Christian Reader,

Shall in a few words acquaint thee with the Reasons that obtained my confent to the publishing of the enfuing Discourse. The confideration of the present State and Condition of the Generality of Professors, the visible Evidences of the Frame of their Hearts and Spirits, manifesting a great Disability of dealing with the Temptations, wherewith from the Peace they have in the World, and the Divisions that they have among themfelves, they are encompassed, holds the chief place amongst them. This I am assured is of so great importance, that if hereby I only occasion others to press more effectually on the Consciences of men, the work of confidering their Wayes, and to give more clear Direction for the compaffing of the End proposed, I shall well efteem of my Lot in this undertaking. fome mens dangerous Mistakes, who of late dayes have taken upon them to give Directions for the Mortification of Sin, who being unacquainted with the Mystery of the Gospel, and the Efficacy of the Death of Christ, have anew imposed the Toke of a felf-wrought-out Mortification on the Necks of their Disciples, which neither they nor their Forefathers were ever able. to bear. A Mortification they cryup and prefs, suitable to that of the Gospel neither in respect of Nature, Subject, Causes, Means, nor Effects ; which constantly produces the deplorable Issues of Superstition, felf-righteousness and Anxiety of Conscience, in them who take up the burthen which is so bound for them.

What is here proposed in weakness, I bumbly hope will answer the Spirit and Detter of the Gospel, with the Experiences of them who know what it is to walk with God according to the Tenour of the Covenant of Grace. So that if not this, yet certainly something of this kind, is very necessary at this season, for the promotion and furtherance of this work of Gospel-Conservation Mortification in the Hearts of Believers. and their Direction in Paths safe, and wherein they may find Reft to their Souls. Something I have to adde, as to what in particular relates unto my felf. Having preached on this subject, unto some comfortable faccess, through the Grace of him that administred seed to the Somer. I was prefled by fundry perfons, in whofe hearts are the Wayes of God, thus to publish what I had delivered, with such Additions and Alterations as I should judge necessary. Under the inducement of their Defires, I called to remembrance the Debt wherein I have now for some Tears stood engaged nnto fundry Noble and worthy Christian Friends, as to a Treatife of Communion with God, Some while fince promised to them; and thereon apprehended, that if I could not bereby compound for Since the first the greater Debt, jet I might Edicion of this Treatile, that poffibly tender them this Difother allo is course of Variance with thempublifhed. felves, as interest for their forbearance of that of Peace and Communion with Besides, I considered that I had God.

Thope I may own in fincerity, that my bearts defire unto God, and the chief Delign of my Life in the station wherein the good Providence of God heth placed me, are, that Mortification and univerfal Hotimess may be promoted in my own and in the Hearts and Wayes of others, to the Glory of God, that fo the Gofpel of our Lord and Saviour. The Foundation of the whole enfuing Discourfe laid in Rom. 8. 13. The words of the Apostle opened. The certain connexion between true Mortification and Salvation. Mortification the work of Believers. The Spirit the principal efficient Cause of it. What meant by the [Body] in the words of the Apostle. What by the [Deeds of the Body.] Life in what fence promised to this Duty.

Hat what I have of Direction to contribute to the carrying on of the work of Mortification in Believers, may receive order and perspicuity, I shall lay. the foundation of it in those words of the Apostle, Rom. 8. 13. If ye by the Spirit do mortifie the deeds of the flesh, ye shall live; and reduce the whole to an Improvement of the great Evangelical Truth and Mystery contained in them.

The Apostle having made a Recapitulation of his Doctrine of Justification by Faith, and the bleffed Estate and Condition of them who 916 are made by Grace partakers thereof, verf. 1, 2, 3. of this Chapter, proceeds to improve it, to the Holinejs and Confolation of Believers.

Among his Arguments and Motives unto Holinefs, the Verse mentioned containeth one, from the contrary Events and Effects of Holiness and Sin. If ye live after the flesh, ye finall-dye. What it is to live after the flesh, and what it is to dye, that being not my present aym, and business. I shall no otherwise explain, than as they will fall in with the fence of the latter words of the verse, as before proposed.

Foundation of the enfuing Discourse, there is

I. A Duty prescribed; Mortifie the deeds of the body.

2. The Perfons are denoted to whom it is prescribed; Te; if Te Mortifie.

3. There is in them a Promise annexed to that Duty, Ye shall Live.

4. The Caufe or Means of the Performance of this Duty, the Spirit; If ye through the Spirit.

5. The Conditionality of the whole Propofution, wherein Duty, Means, and Promise, are contained, If ye, G.c.

The first thing occurring in the words, as they lye in the entire Proposition, is the condiconductor Google tional tional Note; ei 3, but if. Conditionals in fuch Propolitions may denote two things.

1. The uncertainty of the Event, or thing promifed in respect of them to whom the duty is prescribed. And this takes place where the condition is absolutely neceffary unto the Issue and depends not its scale on any determinate Cause, known to him to whom 'tis prescribed. So we say, If we live we will do such a thing. This cannot be the Intendment of the conditional Expression in this place. Of the Persons to whom these words are spoken, it is said vers. 1. of the same Chapter, there is no comdemnation to them.

2. The Certainty of the coherence and Connexion that is between the things fpoken of. As we fay to a fick man, If you will take fuch a potion, or use fuch a remedy, you will be well. The thing we folely intend to express, is the certainty of the Connexion that is between the potion or remedy, and health. And this is the use of it here. The certain Connexion that is between the mortifying of the deeds of the Body, and living, is intimated in this conditional particle.

Now the connexion and coherence of things. being manifold, as of Caufe and Effect, of Way and Means, and the End; this between Mortification and Life, is not of Caufe and Effect properly and firicity, for Eternal Life B 2 is the gift of God through Jefus Christ, Rom. 6.23. But of Means and End: God hath appointed this Means, for the attaining that End, which he hath freely promifed. Means though neceffary have a fair subordination to an End of free Promise. A Gist, and a procuring Cause in him to whom it is given, are inconsistent. The intendment then of this Proposition as conditional, is, That there is a certain infallible connexion and coherence between true Mortification and Eternal Life: if you use this Means, you shall obtain that End: If you do mortifie, you shall live. And herein lyes the main motive unto, and Enforcement of the Duty prescribed.

2. The next thing we meet withall in the words, is the per/ons to whom this Duty is prefcribed; and that is expressed in the word Te, in the Original included in the Verb Savariers, if ye mortifie: that is, ye Believers; ye to whom there is no Condemnation, vers. I. ye that are not in the Fiesh, but in the Spirit; vers. 5. who are quickened by the Spirit of Christ, vers. 10. 11. to you is this Duty prescribed. The pressing of this Duty immediately on any other, is a notable Fruit of that Superstition and felf-Righteousnels that the world is full of; the great work and design of devout men, ignorant of the Gospel, Rom. 10.3, 4. Joh. 15.5. Now this description of the Persons, in conjunction junction with the prefeription of the duty, is the main Foundation of the enfuing Discourse, as it lyes in this Thefis or Proposition.

The choisest Believers, who are assuredly freed from the condemning power of sin, ought yet to make it their business all their dayes, to mortifie the indwelling power of sin.

3. The principal efficient Cause of the performance of this Duty, is the Spirit : ei 3 avévual, if by the Spirit. The Spirit here, is the Spirit mentioned vers. 11. the Spirit of Chrift, the Spirit of God, that dwells in us, vers. 9. that quickens us, vers. 11. the Holy Gholt, verf. 14. the Spirit of Adoption, verl. 15. the Spirit that maketh Interceffion for us, verf. 26. All other wayes of Mortification are vain. all helps leave us helples, it muit be done by the Spirit. Men, as the Apostle intimates, Rom. 9. 30, 31, 32. may attempt this work on other Principles, by Means and Advantages administred on other accounts, as they always have done, and do; but (faith he) this is the work of the Spirit, by him alone is it to be wrought, and by no other power is it to be brought about. Mortification from a felf. strength, carried on by wayes of self-invention, unto the End of a self-Righteousness, is the Soul and substance of all false Religion in the world : And this is a fecond Principle of my enfuing Discourse. Bott 3 by Google 4. The

4. The Duty it felf, mortifie the deeds of the Body; is nextly to be remarked.

Three things are here to be enquired into,

1. What is meant by the Body.

- 2. What by the deeds of the Body.
- 3. What by Morifying of them.

1. The Body in the close of the verse, is the same with the Flesh in the beginning. If ye live after the flefb, ye fhail dye, but if ye Morrifie the deeds of the body; that is, of the flesh. It is that which the Apolle hath all along difcoursed of, under the name of the flesh, which is evident from the prosecution of the Antithefis between the spirit and the flesh, before and after'. The Body then here is taken for that Corruption and Pravity of our Natures, whereof the Body in a great part is the Seat and Inftrument: The very Members of the Body, being made fervants unto Unrighteousness thereby, Rom. 6. 19. It is Indwelling Sin, the corrupted Flesh, or Lust that is intended. Many Reasons might be given of this metonymical expression, that I shall not now infit on. The body here is the fame with manades Ardgewa 9, and owna me anaglias, the Old man, and the body of Sin, Rom. 6.6. or it may fy mendochically express the whole perfon confidered as corrupted, and the feat of Lufts, and diftempered Affections.

2. The deeds of the Body, the word is withers, which which indeed denoteth the outward actions chiefly. The works of the Flesh, as they are, called; rat zera this oughds. G.d. 5. 19. which are there faid to be manifest: and are enumerated. Now though the outward deeds are here onely expressed, yet the inward and next Caufes are chiefly intended, the Axe is to be laid to the root of the tree: The Deeds of the Flesh are to be mortified in their Causes, from whence they spring: the Apostle calls them Deeds, as that which every Lust tends unto: Though it do but conceive, and prove abortive, it ayms to bring forth a perfect Sin.

Having both in the seventh and the beginning of this Chapter treated of Indwelling Luit and Sin, as the Fountain and Principle of all sinful Actions, he here mentions its Destruction under the name of the Effects which it doth produce. meetings is objuar, are as much as opposed in some of the Effects which it doth produce. meetings Rom. 8. 6. the wisdom of the Flesh, by a metonymic of the same nature with the former; or as the medium tas of the flesh, by a metonymic of the fame nature with the former; or as the medium tas and of soulian, the passions and lusts of the field, Gal. 5. 24. whence the deeds and fruits of it do arise: and in this sence is the Body used vers. 10. The body is dead because of fin.

3. To Mortifie; is Suparatives, if ye put the death: a Metaphorisal Expection, taken from the putting of any living thing to death. To kill a Man or any other living thing; is to B 4 take take away the principle of all his frength, vigour and power, fo that he cannot act, or exert, or put forth any proper Actings of his own; fo it is in this Case. Indwelling Sin is compared to a Person, a living Person, called the old man, with his faculties, and properties, his wisdom, craft, subtilty, strength; this (fayes the Apoltle) must be killed, put to death, Mor- . tified : that is, have its power, life, vigour and firength to produce its Effects taken away by the Spirit. It is indeed meritoriously and by way of Example utterly mortified and flain by the Crois of Christ: and the Old man is thence faid to be crucified with Christ, Rom. 6.6. and our felves to be dead with bim, verf.8. and really, initially in Regeneration, Rom. 6. 3, 4, 5. when a Principle contrary to it, and destructive of it, Gal. 5. 17. is planted in our hearts: but the whole work is by degrees to be carried on towards Perfection all our dayes. Of this more in the Process of our Discourse.

The Intendment of the Apolile in this prefcription of the Duty mentioned, is, that The Mortification of Indwelling Sin, remaining in our mortal bodies, that it may not have Life and Power to bring forth the Works or Deeds of the flesh, is the constant Duty of Believers.

5. The promise unto this duty is Life: ye fall shall live. The Life promised, is opposed to the Death threatned in the clause foregoing: If ye live after the flesh, ye shall die; which the same Apostle elsewhere expresseth; ye shall of the flesh reap corruption: Gal. 6. 8. or destruction from God. Now perhaps the word may not only intend eternal Life, but alfo the spiritual Life in Christ which here we have; not as to the Effence and being of it, which is already enjoyed by Believers, but as to the joy, comfort, and vigour of it : As the Apostle fayes in another case, Now I live if ye stand fast, 1 Thess. 3.8. Now my Life will do me good ; I shall have joy and comfore with my life : ye shall live, lead a good, vigorous, comfortable, spiritual Life whilest you are here, and obtain Eternal Life hereafter.

Supposing what was faid before of the connexion between Mortification and Eternal Life, as of Means and End, I shall adde onely as a second Motive to the Duty prescribed, that

The vigour and power and comfort of our fpiritual Life, depends on the Mortification of the deeds of the flesh.

The principal Affertion concerning the Neceffity of Mortification proposed to Confirmation. Mortification the Du:y of the best Believers, Col. 3. 5. I Cor. 9. 27. Indwelling Sin alwayes avides: No Perfection in this Life, Pml. 3.12. I Cor. 13.12. 2 Pet. 3.18. Gal. 5. 17. &c. The Activity of abiding fin in Believers: Rom. 7.23. Jun. 4.5. Heb. 12.1. Its Fruitfulness and Tendency. Every Luft aims at the height in its kind. The Spirit and new Nature given to contend against ' Indwelling Sin. Gal. 5. 17. 2 Pet. 1. 4, 5. Rom. 7. 23. The fearfull Iffue of the Negleft of Mortification. Rev. 3. 2. Heb. 3.13. The first general Principle of the whole Discourse hence confirmed. Want of this Duty lamented.

Aving laid this Foundation, a brief Confirmation of the forementioned principal Deductions will lead me to what I chiefly intend. The first is,

That The choicest believers, who are affuredly freed from the condemning power of Sin, onght yetto make it their business all their dayes to mortifie the Indwelling power of Sin.

So the Apostle, Col. 3. 5. Mortifie therefore your members, which are upon the earth. Whom speaks he to? fuch as were rifen with Christ, vers. 1. such as were dead with him, vers. 3. such as whose Life Christ was, and who should appear with him in Glory, verf. 4. Do you mortifie; do you make it your daily work, be alwayes at it whilest you live, cease not a day from this work; be killing Sin, or it will be killing you; your being dead with Christ virtual y, your being quickened with him, will not excuse you from this work. And our Saviour tells us, how his Father deals with every branch in him that beareth fruit; every true and living Branch; He purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit, Job. 15. 2. He prunes it, and that not for a day or two, but while it is a branch in this world. And the Apostle tells you what was his practice, I Cor. 9.27. I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection. I do it (faith he) daily, it is the work of my Life, I omit it not; this is my Bulinefs. And if this were the work and bufiness of Paul, who was so incomparably exalted in Grace, Light, Revelations, Enjoyments, Priviledges, Confolations, above the ordinary measure of Believers; where may we possibly bottoin an Exemption from this Work and Duty while it we are in this world. Some brief account of the Reafons hercof max be given. 1. İ

1. Indwelling fin alwayes abides, shileft we are in this world, therefore it is alwayes to be morrified. The vain, foolish, and ignorant disputes of men, about perfect keeping of the Commands of God, of perfection in this Life, of being wholly and perfectly dead to fin, I meddle not now with. It is more than probable, that the men of those Abominations, never knew what belonged to the keeping of any one of Gods Commands; and are fo much below perfection of degrees, that they never attained to a perfection of parts in Obcdi-ence, or universal Obedience in fincerity. And therefore many in our dayes who have talked of perfection, have been wifer, and have affirmed it to confift in knowing no difference between good and evil. Not that they are perfect in the things we call good, but that all is alike to them; and the height of Wic-kedness is their Perfection. Others who have found out a new way to it, by denying ori-ginal indwelling Sin, and a tempering the *fpi-*rituality of the Law of God, unto mens carnal Hearts; as they have fufficiently discovered themfelves to be ignorant of the Life of Chrift, and the power of it in Believers, fo they have invented a new Righteousness, that the Gospel knows not of, being vainly puffed up by their flethly minds. For us, who dare not be wife above what is written, nor boast by other mens lives of what God hath not done for us, we fay, that Indwelling Sin lives in us in fome measure and degree whilest we are in this world. We dare not fpeak as though we had already attained, or were already perfect, Phil. 3. 12. Our inward man is to be renewed day by day, whileft here we live, 2 Cor. 4. 16. and according to the Renovations of the new, are the breaches and decayes of the old. Whileft we are here, we know but in part, 1 Cor. 13. 12. having a remaining darkness to be gradually removed, by our growth in the knowledge of our Lord Jefus Chrift. 2 Pet. 3. 18. And the Flesh lusteth against the Spirit, fo that we cannot do the things that we would, Cal. 5. 17. and are therefore defective in our Obedience as well as in our Light, 1 Job. 1.8. We have a body of death, Rom. 7. 24. from whence we are not delivered, but by the death of our bodies, Phil. 3. 21. now it being our Duty to mortifie, to be killing of Sin; whileft it is in us, we must be at work. He that is appointed to kill an Enemy, if he leave striking, before the other ceases living, doth but half his work. Gal. 6. 9. Heb. 12. 1. 2 Cor. 7. 1.

2. Sin doth not onely still abide in us, but is still acting, still labouring to bring forth the deeds of the Flesh; When sin lets us alone, we may let Sin alone : But as Sin is never less quiet, than when it feems to be most quiet :

quict; and its waters are for the most part deep, when they are still; fo ought our con-trivan es against it to be; vigorous at all times, in all conditions, even where there is leaft fufpition. Sin doth not only abide in us, but the Law of the members is still rebelling against the Law of the Mind, Rom. 7.23. and the Spirit that dwells in us lufteth to Envy, Jam. 4. 5. It is alwayes in continual work, the Refh lufteth against the Spirit, Gal. 5. 17. Luit is still tempting and conceiving fin, Jam. 1. 14. In every Moral Action, it is alwayes either inclining to evil, or hindring from that which is good, or disframing the Spirit from Communion with God. It inclines to Evil; the evil that I would not, that I do, faith the Apostle, Rom. 7. 19. whence is that? why becaufe in me, that is, in my flesh dwelleth no good thing : and it hinders from good; the good that I would do, that I do not, verf. 19. upon the fame account, either I do it not; or not as I fhould ; all my Holy things being defiled by this fin. The flefb lufterb against the Spirit, that ye cannot do the things that ye would, Gal. 5. 17. and it unframes our Spirit; and thence is called the fin that fo eafily befets us, Heb. 12.1. on which account are those grievous Com-plaints that the Apoitle makes of it Rom. 7. So that fin is alwayes acting, alwayes coneeiving, alwayes feducing and tempting. Who can can fay that he had ever any thing to do with God, or for God, that indwelling Sin had not an hand in the corrupting of what he did. And this trade will it drive more or lefs all our dayes; If then fin will be alwayes Acting, if we be not alwayes Mortifying, we are loft Creatures. He that stands still, and fuffers his Enemies to double blowes upon him without refistance, will undoubtedly be conquered in the iffue : If Sin be fubtil, watchfuli, ftrong, and alwayes at work in the bufinefs of killing our Souls, and we be flothfull, negligent, foolifh, in proceeding to the ruine thereof, can we expect a comfortable Event? There is not a day but fin foils, or is foiled; prevails, or is prevailed on; and it will be fo whileft we live in this world. I shall discharge him from . this Duty, who can bring fin to a Composition, to a ceffation of Arms in this Warfare; if it will fpare him any one day, in any one duty, (provided he be a perfon that is acquainted with the [pirituality of Obedience, and the fubrility of fin) let him fay to his Sou!, as to this Duty. Soul take thy reft. The Saints whofe Souls breath after deliverance from its perplexing Rebellion, know there is no fafety against it. but in a constant Warfare

3. Sin will not onely be firiving, atting, rebelling, troubling, disquieting, but it let alone, if not continually mortified, it will bring forth great, great, cursed, scandalous, Soul-destroying fins. The Apolitle tells us what the works and fruits of it are, Gal. 5. 19, 20, 21. The works of the fless are manifest; which are, Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, batred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murthers, drunkenness, revellings, and such like. You know what it did in David, and fundry others. Sin aims alwayes at the utmost : every time it rifes up to tempt or entice, might it have its own courfe, it would go out to the utmoft fin in that kind. Every unclean Thought or Glance would be Adultery, if it could ; every covetous Defire would be Oppression; every thought of Unbelief would be Atheism, might it grow to its head. Men may come to that, that fin may not be heard speaking a scandalous word in their hearts; that is, provoking to any great fin with fcandal in its mouth; but every rife of Luft, might it have its courfe, would come to the height of Villany. It is like the Grave, that is never fatisfied. And herein lies no small share of the deceitfulness of Sin, by which it prevails to the hardening of men, and fo to their ruine: Heb. 3. 13. It is modelt as it were in its first motions and Propofals; but having once got footing in the heart by them, it conftantly makes good its ground, and preffeth on to some farther degrees grees in the fame kind; This new aling and preffing forward, makes the Soul take little notice of what an entrance to a falling off from God is already made; it thinks all is indifferent well, if there be no farther progrefs; and fo far as the Soul is made infenfible of any fin, that is, as to fuch a fenfe as the Gospel requireth, so far it is hardned : but Sin is still preffing forward; and that because it hath no bounds but utter Relinquishment of God, and opposition to him; that it proceeds towards its height by degrees, making good the ground it hath got by Hardneis, is not from its Nature, but its Deceitfulne/s. Now nothing can prevent this, but Mortification. That withers the Root and firikes at the Head of Sin every Hour, that whatever it ayms at, it is croffed in. There is not the beft Saint in the world, but if he fhould give over this Duty would fall into as many curfed fins as ever any did of his kind.

4. This is one main reafon why the Spirit and the new Nature is given unto us, that we may have a Principle within, whereby to oppofe Sin and Luit: The Flesh lustesh against the Spirit: Well, and what then? Why the Spirit also lustesh against the Flesh, Gal. 5. 17. There is a propentity in the Spirit, or spiritual new Nature, to be acting against the Flesh, as well as in the Flesh to be acting against Come Goodle the the Spirit: So 2 Pet. 1. 4, 5. It is our par-ticipation of the Divine Nature, that gives us an escape from the pollutions that are in the world through luft: and Rom. 7. 23. there is a law of the mind, as well as a law of the members. Now this is, (1) The most Unjust and unreasonable thing in the world; when two Combatants are engaged, to bind one, and keep him up from doing his utmost, and to leave the other at liberty to wound him at his pleafure. And, (2) The Foolishest thing in the world, to bind him who fights for our Eternal Condition, and to let him alone who feeks and violently attempts our everlasting ruine. The Contell is for our lives and fouls. Not to be daily employing the Spirit and New Nature, for the Mortifying of Sin, is to neglect that excellent succour, which God hath given us against our greatest Enemy. If we neglect to make use of what we have received, God may justly hold his hand from giving us more. His Graces as well as his Gifis are beltowed on us to use, exercise, and trade with. Not to be daily mortifying fin, is to fin against the Goodness, Kindness, Wisdom, Grace, and Love. of God, who hath furnished us with a Principle of doing it.

5. Negligence in this Duty cafts the Soul into a perfect contrary Condition to that, which the Apofile affirms was his, 2 Cor. 4.16.

Though our outward man perish, our inward man is renewed day by day. In these the Inward man perisheth, and the Outward man. is renewed day by day. Sin is as the boufe of David, and Grace as the house of Saul. Exercife and success are the two main cherishers of Grace in the heart; When it is fuffered to lye still, it withers and decayes; the things of it are ready to dye, Rev. 3. 2. and Sin gets ground towards the hardening of the beart; Heb. 3. 13. This is that which I intend; by the Omiffion of this duty, Grace withers, Luft flourisheth, and the Frame of the Heart growes worfe and worfe : and the Lord knows what desperate and fearful issues it hath had with many. Where Sin through the Neglect of Mortification gets a confiderable Victory, it breaks the bones of the Soul, Pfal. 31, 10. P[al. 51, 8. and makes a man weak, fick, and ready to dye, Pfal. 38. 3, 4, 5. that he cannot look up, Pfal. 40. 12. Ifa. 33. 24. and when poor Creatures will take blow after blow, wound after wound, foil after foil, and never roufe up themfelves to a vigorous Oppolition, can they expect any thing but to be hardened through the descritfulne (s of fin; and that their Souls should bleed to death, 2 Job. 8? Indeed it is a fad thing to confider the fearfull issues of this Neglect, which lye under out eyes every day. See we not those whom we knew humble, melting, broken-hearted Chriftians, tender and fearfull to offend, zealous for God, and all his wayes, his Sabbaths, and Ordinances, grown, through a neglect of watching unto this Duty, earthly, carnal, cold, wrathfull, complying with the men of the world, and things of the World, to the Scandal of Religion, and the fearfull Temptation of them that know them? The truth is, what between placing mortification in a rigid stubborn Frame of Spirit, which is for the most part earthly, legal, cenforious, partial, confistent with Wrath, Envy, Malice, Pride, on the one hand, and pretences of Liberty, Grace, and I know not what on the other, true Evan-gelical Mortification is almost lost amongst us, of which afterwards.

6. It is our Duty to be Perfecting Holine's in the fear of the Lord, 2 Cor. 7. 1. To be growing in Grace every day, 1 Pet. 2. 2. 2 Pet. 3. 18. To be renewing our inward man day by day, 2 Cor. 4. 16. Now this cannot be done without the daily Morrifying of fin: Sin fets its strength against every Act of Holine's, and against every degree we grow to. Let not that man think he makes any Progress in Holine's, who walks not over the bellies of his Lusts; He, who doth not kill Sin in his way, takes no streng finds finds not opposition from it, and who fets not himself in every particular to its Mortification, is at peace with it, not dying to it.

This then is the first General Principle of our ensuing Discourse: Notwithstanding the meritorious Mortification (if I may fo speak) of all and every Sin in the Cross of Chrift; notwithstanding the real Foundation of universal Mortification laid in our first Conversion, by Conviction of Sin, humiliation for fin, and the Implantation of a new Principle, opposite to it, and destructive of it; yet Sin doth fo remain, fo act, and work, in the best of Believers, whilest they live in this world, that the constant daily Mortification of it is all their dayes incumbent on them. Before I proceed to the Confideration them. Before I proceed to the Confideration of the next Principle, I cannot but by the way complain of many Professors of these days; who initead of bringing forth such great and evident Fruits of Mortification, as are expected, scarce bear any Leaves of it. There is indeed a broad Light fallen upon the men of this Generation; and together therewith many spiritual Gifts communicated; which with some other Confiderations have wonderfully enlarged the bounds of Professors and Profession; both they and it are exceedingly multiplyed and increased. Hence there is a noife CD Bed by Google of Religion and Religious Duties in every corner; preaching in abundance; and that not in an empty, light, trivial and vain manner, as formerly, but to a good proportion of a fpiritual Gift; fo that if you will measure the number of Believers by Light, G fts and profelfion, the Church may have caule to fay, Who hath born me all thefe ? But now if you will take the measure of them by this great discriminating Grace of Christians, perhaps you will find their number not fo multiplyed. Where almost is that Profession, who owes his Conversion to these dayes of Light, and so talks and professes at such a rate of Spirituality, as few in former dayes were in any mea-fure acquainted with, (I will not judge them, but perhaps boafting what the Lord hath done in them) that doth not give evidence of a miferably unmortified heart? if vain fpending of Time, idleness, unprofitableness in mens places, envy, strife, variance, emulations, wrath, pride, worldlinefs, felfishnefs, (1 Cor. 1.) be Badges of Christians, we have them on us and amongst us in abundance. And if it be fo with them who have much Light, and which we hope is faving; what fhall we fay of fome who would be accounted religious, and yet despise Gospel Light, and for the Duty we have in hand, know no more of it, but what confilts in mens Denying themselves fometimes times in outward Enjoyments, which is one of the outmost Branches of it, which yet they will feldom practife! The good Lord fend out a spirit of Mortification to cure our Distempers, or we are in a fad Condition.

There are two Evils which certainly attend every unmortified Professor. The first in himfelf, the other in respect of others.

1. In himself, let him pretend what he will, he hath slight thoughts of Sin; at least of fins of daily infirmity. The Root of an unmortified Course, is the digestion of Sin, without bitterness in the heart; When a man hath confirmed his Imagination to fuch an Apprehenfion of Grace and Mercy, as to be able without bitterness to swallow and digest daily fins, that man is at the very brink of turning the Grace of God into lasciviousness, and being hardened by the deceitfulness of Sin. Neither is there a greater Evidence of a falfe and rotten heart in the world, than to drive fuch a Trade. To use the blood of Christ, which is given to cleanse us, 1 Job. 1.7; Tit. 2. 14. The exaltation of Christ, which is to give us Repentance, Act. 5.31. the Doltrine of Grace, which teaches us to deny all ungedlinefs, Tit. 2. 11, 12. to countenance Sin, is a Rebellion, that in the iffue will break the bones. At this door have gone out from us, most of the professors that have Apofranized in the dayes wherein Conded by Google WC

we live, for a while they were most of them under Convictions; these kept them unto Duties, and brought them to Profession. So they escaped the pollutions that are in the world, through the knowledge of our Lord fefus Christ, 2 Pet. 2. 20. But having got an acquaintance with the Doctrine of the Gospel, and being weary of Duty, for which they had no Principle, they began to countenantic themselves in manifold Neglects, from the Doctrine of Grace. Now when once this evil had laid hold of them, they specially tumbled into perdition.

2. To others, it hath an evil Influence on them, on a twofold account.

1. It hardens them, by begetting in them a Perfwafion that they are in as good Condition as the beft Profeffors. Whatever they fee in them, is fo ftained for want of this Mortification, that it is of no value with them: They have Zeal for Religion, but it is accompanyed with want of forbearance, and univerfal Righteoufnefs. They deny Prodigality, but with worldlinefs: They deny Prodigality, but with worldlinefs: They feparate from the World, but live wholly to Themfelves, taking no care to exercife loving Kindnefs in the Earth: or they talk Spiritually, and live Vainly: mention Communion with God, and are every way conformed to the World; boatting of Forgivenefs of Sin, and never Forgiving others: And with fuch Confiderations do poor Creatures harden their hearts in their Unregeneracy.

2. They deceive them in making them believe, that if they can come up to their Condition, it ihall be well with them; and fo it growes an Eafie thing, to have the great Temptation of Repute in Religion to wreftle withall: when they may go far beyond them, as to what appears in them, and yet come fhort of Eternal Life; but of thefe things, and all the Evils of unmortified walking, afterwards. . 26

CHAP.' III.

The fecond general Principle of the Means of Mortification proposed to Confirmation. The Spirit the onely Author of this work. Vanity of Popish Mortification discovered. Many means of it used by them not appointed of God. Those appointed by him abused. The mistakes of others in this business. The Spirit is promised Believers for this work, Ezck. 11, 19. Chap. 36. 26. All that we receive from Christ is by the Spirit. How the Spirit Mortifies sin, Gal. 5. 19, 20, 21, 22, 23. The feveral wayes of his Operations to this end proposed. How his Work, and our Duty.

THE next Principle relates to the great Sovereign Caufe of the Mortification treated of, which, in the words layd for the Foundation of this Difcourfe, is faid to be the Spirit, that is, the Holy Ghoft, as was evinced.

He only is fufficient for this work. All wayes and means without him are as a thing of nought; and He is the great Efficient of it, He works in ms, as he pleafes..

1. In vain do men feek other remedies, they fhall not be healed by them. What feveral wayes have been preferibed for this, to have fin mortified, is known. The greatest part of Popific Religion, of that which looks most like Religion in their Profession, confists in mistaken Wayes and Means of Mortification. This is the pretence of their rough gar-ments, whereby they deceive. Their Vows, Orders, Fastings, Penances, are all built on this ground, they are all for the mortifying of Sin. Their Preachings, Sermons, and Books of Devotion, they look all this way. Hence those who interpret the Locufts that came out of the bottomlefs pit, Rev. 9. 2. To be the Friers of the Romish Church, who are said to torment men, fo that they should feek death and not find it, verf. 6. think, that they did it by their flinging Sermons, whereby they convinced them of Sin, but being not able to difcover the Remedy for the healing and Mortifying of it, they kept them in perpetual An-guish and Terrour, and such trouble in their Consciences, that they defined to dye. This I fay is the substance and Glory of their Religion : but what with their labouring to mortifie dead Creatures, ignorant of the Nature and End of the work, what with the Poylon they mixt with it, in their perfualion of its Merit, yea Supercrogation, (as they Hyle their undeciffary merit, with a proud barba-tous title) their glory is their fhame; but of them and their Mortification, more afterwards: chap. 8.

That the Wayes and Means to be used for the Mortification of fin, invented by them, are still infisted on and prescribed for the same end by fome, who should have more light and Knowledge of the Gospel, is known. Such Directions to this purpose have of late been given by fome, and are greedily catch'd at by others professing themselves Protestants, as might have become Popifh Devotionists three or four hundred years ago. Such outlide Endeavours, fuch bodily Exercifes, fuch felf-performances, such meerly Legal Duries, without the least mention of Christ, or his Spirit, are varnished over with fwelling words of vanity, for the onely Means and Expedients for the Mortification of fin, as difcover a deep rooted unacquaintedness with the power of God, and Mystery of the Gospel. The confideration hereof, was one Motive to the publishing of this plain Discourse.

Now the Reafons why the Papifts can never with all their Endeavours truely mortifie any one fin, amongst others, are,

1. Because many of the Wayes and Means they use and infist upon for this End, were never appointed of God for that purpose. Now there is nothing in Religion that bath any Efficacy for compassing an End, but it hath

it

it from Gods Appointment of it to that purpofe. Such as these are, their rough Garments, their Vows, Penances, Disciplines, their Gourse of Monastical Life, and the like, concerning all which God will say, Who bath required these things at your bands? and In vain do you worship me, teaching for Doctrines the Traditions of men. Of the same Nature are fundry self-vexations, infilted on by others.

2. Because those things that are appointed of God as Means, are not used by them in their due Place and Order : fuch as are Praying, Fasting, Watching, Meditation, and the like; these have their use in the business, in hand. But whereas they are all to be looked on as streams, they look on them as the fountain. Whereas they effect and accomplish the End as Means onely fubordinate to the Spirit and Faith, they look on them to do it by virtue of the work wrought. If they faft fo much, and pray fo much, and keep their hours and times, the work is done: As the Apolile fayes of fome in another cafe, they are alwayes learning, never coming to the knowledge of the Truth; fo they are alwayes mortifying, but never come to any found Mortification. In a a word, they have fundry Means to mortifie the Natural man, as to the Natural life here we lead, none to mortifie Luft or Corruption.

This is the general miltake of men ignorant of the Gospel, about this thing; and it lyes at the bottom of very much of that Supersition and Will-worship that hath been brought into the world; what horrible felfmacerations were practised by some of the ancient Authors of Monastical Devotion? what violence did they offer to Nature? what extremity of sufferings did they put themfelves upon? fearch their wayes and Principles to the bottom, and you will find, that it had no other root but this mistake, namely, that attempting rigid Mortification, they fell upon the natural man, instead of the corrupt old man; upon the body wherein we live, instead of the Body of Death.

Neither will the natural Popery that is in others doe it. Men are gali'd with the Guilt of a Sin, that hath prevailed over them: they inftantly promife to themfelves and God, that they will do fo no more; they watch over themfelves, and pray, for a feafon, untill this beat waxes cold, and the fenfe of Sin is worn off, and fo Mortification goes alfo, and Sin returns to its former Dominion: Duties are excellent food for an healthy Soul; they are no phyfick for a fick Soul. He that turns his meat into his medicine, mult expect no great operation. Spiritually fick men cannot fweat out their diftemper with working. But this is the way of men that deceive their own Souls; as we shall fee asterwards.

That none of these wayes are fufficient, is evident from the Nature of the work it felf that is to be done; it is a work that requires fo many concurrent actings in it, as no felf-Endeavour can reach unto ; and is of that kind, that an Almighty Energy is necessary for its accomplishment, as shall be afterwards manifefted.

It is then the work of the Spirit. For,

1. He is Promised of God to be given unto us, to do this work; the taking away of the stony heart, that is, the stubborn, proud, rebellious, unbelieving Heart, is in general the work of Mortification that we treat of, Now this is still promised to be done by the Spirit : Ezek. 11. 19. Chap. 36. 26. I will give my Spirit, and take away the ftony heart : and by the Sparit of God is this work wrought, when all Means fail, 1f.e. 57. 17, 18.

2. We have all our Mortification from the Gift of Christ, and all the Gifts of Christ are communicated to us, and given us by the Sperit of Christ. Without Christ we can do nothing, Job. 15. 5. All communications of Supplyes and Relief in the beginnings, increasings, actings of any Grace whatever from him, are by the Spirit, by whom he alone works in and upon Believers. From him we have our Mor-Googlé tification :

tification: He is exalted and made a Prince and a Saviour, to give Repentance unto us: ACt. 5. 31. and of our Repentance our Mortification is no small Portion. How doth he doe it? having received the Promise of the Holy Ghost, he sends him abroad for that end: ACt. 2. 33. You know the manifold Promises he made of sending the Spirit, as Tertullian speaks, vicariam navare operam, to do the Works that he had to accomplish in us.

The Refolution of one or two Questions will now lead me nearer to what I principally intend.

The first is,

Q. How doth the Spirit mortifie Sin ?

I Answer, in general three wayes.

A. I. By cauling our hearts to abound in Grace, and the Fruits that are contrary to the Flefh, and the Fruits thereof, and Principles of them. So the Apoftle oppofes the Fruits of the Elefh, and of the Spirit: The Fruits of the Flefh (fays he) are fo and fo, Gal. 5. 19, 20. but fayes he, the Fruits of the Spirit are quite contrary, quite of another fort, v. 22, 23. Yea, but what if these are in us, and do abound, may not the other abound alfo? No, fayes he, v. 24. They that are Chrift's have crucified the flefh, with the affections and lufts: But how? Why, v. 25. by living in the Spirit, and walking after the Spirit : That is, by the abounding of these Graces of the Spirit in us, and walking according to them. For, faith the Apoltle, thefe are contrary one to another, v. 17. fo that they cannot both be in the fame fubject, in any intense or high degree. This Renewing of us by the Holy Ghost, as it is called, Tit. 3. 5. is one great way of Mortification : He causes us to grow, thrive, flourish, and abound in those Graces which are contrary, opposite, and destructive to all the fruits of the Flefh; and to the quiet, or thriving of indwelling fin it felf.

2. By a real, physical Efficiency on the Root and Habit of Sin, for the weakning, deftroying and taking it away. Hence he is called a Spirit of Judgement and Burning, Ifa. 4.4. really confuming and deftroying our Lufts. He takes away the flony heart by an Almighty Effic ency; for as he begins the work as to its kind; fo he carries it on as to its degrees. He is the Fire which burns up the very root of Luft.

3. He brings the crofs of Christ into the Heart of a Sinner by Faith, and gives us Com-munion with Chrift in his Death, and Fellow-fhip in his fufferings; of the manner whereof more afterwards.

Q. If this be the work of the Spirit alone, how is it, that we are exhorted to it? Seeing the Spirit of God only can doe it, let the work be left wholly to him. D^{tized by} Google

A. I. It is no otherwise the work of the Spirit, but as all Graces and good Works which are in us, are his: He works in us to will and to doe of bis own good pleasure, Phil. 2. 13. He works all our works in us, Ifa. 26. 12. the work of Faith with power; 2 Theff. I. II. Col. 2. 12. He causes us to pray, and is a Spirit of Supplication, Rom. 8. 26. Zach. 12. 10. and yet we are expirited, and are to be exhorted to all these.

2. He doth not fo work our Mortification in us, as not to keep it still an Act of our Obedience. The Holy Ghoft works in us, and upon us, as we are fit to be wrought in, and upon, that is, fo as to preferve our own liberty, and free Obedience. He works upon our Understandings, Wills, Consciences, and Affections, agreeably to their own Natures; He works in us, and with us, not against us, or without us; fo that his Affiltance is an Encouragement, as to the facilitating of the Work, and no Occasion of neglect as to the work it felf. And indeed I might here bewail the endless faolish labour of poor Souls, who being convinced of fin, and not able to stand against the Power of their Convictions, do set themselves by innumerable perplexing Wayes and Duties to keep down fin, but being strangers to the Spirit of God, all in vain. They combat without Victory, have War without Peace, and

are in flavery all their dayes. They spend their ftrength for that which is not bread, and their labour for that which profiteth not.

This is the faddeft warfare that any poor Creature can be engaged in; A Soul under the power of Conviction from the Law; is pressed to fight against Sin, but hath no strength for the Combat. They cannot but fight, and they can never conquer, they are like men thrust on the Sword of Enemies, on purpose to be flain. The Law drives them on, and Sin beats them back. Sometimes they think indeed that they have foyled fin; when they have onely raifed a dust, that they see a not; that is, they distemper their natural Affections of Fear, Sorrow, and Anguith, which makes them believe that fin is conquered, when it is not touched. By that time they are cold, they must to the battail again; and the Lust which they thought to be flain, appears to have had no wound.

And if the Cafe be fo fad with them who do labour and ftrive, and yet enter not into the Kingdom; what is their Condition who defpife all this? Who are perpenally under the Power and Dominion of Sin, and love to have it fo: and are troubled at nothing but that they cannot make fufficient provision for the Fleih, to fulfill the Luits thereof.

CHAP. IV.

The last Principle; of the usefulness of Mortification. The Vigour and Comfort of our spiritual Life depend on our Mortification. In what sence. Not absolutely and necessarily. Pfal. 88. Herman's Condition. Not as on the next and immediate Cause. As a Means: by removing of the Contrary. The desperate Effects of unmortified Lust: it weakens the Soul; Pfal. 38. 3, 8. sundry wayes: and darkensit. All Gracesimproved by the Mortification of Sin. The best Evidence of Sincerity.

THE last Principle I shall instift on, omitting, 1. The Necessity of Mortification unto Life: And, 2. The Certainty of Life upon Mortification; is,

That the Life, Vigour, and Comfort of our fpiritual Life depends much on our Mortification of Sin.

Strength, and Comfort, and Power, and Peace in our walking with God, are the things of our defires. Were any of us asked ferioully, What it is that troubles us, we must referre it to one of these heads; either we want strength, or power, vigour and life, in our Obedience, dience, in our walking with God; or we want peace, comfort, and confolation therein. Whatever it is, that may befall a Believer, that doth not belong to one of these two heads, doth not deferve to be mentioned in the dayes of our Complaints. Now all these do much depend on a constant Course of Mortification; concerning which observe,

1. I doe not fay they proceed from it; as though they were neceffarily tyed to it. A man may be carried on in a constant course of Mortification all his dayes, and yet-perhaps never enjoy good day of Peace and Confolation. Soit was with Heman, Psal. 88. His life was a life of perpetual Mortification, and walking with God, yet terrours and wounds were his portion all his dayes : But God fingled out Heman (a choice Friend) to make him an Example to them that afterwards should be in diffres. Canit thou complain if it be no otherwife with thee than it was with Heman, that eminent fervant of God? And this shall be his prayse to the end of the World; God makes it his Prerogative to speak Peace and Consolation : 1/a. 57. 18, 19. I will do that work, fayes God; I will comfort him, v. 18. But how ? by an immediate work of the new Creation, I Create it, fayes God. The use of means for the obtaining of peace is ours; the bestowing of it is God's Prerogative.

2. In the wayes inflituted by God for to give us Life, Vigour, Courage and Confolation, Mortification is not one of the immediate Caufes of it. They are the Priviledges of our Adoption, made known to our Souls, that give us immediately these things. The Spirit bearing witness with our spirits that we are the Children of God: giving us a new Name, and a white Stone; Adoption and Justification, that is, as to the sence and knowledge of them, are the immediate Causes (in the hand of the Spirit) of these things. But this I fay,

3. In our ordinary walking with God, and in an ordinary Course of his dealing with m, the vigour and comfort of our spiritual Lives depends much on our Mortification, not onely as a Causa fine qua non, but as a thing that hath an effectual influence thereinto. For,

First, This alone keeps Sin from depriving us of the one and the other: Every unmortified fin will certainly do two things:

1. It will weaken the Soul, and deprive it of its vigour.

2. It will darken the Soul, and deprive it of its Comfort and Peace.

(1.) It weakens the Sou!, and deprives it of its Strength: when David had for a while barboured an unmortified Luft in his heart, it broke all his Bones, and left him no fpiritual firength; hence he complained that he was

fick, weak, wounded, faint; there is (faith he) no foundness in me, Pfal. 38. 3. I am feeble and fore broken, vers. 8. Yea I cannot fo much as look up, Pfal. 40. 12. An unmortified Lust will drink up the Spirit, and all the vigour of the Soul, and weaken it for all Duties. For,

1. It untunes and unframes the Heart it felf, by entangling its Affections. It diverts the heart from that fpiritual Frame that is required for vigorous Communion with God. It layes hold on the Affections, rendring its Object beloved and defirable; fo expelling the love of the Father, 1 Joh. 2. I. Chap. 3. 17. So that the Soul cannot fay uprightly and truely to God, Thou art my portion, having formething elfe that it loves. Fear, Defire, Hope, which are the choice Affections of the Soul, that (hould be full of God, will be one way or other entangled with it.

2. It fills the Thoughts with Contrivances about it. Thoughts are the great Purveyors of the Soul, to bring in provision to fatisfie its Affections; and it Sin remain unmortified in the Heart, they must ever and anon be making provision for the flesh, to fulfill the Lusts thereof. They must glaze, adorn, and dress the Objects of the Flesh, and bring them home to give fatisfaction. And this they are able to do, in the fervice of a defiled Imagination, beyond all expression. 3. It breaks out and actually binders Du-ty. The ambitions man must be findying, and the worldling must be working or contriving, and the fenfual vain perfon providing himself for vanity, when they fhould be engaged in the Worfhip of God.

Were this my prefent bufinefs, to fet forth the Breaches, Ruine, Weaknefs, Defolations, that one unmortified Luft will bring upon a Soul, this Discourse must be extended much beyond my Intendment.

(2.) As Sin weakens, fo it darkens the Soul. It is a cloud, a thick cloud, that spreads it self over the Face of the Soul, and intercepts all the beams of Gods Love and Favour. It takes away all fense of the Priviledge of our Adoption: and if the Soul begins to gather up Thoughts of Confolation, Sin quickly featters them. Of which afterwards.

Now in this regard doth the vigour and power of our spiritual life depend on our Mortification. It is the onely Means of the Removal of that, which will allow us neither the one nor the other. Men that are fick and wounded under the power of Lust, make many Applications for Help; they cry to God, when the Perplexity of their Thoughts overwhelms them; even to God do they cry, but are not delivered; in vain do they use many Reme-, dies, they shall not be healed. So Hof. 5. 13. Ephraim Ephraim faw his fickness, and Judab his wound, and attempted fundry remedies, nothing will doe, untill they come (v. 15.) to acknowledge their Offence. Men may see their Sickness and Wounds, but yet if they make not due Applications their Cure will not be effected.

Secondly, Mortification prunes all the Graces of God, and makes room for them in our hearts, to grow. The Life and Vigour of our spiritual Lives confifts in the vigour and flourithing of the Plants of Grace in our Hearts. Now as you may see in a Garden, let there be a precious herb planted, and let the Ground be untilled, and weeds grow about it, per-haps it will live still, but be a poor wither-ing, unusefull thing; you must look and search for it, and fometimes can fcarce find it; and when you do, you can scarce know it, whether it be the Plant you look for or no; and fuppole it be; you can make no use of it at all: when let another of the fame kind be fet in ground, naturally as barren and bad as the other: but let it be well weeded, and every thing that is noxious and burifull removed from it, it flourisches and thrives; you may see it at first look into the Garden, and have it for your use when you pleafe. So it is with the Graces of the Spirit that are planted in our hearts : That is true ; they are still, they abide in a heart where there is some Neglect of Mortification, but thev Digitized by Google they are ready to dye; Revel. 3. 2. they are withering and decaying. The heart is like the Sluggards Field, fo over-grown with weeds, that you can fcarce fee the good Corn. Such a man may fearch for Faith, Love and Zeal, and fcarce beable to find any; and if he do difcover that these Graces are there, yet alive, and fincere; yet they are fo weak, fo clogged with Lusts, that they are of very little use; they remain indeed, but are ready to dye. But now let the Heart be cleansed by Mortification, the Weeds of Luit constantly and daily rooted up, (as they fpring daily, Nasure being their proper foyl,) let Room be made for Grace to thrive and flourish; how will every Grace act its part, and be ready for every use and purpose?

Thirdly, As to our Peace; as there is nothing that hath any Evidence of Sincerity without it, fo I know nothing that hath fuch an Evidence of Sincerity in it; which is no fmall Foundation of our Peace: Mortication is the Souls vigorous Opposition to felf; wherein Sincerity is most evident.

CHAP.

CHAP. V.

The principal Intendment of the whole Discourse proposed. The first main Case of Canscience stated. What it is to Mortifie any Sin, negatively considered. Not the utter Destruction on of it in this Life. Not the Dissimulation of it. Not the Improvement of any Natural Principle. Not the Diversion of it. Not an Occasional Conquest. Occasional Conquests of Sin, what, and when. Upon the Eruption of Sin, in time of Danger or Trouble.

Thefe things being premifed, I come to my principal Intention, of handling fome Queftions, or practical Cafes, that prefent themfelves in this bufinefs of Mortification of Sin in Believers: The first, which is the Head of all the rest, and whereunto they are reduced, may be confidered as lying under the ensuing Proposal.

Suppose a man to be a true Believer, and yet finds in himfelf a powerfull Indwelling Sin, leading him captive to the Law of it, confuming his Heart with trouble, perplexing his Thoughts, weakening his Soul, as to Duties of Communion with God, disquieting him as to Peace, and perhaps defiling his Confcience, and exposing him to Hardening through the 44

deceitfulness of Sin; what shall he doe? what Course shall he take and infit on, for the Mortification of this Sin, Lust, Diffemper, or Corruption, to such a Degree, as that though it be not utterly destroyed, yet in his Contest with it, he may be enabled to keep up Power, Strength and Peace, in Communion with God?

In answer to this important Enquiry, I shall do these things.

1. Shew what it is to mortifie any Sin; and that both Negatively and Politively, that we be not miltaken in the Foundation.

2. Give general Directions for fuch things, as without which it will be utterly impossible for any one to get any Sin truely and spiritually Mortified.

3. Draw out the Particulars whereby this is to be done; in the whole carrying on this Confideration, that it is not of the Doctrine of Mertification in general, but only in reference to the particular Case before proposed, that I am treating.

1. To Mortifie a Sin, is not utterly to kill, root it out, and deftroy it, that it fhould have no more hold at all, nor refidence in our hearts. It is true, this is that which is aymed at, but this is not in this Life to be accomplified. There is no man that truely fets himfelf to mortifie any Sin, but he ayms at, intends, defires its utter destruction; that it should leave neither Root nor Fruit in the Heart or Life. He would fo kill it, that it should never move or stirre any more; crye or call, feduce or tempt to Eternity. Its not being, is the thing aymed at. Now though doubtless there may by the Spirit and Grace of Christ, a wonderfull success, and Eminency of viltory against any fin be attained; fo that a man may have almost constant triumph over it: yet an utter killing and destruction of it, that it should not be, is not in this Life to be expected. This Paul affures us of, Phil. 3. 12. Not as though I had already attained, or were already perfect. He was a choise Saint, a pattern for Believers, who in Faith and Love, and all the Fruits of the Spirit, had not his Fellow in the world; and on that account ascribes perfection to himself, in comparison of others, verf. 15. Yet he had not at-tained, he was not perfect, but was following after : still a vile body he had, and we have, that must be changed by the great power of Christ at lait : v. 2r. This we would have, but God fecs it best for us, that we should be compleat in nothing in our felves; that in all things we might be compleat in Christ, which is beit for us, Col. 2. 10.

2. I think I need not fay, it is not the diffirrulation of a Sin; when a min on fome outward refpects forfakes the Practice of any fin, men perhaps may look on him as a changed man; God knows that to his former iniquity he hath added curfed hypocrifie, and is got in a fafer path to Hell than he was in before. He hath got another Heart than he had, that is more cunning, not a new Heart, that is more holy.

3. The Mortification of Sin confilts not in the Improvement of a quiet, sedate Nature. Some men have an Advantage by their natural Constitution, fo far, as that they are not exposed to fuch violence of unruly passions, and tumnleuous Affections, as many others are. Let now these men cultivate and improve their Natural Frame and Temper, by Discipline, Confideration and Prudence, and they may feem to themfelves and others, very mortified men, when perhaps their Hearts are a standing Sink of all Abominations; fome man is never fo much troubled all his Life perhaps with anger and paffion, nor doth trouble others, as another is almost every day; and yet the latter have done more to the Mortification of the fin, than the former. Let not fuch perfons trye their Mortification by fuch things as their natural Temper gives no Life or Vigour to : let them bring themselves to felf-denyal, unbelief, envy, or some such spiritual (in, and they will have a better view of themselves.

4. A fin is not Mortified, when it is onely diverted. Simon Magus for a feason left his Sorceries; but his Coverousness and Ambition that fet him on work, remained still, and would have been acting another way : therefore Peter tells him, I perceive thou art in the gall of bitterness; notwithitanding the Profeffion thou halt made, not with ftanding thy Relinquishment of thy Sorceries, thy lust is as powerfuil as ever in thee: the fame luft, onely the ftreams of it are diverted: it now exerts and puts forth it felf another way, but it is the old ga'l of Bitterness still. A man may be fenfible of a lust, set himself against the eruptions of it, take care that it shall not break forth, as it hath done; but in the mean time fuffer the fame corrupted habit to vent it felf some other way. As he who heals and skins a running Sore, thinks himself cured, but in the mean time his Flesh festereth by the Corruption of the fame humour, and breaks out in another place. And this diversion, with the Alterations that attend it, often befalls men, on Accounts wholly foreign unto Grace; change of the Course of Life that a min was in; of Relations, Interests, Defigns, may effect it; yea the very Alterations in mens Constitutions, occasioned by a natural Progress in the Course of their Lives, may produce such Changes as thefe; men in Age do not usually perfilt Digitized by Google perfift in the pursuit of youthfull lusts, although they have never mortified any one of them. And the fame is the Case of bartering of Lusts; and leaving to ferve one, that a man may ferve another. He that changes pride for worldlines, fensuality for Pharisaisme, vanity in Himfelf to the contempt of Others; let him not think that he hath Mortified the fin that he feems to have left. He hath changed his Master, but is a Servant still.

5. Occafional Conquelts of Sin do not amount to a Mortifying of it.

There are two Occasions or Seasons, wherein a man who is contending with any fin, may frem to himself to have mortified it.

(1.) When it hath had fome fad Eruption to the dilurbance of his Peace, terrour of his Confisence, dread of Scandal, and evident provocation of God. This awakens and flirres up all that is in the man, and amazes him; fills him with abborrency of fin, and bimfelf for it; fends him to God, makes him cry out as for Life, to abhorre his Luft as Hell, and to fet himfelf againft it. The whole man, fpiritual and natural being now awaked, Sin fbrinks in its head, appears not, but lyes as dead before him. As when one that hath drawn nigh to an Army in the Night, and hath killed a principal perfon; instantly the guards awake, then are roufed up, and ftrict Enquiry is made after the Enemy; who in the mean time, untill the noyse and tumult be over, hides himself; or lyes like one that is dead, yet with firm Refolution to do the like mischief again, upon the like Opportunity. Upon the fin among the Corinthians, see how they must up themfelves for the Jurprizal and Destruction of it, 2 Epiff: shap. 7. verf. 11. So it is in a per-ton, when a breach hath been made upon his Conscience, Quiet, perhaps Credit, by his Luft, in some Eruption of Actual fin ; Garefulness, Indignation, Desire, Fear, Revenge, arc all set on work about it, and against it, and Lust is quiet for a season, being run down before them; but when the hurry is over, and the Inquest past, the Thief appears again ative, and is as bulie as ever at his work.

(2.) In a time of fome Judgement; Calamity, or prefing Affliction; the Heart is then taken up with Thoughts and Contrivunces of flying from the prefent troubles, fears and dangers: This, as a convinced perfon concludes; is to be done, only by relinquishment of Sin, which gains peace with God. It is the Anger of God in every Affliction that galls a Convinced perfon. To be quit of this, men refolve at fact times against their fins. Sin shall never more have any place in them; they will never again give up themfelves to the fervice of it. Accordingly Sin is quiet, ftirres En Google not, not, seems to be Mortified; not indeed that it hath received any one wound, but meerly because the Soul hath posses'd its Faculties whereby, it should exert it felf, with thoughts inconsistent with the marions thereof; which when they are laid aside, Sin returns again to its former Life and Vigour. So they Plat. 78.32. unto 38. Are a full Instance and Defoription of this Frame of spirit whereof I speak.

For all this they finned still, and betieved not for his monderous morks:

Therefore their dayes did be confume in vaminy, and their years in trouble.

- When he flew them, then they fought him, and they returned, and enquired early after God.

And they remembred that God was their rock, and the high God their Redeemer.

Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lyed unto him with their tongues.

tongues. For their heart was not right with him, neither were they stedfast in his Covenant.

I no way doubt, but that when they fought, and returned, and enquited early after God, they did it with full purpose of bears, as to the relinquishment of their fins: It is expressed in the word returned. To turn or return to the Lord, is by a Relinquishment of fin. This they did early, with earnestness, and diligence; but yet their fin was unmortified for all this, v. 36, 37. and this is the state of many humiliations in the dayes of Affliction; and a great Deceit in the Hearts of Believers themselves, lies oftentimes herein.

These and many other wayes there are, whereby poor Souls deceive themselves, and suppose they have mortified their Lusts, when they live and are Mighty, and on every Occasion break forth to their disturbance and disquietness.

5 I

The Mortification of a Lust confists in three things.

I. An babitual weakening of it. Every Luft is a depraved babit or Disposition, continually inclining the Heart to evil: Thence is that description of him who hath no Luss truly mortified: Gen. 6.5. Every Imagination of the thoughts of his Heart is only evil continually. He is alwayes under the power of a strong bent and inclination to fm. And the reason why a natural man is not alwayes, perpetually, in the pursuit of fome one luss inght and day; is, because he hath many to serve, every one crying to be fatisfied; Thence he is carried on with great variety, but still in general he lyes towards the fatisfaction of felf.

We will suppose then the lust or distemper whose Mortification is inquired after, to be in its self à strong, deeply rooted, habitual Inclination and bent of Will and Affections unto Some Actual sin, as to the Matter of it, (though not under that formal Confideration,) alwayes stirring up Imaginations, Thoughts and Contrivances about the Object of it. Hence men are faid to have their Hearts fet upon Evil, Rom. 13. 14. the bent of their Spirits lyes towards it, to make provision for the flesh. And a sinfull depraved habit (as in many other things, so in this) differs from all natural or moral habits whatever; for whereas they incline the the Soul gently and fuitably to it felf, finfull Habits impell with Violence and Impetuoufnefs: whence Lufts are faid to fight or wage warre against the Soul, 1 Pet. 2. 11. to rebell, or rise up in Warre with that Conduct and Opposition which is usual therein; Rom. 7.23. to lead captive, or effectually captivating upon success in battell: All works of great violence and impetuousness.

I might manifest fully from that defoription we have of it, Rom. 7. How it will darken the Mind, extinguish Convisions, dethrone Reason, interrupt the Power and Influence of any Confiderations that may be brought to hamper it, and break through all into a flame. But this is not my present business. Now the first thing in Mortification is the weakening of this Habit of Sin or Lust, that it shall not with that violence, earness, frequency, rife up, conceive, tumultuate, provoke, entite, disquiet, as naturally it is apt to doe, Jam. 1, 14, 15.

I shall defire to give one Caution or Rule by the way; and it is this. Though every Lult doth in its own Nature, equally, universally incline and impell to Sin, yet this mult be granted with these two Limitations:

I. One lust, or a lust in one man, may receive E. 3 Google many many accidental Improvements, heightnings, and firengthnings, which may give it life, power and vigour, exceedingly above what another Lust hath, or the same tust, that is of the fame Kind and Nature in another man. When a Lust falls in with the natural Constitution and Temper, with a suitable course of Life, with Occasions; or when Sathan hath got a fit handle to it to manage it, as he hath a thoufand wayes to to doe, that Lust growes violent and impetuous above others, or more than the fame lust in another man; Then the steams of it darken the Mind, fo that though a man knowes the same things as formerly, yet they have no power, nor influence on the Will, but corrupt Affections and Paffions are fet by it at liberty.

But especially, Lust gets strength by Temptation; when a suitable Temptation falls in with a Lust, it gives it a new life, vigour, power, violence and rage which it seemed not before to have, or to be capable of. Instances to this purpose might be multiplyed; but it is the design of some part of another Treatise to evince this Observation.

2. Some lusts are far more sensible and difcernable in their violent Actings than others. Paul puts a difference between Uncleanness and all other fins. I Cor. 6. 18. Flee fornication, every fin that a man doth, is without the body, body, but he that committeeth fornication finneth against bis own body. Hence the Motions of that fin are more fensible, more discernable than of others; when perhaps, the love of the World, or the like, is in a Person no less habitmally predominant than that, yet it makes not fo great a combustion in the whole man.

And on this account fome men may goe in their own, thoughts and in the eyes of the World, for mortified men; who yet have in them no lefs predominancy of Luft, than thofe who cry out with Aftonifhment upon the account of its perplexing Tumultuatings. Yea than thofe who have by the Power of it, been hurried into fcandalous fins; onely their lufts are in and about things which raife not fuch a tumult in the Soul, about which they are exercifed with a calmer Frame of Spirit; the very Fabrick of Nature being not fonearly concerned in them, as in fome other.

I say then, that the first thing in Mortification is the weakening of this Habit, that it shall not impell and tumultuate as formerly, that it shall not intice and draw aside, that it shall not disquies and perplex; the killing of its life, vigour, promptness and readiness to be firring. This is called erweifying the flesh with the lufts thereofs. Gal. 3. 24. that is, taking away its Blood and Spirits that give is E 4. Google firength strength and power. The wasting of the body of Death day by day, 2 Cor. 4. 16.

As a Man nayled to the Cros; he first ftruggles and ftrives and cryes out with great ftrength and might; but as his Blood and Spirits walte, his strivings are faint and feldom, his Cryes low and hoarfe, scarce to be heard. When a man first fets on a Lust or distemper, to deal with it, it struggles with great violence to break loofe; it cryes with Earnestness and Impatiency to be fatisfied and relieved ; but when by Mortification the blood and spirits of it are ler out, it moves seldome and familiarly, cryes Sparingly, and is fcarce heard in the beart; It may have sometimes a dying pang, that makes an Appearance of great vigour and strength, but it is quickly over, especially if it be kept from considerable success. This the Apostle describes as in the who'e Chapter, fo especially ver f. 6. of chap. 6. Rom.

Sin, faith he, is crucified; it is faltned to the Crofs; to what End? that the body of Deatb may be destroyed; the Power of Sin weaken. ed, and abolished by little and little; that henceforth we should not ferve fin, that is, that fin might not incline, impell us with such Efficacy, as to make us fervants to it, as it hath done heretofore. And this is spoken not only with respect to carnal and sensual Affections, or Defire of worldly things; not only Digitized by GOOS in respect of the Lust of the Flesh, the Lust of the Eyes, and the pride of Life, but alfo as to the fleft, that is in the mind and will, in that Opposition unto God, which is in us by Nature. Of what Nature loever the troubling Distemper be, by what wayes soever it make it felf out, either by impelling to Evil, or hin-dering from that which is good, the Rule is the fame. And unless this be done effectually, all after-contention will not compais the End aimed at. A man may beat down the bitter Fruit' from an evil Tree, untill be is weary; whileft the Root abides in itrength and vigour, the beating down of the present Fruit will not hinder it from bringing forth more; this is the Folly of fome men; they fet themfelves with all carneliness and diligence against the appearing eruption of lust, but leaving the Principle and Root untouched, perhaps unsearched out, they make but little or no progress in this work of Mortification.

2. In conftant fighting and contending against fin. To be able alwayes to be laying load on Sin, is no small degree of Mortification. When Sin is strong and vigorous, the Soul is scarce able to make any head against it. It sights, and groans, and mourns, and is troubled, as David speaks of himself, but seldom has Sin in the pursuit; David complains that his Sin had taken fast bold upon spon him, that he could not look up, Pfal. 40. 12. How little then was he able to fight against it. Now fundry things are required unity and comprized in this fighting against Sin.

to deal withall; to take notice of it, to confider it as an Eveny indeed, and one that is to be destroyed by all means possible, is required hereunto. As I faid before, the contest is vigorous and hazardous; it is about the things of Etermityi When therefore men have fleight and transient thoughts of their lusts, it is no great fign that they are mortified, or that they are in a way for their Mortification. This is, every man's knowing the plague of his own beart, 1 King. 8. 38. Without which no other work can be done; it is to be feared that very many have little knowledge of the main Enemy, that they carry about them in their bosoms. This makes them ready to justifie themselves, and to be impatient of reproof or admonition, not knowing that they are in any danger, 2 Chron. 16. 10.

2. To labour to be acquainted with the Wayes, Wiles, Methods, Advantages and Occations of its success is the beginning of this warfare. So do men deal with Enemies. They enquire out their connsels and designs, ponder their Ends, confider how and by what means they have formerly prevailed, that they may be prevented; In this confilts the greatelt skill in conduct. Take this away, and all waging of Warre (wherein is the greatelt improvement of Humane Wifdom and Indu-ftry) would be brutish. So do they deal with Luft, who mortifie it indeed; not onely when it is actually vexing, inticing, and seducing, but in their Retirements they confider, This is our Enemy, this is his way and Progrefs, these are his Advantages, thus hath he pre-vailed, and thus he will do, if not prevented: So David. My lin is ever before me. Pfall s L 2 So David, My fin is ever before me, Pfal. 51. 2. And indeed one of the choifest and most emineht parts of practically fpiritual wifdom, confifts in finding out the fubtilities, policies, and depths of any indwelling Sin; to confider, and know wherein its greateft ftrength lies; what Advantage it ufes to make of Occasions; Opportunities, Temptations; what are its Pleas, Pretences, Reasonings; what its Stra-tugeme Colourn Freenford to ftrength tagems, Colours, Excufes; to fet the wifdom of the Spirit against the Craft of the old Man, to trace this Serpent in all its turnings and windings; to be able to fay at its most fe-cret, and (to a common Frame of Heart) im-perceptible actings, This is your old way and courfe, 1 know what you aim at; and fo to be alwayes in readiness, is a good part of our warfare. 3. To load it daily with all the things which shall after be mentioned, that are grievous, killing and destructive to it, is the height of this contest; fuch an one never thinks his lust dead because it is Quiet, but labours still to give it new wounds, new blowes every day. So the Apostle, Col. 3. 5.

Now while the Soul is in this Condition, whileft it is thus dealing, it is certainly uppermost, Sin is under the Sword and dying.

3. In success; frequent success against any lust, is another part and Evidence of Mortification; By success, I understand not a meer disappointment of Sin, that it be not brought forth, nor accomplished; but a villory over it, and pursuit of it to a compleat Conquest: For instance, when the Heart finds Sin at any time at work, seducing, forming Imaginations to make provision for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts thereof, it instantly apprehends Sin, and brings it to the Law of God, and love of Christ; condemns it, followes it with execution to the uttermost.

Now I fay, when a man comes to this ftate and Condition, that lust is weakened in the root and principle, that its motions and actions are fewer and weaker than formerly, fo that they are not able to hinder his duty, nor interrupt his peace, when he can in a quiet sedate frame of Spirit, find out, and fight against Sin, and - Digitized by Google have fuccefs against it, then Sin is mortified in fome confiderable measure, and notwithstanding all its Opposition, a man may have peace with God all his dayes.

Unto these Heads then do I referre the Mortification aymed at; that is, of any one perplexing Distemper, whereby the General pravity and Corruption of our Nature attempts to exert and put forth it felf.

1. First, the weakening of its indwelling disposition, whereby it inclines, intices, impells to evil, rebells, opposes, fights against God, by the implanting habitual residence, and cherifhing of a principle of Grace, that stands in direct opposition to it, and is destructive of it, is the Foundation of it. So by the implanting and growth of humility is pride weakened, paffion by patience, uncleanness by purity of Mind and Conscience, love of this world by heavenly-mindedness, which are Graces of the Spirit, or the fame habitual Grace varioufly acting it. felf by the Holy Ghost, according to the variery or diversity of the Objects about which it is exercifed ; as the other are feveral Lufts or the fame natural Corruption varioufly acting its felf according to the various Advantages and Occasions that it meets withall.

2. The promptness, alacrity, vigour of the Spirit, or New Man in contending with, cheercheerfull fighting against the Lust spoken of, by all the Wayes, and with all the Means that are appointed thereunto, constantly using the fuccours provided against its motions and altings, is a fecond thing hereunto required.

3. Succefs unto feveral degrees attends thefe two. Now this, if the diftemper hath not an inconquerable Advantage from its natural fituation, may poffibly be to fuch an univerfal Conquest, as the Soul may never more fenfibly feel its Opposition, and shall however affuredly arise to an allowance of Peace to the Conficience, according to the tenour of the Covenant of Grace.

CHAP. VII.

General Rules, without which no Lust will be mortified. No Mortification unless a man be a Believer. Dangers of attempting Mortification of Sin by Unregenerate Persons. The Duty of unconverted Persons, as to this business of Mortification, considered. The vanity of the Papists Attempts, and Rules for Mortification thence discovered.

THE wayes and Means whereby a Soul may proceed to the Mortification of any particular inft and Sin, which Satan takes Advantage

63 vantage by, to disquiet and weaken him, comes next under Confideration.

Now there are some General Confiderations to be premifed, concerning fome Principles and Foundations of this work, without which no man in the world, be he never fo much raifed by Compitions, and refolved for the Mortification of any Sin, can attain thereunto.

General Rules and Principles, without which no Sin will be ever mortified, are thefe, man and a first second

1. Unlefs a Man be & Believer, that is, one that is truely, ingrafted into Christ, he can never mortifie any one Sin; I do not fay, unlefs he know himfelf to be fo, but unlefs indeed he be fo. Mortification is the work of Believers, Rom. 8. 13. If ye through the Spirit, &c. Te Believers; to whom there is no condemnation, verf. I. They alone are exhorted to it. Col. 3. 5. Mortifie therefore your members that are upon the earth. Who thould martifie? You who are risen with Chrift, yers. 1. whose Life is hid with Christ in God vers. 3. who shall appear with him in Clory, vers. 4. An unregenerate man may do something like it, but the work it felf, fo as it may be acceptable with God, he can never perform. of contempt of the World, and Self, of regulating and conquering all exorbitant Affections and Paffions. The Lives of most of them manifested, that their Maxims differed as much from true Mortification, as the Sun painted on a Sign-post, from the Sun in the Firmament. They had neither Light nor Heat. Their own Lucian fufficiently manifelts what they all were. There is no Death of Sin, without the Death of Chrift. You know what Attempts there are made after it by the Papifts, in their Vows, Penances, and Satisfattions; I dare fay of Them (I mean as many of them as act upon the Principles of their Church, as they callit,) what Paul fayes of Ifrael in point of Righteoufnefs, Rom. 9. 31, 32. They have followed after Mortification, but they have not Attained to it; Wherefore? Becaufe they feek it not by Faith, but as it were by the works of the Law. The fame is the State and Condition of all amongst our selves, who in Obedience to their Convictions, and awakened Consciences, do attempt a Relinquishment of Sin; they follow after it, but they do not Attain it.

It is true, it is, it will be required of every perfon whatever, that hears the Law or Gofpel preached, that he mortifie Sin; It is his Duty, but it is not his immediate Duty; It is his Duty to do it, but to do it in Gods way.

If you require your Servant to pay fo much Money for you in fuch a place, but first to go and take it up in another; it is his Duty to pay the Money appointed, and you will blame him if he do it not; yet it was not his immediate Duty; he was first to take it up, according to your direction. So it is in this Case; Sin is to be mortified, but something is to be done in the first place to enable us thereunto.

I have proved, that it is the Spirit alone. that can mortifie Sin; He is promised to doe it, and all other means without him are empty. and vain. How shall he then mortifie Sin, that hath not the Spirit? A man may eafier fee without Eyes, speak without a Tongue, than truely Mortifie one Sin without the Spirit. Now how is he attained ? It is the Spirit of Christ; and (as the Apostle fayes,) if we have not the Spirit of Christ, we are none of his, Rom. 8.9. So, if we are Christs, have an Intereft in him, we have the Spirit, and fo alone have power for Mortification. This the Apoftle difcourses at large, Rom. 8. v. 8. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. It is the Inference and Conclusion he makes of his. foregoing Discourse about our Natural state and Condition, and the Enmity we have unto God and his Law therein. If we are in the flesh, if we have not the Spirit, we cannot do án√ any thing that fhould please God. But what is our deliverance from this Condition, verf. 9. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you: Ye Believers, that have the Spirit of Christ, ye are not in the flesh. There is no way of Deliverance from the State and Condition of being in the flesh, but by the Spirit of Christ; And what if this Spirit of Christ be in you? why then you are mortified, vers. 10. the Body is dead because of Sin, or unto it; Mortification is carryed on; the New Man is quic-kened to Righteousness. This the Apostle proves verf. II. from the Union we have with Christ by the Spirit, which will produce fuitable Operations in us, to what it wrought in him. All attempts then for Mortification of any Lust, without an Interest in Christ, are vain. Many men that are galled with and for Sin, (the arrowes of Chrift for Conviction by the Preaching of the Word, or fome Affliction having been made sharp in their hearts) do vigoroufly fet themselves against this or that particular Luft, wherewith their Consciences have been most disquieted or perplexed. But poor Creatures! they labour in the Fire, and their work consumeth. When the Spirit of Christ comes to this work, he will be as Refiners Fire, and as Fullers Sope, and he will purge men as Gold and Silver, Mal. 3. 3. take away away their drofs and tin, their filth and blood, as Ifa. 4. 3. But men mult be Gold and Silver in the bottom, or else Refining will do them no good. The Prophet gives us the fad iffue of wicked mens utmast Attempts for Mortification, by what Means foever that God offords them, Jer. 6. 29, 30. The Bellowes are burnt, and the Lead is confumed of the fire; the Founder melteth in vain, Reprobate Silver · Shall men call them; because the Lord hath rejetted them; And what is the Reafon hereof? v.28.they were Brafs and Iron when they were put into the Furnace. Men may refine Brafs and Iron long enough before they will be good Silver.

I say then, Morrification is not the present bulinels of unregenerate men. God calls them not to it as yet. Conversion is their work. The Conversion of the whole Soul, not the Morrification of this or that particular Luft. You would laugh at a man, that you should see fetting up a great Fabrick, and never take any care for a Foundation; especially if you should see him to foolish, as that having a thensand Experiences, that what he built one day, fell down another, he would yet cantinue in the fame courfe. still, without enquiring where the destructive flaw in their progress lyes. When the fewes upon the Conviction of their Sin were cut to the heart, Act. 2. 37, and cryed out what shall we doe ? What doth Peter direct them to ? Does he bid them go and mortifie their pride, wrath, malice, cruelty, and the like? no, he knew that was not their present work, but he calls them to Conversion and Faith in Christ in General, verf. 38. Let the Soul be first throughly converted, and then looking on him whom they had pierced, Humiliation and Mortification will enfue. Thus when John came to preach Repentance and Conversion, he faid, The Axe is now laid to the root of the tree, Mat. 3. 10. The Pharifers had been laying beavy Burthens, imposing tedions Duties, and rigid means of Mortification, in Fastings, Washings, and the like, all in vain : Sayes John, The Doltrine of Conversion is for you, the axe in my hand is laid to the root. And our Saviour tells us what is to be done in this cafe; fayes he, Do men gather Grapes from Thorns ? Matth. 6. 16. But suppose a Thorn be well pruned and cut, and have pains taken with him? Yea buthe will never bear Figgs; verf. 17, 18. It cannot be but every Tree will bring forth Fruit according to its own kind. What is then to be done, he tells us, Matt. 12.33. Make the Tree Good, and his Fruit will Digitized by Google be be good: The Root must be dealt with, the Nature of the Tree changed, or no good Fruit will be brought forth.

This is that I aym at, unlefs a man be Regenerate, unlefs he be a Believer, all Attempts that he can make for Mortification, be they never fo fpecieus and promifing, all Means he can use, let him follow them with never fo much Diligence, Earnestness, Watchfulness and Contention of Mind and Spirit, are to no purpose; In vain shall he use many remedies, he shall not be healed. Yea there are fundry desperate Evils attending an Endeavour in convinced Persons that are no more but so, to perform this Duty.

First, The mind and Soul is taken up about that which is not the mans proper business, and so He is diverted from that which is so, God layes hold by his Word and Judgements on some Sin in him, galls his Conficience, difquiets his heart, deprives him of his Rest; now other Diversions will not serve his turn : He mult apply himself to the work before him. The business in hand being to awake the whole Man unto a confideration of the State and Condition wherein he is, that he might be brought home to God; instead hereos, he sets himself to mortifie the Sin that galls him; which is a pure isse of Self-love, to be freed from his treuble; and not at all to the work be is Engineered called unto; and fo is diverted from it. Thus God tells us of Ephraim, when he spread his Net upon them, and brought them down as the Fowls of Heaven, and chastisfed them, Hof. 7. 12. caught them, intangled them, convinced them, that they could not escape; faith he of them, They return, but not to the most High: They fet themselves to a Relinguishment of Sin, but not in that manner by universal conversion as God called for it. Thus are men diverted from coming unto God, by the most glorious wayes that they can fix upon to come to him by. And this is one of the most common deceits whereby men ruine their own Souls; I wish that some whose Trade it is to dawb with untempered Morter in the things of God, did not teach this Deceit, and cause the People to erre by their Ignorance : What do men doe ? what oft-times are they directed unte, when their Confciences are galled by Sin, and Difquietment from the Lord hath laid hold upon them? Is not a Relinquishment of the Sin as to Practice, (that they are infome Fruits of it perplexed withall, and making head against it,) the fumme of what they apply themfelves unto? and is not the Gofpel End of their Convictions loit thereby ? Here men abide and perifh.

Secondly, This Duty being a thing good in it felf, in its proper place, a Duty evidencing

Since-

Sincerity, bringing home Peace to the Confcience; a man finding himfelf really engaged in it, his Mind and Heart fet against this or that Sin, with purpofe and Resolution to have no more to do with it, he is ready to conclude, that his flate and Condition is good, and fo to delude his own Soul. For,

(1.) When his Conficience hath been made fick with Sin, and he could find no reft, when he fhould go to the great Phyfitian of Souls, and get healing in his Blood; the Man by this Engagement againft Sin, pacifies and quiets his Conficience, and fits down without going to Chrift at all. Ah ! how many poor Souls are thus deluded to Eternity ! When Ephraim faw his ficknefs, he fent to King Jareb, Hof. 5. 13. which kept him off from God. The whole bundle of the Popifh Religion is made up of Defigns and contrivances to pacific Conficience without Chrift; all definited by the Apoftle, Rom. 10.4.

(2.) By this means men fatisfie themfelves that their State and Condition is good, feeing they do that which is a work good in it felf, and they do not do it to be feen. They know they would have the work done in fincerity, and fo are hardened in a kind of felf Righteoufnefs.

(3.) When a man hath thus for a feafore been deluded, and hath deceived his of p Soul-and finds in a long course of Life, that indeed his fin is not mortified, or if he hath changed one, he hath gotten another; He begins at length to think, that all contending is in vain, he fhall never be able to prevail: He is making a Dam against Water that increaseth on him. Hereupon he gives over, as one despairing of any success, and yields up himself to the power of fin, and that habit of Formality that he hath gotten.

And this is the ufual Iffue with Perfons attempting the Mortification of fin without an Interest in Christ first obtained. It deludes them, hardens them, destroyes them. And therefore we fee that there are not usually more vile and desperate finners in the world, than such as having by Conviction been put on this Course, have found it fruitless, and deferted it without a difcovery of Christ. And this is the fubstance of the Religion and Godlincis of the choisest Formalists in the world; and of all those who in the Roman Synagogue are drawn to Mortification as they drive Indians to Baptism, or Cattel to water. I fay then, that Mortification is the work of Believers, and Believers onely. To kill fin is the work of living men; where men are dead, (as all Unbelievers, the best of them are dead,) in is alive, and will live.

2. It is the work of Faith ; the peculiar work work of Faith; Now if there be a work to be done that will be effected by one only inftrument, it is the greatelt madnefs for any to attempt the doing of it, that hath not that Inftrument. Now it is Faith that purifies the Heart, ACt. 15. 9. or as Peter speaks, we purifie our Souls in obeying the Truth through the Spirit, 1 Pet, 1.22. And without it, it will not be done.

What hath been spoken, I suppose is sufficient to make good my first general Rule: Be sure to get an Interest in Christ, if you intend to mortifie any sin, without it it will never be done.

Ob. You will fay, What then would you have unregenerate men, that are convinced of the Evil of fin do? Shall they ceafe firing against fin, live differency, give their Lufts their fwinge, and be as bad as the worst of men? This were a way to fet the whole world into Confusion, to bring all things into darkness, to fet open the flood-gates of lust, and lay the Reins upon the Necks of men to rush into all fin with delight and greediness, like the borse into the battle.

Anf. I. God forbid! It is to be looked on as a great iffue of the Wildom, Goodnefs, and Love of God, that by manifold wayes and means he is pleafed to reftrain the Sons of men from running forth into that compating Google compating compass of excefs and riot, which the deprawednefs of their Nature would carry them out unto with violence. By what way foever this is done, it is an iffue of the care, kindnefs, and Goodnefs of God, without which the whole Earth would be an Hell of Sin and Confusion.

2. There is a peculiar convincing Power in the Word, which God is often-times pleafed to put forth to the wounding, amazing, and in fome fort humbling of Sinners, though they are never converted. And the Word is to be preached, though it hath this End, yet not with this End. Let then the Word be preached, and the fins of men rebuked, Lust will be restrained, and some Oppositions will be made against Sin, though that be not the Effect aymed at.

3. Though this be the work of the Word and Spirit, and it be good in it felf, yet it is not profitable nor available as to the main End in them in whom it is wrought; they are ftill in the gall of Bitternefs, and under the power of darknefs.

4. Let men know it is their Duty, but in its proper place; 1 take not men from Morrification, but put them upon Conversion. He that shall call a man from mending a Hole in the Wall of his House, to quench a Fire that is confuming the whole Building, is not his Degree Google Enemy.

Enemy. Poor Soul ! it is not thy Sore-finger but thy Hellick-Feaver that thou art to apply thy felf to the Confideration of. Thou fettelt thy felf against a particular Sin, and doest not confider that thou art nothing but Sin.

Let me adde this to them who are Preachers of the Word, or intend through the good hand of God that Employment. It is their Duty to plead with men about their Sins, to have been been been been and the second seco they make use of the Sin they speak against, to the discovery of the State and Condition wherein the Sinner is. Otherwife, happily they may work men to Formality and Hypocrisie, but little of the true End of Preaching the Gospel will be brought about. It will not avail, to beat a man off from his Drunkennefs, into a fober Formality; A skilfull Malter of the Affemblies layes his Axe at the Root, drives still at the beart. To inveigh against particular fins of ignorant unregenerate perfons, (fuch as the Land is full of,) is a good Work : But yet though it may be done with great efficacy, vigour and success, if this be all the effect of it, that they are fet upon the most sedulous Endeavours of mortifying their fins preached down, all that is done, is but like the beating of an Enemy in an open field, and driving him into an impregnable Castle, not to be prevailed against. Get you at any time a finner at the advantage, on the account of any one fin whatever, have you any thing to take hold of him by, bring it to his State and Condition, drive it up to the head, and there deal with him; to break men off from particular fins, and not to break their Hearts, is to deprive our felves of Advantages of dealing with them.

And herein is the Roman Mortification grievously peccant; they drive all forts of per-fons to it, without the least Consideration whether they have a principle for it or no. Yea they are fo far from calling on men to believe, that they may be able to mortifie their Lufts, that they call men to Mortification instead of Believing. The truth is, they neither know what it is to believe, nor what Mortification it felf intends. Faith with them is but a general affent to the Doctrine taught in their Church: And Mortification the betaking of a man by a Vow to fome certain Course of Life, wherein he denyes himself something of the use of the things of this World, not without a confi-derable Compensation. Such men know neither the Scriptures, nor the Power of God. Their boafting of their Mortification, is but their Glorying in their shame. Some Casuifis among among our felves, who over-looking the Neceffity of Regeneration, do avowedly give this for a Direction to all forts of perfons, that complain of any Sin or Luft, that they fhould vow against it, at least for a season, a Moneth or fo, seem to have a scantling of Light in the Mystery of the Gospel, much like that of Nicodemus, when he came first to Christ. They bid men vow to abstain from their fin for a season. This commonly makes their lust more impetuous. Perhaps with great perplexity they keep their word : Perhaps not, which increases their Guilt and Torment. Is their fin at all mortified hereby? Do they find a conquest over it ? Is their Condition changed, though they attain a Relinquilhment of it? Are they not still in the Gall of bitternes? Is not this to put men to make Brick, if not without fram, (which is worse,) without firength? What Promise hath any unregenerate man to countenance him in this work? What affiftance for the performance of it? Can fin be killed without an interest in the Death of Christ, or Mortified without the Spirit? If fuch Directions should prevail to change mens Lives, as feldom they doe, yet they never reach to the change of their bearts or Conditions. They may make men felf-justitiaries or Hypocrites, not Christians. It grieves me oft-times to fee poor Souls, that that have a Zeal for God, and a defire of eternal Welfare, kept, by fuch Directors and Directions, under an hard, burdenfome, outfide Worship and Service of God, with many specious Endeavours for Mortification, in an utter Ignorance of the Righteousness of Christ, and unacquaintedness with his Spirit, all their dayes. Perfons and things of this kind, I know too many. If ever God some into their hearts, to give them the knowledge of his Glory in the face of his Son Jesus Christ, they will see the folly of their present way.

CHAP. VIII.

The Second general Rule proposed. Without universal Sincerity for the mortifying of every Lust, no Lust will be Mortified. Partial Mortification alwayes from a corrupt Principle. Perplexity of Temptation from a Lust, oft-times a chastening for other Negligences.

THE Second Principle, which to this purpose I shall propose, is this, Witbout Sincerity and Diligence in an Universality of Obedience, there is no Mortification of any one perplexing Luft to be obtained. The other provide Google was was to the Perfon, this to the thing it felf. I fhall a little explain this Position.

A man finds any Luft to bring him into the Condition formerly defcribed, it is powerfull, ftrong, tumultuating, leads captive, vexes, disquiets, takes away peace; He is not able to bear it, wherefore he fets himfelf against it, prayes against it, groans under it, fighs to be delivered, but in the mean time, perhaps in other Duties, in constant Communion with God, in Reading, Prayer and Meditation, in other wayes that are not of the fame kind with the Lust wherewith he is troubled, he is loofe, and negligent. Let not that man think that ever he shall arrive to the Mortification of the Lust he is perplexed withall. This is a Condition that not feldom befalls men in their Pilgrimage. The Ifraelites under a fense of their Sin, drew nigh to God with much diligence and earnestness, with Fasting and Prayer. Ifa. 58. many Expressions are made of their Earnestness in the work, v. 2. They seek me daily, and delight to know my Wayes, they ask of me the Ordinances of Justice, they delight in approaching unto God. But God rejects all; their Fast is a Remedy that will not head them, and the Reason given of it, v. 5, 6, 7. is, because they were particular in this Duty. They attended diligently to that, but in others were negligent and careles. He that hath a running running fore (it is the Scripture Expression) upon him, arising from an ill habit of Body contracted by Intemperance and ill Dyet; let him apply himfelf with what diligence and skill he can, to the cure of his fore, if he leave the general habit of his body under Diftempers, his labour and travail will be in vain. So will his attempts be, that fhall endeavour to flop a bloody iffue of Sin, and filth in his Soul, and is not equally carefull of his univerfal spiritual temperature, and Constitution. For,

1. This kind of Endeavour for Mortification, proceeds from a corrupt Principle, Ground and Foundation, fo that it will never proceed to a good Islue. The true and accep-table Principles of Mortification shall be afterward infifted on. Hatred of Sin as Sin, not only as galling or difquieting, fence of the Love of Christ in the Crois lyes at the bottome of all true spiritual Mortification. Now it is certain, that that which I speak of proceeds from felf-love. Thou settest thy felf with all diligence and earneitness to mortifie such a Lust or Sin; what is the Reason of it? It disquiets thee, it hath taken away thy peace, it fills thy heart with forrow and trouble, and fear, thou hast no rest because of it; Yea but Friend, thou hast neglected Prayer or Reading, thou hast been vain and losfe in thy Conversation in Departed by Google other other things that have not been of the fame nature with that luft wherewith thou art perplexed; These are no less fins and evils, than those under which thou groaneft; Jesus Christ bled for Them also; Why doit thou not set thy felf against them also? If thou hatedst fin as Sin, every evil way, thou wouldst be no less watchfull against every thing that grieves and disquiets the Spirit of God, than against that which grieves and disquiets thine own Soul. It is evident that thou contendest against sin, meerly because of thy own trouble by it. Would thy Conscience be quiet under it, thou would'st let it alone. Did it not disquiet thee, it fhould not be disquieted by thee. Now, canft thou think that God will fet in with fuch bypocritical Endeavours; that ever his Spirit will bear witnefs to the treachery and Falihood of thy Spirit? Doft thou think he will eafe thee of that which perplexesh Thee, that thou mayst be at liberty to that which no lefs grieves Him ? No, (fayes God,) here is one, if he could be rid of this Lust I should never hear of him more, let him wrestle with this, or he is loft. Let not any man think to do his own work, that will not do God's. God's work consists in universal Obedience; To be freed of the prefent perplexity is their own only. Hence is that of the Apostle, 2 Cor. 7.1. Cleanse your selves from all pollution of Flesh and Google and Spirit, perfecting holinefs in the fear of the Lord. If we will do any thing, we mult do all things. So then, not onely an intense Opposition to this or that peculiar lust, but it is an universal humble Frame and Temper of Heart, with watchfulness over every Evil, and for the performance of every Duty, that is acsepted.

2. How know'lt thou but that God hath fuffered the Lust wherewith thou halt been perplexed to get firengib in thee, and power over thee, to chasten thee for thy other Negligences; and common Lukewarmnes in walking before him; at least to awaken thee to the consideration of thy wayes, that thou mayst make a through work and change in thy course of walking with him. The Rage and predominancy of a particular Lust, is commonly the fruit and issue of a careles, negligent course in general; and that upon a double account.

(1) As its natural Effect, if I may fo fay. Luft (as I shewed) in general, lyes in the Heart of every one, even the best, whiles the lives; and think not that the Scripture speaks in vain, that it is subtle, canning, crasty; that it seduces, entices, fights, rebells. Whiles a man keeps a diligent Watch over his Heart, its Root and Fountain; whiles above all keepings, be keeps his Heart, whence are the issues of Life and Death, Luit withers and dyes in it. But if through Negligence it makes an Ernprison any particular way, gets a paffage to the Thonghts by the Affections, and from them, and by them, perhaps breaks out into open fin in the Conversation, the ftrength of it bears that way it hath found out, and that way mainly it urgeth, untill having got a paffage, it then vexes and difquiets, and is not eafily to be reftrained; Thus perhaps a man may be put to wreftle all his dayes in forrow, with that, which by a ftrict universal Watch might eafily have been prevented.

state and Gondition of Lust in its prevalency, that God often-times fuffers it fo to prevail, at least to admonish us, and to bumble us, perhaps to chaften and correct us, for our general loofe and careless walking, is it possible that the effect should be removed, and the cause con-tinued; that the particular Lust should be mortified, and the general Course be unre-formed? Whilest there abides a Treachery in the Heart to indulge to any Negligence in not prefing Universally to all Per-fection in Obedience, the Soul is weak, as not giving Faith its whole work; and felfifh, as confidering more the Trouble of Sin, than the Filth and Guilt of it; and lives under a constant provocation of God, fo that it may not expect any comfortable Islue in any spiritual Duty that it doth undertake, much less in this under Confideration, which requires another Principle, and Frame of Spirit for its Accomplishment.

be used; an ordinary course of Mortification will not do it.

You will fay, what are these dangerous Marks and fymptoms, the desperate Attendances of an indwelling Lust that you intend? Some of them I shall name.

(1) Inveteratenefs; if it hath lyen long corrupring in thy Heart, if thou hast fuffered it to abide in Power and prevalency, without at-tempting v goroufly the killing of it, and the healing of the wounds thou halt received by it, for some long season, thy Distemper is dangerous. Hast thou permitted Worldlines, Ambition, Greediness of Study, to eat up other Duties; the Daties wherein thou oughteft to hold constant Communion with God, for fome long feason? Or Uncleanness to defile thy Heart, with vain, and foolish, and wicked Imaginations; for many dayes? Thy Lust hath a dangerous fymptom. So was the Case with David, Pfal. 38. 5. My wounds stink and are corrupt, because of my foolishness. When a Lust hath layen long in the Heart, corrupting, festering, cankering, it brings the Soul to a wofull Condition. In such a cafe an ordinary course of bumiliation will not do the work: Whatever it be, it will by this Means insinuate it self more or less into all the Facultics of the Soul, and habituate the Affections to its Company and fociety; it growes fa-familiar to the Mind and Confeience, that they do not flartle at it as a ftrange thing, but are bold with it as that which they are wonted unto; yea it will get fuch advantage by this Means, as often-times to exert and put forth it felf, without having any notice taken of it at all; as it feems to have been with foleph in his fwearing by the Life of Pharaoh. Unlefs fome extraordinary Courfe be taken, fuch a perfon hath no ground in the world to expect that his latter End fhall be Peace.

For first, How will he be able to diffinguish between the long abode of an unmortified luft, and the dominion of Sin which cannot befall a Regenerate perfon? Secondly, How can he promise himself, that it shall ever be otherwife with him, or that his lust will cease tumultaating and feducing, when he fees it fixed and abiding, and hath done to for many dayes, and hath gone through variety of Conditions with him. It may be it hath tryed mercyes and afflictions, and those possibly fo remarkable, that the Soul could not avoyd the taking special notice of them; it may be it hath weathered out many a thorn; and passed uqder much variety of Gilts in the Administration of the Word; and will it prove an eafle thing to dillodge an Inwate pleading a title by Prescription? Old neglected wounds are often mortal, alwayes dangerous. Indwelling Diftem-4Google

Distempers grow resty, and stubborn, by continuance in ease and quiet. Lust is such an Inmate, as, if it can plead Time and some Prescription, will not easily be ejected. As it never dyes of it felf, so if it be not daily killed, it will alwayes gather strength.

(2) Secret Pleas of the Heart for the countenancing of it felf, and keeping up its peace, notwithsfanding the abiding of a Luft, without a vigorous Gospel Attempt for its Mortification, is another dangerous symptome of a deadly Distemper in the Heart. Now there be several wayes whereby this may be done, I shall name some of them. As,

1. When upon Thoughts, perplexing Thoughts about Sin, instead of applying himfelf to the Destruction of it, a man fearches his Heart to fee what Evidences he can find of a good Condition, notwith flanding that fin and Lust, fo that it may go well with him.

For a man to gather up his Experiences of God, to call them to mind, to collect them, confider, trye, improve them, is an excellent thing; a Duty practifed by all the Saints; commended in the Old Teftament and the New. This was Davids work, when he communed with bis own heart, and called to remembrance the former loving kindnefs of the Lord, Pfal. 77. 6, 7, 8, 0. This is the Duty that Paul fets us to Practife, 2 Cor, 13. 5, And as it is in it felf excellent, fo it hath beauty added to it, by a proper Seafon. A time of Tryal, or Temptation, or Disquietness of the Heart about Sin, is a picture of Silver to fet off this Golden Apple, as Solomon speaks : But now, to do it for this End, to fatisfie Confcience, which cryes and calls for another purpose, is a desperate De-vice of an heart in love with Sin. When a mans Confesence shall deal with him, when God shall rebuke him for the finfull diftemper of his Heart, if he, instead of applying himself to get that Sin pardoned in the Blood of Christ, and morrified by his Spirit, shall relieve himself, by any fuch other Evidences as he hath, or thinks himself to have, and so difintangle himself from under the yoke, that God was putting on his neck; his Condition is very dangerous, his Wound hardly curable. Thus the Jews un-der the gallings of their own Confciences, and the convincing preaching of our Saviour, fup-ported themfelves with this, that they were Abraham's Children, and on that account ac-cepted with God; and fo countenanced them-felves in all abominable wickedness to their utter ruine.

This is in fome degree, a Bleffing of a mans felf, and faying that upon one account or other he shall have peace, although be addes drunkennefs to thirft; love of Sin, undervaluation of Peace, and of all taftes of Love from God.

God, are enwrapped in such a Frame : Such a one plainly fhews, that if he can but keep up hope of cleaping the wrath to come, he can be well content to be Unfruitfull in the world, at any Dittance from God that is not final feparation. What is to be expected from fuch an Heart?

2. By applying Grace and Mercy to an unmortified lin, or one not fincerely endeavour-ed to be mortified, is this Decent carried on. This is a fign of an Heart greatly entangled with the Love of Sin. When a man hath fecret thoughts in his Heart, not

2 Kibg 5.18. unlike those of Naaman, about his worshipping in the House of Rimmon; in all other things I will walk with Gol; but in this thing, God be mercifull unto me; his Condition is fad. It is true indeed. a Refolution to this purpose, to indulge a mans felf in any fin on the account of Mercy, feems to be (and doubtlefs in any courfe, is) altogether inconfistent with Christian Sincerity, and is a badge of an Hypocrite, and is the turning of the Grace of God into wantonness, Jude 4. but yet I doubt not but through the craft of Sathan, and their own remaining unbelief, the Children of God may themfelves Tometimes be enfnared with this Deceit of fin; or elle Paul would never have fo cautioned them, against it as he doth, Rom. 6. 1, 2. indeed there is nothing more Natural, than for flefhly reafonings to grow high and itrong upon this account. The flefh would fain be indulged unto upon the account of Grace: and every word that is fpoken of mercy, it ftands ready to catch at, and to pervert it to its own corrupt ayms and purpofes. To apply Mercy then to a fin not vigoroufly mortified, is to fulfill the End of the flefh upon the Gofpel.

These and many other wayes and wiles, a deceisfull Heart will fometimes make use of, to countenance it felf in its Abominations. Now when a man with his fin is in this Condition, that there is a secret liking of the fin prevalent in his Heart, and though his Will be not wholly fet upon it, yet he hath an imperfect velleity towards it, he would practife it were it not for such and fuch Considerations, and hereupon relieves himself other wayes than by the Mortification and Pardon of it in the Blood of Christ, that mans wounds stink and are corrupt, and he will, without speedy Deliverance, be at the door of Death.

(3) Frequency of fuccefs in Sins feduction in obtaining the prevailing Confent of the Will unto it, is another dangerous fymptome. This is that I mean: When the fin fpoken of gets the Confent of the Will with fome detright, light, though it be not altually outwardly perpetrated, yet it hath fuccefs. A man may not be able upon outward Confiderations to goe along with Sin, to that which James calls the finishing of it, Jam. 1. 14, 15. as to the outward ACts of Sin, when yet the will of finning may be actually obtained: Then hath it I fay fuccefs. Now if any luft be able thus far to prevail in the Soul of any man, as his Condition may poffibly be very bad and himfelf be unregenerate, fo it cannot possibly be very good, but dangerous. And it is all one upon the matter, whether this be done by the choice of the Will, or by Inadvertency; For that Inadvertency it felf is in a manner chofen. When we are inadvertent and negligent, where we are bound to watchfulnefs, and carefulness, that inadversency doth not take off from the volunt arinefs of what we doe thereupon ; for although men do not cheofe and refolve to be negligent and inadvertent, yet if they choose the things that will make them to, they choose inadvertency it felf, as a thing may be chosen in its canfe.

And let not men think that the evil of their hearts is in any measure extennated, because they seem for the most part to be furprized into that consent which they seem to give unto it; for it is Negligence of their Duty in watching over their Hearts, that betrayes them into that irprizal.

93 (4) When a man fighteth against his fin onely with Arguments from the Issue, or the punishment due unto it; this is a fign that fin hath taken great poffeffion of the Will, and that in the Heart there is a superfluity of naughtiness. Such a man as opposes nothing to the feduction of Sin and Lust in his Heart, but fear of shame among men, or Hell from God, is fufficiently resolved to do the fin, if there were no punishment attending it ; which what it differs from living in the practice of Sin, I know not. Those who are Christs, and are acted in their Obedience upon Gospel Principles, have the Death of Christ, the Love of God, the detestable Nature of Sin, the preciousness of Communion with God, a dcep grounded Abborrency of fin as Sin, to oppose to any fednition of Sin, to all the workings, ftrivings, fightings of Lust in their Hearts. So did 70feph, How shall I doe this great evil (faith he) and fin against the Gen. 39.9. Lord, my good and gracious God? And Paul, The love of 2 Cor. 5, 14-Chrift constrains us : And having 2 Cor. 7. 1. received these Promises, let us cleanse our selves from all pollutions of flesh and , Spirit. But now if a man be fo under the power of his Luft, that he hath nothing but Law to oppose it withall, if he cannot fight against it with Gospel weapons, but deals with

94 it altogether with Hell and Judgement, which are the proper Arms of the Law, it is most evident, that fin hath possessed it self of his Will and Affections, to a very great prevalency and conquest.

Such a Person hath cast off (as to the particular spoken of) the Conduct of Renewing Grace, and is kept from ruine onely by reftraining Grace; and fo far is he fallen from Grace, and returned under the Power of the Law; and can it be thought that this is not a great provocation to Christ, that men should cast off his case gentle Toke and Rule, and cast themselves under the Iron yoke of the Law, meerly out of indulgence unto their 1 affe 2

Try thy felf by this alfo : When thou art by Sin driven to make a fland, fo that thou must either serve it, and rush at the command of it into folly, like the horfe into the battel, or make head against it to suppress it; what doest thou fay to thy Soul? what doest thou expostulate with thy felf? is this all? Hell will be the end of this courfe, Vengeance will meet with me, and find me out; it is time for thee to look about thee, evil lyes at the door. Pauls main Argument to evince, that fin shall not have dominion over Believers, is, that they are not under the Law, but under Grace, Rom. 6. 14. If thy contendings against Sin be all on

on legal Accounts, from legal Principles and motives, what affurance canft thou attain unto, that fin fhall not have dominion over thee; which will be thy raine?

Yea know that this Referve will not 'ong hold out: if thy Luft hath driven thee from ftronger Gospel Forts, it will speedily prevail against this also; do not suppose that such Considerations will deliver thee, when thou hast voluntarily given up to thine Enemy, those Helps and Means of Preservation which have a thousand times their Strength. Reft assuredly in this, that unless thou recover thy felf with speed from this Condition, the thing that thou fearest will come upon thee; what Gospel Principles do not, legal Motives cannot doe.

(5) When it is probable that there is, or may be fomewhat of judiciary hardnefs, or at leaft chaftening Punishment in thy Luft as difquieting; This is another dangerous fymprome. That God doth fometimes leave even those of his own, under the perplexing power at least of fome Luit or Sin, to correct them for former fins, Negligence and Folly, 1 noi way doubt. Hence was that complaint of the Church, Why hast thou hardened us from the fear of thy Name, Ifa. 63. 17. That this is his way of dealing with unregenerate men, no man questions. But how thall a man know.

whether there be any thing of Gods chastening band, in his being left to the disquietment of his distemper?

Anfw. Examine thy Heart and Wayes: What was the flate and Condition of thy Soul before thou fellest into the Intanglements of that fin which now thou so complainest of? Hadst thou been negligent in Duties? hadst thou lived inordinately to thy fels? is there the guilt of any great fin lying upon the unrepented of? A new Sin may be permitted, as well as a new Affliction fent to bring an Old fin to remembrance?

Haft thou received any eminent Mercy, Protection, Deliverance, which thou diddeft not improve in a due Manner, nor waft thankfull for? or haft been exercifed with any Affliction, without labouring for the appointed End of it? or haft thou been wanting to the Opportunities of glorifying God in thy Generation, which in his good Providence he had gracioufly afforded unto thee? or haft thou conformed thy felf unto the World and the men of it, through the abounding of Temptations in the dayes wherein thou liveft?

If thou findeft this to have been thy State, make, call upon God; thou art fait afleep in a ftorm of Anger round about thee.

Condition is described, 1sa. 57. 17. For the Iniquity of his Covereousness I was wroth, and Smote him, I hid me and was wroth, and he went on frowardly in the way of his heart. God had dealt with them about their prevailing Luft, and that feveral wayes, by Affliction and Defertion. But they held out against all : This is a fad Condition which nothing but meer foveraign Grace (as God expresses it in the next verse,) can relieve a man in, and which no man ought to promife himfelf, or bear himfelf upon. God oftentimes in his providential Difpensations meets with a man, and speaks particularly to the Evil of his Heart, as he did to Joseph's Brethren in their felling of him into Egypt. This makes the man reflect on his fin, and judge himself in particular for it. God makes it to be the voice of the Danger, Affliction, Trouble, Sickness that he is in, or under. Sometimes in Reading of the Word, God makes a man stay on something that cuts him to the Heart, and shakes him as to his present Condition. More frequently in the Hearing of the Word preached (his great Ordinance for Conviction, Conversion and Edification) doth he meet with men. God often bews men by the Sword of his Word in that Ordinance; strikes directly on their bosome beloved Luft; startles the Sinner, makeshim engage into the Mortification and Relinquishment ment of the Evil of his Heart. Now if his Luft have taken fuch hold on him, as to enforce him to break these bonds of the Lord, and to cast these cords from him; If it overcomes these Convictions, and gets again into its old posture; if it can cure the wounds it fo receives, that Soul is in a fad Condition.

Unfpeakable are the Evils which attend fuch a Frame of Heart: Every particular Warning to a man in fuch an Effate, is an ineffimable Mercy; how then doth he defpife God in them, who holds out against them; and what infinite Patience is this in God, that he doth not cash off fuch an one, and fwear in his wrath, that he shall never enter into his Rest.

These and many other Evidences are there of a Lust that is dangerous, if not mortal. As our Saviour faid of the evil Spirit, This kind goes not out but by Fasting and Prayer: So fay I of Lusts of this kind; an ordinary Course of Mortification will not doe it, extraordinary wayes mult be fixed on.

This is the First particular Direction; Confider whether the Luft or Sin you are contending with, hath any of these dangerous symptoms attending of it.

Before I proceed, I must give one Caution by the way, lest any be deceived by what hath been spoken. Whereas I fay, the things and evils above mentioned may befall true Beŝ lievers, let not any that finds the fame things • Ŋ in himself, thence or from thence conclude that :61 he is a true Believer. These are the Evils that ali Believers may fall into, and be enfnared with-S₁ all, not the things that Constitute a Believer. A man may as well conclude that he is a Be-'nd liever, because he is an Adulterer; because David that was fo, fell into Adultery; as conclude it from the figns foregoing, which are the evils of Sin and Sathan in the Hearts of Believers. The seventh of the Romans contains the Description of a Regenerate man. He that shall confider what is spoken of his dark fide, ŀ of his unregenerate part, of the indwelling Power and Violence of Sin remaining in him, and because he finds the like in himself, conp. ٨ï clude that he is a regenerate man, will be deceived in his Reckoning. It is all one as if you ns [2] should argue, A wife man may be fick and e)j wounded, yea do some things foolishly, Therefore every one who is fick and wounded and IJĮ, does things foolifbly, is a wife man. HE Second Direction is this,

Get a clear and abiding Senle upon thy Mind and Conscience of the (1) Guilt, (2) Danger, (3) Evil of that Sin wherewith thou art perplexed.

own Guilt. Is it not a little one? When I go and bom my felf in the House of Rimmon, God be mercifull to me in This thing. Though this be bad, yet it is not fo bad as fuch and fuch an Evil, others of the People of God have had fuch a Frame; yea what dreadful Actual fins have some of them fallen into ! Innumerable wayes there are whereby Sin diverts the Mind from a right and due Apprehension of its Guilt. Its noy fom Exhalations darken the Mind, that it cannot make a right Judgment. of things; Perplexing Reasonings, extenua-40 ting Promises, tumultuating Defires, treacheerpe rous Purposes of relinquishment, hopes of Merprosi trad cy; all have a fhare in diffurbing the Mind, in its Confideration of the Guilt of a prevailing Luft. The Prophet tells us, that Luft will do thus wholly, when it comes to the height: Hof. th. 4. II. Whoredom and Wine and new Wine take away the heart : The Heart, (i.c.) the understanding, as it is often used in the Scripture. And as they accomplish this work to the height in unregenerate Persons, so in part in regene rate alfo. Solomon tells you of him who was enticed by the lewd Woman, that he was among the fimple ones, he was a young man voyd of un. derstanding, Prov. 7.7. And wherein did his folly appear? Why fayeshe, in the 23d verf. He knew not that it was for his Life; He con-fidered not the Guilt of the Evil that he was involved H 3 involved in. And the Lord rendring a Reason why his dealings with Ephraim took no better Effect, gives this Account: Ephraim is like a filly Dove without heart, Hof. 7. 11. had no understanding of his own miserable Condition. Had it been possible that David should have lain fo long in the Guilt of that abominable Sin, but that he had innumerable corrupt Reafonings, hindering him from taking a clear View of its Ugliness and Guilt in the Glass of the Law? This made the Prophet that was fent for his awaking, in his dealings with him, to for instanting, in the second pretences, by his Parable; that fo he might fall fully under a fenfe of the Guilt of it. This is the proper iffue of Lust in the heart, it darkens the Mind that it shall not judge aright of its Guilt; And many other Wayes it hath for its own Extenua-tion, that I shall not now infist on. Let this then be the first care of him that would mortifie Sin, to fix a right Judgement of its Guilt in his Mind. To which end take these Considerations to thy affiftance:

1. Though the Power of Sin be weakened by inherent Grace in them that have it, that Sin fhall not have dominion over them, as it hath over others, yet the Guilt of Sin that doth yet abide and remain, is aggravated and heightned by it, Rom. 6. 1, 2. What fhall we fay then ? fhall we continue in Sin that Grace may abound ? God forbid, bow shall we that are dead to fin, live any longer therein? How shall we that are dead; the Emphasis is on the word We. How shall we do it, who (as he afterwards describes it,) have received Grace from Chrift to the contrary? We (doubtlefs) are more evil than any, if we do it. I shall not infilt on the special Aggravations of the Sins of fuch Persons; how they fin against more Love, Mercy, Grace, Affistance, Relief, Means and Deliverances, than others. But let this Confideration abide in thy Mind. There is inconceivably more Evil and Guilt in the Evil of thy Heart, that doth remain, than there would be in fo much Sin, if thou hadft no Grace at all. Observe,

2. That as God fees abundance of beauty and Excellency in the defires of the Hearts of his Servants, more than in any the molt gloriom works of other men, yea more than in molt of their own outward Performances, which have a greater mixture of Sin than the defires and Pantings of Grace in the Heart have: So God fees a great deal of Evil in the working of Lust in their Hearts, yea and more than in the open notorious Alts of wicked men, or in many outward Sins whereinto the Saints may fall; feeing against them there is more Oppefition made, and more Humiliation generally followes them. Thus Chrift, dealing with his decay-Digiti Hay Google decaying Children, goes to the root with them; layes afide their profession, Rev. 3. 15. I know thee, thou art quite another thing than thou-profession, and this makes thee abominable.

So then; let thefe things and the like Confiderations lead thee to a clear fense of the Guilt of thy indwelling Lust, that there may be no room in thy Heart for extenuating or excusing thoughts, whereby Sin insensibly will get frength and prevail.

(2) Confider the danger of it, which is manifold :

1. Of being hardened by its Deceitfulness: This the Apostle forely charges on the Hebrews, ch. 3. v. 12, 13. Take heed brethren, left there be in any of you an evil beart of unbelief, in departing from the living God: But exhort one another daily, while it is called to day, lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of fin. Take beed (faith he) use all means, confider your Temptations, watch diligently, there is a Treachery, a deceit in Sin, that tends to the bardening of your Hearts from the Fear of God. The hardening here mentioned is to the utmost; utter Obduration; Sin tends to it, and every Diflemper and Lust will make at least fome progress towards it. (as some have profanely spoken,) Sermonproof, and Sicknefs-proof; Thou that did'ft tremble at the presence of God, thoughts of Death, and Appearance before him, when thou hadft more Affurance of his Love than now theu haft, shalt have a Stoutness upon thy Spirit, not to be moved by these things. Thy Soul and thy fin shall be spoken of, and spoken to, and thou shalt not be at all concerned; But shalt be able to pass over Duties, Praying, Hearing, Reading, and thy Heart not in the least affected. Sin will grow a light thing to thee; thou wilt pass by it as a thing of nought; This it will grow to, and what will be the End of fuch a Condition? Can a fadder thing befall thee ? Is it not enough to make any heart to tremble, to think of being brought into that Estate, wherein he should have flight thoughts of Sin; flight thoughts of Grace, of Mercy, of the Blood of Christ, of the Law, Heaven and Hell, come all in at the same feason? Take heed, this is that thy Lust is working towards; the hardening of the Heart, fearing of the Confcience, blinding of the Mind, stupifying of the Affections, and deceiving of the whole Soul.

2. The danger of fom? great temporal Correction, which the Scripture calls Vengeance, Judgement, and Punifhment, Pfal. 89. 30, 31, 32, 33. Though God should not utterly cast become Google thece thee off for this Abomination that lyes in thy Heart, yet he will visit with the Rod; though he pardon and forgive, he will take vengeance of thy Inventions. O remember David and all his troubles; look on him flying into the Wilderness, and confider the hand of God upon him. Is it nothing to thee, that God should kill thy Child in anger, ruine thy Estate in anger, break thy Bones in anger, suffer thee to be a Scandal and Reproach in anger, kill thee, deftroy thee, make thee lye down in darknefs in anger ? Is it nothing that he fhould punish, ruine, and undoe others for thy fake? Let me not be miltaken, I do not mean, that God doth fend all these things alwayes on his in Anger; God forbid. But this I fay, That when he doth fo deal with thee, and thy Conscience bears witness with him, what thy Pro-vocations have been, thou wilt find his dealings full of bitternefs to thy Soul. If thou fearc/t not these things, I fear thou art under bardness.

3. Loss of Peace and Strength all a mans dayes. To have peace with God, to have strength to walk before God, is the fumme of the great Promises of the Covenant of Grace. In these things is the Life of our Souls. Without them in some comfortable measure, to Live, is to Dye. What good will our Lives do us, if we see not the face of God sometimes times in peace? If we have not some strength to walk with him? Now both thefe will an unmortified Lust certainly deprive the Souls of men of. This case is so evident in David, as that nothing can be more clear. How often doth he complain that his bones were broken, his Soul disquieted, his wounds grievous on this account? Take other Instances, Ifa. 57. 18. For the Iniquity of his Covetoufness I was wroth, and hid my felf. What peace I pray is there to a Soul while God hides himself? Or strength whilest he fmites ? Hof. 5. 15. I will goe and return to my place, untill they acknowledge their Offence, and seek my face. I will leave them, hide my Face, and what will become of their peace and strength ? If ever then thou haft enjoyed peace with God, if ever his Terrours have made thee afraid, if ever thou hast had strength to walk with him, or ever hast mourned in thy Prayer, and been troubled because of thy weakness, think of this danger that hangs over thy head. It is perhaps but a little while and thou thalt fee the Face of God in Peace no more : Perhaps by to morrow thou shalt not be able to pray, read, hear, or perform any Duties with the least chearfulness, Life or Vigour; and possibly thou mayit never see a quiet hour whilest thou liveft; That thou mayft carry about thee broken bones full of pain and terrour all the dayes of thy Life; yea perhaps God will fheat his Arrowes at thee, and fill thee with Anguish and disquietness, with Fears and Perplexities, make thee a Terror and an Aftonishment to thy felf and others, shew thee Hell and Wrath every moment; frighten and fcare thee with [ad Apprehensions of his Hatred, so that thy fore shall run in the Night feason, and thy Soul shall refuse Comfort; so that thou shalt wish Death rather than Life, yea thy Soul may choose strangling. Confider this a little, though God should not utterly destroy thee, yet he might cast thee into this condition, wherein thou Ihalt have quick and living Apprehentions of thy Destruction. Wont thy Heart to thoughts hereof: Let it know what is like to be the Iffue of its State, leave not this Confideration untill thou haft made thy Soul to tremble within thee.

4. There is the Danger of eternal Destruction. For the due Management of this Confideration, observe,

I. That there is fuch a connexion between a Continuance in Sin and eternal Deftruction, that though God do's refolve to deliver fome from a Continuance in Sin, that they may not be deftroyed, yet he will deliver none from Deftruction that continue in fin. So that whileft any one lyes under an Abiding power of fin, the Threats of Deftruction and everlasting Seperation from God are to be held out to him;

So

So Heb. 3. 12. to which adde Heb. 10.38. This is the Rule of Gods proceeding : If any man depart from him, draw back through Unbelief, Gods Soul hath no pleasure in him; that is, his Indignation shall pur fue him to Destruction ; fo evidently, Gal. 6. 8.

II. That he who is fo intangled (as above described) under the Power of any Corruption, can have at that prefent no clear prevailing Evidence of his Interest in the Covenant, by the Efficacy whereof he may be delivered from Fear of Destruction. So that Destruction from the Lord may justly be a Terrour to him ; And he may, he ought to look upon it, as that which will be the End of his Courfe and wayes. There is no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus, Rom. 8. 1. True ! but who ihall have the comfort of this Affertion? Who may assume it to himself? They that walk after the Spirit, and not after the Flesh. But you will fay, Is not this to perfwade men to unbelief ? I answer, No; there is a twofold Judgement that a man may make of himself; 1. Of his Perfor, and 2. Of his Wayes. It is the judgment of his Wayes, not his Perfon that I speak of; Let a man get the best Evidence for his Perfon that he can, yet to judge that an evil Way will end in Destruction, is his Duty; not to doit, is Atheism. I do not fay, that in fuch a Condition a man ought to throw away the Evidences of his Digitized by Google his perfonal Interest in Christ; but I say, he cannot keep them. There is a two-fold condemnation of a mans felf:

First, In respect of Desert, when the Soul concludes, that it Deserves to be cast out of the presence of God; and this is so far from a business of Unbelief, that it is an Effect of Faith.

Secondly, With respect to the Issue and Event; when the Soul concludes it shall be Damned. I do not say this is the Duty of any one, nor do I call them to it. But this I say, that the End of the way wherein a man is, ought by him to be concluded to be death, that he may be provok'd to fly from it; And this is another Consideration; that ought to dwell upon such a Soul, if it defire to be freed from the intanglement of its Lusts.

(3) Confider the Evils of it. I mean its present Evils. Danger respects what is to come; Evil what is present: Some of the many Evils that attend an unmortified Lust, may be mentioned.

I. It grieves the Holy and Bleffed Spirit, which is given to Believers to dwell in them and abide with them. So the Apostle, (Ephef. 4. 25, 26, 27, 28, 29.) dehorting them from many Lusts and Sins, gives this as the great Motive of it, verf. 30. Grieve not the boly Dependent Google Spirit,

Spirit, whereby you are fealed to the day of Re-demption. Grieve not that Spirit of God (faith he) whereby you receive fo many and fo great Benefits; of which he instances in one fignal and comprehensive one, Sealing to the day of Redemption. He is grieved by it, as a tender and loving Friend is grieved at the unkindness of his Friend, of whom he hath well deferved : fo is it with this tender and loving Spirit, who hath chosen our Hearts for an Habitation to dwell in, and there to do for us all that our Souls defire. He is grieved by our harbouring his Enemies, and those whom he is to destroy in our Hearts with him. He doth not afflick willingly, nor grieve Us, Lam. 3. 33. and fhall we daily grieve Him? Thus is he faid fometimes to be vexed, sometimes grieved at bis heart, to express the greatest sense of our pro-vocation. Now if there be any thing of gracious Ingenuity left in the Soul, if it be not utterly hardened by the Deceitfulnels of Sin. this Confideration will certainly affect it. Confider Who and What thou art, who the Spiris is that is grieved, what he hath done for thee, what he comes to thy Soul about, what he hath already donc in thee; and be ashamed. Among those who walk with God, there is no greater Motive and Incentive unto universal Holinefs, and the preferving of their Hearts and Spirits in all Purity and Cleanness, than this, That

That the bleffed Spirit who hath undertaken to dwell in them as Temples of God, and to preferve them meet for him who fo dwells in them, is continually confidering what they give Entertainment in their Hearts unto; and rejoyceth when his Temple is kept undefiled; that was an high Aggravation of the Sin of Zimri, that he brought his Adulterefs into the Congregation in the fight of Mofes, and the reit, who were weeping for the Sins of the people, Numb. 25.6. and is it not an high Aggravation of the countenancing a Lust, or fuffering it to abide in the Heart, when it is (as it must be, if we are Believers) entertained under the peculiar Eye and View of the Holy Ghoft; taking care to preferve his Tabernacle pure and holy?

2. The Lord Jefus is wounded afresh by it; His new Creature in the heart is wounded. His Love is foil'd, his adversary gratified. As a total relinquishment of him by the Deceitfulnefs of Sin, is the crucifying him afresh, and the putting of him to open shame, so every har-bouring of Sin that he came to destroy, wounds and grieves him.

Fire, and not be honoured with any fuccefs, or doing any work for God; and the like may be spoken of other Conditions. The world is at this day full of poor withering Professers; how few are there that walk in any Beauty, or Glory; how barren, how useless are they for the most part ! Amongst the many Reasons that may be alligned of this fad Eftate, it may juftly be feared, that this is none of the least effectual; many men harbour Spirit-devouring Lusts in their bosomes, that lye as Worms at the Root of their Obedience, and corrode and weaken it day by day. All Graces, all the Wayes and Means whereby any Graces may be exercifed and improved, are prejudiced by this Means; and as to any fuccels, God blafts fuch mens undertakings.

This then is my fecond Direction, and it regards the Opposition that is to be made to Luft, in respect of its habitual refidence in the Soul; keep alive upon thy Heart these or the like. Confiderations, of its Guilt, Danger and Evil; be much in the meditation of these things; cause thy Heart to dwell and abide upon them. (1) Charge thy Conficience with that Guilt which appears in it, from the Reltitude and Holinefs of the Law. Bring the holy Law of God God

Confider the holinefs, spirituality, fiery feverity, inwardness, absoluteness of the Law; And fee how thou canst stand before it. Perhaps thy Confcience will invent fhifts and Evalions to keep off the Power of this Confideration; as, that the condemning power of the Law doth not belong to thee, thou are fet free from it, and the like; and fo though thou be not conformable to it, yet thou needest not to be fo much troubled at it. 1. Tell thy Conscience, that it cannot manfi k age any evidence to the purpose, that thou art free from the condemning Power of Sin, ů. whileft thy unmortified Luft lyes in thy Heart; fo that perhaps the Law may make k, good its Plea against thee for a full Dominion, and then thou art a lost Creature. 2. Whatever be the iffue, yet the Law hath Commiftion from God to feize upon Tranfgreffors wherever it find them, and fo bring them before his Throne, where they are to plead for themfelves; This is thy prefent cafe: The Law hath found thee out, and before God it will bring thee : If thou canft plead a Pardon, well and good; If not, the Law will do its work.

3. However, this is the proper Work of the Law, to difcover Sin in the Guilt of it, to awake and humble the Soul for it, to be a Glafs to reprefent Sin in its colours; and if thou denyeft to deal with it on this Account, it is not through Faith, but through the hardnefs of thy Heart and the Deceitfulnefs of Sin.

This is a Door that too many Professions have gone out at, unto open Apostasie; such a Deliverance from the Law they have pretended, as that they would consult its Guidance and Direction no more; they would measure their Sin by it no more; by little and little this Principle hath insensibly from the Notion of it proceeded to influence their practical Understandings; and having taken possellion there, hath turned the Will and Affections loose to all manner of Abominations.

цI bei By fuch wayes (I fay then) as thefe, perfwade thy Confcience to hearken diligently to what the Law speaks in the Name of the Lord unto thee, about thy Lust and Corruption. Oh! if thy Ears be open, it will speak with a Voyce that shall make thee tremble, that shall cast thee to the ground, and fill thee with Astonishment. If ever thou wilt mortifie thy Corruptions, thou must tye up thy Confcience to the Law, shut it from all shifts and Exceptions untill it owns its Guilt, with a clear and through Apprehension: So that thence, (as David speaks) thy Iniquity may ever be before thee.

(2) Bring thy Lust to the Gospel, not for 11 Relief, but for farther conviction of its Guilt; 10(look on him whom thou haft pierced, and be ø in bitternefs. Say to thy Soul; What have ſ۶٥ I done? what Love, what Mercy, what Blood, har what Grace have I despised and trampled on? Is this the Return I make to the Father for D his Love, to the Son for his Blood, to the Holy del Ghost for his Grace? Doe I thus requite the ý Lord ? Have I defiled the Heart that Chrift dr' dyed to wash; that the Bleffed Spirit hath chopir . fen to dwell in? And can I keep my felf out fro. Alt of the Dust ? What can I fay to the dear Lord 195 I lefus? 3

Jefus? How shall I hold up my head with any boldness before him? Doe I account Commumion with him of so little value, that for this vile Lusts sake I have scarce left him any room in my Heart? How shall I escape, if I neglect so great Salvation? In the mean time, what shall I fay to the Lord? Love, Mercy, Grace, Goodness, Peace, Joy, Consolation, I have despised them all, and esteemed them as a thing of nought, that I might barbour a Lust in my Heart.

Have I obtained a view of Gods Fatherly Countenance, that I might behold his face, and provoke him to his face? Was my Soul walhed, that room might be made for new Defilements? Shall I endeavour to difappoint the End of the Death of Chrift? Shall I daily grieve that Spirit whereby I am fealed to the day of Redemption? Entertain thy Confcience daily with this Treaty. See if it can ftand before this Aggravation of its Guilt. If this make it not fink in fome measure, and melt, I fear thy Cafe is dangerous, Secondly, Defcend to particulars. As under the General Head of the Gospel, all the Benefits of it are to be confidered, as Redemption, Justification and the like; fo in particular, confider the Management of the love of them toward thine own Soul, for the Aggravation of the Guilt of thy Corruption. 119 1. Consider the infinite Patience and forbearance of God towards thee in particular : Confider what Advantages he might have taken against thee, to have made thee a shame and a reproach in this World, and an object of wrath for ever: How thou haft dealt treacheroufly and fally with him from time to time, flattered him with thy Lips, but broken all Promises and Engagements; and that by the means of that Sin thou art now in pursuit of: and yet he hath spared thee from time to time although thou seemest boldly to have put it to the tryal how long he could hold out : And wilt thou yet fin against him? wilt thou yet weary him, and make him to ferve with thy Corruptions?

Haft thou not often been ready to conclude thy felf, that it was utterly impossible that he should bear any longer with thee; that he would cast thee off, and be gracious no more; that all his Forbearance was exhausted, and Hell and Wrath was even ready prepared for thee; and yet above all thy Expectation he hath returned with Visitations of Love; and wilt thou yet abide in the Provocation of the eves of his Glory ?

2. How often haft thou been at the door of being Hardened by the Deceitfulness of Sin; and by the infinite rich Grace of God halt been recovered to communion with him again ? Jugit 4 by Google

Haft thou not found Grace decaying; Delight in Duties, Ordinances, Prayer and Meditation, vanishing; inclinations to loofe careless walking, thriving; and they who before were entangled, almost beyond recovery? Haft thou not found thy felf engaged in fuch Wayes, Societies, Companies, and that with delight, as God abhorres? and wilt thou venture any more to the brink of Hardness?

3. All Gods gracious dealings with thee in Providential Difpenfations, Deliverances, Afflictions, Mercies, Enjoyments, all ought here to take place. By thefe I fay, and the like Means, load thy Conficience, and leave it not untill it be throughly affected with the Guilt of thy indwelling Corruption: Untill it is fenfible of its Wound, and lye in the dust before the Lord. Unless this be done to the purpose, all other Endeavours are to no purpose. Whiles the Conficience hath any Means to alleviate the Guilt of Sin, the Soul will never vigorously attempt its Mortification.

Fourthly, Being thus affeited with thy Sin, in the next place; get a conftant longing, breathing after deliverance from the Power of it. Suffer not thy Heart one moment to be contented with thy prefent Frame and Condition. Longing defires after any thing, in things Natural and Civil, are of no value nor confideration.

fideration, any farther, but as they incite and firre up the perfon in whom they are, to a diligent use of Means for the bringing about the thing aymed at. In fpiritual things it is otherwife. Longing, breathing and pant-ing after Deliverance, is a Grace in its felf, that hath a mighty power to conform the Soul into the likenefs of the thing longed after. Hence the Apostle describing the Repentance and godly Sorrow of the Corinthians, reckons this as one eminent Grace that was then fet on work; vehement Defire, 2 Cor. 7. 11. And in this cafe of indwelling Sin, and the power of it, what Frame doth he express himfelf to be in? Rom. 7. 24. His heart breaks out with longings into a moit passionate Ex-pression of defire of deliverance. Now if this be the frame of Saints, upon the general consideration of indwelling Sin, how is it to be beightened and increased, when thereunto is added the perplexing Rage and Power of any particular Lust and Corruption? Affure thy felf, unless thou longest for Deliverance thou shalt not have it.

This will make the Heart watchfull for all Opportunities of Advantage against its Enemy; and ready to close with any Affistances that are afforded for its Destruction; strong Defires are the very Life of that praying alwayes which is enjoyned us in all Conditions, and in none is more neceffary than in this; they fet Faith and Hope on work, and are the Souls moving after the Lord.

Get thy Heart then into a panting and breathing Frame, long, figh, cry out; you know the Example of David, I shall not need to infift on it.

The Fifth Direction is,

5b, Confider whether the Diftemper with which thou art perplexed, be not rooted in thy Nature, and cherisched, somented and heightned from thy Constitution. A pronenels to some Sins may doubtless lye in the Natural Temper and Disposition of men. In this Case confider;

1. This is not in the least an Extennation of the Guilt of thy Sin.

Some with an open Profanenels will ascribe grofs Enormities to their Temper and Dispolition. And whether others may not relieve themselves from the pressing Guilt of their Distempers by the same Consideration, I know not. It is from the Fall, from the Original depravation of our Natures, that the fomes and Nourithment of any Sin abides in our Natural Temper. David reckons his being shapen in Iniquity, and conception in Sin, Pfal. 51. 5. as an Aggravation of his following Sin, not a lessent of the state

peculiarly inclined unto any finfull Diftemper, is but a peculiar breaking out of Original Luft in thy Nature, which should peculiarly abase and humble thee.

2. That thou haft to fix upon on this account, in reference to thy walking with God, is, that fo great an Advantage is given to Sin, as alfo to Satan, by this thy Temper and Difpolition, that without extraordinary Watchfulnefs, Care and Diligence, they will affu-redly prevail against thy Soul. Thousands have been on this account hurryed headlong to Hell, who otherwise (at least) might have gone at a more gentle, less provoking, less mifchievous rate.

2. For the Mortification of any Diftemper, fo rooted in the Nature of a Man, unto all other Wayes and Means already named or farther to be infifted on, there is one expedies ent peculiarly fuited. This is that of the Apo+ Itle, 1 Cor. 9. 27. I keep under my Body, and bring it into subjection. The bringing of the very Body into lubjection, is an Ordinance of God, tending to the Mortification of Sin. This gives check unto the Natural Root of the Diitemper, and withers it by taking away its fatness of soil. Perhaps because the Papifts (men ignorant of the Righteoufnefs of Chrift, the Work of his Spirit, and whole business in hand) have layed the whole weight and itrefs.

of Mortification in voluntary Services and Penances; leading to the Jubjection of the Body, knowing indeed the true Nature neither of Sin nor Mortification, it may on the other fide be a Temptation to fome, to neglect fome means of bumiliation, which by Godhimfelf are owned and appointed. The bringing of the body into fubjection in the cafe infitted on, by cutting fhort the Natural Appetite, by fasting, watching, and the like, is doubtlefs acceptable to God, foit be done with the enfuing limitations.

(1) That the outward weakening and impairing of the Body, be not looked upon as a thing good in it felf, or that any Mortification doth confist therein, (which were again to bring us under carnal Ordinances) but only as a Means for the End proposed; the weakening of any Diftemper in its Natural root and seat. Again may have leanness of Body and Soul together.

(2) That the means whereby this is done, namely, by fasting and watching, and the like, be not looked on as things that in Themselves, and by virtue of their Own Power, can produce true Mortification of any Sin; for if they would, Sin might be mortified without any help of the Spirit, in any unregenerate perfon in the world. They are to be looked on onely as wayes whereby the Spirit may,

and

and fometimes doth put forth firength for the accomplifning of his own work, especially in the Case mentioned. Want of a right underftanding and due Improvement of these and the like Confiderations, hath raised a Morrisication among the Papilts that may be better applyed to Horses and other Beasts of the Field, than to Believers.

This is the fumme of what hath been fpoken; when the diftemper complained of, feems to be rooted in Natural temper and conflitution, in applying our Souls to a participation of the blood and Spirit of Christ, an Endeavour is to be used, to give check in the way of God, to the natural Root of that Diftemper.

Sixthly, Confider what Occasions, what Advantages thy Diftemper hath taken to exert and put forth it felf, and watch against them all. This is one part of that Duty which our bleffed Saviour recommends to his Disciples under the name of watching, Mark 13. 37. I fay unto you all, Watch; 'which in Luk, 21. 34. is, Take heed that your bearts be not overcharged a Watch against all Eruptions of thy Corruptions. I mean that Duty which David professed himfelf to be exercised unto : I have (faith he) kept my felf from mine Iniquity. He watched all the wayes and workings of his Iniquity to prevent them, to rise up against them.

This is that which we are called unto under the name of Confidering our Wayes: Confider what Wayes, what Companyes, what Op. portunities, what Studies, what Business, what Conditions, have at any time given, or do usually give advantages to thy Distempers, and fet thy felf heedfully against them all. Men will do this with respect unto their bodily infirmities and diftempers; The Seafons, the Dyct, the Ayre, that have proved offenfive shall be avoyded. Are the the things of the Soul of less importance? Know that he that dares to dally with Occafions of Sin, will dare to Sin. He that will venture upon Temptations unto Wickednefs, will venture upon Wickednefs. Hazael thought he should not be fo wicked as the Prophet told him he would be : To convince him, the Prophet tells him no more, but Thou shalt be King of Syria. If he will venture on Temptations unto Cruelty, he will be cruel. Tell a man he shall commit fuch and fuch Sins, he will startle at it: If you can convince him, that he will venture on fuch Occasions and Temptations of them, he will have little ground left for his Confidence. Particular Directions belonging to this Head are many, not now to be infifted on. But becaufe this Head is of no lefs importance than the whole Doctrine here handled, I have at large in another Treatife, about entering into Temntations, treated of it. Se-

Seventhly, Rife mightily against the first Act. ings of thy Diftemper, its first Conceptions; fuffer it not to get the least Ground. Do not fay, thus far it shall go, and no farther. If it have allowance for one step, it will take another. It is impoffible to fix Bounds to Sin. It is like water in a Channel; if it once break out, it will have its conrse. Its not acting, is cafier to be compassed than its Bounding. Therefore doth James give that Gradation and Process of Lust, Chap. 1. 14, 15. that we may stop at the Entrance. Dolt thou find thy corruption to begin to entangle thy Thoughts; rife up with all thy ftrength against it, with no lefs Indignation than if it had fully accomplished what it aims at. Confider what an unclean Thought would have; it would have thee roll thy felf in Folly and Filth. Ask Envy what it would have; Murder and Destruction is at the end of it. Set thy felf against it with no lefs vigour, than if it had utterly debased thee to wickednefs. Without this Courfe thou wilt not prevail. As Sin gets ground in the Affections to delight in it, it gets also upon the Understanding to flight it.

CHAP. XII.

The Eighth Direction. Thoughtfulnefs of the Excellency of the Majesty of God. Our Unacquaintedness with him, proposed and considered.

E Ighthly, Use and exercise thy felf to such as may serve to fill thee at all times with felf-abasement and Thoughts of thine own vilenes: As,

. r. Be much in Thoughtfulnels of the Excellency of the Majesty of God, and thine infinite inconceivable distance from him; many thoughts of it cannot but fill thee with a fenfe of thine own Vileness, which strikes deep at the root of any indwelling Sin. When Job comes to a clear difcovery of the Greatness and Excellency of God, he is filled with /elfabhorrency, and is prefied to Humiliation, Job 42.5,6. And in what state doth the Prophet Habakkuk affirm himfelf to be cast, upon the apprehension of the Majesty of God? Chap. 3. 16. With God (fayes Job) is terrible Majesty, Job 37.22. Hence were the thoughts of them of Old, that when they had feen God they should dye. The Scripture abounds in this felf-abaling Confideration, comparing the men of the Earth to Grashoppers, to Vanity, the dust of the ballance in respect of God, 1sa. 40. 13, 14, 15. Be much in thoughts of this nature, to abase the pride of thy Heart, and to keep thy Soul humble within thee. There is nothing will render thee in a greater indisposition to be imposed on by the deceits of fin, than such a frame of Heart. Think greatly of the Greatness of God.

2. Think much of thine unacquaintedness with him; Though thou knowelt enough to keep thee low and humble, yet how little a portion is it that thou knowelt of him ! The Contemplation hereof caft that wife man into that Apprehension of himself, which he expresses, Prov. 30. 2, 3, 4. Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding. of a man. I neither learned Wisdom, nor Bave the knowledge of the Holy. Who hath ascended up into Heaven, or descended ? Who hath gathered the Wind in his fifts ? Who hath bound the Waters in a Garment ? Who hath established the Ends of the Earth ? What is his Name, and what is his Sons Name if thou canst tell? Labour with this also to take down the pride of thy Heart. What doft thou know of God? How little a portion is it ? How immense is he in his Nature? Canst thou look without terrour into the Aby/s of Eternity? Thou canft not bear the rayes of his glorious Being.

Becaufe I look on this Confideration of great use in our walking with God, so far as it may have (as it may have) a Confistency with that filial Boldness which is given us in Jesus Christ to draw nigh to the Throne of Grace, I shall farther infist upon it, to give an abiding Impression of it to the Souls of them who desire to walk humbly with God.

Confider then I fay, to keep thy heart in continual awe of the Majesty of God, That Persons of the most high and eminent Attainments, of the nearest and most familiar Communion with God, do yet in this life know but a very little of bim, and his Glory. God reveals his Name to Moses, the most glorious Attributes that he hath manifested in the Covenant Of Grace, Exod. 34. 5,6. yet all are but the back-parts of God. All that he knowes by it, is but little, low, compared to the persection of his Glory.

Hence it is with peculiar reference to Mofes, that it is faid, No man bath feen God at any time, Joh. 1. 18. Of him in comparifon with Christ doth he speak, verf. 17. and of him it is here said, No man (no not Moses, the most eminent among them) bath seen God at any time. We speak much of God, can talk of Him, his Wayes, his Works, his Counsels all the day long; The truth is, we know yery little of him; our Thoughts, our Meditations, our Expressions of him are low, many of them unworthy of his Glory, none of them reaching his Perfections.

You will fay, that Mofes was under the Law, when God wrapped up himfelf in darknefs, and his Mind in Types and Clouds and dark Inftitutions. Under the glorious fhining of the Gofpel, which hath brought Life and Immortality to light, God being revealed from his own bofome, we now know him much more clearly, and as he is: We fee his face now, and not his back parts onely as Mofes did.

Anf. 1. I acknowledge a vast, and almost unconceivable difference between the Acquaintance we now have with Heb.I.I. God, after his speaking to us by his

We know what weak, seeble, uncertain Notions and Apprehensions Children have of things of any abstruse Consideration; how when they grow up with any Improvements of Parts and Abilities, those Conceptions va-. nish, and they are ashamed of them. It is the commendation of a Child, to love, honour, believe and obey his Father; but for his Science and Notions, his Father knowes their childishness and Folly. Notwithstanding all our Confidence of high Attainments, all our No-tions of God are but childish in respect of his infinite Perfections. We lisp and babble, and fay we know not what, for the most part, in our most accurate (as we think) Conceptions and Notions of God. We may love, honour, believe and obey our Father, and therewith he accepts our Childish thoughts, for they are but Childish. We see but his back parts, we know but little of him. Hence is that Promile, wherewith we are fo often fupported and comforted in our Distress; we shall fee bim as he is; we shall see him face to face; know as we are known; comprehend that for which K 3 which we are comprehended, I Cor. 15. 12. I Joh. 3. 2. and politively, Now we fee him not: All concluding that here we fee but his back-parts, not as he is, but in a dark obfcure reprefentation, not in the perfection of his Glory.

The Queen of Sheba, had heard much of Solomon, and framed many great thoughts of his Magnificence in her Mind thereupon; but when the came and faw his Glory, the was forced to confefs, that the one half of the truth had not been told her. We may suppose that we have here attained great knowledge, clear and high thoughts of God; but alas I when he shall bring us into his prefence, we shall cry out, we never knew him as he is: The thousandth part of his Glory and Perfection and Blesseness, never entred into our hearts.

The Apossile tells us; 1 fob. 3. 2. That we know not what we our felves shall be; what we shall find our selves in the Issue; much less will it enter into our Hearts to conceive, what God is, and what we shall find, him to be, Confider either him who is to be known, or the Way whereby we know him, and this will farther appear.

First, We know so little of God, because it is God who is thus to be known; that is, he who hat deferibed bimself to us very much

. 135 by this, That we cannot know him : What elfe doth he intend where he calls himself invisible, incomprehensible, and the like? That is, He whom we doe not, cannot know as he is ; and our farther progress confists more in knowing what he is not, than what he is. Thus is he described to be immortal, infinite ; that is, he is not as we are, mortal, finite, and limited, Hence is that glorious description of him, I Tim. 6. 16. Who only hash Immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach un. to, whom no man bath seen nor can see. His light is fuch as no Creature can approach unto: He is not seen, not because he cannot be feen, but because we cannot bear the fight of him. The Light of God (in whom is no Darknefs) forbids all access to him by any Creature whatever: We who cannot behold the Sun in its glory, are too too weak to bear the beams of Infinite Brightness.

On this Confideration (as was faid) the wife man professeth himself a very Beast, and not. to have the understanding of a Man, Prov. 30. 2. that is, he knew nothing in comparison of God, fo that he feemed to have loft all his Understanding, when once he came to the Confideration of him, his work and his wayes. In this Confideration let our Souls descend to some particulars.

J. For the Being of God; we are fo far from K D4zed by Google from a knowledge of it, fo as to be able to instruct one another therein, by words and expressions of it, as that to frame any conceptions in our Mind, with fuch species and impressions of things as we receive the knowledge of all other things by, is to make an Idol to our felves, and fo to worthip a God of our own making, and not the God that made us. We may as well and as lawfully hew him out of wood, or stone, as form him a being in our Minds suited to our Apprehenfions.

The utmost of the best of our thoughts of the being of God is, that we can have no thoughts of it. Our knowledge of a being is but low, when it mounts no higher but only to know that we know it not.

2. There be fome things of God, which he himself hath taught us to speak of, and to regulate our Expressions of them; but when we have to done, we fee not the things themfelves, we know them not: To believe and admire is all that we attain to. We profess (as we are taught,) that God is infinite, omnipotent, eternal; and we know what Disputes and Notions there are about Omni-Prefence, Immenfity, Infiniteness and Eternity. We have (I fay) words and notions about these things, but as to the things themfelves, what do we know? What do we comprehend of Digitized by Google

Is not our underftanding brutish in the Contemplation of fuch things? and is as if it were not; yea the perfection of our understanding, is, not to understand, and to rest there: They are but the back parts of Eternity and Insiniteness that we have a glimpse of. Who can declare the Generation of the Son, the proceffion of the Spirit, or the difference of the one from the other? but I shall not farther instance in particulars. That infinite and inconceivable diffance that is between Him and us, keeps us in the dark as to any fight of his face, or clear Apprehension of his Perfections.

We know him rather by what he does, than by what he is: by his doing us good, than by his effential Goodness; and how little a portion of him (as fob speaks) is hereby discovered?

Secondly, We know little of God, becaufe it is Faith alone whereby here we know him;

I shall not now difcourse about the remaining Impressions on the Hearts of all men by Nature that there is a God, nor what they may Rationally be taught concerning that God, from the works of his Creation and Providence, which they fee and behold; it is confeffedly (and that upon the wofull experience of all Ages) fo weak, low, dark, confuled, that none ever on that account glorified God as they ought, but notwithstanding all their know-ledge of God, were indeed without God in the world.

The chief and (upon the matter) anost only acquaintance we have with God, and his Dispensations of himself, is by Faith. He that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that be is a Rewarder of them that seek him, Heb. 11.6. Our Knowledge of him, and his Rewarding, (the bottom of our Obedience or comeing to him) is believing. We walk by Faith, and not by Sight, 2 Cor. 5.7. She misters ou d' Eldus; by Faith, and fo by Faith, as not to have any express Idea, Image, or species of that which we believe : Faith is all the Argument we have of things not feen, Heb. 11. 1. I might here infift upon the Nature of it, and from all its Concomitants and Concernments manifelt, that we know but the back-parts of what we know by Faith onely. As to its Rife, it is built urely upon the Teltimony of him whom we Digitized by Google have not feen; as the Apostle speaks, How can ye love him whom you have not seen? That is, whom you know not but by Faith that he is: Faith receives all upon his Testimony, whom it receives to be, onely upon his own Testimony. As to its Nature it is an Assert upon Testimony, not an Evidence upon Demonstration; and the Object of it is (as was said before) above us. Hence our Faith (as was formerly observed) is called a seeing darkly as in a Glass: All that we know this way (and all that we know of God we know this way) is but low, and dark, and obscure.

But you will fay, all this is true, but yet it is onely fo to them that know not God (perhaps) as he is revealed in Jefus Chrift; with them who do fo, 'tis otherwife. It is true; No man bath feen God at any time, but the onely begotten Son, be bath revealed bim, Joh. 1. 17, 18, and, the Son of God is new come, and bath given us an under standing that we may know bim that is true, 1 Joh. 5. 20.

The Illumination of the glorious Gospel of Christ who is the Image of God shines upon. Believers, 2 Cor. 4.4. yea and God who commanded light to shine out of darkness, shines into their hearts, to give them the knowledge of his Glory in the face of his Son, v.6. So that though we were darkness, yet we are now light in the Lord, Eph. 5.8. And the Apostle sayes, We

We all with open face behold the Glory of the Lord, 2 Cor. 3. 18. and we are now fo far from being in fuch darknefs, or at fuch a diflance from God, that our communion and fellowschip is with the Father and the Son, 1 Joh. 1.3. The Light of the Gospel whereby now God is revealed, is glorious; not a Star, but the Sum in his beauty is rifen upon us; and the will is taken from our faces; fo that though wibelievers, yea and perhaps fome weak Believers may be in fome darknefs, yet those of any. growth, or confiderable Attainments have a clear fight and view of the face of God in Jefus Chrift.

A. 1. The truth is, we all of us know enough of him to love him more than we doe, to delight in him, and ferve him, believe him, by him, put our trust in him above all that we have hitherto attained.

Our Darknels and Weaknels is no Plea for our Negligence and Difobedience. Who is it that hath walked up to the Knowledge that he hath had of the Perfections, Excellencies, and Will of God? Gods End in giving us any Knowledge of himfelf here, is that we may glorifie him as God; that is, love him, ferve him, believe and obey him, give him all the honour and Glory that is due from poor finfull Creatwree, to a fin-pardoning God, and Creator; we must all acknowledge, shat we were never throughly throughly transformed into the Image of that Knowledge which we have had. And had we used our Talents well, we might have been trusted with more.

2. Comparatively, that knowledge which we have of God by the Revelation of Jefus Chrift in the Gofpel, is exceeding eminent and glorious. It is fo in comparison of any knowledge of God that might otherwise be attained, or was delivered in the Law under the Old Testament, which had but the shadow of good things, not the express Image of them. This the Apostle pursaes at large, 2 Cor. 3. Christ hath now in these last dayes revealed the Pather from his own bosome, declared his Name, made known his Mind, Will and Councel in 2 far more clear, eminent, diffinct manner than he did formerly, whilest he kept his People under the pædagogy of the Law: And this is that which for the most part is intended in the places before mentioned ; the clear, per spicuous delivery and declaration of God, and his Will in the Gofpel is expresly exalted in comparison of any. other way of Revelation of himself.

3. The difference between Believers and Unbelievers as to Knowledge, is not fo much in the Matter of their Knowledge, as in the Manner of knowing. Unbelievers fome of them may know more, and be able to fay more of God, his Perfections and his will, than many Believer ers, but they know nothing as they ought: nothing in a right manner, nothing fpiritually and favingly; nothing with an boly, beavenly light. The excellency of a Believer is not, that he hath a large Apprebenfion of things, but that what he doth apprebend (which perhaps may be very little) He fees it in the light of the Spirit of God, in a faving foul-transforming light: And this is that which gives us communion with God, and not prying Thoughts, or curious raifed Notions.

4. Jefus Chrift by his Word and Spirit, reveals to the Hearts of all his, God as a Father, as a God in Covenant, as a Rewarder, every way fufficiently to teach us to obey him here, and to lead us to his Bosome, to lye down there in the Fruition of him to Eternity : But yet now,

5. Notwithstanding all this, it is but a little portion we know of him, we fee but his backparts. For,

(1) The intendment of all Gospel Revelation is not to unveil Gods Effential Glory, that we should see him as he is, but meerly to declare so much of him as he knowes sufficient to be a bottom of our Faith, Love, Obedience, and coming to him. That is, of the Faith which here he expects from us: Such services as beseen poor Creatures in the middest of Temptations; but when he calls us to eternal Admiration and Contemplation, without Interruption, he will make a new manner of Difcovery of himfelf, and the whole shape of things, as it now lies before us, will depart as a shadow.

(2) We are dull and flow of heart to receive the things that are in the Word revealed. God by our Infirmity and weaknefs, keeping us in continual dependance on him, for Teachings and Revelations of himfelf out of his Word, never in this world bringing any Soul to the utmost of what is from the Word to be made out and discovered; for that although the way of Revelation in the Gospel be clear and evident, yet we know little of the things themfelves that are revealed.

Let us then revive the use and intendment of this Confideration; will not a due Apprehension of this unconceivable Greatness of God, and that infinite distance wherein we stand from him, fill the Soul with an holy and awfull Fear of him; so as to keep it in a Frame unfuited to the thriving or flourishing of any Lust whatever? Let the Soul be continually wonted to Reverential thoughts of Gods greatness and omniprefence, and it will be much upon its watch, as to any undue deportments; confider him with whom you have to doe; even our God is a confuming fire; and in your greatest Abashments at his prefence and eye, know, know, that your very Nature is too narrow to bear apprehensions suitable to his essential Glory.

CHAP. XIII.

The Ninth Direction. When the heart is difquieted by Sin, speak no peace to it, untill God speak it. Pcace without detestation of Sin, unsound; So is Peace measured out unto our selves. How we may know when we measure our peace unto our selves. Directions as to that Enquiry. The vanity of speaking peace slightly. Also of doing it on one singular account, not universally.

IN case God disquiet the Heart about the Guilt of its Distempers either in respect of its Root and indwelling, or in respect of any Eruptions of it, take heed thou speakest not peace to thy self before God speaks it; but hearken what he sayes to thy Soul: This is our next Direction, without the Observation whereof, the Heart will be exceedingly exposed to the deceitfulness of Sin.

This is a bulinefs of great importance. It is a fad thing for a man to deceive his own Soul herein. All the warnings God gives us in tender-tendernefs to our Souls, to trye and examine our felves, do tend to the preventing of this great Evil of fpeaking peace groundlefly to our felves, which is upon the iffue to blefs our felves in an opposition to God. It is not my businefs to infit upon the danger of it, but to help Believers to prevent it, and to let them know when they do fo.

To mannage this Direction aright, observe,

(1) That as it is the great Prerogative and Sovereignty of God to give grace to whom he pleafes, (he bath mercy on whom he will, Rom. 9. 16. and among all the Sons of men, He calls whom he will, and fanctifies whom he will,) fo among those fo called and justified, and whom he will fave, He yet referves this Priviledge to himself, to speak Peace to whom he pleafeth, and in what Degree he pleaseth, even amongst them on whom he hath bestowed Grace. He is the God of all Confelation, in an efpecial manner in his dealing with Believers : That is, of the good things that he keeps locked up in his Fami-ly, and gives out of it to all his Children at his pleafure. This the Lord infilts on, 1/a. 57. 16, 17, 18. It is the cafe under Confideration that is there infilted on. When God fayes he will beal their Breaches and Difconfolations, he affumes this Priviledge to him-Luitized by Google .: :

himfelf in an especial manner. I create it, verf. 19. Even in respect of these poor wounded Creatures, I screate it, and according to my foveraignty make it out as I please.

Hence as it is with the collation of Grace in reference to them that are in the flate of Nature; God doth it in great Curiofity, and his proceedings therein, in taking and leaving, as to outward Appearances, quite befides, and contrary oft-times to all probable Expectations; fo is it in his Communication of Peace and Joy in reference unto them that are in the flate of Grace; he gives them out oft-times quite befides our expectation, as to any appearing Grounds of his Difpenfations.

(2) As God creates it for whom he pleafeth, fo it is the Prerogative of Chrift, to speak it home to the Conference: Speaking to the Church of Landicea, who had healed her wounds falfy, and spoke peace to her felf when the ought not, He takes to himself that Tisle, I am the Amen; the faithfull witnes, Revel. 3. 14. He bears testimony concerning our Condition as it is indeed; we may posfibly mistake, and trouble our felves in vain, or flatter our felves upon false Grounds, but he is the Amen, the faithfull witnes, and what he speaks of our State and Condition, that it is indeed, 16. 11. 3. to any outward appearance, or any thing that may be fubject to a miffake, as we are apt to do; but He shall judge and determine every canfe as it is indeed.

Take these two previous Observations, and I shall give some Rules whereby men may know whether God fpeaks peace to them, or whether they speak peace to themselves onely.

(1) Men certainly speak peace to themselves, when their so doing is not attended with the greatest detestation imaginable of that sin in reference whereunto they do fpeak Peace to themselves, and abhorrency of themselves for it. When men are wounded by fin, disquieted and perplexed, and knowing that there is no remedy for them, but onely in the mercyes of God through the blood of Christ, do there. fore look to him, and to the Promifes of the Covenant in him, and thereupon quiet their hearts that it shall be well with them, and that God will be exalted that he may be gracious to them, and yet their Souls are not wrought to the greateft deteftation of the fin or fins upon the Account whereof they are difquieted; this is to heal themfelves, and not to be healed of God. This is but a great and frong wind, that the Lord is nigh unto, but the Lord is not in the wind. When men do truely look upon Chrift whom they have L 2 pierced, L 2 pierced, (without which there is no Healing or Peace,) they will mourn, Zech. 12. 10. they will mourn for him even upon this account, and deteft the fin that pierced him. When we go to Chrift for bealing, Faith eyes him peculiarly as one pierced. Faith takes feveral views of Christ according to the Occasions of Address to him, and communion with him that it hath. Sometimes it views his Holinefs, sometimes his power, sometimes his love, his favour with his Father. And when it goes for bealing and peace, it looks especially on the blood of the Covenant, on his Sufferings; for by his stripes are we bealed, and the chastifement of our peace was upon bim, Ifa. 53. 5. when we look for Healing, his ftripes are to be eyed; not in the outward ftory of them, which is the course of Popish Devotionists, but in the Love. Kindnefs, Mystery and defign of the Cross. And when we look for peace, his Chastifements must be in our eye: Now this I fay, if it be done according to the mind of God, and in the strength of that Spirit which is poured out on Believers, it will beget a detestation of that fin or fins, for which healing and peace is fought. So Ezek, 16.60, 61. nevertheless I will remember my Covenant with thee in the dayes of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee an everlasting Covenant, and what then? then those shalt remember thy wayes and be ashamed. When God comes home to speak peace in a fure Covenant of it, it fills the Soul with shame for all the wayes whereby it hath been alienated from him. And one of the things that the Apoltle mentions as attending that godly forrow which is accompanyed with Repentance unto Salvation never to be repented of, is revenge, yea what re-venge, 2 Cor. 7. 11. They reflected on their miscarriages with Indignation and Revenge for their Folly in them. When Job comes up to a through healing, he cryes, Now I abhorre my felf, Job 42.6. and untill he did fo, he had no abiding peace. He might perhaps have made up himself with that Doctrine of free Grace which was fo excellently preached by Elibn; Chap. 33. from v. 14. unto the 29th, but he had then but skinned his wounds, he must come to felf abhorrency, if he come to healing. So was it with those in Pfal. 78. 33, 35. in their great trouble and perplexity for and upon the Account of Sin; I doubt not but upon the Address they made to God in Christ, (for that so they did, is evident from the titles they gave him, they call him their Rock and their Redeemer, two words every where pointing out the Lord Christ) they fpake peace to themselves; but was it found and abiding ? No, it paffed away as the early dew : God speaks not one word of peace to their Souls. Litized by

Souls. But why had they not peace? Why, because in their Address to God they flatter-ed him: But how doth that appear? vers. 37. Their heart was not right with him, neither were they stedfast. They had not a detestati-on nor relinquishment of that fin, in reference whereunto they spake peace to themselves: Let a man make what application he will for bealing and peace, let him do it to the true Phyfitian, let him do it the right way, let him quiet his Heart in the Promises of the Covenant; yet when Peace is spoken, if it be not attended with the detertation and Abhorrency of that Sin which was the wound, and caused the Disquietment, this is no Peace of Gods creating, but of our own purchasing. It is but a skinning over the wound, whilest the core lyes at the bottom, which will putrifie and corrupt, and corrode, untill it break out again with noyfomnefs, vexation and danger. Let not poor Souls that walk in fuch a path as this, (they are more fensible of the trouble of Sin, than of the pollution or uncleanness that attends it; they address themselves for mercy, yea to the Lord in Christ they address themselves for mercy, but yet will keep the fweet Morfel of their Sin under their Tongue,) let them (I fay) never think to have true and folid peace. For infrance, Thou findest thy Heart running out after the World, and it diffurbs thee in thy communion with God; the Spirit speaks expreficly to thee, He that loveth the World, the preffely to thee, He that loveth the World, the love of the Father is not in him, I Joh. 2. 13. This puts thee on dealing with God in Christ for the bealing of thy Soul, the quieting of thy Confcience; but yet withall a through de-testation of the evil it felf abides not upon thee; yea perhaps that is liked well enough, but onely in respect of the Consequences of it; perhaps thou mays be faved, yet as through fire; and God will have fome work with thee before he hath done, but thou wilt have little Peace in this Life; thou wilt be fick and fainting all thy days. If S7, 17. This is a little Peace in this Life; thou wilt be fick and fainting all thy dayes, 1/4. 57. 17. This is a Deceit that lyes at the root of the Peace of many Profeffors, and wafts it; they deal with all their firength about Mercy and Pardon; and feem to have great Communion with God in their fo doing: they lye before him, be-wail their Sins and Follies, that any one would think (yea they think themfelves) that furely they and their Sins are now parted, and fo re-ceive in Mercy that fasisfies their Hearts for a little feafon; but when a through fearch comes to be made; there hath been fome fe-eret referve for the Folly or Follows strear. cret referve for the Folly or Follyes treat-ed about; at least there hath not been that through Abhorrency of it which is necessary; and their whole peace is quickly difcovered to be weak and rotten; fcarce abiding any L 4 Google longer longer than the words of begging it are in their mouths.

(2) When men measure out peace to themfelves upon the conclusions that their convictions and Rational Principles will carry them out unto; This is a false peace, and will not abide. I shall a little explain what I mean hereby. A man hath got a wound by fin, he hath a Conviction of fome Sin upon his Confcience, he hath not walked uprightly as becometh the Gospel; all is not well and right between God and his Soul : He confiders now what is to be done; Light he hath, and knows what Path he must take, and how his Soul hath been formerly healed. Con-fidering that the Promifes of God are the outward Means of Application for the beating of his fores, and quieting of his Heart, he goes to them, fearches them out, finds out fome one or more of them, whole literal Expressions are directly suised to his condition: Sayes he to himfelf, God speaks in this Promise, here I will take my felf a plaister as long and broad as my wound, and fo brings the word of the pramise to his Condi-sion, and sets him down in peace. This is another a pearance upon the mount, the Lord Joh. 16:8. is neer, but the Lord is not in it. It hath not been the work of the Spirit, (who alone can convince us of Sin and Digitized by Google Righteon [- Righteonsness and Judgement,) but the mere Actings of the intelligent rational Soul, As there are three forts of Lives (we fay,) the vegetative, the fensitive and the rational or intelligent. Some things have onely the vegetative; fome the fensitive alfo, and that in-cludes the former; fome have the rational, which takes in and fuppoles both the other. Now he that hath the rational, he doth not onely act fuitably to that principle, but alfo to both the others, he growes and is fenfible. It is fo with men in the things of God; fome are meer natural and rational men; some have a superadded Conviction with Illumination; and fome are truely regenerate. Now he that hath the latter, hath vallo both the former; and therefore he acts fometimes upon the Principles of the rational fometimes upon the Principles of the enlightened man. His true spiritual life is not the principle of all his motions; He acts not alwayes in the strength thereofor peither are all his fruits from that Root. In this cafe that I ipeak of, he acts merely upon the Principle of Conviction and Illumination, whereby his first parmrafs are heightened; but the Spirit breaths not at all upon all these waters. Take an Instance; fuppole the wound and disquiet of the Soul to be upon the account of Relapies, which whatever the evil or Folly be, though for

for the matter of it, never fo fmall, yet there are no wounds deeper than those that are given the Soul on that account, nor difquietments greater. In the perturbation of his Mind, he finds out that Promise, 1/4. 55. 7. The Lord will have mercy, and our God will abundantly pardon; He will multiply or adde to pardon; He will do it again and again; or that in Hof. 14.4. I will heal their back fliding, I will love them freely; This the man confiders, and thereupon concludes Peace to himfelf; whether the Spirit of God make the Application or no, whether that gives life and power to the letter or no, that he regards not. He doth not hearken whether God the Lord speak. pence. He doth not wait upon God, who perhaps yet bides bis face, and fees the poor Creature sealing Peace and running away with it, knowing that the time will come when he will deal with him again, and call him to a new rockening; Hof. 11. 3. when he shall fee that it is in vain to goe one step where God doth not take him by the hand.

I fee here indeed fundry other questions upon this arising and interposing themselves : I cannot apply my felf to them all: one I shall a little speak to.

It may be faid then, feeing that this feems to be the path that the Holy Spirit leads us in, for the healing of our wounds, and quieting of our bearts, how thall we know when we go alone our felves, and when the Spirit alfo doth accompany us?

Anf. 1. If any of you are out of the way upon this account, God will speedily let you know it; for befides that you have his Promile, that the meek he will guide in judgement, and teach them his way, Pfal. 25. 9. he will not let you alwayes erre. He will (I fay) not fuffer your nakedness to be covered with Figleaves, but take them away, and all the peace you have in them, and will not fuffer you to fettle on fuch lees; you shall quickly know your wound is not healed. That is, you shall fpeedily know whether or no it be thus with you by the event; the peace you thus get and obtain, will not abide. Whileft the Mind is overpowered by its own Convictions, there is no hold for difquietments to fix upon. Stay a little and all these reasonings will grow cold, and vanish before the face of the first Temptation that arifes. But,

2. This course is commonly taken without waiting; which is the Grace, and that peculiar acting of Faith which God calls for to be exercised in fuch a Condition. I know God doth sometimes come in upon the Soul instantly, in a moment as it were, wounding and healing it; as I am perswaded it was in the Case of David when he cut off the tap of Sant's

Sanls Garment: But ordinarily in fuch a case God calls for waiting and la-Pfal 123.2. bouring, attending as the eye of a Pfal.130.6. Servant upon his Master: Sayes

the Prophet Isaiab, ch. 8. 17. I will wait upon the Lord, who hideth his face from Jacob. God will have his Children Iye a while at his door, when they have run from his Houfe, and not initantly rush in upon him ; unlefs he take them by the hand, and pluck them in, when they are so ashamed that they dare not come to him. Now felf-healers, or men that speak peace to themselves, do commonly make baste, they will not tarry; They do not bearken what God speaks, Isa. 28. 16. but on they will goe to be healed.

3. Such a Course, though it may quiet the Conficience and the Mind, the rational concluding part of the Soul, yet it doth not fweeten the Heart with Relt and gracious Contention. The Answer it receives is much like that Elisha gave Naaman, Go in peace; 2 King. 5. 19. it quieted his Mind, but I much question whether it [meetned his Heart, or gave him any'foy in Believing, other than the natural Joy that was then stirred in him upon his healing. Doe not my words doe good, faith the Lord, Mich. 2.7. When God speaks, there is not only truth in his words, that may answer the Conviction of our Understanding, but also

they doe good, they bring that which is frees and good and defireable to the Will and Affections: By them the Soul returns unto its Reft, $P \int al.$ 116.16,

4. Which is worft of all, it amends not the life, it heals not the evil, it cures not the distemper : When God speaks Peace, it guides and keeps the Soul that it turn not again to Folly, Pfa'. 85. 8. When we speak it our felves, the Heart is not taken off the Evil. Nay it is the readyest course in the world to bring a Soul into a trade of Backfliding. If upon thy plaistering thy felf, thou findeit thy self rather animated to the battel again, than utterly weaned from it, it is too palpable that thou hast been at work with thy own Soul. but Jefus Chrift and his Spirit were not there. Yea and often-times Nature having done its work, will ere a few dayes are over come for its Reward; and having been active in the work of Healing, will be ready to reason for a new wounding. In Gods fpeaking peace there comes along fo much fweet-nefs and fuch a Difcovery of his Luk;22:32. Love, as is a strong Obligation on the Soul no more to deal perverfly.

(3) We speak Peace to our selves, when we do it slightly. This the Prophet complains of in some Teachers, Jer. 6. 14. They have bealed the wound of the Daughter of my people lightly.

flightly. And it is fo with fome perfons, they make the healing of their wounds a flight work, a look, a glance of Faith to the Promifes does it, and fo the matter is ended. The Apostle tells us, that the Word did not profit fome, because it was not mixed with Faith, Heb. 4. 2. wi oryxurequires, it was not well tempered and mingled with Faith. It is not a mere look to the word of Mercy in the Promife, but it must be mingled with Faith untill it is incorporated into the very Nature of it; and then indeed it doth good unto the Souls If thou hast had a wound upon thy Confcience, which was attended with weaknefs and disquietness, which now thou art freed of, How cameft thou fo? I looked to the Promiles of pardon and bealing, and fo found Peace : Yea but perhaps thou hast made too much haste, thou hast done it overly, thou haft not fed upon the Promise, so as to mix it with Faith, to have got all the virtue of it diffufed into thy Soul; onely thou hast done it slightly; thou wilt find thy wound ere it be long breaking out again, and thou shalt know that thou art not cured.

(4) Whoever speaks peace to himself upon any one account, and at the same time hath another Evilos no less importance lying upon his Spirit, about which he bath had no dealng with God, that man cryes Peace when there

there is none. A little to explain my Meaning: A man hath neglected a Duty again and again, perhaps when in all Righteoufnefs it was due from him ; his Confcience is perplexed, his Soul wounded, he hath no quiet in his Bones by reafon of his Sin; he applyes himfelf for Healing, and finds Peace. Yet in the mean time perhaps worldlinefs, or Pride, or fome other folly wherewith the Spirit of God is exceedingly grieved, may lye in the bolom of that man, and they neither difturb him, nor he them. Let not that man think that any of his Peace is from God.

Then shall it be well with men when they have an equal respect to all Gods Commande-God will justifie us from our fins, ments. but he will not justifie the least fin in us; He is a God of purer eyes than to behold Iniquity.

(5) When men of themselves speak peace to their Consciences, it is seldom that God fpeaks bumiliation to their Souls : Gods Peace is humbling Peace, melting Peace, as it was in the cafe of David; Pfal. 51.1. Never fuch deep bumiliation as when Nathan brought him the tidings of his Pardon.

A. I. In general, when God fpeaks it, be it when it will, fooner or later. I told you before, He may doe it in the very inftant of the fin it felf, and that with fuch *irrefifable paw*er, that the Soul muft needs receive his mind in it. Sometimes he will make us wait longer; but when he fpeaks, be it fooner or later, be it when we are finning or tepenting, be the, Condition of our Souls what they pleafe, if God fpeak he muft be received. There is not any thing that in our Communion with him the Lord is more troubled with us for, (if I may fo fay) than our unbelieving Fears that keep us off from receiving that strong confolation which he is fo willing to give to us.

But you will fay, We are where we were; when God syeaks it, we must receive it; that is true, but how shall we know when he speaks?

1/a. 35 . So God stayed Paul under his Temptation, with the Confideration of the Sufficiency of his Grace : My Grace is Suffici-ent for thee, 2 Cor. 12. 9. Though he were not immediately fo farre made partaker of it astobe freed from his Temptation, yet the suf-ficiency of it in God, for that end and purpole, was enough to flay his Spirit. I fay then, by faith be much in the Confideration of that fupply and the fullness of it, that is in Jefus Christ; and how he can at any time give thee Brength and deliverance. Now if hereby thou doit not find success to a conquest, yet thou wilt be faid in the Charriot, that thou shalt not fly out of the field until the battel be ended; Thoy wilt be kept from an utter defpondency, and a lying down under thy unbelief; or a turning alide to falle means and remedies that in the iffue will not relieve thee. The efficacy of this Confideration will be found only in the practice.

2. Raile up thy heart by faith to an expettation of Relief from Chrilt; Relief in this cafe from Chrift is like the Prophers vilion, Hab, 2.3. It is for an appointed time; but at the end it thall speak, and not lye; though it tarry, yet wait for it, because it will furely come, it will not tarry; though it may seem somewhat long to thee, whiles thou art under thy trouble and perplexity, yet it shall furely

it. Now it hath pleased the Father that in Christ all fullnefs should dwell, Col. 1. 19. that of his fulnefs we might receive Grace for Grace, Joh. 1. 16. He is the head, from whence the new man mult have influences of life and firength, or it will decay every day. If we are firength-ned with might in the inner man, Col. 1. 71, it is by Chirifts dwelling in our hearts by faith, Eph. 3.16, 17. That this work is not to be done without the Spirie, I have also shewed before. Whence then do we expect the Spirit? from whom do we look for him? Who hath promiled him to us, having procured him for us? Ought not all our expectations to this parpofe" to be" on ' Chrift alone? Let this then be fixed upon thy heart, that if thou haft not relief from him, thou thalt never have any: All wayes, endeavours, contendings, that are not animated by this expectation of releif from Christ and him only, are to no purpole, will do thee no Good : yes if they are any thing but supportments of thy heart in this expectation, of means appointed by himfelf, for the receiving help from him, they are in vain.

Now farther to engage thee to this Expectation.

came boldly to the Throne of Grace, that we may obtain Mercy, and find Grace to help in time of need. The Exhortation of ver/. 16. is the lame that I am upon, namely, that we would entertain Expectations of Relief from Chrift, which the Apostle there calls seen ite Emarge Rousean, Grace for seasonable belp; if ever (fayes the Soul) belp were feafenable, it would be fo to me in my present Condition. This is that which I long for, Grace for feafonable help. who could raife his fout by Faith to an expettation of telief from Jefus Chrift.

z. Confider his Faithfulness who hath promifed, which may raife thee up, and con-firm thee in this waiting in an Expectation of Relief, He hath promifed to relieve in firch Cales; and he will fulfill his word to the utmost. God tells us that his Covenant with us is like the Ordinances of Heaven, the Sun, Moon and Stars, which have their certain Courses, Jerem. 31. 36. Thence David said, that he watched for Relief from God, as one watcheth for the Morning, a thing that will certainly come in its appointed feason; fo will be thy Relief from Christ. It will come in its featon, as the dew and rain upon the parched Ground; for Faithfull is he who hath promifed. Particular Promifes to this purpole are innumerable; with some of them (that seem peculiarly to fuit to his Condition) let the Soul be alwayes furnished.

Now there are two eminent Advantages which alwayes attend this Expectation of fuccour from Jelus Chrift.

I. It engages him to a full and fpeedy Affiftance; nothing doth more engage the Heart of a man to be usefull and helpfull to another, than his Expectation of help from him, if justly raised and coantenanced by him who is to give the Relief. Our Lord Jesue hath hath raised our Hearts by his kindness, Care and Promises, to this Expectation; Certainly our rifing up unto it, must needs be a great Engagement upon him to affilt us accordingly. This the Pfalmist gives us as an approved Maxim, Thou Lord never forfakest them that put their trust in thee. When the Heart is once won to reft in God, to repose himself on him, He will affuredly fatisfie it. He will never be as water that fails, nor hath he faid at any time to the feed of facob, Seek ye my face in vain. If Christ be chosen for . the Foundation of our Supply, he will not fail us.

2. It engages the Heart to attend diligent-ly to all wayes and Means whereby Chrift is wont to communicate himself to the Soul, and, fo takes in the real Affiltance of all Graces and Ordinances whatever. He that expects any thing from a man, applyes himfelf to the wayes and Means whereby it may be obtained. The Beggar that expects an Almes, lyes at his door or in his way, from whom he doth expect it. The way whereby, and the Means, wherein Chriff communicates him-felf is, and are, his Ordinances ordinarily. He that expects any thing from him, must attend upon him therein. It is the expectation of Faith that fets the Heart on work. Tis not an idle groundless Hope that I speak of. If

now thère be any Vigour, Efficacy and Power in Prayer or Sacraments to this End of mortifying Sin! a man will affuredly be interested in it all, by this Expectation of Relief from Christ. On this account I reduce all particular actings, by Präyer, Meditation and the like, to this Head; and so shall not farther insist on them. When they are grounded on this bottom, and spring from this Root, they are of singular use to this purpose; and not elfe.

Now on this Direction for the Mortification of a prevailing Diftemper you may have a thousand probatum eft's; Who hath walked with God under this Temptation, and hath not found the use and success of it? I dare leave the Soul under it, without adding any more. Only fome particulars relating thereunto may be mentioned.

(1) Act Faith peculiarly upon the Death, Blood and Großs of Chrift; that is, on Chrift as crucified and flain. Mortification of Sin is peculiarly from the Death of Chrift. It is one peculiar, yea eminent End of the Death of Chrift; which shall affuredly be accomplished by it. He died to destroy the works of the Devil; whatever came upon our Natures by his first Temptation, whatever receives strength in our Perfons by his daily suggestions; Chrift died to destroy it all. He gave bimfelf for us, that be might redeem us from all iniquity, and purifie unto bimfelf a peculiar people, znalous of good works, Tit. 2. 14. This was his Aym and Intendment (wherein he will not fail) in his giving bim-felf for us. That we might be freed from the Power of our Sins, and purified from all our defiling Lusts, was his Design. He gave himself for the Church, that he might fanctifie and cleanse it, that he might present it to himfelf a glorious Church, not having Spot or wrinkle, or any fuch thing, but that it should be holy and without blemish, Eph. 5. 25, 26, 27. And this by virtue of his death, in various and several degrees thall be accomplished. Hence our washing, purging and cleanfing is every where afcribed to his Blood, 1 Job. 1.7. Heb. 1.3. Revelat. 1.5. That being fprinkled on us, Purges our Consciences from dead works to ferve the living God, Heb. 9. 14. This is that we aim at, this we are in pursuit of; that our Consciences may be purged from dead works; that they may be rooted out, destroyed, and have place in us no more. This shall certainly be brought about by the Death of Christ : There will virtue go out from thence to this purpose. Indeed, all Supplies of communications the Spirit, all Communications with chrift, of Grace and Power, are from hence, as I have elfewhere fhewed.

chap.7,8.

Thus

Thus the Apostle states it; Rom. 6, verfrin is the Cafe proposed that we have in hand; How shall we that are dead unto fin live any longer therein? Dead to Sin by Prefession; dead to Sin by Obligation to be fo; dead to Sin by a Participation of Virtue and Power for the Killing of it; dead to Sin by Union and Interest in Christ, in and by whom it is killed : How thall we live therein? This he presses by fundry Considerations, all taken from the Death of Christ, in the ensuing Verfes. This must not be, verf. 3. Know you not that so many of us as were baptized, into Jesus Christ were baptized into his Death? We have in Baptifme an Evidence of our Implantation into Christ; we are baptized into him; But what of him are we baptized into an Interest in? His Death, faith be : If indeed we are baprized into Christ, and beyond Outward Profession, we are baptized into his Death. The Explication of this, of our being baprized into the Death of Christ, the Apolitic gives us, vers. 4, 5. Therefore we are buried with him by Baptisme into Death, ebat like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the Glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in Newness of life; Knowing this, that our Old man is crucified with him, that the body of fin might be destroyed, that hencefortb we should not serve fin. This is (faish he) our our being baptized into the Death of Chrift, namely, our Conformity thereunto. To be dead unto Sin, to have our corruptions mortified, as he was put to death for Sin; fo that ashe was raifed up to Glory, we may be raifed up to Grace and Newnels of Life.

He tells us whence it is that we have this Baptisme into the Death of Christ, verf. 6. and this is from the Death of Christ it felf : Our old Man is crucified with him, that the Body of Sin might be destroyed : ouresaugedin, is crucified with him; not in respect of Time, but of Caufality; we are crucified with him, meritorioufly in that he procured the Spirit for us, to mortifie Sin; efficiently, in that from his Death virtue comes forth for our erucifying; in the way of a Representation and Exemplar, we shall assuredly be crucified unto Sin, as he was for our Sin. This is that the Apostle intends. Christ by bis Death destroy. ing the works of the Devil, procuring the Spirit for us, hath fo killed Sin as to its Reign in Believers, that it shall not obtain its End and Dominion.

(2) Then act Faith on the Death of Chrift, and that under thefe two Notions : Phil. 2.10. 1. In expectation of Power. Col. 3. 3. r Pet. 1.18. 2. In endeavours for Conformity. For the First, the Direction given in general may fuffice.

of (in in believers.

As to the latter, that of the Apostle may give us fome Light into our Direction, Gal. 3.1. Let Faith look on Christ in the Gospel as he is fet forth dying and crucified for us: Look on him under 1 Cor. 15,31. I Pet. 1. 16. the weight of our Sins, praying, 1 Pet. 5. 1,2. bleeding, dying: bring him in that Col. 1.3. Condition into thy heart by Faith: apply his blood fo shed to thy Corruptions: do this daily. I might draw out this Confideration to a great length, in fundry particulars, but I must come to a close.

I have onely then to adde, the Heads of the work of the Spirit in this bulinels of. Mortification, which is fo peculiarly a fcribed to him.

In one word: This whole work which I have definited as our Duty, is effected, carried 'on, and accomplifhed by the Power of the Spirit, in all the parts, and degrees of it: As,

1. He alone clearly and fully convinces the Heart of the evil and guilt and danger of the Corruption, Luft, or Sin to be Mortified. Without this Conviction (or whileft it is faint, that the Heart can wreftle with it, or digeft it, there will be no through-work made. An unbelieving Heart (as in part we have all fuch) will fhift with any Confideration, untill it be over-powred by thear and evident News Google Con-Convictions: Now this is the proper work of the Spirit: He convinces of Sin, Joh. 16. 8. He alone can do it; If mens rational Confiderations, with the preaching of the letter, were able to convince them of Sin, we should (it. may be) see more Convictions than we doe. There comes by the preaching of the Word an Apprehension upon the understandings of meng that they are Sinvers, that fuch and (net things are Sins; that themselves are guilty of them; But this light is not powerfull, nor doth it lay hold on the practical Principles of the Soul, fo as to conform the Mind, and Will unto them, to produce Effects fuitable to fuch an Apprehension. And therefore it is, that wife and knowing men, desitute: of the Spirit, do not think those things to be Sins at all wherein the chief Movings and Actings of Luft do confult. It is the Spirit alone that can do, that doth this work to the : purpole. And this is the first thing that the Split doth in order to the Mortification of any Luft whatever; It convinces the Soul of all the evil of it, cuts off all its plens, discovers all its deceits, stops all its Evasions, anfwers its Pretences, makes the Soul own its Abomination, and lye down under the fenfe of it. Unless this be done, all that followes is in vain. 🖉

72. The Spirit alone' reveals untocus the Google Fulnes

Fulness of Christ for our Relief, which is the Confideration that stayes the Heart from false Wayes, and from despairing Despondency, 1 Cor. 2. 8.

·- 179

3. The Spirit alone establishes the Heart in expectation of Relief from Christ; which is the great sourceign Means of Mortification, as hath been discovered, 2 Cor. 1.21.

4. The Spirit alone brings the Crofs of Christ into our Hearts, with its Sin-killing Power; for by the Spirit are we baptized into the Death of Christ.

5. The Spirit is the Author and Finisher of our Santlification; gives new Supplies and Influences of Grace for Holiness and Sanctification, when the contrary Principle is weakened and abated, Ephes. 3. 16, 17, 18.

6. In all the Souls Addreffes to God in this Condition, it hath Supportment from the Spirit. Whence is the power, life and vigour of Prayer? Whence its Efficacy to prevail with God? Is it not from the Spirit? He is the Spirit of fupplication promifed to them who look on him whom they have pierced; Zech. 12. 10. enabling them to pray with fighs and groans that cannot be uttered, Rom. 8. 16. This is confeffed to be the great Medium or way of Faiths prevailing with God. Thus Paul dealt with his Temptation, N°2 Google what-whatever it were; I befought God that it might depart from me, 2 Cor. 12. 8. What is the work of the Spirit in Prayer, whence, and how it gives us in affiftance, and makes us to prevail, what we are to doe that we may enjoy his Help for that purpole, is not my prefent Intendment to demonstrate.
