Ex Ædibus Lambeth, Junii 13. 1677.

To her Highness the

LADY MART,

Eldest Daughter of
His ROYAL HIGHNESS
The Duke of YORK.

MADAM,

Hen I first resolved a third Review of these rude Collections, I was eafily persuaded by my Friends to Address them to your HIGHNESS, not out of a design to beg your shelter and protedion of them from the ill usages of a censorious and inhospitable World, nor out of an overweening desire of raising an Obelisque to my otherwise perishing and private memory, though I know that your Anthority will keep them in breath long after the Author shall have expired his; nor out of an innocent ambition to proclaim my Obligations to your HIGHNESS, which are more and greater than can be crouded crouded into an Epistle. These indeed are the usual pretences of Dedications, but my aim is higher, and directed to a more important end, by telling the World how Good, how Religious You are, to encourage You to be more so. And yet in attempting this I may seem impertinent, because You are become your own Theatre; every Scene of jour Life is so generally known (whilest the World is a Spectator to appland and admire you) that it were an impardonable arrogance in a man of my mediocrity either to think of adding any thing to your HIGHNESSES Lustre, or to believe I need open my Readers eyes. The gravity and sweetness of your meine, the affability of all your Comportments, the vertue, innocence, and goodness of your Life, your resolved conflancy in adhering to the Religion of our Church, your frequent and devout retirements into your Closet, your unwearied attendance at your Chappel and Altar, are sufficiently obvious, that the bare knowledge of your HIGHNESS hath been enough to render you beloved, which yet one cannot but do with a most profound respect. And, Madam, you have often encouraged me to tell you, that these Endowments will ever more import and stead you than any external or worldly ones, wherewith too you are abundantly provided. The cellitude of your Descent onely enrols your Name in the Catalogue of the Great, is secular and transitory, calculated for this World: but it is your Grace and Vertue that writes it in the Book of Life. Beauty is fading, Grandeur is fugi-tive, the wreaths of civil Honour are withering; but your Godliness is a Crown that shall not fade away, gloriously set off with a diffusive Charity, a great Humility, and an exemplary Devotion; to the improvement of which your HIGHNESS hath made me proud to say, that these Devotionals have not a little contributed. As to the Meditations subsequent to them, they were written by a Reverend Person of this Church, a true lover of Souls, (as some eminent Persons about this Court have abundantly experienced) and you have professed your self delighted with them, and and benefited by them. God Almighty make them all effectual to the furtherance of your spiritual good, and eternal blessedness. And may that good God still multiply upon you his Blessings, may your Soul bestill precious in his sight, as the apple of his eye, as the signet upon his right band! May he preserve you stedfast and unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, in the constant Exercises of your Holy Religion (wherein you have been happily Educated) amidst all the gaudy divertisements of this vain and transitory World, which is the no less hearty than dutiful Prayer of,

READER

Good Reader,

His little Manual of Directions and Prayers for the Holy Communion first designed for a Private use, now shews it self in Publick, on presumption it may help thee in thy Closet-retirements towards a pious preparation thereto, and a worthy reception thereof.

I will not be tedious in Prefacing it; only I cannot say it is mine, but a Collection; and recommends it self unto thee cloathed in the Language, not of any Private conception, (of such the World is already full enough) but of Primitive Liturgies; of that of our Holy Church, and some of the most Devout Fathers of it, Bistop Andrews, Bishop Cosins, and that Great and Good Man Archbishop LAUD, who lived a Patron of it, and died a Martyr for it.

To the Reader.

The Collector is not curious, or solicitous to think, how it may go down with a sort of People, whose unwieldy Zeal hath transported them under a pretence of spuing out Popery, to disrelish and traduce anything that is Primitive; But, the Sober and Devout Christian, who lives in the Communion of this Church, He is secure of. And that it may further thee in the Attainment of our Common Salvation, is his sincere and hearty desire; in return to which, he begs thee nothing, but to recommend him now and then in these thy Private Addresses to the Throne of Grace.

Preparatory Office FOR THE HOLY COMMUNION.

He nearest and most solemn Imimacy and Communion we have with God in this World. is exhibited to us in the Blessed Eucharist i that is to fay, the Sacrament of the Lords Supper, wherein (according to our Church Catechism) the Body and Bloud of Christ are verily and indeed? taken and received by the Faithful; and hence it is called by St. Paul, I Cor. x. 16. the Communion of his Body, and the Communion of his Bloud; so that by a due and worthy participation hereof, we are really Incorporated into Christ, we dwell in Christ, and Christ in us; we are made one with Christ, and Christ with us: In regard of which invaluable priviledge, as well as the great dangers which threaten unworthy Addresses here-unto, now especially we should enter into, and heed our selves, being careful to perform all Devotional ceive: I shall not insist upon those Graces of Faith, Repentance, and Charity, about which it should be chiefly conversant; but do immediately proceed to those Preparatory Asts of Devotion, which should be exercised in order to a due Reception of this blessed Sacrament.

Begin then, as you should in this, and in all other Duties of Religion, IN THE NAME OF GOD, and Exhort, that having received Notice from Gods Priess, of a Communion to be celebrated the next Sunday, you forthwith set your self to this great Work, of sitting your self for a right Participation thereof. Whatever you do, let thus be ever and anon uppermost in your Thoughts that whole week, reslecting on your spiritual Estate, and especially on that sime, which God hath lent you from your last Reception; what Graces you have improved, what Duties omitted, what sins committed, out of a hearty Resentment of which, breath forth sometimes these, or the like pious Ejaculations.

Have finned; what shall I do unto thee, O thou Preserver of Man! Lord, I am not worthy to come under thy Roof; but speak the word onely, and thy Servant shall be healed.

Adding these two Collects to your private Devotions, both at Mottning and Evening that whole Week.

A Lmighty God, who of thy tender mercy didit give thine onely Son Jesus Christ, to suffer Death upon the Cross for our Redemption, and didst institute, and in thy Holy Gospel command us to continue a perpetual Memory of that his precious Death, until his coming again: Hear me most merciful Saviour, I most humbly befeech thee, and make my Groanings, my Desires after this Holy Sacrament, answerable to my needs of it. But, O Lord, How shall such a Wretch as I dare to approach thy Holy Table? How shall I presume to take the Childrens Bread who am as a vile Dog in thy fight? I have often trampled those precious things under foot, either carelesty neglecting, or unworthily receiving those Holy Mysteries: O Lord, my horrible Guiltiness makes me tremble to come, and yet makes me not dare to stay away; for, where shall this polluted Soul be washed, but in this Fountain opened for fin, and for uncleannes? Hither then I come; and thou hast promised, that him that cometh to thee, Thou wilt in no wife cast out. Grant me therefore, Gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy Dear. Son fesus Christ, and to drink his Bloud, that my finful Rody may be made clean by his Body, and my Soul washed through his most precious Bloud. Amen.

I Will not presume to come to thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in since own righte-onsness, but in thy manifold and great Mercies declared unto Mankind in our Lord Jesus Christ; for whose sake, give me, I pray thee, such a Preparation of Soul, as may qualifie me for a worn a worthy Approach thereunto: To this end. make me heartily sensible of my Sins and Unworthiness; raise up my dull and earthy mind from groveling here below, and inspire it with a holy zeal to feek those things that are above: Let that infinite Love of Christ in dying for so wretched a Sinner, inflame my Soul, and kindle in me that sacred fire of Love to him again, and to all those whom he hath given me Command and Example to Love, Enemies as well as Friends, and that for his sake: Cloath me, O Lord, in the Wedding Garment; and make me, though of my felf, a most unworthy, yet by thy mercy, an acceptable Guest, at thy Table, that I may not eat on drink my own Damnation, but Salvation through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Having recommended your felf unto God, with these or the like Collects, in your private Retirements: I do earnestly exhort you to frequent the Publick Prayers of the Church: (nothing but a charitable, or some very urgent occasion can this Week, or indeed should at any time excuse you;) and to attend them with all possible Devotion: Watch your self now especially, your thoughts, words, and actions, that they be not wicked nor vain; or if at any time they should; that you forthwith recal and check your self, saying or thinking thus,

Lord have mercy upon me! Christ have mercy upon me! Lord have mercy upon me!

I Said, I will take heed to my ways, that I offend not with my tongue. O God, who knowest us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our Nature, we cannot always stand upright; grant to me such strength and protection, as may support me in all dangers, and carry me through all temptations; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Set apart the Friday of every such week as a Day of Holy Fasting and Abstinence, rising earlier than nsually, if your Health will permit you, as Five of the Clock; and being apparelled and ready, you may retire to your ordinary Morning Prayers.

I will not presume to confine you to those at the end of this Book, but do suppose you already fixed; however peruse them, and possibly they may suit your Condition, they will undoubtedly your Devotion. Subjoint to them on every such Fasting-day the two Collects for Preparation to the Communion above written, as also the 130 Psalm.

1. Out of the Deep have I called unto thee O Lord, Lord, bear my voice.

2. O let thine Ears consider well the voice of my complaint.

3. If thou, Lord, wilt be extream to mark what is done amis, O Lord, who may abide it?

4. For there is mercy with thee, therefore Thalt thou be feared.

5. I look for the Lord, my Soul doth wait for him; in his Word is my trust.

6. My

7. O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous Redemption.

8. And he shall redeem Israel from all his fins.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Huly Ghaft,

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever finall be, World without end. Amen.

Arising from Prayer, you must presently set your self so recollest your life past, especially since you last received, by that Catalogue of Sins, set down at the end of this Book, reading it consideringly over, and at every particular ask your Soul, ubether you are guilty of that sin? And commit to writing, those sins you discover your self of, with their respective aggravations, viz. If they were committed against knowledge, or on mature de theration, or against the resistance of Conscience, &c.

I suppose this duty of Self examination most necessary to this great work, dispatched by Nine of the Close, when taking the Paper in your hand, humbly profirating your.

how long wilt thou punish me?

Holy Ghoft,

Q God.

God to whom Vengeance belongeth, shew thy self, but let it be in pity and compassion to thy wretched and unworthy Servant, who in all humility confess my self a wicked and sinful creature. I acknowledge those sins, which if I would, I cannot hide from thee, my sins of Pride and Vain-glory, of Hatred and Envy, of Gluttony and Wantonness; I accuse my self of my wicked desires and thoughts which I have recourse to those sins noted in your Paper.

* At thise marks which I have conceived, of my wanton and evil words which I have spoken, of my naughty and ungodly deeds which I have committed. I acknowledge and bewait these committed. I acknowledge and bewail these my manifold sins and wickednesses, which I from time to time most grievously have committed by thought, word, and deed, against thy Divine Majesty, provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against me. I do earnestly repent, and am heartly forry for these my misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous unto me; the burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon me, have mercy upon me, most merciful Father, for thy Son Jesus Christ's sake, forgive me all that is past; and grant that I may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of life, to the honour and glory of thy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

For-

Corgive me my fins, O Lord; forgive me the fins of my Age, and the fins of my Youth; the fins of my Soul, and the fins of my Body; my Secret, and my Whispering fins; my Presumptuous, and my Crying sins; the fins that I have done to please my self, and the fins that I have done to please others.

Forgive me my wanton and idle sins; forgive me my serious and deliberate sins; forgive me these sins which I know, and those sins which I know not; the sins which I have laboured so long to bide from others, that now I have even hid them from my own memory: Forgive me them, O Lord, forgive them all; of thy great mercy let me be Absolved from all my offences, and of thy bountiful goodness, let me be delivered from the bands of those sins, which by my frailty I have committed. Grant this, O Heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ his sake, our Blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Adding this short Litany, and the following Prayers, which on any other Friday or Fasting-day, may be of use to you, omitting onely the Prayer for Preparation to the Sacrament.

In the mean time, let no sinfal thoughts possess your Soul, no vain or idle Communication proceed out of your mouth, but such as may tend to edifying. Examine, exhort, encurage your Servants, or those about you, whom you have commanded, or who purpose to receive this blessed Sacrament with you; and be careful to avoid the Conversation versation of those who may probably tempt you to fin and vanity.

Returning from Church or Chappel, about Twelve of the clock, humble your felf again before God, and pray,

Ur Father which art in Heaven, hallowed be thy Name: Thy Kingdom come: Thy will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven: Give us this day our daily Bread: and forgive us our Trespasses, as we forgive them that Trespass against us: And lead us not into Temptation, but deliver us from Evil: Amen.

5. I will acknowledge my fin unto thee, and mine unrighteousness have I not hid.

6. I faid, I will confess my sins unto the Lord, and so thou forgavest the wickedness of my lin.

7. For this shall every one that is Godly make his Prayer unto thee, in a time when thou mayest be found; but in the great water-stoods they shall not come nigh him.

A Lmighty and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made; and dost forgive the fins of all them that are penitent; Create, and make in me a new and contrite heart, that I worthily lamenting my sins, and acknowledging my wretchedness, may obtain of thee the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. A Lmighty and most merciful Father, who for my many and grievous fins committed against thee, and especially since the last solemn time of my Humiliation and Repentance, mightest most justly have cut me offin the missit of my days; but in the multitude of thy mercies hast hitherto spared me: Accept, I most heartily beseach thee, my unseigned sorrow for all my former transgressions; and grant that I may never so presume of thy mercy, as to despise the riches of thy goodness, but that thy sorbearance and long-suffering may lead me to repentance and amendment of my sinful life to thy Honour and Glory, and my final Acquitance and Absolution at the last day, through Jesus Christ our Lord. O Lord, make clean my heart within me: And take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

O Saviour of the World, save me! who by thy Cross and Passion hast redeemed me: help me, and save me, I beseech thee, O God.

To the King eternal, immortal, invisible and onely wise God, who is the ever blessed and adorable Trinity, be all Honour and Glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Having thus ended your Mid-Day Devotions, review your Catalogue of fins: Fix on that fin you find your self chiefly additied to, labour for a Godly forrow, and relentings of heart on the fight of it; resolve against all suture perpetrations of it, carefully using all Remedies which may tend to suppress it: To which purpose Examine your self concerning those occasions and inducements which did lead you to it, and provide as well as you can against them, noting in your Book those Occasions and Remedies which Scripture, Reason, or Experience may prompt you to. As for example.

Suppose your self guilty of Irreverence, or want of Divotion in the Service of God, write down what doth commonly induce you to it, what Remedies are most proper to the cure of it. Thus,

In the year 1683. April 6. being Good Friday (or be it any other day) I fasted, being to Receive the Communion the following Sunday; and in the exercise of this holy Duty; on Examination, I found my self much guilty of Irreverence in the Worship of God, and discovered these temptations to it.

1. Too much additting my felf to childish and light Department at all times; and therefore can hardly remit of them, when I come into Gods presence.

2 Liffning too much to the vain Discourses, and observing the imperiment actions of others.

2. Want of Consideration in whose Presence I am; to wit, of the great Maje, ly of Heaven; of that God, who, if I do not repent, will strictly call me to an accompt for these, and all other my sins, &c.

From which Occasions you may perceive what remedies to use against it; as,

- 1. To labour for a grave and modest Carriage of my self at all times, considering my Age, Quality, Degree, &c.
- 2. To avoid vain and light Persons, or if that may not be done, not to heed them, or seriously to rebuke them.
- 3. To entertain all awful and dreadful Apprehensions of the Great God, who seeth what I do, and how I comport my self: As also of the Holy Angels, who may truly enough be believed, from the intimations of the Apostles St. John, Rev. viii. and St. Paul, I Cor.xi. 10. to be present at Holy Mysteries.
- 4. To these may be added Listing up my eyes to Heaven; or, fixing them on the Priest; and not letting them loose on whatever objects may present themselves—These I then Resolved to consider, and practise; and will therefore frequently read them over:

Ven so Amen: Lord, let thy Grace be sufficient for me! Lead me not into Temptation; but Deliver us from Evil. Amen.

Then

Then kneeling down, pray for Devotion, or for any other Grace, the contrary fin whereof you have now found your felf guilty of, and resolved against. You will find Prayers to this purpose at the latter end of this Book: As for Devotion, thus,

Oft great God, who hast not onely permitted, but invited us needy and miserable Creatures to present our Petitions to Thee: Oh! let me set a true value on this most inestimable priviledge. I come unto Thee, O Lord, as a Worm to my sovereign Maker. I come as an beinous Offender to a just and severe Judge: Let, I pray thee, my Addrefses in thine House he with a Reverence some way answerable to thy awful Mujesty; Give me an hearty desire to pray, and such a pure intention and fixedness of mind upon Thee, that I may no more incur the guilt of drawing nigh unto Thee with my lips, when my heart is far from Thee; But may so ask, that I may receive; seek that I may find; knock that it may be opened unto me; that so from praying to Thee here, I may be translated to the praising Thee eternally in Thy Glory bereafter, through Felus Christ our Lord. Amen.

This Exercise being sinished about Three of the Clock, the time appointed for the Evening Service; at your return from the Charch or Chappel, if you have not sully fatisfied your own Conscience, but require far her Comfort or Counsel, you are to go to some Discrete and Learned Minister of Gods word (especially to him under whose Ministry God hath placed you, not being curious or censorious in your choice as to this particular?

lar) and open your Grief by Confession, that so you may receive the benefit of Alfolution, together with Ghostly Counfel and advice to the quieting of your Conscience, and the avoiding of all Scruple and Doubtsulness.

This being done (as it ought to be) with submission and sobriety, you may with Comfort retire into your

Cloict, and upon your Knees, fay,

Our Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name: Thy Kingdom come: Thy will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven: Give us this day our dayly Bread: And forgive us our Trespasses, as we forgive them that Trespass against us: And lead us not into Temptation, but deliver us from Evil. Amen.

A Lmighty God, unto whom all hearts be open, all defires known, and from whom no fecrets are hid; cleanse the thoughts of my heart by the Inspiration of thy holy Spirit; that I may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnific thy holy Name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then read upon your Knees, the Ten Commandments, as they are fet down in our Communion Service.

Od spake these words and said, I am the Lord thy God, Thou shalt have none other gods but me.

Lord have mercy upon me, and incline my heart to keep this Law.

Thou

Thou shalt not make to thy self any graven Images nor the likeness of any thing that is in Heaven above or in the Earth beneath, or in the Water under the Earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them, for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the Fathers upon the Children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, and shew mercy unto thousands, in them that love me and keep my Commandments.

Lord have mercy upon me, and incline my heart to keep this Law.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain, For the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.

Lord have mercy upon me, and incline my heart to keep this Law.

Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work, thou, and thy Son, and thy Daughter, thy Man-servant, and thy Maid-servant, thy Cattel, and the Stranger that is within thy Gates. For insix days the Lord made Heaven and Earth, the Sea and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day; wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day and hallowed it.

Lord have mercy upon me, and incline my heart to keep this Law.

Honour thy Father and thy Mother, that thy days days may be long in the Land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Lord have mercy upon me, and incline my heart to keep this Law.

Thou halt do no Murther.

 Lord have mercy upon me, and incline my heart to keep this Law.

Thou shalt not commit Adultery.

Lord have mercy upon me, and incline my heart to keep this Law.

Thou shalt not Steal.

Lord have mercy upon me, and incline my heart to keep this Law.

Thou shalt not bear false Witness against thy Neighbeur.

Lord have mercy upon me, and incline my heart to keep this Law.

Thou shalt not covet thy Neighbours House, thou shalt not covet thy Neighbours Wife, nor his Servant, nor his Maid, nor his Ox, nor his Ass, nor any thing that is his.

Lord have mercy upon me, and write all these thy Laws in my heart, I beseech thee.

Almighty Lord, and everlasting God, vouchsafe, I beseech thee, to direct, sanctifie, and govern both my Soul and Body in the ways of thy Laws, and in the works of thy Commandments, that through thy most mighty protection, both here and ever, I may be preferved both in body and foul, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Then stand up and heartily repeat your Creed.

Relieve in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate; was Crucified, Dead, and Buried, he Descended into Hell, the third day he rose again from the Dead, he ascended into Heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Holy Catholick Church, the Communican of Saints, the forgiveness of Sins, the Resurrection of the Body, and the Life everlasting. Amen.

After which kneel again, and pray.

A Lmighty, everlasting God, heavenly Father, I give thee humble thanks, that thou hast vouchsifed to bring me to the knowledge of this Faith in thee, and do beseech thee, that thou wouldst keep me stedfast in the Faith, and evermore desend me from all adversities, who livest and reignest one God, World without end. Amen.

Lord

Lord have mercy upon me! Christ have mercy upon me! Lord have mercy upon me!

Psalm 28.

1. DUt me not to rebuke, O Lord, in thine anger, neither chaften me in thy heavy displeasure.

2. For thine arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore.

3. There is no health in my flesh, because of thy displeasure, neither is there any rest in my bones by reason of my sin.

4. For my wickednesses are gone over my head, and are like a fore burthen, too heavy for me to bear.

4. My wounds stink and are corrupt through my foolishness.

6. I am brought into so great trouble and misery, that I go mourning all the day long.

7. For my loins are filled with a fore disease, and there is no whole part in my body.

8. I am feeble and fore smitten; I have roared for the very disquietness of my heart.

9. Lord, thou knowest all my desire, and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10. My heart panteth, my strength hath failed me, and the fight of mine eyes is gone from me.

11.My

11. My Lovers and my Neighbours did stand looking upon my trouble, and my Kinsmen stood afar off.

12. They also that sought after my life, laid snares for me; and they that went about to do me evil, talked of wickedness, and imagined deceit all the day long.

13. As for me, I am like a deaf man, and heard not; and as one that is dumb, who doth not open his mouth.

14. I became even as a man that heareth not,

and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15. For in thee, O Lord, have I put my trust; thou shalt answer for me, O Lord, my God.

16. I required that they, even mine enemies should not triumph over me; for when my foot slipt, they rejoiced greatly against me.

17. And I truly am set in the Plague, and my heaviness is ever in my sight.

18. For I will confess my wickedness, and be forry for my in.

19. But mine Enemies live, and are mighty; and they that hate me wrongfully, are many in number.

20. They also that reward evil for good, are against me, because I follow the thing that good is.

21. Forsake me not, O Lord my God; be not thou far from me.

22. Haste thee to help me, O Lord God of my Salvation.

Glory

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost,

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, World without end. Amen.

Christ hear me! and remember now that Hour, in which thou didst once commend thy Blessed Spirit into the hands of thy heavenly Father, when with a Torn Body and a Brokent Heart, thou didst shew forth the Bowels of thy mercy, and die for us. I beseech thee, O thou Brightness and Image of God, assist me by this thy most precious Death, that being dead unto the World, I may live only unto Thee, and at the last hour of my departure from this mortal life, I may commend my Soul into thine hands, and thou mayest receive me into life immortal, there to reign with thee for ever and ever. Amen.

Rant me in the mean time, gracious Lord, a pure intention of heart, and a stedsast resolution to despise all vanity, to fight the Battels of the Lord manfully against the World, the Flesh, and the Devil, to spend my time Religiously and usefully, to speak gracious words, to walk always as in thy presence, to preserve my Soul and Body in holiness, fit for the habitation of the Spirit of God. Amen.

Y Lord, and my God; Give me, I befeech the, a wife, a fober, a patient, an under-understanding, a devout, a religious, a couragious heart; chaste and temperate reins and thoughts; a Soul full of devotion to do thee Service; and do thou make my Services acceptable to thee while I live, and my soul ready for thee when I die. Amen.

O Lord, increase in me Faith and Devotion, replenish my heart with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep me in the same; give me true humility in prosperity, patience in adversity, and continual joy in the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Lord, give me spiritual wisdom, that I may discern what is pleasing to thee, and sollow what belongs unto my Peace; and let the knowledge and peace of God, and of Jesus Christ our Lord be my guide and my portion all the days of my life. Amen.

Lord, make me humble to my Superiours, and friendly to my Equals; thankful to my Benefactors, loving to my Relations, and charitable to my Enemies; to be gentle and eafily intreated, flow to anger, and readily admonished; fully prepared, and throughly furnished for every good word and work. Amen.

Lord give me a peaceable spirit, and a quiet life, free from debt and deadly sin; give me grace to abstain from all appearance of evil evil, and to do nothing but what is of good report; to confess Christ and his holy Religion by an holy and obedient life, and a mind ready to die for him when he shall call for me. And then, O Lord, assist me! Amen.

Lord Jesu! I give thee my Body, my Soul, my Substance, my Fame, my Friends, my Liberty, and my Life: Dispose of me, and of all that is mine, as it seemeth best to thee, and to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

Am not now mine, but thine; therefore claim me as thy right, keep me as thy charge, and love me as thy child: Fight for me when I am affaulted, heal me when I am wounded, and revive me when I am destroyed. Amen.

God from whom all good things do come, grant to me thy humble servant, that by thy holy Inspiration I may think those things that are good, and by thy merciful guidance may perform the same, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Ive me modesty in my Countenance, gravity in my Behaviour, deliberateness in my speech, and righteousness in all my Actions. Let thy mercy cleanse me from my fins, and let thy Grace bring forth in me the fruits of everlasting life. Amen.

God, who knowest us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the weakness of our nature we cannot always stand upright; Look I be seech thee, on my frailties and infirmities; and grant me such health of body, that both in my soul and body I may evermore serve thee with all my strength and might, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Shift me mercifully, O Lord, in these, and all my Supplications and Prayers; and dispose the way of thy Servant toward the attainment of everlasting Salvation; that among all the changes and chances of this mortal life, I may ever be defended by thy most gracious and ready help, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Od the Father bless me! God the Son defend me! God the Holy Ghost preserve me! God the holy Trinity be with me, now and for evermore.

After this apply your self to read some choice portion of Scripture; particularly, the History of our Saviours Passion, as in the Gospels for the Holy Wee. Read with as much affection and heartiness, as is possible; all along reflecting on his Innocency, and your self, as one of those Guilty Wretches, for whom he suffered all this.

And

And think thus of your felf.

Have occasioned more torment to him, than his very Crucifiers; They crucified him Once, but I have as much as in me lay, crucified him daily: they crucified him because they knew him not; but I have known him, and yet have still continued thus to crucifie him asresh.

These Medirations, as they should work in us a great Sorrow for our sins past, and a great Hatred, and a firm Resolution against them for the time to come: so likewise should they quicken and stir up our Faith in, our Love of, and our Thankfulness unto Christ, for his so great mercy, in redeeming us by so dear a price.

Nor must your Prayers end here; they are not Compleat without Intercessions, nor acceptable without Charity, which is a main requisite to a worthy communicant.

At Six of the Clock therefore betake your felf again to Prayer for all Men; for Christs Holy Catholick Church; and for all, who either by Relation, acquaintance, or more particular defire, may claim a share in your Prayers.

Our Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name: Thy Kingdom come: Thy will be done in Earth as it is Heaven: give us this day our daily Bread: And forgive us our Trespasses, as we forgive them that Trespass against us: And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

A Lmighty God, I befeech thee graciously to behold thy Family, for which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer Death upon the Cross; who now liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, World without end. Amen.

A Lmighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit, the whole Body of the Church is Governed and Sanctified; Receive my Supplications and Prayers which I offer before Thee for all Estates of men in thy Holy Church, that every Member of the same in his Vocation and Ministry may truly and godly serve Thee, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Merciful God, who hast made all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, nor wouldest the Death of a sinner, but rather that he should be converted and live; Have mercy upon all fews, Turks, Insidels and Hereticks; and take from them all Ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of thy Word; and so fetch them home, blessed Lord, to thy Fold, that they may be saved among the Remnant of the true Israelites, and be made One Flock, under One Shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee, and the Holy Spirit, One God, World without end. Amen.

Lmighty God, who hast purchased to thy felf an Universal Church, by the precious Bloud of thy dear Son; mercifully look on that part of it in these Kingdoms, so miserably shattered and distressed. I confess, O Lord, our fins have justly deserved that thou shouldest remove thy Candlestick from us, and by some extraordinary judgment, make us a scorn and a by-word to the World: But, I beseech thee, reverse those Plagues which we have deserved, and continue those mercies which we have hitherto enjoyed, especially the comfort of thy Gospel, and liberty of thy Truth. Oh! Let not our Adversaries ever roar in the midst of our Congregations, and set up their Banners as signs of Victory, and Conquest over us; but shield and protect us with thy mercy, that in thy holy Church we may still glorifie thy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

God the unspeakable Author of the World, Creator of Man, Governour of Empires, and Establisher of all Kingdoms, who out of the loins of our Father ABRAHAM, didst chuse a King, that became the Saviour of all Kings and Nations of the Earth: Bless, I beseech thee, thy Servant, and our Dread Sovereign Lord King CHARLES with the richest Bleffings of thy Grace; and establish him in the Throne of his Kingdom by thy mighty Aid and Protecti-Digitized by GOOS all my days, through Jelus Christ our Lord.

A Lmighty God, who by thy Holy Apostle hast taught us not onely to make Prayers and Supplications; but also to give thanks for all men: I offer up unto thee most bigb Laud and bumble thanks for all thy wonderful Graces and Vertnes which thou haft declared in All Saints; chiefly in the glorious and most blessed Virgin MARY, the Mother of thy Son Jesus Christ; and all others who have Departed this Life with the Seal of Faith, and do now rest in the fleep of Peace; fuch as were the Patriarchs, Prophets, Apostles, Martyrs, and Confessors; holy Virgins, pious Matrons, and dewout Widows, who have washed the 3.16. feer of the Saints; Beseeching thee that we may still continue in their boly Communion, and enjoy the comfort thereof while we are on earth, following with a glad will and mind their boly Examples of godly living and stedfastness in thy Faith; and that at the last day we with Them, and They with us, may attain to the Resurrection of the Just, and have our perfect Consummation and Blis both in Body and Soul in thy eternal and everlasting Glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with Thee, and the Holy Ghost, be ascribed by us, as is by Angels and Arch-Angels, and the whole Company of Heaven, all Honour and Glory, World without end.

A Lmighty God, who hast promised to hear the Petitions of them that ask in thy Sons Name; I beseech thee mercifully to incline thine ears unto me, now that in his Name I have made my Prayers and Supplications unto thee; and grant that those things which I have saithfully asked, according to thy Will, may effectually be obtained, to the relief of my necessity, and to the setting forth of thy Glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

He Peace of God which passeth all understanding; the Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; the virtue of Christs Blessed Cross and Passion, be with me now, at the hour of Death, and in the day of Judgment. Amen.

Having thus interceded and given thanks, at Seven of the Clock, with chearfulness depart your Close: Let nor your Behaviour be without Innocent Alacrity; but, let your special care be to comport your self at these your Fasts, that they may not (if possible) be taken notice of by any, but your self and God; as being mindful of that command of our Saviour, St. Matth. vi. 17, 18. Ancient thy head, and wash thy face, that thou appear not unto men to saft. Be sure then to avoid all Sullenness and More senses; but give ready and chearfull answers to any that shall demand you.

C4. Thus

Thus disposed you are ready for your Supper by Sev n of the Clack, whereto notwithstanding your long Abstract, you must not let loose your Appetite; but eat as sparingly as at other times; remembring that our Church hath appointed this day, as all other Fridays in the year, except Christmass day, to be the days of Fasting or Abstrinence.

Those few hours from Supper to Bed-time, you cannot better bestow than in Readi g, or Walking, and Meditating on the particular Exercises of your Fast; examining your self, whicher you have been as Intent, as Devout in the performance of them as is requisite? And where you have failed, heartily bewait your self to God, resolving within your self to be more serious and eareful for the time to come. Be frequent and diligent in looking over your Accomptal, observing every week since you last Communicated, what your Carriage hath been: How you have amended, especially in those particulars, in which you have formerly taken notice of your Miscarriages, and Vowed Reformation.

Sometime before you retire to your Evening Prayers, return to your Closet, and let your Charity crown your Devotions, [1 Cor. xv. 2.] Setting apart, and Devoting somewhat unto God of what you have, to the Relief of his wanting Servants; distributing it when you see Occasio: In the mean time, Separate it from the rest of your Store, and ever after look upon it as Devote, and not to be touched, except to be dispersed to the Poor; when you do thus Consecrate it unto God, use this, or the like Ejaculation.

St. Luke W Hat I give, O Lord, is of my Own, as thou hast prospered me; if I have wrenged any One, I am ready to restore fourfold.

O Lord, whose isthe Earth, and the fulness thereof, I offer unto thee, what by thy Gift and Blessing I have, this small Testimony of my. Thankfulness, to be bestowed on those poor Chrifians, whom thy Providence shall give me opportunity to Relieve: Be thou pleased through the Bloud of my Saviour to accept it, and pard in all my vain Expences. Vertue.

About Ten or Eleven of the Clock, betake your felf to .. your ordinary Prayers for the Evening, wherero subjoin the two Prayers for Preparation to the Holy Communion, which are above-written, and also on every such day the 143 Psalm. .

Ear my Prayer, O Lord, and confider my defire: Hearken unto me for thy Truth and Rightcousness sake.

2. And enter not into Judgment with thy fervant: For in thy fight shall no man living be justified.

3. For the Enemy hath perfecuted my foul, he hath smitten my life down to the ground: he hath laid me in the darkness, as the mea that have been long dead.

4. Therefore is my spirit vexed within ma;

and my heart within me is desolate.

5. Yet ...

5: Yet do I remember the time past, I muse upon all thy works; yea, I exercise my self in the works of thy hands.

6. I stretch forth my hands unto thee, my foul gaspeth unto thee as a thirsty land.

7. Hear me, O Lord, and that soon, for my spirit waxeth faint: hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8. Olet me hear thy loving kindness betimes in the morning, for in thee is my trust: Shew thou me the way that I should walk in, for I lift up my foul unto thee.

9. Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies, for I flee unto thee to hide me.

10. Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee, for thou art my God: Let thy loving Spirit lead me forth into the Land of Righteousness.

11. Quicken me, O Lord, for thy Name fake: And for thy righteousness sake bring my foul out of trouble.

12: And of thy goodness slay mine enemies: and destroy all them that vex my soul, for I am thy servant.

Glery be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost,

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Thus

Thus you end your course of Prayers for every Friday preceding a Communion Sunday. They are such, I think as may suit your leisure and condition; if not, you are prudent enough to omit and alter what you see good. I have too, all along supposed your constitution strong enough to hold out such a Fast; if health will not bear it, in Gods, name, est, but moderately, and let your Food be mean and ordinary, such as a crust of bread, a little wine, or a Glass of small Bear, &c.

Nd now having finished your Penitential Devotions of on the Friday, or the Eve to Christmass-day, you have the less to do on the Saturday, nothing but to guard your self more strictly against Temptations, that they prevail not upon you: To which purpose, be much in reasing the Scripture, or some such Book; particularly, The woole Duty of Man; the third Partition of it concerns the Lords Supper, which after Evening Prayer read considerately over, applying every passage to your self, as being some; way or other concerned in it.

Part of this day you may beflow in Offices of Charity:: As, vifiting your fick Friends, or reconciling your felt to any with whom you may have had any Difference, as you shall if find occasion: or, as you shall be directed by your Spiritual! Guids.

N Sunday Morning you rife by Six of the Clock, and i subjoin to your Morning Prayers those two Colletts; for Prepar tion above mentioned.

After this, confider how you may with due devotion or moport your felf at the Holy Altur; and what are those particular Duties and Graces you are there to exercise, you; will find an account of them in the third Partition of the Whole Duty of Man.

Then examine the state and temper of your heart; whisther it be tender; and affectionately disposed to.

Relentings for your Sins, Purposes against them, and Resolutions for a holy life? To humble Reliances, and trust on God in our Saviours Bloud for Pardon? To Spiritual Joy and Thankfulness? To Good will towards all men? To Charity, and Liberality? and the like; Otherwise, have an heavty defire, and use your utmost endeavour, which will be accepted, to bring it to such a disposition.

If, after all this be done, you have any Spare minutes before Church or Chappel-time; you would do well to bestow them in reading over the Communion-Service; by which means you will be able with more readiness and Devotion, to go along with the Priess in the Publick Ministration of it.

About an Hour before you go firth, review the Accompt of your fins, noted in your Paper: let your heart go along with the Reading of them, Sorrowing for them, and Refolving against them.

After this, humbly Kneel, and repeat the LI. Pfalm.

I. Ave mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness; according to the multitude of thy mercies do away my offences.

2. Wash me throughly from my wickedness, and cleanse me from my sin.

3. For I acknowledge my faults, and my fin is ever before me.

4. Against thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight, that thou mightest be justified in thy saying, and clear when thou are judged.

5. Behold I was shapen in wickedness, and in fin hath my Mother conceived me.

6. But

6. But lo, thou requirest truth in the inward parts, and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

7. Thou shalt purge me with Hyssop, and I shall be clean; thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than Snow.

8. Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness, that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

9. Turn thy face from my fins, and put out all my mildeeds.

10. Make me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.

11. Cast me not away from thy presence, and take not thy holy Spirit from me.

12. O give me the comfort of thy help again, and establish me with thy free Spirit.

13. Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked, and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

14. Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou that art the God of my health: And my tongue shall sing of thy righteousness.

15. Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord, and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

16. For thou desirest no Sacrifice, else would I give it thee; but thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.

17. The Sacrifice of God is a troubled Spirit:

a broken and contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despile.

18. O be favourable and gracious unto Zion, build thou the Walls of ferulalem.

19. Then shalt thou be pleased with the Sacrifice of Righteousness, with the Burnt-offerings and Obligations; then shall they offer young Bullocks upon thine Altar.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost,

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, World without end. Amen.

Then these following Collects.

Blessed Jesu, who didst take upon thee our Nature, and didst suffer death upon the Cross for our Redemption; and hast commanded us to continue the memory of this thy precious Death till thy Coming again; Oh! Let not the inestimable Benefits of it be frustrated by my manifold and grievous sins; but inspire my Soul with those Graces which may qualifie me to receive them tendered unto me in this blessed Sacrament. O Lord, thou seest that I have no power of my self to help myself! Oh! Let the pitisulness of thy great mercy loose me from the chains of those sins wherewith I am tied and bound; that being thus set at liberty. I may here with chearfulness run the ways of thy thy Commandments, and hereafter enter into thy Joy, O bleffed Saviour and Redeemer.

2. Thou, O God and Saviour, knowest how vile I am, and with what eagerness I have purfued the paths that lead unto everlafting Death! How often hath this Feast been prepared, I lovingly Bid, and called thereto: but have with frivolous excuses absented my self? Or, if I have come, I have brought fuch Troops of thy professed Enemies, Unrepented Sins, along with me, as if I came not to adore, but to defie thee; not to commemorate, but to renew thy Passion! I am not worthy, O Lord, I am not worthy to come into thy presence; much less to eat the Flesh of the Sacrificed Lamb: For, my fins, O Bleffed fesu, went along in Confederation with the High Priests, in Treachery with fudas, in Injustice with Pilate, in Malice and Cruelty with the People: Oh! what punishment then shall I be thought worthy of, who have thus trampled under foot the Son of God, and counted the Bloud of the Covenant an unholy thing? Where shall I vile Wretch appear, who have put my LORD to death! Who have crucified to my felf the SON of God afresh, and put Thee to an open-shame! Where should I appear, but before my Saviour, who hath loved, and died for me, though though I have hated and murthered him? Thy Bloud, of Fesu, is my onely Refuge! Oh! Let the Cry of it speak on my behalf; and may it speak better things than the Bloud of Abel! Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me, for my Soul trusteth in thee, and in the Clefts of thy wounds shall be my Refuge until thy Fathers Indignation be over-past! O Blessed Advocate and Mediator, intercede for me with Thy Father and Ours, Thy God and Ours; and grant, that by the Grace which thou hast found, by the Prerogative which thou hast deserved. by the mercy which thou hast purchased for me, as thou hast been partaker of my sufferings. and infirmities, so I by thy Death and Resurrection, and by thy infinite gracious Intercefsion may be made partaker of thy Holiness and thy Glory, even for thy own Merits fake. Amen.

Lord, who hast promised, that if I open my mouth wide, thou wilt fill it, I pray thee, to open it; and, not my mouth only, but my heart also: Oh! create in thy servant a great hunger and thirst after the things of thy Kingdom, and the Righteousness of it, after all the holy Graces, and all the holy Ministries of Grace, that I may long for the Bread of Heaven, thirst after the Fountain of Salvation; and as the Hart pantern after the Water-Brooks

Brooks, so my soul may defire thee, O Lord: Oh! kindle such an holy flame in my soul, that it may consume all my sins and cursed affections, that I may never again defile the place which thou hast chosen for thy Temple. Thou diedst, O dear Jesu, to redeem me from iniquity; Oh! let me not again fell my felf to work wickedness: I am a sinner, a grievous one, not worthy to look up to Heaven; but be thou pleased to look down into the dust, and lift up a finner from the Dunghil; let me not perish in my folly, or be consumed in thy heavy displeasure: Give me time and space to repent, and give me powers of Grace, that as by thy holy Inspiration I do sincerely and fixedly resolve on an entire Reformation, so by thy merciful guidance I may faithfully perform the same. Amen.

Thou great Physician of Souls; heal me of those many, and foul Diseases which my Soul groans under; Grant that I may now so touch thee that every one of those loathsome Issues may immediately stanch, that these sicknesses may not be unto death; but to the glory of thy mercy in pardoning, to the glory of thy Grace in purifying so polluted a Wretch. O Christ bear me! inspire me with an holy Zeal to mortisse my sins, support me with an holy Hope, consirm me with an excellent and and unreproveable Faith, and enkindle in me a never-failing Charity: Let me judge my felf, that I be not judged by thee; condemn my felf that I be not condemned with the World: But, receiving this Holy Sacrament with a penitent heart, and a lively Faith, I may partake the great benefits of it; I may dwell in Christ, and Christ in me; I may be one with Christ, and Christ with me: The Lord be merciful unro me, and grant this for his own Bowels and Compassion sake. Amen.

Then thefe Colletts of Interceffion.

M Erciful God, who hast made all men, and wouldest not the death of a sunner, but rather that he should turn from his wickedness and live; to which purpose, thou hast sent thy Son out of thy Bosom to suffer death upon the Cross for our Redemption; look down in mercy and pity upon poor Mankind, whose portion is folly and mifery, shame and death: all Sinners to repentance; enlighten all that fit in darkness; all fews, Turks, Infidels, Hereticks, and Schismaticks: Take from them all blindness, hardness of heart, and contempt of thy Word and Commandment; and so fetch them. home, blessed Lord, unto thy Fold, that they may be laved among the remnant of the true Israelites, and be made One Fold under One Shepherd Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gra-

Racions Lord, I do more especially humbly present to thy divine Majesty this glorious Sacrifice which thy bleffed Son made upon the Cross, in the behalf of all Christians throughout the World: Give unto them all, O God, a portion of all the good Prayers which are made in Heaven and Earth, the Interceffion of our Lord, and the Supplications of all thy Servants. Oh! let us walk worthy of that holy vocation wherewith we are called; let us who name the Name of Christ, depart from iniquity; and unite us in the bonds of the Common Faith, and an holy Charity, that no Interests or Partialities, no Sects or Opinions may keep us any longer in darkness and division: but that we may with one mind, and one mouth, glorifie Thee, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Father of Mercies, be merciful to this Miferable divided Church in which we live; according to all thy righteousness, let thine anger be turned away from us; let Religion and Vertue season all forts of men therein; forgive us all our sins; turn thee unto us, and bless us, that the World may say, Blessed is this People whose God is the Lord Jebovah, and blessed are the Folk whom he hath chosen to him to be his Inheritance! Lord, hear, and cause thy face to shine upon this my Sanctuary, which is thus sadly desolate, for the Lords sake. Amen.

King of Kings, and Lord of Lords, give I pray thee, the Spirit of Government and Holiness to all Christian Kings, Princes, and Governours; especially to thy servant CHARLES our King; Grant that his people may obey him, and he may obey thee, and live in honesty and peace, justice and holy Religion, being a Nursing Father to the Church, an Advocate for the Oppressed, a Patron for the Widows, and a Sanctuary for the miserable and Fatherless, that he may reign with thee for ever in the Kingdom of the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Thou Fountain of all goodness, be pleased to bless and protect our gracious Queen KATHARINE, JAMES Duke of York, and all the Royal Family; endue them with all heavenly Graces answerable to their Births; make them Instruments of thy Glory here, and partakers of thy Glory hereafter. Amen.

Ogod who alone workest great marvels, be gracious unto all those, who wait at thine Altar; the Bishops and all the Clergy: Open thou their lips, that their mouths may shew forth thy praise: Inspire them with holiness, and diligence to Preach and declare thy will by by good lives and wife discourses, that they may minister to the good of Souls, and find a glorious reward in the day of the Lord Jesus. Amen.

Merciful God, be merciful in succouring all that are in affliction; deliver the out-cast and poor, help them to right that suffer wrong; let the sorrowful sighing of the Prisoners come before thee, and according to the greatness of thy power, preserve thou those that are appointed to die; be merciful unto all who are just now breathing out their last; grant ease to those that are in pain, supply to those that suffer want; and, to all wicked persons give thy Grace, that they may speedily repent, and live well, and be saved through the merits of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Have mercy, and pour down thy bleffings, O God, upon (my Father, Mother, and all other) my Relations, Friends, * Here mention and Benefattors: * grant unto those who are so. them whatsoever they want, or wisely and holily desire; keep them for ever in thy fear and favour; and let their portion be in the Bleffing, and in the Service; in the love, and in the Kingdom of God, for ever and ever. Amen.
O Lord,

Lord, I befeech thee, forgive my enemies all their fins against thee, and me: and give me that measure of thy grace, that for their hatred, I may love them; for their cursing, I may bless them; for their injuries, I may do them good; and for their persecution, I may pray for them. Lord, I pray for them; forgive them, for they know not what they do. Amen.

Inally, O Lord, I pray thee for all those who shall this day be my Companions at the Altar; and for all others who do now Communicate in any part of Christendom; that through this bloud of the Cross, we may all be cleansed from our fins, and be presented pure and unblamable, and unreprovable in thy sight; for the sake of Jesus Christ, whom I adore, whom I love, and desire I may still more and more love, and love for ever. Amen, Amen.

Ur Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name: Thy Kingdom come: Thy will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven: Give us this day our dayly Bread: And forgive us our Trespasses, as we forgive them that Trespass against us: And lead us not into Temptation, but deliver us from Evil. Amen.

The Lord bless and preserve me in my going out and my coming in, from this time forth, for evermore. Amen.

Having thus finished your Closet Devotions, you go forth to the Church or Chappel jasting, that so a portion from Gods Table may be the first Morsel; and remember to take something out of your Store to present at the Offertory.

When you enter into the Church, kneel and pray.

Our Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name: Thy Kingdom come: Thy will be done in Earth as it is in Heaven: give us this day our daily Bread: And forgive us our Trespasses, as we forgive them that Trespass against us: Ar! lind us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Ord, I have loved the Habitation of thy House, and the place where thine honour dwelleth. I will wash my hands in Innocency, O Lord, and so will I go to thine Altar.

Having seated your self, turn to the Pfaims and Lessons, Epistle and Gospel for the day, that you may more freely attend the Priest in reading them.

Sermon ended, you go up to the Altar, and profirate before ir, (ay,

Thou art worthy, OLord, to receive Glory, and Honour, and Power; for thou halt created all things, and for thy wills fake they are, and were created.

Blef-

Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanks; and honour, and power be unto our God, and unto the Lamb for evermore. Amen.

Then whilest others are coming up, and the Priest preparing to read the Sentences, pray,

A Lmighty Lord, who hast of thine infinite mercies vouchsafed to ordain this Sacrament for a perpetual memory of that Blessed Sacracrisce, which once thou madest for us upon the Cross; grant me with such diligent remembrance, and such due reverence, to participate of this so holy and wonderful a mystery, that I may be made worthy by thy Grace to obtain the vertue and fruits of the same, with all the benefits of thy precious Death and Passion, even the Remission of all my sins, and the sulness of all thy Graces, which I beg for thy onely merits, who art my onely Saviour, God from everlasting, and World without end. Amen.

O Lord, our Heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, regard, we beseech thee, the devotions of thy humble Servants, who do now celebrate the Memorial which thy Son and our Saviour hath commanded to be made in remembrance of his most Blessed Passion and Sacrifice; that by the merits and power thereof, now represented before thy Divine Majesty, we, and all thy whole Church may be made partakers of all other the benefits of his most precious Death and Resurrection from the Earth, and glorious Ascension into Heaven, who liveth and reigneth with thee, and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, World without end. Amen.

DE pleased, OGod, to accept this our bounden duty and service; and command that the Prayers and Supplications, together with the Remembrance of Christs Passion, which we do now offer up unto thee, may by the Ministry of the holy Angels be brought up into thy Heavenly Tabernacle; and that thou not weighing our merits, but looking upon the blessed Sacrifice of our Saviour, which was once fully and perfectly made for us all, mayest pardon our offences, and replenish us with thy Grace and heavenly benediction, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Whilest upon your Knees you call in your Offering, stop and fay, Deffed Jesu, who didst accept the poor Widows two mites; be pleased graciously to accept this from thy unworthy Servant. Amen.

The Prayers beginning again, you must join with the Congregation; and heeding every passage, let your heart go along with it: Keep your mind attentive, not onely to the words and substance of the Prayers and Exhortations, but also to every passage, and particular Ceremony in the Confecration; foralmuch as all of them have their meaning and reason.

Observe the Priest then breaking the Bread; and remember how Christs Elessed Pody was torn with nails upon the Cros; Observe him pouring out the Wine; and remember how his precious Bloud was spite likewise; and then consider they were your sins which eaused both, which should work in you a great forrow for them, and them a great hatred, and a firm resolution against them, and withall, engage you to thankfulness and love, resolving to express it by an universal obedience in your Conversation. Again,

Observe the Feople too, taking and eating the Bread; taking and drinking the wine, for it fignifies their particular taying hold on Christ by Trust and Faith; their flying to, and apprehending him, as the means of their Salvation, and the pardon of their sins tendred to them in this

Blessed Sacrament,

When the Priest repeateth that comfortable saying of St. Paul, This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save finners, add (to your self) with all possible devotion and humility, of whom I am thief.

And if you have time, while the Prieft, and others are Communicating, use these or the like heavenly aspira-ations.

Am now before the Altar of Gad, even the God of my joy and gladness.

I will offer Thanksgiving unto my God, and pay my viws unto the most Highest.

O Lambof God, that takest away the sins of the World, Grant me thy Peace!

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the World, Have mercy upon me!

Grant

Grant me, gracious Lord, so to eat the Flesh of thy Son, and to drink his Bloud, that my sunful Body may be made clean by his Body, and my Soul washed through his most precious Bloud. Amen.

O Lord, I am not worthy, nor fit that thou shouldest come under the filthy Roof of the house of my Soul, because it is wholly desolate and ruinous; neither hast thou with me a fit place where to lay thy head: But, as then didst vouchsafe to be laid in a Stable and Manger of unreasonable Beasts; as thou didst not disdain to be entertained even in the house of SIMON the Leper; as thou didst not reject the Harlot, a finner like unto me, coming unto thee and touching thee; as thou didst not abhor her foul and profane mouth, nor yet the Thief on the Cross confessing thee: Even so vouchsafe to admit me also, an overworn, miserable, and out of measure sinful Creature, to the Receiving and Communicating of the most pure, quickning, and saving Mysteries of thy most holy Body and precions Bloud. Amen.

O Lord God, how I receive the Body and Bloud of my most blessed Saviour Fesus Christ, the price of my Redemption, is the very wonder of my Soul! yet, my most firm and constant belief, upon the words of my Saviour. At this time time, they are graciously tendered to me, and my Faith: Lord, make me a worthy Receiver, and partaker of all the benefits of this blessed Sacrament. Amen.

Upon t'e approach of the Priest with the Consecrated Bread, say,

Hou hast said, that he that eateth thy Flesh, and drinketh thy Bloud, hath eternal life.

Behold the Servant of the Lord, be it unto me according to thy Word!

When the Priest offers thee the Holy Bread, say sofily with him,

The Body of our Lord Jesus Christ which was given for me, preserve my Body and Soul unto everlasting life.

Then answer audibly,

AMEN.

Whilest you eat it,

Y thy Crucified Body deliver me from this Body of Death.

After receiving,

Y thine Agony and Bloudy Sweat, by thy Cross and Passion, Good Lord deliver me!

I

I have sworn, and am stedfastly purposed to keep thy righteous Judgments.

O hold thou up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not.

Upon the approach of the Priest with the Consecrated : Cup, say,

WHat reward shall I give unto the Lord for all the benefits that he hath done unto me? I will take the Cup of Salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord.

When the Cup of Bleffing is offered unto you, fay in your heart with the greatest devotion that possibly you may.

The Bloud of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for me, preserve my Body and Soul unto everlasting life.

Answering audibly,

AMEN.

After you have received it,

My God, thou art true and holy! O my Soul thou art blessed and happy!

O the depth of the Wisdom and Knowledge of God! how incomprehensible are his Judgments, and his ways past finding out!

Praise

Praise the Lord, O my Soul, and all that is within me praise his holy Name, who saveth thy Life from destruction, and seedeth thee with the Bread of Heaven!

Glory be to God on high, and on Earth Peace, good Will towards Men. I worship thee, O Lord, and magnific thy Name for ever, who hast vouchsafed to fill my Soul with gladness, and to feed me with the Heavenly mysteries of Christs sacred Body and Bloud, humbly beseeching thee, that from henceforth I may walk in good works, and serve thee in holiness and purenoss of living, to the honour of thy Name.

Ost Blessed Redeemer, I do truly believe, that thy Body was Crucified, and thy Bloud was shed out of thy Body, as verily as I have received this Bread and this Wine set apart from the Bread: And that for the Remission of my Sins, as well as any others: And I do also believe, that with this Bread and Wine I have really and spiritually received thy precious Body and Bloud, whereby my sins are fully washed away, and my Soul purified, and refreshed: This, O Lord, I believe, belp thou my unbelief! Amen.

This Holy Communion requires from us the greatest Charity we can express; therefore (if we have any time between these Eisenlations and the Post-Communion) it would be highly Religious to pray for those who are yet to Communicate of one or both kinds. saying AMEN to the words of the Priest, where he gives the Signament to any one, as well as to your felf. And this Act of your Charity in praying for others, will render your own Prayers and Services the more holy, and acceptable to God, and effectual to your Souls health For he that prays for himself alone, reaps onely the single benefit of his own single devotion: But whoso devoutly prays for others, reaps the fruits of the Prayers of others, which is the great benefit of the Communion of Saints:

At the end of the Communion, say,

To the King Eternal, the Immortal, Invisible, and onely Wife God, the ever Bleffed Trinky, be all honour, and glory, now and for evermore. Amen.

Arising and making your Reverence towards the Altar, you depart with a glad heart, and a chearful countenance: preserve good thoughts in your mind; yet be not sullen or morose, but salute any of your Christian Brethren you meet wit'a

As foon as you come home, retire into your Clesti; and blifs God with these Collects of Thanksgiving.

A Lmighty God, the Fountain of all good-nels, from whom every good and per-fect gift proceedeth; and to whom all glory and honour should be returned; I do desire most heartily heartily to thank thee, for that thou hast vouchsafed to feed me, who have received these Holv Mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most pre-cious Body and Bloud of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; and dost affure me thereby of thy favour and goodness towards me, and that I am a very member incorporate in the mystical Body of thy Son, which is the bleffed Company of all Faithful People; and am also an Heir through hope of thine everlasting Kingdom, by the merits of the most precious Death and Passion of thy dear Son. O the height and depth of that unspeakable mercy of thine, who art pleased to admit me a sinful Wretch to have any part in those inestimable benefits, which I have so often despised and trampled under foot! I am not: worthy, O Lord, of that daily Bread, which fu-Stains the body; but thou hast made me partaker of that living Bread which came down from Heaven, which nourisheth the Soul, and, of which whosoever eateth, shall live for ever. O grant that my Soul may relish this Divine Food with Spiritual ravishments, and love, great as the flame of Cherabims; and grant that what thou hast given me for the Remission of my sins, may not by any fault become the increase of them; that this Holy Communion prove not unto me, unto Judgment and Condemnation, but may support and preserve me in every temptation, rejoice and quiet me in every trouble, enlighten 1 I ghten and strengthen me in every good word and work; comfort and defend me in the hour of my death against all oppositions of the Spirits of Darkness, and further me in the attainment of everlasting Salvation, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Oft Holy God, who art of purer eyes than to behold Iniquity; grant, I pray thee that no unclean thing may be in me, who have now Received thee into my heart and foul; but let this Bloud of Christ, who through the Eternal Spirit, effered himself without spot to thee, purge my Conscience from dead works to serve thee the living God: Give me Grace, that from henceforth I put off concerning my former conversation the Old Man, which is corrupt, according to the decentful Lufts, and be renewed in the spirit of my mind: And that I put on the New Man, which after thee is created in Righteousness and true Holiness; to which purpose be pleased to watch over me for good, to keep me both outwardly in my Body, and inwardly in my Soul. O God, thou seest that I have no power of my self to help my self; thou knowest me also to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of my Nature, I cannot always stand upright; grant to me such strength and protection, as may support me in all dangers, gers, and carry me through all temptations, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thou with whom is no variableness, nor shadow of turning, let thy Holy Spirit direct me in all things, let thy Grace always prevent and follow me, and preserve me against all assaults of my Spiritual enemies, especially of my own treacherous heart, which is decentful above all things, wicked, desperately wicked, O Lord, thou knowest it: how often hath it betrayed me to the breach of thy holy Laws, to the violation of all these Vows and Promises which I have made to thee? How often have I turned my back in the day of battel? O let me no more thus start aside like a broken Bow, but be stedfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, refifting the Devil that he may flee from me, subduing my flesh, and bringing it into subjection; crucifying and overcoming the World. And therefore let those folemn Vows, which I have now made to forfake my fins, never depart from my mind; but let the remembrance of them excite me to fight manfully under thy Banner, and continue thy faithful Servant and Souldier unto my lives end. Amen.

Lord, I do here humbly present unto thee my Soul and Body, to be a living, holy, and and reasonable Sacrifice unto thee; I befeech thee sanctifie my Body, that from a polluted Dunghil, it may become the Temple of God. Sanctifie my Soul, and receive it for thy dwelling place, the Seat of thy Spirit, and an house of Prayer and holy Meditation: Sanctifie me throughout, that both my Body, and Soul, and Spirit, may be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord festus Christ, to whom with thee, O Father, and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, World without end. Amen.

Hus have you closed your Communion Devictors, it onely remains, that you bestow the greatest part of the Asternoon in Reading, Praying, Medicating, good Conserences, and the like: And when your Condition calls you to your usual Converses, you are still to remember, you have a great business which lies upon your hands, which is the performance of those Promises you have now made to God; to which purpose frequently recollest them to mind, and let the remembrance of them be your resign against all temptations to your old fins, whenever they assult you: knowing what a grievous thing it is to break that Vom which you have seated in your Saviours Bloud; and to have that Bloud (through which onely you can have pardon) to witness against you, which God sorbid.

To your Evining Prayers, that Sunday night, immediately before the Bleffing subjoin this Collett.

Blessed JESUS who hast this day made me a Farraker of thy Blessed Body and Bloud, diy Merry hash given it, and my Fairb hath received:

ceived it into my Soul: O let me ever feel the happy vertue and effects of it: Put thy fear into my heart, to keep those Vovus and Promises which I have on this solemnity rendred unto thee in my mind, that I may not sin against thee; enrich me with all those Graces which come from this precious Body and Bloud, and hereafter bring me to thine everlasting glory, for thy merits and mercies sake.

Hus, not to detain you longer, I have recommended to you the aforesaid Devotions to be used on the Friday in every Moneth, which precedes a Communion, (especially the Fridays before the three solemn times which our Church hath Consecrated to this Elessed purpose, Christmas, Easter, and whit. Sunday,) supposing, that your beatth and important occasions will permit it, otherwise you are not obliged to the strictness of them, though you are obliged to receive this Sacrament, whenseever an opportunity offers it felf.

To capacitate you for a worthy Communicant thereof at all times; I do lastly and heartly advise you to maintain a constant course of daily Prayers at Morning and Evening throughout the Year; every Night recalling the Assions of the day past, and repenting for the sins of it; the practice whereof will sit you for the Communion at any time, when it is occasionally tendered to you; I mean, when you are suddenly called to Communicate with a dying Person; or come accidentally imo a Congregation, where it is to be received, and all sit Guests are invited to it; in those cases, you are by no means to turn your back upon it; but bestowing that little time which is before you in Recollecting, Repenting, Exerting your Faith, Love, Thank sunes, &c. Omitting nothing of the strictness which is required in the

All of Receiving, and performing afterwards to your power what you fecretly promifed; receive it with the rest in the name of God, beginning with the Prayers, before mentioned, [psg.64.] which are to be said whilest the Priest is preparing to read the Sentences.

Almighty God, who hast of thine infinite mercies vouchsafed, &c.

But this I advise, on supposal you carry about with you such an habitual preparation which is acquired by keeping a strict course of daily private Devotions, and a constant watchfulness over your self; otherwise you sen saddy. However, becareful to Communicate whenever you are solemnly invited to it, i. e. every Moneth; and with due remembrance of him, whose death you do hereby shew forth till he come.

God Almighty make you aworthy Participant of his Body and Bloud here, that you may for ever enjoy him hereafter. Amer.

Dire-

Directions how to pass our days well and acceptably unto God.

S Aim Bafil exhorts to this purpole, before we do any thing elfe, be we careful to confecrate the first fruits of the day, and the very beginning of our holy thoughts unto the Service of God. Accordingly let the first thing which you do, and the first word which you speak, every day. tend to this great and important end, the worship and acknowledgment of Almighty God; for, as good men have observed, upon our fuft thoughts do commonly depend the thoughts and aftions of the whole Day: Therefore when you first awake, you must admire and thankfully reserve his great goodness for the last nights sleep, who might, and deservedly too, have suffered death to seize on you whilest fleping, and hurried you hence to render an account of what you have done in the field: the refult of which will be, to think how (on the supposal of this dreadful surprize) you were prepared; and to conclude and pray, Happy is that Servant, whom his Lord, when he cometh, thall. find doing bis will. Amen. Be it to thy Servant according to thy Word.

To which Medication prefix this holy Ejaculation.

Lighten mine eyes, O. Lord, that I fleep not in death. Amen.

And.

And subjoin this humble Resignation of your self into the hands of God.

Into thy hands, O Lord, I commend this day my foul and my body; befeeching thee to be ever with me to direct, fanctifie, and govern me in the ways of thy Laws, and in the works of thy Commandments, that through thy most mighty protection both here and ever, I may be preserved both in body and soul, to serve thee the onely true God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I laid me down, and flept, and rose up again, for the Lord sustained me.

3. At your apparelling, say,

Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to sulfil the lusts thereof. Cloath me, O Lord, with the ornaments of thy Heavenly Grace, and cover me with the robes of Righteousness, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

After which betake your self to your Morning Prayers, and after them, walk a while in your Chamber, and bethink your self of the Busings of the following Day, and of a prudent and conscientious transaction of them: in the managure of which, consider what temptations may probably assault you, and arm your self against them, what Good your occasions may render you capable of doing this Day, and resolve within your selfs do do it, and to do it as effectually as you can. And be willing to commit all your assault for by his Course; according to the advice of holy David, Commit thy may unro the Lord, trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass.

6. And for a funch as the Apostle enjoys us to pray always, and again, to continue in Prayer, accordingly should we follow his Injunction; not that we should do nothing else but pray, but have our hearts so enslamed with the love of God, as to be in a continual disposition to pray, and this not onely at all set and accustomed times, but at all times, and upon all occasions and objects presented, rraise up your souls upon the spiritual Wings of Holy Meditations, Celestial Affections, Devout Colognies and Ejiculatory Converses with Heaven. Thus Enoch walked with God, and was translated. Thus David prosesses, I have set God always before me; and I will give thanks unto the Lord, his praise shall ever be in my mouth. Col-

: Collects for particular Graces.

For Faith.

Linighty God, whom without Faith it is impossible to please; grant me, I beseech thee, so perfectly to believe in thy Son Jesus Christ, that my Faith in thy sight may never be reproved; and being called to the knowledge of thy Grace, and Faith in thee, and admitted into the fellowship of Christs Religion, I may eschew those things which are contrary to my Profession, and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Hope.

Diesed Lord, who hast caused all Holy, Scriptures to be written for our learning; grant that I may in such, wise bear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by-Patience and Comfort of thy Holy Word, I may embrace, and ever hold fast the blessed hope of evereverlasting life, which thou hast given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ; and that I may therefore purishe my self, even as he is pure, that when he shall appear again with power and great glory, I may be made like unto him in his eternal and glorious Kingdom, where with thee, O Father, and thee, O Holy Ghost, he liveth and reigneth ever one God, World without end. Amen.

For the Love of God.

God, who hast prepared for them that love thee, such good things as pass mans understanding, pour into my heart such Love toward thee, that I loving thee, above all things, may obtain thy promises which exceed all that I can desire, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Charity.

Lord, who hast taught us, that all our doings without Charity are nothing worth; send thy Holy Ghost, and pour into my heart that most excellent gift of Charity, the very bond of peace, and of all vertues, without which whosoever liveth, is counted dead before thee. Grant this for thine onely Son Jesus Christs sake.

For Chastity.

O Holy Jesus, who wert conceived in the Womb of a Virgin, I beseech thee grant thy Servant grace to withstand all temptations of the Flesh, and with a pure and clean heart to follow thee the onely God, even for thine own mercies and merits sake. Amen.

For Contrition.

A Linighty and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all them that are penitent: Create and make in me a New and Contrite Heart, that I worthily Lamenting my sins, and acknowledging my wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect Remission and Forgiveness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Devotion.

Off great God, who hast not onely Permitted but invited us needy and miserable Greatures to present our Petitions to thee: O let me set a true value on this most invaluable Priviledge. I come unto thee, O Lord, as a Worm to my Sovereign Maker; I come as an Heinous Haino is Offender to a just and severe Judge; let, I pray thee, mine addresses to thine house be with a Reverence some way answerable to thine auful Majesty; give me an hearty desire to pray, and such a pure Intention and sixedness of mind upon thee, that I may no more incur the guilt of drawing near to thee with my Lips, when my Heart is far from thee: But may so ask, that I may receive; seek, that I may find; knock that it may be opened unto me; that so from praying to thee here, I may be translated to the praising thee eternally in thy Glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Fear of God.

Ost great God, who onely art high, and to be seared, O put thy fear into my heart, that I may not sin against thee; let me never so misplace my Fear as to be afraid of man, whose breath is in his Nostrils: But fill me, O Lord, with the Spirit of thy Holy Fear, which is the beginning of Wisdom, and let it preserve me in a perpetual conformity to thy Will in all things, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For.

For Contentedness.

Jesus Christ, hast promised to all them that seek thy Kingdom, and the Righteousness thereof, all things necessary to their bodily sustenance; keep me, I beseech thee, under the protection of thy good providence, and learn me in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be Content: Grant me Grace to forsake all covetous desires, and inordinate love of Riches, and so to pass through things Temporal, that I finally lose not the things Eternal; but that among all the sundry and manifold changes of the World, my heart may surely there be fixed, where true joys are to be found, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Diligence.

Lord, who in thy holy Gospel didst sentence the slothful and unprofitable Servant to be cast into outer darkness; grant that I may not stand here all the day idle, but may give all Diligence to make my Calling and Election sure; make me in some measure useful to my self and others, both as to This, and a better life. O let me never lay mine eyes to sleep, nor mine eyelids to slumber, but learn and labour to get my my own living, and to do my duty in that State of life, whereto it hath pleased thee to call me, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Humility.

A Lmighty God, who resistes the proud, and givest Grace to the Humble; mercifully grant that I may follow the example of the great Humility of thy Blessed Son, who did humble himself to take upon him our Flesh, and to suffer death upon the Cross: Convince me that I am less than the least of all thy mercies; that as I am vile in my self, so let me be vile in mine own eyes, and may therefore esteem every man better than my self. Grant this, O Father, for thy Son Jesus Christs sake. Amen.

For Justice.

Thou King of Righteousness, who lovest Righteousness, and art mighty to save; give me Grace to obtain this love of thine by cleansing my heart and hands from all fraud and injustice; O grant that I may most structly observe that sacred Rule of doing unto all men, as I would they should do unto me; that I hurt no body in word or deed, but be true and just in all my dealings; that so keeping innocency, and taking heed unto the thing that is right, I may have peace at the last, even peace with thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

For Meekness.

A Lmighty God, who hast given thine onely Son to be unto us both a Sacrifice for sin, and also an ensample of godly life; give me Grace to learn of him who was meek and lowly of heart, to put on bowels of mercy, meekness, and long-suffering; to be so far from offering the least injury, that I may never return the greatest: And grant, I beseech thee, that the course of this World may be so peaceably ordered by thy Governance, that I may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Sincerity.

Holy Lord, who searchest the heart, and triest the reins, try me, I beseech thee, and seek the ground of my heart; purge it from all Hypocrisie, and suffer not any accursed thing to lurk within me; give me truth in the inward parts, to be pure in heart, that I may be qualified to see thee in thy Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Temperance.

Racious Lord, who refreshest us with thy J good Creatures, and art the Author of all good things which we do enjoy; give me Grace, I pray thee, to use them with thankfulness and moderation; let me never be overcharged with Surfeiting and Drunkenness, nor my Table be ever made a snare unto me; but may so eat and drink, that my slesh may be subdued to the Spirit, and that I may ever obey thy godly motions in Righteousness and true Holiness, to thy Honour and Glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Thankfulness.

Racious God, who hast taught me, that I it is a joyful and pleasant thing to be thankful; suffer me not, I beseach thee, to loss my part in that Divine pleasure, but make me truly and unseignedly thankful unto thee for all thy mercies: Let thy mercies lead me to Repentance, and give me Grace to improve them all to the advancement of thy Glory, and the furtherance of my Salvation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

-For Trust in God,

God, who never failest to help and govern them whom thou dost bring up in thy stedsast fear and love; Grant, I pray thee, that I may lean onely upon the Hope of thy heavenly Grace, and in all my troubles put my whole trust and considence in thy mercy, casting all my care upon thee, and being careful for nothing, but to keep thy Testimonies, and think upon thy Commandments to do them. Grant this, O Father, for Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

For Perseverance.

Lord, raise up, I pray thee, thy power, and come among us, and with great might succour me; that whereas through my sins and wickedness, I am sore let and hindred in running the race that is set before me; thy bountiful grace and mercy may help and strengthen me to hold out unto the end, that so I may be saved; to be faithful unto death, that I may receive a Crown of life: nourish me, I pray thee, with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep me in the same, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MEDITATION

FOR

Every Day of the Week.

Mondays Meditation.

Of the End for which I was Born,

Y God, who is not capable of any accession of Glory or Happiness by bringing me into this World, yet hath been pleased to bring me out of nothing, and give me a Being, that so he might make me the object of his love, and hath now placed me in a condition far above all his other Creatures, except his Angels, and as all his other Creatures are subservient to my use, so hath he also ordained those heavenly pieces of this Creation to be ministring Spirits for my protection and advantage; and hath given me an Understanding, Will, and Memory; a Body, vigorous, active, fit for imployment of several kinds. But surely, as I did not make my self, nor give my self those indowments; so am I not to think, that I am made for my self, or to serve my self alone; No, I am told by Solomon, that God made all things for himself; and if all things, then my self too, who enjoy no small share of his loving kind-ness; and therefore now I am not free, and at my own appointment and disposition in the World, but am obliged to perform the things for which I was sent into this habitation: And upon my most serious recollection I am convinced, that for no other matter, or cause, or end I was born or placed here, but onely to serve God in this life, and by this service to gain Heaven and Salvation in the life to come. Moses tells me, that we were created, that we should be an holy People to serve our God; and for this end we were redeemed, Luke 1. 74,75. to serve God in holiness and righteruses all the days of our life. oulness all the days of our life. Since then it is thus, that the end and final cause of my being in this World is to serve God, and thereby to work out my own falvation, whatfoever thing I do, or bestow my time in which is ei-ther contrary, or impertment, or not profitable to this end, though it were to gain Kingdoms, it is but vanity and lost labour, and such as will turn in time to grief and repentance, if I change not my courses; because it is not the matter for which I came into this World, nor for which I shall be demanded an account, except it be to receive judgment and punishment for the same. Again, seeing my onely business and affair in this World is to serve my Maker, and fave my own foul, and that all other Creatures here are but to serve my use to that onely end, I defire to be indifferent to all these Creatures, as to Riches or Poverty, to Health or Sickness, to Honours or Contempt; and I will endeavour to defire fo much or little of either of them as God sees best for me to the attainment of the faid end, which is the serving of God, and the weal of my own foul. And now, O my foul, I must take thee off from all vain and finful delights, and from all immoderate use of those that are most innocent; and fix my endeavourse, and all my actions upon those things which may conduce to those ends, resolving to spend this day accordingly.

'A short Ejaculation for this day.

Lord, since thou hast made me a reasonable Creature, let me not be more unreasonable than the Beasts, who do all according to the Rules thou hast set them: Grant, that I may do nothing this day, but what may advance thy Glory, and my own happiness. Amen.

Tuesday

Tuesdays Meditation.

Of Gods Loving-kindness to Man.

Hen I confider the parts of my body, or the faculties of my foul, I am aftonish'd at my own dull heart, that I should so ungrate-fully spend my days without considering the manifold mercies of my God. How many poor Creatures do I behold, whom Nature hath rendered ridiculous by some deformities, in either misplacing, adding, or taking away some of their Members; or else by Palsies, breaking of bones, or some other diseases or sad accidents have been made utterly useless when they were made: whilest my God hath fent me into the World compleatly built, and hath ever fince preserved me thus without any of those blemishes or fad inconveniences, which I fee many, that are better than my felf, labour under. And then, my reason is perfect and clear without any imperfection, serves me upon all occasions to contrive and manage all those affairs I am engaged in: whereas many are so stupid and ignorant, so south and foolish, that they little differ from the very Beasts that tread upon the Grass, and cannot in any services be useful either to themtrives or others. But, besides all these and the other other advantages I enjoy in common with all Christians, as my being created in the likeness of nothing but himself, to no other end, but to be his honourable Servant in this World, and his Copartner in Kingly Glory for all eternity in the World to come; besides the redemption and preservation which I am entitled to: Yet if I do not wretchedly oppose his various contrivances for my eternal good, I have many advantages in my education, and in the daily passages of my life, being assisted by good Books, frequent In-structions, constant Examples, and daily Devotions, which many good People have not the opportunity of. And now I am ashamed of my ingratitude to so good, so great, so bountiful a Lord, and resolve with my self for the time to come to amend my life, and my former behaviour to him. And fince I know there is nothing, O Lord, which doth so much displease thee, or dry up the Fountain of thy mercy, or so binds thy hands from doing good, as doth ingratitude in the receiving of thy Benefits, wherein I have hitherto exceeded all others; but I have done it, O Lord, in mine own ignorance, not confidering thine infinite gifts bestowed on me, or what account thou wilt demand for the same. But now seeing thou hast vouchsafed to make me worthy of this especial grace also, whereby to fee and know mine own error, I hope hereafter by direction of the same grace to shew my self a Digitized by Google G 2 better child towards thee. O my God, I am vanquished at length with consideration of thy love; and how can I have the heart to offend thee hereafter; seeing thou hast preserved me so many ways with benefits? Can I have hands to lift up against thee, who hast given up thine own hands to be nailed upon the Cross for me? No, I trust not to return to such iniquity for the time to come, to which, I beseech thee for thy mercies sake, from thy holy throne of Heaven, to say, Amen.

The Ejaculation for this day.

Lord, as thy mercies do surround me, so grant that my returns of duty may abound; and let me this day manifest my gratitude by doing something ovell-pleasing unto thee. Amen.

Wednesdays Meditation.

Of Sin.

WHen I reflect upon the displeasure which God hath to sin, to be so great, that he hates all those that work iniquity, that both the wicked man and his wickedness are hateful in his sight, and finally, that the whole life of sinners finners, their thoughts, words, yea and their good actions also are abominations unto him, whilest they live in sin; and that which is yet more, he cannot abide nor permit the finner to praise him, or to name his testimonies with his mouth, as the Holy Ghost testifieth. When I consider all this, I cannot but tremble with fear, lest I should be one of that number; having carelessy and vainly, and in many things finfully past away my days and years without so much as a serious. enquiry into my own life, or how I might give an account to my God: And when he hath called unto me, and invited me by any of his gracious methods to good, I have rather yielded to the vain & finful complacencies of my tempting companions, and have too often choien to hearken to, and follow them in their alluring cu-. Stoms, than to yelld my self to his heavenly Will, .. and the invitations of his Holy Spirit: Nay, fince I have more solemnly dedicated my self to his service, and have had the paths of piety fmoothed and made plain for me to walk in with ease and delight, and have had a guide to. instruct me in the ways of his Commandments: yet I still feel a coldness in my best performances; and my heart is even ready to retreat from holy duties, and willing again to withdraw me into the accustomary paths of this foolish World; and my treacherous soul is ready to argue on their fide, to defend & presently to excuse its ways, by Digitized by Google 3 : faying, faying. Pride is a point of Gentry, and having a just esteem of my self; that gluttony and pampering my flesh is a warrantable enjoyment of the Creatures, that anger and revenge are both effects of a noble mind that must not tamely put up affronts or difrespects; that lascivious-ness is but a trick of youth; that the immode-nate and expensive Artifices of cloathing, washing, patching, and adorning, about which so much time is frequently spent, are but the innocent setting off that beauty and comely feature, which they say, was purposely bestowed by God to be set out to best advantage for admiration and delight. Thus am I ensured by the bewitching example of others to betray my own reason, so as to have too kind thoughts of all vices and fooleries of mankind; I shall one day find that such pleasant devices and dreams will be turned into tears, and such fond conceits in-to doleful lamentations; for I know God will not be jested with, and that he is the same God still, and will ask as severe an account of me, as he hath done of others before: Therefore, my foul, I will drive out of my heart all vain and foolish complacencies in any thing that may withdraw me from my duty or engage me into fin; and I will by Gods assistance spend my remaining days so carefully, as not willingly to commit any thing I know to be a fin, or do any action, that I think may offend my God.

The Ejaculation for this Day.

O Lord, let me not this day add to that heap of sins which I stand guilty of, but give me grace to pass it innocently, that neither in thought, word, or deed, any offence may pollute my soul. Amen.

Thursdays Meditation.

Of Death.

Do now appear before my God a living object of his favour; but how foon the Scene may change, and I go hence, is not yet discovered to me; possibly this very day may be the last that I shall ever count, and the same earth, which I do now so negligently tread, may speedily receive me into her cold embraces. Nor is the way by which I shall pass from hence less uncertain than the time; for I cannot recount how many ways I may fall into those hands of my eternal Judge, whereof St. Paul conceives great horror in onely thinking. One little stone falling from the house top as I pas by, one slip of my Horse, or fall of my Coach as I ride, one sudden mischance of a million that may befall me, is able to bereave me of this life .. Digitized by Google life, and cast me into that everlastingness, out of which the whole World shall not be able to deliver me. And if I could triumph over all these sad accidents, and had assurance that nothing of milhap should befal me to hurry me to my Grave; yet I have a war within me, a Seedplot of corruption which will at length by degrees eat out my juice and marrow, and certainly return me to that Dust from whence I took my Being; and all those Friends and Relations who profess so much kindness, and are my Companions in my merriment, will endeavour to avoid the fight of me, and leave me a pale carkass to be sacrificed to the gaping Grave, and think no more of me than I am used to do of those I now survive. Possibly some one or other dear Friend may passionately follow my Hearse, and mix some days and nights with tears for my departure. But alas, when the black attire of Funeral is over, and all my Acquaintants dif-missed to their several houses, I am lodged in a condition uncapable of alteration; My Body falls to dust, and is mingled with its own ruines; But my foul, that appears before the tribunal of that strict inquiry, that leaves no circumstance unfearched, but takes cognizance of all the passages of my life; and accordingly I am dismissed into an endless condition of happiness or wo; and this condition I must undoubtedly one time or other arrive at, through the gate of death.

O then let me daily, nay hourly, provide for that passage! I will by frequent meditation of my death, suppress all growth of sin in me; I will think of the cold Iweat of Death, and by that, allay all heat of wanton thoughts: I will think how meanly clad I shall enter into my Coffin, onely a Shroud and other dreffes fitted to cover me from undecency: and this thought shall keep me from complacency in rich attire and haughty deckings: I will think how pale and wan, and loathsom I shall then appear, and by that thought I will subdue and mortifie these pleasing conceits I am too apt to entertain: I will contrive the spending of my days so as everv day may something advance my preparation for a bleffed Sentence.

The Ejaculation for this Day. .

O Lord, deliver me from the corruption of my sown life, that so when I die, my corruptible may put on incorruption; and let me this day do something that may add to my comfortable departure out of this life. Amon.

Fridays Meditation.

Of Judgment.

A S soon as I have bid adieu to the World, and am arrested by the cold hands of Death, I must appear before my Judge, stript of all my Ornaments, and for saken of all my Companions; the Book which shall be opened, and whereby my cause must be discerned, shall be the evidence of my deeds and actions in this life, recorded in the testimony of my own Conscience, and in the infallible memory of Gods unsearchable wisdom; so that this account will be most exact and exquisite, not omitting the least errour or offence that I have committed or passed in all my life; and then my particular reward or punishment will be affigned to my own felf, conformable to the quality of this account, wherein sentence of life or death is to be pronounced accordingly, and that without ever being recalled. But besides this, there will be another day of my appearance too, when all the World shall appear at the same general Sessions, and then my body shall rise with me again to partake with me either in joy or torment according as it hath been instrumental in my good or bad actions, and as it hath acted in those those virtues or vices which my foul did exercise. And there my Saviour Christ who was contemptible in this World, and dishonoured publickly, and put to confusion with the rest. of his Saints and Martyrs in the fight of all men, shall then shew his Power and Majesty in the fight of all his Creatures together, but especially of all his wicked enemies, who after that day are never to see nor behold him more; And then too my own happiness or misery will have its full completion, and receive all the degrees which it is capable of. For men, when they die, do not commonly carry with them all that good or evil which they have wrought, having left behind them divers things which may increase their good or ill deferving after their death; as their Examples, their Instructions given to others, their temporal Faculties or Abilities, Books, Preachings, Exhortations, and other like means, whereby good or evil may proceed after their departure, the reward whereof cannot so continently be assigned to them, for that their joy and punishment, in the places where they are, may daily be augmented by the hurt or good that may be wrought in this World, by the means they left behind them: So 'tibelieved by divers, that the glory of St. Paul is increased daily in Heaven, and shall be unto the Worlds end, by reason of them who do daily profit by his Writings, and raife examples: oi.

of good life upon the Earth: As also on the contrary part, that the torments of Hereticks are continually augmented by the number of them who are from time to time corrupted by their feditious and pestilent Writings; the like they hold of dissolute Poets, and other loose Writers, who have left behind them lascivious wanton and carnal Poems; as also of negligent Parents, Masters or Teachers, who by their carelesness and evil examples, gave occasion to corrupt their Children, Scholars, or Servants committed to their Governments and Instructions. But after this general day of Judgment once past, there shall be no more place of pretending upon earth to either good or evil; for that the World there and then shall have an end, and final sentence be pronounced of what soever hath passed from the first foundation and establishment thereof. And is it thus, O my foul, that I must one day undergo so strict a scrutiny, that I cannot avoid so final a condition? I will furely then, clearing and casting up all accounts and reckonings of my traffick and Stewardship in this worldly pilgrimage, according to the advice of my God, have a careful and continual remembrance and confideration of it, as of the greatest and most important business that ever I shall deal in; and I will look upon it as the most forcible means to restrain me from sin that possibly may be amongst frail men in this life. Good God, what a won-a wonderful meeting will this be! how joyful to the good, and how lamentably doleful and terrible to the wicked! The godly and righteous being to receive their bodies, wherein they lived into the league and fellowship of their eternal bliss, shall embrace them with all possible sweetness and delight: but the miserable damned spirits beholding the carkasses which were the instruments and occasion of their sin; and, when well knowing that their unspeakable torments shall be increased by their mutual conjunctions and affociation, shall abhor and detest the same. and curse the day that ever they were acquainted. And can I now think fit any longer to delay my preparation for this terrible day? I will now enter into a true judgment of my felf, my life, state, and actions, that so I may prevent the danger of that day: I will prepare my felf, and accept of that good counfel of my Jesus, and watch for that day, that so I may be able to stand in that fiery trial: And my bleffed Lord give me his Grace to look better about me, than ever vet I have done. Amen.

The Ejaculation for this Day.

My God, the Apostle tells me, that if I will judge my self; I shall not be judged of the Lord. O assist me with thy Holy Spirit, to ransack my polluted beart, that I may this day find out and for sake what-sower foewer thou abhorrest, that so I may meet my Saviour at that great day of Judgment, with a pure and penitent heart. Amen.

Saturdays Meditation.

Of Hell and the condition of those that are doomed to it.

I Am surprized with horrour and amazement when I do but restect upon this place, and am no less astonished to consider what God hath revealed to us in the Scripture, touching the dreadful circumstances of hellish punishments, and yet to see how little the wicked men of this World do fear; and indeed how little I my felf have regarded them. I have not suffered the thought of Hell to dwell upon my spirits, lest it should prove too great an allay and hindrance to my pleasures and earthly contentments. But I am well assured, that this is the onely time wherein I may avoid all; now is the feafon. when I may put my felf out of danger of all these terrible matters; and therefore this very day I will resolve to fix them in my thoughts, for I know not what shall become of me to morrow; it may be, my heart will then be as hard and as careless of all these affairs as it hath been here-j heretofore. Besides, I know that it cannot be very long before I must be judged; and that the pains are intolerable and yet eternal, which do attend and expect the wicked: I confess them most unfortunate and miserable, who for pleasure or commodity of this World are fallen into them: What then should hinder me to dispatch my self of all impediments, and break violently from the charms of this wicked World which hinder me from this true and zealous resolution? Why should I sleep one night, seeing this night may chance to be my last? I know if I come there with any guilt upon my foul, any fin unrepented of, I must stand to that which is past, and according to my former demeanour must receive my doom. I shall behold a Judge there, whose Face I cannot avoid, whose Wisdom I cannot deceive, and whose Equity I cannot bow, whose Severity I cannot mollifie, whose Indignation I cannot appeafe, whose Determination I cannot alter, and from whose Sentence I cannot possibly appeal. Alas, what will all those delicate people do at that instant, who live now in ease and pleafure, and can take no pains in the service of God. nor abide to hear the naming of that day? What shift, I say, will they find out in their extremities? Whither will they turn themselves? Whose help will they crave? They shall see all things cry vengeance round about them, all things yield them cause of fear and horrour, but nothing any spark οſ of hope or consolation; above them they shall behold the Judge offended with their wickedness; beneath them, Hell opened, and the cruel furnace ready prepared to receive them to torment; on their right hand shall be their sins acculing them; on their left, the Devils ready to execute Gods eternal sentence upon them; within them shall lie their own Consciences gnawing, without them all damned fouls bewailing; and on every fide the whole World burning. And whilest the saved are rejoicing and singing praises to their Saviour, the Damned will be blaspheming and curfing the day of their Nativity. Confider the intolerable upbraiding of those most insolent infernal spirits against the miserable condemned Souls which are delivered to their prey; with how bitter scoffs and taunts will they drag them to their torments? Consider the eternal separation that must then be made of Fathers and Children, Mothers and Daughters, Friends and Companions, the one to glory, the other to milery, without any hope ever to see or hear any more the one the other; and that which will be as great a grief as any of the rest, the Son or Daughter going to rest or joy shall not take pity of their own Parents or Friends that are carried to calamity. but rather shall rejoice thereat, for that it redoundeth to the Glory of God for the execution of his Justice. O my soul, who art now considering dering of these things afar off, and then shalt be present to see actually before thine eves; what a doleful separation will that be! What a parting! O let me think feriously, where will all my delights, recreations and vanities be at that day, all mine and my Parents pleasures and paftimes, and our pride and bravery in apparel, our glittering in Gold, and sweet savours and perfumes, our honours and adorations of Cap and Knee, our adulations of Flatterers, our delicate fare and dainty dishes, our wanton dalliances, and pleasant entertainments? Where are all our Friends and merry Companions, accustomed to laugh and disport the time with us? Are all now gone? O vanity of vanities, when we have most need of them they are farthest from us, and the remembrance of them shall do nothing but torment us: O how four will the pleasures past of the World seem at that day? How doleful will the cogitations thereof be unto us? How frivolous a thing all the delights, dignities, riches, offices, and other preferments, wherein we take fuch excessive satisfaction now, and do weary our spirits for gaining the same? And on the contrary side, how joyful will that person be at that instant, who hath attended to lead a vertuous life, in relifting of fin, and doing good works, albeit it were with much pain and contempt in the World? Most happy creature shall he or she be that ever they were born, and overwhelmed whelmed with joy, that ever they walked the paths of Religion; and no tongue but Gods can express their happiness. And this by Gods Grace shall be the business of my remaining days.

The Ejaculation for this Day.

Holy Father, season my Soul with such a dread of eternal torments, that no temptation may so bewitch me as to commit any thing that may bring me in danger of them; and let me this day order my steps so vigilantly, that I may contract no stain, which may occasion thy displeasure towards me, for Jesus Christs sake. Amen.

Sundays Meditation.

Of Heaven and the Joys of that Place.

IF a poor afflicted man, that were out of his way, wandring alone in a deep miry dirty Lane, in the midst of a dark and tempestuous night, far from company, destitute of money, beaten with rain, terrified with thunder, stiff with cold, wearied out with labour, almost famished with hunger and thirst, and near brought to despair, with a multitude of other miseries; should upon the sudden, in the twinkling of an Digitized by Google eye, be taken out of that affliction, and be placed in a goodly, large, and rich Palace furnished with all kind of clear lights, comfortable fires, fweet favours, dainty meats, foft beds, pleafant musick, delicate apparel, and honourable company, all prepared for him alone, and all to attend his coming, to receive and embrace him, to serve and honour him, and to crown and appoint him King for ever: What would this poor man do? How would he look? Certainly his heart would be ravished with that sudden and exceeding greatness of so unestimable a comfort; yet so shall it be, and much more with those happy souls that come to heaven from the troubles of this life; for never was a cool shade so pleasant in a hot Summers day, nor a Well-Spring to the poor Traveller in his greatest thirst of the Summer, nor the repose of an easie Bed to a wearied Servant after his labour at night, as shall this rest of Heaven be to a wearied Soul that comes thither. St. Paul tells us, that we shall see God face to face; St. John tells us, that we shall see God as he is: both these Apoftles intimating, that all happiness is comprised in that: And the reason of all this is, because all the pleasures, delights, and contentations of this World, wherein mortal men do solace themselves, being nothing else but little pieces of Gods incomprehensible felicity: The same are contained, and much more perfectly in God him-

himself, from whom they are derived: So that they are in their own nature imperfect unto men: But now in seeing God, we shall see all the goodness and perfection of Worldly things compact and united together, and presented unto us all at once: And then this flesh of ours that now is so cumbersom, grievous to the mind, that now is invested with so many inconveniences, subject to so many mutations, vexed with so many diseases, defiled with so many corruptions, replenished with so many miseries and calamities, shall then be made glorious and most perfect to endure for ever without change or mutation, and to reign thus with our souls everlastingly. O what a joyful day will that be to thee, having lived in the fear of God, and having now atchieved in his service the end of thy Pilgrimage! thou shalt come at thy death to pass from misery and labour, to life and immortality: And in that paffage, when others begin to fear, thou shalt lift up thy head in hope: What a day of joy shall that be unto thee, when thy foul flipping out of Prison, and conducted by the Angels into the Tabernacle of Heaven, shall be received there with the honourable company and troops of that place, with all those blessed Spirits, with Cherubims and Seraphims, Patriarchs, Prophets, Martyrs, Virgins, Innocents, Confessors, holy Bishops, and other Saints of God! All which, as they did rejoice at thy conversion from sin; so shall they triumph now at thy Coronation and Glorification: What joy will thy foul receive at that day, when she shall be presented by her good Angel into the presence of all those Princely States, before the Seat and Majesty of the Blesfed Trinity! What recital and declaration of all thy Good Works done, and Troubles suffered for the love and service of God Almighty! when, I say, these Blessed Spirits shall lay down in all that honourable Confiftory, all thy vertuous Acts, with their particularities, all thy Almideeds, all thy Prayers, all thy Fasting, all thy innocence of Life, all thy patience in bearing Injuries, all thy Constancy and Industry, all thy temperance in Meats and Drinks, all the vertues of thy whole life: When all, I fay, shall be recounted there, all commended, all rewarded; shalt not thou now see the value and profits of holy living? Shalt not thou now confess from the bottom of thy heart, that gainful and honourable is the service of God? Shalt not thou now be most joyful, and bless the hour ten thousand times, when thou first resolvedst to leave the flavery of this miserable World, to serve only so bountiful a Lord? Shalt not thou now think thy felf beholden most deeply to him or her, that perfuaded thee first to make this resolution? But yet more than this, when thou shalt look round about thee, and see what a Port and Haven of ſecu∙ curity thou art arrived at, and shalt cast back thine eyes upon those dangers thou hast passed, and wherein other men are in hazard, thy cause of joy shall greatly be increased, for thou shalt see now evidently, how infinite times thou wert in peril to perish in thy earthly Pilgrimage, if God had not held his special hand over thee; thou shalt now see the danger wherein other men are, the death and damnation, wherem to many of thy Friends and Acquaintants have fallen, in the eternal pains of Hell incurred by fundry that used to laugh and be merry with thee; all which shall augment thy felicity of this so fortunate a lot. And now for thy self, thou mayest be secure, thou art out of all dangers for ever; there is now no more need, or fear, or labour, or care; thy onely exercise will be now to rejoice, to triumph, to fing Hallelujahs to the Lamb, that hath brought theo to this felicity and will continue thee there for ever afting. Moreover thy happiness will be much advanced by meeting with all thy godly Friends in Heaven, with Father and Mother, with Brethren and Sisters, with Kindred and Relations, Familiars and Acquaintants; where mutual embraces and welcomings will still increase thy Joy. Add to this the most triumphant exultation that shall daily be at the fresh arrival of new Brethren and Sifters coming thither from time to time, with the Spoils of their enemies, vanquished and conquered quered in this World. O what a comfortable fight will it be to see those heavenly mansions filled every day with men and women; to fee the Crown of Glory fet upon their heads, and that in all varieties, according to the infinite variety of their Combats and Conquests; One for Martyrdom and Confession against the Persecutor; another for Virginity and Chastity against the Flesh; another for Humility and Poverty against the World; another for many Conquests together against the Devil. And now, my Soul, thou hast been shewed a faint draught of Heaven, and fure thou canft not but from this dull Prospect, long, desire and even pant to gain a little of it. But there is no other way ever to arrive there, there is no hopes to be crowned with this wreath of Glory, but by a virtuous and holy life, by keeping of Gods Commandments; for it is not every one that faith, Lord, Lord, shall enter to the Kingdom of Heaven, but they that shall do the will of the eternal Father of 'Christ, who is in Heaven. And I am well assured, that whatsoever hath been the subject of this Weeks Meditation, either of my Creator or Creation; of my particular end, or of the Majefty, and Bounty, and Justice of my God and Saviour; as also of the account that he will one day demand of me, and of the punishments and rewards laid up for the life to come: All this, I fay, hath been to bring me to a true sense and appre-apprehension of my poor soul, and to engage me to a vertuous and holy life here, and so to guide me to inexpressible joy hereafter. The Lord God of Heaven give me grace to make use of all to those blessed ends. Amen.

The Ejaculation for this Day.

Lord, fix my heart so firmly on thy everlasting foys, that nothing in this World may ever hinder my pursuits of them, and let this days performances some ways advance my assurance of them, that so when I return to my earth, I may lie down in sure and certain hopes to be transplanted into those mansions, where all tears shall be wiped from mine eyes, and live eternally with my Saviour JESUS. Amen. Amen.

Glory be to God on high.
