SHORT VIEW

O F

The Difference between the Moravian Brethren lately in England,

And the Rev. Mr. John and CHARLES WESLEY.

EDNESDAY Nov. 7. 1739. I had a long Conference with Mr. Spangenberg. I agreed with all he said of the Power of Faith. But I could not agree, either

That None has any Faith, so long as he is liable to any Doubt or Fear: Or that till we have the full Affurance of Faith. we ought to abstain from the Ordinances of GoD.

Monday, December 31. I had a long and particular Conversation with Mr. Molther. I weighed all his Words with the utmost Care, desired him to explain what I did not understand; asked him again and again, Do I not mistake what you say? Is this your Meaning, or is it not? So that I think, if Gop has given me any measure of Understanding, I could not mistake him much.

As foon as I came home, I befought God to affift me, and not suffer the Blind to go out of the way. I then wrote down what I conceived to be the Difference between us, in the following Words:

As to Faith, you believe

1. There are no Degrees in Faith, and that no Man has any Degree of it, before all things in him are become new, before he has the full Affurance of Faith. or the clear Perception that Christ dwelleth in him:

2. Accordingly you believe, there is no justifying

Faith, or State of Justification short of this:

3. There

3. Therefore you believe, That Gift of God which many received fince Peter Böbler came into England, viz. "A fure Confidence of the Love of God to them." was not Justifying Faith:"

" was not Justifying Faith:"
4. And that the Joy and Love attending it, were from Animal Spirits, from Nature or Imagination;
Not Joy in the Holy Ghost, and the Real Love of God.

shed abroad in their Hearts:

Whereas I believe

1. There are Degrees in Faith, and that a Man may have fime Degree of it, before all things in him are become new, before he has the full Assurance of Faith, or the clear Perception that Christ dwelleth in him:

2. Accordingly I believe, there is a Degree of Justifying Fairb, (and confequently a State of Justification) thort of and commonly antecedent to, this.

3. And I believe, That Gift of God which many received, fince Peter Böhler came, was Justifying Faith:

4. And that the Joy and Love attending it, were not from Animal Spirits, from Nature or Imagination; but a measure of Joy in the Holy Ghost, and of the Love of God shed abroad in their Hearts.

As to the Way to Faith, you believe,

That the way to attain it is, To wait for Christ, and be still, i. e. Not to use (what we term) the Means of Grace: Not to go to Church: Not to Communicate: Not to sast; Not to use so much Private Prayer: Not to read the Scripture:

(Because you believe, These are not Means of Grace,

. e. Do not ordinarily convey God's Grace to Unbeievers: And

That it is impossible for a Man to use them, without ru sting in them)

Not to do Temporal Good: nor to attempt doing

Spiritual Good:

Because you believe, no Fruit of the Spirit is given, by those who have not that Fruit themselves.

Whereas I believe,

The way to attain Faith, is To wait for Christ and be fill, In using all the Means of Grace:

There-

Therefore I believe it right for him who knows he has not Faith (i. e. That Affurance of Faith)

To go to Church: To Communicate: To fast: To use as much Private Prayer as he can: and to read the Scripture.

(Because I believe these are Means of Grace, i. e. Do ordinarily convey God's Grace to Unbelievers; And that it is possible, for a Man to use them, without trusting in them)

To do all the temporal Good he can:

And to endeavour after doing Spiritual Good:
Because, I know many Fruits of the Spirit are given.

by those who have them not themselves.

Friday, April 25. 1740. My Brother and I spent two Hours in Conversation with Mr. Molther. He now also explicitly affirm'd, 1. That there are no Degrees in Faith; that none has any Faith who has ever any Doubt or Fear: And 2. That every one who has not such a Faith as excludes all Doubt and Fear, ought, till he has it, to be fill; that is, as he explained it, not to use the Ordinances or Means of Grace, so called. He also expressly afferted. 1. That to those who have this Faith, the Ordinances are not Matter of Duty. are not commanded to use them: They are free; they may use them, or they may not: 2. That those who have not this Faith, ought not to use them, (particularly not to communicate) Because God neither commands nor defigns they should (commanding them to none, defigning them only for Believers) And because they are not Means of Grace, there being no such thing as any Means of Grace, but Christ only.

ing up the Works of the Law: "Which (added Mr. V____) we believers are no more bound to obey, than the 'u jetts of England to obey the Laws of France."

Wednesday, July 16. Going in the Evening to Fetter-

Lane, I read (from an Old Book), to this effect :

" The Scriptures are Good. Prayer is Good. Communicating is Good. Relieving our Neighbour is Good. But to one who is not born of Gop, none of these are Good, but all very Evil. For him to read the Scriptures, or to pray, or to communicate, or to do any Outward Work, is deadly Poison. let him be born of Gop. Till then let him not do any of these things. For if he does, he destroys himfelf."

After reading this twice or thrice over, as distinctly as I could, I ask'd, " My Brethren, is this right or is it wrong? Mr. B -- answer'd immediately, " It is right It is all right. It is the Truth : And to this we must all come, or we never can come to Christ".

Sunday 20. I took my leave of Fetter-Lane, by reading a Paper, the Substance whereof was as follows.

"You affert, that there is no Jufifying Faith,

where there is ever any Doubt or Fear:

And that none ought to use what our Church terms the Means of Grace, till he has such a Faith as excludes all Doubt or Fear.

You have often affirm'd, that to fearch the Scriptures, to pray, or to communicate before we have this Faith. is, To feek Salvation by Works: And that till thefe Works are laid afide, no Man can receive Faith.

I believe these Affertions to be flatly contrary to the? Word of God. I have warned you hereof again and again, and befought you to turn back to the Law and the Testimony. I have borne with you long, hoping you would return. But as I find you more and more confirm'd in the Error of your Ways, nothing now remains, but that I should give you up to Goo."

August 8. In my Letter to the Moravian Church. I wrote as follows:

"You mix much of Man's Wisdom with the Wisdom of Gon. You greatly refine the plain Religion, saugh by the Letter of holy Writ, and Philosophize Digitized by Google on almost every part of it. Hence you talk much, in a manner wholly unsupported by Scripture, against mixing Nature with Grace, against Imagination, and concerning the Animal Spirits, mimicking the Power of the Holy Ghost. Hence you caution us against Animal Joy, Natural Love of one another, and Selfish Love of Gon; against which or any of them, there is no one Caution in all the Bible.

"You likewise greatly check Joy in the Holy Ghost, by such Cautions against Sensible Comforts, as have no tittle of Scripture to support them. And your Brethren here damp the Zeal of Babes in Christ, talking much of False Zeal, and forbidding them to declare what God has done for their Souls.

"Lastly, you undervalue good Works, never publickly infisting on the Necessity of them. And when some of the Brethren have spoken of them, they put them on a wrong foot, viz. If you find yourself moved, if your Heart is free to it, then reprove, exhort, relieve. By this means you put an uncertain, inward Motion, in the Place of the Plain, written Word."

Thursday, September 3. I met Count Z. Part of our Conversation was as follows:

Z. I acknowledge no inherent Perfection. Christ is our only Perfection.

W. I believe, the Spirit of Christ works Christian

Perfection in true Christians.

Z. By no means. All our Perfection is in Christ. Faith in the Blood of Christ, is the only Christian Perfection. The whole Christian Perfection, is imputed, not inherent. We are perfect in Christ. We are never perfect in our selves.

W. Is not then every true Believer Holy?

Z. Certainly. But he is Holy in Christ, not in himself.

W. But are not his Heart and Life Holy?

Z. Undoubtedly.

W. Is he not, by Consequence, Holy in Himself?

Z. No, no. Only in Christ, He is not Holy in Himself. He has no Holiness at all in Himself.

W. Has he not the Love of Gon and of his Neighbour in his Heart, yea, and the whole Image of Gon?

Z. He has. But this is not Gospel-Holiness. Faith is Gospel-Holiness.

W. You grant as much as I affirm. You own, the whole Heart, and the whole Life of a Believer are Holy: that he loves God with all his Heart, and ferves him with all his Strength. I defire no more. This is all I mean by Perfection or Christian Holiness.

Z. But this is not Holiness. A Christian is not more Holy, when he has more, nor less Holy when he has less of, this Love.

W. How! does not a Believer as he grows in Love.

grow in Holiness?

Z In no wise. The Moment he is justified, he is fanctified wholly. And he is neither more nor less Holy, from that Moment to his Death.

W. Is not then a Father in Christ Holier than a

New-born Babe?

Z. No. Entire Sanctification and Entire Justification are in one and the same instant, and neither of them admits either of Increase or Decrease.

W. But does not a Believer increase (or grow) in the Love of God? Is he made Perfect in Love, as foon as he is justified?

Z. He is. He never increases in the Love of Gop. He loves Gop intirely at that Moment, as he is intirely fanctified.

It was some time before this, viz. on Sunday, June 22. That from those Words of Jeremiah, Stand ye in the way, ask for the old Paths, I took Occasion to give a plain Account of the manner wherein these Tares were sown among the Good Seed; to this effect:

"About two Years ago it pleased God, to shew us the Old Path of Salvation by Faith. And many soon tasted of this Salvation, being justified freely, having Peace with God, rejoicing in hope of the Glory of God, and having his Love shed abroad in their Hearts. These now ran the way of his Commandments: They performed their Duty to God and Man. They walked in all the Ordinances of the Lord; and thro' these Means which he had appointed for that End, received daily Grace to help in time of need, and went on from Faith to Faith.

But

But Eight or Nine Months ago, certain Men began to affirm, "That we had no Faith at all: That Faith admits of no Degree:, and consequently weak Faith is in truth no Faith: That no one is justified, who is not wholly Pure in Heart, and incapable of any Doubt or Fear.

They affirm'd also, "That there is no Commandment in the New Testament, but to Believe: that no other Duty lies upon us; and that when a Man does believe, he is not bound or obliged to do any thing which is commanded there: In particular, that he is not Subject to Ordinances, that is, (as they explain'd it) is not bound or obliged, to pray, to communicate, to read or hear the Scriptures; but may or may not do any of these things (being now at Liberty, not in Bondage) according as he is inclined, according as his Heart is free to it, or not.

They farther affirmed, "That a Believer cannot use any of these as a Means of Grace: that indeed there is no such thing in the Wold, as any Means of Grace: that an Unbeliever ought not to use them at all, not to pray, not to search the Scriptures, or communicate: but to be still, to leave off these Works of the Lagraand then he will foon receive Faith.

All these Assertions I propose to consider. The First was, that weak Faith is no Faith.

By weak Faith I understand, 1. That which is mixed with Fear, particularly of not enduring to the End. 2. That which is mixed with Doubt, whether we have not deceived ourselves, and whether our Sins be indeed forgiven? 3. That which has not yet fully purished the Heart. And such is the Faith of almost all Believers for a Season.

Yet that weak Faith is Faith, appears, 1. From St. Paul, Him that is weak in the Faith receive. 2. From St. John. speaking of Believers who were little Children, as well as of young Men and Fathers. 3. From our Lord's own Words, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little Faith? O thou of little Faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? I have prayed for thee (Peter) that thy Faith fuil thee not. Therefore he then had Faith.

Yet so weak was that Faith, that even gross Sin that Night prevailed over him.

Monday 23. I confidered the fecond Affertion, That there is but one Commandment in the New Testament, viz. To believe: that no other Duty lies upon us, and that a Believer is not obliged to do any thing as commanded.

How gross, palpable a Contradiction is this, to the whole Tenor of the New Testament! Every Part of which is full of Commandments, from St. Matthew to the Revelation! But it is enough to observe, 1. That this bold Affirmation is flatly contrary to our Lord's own Words, Wholsever shall break one of the least of thele Commandments, shall be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven: for nothing can be more evident, than that he here speaks of more than one, of several Commandments; which every Soul, Believer or not, is obliged to keep, as commanded. 2. That this whole Scheme is overturned, by that other Sentence of our-Lord, When you have done all that is commanded you, fay, We have done no more than it was our Duty to do. 3 That altho' to do what Gop commands is a Believer's Priviledge, that does not affect the Question. He does it, nevertheless, as his bounden Duty, and as a Command of Gop. 4. That this is the furest Evidence of his Believing, according to our Lord's own Words, If ye love me, (which cannot be, unless ye believe) keep my Commandments. 5. That to defire to do what God commands, but not as a Command, is to affect not Liberty, but Independency: Such Independency as St. Paul had not; for tho' the Truth had made him free, yet was he not without Law to Gop, but under the Law to Christ: Such as the Holy Angels have not; for they fulfil his Commandments, and hearken to the Voice of his Words: Yea, such as Christ himself had not; for as the Father had given him Commandment, so he spake.

Tuesday 24. The Substance of my Exposition in the Morning, on, Wby yet are ye subject to Ordinances?

From hence it has been inferred, that Christians are not subject to the Ordinances of Christ: That Believers need not, and Unbelievers may not use them; these are not obliged, and those are not permitted so to do.

But with how little Reason this has been inferred.

will fufficiently appear to all who confider.

1. That the Ordinances here spoken of by St. Paul. are evidently Jewish Ordinances, such as, Touch not, Tafte not, Handle not, and those concerning Meats and Drinks, and New Moons. 2. That consequently, this has no Reference to the Ordinances of Chrift, such as Prayer, Communicating, and Searching the Scriptures. 3. That Christ himself taught, Men ought always to pray; and commands, to search the Scriptures, and to eat of that Bread and drink of that Cup, in Remembrance of bim. 4. That the Commands of Christ oblige all who are called by his Name, whether (in Strictness) Believers or Unbelievers; seeing whosoever breaketh the least of these Commandments, shall be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven.

In the Evening I preached on, Caft not away your Confidence, which bath great Recompence of Reward.

"Ye who have known and felt yourselves forgiven, cast not away your Confidence, 1. Tho' your Joy die away, your Love wax cold, and your Peace itself be roughly affaulted: Tho', 2. you should find Doubt or Fear, or strong and uninterrupted Temptation: Yea, tho', 3. you should find a Body of Sin in you, and thrusting fore at you, that you might fall.

The first Case may be only a fulfilling of your Lord's Words, Yet a little while and ye shall not fee me. But he will come unto you again, and your Heart shall rejoice, and your Joy no Man taketh from you. Your being in strong Temptation, yea, though it should rife so high, as to throw you into an Agony, is no more a Proof that you are not a Believer, than our Lord's Agony was a Proof, that he was not the Son of God.

Your finding Sin remaining in you still, is no Proof that you are not a Believer. Sin does remain in one that is juitified, tho' it bath not Dominion over him. For all Things are not already become new. But fear not. Yet a little while, and ye shall receive Power from on high, to purify yourselves, even as be is pure.

Wed. 25. From those Words, All Scripture is given by Inspiration of God, I took occasion to speak of the Ordinances of God, as they are Means of Grace.

Altho' this Expression, Means of Grace, be not sound in Scripture, yet the Sense of it undeniably is. For God hath in Scripture ordained Prayer, Reading or Hearing, and receiving the Lord's Supper, as ordinary Means of conveying his Grace to Man. And first, Prayer. For thus faith the Lord, Ask and it shall be given you. If any Man lack Wisdom, let him ask of God. Here God plainly ordains Prayer, as the Means of receiving whatsoever Grace we want: Particularly that Wisdom from above, which is the chief Fruit of the Grace of God.

Here likewise God commands all to pray, who defire to receive any Grace from him. Here is no Restriction as to Believers or Unbelievers; but least of all as to Unbelievers; for such doubtless were most of those to whom he said, Ask and it shall be given you.

We know indeed the Prayer of an Unbeliever is full of Sin. And yet it is not lost. Witness that Word, Cornelius, thy Prayers and thine Alms, are come up for a Memorial before GoD.

Thurs. 26. I shew'd, I. That to search (i. e. read and hear) the Scriptures, is a Command of God. 2. That this Command, is given to all, Believers or Unbelievers. 3. That this is commanded or ordained, as a Means of Grace, a Means of conveying the Grace of God to all, whether Unbelievers (such as those to whom he first gave this Command, and those to whom Faith cometh by Hearing) or Believers, who by Experience know, that all Scripture is prostable (or a Means to this End) that the Man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished to all good Works.

Frid. 27. I preached on, Do this in Remembrance of me.

"You have heard, that none but those who are converted, who have received the Holy Ghoss, who are Believers in the full Sense, may do this: Because this is not a converting Ordinance.

Is it not? Do not many of you know, the very Beginning of your thorough Conversion to God, was wrought wrought at the Lord's Supper? And does not one such Instance, overthrow that whole Assertion?

And did not our Lord himself command those very Men, who had not then received the Holy Ghoss, who (in the full Sense of the Word) were not Believers, to do this in Remembrance of him? Here the Precept is clear. And to these he delivered the Bread and Wine with his own Hands.

Sat. 28. I shew'd at large, That the Lord's Supper was ordained by God, to be (ordinarily) a Means of conveying to Man, either preventing, or justifying, or fandifying Grace, according to their several Necessities; and, 2. That the Persons for whom it was ordained, are all those who know and feel that they want his Grace, either to restrain them from Sin, or to serve their Sins forgiven, or to renew their Souls in the Image of God.

It is now easy to see, wherein the Difference lies, between the Moravian Doctrine and ours.

They believe and teach,

1. That Christ has done all which was necessary for the Salvation of all Mankind.

2. That consequently, we are to do nothing, as necessary to Salvation, but simply to believe in him.

.3. That there is but one Duty now, but one Command, viz. To believe in Christ.

- 4. That Christ has taken away all other Commands and Duties, having wholly abolished the Law: That a Believer is therefore free from the Law, is not obliged thereby to do or omit any Thing; it being inconsistent with his Liberty to do any thing as commanded.
- 5. That there is no fuch thing as Degrees in Faith, or weak Faith; fince he has no Faith, who has any Doubt or Fear.
- 6 That we are fanctified wholly the Moment we are justified, and are neither more nor less boly to the Day of our Death; Entire Sanctification, and entire Justification, being in one and the same Instant.

7. That a Believer is never fanctified or holy in himself, but in Christ only; He has no troliness in himself at all, all his Holiness being imputed, not inherent.

8. That a Man may feel a Peace which passeth all Under-

Understanding, may rejoice with Joy full of Glory, and have the Love of God and of all Mankind, with Dominion over all Sin; and yet all this may be only Nature, Animal Spirits, or the Force of Imagination.

9. That if a Man regards Prayer, or searching the Scriptures, or Communicating, as Matter of Duty; if he judges himself obliged to do these Things, or is troubled when he does them not; He is in Bondage; he has no Faith at all, but is seeking Salvation by the Works of the Law.

10. That therefore till we believe, we ought to be fill; i. e. not to pray, fearch the Scriptures, or communicate.

We believe that the first of these Propositions is ambiguous, and all the rest utterly false.

1. " Christ has done all that was necessary, for the Salvation of all Mankind."

This is ambiguous. Christ has not done all which was necessary for the absolute Salvation of all Mankind. For notwithstanding all that Christ has done, he that believeth not shall be damned. But he has done all which was necessary for the Conditional Salvation of all Mankind; i. e. If they believe; for thro' his Merits all that believe to the End with the Faith that worketh by Love shall be saved.

2. " We are to do nothing as necessary to Salvation, but fimply to believe in him.

If we allow the Count's Definition of Faith (Sixteen Discourses, p. 57.) viz The Historical Knowledge of this Truth, that Christ has been a Man, and suffered Death for us, then is this Proposition directly subversive of the whole Revelation of Jesus Christ.

3. "There is but one Duty now, but one Command,

viz. To believe in Christ.

Almost every Page in the New Testament, proves the Falshood of this Affertion.

4. " Christ has taken away all other Commands and Duties, having wholly abolished the Law.

How absolutely contrary is this to his own solemn Declaration! Think not that I am come to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I am not come to destroy, but to sulfil. One I ot or one Tittle shall in no wife pass from the Law, til. Heaven and Earth pass.

"Therefore a Believer is free from the Law." That he is free from the Curse of the Law we know, and that he is free from the Law, or Power, of Sin and Death. But where is it written, that he is free from the Law of God? You may as well say, He is free from Love, or Heaven.

" He is not obliged thereby to do or omit any thing, it being inconfiftent with his Liberty to do any thing as commanded.

So your Liberty, is a Liberty to disobey Gon; whereas ours is, a Liberty to obey him in all Things. So grossy, while we establish the Law, do you make woidthe Law thro' Faith.

5. "There is no such thing as Degrees in Faith, or weak Faith. He has no Faith who has any Doubt or Fear."

O why will you thus make God a Liar? Is there not Knowledge in the Most High?

6. "We are fan Eified wobolly the Moment we are justified, and are neither more nor less boly to the Day of our Death: Entire San Eification and entire Justification being in one and the same Instant."

Just the contrary appears both from the Tenor of Gon's Word, and the Experience of his Children.

7. "A Believer is never fanctified or holy in bimfelf, but in Christ only. He has no Holiness in bimfelf at all; all his Holiness being imputed, not inherent.

Scripture-Holiness is, the Image of God; the Mind which was in Christ; the Love of God and Man; Lowliness, Meekness, Gentleness, Temperance, Patience, Chastity. And do you coolly affirm, That this is only imputed to a Believer, and that he has none at all of this Holiness in him? Is Temperance imputed only to him that is a Drunkard still? Or, Chastity, to her that goes on in Whoredom? Nay; but a Believer is really chaste and temperate. And if so, he is, thus far, holy in himself.

Does a believer love God, or does he not? If he does, he has the Love of God in him. Is he lowly, or meek, or patient at all? If he is, he has these Tempers in bimself. And if he has them not in bimself, he is not lowly, or meek, or patient. You cannot therefore deny, that every Believer has Holiness in, tho' not from, himself: Else you deny, that he is holy at all; and if so, he cannot see the Lord.

And indeed, if Holiness in general be the Mind which was in Christ, what can any one possibly mean by, "A Believer is not holy in bimseif, but in Christ only?" That the Mind which was in Christ is in a Believer also; but it is in him, not in himself, but in Christ! What a Heap of palpable Self-contradiction, what senseless Jargon is this?

8. "A Man may feel a Peace which paffeth all Understanding, may rejoice with Joy full of Glory, and have the Love of God and all Mankind, with Dominion over all Sin; and yet all this may be only Nature, animal Spirits, or the Force of Imagination."

We believe this to be a gross blasphemous Untruth, by which you have much grieved the Spirit of God. We pray God, he may not give you up to the Blindness of your Hearts, neither let you follow your own Imaginations.

9. "If a Man regards Prayer, or fearching the Scripti res, or Communicating, as Matter of Daty, if he judges himself obliged to do these Things, or is troubled, when he does them not: He is in Bondage, he has no Faith at all, but is seeking Salvation by the Works of the Law."

Thus Obedience, with you, is a Proof of Unbelief, and Disobedience a Proof of Faith! What is it, to put Darkness for Light, and Light for Darkness, if this is not?

10. "Therefore, till we believe, we ought to be fill, i. e. Not to pray, fearth the Scriptures, or communicate."

First, We must give up our Bibles. For the Way they teach, is directly contrary to this.

These Ten Propositions contain the main Differences between us and the Meravian Brethren. All these we renounce, desest and abhor. Whenever they will publickly renounce them also, we shall wish them good, Luck in the Name of the Lord, and rejoice to be their Servants for Christ's sake.

4. Let

4. Let us patiently endure,
And still our Wants declare;
All the Promises are sure
To Persevering Prayer;
Till we see the Persett Day,
And each wakes up a finless Saint,
Pray we, &c.

5. Pray we on, when all-renew'd,
And perfected in Love,
Till we fee the Saviour-God
Descending from above,
All his heavenly Charms survey
Beyond what Angel-Minds can paint,

Pray we, & c.

6. Pray we in the Realms of Light
Till we behold his Face,

Faith shall there be lost in Sight, And Prayer in endless Praise; Blest thro' one Eternal Day

Possess of All that God can grant There we cannot, need not, pray, For Heaven is All we want.

A Prayer for Believers in Temptation.

I. MEEK Patient Son of Gop and Man,
With us in our Temptation stay,
Our fainting seeble Minds sustain,
And keep throughout the Evil Day;
(The Evil Day of Doubts and Fears,
And Fightings,) till thy Face appears,
2. We have not an High Priest in Thee

Who cannot our Afflictions feel, The Tempted Soul's Infirmity With kind Concern affects Thee fill, Touch'd with our every Grief Thou art, And bleeds for us thy pitying Heart.

3. For us by Men and Fiends diffrest,
For us by various Passions torn,
Who toil to enter into Rest
Who for thy second Coming mourn,
And fill thy Sacred Sorrows up,
And drink thine Agonizing Cup.

4. Com-

4. Companions to the Man of Woe,
O let us still with Thee abide,
Tempted alas! to let Thee go,
And start from the Command afide,
By every Wind of Doctrine driven
To seek a Broader Way to Heaven.

5. Yes, Lord, with deeped Shame we own Our Weariness of all thy Ways, Our Haste to throw thy Burthen down, Nor bear the Hidings of thy Face, Nor wait till thou create us new, And give the Crown to Conquest due.

6. We fear'd to wait thy Leifure, Lord, Or make the Crown thro' Sufferings fure, Nature the dreadful Cross abhorr'd, Nor would we to the End endure, But snatch a cheap fallacious Peace,

7. Ah, do not let thy Sheep depart Wide scatter'd in the cloudy Day, But cross th' Angelie Tempter's Art, But spoil the Lion of his Prey, Nor let us from our Hope remove,

And rest in fancied Holiness.

Our Gospel-Hope of Perfect Love.

8. Us, and our Brethren in Distress
Patient within thy Kingdom keep,
Sure all thy Fulness to possess
Our Harvest in the End to reap,
Thy finless Nature to retrieve,
And glorious in thine Image live.

For those that are turned out of the Way.

The Brethren we have lost restore,
Recall them by thy pitying Eye,
Retrieve them from the Tempter's Power,
By thy victorious Blood cast down,
Nor suffer him to take their Crown.

2. Beguil'd

2. Beguil'd alas! by Satan's Art
We see them now far off remov'd,

The Burthen of our bleeding Heart, The Souls whom once in Thee we lov'd, "Whom still we love with Grief and Pain,

Whom still we love with Grief and Pain, And weep for their Return in vain.

1. In vain, till Thou the Power bestow, The double Power of quick ning Grace,

And make the Happy Sinners know
Their Tempter with his Angel-Face,
Who leads them Captive at his Will,
Captive—but Happy Sinners still.

4. O wou'd'st thou break the fatal Snare, Of carnal Self-Security,

And let them feel the Wrath they bear, And let them groan their Want of Thee, Robb'd of their false Pernicious Peace, Their Self-(imputed) Righteothness.

5. The Men of careless Lives, who deem, Thy Righteousness Accounted Theirs, Awake out of the soothing Dream, Alarm their Souls with humble Fears, Thou jealous Gow, sir up thy Power, And let them sleep in Sin no more.

6. Long as the Guilt of Sin shall late Them in its Misery detain, Hold their Licentious Spirits fast, Bind them with their own Nature's Chain, Nor ever let the Wanderers rest Till lodg'd again in Jesus' Breast.
