edinburgh on Saturday last, and here seems to be a new awakening. We have been obliged to enlarge the tabernacle. The LORD's glory does indeed appear in it. Dear brother H---- has been fent with a fweet fearching commission. Brother C---is much bleft in Wilifbire. The word runs and is glorified in Waks, and GOD is raifing fome fresh witnesses of the power of his dear Son's blood in Gloucestershire. Bleffed are the eves that fee the things that we fee. GOD doth greatly countenance us indeed. O free grace ! O electing love ! The collections in Scotland were large. At Edinburgh, I collected 1281. at one time, and 441. at another ; at Glafgow about 1281. with private donations. I think we got about 300l. in all. Bleffed be GOD, I owe nothing now in England on the Orphan-houfe account ; what is due is abroad. I think fince I have been in England, we have got near 1500l. The LORD will raife up what we want further; glory be to his name. He keeps my faith from failing, and upholds me with his right hand. and makes me happier in himfelf every day. My wife lies now very weak. She was toffed for ten days in her voyage from Scotland : The fhip was in imminent danger, but the LORD gave her much of his prefence, and I truft fhe will be ready thortly for another voyage. She heartily and most loyingly greets you all, as does in hafte, Ever, ever yours, &c.

G. W.

LETTER CCCCLXVIII.

To Lady Frances G------.

Honoured Madam, London Nov. 13, 1742. MINDFUL of my promife, which I made before I left Edinburgh, I now fteal a few moments to fend your Ladyfhip a letter of thanks, and which I truft will find you fitting under the Redeemer's fhadow with great delight. It rejoiced me when I heard that our infinitely condefcending GoD had bleffed my unworthy miniftry, to recover your Ladyfhip from a ftate of darknefs and fpiritual defertion. Glory, glory be to rich, free and fovereign grace ! I truft your Ladythip will now be kept in the love of GoD, and no idol interpofe between the Redeemer and your foul. I hope the set of the °452

Digitized by Google

I,

2

Ŀ,

-

.

ŕ

5

...

2

1.1

1

2

Ľ,

r, ;

Ť,

111

Ţ

Ľ.

:[زير

5

ţ

.

5

i, î

1

عكمان

ī.

j, ź

3

3

dear Colonel is now in his proper place, and that you can think of him without anxiety or distracting care. This is that freedom, wherewith JESUS CHRIST makes us free. To love all things in him, and for him, and to love him above Thus we have peace and joy. Whenever we deviate all. from it, we fall into darkness and diffress of soul. I pray GOD your Ladyship may be thus kept, and enabled to rejoice in GOD all the day long. For ever adored be free grace. I have enjoyed much freedom of foul fince I left Edinburgh, Very good was my master to us on the road, and still better to me now I am in London. We have bleffed feafons. О who can express the loving-kindness of the LORD, or show forth all his praise ! We beg your prayers; and wishing you - and your honoured Colonel all manner of prosperity, I beg leave to fubscribe myself, with unfeigned thanks for all past favours, honoured Madam,

Your Ladyship's most obliged humble servant,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCLXIX. To Mils S-----.

London, Nov. 13, 1742.

S I have been writing to the honourable lady Frances, I A am willing to inclose a line to you. I trust it will find you walking by faith, and trampling upon the luft of the eye, the luft of the flefh, and the pride of life. This is the happiness which JESUS CHRIST has purchased for poor finners. This is that better part, which I hope you have been enabled to choose, and in which, I trust, through grace you will be enabled to perfevere even to the end. Dear Mifs, if this be the cafe, well will it be with you, and happy, exceedingly happy shall you be. Methinks I hear you fay, " I feel my happiness begun." Keep close, Dear Miss, keep close to the lovely JESUS, and you will find it increase day by day. Many, many temptations and difficulties you will meet with; but fear not; look unto JESUS, and he will make you more than conqueror through his love. Never reft without looking up to him, in and for every thing you stand in need of. He will richly fupply all your wants. I fpeak this by happy Gg 3 experience.

453

Digitized by Google

LETTERS.

experience. Many bleffings have I received fince I came hither. O help me to praise our prayer-hearing God.

454

Your most affectionate friend and fervant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCCLXX.

To the Honourable Lady Jane H-, in Edinburgh.

London, Nov. 13, 1742. Honoured Madam, T T is with fome regret, that I look back upon my not writing to you, when I was at Glafgow. I refolved ever fince, to fend your Ladyship a line as soon as possible, after I reached London. Being now fomewhat fettled, I attempt in the divine ftrength to put my defign in execution. And now, honoured Madam, what shall I fay ? I hope this will find you a very poor finner, and fitting at JESU's feet. With pleafure I have often thought your Ladyship has been made willing to become truly, inly poor, and to feel the full power of the Redeemer's precious blood. If I miftake not, your foul is athirst for GOD, yea to be filled with all the fulness of GOD. Go on, dear Madam, for GOD shall fatisfy all your defires : He has promifed, and he will perform. I find my happines in JESUS increasing daily, and that there is no end of his Greatly did he strengthen me on the road: goodness. greatly has he bleffed me fince I came hither. I believe your Ladyship will hear shortly from Mr. H----. He is a dear foul indeed, and left London on Thursday morning last, full of fimplicity and love. The work goes on bravely in Wales. and elsewhere. Surely it is the midnight cry; Surely the bridegroom is coming. Methinks I hear your Ladyship fay, " Then I will make ready to go forth to meet him." That you may be always ready to obey the most fudden call, is the hearty prayer of, honoured Madam,

Your Ladyship's most obliged humble fervant in JESUS CHRIST, G. W.

Digitized by Google

LETTER

LETTER CCCCLXXI. To Mils N-----'s.

London, Nov. 13, 1742.

455

Dear young Ladies,

1

2

BM.

'n

ŋ,

50

2

, I.

1

ŀ

Ē

Ë,

1

18

e) п.

II I

3

È

Ċ

1

المتا

فتتعة

Ţ.

HIS week I wrote a few lines to your honoured mamma. I now fnatch a few moments to fend a line to you. And why? Becaufe I love you both in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST, and wifh above all things, that your dear fouls may prosper. I saw a happy alteration in you for the better, whilk I was at Edinburgh, and my constant prayer is, that you might ftill go on from strength to strength. Here seems to be a new awakening. We had a glorious fast-day indeed. I trust you had the fame at Edinburgh. I am fure we prayed heartily, it might be fo. O Edinburgh ! Edinburgh ! I think I fhall ne-Surely many can fay, " Our fellowship has ver forget thee. " been with the Father and with the Son." And new though absent, we may have fellowship together in and through the eternal Spirit. Thus it is with me, and thus it is, I believe, with my dear wife. She most heartily joins with me in faluting your most honoured mamma, as well as yourselves. Williing that your lamps may be always trimmed, and your loins always girded, and that you may be continually in readinefs to meet the heavenly bridegroom; I fubscribe myself, dear young ladies,

> Your most affectionate friend and fervant in JESUS, G. W.

LETTER CCCCLXXII. T_{ℓ}

London, Nov. 15, 1742.

My Lord,

Digitized by Google

456

fay, " It is good for me that I have been afflicted;" for had it not been fo, I fhould have gone aftray. How apt are we when in health, to follow JESUS afar off, and fink into tepidity and a laodicean spirit? May this fickness be fanctified to the purging of your Lordship's foul, and be a means of drawing you nearer to GOD ! Our glorious High-priest still continues to load me with his benefits. He dealt most tenderly with me on the road, and bleffes me much here. I am now in my winter quarters, preparing for a fresh campaign. Happy they that fight under the Redeemer's banner! That your Lordfhip may be always fighting the good fight of faith, and at length lay hold on eternal life, is the earnest prayer of, my Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient and obliged humble fervant, G. W.

LETTER CCCCLXXIII.

To Mr. S, of Briftol.

London, Nov. 15, 1742.

My dear Brother S-

T Gave thanks on your behalf, when I read your letters; being encouraged thereby to hope, that JESUS CHRIST is , indeed about to take full poffession of your foul. A proper feason this to enter into the marriage state, an union reprefenting the mystical union between JESUS CHRIST and his Church. My brother, you cannot think of it with too much folemnity. It is a matter of great importance, in which the future comfort of your life much depends. I would advife you to read over the matrimonial office, and turn it into a prayer. As for outward affairs, I think it quite proper to have them fettled, as I am a minister of JESUS CHRIST, and ought therefore to be freed as much as may be from all worldly incumbrances. Be pleafed to draw out your account, and when the captain comes, defire him to draw out his, that receipts may pass on both fides. I shall pay Mr. N---- as defired. I am glad you are fo friendly with Mr. W----. I truft we fhall learn more and more to love one another.

Yours most affectionately in JESUS CHRIST,

LETTER

G. W.

LETTERS.

LETTER CCCCLXXIV.

To the Bishop of Bangor.

London, Nov. 17, 1742.

My Lord,

THE inclofed was fent by a young man, who was coming up to London, and was in his way as far as Ludlow, on purpofe to wait on your Lordship about the contents of it. If your Lordship pleases, I will wait upon your Lordship for your Lordship's answer. The character your Lordship has for candour and moderation, makes me believe, your Lordship will not favour any perfecuting proceedings against those that love the LORD JESUS in fincerity. If your Lordship thinks proper to speak with me, upon the least intimation, you shall be attended by, my Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient fon and servant,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCLXXV.

To Mr. J----, of Toven in Wales. London, Nov. 18, 1742.

My dear Brother,

TOW fweetly does the bleffed JESUS guide the meek in L his way! I believe your turning back from Ludlow was of God. Dear brother H--- was about that time going into Wales, and the LORD fending me hither (unworthy as I am) to transact affairs for you. I have seen your letter to Mr. L-, and likewise that from brother C-, to the bishop of Bangor. I am just now fending it to him, with a letter from myfelf, defiring leave to wait upon his Lordship. What the event will be, our LORD only knows. This, however, we know, " All things fhall work together for good to those that love GOD;" and the gates of hell shall never prevail against the church of JESUS CHRIST. What you have met with, is no more than might be expected long ago. There has been a hook in the Leviathan's jaws, or otherwife our mouths had been ftopped long before this time. I had once the honour of being publickly arraigned, for not reading the Common Prayer in a Meeting-house. At another time, I was taken up by a warrant warrant for correcting a letter wherein were these words, " Shall our Clergy break the Canons." The profecutions were unjuft, but there is our glory. I remember when Socrates was about to fuffer, his friends grieved, that he fuffered unjuftly. What, fays he, would you have me fuffer juftly? If we are buffetted for our faults, and take it patiently, fays a greater than Socrates, we are not to glory ; " but if we are reproached for CHRIST, and fuffer as Christians, happy are we." I think our present sufferings are for him. Surely the spirit of CHRIST and of glory will reft upon you. However, I truft this ftorm will foon blow over. If poffible, let an open feparation from the church be avoided. Mr. H---- can tell you more by word of mouth. I trust the glorious JESUS has fent him amongft you, in the fulnefs of the bleffing of the gospel of peace. He is a dear foul. I am perfuaded you are dear to him: I find you are dear to me, though I never faw you. It is enough, that we have drank into one fpirit. This creates an indiffoluble union. Pray remember my kind love to dear brother C----. I wish him joy with all my heart; but would not have him deny that exhorting is preaching. The Chancellor will be too many for him; for to be fure, exhorting is at least one part of preaching. Granting this, he has warrant enough, notwithstanding, from scripture, to tell others what Gop has done for his foul, and to bid them come and fee and believe in a precious CHRIST. O that word ! How fweet is it to my foul? It is like ointment poured forth. Had I time, I could tell you much of his love. He has been exceeding good to me in Scotland : He is still fo to me here. Vile, bale, ungrateful as I am, he lets me lean on his bosom night and day. My dear brother, help me to praise him, and engage all the brethren's prayers in behalf of one, lefs than the leaft of all faints, but

Yours most affectionately in CHRIST,

Digitized by Google

G. ₩.

LETTER

LETTER CCCCLXXVI.

To the Reverend Dr. C, in Boston.

London, Nov. 18, 1742.

Rev. and dear Sir,

Р: (2)

1 it.

13

ŗ.

. .

G

11

32.

X

13

À

ż

ŗ.

15

10

(T) εĿ

(Ľ

π

Ľ١

5

۶í

h

Č,

ĩ

4 ş

٢

1

LAD was I to receive another letter from you, before I J fent off my packets. I thank our loving LORD, for granting me the continuance of his ministers affections. I hope this, and all his other mercies, will lead me nearer and nearer to himfelf the fountain of all mercies. Surely the friends of JESUS pray in my behalf; for I am still strengthened more than ever, and enabled to rejoice in his goodness all the day long. The confusion at New-England has given me concern ; but our LORD will over-rule all for good. I was forry to hear of Mr. D---'s imprifonment; and to be imprifoned for an unguarded expression, I think is too, too fevere, and not for the honour of Boston at all. Had I been in his place, I should have accepted bail. When I shall come to Boston, the LORD JESUS only knows. I believe it will not be long. I find I shall come in perilous times; but that all-gracious Saviour, who has helped me hitherto, will guide me by his council, and give me a true fcriptural zeal. This is what I defire all my friends to beg in my behalf. How hard is it to keep in the trne narrow path, when speaking for the LORD JESUS? GOD preferve me, and all his ministers, from defending his truths and cause in our own, or under the influence of a false spirit [It deftroys the very caufe we would defend. As yet, in Scotland there have been but few of the diforders complained of amongst you. But as the work increases, I suppose the enemies stratagems will increase also. This is my comfort, JESUS reigns. The gates of hell fhall never be able to prevail againft his church. I have had a late inftance of his power and goodnefs, in driving the Spaniards out of Georgia. I hear they are gone. I hope the Orphans are now at Bethefda in peace. The continuation of my account, I have fent with this, and a parcel of my fermons. Be pleafed to difpofe of them, as you shall think proper. I falute all my Reverend brethren that preach JESUS CHRIST in fincerity. I with them prosperity with all my heart, and pray for them every day. Reverend Sir, my foul foul is now filled with a fenfe of redeeming love. O why me, LORD, why me ? Even fo my Saviour, for fo it feemed good in thy fight ! But I can write no more, having much bufinefs on my hands. We go on well here. Our LORD bleffes us much. I am, with much affection, Rev. Sir,

> Your most unworthy and younger brother in the gospel of JESUS CHRIST,

> > G. W.

Dear Sir,

Y OUR letter pleafed me much. As foon as I read it, I kneeled down, prayed, and gave thanks on your behalf. How faithful is he that hath faid, "I will never leave thee, or forfake thee." Surely the LORD intends to honour you, in making you an inftrument in bringing many fons to glory. I hope he will blefs your firft public effays to ferve the intereft of his great name, and enable you to go on from ftrength to ftrength. I cannot think you will be long without a feeling poffeffion of your GOD. Shortly, I truft, you will be touched with a coal from the heavenly altar, and be made to fay, "LORD fend me." I think our Saviour has given you great knowledge in the fcriptures. May you be kept clofe to and be daily taught of him. My prayer for you is,

> Take his poor heart, and let it be For ever clos'd to all but thee.

I think you may fludy conveniently in Scotland; but in this and every thing elfe, I pray the LORD JESUS to direct and guide your foul. I most heartily love you, and wish you prosperity in the name of the LORD. Our bleffed Saviour has been exceeding kind, fince I have been here. I go on my way rejoicing, and am strengthened day by day. That you may abundantly experience the same, is the hearty prayer of, dear Sir,

Yours most affectionately in CHRIST JESUS,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CCCCLXXVIII.

To Mr. M, Ifte of Man.

London, Nov. 19, 1742.

Rev. and dear Sir,

Am concerned to find by your last, dated November 4th, that the letter I fent you from Scotland did not come to hand. But providence over-ruleth all things; even this fhall work for good. I wonder not, if the LORD has given you more zeal, that you meet with more opposition. However, I would not have you rafh, or over hafty in leaving the Ifle of Man. Wait, continue inftant in prayer, and you shall fee the falvation of GOD. I have not heard from my family abroad for fome time, and cannot give you any determinate answer about your going to Georgia, because I know not how their affairs stand. GOD will yet shew you what he would have you to do. Even so LORD JESUS, Amen and Amen ! Our glorious Emmanuel bleffed me exceedingly after we parted from Scotland, and bleffes me in like manner, now he has brought me to England. Vile, ungrateful as I am, he vouchfafes to give me much of his prefence, and keeps me under the shadow of his wings. Let his goodness to me, encourage you to hope and trust in him. Remember, dear Sir, JESUS came to make poor finners happy, and to give them victory over their lufts and paffions. Plead his promises, be much in secret prayer, and never give GOD reft, 'till your foul is filled with all his fulnefs. That the LORD may haften that bleffed time, wherein his kingdom shall come with full power into your dear foul, is the earnest prayer of, Rev. and dear Sir,

> Your most affectionate friend, brother and fervant, G. W.

L E T T E R CCCCLXXIX. To Mr. B-----, at Bethefda.

London, Nov. 19, 1742.

BLESSED, bleffed be GOD, the packet is not gone; fo that I have just time to tell you, I received your kind, very kind letter, though I have not time to read it thoroughly, least I should miss this opportunity. GOD only knows knows how I sympathize with you and my dear family. Though I have no money to pay Mr. Jones, &c. yet, if I can take up two or three hundred pounds upon my own account, I will come over, GOD willing, the very first opportunity. The time of your fafting, I hope is now near over, and the days of your mourning ended. Remember the burning bufh ; it was on fire, but not confumed. Surely fome great good is to come out of the Orphan-house. Bleffed be GoD, for frengthening you to flay with my dear family. Ten thousand bleffings descend upon your foul ! I with dear brother G---loy. I am much obliged to my dear friend and faithful fleward. Next fhip, I hope to answer his letters diffinctly. O my dear man, I do not forget any of you. God, and not my own will, has kept me on this fide the water fo long. But furely you must judge me sometimes. You need not make any apology for moving; it is what I wished you might do. Your care and tenderness towards me, makes me long to embrace and weep over you one by one. Forget you ! no, no; I think I could rather die for you. My brother, my dear brother, go Surely GOD is with us. Great things are to come out øn. of Georgia. Remember Abraham, how did he fojourn in the land of Promise, as in a strange land? The LORD increase your faith. My tendereft love, and ten thousand thanks, to dear Mr. 7-----s. God will blefs him for helping you. The LORD JESUS be with you all.

My Lord,

Ever, ever yours,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCLXXX.

To the Bishop of Bangor.

London, Nov. 19, 1742.

THIS evening I received your Lordship's kind letter. I humbly thank your Lordship for it. It confirmed me in the character given me of your Lordship's spirit. I verily believe your Lordship abhors every thing that has a tendency to perfecution, and yet, in my humble opinion, if Mr. C----is not somewhat redressed, he is perfecuted indeed. That your Lordship may know his spirit, and the spirit of the person who came as far as Ludlow on the business, I have sent your η,

7

ŝ

į,

Ļ

17:

1

T Ì

ΰ.

1

١Ħ

ŀ

ġ

œ

'nŻ

. Ľ

12Å

ы

Ç,

1

ŗ,

ÿ

K

ø

ŀ

t

¢

462

your Lordship a letter from each, which was written some time ago to Mr. H----- In them your Lordship will fee their whole hearts. I verily believe they would rather die than wilfully fpeak or write a falfhood. My Lord, the whole of the matter feems to be this : In Wales they have little fellowfhip meetings, where fome well-meaning people meet together, finiply to tell what GoD has done for their fouls. In fome of these meetings, I believe Mr. C------ used to tell his experience, and to invite his companions to come and be happy in JESUS CHRIST. He is therefore indicted as holding a conventicle; and this I find is the cafe of one, if not two more. Now, my Lord, these perfons thus indicted, as far as I can judge, are loyal fubjects to his Majefty, and true friends to, and attendants upon the Church of England fervice. You will fee by thefe letters, how unwilling they are to leave her: and yet, if all those acts, which were made against perfons meeting together to plot against Church and State, were put in execution against them, what must they do? They must be obliged to declare themselves Diffenters. I affure yout Lordship, it is a critical time in Wales. Hundreds, if not thousands, will go in a body from the Church, if fuch proceedings are countenanced. I lately wrote them a letter, diffuading them from feparating from the Church, and I write thus freely to your Lordship, because of the excellent spirit of moderation discernible in your Lordship, and because I would not have (to use your Lordship's own expression) " such a fire kindled in, or from your (Lordship's) diocese." I would beg the favour of your Lordship to return me the inclosed, becaufe I have not kept copies. I fend them to your Lordship just as they are, that your Lordship may see the whole affair. and cenfure what is exceptionable. I really believe the writers will thank your Lordship for it. I ask pardon for taking up fo much of your Lordship's time, but I thought your Lordship would defire to have all possible information, that you might be better capable of judging. I pray the great Shepherd and Bishop of souls to direct your Lordship in this, and every other affair that comes before you, and that you may be faluted at the great day with an Euge bone, is the hearty and fervent prayer of, my Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient fon and fervant,

G. W. LETTER

LETTER CCCCLXXXI. To Mr. C----

London, Nov. 20, 1742.

My dear Brother C----, T Catch a few moments to give you an account of my agency. Your letter I fent to the Bifhop of Bangir, inclosed in one from myfelf. His answer you have transcribed in this. That he might not be imposed upon by the Chancellor's representing of things, I last night sent his Lordship another long letter, with that which you wrote to dear brother H---- fome time ago. As the Bishop seems to be a man of a moderate spirit, I trust this florm will blow over. In the mean while, let us wait upon the LORD, commit the caufe into his hands who judgeth righteoufly, and pray, that we may be " as wife as ferpents, and harmless as doves." Glad shall I be to ferve you, my dear brother, in this, or any other affair, for advancing our glorious Mediator's kingdom. Let this be our comfort, the gates of hell shall never be able to prevail against it. Let us go on then, and never fear what men or devils can fay of, or do unto us. I suppose this is the language of your heart,

> The love of CHRIST doth me confirain To feek the wand ring fouls of men : All hail reproach, and welcome pain, Only thy terrors, LORD, reftrain.

And if fo, furely the spirit of CHRIST and of glory will reft upon you. Our dear brother C—— is fadly used in Wiltsbire. The compassionate Redeemer of souls pities my weakness, and fuffers very little disturbance to be made. We have sweet times, and, vile as I am, JESUS is pleased to keep me near him. I hope this will find your dear soul sitting under his shadow with great delight. I know you not in the flesh, but hope to see you before I embark. Letters call me loudly to Georgia. My dear family are returned to their Betbesda in safety. O help me, my dear brother, to praise the LORD. Salute all the brethren in behalf of Yours most affectionately, &c.

Digitized by Google

G. W. LETTER

LETTER CCCCLXXXII.

To Mr. V—, Secretary to the Trustees of Georgiu. Dear Sir, London, Nov. 20, 1742.

OD willing, I intend waiting upon the honourable Truf-J tees at the time appointed. Yesterday I received a packet of letters from my friends at the Orphan-house. I find they are returned in fafety to Bethefda, and give a noble account of the General's conduct. Bleffed be GOD, for enabling him to repel the enemy; but now another diffres is come upon poor Georgia. A violent fickness rages and has taken off many. My letters fay, the Orphan-house surgeon had 50 under his hands. This, I truft, will more and more convince the Honourable Trustees, of the benefit the Orphan-house is and will be to the Colony. I hear, that Mr. O----, the minister of Savannah, is dead. I know one Mr. M----, a clergyman in the Ifle of Man, who would go over and fupply his place, if he was applied to. The Bifhop of Sodor and Man I believe will give him a recommendation. You may acquaint the Honourable Truftees with this, and let me know their answer. I hope in about two months to embark for Georgia. I find GOD has given my family a good crop; but the hands are fick, fo they cannot speedily carry it in. What condition the Orphan-house was in lately, the inclosed will fnew. Be pleafed to let the Honourable Trustees have a fight of it, and believe me to be, dear Sir,

Your obliged friend and fervant,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

۰ n

465

L. E. T. T. E. R. CCCCLXXXIII. $T_e Mr. C$.

London, Nov. 20, 1742.

My very dear Brother,

THE first part of your letter did not surprize me at all, though it made me look up to the LORD for you. I believed you would be down in the valley of humiliation foon; but fear not, it is only that you may be exalted the more. I trust, this will find you mounting on wings like an eagle, walking, yet not weary; running, yet not faint. GoD has; . Vol. I. Hh does, does, and will remarkably appear for you. Doubtlels, you are his fervant and minister. He therefore that touches you, touches the apple of Gob's eye. Poor Willfbire people! I pity them. If I knew their Bishop, I would apply to him on their behalf. I wrote to the Bishop of Bangor for our brethren in Wales, and have received a very favourable answer. The wrath of man shall turn to Gob's praife, and the remainder of it he will restrain. How wonderfully has he appeared in all ages for his church and people! My dear family abroad has been marvellously preferved. Bleffed be Gob, they are returned to Betbefda in peace. We have fweet feasions daily, and I am carried in the arms of love. My Master careth for me, and seems to order my goings in his way. O help me to praise him. I think you are never forbotten by, my dear C_{---} .

Your most affectionate brother and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCLXXXIV.

To Mr. 7- E---.

Dear Sir,

London, Nov. 23, 1742.

LOW gently does the LORD deal with his followers! "As a father pitieth his own children, fo is the LORD merciful to them that fear him." Now your father is a little uneasv, your grandfather is more favourable. The LORD will never fuffer you to be tempted above what you will be enabled to bear. He will make a way for you to escape. I am glad you have determined to fludy at E_____. Two things, I would earneftly recommend to your conftant fludy, the book of GOD, and your own beart. These two, well understood, will make you an able minister of the New Teftament. In what manner you shall be hereafter employed, I would have you be indifferent about. " Take no thought for the morrow." Let the LORD fend you, when and where he will fend you. In the mean while, do as much for God in a private way as you 'can. " Exercife thyfelf unto godlinefs," and walk fo humbly, that all may know our Loke has chosen you to be a gospel prophet. I rejoice, that the work is fill going on. Bleffed be God, we we have good times here. I am kept in great liberty. Be pleafed to defire all to accept of hearty love from, dear Sir,

Your most affectionate friend and fervant, G. W.

LETTER CCCCLXXXV. To the Earl of ----.

My Lord,

London, Nov. 23, 1742.

CINCE I wrote to your Lordship, I have received a com-J fortable packet of letters from Georgia, giving me an account of my family's fafe return to their Bethefda. The deliverance of Georgia from the Spaniards, one of my friends writes me, is fuch as cannot be parralleled, but by fome few instances out of the Old Testament. I find that the Spaniords had caft lots, and determined to give no quarter. They intended to attack Carolina, but wanting water they put into Georgia, and fo would take that Colony in their way. But " the race is not to the fwift, nor the battle to the ftrong." Providence ruleth all things. They were wonderfully repelled and fent away, before our fhips were feen. Surely GOD remembered the prayers of the poor orphans, and the earnest cries which have been put up on their behalf. I find they now live at a smaller expence. They hunt and shoot for a good part of their food. Their crop gives them a confiderable quantity of peas, potatoes, &cc. and they kill fome of their own flock. There has been a great fickness at Savannah. Some of the labourers have been taken off, but none of the children, as I hear, have died as yet. I hope this will find your Lordship perfectly recovered, and your honoured confort, Lady -----, and all your Lordship's family, rejoicing in GoD. He is pleafed to give me much of his love, and to blefs me every day. Several of our friends in Wales have been unjustly excommunicated. I have fent two letters, and have received kind answers from the Bishop of Banger. Perilous times, perhaps, are coming on ; but this is my comfort, " the gates of hell shall never prevail against the church of CHRIST." Hoping for a line from your Lordship, if it be not too much trouble, I subscribe myself, my Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient,

Digitized by Google

obliged hymble fervant,

H h 2

G.W.

LETTER CCCCLXXXVI.

To Mils W----.

London, November 23, 1742.

My dear Mils W--,

Y OUR letter affected me much, and if it had not been for bufinefs, I fhould have anfwered it ere now. It is the hardeft thing in the world to keep the creature in his proper place. We are apt to effeem the ministers of JESUS either too much or too little. One while, we could pluck out our eyes to give them; at another time, run into a contrary extreme, 'and not pay them that respect which is their due for their Master's fake. The love that a child of GoD feels for its spiritual father, is certainly unspeakable. O how can I but love him, who under GoD has brought me from darkness into light! Methinks I hear dear Miss W---- fay, "how indeed!" But here is danger, left the affections should be too much entangled, and we unwilling to give up the beloved object to our GoD. This, I suppose, is dear Miss W----'s cafe, and I can fay,

I know how fore this trial is, For I have felt the fame.

O what have I fuffered in parting from spiritual friends, efpecially fuch as were my Ilaac's! But CHRIST's grace has been fufficient for me, and fo it will be for you. I have prayed for you, and hope by this time dear Mifs W--- can fay, my spiritual Father keeps his proper place, and I walk in liberty and the love of GOD. Indeed, my dear Mifs, no one but the fearcher of hearts knows, what a real concern I have for your eternal welfare. I verily believe I shall see you fitting at the right hand of your Redeemer. Surely he has captivated and stolen your heart away. I hope nothing will divert you from him; but with a fingle eye to his glory, you will go through good report and evil report, 'till you come to the bleffed place, where the wicked will ceafe from troubling, and your weary foul enjoy: an everlafting reft. Glad shall I be to hear from you every opportunity. Ere long I must away. Pray our Sayiour to help me under all my difficulties, but but at the fame time help me to praife him: for amidft all' my various circumftances, I am kept joying in GoD, and made more than conqueror through his love. We have had bleffed times fince my arrival here.

LETTERS.

Your most affectionate friend and servant in CHRIST, G. W.

LETTER CCCCLXXXVII.

To the Bishop of Bangor.

My Lord.

1

٢.

C

ŝ

1 12

1

ĵ,

-

ţ,

Ĵ.

şź

٢

1

منا

4

Ş

London, Nov. 23, 1742. hip for your Lordfhip's feco

I Humbly thank your Lordfhip for your Lordfhip's fecond kind letter. Your Lordfhip fhall have Mr. C—-'s letter whenever your Lordfhip pleafes to demand it. I fent it for no other purpole, than to let your Lordfhip into the affair as far as lay in my power. I am quite willing your Lordfhip fhould hear both fides. I doubt not but your Lordfhip, will do juffice. The candour and moderation which breathe in your Lordfhip's letters, and your condefcenfion in writing to me, incline me to take the freedom of begging your Lordfhip's acceptance of my laft volume of fermons, and the Orphan-houfe accounts, from, my Lord,

Your Lordship's most obliged,

obedient fon and fervant,

G. W.

469

LETTER CCCCLXXXVIII.

To Professor Frank, in Germany.

London, Nov. 24, 1742. Rev. Sir, T ONG have I defigned writing to you, but fomething or another has always prevented me. However, I can now defer it no longer. For though I never faw you in the flefh, yet I love and highly effeem you in the bowels of JESUS CHRIST, and wifh you much prosperity in the work of the Your honoured father's memory is very precious to Lord. me. His account of the Orphan-house hath, under GOD, been a great fupport and encouragement to me in a like undertaking. How it prospers, the account fent with this will inform you. Only it will be proper to observe, that fince the publication of the last, there have been upwards of 300 l. col-Hh 3 lected.

lected. I am yet about 400% in arrears. But I know in whom I have believed, for the carrying on of that building. Hitherto it has answered its motto, and has been like the burning bufh on fire, but not confumed. The Colony's late deliverance from the Spaniards was very extraordinary. I cannot but think the LORD intends yet to do great things for Georgia. How is it with the Saltzburghers? I have not heard. Sometime ago I fent them over twenty pounds, and wifh it was in my power to fend them more. About January, GOD willing, I intend to embark. In the mean while, I should be glad to know. Rev. Sir, how it is with your Orphan+house? and whether you have any commands to Georgia? I suppose you have heard of the work of GOD in Scotland. Indeed the word has run and been glorified, and JESUS has gotten himfelf the victory in many hearts. In England also he is pleased to bless us. Here are many close followers of the bleffed Lamb of GOD, and though there is a difference of opinion between me and Mr. IV-, yet JESUS pities us and bleffes us all. I long for that time, " when the watchmen shall all fee eye to eye; when the leopard fhall lie down with the kid, the lion eat fraw like the ox, and the people of GOD learn war and jangle no more." Haften that time, O glorious Emmanuel, and let thy kingdom come ! - Rev. Sir, whilft I am writing, the fire of love kindles in my heart. I am amazed, to think the bleffed Jesus should employ such an unworthy wretch as I am. But thy grace is free, for, O my GoD, it found me out. The love you bear to the lovely JESUS, I am perfuaded will excite you to pray for me. Glad fhould I be of a line from vou, and the Rev. Mr. Ul/purgher; but I deferve no regard for not writing to you both. But you know how to forgive, for GOD for CHRIST's fake hath forgiven you. Hoping therefore for a line from you by the hands of the Rev. Mr. Z-----I fubscribe myself, Reverend and dear Sir,

Your most obliged, affectionate, tho' unworthy younger

Digitized by Google

brother and fervant in the kingdom and patience of the bleffed JESUS, G. W.

LETTER

LETTER CCCCLXXXIX.

To Mr. P----, of Newbury.

London, Nov. 27, 1742.

Rev. and dear Sir,

3

k

t;

ż

5

t:

Í

ż

IJ

ا مأذ

.7

ġ.

d,

CI.

ż

1

T.

T.

CS.

άŚ

T!!

jr i

đ

لارγ

$

Ľ

THIS morning I received your fweet and lovely letter. It humbled me before Gon , but I rejoiced as I had It humbled me before GOD; but I rejoiced, as I had long fince publickly recanted all that is exceptionable in that extract. I think I was overfeen in publishing it; but this is not the first blunder I have made. My mistakes have been so many, and my imprudence fo great, that I have often wondered that the glorious JESUS would employ me in his fervice. But he has proved his eternal goodnefs, long-fuffering, and love, by bearing with me, and, Rev. and dear Sir, he still delights to honour me. Since I have been in London, he has given me great freedom of foul, and caufed his word to come with power. I have news of my family being fafe at Georgia. GOD willing, I purpose to embark next January. I moft heartily thank you for this last instance of your love, and pray our dear JESUS to reward you for it. Your feeing what a poor, weak, fallible creature I am, I truft will ftir you up to be more earnest for me at the throne of grace. Next week I intend fending you a parcel, wherein you will have more particular accounts of the work in Scotland. I hear the gospel flourisches in Gloucesterschire and Wales. Dear Mr. C---- will be fadly miffed. But he is in peace, and the refidue of the spirit is in the Redeemer's hands. That you and your dear flock and family may experience a large effusion of it in your dear touls, is and shall be the earnest prayer of, dear and Rev. Sir,

Your most affectionate, tho' most unworthy brother and fervant in JESUS CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXC.

To the Bishop of Sarum.

My Lord,

Nov. 30, 1742.

Beg your Lordship's pardon for troubling you with this. I believe your Lordship will not be offended, when you know the cause. There is one Mr. C----, a true lover of JESUS H h 4 CHRIST,

CHRIST, who has been much honoured in bringing many poor finners in Wiltshire to the knowledge of themselves and of GOD, He is a member of the Church of England, but fadly oppofed by the clergy in Wiltshire, as well as by many that will come to hear him preach. In a letter, dated November 16th, from Toxham, he writes thus: " The enemy feems to be more awaken-"ed in the villages round about us, than before. The mini-" fters of Bramble, Segery, Langley, and many others, have " ftrictly forbidden the church-wardens and overfeers to let any " of the C----'s have any thing out of the parish; and they " obey them, and tell the poor, if they cannot flop them from " following any other way, they will famish them. Several " of the poor, who have great families (to my own knowledge) " have already been denied any help, for this reason, because "they follow this way. Some of the people have, out of fear, " denied they ever came, and others have been made to pro-" mile they will come no more; whilft the most part come at " the lofs of friends and all they have. When the officers " threatned fome to take away their pay; they answered, if " you flarve us, we will go, and rather than we will forbear, "we will live upon grass like the kine. Surely the cries of " the diffreffed people have already entered into the ears of the " LORD of Sabaoth." In another letter I received from him last night, he writes thus: " I should be glad if you could "mention the cruelty of the ministers of Bramble, and Segery, " to the Bifhop of Sarum; indeed, their doings are inhuman. "The cry of the people, because of their oppression, is very " great; feveral fuffer amazingly."-In compliance with my dear friend's request, I presume to lay the matter, as he reprefents it, before your Lordship, being persuaded that your Lordfhip will not favour perfecuting practices, or approve of fuch proceedings to keep people to the Church of England. Should this young man leave the Church, hundreds would leave it with him. But I know that at prefent he has no fuch defign. If your Lordship pleases to give me leave, I would wait upon your Lordship upon the least notice. Or if your Lordship is pleased to fend a line into Wiltshire, to know the truth of the matter, and judge accordingly, it will fatisfy, my Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient fon and fervant, G. W. LETTER Digitized by Google

LETTER CCCCXCI. To Mr. 7-----.

London, Dec. 4, 1742.

I F my dear brother \mathcal{F} —— took it kind, that I called at his house, I am fure I took it much kinder that he was pleafed to fend unworthy me fo kind a letter. It has fo affected me, that I have been praying before my Saviour for you; and though nature calls for reft, I cannot obey it, before I am, my Master lets me have my hands full of work. From morning 'till midnight I am employed, and, glory be to rich grace, I am carried through the duties of each day with chearfulnefs, and almost uninterrupted tranquility. Our fociety is large, but in good order, and we make improvements daily. My Mafter gives us much of his gracious prefence, both in our public and private administrations. In our love-feasts, JESUS comes and fays, " Peace be unto you." In our great congregation, he gives poor finners to look, and mourn, and live. In Scotland the work was very extraordinary. In Wales the word runs and is glorified much. In Gloucestershire, Wiltshire, and Briftol, our LORD gets himself the victory in many hearts. In Newcastle, our brother W----'s are bleffed much, and I heartily rejoice to hear that our dear Saviour is fo much among you. If I know any thing of this my defperately wicked heart, I am dead to parties, and freed from the pain, which on that account once disturbed the peace of my foul. Indeed, JESUS has taken many things from me, and made me to experience, that in him there is plenteous redemption. About January, I purpole, GOD willing, to embark for Georgia. My dear family hath been wonderfully preferved. As the Orphan-house was built by faith, I trust the gates of hell shall never prevail against it. Methinks I hear my dear Mr. 7----fay, Ameni. I most cordially falute your dear Lady, dear brother S----, and all the brethren. I faw our dear S---- be-fore he went. I intended having fome fweet fellowship with the church in York/hire, but was prevented by riding poft. If. dear brother H____, or D____, or any of the brethren, have any thing to fay to a poor finner, I thould be glad to hear from from them. Let this provoke you, my dear brother, to fend me another letter. I'll redeem time from fleep, rather than it should not be answered by, my dear Mr. γ ----,

473

Your most affectionate, though unworthy, finful and younger brother in JESUS CHRIST,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXCII.

To the Bishop of Bristol.

My Lord,

474.

London, Dec. 5, 1742.

A S your Lordship was pleased to contribute towards the Orphan-house in Georgia, I think your Lordship has a right to hear how that undertaking succeeds. I have made bold to fend your Lordship the accounts of it, which are publissed. Since the last was printed, I have collected about 300 l. and have heard that my family are all fase at the Orphanhouse. I have also taken the freedom of fending your Lordship my last volume of fermons; in accepting of which, your Lordship will much oblige

Your Lordship's most obedient fon and fervant,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXCIII.

To Mr. S, at Worcefter.

London, Dec. 9, 1742.

Rev. and dear Sir,

HOWEVER engaged I may be, I think it my duty to answer your kind letter as soon as possible. It is not fit that my Master's aged fervant should wait long for an answer from a younger brother, especially as I know you write with so much difficulty. I thank you, Rev. Sir, for your plain dealing. It is what pleaseth me well. Indeed, I feel myself a poor, vile, worthles creature, and am glad to receive advice from you, who have been so long in the Redeemer's fervice. However ungrateful it may be to the old man, the language of my heart is, "LORD, fearch me and try me, and whatever fecret wick-"edness lurks in my foul, discover it to me, and give me "power over it, that nothing may divert me from that way, "which leads me to life everlasting." Your advice, Rev. Sir,

2

j,

1

Ľ,

E.

1)

25

21

đ,

i

!_ "Г.

÷.

弫 ĵ,

4

i ir

j,

Ľ

f

5

Ø,

¢!

r!

đ

¢,

gĺ ş

475 Sir, in respect to preaching, was falutary and good, and if I may fpeak any thing of myfelf, is what I keep close to. I am remarked for my evangelical preaching, and comforting the mourners of Zion. I am never fo much in my element, as when I preach free grace to the chief of finners. As to the gentleman you mention, I do not remember I ever conversed with fuch a perfon. I believe there can fcarce an inftance be given of any one fent to Bedlam by my fermons. But I rejoice in this, and all other calumnies that are caft upon me.

> All hail reproach, and welcome pain, Only thy terrors, LORD, restrain.

I must have fome thorn in the flesh, to ferve as a poise to the great honour my Master is pleased to put upon me. In Scotland, my reception was extraordinary. It was almost wholly amongst the people and clergy of the kirk, with many. of the highest rank. I was very intimate with feveral perfons of quality, who I truft have been awakened to a true fenfe of the divine life, and enabled to count all things but dung and drofs for the excellency of the knowledge of CHRIST JESUS My chief opposition was from the dear Mr. their Lord. E-----s and the affociate prefbytery. They first invited me to Scotland; but finding I would preach for the ministers of the established church, as well as for them, they spoke all manner of evil against me falsly, and imputed all the work in Scotland and New-England to the agency of the evil spirit. I pitied, prayed for, and loved them, and do fo ftill. O, reverend Sir, what thanks shall I give to my LORD for carrying me through fo many trying difpensations? I know you will help me to adore and praise him. I am much bleffed here, We have many gracious fouls. Ere long I must leave them. I have not the least thought of feeing Worcester. Glad shall I be to kifs your aged hands; but I shall see you in glory. Begging the continuance of your prayers, and with all poffible thanks for all favours, I subscribe myself, reverend and dear Şir,

Your most obliged and affectionate friend and younger brother and fervant in JESUS,

Digitized by Google

G. W.

LETTER

$\mathbf{L}_{\mathbf{T}} \mathbf{E} \mathbf{T} \mathbf{T} \mathbf{E} \mathbf{R} \mathbf{S}$

LETTER CCCCXCIV. To Mr. D----, of Edinburgb. London, Dec. 18, 1742.

My very dear Friend and Brother,

LAST night, just before your kind letter came to hand, I had been lying on my face before our compassionate High-Prieft, telling him what great expences lay before me for his great Name fake. I wanted 300% to pay for the Orphans, and much to pay for my own necessary expences, which he, by his providence, brought upon me. Your letter came as an answer to my prayer. It humbled, at the fame time that it elated my foul, and greatly ftrengthened my faith. Surely the LORD is on my fide, and the Orphan-house will ftand unconfumed in fire. The enemies, and even many friends of JESUS speak against it; but this is all to bring me nearer to the bleffed IESUS, and to convince me that our extremity is God's opportunity. My dear man, God will abundantly blefs you for helping me at this juncture. I can find but few, who think it a favour to do any thing for GOD. and love to help a friend to the very last. O, dear Sir, was you here, I could weep over you, and thank you most heartily. Last night I was enabled to intercede for you very much. Gon will hear my prayer, and not let my dear friend lose his reward. The 16th of this month was my birth-day, It made me blush to think how much fin I have committed against, and how little good I have done for GOD. As foon as I opened and read your letter, amazed, I cried out, I am the vileft wretch living, and fo I think now. I know you will pray for me, and thank our Saviour too. He is very kind to me. Our fociety goes on well, I am now in my winterquarters, preparing for a fresh campaign. Though I richly deferve it, yet our infinitely condescending JESUS will not lay me aside, until he has performed all his good pleasure in and by me. Withing you, my dear Sir, all the bleffings of the everlasting covenant, and fending you ten thousand thanks for all favours, I subscribe myself,

> Your most obliged affectionate friend, brother, and unworthy fervant in JESUS CHRIST,

> > Digitized by Google

G. ₩.

LETTER

LETTERS.

LETTER CCCCXCV. To Mr I----.

London, Dec. 21, 1742.

My very dear Brother,

TTHEN your letters come, I find great freedom to fend immediate answers. A proof this, I truft, that our Saviour intends our brotherly love not only to continue, but increase. This day I dined with old Mr. F----, and was kindly entertained by him and his wife. I then remembered what fweet counfel we had there taken together, and rejoiced in the happy prospect of our being ere long for ever together with our bleffed and glorious LORD. My brother, what has our Saviour done for us fince that time? What is he doing for us now? what did he do ere time began? what will he do when time fhall be no more? O how fweet is it to be melted down with a fenfe of redeeming love! It is this must strike the rock, and break the bars of unbelief afunder. O! to be kept always low at the feet of JESUS! It is right, my brother, always to infift on poverty of fpirit, and emptying the creature of felf. I heartily join with you in your petition for yourfelf and unworthy me. I know what a dreadful thing it is, to carry much fail without proper ballaft, and to rejoice in a falfe liberty. Joy floating upon the furface of an unmortified heart, is but of fhort continuance. It puffs up, but doth not edify. I thank our Saviour that he is fhewing us here more of our hearts, and more of his love. I doubt not but he deals fo with you. I heartily greet your dear houfhold, and your focieties, and return my love to Mr. S----. I have heard him mentioned by lady F----- G-----. If our Saviour gives me leave, I would gladly come to Yorkshire. But I think the cloud points ftrongly towards Georgia. He hath taken wonderful care of the sheep left in yonder wildernefs, and interposed mightily in their behalf. I know you will thank him for it. I have had a loving conference with dear Mr. B-----, and have received a fweet gospel-letter from dear Mr. H-----. With this I fend to him, you, and yours, and all the brethren, most hearty love, and am, my very dear brother,

Ever yours in CHRIST,

G. W. LETTER

Digitized by Google

LETTER CCCCXCVI.

To the Honourable Colonel G------.

Honoured Sir. London, Dec. 21, 1742. VOUR kind letter put me in mind of righteous Lot, whole foul was grieved day by day at the ungodly convertation of the wicked. It was the fame with holy David. His eyes, like yours, honoured Sir, guthed out with water because men kept not GoD's law. Let this be your comfort, honoured Sir, that ere long " the wicked fhall ceafe from troubling you, and your weary foul shall be at reft." Our Saviour will give you a discharge, when you have fought a few more battles for him. An exceeding and eternal weight of glory is laid up for you, which GOD the righteous judge shall give you at that day. I confess your lituation and employment cannot be very agreeable to a difciple of the prince of peace. But perfons can better judge for themselves, than strangers can judge for them. However, I cannot fay, I would change posts. Indeed, honoured Sir, I think mine is a glorious employ. I am not ashamed of my master, though my master may well be ashamed of me. I know no other reason, why JESUS has put me into the ministry, than because I am the chief of finners, and therefore fitteft to preach free grace to a world lying in the wicked one. Bleffed be God, he gives much fuccels, and for the generality answers your prayers, by giving me a thriving foul in a healthful body. But O my unfruitfulnefs ! I am often ashamed that I can do no more for that JESUS who hath redeemed me by his own most precious blood. Honoured Sir, the thoughts quite confound me. O that I could lie lower ! then fhould I rife higher. Could I take deeper root downwards, then should I bear more fruit upwards. I want to be poor in spirit. I want to be meek and lowly in heart. I want to have the whole mind that was in CHRIST JESUS. Bleffed be his name for what he has given me already. Bleffed he his name, that out of his fulnels I receive grace for grace. O that my heart was CHRIST's library ! I would not have one thief to lodge in my Redeemer's temple. " LORD, fcourge out every thief," is the daily language of my heart. The LORD will hear my prayer, and let my ery come unto him. I have juft

Digitized by Google

just been writing to your honoured lady. I think she grows in grace. May you and yours be filled with all the fulness of GOD! In about fix weeks, GOD willing, I purpose to embark for Georgia. Our LORD has wonderfully appeared for my poor orphans. I am yet in arrears for them, but my GOD knows how to supply all my wants. I am enabled to cast all my care upon him, believing that he careth for me. I hope to have the favour of another letter before I embark. In the mean while, I beg the continuance of your prayers, and am, honoured Sir,

Your most affectionate, though very unworthy brother, and fervant in our glorious head,

G. W.

LETTER CCCCXCVII.

To Lady Jane H----- C-----. Honoured Madam, London, Dec

Y

殿

ż

. 25

81

1.

nņ.

1

1,I

[]

17

2 J

21

i

Fi

51

ţ,

i i

15

ľ

9

37

(i

5

.

٦Ľ

1

i fo

ya³

đ

فأ ļŧ

London, Dec. 23, 1742.

TOW are we obliged to your Ladyship? Had I time I would endeavour to tell you; but this is my comfort, when I have not time to write, I have a heart given me to pray for my dear friends, and you, Honoured Madam, have a conftant fhare in my poor petitions. I find by yours to my wife, that you complain of darkness. Ere now, I hope the day-ftar hath again rifen in your heart, and you have been made to rejoice with exceeding great joy. Our LORD will not leave you comfortless; he will fend the Holy Ghoft to The time of finging of birds shall come. Our comfort you. LORD will not be always chiding .- This is only to fhew you more of your heart, and make you what you long to be, a very poor finner. Our hearts, Honoured Madam, are so defperately wicked, deceitful above all things, that without repeated inftances of feeling our helplessness and misery, we should forget ourfelves, and run away from the feet of our LORD and Saviour. He therefore, in love, empties before he fills; humbles before he exalts. At least, he is pleased to deal thus with me. I thank him for it, from my inmost foul : for was it not fo, his mercies would deftroy us. He helps me also to praife him. When I discover a new corruption, I am as thankful as a centinel keeping watch in a garrifon, would be at fpying a straggling enemy come near him. I stand not not fighting with it myself in my own strength, but run immediately and tell the captain of my falvation. By the fword of his fpirit, he foon deftroys if, and makes me exceeding happy. This is what I call a fimple looking to CHRIST. I know of no other effectual way of keeping the old man down, after he has gotten his deadly blow. Look up then, dear Madam, to a wounded Saviour. Go to him as a little child. Tell him your whole heart. He will hear your lifping, and fet your foul at liberty. He is pleafed graciously to answer my petitions, and to blefs my poor labours. We have many good fouls in our fociety, that are gently coming into the knowledge of themselves. Our Saviour deals most lovingly with us indeed. Last night we had a general love-feast. It was exceeding awful and refreshing. I could have wished for fome of my dear Scotland friends. I was enabled to pray for them most fervently. May JESUS bless this letter to your foul ! Wishing, above all things, that it may be in health and prosper, and with humble acknowledgments for all favours, 1 subscribe myself, Honoured Madam,

> Your Ladyship's most obliged humble fervant, G. W.

The END of the FIRST VOLUME.

Digitized by Google

A80

