This is a reproduction of a library book that was digitized by Google as part of an ongoing effort to preserve the information in books and make it universally accessible.

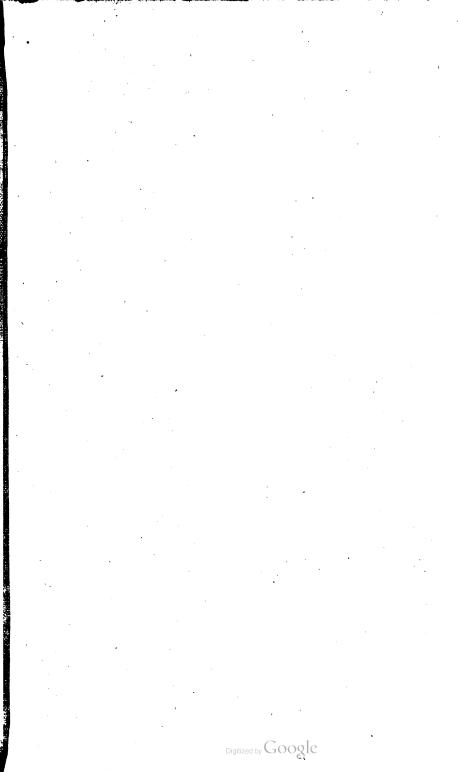

Google[®] books

https://books.google.com

1003.4.00!!

THE

PRACTICAL EXPOSITOR:

OR, AN

EXPOSITION

OF THE

NEW TESTAMENT,

IN THE FORM OF A

PARÁPHRASE;

WITH OCCASIONAL NOTES IN THEIR PROPER PLACES FOR FURTHER EXPLICATION,

AND

SERIOUS RECOLLECTIONS AT THE CLOSE OF EVERY CHAPTER.

TO WHICH IS ADDED,

AN ALPHABETICAL TABLE OF THE PRINCIPAL THINGS CONTAINED IN THE PARAPHRASE, ESPECIALLY IN THE NOTES.

For the Use of the FAMILY and CLOSET.

BY JOHN GUYSE, D. D.

THE FIFTH EDITION.

VOL. V.

CONTAINING

PAUL'S EPISTLES TO THE PHILIPPIANS, COLOSSIANS, THESSALONIANS, TIMOTHY, TITUS, PHILEMON, AND THE HEBREWS.

EDINBURGH:

PRINTED BY ROSS & SONS,

For ROBERT ROSS, Bookfeller, Lawn-market, Edinburgh, and JAMES GILLIES, Bookfeller, High-ftreet, Glafgow.

M, DCC, XCYII.

THEGENERAL

PREFACE

TO THE

FIFTH AND SIXTH VOLUMES.

CONTAINING

PAUL'S EPISTLES TO THE PHILIPPIANS, COLOSSIANS, THESSALO-NIANS, TIMOTHY, TITUS, PHILEMON, AND THE HEBREWS. THE GENERAL EPISTLES OF JAMES, PETER, JOHN, AND JUDE; AND THE REVELATION OF ST JOHN THE DIVINE.

T is with wonder, bleffing, and praife, that I humbly adore the God of providence and grace for his prefervation and affiftances, unto the finithing of any defign on the New Teftament; efpecially when I reflect, that feveral much more eminent fervants of the bleffed Jefus, and lefs advanced in years, have been cut off in the midft of their labours of this kind. And I gratefully acknowledge the obligations my Chriftian friends and brethren have heaped upon me, by their candid acceptance of the former volumes, and repeated defires to fee the Work completed in two more; and by their generous encouragement to them, when they were advertifed, as going to the prefs, though no propofals were publifhed for a fubfcription.

THERE needs, I think, no further *prefatory ad*²*i*tion, than to refer my readers to what has been prefixed to the other volumes; and importunately to folicit their earness prayers, that the God of all grace, through the atoning blood of the dear Redeep er, would abundantly pardon the many imperfections, which. which, I am fenfible, attend thefe poor performances; and that he would follow the whole with a fpecial blefling, for rendering it fubfervient to the glorious caufe of evangelical truth, and holinefs, and Christian charity; for leading fome ignorant, irreligious, and erroneous fouls into the only true way of falvation according to the gofpel; and for helping them and others onward therein to eternal life, that God in all things may be glorified through Jefus Christ.

THESE, I humbly truft, have been, and are my governing aims in this, and all my other ministerial fervices; and if these, through divine influence, may in any measure be attained, I therein do, and will rejoice, and ascribe the entire glory of all to the God of my life, mercies, and hopes: This will give me the noblest fatisfaction, and maintain the peace of my own mind, whatever censures sceptical, prosane, or severe critics may pass upon the present attempt; or upon its Author, who counts it his honour to be a fincere lover of the doctrines of grace, and of pure and undefiled religion, and immortal fouls, though a very unworthy fervant of Jesus Chrift,

JOHN GUYSE.

Digitized by Google

London, Sept. 29, 1752.

iv

тне

CONTENTS OF THE EPISTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

CHAP. I.

15

12

)Ľ

125

IN

ac

6 â

m

12

121 re.

6

i İk

M

0

Œ

10

Dí

er

E

'HE apostle Paul inscribes this epiftle to the church and its officers at Philippi, in the falutation of whom Timothy joins with him, 1, 2. Offers up thankfgivings and prayers to God for them, on account of the good work of grace, which he was fatisfied would be perfected, as in the judgment of charity, and fervor of his love, he hoped this concerning them all, 3,--7 He expresses his affection to them, and pours out an excellent prayer for them, 8,-12. Fortifies them against dejection at his fufferings, which turned to good account, in exciting others to preach Chrift, 13,-20. Tells them that he ftood prepared for glorifying Chrift by life, or death, 21,-26. And exhorts them to all holy conversation, zeal and constancy in the profession of the gospel, notwithstanding all the opposition of their adversaries, 27,-30. p. 3.

C, H A, P. II.

The apoftle exhorts the Philippians to a harmonious, kind, and humble (pirit and behaviour, by various moving arguments, and particularly by the example of Chrift, $1, \dots II$. To diligence in the affairs of their talvation, in confideration of God's working in them, 12, 13. To be exemplary and inftructive to the world, and a comfort to himfelf, $14, \dots 18$. And he affures them of his defire, hope, and purpole of making them a vifit; and, in the mean while, of fending to them Timothy and Epapbroditus, both of which he recommends to their kind and honourable regards, 19,-30. p. 14.

C H A P. III. The apoffle cautions the Philippians againft judaixing falle teachers, whom he defictives, as he alto does true Chriftians in oppofition to them, 1,-3. Recites his own former privileges, and renounces all thele for Chrift, 4,-S. Expreffes his earneft defire to be found in him, and his pteffing on toward perfection, 9,-14. And recommends his own example to the imitation of other believers, in oppofition to the behaviour of carnal profeffors, 15,-21. p. 26.

CHAP. IV.

The apoftle most affectionately exhorts the Philippians to fland fast in the Lord, I. Gives directions to fome particular perfons among them, and to them all in general, 2, -9. Exprefles his great fastisfaction in the fupply they had fent him, and his own contentment in every condition of life, adding'a doxology to God the Father, 10, -20. Salutes them, and fends the falutations of others; and clotes all with his ufual benediction, 21, -23. P. 35.

тне

CONTENTS OF THE EPISTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS.

CHAP. I.

THE apoftle Paul falutes the Coloffians, 1, 2. Bleffes God for their faith, love, and hope, which Epapbras had reported to him, 3, -8. Prays for their fruitfulnels in fpiritual knowledge, 9, -13. Gives a magnificent view of Chrift, and of his grace to them, to engage their adherence to him, 14, -23. And lets out his own character, as the apoftle of the Gentiles, 24, -29. p. 46. C H A P. II.

The apostle expresses his love to, and joy in believers, whom he had never feen, and encourages their continuing to walk in Chrift, 1,-7. Cautions them against the errors of heathen philosophy, against the vanity of Yewifb traditions, and against an observance of Mofaic rites, which had been completely fulfilled in Chrift, beyond what they could hope to find elfewhere, 8 .- 17. Againft worthipping of angels, as that were, in effect, renouncing their head Chrift, 13, 19. And against legal ordinances and human institutions, that are of no advantage ь vantage for spiritual purposes, 20,-23. p. 58.

C H A P. III The apoftle exhorts the Coloffians to be heavenly-minded, as those that are rifen with Christ, 1, --+ lo mortify all corrupt affections, as those that are renewed after the image of God, 5, --+1. to cultivate mutual love, forbearance and forgivenels, with other evangelical graces, 12, --+17. and to practife the relative duties of wives and hufbands, children, parents, and fervants, 18, --25. p. 70.

CHAP. IV.

The apoftle exhorts mafters to do their duty towards fervants, I. Recommends to perfons of all ranks the general duties of perfeverance in prayer, and Chriftian prudence in behaviour and fpeech, 2, --6. Refers them to Tychicus and Onefimus, for an account of the flate of his affairs, 7, --9. Sends falutations from feveral by name, together with his own; and, adding a charge to Archippus, conciudes with his afual benediction, to, --18. p. 80.

тнв

CONTENTS OF THE FIRST EPISTLE TO THE THESS ALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

THE apoftle falutes the church at The flatonica. and bleffes God for them, in reflection on their faith, love, and patience, as evident tokens of their election, which was manifefted in the efficacious manner with which the gospel came to them, $t_{...,5}$. And defcribes its powerful, exemplary, and famous effects upon their hearts and lives, 6,-10 p. 89. C H A P. II.

The apofile, to encourage their progrefs in faith and holinefs, reminds them of the manner of his preaching and behaviour among them, i, -12. And of their receiving the golpel, as the word of God, which effectually worked in them, 13, -16. And affures them of his joy on their account, and his defire of coming to them again, 17, -20. P. 94.

C H A P. III. The apoftle gives ftill further proof of his great affection to them, in his having (ent Timothy to eftablish and comfort them, $r_{1,-5}$. In his rejoicing at the good tidings of their faith and love, 6,-9. And in his praying for an opportunity of returning to them, and for their perfeverance and increase in grace, till the fecond coming of Chrift, 10,-13. p. 101. C H A P. IV.

- The apoftle exhorts the Theffalonians to chaftity and holinefs in their lives, r,-8. To brotherly love, a peaceable behaviour, and diligence in their fecular callings, g,-r2. And to moderate their grief for the death of godly relations and friends, in confideration of the glorious refurrection of their bodies at Chrift's ferond coming; from which time forwards, all the faints, that may then be dead, or living upon the earth, fhall be ever with the Lord, 13,-r18, p_1 to 6. C H A P. V.
- The apoftle exhorts the Thefalonians to be always ready for the coming of Chrift to judgment, which will be with fuddenneis and furprife, like a thief in the night, r_1-11 . Directs them to feveral particular duties in their relative and perfonal capacities, 12,-22. And concludes his epidle with prayer, falutations, and a benediction, 23,-28. p. 113.

тне

CONTENTS OF THE SECOND EPISTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

THE apostle falutes the church at Theffalonica, I, 2. Bleffes God for the growing ftate of their love and patience, 3, 4. And encourages them to perfevere therein under all their their fafferings for Chrift, in confideration of his coming at the great day of account, to execute righteous judgment upon his and their enemies, and to be glorified in their own complete falvation, which the apoftle hoped and prayed for on their behalf, 5,-12. p. 124.

THE CONTENTS.

);)

gt.

уĊ,

02

b

ų,

-) hj

m

108

10 $2

s at 03 101

'n.

178

20 be:

ШŅ

ũ

CØ3

hα

0I-

2 eĽ

k

17 12 uØ,

WL

n¥.

-11

ule

otii sde

oĽ

L Ij

CHAP. II.

The apofile cautions the Theffalonians against an erroneous notion, as though the time of Christ's coming to the final judgment were just at hand, 1, 2. Affures them that there would first be a general apostacy from the faith, and a revealing of the antichristian man of fin, whom he deforibes by his rife, reign, and ruin, and shews the just destruction that would come upon his infatuated subject-, that had pleafure in unrighteoufnefs, 3.—12. But bleffes God for the lecurity of the Theffalonians trom apoftacy, by virtue of their eternal election, and effectual calling. and thereupon repeats his exhortation to ftedfattnefs, and prays for them, τ_3 , — τ_7 . p. τ_2S^2

CHAP. III.

The apoftle defires prayer for himfelf and his fellow-labourers; experiles his confidence in the Theffalonians, and prays for them, t_1 ,—5. Charges them to withdraw from dilorderly walkers, and particularly from thofe that were lazy, and buty-bodies, contrary to his example and commind, 6,-15. And concludes with a prayer for them, and with a falutation and benediction, 16,—18. p. 137.

THE

CONTENTS OF THE FIRST EPISTLE TO TIMOTHY,

CHAP. I.

THE apoftle afferts his office as of divine authority; falutes Timothy, and reminds him of the charge he had given him at Ephefus, 1,--4. Of his end therein, and of the defign of the Mofaic law, 5,--11. Of his own convertion, and call to the apoftlefhip, 12-17. And of Timothy's obligation to maintain faith and a good concience, which Hymensus and Philetus had put away from them, 15,--20. p. 146.

CHAP. II.

The apoftle orders prayers to be made, every where, for all forts of perions, heathens and their magiftrates, as well as others, fince the grace of the gofpel makes no difference of ranks or nations, 1,--8. And thews how women ought to behave in civil and religious life, 9,--15. p. 155. CHAP. III.

The apoftle deferibes what ought to be the qualifications and behaviour of gofpel bihops, 1,-7. And of deacons and their wives, 8,-13 And gives Timothy a reafon of his writing fo particularly to him about theie, and other church-affairs, for directing his own conduct, as an evangelit, 14,-16. p. 161.

CHAP IV

The apetlle informs Timothy, by the fpirit of prophecy, of departures from the faith in various inftances, that began aiready to appear, and would iffue in the grand apoftacy of aitertimes, 1.—5. And, with reference thereunto, gives him feveral directions, with fuitable motives to enforce them, for a due difcharge of the duties of his office 6,-16. p. 165. C H A P. V.

The apofile gives orders how to behave towards elder, and younger men and women, 1, 2. And toward poor widows, 3,-S. Describes the characters of fuch widows, as are, or are not, proper to be maintained by the church, and taken into its fervice, Shews the respect that is 9,---16. to be paid to those that are elders by office, 17 .- 19. But charges Timothy to take due care in rebuking offenders of all ranks and flations, in ordaining minifters, and in using such moderate refreshments, as were neceffary for his own weak ftate of health, 20,-25. p. 175.

CHAP. VI The apoftle lays down the duty of Chriftians toward believing, as well as other matters, which Timothy ought to infit upon, with a levere reproof to judaizers that taught otherwife, 1,-5. Shews the advaurage of hodlinels with contenances, and the dunger of coverous pursues at or ruches, 6,-10. Directs Timothy to a conb 2 trary

Digitized by Google

los 2gt 1

.

trary course, II, I2. Gives him a folemn charge to behave faithfully in a perfevering attention to his orders, and in admonihing the rich not to truft, in their riches, but in the living God, and to improve his bounties to the beft purpoles; and repeats his charge with fome enlargement, cloing all with a fhort, but comprehensive benediction, 13,-21. p. 185.

тне

CONTENTS OF THE SECOND EPISTLE TO TIMOTHY.

CHAP. I.

DAUL afferts his apoftolic character, falutes Timothy, and expresses his great affection to him, in remembrance of his lympathizing tears and unfeigned faith, 1,-5. Exhorts him to a diligent improvement of his fpiritual gifts, without fear or fhame, on account of fufferings for Chrift, who has brought life and immortality to light by the goipel; and to hold faft that bleifed doctrine, which was committed to him, 6,-14. And tells his of many that had bafely deferted him; but speaks with honour and affection of Onefiphorus, for his kindnets to him. 15,-18. p. 195. CHAP. II.

The apoftle directs Timothy to the grace, that is in Chrift, for all fpiritual Exhorts him to take ftrength, 1. care that there be a fucceffion of faithful ministers, and to perfevere in his own work, with conftancy and diligence, like a foldier, a combatant, and a huibaadman, encouraging him hereunto by his own example, and affurances of a happy iffue of his faithfulnels, '2,-13. Advifes him to guard against striving about unprofitable and per nicious words, and to fludy to approve himielt to God, warning him to than vain babblings and dangerous errors, that eat like a canker, as in the inftances of Hymeneus and Philetus, and comforts him with the thought, that neverthelefs the foundation of God flands fure, 14 .--- 19. Tells him that feveral forts of profellors are to be expected in the church, as various forts of veffels are uted in a great houle, 20, 21 And charges him to flee youthful lufts, and to manage the whole of his converiation, minitry, and zeal againft error, with a becoming mecknets of fpirit, as most likely to be inccelsful, 22,-26. p. 203-

C H A P. III. The apoftle foretels the rife of dangerous enemies to the truth and holinefs of the goipel, τ_1 —9. Propofes his own example for Timothy's imitation, in oppofition to them, τ_0 — τ_3 . And exhorts him to perfiit in the doctrines he had learned from him, and from the holy teriptures, which are of divine intpiration, and every way fufficient for the nobleft purpofes, t_1 ,— τ_7 . P. 213.

CHAP. IV.

The apoftle most folemnly charges Timothy to be diligent in his ministerial work, though many will ust endure found doctrine, 1,-5. Enforces the charge from a confideration of his own approaching martyrdom, which would have a glorious iffue, 6,-3. Defires him to come speedily to him, and bring Mark and certain mentioned things along with him, 9,-13. Cautions him against Alexander the copper-fmith, and complains of fuch as had deferted him ; but prays for them, and expresses his faith as to his own prefervation to the heavenly kingdom. 14,-18. And concludes with falutations and his usual benediction, 19, p. 22¢, -22.

тне

CONTENTS OF THE EPISTLE TO TITUS.

C H A P. I. THE apoftle afferts his character. falates Titus, and reminds him of the work for which he had left him at Crete. r_{1} —5. Draws out the qualifications of a faithful pattor, 6,-9. And

Digitized by GOOGLE

And defcribes the evil temper and practices of judaizing falfe teachers, that ought to be confuted, 10,-16. p. 231.

CHAP. II.

πł

à:

100 ı£;

27

١x ut

20 ni.

ć

te.

203

学 能 出 初

13

190 175 6

υž

-17

:13

1 еni

dur

ti.

0₹

0%

ġ.

na ont Cai coi h i hes o≮

loc Iali

Ľ,

23

qĽ

The apostle directs Titus to inculcate fuch duties upon younger and older Chriftians, as are becoming found doctrine, and to be exemplary in them To enjoin believing himielf, 1,--8. fervants to be obedient to their maiters for the honour of the doctrine of Chrift, which they profess, 9, 10. And to enforce all this from a confideration of the holy defign of the golpel, from the prolpect it gives of heavenly glory, and from the end of Christ's death, which equally concern believers of all ranks and itations, and are to be urged upon them with all becoming authority, 11,-15. p. 237.

CHAP. III.

The apoftle goes on to give orders about obedience to civil magistrates, and a becoming behaviour towards all men, 1, 2. Enforces them from a confideration of what believers themfelves were before convertion, and are made to be, through Jelus Chrift, by regenerating and justifying grace, 3,-7. Puts Titus upon urging their things, to the end that good works may be practifed by believers, and upon avoiding vain and utelets difputes, 8, 9. Infifts on his rejecting a heretic, after due admonition, 10, 11. Defires that he would come, and bring Zenas and Apollos with him, to Nicopolis; recommends good works for neceflary purpoles, 12,-14. And concludes, as ulual, with falutations, and a benediction, 15. p. 243.

THE

CONTENTS OF THE EPISTLE TO PHILEMON.

A FTER a very moving and endearing falutation, $r_1, -3$, and moft affectionate exprefiions of joy and praife, on account of Philemon's fleady fauth in the Lord Jefus, and love to all the faints, and particularly to the poor among them, 4, -7. The apoftle, with a moft obliging addrefs, opens the compafionate defign of his letter, and throws together a variety of furprifing, well adjufted, and moving topics, to recommend Onefimus to Philemon's kind regards, and engage him to accept of the return of his penitent fugitive, who would now make him a rich amends for all the mildemeanors he had formerly been guilty of; and for whom the apoftle promifes to make up any loss that Philemon had fuftained by him, 8,-22. And then concludes, according to his cuftom, with faluations, and a benediction, 23,-25. p. 251.

тне

CONTENTS OF THE EPISTLE TO THE HEBREWS.

CHAP. I.

THE apoffle, to fhew the excellency of the gofpel of Chrift above the law, and to encourage an adherence to it, introduces his great defign with an account of the different manner and leafons in which, and of the perions by whom, the revelations of them respectively were made; and defcribes the tranicendent dignity of the Son of God in his divine perfon, and in his creat ing and mediatorial work, whereby he excels all that went before him, r, -3. And in his fuperiority to all the holy angels, which is proved by a comparison between him and them in various particulars, in which he has a glorious pre-eminence above them. 4, -14. p. 202.

C H A P. II. The apofile infers from what he had faid about the dignity of Chria's perion and office, the duty of ftedtaftly adhering to him and his goipel, t, -4 re-afformes his argument about Chrift's pre-eminence above the angels and thews that his fufferings are no objection againft it, 5, -9. Opens the ground and reation of of his fufferings, and the fitnels of that difpentation, which laid out his way through them to his mediatorial glory, 10,-13. And leads us to the incarnation of Chrift, in opposition to his affuming the nature of angels, as neceffary to the discharge of his priettly office, 14,---18. p. 272.

CHAP. III.

The apoftle fnews the fuperior worth and dignity of Chrift, in his perion and prophetic office, particularly above Mofes. 1,-6. And represents to the Hebrews, from the example of their unbelieving anceftors, the fin and danger of infidelity and apoltacy, and the necessity of faith in Christ, and or a ftedfaft adherence to him, in order to 7.--- 19. p. 184.

- / The apoftle inculcates an humble cautious tear upon the Hebrews, left any of them fhould come fhort of the promifed reft through unbelief, 1, 2. Shews the much greater excellence of the heavenly reft, which is proposed in the gospel, than that of the earthly Canaan, which was fet before the I/raelites under the law, 3,-10. And concludes with the most awakening and encouraging arguments and motives to faith and hope in our approaches to God, 11,-16. p. 293. CHAP. V.
 - The apostle fets forth the office and duty of a high prieft, 1,-4. Shews how abundantly this is answered in Christ's fuper-eminent call to, and difcharge of that office, 5,-10. And reproves the Christian Hebrews for their flothfulnets and little progrefs in the know. ledge of the truths of the goipel that were prefigured by the law, 11,-14. p. 306.

CHAP. VI.

.The apostle intimates his defign of giving the Hebrews higher instructions, and excites them to greater proficiency than they had yet made in the doctrine To enforce this upon of Chrift 1 --- 3 them, he defcribes the dreadful nature and confequence of apoftacy in the molt moving strains, 4,-8. Sweetly infinuates his great fatisfaction, as to the better part of them, notwith/tanding what he had been faying about apostates, 9, 10. And encourages them to perfeverance in faith and holinefs, from the experience of other fincere believers, and from the promife and oath of God to Abraham, and to all the heirs of falvation, 11,-20. p. 313.

CHAP. VII.

- The apofile returns from his digreffion to the comparison he had proposed to make between the priefthood of Melchifedec and of Chrift, in which he gives an account of Melchifedec, "1,-3. Shews the excellency of his above the Levitical prieithood, 4,-10. Applies all this to Chrift, to let forth the fuperior dignity and perfection of his prieithood, even to the fuperfeding and difannolling of that which was atter the order of Aaron under the law. 11,-24. And draws an interence from this, to the encouragement of the faith and hope of the church, 25, ---28 p. 326.

CHAP. VIII.

- their entering into the heavenly reft, The apoftle, having finished his argument, drawn from the comparison of the prieithood of Melchifedec with that of Aaron, fnews that his main defign therein was to demonstrate the excellency of Chrift's prieftnood above that of Aaron, which he adds still further light to, by comparing him with, and preferring him to, the high priefts under the law, with respect to the place where he officiates, the facrifice he offers, and the covenant of which he is the mediator, 1,-6. And he goes by way of digreffion, into a representation of the great excellence of this covenant above the former, which is now abolished, 7,-13. p. 341. CHAP. IX.
 - The apoille, returning to his main argument, gives an account of the Jewifs tabernacle and its utenfils, 1,-5. Shews their use and meaning, as to their figurative fervices and facrifices. 6,-10. Explains their accomplithment in Chuit, 11,-22. And infers the neceffity, fuperior dignity and efficacy of his prietthood and facrifice, in an application of what he had faid about those that belonged to the tabernacle under the law, 23,-28.

The apoftle fluts up his main argument relating to the infufficiency of all legal facrifices for taking away fin, 1,---And to the necessity and efficacy 4. of the facrifice of Chrift for that purpole, according to the tenor of the new covenant, which contains the fubftantial bleffings that the law was only the fhadow of, 5,-18. And having finished the doctrinal, he enters on the practical part of the epiftle, by way of inference from the preceding difcourfe, from which he draws an argument ment for holy boldnefs in the believer's access to God through Jelus Chrift, 19, -22. And for ftedfaftnefs in the faith, and excitations to mutual love and duty, and to frequent affemblings together for religious worfhip, 23,-25. And then he warns them of the danger of apoftacy, 26,-31. Reminds them of their former illumination, and fufferings with patience and spiritual joy, 32,-34. And encourages them to maintain their holy protefilon to the end of their days, 35,-39. p. 370. C H A P. XI.

ł

۱

t

r

ł

Ļ

r, t

œ

Ś

ŝ

E.

a.

ń

e.

be 172

1

th,

:li

h ic

d

he 16.

e ai

ıch

4 中学学的马斯的东方名

er is mie-or un he fie ayili unt

The apoftle defcribes the excellent nature and efficacy of faith, 1,-3. Exemplifies it in feveral inftances and effects, with an intimation of its neceffity, from the fall of man to Noah's days, 4,-6. From Noah to Moles, 7,-23. And from Moles to the end of the Old Teftament-dilpenfation, 24, -39. And concludes with a declaration of the ftill better flate of believers under the gofpsl-difpenfation, ver. 40. p. 387.

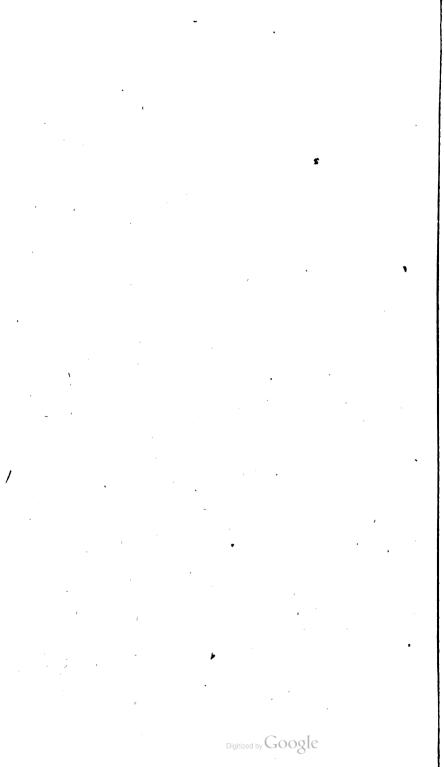

CHAP. XII.

The apoftle, from the preceding account of the faith of Old Teftament-believers under all their difficulties, exhorts the Hebrews to conftancy and perfeverance in faith and patience, under all their trials and afflictions; and, ftill further to encourage them thereunto, fets before them the more eminent example of Chrift, and the gracious defign of God in all the fufferings they endured, $r_{,-1}$. Recommends to them peace and holinefs, and cautions them againft acting a proface part, like E_{fau} , in delpifing fpiritual blefsings, 14,-17. And enforces his argument by a confideration of the much greater excellency of the New, than the Old Teffament-difpenfation, 18, -29. P. 417.

CHAP. XIII.

The apostle exhorts to the various duties of brotherly love, hospitality, Christian fympathy, marriage-chaitity, contentedness with fuch worldly circumftances as Providence allots to us, and paying due respect to the instructions. example, and memory of faithful paftors, 1.-- 8. Cautions against being carried away with Jewis doctrines and ceremonies, which are fulfilled in Chrift, the gofpel High-Prieft, altar, and facrifice, 9,-14. Adds further exhortations to duties, that relate to God, to our neighbour, and them that are fet over us in the Lord, 15,-17. Defires the prayers of the Hebrews, and prays for them, 18,-21. Recommends what he had wrote in this epiftle to their ferious confideration : gives them hopes of his own and Timothy's coming to fee them ; and concludes with his ufual falutations and benediction, 22,-25. p. 441.

A PRAC.

A PRÁCTICÁL

EXPOSITION

OF THE

APOSTLE PAUL'S EPISTLE

то тне

PHILIPPIANS,

IN THE FORM OF A

PARAPHRASE.

THE PREFACE TO THE EPISTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

PHILIPPI was a confiderable city of Macedonia, and the first city of that province, with regard to its fituation in the way from Tbrace to Macedonia. (See the note on Acts xvi. 11, 12.) It was called Philippi from Philip of Macedon, the father of Alexander the Great, who enlarged and fortified it, and gave it that name. And it was famous for the battles that were afterward fought in its neighbouring fields, between Augustus and Mark Anthony on one fide, and Brutus and Casfus on the other, in which the former were victorious.

The apoftle Paul was called by a vision to preach the gospel at this city; and God fucceeded his labours there to the conversion of Lydia and the jailor; (AAs xvi.) and in process of time, many others, both Jews and Gentiles, were brought over to the faith of Christ, infomuch that a famous church was erected, and completely furnished with proper officers, relating to its spiritual and temporal concerns. (Chap. i. 1.)

The apoftle vifited them afterwards again, (Acts xx. 1,-6.) who had a mighty affection for him, and he for them; and, in their abundant love to him, they diftinguished themselves, above all other churches, by fending feasonable and liberal supplies for his maintenance, when he was at Tbeffalonica; and now again, while he was a prisoner at Rome; from whence, about the year of our Lord, fay fome 60, fay others 63, he fent this Epiftle to them by the hand of Epaphroditus, by whom he had received their generous contributions, together with an account of their tender concern at the troubles that had befallen him, and of their continuing stedfastly in the doctrine of the gospel, notwithilanding the attempts of some judaizers among them, to divide and feduce them; and the chief defign of his epittle was to fortify them still further against these feducers. VOL. V. в and and encourage them to abide in the faith of Christ, notwithstanding all opposition.

2 The PREFACE to the Epistle to the Philippians.

Accordingly he begins his Epiftle with hearty thankfgivings to God for the eminent grace bestowed upon them, and for their affectionate regards to himfelf; expresses his ardent love to them, and great fatisfaction in them; and affures them, that his bonds were over-ruled for the furtherance of the golpel; that he was calm and comfortable under them, and was confident, that in a little time he should be released from them, as it proved in the event; and so encourages them to be easy as to him, and to bear up with Christian fortitude under the fufferings which they themfelves endured for the fake of Chrift and the gospel, chap. i. He exhorts them to love and union, public fpiritedness and lowliness of mind, which he recommends to them, by the matchlefs and furprifing example of Chrift's humbling himfelf; and hopes to fend Timothy, and to come afterwards himfelf to help them still further in their spiritual affairs, chap. ii. Encourages their holy joy in Christ; cautions them a-gainst the attempts of judaizers, with whom he compares himself, and shews the happy change that was made upon him by divine grace, and the principles and views, with which he acted in opposition to theirs; and which he proposes to the imitation of the Pbilippians, chap. iii. And closes the Epiftle with expressions of great tendernels toward them, and toward fome particular perfons among them, with exhortations to feveral religious and moral duties, with repeated grateful acknowledgments of their favours to him, and with a doxology, falutations, and his usual benediction, chap. iv.

Digitized by Google

CHAP.

lQ ib

ġ.

w ên

ay,

k

e.

12 th

201

02 ď

ter in.

11 eĽ

ne.

of

Ph

10

OQ,

tit:

nia.

ı,İ

U

С H A P. I.

The apostle Paul inscribes this Epistle to the church and its officers at Philippi, in the falutation of whom Timothy joins with him, ver. 1, 2. Offers up thank/givings and prayers to God for them, on account of the good work of grace which he was fatisfied would be perfected, as in the judgment of charity, and fervour of bis love, he boped this concerning them all. 3,-7. He expresses his affection to them, and pours out an excellent prayer for them, 8, -12. Fortifies them against dejection at his sufferings, which turned to good account, in exciting others to preach Chrift, 13,-20. Tells them that he flood prepared for glorifying Christ by life, or death, 21,-26. And exhorts them to all holy conver/ation, zeal, and constancy in the profession of the gospel, notwithstanding all the opposition of their adversaries, 27,-30.

TEXT.

PAUL and Timotheus, the fervants of Jelus Christ, to all the faints in Chrift Jefus, which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jefus Chrift.

PARAPHRASE. AUL, and Timothy, who concurs with him in affection, and approbation of what he writes, (fee the note on 1 Cor. i. 1.) as being joint-fervants of Jesus Chrift, to minister his gospel, and promote his kingdom and glory; we cordially unite in this addrefs to the church of Chrift, which ordinarily meets, as the feat of all ordinances at Philippi, and confifts of vifibly, and we truft of really, fanctified perfons, (ver. 7.) through vital union with, and influence from Jefus Chrift, the head of the body: And as ye are a completely organized church, furnifhed with proper officers; with paftors to infpect, prefide, and watch over your fouls, and your fpiritual concerns, and to feed you with knowledge and underftanding #; and with deacons to take care of your temporal affairs, and efpecially of your poor, (AEts vi. 1,---6.) according to the order of the gospel, we include thefe, together with the private members, in what follows, as may be applicable to them refpectively; and particularly do fo in our most folemn wifhes, that the divine favour, with all its diffinguishing effects, and every kind of prosperity, especially in what relates to your fouls, may abound toward you from God, our covenant-God and Father, as the fpring and fountain of all grace, and from the anointed NOTE.

far as appears from (cripture and primi- 1743.) tive antiquity, were the only different

* Bifhops or overfeers (inioxonous) is orders of officers in the apoftolical churchof the lame import with, and promifcu- es, though in fome of them, occafions fo oully used for elders or paflors of parti-cular churches, as appears from Alis xx. there were more than one paflor in a 17, 18. Tit. i. 5, -9. and 1 Pet. v. I, 2.: church. (See the fermon at the ordina-And bifhops or elders, and deacons, as tion of Mr. Thomas Gibbons, Oct. 27.

anointed Lord and Saviour, as the purchaser and dif-

I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 (Always in every prayer of mine for you all, making request with joy) 5 For your fellowfhip in the goipel, from the fift day until now:

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you, will perform it until the day of Jefus Chrift :

tributer of all its bleffings to you, as well as to us. 3 My foul is filled with thankfgiving and praife to God, whole I am, and whom I ferve, and who put me into the ministry, and made me instrumental to your conversion. I cannot but bless his holy name, from the bottom of my heart, as often as I think of you.

and of what God has done for, and by you. 4, 5 I find myfelf fweetly conftrained to make mention of you all, in every stated and solemn address to God, through the great Mediator, prefenting my earnest and fervent supplications at the throne of grace, for every one of you, with abundance of pleafure, together with the most chearful thankfgivings. (ver. 3.) for your admission, through faith, unto all the rich and glorious privileges, promifes, hopes, and enjoyments of the gospel-state; and for your communion with God, the Father, Son, and Spirit, and one with another; as allo for your readily communicating to the fupport of the gofpel, and particularly to me in all my fufferings for its fake; and for your continuing, with stedfastness and perfeverance, in all thefe excellent things, from the day of your converfion, to this very time, notwithstanding all the oppofition of your enemies, and the perfecutions ye have endured. (ver. 28, 29, 30.) And my joy, on this account, greatly abounds :

6 Being certainly affured, from the testimony of God in his word, from the immortal nature of the feed of grace, from the unchangeablenels of his love and his covenant, and from the merit of the dear Redeemer, and the indwelling of his Spirit, that God, who, in the riches of his free favour, has begun to work the beft of all works in you *, even the work of faith, and of heart-changing grace, whereby ye are brought

> Т É.

NO their liberality to the apofile; but that And, as such a comprehensive interprewas a good work done by them, rather tation gives us the beft idea of the apofthan begun by the operation of God in tle's joy and praise on their behalf; fo it them; and it feems too mercenary and makes his fentiments more useful and felfifh, for one of the apolile's generous applicable to the church in all ages, and difinterested spirit, to express such than to confine it to the particular cirwonderful joy and thankfulness merely, cumstance of liberality in the Philipor chiefly on that account; and, in the pians towards him. The extremely liforegoing verse, he had spoke of their mited tense that some expositors affect fellowship in the gospel, as the matter to give of this, and many other passages of this joy and praise, with reference to of the New Testament, apparently narwhich, he fpeaks of his being confident, rows the rule of faith and practice, and that he, who had begun this good work, the comfort of the fcriptures in their re-would perform or finish it, (exercitance) ference to us, as if they were not of such until the day of Jesus Chrift. I there- standing and extensive use, as I am perfore take it to fignify the good work of fuaded the Spirit of God defigned them faith, or of grace in the whole compais to be.

A good work is referred by fome to of it, which God had wrought in them :

ĥ

te

Dr.

70

0C

ЭĽ,

1k

εĠ

۵ĩ

ά

G, gi,

al

DÌ

0

DÓ

ŋ.

η

19 19

Ċ.

PØ

R hŝ

đ

h

)W

le.

xd,

to nk

n ht

n: re•

٥ſ, it nd

es, ir ir

đ

es nd nd

e.

ch

ı.

ø

PHILIPPIANS paraphrajed.

brought into the fellowship of the gospel, (ver. 5.) will, undoubtedly, in his faithfulnels carry on, maintain, and increase it, by his almighty power, all the days of your lives, till he shall perfect or finish it, at the great day of Christ's coming to be glorified in his faints, and admired in all them that believe. (2 Thes. i. 10.) I am fully fatisfied of this important point, with regard to every one that hath received the grace of God in truth.

7 And, as ye have already made fuch a credibleand honourable profeffion of Chrift, and fo ftedfaftly abode in it, and given fuch evident proofs of your fincerity therein hitherto, I am bound in the judgment of charity, and it is highly reafonable, and becoming me, to suppose, that this good work is really begun in the whole church : And, I am the rather inclined to entertain this charitable hope concerning you all; becaufe, as love thinks no evil, but hopes all things, (1 Cor. xiii. 5, 7.) ye are exceeding dear to me, and lie much upon my heart, in my addreffes to God on your behalf; forafmuch as ye manifeftly appear to be partakers of the fame faving grace with myfelf, and have difcovered it in your patiently enduring tribulations, as I myfelf do, and in your Christian fympathy with me, and concurrent affiftances, both in the imprisonment I now fuffer for the caufe of Chrift, and in all my labours for the defence of the gospel, against the cavils of its adversaries, and for the confirmation of it, by word and deed, to the confutation of them, and eftablishment of the faints.

8 For I can appeal to God, who knows my heart, that I am exceedingly defirous of the fpiritual and eternal welfare of every one of you; and that I even long, if it be his will, to fee you all again, that I may be inftrumental, in his hand, of ftill further helping forward his good work in you: And he is witness that my ardent defire for, and after you, is not merely from human gratitude, on account of your benevolence to me, or from any carnal or worldly confiderations whatfoever; but that it is chiefly of a fpiritual nature, for the fake of Chrift; becaufe I look upon you as his members, dear to him; and am moved with the inmost bowels of melting affection toward you, under a fense, and in imitation of his tendereft love and pity, wherein he laid down his life, that ye might be faved.

9 And, in the fervor of my affection for you, I earneftly beg of God, that your love to him, and his Son, to me and his people, word and ways, which dwells in you, and already works, and has eminently fhown itfelf in you, as it ought in every church-member, meet for me to think this of you all, becaufe I have you in my heart, in as much as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gofpel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

7 Even as it is

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all, in the bowels of Jefus Chrift.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in to That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be fincere, and without offence till the day of Chrift:

tt Being filled with the fruits of righteoulnels, which are by Jefus Chrift anto the glory and praife of God.

/ 12 But I would ye fhould underftand, brethren, that 12 But, that ye may not be terrified or difcouraged at my fufferings for the fake of Chrift, I would fain have you know and confider, my dearly beloved brethren.

taken either from things that are clari- offence, (areouxoxoi) is a metaphor, ta-fied by the heat, or examined and judg- ken from perfons that go on their way ed of by the light of the fun-beams; inoffenfively, and without obstruction or and fo are found, upon the ftricteft trial, ftumbling.

NOTE. * Sincere (ιιλικριγικς) is a metaphor, to be pure and incorrupt: And without in knowledge, and ber, may still more abound and increase with, and unin all judgment; ' der the government of, growing knowledge and experience, as being led into the doctrine of Chrift, and fettled, after the best manner, in your judgment and spiritual sense, (in maon air Inou) as to the whole of its fystem :

> 10 That ye may carefully examine, try, and prove, (us to dorma (ur) and thereupon difcern and approve the things that differ in themselves, by way of preference to all others; and that differ in my preaching from what is delivered by falle teachers, and, upon trial, prove themfelves to be truly valuable and important; that fo ye may be found to be genuine Christians, pure in heart and life, free from all hypocrify and deceit in your holy profession, and uncorrupted in your principles and defigns, temper and behaviour, when judged of in the light of the word of God, and tried by that infallible standard of truth and holinefs *; and may have a confcience void of offence toward God and man, and be preferved from every thing, that might wound your own spirits, or be an occasion of flumbling, or falling, to yourfelves or others; and that not only at certain times, now and then, but with conftancy and perfeverance all your lives long, as those that expect an awful day of account, and till Chrift shall come to judge the world, that ye may be approved of him, as fincere and eminent believers then :

11 Being all along, and found at that day to be. trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that . be may be glorified; (Ifa. lxi. 3.) even fuch as, like trees richly laden, greatly abound in the most precious fruits of holinels and obedience of every kind, in their feafon, (P/al. i. 3.) which are right and equitable in themfelves, and due from you, according to the juft and holy requirements of the moral law, that unchangeable rule of all righteoufnefs; and which are produced by virtue derived from Chrift, (John xv. 5.) and are acceptable to God, and turn to his honour and glory, in and through this great Mediator, (1 Pet. ii. 5. and iv. 11.) which is the fupreme end to be aimed at in them all.

Chap. i.

Ĺ

ite.

a.

D, 民 ď

IR.

Ľ,

1

D

ت

Ы

D¢

ź m

D.

ort

٥ċ

đ

00

ď

10 0 ł

ď

ĸ

D

b bs

i.

eo

,i

1

1g a٧

id

obi hi

j. Ľ

n,

uk

ыď

el, ø rij đ

which unto me, have fallen out rather unto the gofpel!

13 So that my bonds in Chrift are manifest in all the other places ;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Chrift even of envy and ftrife; and fome also of good-will.

that the things brethren, that the bonds and afflictions which havehappened befallen me at Rome, according to divine appointment, have been permitted and over-ruled, by the the furtherance of wife and holy providence of God, contrary to all outward appearances, and natural expectations, rather to the confirmation and propagation, than to the difadvantage and hindrance of the gofpel.

13 Infomuch that the hardfhips and imprifonments, which I am enabled to bear with a becoming palace, and in all patience and fortitude of mind, through the gracious prefence of Chrift with me, are well known among all Nero's courtiers, and all the citizens and other people in and round about Rome, to be, not for any crime that I have been guilty of, but merely for the fake of Chrift, which is matter of glory, rather than fhame, and hath proved the happy occasion of many people's inquiring after him, and believing in him ; among which are fome of $C\alpha/ar$'s houfhold, (Phil. iv. 22.)

14 And, through the influence of divine grace, many brethren in the faith of Chrift, and in the work of the ministry, being fully fatisfied of the justice and excellence of my caule, and of the power of the Lord Jefus, which has vifibly supported and comforted me under all my troubles, and given fuccefs to his word, have thereupon taken courage, and been more abundantly animated, and emboldened to preach the gofpel with a greater freedom and liberty of fpirit, than they ever were before, without being terrified by the fear of any fufferings that might come upon them for it.

15 There are fome indeed of the judaizing Chriftians, that preach up Jefus as the true Meffiah, and feveral important doctrines of falvation by him, even from a fpirit of envy at my reputation and fuccefs, in carrying the gospel to the Gentiles, as well as Yews, and infifting on juftification through faith in Chrift alone, without the works of the law *; and they do this

* It is generally, and with great pro- fed, (Gal. i. 8, 9.) would fcarce have bability fuppofed, that they, who preacb- called it preaching Chrift, as he does in

VOL. V.

NO ΤĒ.

ed Christ of envy and strife, were Jew- this and some tollowing verses; much i/b converts that fet themfelves against lefs would have rejoiced in it, as he fays the apoftle Paul, and, on all occasions, he did and would. ver. 18. I therefore did what they could to hinder his fuc- 'rather apprehend that they hypocritically cefs, run him down, and promote his preached the true goipel of Chrift, tar-troubles of every kind : But I cannot ther than they honeftly could upon their think that, on this occafion, they preach - own principles, concealing their ienti-ed a quite different golpel from the apol- ments about some of its articles, that the's, according to their own corrupt ju- they might draw off the affections of the daixing notions: For he, who fo con- apolle's friends from him to them elves, ftantly and zealoufly declaimed against and might low ftrife and divisions a-this, as another go/pel, for which, he mong them, and thereby exaperate the that brought it was to be deemed accur- government against him and his adherents.

this with a fpirit of contention and opposition to me. that they may fink my credit and authority, and advance their own in the church ; but there are others, that preach the pure doctrines of Chrift, in their full extent, with all freedom and delight, even from an hearty affection to him and his golpel, to immortal fouls, and to me his apostle.

16 The first of this fort of preachers, that fet forth Chrift in their ministrations, by way of envy and strife, do it, not (agros) from a fincere defire of propagating the truth as it is in Jefus, and of glorifying him; nor from a hearty concern to embrace him themfelves, and recommend him to others; but rather from a vain imagination that they shall thereby fupplant, distress, and grieve me, and so increase the weight of my prefent afflictions; and that they shall be a means of promoting the continuance of my bonds, and, perhaps, of making them iffue in my martyrdom, through the umbrage that the government may take at these contentious ways of preaching the word, and at the divisions which they may foment, by that means, among the professors of Chrift.

17 But the other fort of preachers, that are acted by a true fpirit of love to Chrift and fouls, and to his cause and me in preaching him, do it as, not merely imagining *, but as being well fatisfied, on the furest grounds, that I am appointed, and fet in the church, by a divine commission, for maintaining, vindicating, and defending the true golpel of Chrift; and that I now lie in bonds in order to my making an apology for it, whenever I shall be brought upon my trial.

18 But, if contrary views induce thefe two parties to take occasion to preach Christ, what is this to me? shall I return envy for envy, or be vexed on this account, as fome of them fuppofe I would ? No, though I pity them that are influenced to it, by unworthy motives, and heartily deteft their infincerity ; yet, which way foever the thing itfelf be done, whether with diffimulation.

Digitized by Google

NOTES.

Chrift infincerely and in pretence, in or being affured on the ftrongest eviopposition to others, who preached him dence, that he was fet for the defence of in love, and in truth or uprightnefs. the gofpel; which may take in, both But fome think that they fully preached his being appointed to it in the discharge the true goipel, though with infincerity of his office, and his lying in bonds, in and bafe views. * The apoftle speaks of his enemies, (anohoysay) for it, in answer to his ac-

ver. 16. as only (10 univos) fuppofing, (in cufers : For the word (x11 uai) here ren-

This is what he calls preaching faithful ministers, as knowing, (elsorec) order to his making a public apology which they were deceived) that they dered set, as it also is in Luke ii. 3, 4 fig-should add affliction to his bonds; but, in nifies likewise to be laid, and is to transopposition thereunto, he here speaks of lated, Mat. iii. 10. and Luke xxiii. 53-

16 The one preach Chrift of contention, not fincerely, fuppoling to add affliction to шv bonds:

۰,

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am fet fer the defence of the golpel.

15 What thep?

notwithstanding every way, whether in pretence, or in preached; and I therein do rejoice,

vea, and will re-

ivice.

rents.

is truth. Chrift

Chap. i.

opposition to me,

uthority, and ad-

there are others,

brift, in their full it, even from an pel, to immortal

rs, that let forth

ay of envy and ere defire of pro-

ad of glorifying

o embrace him

others; but ray shall thereby fo increase the

that they shall nuance of m m iffue in my t the governs of preaching

they may fo-fors of Chrift.

that are acted louls, and to as, not merefied, on the d fet in the taining, vin-

1 of Chrift;

my making ought upon

PHILIPPIANS paraphrafed.

diffimulation, under a sham pretext of zeal for Christ and the gospel, and the welfare of fouls; or with fincerity and uprightness, to promote his interest and glory, and their good, the fact is, that Chrift is made known by these means at Rome, and round about it : And, as this is in itfelf matter of great joy, I heartily do; yea, and, by the grace of God, will rejoice in it, whatfoever any of them may think to the contrary; and how much foever they may defign thereby to strike at my character, or even at my liberty and life itfelf.

19 For I am perfuaded in an humble dependence upon the promifes of God, yea, am fully affured, by the revelation of the Spirit, that even the worlt defigns of my adverfaries, in their preaching the golpel to diffrefs me, shall be over-ruled by the good providence of God, contrary to their hopes, for my enlargement and deliverance from my bonds, that I may be at liberty to preach the golpel without reftraint; (ver. 25. *) and that all their malicious attempts against me shall be fanctified to my own foul's benefit, as well as the good of others, and made fubfervient, instead of being obstructive, to my eternal falvation; as, by means of them, I shall be helped forward to it, and fitted for it with the brighter glory, (2 Cor. iv. 17.) through the prayers which ye are daily putting up, and I defire may ftill be conti-' nued for me; and through the rich communications of the Spirit of Jelus Chrift, whereby, in answer to your prayers, I am enabled to make a good improvement of all these dispensations, to his glory, the advantage of others, and the comfort of my own foul.

20 This I am thoroughly fatisfied will be the happy event according to what I firmly expect, and vehemently defire ; namely, that whatfoever my adverfaries may defign, or do against me ; yet I shall nebut that with all ver be fuffered, in any circumstance of things, to be ashamed of Christ and his gospel, nor of my hope in C 2 him :

NOTE. temporal falvation, are taken into the poral, as to fpiritual and eternul falvaparaphrafe; because the fupply of the tion, over and above all temporal deli-Spirit of Chrift, through which the a- verances, which were to be expected rapostle was fatisfied the defign of his ene- ther, as the effect of the operations of mies would turn to his falvation, feems, Providence for him, than from a fupply most plainly, to refer to this fort of salva- of the Spirit of Chrift to him; and in tion, which he knew he, by that means, his enlargement upon this subject, in fhould be partaker of, though his ene- fome following verfes, he tpeaks of his mies would have prevented it, by forcing gain in death, and of the rich advan-him, if poffible, through their evil prac- tage of bis being with Chrift, as the tices against him, to give up and re- object of his eatnest defire and hope, neunce the gofpel: For the fupply of ver. 21, 23.

Spiritual and eternal, as well as the Spirit relates, not fo much to tem-

Pigitized by Google

19 For I Know that this shall turn to my falvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jefus Chrift.

20 According to my earneft expectation, and my hope, that in nothing I fhall be ashamed, boldnefs, as always, two parties this to.me? on this ac. Vo, though vorthy movet, which ther with · (e, Sotis) ngest evidefence of in, both difcharge bonds, in apology o his achere ren-3, 4. *6g*o tranfiii. 530

mulation, fo now also Christ fhall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For to me to live is Chrift, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flefh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I thall choose I wot not :

23 For I am in a ftrait betwixt two, having a defire to depart, and to be with Chrift; which is far better:

him; but shall be enabled to go on in his work with all liberty of fpirit and undaunted courage ; (maeenous) and that as I always, through grace, have hitherto in this way glorified the name of my great Lord and Master, ever fince he converted me and called me to the apostleship; fo both now, and from this time forward, Chrift shall be glorified, and the power of his grace toward me shall be eminently exalted, in this my frail mortal body, whether it be by a patient continuance under fufferings, and a further publication and defence of the golpel, and by a holy life and conversation during my abode in it ; or by my fuffering martyrdom, and bravely owning and honouring him in the most cruel and violent death that can be inflicted upon me for his fake.

21 For Chrift is my gain in living and dying, as he is my all, and lives in me; and as his interest and glory are the delightful end I purfue in both, that I may bring honour to his name, and gain over fouls to him by preaching the gospel while I live, and by fealing my teftimony to him with my blood, when I come to die * ; which will also be to my own unfpeakable gain in the complete falvation which I hope for through him. (ver. 19.)

22 But if it should please God to lengthen out my days in mortal flesh, to preach, and suffer for the gofpel, the great fruit of my laborious and painful fervices, even all that I think worth living for, is to promote the honour and interest of Christ, which in the end will also turn to my own account ; and therefore, were it to be left to my determination, I am at a lofs to know whether, upon the whole, I fhould choose life or death.

23 For I am greatly straitned and pressed, in my own thoughts, between two things, that engage my ferious concern ; having, on one hand, an earnest defire to be loofed from the incumbrance, weaknefs, and imperfections, natural and moral, of this corruptible frail body, and to be releafed by a departure of my immortal foul from it, that I may be with Chrift, in his immediate presence, to behold his glory, which I shall do as foon as ever my foul is absent from

N`O T E.

To (ny Xpisos xai to amoSavery xigdos) ac. next verle, which may be confidered as cording to the different renderings that an explication and enlargement of his Chrift is my gain in living and dying; Chrift would be the fruit of his labour; or, ta me living and dying Chrift is but were he to die, this would fill be gain: But they leem to include gain to far better for himfelf; and therefore he the apottle himielf, as well as to the ho- was in a ftrait what to choofe:

* I have confidered these words (spos nour of Christ, at death; because in the have been given of them, either as they thought in this, he intimates, that were stand in our translation, or as fignifying, he to live in the flefh, his honouring

Chap. i.

Chap, i,

in his work with rage; (ragensu)

e, have hitherto great Lord and nd called me to

from this time

d the power of tly exalted, in be by a patient

irther publicaa holy life and r by my fulfe.

nd honouring that can be nd dying, #

s intereft and n both, that in over fouls ive, and by od, when I y own 🗰 hich I hope

ien out m or the golnful lemis to pro-ch in the herefore,

at a loli

1 choole

in my age mj neft de aknels,

s cot

arture with glo• lent

rom

the 25 his rt g

24 Neverthelefs, to abide in the flefh is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I fhall abide and continue with you all, for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jefus Chrift for me, by my coming to you again.

from the body *; (2 Cor. v. 6.) and which, far exceeding all thought or expression, is incomparably better for myfelf, than any condition in the prefent life can poffibly be.

24 But (δ_s) there is another thing that, on the contrary, my heart is fo much fet upon, as to make me defirous, if it so please God, of continuing some time longer in this prefent mortal body, to exercife the ministry which I have received of the Lord Jefus; and that is, becaufe, as I verily believe, (ver. 25.) this is most for your spiritual benefit, considering the enemies, temptations, and dangers that furround you, and the help ye need against them; and therefore I am willing to live for public fervice, even in this troublefome world, how much foever it may be my own perfonal lofs, to be kept all that while out of heaven.

25 And being in great hopes that this noble end of my living in the body would be answered, by the blefling of God on my labours, I am perfuaded in my own mind, by intimations of the Spirit, that my life shall still be preferved for a while, notwithstanding the threatning afpect of my prefent fuffering circumftances; and that I shall have an opportunity of seeing and ministring to, and of continuing and converfing for fome time with you, as well as with other churches of the faints, for promoting your spiritual edification in light and grace, comfort and holinefs; and particularly for the further helping of your faith, through the attending power of the Holy Ghoft, that ye may be filled with all joy and peace in believing; (Rom. xv. 13.)

26 That so your delightful glorying (zavznua) in Jefus Chrift, the only Saviour, may be much greater, on account of my being reflored to you, than ever it has been hitherto, or than probably it ever would be, were I never to be fet at liberty, and come to you again; and may be abundantly increasing yet more and more, through the confirmation which your faith will receive by my wonderful deliverance from imprifonment, and by means of the benefit, which ye may have, through my ministrations, when I return to you.

Digitized by Google

* If the foul were to fleep, or be in a fervice of Chrift, or of dying, to enjoy ftate of infenfibility at death, till the ge- the happiness of being with him in his peral refurrection of the body, the apol-glory; nor could he have imagined, in the could have hoped for no more advan-this view of things, that it would have tage by dying foon, than if he were to been exceedingly far better (TOLLO HELhave lived many years longer; and con- Nor xpersor) for himself to die out of fequently could have been in no ftrait hand, than to live longer on earth. (See between a defire of living here for the the note on 2 Cor. v. I.)

27 In

11

27 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gofpel of Chrift: that whether 1 come and fee you, or elle be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye ftand fast in one fpirit, with one mind, ftriving together for the faith of the goipel;

25 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries; which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of falvation, and that of God.

would earneftly recommend to you, and infift upon, as neceffary to evidence the truth of your faith, and to promote the peace of your own fouls, and my comfort in you; which is, that (xerileuso 9:) your traffic and behaviour in the world, and one towards another, be answerable to your holy citizenship, and such as is worthy your Christian-state and character, and fuitable to the directions, and ornamental to the principles, privileges, and obligations, and to your holy profession of the gospel, which has Chrift for its glorious author and chief subject; fo that whether, when I may have opportunity of coming to fee you again; or whether, while by Providence I am detained from you, I may hear from yourfelves, or others, a comfortable account of the true state of things among you, as to your fpiritual concerns; and particularly that, notwithilanding all the fubtle and furious attempts of your adversaries, ye persevere and abide firm and unshaken, under the influence of the Holy Ghoft, in one and the fame evangelical fpirit of liberty, truth, and love; and unite, as with one heart and foul, and concur in vigorous efforts, like wreftlers, against all opposition, (ouredrawles) according to your respective stations and abilities, for preferving, propagating, and defending the pure, uncorrupted, and important doctrines of faith, as delivered in the gospel, which ye have received of me; and for promoting the grace of faith in one another, that it may be in lively exercife, and ftedfaftly profeffed, to the glory of Chrift, and the good of your own and others fouls.

27 In the mean while, there is one thing that I

28 And I should rejoice greatly to hear, that, how artful, or cruel and outrageous foever the enemies may be, who fet themfelves against your faith, and the profperity and falvation of your fouls, ye behave with Christian fortitude, and are by no means affrighted, or discouraged at their opposition to you and the gospel, which carries indeed a fad prefage to them, as a plain mark of their being in the way to, and in the nearest danger of eternal destruction; and it is a righteous thing with God to render tribulation to them, * while they look upon you, as a people obstinately bent upon your own ruin: But unto you, that

Digitized by GOOgle

NOTE.

dition, is supposed by some to mean, to be less strained, and full as well, or that the Yewifb oppofers accounted the better fuited to the spoffle's defign, in believing Gentiles to be obstinate and fortifying the Philippians against being incorrigible, and abandoned of God to terrified by their adversaries. everlafting perdition. I have glanced

Which is an evident token of per- at this fense, though I take the other

Chap. i.

29 For unto you it is given, in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but alfo fake ;

30 Having the fame conflict which ye faw in me, and now hear to be in me.

that are perfecuted for the fake of Chrift, and bear it with faith and patience, it is in reality an evident token of eternal falvation, and that not of yourfelves. but of God, as his free gift, who calls you to the trial, and is able, faithful, and willing to ftand by you in it, and carry you through it, and crown you with everlafting life at the end of it. (See Mat. v. 10, 11, 12.)

29 For it is a diffinguishing honour, which God gracioully puts upon you, on account of the merit of Chrift ; and, though flefh and fenfe judge otherwife, it really is, and ought to be effected matter of great to fuffer for his joy, (James i. 2.) that ye should not only be enabled to truft in him, and continue fo to do, to the faving of your fouls; but that ye fhould also be helped, patiently to endure perfecutions for him, from a principle of faith, and love to him, and for his glory here, that ye may be glorified with him, in a more illustrious manner hereafter. (See Rom. viii. 17.)

> 30 And still further to reconcile you to, and keep you from fainting under those fufferings for Chrift, which do, or may befal you in this world, ye would do well to confider, that they are only the fame fort of combat, (ayawa) which ye have formerly feen me violently exercifed with, and yet enabled, through grace, to fuffain with holy fortitude and patience, for the fame glorious caufe, among yourfelves at Philippi; (Acts xvi. 19,-24.) and which ye now hear I am forely conflicting with, under my prefent bonds and imprisonment at Rame.

RECOLLECTIONS.

How well are those churches furnished with all needful officers, that have faithful pastors and deacons, to take care of their spiritual and temporal concerns ! And with what cordial and devout affection should we with and pray, that all the blefsings of grace and peace from God the Father, and the Lord Jelus Chrift, may be multiplied to them and their officers! They are charitably supposed to be faints in Chrift; and it is matter of great thankfulnels to God, that they are admitted to, and continue in the fellowship of the gospel, and bear the evident traces of that good work of grace, which we may be confident its great Author will carry on, till it be perfected at the coming of Jelus Chrift. And O how defirable is it, that fincerity, light, and love, and an inoffenfive deportment, and high approbation of fpiritual things, together with the fruits of righteousness, which are, by Jefus Chrift, to the praise and glory of God, should unitedly increase and abound in us! The preaching of Chrift is his appointed means of promoting these important ends, as well as of the conversion of finners; and he will own it as his ordinance, though fome may be influenced by unworthy, hypocritical, envious, and contentious views, to engage in that facred office. But how amiable is it, when it is difcharged with fidelity, and with fincere affection to Christ, to his fervants, people, and cause ! However, if Christ be really preached according to the truth of the gospel, whether from good or bad motives, we ought to rejoice in the thing itself; and it difcovers a most excellent spirit when we are enabled to to do, even while we apprehend it is defigned to leffen our own perfonal credit, comfort, and ufefulmeis: But, whatever others may intend, God will over-rule the fufferings of his faithful fervants, for the defence and furtherance of the golpel; for encouraging fome

Digitized by GOOGLE

Chap. i.

one thing that I f your faith, and uls, and my comer.9e) your traffic towards another.

ip, and fuch as i acter, and luit.

d to the princi-

d to your holy hrift for its glo-whether, when fee you again;

detained from others, a com-things among d particularly d furious at-re and abide of the Holy pirit of liber.

h one heart

, like wreft-

) according preferving, corrupted,

red in the d for pro-hat it may d, to the nd others hat, how enemies

ith, and behave ans af-

0 YOU

lage to ay to, ; and lation eople

you, that ther:

٥r in 05 and infift upon, ...

13

fome to appear openly in the caufe of Chrift; and for emboldening their own faith and hope, and helping forward their own falvation, through the prayers of his people, and the supply of his Spirit. And what a happy strait is it for them not to know whether they shall choose life, through their earnest concern to glorify Chrift in their fervices and fufferings, for the edification of the church; or shall choole death, through their vehement defire to go immediately to Chrift, which they affuredly know is beft of all for themfelves! What an honour is it to fuffer with a right spirit for the fake of Chrift ! And how should believers efteem this, as well as faith itfelf, to be rather a gift of grace, on account of his merit, than to be thought of with terror ! Only it behoves them to take care, that, by the grace of God, their conversation be holy, as becomes the goipel of Christ; and that they ftand fast with one mind and heart, striving together, with fervent zeal, for the faith once delivered to the faints, whatfoever the confequence may be, as to this world. And O how near do they, and their fpiritual affairs, lie to the hearts of their good ministers! They are continually mindful of them in their prayers; they heartily blefs God for them, as partakers of grace with themfelves; they rejoice in their profperity; and their tenderest affectionate defire (as they can appeal to God) is toward them, that they may enjoy their company and communion, and may be helpful to them for their support under troubles, and for their furtherance and joy of faith.

C H A P. II.

The apofile exhorts the Philippians to a harmonious, kind, and humble spirit and behaviour, by various moving arguments, and particularly by the example of Chriss, 1,-11. To diligence in the affairs of their falvation, in confideration of God's working in them, 12, 13. To be exemplarly and instructive to the world, and a comfort to bimself, 14,-18. And he assure them of his defire, hope, and purpose of making them a visit; and, in the mean while, of sending to them Timothy and Epaphroditus, both of which he recommends to their kind and honourable regards, 19,-30.

TEXT.

IF there be therefore any confolation in Chrift, if any "comfort of love, if any fellowfhip of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies;"

PARAPHRASE.

A S I have expressed my willingness to abide in the A flesh for your furtherance and joy of faith, (chap. i. 25.) I would therefore earnestly prefs upon you the important things before recommended, (chap. i. 27.) by feveral moving confiderations, as follow, if there be any authority in my exhortation, (magandnois) as delivered to you in the name of Chrift; or any argument to be drawn from the excellency of that confolation which ye have in him, and derive from him; or if ye would comfort me under my prefent tribulations for Chrift : If any obligation arifes from a joyous fenfe of his love, and of the love of God in him to you; or from the pleafure of your own love to him, and of your mutual Chriftian love one to another; or if ye would have in yourfelves, and give me the comfort of my love to you, and of yours to me: If there be any inducement from a confideration of that holy communion, that ye have, together with myfelf, in the fpecial influences,

2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be like-minded, having the fame love, being of one acoord, of one mind.

3 Let nothing be done through ftrife, or vain-glory, but in lowlinets of mind

let each eiteem othemfelves.

PHILIPPIANS paraphrafed.

ces, gifts, graces, and communications of the Holy Spirit, which also gives you a fellow/hip with the Father, and with his Son Jefus Chrift; (1 John i. 3.) or from a confideration of your fpiritual fellowship one with another, as members of the fame body, of which Chrift is the head : If there be any force in a reflection on the most tender and affectionate dispofitions which are in the heart of God, and have difcovered themfelves, through Chrift, with the kindeft compassion toward you, or which he has wrought, by his Spirit," in you towards one another, and me, his prifoner in bonds. If, I fay, there be any reality, worth, pleafure, obligation, or endearment in thefe things, as there certainly is; and if, as I truft, ye yourfelves have experienced them in your own fouls ;

2 Let these excite and engage you to fill up the measure of that satisfaction and joy which ye have already begun to give me; the joy I mean is, that ye be entirely united with me, and with one another, in mind and heart, and that particularly in the following things; that ye, as Christians, be knit together in fincere love and affection to Chrift, and me his fervant, as I am to you, and in Motherly love one to another; that ye unanimoufly agree to join with me, in purfuing one and the fame defign, for promoting the interest of Christ, the purity of the gospel, and your mutual edification; and that ye be all of the fame judgment, and of * the fame relifh, with myfelf, as to the great doctrines of the Christian faith, in opposition to all judaizing errors.

3 Take heed that nothing be faid or done among you, from a litigious or oftentatious temper, which delights in opposition to others, and applause to itfelf; but let every thing be managed in your churchther better than affemblies, and in all your conversation and behaviour, with fuch an humble frame of fpirit, as shall dispose all and every one of you to entertain a modeft and mean opinion of their own attainments +, and to be ready

> OTES. N

be of one mind, (ro is operavies) express and, it seems to me, that by the last of just the same idea, if we take them se- these, he intended an agreement in fenparately, and apart by themselves: But, timents, as to the doctrines of the golpel; as it cannot be thought that the apostle because he is here enforcing what he had was guilty of fuch a needless tautology, faid, chap. i. 27. about their flanding faft as taking them in the fame fenfe and la- in one fpirit, in one mind. Ariving toge-titude imports, I apprehend the easieft ther for the fuith of the go/pel. This way of freeing him from it, is to confi- preferves a proper diffinction in the fense der like-minded as a general term, and of all these words. the three following expressions as explanatory of the particulars he included and graces may, and cannot but account in it, namely, as having the fame love, their attainments to be superior to o-Vol. V.

* Be like-minded (to avio peousit) and being of one accord, and of one mind;

+ Though Christians of eminent gifts Ð thers

Digitized by Google

ent zeal, for the y be, as to this to the hearts of ir prayers; they ; they rejoice in

Chap, ii.

ing their own faith the prayers of his t is it for them not concern to glorify church; or thall

to Chrift, which mour is it to fuffer ers efteem this, a merit, than to be t, by the grace of f; and that they n appeal to God)

on, and maybe

herance and joy

, and bum. and partiin the afg in them, d, and a his dehre, an while, which he 0.

le in the f faith, rels up iended, ons, as tation, me of e exhim, - 11ligafthe ; of tian ur-۶U, лt ۱E

ŀ

The Epistle to the

ready to condefcend to perfons of the loweft degree ; as also to think and speak better of others, that walk becoming their profession, than of themselves, as obferving, and being duly affected with a fense of their own failings, and caffing a mantle of love upon the. defects of other Christians, whole hearts, for aught they know, may be better, and more approved of God, than their own.

4 In order to your attaining this excellent difpofition, let every one of you take heed of a narrow felfish spirit, of magnifying his own endowments, or of aiming at (un ozoreile) his own honour, eafe, and fecular interests, as though this were the chief mark and fcope of his endeavours and conduct; but let every one, as acted by a generous public fpirit, think himfelf bound in duty, not, like a bufy body, to meddle with other people's matters, but, in his own proper fphere, to confult and purfue those things that make for their edification and peace, comfort and advantage, both in temporal and spiritual affairs.

; For, (yae) in opposition to strife, vain glory, and felf-feeking, the fame fpirit of meeknefs, humility, and love ought to prevail in you, which was fo eminently confpicuous, and fo perfectly exemplified in our Lord Jefus Chrift himfelf.

6 Who, being possessed of the divine nature *, and of all its effential perfections, as the Son of God, and as the brightnefs of the Father's glory, and exprefs image of his perfon; (Heb. i. 3.) and fo really, and in the strictest sense, God, in the true and proper form of deity, did not count it an usurpation, injury, or wrong, or any act of rapine in him, to claim an equality of nature with God the Father ; he and

NOTES.

Digitized by Google

ipeaks of his own gifts and labours; yet, and, as the forme of a fervant, which like him, they ought to be humble in Chrift is there faid to have taken upon afcribing nothing to themfelves, but him, is meant of his being really a ferall to the grace of God, (1 Cor. xv. 9, vant in his affumed human nature, with 10. and 2 Cor. xii. 11.) And, with re- reference to which, it is added, that he fpect to true religion, charity should was made in the likeness of man, the teach them to hope, that there may be plain meaning of which is, that he was fomething more excellent, and lefs of- really man; fo the form of God, which tenfive to God in the hearts of other be- he was originally in, muft, in all reafon, lievers, than they find in their own, who, mean, that he was, in his prior nature, on one account or another, are apt to as truly and properly God, as he was think their own worse than others; be- in his human nature man and a fervant; caufe, the more they know themfelves, and therefore it might well be faid, that the more they fee the treachery and vile- be thought it not robbery to be equal neis of their own, than it is possible for with God, as I think this passage is justthem to lee of the hearts of others, whole ly rendered. (See this fense of it vindiconversation is such as becomes the gol- cated in my fermons on Jefus Chrift Godpel of Chrift.

The form of God is oppoled to the thers of the lowest class, as the apostle form of a fervant in the next verse; man, p. 21.

4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Chritt Jelus:

6 Who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God; and the Father being effentially One, though perfonally distinct. (John x. 30.)

7 But made himfelf of no reputation, and took upon him the form was made in the likeness of men:

7 Neverthelefs (αλλα) he was pleafed, by a wonderful act of condescension, so far to disrobe, and, as it were, empty himfelf, of the bright appearances of of a fervant, and his divine majefty and glory, as not to make a pompous shew of them; but, in great measure, to conceal them from the observation of men, while, in themfelves, they continued to be really and effentially the fame as ever, and all the fulne/s of the Godhead dwelt substantially in him : (Col. ii. 9.) And he voluntarily affumed human nature into perfonal union with himfelf, in fo low and mean a condition, as therein to become his Father's fervant, living and acting, bleeding and dying, according to his commandment, (John x. 18.) and as even to act the part of a fervant towards his disciples, (Luke xii. 37.) and go through the most painful, humbling, and difficult fervices for their redemption and falvation; and he was fo truly and properly man, as to be made like unto bis bretbren, of human nature, in all things, fin only excepted. (Heb. ii. 17. and iv. 15.)

8 And when he was found in the common form and condition of man, as though he had been nothing more, he fubmitted himfelf to the lowest degree of fervice and fufferings; and went into a course of the most humble obedience, as to his parents and magiftrates, in all lawful things, fo to his heavenly Father, as his fervant, to answer all the demands of his holy law, both in fulfilling its precepts, and fuffering its curfe ; and this obedience he paid even unto death, and all along, till he came to die, yea, and in his dying, (John x. 18.) not an ordinary death, but the ignominious, painful, and accurled death of the crofs, to flow that he flood in the place of tranfgreffors, who were under the curfe of the law, and that he came to redeem them from it, by bearing it (Gal. iii. 13.) for them.

9 And, having fulfilled his work of redemption in this humble, obediential, and fuffering manner, God his Father, as a reward of all this, according to its. deferts, and his covenant agreement, (Ifa. liii. 9,-11.) has glorioufly exalted him, not by advancing him to a flate of greater effential happinels, perfection, or glory, than he had before, as God, which admits of no addition; but by raising him, as man, from the dead, receiving him up to glory, and fetting him at his own right hand, and giving him univerfal dominion, as mediator; and fo he illustriously manifested this divine perfon to be as great and glorious as he always was in himfelf: And, to recommend D 2

Digitized by Google

And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto de. h, even the death of the . creis.

9 Wherefore God alfo hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name :

Chap. ii.

mend him by the most endearing motives to our acknowledgment of him as such, he has granted him, in his office capacity, as his incarnate Son, a new title of authority and honour, incomparably superior to any other name, dignity, or authority whatloever, among angels or men; yea, too great for any mere creature to wear, or be worthy of, even the name of the Saviour, and the constituted Lord of all. (ver. 10, 11.) And he has done this,

10 To the end that, (me) in token of the religious honours which are due to the exalted Saviour, every one should bow the knee, not at barely pronouncing the word $\frac{\gamma}{e/us}$, nor merely in a literal fense, in which the angels in heaven, that are to bow before him, have no knees; but in paying fuch folemn homage, adoration, and worship to this glorious and divine perfon, whole name is Jejus ; and in being fo entirely subject to him, (see the note on Rom. xiv. 11.) as is fignified by bowing the knee, as well as by other expressions of it; and is to be paid to him by all ranks of intelligent creatures, whether they be faints or angels in heaven, or fuch men as are living upon earth, or as are dead and buried under the earth, when they shall rife again, and appear at his tribunal; then they, and all the wicked on earth, and all the devils in hell, shall either willingly, or by conftraint, bow to him, as the great Judge of a'l.

11 And he is thus highly exalted, that the tongue of every one, of all nations and languages, fhould either chearfully own, and celebrate the praifes of his univerfal dominion; or be forced to acknowledge, whether they would or not, that he, the anointed Saviour, is in his office-capacity, and exalted flate, the great Head, Lord, and Ruler over all, and the univerfal Judge at the laft day, to the glory of God the Father, whofe honour it is to have always had fuch a Divine Son, as is worthy of fo high a commiffion; (John v. 23. and 1 John ii. 23.) and who, in infinite wifdom, hath appointed his incarnate perforh to all this dignity, for the glory of his own name. (John xvii. 1, 2.)

12 Since therefore the duties of humility, love, and kindnefs, (ver. 2, -4.) are recommended in fo lively and affecting a manner, by the matchlefs example of our Lord himfelf; let this animate you, my dear brethren, to a noble imitation of him therein; and fince, from the time of your conversion, ye have, all along, shown an obediential submission to his commands, and to his authority in me, not only out of regard to my prefence, while I was perfonally among you to obferve, affis, admonis, and encourage you; but to That at the name of Jefus every knee fhould bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

II And that every tongue fhould confels, that Jefus Chrift is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my preferce only, but now much more in my abfence; work out your own faivation with fear and trembling.

but now, more efpecially to prove the fincerity of your love, while ye are furrounded with feducers, and are not under my immediate infpection and inftruction, through my absence from you; I, in reflection upon this, entreat you, with the greater confidence in your obedience, to be vigoroufly active, under divine influence, in promoting the falvation of one another, (fee the note on Epb. iv. 32.) and to go forward, and abound in a diligent exercise and practice of the forementioned, and all other graces and duties that are neceffary, in the nature of things, and by the appointment of God, for the final accomplishment of that falvation, which is already your own, by the gift of the Father, the purchase of the Son, and the application and earnest of the Spirit : And I befeech you to labour in this manner about your own falvation, every one perfonally for himfelf, not with a fervile, diffruftful, and defponding fear, but with a holy, filial, and awful reverence of the Divine Majefty, and a cautious fear of finning againft, and thereby offending and dishonouring him; (Pfal. ii. 11. and 1 Pet. i. 17.) and with humble dread of doing any thing to provoke his frowns and difpleafure, the hidings of his face, the withdrawings of his affiftance, and the chaftifements of his rod, in opposition to felf-confidence and carnal fecurity, with regard to an affair of fuch infinite importance.

13 For, to encourage your utmost diligence herein, on one hand, and to guard you against pride and carnal fecurity, on the other, remember that the gracious and holy God, who has begun his good work in your fouls, (sveeyes) continues to carry it on ; with internal virtue and powerful energy, till it be perfected, (chap. i. 6.) as it is he, that excites, inclines, and determines your will, in a way confistent with the trueft liberty of a rational creature, and enables you to perform the things that relate to your falvation; and does this, not for any defert in yourfelves to move him to it, but merely of his own free and fovereign grace, which he exerts with the greatest pleafure and delight, (Mat. xi. 26. and Micab vii. 18.) * and by which he works in you both to choose, and

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

The word bis, not being in the influence of his Spirit and grace, accord-Greek, some suppose that good pleafure ing to the apostle's u'e of this word, relates, not to the manner with which chap. i. 15. And this may be a very God works in us, but with which belie good fenfe of the phrase, while we convers do, as well as will, under his work- fider God as working all this in us, and ings; and to may fignify that the effect exciting and influencing us to it by his of his working in us is our willing, and Spirit. But, I rather think, that good doing with freedom and delight, as fer- pleafure refers to the way and manner wing the Lord with good-quill, under the of God's working in 25, than to the way and 13 For it is God which worketh in you, both to will and to do of his good pleafure.

14 Do all things without murmurings, and diputings:

15 That ye may be blameleis and harmleis, the fons of God, without rebuke, in the midft of a clooked and nation, perverle among whom ye fhine as lights in the world :

-16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Chrift, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

and do every thing that is good, in the use of proper means, with freedom and chearfulnefs.

14 In dependence therefore upon, and compliance with his gracious operations in you, take fpecial heed, that, according to what has been fuggested, (ver. 3.) ye, in the whole of your conduct, avoid all difcontent at the prosperity of others, or at the dispofals of Providence toward yourfelves; and all animofities and wrangling disputations one against another; and difputings against the things which God enjoins upon you, or which ye may be called to fuffer for Chrift's fake.

15 That ye may be in reality, and appear to yourfelves and others to be, unreprovable and inoffentive in your temper and conversation, and fincere in your dealings with both God and man, as becomes the children of your heavenly Father, to diftinguish you from the children of the devil; that there may be no just occasion of complaint or accusation against you, for any irregularity in your walk, nor any room for the most captious adversary to revile and censure you, while ye live in the midit of a generation of Jews and Gentiles, that are exceedingly corrupt and depraved in their minds and manners, like perfons bent and warped from the ftrait rule of righteoufnefs, perverse in heart, and turned afide from the right ways of the Lord ; among whom ye, as Christians, and a church of Chrift, are fet up, ought to be, and in great measure are, as shining lights, and illustrious examples, for the direction, conviction, and imitation of the men of this world, that they, feeing your good works, may glomify your Father, which is in beaven : (Mat. v. 16.)

16 Ye herein holding fast (175%) with perfeverance; and holding up to all around you, with evidence and recommendation, Chrift himfelf, who is our life; (see Col. iii. 4. and I John i. 1.) and the glorious doctrine of eternal life, in all its purity and excellence, as it reveals and fhews the way of obtaining it through him, and is the power of God to the falvation of every one that believes : (Rom. i. 16.) This I am greatly concerned for, that, according to my hope, I may rejoice and glory in your ftedfaftnefs and our actings about our own falvation; 5, 9. and 2 Theff. i. 11.

NOTE. and manner of our willing and acting but is frequently used with reference towards him, in things that relate to to God, and his way and manner of actour falvation : For our doing with good ing about it, and is commonly rendered pleasure, is much the same with our his good pleasure, or good will, or that willing to do is; and this word (worka) which feems good to bim. as in Mat. xi. as far as I find, is never uled to express 25, a6. Luke ii. 14. and xii. 32. Eph. i.

and usefulness here, and in your complete falvation hereafter, when we shall appear together in the prefence of Christ, at his coming to judge the world in the great day of account; (I Theff. ii. 19, 20.) as finding then, that all my strivings, pains, and labours for, and with you, in the course of my ministry, have not been fruitless and ineffectual; but, by the grace of God, have answered their defired end, to his glory and your everlassing happiness.

17 Yea, and fuch is my love to you, that I not only hope, and rejoice in the hope of this happy fruit of my labours among you; but if (ash' is not over domas) in pursuit of them, the providence of God fhould fo order it, that I, his prifoner, must not only undergo great fufferings, but even lay down my life to feal my teffimony with my blood, and to be poured out, like the oil and wine on the meat and drink-offerings, (Exod. xxix. 4. and Lev. ii. 1.) to complete the facrifices under the law, in miniftring before the Lord : (Aulseyna) If this should befal me, for the further confirmation of your faith as believing Gentiles, who are offered up as an acceptable facrifice to God, being fanctified by the Holy Ghoft, (Rom. xv. 16.) I am fo far from being troubled at it, that now, in the forefight of it, I do, and then shall rejoice in it; and (ouyxarew) I congratulate you all, upon finishing my work and days in a manner fo honourable to Chrift, and fo richly to your advantage.

18 And, in return, I beg of you, that on the fame account, in cafe ye should hear of my martyrdom, ye would rejoice and congratulate me, ($\sigma v \gamma \gamma \omega u$ gers $\mu \omega$) on the honour of my dying in fuch a way, as shall bear the most noble testimony to the Lord Jefus, and to his gospel, and shall be to the farther encouragement and establishment of your faith in him.

19 But, notwithstanding all that I have faid about my willingness to die for these great purposes, I am apprehensive that the time for it is not yet come: and I humbly hope and truft in the providential care and gracious kindness of the Lord Jefus, who is highly exalted, and has a name above every name, (ver. 9.) and has the government of the church and the world upon his fhoulders, (Ila. ix. 6.) that my circumftances will foon be in fuch a fituation, as to admit of my sparing the beloved Timothy, and fending him, according to my prefent purpofe, to fee how matters go with you, and help you in your spiritual concerns, that I may have the greatest fatisfaction and pleafure, according to my hopes, when I shall hear from him, that the work of the Lord prospers among you,

Digitized by Google

17 Yea, and if I be offered upon the facrifice and fervice of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.

18 For the fame caufe alfo do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

19 But I truft in the Lord Jefas, to fend Timotheus fhortly unto you, that I alfo may be of good comfort, when I know your flate.

20 For I have no man like-minded, who will naturally care for your ftate.

21 For all feck their own, not the things which are Jefus Chrift's.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that as a fon with the father, he hath ferved with me in the gofpel.

vou. and that the judaizing teachers have not been able, by all there fubtilties, and terrors, to pervert or shake you.

20 The reason of my defigning to fend him is, because I have no Christian brother with me (10040-200) that is equal in excellency of temper with him, or that is like affected toward you; and that, with regard to doctrine, ministrations and behaviour, walks in the fame spirit, and in the same steps with myself. as he does; who fincerely, and with the most genuine affection, (general) like that which a parent naturally has for his children, will lay your concerns to heart, and carefully fludy to promote your establishment, edification, and increase with all the increases of God.

21 For the generality of the other brethren *, that remain with me, are too felfish and pufillanimous, and rather folicitous about their own temporal cafe, honour, and fafety, than willing to expose themselves to fuch fatigues, dangers, and reproaches, as I met with at Philippi, (Acts xvi. 19,-24.) and as they might poffibly be called to fuffer more, in promoting the intereft, caufe, and glory of our great Lord and Saviour, and the welfare of his church there, than in fome other places.

22 But ye have had good trial and proof, (dorigent) and an experimental knowledge of Timothy's eminent qualifications, faithfulnels, courage, and zeal: Ye have feen how, when we were together among you, (AEIs xvi. 1,-13.) he engaged, in the face of all hazard and opposition, with me, as a fellow-labourer, in preaching and propagating the gofpel; and I affure you he always, like me, has been feeking, not his own profit, but the profit of many, that they might be faved; (I Cor. x. 33.) he has been willing to go wherever I should fend him, and to lay himfelf out in the fervice of Chrift, according to my directions, with all the affection and chearfulnefs, refpect and duty of a fon to his father; he being indeed my own fon in the faith, (1 Tim. i. 2.) and of the fame fpirit with me.

NOTE

tian ministers and brethren, as if none pared with Timothy, more influenced of them had any concern for the inte- by worldly conveniences and advantareft and glory of Chrift: For the apoftle ges, than by a zealous concern to pro-fpeaks honourably of Epaphroditus, ver. mote the intereft of Chrift, particularly 25. and tells us, chap. i. 14. that many at Philippi, where it might cost them of the brethren, waxing confident by his more abundant trouble, than at some bonds, were much more bold to speak other places, in which they might hope the word without fear : But, perhaps, to be useful. the best of them were gone to other pla-

23 I

* All here cannot mean abfolutely ces, and the greateft part of them, that and univerfally every one of the Chris- remained with the apoftle, were, com-

23 Him there. fore I hope to fend prefently, fo foon as I thall fee how it will go with me.

24 But I truft in the Lord, that I alto myfelf fhall come fhortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to lend to you Epaphroditas. my brother and companion in labour, and fellowfoldier. but your meffenger, and he that ministereth to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heavineis, because that ye had heard that he had been fick.

PHILIPPIANS paraphrased.

23 I have therefore fixed upon this excellent and approved young man, and hope I shall be able to fend him to you in a very little time, without further delay, after I shall have taken my trial at Cæ/ar's bar, (Acts xxviii. 19.) which I daily expect to be called to; and then the fact will prove whether I am to be discharged or not.

24 But though the trial is not yet over, I have an humble confidence in the Lord Jefus, whofe I am, and whom I ferve, and for whole take I am now in bonds; that by his over-ruling providence, and gracious appearance for me, I shall be acquitted from the malicious accusations of mine enemies, and fet at liberty; and that thereupon I myfelf may likewife have an opportunity, ere long, of paying you a vifit, according to my earnest defire of feeing you, and rejoicing with you.

25 Neverthelefs, as I cannot come immediately myfelf, and Timothy cannot yet be fpared, I in the mean while thought it proper, and needful for your edification and comfort, and for giving you a prefent pledge of my affectionate concern for you, to fend back, with this letter, the beloved Epaphroditus, who is my dear brother in the faith, and in the minifterial office, and my fellow-labourer in the work of the Lord; yea, and my affociate, that endures hardfhips, and exposes himself to dangers with me, as a good foldier of Jefus Chrift, the Captain of falvation, in our spiritual warfare, under him, against fin and Satan, and against feducers, and all the powers of this world, that fet themfelves in opposition to him and his cause; and (δ_i) he is your faithful minister, and kind meffenger to me, who has fully answered the truft which ye repofed in him, and has fupplied me with fuch corporal refreshments, by your generous benefactions, and given me fuch other affiftances, as were neceffary and convenient for me *.

26 I chofe especially to fend him, because he was exceeding defirous of vifiting you all again; and, like a truly fympathizing friend, was extremely afflicted in his own mind, even to the finking of his fpirits, not fo much on account of his own late ficknefs here, as of your having heard of it, which he, judging of your affection to him, by the experience he has had of it, and by his own to you, concluded would gives him, that he was a minister, and iv. 12. and Philemon, ver. 2.

Vol. V.

Digitized by Google

NOT E.

It is supposed, with great probabi- was tent as a meffenger from that lity, that Epaphroditus was paftor of the church to the apoftle in his bonds; and church at Philippi: However, it is evi- he is fuppoied by many to be the fame dent from the character the apoftle here that is called Epaphras. Col. i. 7. and E

Chap. ii.

27 For indeed he was fick nigh unto death : but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me alio, left I fhould have forrow upon for-IUW.

2$ I fent him therefore the more etrefully, that when' ye fee him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the lefs forrowful.

20 Receive bim therefore in the Lord with all gladnefs, and hold fuch in reputation :

would be an occasion of much grief and fore diftrefs to you.

27 For, as ye heard, he really was feized with a diftemper in its own nature mortal, and has been fo dangeroufly ill, as to be brought to death's door : But God, whole prerogative it is to kill and fave alive, has in his good providence wonderfully appeared for his recovery, in answer to prayer, even beyond our expectation; which was a great mercy, not only to himfelf *, in his relief and reftoration to health and eafe, and capacities of fervice; but was also an instance of God's tender compassion, as to you and many others, fo particularly to myfelf, left, by lofing fo dear and important a friend and brother, I should have been over-loaded with this addition of forrow. to that of his fickness, and to all the other troubles. I labour under in my confinement.

28 I therefore the more fludioufly and diligently (orsoaiolegus) dispatched him with all speed to you, though with much felf-denial in parting with him, that when ye receive him in a good flate of health again, ye may rejoice at the fight, and I may have the fatisfaction of contributing to your comfort therein, and of hearing of his arrival fafe and found to you, who fpared him fo long to minister to me; and fo . may be the lefs troubled at my own lofs of his company and affiftance, and at my other afflictions.

20 See therefore that, according to my defire and hope, and your own warm professions of love to him, while he was absent, and in danger of death, ye cordially embrace him, as a fervant of Chrift, and for his fake, who has returned him alive and well to you : Receive him, I fay, with all fpiritual joy, as well as with humane, civil, and friendly affection : And let all fuch faithful labourers in the gospel, as he is, be efteemed very highly, and treated with great honour among you, for their work's fake ; (1 Theff. v. 13.) And

Digitized by Google

NOTE. mercies, and ficknefs and death are the he, doubtlefs, as well as others, prayed fruit of fin; it is, in that view, a mer- for his recovery. cy, even to a good man, to be reftored might be, because he could not perform to health for the fervice of God, and the fuch miracles at all times, and whenever good of others, after a threatning illnefs; though in the view of the confequences of death, in a happy exchange of this frail and mortal life for a bleffed him; (Luke vi. 19. and viii. 46.) and immortality, it is better for himfelf to die, than to live in this troublefome and that believe not, to confirm the gofpel finful world. (See chap. i. 23.) And to them, as the apoftle faid of tongues : though the apoille was io much affect. (I Cor. xiv. 22.) But there feems not to ed with Epapbreditus's ficknefs; yet he have been any fuch occasion for working feems to have made no attempt for heal- this miracle.

* As life and health are in themfelves ing him in the miraculous way; while The reason of this he pleafed; there being no virtue in himfelf for it, as there was in our Lord, which was a glory and power peculiar to because miraculous figns were for them

. 0

30 Because for the work of Chrift he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life to fupfervice toward me.

And ye ought in a fpecial manner to fhew the higheft regard to Epaphroditus;

30 Becaufe it was by means of the great fatigues he underwent for Christ's fake, in love to him, and zeal for his interest and glory, that he contracted the illnefs, which brought him fo near the point of death ; ply your lack of he having been exceffive in his labours, even to the neglecting a due care of his health; as not regarding his own life, but willingly hazarding it, by going on my meffages, and preaching the gofpel to fuch, as I could not come at in my confinement; and by often attending upon, and ministring to me, and fo making up the want of your perfonal affiftances, which, had ye been here, ye readily would have afforded me; but which, at this diffance, ye were incapable of.

RECOLLECTIONS.

How fweet and endearing are arguments taken from divine confolations, and inward glowings of love and compatiion, to brotherly kindnels and condescention, humility and meeknels, and a fincere regard to each other's edification and comfort! And how engaging to all this is the matchless example of Christ! Though he was really God, posselled of the divine nature and perfection, equally with the Father, and fo had a rightful claim to all the honours of Deity ; yet, in his infinite love and pity to his people, he ftooped fo low as to affiume human nature into perfonal union with himfelf; and, in this nature, inftead of thining forth in all the luftres of Godhead, he ordinarily concealed them, and, as it were, difrobed himfelf of them ; and, appearing in the mean state of a servant, submitted to the loweft and fevereft course of obedience to his Father's will and law, till he finished it in the painful and fhameful death of the crois. And O how meritorious and pleafing to God the Father was this ! He, as the just reward of it, has exalted him in human nature, and office-authority, to the higheft dignity and honour in heaven, that this divine Saviour might be treated as the object of all adoration and homage, and the whole world of angels and men might be brought into an entire fubjection to him, as Lord of all, to the glory of God the Father. With what humble caution, felf-diffidence, reverence of God, and holy diligence, fhould believers attend to the things that relate to their own falvation ! And what rich encouragement have they to it, fince God, of his own good pleafure, is ever prefent with them, to excite, affift, and animate their holy inclinations and performances! And how highly does it concern them to behave meekly and inoffentively, as becomes the children of God, with fhining evidence, and a recommending profession of the gospel of falvation, in the midst of a corrupt and degenerate age! And O what a pleafure is it to the faithful fervants of Chrift, to fee this happy fruit of their labours! For the producing of this, they could willingly fubmit, not only to imprifonment, but even to death itfelf, and rejoice in the noble testimony they should thereby bear to him : And when they are under confinement for his fake, how defirous are they to hear that the church profpers; and to fend fuch to mi-nifter to them, as may be most acceptable and useful among them! Though there be too many that leek their own things, rather than the things of Jelus Christ, which is for a lamentation; yet, bleffed be God, there are tome who, like Timothy and Epaphroditus, as well as Paul, are heartily and affectionately disposed to lay themselves out disinterestedly in the cause of the dear Redeemer, and have longing defires to be helpful to the faith and joy of his people : All fuch are to be received with gladness, and to be highly effected and homoured for their work's fake. But O how affecting is it when fuch eminent inftruments are confined in bonds, or are fick nigh unto death ! What a sympathizing spirit is there, in fuch circumstances, between them and all that truly fear the Lord ! How willing are they to affift one another ! And what matter of rejoicing is it, when God fets his prifoners free, and has mercy on his fick fervants, and on their mourning and praying friends, in reftoring them to health, and to capacities and opportunities of further fervice !

F. 2

CHAP.

The Epistle to the

H A P. III. С

The apofile cautions the Philippians against judaizing falfe teachers, when he describes, as he also does true Christians in opposition to them, 1,-3. Recite his own former privileges, and renounces all here for Christ, 1,-8. Expresses his earnest defire to be found in bim, and his pressing on toward perfection, 9,-14. And recommends his own example to the imitation of other believers, in oppuficion to the behaviour of carnal professors, 15,-21.

TEXT.

FINALLY, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the fame things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is fale.

A FTER all * my dear brethren, I would excite you to a truly spiritual joy, not merely in any external helps, means, and privileges; but entirely in our Lord Jesus Christ, under a sense of his love and care, and of the bleffings ye have, and hope for in him, that ye may not be perverted, and fo robbed of your holy joy, by judaizing teachers; 1 have therefore thought proper to write the very famethings, to caution you against them, that I delivered by word of mouth, while I was prefent with you, and have ordered Epaphroditus to remind you of; (chap. ii. 25.) and this I do without any reluctance, as if it were irkfome and tedious to me to repeat old things, but with the greatest pleasure, to shew that I am still of the fame mind, and that my concern is as great for your edification, and for the purity of the gospel among you, as ever: And it is needful, for your prefervation and establishment in the faith, to have these things repeatedly inculcated upon you, and committed to writing, that ye may be put in remembrance of them, (2 Pet. i. 12.) and the more deeply impreffed with them; and may have opportunity, on all occafions, of reviewing them, to fecure you from all the uncertainties, and mistakes of oral tradition about them.

PARAPHRASE.

2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil-workers, beware of the concilion.

2 Take heed then of those zealots, and have a ftrict and watchful eye upon them, who really are as worthlefs, vile, and contemptible, as the Jews have thought the Gentiles to be, while they used to denominate them dogs, (Mat. xv. 26, 27.) and as the ancient falfe prophets were, that are fpoken of as dumb

NOTE.

ther places, a note of concluding the Lord, may look both backwards and forepiftle; for the apofile was got to but wards, backward to what he had faid about the middle of it, and was now en- about troubles and joys; and forward tering upon his main defign in it: But it to what he was going to add againit ju-may be of like import with farthermore, daixing teachers, and for recommending which is used by way of transition to Christ and glorying in him.

* Tinally is not here, as often in o- what follows; and yet rejoicing in the 26 '

PHILIPPIANS paraphra (ed.

dumb dogs that could not bark; (Ifa. lvi. 10.) but they are fometimes, as evidently malicious and injurious, fierce and biting; and at others, as fly and fawning to ferve a turn, as the world of that fort of animals can be; and are juily excluded from the bleffings of the heavenly kingdom. (Kev. xxii. 15.) Ye cannot be too watchful against them; and therefore I repeat the charge, Stand upon your guard against these evil doers, and accentat workers, (2 Cor. xi. 13.) who labour to deftroy the truth of the gol-Sull pel, and the purity of the church of Chrift. further to firengthen my caution, and engage your attention to it, I fay again, the third time, Beware, with the utmost circumfpection, of that permisious fet of men, who glory in their circumcifion, which, as it is now no longer an ordinance of God, is no better than merely cutting off the forefkin of the fleth *; and who rend and tear the church to pieces; and initead of having the covenant of grace confirmed to them by that rite, as formerly, they, by depending upon it, cut themfelves off from Christ, and all the benefits of the golpel-covenant, and cannot be deem'd real Christians, whatever their pretences be. (See Gal v. 2,-4.)

3 For, in oppolition to thefe vain boafters, who may be more properly called the concision, than the curcume fion, we, who are fincere believers in Chrift, whether Jews or Gentiles, are after the best and most effectual manner, circumcifed in heart, (Deut. xxx. 6. and Rom. ii. 28, 29.) as being renewed in the spirit of our minds; (Ephef. iv. 23.) and fo are partakers of that circume from of Christ, which is fignified by our baptism; (Col. ii. 11, 12.) and are really in covenant with God: We accordingly worthip God, not by ceremonial rites and carnal ordinances, nor with merely external expressions and modes of religious adoration; but with our whole fouls, in the exercise of spiritual graces, under the light and influence of the Holy Spirit, according to golpel-inflitution, and to our bleffed Lord's own direction: (John iv. 23, 24.) And we glory with abundant joy; yea, even triumph in Chrift, and in our own interest in him, as the Lord our righteousness and strength, (lia.

the apolite, to thew his contempt of ing in a fpiritual fense the circumcifed; what they to much boafted of, calls the the abstract being here, as eliewhere, concision; and he speaks of the circum- put for the concrete, according to the cifion, or of what had been fignified by note on Rom. ii. 26. it, as the privilege and honour of real

* The concision fignifies the cutting Christians, whether they had been cir-off in allusion to circumcision, which cumcised in the flesh, or not; calling the judaizers gloried in; but which them the circumcision, (ver 3.) mean-

Digitized by Google

3 For we are the circum ifion, which worthip God in the spirit, and rejoice in Chritt Jesus, and have no confidence in the flefh :

The Epistle to the

(Ifa. xlv. 24, 25.) and as our only Mediator and ground of acceptance and hope: And we renounce all dependence upon, and expectation of favour with God on account of circumcifion, or any other Yewi/b ordinances, that pertain to the flefh; or of any thing whatfoever, that we have done, or can do, in performing the righteousness of the law, (ver. 6.) by natural principles, which, for their corruption and weaknefs, may very fitly be ftyled fle fb. (John iii. 6. Rom. ii. 5. and viii. 5,-9. See the notes on those passages in the Romans.)

4 Though as to myfelf, were there any dependence to be had upon, or any advantage to be found in ordinances and privileges, that pertain to the flefh, or in any thing that the judaizers have done in their carnal unregenerate state, I might boast of these things he might truft in as much as they. If any of them imagines that he has ground or matter of confidence toward God, on account of fleshly privileges and performances, I could claim as much on this foot as any one of them all; and more than the generality of them *, and efpecially than any profelyte can do.

5 As to external privileges, I was duly circumcifed the eighth day, according to God's appointment : (Gen. xvii. 12.) I am not a profelyte from among the Gentiles, but a true native I/raelite of that tribe, which defcended from Jacob by his beloved Benjamin, the fon of his dearest wife Rachel; a royal tribe, from which the first king of Ifrael was taken; and a tribe that never revolted to the idolatrous worship of Jeroboam's calves at Dan and Beibel, as all the reft, except that of Judah, did: I am a Jew of pure extract, both by father and mother's fide, and not an Hellenift; but of that fort of Jews that used the Hebrew language in fynagogue-worship; And I was, by education and profession, a Pharifee, the ftricteft of all the Jewish fects, in their observation of the law of God, and the traditions of the elders. (Acts xxi. 6. and xxvi. 5. and Gol. i. 13.)

6 And as to my regard to these privileges, and doing what I thought my duty in correspondence to them, I came behind none of those that pride themfelves in them; my zeal for them was fo flaming, that I was vehemently enraged, and went into most furious methods of cruelty and violence against the church of Chrift, (Acts xxii. 3, 4. and xxvi. 11.) becaufe

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

* Mr Pierce thought the apoftle had judaifm; and that he was only a prohis eye upon some particular person a- felyte, and not a native yew; and so mong the Philippians, that endeavour- the apostle had more to boast of than ed to draw them off from Christ to he.

Though I might alfo have confidence in the flefh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof the fleih, I more:

5 Circumcifed the eighth day, of the itock of Iirael, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharifee ;

Concerning

the church; touching the righteoufnefs which is in the law, blamelefs.

perfecuting zeal,

PHILIPPIANS paraphrased.

becaufe their principles and profefilion lay in direct oppofition to mine: And at the fame time, I was fo fincere and careful an obferver both of the ceremonial and moral law of Mofes, that neither mine own confcience did, nor any other perfon could charge me with any flagrant, or remarkable transgreffion of either parts of that law; having lived in all good confcience before God, according to my light, all the days of my judai/m, (Acts xxiii. I.) and having verily thought that I did God good fervice in perfecuting his New Teftament-church. (Acts xxvi. 9.)

7 But how much foever I once thought, and any carnal Jew would have flattered himfelf, that thefe things were of the greateft advantage to me in my fpiritual concerns, as fufficient to fecure the favour of God and heaven; yet when he called me by his grace, I faw that they were all mifguided, empty, and deficient; and that my dependence upon the beft of them was unprofitable and injurious to me; and fo I abandoned them all, in point of truft and confidence, for Chrift, and (nynuce) I efteemed them as nothing, and worfe than nothing to be relied upon, in competition with him.

8 Yea, and (asha mensure an mysman) to far am I, even now, after many years knowledge and experience of the gospel-way of falvation by Jesus Christ alone, from altering my mind as to this matter, that I really ftill reckon, not only those things, but even all that I have done, in a way of religious and moral obedience fince my conversion, which is much more than is found in any carnal Jew; I count all this, as well as every worldly enjoyment, to be lofs, in comparison with the superabundantly more excellent, fiducial, and experimental knowledge of Chrift, as the only Saviour, whom I humbly claim and truft in as my Lord, according to the gospel-discovery of him; for whofe fake, and in exchange for whom, I have deemed all things, though not abfolutely, yet in a comparative view, and in point of confidence in them, as no better than lofs; and have caft them all away, as goods are thrown over-board, when they endanger finking the fhip; and I do ftill reckon them to be not only fo, but even, if refted in for falvation, like fuch worthlefs and contemptible things, as dung, dregs, or dog's meat, (revbada) to the end that, (100) by an utter renunciation of them in point of juftification, I may at length gain a complete enjoyment of Chrift, and of all his faving benefits.

9 And this I do, that when the first and public ferutiny, trial, and final decifion of my flate shall comeon, I may be found in Christ with safety, as in a city

Digitized by Google

7 But what things were gain to me, thole I counted loss for Chrift.

8 Yea doubtlefs, and I count all things but lofs, for the excellency of the knowledge of Chrift Jefus my Lord; for whom I have fuffered the lofs of all things, and do count them but dung that I may win Chrift.

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteouinefs, the law, but that which is through the taith of Chrift, the righteouinels which is of God by faith :

oufnefs, which is of ty of refuge; and may be found to be vitally united with him, as a member of his mystical body, and comprehended in him, as my covenant-head; and fo may fland before God in judgment, not as appearing at his bar in my own perfonal righteoufnefs, to be dealt with according to its defert, which at beft is very imperfectly answerable to the requirements of God's holy law; but as clothed with, and judged according to the merit of that righteoulnels, which confifts not in faith itself, but is unto, and upon all true believers through faith in Chrift ; (Rom. iii. 22.) even that righteoufnefs, which he wrought out, by his obedience and fufferings unto death, to the full fatisfaction of law and justice in my room and stead : the righteoufnefs, which is of God's own appointing and accepting for justification, and of his imputing, to discharge from condemnation, and intitle to eternal life, in a way of believing *.

10 And

T E. NO

This context, I think, gives us a beautiful gradation of the apoftle's renouncing all truft and confidence in any righteoufnets but that of Chrift: He begins. ver. 5, 6. 7. with renouncing his Yewifb privileges, and his Pharifaical righteoufners, which confifted in his obfervance of the moral, as well as ceremonial precepts of the law . For fome, at leaft, of the Pharifees expected to be juftified, not merely by a ceremonial, but also by a moral righteousness, join ed with it, in conformity to the law, as appears from our Lord's parable of the righteouineis, and as much our own, in-Pharifee and publican. Luke zviii. 11, Gamaliel feems to have been, if we obedience: He difclaims regarding this, may judge of his moral character from the probity and piety toward God that breathed in his admirable speech, Acts v. 34,-39. And Paul, the Pharifee, who was brought up under him, was as confcientious an observer of moral God imputes it, and faith receives it. obedience as any other of that fect could (See the note on Rom. iii. 20.) And his be supposed to be; fince he declares winning or gaining Christ, and being that, even in that flate, according to found in bim, feems to relate, not merehis then fense of things, he had lived ly to his having an interest in Christ. in all good confcience before God. (Acts and being united to him, but to look xxiii 1.) And then he advances, ver. forward to what he should be at death 8, 9. to a difcarding of all truft. not and judgment; for he had already, and only in this but also in his own personal knew that he had, a sure interest in righteousness, after he became a Chtif- Chrift, and so, in that sense, was already tian: For having faid, with a reference in him; and yet he speaks of his present back to the things before mentioned, defire and pursuit, that he might, upon what things were gain to me, thofe trial, be found a partaker of this com--I counted lofs for Chrift, ver 7. he prehensive bleffing, which evidently re-adds, ver. 8. Yea doubtlefs. and I do lates to fome time to come, as expressed count lofs for Chrift, not those things in the following verses.

only, as we have it before, (ver. 7.) but all things, without exception or referve of any thing done by him, after, as well as before conversion : For ver. g. fhows that what he intended was, all righteoufgels of his own for juftification according to the requirements of the law; and he declares, that he perfifted ftill in renouncing even this, as insufficient to justify him; and so he fets afide all imaginable righteoufness of our own, in opposition to that of faith ; and even faith it felf, which is as much a work of herent in us, and acted by us, as any oas his justifying righteousness, while he accurately diffinguithes faith from this righteouinefs, which he does not fay is faith itself but is the righteousness which is of God through faith, and by faith, as

Digitized by Google

Chap. iii.

PHILIPPIANS paraphrafed.

10 That I may know him, and the power of his refur rection, and the fellowship of his fufferings, being made conformable unto his death ;

Chap. 'iii.

II If by any means I might attain anto the refurrection of the dead :

12 Not as though I had already at. tained, either were perfect; already but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which allo I ana apprehended . of Chrift Jesus.

10 And my earnest defire is, not only to be found in Chrift at the laft day, but that in the mean while, and in order thereunto, I may have an experimental growing acquaintance with him in the glory of his perfon and offices, and in the efficacy of his refurrection, as the head of the body, for confirming my joyful hopes of eternal life, on that foot, and in virtue of it; (I Pet. i. 3.) and for animating me unto the moft vigorous and active obedience, whereby I may still further live to God, in conformity to my rifen Saviour; and may be daily led into holy communion with him, in his crucifixion, for crucifying the old man, the body of fir, that it may be utterly defiroyed; (Rom. vi. 6.) as also for patiently enduring all fufferings, even unto death, for his fake, in conformity to him, who died, and rofe again.

11 This is my conftant aim and purfuit, that by thefe, and all other means of God's appointment, I in due time * may arrive, like failors to their port. at that complete flace of all poffible bleffednets and glory, which the children of God shall enjoy at the refurrection of the juft, when their mortal bodies shall be raifed, in a re-union with their fouls, to immortal life.

12 I own that I have not already + received the prize, which I am running for, nor (non renewal) am I yet, like those that have finished their course, made perfect in holinefs, as I fain would be, and as I must be, before I am honoured with the crown of rightenufnefs; (2 Tim. iv. 8.) But (diwnw) I purfue my race, firetching forth with the utmost eagernefs, that, in God's way and time, I may reach perfection, and lay hold on eternal life; for the attaining of which (xaladnogny) I was laid hold on by the power and grace of Chrill, who met me in the way

NOTES.

ing, but may be rendered that, as it is and it is in this view that we are to contwice together, Acts xxvi 23.; and fo, fider preffing toward the mark for the ferent word from might attain, (xalavrn- net effury means, according to God's ap-so) in the preceding verle. There it pointment, of obtaining it. Vol. V.

N O T E S. # If by any means $(i: \pi \omega_c)$ here, alludes to perfons arriving in a harbourf and if that I may, $(i: \omega_c)$ over 12. and is ufed in that ferme. Acts xviii. 19, cannot be fairly underflood to fignify, 24 and xxvii. 12. and kxvii 13. But that the apofule was in any doubt a-bere it alludes to a victor's receiving the bout his own final and complete talva- prize; and fo this, and feveral other tion; fince he fo often fpeaks of his firm terms in the following verfes, are ago-expectation of it: And therefore the ni/lical, taken from the Grecian games, particle (i) if, in these places, is not then in ule; one of which was running to be confidered as a particle of doubt- races for a prize that was to be won; ing. but may be rendered that. as it is and it is in this view that we are to conin the prefent cafe, it only intimates prize; (ver. 14) not as though the the neceffity of using the means, in order prize were to be gained for the tran-to attaining the end. (See Zanchy and ning, (see the notes on Rom. vi. 23. and Pierce on this verse.) is to be a single the transformation of transformation of the transfor + Already attained (shaCor) is a dif- only at the end of it, as running is the

31

to

Digitized by Google

F

13 Brethren, I count not myfelf to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting thole things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, 14 I preis toward the mark, for the prize of the high calling of God in Chrift Jefus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwife minded, God fall reveal even this unto you.

to Damascus, plucked me as a brand out of the fire, and took poffeffion of me for himfelf, that I might be eternally faved.

13, 14 Whatfoever others, among your judaizing boafters, may pretend to, I again, my brethren, freely acknowledge, that I do not reckon myfelf to have already reached to, or obtained a flate of perfect holinefs, any more than of perfect happinefs; but mine eye is fixed upon it, as the one point in view; and in all my running for it, like racers in your neighbouring games, I do not look back to the law and my judaizing performances of it, nor to the advances I have already made in gofpel-holinefs; nor do I regard them, as if these attainments were sufficient, and I might flop there : But, as it were, forgetting them, and stretching forth (emeilsurepeares) with all my might, to come up to the further duties and exercises of grace that lie before me, I purfue my courfe toward Chrift and heaven, according to my main scope, (xala oxonor) fixing mine eye upon it, as archers do upon their mark, that I may reach to a flate of perfect holinels, in order to my receiving the prize of eternal glory; to the obtaining of which, God has called me, and every true believer, by Chrift Jefus, (2 Theff. ii. 14. and 1 Pet. v. 10.) with an high and heavenly calling, that comes from heaven, leads to it, and shall iffue in it *; the glory of which is to be obtained only in and through him, with whom our life is bid in God, that when be who is our life (ball appear, we allo may appear with him in glory. (Col. iii. 3, 4.)

15 As many of us therefore as are, though not in all respects perfect +; yet so far advanced in Christianity, that, in a qualified fense, we may be called perfect, as all the effential parts of the new creature are formed in us, to a much greater degree than in weak believers: Let us attend to this main point of counting all things but lofs for Chrift, that we may be found in him, and be thoroughly conformed to him: (ver. 7,-11.) And if there be any of you that are right, as to this important doctrine, and yet have different fentiments from me, and from those that are like-minded with me, as to the continuance of

Digitized by Google

NOTES.

to the high calling of God, or to the faid of himfelf, that he was not already prize, the paraphrase is formed to take perfect; and yet he here puts himself in in both fenfes perfect, the apostle could not mean, Christians were more perfect than him-

* As in Chrift Jefus may relate either expression; because he had just before among those that he styles perfect; and + It is plain that by as many as be it is not to be supposed that any other that were fo in the firictest sense of the self. (See the note on 1 Cor. ii. 6.)

16 Neverthelefs. whereto we have already attained. let us walk by the fame rule, let us the fame mind thing.

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk fo, as ye have us for an enfample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the crofs of Chrift ;

of the Mo/aic law, and of Jewi/b privileges, God will clear up even this to you, and that ere long, when the temple and Yewi/b state shall be demolished.

16 However, leaving that matter to God, to difcover it to fuch, in his own way and time; as far as we feverally have hitherto reached in knowledge, grace, or holinefs, let us keep clofe to one and the fame rule, and practife according to it, as it is plainly revealed in the facred canon, (xavan) which, among other things, affures us, that in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcifion; but faith which works by love, or a new creature; (Gal. v. 6. and vi. 15, 16.) and let us be unanimous in our adherence to this rule.

17 I would fain have you, my beloved brethren, concur one with another, in following my example in principle and practice, as to the fore-mentioned things, in which I follow Chrift; and let it be your great care to observe those believers, as patterns worthy of imitation, who walk according to the truth of the golpel *, after the fame manner, as ye have it exemplified in myself and other ministers or Christians, that are led into the fpirituality and light of the New Teftament-difpenfation.

18 This I would recommend with the greatest earneftnefs to you, to prevent your being mifled and perverted by judaizing teachers : For there are many of them, of whom I frequently warned you when I was with you ; and, finding that they fill continue obfinate, and are to bufy among you, I now again tell you, with a grief of heart, which forces tears from mine eyes, in confideration of the diffeonour brought to Chrift and the gospel, and of your danger of being perverted by them, as well as of their own deplorable condition, that, whatfoever their pretences be, they are in reality, both doctrinally + and practically, the worst of all enemies to the fundamental article of falvation alone by a crucified Chrift, through his atoming death, and are utterly averfe to taking up their crofs and following him; all which will turn to their own confusion.

* The apoftle, according to his wont- of the whole law of Moses, neceffary to ed wildom and modefty, mentions the it; and they were practical enemies to example of others, as well as his own, to his crois, as they pleaded for Mofaic tites, prevent all appearance of oftentation, as to avoid reproach and perfecution from their imitation.

NOT

E S.

Digitized by Google

crois of Christ, as they did not depend up- ity to, and by virtue derived from, the on his death alone for falvation, but crucifixion of Chrift. made circumcifion, and the observation though he would only propole himself to the Jews, and to indulge their sentitive appetites, instead of crucifying the flesh, + They were doctrinal enemies to the with the affections and lufts, in conform-to Whofe end is defination, who e god is their welly and whole glow is in their flame, who mind earthly things)

19 Who

20 For our convertation is in heaven; from whence allo we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jetus Chrift:

21 Who faill chinge our vile bolis, that it may be fathroned like unto his glorious bolis, according to the working whereby he is able even to ful due all things unto handelf. 1

19 Who, in the winding up of things at laft, will find it to iffue in their eternal perdition, as they are devel ful worker, whole end thall be according to their works; (2 Cor. xi. 13.) Nor can it be expected to be otherwife with fuch fort of men, who make the gratification of carnal views and pleafures their principal aim, and to fet up the pampering of their own appetites as their chief good, initead of, and in oppefition to God and his glory ; who also are fo fond of decciving, and making a gain of their converts to promate their fecular interests, as even to boalt of it, which, inflead of being to their honour, is really matter of the greatest shame to them; and who attend to, relifh, and purfue nothing, under all their religious profession, but mean, empty, uncertain, unfatisfying, and defiling enjoyments, that are of an earthly nature, and relate only to this lower world.

20 't is not thefe worthlefs and pernicious leaders that ye are to follow; but ye ought to imitate us, who are of a contrary fpirit, temper, and behaviour, fuitable to our more excellent flate and character: For as we are citizens of the celefial Jeru, alem, our hearts and affections, rling above the things of earth and fenfe, afcend up to heaven, and (re $\pi \circ \lambda i =$ $lin(\mu a)$ our traffic lies in the daily correspondence we carry on there with Chrift himfelf, (Col. iii. 1) from whence we also look, long, and hope for the great and only Saviour, to defeend at the laft day, even our Lord Jefus Chrift, who hath promifed to come again, and receive us to bimfelf, that where be is, there we may be alio. (John xiv. 3.)

21 Who will then transform thefe vile and mortal bodies of ours, which carry the marks of our humiliation in their weaknefs, wearinefs, and infirmity, and in their being clogs and hindrances to the fpiritual and holy exercifes of the foul, fince, and by means of the tall, and which will be meaner and more contemptible itill in the rottennels and corruption of the grave; he will then make a glorious change upon them, that they may rife in a beautiful and shining reich blance of his own mott glorious body; (fee I Cor, xv. 47, 48, 49.) according to the wonderful energy and operation of his almighty power, which can be no leis than divine, (Adde xxvi. 8. Rom. iv. 17. and Lobet. i. 19, 20.) by which our bleffed Lord is able to overcome all difficulties, as he certainly will, in bringing every thing, that opposes him, into an entire fillicit in to himfelf, as well as in deftroving the laft evenly, which is death. (1 Cor. xv. 26.)

RECOL-

RECOLLECTIONS.

What need have Chriftians to be often warned of feducers ! Faithful minifters fhould never be weary of cautioning them, or of putting them upon the moft diligent watch against these that carp and cavil at the purity of the gospel, and are themfelves fuch workers of iniquity, as to be both doctrinally and practically grieyous enemies to the merit, virtue and honour of a crucified Jefus. They trutt in fomething of their own, instead of him and his righteoutness; and yet they are fentual and carnal, and even glory in the most shameful enormities, and to cut themfelves off from all the bleffings of the covenant of grace, and entail everlafting destruction upon themselves. But O how happy is it to be circumciled in heart, to be spiritual and evangelical worshippers of God, to rejoice and glory in the Lord Jefus Chrift, and to place no considence in external privileges and zeal for them; no, nor in our own moral or religious righteousness. None of these are to be fet in competition with Chrift, or relied upon for acceptance with God to eternal life They are all to be laid afide as nothing ; yea, as lois and dung. not as in themfelves, but as fet up in opposition to the faving knowledge of Chrift, and being found at death and judgment in union with him, and interested in that righteoufnets of his, which is made over for justitication through faith in hum. And yet how carefully should we guard against neglecting fanctification and holinefs, which are as neceffary to our enjoying God. as juftification itfelf . And how defirous ought we to be of having such a knowledge of Christ, as shall be a means of deriving virtue from his death and refurrection, to make us conformable to him in both, by dying unto fin, and living unto God ! The most eminent believers upon earth are far from being perfect herein; and therefore, without taking up with prefent attainments, thould be continually proffing onwards after a perfection in all knowledge, grace, and holine's, till they shall reach it, at the end of their race, in a better world, according to what Chrift defigned them for, when he laid hold of them by his Spirit. Though fome Christians are more advanced in light and experience than others; yet they all ought to be of the fame mind, with refpect to these important points; and, as far as they have attained, should walk together in brotherly love, and according to the rule of God's word : And if there be any thing of lefs confequence, in which their fentiments differ, they should bear with one another, and leave it to God to convince those that are mistaken, as to fuch things, after all proper methods have been unfuccessfully tried, in the spirit of meeknefs, to fet them right. How ambitious should we be of carefully obferving, and copying after thole, who, like the apostle, let us the most laudable example; whole hearts, affections, and convertation are much in heaven, like citizens of that holy and delightful ftate, where Jefus our Saviour lives in all his glory; and from whence believers look, with longing defire and hope, for his return to take them up thither ! And O what an amazingly happy change will he then make upon these frail, contemptible, and mortal bodies! He will then form them into the likeness of his own most glorious body, by an act of divine Omnipotence, which furmounts all difficulties, and by which he himfelf is, and will prove to be able to vanquish death, and all his and our enemies.

C H A P. IV.

The aposle most affectionately exhorts the Philippians to stand fast in the Lord, ver. 1. Gives directions to fome particular perfons among them, and to them all in general, 2,-9. Expressed is great fatisfaction in the supply they had fent him, and his own contentment in every condition of life, adding a doxology to God the Father, 10,-20. Salutes them, and fends the falutations of others; and closes all with his usual benediction, 21,-23.

Text.

PARAPHRASE.

Digitized by Google

Herefore, my brethren, dearly beloved AS, therefore, ye have hitherto continued in the faith and fellowship of the gospel, and given good proof beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, to it and fait in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

proof of your holy obedience ; (chap. i. 5. and ii. 12.) and as I have exhorted you to follow my example in a perfevering dependence on Chrift, and preffing toward perfection, till we get to heaven, from whence we look for the Saviour, (chap. iii. 8,-21.) I carneftly entreat you, my brethren in the faith, to abide stedfast, and unshaken in your fiducial adherence to, and holy proteffion of the Lord Jefus, and in his ftrength, as your Head and Saviour, whatever difficulties and dangers ye may be exposed to for it; and I do this with the greatest affection to, and hope concerning you, who, in confideration of your commendable behaviour hitherto, are fo greatly endeared to me, that I most heartily love you, and long for your further eftablishment and proficiency, as allo for an opportunity of seeing you again, (chap. i. 8.) as the dear feals of my ministry, whom I think of as my joy and crown of rejoicing now, and as to be yet more abundantly to, in the prefence of our Lord Jefus Chrift at his coming. (1 Theff. ii. 19.) In the thoughts of which, 1 want words fufficient to exprefs the ardors and overflowings of my heart to you *, my most affectionately beloved friends and brethren in the Lord.

2 I in a particular manner recommend it to Euodias, and do the fame to Syntyche +, that they, laying afide all differences, unanimoufly agree one with . another, and with the whole church in love and affection, and in the doctrines of Chrift; in their adherence to them; and in a becoming profession of them.

3 And I earneftly befeech you, my fincere and faithful companion, who chearfully draw in the fame yoke with myfelf, for promoting the intereft of Chrift ‡, that you would do your utmost to help forward

Digitized by Google

* What a pile of words does the apofner, with them; as though they, and they only, had ingroffed his affections.

+ Euodias and Syntyche are most commonly thought to have been two women of note, that had been confiderably eminent in the church, but were now at variance one with the other, and had fuppoling him to be a married man. been tampered with by the Jewi/b zealots, to pervert them; and therefore the to me, that the help which the apofile apostle entreated them to be reconciled defired this perfon to give Euodias and one to the other, and to continue sted- Syntyche, related to a misunderstanding fast in the faith, and united with the that was between them. church.

NOŢES. ‡ Who it was that the apoftle calls tle here heap up to express the fervors true yoke fellow, though well known of his love to these Philippians, and in- to the church at Philippi, is variously gratiate himfelf, after his usual man- conjectured, with great uncertainty, at this diftance of time. Some suppose that it was the hufband, or brother of one of the women before-mentioned; others, that it was fome noted companion, or fellow-labourer of the apoftle's; and others, that it really was his wife, they (See Mr. Pierce's note.) And it feems

2 I befeech Euodias, and I befeech Syntyche, that they be of the fame mind in the Lord.

3 And I entreat thee alio, true yoke-fellow, help thole women which laboured laboured with me in the gofpel, with Clement alfo, and with other my fellow - labourers, whole names are in the book of life.

Chap. iv.

z

ľ

1

R

ü

i pè

B ť

. Ož

ü

ï nj E

ŀ

k

á

ł

U

Į,

d

2Í

ć

ç

9

1 đ

ŕ

K

ú

r, ģ

i.

Ĭ

3

t

ţ

5 рії (1

į,

ward this good defign, in the most prudent, tender, and affectionate manner, by advising and exhorting thefe two eminent women, heartily to unite in the common cause again, who were very diligent and affistant to me, though not in public ministrations, yet in fubferving my work of preaching the gospel, by private instructions and prayers, by their exemplary behaviour, and their fympathizing and undergoing great labour and fufferings with me, and taking care of me in all my wants and trials, while I was engaged in that work at Philippi; and who were alike ferviceable to the excellent Clement *, and feveral others of my brethren in the ministry, that have embarked in the fame glorious caufe, and taken great pains together with me, in fpreading the gofpel; and of whom I am verily perfuaded, from what appears of the grace of God in them, that they are favourites of heaven; as certainly and particularly chosen of God to eternal life, from the foundation of the world, as if their names had been registered, or inrolled in a book, among the appointed heirs of falvation. (Rev. xvii. 8.)

4 As to the whole body of true believers among you, it is your duty and privilege, confidering all the bleffings ye have in hand and in hope, to rejoice and triumph, not after a carnal, but fpiritual manner, in the Lord Jefus your Head and Saviour, as I have already told you, (chap. iii. 1.) and now repeat it, that ye gray do fo on all occafions, and in all circumftances, whatever fufferings or tribulations ye may be exposed to on his account. I fay unto you now again, that, even in the midfl of them all, it is your great duty and privilege to rejoice in the Lord, and in your fufferings for his fake, (chap. i. 28, 29. and 1 Pet. iv. 13, 14.) which, being patiently endured, are an honour to him and yourfelves, and will finally turn to your own befl account.

5 Maintain and difcover a meek, patient, and gentle temper of fpirit (ro structs) towards all men, and particularly toward your very perfecutors themfelves; and a weanedness of affection from the things of this life, as knowing that the Lord Jesus is near at hand to observe your behaviour, and take your part; and will foon appear to the confusion of your Jewi/h adversaries, at the destruction of Jeru/alem, and will come, ere long, as the Judge of the whole world, to put an end to the present state of things, and all your afflictions

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

Who this Clement was, whether Clemens Romanus, or fome other, is very uncertain, and of no importance for us to know.

4 Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I fay, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. 6 Be careful for nothing : but in every thing by prayer and fupplication, with thank(giving, let your requefts be made known unto God.

7 And the peace of God, which parseth all underftanding, fhall keep your hearts and minds through Chritt Jefus. afflictions, and to do justice to your righteous caule, and render tribulation to them that trouble you. (2 Theff. i. 6.)

6 Whatever difficulties, wants, or dangers may befal you, relating to this prefent world, take heed that ye do not perplex yourfelves with anxious, cutting, diffruftful, and diffracting cares about any of them, (under useiurare) how ye shall be able, either to bear up under them, or to avoid them, or get through them: But as a remedy against this, (so marri) in every time and circumstance of things, be they ever fo afflictive, let your addreffes be prefented to God, who loves to hear you telling him the defires of your hearts, (though he perfectly knows them all before-hand,) that ye may own your entire dependence upon him, and pay the religious homage due 'to him; and that he may glorify his own name, as a God hearing prayer. Let this be done with all forts of humble petitions and pleas, and with believing. earnest importunity and perfeverence, in deprecating evils that ye are attended with, or in danger of, and in imploring the bleffings ye need ; as also with chearful gratitude, and high afcriptions of glory to him. under a sense of your own unworthines, and of the riches and freenels of his goodnels and grace, for all the mercies that ye enjoy and hope for, in your very worft condition, which might be worfe ftill, relating to this world and that which is to come.

7 And, in answer to your humble importunity, and believing requests, the most excellent peace, which God gives and approves of; peace with him, as your reconciled God and Father through his beloved Son. together with a fweet fense of it in your own fouls: peace of conficience through the atoning blood of Jefus; peace with one another; and the peace of a fanctified heart, and of a quiet calmnels of fpirit with regard to all other perfons and things; even that peace which exceeds all adequate conceptions of believers themfelves, much more of those that have not experienced it. This most excellent peace, whatfoever ye may fuffer in the body, will defend and guard your hearts, as in a strong garrifon, (qesenow) and fortify your minds with a holy composure; and fo preferve your whole fouls from finning, or fainting under your troubles, and from apostatizing by means of them; against which ye will be fecured through the knowledge of Chrift, and your union with him, as your Head and Saviour, and through his merit and fufferings for you.

8 Finally, brethren, whatfoever things

8 To clofe with a recommendation of fome general duties to you, my brethren beloved in the Lord; whatfoever

Chap. iv.

whatfoever things are honeft, what. foever things are whatfoever juft, things are pure, whatfoever things are lovely, whatfoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praife, think on these things.

.

9 Thole things which ye have both learned and received, and heard and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoigreatly, that now at the last your care of me hath things are true, whatfoever things are true and fincere in words and actions, profeffious and engagements, and are agreeable to the word of truth, and the reafon of things, free from all hypocrify and deceit: Whatfoever things are venerable, decent, and becoming, in drefs, language, and deportment, according to your refpective stations and relations, as men and Christians : Whatfoever things are just and due to God and man, in all your dealings with him and them : Whatfoever things belong to chaftity and purity of mind, free from all defilement of fin in heart, fpeech, and behaviour : Whatfoever things are of an amiable nature, and render the fubjects and practifers of them lovely in the eyes of God and man : Whatfoever things are deemed reputable, efpecially by the fober, wife, and religious part of mankind, among whom a good name is rather to be chosen than great riches. (Prov. xxii. 1.) If there be any thing, as undoubtedly there is, in all this, or in whatfoever may be fuppofed to be added to it of a moral nature, in the whole compils of natural and revealed religion, that is truly virtuous, brave, and laudable; let thefe things dwell habitually upon your minds; and often reflect upon them, and fludy their nature, obligation, and importance, in order to your putting them into practice upon Chriftian principles, by divine affittance, to the glory of God, and the credit of your holy profession of Christ's > o Thefe and fuch like excellent things, relating to a holy life and conversation, in all the duties of morality, as well as of piety, which ye have acquired the knowledge of, (suaders) as the disciples of Jefus, and have profeffed to affent and confent to, and approve, as right and fit for regulating your own conduct; and which ye have been taught by my public ministry, and private instructions, and have feen exemplified in my own walk and b haviour, when I was with you. Attend ferioufly unto thefe things, and reduce them into practice : And in this way, God, who is at peace with you through the blood of Jefus, and is the author of all inward peace; and who delights in the profperity of his fervants, and in their orderly deportment, as becomes the golpel, will take pleasure to dwell among you, to manifest himself to you, as your God, and to own and blefs you, as a people near and dear to him.

Vol. V.

name, and to your own and others good.

10 But, to give further vent to the grateful fenfe ced in the Lord I have of your kind and Christian regards to me, I cannot tell how to forbear repeating the great fatisfaction and joy of my foul, in reflecting on the love flou- and grace of our Lord Jelus, who inclined your hearts

Digitized by GOOGLC

flourifhed again; wherein ye were alio careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

II Not that I want: for I have learned in whatfoever state I am, therewith to be content.

12 I know both how to be abaled, and I know how to abound : every where, and in all things I am inftructed, both to be full and to be hungry, both to a. bound and to furter need.

13 I can do all things thro' Chrift which hearts to act a friendly and affectionate part toward me for his fake now again, after your former generofity, (ver. 15, 16.) and after your feeming neglect of me fince that time; inafmuch as your concern for fupplying my wants, in my imprisonment and difficulties, has now, at length, visibly revived, and difcovered itfelf with vigour, (aredahers) like a good tree, that feemed barren in the winter, but fprouts again in the fpring, and brings forth fruit in its feafon : For I find ye were all along folicitoufly thoughtful about fending to my relief, only your circumstances did not admit of your doing it fo foon as ye defired; and ye had no opportunity of conveying your liberality to me.

II I do not mention thefe things, as though I speak in respect of were reduced to insupportable wants, or were uneasy under those that attended me ;; or as though I rejoiced only, becaufe they are now fupplied by your bounty; no, these things are of little account with me: For, through the viciflitude of my affairs, and a fanctified use of them by divine grace, I have been taught and enabled to learn and practife the great leffon of Christian contentment in every state and condition of this life, into which Providence brings me; as being fully fatisfied, that my heavenly Father orders what is best for me, and that he will never leave, nor forfake me; (Heb. xiii. 5.) and as having, upon this principle, a fufficiency in myfelf (autagens) of all joy and peace in believing, which-fupplies the want of temporal good things.

> 12 In this manner I am brought to learn the happy and holy skill of possessing my own foul in peace and patience, when I am thrown into the most contemptible and humbling circumstances, that I may not be dejected and difcompofed by them ; and I underftand the way of behaving without elation of mind, or being over-pleafed and lifted up, when Providence fmiles upon me : Wherever I am, and into what fituation of things foever I be caft, I am well initiated in the facred knowledge (usuvnum) of conducting with an equal and becoming temper of fpirit : When I am refreshed and filled with provisions for bodily fuftenance; and when I am hungry for want of them; yea, when I have the greatest affluence of the good things of this life; and when I am in the greatest degree deflitute of them, I am taught to exercise the graces, and perform the duties, that belong to thefe different and contrary lots and conditions, as to external matters.

13 Not that I am fo vain-glorious, as to think that I can do these great things of myself, or even merely which ftrengtheneth me, merely by the ftrength of the grace that I have already received; but I find, by daily experience, that I am enabled to perform, not only thefe, but every other duty that I am called to, as a Chriftian and an apostle, through the continual concurring aids and affistances of Chrift, by virtue of my union with him, in whofe grace I am ftrong, (2 Tim. ii. 1.) and who is ever with me to animate, excite, and ftrengthen me for them.

PHILIPPIANS paraphrased.

14 However, this does not at all leffen your kindnels to me, and concern for me; nor detract from the seafonableness of your bounty : Ye have acted a truly Chriftian part, which is very acceptable to me, and to God himfelf through Jefus Chrift ; (ver. 18.) because of the love which ye have teftified to the Lord, and to me, his prifoner and fervant, in that ye fympathized with me in my bonds and tribulations, and fent a liberal and fuitable fupply for my relief under them.

15 And, (δ_{ℓ}) to fhew the grateful fense I have, my dear Philippian-brethren, of all your kindnefs to me, I mention it to your honour, and take pleafure in reminding you of it, that not now of late only, but also when I was first in your parts, and preached the gospel to you; and particularly when I was about to take my leave of you *, and to go from your Macedonian-province into other countries, to labour there in the work of the Lord, no other church befices yours contributed to my fupport, that as I freely gave, and they received fpiritual things, fo they might give, and I receive of their temporal things; which certainly ought to have been done by other churches; (1 Tim. v. 17, 18.) though, that I might not feem mercenary, I never asked it of them. But great was your liberality.

16 For even while I was ministring at Thestalonica, where I met with the most violent and outrageous opposition from the unbelieving Jews, (Acts xvii. 5, &c.) and was not fupplied with neceffaries by the Christians of that rich city, but was obliged to labour with my own hands, (1 Theff. ii. 9. and 2d Epist. iii. 8.) ye, from time to time, fent generous contributions for my comfortable fubfiftence, in the preffing circumftances that then attended me.

·G 2

mentions their fending to his relief, while hood. he was there, and speaks of it to their

 If I
N O T E.
This fhould be rendered, according great commendation, that they, and they to the latitude of the tenfe, (all ign&or) only fhould do it, while he was in fuch when I was about to go from Macedo- an opulent city, and, through the neglect nia: For Theffalonica was the chief of the Christians there, was forced to city of Macedonia : and the appella here much with his own here a for the Christians there. city of Macedonia; and the apostle here work with his own hands for a liveli-

17 I

4I

Notwith-14 ftanding, ye have well done that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now, ye Philippians, know alfo, that in the beginning of the gol. pel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me, as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Theffalonica ye fent once and again unto my neceffity.

17 Not becaufe I define a gift: but I define fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But I have all, and abound: I am tuil, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were fent from you, an odour or a fweet fmell, a factifice acceptable, well-pleafing to God.

19 But my God fhall fupply all your need, according to his riches in glory, by Chritt Jeius.

20 Now unto God and our Father le glory for ever and ever. Amen. 17 I do not mention these things as a fetch to get flill more of you, as if I would defire you now to do any thing further of this kind for me; no, but my great aim in making this grateful acknowledgment is, that it might be a means of encouraging you to go on with your Christian generofity and benevolence, in all other cafes, for promoting the cause of Christ, as the genuine fruit of your faith, and love to him and to his people, every where, as there may be occasion; fruit, that will turn, as to his honour in this world, so to your own rich advantage in the great day of account, for the world to come. (See Mat b. xxv. 35,-40. and Heb. vi. 10, 18.)

18 But, as to mytelf in particular, I have all that I need for corporal fuffenance; and what ye have now fent is abundantly fufficient to fupply my wants: I have as much as I with for; and my foul is as full of joy and praife, as my body is refreshed with your benevolence; having received, as I hereby thankfully acknowledge, a repeated tellimony of your affection, and a fubitantial proof of it in the collections which ye fent me by the hands of your faithful and beloved meffenger Epaphroditu, which, to allude to the offerings under the law, (Lev. ii. 1, 2. and iii. 16.) are an odour of a fweet fmelling favour, a fpiritual facrifice of acknowledgment to God, which he accepts, and is highly pleafed with, through Jefus (Heb. xiii. 16. and 1 Pet. ii. 5.) Chrift.

19 And though, in my poor circumstances, I am not able to make you any temporal recompence; yet my covenant-God and Father, who hath inclined your hearts to fhew all this kindnefs to me, will not fuffer you to be lofers by what ye do for him, or for any of his faints and fervants for his fake; but willmake you rich returns, not only with fuch temporal good things as he fees to be needful and beft for you ; but efpecially with all fpiritual and eternal bleffings, that are fuited to your various wants; and he will do this in a glorious manner, with an abundant liberality, like himfelf, in proportion to his own infinite treafures of grace and glory, which he has provided in Chrift, and gives with him, not for any, worthinels in yourfelves, but on account of his mediation, and by virtue of your union and communion with him, as your Head and Saviour.

20 Now unto this all-fufficient and glorious God, who is the God of nature, and of providence and grace, and the giver of all temporal, fpiritual, and eternal bleffings, and is our Father in Chrift Jefus, let us jointly afcribe all poffible honour, thankfgiving, bleffing, and praife, from henceforth to all eternity, as

Digitized by Google .

is

'21 Salute every faint in Chrift Jefus. The brethren which are with me greet you.

22 All the faints falute you, chiefly they that are of Cæfar's houthold.

23 The grace of Lord Jefus our Chrift be with you all. Amen.

is most due, both on account of what he is in himfelf, and has been, is, and for ever will be to us; in teftimony of our hearty concurrence herein, may we all add, Amen.

21 Let my most cordial and Christian love be acceptable to all, that are professionally, and I truft really renewed and fanctified, as members of Chrift, in union with him, for whole lake, I heartily with that all prosperity for both worlds may attend them. All my biethren in the ministry *, that are with me at Rome, defire to be also most kindly remembered to you.

22 Yea, all the professing believers in these parts. who in charity are looked upon as fanctified by the Holy Ghoft, fend the like affurances of their love and Chriftian respects to you: And more especially the converts that have been made from among the domeffics of Nero, the emperor, and continue their civil stations in his family, are fo far from being ashamed to own you, that they defire me to acquaint you with their affectionate effeem of you, and fervent prayers for your prefent and eternal welfare.

22 To conclude, as I began, (chap. i. 2.) my great defire and prayer for all and every one of you is, that the free favour of our Lord Jefus Chrift, yours and mine, may be ever toward you, and be manifested in all its peculiar, abundant, and diffinguishing fruits and effects to each of you fingly, and to all of you jointly, as a church, both in this world and for ever in the next, Amen. So I heartily with it may be, and humbly truft it will be.

RECOLLECTIONS.

With what affectionate love and joy do the ministers of Christ think of the faints, as brethren, whole names are inrolled in the book of life, and who fhew benevolent regards to themfelves, as occasions require ! How grateful are they in their acknowledgments of the kindness of their Christian friends, not from a felfish temper, but from a defire that they may bring forth spiritual fruits of faith and love, which thall turn to their own beit account ! 'And how earneftly concerned are they for the establishment of Christians in the faith and fellowship of the golpel; for their continual comfort in the profession of it; and for their union in heart, defign, and labour, to help forward the work of the Lord ! And O how patient towards enemies, and how weaned from this world, flould they be, in view and hope, that the Lord Jelus will foon put an end to all their troubles, and fet every thing to rights in the day of judgment ! They neither need, nor ought to be anxioufly folicitous about any of the affairs of this life ; but thould commit all their concerns, by faith, in prayer to God, with thankfgivings for his many mercies to them; and, in this way, the most excellent peace which God himielf will give them through Jeius Chrift, and which inexpretibly furpafies all others, and all adequate conceptions, will compose, fortify, and guard their hearts against all tribulations

NOT E.

* I have confidered these brethren as the faints, whole falutations are fent in meant, not of private Christians, but of the next yerfe; (and fee the note on miniflers, to diffinguish them from all Col. iv. 12.)

bulations and fears. But O how concerned should they be to cultivate and abound in every thing that is decent and becoming, just and equitable, pure and holy, amiable and excellent in itfelf; yea, and in whatfoever is juftly deemed a reputation to the Chriftian character among all forts of men! If we are enabled to practife these things, as they have been exemplified in the great apostle, we may depend upon it, that God will delight to dwell with us, and manifest himself to us, as our reconciled God and Father. And O what a high attainment in Chriftianity is it, when we have learned how to behave as becomes us, in prosperity and adverfity, in fulnefs and in want; and to be thoroughly contented in every trying circumstance of life ! And yet, great as this attainment is, every true believer may come up to it, through Christ's strengthenings, as well as the apostle himself: And when they are brought to this, they, though grateful to their benefactors like him, think they have enough, and abound in all that is good for them, and are tull of fweet contentment in their own fouls; and they are fatisfied that their God will fupply all their real wants, for time and eternity, according to his riches in glory by Chrift Jesus And O how abundant must that supply be, which is anfwerable to his infinite inexhaustible riches, in giving like a God ! How cordially should Christian-falutations pass between the faints in Christ Jesus, in their conversing together, and writing to one another ! How affectionately should they with and pray, that the grace of the Lord Jeius Chrift may be with all of this character ! And how chearfully unite in afcribing glory to God, their heavenly Father, for ever and ever ! Amen. So let it be; and fo it will be with all that fincerely love him.

Digitized by Google

A PRAC-

A PRACTICAL

EXPOSITION

ې د

2012

יי די

É 15

1 ð

OF THE

APOSTLE PAUL'S EPISTLE

то тне

COLOSSIANS,

IN THE FORM OF A

PARAPHRASE.

THE PREFACE TO THE EPISTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS.

COLOSSE was a great and populous city of Pbrygia; and this Epifile is generally thought to have been wrote by the apofile Paul to the church there, during his first imprisonment at Rome, about the fame time with those that were sent to the Ephefians and Philippians. Hence many of the fentiments and expressions, in all these epistles, are much of the fame strain, the occasions being much alike; and the apostle's mind and heart being then full of those thoughts which he took pleafure in communicating to the churches; and fo they caft a light one upon the others : Only there feems to be this difference between the churches at Epbefus and Philippi, and this at Coloffe, that the apoftle had been perfonally among them, and not among the Colofhans; for, in this Epifile, he mentions only his having beard of their faith in Christ Jefus; and of the love which they had to all the faints; (chap. i. 4.) and fpeaks of the great conflist he had for them, and for those at Laodicea, and as many as had not feen his face in the flesh; (chap. ii. 1.) which, by the most natural construction of the sentence, includes those of Coloffe, as perfons that had never feen him; and he takes notice of Epophras, as a dear fellow-servant, who was for them a faithful minister of Chrift, from whom they had learned the doctrine of the grace of God in truth, (chap. i. 6, 7.) and who was one of them/elves. (Chap. iv. 12.) From hence fome conclude, that Epophras was the first that planted the gospel, and gathered the church at Coloffe : But it is uncertain, whether it were he or any other minister. However, as they were, I think, mostly a Gentile church, and the apoftle was made a minister, in a special manner, to the Gentiles, according to the difpenfation of God, which was given to him, (chap. 1. 25,-27.) his principal view was to establish these Colossians in the faith of the golpel, against the attempts of judaizing teachers to bring bring them into a subjection to the law of Moles, as neceffary for falvation

He accordingly begins the Epistle with his usual falutation, and thankfgiving to God for what he had heard of their faith, love. and hope, and prays for their practical proficiency in the knowledge of Chrift, of whom, and of whole grace to them, he gives the most exalted ideas, to engage their adherence to him. according to the gospel; (chap. i.) then proceeds to discover his great concern for their further establishment in Christ, and for their being guarded againt those errors of philosophy and judaism that interfered with their relation to, and benefit by him. (Chap. ii.) And on fuppofition that, according to their profession, they were really rifen with Chrift, he exhorts them to heavenly mindedness, mortification of fin. Christian love, humility, and feveral relative duties, together with prayer and circumfpection; and fends an account of the state of his own affairs at Rome by Tychicus and Onefimus, with falutations from feveral, of whom he gives high encomiums; and concludes with an order for this Epifile to be read by them, and by the church of Laodicea, and for giving a charge to Archippus to take heed to his ministry; and with his ordinary benediction. (Chap. üi. iv.)

HAP. С I.

The apostle Paul falutes the Colossians, ver. 1. 2. Bles God for their faith, love, and hope, which Epaphras had reported to him, 3,-8. Prays for their fruitfulnels in spiritual knowledge, a,-13. Gives a magnificent view of Chrift, and of his grace to them. to engage their adherence to him, 14,-23. And fets out his own character, as the apostle of the Gentiles, 24,-29.

TEXT. PAUL an apol-L tle of Jefus Chrift by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother.

PARAPHRASE.

DAUL, who is an apostle of Jefus Chrift to bear a fpecial witnefs to him, as having feen him fince his refurrection from the dead, and ascention to heaven; (I Cor. xv. 8. fee the note there,) and who has not taken this office upon himfelf of his own head, nor was put into it by the authority of men; but was immediately called by Chrift himfelf to fulfil it among the Gentiles, (ver. 25,-27.) not according to his own deferts, but according to the free purpole, commandment, and pleasure of God the Father, * fends greeting ; and the beloved Timothy, a faithful

Digitized by Google

N

OTE. * The apoftle afferts his being put in. ftrengthen Timothy's among the Colofto office, by the will of God the Father, fians; and he here, with great modefty the more effectually to obviate the ob- and prudence. calls him bis brother, ra-jections of the falle apoftles against it; ther than bis fon. that he might the bet-and he joins Timothy with himself, not ter rasse their regards to him. (Vid. Zanto add to his own authority, but to chy in loc. and the note on 1 Cor. i. 1.)

R

Ŗ

0É

ŀ

è

Ż

2 j, þ

4

¢

oş

Ŀ

ļ 1

ţ.

1

COLOSSIANS paraphrafed.

2 To the faints and faithful brethren in Chrift, which are at Coloffe : Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jefus Chrift.

3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, pray ing always for you,

4 Since we heard of your faith in Chrift Jefus, and of the love, qubich ye have to all the faints ;

5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the golpel;

faithful brother in the ministry, concurs in all that is hereafter written.

2 We heartily join in Christian falutations to all the profeffing faints, whom we, in the judgment of charity, account to be holy perfons, and whom we confider as fincere brethren in union with Chrift, and faithful believers in him ; we particularly mean all of these excellent characters that relide at the great city of Coloffe in the province of Pbrygia, and that ordinarily affemble for religious worship there. Our heart's defire and prayer for you is, that the divine favour, and all manner of prosperity, as its fruits and effects, may abound toward you from God, our common Father, the original fountain of all bleffings; and from our Lord and Saviour Jefus Chrift, who has purchased all good things, that they might be freely given to you, in full confiftence with the rights of divine justice; and who, in concurrence with the Father, authoritatively and effectually confers them upon you.

3 We most affectionately unite in thankfgiving and praise to God on your behalf, whom we address, for the encouragement of our faith, as the Father of our Lord Jefus Chrift, the great and only Mediator ; and fo, as our reconciled God and Father through him : And we, on all occasions, prefent our supplications, together with our thankfgivings, to him for (Pbil. i. 4.) you in every prayer.

4 This we have done ever fince we received an account of your cordially accepting of, and trufting in Chrift alone for all falvation ; and were informed of the genuine fruits of your faith, as manifelted in the brotherly affection which ye have discovered various ways towards all the professors of his name, that bear his holy image, and fo prove themfelves to be fanctified by his Spirit.

5 Our prayers and praifes are thus engaged for you *, as your own faith and love also are to Chrift and all the faints, in confideration of the perfect blefsednefs which ye juftly hope for through him, and is laid up and hid with him in God, (chap. iii. 3.) as a rich treasure uses to be by a father for his children, and is referved and fecured in heaven for you; which heavenly happiness ye heard of before now, when the gaspel of your falvation, (Ephef. i. 13.) that true and faithful word of God, was first preached unto you. 6 Which

* For the hope which is laid up for Chrift, and love to all the faints; and you in heaven may denote, either the therefore both fences are taken into the reason of the apostle's prayer and thanksgiving for them, or of their faith in

Vol. V.

Chrift, and love to all the faints; and paraphrafe.

н

Digitized by GOOGLE

6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth alfo in you, fince the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth:

7 As ye alfo learned of Epaphras our dear fellow-fervant, who is for you a faithful minifter of Chrift;

8 Who alfo declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

9 For this caufe we also, fince the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to defire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will, in all wisdom and spiritual underfanding;

to That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleafing, being fruitful

6 Which gospel, in the publication of it, has, by the good providence of God, been carried to you, without your feeking after it, as it has been to the Gentiles, as well as Jews, all over the Roman empire, according to Chrift's commiffion; (Mark xvi. 15.) and, by the attending power of the Spirit, is an effectual means of making converts among them, and of their bringing forth the beft of fruit, even faith, love, and obedience in them; as it likewise evidently doth in you, ever fince ye were favoured with opportunities of hearing it, and were experimentally acquainted with a 'real work of divine grace in your own fouls, and were led into the knowledge of the doctrine of the grace of God, and embraced it with a fincere faith, as the truth is in Jefus.

7 According to what ye also (xu3us xu1) were inftructed in, particularly by your worthy minister, E-papbras, whom we own and esteem, as a dear brother and faithful labourer in the gospel-cause and kingdom of Christ, for his glory and the good of immortal fouls; and who is in a special manner a faithful fervant of the Lord Jesus, that seeks not yours, but you; and lays himself out, with conficientious care and diligence, for your spiritual benefit. (See the note on Pbil. ii. 25.)

8 And who, to teftify his great affection to you, has taken an opportunity of acquainting us with your hearty love to Chrift, to us, and to all the faints, which the Holy Spirit has wrought in you, and drawn forth in a fpiritual manner, and on fpiritual accounts, by means of the gofpel.

9 In reflection therefore on the pleafing report, that Epophras has given of your faith and love, we have ever fince been excited to bear you continually upon our hearts, in every folemn prayer; and, in a fpecial manner, to beg of God for you, that ye may be yet more and more enlarged in, till your whole hearts are filled with, the knowledge of his mind and will, relating to the way of falvation by Jefus Chrift, and to your own comfort and duty, as interested therein; that ye may abound exceedingly in a judicious, experimental, and practical acquaintance with his manifold wildom, which conducts his will; and in all fpiritual difcerning of fpiritual things, as to their truth, excellence, and importance, and as to the good and holy use which ye ought to make of them.

ght 10 That in the whole of your walk before God, the according to his ordinances and commandments, and eain all your conversation in the world, ye may contiful nually behave as becomes the gospel of Chriss, (Phil. i. 27.) ful in every good work, and increafing in the knowledge of God;

Chap. i.

I'I Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and long.fuffering, with joyfulneis;

12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the faints in light:

i. 27.) and act up to the dignity of your relation to, and profession of him, and to the rich benefits ye have, and hope for from him; and every way agreeable to his holy nature and will, and acceptable in all things to him, by bringing forth every fruit of righteousness, like plants of the Lord's right-hand planting, that he may be glorified, (Ifa. lxi. 3.) and by being still more and more progressive in a transforming acquaintance and communion with God, as your heavenly Father and Friend.

II We also pray that ye may be abundantly ftrengthened with all needful aids and affistances of his Spirit, for performing every duty and fervice, and for fuftaining every trial and conflict, according to the working of his mighty power; which he exerts, like a God, in a glorious manner toward you, that ye may be enabled to exercife all patience, in a fweet composure of spirit, and possession of your own souls in peace, at all times, and under all afflictions, without any murmuring at the hand of God, or under the higheft provocations from men; and may be helped to hold on your way, and hold out to the end, with a noble conftancy and fortitude of foul, in fubmitting unto the will of God, and bearing injuries; and in doing all this with holy joy and triumph, in confideration of the great things that God has done for you, of his being continually with you, to support, ftrengthen, and comfort you, and of the glory that is fet before you.

12 This calls for praife, inftead of complaints, under all your tribulations; and as ye ought to abound in that delightful tribute to the God of all your mercies; fo we heartily join in the most grateful thanksgivings for you, as well as for ourfelves, to the Father of our Lord Jefus Chrift, and our Father in him, who hath prepared and formed us for the heavenly ftate and world, (2 Cor. v. 5.) by working in us feverally all fpiritual, holy, and heavenly propensions and defires after, and fitnefs for the glorious inheritance which he has gracioully appointed and provided for us, and has promised, and will give to us, as the inheritance of fons; an inheritance, which is all light, glory, and joy; and which, to allude to the fovereign manner of his difposing of the land of Canaan to Ifrael, he will give possession of, as it were by lot, to all those, and those only, that are fanctified by his Spirit here, and shall be all over covered with the light of knowledge, holinefs, and happinefs, in his immediate prefence hereafter, where they shall fee light in his light. (Pfal. xxxvi. 9.) H 2

Digitized by Google

13 Who

1 : Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgivenets of tins.

15 Who is the image of the invitible God, the firftborn of every creature :

13 Who has plucked us that believe, whether Jews or Gentiles, as brands out of the fire ; and refcued us with a mighty hand, (seevents) like Lot out of Sodom, from the tyranny and dominion of fing. which is darkness itself, (1 John i. 6.) and of Satan, (AEIs xxvi. 18.) who is the prince of darkness, and had taken us captive at his will; and this gracious God has wrought a happy change in our temper and state, by making us a willing people in the day of his power, (Pfal. cx. 3.) and bringing us into the kingdom of grace, which is erected by, and is under the influence and government of, his eminently beloved Son, even the Son of his most peculiar and highest love, (TE UIE THE ayamne aute) in order to his advancing us to the kingdom of glory through him.

14 In whom we have the beft of all deliverances, by the price of redemption, which he paid in shedding his precious blood, and giving his life a ranfom for us, even a complete difcharge from the guilt of fin, and the curfe of the law, which includes, and brings after it, a deliverance from the power of fin and Satan, and from the wrath to come, that fin had deferved; as also an inheritance of all spiritual and-eternal bleffings, that fin had forfeited : And we may be well affured of the efficacy of Christ's atoning blood for this purpofe, according to the riches of the Father's grace, (Ephe/. i. 7. fee the notes there) from the dignity of his perfon, and the excellency of his office.

15 As to the dignity of his person, which adds an infinite value to his facrifice, he, in his divine nature, is the exact likeness of the person of God the Father, as one in effence and perfections with him; and he accordingly, in his incarnation, and office-qualifications and performances, is the reprefentative image of his Father, who being a pure Spirit, is absolutely invisible in his own nature ; fo that no man bath feen or can fee him : (John i. 18.) And this divine perfor . exifted from all eternity, as having been in a peculiar inconceivable manner begotten * of the Father, before orus) rendered the first born of every were all things created; and ver. 17. creature, fignify alfo born, or begotten it is faid, not that be was made; but before all creation: Or (as Ifidore an that he is before all things. (Vid. Ifid. ancient Greek writer observed) if the lib. 3. epiff. 31.) In the first way of accent of the word ($\pi_{eoroloxos}$) be pla- understanding this passage, according to ced on the last fyllable but one, instead our translation, it relates to Christ's of-of the last but two, it fignihes not paffice, as head of the church: In the fe-

Digitized by Google

NOTE

* The words, (newroloxog naone xri- added in the next words, For by bim freely, the firfl begotten, but actively cond, it relates to what is ufually call-the firfl begetter, or former of all things; ed the eternal generation of the Son : and in proof of Christ's being fo, it is In the third, it relates to his being the efficient

16 For by him were all things created that are and in heaven, that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers; all things were ereated by him, and for him.

17 And he is before all things, and by him all things conlift.

18 And he is the head of the body, the church: who

18 And as to the excellency of his office in human nature, which he affumed into perfonal union with

NOTES. efficient caule, or the Creator of all defign them : But as they are also used things; and in all these views he is con- to fignify the highest ranks of men, it fidered in the following verses. full further widens the argument, and,

* Thrones, dominions, principalities, I think, there can be no impropriety in and powers, are terms often uled to fig- it, if we also include them. (See Dr. nify the higheft orders of angels: and, Hammond's note here.) perhaps, may here most immediately before any creature was brought into being; and is, infeparably with him, the former of all things; and confequently the original Lord and Heir of all, according to the ancient rights of the first-born.

16 For by him, as the efficient caufe, together with the Father and Spirit, all things, that are not God, were brought forth out of nothing into being, (fee the notes on John i. 3.) even all creatures, that are in the heaven of heavens, and in the ftarry heaven and the air, and that inhabit or belong to the earth and fea; all visible and invisible things whatfoever; all the higheft ranks and individuals of angels in heaven, and of men upon earth, whether for dignity and authority in those respective worlds *, they be ftyled thrones, in allufion to the royal feats of princes; or dominions, that have rule and government committed to them under any form whatfoever; or principalities, that are in high and noble flations; or powers, that are great in any kind of authority and influence: Yea, and all inferior as well as higher orders of creatures, down to the fmalleft atom, were brought into being by his creating power, as their original caufe : And all of them, from the highest to the lowest, were created for him, as their ultimate end; that he, together with the Father and Spirit, might one way or other be glorified in, and by them, as they are the works of his hand, and shall be made subservient to the defigns of his mediatorial kingdom.

17 And this carries an undeniable demonstration, that he had a prior existence to all creatures whatfoever: And as we are faid to live, move, and have our being in God; (Acts xvii. 28.) fo all things do alike fubfilt, stand, or continue in him, (sv auto) who is omniprefent, all-powerful, and active, in his providential influence over them; as they are continually preferved in being, and in their regular frame and order, and are animated and upheld, by the fame word of his power, (Heb. i. 3.) which at first called them into existence, and which he now exerts, as Head over all things to the church. (Epbe/. i. 22.)

himfelf, this fame great and glorious perfon is not on-

Digitized by Google

ly

is the beginning, the first-born from the dead; that in all things he might have the pre-emimence.

19 For it plealed the Father. that in him thould all fulnefs dwell.

20 And (having made peace through the blood

ly the political head of direction, authority, and government, in like manner as a king is the head of the ftate; but he is also the head of vital influence, by his word and fpirit, to the church, (which is as intimately united to him as the natural body is to its head) to communicate all spiritual life, nourishment, growth, and activity to all, and every member of it, the whole of which fpiritual body is the relative fulnefs of him that filleib all in all, (Eph. i. 22, 23.) he accordingly is the head and original, as of the fpiritual life of their fouls, fo of the refurrection of their bodies to eternal life; being himfelf the first that arole from the dead to immortal life, and that by his own power, as the pledge and pattern, quickening caufe and first-fruits of the refurrection of all those that fleep in him : (I Cor. xv. 20.; fee the notes there.) And he is thus the Lord of the dead and the living, (Rom. xiv. 9.) that he in all things might be preferred, exalted, and dignified of God, and efteemed by the church, in his mediatorial capacity (as he really is in himfelf) above all angels, and above all the faints, whom he condescends to call his brethren. (Rom. viii. 29.)

19 For, in the economy of falvation, it has feemed good in God the Father's fight, and he of his own infinitely wife, gracious, and holy pleafure, and in honour to his Son, and in love to his people, has ordained, that, correspondent to the excellency of Chrift's divine perfon, and the greatness of his mediatorial work *, an all-fulness of gifts and graces, merit and righteoufnefs, light and power, fhould dwell permanently in him, with the utmost perfection, not for himfelf only, but likewife to be communicated to every member of his fpiritual body, that of his fulnefs they all may receive grace for grace, (John i. 16.) and that he may fill all things, and be all in all. (Ephef. i. 23, and iv. 10.)

20 And God the Father, (having, through the redemption purchased by the blood of Christ, (ver. 14.) which he shed in his painful, shameful, and acof curfed Chrift, feems evidently to fignify, not in him, and is placed amidit that part of the original fulne's of his deity, but his the apoftle's description of him which remediatorial dispensatory fulnels, which lates most immediately to his office-chahe received of his Father in his human rafter ; and the expressions used, chap. ii. nature and office-capacity; for his origi- 9. to fignify the inhabitation of the deity nal fulne(s is effentially neceffary to him, in the man Jefus, is much ftronger, and and infeparable from him, as God, and without any hipt of will and pleafure, as does not depend upon the mere good-will the caule of it, where it is faid, In him and pleasure of the Father; but the ful- dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead nefs, here mentioned, is what we are bodily. (See the note there.)

Digitized by Google

NO TE.

This all fulnefs, which dwells in told it pleafed the Father (hould dwell ven.

Chap.'i.

ļ

e

1

1

x

X

1

Ċ

ļ

J

;

of his crofs) by him curfed death of the crofs, removed the enmity, and to reconcile all made up the breach, which fin had caufed between things unto him- him and his church) it hath pleafed him, by this felf, by him, I fuy, their Head and Mediator, to bring them all into a whether they be things in earth, flate of friendship and favour with himself * : It has or things in hea- been, I fay, the good pleafure of his will to reconcile them to himfelf, by the peace-making facrifice of

> NOT E.

felf, whether in earth, or in heaven, reconciled to God by the death of his does not, I apprehend, include the holy Son, while we were enemies, which is angels, who having never finned, can- of much the fame import with Chrift's not be faid to be reconciled to God; but dying for the ungodly, and while we relates only to all the faints, whether on were yet finners : (Rom. v. 6, 8, 10.) earth, or in heaven, who needed to be And our being reconciled to God, by apreconciled after the breach that fin had proving and accepting of his method of made between God and them --- When the reconciliation by Jefus Chrift, and, on fcripture fpeaks of reconciliation by Chrift, or by his crofs, blood, or death, it is com- diffinguished from bis reconciling us to monly expressed by God's reconciling us to bimfelf, and not hy his being reconciled to us, on account of Chrift's having been to us; the reason of which seems to be, made fin for us, that we might be made because God is the offended party, and the righteoufnefs of God in him. (2 Cor. we are the offenders, who, as fuch, have v. 18,-21.) This is called Christ's makneed to be reconciled to him; and the price of reconciliation, by the blood of ing reconciliation for the fins of the peo-Chrift, is paid to him, and not to us. ple, (Dan. ix. 24. and Heb. ii. 17.) and Grotius observes, that in heathen authors, men's being reconciled to their gods, is always underftood to fignify ap- blood of the factifices under the law, to peafing the anger of their gods. Condemned rebels may be faid to be reconciled to their fovereign, when he, on one 15, 17.) and which was frequently ftyconfideration or another, pardons them; led, making atonement for fin, and an athough, perhaps, they still remain rebels in their hearts against him: And the legal facrifices of atonement, and the when our Lord ordered the OFFENDING truly explatory facrifice of Chrift, were to go and be reconciled to his OFFENDED offered, not to the offenders, but to God, brother, (Matth. v. 23, 24.) the plain to reconcile him to them; what can remeaning is, that he flould go, and try conciliation by the death, blood, or crofs to appeale his anger, obtain his forgive. of Chrift, mean, but that the law and nels, and regain his favour and friend. justice of God were thereby fatisfied, and thip, by humbling himself to him, ask- all obstructions, on his part, to peace ing his pardon, or fatisfying him for any injury that he might have done him. In ved, that he might not purfue his rightelike manner, God's reconciling us to himfelf by the crois of Christ, does not fignify, as the Socinians contend, our being reconciled, by conversion, to a religious turn in our hearts to God : But them, and take them into a state of fait is a reconciliation that refults from your with himfelf, upon their receiving God's graciously providing and accepting the atonement, or (xalaxhayny) recon-an atonement for us, that he might not ciliation, (Rom. v. 11.) by faith, after inflict the punifiment upon us which we the offence that fin had given him, and deferved, and the law condemned us to; the breach it had made upon the origibut might be at peace with us, and re- nal friendship between him and them? ceive us into favour, on Christ's account: (Vid. Grot. de Satisf. cap. vii. and Dr. For this reconciliation, by the cro/s of Owen's aniwer to Biddle's Catechifm, Chrift, is in a way of atonement or fatis- &c. chap. xxix.) faction to divine justice for fin; and,

* God's reconciling all things to him- with respect hereunto, we are faid to be that encouragement, turning to him, is bimfelf, and not imputing our trefpaffes ing reconciliation for iniquity, and makaniwers to the ceremonial and typical reconciliation which was made by the make atonement and reconciliation for Ilrael; (2 Cor. xxix. 24. and Ezek. xlv. tonement for their fouls. Now as all and friendship toward finners are remoous demands upon them, according to the holy refentments of his nature and will, and the threatnings of his law, for their fins; but might mercifully forgive

Digitized by Google

53

Chrift.

21 And you, that were fometime alienated, and enemies in your mind by wicked works, vet now hath he reconciled.

22 In the body of his flefh through death, to prefent you holy and unblamable, and unreprovable in his fight :

23 If ye continue in the faith grounded and fettled, and be not moved away from the hope of the golpel, which ve have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister.

Chrift, that the righteous demands of his broken law and offended juffice might not be executed upon them; but that he might honourably act toward them in a way of kindnefs and friendship, according to the riches of his love and grace; whether they be believers among Yews or Gentiles on earth, or glorified faints, that in the virtue of his blood already are, or ever shall be in heaven.

21, 22 And in confequence of this, ye, who heretofore, in the days of your unregeneracy, were e-Itranged from the life of God, and, through the perverse reasonings of your own corrupt minds, were full of enmity to him, and discovered yourfelves to be. and actually became more and more fo, by an habitual courfe of wicked practices, in contradiction to him, and to his holy law; (Rom. viii. 7.) he has now, upon your believing in Chrift, brought into a flate of reconciliation, peace, and friendship with himself, by the human body of Chrift, which confifted of flefh and blood, like the bodies of other men, even through the merit and efficacy of his atoning death, who his own self bore your fins in his own body on the tree, (I Pet. ii. 24.) that he might prefent you to himfelf, or make you stand before him, as pure and holy members of his church, without fpot or blemish, (Epb. v. 27.) and that nothing may be found to bring you under condemnation, or reproof in his fight, as the great Judge of all, or in the fight of God, at the laft day.

23 This, I am well fatisfied, will be the happy event, as to you *, fince ye have given evident proof of your being fincere believers, by your ftedfaftly perfevering in the faith of Christ, as perfons that are built on him, as your foundation, and are firmly eftablifhed in your dependence alone on him; and fo maintain your ground against all the artful and violent attempts of your enemies to shake and carry you off from Chrift, the object of your hope, and from your hope in him, as fet before you in the golpel, which ye have heard, attended to, and received, and which, according to the true intent of our Lord's commiffion.

greeable to the apoftle's defign, render- apoftle speaks of his joying and beholding ed fince ye continue; for the particle their fledfastness in the faith of Christ. ($\iota_i \gamma_i$) often fignifies fince, as in 2 Cor (Chap ii. 5.) And to no argument can v. iii. (fee the note there) and ye conti be drawn from hence against the perfenue (enquente) is not in the future, but verance of the faints; or for making present tense, intimating what they did their continuing in the faith the cause of Pierce observes in his note here) this the great day. fense is necessary, because of the now

NOTE.

Digitized by Google

* If ye continue might be, more a- (vor) in the next verie, and because the at present. or hitherto; and, (as Mr. their being presented unreprovable at Chap. i.

l,

1

r,

3

ł

t

ŀ

i.

ł

Ľ,

; ý

commission, (Mark xvi. 15.) has been preached promifcuously to Gentiles as well as Jews, under what quarter of the heavens foever they dwell; (fee the note on ver 28.) and I, Paul, am highly favoured with his fpecial commission to communicate this gofpel particularly to the Gentiles. (Acts xxvi. 16, 17, 18.)

24 And feeing ye continue in the faith grounded and fettled, (ver. 23.) I now, initead of repining at the fevere perfecutions and prefent imprifonments, that have befallen me for your fakes, on account of my preaching the gospel to Gentile finners, (Enb. iii. 1.) do, on the contrary, even rejoice in them, and count them my honour, (Altr v. 41.) as they alfo are your glory; (Eob. iii. 13.) and inflead of perfecuting others, as formerly *, I, in my turn, now chearfully undergo all manner of tribulations, which ftill remain for filling up the measure of my fufferings for Christ's glory, as he filled up the measure of his fufferings for my redemption; and which I am further to endure in my natural body, after his example, and in his caufe, who counts them his own, and has appointed them to me for the benefit of his myftical body, by which I mean his church, that they may be confirmed in the faith of the golpel, and encouraged to bear, with undaunted bravery, whatever fufferings they may be called to undergo for it, by feeing how I am enabled to behave with holy fortitude, patience, and joy, under mine.

25 Of which church (115) I am, by his immediate authority, conflituted a minister in my apostolic office, according to the infinitely gracious and holy 'ourovoursev) order of God's fettling in his family, for differing the gofpel, which is committed to me, as a facred truft, with a fpecial regard to you as Gentiles, (Eph. iii. 1, 2. and 1 Tim. i. 11, 12.) for your

* Fill up (avlavantanew) fays Le Clerk. and Mr Pierce after him, in a beautiful criticilm on the place, fignifies fill up by turns, to intimate, that the apostle now fuffered in his turn, as he had formerly made others fuffer for Ghrift in theirs : And I am apt to think. that, in calling these the afflictions of Christ; he might recollect Chrift's faying to him, in the career of his perfecutions, Saul, Saul. "Why perfecutest thou me? (Acts ix. 4.) Or, according to the above given fende of the word translated fill up, he might mean that, as Christ had fuffered for his redemption, he now in his turn fuffered for Christ's glory, and in conformity to them that are fanctified. (Heb. x. 14.) VOL. V.

N O Т E.

him as fufferings for Christ are manifestly to be understood in 2 Cor. i c. and c Pet iv. 13 . Bur I do not find, on the ftricted fearch that Chrift's own fufferings are any where called as here, his afflictions (Salution To Xeiss) while this word is commonly used, through the New l'effament, to express the fufferings of the apofties and other Christians for Chuift's fake; not can any of their fufferings be supposed to be added to his, or to concur with his, for the fatisfaction. of divine juffice, without overthrowing the perfection of his atoning facrifice, who, by one offering. perfected for ever

24 Who now rejoice in my fufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Chrift in my fleth, for his bodies fake; which is the church :

25 Whereof I am made a minif.

ter according to the difpensation of God, which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God;

your conversion, edification, and falvation, to fulfil his prophetic word about his calling the Gentiles; (Ifa. xi. 10. and xlii. 1. Zech. ii. 11. and Mal. i. 11.)

26 Which is indeed a mystery, both as it contains the unfearchable riches of Chrift, (Eph. iii. 8. *) and as it has been fo far concealed, especially in its brighteft glories, from ages and generations under " the law, that the Gentiles knew nothing of it, and the Jews, did not fully understand the notices that were given of it under former dispensations; but which is now as clearly revealed as the nature of things admits of, (rois aryiois aurs) to his holy apoftles and prophets by the Spirit, (Eph. iii. 5.) and, through them, to all true believers, who, by profeffion, obligation, and regenerating grace, are his faints.

27 To whom God, of his own good pleafure, according to his eternal purpofe, and ancient predictions, would now, under the New Teftament difpenfation, make a plain difcovery of the exceeding riches of the glory of this incomprehenfibly excellent gofpel, even among the Gentiles, which is all fummed up in Chrift, who, as preached among you, and as dwelling in your hearts by his Spirit and by faith, is become the author and ground of all your hopes of eternal life, as well as is the purchafer of all its glory.

28 This is the bleffed Saviour, whom we, as melfengers of the beft tidings that ever were brought to the fons of men, declare, and make the grand fubject of our ministry, in his glorious perfon and offices, dom; that we may in the whole compais of his mediation, and in the beprefent every man lieving, affectionate, and obediential regards, that are due to him, and to God the Father through him; admonishing all forts of perfons to reflect upon their finful and obnoxious flate by nature, and to take heed of rejecting him +; and instructing them, without diffinction

Digitized by Google .

NOTES. places, relates to the calling of the Gen- carry the idea of its having lain under tiles, which was before, at leaft compa- great oblcurity before : (which I appre-ratively peaking, a myttery, but is now hend is to be confidered with reference moft clearly revealed : And yet as there to the doctrines of the golpel itfelf, as were many plain and express prophecies well as to its being preached to the of this under the Old Testament, a vast Gentiles) but also of the unsathemable collection of which is made, and com- depths of wildom and grace that are conpared with correspondent New Testa- tained in the gospel, as now revealed in ment texts, by the learned Huet, in his the plaineft manner that it ever will be in Demonstratio Evangelica, Vid. Prop. 9. this world, or that our faculties in this cap. 158. p. 589.—597. It cannot be imperfect flate are capable of taking in. faid not to have been revealed before, (See the note on 1 Cor. ii. 7.) though, through miftaken prejudices, it was not generally underftood, in its true times over, in this verfe, and every crea-

* Mystery here, as in feveral other being called a mystery feems, not only to

+ Every man, as mentioned three fenie and meaning: And therefore its ture which is under beaven, ver. 23. cannot

Even the 26 which mystery hath been hid from and ages, from generations but now, is made manifeft to his faints :

27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Genwhich tiles ; is Chrift in you, the hope of glory :

23 Whom we preach, warning every man, and everv teaching man in all wifperfect in Chrift Jeius ;

COLOSSIANS paraphrafed.

distinction of nations, wherefoever we come, according to the wildom that God hath given us; and leading them into the knowledge of the manifold wildom of God, as difplayed in the gofpel-revelation, to make them wife to falvation; that we may be the measts and inftruments of prefenting them all to God, as true and uncorrupted believers, that are espoufed to Christ, (2 Cor. xi. 2.) and well acquainted with the whole fcheme of the gospel, and that have, not only a perfection of parts, which belong to the new creature, but an eminent growth of them; and are already perfect in their Head Chrift, (fee the note on 1 Cor. ii. 6.) and thall be perfected in all knowledge and grace, holinefs and happinefs, through him, in the heavenly state.

29 To the accomplifhment of this, I alfo labour with pains and diligence in prayer and preaching, laying myfelf out to the utmost by all means, amidit all difficulties, and in the face of all oppofition, like the vehement contenders in the Grecian games, (ayoviCourses) according to the energy of his spirit and grace, which works with mighty power in me, to enable me for it, and with me, to crown my labours with glorious fuccefs. (See the note on I Cor. xv. 10.)

RECOLLECTIONS.

What a divine authority does the apottolic character give to Paul's epifiles ! And with what affection should we, atter his example, with all aboundings of grace and peace from God the Father, and our Lord Jelus Chrift, to all the faints and faithful in Chrift Jefus! And how thould we bleis God on their behalf, and recommend them in our prayers to him, on account of what we ice or hear of their faith and love, and of their well grounded hope of that eternal life which is referved in heaven for them, according to the truth of the goipel! What a mercy is it, that this gospel is now preached, by divine commission, to Gentiles, as well as Yews, in all its unfearchably glorious riches, which was a mystery concealed in great measure from former ages; but is now, as far as the nature of things ad-mits, clearly manifested to the faints! But how much greater is the mercy itill, to know this golpel of the grace of God in truth ; to experience its efficacy, in delivering us from the power of Satan, and translating us into the kingdom of God's beit beloved Son; and to have Chrift dwelling in our hearts, as our hope of glory! This encourages further preyers for all increase in light, and grace, and strengthenings, by the glorious operations of divine power, unto all patience, long-fuffering, and joy, under all the trials of this life; and unto all becoming, fruitful, and holy walking with God, who in this way will make us meet for the inheritance of the faints in light. How great and glorious is the perfon of Chrift ! He is the effential and representative image of God the Father, who in his own nature is invifible; he had an eternal existence before all worlds, and is the Creator and Upholder, the first cause and last end of all things, from the highest to the lowest of them, in heaven and earth; he alio, as Mediator, is the head of his myftical bo-I 2 dy, cannot be fupposed to mean all the indi- ment) Jews and Gentiles, to whom he these universal terms in the New Testa- of one fort of them to another.

N

OTE.

viduals of mankind; but evidently figni- preached Chrift and the gofpel, that he fies (according to the drift of the apol- might prelent them perfect in him, with-tle's argument, and the frequent use of out diffinction of pations, or preference

Digitized by Google

29 Whereunto Ŧ alfo labour, ftriving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

dy the church; has all office and differentiatory fulnefs conftantly refiding in him; and is the unit and on etchat role from the dead to immortal life, and every way fuperemonent to all is its and angels. And how important are the benefits that his church receive from him? Finey that were fonetimes enemies, through the iniquity of their hearts and lives, are now reconciled to God by his atoning death, and have remified of fine strong his redeeming blood; and they are kept fieldfart in the tath and hope of the golpel, till at length they shall be prefented faultlefs, and without rebuke, in the fight of God. And what an honour is it to be made wife and faithful preachers of Chrift, and inffruments of prefenting multitudes perfect in him? Who would not willingly lay themielves out to the utmoft, according to the powerful workings of his grace in, and with them, to fubierve this oleffed design; and rather reporte than repine at any infferings, to what degree foever they may be called to undergo them in the caute of Chrift, for his fake, and for the comvertion, edification, and eternal falvation of many fouls :

C H A P. II.

The apofile expresses bis love to, and joy in believers, whom he had never seen, and encourages their continuing to walk in Christ, 1,-7. Cautions them against the errors of heathen-philosophy, against the vanity of Jewish traditions, and against an observance of Mosaic rises, which had been completely fulfilled in Christ, beyond what they could hope to find elsewhere, 8,-17. Against worshipping of angels, as that were, in effect, renouncing their Head, Christ, 18, 19. And against legal ordinances and human institutions, that are of no advantage for spiritual purposes, 20,-23.

Text. FOR I would that ye knew what great conflict 1 have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not feen my face in the fleih-;

2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full affurance of underftanding, to the acknowledgment of myitery the of God, and of the Father, and ot Chrift ;

PARAPHRASE.

T is with particular reference to you, that I fpeak of my earnest endeavour to prefent every man perfect in Christ Jesus. (Chap. i. 28, 29.) For I would fain make you fensible of my great folicitude, concern, and fervent prayers for you, (chap. i. 9.) the believers at Coloffe, and for those of your neighbouring city of Landicea; and even for all that have received the faith of Christ, wherever they refide, though they, like you, have never had the opportunity of feeing me in the body, nor confequently of attending on my ministry, and being wrought upon by it.

2 I wrettle with God in prayer for all fuch, that their hearts may be abundantly filled with divine confolation, as believers that are clofely and firmly cemented together in the bonds of the moft cordial affection to Chrift and one another; and are thoroughly united in endcavours for attaining a diffinct, clear, and complete acquaintance with the excellent fcheme of the golpel, in all its riches of fpiritual and eternal bleffings, unto the entire fatisfaction of their own fouls; and unto the moft honourable, fleady, and public profefion of thefe deep things of God, which, though now revealed for the falvation of the Gentiles,

Digitized by Google

as

E,

Ц.

ţ:

2.

2

Ċ,

Ľ,

•

Ŀ

COLOSSIANS paraphrafed.

as well as Jews, continue to be unfedrchable riches, (Eph. iii. 8.) that were from all eternity defigned, and prepared in the gracious couniels of God the Father's will, (Eph. i. 11.) and are purchated, revealed, and diffenfed by our Lord Jeius Chrift, as the great Mediator between God and them.

3 In whom *, as the field of the church, are contained, for their use and benefit, beyond their comprehension, and with a concellment from carnal minds, all the rich and mexhaultible treasures of perfect witdom and knowledge, for managing all the affairs of his kingdom of providence and grace, and featonably fupplying all our wants; and for revealing the whole will of God about our falvation; as also for enlightening our minds, and directing us in our way and walk through all the darknets and dangers of this life, and conducting us fate to heavenly glory.

4 And I thus fpeak of all the treatures of widom and knowledge, that are laid up in Chrift, from the deep concern of my heart for you, that ye may be eftabilited in him; left, as the ferpent beguiled Eve through his jubility; (2 Cor. xi. 3.) fo, through the plaufible infinuations of judaizing teachers, who by falle reafonings, flattering words, and fair speeches, lie in wait to deceive, (1 Cor. xvi. 18. and Eph. iv. 14.) any one fhould delude you into infinaring notions, that are contrary to, or derogatory from Chrift and his glory, and would turn you off from him, and from the pure doctrine of faivation alone through him: My knowledge of your affairs, and affection to you, engage this folicitous care of my foul about you.

5 For though I be corporally diftant from you, and never faw you; yet my heart is with you, in delightful reflections on what I have heard of your faith, love, and hope; (chap. i. 4, 5.) and I clearly perceive, by fuggeitions of the Spirit, how things are with you, (let the note on 1 Cor. v. 3.) as to your rich attainments, on one hand, and trials of various kinds, on the other; and I am filled with facred joy from what I know of your circumstances, as if I were perfonally prefent with you, particularly with respect to the good difcipline that is kept up among you,

Digitized by Google

In aubien (iv a) may be rendered in aubiech, and refer to the my/lery, as well as to Chrift; and fo figuities that all the treafures of wildom and knowledge, relating to falvation, are wrapped up, and contained in this my/tery: But I rather take it to be meant of Chrift, who is the neareft antecedent, and is tooken of ver. 9, 10. as having all the full.

ΝΟΤΕ.

nefs of the Godhead dwelling in him, in subom the church is complete. (See alfo Dr. Whithy's note here.) And hid in him intimates, (tays Bifhop Davenant on the place) that thefe treafures of wifdom and knowledge are fo hid, as not to be dincerned by carnal men, but only by thofe to whom God hath given 'fpiritual eyes to fee them.

•

3 In whom are hid all the trea

fures of wildom and knowledge.

4 And this I fay, left any man thould beguite you with enticing words.

5 For though I be anont in the fleth, yet am 1 with you in the fpirit, joying and beholding your order, and the itedfaitnets of your faith in Christ. you, as a church of Chrift, and the orderly behaviour of its feveral members; and with refpect to the firm, tolid, and fleady adherence of your faith to the perion, mediation, and doctrines of Chrift, notwithflanding all the artifices that are used to corrupt your minds, and draw you off from him.

6 As therefore ye have received Chrift by faith in his perfon and offices, as your prophet to teach you, as your priet to make atonement and intercede for you, and as your king to rule and govern you, even as your complete Lord and Saviour; fo I entreat and exhort you thill to cleave with purpole of heart to him, and to walk in a daily exercise of faith in him, and in a constant observation of all his ordinances and commandments; yea, in all holy conversation and godlines, as becomes your protession of him, and relation to him, by virtue of your union with him, and by derivation of grace from him;

7 As fincere believers, who, like a tree planted in a good foil, are rooted in Christ, fastening on him, to keep you fixed and immoveable by any wind of doctrine, and drawing nourifhment from him for your fpiritual growth in him; (Epb. iv. 14, 15.) and who, like a houfe erected on a folid foundation, are built upon Chrift, and clofely united to him, as the only foundation of your faith and hope, fecurity and falvation, (1 Cor. iii. 11.) that ye may grow unto an holy temple in the Lord, in whom ye are built together for an babitation of God, through the Spiru; (Eph. ii. 21, 22.) and that ye may be confirmed both in the doctrine and grace of faith in him, according to what ye have heard, and received by the ministry of Epaphras, our dear fellow-fervant; (chap. i. 7.) and may abound exceedingly in daily increafes of light and faith, and every other grace, with enlarged thankfulnefs and praife to the author and finisher of all that concerns you.

8 Take heed left any feducer make a prey of you, and draw you off from Chrift and his pure goipel; and rob you of its privileges and bleffings, through the fubtilities and corruptions of the falle philolophy of the heathens, which Jewith doctors have adopted into their religion; and through their fallacious pretences, which are all empty, delufive, and vain, as they puff up the mind with a conceit of things, that have nothing in them; and miflead it to foilow the uncertain traditions, that were the inventions of men in former ages, and have been handed down from one generation to another to this very day; and alfo to oblerve fuch ccremonial rites of the Mofaic law, as were the principles, or first elements (sugue) of the 6 As ye have therefore received Christ Jelus the Lord, Jo walk ye in hun :

7 Rooted and built up in him, and ftablihed in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thankigiving.

8 Beware left any man (poil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Chrift. k:

ł,

b

Ū,

12

N,

ĥ

ä

3

Ľ,

N.

d

10

C, đ

į,

ċ

k

ė

1, i;

ż

ľ

ĸ

ĸ

the church in its infant-flate, and were in themfelves of a carnal nature, as fuited to impress little children by worldly appearances: (fee the paraprafe on Gal. iv. 3.) And none of those things are according to the mind and will of Chrift, as revealed in the gofpel; nor do any of them, as now urged and obferved, lead the foul to him alone for falvation, who has an allfufficiency for it in himfelf.

9 For the divine nature *, with all the perfections of deity in their utmost fulnels, relide, and for ever abide, fubstantially in his incarnate perfon, as in the temple of his body, inhabited by the in-dwelling Godhead, in a perfonal, and infinitely more glorious manner, than it ever dwelt in the Jewi/b tabernacle, or temple of old.

10 And ye, who have received him by faith, (ver. 6.) and fo are united to him as members of his myftical body, have all falvation in him as your head ; ye have all defects made up, and all fecurities and bleffings completed, though not already in your own perfons, yet in him, who is made unto you of God, wildom, and righteou/nefs, and fanctification, and redemption; (I Cor. i. 30.) and who, fuitable to the dignity of his divine perfon, as all the fulnefs of the Godhead dwells bodily in him, (ver. 9.) is exalted in his office-capacity to be fovereign Lord and Ruler of all ranks and degrees of mankind; yea, of all, even the highest orders of apostate angels, who are under his controul, as vanquished enemies; (ver. 15.) and of all the holy angels, that excel in ftrength, and

NOTE. bead, are as firing expressions as can your and relation, manifeftation, and p-well be imagined, to denote that the di- peration; and their being filled with vine nature. with not fome only, but all all the fulnefs of God, $(\tau \alpha r \tau \sigma \pi n_{ee})$ its effential perfections, the very same as $\tau_{00} \otimes \iota_{00}$) most naturally means, filled are in the Father himself, dwell fub- with all the gifts and graces that God flantially in Christ's human body, as is the author and giver of : But all the the word (supalizes) may fignify, ei- fulnefs of the GODHEAD (may to manguage ther bodily, to intimate the perional the Stornlos) is a quite different phrase union of the divine nature with the hu- of inconceivably fuperior fignification; man body, as well as foul of our Lord, For Godhead is the one only divine nawhen he, the eternal Word, was made ture itfelf, by which God is what he flefb, and dwelt among us; (John i. 1, is; and as all acts of divine goodnefs, 14. fee the note there) or really and wildom, and power. and the like, are fubfuntially, in opposition to figura- constantly ascribed to God, and never, tively and emblematically, in types and as far as I can recollect, to the Godhead, shadows, in which sense the apostle there seems to be a great impropriety of fays the body is of Gbrift, ver. 17. And language in calling their effects the fulthis is infinitely more than any thing nefs of the Godhead: But the fulnefs, that is faid of God's dwelling in his or perfection of Deity, is a natural (Eph. iii. 19.) His dwelling in them Christ.

* The Godhead, the Julnefs of the evidently fignifies only his gracious pre-Godhead, and all the fulnefs of the God- lence with them, in a way of special fapeople, (2 Cor. vi. 16.) and of their idea of all that is comprehended in God-being filled with all the fulnefs of God. head; and all this is faid to dwell in

Digitized by Google

10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality

9 For in him

dwelleth all the fulnels of the God-

head bodily.

and power:

and are entirely under his dominion, who fends them

II In whom alfo ye are corcumcifed with the circumcifion made without Fands, in putting off the body of the fins of the fleft, by the circumcifion of Chrift:

12 Buried with him in baptifm, wherein alto ye are rifen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raifed him from the dead.

forth to minister to the heirs of falvation. (Heb. i. 14.) 11. In him alfo ve are fo complete, as to have no need of the ordinance of circumcifion, which the Jewish zealots would impose upon you : for ve have a better circumcifion of the heart, according to God's promife to his people, and their feed, (Deut. xxx. 6.) even a spiritual circumcision, (Ph 1. iii. 2.) which is not effected, like that in the flefh, by the work of human hands, but by the renewing operation of the Spirit; and confifts, not in cutting off the foreikin of the fleih, but in what was fignified by it, even a feparation of the whole body of fin, which, like the natural body, is made up of many members or parts, that fpring from the corruption of nature. and are influenced, and exert themfelves, by means of the fleshly body, that ye may be delivered from its guilt, power, and defilement, and at length from the very in-being of it, by virtue of that fpiritual circumcifion, which Chrift is the author of *.

12 And, instead of circumcifion in the slesh, ve have, by his inftitution, the ordinance of baptifm. which is of like fignification, and answers the fame ends, as it is a fign of, and obligation to all the holinefs, that is, or ought to be found in you, as God's covenant people, by your being conformable to Chrift's death, in utterly dying to fin, and giving full evidence of it with continuance, as he died that it might be crucified, and was multifield to be entirely dead, by his being buried, and continuing fome time in the grave +. Your privileges and obligations are likewife

NOTES.

mean his own circumcifion in the fleft defect as to external ordinances, for she eighth day; for that, as much as any want of circumcifion to lignify and feal other, was made by the hands of men; them For the apoftle herein fhews. but this is faid, in opposition to that that Christ has not only provided that fort of circumcifion, to be made with- his people should be partakers of the out hands, and refers to that fpiritual thing fignified by it, but has also fubcircumcifion. of which Chrift is the au- flituted another external ordinance, of thor, and of which, as circumcifion for- like use, fignification, and defign, to be merly was, the baptifm of Christ's inftitution now is the fign : it fignifying fuitable to its fimplicity and fpiritual not the putting away the filth of the nature. But is the infants of believing fle/b. but the answer of a good confcience toward God; (1 Pet. iii. 21.) and fo, the fignification being the fame, baptifm comes in the room of circum-, cifion, according to what is intimated in the next verfe, as the Lord's supperdoes of the paffover. And this effectually answered the objection of Yewifb as themselves. zealots, as if, whatever internal privi-

The circumcifion of Chrift cannot leges were pretended to, there were a continued under the gospel-state, more parents were not to be baptized under the golpel-difpensation. a ftrong objection would ftill have remained against their being complete in Chrift as to external privileges; fince the children of the Ifraelites, under the Mofaie difpenfation, were to be circumcifed, as well

> + Buried with bin, feems to relate rather

13 And you, being dead in your fins, and the uncir-cumcifion of your ther with him, ha ving forgiven you hath he togefleih,

quickened

all trefpailes.

COLOSSIANS paraphrafed.

likewife fignified in this ordinance, as to your being quickened and raifed to a life of holinefs, in conformity to the rifen Saviour, through that faith which is wrought with almighty energy in your hearts, by the fame exceeding greatness of God's power, (Eph. i. 19, 20.) which he exerted in railing Chrift from the dead; and will put forth, by virtue of his refurrection, in raifing you up to eternal life. (Rom. viii. 11. and 1 Pet. i. 3.)

13 And ye, who in your unregenerate flate were dead in law, under a just fentence of condemnation, on account of your trespaffes; and were dead toward God, and every thing that is fpiritually good, in the disposition of your hearts, under the power of corrupt nature, which was fignified, during the Molaic difpenfation, by your being uncircumcifed in the flefh, he has now raifed to a new life of grace and holinefs, in order to a heavenly life of glory and blefsednefs, together with Chrift, as your Head, by quickening virtue derived from him, and in conformity to his refurrection from the dead; God having, on his account, freely forgiven you all and every one of your iniquities, whether they be original or actual, greater or leffer fins, that none of them might be imputed to you, or bind the curfe of the law upon you, or be brought into judgment against you, though ye never have been literally circumcifed; and therefore that ordinance cannot be neceffary to your pardon and acceptance with God to eternal life.

14 Blotting out the hand-writing

14 Yea, as a debt is evidently remitted, or difcharged, by croffing and obliterating the book, or boud *, are used as fignifying the fame thing. (See also the note on Rom. vi 4.)

* Here is a manifest allusion to various ways of cancelling a debt, and vacating a bond, in a beautiful gradation from blotting it out, to taking it quite away, and utterly deftroying it, that there might be no room for fear of its ever appearing, or being any more in force against us : And the last of these, which is expressed by nailing it to the crois of Chrift, may allude both to his crucifizion, which difarmed the law of ceremonial law could afford, which inits condemning power, and death of its cluded an obligation to oblerve the mo-fling; and (as Grotius oblerves) to an ral law, that was written by the finger Vol. V.

NOTES.

rather to Chrift's burial, than to our ancient cuftom of firiking an antiquated baptifin. And buried with him in bap- writing through with a nail, to deface tifm. stands in opposition to being dead it. and render it for ever invalid. The in fins, ver. 13.; and is of the same im- hand writing of ordinances, that was port with being crucified with him, and againft us, which was contrary to us, dead with him, as appears by compa- &c. and was thus effectually difannul-ring Rom. vi. 4, 6, 5. where thefe terms led, I take to include the whole law of Mofes, as a covenant, though with a primary respect to the ceremonial law : But the moral, as well as ceremonial law, might be called the hand-writing of ordinances, that was against us, as it was written by the appointment of God, and practically subscribed to by Ifrael; (Deut. v. 27.) and both together contained an acknowledgment of their guilt, depravity, and obnoxioni-nels to wrath, and of their need of a better tacrifice and purification, than the υf K was against which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his crofs.

of ordinances that or any writing that flood against the debtor; fo, with us, regard to all of us who believe, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, he has blotted out our transgreffions, as it were by the red lines of Christ's blood, and thereby difannulled the law-obligation to punifhment for them, which teftified against us all as transgreffors, as well as feparated the Gentiles from the church and privileges of the Yews, and was the caufe of enmity between them : He has also removed it out of the way, that it may never be found, and produced, or brought into dispute against us : And that it might be utterly nullified, as a bond that flood out against us, he has, as it were, rent and torn it to pieces, by nailing it to the cross, on which our Lord was faftened by the nails that pierced him through his hands and feet, when he died our facrifice, and redeemed us from the curle of the law, being made a curle for us. (Gal. iii. 13.) 15 And having vanquished, and difarmed all the powers of darkness, the devil their chief, and all the ranks and orders of apoftate fpirits with him *, He,

15 And having fpoiled principalities and powers, he , made

NOTES.

fubiected them to its curfe, and fo was ceremonial law to the Gentiles, though a minifiration of death and coudemna- that be included in it, as it was a midtion; (2 Cor. iii. 7. 9.) and in that dle wall of partition between them and view, the Jews were most immediately the Jews. (Vid. Zanch. in loc. and concerned in it: And yet the doctrine Witf. de Defect. V. T. ad. calc. Oecon. contained in it affected the Gentiles Foed. p. 818, 819.) (whole confciences convicted them of fin) as well as the Jews. It therefore text, has endeavoured to establish a new feems to have been with special defign, notion, as though by the principalities that the apostle alters the person, in this and powers, here spoken of, were meant, verse, from you to us, to intimate that not the evil but good angels. There is the benefit, brought in by Chrift, rela- great ingenuity in the conjecture, and ted in common to believers of both forts, much labour employed in criticism to and that it is not to be confined to Gen-, maintain it. But, upon the most caretiles, as fome understand it, who con- ful examination, it does not appear to fider the ceremonial law only, as faid to me to be fufficiently supported : For, adbe contrary to them, by excluding them mitting that he spoiled principalities and from the privileges and bleffings of the powers is not predicated of Chrift, but of Jews. But had this been the apoftle's God the Father, it is most naturally to precife and reftrictive intention, it is be underftood of what the Father did by very ftrange that, while he was speak- Christ, in his triumphant death; and ing of Gentiles, in the fecond perfon all yet, as Christ's cross, mentioned in the along just before, and returned to speak close of the foregoing verse, is the immeof them in the fame manner at ver. 6. diate antecedent to this, it feems plain and fo on to the end of the epiftle, he and eafy enough to refer the spoiling of should vary the perfon here, and that principalities and powers to him, as without any apparent reason for it, what he himself has done, by his sufferwhen it would have been most evident- ings and death, in obtaining the conquest ly proper and accurate to have conti- over them. And as to its connection nued it, without any alteration .- For with the context, which this learned this reason, therefore, among others re- writer thinks cannot be made out, but lating to what equally concerned them upon his interpretation, what can be both, I cannot readily go into the inter- more agreeable to the apoftle's defign to of God : and, upon failure of obedience, late merely to the contrariety of the

* Mr. Pierce, in a large note on this pretation, that makes this paffage re- prove, that believers are complete in Chrift,

JOOGLE

Digitized by

Chap. ii.

therefore ί

Ģ

1 ŀ

, 1

ę

Ż

5 ļ

d

made a fnew of as the feed of the woman, that was to bruife the ferthem openly, tri- pent's head, (Gen. iii. 15.) and God the Father, by umphing over them him, exposed them to open contempt and shame, in the view of all the holy angels, as spoils of war, triumphing like a glorious conqueror over them, in virtue of his cross, (ver. 14.) as his fufferings upon it were a complete fatisfaction to divine justice for fin, and as he through death destroyed him that had the power of death, that is the devil, (Heb. ii. 14.) and did this by his own ftrength, without the aid or affistance of any creature whatsoever. (I/a. lxiii. 3.)

16 Let no man 16 Since therefore the believing Gentiles, as well judge as Jews, are complete in Chrift, (ver. 10.) and the you in meat, or in hand-writing of ordinances, that was contrary to both, drink, are not only partakers of the spiritual of distinct dominions being assigned to circumcifion, which is fignined by the different angels over different countries; New Testament-ordinance of baptism, for though Michael, which some suppose and are quickned with Chrift, and for- to be Chrift himself, and others a chief. given all trespaffes, and acquitted from minister of the heavenly hoft under him, law-obligations that flood in force against them; but that all the powers of darkness are also entirely vanguished for them by his crois? And what the apoltle had faid, ver. 10. about Chrift's being the head of all principality and power, is a sufficient reason against wor-Jbipping of angels, ver. 18, 19. This gentleman, in further support of his own interpretation, supposes that, before our Saviour's time, the good angels had provinces and dominions allotted them, one prefiding over one country, and another over another country, which he apprehends is intimated by the mention that is made of the princes of Perfia and Greece, and Michael the prince, Dan. x. 13, 20, 21.; but that, at our Lord's refurrection, this power was taken from them, to fignify (as he renders it) cauthem, and they, being all diverted of fing them to triumph; for though it be · their dominion, were placed in fubjection to him. But though it is undoubtedly true, that Chrift is in our nature railed far above all principalities and powers, and that angels, uuthorities, and powers are made fubject to bim; or the other, according as the fubject. (Eph. i. 20, 21, and 1 Pet. ii. 21.) yet matter leads to it, and not, without ne-I know of no intimation in scripture, that he has reduced their powers, or taken away any thing from them, which they ever had before; nor does it feem very agreeable to the grace that fhires forth in his headthip to angels, as well as Pfal laviii 17, 18. the place there refermen, to suppose that he came to deprive, red to, the holy angels are represented or diveft them of any dignity, or domi- as his attendants, and not as the vannion, that they before were posselied of: quifhed captives, in his triumphant a-Nor is what is faid in Dan. x. 13, 20, 21. icenfion. See also the notes on Ephef, about the princes of Perfia and Greece, iv. 8.

K 2 NOTE S.

Chriff, (ver. 10.) than to flow that they and Michael the prince, any real proof appeared for Ifrael against their enemies; yet the princes of Perfia and Greece may most naturally be understood of earthly princes, that were fet over these king. doms, according to the common interpretation : And if angels were supposed to be intended by these princes, one can hardly think they were good angels, fince one of them contended against the other, and none but Michael the prince held with the angel that spake to Daniel. As to fome further criticisms of this author's, to maintain his point, he fuppoles that there is no necessity of taking the words, he made a shew of them openly, in an ill fense; and we may with as good reafon iuppole, that there is no necessity of taking triumphing over fo translated in 2 Cor. ii. 14. yet the word itself, which is used only in these two places of the New Teffament, moft properly and frequently fignifies to triumph; and fo is to be conftrued one way, ceffity, in the lefs ufual fenie. And in that parallel text, Eph. iv. 8. where the apoftle speaks of Christ's leading captivity captive, the allufion is to the triumph of conquerors over their enemies; and in drink, or in respect of an holy day, or of the new-moon, or of the fabbathdays:

The Epistle to the

Chap. ii.

is now cancelled, (See the note on ver. 14.)' Let no Jewil' zealot pretend ; (un Tis vuas reinero) or, if any of them should be fo rash and preiumptuous, let none of you be troubled at their vain pretences, to centure and condemn you, as though ye were excluded from falvation, becaufe ye do not observe their legal rites : As, to inftance in fome particulars, which, together with circumcifion, they lay great ftrefs upon, None ought to judge and condemn you, for not abstaining from Jewi/h meats, or drinks, as forbidden in their law; or on account of your neglecting to keep their religious annual feftivals, fuch as the paffover, pentecoft, and the feaft of tabernacles; or their monthly feasts at the first appearance of the new moon ; * or even their feventh day weekly fabbaths,

N 0 T E.

the feventh day fabbath, because diftin- fabbath of the I/raelites was altered guifhen from the anniverfary and month- with their year, at their coming forth ly feffivals of the Jerus; and becaule from Egypt; and a fhort attention to this is the common import of the word this point may not be here improper: fabbath in the New Testament, and is The case then seems to be this: At the always to in the Old, when mentioned in finithing of the creation, God fanctified conjunction with, or in contradiffinction the feventh day; this feventh day, beto new-moons and feafls. (See Dr. Whit- ing the first day of Adam's life, was conby's note on the place.) But then the fecrated by way of first-fruits to God ; caution against a religious regard to it is to be confidered only with reference to the obligations that lay on the Jews, to observe that particular day, during the Mofaic difpentation, and its attending ritual observances, which did not belong to the morality of the fabbath, nor are obligatory upon Chriftians any more than the jeventh day itself, under the gospelfate: But the devoting of a feventh part of time in a holy manner to the Lord, belongs unchangeably to the moral nature and obligation of the fourth commandment, which is transferred in the New Teftament, from the feventh to the first day of the week. (See the notes on John xx. 26. and Acts xx. 7.) To this it may not be amifs to add the judicious note of Mr. Kennicott in his differtation on the oblations of Cain and Abel, p. 184 185. where he tays, " The fabbath, or weekly day of holinels, might well be called a jign to the Jews; for the Jewijh fabbath was a the idolaters, the Ifraelites would be figu. as being tounded on a double rea-100, the fecond of which (the Egyptian refied on the fame day, than if they deliverance) evidently diffinguithed that were to work on that day, and ferve people from all others, and was therefore their God upon another. But a fecond as a figh conflamily to remind them of reafon certainly was in order to perpethe particular care of heaven, and what tuate the memory of their deliverance uncommon returns of goodness they were on that day from Egyptian flavery; for

* Sabbaths feem to be here meant of there is great reason to believe, that the and therefore Adam may reafonably be fuppofed to have began his computation of the days of the week with the first whole day of his own existence; thus the fabbath became the first day of the week : But when mankind fell from the worship of the true God, they first fubftituted the worship of the Sun in his place, and preferving the fame weekly day of worship, but devoting it to the Sun, the fabbath was called Sunday; for that Sunday was the first day of the week, and is to still in the east, is prowed by Mr. Selden, (Juf. Nat. and Gent. lib. 3. c. 22.) Thus the fabbath of the patriarchs continued to be the Sunday of the idolaters, till the coming up of the lfraelites out of Egypt; and then, as God altered the beginning of their year, to he also changed the day of their worthip from Sunday to Saturday; the first reason of which might be, that as Sunday was the day of worfhip among more likely to join with them if they to make for to fignal a deliverance. But Mofes, when he applies the fourth commandment

17 Which are a fhadow of things to come; but the body is of Chrift.,

18 Let no man beguile you of your reward, in a volumtary humility, and worthipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not feen, vainly puft up by his flefhly mind;

baths, which God inflituted to be peculiarly obferved by them under the Mo/aic difpentation.

17 Which fort of ordinances, to far forth as they were merely ceremonial and Jewish, were only types, figures, or adumbrations of the good things of the gospel; (Heb. x. 1.) but in opposition to these shadows, the reality, truth, or fubitance of the things themfelves, are brought in by Chrift, and to be fought and found only in him. The law came by Mojes, but grace and truth came by Jefus Chrift. (John i. 17.)

18 And fince he, in whom ye are complete, is the head of all principality and power, (ver. 10. and fee the note on ver. 15.) Let no one (undus vuas ralagea-Beoles) whether Jewift zealot or Gentile philotopher, take upon him * unjuilly to deprive you of that glorious prize of the eternal inheritance, which is adjudged in the gospel to every true believer; or lead you out of the way to it, by drawing you into a willing compliance with the falfe and affected humility of men's own devifing, and not of God's commanding; and, under that difguife, into paying religious worship to. angels, or inferior demons, as mediators and interceffors, on pretence of its being too bold and prefumptuous to approach the Divine Majefty, without their interpolition between him and you. The pretender to thefe notions arrogantly attempts to pry into fuch things as God has never revealed, and as are quite above his reach, and he has no knowledge of; and would determine about them under the power of his own vain and carnal mind, that is blown up and fwelled with felf-conceit, and the pride of human reasonings about God and angels, and the way of a finner's accefs

NOTES.

mandment to the particular cafes of his Gentiles, as called, after Chrift's time, own people, Deut. v. 15. does not en- into the fame universal church with the force it, as in Exod. 1X. 11. by the con-patriarchs; and another from Ju/lin fideration of God's refling on that day, Martyr, (Apolog. prim. Edit. Thirlby, which was the fabbath of the patri- p. 98.) which I find in the Paris edition archs; but binds it upon them by fay- of Juftin Martyr's 2d apology, p. 99. ing, Remember that thou waft a fer- The purport of which is, that all Chrifwant in Egypt, and that the Lord thy tians generally affembled for religious God brought thee out thence through a worship on the Sunday; because it is mighty hand, and by a firetched-out the first day after that, in which God arm; therefore the Lord thy God hath had finished the creation of the world; commanded THEE to keep this SABBATH- and on the fame day of the week, Je-DAY Allowing then the preceding ob- fus Chrift, our Saviour, role from the fervations, we immediately fee how the dead. (See also Dr. Owen on the Sabfabbath naturally reverted to Sunday, bath.) after the abolition of judaifm, without any express command for the altera- beutæ, or officers, that judged, and tion." To which he adds a quotation fometimes fallely judged the prize to from Bp. Cumberland, (Orig Gent. wrestlers, Pacers, Ge. in the Grecian Antiq. p. 400.) which speaks of the games.

* Here is a plain allufion to the Bra-to And not holding the head, from which all the body, by joints and bands, having nou rithment ministred, and knit together. increaleth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore if ye be dead' with Chrift from the rudiments of the worid; why, as though living in the world, are ye fubject to ordinances,

21 (Touch not, tafte not, handle not :

22 Which all are to perifh with the using) after the comaccess to him, and with a fond defire of being thought wiler than other men.

19 And fuch an one runs into these corrupt notions to the high dishonour of Jesus Christ, rejecting, inftead of laying hold by faith on him, or adhering to, and trufting alone in him, as the only and all-fufficient Mediator and Advocate, to recommend us and our prayers to divine acceptance; and joining mere creatures in office with him, who is the head of rule and dominion over both the holy and the fallen angels, (ver. 10.) as well as over all the other works of his hand; and is the reprefentative and vital, as well as governing head of the church; from whom all the members of his myftical body, deriving fpiritual nourishment, are united to him and to one another, by his Spirit, and by faith and love, and by means of religious ordinances, which answer to the joints, ligaments, and nerves, that unite the members of the natural body one to another, and to their head; and fo increase in light and grace, comfort, holines, and ftrength, and in every excellent and abounding improvement of a spiritual nature, which God is the author of, and which is well-pleafing in his fight, through Jefus Chrift, and to his praife and glory.

20 If therefore, according to the meaning and engagement of your baptism, (ver. 12.) ye be spiritually dead with Chrift; and if by virtue of his death, who nailed the hand writing of ordinances to his crofs, (ver. 14.) ye be as effectually difcharged, as though ye were corporally dead, from all obligations to pay any regard to Jewi/b inftitutions, which may be called the rudiments, or elements of the world, (Gal. iv. 3. fee the paraphrafe there) Why then, as though ye were perfons of a worldly temper, and living under fuch a carnal difpensation, are ye still burdened with legal ordinances, by those that would dogmatically impose them upon you? (doyuari (to 91)

21 Such, for inftance, as relate to the difference of meats, and confift in ftrict prohibitions to this effect, * viz. Never venture to eat ; no, nor tafte ; nor fo much as in the leaft touch any of those means that are ceremonially unclean.

22 All which meats are neverthelefs appointed of God, for the use of man under the gospel state; and are confumed and caft into the draught, in using them, and

NOTE.

frong, as tafting is lefs than eating, and on the place.)

* Several critics have observed, that handling is less than fasting; and the touch not $(\mu n \alpha \psi n)$ iometimes fignifies next verse shews that they entirely recat not; and io the gradation of these late to meats that perifb with the using. Jewifh prohibitions is very clear and (See Billiop Lavenant and Mr. Pierce doctrines of men?

Colossians paraphrafed.

23 Which things have indeed a fhew of wildom in willworship and humility, and neglecting of the hody, not in any honour to the fatisfying of the flefh.

commandments & and fo cannot defile the foul. (Mat. xi. 15, 17.) And if, ye being now dead with Chrift to the formerly divine ordinances about these things, (ver. 20.) they ought not to be enjoined, or observed, on the foot of buman authority, how much lefs ought your confciences to be imposed upon in things that neither have, nor ever had any foundation in the word of God; but, like the worshipping of angels, bc. (ver. 18.) are merely human inventions, enforced upon you by the arbitrary will and dictates of men ?

23 Thefe their commandments and doctrines are indeed added to those of the abolished Molaic law, under the specious appearances of human wildom, in contriving means of paying redundant honour to God, by fuperfitious worship and fervices, as free will-offerings of our own, beyond all that he had preferibed or required; and in expressions of extraordinary humility; (ver. 18.) as also in mortifications of the body by uninflituted acts of felf-denial, and not fhewing any effeem of those things that might gratify and refresh animal nature : Whereas, in reality, all this pretended shew of wildom, humility, and mortifications, has nothing worthy in itfelf, or truly honourable to God; but is only fuited to cultivate and please the false taste of men of corrupt minds.

RECOLLECTIONS.

How affectionate are Chrift's fervants to his people, whether they be perfonally acquainted with them, or not! And how folicitous for their union, comfort, and increale in the knowledge of God, and of his Son Jelus Chrift ! How delighted in reflections on their faith and order! And how concerned that, as they have received Chrift in all his offices, they may walk in him, with ftedfastness of faith, love, and obedience, and with gratitude and praife, according to what they have learned and received from him ! And O how glorious is our Lord in his divine nature, as poffeffed of all the fulness of the Godhead, and in his human nature and office-capacity, as enriched with all the treafures of wildom and knowledge, for executing the high and important truft committed to him ! Believers cannot but be complete in him, whole divine and mediatorial-characters are fo great and excellent, who is the Head of dominion over all the holy and fallen angels, and the Head of reprefentation, government, and influence to the church; all the members of which are clofely united to him and one another, and derive all supplies of grace and spiritual nourifiment from him, in fuch ways of union and communication, as are answera-ble to those of the natural body. They are quickened by his Spirit from their former death in fin; are forgiven all trespasses, and made conformable to his death and refurrection, according to the meaning and obligation of their baptism, which comes in the room of circumcifion, and is to be applied to the fame fort of fubjects; and they are delivered from all obligations of the ceremonial and moral law too, as a covenant of works, and from its curfe, which, for failure of obedience to its precepts, ftood against them. But, bleffed be God, the whole frame of legal ordinances, that one way of other testified against them, is now demolished by the cross of Chrift, who is the fubftance of its fhadows, as they are fulfilled in him; and has taken away its curfe, as bore by him; and who, hy means of his own death, has entirely fubdued, difarmed, and publicly triumphed over all the devils in hell. as his captives in chains. What therefore have believers to do any more with Yewif abolished meats and drinks, or their solemn feasts and seventh-day sabbath. or their ceremonial rites of any kind? How much lefs ought they to fall in with human inventions and injunctions, relating to the worfhip of God ! How careful fhould thould they be, never to pay religious homage to him by the mediation of faints or an (els., to the difparagement and rejection of Christ, as their only Head and Advocate, or in any way that he has not preferibed in his word! They are dead with him to all thefe things; and whatever pretences there may be of wildom, humility, and mortification of the body, in them, Let none deceive us by enticing words, nor condemn us for neglecting them; nor lead us out of the way to eternal life, by drawing us into an observation of them. They are all will-worthip, of men's own devifug, to foothe the pride and carnal temper of those that would be wife above what is written, and pry into things that they know nothing of. They are works of fuperorogation and fuperfittion, that bring no homour to God, whatfoever is pretended by men. May we therefore keep fait hold by faith on Christ, and ftedfaftly adhere to him, as our Head, and abide by his infituitions, and never fubmit our conficiences to the ordinances, doctrines, and commandments of men :

C H A P. III.

The apoAle exhorts the Coloffians to be heavenly minded, as those that are risen with Christ, 1,-4. to mortify all corrupt affections, as those that are renewed after the image of God, 5,-11. to cultivate mutual love, forhearance, and forgiveness, with other evangelical graces, 12,-17. and to practife the relative duties of wives and hubbands, children, parents, and fervants, 13,-25.

TEXT.

70

IF ye then be rifen with Chrift, feek thofe things which are above, where Chrift fitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

PARAPHRASE.

E, as I truft, according to your profession, ye be indeed rifen from the death of fin to the life of righteoufnefs, through the faith of the operation of God, (chap. ii. 12) together with, in conformity to, and by the quickening virtue of a rifen Saviour, fhew that ye are fo, by the elevated temper, and outgoings of your hearts, as afpiring upwards in your meditations and views, inquiries and earnest purfuits, by prayer, and all other ordinances of divine appointment, after realizing, clear, and enlarged experiences and affurances of the durable, fubitantial, and fatisfying things, that relate to a future world of all delights, that lies far above all visible heavens, (Epbef. iv. 10.) where Jefus, your afcended Head in human nature is; and becaufe he is there exalted in all his majefty and authority, dignity and glory, bleffednefs, reft, and fafety, as thefe are metaphorically fignified by his fitting at the right hand of God the Father, (fee the note on Acts vii. 55.) to fecure your beft and eternal interefts, by making continual interceffion, and preparing a place for you, that where he is, there ye may be alfo, to behold his glory. (John xiv. 3. and xvii. 24.)

2 Let all your affections of defire and hope, love and delight, be fupremely fixed, like fpiritually minded men, (Rom. viii. 5.) with relifh and favour, (φ_{go vurs) upon those excellent things, that belong to, and are transacted in that upper flate, which far fur-

país

pass all our thoughts; and not upon the empty, uncertain, perifhing, and defiling pleasures and enjoyments of this world; nor upon the ceremonial rudiments of it, which are as much below the worth and dignity of these fublime felicities, as the earth is inferior to heaven: And it is highly fit that ye, as Chrittians, should seek aster, and set your affections on heavenly things.

3 For ye are, by profession and obligation, and all true believers among you are, by communion with Chrift in his death, really dead in your hearts and affections, as to the Molaic law, and crucified, with him, to fin and the world, (Rom. vi. 2, 6. and Gal. vi. 14.) fo as not to feek your portion, and place your happiness in earthly things : And all the entertainments and enjoyments of your spiritual life are maintained, and carried on, in fecret transactions between God and your own fouls here, till they shall be perfected in an eternal life of all bleffednefs and glory hereafter, by virtue of your mystical union with Chrift your Head, who himfelf is effentially united with God the Father, as he is in the Son, and the Son in the Father, (John xiv. 11. and xvii. 21.; fee the notes there.) The things of this heavenly life are out of fight, they being hid, as much as Chrift himfelf now is, from an eye of fense, and from the conceptions of a carnal mind; and after all that believers themfelves experience of them, they know not what they /ball be; (I John iii. 2.) and they are the most excellent things, that are fecurely treasured p. with Chrift, in the fecret purposes, and in the immediate prefence of God the Father, as a fafe and precious referve for you, ready to be revealed in the last times. (1 Pet. i. 4, 5.)

4 When Chrift, who lives in us, (Gal. ii. 20.) and is the purchafer, author, fultainer, and finifier, and the fcope and end of our fpiritual life, fhall appear, as the Judge of the whole world, in his own glory, and in the glory of his Father, and of all the holy angels; (Luke ix. 26.) then ye alfo, who are quickened by his Spirit, fhall be glorified with him, and fhine forth, in foul and body, with a glory refembling that in which he himfelf will be manifefted as your Head and Saviour. (Pbil. iii. 21.)

5 In profpect therefore of this bleffed day, and in reflection on the fpirituality, purity, and fublime happinefs ye shall then enjoy, as those that are risen with Chrift, and dead to fin, and the pleasures of this world, labour, through the Spirit, to mortify the deeds of the body, (Rom. viii. 13.) that ye may daily subdue them more and more, (vergeowers) till ye have entirely L

3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Chrift in God.

4 When Chrift, who/is our life, thall appear, then thall ye also appear with him in glory.

5 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; forninefs, inordinate affection, evil concupifcence, Voi. V.

cupifence, and covetoufnefs, which is idolatry: flain all the remainders of your carnal inclinations to iniquitous and earthly things; which may be confidered as fo many members of the old man, the body of fin, that execute its defigns about earthly things, and are influenced, and exert themfelves, by the members of the natural body, (fee the note on Rom. vi. 13.) while ye continue in this imperfect state upon earth. To inftance in fome particulars, that are a shame to the Christian character, exert your holy principles, under divine influence, to gain an abfolute conquest over all forts of unlawful embraces, whether in the fingle or married life; (fee the note on I Cor. v. 1.) all impurity in thought, word, or deed; all propensions to any fin, and particularly that of unchaftity; all the first motions to it in heart; and all exceffive defire after the enjoyments of this world, which is fpiritual idolatry, as it fets the creature in the place of, or at leaft in a competition with God himfelf, and draws the heart, and its truft and confidence, off from him to them.

6 All thefe, and every thing of a like finful nature, are to be abandoned and abhorred, as defiling and provoking evils, on account of, and for the punifhment of which, the juftice of God breaks forth in executions of his terrible indignation, fometimes in this world, and certainly in the next, on the refractory fons ($\alpha\pi u \Im u \alpha_s$) of infidelity, and difobedience to his commands.

7 In which finful courfes ye yourfclues formerly went on, with indulgence and choice, in the days of your unbelief and unregeneracy; when, while dead toward God, ye lived in the love and practice of them, committing all iniquity with greedinefs.

8 But now ye, as Christians renewed by grace. ought to have no further fellowship with these deeds of darkness; the time past of your life should suffice to have wrought the will of the Gentiles: (I Pet. iv. 2.) And together with these fleshly corruptions, ye ought to difcard and utterly renounce all the following fins, that most immediately deprave the foul; fuch as caufelefs and intemperate anger; and furious paffion, which is the height of anger; and a malicious revengeful fpirit, which is worft of all: Ye ought alfo to avoid all manner of language that difcovers a bad difposition of heart; fuch as speaking reproachfully of God and facred things, and fpeaking evil of others, (Eph. iv. 31.) to blaft their name, reputation, and ulefulnefs, or to be any way injurious to them; and ye should abstain from all immodest expressions, which tend to defile your own, or others minds.

6 For which things take, the wrath of God cometh on the children of difobedience.

7 In the which ve also walked fometime, when ye lived in them.

8 But now ye alfo put off all thefe; anger. wrath, malice. blatphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

72

COLOSSIANS parapbrased.

9 Lie not one to another, feeing tr that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; in minds, that nothing of this kind may ever proceed out of your lips.

o Take heed also of ever speaking any thing contrary to truth, with a defign of deceiving one another, which would be to imitate, and act under the influence of the father of lies, (John viii. 44.) and is inconfistent with your holy character, privileges, and obligations; fince, according to your profession, ye, as I truft, have fincerely and abfolutely caft off, and renounced the body of fin, with all its pernicious and defiling practices, which may be confidered as the old man, that is as ancient as your beings, and works with fubtilty in you; but which is now in a decaying state, and will foon expire, like a man of decrepid old age, that is daily declining in his ftrength, and haftening to the grave : (fee the paraphrafe on Rom. vi. 6. and Epb. iv. 22.) It is a shameful, selfcontradictious thing for you, who, as members of Chrift, bave crucified the flefh with its affections and lufts, (Gal. v. 24.) to give way to any of these abominations.

10 And it is much more fo, as by a work of heartchanging grace ye have affumed, and as it were clothed yourfelves with, the holy qualities, and beautiful ornaments of the new creature; which is a reftoration to the divine likenefs, and confifts of fpiritual light and knowledge, in the renewing of your minds, as well as of righteoufnefs and true holinefs, in the renewing of your hearts and lives, (Eph. iv. 23, 24.)according to the pure and fpotlefs image of God, or of Chrift, who at first created man after his own likenefs, which was defaced by the fall; but in which he anew creates him, by fupernatural grace, as God's workman/bip in Chrift Je/u., (Eph. ii. 10.) and in conformity to him. (Rom. viii. 29.)

11 In which new creation, and the benefits of it, there is no partial refpcct to perfons, on account of any external privileges, or the want of them; not to the Gentiles, the moft polite of which are the Greeks; nor to the Jews; no, nor to the moft learned among them; not to them that have been circumcifed in the flefh, and glory in it; nor to them, whom they difdain for their being uncircumcifed; nor to the more rude and barbarous nations among the Gentiles; no, not to the moft favage of them all, like those that dwell in the uncultivated region of Scythia *; nor

* Scythia was a vaft country, that firicits; and the Scythians were an exlay with great extent both in Afia and ceeding brutifh, favage fort of people, a Europe, and was divided into feveral large account of whom, and of Scythia, parts in the Afiatic and European di- may be feen under this word, in Collier's great to And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge, after the image of him that created him:

It Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcifion nor uncircumcifion, barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Chrift is all, and in all.

to

to masters or servants, free-men or flaves : But as to perions of all these external characters, without regarding or difregarding them, for the fake of any fuch diffinctions, Chrift is their all who believe in him : He is all in the whole of their falvation ; and they are complete in bim: (chap. ii. 10.) He is all in all their hopes and confidences, effeem and comforts; in all their privileges and enjoyments; and in all their acceptance with God, prefervation and fecurity for eternal life; and he is all in the effectual workings of his Spirit in them all: So that nothing is to be regarded by any of them, in point of faving advantage, but Chrift ; and nothing will stand them in stead, but an interest in him, who of God is made unto them wildom, righteoulnels, fanclification, and redemption, that no flefb might glory in bis prefence, but be that glorieth, might glory in the Lord. (1 Cor. i. 29, 30, 31.)

12 In an entire dependence therefore on Chrift, as

12 Put on therefore, as the elect those whom God hash chosen in him before the founof God, holy and dation of the world, that ye fould be boly, and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindnels, humbleneis of mind. meeknefs, long-fuffering;

without blame before him in love; (Eph. i. 4.) whom he hath accordingly formed unto holinefs, and regards as the objects of his fpecial love ; let it be your great concern and endeavour, that, inftead of the works of the flefh, which ye are to put off, (ver. 8.) ye may affume the practice of, and, as it were, clothe yourlelves with the tendereft compaffion toward the milerable and diftreffed, in imitation of your heavenly Father, who is eminently merciful, (Luke vi. 36.) with a generous, friendly and benevolent temper and behaviour towards one another, and towards all men; (Gal. vi. 10.) with modeft thoughts of yourfelves, and condefcenfion to perfons of low degree ; with gentlenefs, mildnefs, and candour, towards all ye have to do with, as learning of our great Lord, who was meek and lowly in heari; (Mat. xi. 29.) and with perfevering patience under repeated and long-continued provocations, in confideration of God's long-fuffering toward you.

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel againt

Δ.

13 Let all this be attended with a bearing and forbearing spirit, one towards another, (Eph. iv. 2.) under various infirmities; and with a mutually forgiving temper in cafe of offences: So that if there be any one, that thinks himfelf to be injured by, or

NOTE.

the Gentiles, the paraphrate has taken among both. in a view of the different ranks of all na-

great historical dictionary: And as the tions among the Gentiles, as well as of Greeks were the most learned and polite, the general diffinction of them from the and the Scythians the most barbarous of Jews, and the different ranks of people to

L

s ti

R, an,

Ċ,

22 16

;1

k,

65 ić

5 1

h

1

2

k

ÿ

ŝ

¢

α,

1 ġ

íć.

ż

ŝ

ŝ

ċ

ŷ

į

Ļ

1 í

í

to have matter of complaint against, one or another gainit any: even as Chrift forgave you, fo alfo do ye.

14 And above on charity.

all thefe things,

which is the bond

15 And let the peace of God rule

in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.

of perfectneis.

put

of his brethren; as ye hope and profes, that Christ, in the greatness of his love, and at the expence of his own blood, hath freely and fully pardoned all your trefpaffes, which are infinitely greater than any that can be committed against you : Even fo, in imitation of, and influenced by the riches of his grace, and in obedience unto his awful injunctions, (Mat. vi. 12, 14, 15.) be ye ready to forgive one another those comparatively fmall offences that any may have given you.

14 And let it be your principal care to put on brotherly Christian love, like an upper garment *, to fpread over, and add a beauteous luttre to all thefe graces; even that love, which, in its principle, tendency, and defign, is the fulfilling of the law, (Rom. xiii. 10.) and is the nobleft bond of union and peace. (Epb. iv. 3.) to keep every other grace in its regular exercile, and to kuit all the members of Chrift together in the most percet harmony, till the whole myttical body shall grow up in all things to its perfect stature in him. (Eph. iv. 11,-15.)

15 And for the better cultivating this brotherly love, lee to it, that a lenie of your being in a flate of friendship with God, through Jelus Christ, which is a peace that paffeth all understanding, (Phil. iv. 7.) engage you to the love and practice of that excellent peace and concord among yourselves, which God is the author and approver of, and enjoins + : Let this peace, in both these views, enthrone itself, and have the governing fway in your hearts; (us m) into which happy state of peace with God, and one another, ye are called by the grace of the gofpel, as all of you together, whether Jews or Gentiles, are one body of Chrift, and members in particular: (I Cor. xii. 27.) And, in reflection on this, let all the powers of your fouls unite in gratitude and praife to the God of fuch a wonderful mercy.

16 Let the word of Chrift dwell in you richly in all wildom; teaching and

16 In order to your being eftablished in an abiding fenfe of this peace with God, and in this harmony with your Chriftian-brethren, and indeed in every grace before-mentioned; let the whole word of God. which

NOTES.

Jois) may as well be rendered over all vers have with God: But as peace one thefe, meaning the virtues or graces be- with another ieems most agreeable to fore mentioned; and both fenies are at- the general icope of this context, I think tended to in the paraphrafe.

was wrote about the fame time with this fluence to promote peace among fellowepiftle, and is the only place befides, Christians, I ice no impropriety in fupwhere this phrase, the peace of God, is poling, that the apostle might compreuled, we are led to understand it here, hend them both.

And above all things (141 xao. St rou- as well as there, of the peace that belieit ought not to be excluded; and as a † As the peace of God is faid to pass fense of peace with God is the best foun-all understanding, in Phil. iv. 7. which dation of, and has the most powerful inand another in one plaims, and hymns, and fpiritual fongs. finging with grace the Lord.

Chap. iii.

17 And whatfoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jelus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 Wives, fubmit yourfelves unto your own hafbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

admonishing which Chrift is the author of, as it was indited by his Spirit; (1 Pet. i. 11.) and particularly let the gospel, of which he is not only the author, but also the main fubject, (Rom. i. 3.) have a permanent and predoin your hearts to minant refidence, not in your heads only, but in your hearts, with all the riches of fpiritual knowledge and understanding, that are to be derived from it, for making a wife and proper ufe of its various parts on all occasions, to the glory of God, your direction in the way of duty, and edification unto complete falvation; and for living abundantly under the power of it : And be ye mutually helpful in inftructing and exciting one another to blefs and praife the Lord, as by all other means in public or private; fo particularly in the ordinance of finging with the voice together, (Ifa. lii. 8.) and thereby celebrating the honours of his name in facred poefy; fome compositions of which may be flyled pfolms, others bymns, and other (piritual longs; which God has provided for the use of his church in his word, and in occafional productions of infpired prophets, under an immediate afflatus of the Spirit: (fee the note on Epb. v. 19.) And which ever of these ye may join in, it ought to be, not only with a graceful harmonious voice, but with fpiritual affections, and an exercise of fuitable graces in your hearts towards our Lord Jefus Chrift, and God in him, which is the best of all melody; the fweetest to your own fouls, and most acceptable to him.

17 And in all cafes, as well as these, whatsoever ye engage in, whether in difcourfe or behaviour, in public or private, relating to the civil or religious life, let it be with a confcientious regard to the authority and command of the Lord Jefus Chrift, with an humble dependence on him for all direction, affiftance and acceptance, and with an eye to his, together with his Father's glory; and let it be attended with thankfgivings always for all things, (Eph. v. 20.) to God, even his Father and your Father in him, as the great Mediator, on whofe account all bleffings come to you; and therefore through whom all thank-offerings for what ye have received, as well as all prayers for what ye need, are to be prefented to God, that they may be well-pleafing in his fight: (Heb. xiii. 15, 16. and 1 Pet. ii. 5.) These are duties that belong to you all in common; but there are others, that are peculiar to your different civil ftations.

/ 18 As Chriftian religion does not diffolve, but ftrengthens moral obligations to relative duties, which the law of nature requires, whether it be toward believers or unbelievers, or toward Jewish or Gentile to Hufbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

77

20 Children, obey your parents in all things : for this is well-pleafing unto the Lord.

21 Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, left they be discouraged.

Gentile converts, that may have different fentiments as to fome religious principles and practices; fo believing women among you, that are in a married state, ought to behave in a meek and fubmiffive manner toward their own lawful hufbands, as far as they can do it with a fafe confcience, and as is confiftent with their fuperior relation to the Lord Jefus, and becoming their Christian character. (See the note on Eph. v. 21.)

10 On the other hand, those of you that bear the relation of hufbands, ought to treat your wives with all tenderness, kindness, and affection; to delight in their company, and do all that in you lies for their temporal and fpiritual eale, comfort, and happinefs; and not to exercife a fevere and arbitrary lordship over them, or break out into furious and paffionate expreffions against them, or use them ill by words or. blows, or go about to lay any hardfhips upon them, that would be grievous to them.

20 Let those of you, who are fons or daughters, remember that your natural obligations remain in full force to your parents, whether fathers or mothers, Jews or Gentiles, Christians or heathens; and ye ought accordingly to make confcience of paying all filial duty to them, in obedience to their just and reafonable commands in every thing that is lawful for parents to enjoin, and for children to do *: For this is agreeable to the will of Chrift, and acceptable to God through him.

21 On the other fide, it ought to be the confcientious and tender care of those of you that are parents, whether fathers or mothers, (fee the note on Eph. vi. 4.) that ye fludy the tempers of your children, and endeavour to establish your authority over them, and allure them to their duty, by prudent, kind, and ' gentle methods, and never four their minds by furious or opprobrious language, or by unreafonable impositions, nor unmerciful corrections, to irritate their angry paffions: Take heed of all fuch harfh treatment, (wa pan advuwoi) that their fpirits may not be broke.

TE

In all things must be understood here, with regard to children, and ver. 22. with regard to fervants. under a limitation to all lawful things: For it could not be the duty of Christian children, or fervants, to obey their heathen parents, or mafters, were they to command them to renounce their faith in Chrift, and profession of his name, and to worship idols, or commit any other iniquity; nor could it be the duty of those approve of in religion. that were led into the liberty of the gol-

pel, to obey their parents, or masters, in cate they fhould command them to obferve the rites and ceremonies of the Mofaic law: And therefore as wives are to submit themselves to their husbands. only fo far as is fit in the Lord, ver. 18. fo fervants are to obey their mafters according to the flesh, ver. 22. only in things that relate to the body and civil concerns, or that their own confciences broke, and they difheartened, and filled with prejudice both againft yourfelves and againft the gofpel, which ye profefs, but are far from recommending by fuch an ill temper and behaviour toward them.

22 As to those of you that are fervants, or even bond flaves, whether to Christians or heathens, that are your lawful mafters in things pertaining to the body and temporal affairs, ye ought to be very diligent and faithful in executing the trufts, and doing the bufinels they commit to you, and in making their intereft your own, and fulfilling all their commands, as far as they do not interfere with your duty toward your higher Master in heaven, relating to the concerns of religion, and of your own fouls; (fee the note on ver. 20.) and ye ought chearfully to attend to their fervice, not merely while ye are under their eye, as perfons that feek only to approve yourfelves to men, and gain their favour; but in the fincerity of your hearts at all times, as in the fight and prefence of the all-feeing God, and as perfons that act from a principle of conficience towards him, and are most of all concerned to be approved of him in all your ways, and to do nothing that is offenfive to him. whether any one elfe be prefent to obferve you or not.

23 And whatever fervice ye are called to engage in, it ought to be, not merely by conftraint, much lefs with grudging or reluctance; but with a willing and ready mind, from a fenfe of duty toward the Lord Jefus, in obedience to his commands, and for his honour and glory, as ye are profeffors of his name; and not from a felfifh mercenary fpirit, that aims at only pleafing men.

24 To excite and encourage you to all chearfulnels and fidelity herein, ye ought to be firmly perfuaded, and ferioufly to confider, that whatfoever ill treatment and unrighteous returns ye may meet with, instead of a suitable reward from your masters on earth, ye shall receive a gracious reward of the heavenly inheritance from the Lord, the great Judge of all, at the last day; and fo ye (though fervants) shall be dealt with as sons and heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ: For in doing your duty to earthly mafters, ye really pay honour and fervice to the Lord Jesus himself, who is the best of all mafters, whose providence has placed you in that flate of fervitude, and whole word requires a becoming behaviour answerable to it, that ye may adorn the doctrine of God your Saviour in all things. (Tit. ii. 10.)

25 But he that doeth wrong, shall receive

25 But he that is guilty of any injuffice, whether as a fervant, in neglecting his mafter's bufinels, or purloining

23 And whatfoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

44 Knowing, that of the Lord ye fhall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye ferve the Lord Chrift.

78

22 Servants, obey in all things

your matters, according to the fleth; not with eyefervice, as men-pleasers, but in fingleneis of heart, fearing God :

ċ,

COLOSSIANS paraphrafed.

79 receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

the purloining his goods; or, as a mafter, in rendering be evil for good, or with holding what is due to his fervant, fhall receive a juft and impartial recompence of reward for all his iniquitous doings: (Heb. ii. 2.) For in the judgment of the great day, our bleffed Lord will not be biaffed by any external circumftances. nor make any difference between mafters and fervants, bond or free, in favour of one, or in prejudice to the other, on account of the different relations they bear one to another in this world; but he will pafs a righteous fentence upon all, according to the evidence that fhall arife for or againit them, from their moral and religious characters, what[oever their civil ftation has been upon earth. (See the note on $E_{\rho b}$, vi. 8.)

RECOLLECTIONS.

With what elevation of foul fhould they, that are rifen with Chrift, follow their afcended Saviour from earth to his exalted fate in heaven, where he lives for them, and is the fource and fecurity of fpiritual life to them, and will at length give them an illustrious appearance with himfelf, in all possible glory ! He has already made a happy change upon them, who were once dijobedient, and lived and walked in fuch a finful courfe, as exposed them to divine wrath; but, by the efficacy of regenerating grace, they have now difcarded the whole body of fin. with all its members; and have affumed a new form in knowledge and righteouinefs according to the holy image of God, in which he at first created man O bleffed dispensation of gospel-grace, in which believing Jews and Gentiles, and people of all ranks in outward privileges and worldly circumftances, are one body, and equally partakers of all (piritual bleffings in Chrift, who is all in the whole of their falvation that are the chofen and beloved of God ! How powerful and engaging are their obligations to mortify every finful propension of body and mind; to lay afide all wrathful dispositions of heart, and all blasphemous, unseemly, false, and deceitful expressions of the lips; to be clothed with the tenderest compassion and humility, patience and forbearance one towards another; and to be of a forgiving fpirit to those that have offended them, in imitation of, and as influenced by, the infinitely greater forgiveness that Chrift has extended to themselves! And O with what beauty, harmony, and union, would Christians shine, were they to cultivate mutual love, and fludy the things that make for peace. under a governing fenfe of . God's being reconciled to them ; and were their hearts enlarged in gratitude and praise, and enriched with all spiritual wildom, and every grace, for their own and others edification, in finging the honours of Chrift's name, and in adorning their holy profession, by doing every thing, in word and deed, with a dependence on him, and in obedience to his authority over them ! This is the best way of Inewing forth their thankfulnels to God the Father, through Jelus Chrift, for all the benefits he has beftowed upon them. And as ever they would acquit them-felves with bonour to their holy profession, they should make conscience of fulfilling the natural and civil duties of their various relations in the prefent life. Wives thould behave with due fubjection to their hufbands in all things that are fit and proper for them, as members of Chrift : And hufbands should be affectionately tender toward their wives, and labour against every thing that might make them uncomfortable. Children ought readily to obey their parents in all their lawful commands, as ever they would fulfil their duty toward them according to the will of God: And parents fhould take heed of difcouraging their children by any fevere treatment of them. Servants, confidering them elves as continually under God's eye; fhould always attend to their mafter's bufigets, with as much chearfulnets and fidelity in their absence, as in their prefence; and fhould do every thing from a principle of religion, as being defirous of pleafing God, rather than men; and as being affured, that, in doing the duty of their flations, they ferve the Lord Chrift, and that he will graciously honour them with the reward of an eternal inheritance. Vol. V. And $\cdot \mathbf{M}$

· · ·

And O what an awful check would it be upon all iniquity, were we to confider, that the righteous Judge of all, who has no respect to any one's outward condition in this world, will most certainly render vengeance to them that practife unrighteous dealings with others !

H .A P. IV. С

The apolle exborts mallers to do their duty toward fervants, t. Recommends to perfons of all ranks the general duties of perfeverance in prayer, and Christian prudence in behaviour and speech, 2,-6. Refers them to Tychicus and Onefimus, for an account of the flate of his affairs, 7,-9. Sends falutations from feveral by name, together with his own; and, adding a charge to Archippus; concludes with his usual benediction, 10,-18.

TEXT.

MASTERS, give unto your fervants that which is just and equal, knowing that ye alto have a Mafter in heaven.

Paraphrase.

S Chriftian fervants ought to be obedient to their masters in all lawful things, (chap. iii. 24. *) fo those of you that stand in the relation of masters, ought not to think yourfelves lawlefs, or at liberty to treat any of your fervants in an arbitrary tyrannical way; no, not even fuch as may be flaves and heathens ; but ye should deal justly and equitably with them, in taking good care of them, not with-holding their wages, or any proper provisions, according to their wants, and your contracts with them; (Jam. v. 4.) nor ought ye to lay any more burdens, or harder fervices upon them, than they are well able to bear; nor to be fevere in your threatnings and punifhments, beyond their deferts; nor backward to give fuitable encouragements to fidelity in your fervice; as ferioufly confidering that ye yourfelves, as well as they, are under the command of, and accountable to your great Lord and Mafter in heaven, who continually obferves you, and is infinitely more above you, than any of you can be above the meaneft of them; and will deal with you in the great day according to your dealings with them. (Chap. iii. 25.)

2 Continue in prayer, and watch in the fame with thankigiving:

2 To proceed to the duties that are incumbent, not only on masters, but upon you al; Whatfoever be your relations in life +, ye ought to be constant, as fervants.

NOTES

* * As this verfe concludes the exhort- in connection with the preceding verfe, ations to relatived uties, it might have which speaks of masters giving to their been much better joined to the third, fervants that which is just and equal, it than made the beginning of the fourth intimates that one part of the duty of chapter. And then the last verse of the Christian masters is to pray daily with, third chapter would the more eafily be and for their fervants; and to be concernconfidered as referring to ma/ters, as well ed for, and do what in them lies to take care of their fouls, as well as bodies, and † If continue in prayer be confidered to bring them into a compliance with a holy at fet feafons, in daily prayer to the God of all grace, in the name of Chrift, and by the affiftance of his Spirit, for perfonal and relative, public and private, temporal and fpiritual bleffings, whether in the clofet, family, or religious affemblies, as there may be opportunity; and to watch for all fpecial calls of Providence, and needful affiftances from above, that ye may be continually ready to engage in this duty, and perfevere in it, though ye may not immediately fee the answers of your prayers : Ye should also watch against all hindrances, that would interfere with this duty, and against all deadness in your own spirits, that there may be no indifference, trifling, or wanderings in performing it : And always take care that, with supplications for the mercies ye need, grateful praifes and chearful thankfgivings to God be joined. for what he has favoured you with, relating to this world, and that which is to come. (Phil. iv. 6.)

3 And in all your addreffes to the throne of grace, I earneftly befeech you to be in a fpecial manner mindful of me and Timothy, (chap. i. 1.) and other brethren that labour with us in the word and doctrine; praying that God would give us opportunity, and enable us, with liberty of fpirit and expression, and with faith and boldnefs, to lay open the deep things of God, and preach the unfearchable riches of Christ among the Gentiles, (Ephef. iii. 8.) for the doing of which I am, even now, a prifoner in bonds.

4 I beg your prayers particularly for me, in my prefent confined and afflicted circumstances, that, as far as Providence shall favour me with opportunities for it, I may be eminently affilted in fetting forth the Redeemer's glory, and the whole counfel of God, in fuch a free, extensive, plain, and open manner, and with fuch a frame of spirit as becomes me, and as the duty of my office and the importance of the fubject call for.

5 As to your own behaviour in the world, fee that the whole of your conversation be managed with all circumspection, and Christian prudence, towards unbelievers, and all that are without the pale of the visible church, that ye may not be defiled by them; but may be useful and exemplary to them, and win upon them, and never give them any occasion to think, or fpeak evil of the doctrines and ways of the Lord : And, in this manner, labour to improve every holyrefolution, like that of Joshua, (chap. clude masters, and all other professing xxiv 15.) As for me, and my bouse, we Christians, whatever their civil stations will ferve the Lord. However, this and be in the world. the following exhortations, certainly in-

M 2 ΝΟΤΕ.

Digitized by Google

3 Withal, praying alio for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am alfo in bonds:

That I may make it manifest, as I ought to fpeak.

5 Walk in wif-dom toward them that are without, redeeming . the time.

Chap. iv.

ry opportunity of filling up the duties of your refpective flations; of doing good to your very enemies, and of preventing fuch offences, as might provoke them to raile perfecutions against you, and thereby shorten your days, or cut you off from further services to Chrift and his caufe. (See Ephef. v. 15, 16.)

6 With the like important views, take heed that your difcourfe, on all occafions, be as becomes perfons whofe hearts are feafoned with grace, and whofe language tends to recommend the grace of God, and promote a gracious fpirit in others; and fo is preferved from corruption, (as meat is kept wholefome, and free from putrefaction, by the falt that cures and feafons it, and makes it favoury) that ye may know how to give a good account of the reafon of the hope that is in you, with modefty, meeknefs, and wifdom; (1 Pet. iii. 15.) and how to answer scrupulous doubts, and ferious inquiries on one hand, and perverfe cavillings and captious objections, on the other, with respect to points of Christian faith, duty, and experience, to every one that would propole any proper queftion to you about them.

7 As to what concerns myfelf, and the fituation of my affairs, both with respect to outward circumflances, and inward fupports and refreshments, which I know ye would be glad to hear of, I have ordered Tychicus, who brings this epiftle, to relate them to you at large, by word of mouth; and ye may depend upon the account he will give you of them; he being a dearly beloved brother in the faith and fellowfhip of the gospel, and a confcientious, faithful minifter of Chrift, and diligent fellow-labourer with me in the work of the Lord.

-8 And, being as defirous to know how matters ftand with you, as ye can be to hear how it fares with me, I have fent him with a fpecial defign, that he may get a thorough infight into the flate of your religious concerns, in order to his reporting it to me; and that he may administer relief and comfort to you, under all your trials, both by good counfel, and by acquainting you with the remarkable appearances of God's flanding by me, and with the fuccefs of my preaching the gofpel, even in my bonds.

9 For which purpofe, I have also joined with him Onefimu's, who, whatfoever he formerly were, is now, through the wonderful power of divine grace, become a fincere and dearly beloved brother in Chrift *;

N O TE.

* Onefimus was that runagate that to Rome, was converted by the apofile had eloped from his mafter Philemon, Paul there. (See for an account of him and purloined his goods; but, ftraying in the epiftle to Philemon, with the pa-

raphrafe

Digitized by Google

and

Let vour fpeech be alway with grace, feafored with falt, that we may know how ye ought to aniwer every man.

7 All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, nebo is a beloved brother. and а faithful minifler. and fellow-fervant in the Lord :

S Whom I have fent unto you for the fame purpole. that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts:

9 With Onefimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you.

They

Г,

R

ĽÖ.

dł,

.3 5-

Ļ

۱...

2

1

1

i¢,

3 ĵ

c

ľ

5

They fhall make known unto you all things which are done here.

and who, being one of your own city, and now a real convert, may be the more welcome, and acceptable to you. These two faithful brethren will give you a just and particular account of every thing that passes here at Kome, and in this neighbourhood, relating to my fufferings, and fupports, and behaviour, under them, and to what God is still doing by, and for me.

10 Aristarchus my fellow-priforer faluteth you, and Marcus, fitter's fon to Barnabas, (touching whom ye received com mandments; if he come unto you, receive him;)

ti And Jefus, which is called Justus, who are of the circumci-Thefe only fion. my fellow. are workers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me.

10 Ariflarchus the Macedonian, who was exposed to great danger for my fake, (Acts xix. 29.) and is now a prifoner with me at Rome, defires to be affectionately remembered to you all, (fee the note on Kom. xvi. 3.) as doth John Ma k, nephew to Barnabas, my old friend and colleague in apoftolic labours : (Act , xiii. 2, 3, 4, Gc.) And if this his near kiniman should come to Coloffe, * I defire that ye would receive him in the most friendly manner, and treat him with all Christian respect and kindness, according to the recommendations ye have already had, and are now given of him, as worthy of it.

II Another of my fellow-labourers also, who goes by two names, one of which in Greek is Je/us, which answers to that of Joshua in Hebrew, and the other in Latin is Juffus, fignifying Juff. This upright man joins with the other two in Christian falutations. All thefe, though Jewi/k converts, bear the fincereft respect to you, without the least prejudice against any of you, on account of your being Gentile-believers; + and they are the only ministers of that denomination, that are with me, and have joined their labours with mine, during my confinement, in helping forward the work of the Lord, by preaching the tame gofpel with mytelf, unto the propagation and enlargement of the kingdom of grace, which God has fet up, under the gospel dispensation, in this world, in order to its being perfected in all its felicities, and glories, in the world to come. These have been of great use and comfort to me by this means, as well as by their agreeable company, and various affiftances and reliefs under all my fufferings for Chrift.

12 To

Digitized by Google

NOTES. by this time, was a member of that his name. church; and others, that he was employed in the work of the ministry.

* Mark had before this time regained their falutations, and are faid to be the an interest in the apostle's affection and only fellow-workers of the Yewi/b fort, confidence notwithstanding the great and a comfort to the apostle Paul 'Lis dipleafure he formerly had against him, therefore certain that either Peter was for leaving him and Barnabas at Pam- not then at Rome, or that he acted very philia ; (Acts xv. 38, 39.) which fhews unworthy of his character. the excellence of the apostle's forgiving raphrafe and notes upon it.) He was of fpirit. This Mark is supposed to have the city of Coloffe, and some think he, been the writer of the gospel that bears

> + The apoftle Peter is not mentioned with those of the circumcifion, that lent

Epaphras, 12 who is one of you, a tervant of Chrift, faluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may itand perfect and complete in all the will of God.

12 To these I must add fome others of the Gentile fort, to whom ye are very dear; as particularly Epaphias, who is not only a Gentile convert, but one of your own city, much devoted to your fervice, and a faithful minister of Jesus Christ, (see the note on Phil. ii. 25.) lends his fincere respects to you ; and fhews how much he has you upon his heart, by his constantly remembring you at the throne of grace, and labouring with great earneitness and tervour, as it were to an agony, (ayon (openos) in his wrettlings with God in prayer for you, that ye may continue ftedfast in the faith, as complete Christians, that are fully inftructed in the doctrines and duties of the gofpel, and eminent in your conformity to them, like perfect men in Chrift; being (asmangeoussoi) filled with his light and grace, according to the utmost extent of that revelation which God has made of his mind and will, and in fuch a manner as may be every way acceptable to him.

13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis.

14 Luke the beloved phyfician, and Demas greet you.

15 Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church which is in his house.

16 And when this epifile is read amongft you, caufe that it be read al-

13 For I must needs bear witness to this excellent laborious brother, from what I have observed of him, and heard from his own mouth, that he is zealoufly folicitous for your prefent and eternal happines; and has a like warm and tender concern for the profperity of your two neighbouring churches*, one of which is feated at Landicea, and the other at Hierapolis, a large and populous city of Phrygia.

14 The Evangelift Luke, who was brought up for a physician, but is now a dear brother in the Lord, devoting himfelf entirely to his fervice, for healing the fpiritual diffempers of perifhing fouls; and Demas, another ministring fervant, join in fending their Chrittian respects. (See the note on 2 Tim. iv. 10.)

15 Let my own hearty love be prefented to those brethren in Chrift that belong to the church at Laodicea; and in a very particular manner, to the wellknown Nymphas + and his Christian family, which for its regularity, purity, religious worship and order, under his conduct, is like a New Teltament church.

16 And it is my express order that, after this epiftle shall have been distinctly read through, according to my defign, in a public manner among you, the fo in the church of church at Coloffe, ye take care that, either it, or an the exact copy of it, be fent to, and also read in the church been remarkably infirumental in form- to have been a noted man of eminent ing, or building up these churches; and piecy, and firict religion in the orders of therefore had a peculiar affection to, and his Christian family. (See the note on concern for them.

NOTES.

† We know no more of Nymphas than the and that ye likewife read the epiftle from Laodicea.

* It is probable that Epaphras had what is here faid of him; but he feems Rom. xvi. c.)

17 And fay to Archippus, Ťake heed to the ministry which thou haft received in the thou fulfil it. .

Laodiceans; church that ufually meets for the worship of God at Laodicea *; and that a certain Laodicean letter be likewife communicated to, and publicly read among you.

17 All that I have further to add for your direction is, that, as ye are furrounded with fubtile adverfaries, who feek to pervert you; (chap. ii. 8.) ye would, in a prudent, friendly, and respectful manner, Lord, that admonish Archippus, a ministring fervant among you, (fee the note on Philem. ver. 2.) and remind him of the great need there is of his utmost vigilance, faying, We entreat you, dear Sir, always to bear upon your heart the excellent nature, defign, and importance of, and to lay yourfelf out, in the name and ftrength of Chrift, with all wifdom, diligence, and faithfulnefs, in difcharging that facred office which you have been honoured with, by the favour and authority of the Lord Jefus, and for his glory, that you may explain, confirm, vindicate, and enforce the great doctrines of divine revelation, and exemplify them in your own spirit and conduct; may reprove fin, and confute error; may carefully fill up the duties of your truft in their whole extent, and perfevere therein all your days, to the comfort of your own and other fouls; and may do all that in you lies for the furtherance of the gospel, in the conversion of finners, and edification of the faints.

> 18 To conclude after my usual manner in all my epiftles to the churches, (fee the note on Rom. xvi. 22.) I subjoin my best wishes to you all, in my own hand-writing: And to give this, together with all that has been faid in the above letter, the greater weight with you, as also to engage your most earnest prayers for me, remember it comes from an apostle, who is now fuffering with chearfulnefs and patience in bonds, for preaching the gofpel to you Gentiles; (Eph. iii. 1.) and who affectionately prays, that the free favour of God, the Father, Son, and Spirit, (2 Cor. xiii. 14.) and all its precious fruits, manifestations, and effects, in a work of grace here, and in glory hereafter, may abound toward you. In teftimony of my fincerity in this benediction, and of my hope that it will be fully answered, I fay, Amen.

> > RECOL-

Digitized by Google

OTE. N

* Various have been the conjectures and in neighbouring churches, which, about this epiftle, which is loft, unless it perhaps might give occasion to, and caft were that, which fome very improbably fome light upon this epiftle to the Colofhave supposed, the apostle wrote from fians; and therefore might be proper to Laodicea to the Ephefians: It rather be read in the church at Colosse, which, feems not to have been any epiftle wrote doubtlefs, knew what epiftle is here reby him, but wrote to him from Landi- ferred to. cea, relating to the ftate of affairs there, 18 The falutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

RECOLLECTIONS.

With what equity, mildnefs, and mercy, would mafters treat their fervants. were they deeply imprefied with the thought that they themfelves have a greater Mafter in heaven, to whom they must give an account of all their behaviour toward those that are under them ! And O what need is there of daily prayers, with thankfgivings, in the family and clofet, for ourfelves and others; and particularly for Chrift's ministring fervants, that they may be wife and faithful, courageous and fuccefsful, in unfolding the mysteries of the gospel, without restraint from their adversaries ! And what need have Christians of wildom from above, to behave prudently towards unbelievers, that they, by word and deed, may recommend religion to them, and make a proper apology on all occasions for it ! With what pleafure fhould ministers own, and speak well of their faithful fellow-labourers, and fellow-fufferers, of every denomination ' With what earnest wrestlings, (as all our prayers ought to be) at the throne of grace, should they plead for fuch churches, especially, as they are most immediately concerned with, that they may be confirmed in the whole will of God ! What a tender fympathizing fpirit fhould they have, and thew toward them ! How cordially thould they falute all the faints, and particularly those who are eminent for godliness, and under whose conduct their families are lively emblems of a church of Chrift ! And how chearfully should they recommend it to them, to maintain and express the like affectionate wifhes one for another ! The holy fcriptures are written for their ufe ; they have a common interest and concern in them, and ought carefully to read them, and to be folicitous, that they, who minister in facred things, may be faithful in the difcharge of the truft that Chrift has committed to them : and when any of them are in bonds for the gospel's sake, How ought churches to lay it to heart, that they may be enabled to make fuitable improvements of fuch a providence, for their own establishment in the truth, to which those noble confessors bear their testimony with faith and patience ! For thefe, and all other valuable purpofes, may grace, the fountain of all good, be with them that love the Lord Jefus Chrift in fincerity and truth ! Amen.

A PRAC-

A PRACTICAL

EXPOSITION

١٢.

Ite

ca he

XD-Tu

йг Ир

aci any a C tie 63-

近れたち気 an In Th

nj Ty

ŋ

OF THE

FIRST EPISTLE OF THE APOSTLE PAUL

TO THE

THESSALONIANS,

IN THE FORM OF A

PARAPHRASE.

THE PREFACE TO THE FIRST EPISTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

THESSALONICA, which fignifies the victory of Theffalia, being rebuilt by the famous Philip of Macedon, was fo called in memory of the conqueft he obtained over the Theffalians, and was the metropolis of Macedonia. The church gathered there confilted of converts, partly from among the Jews and profelytes of the gate, as appears from Alls xvii. 4.; and partly from among the idolatrous Gentiles, as appears from chap. i. 9. of this epiftle. They were exceeding dear to the apoltle Paul, as eminent feals of his miniftry, which had been lately bleffed to their conversion; and he was tenderly and folicitoufly concerned for them; becaufe, foon afterwards, he was violently driven away from them, all of a fudden, through the furious affaults of the upbelieving Jews, Acts xvii. 1,-10. which prevented his minifring at Theffalonica, fo long as he could have withed, for their further eftablithment in the faith.

He was very defirous to have returned to them, and attempted it once and again; but Satan by his wicked inftruments hindered him, as he tells us, chap. ii. 18.; and, fearing left that bufy adverfary might have unfettled them, he fent Timoiby to them; and, upon his return with comfortable tidings of their flate, wrote this Epifele to encourage their continuing to fland faft in the faith, and not to be flumbled at the tribulations that befel him for the gofpel's fake, as in other places, fo while he was among them.

This is the first of all the epiftles that he wrote, which, as is fuppoled, was about the year of our Lord 52; and it is generally agreed, that he fent it, not from Athens, as the polificript fays, but from Corinth, about a year after he had been at Theffalonica.

He begins it with a falutation and affectionate thankfgiving to God for his diffinguifhing grace, as it was evidently manifetted in its Vol. V. N remarkable remarkable effects upon them. chap. i. And to induce them to perfevere in the faith, which they had received, he reminds them of his own unblamable behaviour, together with his labours and fufferings and the fuccels of his ministry among them; and expresses his carnelt defire of visiting them again, out of his great love to them, whom he looked upon as his hope, and joy, and crown of rejoicing, chap ii. But is he could not go himself, he, in his tender care for them, fends Time by to fee how matters flood with them, and to comfort them under their tribulations, and establish them in the faith; and when Timothy returned and gave a good account of them, it revived his foul, and he heartily prayed, that, if it were the will of God, he might have an opportunity of making them another vifit; but, whether this might be fo ordered by Providence, or not. that the Lord would establish them in faith, love, and holines, chap. iii. And, left he should not be able to see them again, he refers them to the directions he had given while he was with them, to guard them against all iniquity, and particularly against every kind of uncleannefs; commends them for their brotherly love, and entreats them to abound therein yet more and more, and to acquit themfelves with diligence and honour in the duties of their feveral stations: And, to comfort them under the loss of their deceased Christian friends, he fets before them the blissful state to which they shall be raised, when all the faints, both living and dead, shall meet together to be with Christ at his coming to judge the world, chap. iv. And as the particular time of Christ's coming to judgment is unknown, and will be, on a fudden, at unawares, though certain in its feason, he exhorts them to constant watchfulness, and preparation for it; and then adds fome admonitions relating to their decent behaviour toward those that were set over them in the Lord, and towards all they had to do with ; fuggefting alfo feveral other important duties, in which they were all concerned; and concludes with an excellent prayer for them, and earnest defire of theirs for himfelf, and with falutations, and a charge that this Epistle be read in their church, with whom he leaves his benediction, chap. v.

88 PREFACE to the Epifle to the THESSALONIANS.

K.

ıź

6

H.

1.8

N,

'n

1

Ċ3 Ľ,

R,

Ŗ

nd.

Ś

t

1

Ċ,

2 ŗ.

ta

ė

k

ė

¢

5

1

-

ß

¢.

ł.

Þ

HAP. С I.

The apostle falutes the church at Thessalonica, and bless God for them, in reflection on their faith, love, and patience, as evident tokens of their election, which was manifelled in the efficacious manner with which the gospel came to them, 1,-5. And describes its powerful, exemplary, and famous effects upon their bearts and lives, 6,-10.

Paraphrase.

Text. PAUL, and Siland vanus, Timotheus, unto the church of the Theffalonians, which is in God Father, the and in the Lord Jefus Chrift : grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jelus Chrift.

DAUL* together with Silas and Timothy, his affistants in the work of the Lord at The/Jalonica, fend greeting, (fee the notes on Acts xv. 22. and I Cor. i. 1.) to the church of Chrift, which has lately been planted by means of our ministry, (AEts xvii. 1,-4, 14.) and ordinarily affembles, for religious worship and discipline, at that renowned metropolis of Macedonia, and confifts of believers in God the Father, as the only true God, in diffinction from the idolatrous Gentiles, who worship them which by nature are no gods; (Gal. iv. 8.) and of believers in the Lord Jefus Chrift, as the only true Meffiah, (fee the notes on John xiv. 1. and xvii. 3.) in diffinction from the unbelieving Jews, who deny him; and fo we regard you as perfons that are in union, and have fellow/hip with the Father, and with his Son Jejus Chrift. (1 John. i. 3.) May all the riches of divine love and favour, which is the fountain of every blefsing; and, as the fruit of this, may all manner of profperity, inclusive of every defirable fort of peace with God, and others, and in your own fouls, be multiplied abundantly to all and every one of you, according to the fcheme of falvation, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jefus Chrift, as the only Mediator and Peace maker, who has purchased all bleffings for us by his blood; and freely communicates them to us by his Spirit, in an infeparable concurrence with the Father. (See the note on Rom. i. 7.)

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention

2 We daily offer up our chearful and folemn thanks to God on behalf of your whole church, and mention you in our flated and occasional prayers with grati-N z

tude

Digitized by Google

N 0 feals of Paul's apoftlefhip, and there was the first epistle that he wrote, his were none among them, that pretended great modelty might reftrain him from to difpute his authority, or vie with him afferting his apostolic character, till he in it; there was no occasion for his af- found a necessity for it; becaute he humferting it here, as he does in his inferip- bly thought himfelf to be the least of the tion of the epiftles to churches in which apofiles, and not meet to be called an athere were falle apostles, that would de- postle. (I Cor. xv. 9.) preciate him, and fet themielves up in

Т E # As these Theffalonians were the opposition to him : And, perhaps, as this 89

Chap. i.

our prayers;

3 Remembering, without ceafing. your work of faith and labour of love. and patience o' hope in our Lord Jefus Chrift, in the fight of God, and our Father;

mention of you in tude and praife, and with fervent supplications for his perfecting all that concerns you;

3 Being excited hereunto by a conftant habitual fente, and frequent recollection, of the unfeigned faith, which God has wrought in you, and which fhews itfelf to be, not a dead, but living faith, by its genuine operation unto all evangelical obedience : We have also a joyful remembrance of your ardent love to Chrift, and to all that belong to him, which generoufly exerted itfelf in the great pains ye took to fuccour and fecure us, when we were in the utmost danger at Theffalonica; (Acts xvii. 5,-10.) as also in performing every office of kindnefs one to another, and to all the faints and fervants of Chrift, for his fake : And we reflect with pleafure on the fruits of this faith and love, as they have produced in you a lively hope of eternal life, through our Lord and Saviour Jefus Chrift, and that with patient continuance in well doing under all your tribulations; and with a quiet waiting for God's time of crowning your hopes with enjoyment : (fee Heb. x. 36.) We can folemnly appeal to the all-feeing God, for the fincerity of our professions of thankfulness, and constant remembrance of you in our prayers *; and are firmly perfuaded that your faith, love, and hope, are exercised with all uprightness of heart, as in the fight and prefence of God, even your and our Father, who has made us his children, by adopting and regenerating grace.

4 Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God.

4 From these peculiar and evident fruits of God's diftinguishing favour to you, our dear brethren beloved of the Lord, and of us for his fake t, we, argu-

Digitized by Google

ing

* In the fight of God, or before God, nifetily proves the caufe from its effect, (euxerSev tou Giou) may refer, either by which it may be known, and without to the apoftle's bleffing God for, and affellionately remembering the The falonians; or to their work of faith and labour of love, and patience of bope, according to the different turns given to this claufe in the paraphrafe.

+ According the different ways of pointing this fentence in the Greek, (adiapoi NYARNALIVOI UTO OFOU THE EXANYHE UMON) of God may be joined either to beloved, or to your election, which proceeded from the free love of God: And the apoftle's knowing the election of these Thesalonians feenis to have been, not by an immediate revelation, but only in the ordinary way of charitably judging about xvii. 4. that this church confifted, not onthe election of any perfon whatfoever: ly of idolatrous Gentiles, but also of For, in the connection of this with the Jews and profelytes of the gate, that which it is ordinarily impoffible for any one to know it, with reference either to himfelf or others; fince, who are God's elect, is an entire fecret in his own breaft, till it appears by its diftinguishing effects. ' (See 2 Pet. i. 10) But had our apostie meant, as some would have it, that he knew God's purpose of receiwing idolatrous Gentiles into the goipelchurch, by immediate revelation, he had this knowledge before the The falonians were converted, or effectually called ; and therefore had no need of arguing from the effect to the caule to alcertain And as we must conclude from Acts it. preceding and following verfes, he ma- were converted there, the election here fpoken

NOTES.

1

P.1.

sĖ bit:

iχıε

rh: byż

, K

b i p ρŀε à

b:

ģ.

ĊŔ.

ti c

X

 \overline{x}

ł

際

T

11 12

Ľ

5 ŕ

é

đ

ę

ć ¢.

ŝ ł

g

r

医觉 医 的 的 的

d

يزا

, 1

5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but alfo in power, and in the Holy Ghoft, and in much affurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your fake.

6 And ye be-received came followers of us, and of the Lord,

the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghoft:

having

ing from the effect to the caule, justly conclude, and ye yourselves may be well fatisfied, in the fame way, that ye were freely chosen of God from all eternity to falvation, through fanctification of the Spirit, and belief of the truth. (2 Epift. ii. 13)

For the gospel, which was preached by me, and by Silas and Timothy, (ver. 1.) my fellow labourers among you, did not only reach your ears in the outward publication of it, as it did the ears of many others without any faving effect; but was also attended with a divine energy, which brought it home to your hearts, by the special operation of the Holy Spirit*, as well as was attefted by the miracles he wrought in confirmation of its divine authority; and fo it begat an unshaken fatisfaction in your own fouls, as to its truth and importance; and good bope, through grace, (2 Epist. ii. 16.) as to your own perfonal interests in its bleffings, by means of what ye experienced of the great and excellent fruits of our ministry among you; in which (as ye well know) we laboured with great plainnefs of speech, meeknels, and patience, and evident tokens of God's owning us, and giving us glorious fuccefs; notwithflanding all the violence and perfecution that we endured on your account, in our love to you, and concern for your falvation.

· 6 And fuch were the happy effects of the golpel's coming in this powerful manner to your fouls, that immediately hereupon ye became imitators, (uun- $\tau \alpha i$) in faith, obedience, and patience, of us, who preached it, and with whom ye conforted; (Acts xvii. 4. fee the note there) and ye were therein followers of our great Lord and Master himself, who is our only perfect example, and in whole fteps we, and be national, but to include perfons of all those former characters; and to which ever of them the goipel became effectu- in the Holy Ghoft was more, than its al, it was according to the election of grace, or the eternal purpole of him, who worketh all things after the counsel of bis own will (Rom. xi 5. and Eph. i 4.) And that the election here intended was not barely to out-ward privileges, linefs; and the idolatrous Gentiles among but to faving benefits, appears from the whole current of the context, which fpeaks of its peculiar, diftinguishing, and for deliverance from the wrath to come, fanctifying fruits, by means of the gof- which carried an undeniable proof of an pel; (fee the note on ver. 5.) and from effectual and faving change upon their the apostle's like thanksgiving to God, hearts and lives, by the power of the for his having, from the beginning, chofen Holy Ghoft, with which the gofpel came them to falvation through fanctification to them, as is represented in the followof the Spirit, (1 Epift. ii. 13.) which is ing veries to the end of the chapter.

NOTES.

fpoken of may well be supposed, not to more than being chosen to a belief of the gofpel.

> * The gospel's coming in power and coming with the atteftation of miracles, as appears by its faving effects : For the The/Jalonians thereupon became followers of the apostles and of the Lord, and were eminent examples of faith and hothem turned from idols to ferve the living and true God, with hope in Chrift ye after us, trode, (I Cor. xi. I.) ye having firmly. believed the word of his grace, even in the midft of the feverest troubles, that both we and yourfelves were exposed to for its fake; (AEt: xvii. 5,-9.) and having received it with fuch inward confolation of the Holy Spirit, as made you a rich amends for them, fweetly fupported you under them, and enabled you to bear them with Christian fortitude and patience.

> > Digitized by Google

9I

7 So that ye yourfelves became eminent, encouraging, and exemplary patterns (runa) of faith, patience, and holinefs to all the believers round about you, in the two large Grecian provinces of Macedonia and Achaia, whether they were converted before you, as at Philippi in Macedonia; or after you, as at Aibens and Corinth in Achaia. (See the note on ver. 8.) 8 For the golpel, which is properly the word of the Lord Jefus, as he is the author and the main fubject of it, having had fuch glorious fuccefs among you *, was published from thenceforward, with great reputation and advantage, and, as it were, with a loud echo of its praises, (stazaros) far and near; infomuch that the fame of your faith, as going out to, and terminating upon God in Chrift, and manifested by its remarkably holy and exemplary fruits in your lives, (sEiAnAu9sv) has gone forth, and is commonly talked of, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but with fill wider extent in various other places; fo that we ourfelves have no occation to fay any thing about it, as we otherwife should.

9 For wherever we travel, we meet with people that are fo full of it, as to anticipate us by beginning themfelves to fpeak, with wonder and joy, of the happy effects of our ministry among you; as, particularly, they are ready to tell us what a chearful reception ye gave us, at our first coming among you, though it was in the most afflicted circumstances; (ver. 6.) and how, by means of our preaching, ye were fo effectually wrought upon, as that those of you, who were heathens before, at once voluntarily and publicly renounced your former idolatry, and turned away with indignation and abhorrence from all

. Digitized by Google

7 So that ye were entamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you founded out the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is fpread abroad, fo that we need not to fpeak any thing.

9 For they themfelves fliew of us, what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to ferve the living and true God,

T E. NO

Macedonia and Ackaia, where the first golpel went from Theffalonica with the converts were made, and from whence more evident and recommending demonthe golpel was fir/t propagated in those firations of its excellence and power, provinces, as that at Jerufalem was of on account of its eminently wonderful the Yews, and that at Antioch was of effects upon them, as appeared in their the Gentiles: For converts were made exemplary behaviour. at Philippi in Masedonia before thole of

* The church of Theffalonica, I ap- Theffalonica, as appears from the 16th prehend, was not the mother church of and 17th chapters of the Acts. But the

ĽŻ

έĸ

ï

0.0

ġ

ű

z

C,

1

ļ.

ĩ

42 a ·

ł,

5

1

C

ģ

è

.

P.

Ņ

ù

ĸ

P

5 b.

ø

ų

Ő,

5;

۲. .

ŧ

ż

¢,

¢

ź

Ľ

k į,

ÿ

٢ come.

all your fictitious deities to him, who is by nature God; believing in him, and yielding yourfelves up entirely to him, to own, reverence, worfhip and adore, ferve and glorify him, who has all perfection of life, bleffednefs and immortality, originally and effentially in, and of himfelf, and is the fountain of all forts of life, whether natural, fpiritual, or eternal, to others; and is the only true God in diffinction from all mere creatures whatfoever, though not to the exclusion of the great Mediator, who is God, equally and together with the Father, in his original nature, in whom ye are also brought to believe, (fee the notes on John xiv. 1. and xvii. 3.)

10 And to wait 10 And to wait with faith, preparation and pafor his Son from tience, defire and joyful hope, under all present sufheaven, whom he ferings, for the glorious appearing of the eternal Son raifed from the of the Father from heaven *, who will come to be dead, even Jefus which delivered us glorified in his faints, and admired in all them that from the wrath to believe our testimony concerning him; (2 Thes. i.

10.) even Jesus, the divine Saviour, who, by his obedience and fufferings unto death purchafed redemption for us, and by his almighty power (evouer@) does, and finally will deliver us from the dreadful wrath of an incenfed God, that is coming apace, (sexousing) and will be ever inceffantly coming, like a perpetual torrent of flaming vengeance, upon all the unbelieving and ungodly, to their everlafting deftruction. (2 Thef. i. 8, 9.)

RECOLLECTIONS.

What a diffinguishing mercy is it, when the gospel comes to any of our fouls, not in word only, but with the special impressive power of the Holy Ghost ! This is an evident proof of our eternal election, which can be known only by its fruits; fuch as faith, love, and patience under fufferings for Christ's lake ; a thorough conversion in heart and life from every idol to the living and true God ; a holy imitation of Chrift and of his fervants, as far as they follow him ; and a hopeful expectation of his glorious coming to rid us of all our troubles. And how defirable is it to have thele tokens of God's love, and of the efficacy of his grace in an eminent degree ! Such receive his word with full affurance of its divine truth, excellence, and importance, and with joy in the Holy Ghoft, norwithftanding all the tribulations that may befal them for its take ; they are a credit to the golpel, and noble examples to other believers; and are spoken of with admiration and joy to all that hear of them, and love the truth as it is in Jefus. With what pleafure do his miniftring fervants own one another, and reflect on every remarkable fuccess of their labours, and on a teftimony in the conficences of their hearers, that the power of the

NOTE

the object of the faith, defire and hope he will certainly come again, though of the Old Tefament-church, who wait- they know not when; and therefore coned for the confolation of lirael, and look- tinue waiting for it with fuch exercises ed for redemption in Jerusalem: (Luke of grace, and performances of duty, as il, 25, 38.) fo his fecond coming is of the may beft encourage their hope, that New, who are looking for the bleffed when he who is their life shall appear, bope, and glorious appearing of the they thall also appear with him in glory. great God and our Saviour Jefus Christ: (Col. iii. 4.)

* As the first coming of Christ was (Titus ii. 13.) They firmly believe that the Spirit is with them ! They affectionately falute the dear converts; they abound in thanktulnets for them, and continually recommend them in their prayers to the grace and bleffing of God the Father, and of our Lord Jefus Chrift, in every remembrance of them. And O how animating to every true believer is the thought of the eternal Son of God, as the rifen Jetus, who, having faved them from their fins, delivered them from the wrath to come.

- 2.4

С HAP. II.

The apostle, to encourage their progress in faith and boliness, reminds them of the manner of bis preaching and behaviour among them, 1,-12. And of their receiving the gospel, as the word of God, which effectually worked in them, 13,-16. And affures them of bis joy on their account, and bis defire of coming to them again, 17,-20.

Техт.

FOR yourfelves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain :

2 But even after that we had fuffered before, and were fhamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the goipel of God with much contention.

PARAPHRASE. X/ELL may I fpeak of you, as I have, (chap. i.) with the utmost affection, hope and confidence: For I can appeal to your own confciences, dear brethren, that ye yourfelves experimentally know the glorious power and effect of my coming, with Silas and Timothy, (chap. i. 1.) to preach the golpel to you; that it was not (nun) about vain and unprofitable things, nor with a mere empty found of words; nor was it without good fruit, which we were affured it would not be, as from God's promife in general, (I/a. lv. 11.) fo especially from the extraordinary manner in which he called us to preach it in Macedonia, (Acts xvi. 9, 10.) of which yours is the chief city; and therefore no ill treatment, that we before had met with in that province, could difcourage our hopes of better fuccels among you *.

2 But even, after we had lately endured the greateft cruelties for the gospel's sake, before we could reach to far as you, and had been treated with the utmost indignity, as ye well know we were at Philippi, another famous city of Macedonia; (Acts xvi-23, 24.) we were neverthelefs animated with holy refolution, with liberty of fpirit and of fpeech, and with undaunted courage, (inagenoiasauisa) in humble dependence on our gracious God for protection and fuccefs, openly to publish the everlasting gospel to you; which, parts of Macedonia. This preferves a good connection, which is not otherwife thought, as the paraphrafe has added, at eafily to be difcerned; and therefore the close of this, relating to the apostle's fome suppose (without sufficient grounds, enters upon a new head of discourse.

> N 0 T E.

* But even (anna xai) that introduces the next verfe, requires fome fuch hope of fuccels among the Theffalwians, as appears to me) that the apoftle there and his not being intimidated by the fevere usage he had met with in other

94

£,

ĽÅ

p rë.

Ĩ

đ

łć

F,

Ľ

đ L

if.

h

b

ć

ú

k

Ņ.,

Γ,

þ

Ď

d

¢

ŗ,

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleannefs, nor in guile;

4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in truft with the gofpel, even fo we fpeak, not as pleafing men, but God, which trieth ourhearts.

5 For neither at any times uled we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetoufnefs; God is witnefs:

which, not we, but God himfelf, is the author of, and we preach in his name with mighty zeal and fervour of fpirit, as it were to a great agony, $(\pi \sigma \lambda \lambda \omega \ \alpha \gamma \omega^{\mu})$ in firiving for your conversion, and against the furious opposition which the unbelieving Jews there alfo made against us. (AEIs xvii. 5, &c.)

3 For our addrefs to you, whether in a way of exhortation to duty, or of confolation ($\pi z e e z \lambda \pi r i s$) under fufferings for Chrift's fake, was not by preaching any erroneous doctrines, like the falle teachers, to feduce you, but the pure uncorrupted gofpel; nor was it by teaching any principles that lead to licentioufnefs, but to all holinefs in heart and life; nor was it by hypocritical pretences of piety and zeal, and love to you, for carrying on finitler views to worldly advantage, but in the fincerity of our hearts for the glory of God, and the good of your fouls: So that there was no fallehood or impurity in the matter, nor infincerity or felfiftnefs in the manner of our preaching.

4 But as we were approved of God (dedoesuarus-9a) to be authorifed and furnished for, and counted faithful to be intrufted with a difpenfation of the gofpel, (1 Tim. i. 11, 12. and Tit. i. 3.) as flewards of the mysteries of God; (I Cor. iv. 1.) even fo, according to the defign of this honourable and important truft, we publish it wherever we come, without any alteration, but exactly as we received it from him; not in fuch a manner, as might be fuited to the corrupt tafte, notions, or fancies of men, to tickle their ears, gain their applaufe, and gratify their humours, lufts, and paffions, by prophefying fmooth things to them, or by concealing any neceffary doctrine; (AEIs xx. 21, 27.) but with all purity and fincerity, as may be beft approved in the fight of the great and holy God, (Gal. i. 10.) who, we are fenfible, fearches and knows our hearts. (Rev. ii. 23.)

5 For we never, in dealing with any fort of people, made ule of fawning speeches to ingratiate ourfelves with them, or flatter them with compliments, or with vain hopes of falvation in a courfe of fin, impenitence, and uubelief, or upon the foot of their own ftrength and righteoufnefs, as ye yourtelves can teffify from all that ye have feen, or heard of our conduct, and manner of preaching; nor did we ever put on a cloak, or false pretence of religion, to cover, and fet a glofs upon fecret defigns of making an advantage of you, like thofe false teachers, who, through covetoufnefs, with feigned words, make a merchandife of their hearers; (2 Pet. ii. 3.) no, we can folennly appeal to the heart-fearching God for the truth of this.

0

6 Nor

Chap. ii.

6 Nor of men fought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome. Chrift.

96

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurie cherisheth her children :

8 So, being affectionately defirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own fouls, becaufe ye were dear unto 115.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travel: for labouring night and day, because chargeable any

6 Nor were we ever ambitious of vain-glory, or of feeking the honour that comes from man only, after the example of those that tread in the steps of the fcribes and Pharifees : (John v. 44., and xii. 43.) We never contrived, intended, or endeavoured to be as the apoftles of admired, carefied, and applauded, while we were either among you, or any other people that we have ministred to *; no, nor did we assume a high tone of authority, nor feek after the honour of a maintenance at your expence, left fome should have thought it a burdenfome tax upon them, though we might have infifted upon it, as the apoftles of Chrift, and fervants sent forth by him, who faid, The labourer is worthy of his hire. (Luke x. 7. fee alfo 2 Cor. chap. ix. and the notes there.)

7 But, on the contrary, we behaved with all humility of mind, modefty, meeknefs, and gentlenefs among you, and with fuch felf-denial, as might beft fhow our parental care and concern for your fpiritual benefit; even as a tenderly affectionate nurfing mother fuckles her beloved infants, nourifhes them in her bosom, bears with their weakness and frowardnefs, and does all fhe can for their eafe, help, 'and comfort.

8 We in like manner, being affectionately defirous of your edification and falvation, took great pleafure, not only in communicating unto you the golpel of the grace of God, and diffributing fuitable portions of it in due season to you, as to new-born babes, who defire the fincere milk of the word, that ye might grow thereby; (1 Pet. ii. 2.) but also in drawing out our own fouls with compaffion towards you, (I/a. lviii. 10.) in abundant labours, even to the exhaufting of our ftrength and fpirits, and chearfully hazarding our lives, which we were ready to lay down for your fakes; becaufe ye were exceeding dear to us, who have your fpiritual and eternal concerns entirely at heart.

9 In proof of this, I need only remind you, my beloved brethren, who cannot have forgot how I, and my companions, laid ourfelves out in the moft fatiguing and painful fervices, while we were among we would not be you: For ye very well know, that we not only fpent unto our ftrength in ministerial labours; but, when we were

NOTE. fo in the glory, which the apostle did not which he might have claimed.

* As maintenance is a part of the ho- feek of the Theffalonians, or other churchnour that is to be paid to miniftring fer- es : For his adding, with reference herevants, (see the note on I Tim. v. 17, unto, when we might have been burden-18.) it feems to me, though the word fome, plainly leads our thoughts to his here used be different, to be included al- having waved the right of maintenance,

p. :

010 άr

d'ù

4} teix të 5

5 tez

int:

цį.

uŗ.

Ľ,

27

G

l,

£

Ł

G

Þ

12 ĩ,

Ľ

1 gi.

lā

ŝ

ie,

3

3

ĩ, ŏ ſ.

1

Č,

ł

¢

ć

f.

1

any of you, we preached unto you the gofpel of God.

were not employed in them, we worked early and late at our fecular callings to get our own livelihood, being unwilling to take contributions from any of you for a maintenance, that we might not feem burdenfome; but might preach the gospel of the grace of God at free coft, and thereby cut off all occasions from our adversaries, who would fain reproach us, as though we wanted to make a gain of you. (See the note on I Cor. ix. 1.)

10 We can appeal to your own confeiences to witnels for us, as far as ye have been capable of obferving our deportment; and, which is still greater, and more abundantly to our fatisfaction, we can folemnly appeal to the all-feeing and heart-fearching God, who knows our principles, motives, and ends, as well as our external acts, that we exercised ourselves in a contcientious discharge of all the duties of religion toward God, and of righteousness toward men; and in fuch a fober, humble, benevolent, and inoffenfive manner, in the whole of our conversation, as might best recommend the good ways of the Lord among you, that were brought to the faith of Chrift by means of our ministry.

11, 12 We not only were careful to fet you a good example, by our own regular behaviour among you; but, as ye likewife well know, we counfelled, entreated, and excited every one of you, by all proper arguments, to practife the like Christian-duties that are incumbent upon you; and did all that in us lay to encourage you thereunto, and to comfort you under all your tribulations; and we with the greatest earneitness teffified to you, (uzervesussoi) in the name of the Lord Jesus, both publicly and privately, (Acts xx. 20.) with all the authority and affection of a father to his children, that ye ought to live in fuch a becoming manner as is fuitable to the holy nature and will of God, and to his high and fpecial favour toward you, whom, as appears in its fruits, he effectually called by the gospel, to partake of all the bleisings and honours of his kingdom of grace in this world, and of his kingdom of glory in the world to come.

13 And, in reflection on what God has done by us among you, we are exceeding thankful to him, blefsing and praifing his holy name in our daily addreffes to him; becaule, when we were fent to preach the gospel at The falonica, ye not only gave us the hearing, which others of that city refused, (Acts xvii. 5.) but, upon hearing our meffage, your hearts, like Lydia's, (Acts xvi. 14.) were opened to attend truth) the word of to it, and embrace it with reverence, faith, love, and obedience; O 2

10 Ye are witneffes, and God alfo, how holily, and juitiy, and unblamably we behaved ourielves among you that believe:

> 11 As you know, how we exhorted and comforted, and charged every one of you, (as a father doth his children) 12 That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and giory.

13 For this cause alfo thank we God ceating, without becaute, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but (as it is in God.

Digitized by GOOGLE

Chap. ii.

ţ.

住民道野川日 the states

5

God, which effectually worketh at-To in you that believe.

14 For ye, bre-

oť

the thren, became fol-

churches of God, which in Judea are in Christ Jefus: for ye alto have fuffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they bave of the lowers

jews:

obedience; and fo ye believed and affectionately entertained it, not as a human fcheme, or upon the foot of human authority; but as a revelation from God, (which it really is) and upon the foot of his authority, as a doctrine, which, not we, but God himfelf, in his infinite wildom and grace, is the contriver and author of, and commissioned us to preach; and which, through his fpecial bleffing, works fo powerfully and efficaciously with internal energy, as to produce a happy and holy change in your fentiments, principles and views, hearts and lives, who by faith received it, and who have thereby the beft, the most fatisfying and advantageous demonstration to your own coniciences, that the golpel itfelf, together with its wonderful influence upon you, is, and could not but be, entirely of God.

14 The powerful and bleffed effects of this gospel upon you, my dear brethren in Chrift, are evident, as has been hinted, (chap. i. 6.) in your fo readily receiving it, though attended with fo much outward affliction : For, from the time of your embracing it with faith and love, ye became imitators, not only of us, the fervants of our Lord, but also of the churches, that are gathered in his name, according to his appointment, for religious worfhip in Judea; and that particularly in their courage and patience under the tribulations which they endure for his fake: For, ' at the infligation of furious zealots at Theffalonica, (Acts xvii. 5, 6.) ye yourfelves also have been infulted and abufed; and, with heroic Christian firmnefs of mind, have calmly fubmitted to the fame fort of perfecutions from people of your own country, as those churches, for the same cause, have chearfully undergone the cruel ufage they met with from the Jews in their parts.

15 Who, in the madnefs of their rage, embrued their wicked hands (Acts ii. 23.) in the blood of the Lord of glory, the Saviour of his people from their fins; and therein flewed themfelves to be in fpirit and temper, as well as by defcent, the children of those that dealt in the like unnatural and rebellious manner with the ancient prophets, which God had raifed up among them : (Matth. xxiii. 31, 37.) And they have carried on this violent perfecution with the utmost feverity against us, the apostles and fervants of Chrift, and profeffors of his name, and particularly against myfelf at Theffalonica, and many other places. And though they pretend to be God's peculiar favourites, and that in killing us, as they did Stephen and Jamer, (Acts vii. 59, 60. and xii. 2.) they are doing him good fervice, (Yohn xvi. 2.) they are

Digitized by Google

ki Jo ov h u n n c killed the Lord Jefus, and their own prophets, and have perfectued us; and they pleate not Gotl, and are contrary to all men;

15 Who both

), į

Y 🕯 ηż

£.,

đ 1

Gi

QĘ, tai,

i i

,, i

Ċ,

ΰł

12

61

Ŀ,

ï.

ť,

1

í.

r

1 ŗ

¢.

ŀ

i

i

i

i

ŝ

are really to far from being accepted of him, or approving themfelves to him, that they act directly contrary to his merciful and holy nature and will, law and goipel; and are the worft of enemies, not only to us, but to the common happiness of all mankind, and particularly of the Gentiles, whom they treat with the utmost indignation, contempt, and fcorn;

16 Doing what in them lies to hinder us, (χωλυον-Tay nuag) the ministers of Christ, from preaching the gotpel to the Gentiles, as being envious at their convertion, in order to their eternal falvation; they ftill perfifting, by divine permiffion, in their obstinate prejudices and opposition to the Mefliah and his fervants, wherever they come, to fill up the measure of their own and their fathers iniquities, (Matth. xxiii. 32.) till God will bear with them no longer, as will foon appear by the awful event: For righteous vengeance has begun to feize *, and is about to come upon them in the most dreadful executions, (115 TELOS) to complete their ruin, and put an end to their church and flate, without redreis, till the fulneis of the Gentiles be come in. (Kom. xi. 25.)

17 But we, dear brethren, were, forely against our will, forced away from you all on a fudden, for a fhort feafon, which will foon be over, like that of an hour, (meas xaleor weas) by reason of their outrage, who hunted after our blood; (Acts xvii. 5, 10.) fo that we could no longer continue with fafety in perfon among you; which went as near our hearts as it could to the heart of the tendereft dying parents, whether nurfing mothers, or affectionate fathers, (ver. 7, 11.) to be torn away from their weak, helplefs, and exposed orphans, (arogqavio fire;) that would dearly mifs them : But our hearts are still as much as ever with you; and confidering how we were fnatched away from you unawares, and what need ye have of our further counfel, admonitions, cautions, and encouragements, to animate and fortify you against the dangers that furround you, we have been the more exceedingly diligent, and have tried all poffible means, with the most affectionate defire, and earnest folicitude of foul, to get an opportunity of coming to you again, and converfing with you face to face.

aorift, is of indeterminate fignification, people, and of their city and temple, and may, I think, be here more proper- were drawing on apace, it was not tully ly rendered is about to come, than is accomplished, till about twenty years come, upon them to the uttermost ; be- afterwards.

NOTE. * The verb, (198aoi) being the first cause, though the destruction of that 16 Forbidding us to fpeak to the Gentiles, that they might be faved, to fill up their fins alway for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a fhort time, in prefence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to fee your face with great defire.

18 For

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you (even I Paul) once and again; but Satan hindered us.

18 * For we fain would have returned to you, and attempted it time after time, even I Paul especially; but Satan, that great adverfary to Chrift and his gospel, to us his ministring fervants, and to your fouls, cut out work for us in other places, as particularly at Berea and Athens, (Acts xvii. 13,-34.) by fowing the feeds of difcord and herefy, and fpiriting up a violent opposition to the truth, which rendered it neceffary for us to make a fland against him and his inftruments, for the vindication of the gofpel, and eftablishment of the faints in these parts; and fo he laid fuch obstacles in our way, to entangle and incumber us, as has hitherto prevented our defign of coming to you : But ye may be well affured. we are still as mindful of you, and as fincerely and affectionately defirous, as ever, to return to you, if the Lord permit.

Chap. ii.

19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? are not even ye in the prefence ot our Lord Jetus Chrift at his coming ?

20 For ye ate our glory and joy.

19 For what is the chief matter of our hope with respect to the happy fruit of our ministry, to animate us to it? or what is our chief joy in it? or what the crown of our glorying, as the reward of our labours at the end of it? Are not ye in an eminent manner, my dearly beloved, whom, among other converts, we expect to fee at the right hand of Chrift, and to present as a chaste virgin to him, (2 Cor. xi. 2.) at his fecond coming, when he who is our life shall appear, and ye, together with us, shall appear with bim in glory ? (Col. iii. 4. +)

20 For in reflection on what ye already are, through grace, and in prospect of what ye shall then further be, by means of our ministrations to you, ye certainly are at prefeat the glory of our ministry, and the joy of our hearts; and we doubt not but we shall find you fo to a still more exalted degree, at the day of Chrift; when they that be wife fhall fine, as the brightnefs of the firmament, and they that turn mamy to righteousness, as the stars for ever and ever. (Daniel xii. 3.)

RECOLLECTIONS.

What a joy of heart is it to the fervants of the Lord Jefus, to be able to appeal to their hearers, and to God himself, that they have been courageous, upright, laborious, humble, tender, felf-denying, unblamable, and difinterefted, free from covetoufnefs and vain-glory, in their ministrations and behaviour, even in the midst of perfecutions and repreaches for the fake of Chrift, as perfons entrusted with the

* The Alexandrian and Claremont copies, initial of (δ_{10}) wherefore, read guage the apofile wrote to the Philip- (δ_{10}) for; and this feems to agree beft pians, chap. iv. r. to endear himfelf to with the apoftle's defign in professing the them, as though they, to whom he was fincerity of his great defire to come and writing, were the only matter of his joy. fee them.

+ In the like affectionate flow of lan-. (See the note there.)

gotpel.

ú

a,

Л

ri;

ij

Ġ,

a

i.

¢.

5;

Ŕ

ġ,

Ľ,

iii

, İ

ť

12. 2 AC. ۵đ

eris 1:

Ĩ

k

Ç,

野椒

Ĩ

t.

ti

Q,

ŋ7

ŊĠ h npi

i. L

ji p

Ti

Ņ

TEXT.

longer forbear, we thought it good to alone:

we could no

gospel, and seeking, in dispensing it, not to please men, but God; whom they confider as the fearcher of their hearts ! With what grateful reflections do they blefs his holy and gracious name, when he crowns their labours with fuccefs! And how happy is it for the attendants on their ministry to know, by their own experience, that it has not been unprofitable to them; but that they have been enabled to receive it with reverence, faith, and love, merely upon the foot of its divine . authority, and have felt its powerful operation in their own fouls, to animate them unto all patience in fuffering for Chrift, after the example of the most celebrated churches, and unto all holy conversation and godliness, fuitable to their privileges and obligations, as true believers, whom God has effectually called by the gofpel, to inherit all the bleffings and honours of his kingdom of grace here, and of glory hereafter ! Alas ! how defperately malignant against Christ, and his servants and disciples, is a spirit of perfecution ! It is a direct imitation of the great adversary the devil, and promotes his interest and defigns, under his wicked influence ; it fills up the measure of their iniquities, who perfift in the practice of it; and ripens them for deftruction, till wrath comes upon them to the uttermost. But with what parental tenderness do faithful pastors sympathize with their flocks in their tribulations! How gladly would they vifit, affift, encourage, and comfort them under their trials, as opportunity offers ! And with what flowing affection do they think of the dear feals of their ministry, as their glory and joy, and as those whom they truft the Lord Jefus Chrift will publicly own, as the crown of their rejoicing, when he shall come to judge the world at the last day.

С H A P. III.

The apostle gives still further proof of his great affection to them, in bis baving fent Timothy to establish and comfort them, 1,-5. In bis rejoicing at the good tidings of their faith and love, 6,-9. And in his praying for an opportunity of returning to them, and for their perfeverance and increase in grace, till the second coming of Cbrift, 10,-13.

PARAPHRASE.

WHerefore, when CO great was the folicitude of my mind about you, as young converts in the perilous circumftances in which I was forced, all of a fudden, to leave you, that be left at Athens when, upon my arriving at Albens, (Acts xvii. 15.) and meeting with various difappointments of my fcheme for returning to you, I grew more uneafy in my concern for you, than I well knew how any longer to bear, or conceal from you; (unxer: seyorres) * I rather chofe to be left there alone, to ftruggle with the many difficulties I had to encounter, in difputes with the Jews, and with the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers, (AEIs xvii. 17, 18.) than to remain uncertain

ОТЕ.

N

* Though Silvanus or Silas and Ti- falonica; (fee the note on Acts xviii. 5.) mothy were with the apoftle Paul at and though he ftill speaks in the plural Corinth when he wrote this epiftle from number, he had given notice, chap. ii. thence, chap. i. I. yet Silas feems not 18. that what he was faying, in a way to have been with him while he was of concern for them, and defire of feeing at Athens; and to he was alone after he them, related in a peculiar manner to had fent Timothy from thence to Thef. himfelf.

2 And feat Timoticus, our brother and minister of God, and our fellow-labourer in the golpel of Chrift. to establish you, and to comfort you your concerning faith ;

3 That no man fhould be moved by these afflictions: for yourfelvesknow that we are appointed thereunto.

4 For verily when we were with you, we told you hefore, that we fhould fuffer tribulation : e-certain about the flate of your affairs, or neglect any thing that might contribute to your help.

Chap. iii.

2 And therefore, though I much needed the company and affiltance of the dear Timothy, who was there, and might have been very ufeful to me, and is indeed my affectionate brother, and a faithful ministring fervant after God's own heart, commissioned by his authority, and richly endowed with gifts and graces. to promote his caufe and kingdom in the world, and is a laborious copartner with me in the work of preaching that bleffed gofpel of falvation, which has Chrift for its author and principal fubject; yet, for your fakes, I chearfully parted with that excellent young evangelift, and difpatched him to you, that he might know how matters go with you ; (ver. 5.) and that, fupplying my place, he might labour to ftrengthen and confirm your faith in Chrift, and in the great doctrines of the golpel, and (magazahirai) might exhort you to hold them fail, and help to revive a fweet fenfe in your fouls of the glorious advantages and delights that will refult from your faith, even in this world, and much more in the world to come.

3 That fo none of you might be difficartened, or ftaggered, at the perfecutions, which both yourfelves and we, the ministers of Christ, have endured for his fake : And ye ought not to be difcouraged or fhaken in mind on this account; for as the worft, as well as the belt, that is to be expected from your faithful adherence to Chrift, has been fet before you, ye cannot but know, that God, in his eternal, infinitely wife, and holy counfels, has appointed us, the fervants and difciples of Jefus, to fufferings for his fake, as well as to be partakers of his glory. (1 Pet. ii. 12, 13.)

4 For even when I and my fellow-labourers were prefent with you *, we warned you before-hand to prepare for the worft, that as all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution, and must ven as it came to through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of pais, and ye know. God; (2 Tim. iii. 12. Acts iv. 14, 22.) fo we fhould certainly have our fhare in the common lot; and accordingly, as ye may well remember, it foon afterward proved in the event; ye yourfelves having experi- enced it, and been eve-witneffes of the ftorm that fell upon us at Theffalonica. (Acts xvi. 5, Gc.)

5 When

thy were come to the apoftle at Corintb, him, and fo may be underftood to inas appears from Acts xviii. 1. 5. compa- clude them with himself in what he red with the infcription of this epiftle; fpeaks in the plural number in this, and,

N O T E.

Digitized by Google

* By this time both Silas and Timo- The falonica, when they were there with and he here refers to what had paft at mostly at least, in some following verses.

.

i.

.

.

Ę

5

THESSALONIANS paraphrased.

· 5 For this caufe, when I could no I could no longer bear the anxiety of my mind conlonger forbear, I cerning you, on account of the difficult and trying cirfent to know your cumitances in which I was forced to leave you, I fent faith, left by fome means the tempter the beloved and faithful Timothy to fee how it fares have tempted you, and our labour be in vain.

6 But now when

Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us

your faith and charity, and that ye have good remem ways,

you;

of defiring good tidings

with your faith ; having a godly jealoufy over you, (2 Cor. xi. 2.) left by the violence of perfecutions, and fubtle intrigues of falfe teachers, and by inward fuggeftions, or any other means, that malicious, artful, and bufy adverfary, the devil, might have thrown temptations in your way, to turn you back from Chrift and the gospel; and fo all the hopeful pains, we had taken for your conversion, should have proved to be ineffectual, and the promifing appearances fhould have come to nothing, at leaft as to fome of you, directly contrary to our ftrong perfuation in the judgment of charity, founded upon visible effects, (chap. i. 4, 5. fee the note there) that ye really were the beloved and chosen of God to eternal falvation. 6 But now my former good hopes concerning you are abundantly confirmed. When our dear brother

5 When therefore, as was faid before, (ver. 1, 2.)

Timothy lately returned from you to us at Corinth, (Acts xviii. 5. fee the note there) he gave us the most agreeable and fatisfactory account, that, notwithstanding all your trials and dangers, ye continue ftedfaft in the faith of the gospel, and, as a proof of its brance of us alfincerity, in your love to Chrift, and to his ordinangreatly to fee us, ces and ways, to one another, and to all his faithful as we also to fee fervants; and particularly that ye retain an affectionate remembrance of us in your daily prayers, and a lively fenfe of the excellent doctrines we preached, and are often speaking of our persons and ministry with effeem and honour; and that, in reflection on the benefit ye received by our former labours among you, ye are earneftly defirous of feeing us again, as I have affured you, (chap. ii. 17.) we also are to see and be further affiftant to you.

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction faith :

S For now we live, if ve fland fast in the Lord.

1

ŝ.

Vol. V.

7 Having therefore, beloved brethren, received these good tidings of your steady perfeverance in the faith of Chrift, and of its genuine fruits, our rejoiand diffress by your cing on your account entirely removed all the painful anxiety about you, that before diffreffed our minds; (ver. 5.) and was a reviving cordial to us under all the troubles that we have been exposed to here for the gofpel's fake, (Acts xviii. 1,-18.)

8 For whatfoever were our difficulties here, and our dejections and folicitude concerning you before, which were like death to us, we are now alive and comfortable in our own fouls, and go on chearfully in our work ; fince (sav) ye continue fledfaft in your adherence to the Lord Jefus, and bold fail the profillion

Chap. ni.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your fakes before our God;

IO Night and day praying exceedingly that we might lee your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

ir Now God himielf and our Father, and our Lord Jefus Chrift, direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord make you to increde and abound in love one towards another, and towards all men, even as we do towards you:

fession of your faith without wavering; (Heb. x. 25.) we having no greater joy than to find that ye, our fpiritual children, walk in the truth. (3 John ver. 3, 4.)

9 For confidering the happy flate of your affairs, How can we ever he thankful enough, in frefh returns of gratitude and praife to our God, for his grace beftowed upon you, and for giving us hearts to rejoice fo exceedingly in it: This we fincerely do, as in his fight and prefence, who knows that we are greatly affected in every reflection upon it, and whenever we appear before him in our folemn devotions.

10 So near do ye lie to our hearts, that in our ftated addreffes to God every evening and morning, (fee the note on 2 Tim. i. 3.) and at all other feasons of approaching him, our prayers are carried out to an extraordinary degree of importunity and fervour, (vreg exregiors) that, if it be his bleffed will, we might have an opportunity of making you a vifit once again ; and of being farther instrumental, in his hand, for giving you a complete view of the doctrines of faith, which we could not do while we were with you, by reafon of our being driven away from you before we were aware; (Acts xvii. 10.) and for eftablifhing, fettling, and further building you up in your most holy faith, and helping you against all the defects, which, as to its extent, clearnefs, and lively exercife, still attend that, and every other grace; as there will be fomething of this kind of defect, in both these confiderations of it, not only in young, though growing converts, but even in the most advanced Chriftians upon earth.

11 Now, in order to your help herein, we fill continue to be importunate in our prayers, that God himfelf, whofe kingdom rules over all, and who is your and our covenant God and Father; and that our Lord and Saviour Jefus Chrift, who, in his officecapacity, is head over all things to the church, (Ephef. i. 22.) would pleafe to order, by an overruling providence, that our way may be made plain, and our courfe may be foon directed, as it were in a ftraight line to you, (zzrsu90000) free from all the difficulties and avocations, that have hitherto obftructed it.

12 And as we know that all the fuccefs of our best defigns and endeavours depend entirely on the divine bleffing, our heart's define and prayer is, that, whether we be permitted to come to you, or not, the Lord Jefus, who is a head of influence, as well as of government, would enable you by his Spirit spirit fill more and more to grow, and increase to an overflowing

p. i bai e

- Jè

afiz eh :

or b artst di,î

Rt ä

st:

. 1015

аż

ŧġ.

. 055 i

b1

Ш,)

Ľ.

ici i

h.

181

Ľ

рT,

10 Œ

kė

ЪC. e; i

Р.

ić.

Ċ,

2Ê

k ki

ł

ġ.

'n.

cí?.

ł),

57

11 ù

Ġ

Ľ.

ø

j.

ſČ' R,

THESSALONIANS paraphraled.

flowing in your affectionate Christian love *, and in its abounding fruits and effects, by all manner of means, one towards another, as members of the fame church, and of the body of Chrift, and as children of the fame heavenly Father; and towards all the faints in general, of what denomination foever they be; and even in all good-will towards all men, of every character, with as much fincerity and aboundings therein, as our affection does toward you.

13 To the end that, in this way and manner, he may strengthen, fettle, and confirm your whole fouls in every grace, and in the doctrine of the gofpel; and may preferve you blamelefs in every good word and work, and in all holy conversation, to fuch a degree, as is at prefent well pleafing in the eyes of Lord Jelus Chrift the infinitely pure and all-feeing God, even our reconciled God and Father, and as shall continue until, and iffue in your being prefented boly, and unblamcable, and unreproveable in his fight, (Col. i. 22.) at the fecond appearance of our Lord and Saviour Jefus Chrift, who will come to judge the world, with a bright retinue of all his glorified faints and holy angels, at the laft day. (Chop. iv. 16, 17. 2 Thef. i. 7, 10. and Jude, ver. 14.)

RECOLLECTIONS.

What an amiable example to golpel ministers has the great apostle fet in his warm affection to, and iolicitous concern for the church ! They, like him, ought to demonstrate their love to, and use all means for the establishment and comfort of the fouls that are under their watch and care; and for taking off discouragements that might arife from the hardfhips for the fake of the gofpel, which God. in his wife and holy counfels and providence, has allotted to them, and given them reason to expect. And, ah ! what a touching and painful grief of heart is it to tender and faithful paftors to be afraid, left, through the fubtility and violence of Satan and his emiffaries, profettors, of whom they have hoped well, thould mitcarry, and all the labour that had been fpent upon them thould come to nothing ! But O! the joy that fprings up in their fouls, and adds a relifh to life itfelf, when they find that their dearly beloved charge continue ftedfast in the faith, and that their faith works by love to Chrift and one another, and to his ministring fervants, especially to such of them as have been instruments of their conversion; and that it spreads with a benevolent temper towards all mankind, as such ! How does their knowledge of this engage their thankfulness to God, and animate them to go on with cheatfulness and joy in all their services and fufferings; and to contribute. what in them lies, for the further eftablishment of their flocks in faith and love, and for perfecting all which concerns them, that they may be unblameable in holinets in the fight of God, until, and in the day of Chrift ! For this they have a longing defire to fee them, and be further helpful to them; for this they labour, whether present or ablent, looking up to God to direct their way; and for this they continually pray to the God of all grace, as their God and Father in Chrift, and to the

NOTE

would make them to increase and abound he there expressly observes, to their comin love one towards another, and his be- mendation, that they did it towards all feeching them to increase more and more the brethren, which were in all Macetherein, chap. iv. 10. suppose that they donia.

The apoftle's praying that the Lord did already live in the practice of it; and the coming of our

with all his faints.

105

Chap. iv.

the Lord Jefus, as their great and only Head and Mediator, who will certainly appear a fecond time to the falvation of all the faints. And may it be our chief concern, and happy lot, to be found among them whom he will gather together to be glorified with him at the laft day !

CHAP. IV.

The aposlie exborts the Theffalonians to chasting and holines in their lives, 1,-8. To broberly love, a peaceable behaviour, and diligence in their secular callings, 9,-12. And to moderate their grief for the death of godly relations and friends, in confideration of the glorious resurvection of their bodies at Christ's second coming; from which time forwards all the faints, that may then be dead, or living upon the earth, shall be ever with the Lord, 13,-18.

TEXT.

F Urthermore then we befeech you, brethren, and exbort you by the Lord feius, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk, and to pleafe God, fo ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jetus.

3 For this is the will of God, even your fanchrication, that ye thould abfloin hom fornication:

PARAPHRASE.

IN order to your being established in holiness at the coming of our Lord Jefus Chrift with all the faints, (chap. iii. 13.) it remains then, (TO DOWNTON sr) my dearly beloved brethren, that we with all tendernels and affection entreat you, and with all authority in the name, for the fake, and in the flead of our Lord and Saviour, injoin and excite you, that, as ye have had directions and commands from us, under the infpiration of his Spirit, relating to the manner in which ye ought to order the whole courfe of your religious and moral conversation, in all wellpleafingnefs to God, through Chrift; and that, as ye have, generally speaking, attended to our exhortations, and put them into practice hitherto; fo ye would labour, by divine grace, to improve and excel therein every day yet more and more.

2 For ye well know, and cannot but remember, what holy precepts we delivered to you, when we were with you, as the rule of your behaviour in all things; and with what folemn and evangelical arguments we enforced, and bound them upon your confciences, by the immediate authority of the exalted Lord and Saviour of his body, the church.

3 For, as ye have often heard from us, who have preached moral duties, as well as, and upon the foundation of evangelical doctrines; this is the ordaining, approving, and preceptive will of God, yea, is what he intended in bettowing his grace upon you, namely, that, encouraged by the promifes of his covenant, ye cleanle your, every from all filthinefs of flefb and joinit, perfecting bolinefs in bis fear: (2 Cor. vii. 1.) And particularly, that ye carefully avoid, and keep at the remotett diffance from fimple fornication, and

and all manner of uncleanness, (see the note on I Cor. v. I.) in thought, word, and deed, and from every thing that tends towards, or might be an enticement to that fin, which the Gentile-converts effecially among you may have been most guilty of, in the days of their unregeneracy, and may be still too much in danger of being drawn into, through the temptations that furround them from their old acquaintance.

4 In opposition thereunto, it is plainly the will of God, that all and every one of you, whether Jewi/b or Gentile-believers, fhould know by the gofpel, and our ministry of it, his indifpensable obligation to, and in what manner, and by what motives, means, and affiftances from above, he may occupy and make use of his body *, which is the receptacle of the foul, with temperance, chaftity, and purity, and with honour to God, to human nature, to the Chriftian character, and to the relation which the bodies of the faints bear to the Holy Ghost, as his temple. (See 1 Cor. vi. 18, 19, 20.)

5 The Christian therefore is by no means to indulge, or give way to any gratification of defiling paffions, appetites, and inclinations, that work with fenfual defire after unlawful embraces of any kind; fuch as are practifed by the idolatrous heathens, that are strangers to the knowledge of the only living and true God, and are notoriously infamous for the vilest abominations. (Rom. i. 24,-28.)

6 We furthermore befeech and exhort you, in the name of Chrift, that none of you ever dare, by any means, to act a difhonest part of what nature foever, much lefs to tranfgrefs in this matter, fo as, through vicious inclinations, to break in upon the matrimonial bond, by going into fuch a criminal conversation with the wife of any one that may be called a brother + in a religious fenfe, or even as a member of civil fociety, and partaker of human nature, as would be an injury to him, and a violation of her chaftity : For whoremongers' and adulterers God will judge, (Heb. xiii. 4.) fo as to execute dreadful vengeance, in a way of juft

N OTES.

His veffel may be supposed to figni- bis brother relates not, chiefly at least, fy his wife, who is called the weaker to what we call moral honefly, but to veffel; (1 Pet. iii. 7.) but it feems more violating the right and property that a agreeable to the manner of the apostle's man has in his wife. by invading his arguing here against simple fornication, peculiar claim to her: This makes it to understand it of his own body, which all of a piece with the foregoing and folis spoken of as a veffel, 1 Sam. xxi. 5. lowing context; and, perhaps, here may and 2 Cor. ii. 6.

tome, that going beyond and defrauding tiled among the Gentiles, Rom. i. 26, 27.

be fome reference to the unnatural fin + It is, I think, justly observed by between man and man, which was prac-

Digitized by Google

4 That every one of you should know how to polfess his vessel in fanctification and honour;

5

à

1 ż

a

,

,J

Þ

3

Ľ

2 y

R

9 ć

t

1

3

1

5 Not in the luft of concupifcence, even as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: becaule that the Lord is the avenger of all fuch, as we alfo have forewarned you, and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanneis. but unto holineis.

8 He therefore that despifeth, defpifeth not man, but God, who hath alfo given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love, ye need not that I write unto you: for ye vourfelves are taught of God to love one another.

to And indeed ye do it towards all the brethren, which are in all Macedonia, brethren, that ye increase just retribution, upon all perfons that allow themfelves in fuch wicked practices, as we likewife formerly in our ministrations to, and converses with you, have ferioufly forewarned you of it, and bore witness against this fin, as abominable in his fight.

The First Epistle to the Chap. iv.

7 For the infinitely holy God, in calling us by his gospel and his grace to the knowledge and fellowship of Jelus Chritt our Lord, was fo far from defigning to allow us to live in any iniquity, which is the defilement of our nature, or in any fort of uncleannels; that, on the contrary, he has thereby laid us under the highest obligations, and enforced them by additional motives, to be chafte and holy, in all manner of conversation, and without blame, before him in love.

8 Whofoever therefore he be, that rejects thefe admonitions and commands, or treats them with neglect and contempt, does not therein put a flight upon the authority of men, as not to be regarded ; but in reality defpifes, and rejects the authority of the great God himfelf, as delivering them by us, his inipired fervants; even of that God, who hath alfo given to us his Holy Spirit, to speak in and by us; and to has given a divine fanction to what we fay from him; * yea, who hath given his enlightning and fanctifying Spirit to all of us, who are true believers, to direct and engage a ready compliance with every duty that he enjoins upon us.

9 But as to the great duty of love, which stands in direct opposition to the fore-mentioned vices, and which ye in a fpecial manner owe to one another, as brethren in the faith, hope, holinefs, and bleffings of the gofpel, I need not inculcate this upon you, as though ye were backward to it : For ye yourfelves, as Chriftians, have fuch a lively fenfe of your obligation to it, and fuch ftrong dispositions for it, by the teachings of God's word and Spirit, as to know, from fweet experience, what this cordial affection toward fellow-Christians means, as I have already fupposed in my prayers, that ye may increase and abound in it. (See the note on chap. iii. 12.)

10 And I am well fatisfied that, by the grace of God, ye are inclined and enabled to practife this amiable and important duty, as eminently appears in but your exemplary temper and behaviour, not only towe befeech you, ward the members of your own church, but even to all your Christian brethren in the faith and fellowship

NOTE. Spirit, may refer either to the apo/lles, (ver. 7.) accordingly fome ancient copies by whom God delivered these precepts, read unto you. or to believers, whom he has called not

* Who hath given to us his Holy unto uncleannefs, but unto holinefs;

1

de,

Ŋ .

Rİ

Ľ,

ΥĽ

ŵ

ic;

i.

i.

3

d

z:

÷

ż

ĝ

1

Ş

Ľ

i

ţ,

ģ

more.

II And that ye ftudy to be quiet, and to do your own bufinefs, and to work with your own hands, (as we commanded you,)

12 That ye may walk honefly toward them that are without, and lack of nothing.

increase more and of the gospel, all around you, in the various churches that are planted throughout the province of Macedonia; fo that nothing remains for me to do on this head, but only to excite and encourage you, my dear brethren, to perfevere and excel yet more and more in your fervour therein, and in every fuitable demonftration of it, as there may be still further occasions for its exercise, and that with still wider extent, in all other places, and particularly toward your Jewi/h brethren, the poor faints at Jerusalem. (2 Cor. viii. 1,-4. See the notes there.)

11 And to this I would add my earnest entreaties, that ye all would fludioufly endeavour to fhow a holy ambition, and eager concern (@ilotipsio9ai) to behave with a meek and peaceable temper, and not officioufly and needlefsly intrude into other people's affairs, and create diffurbances, either in private families, or the neighbourhood, or in the church or flate; and that ye would attend to the duties of your own respective stations, and personal concerns, and labour diligently in the bufinefs of your fecular calling *, that, as occasions require, your own hands may be industriously employed in providing for yourfelves and families, and for fuch good things of this life as may enable you to give to them that need your affiftance, (Eph. iv. 28.) according to the orders, which we, the apostles and ministers of Christ, gave you to that purpose, when we were with you; which we also recommended by our own example. (See 2 Thel. iii. 7, 10.)

12 My great design in preffing diligence in your honeft callings is, that ye may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things, (Titus ii. 10.) and that ye may have may live (suo ynuorws) in fuch an upright, faithful, decent, and becoming manner, towards all men, as shall take off prejudices from the minds of those that are out of the pale of the church, and even of enemies to Christianity, who would gladly catch at any opportunity of reproaching it, as if it made its converts an idle and worthlefs fort of people, rather a burden and scandal, than a benefit and honour to the community;

Τ́E. NO

was neceffary for those among them whole circumstances called for it, and had a particular respect to the lower ranks of people, who in that trading city were to be employed in manufactures; but it may be carried into a gethe duties of every station, in such a way ing of teeth. (Matth. xxv. 26, 30.) as is fuitable to it; fince idlenefs is a

* To work with their own hands deteftable vice, as it is a dishonourable wafte of our time and talents, renders us utelefs in the world, exposes to many temptations, and defeats every valuable end of living ; and the flothful is called a wicked and unprofitable fervant, that (ball be caft into utter darkneral rule for diligence in difcharging nefs, where shall be weeping and gnash-

Chap. iv.

community; and that, inftead of being beholden to the charity of others, ye may have a fufficiency of all needful things to fupply your own wants. 13 But to fortify and comfort you, my dear brethren, against the invidious and fevere cenfures of Yewi/b zealots, as though no uncircumcifed Gentile can be admitted to the kingdom of heaven *; and to caution you against fuch exceffive lamentations over the dead, as are used among the beathens, and as

God has forbidden to his children, (Deut. iv. 1.) I am much concerned that ye should know, and be well fatisfied about, the happiness of those of your pious relations and acquaintance in another world, who died in the faith of Chrift, and whole bodies are gone to reft in the grave, as perfons fallen afleep to awake again, (fee the note on I Cor. xi. 30.) that ye may not grieve and mourn over the lofs of them, as your heathen neighbours do over their departed friends, concerning whom they have no hope of their ever rifing again to eternal life: But there is no room for your entertaining fuch a melancholy thought, with refpect to deceafed believers in Chrift :

14 For if we are really and firmly perfuaded, upon clear evidence, as all true Christians are, that the only Saviour of them that believe in him, whether they be Jews or Gentiles, actually died to expiate their fins, and role again for their justification, and as the first-fruits of them that sleep in him; (Rom. iv. 25. and I Cor. xv. 20.) we must needs also be fully fatisfied upon this ground, that God, (due 78 Inos) through the power of the death, and the virtue of the refurrection of Jefus, will quicken them, that fleep in union with him, (ver. 16.) to an immortal and glorious life; and will gather them together with him, as members with their head, at his fecond coming, when he who is their life shall appear, and they shall appear with him in glory. (Col.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are afleep, that ye forrow not, even as others which have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jefus died, and role again, even fo them also which fleep in Jeius will God bring with him.

15 For this we ay unto you by he word of the Lord, that the

iii. 4.) 15 For, to lead you into fomething ftill further, that ye as yet are entirely unacquainted with; we, we his infpired fervants, declare unto you, not of our which are alive, own head, but by the infallible word of the Lord Jeand remain unto fus, which he has communicated to us by immediate revelation.

heir own nation, or incorporated with had any notion of; and as the apoftle hem by being circumcifed; and the i- might have his eye upon both thefe calolatrous heathens went into exceffive fes, to guard against them, they are relowlings and mournings over their dead, ferred to in the paraphrafe.

NOTE. * In those days there were Feruit whom they looked upon as lost for ever, realots that pretended to exclude all and especially with respect to the body, rom suture happiness that were not of the resurrection of which none of them

Digitized by Google

ŝ

State State State

III

Chap. iv.

the coming of the revelation, with authority to publish it to others *, Lord, fhall not prefent them which are afleep.

16 For the Lord himself shall defcend from heaven with a fhout, with the voice of the

with the trump

of God : and the dead in Chrift fhall archangel, rife firft:

and

that, confidering the whole church, as one collective body, in the prefent, and all fucceeding generations, to the end of the world; whoever they be of us that are to be reckoned to this body, as members of it, and shall be living and left in the church militant here upon earth, until the time of Chrift's coming again in all his glory, we shall not anticipate, much lefs prevent, the refurrection of the bodies of those laints that will then be fleeping in their graves.

16 For, at that important day, the Lord Jesus himfelf will, in his human nature, as visibly defcend from heaven, in a cloud of glory, like the ancient Shechina, as, after his refurrection, he afcended up to heaven with a retinue of angels furrounding him; (Acts i. 9, 11. fee the paraphrafe there) and he will do this with an awful fummons, (ir zerevouari) which fhall be uttered with great folemnity, as with a loud voice of the chief of all the angels, the reft attending him, (Mat. xxv. 31.) and with the exceeding louder voice of the great God our Saviour, Chrift himfelf, as though given forth with the found of a trumpet, like that which was heard on Mount Singi at the publication of the law +, and like what was often used for gathering folemn affemblies together; (Exod. xix. 16. Jer. iv. 5. and Joel ii. 15.) and then and fuggefted, as if any of the then pre- the apostle speaks on this very subject, fent age would live upon earth, till the faying, Behold, I flew you a myflery, time of Christ's second coming to judg- we shall not all sleep ; but we shall ment, is to overthrow all dependence all be changed; the dead shall be raifed upon his authority and infpiration, when incorruptible, and we fball be changed : he tells us that what he here faid was (1 Cor. xv. 51, 52 fee the note there.) by the word of the Lord; and it is evi- And in common language among ourdent that as he often spake of his own selves, when we speak of a nation, or death, fo he expected a refurrection to any company of which we are a part, eternal lite, together with the believers we often fay we shall be very happy, or of that generation, 2 Cor. iv. 14. and v. miferable, whenever such and such events 1,-4. and Phil. iii. 10, 11.: And in come to pass, whether we may ever live ? his 2d epiftle to the Theffalonians, chap. to fee them or not. ii. 1,-8. he fets himfelf to confute the notion of those that fuggested, through immediately to allude to the voice of a miftake of his meaning in what he the trumpet exceeding loud, when the here had faid, as if the fecond coming of Lord or Yebozah (which I take, with Chrift were then at hand; and he re- feveral learned divines, to mean the Son minds them of what he had told them of God) delivered the law at mount Sito the contrary, when he was with nai; (see the note on Acts vii 38) for them, which was before he wrote ei- the trump of God, which is not to be un-ther of his epiftles to them. But as be- derftood in a literal fenfe, may poffibly lievers of all ages and nations make up fignify the voice of Chrift, which he says but one collective body, church, or all that are in their graves fball bear, houshold of faith, all that belong to and shall come forth, they that have that body may, with propriety enough, done good to the refurrection of life, and fpeak of themfelves, as parts of it in the they that have done evil to the refurrec-firit perfon plural, relating to the future, tion of damnation. (John v. 28. 29.)

NOTES.

Q

* To suppose that the apostle thought, as well as present time. In this manner

+ As the trump of God feems most

VOL. V.

Digitized by Google

7 λt

k

Ľ,

1:

0

1

ł

7 ß

R

2 ģ

Č.

2

i.,

Y.

Ŧ,

0

d'

'n

٤ liø

¢3

1

٢

SC.

8

IP,

;6

¢

Îù

t¥.

٢,

£

i,

jr.

16

18

467 ġđ,

لغم وي

R 3

Chap. iv.

then the bodies of those that died in a state of federal and vital union with Chrift, shall be quickned to a glorious immortality, not only before the wicked shall be raifed, but even before the faints, that may then be alive on earth, shall be brought together with him. (ver. 14.)

17 Then, after the refurrection of departed believers to eternal life, those of us that are of this holy community, and belong to Chrift's myftical body, or his true church, and may be found living, and dwelling with that part of it, which shall continue upon earth till that day, shall undergo a refining change, (1 Cor. xv. 31.) and be raifed up by his almighty power to afcend, as one body with our fellow-members, that shall awake from their sleep in the dust of the earth, to everlasting life; (Dan. xii. 2.) and we with them shall be carried up by a divine rapture in the clouds of glory, in which he will then appear, that all of us together may have a happy meeting with our dear Lord in the regions of the air, never to part again *: And being then owned and acquitted by him, and adjudged, as the bleffed of his Father, to inherit the kingdom prepared for us from the foundation of the world, (Mat. xxv. 34.) we shall thenceforward be, in foul and body to all eternity, with the Lord Jefus himfelf, to abide in his immediate prefence, where he is, to behold his glory. (John xvii. 24.)

18 Let these confiderations therefore, taken from the word of the Lord, comfort your hearts, with refpect to the happy condition of your departed Chriftian-friends, and with refpect to the joyful meeting which ye shall have with them in the prefence of Chrift at his coming ; and let these things be the daily subject of your discourse one with another, for your mutual comfort, and the excitation of each other (##eazahurs ahhnhus) to a composed, refigned, and chearful frame of fpirit, under all your prefent trials, and particularly under the loss of fuch as fleep in Iefus, how near and dear foever they were to you; and under every profpect of your own approaching diffolution.

RECOLLECTIONS.

How concerned thould Christians be to increase and abound every day yet more and more, in all holine's of heart and life, according to the will of God, and as may

NOTE,

Digitized by Google

of judgment will be in the air; fince he the wicked, from the beginning to the is to often spoken of as appearing in the end of the world, to appear before his clouds, and in the clouds of heaven, and throne; and the wicked cannot be fupno place of this earth can fcarce be posed to be summoned before it in heathought capacious enough for the innu- ven.

* It is very probable that Chrift's feat merable multitude of the righteous and 17 Then we which are alive, and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and fo shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore, comfort one another with these words.

λİ.

eden tos

H

the ibz db is la boti

, ä

XB,

317.

驷

බැයි sfi

d R ie te

Ŀ

r.

o production and the second second second second second second second second second second second second second second second

ice: hé

603 ψ

5

ł

k

ia 11

ġ

15

(a

i.

Ľ

đŝ

ð

فنا

12 дø

Шļ

Ľ.

ġ,

3

14

¥.

may be most pleasing in his fight! And how watchful ought they to be against, and abhorrent of all fenfuality, and impurity of every kind, as knowing that God hath called them, not to uncleannels, but unto holinels, and will execute righteous vengeance upon all the workers of iniquity ! Whoever neglects, or defpifes the commandments which his fervants deliver by the authority of the Lord Jefus, according to his infpired word, throws contempt, not upon man only, but upon How amiable is that brotherly love, which true believers are God himfelf. taught of God by his word and Spirit to cherifh, and exercise one towards another, together with fuch a peaceable and quiet temper, as disposes and influences them, not to intrude into affairs that do not belong to them, but to be diligent in attending to the duties of their own stations, that they may get an honourable livelihood, and support the credit of religion among its enemies, and prevent occasions of their reproaching it, as though it encouraged idleneis!-As our Christian friends, and we ourselves, must die, either in the ordinary course of nature, or by s violent death, how comfortable is it, and relieving to our forrows, when any of them are taken from us, to be well fatisfied that they fleep in Jefus, and fhall rife again to eternal life; and that we shall meet them again, when God will bring them and us to be glorified with him ! O reviving thought ! that as foon as the dead in Chrift shall be raifed from their graves, the rest of the faints, that shall be living upon earth at his fecond glorious coming, shall, by the wonderful operation of divine power, pais under a refining change of their mortal bodies into an immortal frame; shall be caught up, together with rifen faints, to meet their Lord in the illustrious cloud, where he will appear in the air; and from thenceforth, all together, as one body, shall, in their whole perfons, dwell with him, in his immediate blifsful prefence for ever !

CHAP. V.

The aposlie exhorts the Theffalonians to be always ready for the coming of Christ to judgment, which will be with suddenness and surprife, like a thief in the night, 1,-11. Directs them to several particular duties in their relative and personal capacities, 12,-22. And concludes his epistle with prayer, salutations, and a benediction, 23,-28.

TEXT. BUT of the times and the feafons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourfelves know perfectly, that the day of the Lord fo cometh as a thief in the night.

PARAPHRASE.

BUT, as to the precife time that God has fet, and the fitteft of all opportunities (xaugar) that he defigns to take, for Christ's appearing to execute the judgment of the great day, which will be the confummation of your happines, (cbap. iv. 13,-18.) ye, my dear brethren in the faith of the goipel, have no occasion, nor would it be to any good purpose, for me to gratify a vain curiosity, by attempting to write to you about a point, that is entirely referved, as an absolute fecret, in the counsels of the divine mind; nor would it be of any advantage to you, were I capable of acquainting you with it.

2 For, from what our bleffed Lord himfelf and his apoltles have taught, ye yourlelves have been already led ($\alpha x_{\ell}i\omega s_{\ell}$) into an accurate knowledge of all that is necetiary and ufeful, relating to his final appearance, that ye may be conflantly on your watch, and in a proper readines for it : Ye must needs be well Q 2 fatisfied

Chap. v.

fatisfied in your own minds, that the glorious manifestation of Christ, at his coming to judge the whole world, is unalterably fixed in the purpose of God, and forecold in his word, and shall certainly be brought to pafs, according thereunto, in its proper feafon; but that the particular day, or appointed time for it, is as uncertain, with refpect to our knowledge of it, and will come as unexpectedly, on a fudden, to all of us, and with as much terror and furprile to the wicked and ungodly, that are unprepared for it *, as a thief's breaking into a house at midnight can be to the mafter of it, while he and all his family are afleep, and have no apprehensions of it, or concern about it, to keep them on their watch, and guard against it. (Mat. xxiv. 42, 43. and Rev. iii. 3.)

3 For when they thall fay, Peace and fafety; then fudden deftruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not elcape.

3 For when fecure finners shall flatter themselves, and when, according to their own fond defires, falle teachers shall prophely unto them smooth things, and deceits, faying Peace, peace, when there is no peace; (Ifa. xxx. 10. and Jer. vi. 14.) at that very time utter destruction of foul and body shall rush in upon them at unawares; and that as certainly and fuddenly as the exquisite travailing pains of a woman with child come upon her, when, though the continually carries the caule of them in her own body, the leaft of all expects them, as being engaged in other affairs, in bufinefs or diversions, or in eating, drinking, or fleeping: And as the fooner or later must inevitably undergo the agonizing pains of labour +; fo, whenever this terrible day of the Lord shall come, none of those that are thoughtless about, and unprepared for it, shall by any means be able to fly from, (s un sequenceoi) or avoid the infupportable mileries that their own unbelief, and other fins, will bring upon them. (2 Thef. i. 9.) There shall then be no place, where the workers of iniquity may bide them/elves from the fiercenefs of his righteous indignation. (Job xxxiv. 22.)

4 But ye, brethren, 4 But as for you, my dear Christian brethren, ye may are joined together (fays Mr. Blackwall propriety that the apoftle reprefents the in his Sacred Claffics, Vol. I. pag. 209.) exquisite torments of the wicked at the the more forcibly and fully to represent great day by those pains, with regard to the fuddenness of our Saviour's coming to the extreme anguish, as well as the unjudgment; and the verbs are in the pre- expected fuddenness of them: And it fent time, to make the description more may carry a further intimation that, as affecting and awful.

NOTES.

nature, are frequently fpoken of as em- own iniquities procure them. blems of great dittrefs, as in Pfal. xiviii.6.

* In this and the following verfes, two Yer vi. 24. and xiii. 21. and xxii. 23. elegant and very appointe comparisons and 1 43.: It is therefore with great a woman's hour of forrow is the fruit of + The pains of a woman in travail, her being with child; fo the caufe of the which are some of the tharpest agonies of finner's mileries lies in himself, whole Chap. v.

),t

Ċ.

τ'n

G.

y :

Ģ

ie:

х

C 2

1:

Ľ

,:

-

,2

:

w 3

ļ,

12

đ ¢.

5

C

ć.

ċ

.

- 1 10

7 ġ,

ł!

a

$

Ľ, 3

3 ŗ,

1Ĩ

'n, U.

ţ,

js i β

$

day foould overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkneis.

6 Therefore let us not fleep as do others; but let us watch and be fober.

thren, are not in may think of this day with joy, and not with grief or darkness, that that diffresfing fears; as ye are not, like others, under the power of fpiritual darkneis, to make you fleep fecure in fin, faithlefs and unconcerned about the coming of Chrift, and unready to meet him in that awful day, which, though it may come as much unexpected and unawares to you, as to them, with regard to the particular time of it; yet it shall not be with a furprife upon you to your ruin, as it will be upon them, in like manner as a thief breaks in, not only unexpectedly, but with dreadful havock, upon them that fleep carelefly, without any thought about it, or being in a fit posture to prevent the michievous confequences of it.

> 5 On the contrary, ye, who are made wife unto falvation, (as it is meet for me to think of you all according to your holy profession) are effectually called of God out of darkness into his marvellous light: (I Pet. ii. 9.) Ye are enlightened with fpiritual wifdom and understanding in the knowledge of Christ, and of God's way of falvation by him, that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the jaints, (Ephef. i. 17, 18.) and that ye may be watchful and wakeful, and walk honourably in the light of gospel-truth and holiness with your eyes open, and as becomes perfons that are exposed to public view in the midft of broad day-light; (Rom. xiii. 13.) and fo may efcape the danger of thofe, that, under the power of fin, error, and unbelief, walk in fuch ways of danknels, as not to know whether they are going : (John xii. 35.) We, who are thus made light in the Lord, are neither covered with the fhadows of judaifm nor with the darknefs of heathenifm, nor with the natual darkness and blindness of our own minds, as others ftill are, and we ourfelves once were. (Eph. v. 8.)

> 6 Being therefore brought into this happy flate, let us take heed that we never give way to a flothful, carelefs, and indolent frame of fpirit, as others do, who are still in their fins, and to whom our Lord's coming to judgment will be a dreadful surprise to their everlassing confusion : But let it be our great concern, that, fuitable to our character, as enlightened by the gospel and Spirit of Christ, we maintain a wakeful temper of mind, to watch over our own hearts and ways, and watch against fin and temptations, and for the coming of our Lord; and that we be modeft in our thoughts of ourfelves, and moderate in our cares and pleafures, relating to the prefent world, as those that are expecting his glorious appearance, and are ready and prepared for it.

7 Fer

The First Epistle to the

Chap. v.

7 For they that fleep, fleep in the night; and they that be drunken, are drunken in the might.

8 But let us who are of the day be lober, putting on the breaft-plate of faith and love, and for an helmet the hope of faivation.

9 For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain falvation by our Lord Jefus Chrift. 7 For as they, who give themfelves up to fleep, choofe the night for it, that their reft may not be diffurbed by the noife and bufinefs of the day; and they who drink to an excefs, and intoxication of the brain, ordinarily do it under the covert of the darknefs of the night, that they may not be expofed to fhame in the day-time; fo they that indulge to carnal fecurity, and furfeit themfelves with the cares and pleafures of this world, to flupify and drown all thoughts of a judgment to come, till it overtakes them, before they are aware; (Luke xxi. 34.) thefe are under the power of, and do not care to be diffurbed in, the most dangerous fecurity, that proceeds from, and is agreeable to, the darknefs of ignorance, error, and fin, that covers them.

8 But let us, who are furrounded with the light of gospel-truth and grace, which shines in our hearts, be vigilant, (xnpoper) and moderate in our affections to, and purfuit of the things of this world, like those that look for the coming of our Lord: And as we are in a flate of warfare, let us, like foldiers and centinels, that are armed with breaft-plates and helmets, to fecure the principal feats of the natural life, put on, and daily make use of our Christian armour, especially fuch parts of it as are neceffary for defending our fpiritual vitals against all mortal wounds from fin, Satan, and this evil world; that an exercife of faith in Chrift, and in God through him, according to his promifes, and of love to him and one another, by which faith works, may be like a breaft-plate to defend the heart; and that a well-grounded, folid, and fatisfying hope of eternal life, through Jefus Chrift, may be like a helmet to cover and fecure the head in every day of battle, till we come off more than conquerors through him that hath loved us. And we have the greatest encouragement to this hope, and to be diligent in the discharge of all the forementioned duties.

9 For it appears by what God, in the riches of his grace, has already done for and in us, who are the children of light, (ver. 5.) that he has not ordained us to deftruction, as he rightcoufly has those veffels of wrath, who fit themselves for it by their own iniquities; (fee the note on Rom. ix. 23.) but that, having of his own free and fovereign grace chosen us in Chrift before the foundation of the world, that we (Eph. i. 4.) he has determined to deliver us, as veffels of mercy, from deferved misery, and to bring us to the enjoyment of a glorious state of immortal blifs, through to Who died for us; that, whether we wake or fleep, we floud live together with him.

t

ć

5 k

İ

c ſĹ,

)Ľ

ú,

Si;

Ľ

ć,

α,

5

¢Ľ

32

3

È

bi

k

i.

Ľ

ġŝ

00 ĸ

86

Ъ

th:

٥Ċ

E

E.

耳 ţ,

ų,

14

t

日山 gł

II Wherefore comfort yourfelves together, and edify one another, even as alfo ye do.

12 And we befeech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonifh you: through the merits and mediation of our Lord and Saviour Jefus Chrift.

10 Who died in our room and flead, to take away fin by the facrifice of himfelf, that, by the merit and efficacy of his death, we who believe in him, whether we be among those that shall be alive upon earth, or sleeping in Jesus at his appearing to judgment, may be caught up together in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air; and so may live in union and communion, and together with him, in all the dignity and delights of the heavenly state for ever. (Chap. iv. 13, 17.)

IT Therefore in reflection upon, and affured hope of this bleffed day, think and talk over thefe things, as I faid before, (chap. iv. 18.) to the comfort of your own and one another's fouls; and in this way help forward your mutual edification *, as one body, for the benefit of the whole, that ye may grow up together as a boly temple in the Lord, (Ephef. ii. 21.) with a view to this one thing, namely, your living together with bim, which will be the confummation of all your happines, even as ye have already begun to do.

12 And as they, who minister in facred things, are the ordinary means and inftruments that Chrift has appointed, and bleffes for edification in light and grace, comfort and holinefs, unto complete falvation, we, dear brethren, earnestly entreat you to converse freely with, own and honour, and thew your liberality, love, and refpect to his faithful fervants, and their holy ministrations, who refide, and take pains in his work, among you, for the good of your fouls; and efpecially those, who, by Christ's commission, are placed in authority under him to prefide and rule over you, not in temporal, but spiritual concerns; and that, not according to laws of their own making, but according to his word, for promoting his kingdom and glory, according to the gifts and graces he has furnished them with; and who in the discharge of their office, as occasions require, warn you against all fin, error, and danger, and reprove what is amifs among you, and exhort, counfel, and encourage you to perfevere in the ways of truth, fobriety, and godlinefs, till ye shall receive the end of your faith, even the falvation of your fouls. (1 Pet. i. 9.)

13 And to efleem them very ces, to your honourable effcem and affectionate regards, highly in love for their not merely for what is due to them as Chriftians, but

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

* As the words (in two iva) one another fignify also into one, and admit of various constructions, they are attended to in the paraphrase.

their work's fake. And be at peace among yourielves.

14 Now we exhert you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, confort the feeble - minded, fupport the weak, he patient toward all men.

15 See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourfelves, and to all men.

16 Rejoice evermore. The First Epistle to the

($v\pi \epsilon_5 \quad \epsilon \epsilon \tau \epsilon_2 i \sigma \tau_8$) in a fuperabundant manner, on account of the dignity and importance of the work they are employed in for the glory of God and your fpiritual advantage: And as ever ye would not diffonour Chrift, nor grieve them, nor his Spirit in them, nor prevent your own profiting by their labours, fludy the things that make for harmony, peace, and friendfhip with one another, and with them that are fet over you in the Lord, that the God of love and peace may be with you. (Ephef. iv. 3. and 2 Cor. Xiii. 11.)

14 Now, dearly beloved brethren, to draw towards a close of this epittle, we earneftly befeech both minifters and people among you, in their respective places, to admonish those of their faults, that do not keep their rank, (atants;) or are any way diforderly in their walk with the church, or in their families, and conversation in the world : Warn them of their fin and danger, of the difhonour they bring upon their holy profession, and of the pernicious influence of their example ; and endeavour, in a fpirit of meeknefs and love, to reclaim them : Do all that in you lies to encourage and comfort fellow-Christians, that are of a timorous and dejected spirit, ready to give way to melancholy and defpairing thoughts, and to faint under their fears and afflictions : Deal tenderly with, and endeavour to ftrengthen the weak in faith and understanding, and to uphold them from stumbling and falling, who are in danger of it, rather through infirmity, than any evil difpolition of mind : And exercife all long-fuffering and forbearance, as far as the nature of things permits, and as may be most likely to answer valuable ends, toward perfons of all thefe characters, yea, and towards all men, whether friends or enemies. Chriftians or not.

15 How ill foever others treat you, keep a guard upon your own angry and refenting paffions; and let none of you dare to feek private revenge, to be even with, and retaliate mifchief upon the head of any one that fhall injure you; but, on the contrary, overcome evil with good; (Rom. xii. 17, 19, 20, 21.) and be always fludying, and purfuing whatfoever is kind, ufeful, and beneficial, both one towards another, as fellow-Chriftians, and even towards all mankind, as fellow-creatures, doing good to all, as ye have opportunity, and efpecially to the boufhold of faith. (Gal. vi. 10.)

16 As to per/onal duties, that are to be added to the foregoing which are relative, labour after a chearful frame of fpirit, for the credit of religion and your own comfort, that ye may rejoice in the Lord, in what

Chap. v.

out ceating.

17 /Pray with-

). ',

12

1

ų,

lii,

ha

÷.

22

17

12 (;

E.

1

p đ

r:

ï

ż

Ċ

'n'

i"

1È

٢

5 ŕ,

Ĩ ŀ

Ľ,

k

Ľ

5

J

ĥ

;*.

2

:

f.

1

ļ,

i(

ð

5

1 , 1

乡

what he is in himfelf, and in what he has done, is doing, and will do for you; and rejoice in hope of his glory at all times, in the day of advertity, as well as of prosperity.

17 Under a humble fense of your entire dependence upon God, as creatures, and as Chriftians, of the imperfections of your spiritual state, and the afflictions of various kinds that ye are attended with, or liable to, and of your need of further mercies, of a fpiritual and temporal nature, fee that ye abound in daily prayer, every morning and evening, (fee the note on 2 Tim. i. 3.) and be inftant in it at all other times, as there may be fpecial occafions and opportunities for it; and ever maintain a praying frame of fpirit for folemn addreffes to God, and great frequency of holy ejaculations, to mingle with all other duties of the civil and religious life, and to guard you against temptations to fin, and dangers of every kind.

18 In reflection upon your being unworthy of the least of all God's mercies, and upon the riches of his free goodnefs and undeferved grace, in loading you with benefits that over-balance all your afflictions, labour to keep up a thankful frame of heart, and to go into lively exercises of it, in every condition of life: (fee P/a/. xxxiv. 1. and Phil. iv, 6.) For this is a grateful tribute, which God in a special manner requires of you for his own honour, and takes pleasure in, through Jefus Christ, and has laid you under the highest obligations to, on account of his love to you, and of what he has done for you by the great Redeemer.

19 As thefe excellent and important duties cannot be discharged, in a right manner, without divine influence, take heed of neglecting, flifling and extinguishing the gifts, graces, and operations of the Holy Spirit, that are compared to fire; (Mat. iii. 11.) but be watchful and diligent to fall in with, cherifh and improve his gracious illuminations, fuggeftions, motions, and affiftances, as well as his extraordinary inclusive of his ordinary gifts *, to excite you to, and enable

Digitized by Google

NO Т E.

the next verie, to the extraordinary gifts of the Spirit, as fome do; but find myfollows after, to think that quenching VOL. V.

* I can by no means confine quench- ture prophecies, or to preaching, as it ing the Spirit here, and prophefying in fometimes fignifies, whether by infpiration or not: (fee the note on Rom xil. 6.) For all the other directions, in this felf confirained, by what goes before and context, relate to the ordinary graces and duties of the Christian life, that go the Spirit includes, or rather chiefly re- into the common practice of religion, lates to his ordinary enlightning, quick- and not to any extraordinary gifts; and ning, fanctifying, and comforting opera- it feems very unnatural, and unlike the tions; and that prophefying, or prophe- clole and pertinent way of our apofile's cies. (#goophysia;) relates either to forip- writing, to suppose that things of so different R

18 In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Chrift Je. fus concerning you.

19 Quench not the Spirit.

20 Defpise not prophelyings.

21 Prove all things : hold faft that which good.

22 Abstain from all appearance of evil.

23 And the very God of peace fanctify you wholly: and I pray God your whole fpirit and foul and hody, be preferved blamelefs, unto the coming ferent a nature should be chiefly, much tional, and animal or sensitive foul, difmore only intended, when introduced in tinct from one another, and of a body, the midft of a feries of exhortations to diffinct from both, which feems to be athe exercise of ordinary graces and duties, greeable to the account of the creation that belong to all Christians of every of man in Gen. ii. 7. where it is faid, age, as fuch.

* Your whole spirit, soul and body, has a manifest reference to the received the breath of life, or lives, (D") doctrine of the Pythagorean, Platonic, and, by means of this union, man beand Stoic philosophers, who confidered came a living foul, partaker of a fenfi-

NOTES.

Digitized by Google

that God formed man, his body, of the dust of the earth, and breathed into man man as confifting of three parts; of a ra- tive, as well as of a rational life: And 25

enale you for every good work, and to warm your hearts with facred fervour in performing it.

20 As the word and Spirit go together, according to God's promife, (I/a. lix. 21.) and all the operations of the Spirit are by means of, or according to his word, do not treat the prophecies of the Old or New Testament with contempt, as if there were nothing in them for your instruction and edification; nor ought ye to neglect, or think lightly of the appointed and authorifed ministrations of God's word to explain and enforce it, whether by an extraordinary gift or not.

21 As falfe teachers are gone abroad in the world, (I John iv. I.) do not take any thing ye hear upon truft, or receive it with an implicit faith; but examine, try, and prove the truth or fallhood of all the doctrines and practices that are preached, (ver. 20.) by the flandard of the word, (Ma. viii. 20.) in a humble dependence on the light and influence of the Holy Spirit, (ver. 19.) to enable you to form a right judgment concerning them : And when, upon trial, ye find what is really good and honourable, (za- λ_{ov}) in point of truth or duty, indulge no longer a fceptical temper about it; but maintain and abide by it, in the ftedfaftness of your faith, and practice of your lives, rejecting every thing that is contrary to

22 In this manner, keep at the farthest distance poffible from all error and fin of every kind, under what fpecious appearances foever they be prefented to you; and even from every thing that you fufpect to be falfe or finful, or tending to draw yourfelves or others into any fin or error.

23 And may that God himfelf, who is reconciled to you by the blood of Chrift, and is the author, giver, and approver of peace one with another, and in your own conficiences, and of all manner of prosperity; may he thoroughly purge your whole perfons from all iniquity, and make you eminently partakers of his holinefs * ! And I earneftly beg of him, that all the powers.

THESSALONIANS paraphra/ed.

Chap. v.

١, ог.

4

¢,

::

δı

£

3

£7.

σt

0.

L).

5

H

D

17

ĺ2

17 0 , 0

1

. .

ŗ.

łz

TÌ.

Í.

ធ្ល

 $\{ i \}^{i}$

)KA

0f, jî

25¢ i

)erit

10

; dB

ji Ľ

puro

nd b

2 M

10 101 (IN)

33

f#

nti nd

57 est h

2 12

i da fus Chrift.

24 Faithful is you, who also will

25 Brethren, pray

he do it.

for us.

that calleth

ing of our Lord Je. powers and faculties of your rational and immortal fouls; and the whole frame of your animal fpirits, fensitive appetites, and natural tempers; and all the members of your bodies may be cured of every finful irregularity and diforder, in their propensions and operations, and may be continually kept unreprovable, (auuntus) as to any predominant vice, until, and may be found entirely free from all defects, at the fecond appearing of our Lord Jefus Chrift, when he will prefent you to himfelf a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any fuch thing. (Eph. v. 27.)

> 24 My prayer for this, on your behalf, is with faith and affured hope, that he, who hath effectually called you, by his grace, to his kingdom and glory, (chap. ii. 12.) will alfo, in faithfulnefs to his promifes, carry on and perfect all that concerns you, in the way and by the means of his own appointment. (See Phil. i. 6.)

> 25 As we, Christ's ministring fervants, thus affectionately pray for you, we earneftly beg that ye, our Chriftian-brethren, would, in return, be mindful of us in all your prayers, (which we greatly effect and need) that God would be with us in our workto affift, own and fucceed us, and to perform all things for us, in us, and by us, that we may be faithful in the discharge of our difficult and important truft, and may receive the crown of glory from the chief Shepherd at his appearing. (1 Pet. v. 4.)

26 Let our most affectionate and religious respects brethren with an be presented to all our Christian brethren; and see that ye give usual testimonies of cordial love one to another, by mutual falutations, in the most fincere, pious, chafte, and friendly manner. (See the note on Rom. xvi. 16.)

> 27 The contents of this epiftle, as well as all the infpired writings, are of fo great importance, and ot fuch general use and concernment, to the whole church, that I folemnly enjoin those of you, into whole hands it may come ; yea, I adjure you, as by a religious oath, in the name, and by the authority of the Lord Jefus *, that it he not concealed from any of its members, but be diffinctly and plainly read to all, and every one of them, who ought to live and

> > R

E S.

Digitized by Google

Т

NO

ded that under the fensitive foul.

brethren, or members of the church, is an not having them at all.

as the natural temper very much de- evident confutation of the doctrine and pends upon the different texture and mo- practice of popery, in forbidding the tion of the animal spirits, I have inclu- common people to read the scriptures; and it equally condemns their having the * The apostle's tolemn charge that scriptures only in an unknown tongue, his epifile should be read to all the boly which, in effect, is much the fame, as walk

26 Greet all the holy kils.

27 I charge you by the Lord, that this epiftle be read unto all the holy. brethren.

walk in love, as dear brethren, and as a peculiar people zealous of good works, whom Chrift has purified to himfelf, as I charitably believe of them, according to their holy proteffion.

28 The grace of our Lord Jefus Carift be with you. Amen.

ace of 28 To conclude with a parting prayer for you, Jefus May the free favour of our anointed Lord and Saviour, and all its bleffed fruits and effects, abound towards every one of you, for your prefent edification and growth in light and grace, love and peace, comfort and holinels, till all shall be completed in eternal falvation. So I fincerely defire it may be, and fo I trust it will be, in testimony of which, I heartily fay, Amen.

RECOLLECTIONS.

How much more does it concern us to be always ready for Christ's coming to judgment, than to indulge curious inquiries when it shall be ! It will be a terrible furprife to fome, that vainly promile themselves peace and safety, when certain But what a and fudden deftruction will come upon them, ere they are aware. joyful day will it be to true believers! They are not involved in fpiritual darknefs, like others : but are the children of light, whom God hath not appointed to wrath, but to obtain eternal falvation through a Redeemer: And as he has called them by his grace, and is at peace with them through the blood of Chrift, he will fanctify them throughout, and faithfully perfect all that concerns them, till the day of Chrift, that they may live together with him who died for them. But as this is to be brought about in the ule of proper means, How careful (hould they be to thake off floth ! They fhould watch and be fober, and live in the daily exercise of faith. love, and hope; and cultivate an holy peace among themfelves, to mutual edification and comfort; should deal tenderly and faithfully one with another; and pray for, and pay all due regard to, those that labour among them in the word and doctrine, and are fet over them in the Lord, to counfel, caution, and encourage them in their way to heaven : They fhould take heed of defpifing, or neglecting their holy ministrations, and of stifling the light and impressions of the Spirit that attend them. And, having tried and proved all points of religion by the word of God, they thould hold faft the truth, as it is in Jefus, and be ever followers of that which is good among themielves, and towards all men; fhould abstain from angry and revengeful paffions, and from all appearance of evil; and ever maintain a joyful, prayerful, and thankful frame of spirit, and give all becoming testimonies of cordial love and friend/hip one towards another. What a privilege is it to have the free use of the scripture, for learning these and every Christian doctrine and duty, that we may be taught to profit by them ! May the grace of our Lord Jefus Chrift be with us all ! Amen.

A PRAC.

A PRACTICAL

1

EXPOSITION

OF THE

SECOND EPISTLE OF THE APOSTLE PAUL

TOTHE

THESSALONIANS,

IN THE FORM OF A

PARAPHRASE.

THE PREFACE TO THE SECOND EPISTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

"HIS fecond Epifile to the Theffalonians is generally, and most probably, thought to have been wrote, in lefs than two years after the former, by the apoftle Paul from Corinth, where he ftill continued; and, as feems from chap. i 3 and ii. 2. and iii. 11. had received fome further account of the flate of their affairs; and thereupon wrote this Epifile to commend, encourage, and comfort them under their fufferings for the gofpel; and to rectify their mifconstruction of what he had faid in his former Episitle about the coming of Chrift, as if he meant that his fecond glorious appearing to judgment were just at hand; as also to correct the diforders of fome among them, that were too much inclined to an idle life, and might, poffibly, grow more and more negligent of fecular affairs, from their mistaken notion, as though the end of all things were at hand, and might be tempted to reject the whole gofpel, as a forgery, when they fhould live to fee themfelves difappointed of the expectation which they had built upon one of its supposed prophecies of fo important an event.

The apottle begins with his ufual infcription and falutation; and, to encourage their patience under tribulations for Chrift, expresses his thankfulness to God for their growth in grace, which would be crowned with eternal glory, when Chrift shall appear to their joy, and the deftruction of his and their enemies, chap. i. He then exhorts them to stedfastness of faith in Christ; and undeceives them with respect to their missaken apprehensions of his speedily coming to judgment, which he tells them would not be, 'till after the days of antichristian apostacy; from which he blesses God that they should, and prays that they might, be preferved, to their comfort and establishment, chap. ii. And he concludes with defiring their prayers,

Digitized by Google

3 3

Τ,

Ċ,

ú

7

2

2

Č,

7

12

r,

t (

Ì¢

15

٩₽

Ŷ.

¢; ١,

×,

1 4

ų

us, ers, and with expressions of his confidence that, answerable to his prayers for them, they should be established, and would yield obedience to the apottolic commands in all things; adding exhortations to withdraw themfelves from fuch members of the church as did not act up to the dignity of their Christian character, after the example which he had fet them, and that particularly with respect to induftry in their feveral stations; charging the church to be faithful. prudent, and tender in admonishing diforderly walkers; and clofing all with his good withes and affectionate benediction, with which he ufually concluded his Epittles, chap. iii.

С H A P. I.

The apostle falutes the church at Thessalonica, ver. 1, 2. Bleffes God for the growing flate of their love and patience, 3, 4. And encourages them to perfevere therein under all their fufferings for Chrift, in confideration of his coming at the great day of account, to execute righteous judgment upon his and their enemies, and to be glorified in their own complete falvation, which the apofile boped and prayed for on their behalf, 5,-12.

TEXT.

DAUL, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Theffalonians, in God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Chrift :

2 Grace unto and peace you, from God our Father, and the Lord Jefus Chrift.

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet,

PARAPHRASE.

AUL, with Silas and Timothy, who affifted him in planting the gofpel among you, the church at Theffalonica, (Acts xvii. 4, 14.) which is conflituted of believers in God, as the only living and true God, in diffinction from all the idols of the heathen, and as our covenant God and Father; and of believers in the Lord Jefus Chrift, as the only true Meffiah, in diffinction from all pretenders to that character, whom the unbelieving Jews vainly expect. We join in fending a fecond epiftle, and in the most affectionate Christian falutations, as we did in the former, (fee the note on 1 Cor i. 1.) cordially wishing and praying, that the divine favour, with all its fpecial manifestations, fruits, and effects, and every kind of prosperity that can be included in the term peace, relating to God, yourfelves, and others, may abound towards all, and every one of you, by the free gift of God our heavenly Father, as the original fountain of it, and of our Lord Jefus Chrift, as the only mediator, by and through whom it is communicated, and rendered effectual for your prefent and eternal happinefs.

3 We, reflecting on what we have further heard of the grace of God toward you, feel ourfelves to be fweetly confirmined unto continual thankful acknowbecause that your ledgements of it for his glory ; and to blefs his holy faith name on your behalf, dear brethren, as it becomes faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all towards each other aboondeth;

4. So that we ourfelves glory in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith in all your perfecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

5 Which is a manifeft token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:

6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you:

7 And to you? who are troubled, reft with us, when the us, and we are bound in duty to do; becaufe your faith, which his Spirit wrought in you, by means of our ministry, (I Epist. i. 5. and ii. I.) is carried on, and exceedingly improved, by his continued aid and influence, in its light, ftrength, and lively exercise; and your brotherly love, as the fruit of this remarkably growing faith, is proportionably increasing in its fervor, and all fuitable expressions and demonstrations of it, in every one of you towards each other.

4 So eminent and exemplary are thefe graces in you, and your behaviour under the greatest trials of them is fo becoming the gofpel, that we think of and mention you with high efteem, honour, and delight, in all the churches of the living God, whereever we come, for your firmnefs of mind, calm fubmiffion, and holy refolution, as well as ftrong and lively faith, which produces them, in bearing up with a truly Chriftian Spirit, and ftedfaft adherence to Chrift and the gofpel, under all the fevere perfecutions and afflictions of every kind, that ftill attend you for his fake, as they did when ye firft received the word with joy in the Holy Ghoft. (i The f. i. 6, 7.)

5 This carries a plain demonstration (wdswyuz) of God's having judged right, in permitting you to be exercifed with these troubles, which turn fo much to his glory, and your own fpiritual benefit; and it is an evident proof that there is a just and impartial judgment to come, which will fet all things to rights, that ye may be deemed fit and meet fubjects to inherit that heavenly kingdom, which God hath prepared for you from the foundation of the world : (Mat. xxv. 34.) And it is on account of your professed expectation of this, through Jefus Chrift, according to the gospel, that your enemies are fo fevere upon you; and by the hope of this ye are animated to fuffer all hardships with chearfulness and patience, without fainting under them, (fee the notes on 2 Cor. iv. 17.) as believing that the iffue of all will be to your unspeakable joy, and their insupportable misery;

6 For as much as it is fuitable to the rectifude of God's nature and will, law and government, who will judge the world in rightcoufnefs, and whofe judgment is according to truth, to inflict the feverelt punifhment in due time upon them that now cruelly perfecute you; and fo to retaliate juft indignation and wrath, tribulation and angui/b upon them that now unjuftly vex and diffrefs you: (Rom. ii. 2, 5, 8, 9.)

7, 8 And it is a righteous thing with God, on Chrift's account, and in performance of his covenant with him and his members, to give you (array) a releafe

Digitized by GOOGLE

be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,

8 In flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jefus Chrift.

9 Who fhall be punished with everlafting deftruction from the prefence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;

10 When he fhall come to be glorified in his faints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

the Lord Jesus shall lease and dismission, in due time, from all your prefent tribulations, and an entrance into a flate of perfect reft and peace, together, and in company with us, his ministring fervants, and your fellow-fufferers for his fake; (1 Theff. iii. iv.) which he affuredly will do, when the L'ord Jefus, who has redeemed us by his precious blood, shall be openly manifested, and every eye shall see him, at his descending from heaven, from whence we look for the Saviour, (Pbil. iii. 20.) with a grand retinue of all his holy angels, who excel in ftrength, and were created by, and for him, and shall attend to do his will, as his ministers in that day; (Mat. xiii. 49, 50. and xxiv. 31.) and he shall be revealed in the most august and tremendous manner, as coming with flames of fire all around him, to burn up the earth, and the wicked that are therein; (2 Pet. iii. 10.) and to execute wrath on all those that continue in their fins, ftrangers to the true knowledge of God, and rebellious against the light of nature, like the Gentiles that did not glorify him as God; and on all those that are disobedient to the gracious calls of our Lord and Saviour Jefus Chrift in his gofpel, like the unbelieving Jews, and all that reject him.

> 9 Both these forts of finners shall be feverely punifhed, not by an annihilation of their being, but by an eternal loss of all happines; by a total banishment from his blifsful prefence, and from all the glorious effects of his faving power, which will be manifefted in the faints; (ver. 10.) and by fuffering the greateft miferies in foul and body from his own immediate hand, who is every where prefent in being and operation, and from terribly glorious impreffions of his Almighty power upon them.

> 10 This is what he will certainly do, to the utter confusion and ruin of his and your enemies, at the very time when he will appear to your joy, and will come to be glorified in a faithful performance of all his promifes unto the complete falvation of his peculiar people, who are fanctified by faith in him, and to be glorified by them in their exalted praifes for it; and shall come to be adored by all true believers with transports of joyful aftonishment, and with humble and thankful wonder at his grace, and at the great and glorious things he has done for and in them, which will reflect a glory upon him; and this will be with envious amazement of their enemies to fee them, whom they fo much defpifed and oppreffed before, fo highly favoured and honoured by their great Lord, in the day of judgment; becaufe they will then be found among those that cordially embraced the teftimony,

> > Digitized by Google

ĺ

;1

2

.

Ť.

4 ŧą

 $\overline{\mathbf{v}}_{i}$

Ъ,

. y

2

5

i.

1

'n,

í,

ч, ÷

 $\mathbf{\hat{z}}$

÷,

١,

1

2

÷

II Wherefore alfo we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good plea-fure of his goodneis, and the work of faith with power;

12 That the name of our Lord Jefus Chrift may be glorified in you, and ye in him, acthe cording to grace of our God, and the Lord Jeius Chrift.

mony, that we his fervants gave to his perfon and offices, and to his final appearance, in our preaching the gofpel, which will be eminently confirmed, as the truth of God, to their richeft advantage in that day.

11 And according to our hope of your efcaping all the terrors, and fharing in all the bleffednefs and glory of that important day, we are continually recommending you in our flated, earneft, and affectionate prayers to the God of all grace, whom we humbly claim as our covenant-God, that he would carry on, and perfect his good work in your fouls, to make you meet and fit perfons, in his gracious account, to inherit all the bleffings of his kingdom of glory, (ver. 5.) to which he hath called you by the gofpel; and that he would fill up $(\pi \lambda ng \omega \sigma n)$ what yet remains to be fulfilled of all the free and fovereign purpofes of his kindnefs, love, and grace toward you, and his eminently good work of faith in you, unto all patient, confirmed, and lively exercifes, and still further increafes of it, and of its fruits of righteoufnels, till it be finished by the powerful operation of his Spirit in you.

12 That fo the perfon, authority, and doctrine of our Lord and Saviour Jefus Chrift may be highly exalted in your effeem, and in their happy and glorious effects upon you, and may be glorified in heart and life by you; and that ye may arrive at the most glorious flate of perfect joy and praife, by virtue of your union with him, according to the free favour of our gracious God, who hath appointed you to it, and of the Lord Jefus Chrift, who hath purchafed it for you, promifed it to you, and will beftow it upon you.

RECOLLECTIONS.

How folemn and august will Christ's appearance to judgment be at the last day! How tremendous to finners ! And how transporting to believers ! He will then be vifibly seen, as coming from heaven with awful majesty, and surrounding hous of angels; a flame of fire will go before him to devour his enemies; and he will execute the righteous judgment of God in taking dreadful vengeance on those that fifie the light of nature, and rebel against the clearer light of the gospel of Christ, and on all the perfecutors of his church and people : They shall be banished his blifsful prefence, and punished with immediate imprefiions of his Almighty power upon them to their everlafting deftruction. But with what a different afpect, and to what better purpoles will he, at the fame time, manifest himfelf to fincere believers, whole hearts are purified by faith ! He will come to be glorified and admired in them; and they shall be glorified in and with him, as members in union with bim. Happy fouls! who are brought cordially to believe the divine teftimony that is given in the gospel concerning him, and that thall be confirmed, with a glorious accomplithment of it to themfelves, in the great day. What thanks are due to God on their behalf! How juitly may his fervants glory in thele objects 'of his love, and in its powerful effects upon them ! And with what patience, faith, and hope, may they themselves endure all tribulations that befal them, in view and prospect of this bleffed day, when the righteous God will, according to his promise, and the merit of his Son, make them rich amends for all their fufferings fer S

Vol. V.

Digitized by GOOGLE

for him! May grace and peace be multiplied to them from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ ! May all the good pleasure of God's goodness, and the work of faith, be fulfilled in them with power, by perfecting all that concerns them, in order to their glorifying the name of Chrift in this world, and their being glorified with him in the world to come, according to the freenels and riches of the Father and Son's grace, as revealed in the gospel.

P. С н Α II.

The apostle cautions the Thessalonians against an erroneous notion, as though the time of Chriff's coming to the final judgment were juft at hand, 1, 2. Affures them that there would first be a general apollacy from the faith, and a revealing of the antichriftian man of fin, whom he describes by his rife, reign, and ruin, and shews the just destruction that would come upon his infatuated subjects, that had pleasure in unrighteousness, 3,-12. But bless God for the fecurity of the Theffalonians from apoflacy, by virtue of their eternal election, and effectual calling, and thereupon repeats his exbortation to Redfastness, and prays for them, 13,-17.

TEXT.

NOW we befeech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord unto him,

PARAPHRASE.

HAVING now, my dear Chriftian brethren, to en-courage and comfort you under all your prefent Jeius tribulations, reminded you of the glorious coming Chrift, and by our of Chrift, which will be to your unspeakable joy, and gathering together the everlasting destruction of all his and your enemies, (chap. i. 6,-10.) I, with whom Silvanus and Timothy join, (chap. i. 1.) proceed to another principal defign of this epiftle, which is to rectify a miltake, that fome have been led into, as though Chrift were now fuddenly coming to judgment. We therefore earneftly entreat, and folemnly adjure you, by your belief, expectation, and defire of the awful coming of our Lord and Saviour Jefus Chrift to the final judgment of all mankind, at the laft day; and by your hopes of being then gathered together with us, and with all his faints, in the general affembly and church of the first-born, to meet the Lord in the air, and to be ever with him in his blifsful prefence, (1 Theff. iv. 17.) * we befeech you to think ferioufly about an affair of fuch valt importance ;

Digitized by Google

2 That

ł

27

¢ ł;

5

ŧ,

۹, ₹,

à ł,

ł

i,

2

٩

÷

łį

¥

i,

¥.

NO

not to his coming to the destruction of fcript renders it concerning, the para-Jerufalem, but to the final judgment, is phrase gives a hint of that sense; though, very evident; because this is the sense in which the apoftle all along speaks of his prefer the other, which puts (unis) concoming in this and his former epiftle: cerning for $(\delta_{1\alpha})$ by, and feems to fet (see first Epift. ii. 19. and iii. 13. and the meaning of this paffage in the eafieft iv. 13,-17. and v. 2, 13. and fecond Epift. i. 6,-10.) And as the preposition apostle's frequent manner of adjuration (unic) with a genitive cafe, often fig- in important cafes, which he also had u-

T E. + That this coming of Chrift relates thiopic version, and Theophilast's manuwith the generality of commentators, I light, and to be most agreeable to the nifies concerning or about ; and the E- fed in his first epistle, chap. v, 27.

2 That ye be not foon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by fpirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as from us, as that the day of Chrift is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day (ball not come.

except there come a falling away first, and that man of fin be revealed, the

, fon of perdition :

2 That ye may not eafily, and fo foon after the instructions we have given you relating to it, be mifled into any notions, contrary thereunto, that would difconcert, or stagger your minds, or throw them into perplexity and confusion, by means of any falfe fuggeitions, that are spread among you, either by mere pretenders to a fpirit of prophecy, or by ignorant, or deligning mifconstructions of what we have delivered by word of mouth, or by writing in our former epiftle, (chap. iv. 15,-18.) or by appeals to fpurious writings, or traditions, that are forged and fathered upon us, as though, in one or other of these ways we had affirmed, or at least given intimations, from which it might be gathered as our opinion, that the day of our bleffed Lord's glorious appearing to the final judgment were just now instantly coming on ; whereas no fuch thing was ever faid, or defigned to be fuggested by us; and your belief of it would be of dangerous confequence, fince upon your being difappointed of your expectation, as ye certainly would, with respect to the sime of his coming, ye might be tempted to difbelieve his ever coming at all; and to conclude against the truth of the whole gofpel itself, of which this is fo effential an article.

3 Take heed that no man impose upon you, or seduce you into this pernicious notion, by thefe or any other pretences whatfoever; there being no truth in it : For we now affure you by divine revelation, that the awful day of judgment is at a remoter diftance, and will not come, till after there shall be a remarkable and general apoltacy from the faith, worship, and holiness of the gospel, and an antichristianpower, confifting of a fucceflion of impious men, shall, be made manifelt, which for fubtility and ftrength, in countenancing and propagating the vileft corruption of doctrines and manners, may be fitly ftyled, by way of eminence, that man of fin * who will fet

> 0 т E.

N

* That man of fin, the fon of perdi- with respect to that which with-holds tion, though mentioned in the fingular and he who now lets, and will let, till it number, fignifies not merely any one be taken away, ver. 6, 7. which, (as particular perfon; but a succession of many of the ancient fathers understood men, in like manner as the fucceffion of it, and the event afterwards proved) the kings and high priefts of l/rael were pointed at the heathen Roman empire, fpoken of, as though they had been but or Emperors at the head of it, in a fucone perfon, in defcribing their charac. ceffion of them, though the apoftle hints ters, and the law concerning them. this with great caution, only in a covert Deut xvii. 14,-20. Lew. xxi 10,-15. way, to avoid giving offence to the Em-Numb. xxxv. 25, 28. and Heb. ix 7. and peror, and provoking his wrath against this is interpreted to mean any high the Christians, as a seditious fort of peoprieft in his day; and the whole order ple, that fomented notions tending to of them together is meant by the bigh the destruction of the Roman empire. prieft. The fame allo may be observed up

129

up himfelf, and be difcovered in the plainest characters, by being at the head of all abominable wickednefs, (fee the note on ver. 4.) under the Christian name ; who also may be called the fon of perdition, as he will caufe the destruction of the fouls and bodies of multitudes, and as he himfelf will be deftroyed, or go into perdition. and be caft into the lake of fire and brimflone. (Rev. xvii. 11. and xix. 20.)

4 This man of fin is emphatically the great antichryl, who, confidering him as arrived at the height of his temporal and ecclesiastical dignity, is an opposer of Chrift, in the perfection and glory of all his offices, and a cruel perfecutor of his members ; he alfo, accord. ing to Daniel's prophecy, (chap. xi. 36.) magnifies himfelf above, and affumes fovereign authority oyer kings and emperors, who, on account of their office, are flyled godr, (Pfal. lxxxii. 1, 6.) and in the title of the Roman emperors, are called augus, (rebusal) as if they were to be worshipped; and he exalts himfelf above the gods of the heathen, by claiming a greater and more extensive power in heaven, earth, and hell, than ever was afcribed to any one of them; yea, above the true God himfelf, who is the only object of religious adoration, by difpenfing with his laws, and ordering, in direct contradiction to his command, (Mat. iv. 10. fee the note there) that religious worship should be paid to creatures and images, which is due to God alone; and by requiring a more abfolute obedience to his own authority, than to the commands of God himfelf : So that, as the true God formerly refided in the temple at Yeru/alem, this grand antichrift feats himfelf, as on his throne, in the church, which is fpoken of as the temple of God: (1 Cor. iii. 16, 17. and 2 Cor. vi. 16.) And by excreifing supreme authority over it, giving laws to, and receiving divine titles and homage from it, in its apostate state, he makes a vain shew, as if he really were God *.

* All these characters of the man of and they, though not professedly, yet fin are plainly applicable to, and exemplified in popery, inclusive of the hierarchy of Rome, with the Pope at the head trines the commandments of men; in of it, in fucceffive generations; and fully agree to none that has appeared in the world befides them; for they are monfters of wickedness, that are guilty of, Christ; and in his kingly office, by difand patronize cruel perfecutions, perfidious breaches of faith, and idolatrous the Pope, as the fupreme head of the worship of faints, angels, and images; church. And fome of their Popes have and that encourage all manner of iniqui- treated kings and emperors with infolent. ty, by pretended pardons, and indulgen- contempt, as their vafials, to be depofed, ces, and licencing houses of debauchery; or enthroned, at their pleasure; have

Digitized by Google

5 Have

÷

÷

j. 5

1

٠,

٠,

Ł

à.

÷

Ŀŗ

h.

1

 \hat{n}_{ij}

a,

١.

really oppose Chrift in all his offices ; in his prophetic office, by teaching for dochis prie/lly office, by the doctrine of merit, the facrifice of the mais, and joining faints and angels, as interceffors with penfing with his laws, and fetting up excommunicated

4 Who oppofeth and exalteth himfelf above all that is called God, or that is worthipped;

to that he as God fatteth in the temple of God, thew-

ing himielt that he is God.

.

THESSALONIANS paraphrased.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things ?

6 And now ye know what withholdeth, that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the myitery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth, will let. until he be taken out of the way.

5 Have ye been fo careless as to have forgotten former notices of these things? this feems to be the cafe with fome of you. But cannot ye now recollect, ye certainly might, that I Paul myfelf*, when perfonally preaching to, and converfing with you at Theffalonica, gave you fufficient intimations, that the day of Chrift's coming to judgment is not just at hand; but that, in the courle of divine difpentations, there mult be first a general defection from the faith. and the rife of the antichriftian man of fin?

6 And if ye duly reflect upon what I have told you by word of mouth, and have now added in this Epittle, ye may eafily gather what it is that at prefent reftrains and hinders the complete revelation of the man of fin, as the head of the great apoftacy : It may well be fuppofed in the very nature of things, though dangerous to fpeak it out, (see the note on ver. 3.) that it is the heathen Roman empire under one political head, according to the form in which it now fubfifts. This must be taken away to make room for the introduction of the head of the apoftacy, that he may be manifested in the height of his power and authority, pomp and grandeur, in his proper feafon, according to the appointed time of God for it.

7 For the great defection, which may justly be called the myllery of iniquity, or of that wicked one. (ver. 8.) on account of the fecrecy and fubtility of its fpreading, and the unfearchable depth of fin and error that is wrapt up in it, and will hereafter more plainly and openly fnew itfelf, and begins already to diffufe its malignant influence in pride and worldlymindednefs, will-worfhip, and worfhipping of angels, and in corrupting the pure doctrine of juftification,

NOTES.

excommunicated them, and absolved of Rome; and the description here githeir subjects from allegiance to them; ven of her, flands in good agreement others have trod on the necks of empe- with the representation that is made of rors, kicked off their crowns with their the Romi/b antichristian power in the feet, and let them on with their feet a- Revelation, under the figures of Myflegain, and obliged them to hold the rv. Babylon, the great whore that fits Pope's ftirrup, when he alighted from, on many waters, the bealt and the falfe or mounted his horfe. These haughty prophet. ecclefiaftical tyrants have fet themielves in the place of God, by affuming authority over the fouls and confciences of fonal ministry and conversation, in which men, and admitting of blaiphemous adoration, under the titles of a God on livered more things, relating to these earth, and the Lord God the Pope; and they have exalted themfelves even above God himfelf, by not only repealing wrote, in his first epistle to them : Achis laws, but making the whole autho- cordingly he speaks, ver. 15. of the trarity of his word to depend on the autho- ditions they had received by word, as rity of the church. These, and such well as by his epitile. (See the note like things, are notorious in the church there.)

28

* The apoftle here refers to what he had faid to the Thefalonians in his perit is reationably supposed, that he had depoints, to which he here appeals, than are to be found, or were proper to be

S And then fhall that wicked be revealed, whom the Lord fhall confume with the fpirit of his mouth, and fhall deitroy with the brightnefs of his coming:

9 Even bim whole coming is after the working of Satan, with all power; and figns, and lying wonders, as though it were to be by the works of the law; and this would quickly appear in all its power and wide extent, were it not that the imperial Pagan government, which hitherto prevents it, will continue fo to do, till this obftacle be removed.

8 And then, through the growing ambition and luxury of ecclefiaftics, under the protection and indulgence of Christian emperors, and by means of the division of the Empire itself, into ten kingdoms, which will give their power to the beaft, (Rev. xvii. 12, 13. fee the note there) that wicked one will mount the throne, like a lawless person, (aromos) who will difpenfe with, and exalt his authority above, all laws human and divine, and be fubject to no law himfelf: But be it known, for the comfort of the true church, that in the divinely appointed time, he, with all his hierarchy, authority, and grandeur, shall certainly fink and fall; whom the Lord Jefus Chrift will begin to blaft by the preaching of the gofpel in its purity and power, and by fpiriting up a fet of brave reformers to oppose, and protett against his supremacy, and all his corruptions in doctrine and worfhip; and he will afterward more eminently flay him, and all his adherents, as with a fword, by the judicial fentence that will proceed from his mouth, and be executed by his command, and by his word and Spirit, when he shall fet up his glorious kingdom of truth, righteoufnefs, joy, and peace in the earth; and finally, by his coming to judge the world, and take vengeance on all his enemies in their utter destruction at the last day: In these various ways it may be faid, in the language of ancient prophecy, that be (hall (mite the earth with the rod of his mouth; and with the breath of his lips he shall flay the earth. (Ifa. xi. 4.)

o The manner of this wicked one's introducing and fupporting his tyranny and errors, which shall at length be destroyed, will be in imitation of the father of lies, who was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, (John viii. 44.) and under his influence, according to the energy of his operation, who works effectually in the children of disobedience : (Ephef. ii. 2.) And this wicked one will exert himfelf, for upholding and promoting his abominable empire, with all his might, under a pretence of power from God for it; and with fham pretences to miracles, and to wonderful works of a fupernatural kind, like what our Lord himfelf performed; (fee the note on Acts ii. 22.) but which, in this pretender, are all a cheat to impose upon, and deceive the nations of the earth.

Digitized by Google

10 And

THESSALONIANS paraphra [cd.

to And with all deceivablenefs of unrighteouinefs in them that perifh; becaufe they received not the love of the truth, that they might be fawed.

· Chap. ii.

II And for this caule God thall fend them ftrong delution, that they thould believe a lie:

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousnets.

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren, belowed of the Lord, becaufe God hash from the beginning chofen you to falvation, through fanctification of the Spirit, and belief of the truth:

10 And, at the infligation of the diabolical fpirit, the apoftacy will be carried on, under its papal head, with all fubtle and tricking arts, managed by the moft unrighteous methods, to delude thofe that comply with them, to their own utter perdition; becaufe through the carnality and corruption of their own hearts, and the malignant influence of Satan, which they readily yielded themfelves up to, they did not cordially receive Chrift in the whole of his character, who is the Truth; (Jobn xiv. 6.) nor would embrace the truth and purity of the gofpel concerning him, with approbation, that they might obtain falvation according to, and by means of that revelation, which fhows the only way to eternal life through him.

11 And therefore, as they did not like to retain the knowledge of the truth, God, in his righteous judgment, for the punifhment of their iniquity in its own kind, will deliver them up to the dreadful efficacy of error, (insequent $\pi\lambda\alpha m_5$) as the choicn way of their own wicked inclinations, and to a judicial hardnefs of heart, and the power of the god of this world, who blinds their minds, (fee the note on Rom. ix. 18.) that they might give their free affent and confent to delufive forgeries, fuperfittions and idolatry, fabulous legends, and monftrous doctrines and practices, that have no truth in them; but are all a heap of falfhood and lying vanities;

12 They shall be justly left to the power of this foolish and perverse disposition of their own evil hearts, that, according to their deferts, all of them (x_{gi},g_{wori}) might be judged and condemned, and righteously punished with the most awful deftruction, who disbelieved and rejected Christ, and the truth of the gospel; but, on the contrary, were exceeding fond of, and took delight in all wicked defigns, words and deeds, frauds and perfecutions, as what are most agreeable to their own corrupt taste.

13 But as to you, our dear Chriftian brethren, whom we think of with pleafure, as thofe whom the Lord himfelf peculiarly loves, and will preferve from this dreadful apoftacy, We have this to fay for your comfort, that in every remembrance of you, (Phil, i. 3.) we cannot but look upon ourfelves as bound in duty and affection to blefs God heartily on your behalf; becaufe we are well fatisfied, by what we faw of the powerful efficacy of the gofpel upon you, when ye first received it, ($1 \text{ Tb} \cdot f$, i. 2, --5. fee the notes there) and by what we have fince heard of its happy and holy fruits, as they continue fill farther to appear in you, (chap. i. 3, 4.) that God, of his owa mere grace, has from the beginning of the world, yea,

The Second Epistle to the yea, from all eternity *, made a special choice of you to complete falvation by Jefus Chrift, (1 Theff. v. 9.) as the final happiness which he defigned to bring you to, through the renovation of your whole fouls in knowledge, righteoulnefs, and true holinefs, after the image of God, which is wrought in you by the Holy Spirit, without which no man (ball fee the Lord ; (Heb. xii. 14.) and through a fiducial truft in Chrift. and faithful adherence to him, according to the truth of the gospel-revelation of him, as God's appointed way and means of bringing you fafe to glory ; the end and means being infeparably connected in his decree. and in the execution of it.

14 To which falvation, as to be brought about in this way, he has now, as the fruit of electing love. effectually called you, (ver. 13. and Rom. viii. 30. fee the note there) by our preaching the gospel, not a gofpel which we are the authors of, but a difpenfation of which is committed to us, and which is faithfully ministred by us, in opposition to all other pretended gospels, (I Cor. ix. 17. and Gal. i. 8.) that ye might be thereby brought, through the attending operation of the Spirit, unto a title and claim to, and, at length, the full enjoyment of that immortal flate of blifs and glory, which our Lord Jefus Chrift has purchafed, prepared, and taken poffeffion of, as your Head and Forerunner, for you, and hath promifed, and at the laft day will adjudge and bring you to, that ye may behold his glory, and be made like him, and completely happy with him, in foul and body for ever.

Therefore, 15 brethren, ft and faft, and hold the traditions which ye

15 In confideration therefore of what God has thus gracioully defigned and done for you, dear brethren, and of the promifed affiltances which from have thence ye may further well expect and depend upon, understand from the beginning of the foundation of the world, that we might gospel's being preached to, and received be holy and without blame before him in by them; but as, in the next verse, the apostle speaks of their being called by the go/pel as a diffinct thing, in confequence of God's having cholen them from the beginning, according to what he had faid, I Epist. i. 4, 5. of knowing their election of God; because the gospel came to them, not in word only, but in power, Ec. (see the note there) and as the braic from the beginning $(a\pi^* a g_{\lambda t})$ purpose and grace, which was given fignifies the beginning of time, 1 fohn them in Chrift Jefus before the world iii. 8. and from the beginning is of the began. (2 Tim. i. 9, 10.). Vide Witf. fame import with from everlating, Prov. Occon. Feed. lib. iii. cap. 4. feed. 21. viii. 23. and our apostle speaks of God's Gc.

Digitized by Google

N 0 Т E.

* By from the beginning fome would baving chofen us in Christ before the love : (Eph. i. 4.) All this flows, that his calling the Theffalonians, by the gospel, is to be diffinguished from his having chofen them ; and that his having choien them from the beginning is to be understood of his having done it from eternity, in pursuance of which be called them with an holy calling, not according to their works, but according to his own ŧ

ť; E

بر

N

 $r_{\rm c}$

ð.;-

÷,

e.

į.

2

1

빤

£,

2

è,

1 \mathbf{t}_{1} E^K^

 \mathbf{b}

We

14 Whereunto he called you by our golpel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jelus Chrift.

ł

THESSALONIANS paraphraled.

have been taught, whether by word, or our epiftle.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Chrift himfelf, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlafting confolation, and good hope through grace,

We earneftly befeech you to fland fast in the faith, comfort and hope, doctrine, holinefs, and profession of the gofpel; and ftedfaftly to maintain the important points of truth and duty *, which ye have been instructed in by us, the fervants of Christ, (chap. i. 1. and 1 Theff. i. 1.) whether by word of mouth, while we were with you; or by this, and our former epiftle, which contain an important part of the faith, that is delivered to the faints, (Jude, ver. 3.) as the only standard of doctrines, worship, and obedience.

16 Now, upon the great encouragement we have to hope well concerning you, as the chosen and called of God, (ver. 13, 14.) We earnestly pray, with comfortable affurance of being heard, that our Lord Jefus Chrift himfelf, as the divine Saviour, who has redeemed us by his blood, and purchased eternal glory. for us, and will be our judge at the last day to confer it upon us +; and that God the Father, even our covenant-God and Father in him, who, we truft, has loved both you and us with an everlatting love, and has by manifestations of it revived our fouls with his confolations, which are everlasting in their foundation, matter, tendencies, and final iffues, though not always or alike fenfibly enjoyed, while we are in this prefent state of imperfection; and who hath given us freely, by his grace, the best of all hope, even a good hope of eternal life, which is folid, fcriptural, and well-grounded, and shall never make us afhamed, becaufe the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghoft, which is given to us; (Rom. v. 5.)

NOTES.

Т

Digitized by Google

* This holding the traditions relates tend to their traditions, when they can only to fuch doctrines as the apoftle and produce tettimonies to them as authenhis fellow-labourers had delivered to tic, and well-known to us, as these were perfonal preaching and conversation, or by the writing of this, and the former epiftle; and therefore it cannot give the fidered as the object of religious worthin, leaft countenance to the oral traditions of the Papifts, which they pretend have been handed down through many hundreds of years; but are really ftuffed with fuch ridiculous and incredible ftories, as neither agree with the fcripture nor with common tenfe : And as, by all these traditions, they cannot point out fo much as one of the particulars that were delivered to the The falonians by word of mouth from the apostle, any farther than they are recorded in the New Testament, or may be gathered from him. thence, it is time enough for us to at-Vol. V.

them, pertaining to the only rule of to the Theffaloniums; or can prove them faith, worthip, and obedience, by their by the word of God. (See the note on 1 Cor xi. 2)

17 We,

+ Our Lord Jefus Chrift is here conand the author of the bleffings that are, implicitly at leaft, prayed for from him, in the fame manner equally, and together with the Father, which supposes his proper divinity, according to the effablifhed and unchangeable law of worfhip, as recited by himfelf, Matth. iv. 10. and his being mentioned in this manner, even before the Father, takes off all pretences of his inferiority, either in Deity or worship, on account of the Father's being at other times mentioned before

17 Comfort your hearts, and ftablifh you in every good word and work:

17 We, I fay, earneftly, and with humble confidence, beg, that thefe adorable perfons in the Godhead would, with concurring agency, according to the refpective parts which they have voluntarily undertaken in the economy of falvation, fill your fouls, yet more and more, with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in bope, through the power of the Holy Ghost, (Rom. xv. 13.) and may be comforted under all troubles, fears, and dangers; and that they would ftrengthen and fortify you immoveably, unto all perfeverance in every doctrine of the gospel, which brings good tidings of great joy; as also in every fort of found speech, which cannot be condemned; and in every good work of righteoufnefs, with regard to God, yourfelves, and one another.

RECOLLECTIONS.

How exceeding dangerous is it to be milled into miltaken expectations of divine appearances, like that of Christ's immediately coming to judgment, left, through difappointment therein, we should be tempted to disbelieve the whole gospel, which we thought encouraged them ! It is no wonder that the promifes of Chrift's fecond appearing are not yet fulfilled, fince we are affured by the fpirit of prophecy, that the general apoftacy, under the man of fin, or papal power, which af-fumes the prerogatives of God, was first to rife and reign, till it shall be destroyed by the Spirit of Chrift's mouth, and the brightness of his coming; and fince this power could not be fet up till the government of the Roman Cefars should be diffolved. But, alas! how dreadful muft their condemnation and deftruction be, whom God, in his righteous judgment, gives up to fuch a spirit of delution, as fondly to believe, and voluntarily comply with, all the idolatry, fuperstition, tyranny. and corruptions of popery, which are propagated by fatanical forgeries, and vain pretences to miraculous powers and figns, that, in reality, are no other than lying wonders! God righteoufly fuffers the admirers of thefe to be deceived by them ; because they did not like to embrace the truth of the gospel concerning Chrift, as the only mediator, that they might be faved. But O how happy is the state of those that are secured from these damning errors, by God's having, in his free love, cholen them from eternity to falvation, through fanctification of the Spirit, and belief of the truth, which ftand infeparably connected in the purpose of God, and in the execution of it, as the way and means of bringing about this glorious end ! In order hereunto he effectually calls them, unto the obtaining of the immortal life, which Chrift hath brought to light by the golpel, and will advance them to, at the last day. With what encouraging hope, and confidence of a bleffed iffue, upon these grounds, may believers receive, and stedfastly adhere to, what is delivered by inspired writers; and be earness in prayer, that their Lord and Saviour, and their God and Father in him, would give them fuch confolation as is of an everlafting nature, and fuch good hope, through grace, as shall never disappoint them; but shall be to their abundant joy, and establishment in every good doctrine, way, and work, till they arrive at heavenly glory !

Digitized by Google

СНАР.

R

. 1

R

'n

ц: d

R .a. 7

ł;

THESSALONIANS paraphrased.

HAP. С III.

The apostle defires prayer for himself and his fellow-labourers; expresses bis confidence in the Thefalonians, and prays for them, 1, -5. Charges them to withdraw from diforderly walkers, and particularly from those that were lazy, and busy-bodies, contrary to bis example and command, 6,-15. And concludes with a prayer for them, and with a falutation and benediction, 16,-18.

TEXT.

FINALLY, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free courie, and be glorified even as it is with you ;

2 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men : for all men have not faith.

and keep you from evil.

PARAPHRASE .-

NOW, my dear brethren in Chrift, to draw to-wards a cloie of this epittle, Let me earneftly entreat your fervent prayers for me, and my fellowlabourers, fuch as Silvanus and Timothy, who join with me in writing to you, (chap. i. 3.) that we may be directed, affifted, and owned in our great and difficult work, for which we are infufficient of ourfelves; and that the gofpel of falvation, of which the Lord Jefus Chrift is the author and principal fubject, may run with speed and success, $(\tau_{\ell^{\xi}\chi^{\eta}})$ and be spread and propagated in its purity and power all around, far and wide, and not hindred in its progrefs; but may bear down all opposition before it, and be received with honour and effeem, as of divine authority, and a glorious scheme of falvation ; and may produce glorious effects in the conversion, edification, and holy conversation of multitudes, wherever it is preached, even as it has among you. (See 1 Theff. i. 5, 6.)

2 And we in a special manner beg your prayers, that we may be kept, or refcued out of the hands of unbelieving Jewi/b zealots, and delivered from perils among falle breibren, (2 Cor. xi. 26.) who are (aromer) infolently perverle and abfurd in their reafonings and prejudices against us, and are maliciously wicked in their principles and practices, endeavouring to ftop our mouths, and throw us into prifons, and would perfecute us unto death : Many of thefe we meet with wherever we go, as we did at Theffalonica : (Acts xvii. 5. and I Theff. ii. 15, 16, 18.) For it is undeniably evident from hence, that, even among profeffors of religion and Christianity itself, all of them do not cordially embrace Chrift, according to the truth of the gospel, by that faith, which works by love, and purifies the heart.

3 But the Lord 3 But though falfe and hypocritical pretenders, is faithful, who who receive not the love of the truth that they may 3 But though falfe and hypocritical pretenders, be faved, (chap. ii. 10.) be left of God to themfelves, and turn violent enemies to us and you for the gofpel's fake ; yet ye ought not to be discouraged upon this account : For as ye have received the word of T 2

Digitized by Google

God,

Chap. iii.

Ċ,

ċ

Ľ

ų

add.

God, not as the word of man, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which effectually works also in you that believe; (I Theff. ii. 13.) fo ye may affuredly depend upon his faithfulnefs, in making good his cor venant-promife of perfevering grace, (Jer. xxxii. 40.) that he will confirm, fettle, and ftrengthen you in the doctrine and grace of faith, and in your holy profeffion of it, and practice of godliness according to it; and will fo far preferve and fecure you from the power of tribulation, fin, and Satan, and all his wicked inftruments, as that none of them shall prevail to your final destruction.

4 And as your prefervation is to be in a way of holy obedience; fo we have an entire truft and joyful confidence in the Lord Jefus concerning you, as believers in him, and vitally united to him, that, through his grace, ye not only hitherto have been, and still are, but shall perfeveringly continue to be, obedient in all things to those commandments which we have delivered, and may further deliver to you, in his name, and by his authority. (ver. 6.)

5 And, according to this our hope in Chrift, concerning you, we earneftly pray that the Lord the Spirit * would, by his light and influence, fet to rights all the irregular motions of your hearts, and carry them more and more in a ftraight courfe, as by a direct line, (zarevyvras) into a clear and experimental acquaintance with the love of God to you, and into the livelieft exercises of your love to him, under a sense of his having first loved you; (I John iv. 19.) as alfo into affecting and endearing reflections upon, and imitation of, the wonderful patience with which Chrift endured all his fufferings for your fake; and into a patient continuance in well-doing, (Rom. ii. 7.) under all your troubles and dangers for his fake, and a patient expectation of his fecond coming, (I Thef. i. 10.) which will ere long put an end to all your trials, and make you a rich and everlafting amends for them.

6 Now, dear brethren in the Lord, having expressmand you, bre-thren, in the name ed our good opinion and hopes concerning you, as a spiritual and holy body, and the sincere desire of of our Lord Jeius our fouls for you all, We take this opportunity to Chrift,

Digitized by Google

from this Lord, who directs the heart in- v. 5. and Gal. v. 15, 22.) to the love of God the Father, and the NOTE. (Rupiou #viumalos) as a Cor. iii. 18. may things, here prayed for, are reprefented properly be rendered: For the Father in scripture, as the special and immediand Son are spoken of as persons diffinct ate work of the Holy Ghost. (See Rom.

4 And we have condence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord direct vour hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Chrift.

6 Now we com-

138

Chrift, that ye withdraw yourfelves from every brother that walketh diforderly, and not atter the tradition which he received of us.

add, that, as we hear fome of your number continue; to be idle, and bufy-bodies, (ver. 11.) notwithitanding the folemn injunctions we had given to the contrary; (1 Theff. iv. 11, 12.) fo we, in reflection hereupon, think it high time to enjoin you, as a church, by the authority, and for the glory of Chrift. our common Lord and Saviour, from whom we have received our commission and instructions, that ye remove from your holy communion, and avoid all unneceffary familiarity and conversation with every brother, or member of your religious fociety, of what rank or station soever, that lives irregularly; going into, and perfifting in fuch a courfe of lazinefs, and intermeddling with other people's affairs, as is very injurious to public and family-peace, and difhonourable to the Christian character; and no way agreeable to the admonitions which we have delivered, whether by word of mouth, or in our former epiftle; (chap. ii. 15. fee the note there) and exemplified in our own behaviour, when we were prefent with you.

7 For by these means, ye yourselves very well know the manner in which ye ought to imitate us, and walk answerable to our directions, as ye chearfully did at your conversion: (17 beff. i. 6.) For we can appeal, not only to the Lord himself, but even to your own conficiences, as our withes but even to your own conficiences, as our withes but even to your own conficiences, as our withes but even to your own conficiences, as our withes but even to your own conficiences, as our withes but even to your own conficiences, as our withes but even to your own conficiences, as our withes but even to your own conficiences, as our withes but even to your own conficiences, as our withes but even to your own conficiences, as our withes but even to your own conficiences, as our withes but even to your own conficiences, as our withes but even to your own conficiences, as our withes but even to your own conficiences, as our withes but even to your own conficiences, as our with a solution but even fully, and unblameably, we all along behaved ourfelves among you; (1 Theff. ii. 10.) and how careful we were, not to live at a flothful diforderly rate, contrary to the rule of the word, which we laid before you, when we were at The flatonica.

8 No, nor did we partake of any one's food, or table with him, at free-coft, without paying for it; but earned our bread before we eat it, by diligent and wearifome labour with our own hands, taking abundance of pains, and undergoing great fatigues early and late, by day and night; fometimes in preaching the gofpel, as we had opportunity for it, and at others, in working, as occasions required, at handicraft trades in feveral places, ($A\xi ts$ xviii. 3. and xx. 34.) and particularly among you, (1 Thef. ii. 9. fee the note on 1 Cor. ix. 1.) that we might provide for ourfelves, and not be a burden to any of you, as fome of a covetous temper, or narrow circumftances, might have thought us, had we been maintained at their expence.

9 I remind you of this, not as though we had not a juft right by virtue of our office, according to the reason of things, and the authority of Chrift, to infift upon, and even demand a convenient and comfortable maintenance, in return for our ministerial labours,

Digitized by Google

7 For yourfelves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourfelves diforderly among you:

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of.you:

9 Not becaufe we have not power, but to make ourfelves an enfample unto you, to follow us. )

85

Chap. iii.

ż

3

$

as I have afferted and proved at large to others, (I Cor. ix. 4,—14.) and now mention to you; but we, of our own accord, freely waved all claims of this nature, and worked with our own hands for a livelihood, to take off prejudices againft us, as though we were mercenary creatures, and to propagate the gofpel the more fuccefsfully; and particularly to fet you a good example, and ($\tau u \pi or \partial \omega \mu s v v \mu r$) give you a pattern of industry in your feveral callings, that ye might be excited, and even constrained to imitate us therein, as well as to follow our precepts relating to it.

to For, having obferved appearances of a lazy temper in fome, even when we were among you, we thrictly commanded you all in general, that if any one of your needy Chriftian brotherhood, who is able to work for his living, would not take due pains to provide for himfelt and his family, if he has one, his indolence and floth fhould not be indulged by affording him a maintenance out of the charity of the church, which ought to be applied to the relief and comfort of fuch of their poor, as through ficknefs or age, or decay of nature, or any other means, are incapable of doing any thing for their own fupply. And ye need not wonder, that we, now again, fo ftrenuoufly urge this point upon you.

11 For we have been credibly informed, after all that has been faid and wrote about it, that there are fome idle members of the church, who walk irregularly, in direct contradiction, not only to our express injunctions, and the general rule of Christianity, which eftablishes all the duties of the civil life; but even to the moral law itfelf, (Exod. xx. 11.) and to the order of all political and religious focieties, and of the creation, and the prefent condition of man, who was formed for activity and bufiness in his original state, and was doomed to eat his bread in the fweat of his brows, after the fall: (Gen. ii. 15. and iii. 19.) Thefe, going out of their rank, (ataxtus) like loofe foldiers, do not care to be employed in their proper callings, or in any useful fervices at all; but, as is common with fuch fort of people, they wafte their time in gadding abroad, and fauntering about, and curioufly prying, and officioufly thrufting themfelves into, and making their idle remarks upon other people's matters, which they have no call to meddle with; but which they bufy themfelves about, to the great difturbance of particular perfons, families and neighbours, and the creating of jealoufies, mifunderstandings, and quarrels between friends, and fetting them at variance by their tattling and tale-bearing humour, which makes to For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither fhould he eat.

Digitized by Google

tt For we hear that there are fome which walk among you ditorderly, working not at all, but are bufybodies.

12 Now them that are fuch, we command, and exhort by our Lord with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, be not weary in well-doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word by this epiftle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be athamed.

15 Yet count bim not as an enemy, but admonish makes them perfect incendiaries, and the nuifance and peft of all company, wherever they come.

12 Now, wholoever they be, that are of this flothful and pernicious disposition and behaviour, we again folemnly charge them by divine authority; and Jefus Chrift, that earnestly entreat them by the endearing love of Chrift, our great Lord and Matter, and for his fake, as ever they would avoid his difpleafure, and honour their. profession of his name, that, according to our former exhortation, (I Thef. iv. 11. fee the note there) they would fludy to be quiet, and do their own bufinefs, with a meek and peaceable frame of fpirit, and fet themfelves diligently to work with their own hands, in their refpective stations; and fo, by the bleffing of God on their honeft labour, may provide fuch food for themfelves and theirs, as they have duly earned, and bought with their own money, that they may be beholden to no one's charity for their fublishence; and that, inftead of being burdenfome to others, they may bave to give to him that need. (Eph. iv. 28.)

13 But as for those of you, dear brethren, who, to the honour of your Christian character, have minded your own bufinefs, and not officioufly meddled with other people's affairs, we beleech you to perfift unweariedly, and without reluctance, in a diligent difcharge of the civil, as well as religious duties of your respective stations; and particularly in doing good, with all chearfulnefs and liberality, to the industrious, and yet neceffitous poor among you; (Gal. vi. 9, 10.) though ye ought to with hold your charity from fuch, as are able, but not willing, to work for their own livelihood. (ver. 10.)

14 And if there still be any flothful perfon of your community, who pays no regard to, nor is reformed by the commandments and exhortations, that we have delivered by Chrift's authority, as before, fo in this epistle, relating to such, (ver. 6, 10, 12.) It is your duty, as a church, to fet a brand of infamy upon him, by cafting him out, as an unworthy member; and not to countenance him afterwards, by an intimacy of friendship, or unnecessary familiarity in conversation with him, (ina intean) to the end that, by your fhy and cool carriage toward him, he may turn inwards, and blush and be ashamed, in reflection on his fin; and, through divine grace, may be brought to repent of it, and to loath and abhor himfelf for it, with full purpole of heart to depart from it.

15 But, in order to your attaining this great and good end of excommunication, Take heed of treating him before hand with aufterity and roughnefs, as if ye aimed at his ruin in temporal or fpiritual concerns.

ther.

16 Now the Lord of peace himfelf give you peace always, by all means. The Lord be with you all.

17 The falutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epiftle: fo I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jefus Chrift be with you all. Amen.

nifh bim as a bro- cerns, and not merely at the destruction of the ste fb, that his foul may be laved in the day of the Lord Jefus: (fee the note on I Cor. v. 5.) Nor ought ye immediately to look upon him, as an implacable and utterly incorrigible enemy to God and godlinefs, and to Chrift and the gospel; but should deal tenderly, as well as faithfully and plainly with him as a brother. in fetting the evil of his ways before him, and paffing the awful cenfure, if neceffary, upon him, and in giving him feafonable admonitions, as opportunities offer, confidering the relation that he either bears or has bore to you, in hopes that, by the bleffing of God on fuch attempts, he may be reclaimed, and reftored to his former place in the church.

> 16 Now may the Lord Jefus himfelf, our only peace maker with God, and the author, purchafer, and giver of all manner of peace and happinefs, make you prosperous in all grace and holiness, and fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may have peace in your own fouls, and one with another, and may be a harmonious and flourishing church, at all times, and by all manner of means, that are fuited, by divine appointment, to promote it ! And that the means, used for this purpose, may be effectual, we earneftly beg that this bleffed Lord, who commands and loves peace, and delights in the prosperity of his fervants, would afford all and every one of you his special prefence, in a way of providence and grace, to protect and guide, affift, comfort, and perfect all that concerns you, in whatfoever relates to you feverally, and altogether as a church.

> 17 To conclude with the falutation, which I Paul write with my own hand, as a fure mark to diffinguish my Epistles from such as may be forged under my name; and, as pretended to come from me, may deceive and trouble the church, (chap. ii. z.) whenever any of my letters are wrote by an amanuenfis, as dictated by me, I always at the close add, in my own hand-writing, the following words, or to that effect, (fee the note on Rom. xvi. 22.)

> 18 May the free love and favour of our Lord and Saviour Jefus Chrift, inclusive of all its special manifestations, fruits, and effects, continually abound to all and every one of you ! In teffimony of the fincerity of my defire and pleafing hopes hereof, I heartily fay, Amen.

RECOLLECTIONS.

How earnestly ought we to pray for the fuccels of the glorious golpel, and for the prefervation and liberty of Christ's fervants, that their preaching it may not be obstructed by the violence of unbelieving, perverle and wicked men! And what a pleafure is it when they, to whom the care of churches is committed, have a fatisfaction in their own minds, that the Lord will establish them in the faith, hope, and holinefs of the gofpel, and will engage their hearts to do his commandments, as delivered to them in his name ! But, alas! How grievous is it to find, that any church-members are dilorderly walkers, lazy in their own proper affairs, and milchievous buly-bodies in other people's matters, to the fcandal of the Chriftian name ! The churches, to which perfons of these characters belong, ought, in cale they cannot be reclaimed, to withdraw from them, and pais such a centure as may be a mark of dilgrace upon them, and then fhun all unnecessary familiarities of converling with them, to make them ashamed of the evil of their doings, that are directly contrary to the precepts and example of the holy apoilles; and yet they fhould be treated, as far as the nature of things will bear, in a brotherly way, to bring them to repentance. How unreasonable is it that idle and diforderly walkers fhould live upon the charity of others ! But how chearfully and generoufly fhould the industrious and helpleis poor be relieved, according to their wants ! May all the churches of Chrift have peace among themfelves, and profperity of every kind, from the Lord Jefus, and falute one another with the fincereft Chriftian affection ! May their hearts be directed into the love of God, and a patient waiting, under their various tribulations, for Chrift's fecond coming to put an end to them ! And may his grace be ever with them all ! Amen.

Digitized by GOOGLE

VOL. V.

U

Digitized by Google

A PRAC.

A PRACTICAL

EXPOSITION

OF' THE

FIRST EPISTLE OF THE APOSTLE PAUL

TIMOTHY,

IN THE FORM OF A

PARAPHRASE.

THE PREFACE TO THE FIRST EPISTLE TO TIMOTHY.

TIMOTHY was an excellent youth, whole father was a Greek, and his mother a pious Jewess, (Acts xvi. 1, 3.) who had taken a religious and exemplary care to educate him in the knowledge of the Old Teflament scriptures, from his childhood up; (2 Tim. i. 5. and iii. 15.) and, Providence caffing him under the ministry of the apoftle Paul, this young man, through the attending power of the Holy Ghoft, was converted to the faith of Chrift, as feems to be intimated chap. i. 2.; (fee the note there) and was fo enriched with the gifts and graces of the Spirit, that the apoftle had a great affection for him, and foon turned his thoughts toward him for an affiftant in the work of the ministry : And that the Jews, to whom the apostle first preached, might not have the least exception against this his affociate, as the fon of a Gentile by the father's fide, he ordered him to be circumcifed, which he had not been in the days of his infancy, but now confented to be; and then took him for his companion under the character of an evangelist, an office next to that of the apoftlefhip, in planting and watering the churches.

Though Paul had, doubtlefs, taken much pains with this young evangelift in private converfation, to fit him for a due difcharge of his office, hints of which may be gathered from chap. i. 3. and 2 Epifl. i. 13. and iii. 10, ---14.; yet to fix things more upon his mind, and give him an opportunity of having recourfe to them afterwards, and of communicating them to others, as there might be occafion, either at Ephefus, where it is most generally supposed Timothy then was, or wherever he might go to fulfil his itinerant work; as alfo to leave divine directions, in writing, for the ule of the church and its minifters, in all fucceeding ages, he fent him this excellent pastoral letter, which contains a great variety of important fentiments for their regulation; and is supposed by fome to have been written about the year of our Lord 55, and by others 58: And about nine or

Digitized by Google

۱ tep

145

ten years afterwards, as fome think, he followed it with the Second Epifile, which still more immediately and chiefly related to Timothy himfelf, and to his own perfonal ministry and conduct.

The time when, the place from which, and the perfon by whom, this Epiftle was fent, are indeed varioufly conjectured by learned enquirers into antiquity, while they all agree in its divine authority, and its being written by the apoille Paul.

This facred writer, after his usual declaration of his apostolic character, and affectionate falutation of Timothy, lays before him his duty of guarding against those judaizing teachers at Ephefus, or elfewhere, that taught any thing contrary to the found doctrine, which he himfelf had delivered, according to the truft that Chrift had committed to him. (Chap. i.) And as they adhered to fynagogue-worthip, and fet themfelves in opposition to the legality of the power of Gentile princes, and treated it with contempt, as though they had no right of dominion over them, he enjoins the offering up of prayers in all places, without diffinction, for kings, and all that were in civil authority, and for fubjects of all characters, whether they were Jews or Heathens; and then goes on to direct the behaviour of women, among whom, it feems, there were great indecencies, or extravagancies of drefs, and an affuming management in religious affemblies. (Chap. ii.) Then he proceeds to a defcription of the proper qualifications of ordinary bithops or paftors, and of deacons and their wives, with intimations of the course Timothy ought to take, as to his own deportment in the church, with regard to fuch perfons, and the whole of his own office, confidering the vaft importance of that doctrine which he was to preach : (chap. iii.) From thence he takes occasion, to add fore-warnings of seducers, that would arise and pervert many, and would iffue in a grand apoftacy; ordering him to give fuch notices of them'as might fortify the church of Chrift against them, and to exercise himself in such exemplary godlines, and attend fo entirely to his ministerial work, and to the improvement of his gifts in preaching the true doctrine of Chrift, in fuch a ferious, judicious, diligent, grave, and faithful manner, as might raife his youth above contempt, and, through divine grace, might be rendered effectual to the final falvation of his own and his hearers fouls. (Chap. iv.) Thereupon he directs his conduct towards all perfons whether men or women, of every age and station in the church; and folemnly charges him, as in the prefence of Chrift, to acquit himself with the utmost prudence, caution, and impartiality toward them, in confistence with a due care of his own infirm state of health, and fuitable to the circumstances of the people he might have to do with. (Chap. v.) And he closes with advice, relating to the duties of fervants, and the perverse tendency of any contrary doctrine of corrupt and worldly minded men, who being ftrangers to the power of godliness, and not contented with a moderate share of the conveniences of this life, run themfelves into fin and ruin, through their covetous defires : And in opposition to these, he charges Timothy to act up to the dignity of his facred truft and character, as in the fight and prefence of God, and as he would answer it in the great day of Christ; and remonstrates against an abuse of the riches riches of this world, and against the false principles of philosophy, that are fubverfive of the faith of the golpel; concluding all with a benediction, like himfelf, faying, Grace be with thee. Amen. (Chap. vi.)

U 2

Digitized by GOOGLE

H A P. С I.

The apofile afferts his office as of divine authority; falutes Timothy; and reminds him of the charge he had given him at Ephefus, 1,-4. Of his end therein, and of the defign of the Molaic law, 5,-11. Of his own conversion, and call to the apostleship, 12,-17. and of Timothy's obligation to maintain faith and a good confcience, which Hymeneus and Philetus had put away from them, 18,-20.

TEXT. PAUL an apoltle of Jeius Chrift, by the commandment of Gud our Saviour, and the Lord Jelus Chrift, which is our hope;

2 Unto Timothy, my own fon in the faith: grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father, our Lord.

PARAPHRASE.

DAUL, who is an apostle of Jefus the true Meffiah, (xar' entrayny) according to the authoritative and gracious appointment of God the Father, who is the original contriver and orderer of the whole fcheme of falvation; and of Jefus Chrift, who is the great Lord and Redeemer, the author, object, and ground of all our hope toward God, in opposition to any dependence on the works of the law for juftification; and is the only Mediator, in and through whom, as revealed in us by his Spirit, according to the gofpel difcovery of him, we have good hope of eternal glory. (Col. i. 27.)

2 He, who thus afferts his apostolic office, to bind what he is going to write upon the confciences of all that are concerned in it, even I Paul fend this epiftle to you, my dear Timothy, who are already fully conand Jelus Chrift vinced of my divine authority, and whom I regard with all the tenderness and affection of a father to his own genuine fon, as I was the inftrument of bringing you to, and effablishing you in, the faith of Chrift * ; and as you are a young man, and a spiritual child of my own likenefs, and have faithfully ferved with me, as a fon with a father, in the gofpel,

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

genuine fon in the faith; (ymriw) and der appellation, to whom he had been fo, frequently ftyled him his fon Timothy, as of Titus and Onefimus, Tit. i. 4. and (ver. 18. 2 Tim. i. 2. and 1 Cor. iv. 7) it Philem. ver. 10 ; and speaks of himself feems probable that he had been the in- as a spiritual father, and of those as his frument of his convertion to the faith of children whom he had begotten by the Chrift, as the Mcfliah (poken of in the golpel, I Cor. iv. 14, 15. 2 Cor. xii. 14. Old Teftament-prophecy, though we Gal. iv. 19. and I Theff. ii. II. But I have no particular account of it in the do not find that he ever used this appel-thort hiftory of the beginning of the a- lation with regard to any that were not postle's acquaintance with him: For he converted by his ministry.

* As the apoftle called Timothy his own commonly speaks of those under this ten-

pel, (Pbil. ii. 20, 22.) May the divine favour, in all its freenels and fulnels, and the divine compation, in all the variety of its merciful and tender exercises, which you, as a minister, more than private Chriftians, will need, in a fpecial manner, to fupport, relieve, encourage, and comfort you under all the temptations, labours, difficulties, and dangers of your itation; and to pity and pardon all your failings! (See the note on Rom. i. 7.) And may all the bleffings of peace, with God and in your own foul, and between you and those among whom you may be caft, together with all manner of profperity, abound richly toward you from God our Father, as the eternal fountain of all good, and from Chrift Jefus our Lord, as the purchafer, and more immediate author and conveyer of it through the merit of his own blood.

3 As I defired and exhorted you (ageixadioa) to continue fome time after me at Ephelus, when I took my leave of that famous city, and paffed into Macedonia; (Acts xx. 1,--4.) I would now remind you of my defign therein, and give you further inftruction about it, which is, that you might, in the name, and by the authority of Chrift communicated to you by me his apostle, folemnly enjoin fonie well-known judaizing Christians there, and in those parts, that they never dare to broach any doctrine different from, much lefs contrary to, and corrupting of, the fimplicity of that which I have faithfully preached, under divine infpiration among them, and wherever I have gone.

4 And you are to charge them, that they never regard, or propagate any fabulous Jewi/h traditions, that are groundless, and deftructive of the purity of the golpel; nor attend to the frivolous pretences of this and that particular perfon to his pedigree, in an uninterrupted line from Abraham, or others of the patriarchs *, which lead to ufelefs, intricate, and endlefs controverfies +, and have no good tendency to fpiritual edification after a godly fort, fuch as is approved of God, and has him for its author; nor are at all uleful for establishing the doctrines of faith in Chrift, or bringing any to believe in him, or building them up on their most holy faith, who have believed through grace.

5 Now

NOTES.

observes, were not any of the genealo- many doctors (Vol. I. p. 308.) gies in scripture; but their long intricate pedigrees, that they flood upon to prove to be often used, not in a comparative themselves Jews, Levites, priests, and but negative sense, as in Luke xviii. 14. the like: And to this we may add the genealogy and pedigree of their traditions, which they derived, by a long

* These genealogies, as Dr. Lightfoot line of succession, through the hands of

+ Rather than is observed by critics John iii. 19. and xii. 43. and 2 Tim. iii.

3 As I befought thee to abide ftill at Epheius, when I went into Mace. donia, that thou mighteft charge that they fome no teach other doctrine ;

ţ

4 Neither give heed to fables, and genealoendleis gies, which miniiter questions, rather than godly edifying, which is in laith; . fo do.

5 Now the end of the commandment is charity, out of a pure heart, and of a good confcience and of faith unfeigned :

6 From which fome, having fwerved have turned afide unto vain jangling;

7 Defiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what theyfay, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is good, if a man ule it lawfully;

5 Now the end, which is aimed at *, and you ought to purfue, in the charge 1 ordered you to inforce upon judaizing Christians, (ver. 3.) in oppofition to their fabulous, fruitless, and perplexing difputes, (ver. 4.) is to promote a spirit of love toward God and Chrift, and one another, as fpringing from a fanctified heart, and a faithful, pure, and quiet confcience, that is purged from dead works by the blood of Chrift ; as also from a principle of fincere faith, without the least hypocrify. (avuzoneits)

6 From all which fome, as appears by their language and behaviour under a profession of Christianity, having miffed the grand mark, (asognoarts;) and wandered from the main fcope, to which all doctrines and practices ought to be directed, have turned into a very different and directly contrary courfe, in vainly talking of things that are altogether unprofitable. and ferve only to ftir up animofities, ftrife, and doubtful difputations, like their idle fables and endlefs genealogies; (ver. 4.)

7 They affecting to fet up for doctors and interpreters of the Jewi/h law, by their corrupt and uncertain traditions, and to impose it upon the Gentiles; while, at the fame time, they, in reality, neither apprehend the true fcope and defign of that law itlelf, nor the things which they confidently affert in their falle gloffes upon it.

8 But those of us, who are enlightned in the knowledge of the gofpel, and in the principal tendency and defign of the whole Jewi/h difpensation, are throughly convinced of its being a wife and holy inflitution, as it was appointed of God for answering good purpofes, if a regular and proper use be made of it, according to his intention, for bringing us to Chrift: (Gal. iii. 24.) Even the ceremonial law is of great use, if we confider it as having a typical reference to him, and the gospel state, in which it is fulfilled by him, and not as to be continued with a perpetual obligation for observing its ritual ordinances. as judaizers vainly imagine and contend for : And as to the moral law, it is in itfelf of an excellent nature, as holy, juft, and good; and it is still of admirable ule to convince us of fin, and of our need of a Savi-

NOTE.

Timothy, (ver. 3.) to give to them who is charity, &c. taught other doctrine. Thus he fays, I

The end of the commandment is befought thee to abide at Ephefus, (wa supposed by some to mean the end of the wagayyunes) that thou mighteft charge law, and by others of the go/pel; but it fome, that they teach no other doctrine, rather feems to me to be most immediand here, answerable to the word there ately meant of the charge or command- uled, it is (TO TEROS THE WHERE) ment, which the apoilie had directed the end of the commandment or charge 14

3

c

.

0 ...

14

f our,

TIMOTHY paraphrafed.

our, and is as good and perfect, and of as immutable obligation to be obeyed now, as ever, if it be duly confidered and made use of, as a rule of life, and flandard of all righteoufnefs to be complied with, not for justification to life, as those false teachers would perfuade us, but upon evangelical principles of faith and love, in a confcientious difcharge of every duty that is owing to God, our neighbour, and ourfelves, that he may be glorified thereby.

9 And we are at the fame time fully fatisfied, that the moral law, as still continuing in force, and made the law of Chrift's kingdom under the gospel-flate, is not defigned to condemn, nor does its damnatory fentence lie against (s zurau) a true believer in Christ, who is justified through faith in him, and who, from a principle of faith, has an impartial respect to all its commands *; but it is made with its fanction, and ftands in force for the condemnation of impenitent and unbelieving tranfgreffors, and of those that will not be fubject to the authority of God in it; fuch as are impious wretches, that have not the fear of God in their hearts, and wilfully turn afide from his holy commandments, and that worship false gods, like the idolatrous Gentiles; and fuch as are deflitute of all true holinefs, and are contemners of God, and religion; and fuch as do not flick at the horrible fin of parricide, or of murdering their parents, whether fathers or mothers; and would malicioufly deftroy the life of any man whatfoever;

10 It is also in force for the condemnation of fuch 10 For whoremongers, for them as are guilty of fornication or adultery, (a ogrous) or that defile themof any unlawful familiarity between perfons of a diffelves with manferent fex; and fuch as are chargeable with the unfor mennatural and deteftable fin of fodomy; fuch as ven-Realers, for liars, for perjured perture to fleal men, that they may either use, or fell fons, and if there them for flaves; fuch as addict themselves to lies in be common eus man evidently relates to its not be- ments, and may be reduced to one or oing made to condemn him; because it ther of its precepts. (See Dr. Whithy's really is made for fuch an one, as well as note.) And as the 9th and 10th verfes others, to be the rule of his obedience, most obviously speak of the fame law, and to restrain him for transgressing it; though in the 9th verse it is put with the But fince there is no man, that lives and article in the Greek, and in the 10th fins not, the righteous man, whom it is without it, here Mr. Locke's criticism Chrift received by faith: And that the does in feveral other places: Nor is it moral law is here intended, appears from always attended to by that learned gen-the nature of the crimes (pecified, as fub-jecting perfons to condemnation by it, have obferved in the note on Rom. iii. which are manifeftly fuch as were for. 19.

NOTE. * The law is not made for a righte- bidden in the law of the ten commandnot made to condemn, is to be under on the word law, (muoc) as having a flood of one that is righteous in the eye different meaning, when used with and of the law through the righteousness of without the article, seems to fail, as it that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawlefs and difobedient, for the ungodly and for finners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers, and murderers of mothers, for man-flayers, kind.

. Knowing this,

The First Epistle to be any other thing that is contrary to found doctrine,

tr According to the glorious golpel of the bleffed God, which was committed to my truit.

t2 And I thank Chrift Jeius our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the miniftry;

13 Who was before a blafphemer, and a periccutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, becaufe I did it ignorantly, in unbelief: common converfation; fuch as perjure themfelves in courts of judicature; and fuch as go into any other fort of wickednefs, in heart and life, that is contrary to the pure and wholefome doctrine of divine revelation, befides thefe that have been fpecified: All fuch perfons are condemned by the righteous law of God, which feverely forbids every kind of iniquity.

Chap. i.

Đ,

2

11 Their crimes are equally contrary to, and condemned by, the holy nature, defign, and obligation of the golpel, which illustriously displays the glorious perfections, counfels, and operations of the ever bleffed God, who has an infinite fatisfaction and delight in and of himfelf, immutably without beginning, alteration, or end, and is the fountain of all happinefs to others, by means of, and according to the tenor of this most excellent gospel, which is a doctrine according to godline/s, (chap. vi. 3.) and is glorious in its whole fcheme of falvation by Jefus Chrift, and in its happy and holy effects on them that believe; (Rom. i. 16.) and which I have been intrusted with, by divine revelation and commission, as a precious and facred depositum to be faithfully preferved, and difpenfed wherever I come.

12 And while I think of the high honour of this important truft, I cannot but, from the very bottom of my foul, blefs the name of Jefus Chrift, our only Saviour, Lord, and King, and give vent to the grateful glowing fentiments of my heart, in all afcriptions of praife to him, who has qualified, authorifed, and ftrengthened me (indumanarit) for this eminent fervice; infomuch that, having formed me for himfelf, he was pleafed to make account of me, as a faithful fervant; and fo called me to, and vefted me in the apoftolic office, to minister the gospel of his grace.

13 Even me, the unlikelieft and unworthieft of all others, confidering that, till his grace reached and turned my heart, I was a furious blafphemer of his, divine perfon and facred doctrine; and an outrageous perfecutor of his members, even unto imprifonment and death; and a most injurious reviler, (vegens) of his name, people, and intereft. (AEIs ix. 1, 2. and Luke xxiii. 34.) But, notwithftanding all thefe complicated, incenfing provocations, I, O fweetly-amazing thought! found forgiving mercy, there being juft room left for it, according to the extensive declarations of pardoning grace, and Chrift's prayer for ignorant offenders; (Mat. xii. 31. and Luke xxiii. 34.) * becaufe

NOTE.

* It is not to be fuppofed that the apoftle, by faying becaufe I did it ignarantly and in unbelief, meant that his ignorance and unbelief were deferving,

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding - abundant, with faith and love which is 15 This is a that

of faithful laying, and worthy of all ac-

Chrift Jesus came into the world to fave finners;

whom I am chief.

ceptation,

in Chrift Jefus.

cause I did all this, not under a conviction of his being the true Meffiah, and with defperate malicious enmity to him, as fuch, in defiance of that conviction : No, on the other hand, I verily thought with myfelf, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jelus; (Acts xxvi. 9.) and fo all was the effect of blind, though very unreasonable and criminal prejudices against him, and of rash, mad, and misguided zeal, under the power of unbelief.

14 And the free favour of our gracious and comflections on this exceeding abundant grace toward myfelf is, that here is a wide door opened for the very worft of finners; in love to whofe fouls, I now as paffionately long for their happines, as I before oppoled it: I can now affure them from my own good experience, as well as from the whole tenor of the gospel-revelation, that its grand fummary article may be firmly depended upon, as divinely true and faithful, and is every way worthy to be univerfally, believingly, and affectionately embraced by all, whether greater or leffer finners that hear it, as it confills in this joyful, nearly concerning, and beft of all other declarations, viz. That the great end and defign of Chrift's affuming human nature in his incarnation, and coming into this lower world, under the character of a Saviour, to fulfil the law, fuffer and die in the room and flead of finners, was, that he might deliver them from fin and wrath through faith in him, whether to imagine, that there were any merit But his ignorance and unbelief did not in an ignorance, which was owing to a thut him out of the (phere of mercy, as wilful rejection of the cleareft means it left him a capable fubject of it, accordof knowledge; and in unbelief, which is ing to the grace of the golpel; whereas, itfelf a heinous fin, with an entail of had his blafphemy and perfections been damnation upon it, under the light of malicioufly practified, contrary to his the golpel; accordingly the apoftle in knowledge and belief of Chrift's being the next words speaks with high admi- the true Mefsiah, they would have aration of the grace of the Lord Jefus, as mounted to the unpardonable fin. Vol. V. X of were a proper caule of his obtaining exceeding abundant towards him, who mercy: For it would be ftrange indeed confidered himself as the chief of finners:

NOTE.

paffionate Lord was fo amazingly great to fuch an obstinate felf-deluding wretch as I was, that (unseestanson) it superabounded toward me, far beyond what is usual, or could be expected, or can be fully eftimated, or conceived of, in working effectual faith in my heart, who was before fo perverse and refolute an unbeliever; and in producing a cordial affectionate love in my foul to himfelf, and delight in him, as the anointed Saviour, and in his people and caufe, though I was before to violent and injurious an enemy to, and perfecutor of him and them. 15 What adds greatly to the pleafure of my re-ther they be idolatrous Gentiles, or blind, prejudifed, and perfecuting Jews, like what I myfelf was; and might bring them to that falvation, which is in him, with eternal glory : A greater proof, and more encouraging inftance of which, can fcarce be imagined, than has appeared in me, who have been indeed the most notorious, first-rate finner, exceeding all others in my malignant blafphemy of Chrift, and perfecution of his members.

16 But $(\alpha \lambda \lambda \alpha)$ still further to encourage all forts of finners to believe in Chrift for the remiffion of fins, how great or many foever they have been, I must add, that this aftonishing instance of free, fovereign, and abounding grace toward me, was defigned, not merely for the falvation of my own foul: But Infinite Wildom ordered it likewife with a view to the falvation of others, to whom I am appointed to preach these glad tidings, that in me first of all *, and as the chief of finners, the gracious and compaffionate Saviour might exercife all forbearance and patience, while I was, for a long while, amidft the light of the gofpel, going on in the high road of rebellion against him; and that he might fet me forth, as the most remarkable fample of what rich grace they may warrantably hope to find in him, who, after all their oppofition to him, shall be brought, under an affecting humbling fense of their guilt and danger, (as I was) to put their truft alone in him for the pardon of fin, acceptance with God, and fafe conduct to eternal life.

17 Now, in reflection on the grace of our Lord Jefus Chrift +, to whom I have made my religious grateful mortal.

Digitized by Google

17 Now unto the king eternal, im-the chief (11 spon wewlw.) † As Chrift Jefus our Lord, I apprehend, is the only subject spoken of, and all along mentioned in the five preceding veries, the connection carries this lofty accription of glory most immediately to acts, as king of the church, in the last him, confidered as God; and as the apostle (ver. 1, 11, 12.) had equally joined God the Father, and our Lord Jefus Chrift, as giving him his divine and apostolic commission, and had equally withed grace, mercy, and peace to Timothy from God our Father, and our Lord racters of Godhead are frequently afcri-Jesus Christ, (ver. 2.) and as he (ver. 12.) went into the most religious thanksgivings to Chrift for putting him into the ties, are one God, in diftinction from all ministry; it seems most natural to underftand him, as closing the account of places they are perfonally diftinguished

NOTES. # Here feems to be a direct reference with a doxology to him; and if, as fome back to what the apofile faid of himfelf, suppose, the king eternal fignifies the ver. 15. of whom I am chief, (w rewlos king of ages, (βασιλει των αιωνων) simi tyw) and here he fays in me firft, or meaning the patriarchal, Mofaic, and evangelical ages, with what great pro-priety may Chrift be confidered, as that king, who often appeared as the great Jehovah, that ordered and governed the two former, as well as chiefly of these dispensations? Nor is it any just objection to this doxology's being offered to Chrift, that the like, as fome think, is prefented to God the Father, chap. vi. 15, 16.; (fee the note there) fince the divine titles, and effential chabed to the Father and the Son, to fhow that they, in nature and divine properother pretended deities, though in other what Chrift had therein done for him, from each other: Nor is it any greater objection this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-fuffering, for a pattern to them which fhould hereafter believe on him to life everlaft-

ing.

16 Howbeit, for

1

the only wife God, be honour and gloty, for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I prophecies which cording to went before a good warfare,

the

on mortal, invitible, grateful acknowledgments for having put me into the ministry, (ver. 12.) I folemnly ascribe all honour and glory to him, as the fovereign Lord and Governor of the whole creation, who is from everlasting to everlafting the incorruptible God; invisible, as to his divine nature; the only being, inclusive of the Father and Spirit, that is poffeffed of infinitely perfect wildom, originally and effentially in himfelf, and is the giver of all wildom to others, and makes them wife unto falvation that believe in him: May he be magnified and adored in the loftieft ftrains, from henceforth through all fucceeding time, and to an endless eternity ! Amen. So let it be, so it ought to be, and fo it will be among those that know and love him.

18 The charge, by which I have ordered you, my commit unto thee, dear fon Timothy, to remonstrate with all authority fon Timothy, acagainst those that would teach any other doctrine, than you have received, * (ver. 3, 4, 5.) and which I commit, as a facred truft to you, from whom there are juilly great expectations of eminent fervice, acthee, that thou by them mighteft war cording to the intimations which the Holy Ghoft had given by fome New Teftament-prophets, before you entered on your office, as a perfon marked out for it, and to be remarkably endowed with fuperior extraordinary gifts, and miraculous powers, for fulfilling it; which I now remind you of, that, in reflection upon these things, you may be the more excited to act the part of a faithful, diligent, and courageous foldier of Jesus Chrift, in fighting his battles, under him, against fin, Satan, and the world, and in standing up valiantly for the truth against all opposition.

19 In which, as ever you would acquit yourfelf with honour and advantage, and as becomes your character and function, it concerns you to be stedfast in the faith of the gospel, to hold it fast, and to hold it forth in your ministry; and to keep a confcience void of offence toward God and man, (Acts xxiv. 16.) that you may be upright and faithful in preaching it, and living answerable to it, which some profeffors X 2

NOTES.

objection (as I humbly apprehend) a- than the Son is, were we to understand gainst applying that part of this descrip- it as an ascription of glory to God the tion of God to our Lord Jelus Chrift, in Father : But admitting that this was diwhich he is faid to be invifible; fince rected to Chrift, it is as lofty an afcrip-this relates, not to his human nature and tion of glory and honour to him as is any

* Several expositors have thought his divine nature, confidered under the that this verse is to be connected with formal notion of him, as God. Howe- ver. 5.; and that all the others, which ver, in this view of him, the Father is come between, are to be confidered as a

Digitized by Google

19 Holding faith and a good confcience; which fome having put away, faith concerning have made shipwreck :

office-appearances under the Old and where made to the Father himfelf. New Testament-dispensations; but to no more excluded from this doxology parenthefis.

fellors of Chrift's name, having rejected * and paid no regard to, have thereupon (as is always to be expected in fuch cafes) renounced the doctrine of faith itself, which they before professed, to their own danger, lofs, and damage, like one that fuffers to the greatest extremity by a shipwreck.

20 Of this fort of apostates there are two remarkably infamous ringleaders, whom I think myfelf obliged to point out, that you and all Christians may beware of them, and bear a public testimony against them; they are Hymeneus and Alexander, + who were fo notorious for fubverting the faith and holinefs of the gofpel, and for broaching their horrible errors, and practifing abominable immoralities, that I was under a neceffity of exercifing the apoftolic rod, which Chrift has given me, by delivering them up to the power of Satan to inflict punishments upon them in body, or foul, or both, that, by means of fo fevere a discipline, they might be brought to a conviction of the evil of their hearts and lives ; and, by feeling the dreadful confequence of their crimes, might be afraid of perfitting in their blafphemous defamations of the name, doctrines, and ways of the Lord. (See the notes on 1 Cor. iv. 21. and 2 Cor. x. 6.)

RECOLLECTIONS.

How folemn and important, honourable and delightful, is the truft that God our Father and the Lord Jelus Chrift have committed to golpel-ministers! How thankful thould they be for it; and defirous of abundance of grace and mercy from there divine perfons, to help, pity, and prosper them, that they may be supported under their numerous trials from without and from within, and enabled to be faithful in their Lord's work, according to the qualifications he has given them, and all reafonable expectations from them ! They may indeed meet with many viru-Jent and subtile adversaries; some furious perfecutors, like Paul before his converfion; others apostates, like Hymeneus and Alexander; and others, that would introduce fabulous traditions, ftrange doctrines, doubtful disputations, and vain janglings, to the overthrowing of the faith of many nominal professors, instead of promoting spiritual edification : But as all such are to be shunned and rejected, while real converts are to be affectionately loved, as genuine children in the faith, with

NOT ES.

Digitized by Google

faith and a good confcience, can by no lo, we turn to the Gentiles. means prove, that they ever had them before, as fome contend : For the word here used properly fignifies to reject, or repel, as in Acts vii. 27. where it is faid, that he that did his neighbour wrong thrust Moles away (anocaro) faying, Who made thee a ruler and judge over ns? And at other times it is used to tignify only a rejecting of what was propoled to perfons for their acceptance; as when the Ifraelites would not obey Mofes, but thrust him from them; (anwcav-10) Acts vii. 39. and when the apostle, fus. (See the paraphrase and notes on speaking of the golpel, faid to the Jews, Acts xix. 33.)

* Some having put away (arwer used) Seeing you put it from you, (arwSust) what

+ Hymeneus was, in all likelihood. the fame that is fpoken of, 2 Tim. ii. 17, 18. as a pernicious man, who denied the doctrine of the refurrection, and overthrew the faith of fome : And Alexander leems to have been the copper/mith, mentioned, 2 Tim. iv. 14, 15. as baving done the apofle much evil, and greatly withflood his words; and was probably that Alexander whom the Jews ftirred up to declaim against Paul, and fix an odium upon him, in the uproar at Ephe-

20 Of whom is Hymeneus and A. lexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blatoheme.

Chap. ii.

TIMOTHY paraphra/ed.

what courage may the fervants of Chrift fland to their charge, in which they are called to war a good warfare ! And with what pleasure may they recommend the glorious golpel of the bleffed God, in hope that the like grace may be extended to other finners, for working faith and love in them, by means of their preaching it, as has been shewn to themselves! For they well know, and can assure all about them, on the credit of a divine teftimony, that Jelus Chrift came into the world to fave the chief of finners. O wondrous superabounding grace ! It turns the bearts, and pardons the fins of blatphemers, perfecutors, and injurious perfons, and frees them from the condemnation of the law, which does not fland in force against these that are made righteous through faith in Christ, but only against obfinate, impenitent, and unbelieving finners, that perfift in ungodlinefs and immoralities of various kinds, which are forbidden by the good and holy law of God, and are equally contrary to the found doctrine of the golpel. But how fhould finners tremble at the thought of continuing to oppose and reject the goipel, and making a wrong ule of the law ! And how folicitous fhould preachers and hearers be, that they may live under the power of evangelical love, as proceeding from a fanctrifed heart; and that unleigned faith and a good conficience may be always preferved together, left, by violating conficience, they foon make fhipwreck of faith! And with what gratitude and praife thould all, that are experimentally acquainted with Chrift, according to the goipel revelation of him, unite their adorations of him, together with the Father and Spirit, as he in his divine nature is, inseparably from them, the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wife God ! To whom be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

H A P. С II.

The aposlle orders prayers to be made every where for all forts of perfons, heathens and their magistrates, as well as others, fince the grace of the gospel makes no difference of ranks or nations, 1, -8. And shews bow women ought to behave in civil and religious life, 9,-15.

TEXT.

Exhort there-T fore, that, firft of all, fupplicaterceffions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godline's and honefly.

PARAPHRASE.

S the prejudices of the judaizing Chaiftians are Λ fo firing against the Gentiles, and some among tions, prayers, in. them reject the authority of heathen magistrates, I therefore, fuitable to my character, as the apofile of the Gentiles, do in the first place exhort, that in every Christian affembly, and in family and fecret worship, all manner of addresses, in a way of deprecation of evils, and of petitions and pleas for all needful mercies, and in a way of thankfgiving and praife for mercies received, be offered up to God, through Chrift, for men of all forts, whether they be Jews or Gentiles, and of all ranks and degrees, whether in higher or lower flations.

> 2 That they be made for civil magistrates, though heathens; fuch as bear the title of emperors or kings, or as are in high places of dignity and authority under them, or under any form of government whatfoever, that their perfons and administrations may be bleffed, and they may rule in the fear of God, as I/rael were to pray for heathen kings, and the peace of the cities, where they were carried captive : (Ezra vi. 10. and Yer. xxix. 7.) And I, as an apostle of a ftill more benevolent and extensively gracious difpenfation, now exhort, that prayers be likewife offered for all forts of fubjects, that we, who are fuch, may, under the protection of the civil government, and according to God's defign in appointing it for the good of the community, live, and pass our time, and transact our affairs, (diagones) with fafety and peace, fecure from all outrages and violence, public or private, to ourfelves and families, or to our civil and religious rights and privileges; and with a tranquillity, that may be fubfervient to, and exemplified in, all acts of piety toward God, and of moral honefty, virtue, and honourable conversation toward men of every character.

3 For thus to pray, and thus to live, is in itfelf fit and right, and every way becoming Christians; and, as fuch, is agreeable to the good and holy nature and will of God, and well-pleafing in his fight through Chrift, who has made himfelf known under the endearing character of God your Saviour and mine, together with all that believe, of what rank or nation foever; there being now no difference, as to this, in his account.

4 Who, according to the good pleafure of his will, (Ephef. i. 5, 9.) for the more illustrious difplay of the freeness, fovereignty, variety, and abundant riches of his grace under the gospel-dispensation, intends effectually to fave all forts of men, whether kings or fubjects, high or low, greater or leffer finners, Jews or Gentiles *; and, in order hereunto, determines that

N 0 * All men here, and all in verie 6. cannot, without the greatest inattention to the whole icope of the context, be made to fignify all and every individual of mankind, and fo construed into a proof of univerful redemption and falvation : For as these and such like univerfal terms are often used in a restrained and diffributive fenfe; (fee the note on 2 Cor. v. 17.) to all along in the preceding verses, which speak of praying for all men, for kings. &c. and which these verses refer to, as arguments to inforce it against the prejudices of the is meant all forts of men, whether Jews orders of people, have been not only faor Gentiles, kings or fubjects. To fup-

т E. There is a fin unto death, I do not fay that ye fball pray for it, that is, for those who evidently appear to have been guilty of the unpardonable fin; much lefs are thanks to be offered for fuch, and all the wicked of the earth. But the all men, whom God will have to be faved. are those only, whom he will have to be brought to the knowledge of the truth, which cannot be faid of all mankind, univerfally without exception; fince a great part of the world neither are, nor ever were enlightened with the knowledge of the gospel itself. But a great Yews, who defpiled the Gentiles, and number of both Yews and Gentiles of their rulers, it is plain, that by all men various nations, and fome of all ranks and voured with the gospel, but also favingpose it to fignify every individual of ly taught to know the truth, as it is in mankind, can fcarce be reconciled with Jefus: And of this all it is faid, Chrift the apostle John's faying, (1 John v. 16.) gave bimfelf a ranfom for them, ver. 6.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the light of God our Saviour;

4 Who will have all men to be faved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is ane God, and one mediator between

God and men, the man Chrift Jefus:

TIMOTHY paraphrased.

that the gofpel shall be published to every creature, (Mark xvi. 15. fee the note there) that finners of every nation may be brought to a faving acquaintance with its important truths, relating to the way of pardon and eternal life, through Jefus Chrift, in whom alone there is falvation for them. (Alls iv. 12.) 5 For though he was formerly, in a peculiar and restrained sense, the God of the Jews, there is now, according to ancient prophecies, (Zech. xiv. 9.) one and the fame God to them, and to the Gentiles alfo, feeing it is one God which shall justify the circumcifion by faith, and the uncircumcifion through faith : (Rom. iii. 29, 30.) And though the Gentiles have fet up many mediators to pacify, and intercede with their superior gods; and though Moles and the high priefts under the law were a fort of mediators between God and the people of I/rael, and them only *; yet there is now one and the fame, and only one Mediator of reconciliation and interceffion between God, and men of all nations, who were at variance with him by reafon of fin ; even the great and . glorious, yea, divine man, Jefus Chrift, who affumed human nature into perfonal union with himfelf, as the Son of God; and fo was truly man, as well as God, and thereby completely fitted for, and accordingly performed the office of an interpoling Saviour between both the offended and offending parties, God and man; the nature and interest of both being united in him : It is therefore highly proper, that prayers and praises should be offered up to God for all forts of men through him, in whom all nations (hall be blefsed.

gave Who for 6 Who being Lord of his own life, (John x. 18.) himself a ransom and having an infinite dignity in his perfon as Godman, as the procuring caufe of their being ken of as mediator between God and brought to the knowledge of the truth, men, is no more an argument against his and eternally faved by that means, ac- being also God, in the discharge of that cording to the will of God : And to fup- office, than its being at other times faid. pofe that God really willed the illumination and falvation, which he never effected, and the means of which he never granted, is to defeat the counfel of his will, who works all things according to it, (Eph. i. 11.) in ways that are fuitable to the different make of his creatures in the moral, as well as in the natural world, without any force upon the free and rational faculties of mankind; and he hath faid, with respect to the government of had formerly set up many mediators, to their affairs, My counfel fball stand, and I will do all my pleasure. (Ifa. xlvi. gods. (See Mr. Joseph Mede's works, 10.)

* Chrift's being ftyled man, when fpo-

NOTES.

that the Lord of glory was crucified, and God purchased the church with his own blood, (1 Cor. ii. 8. and Acts ii. 28.) is an argument against his being man, in his fufferings and bloodfhed; and as he is expressly called the one Mediator, this must exclude all others, such as faints and angels, which the Papifts fet up, and idolatroufly worfhip as their mediators, in like manner as the Gentiles pacify and intercede with their superior pag. 772, Gc.)

for all, to be tef. man, freely offered up himsfelf, foul and body, an asified in due time. toning facrifice to God, and laid down his life, as a price of redemption, (artistreer) or as a ranfom paid to divine juffice, by his fuffering in the room and stead of many, (Matth. xx. 28.) to deliver them from the bondage of fin, Satan, the law, and death, (fee the note on ver. 4.) even valt multitudes, which no man can number, of all nations, ranks, and degrees, whom he redeemed from among men; (Rev. v. 9. and vii. q.) a testimony to which was given by the former prophets in their days, (1 Pel. i. 10, 11.) and was to be still more clearly given, as it now is, under the New Testament-dispensation, by preaching the golpel in its proper feason, first to the Jews, and afterwards to the Gentiles. (Rom. i. 16.)

7 Unto the publishing of which gospel, I am appointed, and authorised of God, to be, as it were, a herald, (xnevz) and an apostle, with an extensive commillion to proclaim it, without restriction to the Yews; (whatfoever those of the circumcifion may think, I folemaly declare, and appeal to Chrift, as a believer in him, and as in his omniscient presence, who is witnefs to what I fay, that I herein fpeak, with the ftricteft veracity, without the least prevarication) I am in a fpecial manner ordained of God to be a preacher, particularly to the Gentiles, of the faith and truth, or true faith of the golpel, that his will, for faving purpoles, may be made known to them by me, with all faithfulnefs and fincerity.

8 I therefore, according to this divine commission toward the Gentiles, infift upon it, as in the name of my great Lord and Mafter, that Christians, and particularly men, that are the peoples mouth to God, pray for all the fore-mentioned forts of perfons, not with a confinement to the temple, and Yewi/b fynagogues, but in every place, as there may be opportunity and convenience for it; one being no more holy now, than another : (John iv. 21,-24.) And this ought to be done with fervour, purity, and elevation of heart to God, in token of which holy men have ufed to lift up their hands in their facred devotions, without a wrathful temper, like that which difcovers itself in the malice and indignation of the Jews against the Gentiles; and without doubting whether God will hear the prayer of faith, or whether he will be gracious in faving Gentiles, as well as Jews, that believe in Chrift; and without reafoning and difpu-(diaroyions) ting against it.

9 I also alike infift upon it, that-women appear. as at all times, fo efpecially at religious affemblies, neat and decent in a garb fuitable to the modefly of their preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Chrift, and lie not) a of the teacher Gentiles in faith and verity.

Digitized by Google

7 Whereusto I

100 ordained a

8 I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manper allo, that women adorn themfelves ì

ŝ

.. ez

2 ų,

¢

i,

A. 7 15

6

'n

v

1 facedness and tobriety; not with broidered hair, or coftly array;

10 But (which becometh women profeffing godliness) with good works.

II Let the women learn in filence, with all fubjection.

12 But I fuffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in filence.

dornings, as were chiefly, if not entirely, (See Exod. xvi 8. Joel il. 13. and Luke used as the attire of harlots. (See Dr. xiv. 12, 13.) Whithy's note here, and on t Pet. iii. † The teaching here forbid to the wo-4.) But that fome adornings are lawful man relates to public preaching; but on proper occasions, according to peoples does not exclude her from engaging in different stations, is evident from their private family-instruction of children, or having been worn by Rebecca and Queen others, either by herfelf or with her huf-Efther, Gen. xxiv. 22, 30. and E//b. v. band, as Timothy's mother and grand-1. and from the allufions that are made mother most prohably taught him the to them, with approbation, in fetting knowledge of the holy fcriptures, 2 Tim. forth the beauty and glory of the church. iii. 15.; and as Priscilla joined with A-Pfal. xlv. 9, 13. Ifa. lxi. 1C. and Exck. quila in privately expounding the way of xvi. 10,-14, 16. The caution therefore. God to Apollos, Acts xviii. 26. against these forts of adornings, either selves in modelt ap- of their fex, (usra aids; rai oupgoourns) with an air of parel, with thame- reverence of God and of facred things, and in a prudent, fober manner; not adorning themfelves * with curioufly curled and plaited hair, after the manner of gold, or pearls, or lewd women, or with gay and showy deckings of gold and precious ftones, or any rich and gaudy apparel, (1 Pet. iii. 3.) which, when they are fond of them, and exceffive in them beyond their circumitances, difcover pride and vanity of heart, and a greater folicitude of appearing before men than before God.

Vol. V.

> 10 But (as is most decent and honourable for religious women, that make a profeilion of piety, and of a fupreme regard to the things of another world) their chief concern should be to put on the shining ornaments of fuch graces, practices and performances, as are good in themfelves, conformable to the holy law of God, and of great price in his fight, and ufeful to others.

> 11 According to the becoming modefly, with which women ought to behave in church-affemblies, let them liften to public ministrations with meekness and filence, and in due fubjection to the fuperior characters of their. husbands, and the ministers, of whom they are to learn the things of God.

> 12 But I by no means permit +, that the woman fhould take upon her publicly to preach in the church; (fee the notes on I Cor. xi. 3. and xiv. 34.) nor do I allow that, under any pretence whatfoever, fhe affume an authority to herfelf that betokens a fuperiority to the man : But I infift upon it, that, in all religious affemblies, she, fuitable to the order of her

> > NOTES.

The adornings condemned here, relates to those that were fome way exand 1 Pet. iii. 4. are fuch as were over- ceffive, fantastical, lux rious, or indecurious, and extravagant, rich and cost- cent; or else to an affectation of outly, above the rank, flation and ability of ward drefs, rather than the brighter orthose that wore them, and as tended to naments of virtue, modefty, and chaftity, puff up the pride, levity and vanity of piety, holinels, and good works, (chap v. their own hearts, and to entice others to 10.) as those forms of expression are somewantonnefs, by those ways of decking times to be understood, not in an abio-themselves; and they seem to be such a lutely negative, but comparative sense.

Y

Digitized by Google

fex.

13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the tranfgreffion.

Notwith-15 ftanding, she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity, and holinefs with fobriety.

fex, behave with a meek and filent fubjection to him ; and the reason of this is founded in the original law of nature, and in the flate of things immediately after the fall.

13 For Adam, the common father of all mankind, was brought into being by the great Creator before his wife Eve, who was made out of one of his ribs, (Gen. ii. 21.) which intimates, that the man was not created for the woman, but the woman for the man, (1 Cor. xi. 9.) and that, by confequence, fhe ought to be in proper subjection to him.

14 And as to the ruin that is brought upon mankind by the fall, it was not Adam that was deceived, and drawn into fin, by the immediate ftratagem of the ferpent ; but Eve, his wife, being imposed upon by that fubtle adverfary, was the first of them that went into the transgreffion of the law of God, which forbade their eating of the tree of knowledge of good and evil upon pain of death ; and the was the means of her hufband's doing the fame, (Gen. iii. 1,--6, 12, 13.) without his own being feduced by the ferpent himself, and (which indeed aggravated his fin) without any deception, but knowingly, as induced to it by his fond affection to his wife.

15 However, the female fex * shall be fo far relieved against the righteous sentence upon the first woman, (Gen. iii. 16.) that they shall be carried through the forrows of child-bearing, fometimes with fafety, and always with freedom from them as a curfe; and shall certainly be faved with an everlasting falvation, in cafe they prove themfelves to be real Chriftians, by continuing in the exercise of faith and truft in God through Chrift, the promifed feed ; and, as the fruit of their faith, in love to God and his people; and in all conjugal chaftity and holinefs of heart and life, together with a due moderation of their pations and appetites, and a fober behaviour, as becomes women profeffing godlinefs, which has the promife of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. (Chap. iv. 8.)

RECOLLECTIONS.

How abundantly more extensive is the grace of God under the gospel-dispensation, than it was in the Jewifh ages! He intends the falvation of all forts of per-

NOTE.

Digitized by Google

perfonally to Eve, who was dead long fex; accordingly, by an analogy of num. before, whereas this is a promife for ber, frequent in fuch cales, it is expresstime to come: And therefore I take it ed, in the latter part of this verie, by to relate to women in general, that were their continuing in faith, Sc. (See Dr. involved with her in the fentence pro- Whitby's note.) nounced, Gen. iii. 16.; and fo fbe is a

* She fhall be faved, cannot relate noun of multitude, including the whole fons.

fone, whether they be Jews or Gentiles, high or low, greater or leffer funers; and accordingly will bring in multitudes of them to the faving knowledge or Chrift, who is the only Mediator between the offended God and offending men, and treely gave himfelf up to death, as a price of redemption to fatisfy divine justice for all of every character that shall believe in him, and to deliver them from fin, and from the wrath to come. What a bleffed and encouraging ground of hope, and of prayet, is here, for kings and subjects, that by means of a gospel-ministry, which Christ has appointed to teftify his atoning death, they may be brought to know and believe in him, though at prefent they be strangers and enemies to him! And how pleafing to God is it, that Christian fubjects, on all occasions, and whenever they are engaged in divine worship, without regard to any diffinction of places, be importunate in prayer, and hearty in thankigivings for their political governors, as they are ordained of God for the good of the community, that, under their pro-tection and favour, they may live in quiet poffession of their religious and civil rights, and have full liberty for the difcharge of all moral and Chriffian duties ! Women, as well as men, are to join in public worthip, and to behave with decency, like perfons profeffing godlinefs : They ought not to be fond of decking themselves with splendid attire, nor set their hearts upon fine and sumptuous drefs, but upon the richer and brighter ornaments of virtue and grace, and aboundings in every good work : And remembering the rank in which God has placed their fex by the law of creation, and after the tall, in which the woman was nit in the transgreffion, they should take heed of every thing that looks like an affectation of superiority to the man, and be filent learners with due subjection, and not preachers in the church : And as ever they would be comforted under the difmal effects of the fall, and be carried fafe through the forrows and dangers of child-bearing, and get at last to heaven, it behoves them to live in an exercise of faith and love, chaftity, holinefs, and fobriety : For, bleffed be God ! here is a gracious promife of rich mercy to fuch.

CHAP. III.

The apostle describes what ought to be the qualifications and behaviour of gospel-bishops, 1,-7. And of deacons and their wives, 8,-13. And gives Timothy a reason of his writing so particularly to him about these, and other church-affairs, for directing his own conduct as an evangelist, 14,-16.

Техт.

faying, if a man defire the office of a bishop, he defireth a good work.

PARAPHRASE.

THIS is a true TO proceed to fome other directions, that may be needful for you, my fon Timothy, to be acquainted with, in order to a due discharge of your truft, as an evangelift; it is certainly true, and may well be faid, that if any Christian, properly qualified, is inclined, with a view to the glory of God and the good of fouls, to enter upon the office of a pastor, or overfeer of God's flock, to perform the part of a bishop in the overlight of it, (fee the notes on Aels xx. 28. and 1 Pet. v. 2.) he aims at a very important, honourable, and useful, though laborious post and fervice : But that you and fuch may know, and the church may judge, and not be imposed upon, it is proper to draw out fome account of what fort of qualifications are needful for a faithful and acceptable difcharge of the duties of fuch a high and laborious station. Y 2 z A

2 A bishop then muft be blamelefs, the hufband of one wife, vigilant, fober, of good be-haviour, given to bospitality, apt to teach :

3 Not given to wine, no ftriker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous.

2 A bishop, or pastor, then, ought to be an inoffensive man, of an unexceptionable moral character, in every relation of life, that the ministry be not blamed; (2 Cor. vi. 3.) and, if he be not a fingle man *, he ought by no means to have any more than one , . wife at a time; no, nor on any account, except in cafe of adultery, to divorce his wife, and marry ano- . ther, whilft the is living : (Mat. xxxi. 32.) He ought alfo to be very circumfpect and diligent in his work, watchful against Satan and all his instruments, and watchful over his own spirit, words, and actions, and for the fouls of those that are committed to his charge; and to be very moderate in his appetites, paffions, and pleafures ; to be affable, courteous, prudent, and engaging in the general courfe of his converfation towards all men ; and to be of a generous foul, ready, according to his ability, to relieve the neceffities of the poor +, and entertain godly ftrangers, ministers, or others, that are well recommended to him; and he should be well furnished with a good flock of Christian knowledge and experience, and capable of expreffing his fentiments with freedom, clearnefs, and propriety, for the inftruction of others, and for fupporting and defending the truths of the gospel on all suitable occasions; as also to be ready to improve all proper opportunities for it.

3 He ought by no means to be a wine-bibber, (Mat. xi. 19.) or a lover of ftrong drink to any excels; nor to be a man of a quarrellome and furious ' temper, like one whole paffions are too ftrong, upon provocation, to keep his tongue from grievous fcurrility, or his hands from violence; nor ought he to be eagerly fond of the riches of this world, which are defiling gains, efpecially to one of his character, when procured by any bafe unworthy means: But he should be one of a meek, calm, peaceable, and forbearing spirit, (2 Tim. ii. 24.) not abusive, noify, and clamorous in his way of talking and difputing ; nor fo in love with the things of this world, as to prefer means that a bithop or paftor is obliged ftand clear of either of those fins. to marry, nor that he ought never to rights, and the defign of the law of mar- were not very usual in those days, it was riage itfelf; neither of which was ever a becoming part of the character of bifhintended to be fet alide by the golpel-dif- ops to be open-hearted to poor Chriftians, quent among the Yews, but condemned went about from place to place to preach by our Lord, Matth. xix. 3, 9.; and there- the gospel.

Digitized by Google

NOTES.

* The hufband of one wife, neither fore ministers, of all others, ought to

+ A lover of bospitality properly figmarry a fecond wife, the prohibition of nifies a friend to itrangers; ($\phi_{1\lambda}\delta\xi_{1\lambda\sigma}$) which would be contrary to natural and as inns for public entertainment penfation : But it is defigned to guard a- that were ftrangers, especially to fuch as gainft polygamy, and againft divorces on were driven into their neighbourhoods frivolous occations, both which were fre- by perfecutions, and to ministers that 5

ċ

1 prefer the fleece to the flock, and to feek theirs, rather than them. (2 Cor. xii. 14.)

a One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in fubjection with all gravity;

.5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God ?)

6 Not a novice, left, being litted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover, he muft have a good report of them which are without ; left he fall into reproach, and the inare of the devil.

8 Likewife muft the

4 Furthermore, if he have a family and children, he ought to keep up good discipline and decorum in. his house, and maintain a prudent authority over his children, as well as fervants, to oblige them, like Abraham, (Gen. xviii. 19.) to fubmit to regular orders, both with regard to religion and manners, as may be most honourable and comely for him and them.

5 For if a man have the charge of a family, whofe affairs are more cafy to be managed, and of lefs confequence, and does not know how to govern it well, as becomes the mafter of his own house; how can it reafonably be expected, that he fhould have prudence, care, and refolution enough, to prefide in the management of the higher and more difficult affairs of the church of the living God, (ver. 15.) in which all things are to be done decently and in order, exactly according to his Lord's appointment? (I Cor. xiv. 40. fee the note there.)

6 He ought not to be a raw upftart, nor, ordinarily, one that is but newly converted to the faith of Chrift, and planted in his church ; (vio Quros) left being puffed up with a high conceit of his gifts and fmattering knowledge, (which has more heat than light) or with popular applaufe, or with the honour of being fo toon advanced to fuch an eminent flation in the church, he, through the infligation of Satan, fall into the fame condemnation, and by means of the fame pride, as the devil himfelf did, when, not contented with his station among the glorious angels, be left his first babitation, and is thereupon reserved in everla/ling chains of darkne/s to the judgment of the great day. (Jude, ver. 6.)

7 Once more, He ought to be a man of clear reputation, not only with Chriftians themfelves, but also among unbelievers, whether Jews or Heathens, that are out of the pale of the church, and watch for the halting of golpel profeffors, and efpecially of gospel-ministers; left he give too great occasion for reproach upon himfelf, and upon the name, doctrine, and ways of the Lord; and to the devil catch an advantage against him, to the injury of his own foul, and of his usefulnes; and to the differedit of religion, the triumph of its adverfaries, and the grief and itumbling of young converts.

8 And as to another fort of church-officers, that deacons be are fet apart, as deacons, who are appointed to take grave, not double-tongued, not given for the poor, and manage the church thock to for ferving tables, (Acts vi. 2. fee the note there.) They

Ø

Ż

ľ,

4 ų Ţ

l cre.

9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure confcience.

10 And let these alfo firit be proved; then let them ule the office of a deablameleis.

II Even to must their wives be grave, not flanderers, fober, faithful in all things.

to much wine, not They likewife, as to their mors! character, ought to greedy of filthy lu- be (orurss) men of a grave, decent, and venerable behaviour, and of good report; (Acts vi. 3.) not given to diffimulation, fpeaking one thing and meaning another, or carrying two faces, and talking at one time contrary to what they fay at another, as may best ferve a turn ; nor ought they to indulge themfelves in drinking too freely of any flrong liquors, which would not only be a reproach upon their characters, but render them very unfit for the duties of their office; nor ought they to be of an avaricious temper, that would flacken their hands to the poor, and be a temptation to act the part of unfaithful flewards, in privately appropriating fome of the church's flock to their own ufe.

> 9 As to their religious character, they ought to be found in the faith, ftedfaftly adhering to, and perfevering in, the pure unmixed doctrines of the gofpel, which are indeed a mystery to the carnal unbelieving world, and exceed the comprehension of enlightened minds themfelves; the deacons ought to hold these fast in their belief and profession, with all the fincerity of a heart, that is purified by faith, and purged from an evil confcience by the blood of Chrift.

10 And in order to their being chosen to this office, they, as well as pattors, ought to be first tried, proved, and approved of, as to their moral and relicon, being found gious character; and then, being found unblameable with regard to any notorious crime, or any remarkable defect in the forementioned qualifications, they should be introduced into the office, and intrusted with the whole bufinefs of a deacon in all its parts.

11 In like manner, (if they are in a married state) their wives, for the credit of religion, fuitable to the near relation in which they fland to these church officers, ought to be perfons of a grave, chafte, and decent behaviour, free from all lightness of temper, words, drefs, and deportment; they ought not to be defamers of others by falle acculations, (un dia-Goaus) which is the very fpirit of the devil himself; much lefs should they be tale-bearers of injurious things, especially to the poor, left the deacons, their hufbands, be thereby prejudifed against them : But they should be (mpanes) watchful over their tongues and paffions, temperate in eating and drinking, and careful in family-economy within their own sphere, from whence the hufband may take hints for prudent and frugal management in fupplying the wants of the poor; and they ought to be, not only faithful to the marriage bed, but just and true to all the trusts committed

12 Let the deacons be the hufbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themfelves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith, which is in Chrift Jefus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee fhortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayeft know how thou committed to them, with faithfulnefs to God, to their husbands, and others, never daring to purloin, or embezzle any of the church's treasure.

12 The deacons alfo, as well as paftors, (ver. 2. fee the note there) ought to avoid the fin of polygamy and unlawful divorces, keeping to one wife, as long as the lives; and whether they have children, or other members of their families, they, as perfons placed in a public flation of a religious nature, ought to fet a good example to others, by maintaining a due decorum in the order of their houses.

13 They ought carefully to attend to thefe things : For fuch as have acquitted themfelves with fidelity, and for any length of time, in discharging the deacon's office, well deferve, and will certainly obtain, high degrees of honour and refpect in the church *; and, in that way, may warrantably hope to acquire and increase in gifts and graces suitable to their stations; and they will be emboldened, from the teftimony of their own confciences to their fidelity, and from the just reputation they have gained in the church and the world, to be open, free, and courageous in their profession of the pure and unmixed doctrine of Chrift, and of their faith in him, whereby they have derived grace from him, to enable them to be faithful in fulfilling their truft for his glory.

14 I write these things, in brief, for your direction, and to be communicated, as there may be occasion, to others; hoping at the fame time to have an opportunity, ere long, of coming to you at Ephe/us, or elfewhere, to give you flill farther inftructions.

15 But if God in his providence fhould order my being detained longer from you, than may be expected, I fend this letter, to shew how you ought to conduct yourfelf chafe, or procure to themfelves, feems which fignifies a flep, or a feat a little rather to relate to the honour they fhould exalted in an affembly, to hear or fpeak, rife to in the effeem of the church, than alludes to the cuftom of fitting in the to their advancement to the paftoral of- Jewifb fynagogues, which had fome fice : For that office is a diffinct order feats raifed above others for perfons to from the deacon's, and not a different fit in, according to their dignity; and fodegree of the fame order; and the work it may metaphorically fignify fome place of a deacon, being chiefly to attend the of eminence in a church-affembly, which temporal affairs of the church in ferving is due to fuch as have used the office of a tables, has very little tendency to a pre- deacon well, where, with boldness and paration for the office of the ministry, confidence, they may affift in the mawhich is of a fpiritual nature, as it prin- nagement of the affairs of the church, as cipally lies in perfons continually giving this belongs to a profettion of the faith them/elves to prayer, and to the mini- which is in Chrift Jefus. (See the Docftry of the word. (Acts vi. 2, 3, 4.) Ac- tor's true nature of a golpel-church, pagcordingly the learned Dr. Owen conjec- 186, 187.)

NOTE.

* The good degree which they pur- tures, that this good degree, (BaSpoc)

thou oughteft to behave thyielf in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

yourfelf in what relates to the houfe, which God has built for himfelf, and is the fole proprietor of; not an house made with hands, like that which he caused to be built to his own name at Jerusalem, (I Kings viii. 19.) much lefs like the temples that heathens have erected to their lifeless idols; but an house of a spiritual nature, consisting of credible professors of Chrift's name, who, as lively ftones built together, (I Pet. ii. 5.) make up the church of the only living and true God, which he animates by his fpirit, and in which he dwells after a more excellent manner than he ever did in the temple of Solomon- itfelf, though he filled that with a glory : (I Kings viii. 10.) The ftrength, ornament, and fafety of this church is altogether fpiritual, of a different, and incomparably nobler kind, than any pillar and bafis of a material temple can be *. It is the found truth of the gospel, of which Chrift is the fum and fubftance, and which you and all faithful paftors are to preach and maintain in all holy ministrations.

16 And it must be confessedly owned, (ouoroyeuswws) that the true doctrine of the gofpel, which is according to godlinefs, (chap. vi. 3.) is a great, glorious, and incomprehenfible mystery; (fee the note on I Cor. ii. 7.) fome of the principal articles of which are these, namely, That the eternal Son of God, who is firicily and properly God, together with the Father and Spirit, even God over all bleffed tiles, believed on with the Father and Spirit, even Gou out an engine in the world, re- for ever, (John i. 14. and Rom. ix. 5.) was manifested, for the most important purposes of redemption and falvation, in his incarnate flate; and fo was Immanuel, God with us : (Mat. i. 21, 23.) And, having fatisfied divine justice by his obedience, sufferings, and death, he was publicly acquitted and accepted of God, as the righteous head of the church, and

But the truth of the gospel is more pro- confessed, is called the rock, on which he perly the pillar and ground of the church, would build his church. (Matth. xvi. 18. than the church is of the truth; and the fee the note there.) It therefore feems to church cannot possibly be the pillar of me that, in opposition to the pillars and truth any otherwife, than as it holds foundation of a material temple, which forth and maintains the truth, which it- is here alluded to. the truth of the gofftrations they supported the gospel-doc- this truth, is spoken of under the appeltrine concerning Chrift, as the founda- lation of the myslery of godlines; and tion of the church, 1 Gor. iii. 10, 11. several articles of it are specified in the which, on that account, is called the following verfe. foundation of the apofiles and prophets,

NOTE. The pillar and ground of truth is Jefus Chrift himfelf being the chief cor-referred by fome to the church, and by ner-flone, Eph. ii. 10.; and the doctrine others to Timothy and gospel-ministers. of Peter's confession, or Chrift, whom he felf is built upon; and though the apol- pel, or Chrift as exhibited in the golpel, tles are called pillars, Gal. ii. 9; yet is meant by the pillar and ground of yet they cannot be faid to be fo in their truth on which the church frands, as its own performs, but only as in their mini- foundation and fupport: Accordingly was

JOOgle

16 And without controverly, great is the mystery of God godlinefs : was manifest in the flefh, justified in the Spirit, feen of angels, preached unto the Genceived up into glo-Ty.

TIMOTHY paraphrased.

was cleared of all the vile reproaches of his enemies, in his refurrection, by a concurrence of the Holy Spirit, with his own power, as a divine perfon; (fee the note on Rom. i. 4.) and fo he was raifed again for our justification from all the offences for which he was delivered to death : (Rom. iv. 25.) He was af, ter that feen of angels, and honourably witneffed unto, in his ascension, (Acts i. 10.) vast multitudes of which furrounded him, as his adoring fervants and courtiers, in his triumphal entrance into heaven : (Pfal. lxviii. 17.) And, in confequence of all this, he was preached, as the atoning, rifen, and exalted Saviour, to the Gentiles, as well as Jews; and was believed on by abundantly more Gentiles than Yews *; and fo was received in a glorious manner by them, who flocked in crowds to him, under the glorious difpenfation of the Spirit, which he shed down abundantly from on high; and they were wrought upon to embrace him with alacrity and joy, and to make an open and honourable profession of him in all the glory of his perfon, mediation, and exaltation.

N 0 Т E.

* Various have been the laboured in- the Christian religion? And in favour of terpretations of the feveral claufes in this this interpretation it may be observed verfe, and attempts to range them all in that areanogr does frequently fignify was a confiftent order of time, which I think received, without denoting any thing of ought to be attended to; but none, that afcending or defcending. See ACT xx. I have been able to confult, have given 13, 14. and xxiii. 31. Eph. vi. 13. 2 Tim. me fatisfaction in making both the fense iv. 11." To which I would add, that (er and order agree: The greatest difficulty Sofr) in glory, fignifies and is rendered lies in giving fuch an account of justifi- glorious, 2 Cor iii. 7, 8, 11. and riches in ed in the Spirit, feen of angels, und re- glory (1 Sogn) fignifies glorious riches, Ceived up to glory, as may be adjusted Phil. iv. 19 It is also well known that to a regular fucceffion of the other inter- the preposition (:v) in, very often fignivening events here recited. All there paffages therefore are paraphrased in fuch a manner, as I apprehend to be juft, and fully to comport with the due order in which they ftand. I suppose the chief objection, by many at leaft, will be made against the construction here given of received up into glory, which my thoughts had turned to before I faw those of Dr. Benfon's friend upon it, fome part righteous perfon, who, having fulfilled of which furprifingly fell in with, and helped to confirm my own. His words, as quoted by the Dr. in his note on this place, fo far as they are to my purpole, are these, "If this be the true sense of anearest, the order of the feveral articles it is one of the most remarkable and immay be very just; for, upon our Lord's portant branches of it; and this is here being preached unto the Gentiles, he placed between his being manifested in, was believed on in the world, and met the flesh, and seen of angels, when they with a glorious reception : For what attended him, as a grand retinue, in his multitudes in the apoftolic age embraced afcention to glory.

Vol. V.

hes, and is rendered with, as in Matth. iii. 11. Mark i. 23. Luke iv. 32 1 Cor. ii. 4. Epb. vi. 2. and many other places ; to that in glory might more justly be rendered with glory, than into glory: And justified in the Spirit feems plainly to relate to the fignal teftimony, which the Holy Spirit gave to our bleffed Lord, in raifing him from the dead, as a just or the righteoufnels of the law, and fatisfied divine justice, as the substitute of his people, onght no longer to be detained under the power of death: For, otherwife, the refurrection of Chrift is left out Z

7167

1

ゴン・ニ

RECOLLECTIONS.

What a high efteem should we have of the churches which God has erected in our world ! Churches, which he, as the living God, animates by his Spirit, and dwells in, as in his own house. What fuitable officers has he appointed to attend their fpiritual and temporal concerns ! And what admirable directions has he given about them, that none unqualified may be chosen to fuch important flations, and none may mifbehave in them ! How good and honourable, and yet laborious a work is it, to have a paftoral overfight of fouls, and their fpiritual concerns! But how many are the excellent qualifications neceffary for it ! Perfons called to this office ought to be skilful in the word of righteousness, fit to teach others, and not raw upftarts, left they be puffed up with pride, which was the fin and ruin of the devil : They are to be men of blameless morals, of prudence, faithfulness and gravity. generofity and affability, in every relation of life; keeping the families and children under their care in good order, and governing their own paffions and appetites, tongues and hands, with moderation and decency, left they fall into reproach, and Satan and his emiffaries take an advantage against them. And in how many things fhould deacons, together with their wives, copy after them ! Officers of this fort, who have the care of the temporal concerns of the church, should hold the mystery of faith in a good confcience, and be very exact in their morals : And the more diligent, faithful, prudent, and compaffionate they are in difcharging the duties of their truft, the higher honour and effeem they will rife to in the church, and the more courageous will they grow in the profession of their faith in Chrift. Happy fouls, that are enabled to act up to all these characters and duties, in their respective stations! But how careful should they be that the church may not fink for want of having the truth of the goipel for its foundation and fupport ! O the unfathomable depth, importance and glory of the great mystery of godlinefs, as it fhines forth in God manifested in the flesh to make atonement for fin ; railed from the dead for the justification of his perfon and caule, and of believers in him ; beheld, witneffed to, and adored by the holy angels in his ascension to heaven; preached with wide extent to the Gentile-world; and believed on by multitudes of them, who received him in a glorious manner, fuitable to his own exaltation, as God-man mediator on his throne !

A P. C Η IV.

The apofle informs Timothy, by the spirit of prophecy, of departures from the faith in various instances, that began already to appear, and would iffue in the grand apoflacy of after-times, 1,-5. And, with reference thereunto, gives him feveral directions, with fuitable motives to enforce them, for a due discharge of the duties of bis office, 6,-16.

Text.

NOW the Spirit fpeaketh expressly, that in the latter times some the faith, giving heed to feducing fpirits, and doctrines of devils :

PARAPHRASE.

NOW to caution you and all others, whether minifters, or Christians of every character, against certain grofs errors, which, in opposition to the gloshall depart from rious mystery of godlines, (chap. iii. 16.) will be a mystery of iniquity; (2 Theff. ii. 7.) and which begins already to work, and will hereafter have a much wider, and more terrible fpread ; It is proper to acquaint you, that the Spirit of God fortels in the infpired writings *, and most expressly and clearly by immediate

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

* The Spirit fays expressly. Mr. Joseph Mede, in his apostacy of the latter times,

TIMOTHY paraphrafed.

immediate revelation to me, that in a future time of this laft age, or difpenfation of God toward the church *, there will arife many falfe profeffors of Christianity, that will apostatize (artosnoordas) from the pure doctrines of faith, as contained in the golpel; and will attend to perfons of an intriguing temper, under the influence of infernal fpirits +; and fo will be mifled into the idolatrous principles and practices of worshipping angels and departed faints, in fuch a manner, as very nearly refembles the religious honours, which are paid by heathens to their demons, whom they worship, as mediators between their superior gods and themfelves.

2 Speaking lies ving

2 The methods that these feducers will take to in hypocrify, ha- draw many into their own pernicious errors, will be, Έ2 by works) supposes this to refer to what is more flagrant and general apostacy; written Dan. xi. 36. ; others take it to re- fince, notwithftanding all the doctor's lafer to our Lord's predictions of many boured, and feemingly forced attempts falle prophets, that (bould arife, and de- to the contrary, the apoftle plainly points ceive many : (Matth. xxiv. 11.) But to this in those paffages of the second eas the apofile had to clearly and expressly piftle to the Theffalonians above referred wrote upon this point in his fecond epif- to, and fince he wrote for the use of the tle to the Theffalonians, (chap. ii.) be-fore he fent this epiftle to Timothy, why the fpirit, principles, and pract fore he fent this epiftle to Timothy, why may we not underftand him to mean of the antichriftian church of Rome fo that the Spirit had in an immediate exactly match with the description gimanner revealed it to him, and there, as ven, in this and the two next veries, of well as here, fpoke of it by him?

NOTES.

* In the latter times (iv usigois xaigo-(c) fignifies in the laft difpendation of God under the Meffiah's reign; fo that any oufly apoftatized from the primitive period, within the compais of this last faith of the gospel: Their doctrine of age, may properly be faid to be in the worfhipping angels and departed faints, latter times : And though there were and making ule of them as mediators, is fome beginnings of apoftacy in the apoftle's days, that tended to the grand one, the nearest affinity to that, which was as may be gathered from a Theff. ii. 7.; found among the heathens; their meyet what he had principally in view was, thods of propagating their religion, by I think, to come to pais in fome ages af- fpurious legends, forged miracles, and ter that time, as may appear from what fabulous stories, under hypocritical prehe adds a Theff ii. 7,-11. It was ne- tences of zeal for God, while interest is vertheless proper for Timothy to know, their principal aim; their astonishing and give notice of this apoftacy to the hardness, and infentibility of any moral Chriftians of his day, that they might be evil, in the most vile, criminal, and murthe better guarded against every thing derous methods for extirpating, what of that aspect; because corruptions of they call herefy, and ferving the church; this tendency began already to work in their forbidding priefts, monks, and nuns judaizers, who were for keeping up the to marry; and enjoining abilinence from diffinction of meats, and a flow of hu-flefh in Lent, and on Wedneldays and mility; were for worfhipping of angels, Fridays, all the year round, fo evident-and embracing other errors, that were 'ly answer the apostle's diffinguishing broached by faile apoftles, and deceitful characters of their apoftacy, that there workers; an account of which is given need no plainer marks to warrant an apat large in Dr. Whitby's note on this plication of them to that antichriftiantext. But we cannot justly inter from church. (See also the notes on a Theff, thence, as the Doctor would, that the a- ii. 3, 4. and 2 Tim. iii. 1.) times. (chap. xvi. p. 821. &c. of his postle had not a further eye upon a still these seducers, and their corruptions, that any one may eafily read their character in it : For they have most notoriapparently the doctrine of demons, in

Chap. iv.

ſ

ence feared with a hot iron ;

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abftain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thankigiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good. and nothing to be refuted, if it be received with thankfgiving :

5 For it is fanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in 1emembrance of thefe things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Chrift, nourified up in the words of faith, and of good doctrine. whereunto thou haft attained.

ving their confci- by utterng abundance of falfhoods to delude them, and eftablish their own authority, under hypocritical pretences of zeal for religion; and they will not flick at any iniquitous measures to carry on and effect their own corrupt defigns; their confciences being as infenfible of good and evil, and of the dreadful confequences of their guilt, as flefh, that is feared with a hot iron, becomes callous and incapable of feeling.

3 Some of the errors which they will vent and propagate are, prohibiting marriage to fome forts of perfons, and fo difannulling the order of the God of nature, and exposing them to all temptations of unchaftity; as also obliging people to abstain from fome kinds of food, which God created for the fuftenance of man, and now, under the golpel-difpenfation, (which has taken away all former legal diffinctions of clean and unclean meats) allows all forts of wholefome flefh to be eaten, with moderation and fobriety, at all times, as occasions require, with thankfulness to him, for providing them, and for allowing all Christians to eat of them with a covenant-right, who believe the truth as it is in Jesus, and understand and make a confcientious prudent use of the gospel-doctrine of Christian liberty, as to that point.

4 For every creature that God has made, is in itfelf good, as it came out of his hand for the purpofes for which he created it ; and nothing that is proper for food is to be fcrupled or forbidden, provided it be received with religious gratitude and acknowledgments of God as the author and giver of it.

For it is fanctified to our lawful use by the gofpel of the ever-bleffed God, which has taken away all ceremonial uncleannefs from it; as alfo by his commanding a bleffing upon it; (Mat. iv. 4.) and by prayer, according to the laudable cuftom at meals, to implore his bleffing upon it for the refreshment of animal nature, that it may be fitted for his fervice; and after the refreshment to bles the Lord for it. (Deut. viii. 10. and fee the note on Mat. xiv. 19.)

6 If you, my dear fon, in the faith, fhall carefully from time to time remind, and warn, the Christian brethren of all the things before-mentioned, and particularly of this grand apoftacy, fome tendencies to which already appear, (fee the two laft notes on ver. 1.) that they may be the more upon their watch, and guard against every, the least approach to it, you will acquit yourfelf with honour, as a ufeful, wife, and faithful fervant of Jefus Chrift, that has his glory at heart, and will order your ministrations fuitable to the circumflances of the times, and the prefent danger of errors and corruptions creeping into the church; and

hap. , them, a itical y ot flice fectio ng as:

tul cod 1 wie eeling.

and pr sola

d of a uncha

m loz lear.

fate

1005

r

in T ubé

ŋ .

r.

311 da:

ŕ۰

0

0-

and will therein approve yourfelf to have been well taught, refreshed, and itrengthened in your own foul, as having thoroughly digetted the pure doctrines of faith in Chrift, and of every other evangelical truth that is connected with it; the knowledge and experience of which you have fought after, and happily attained. ($\pi \alpha enzols \Im nz \omega_s$. See the note on Luke i. 3.)

7 But refule profane and old wives fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godlineis.

8 For bodily exercife profiteth little; but godlinefs is profitable unto all things, having promife of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

⁻⁻9 This is a faithful faying, and worthy of all acceptation.

10 For therefore we both labour, and fuffer reproach, becaule we truft in the living God, who is the Saviour 7 But as to the fabulous traditions of the Jews, and their endlefs genealogies, which I have already cautioned againft, as tending to corrupt the fimplicity of the gofpel, rather than to godly edifying, (chap. i. 4.) and which are indeed as foolifh as the idle ftories that old women delight to tell children, pay no manner of regard to thefe; reject and have nothing to do with them; but, like athletics in the Grectan games, (yuparaži oravier) exert yourfelf with the utmost labour, diligence, and vigour, in promoting the doctrines and duties of true piety to God through Jefus Chrift, and in exemplifying the beauties of practical godlinefs in your own lite and converfation.

8 For (yuuvarue) the greatest pains that can be taken in mere external acts of religion, in which the body only is engaged, is little worth, neither pleafing to God, nor of any good account to a man's own foul. But evangelical, vital, and practi-(Mat. xv. 8, 9.) cal godlinefs, in heart, and life, is every way advantageous, with regard to all things that concern us; there being express promises, even under the gospelftate, (chap. ii. 15. Mat. vi. 25,-33. Rom. viii. 28. and Phil. iv. 19.) of the bleffing of God as annexed to it, in what relates to the neceffaries, conveniences, and a fanctified use of all circumstances of this prefent life; and still more excellent and abundant promifes, relating to the glory and bleffednefs of the better world to come : Yea, this is emphatically the promise, that he has promised us, even eternal life. (1 John ii. 25.)

9 This promife, with all the reft, may be fully depended upon, as a certain truth, which God in faithfulness will make good; and it is worthy the higheft regard, efferm, and entertainment, as a rich encouragement to ferve the Lord, and cleave to him, amidft all difficulties, oppositions, and dangers; how many soever apostatize from him.

to For it is in confideration of this important truth, and of the affured hopes of its accomplifhment to ourfelves, that we, the apoftles and fervants of Chrift, undergo great fatigues in our holy ministrations to advance his glory, interest, and kingdom, aud that believe.

Saviour of all men, and gain fouls to him; and that we patiently and specially of those chearfully bear the most contemptuous scorn, and infamous revilings, from our adversaries, for his sake ; becaufe we firmly rely on the power, truth, and faithfulnels of the Almighty and ever-living God, who has life in himfelf, and is the fountain of both natural and spiritual life, and of every bleffing that is needful for the support and comfort of either of them, as he is the great Preferver of all mankind, and the author and giver of all their temporal falvations and deliverances, and, in a providential way, is good to all; (P/. exlv. 9.) and he is fo, by the particular care of his providence, and in a fpecial way of covenant-love and faithfulnefs to true believers, with respect to all the promifed good things that pertain to the prefent life; as well as is most eminently fo, with respect to an everlaiting falvation, in that which is to come. (ver. 8.)

II Thefe things sommand and teach.

12 Let no man despile thy youth, but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

11 Thefe things are of fuch vaft confequence to the encouragement of faith and holinefs, that I would have you inculcate them, by divine authority, upon the confciences of your hearers; and illustrate and explain them at large, in the course of your ministry, that they may fee the excellence and advantage of true religion and godlinefs.

12 Let it be your fludy and endeavour, by divine grace, to acquit yourfelf herein with fuch diligence, gravity, good judgment, prudence, and fidelity to your truft, and with fuch evidence of your own heartily believing, efteeming, and living under the power of what you preach to others, that none may have occasion to flight, and contemn you and your admonitions, your office, or your management of it, on account of your youth : But, the more effectually to prevent this, let it be your great concern, that you yourfelf may be an amiable and fhining example to all other believers, in the excellency of your doctrine and edifying difcourfe; in the regularity of your religious and moral behaviour; in the fincerity and ardour of your love to God and Chrift and immortal fouls, to truth and holinefs, and to all fellow-ministers and Christians; in your spiritual-mindedness, fervent zeal for the glory of God, and aboundings in all the fruits of the Spirit; in the fleady and lively exercise and profession of your faith, and maintaining the doctrines of it; and in all (ayrea) chaftity and purity of heart and life.

13 You may have still further directions from me by word of mouth, when, according to my hope, (chap. iii. 14.) I may have an opportunity of feeing In the mean while, attend to your charge, as you.

TIMOTHY paraphrafed.

ye ought to do all the days of your life; and that you may in the beft manner fulfil it, addict yourfelf to, and fpend much of your time in reading, as well as praying over, the holy fcriptures of the Old Teftament, and this epifle, together with all other infpired writings of the New Teftament, that are extant, for the improvement of your own foul in knowledge and fpiritual gifts, grace and comfort, and further fitting you for public fervice : And as in this way you fhould lay in, fo I would have you lay out your flock of Chriftian knowledge and experience, by exhorting and comforting others, and fpreading found doctrine among them, for their converfion, edification, and eftabliftment.

14 And as God has richly furnished you with extraordinary gifts for this fervice, Take heed that you do not neglect to flir them up, and to exercise and improve them to the best advantage, which were abundantly conferred upon you for preaching the gofpel, and fulfilling the whole of your ministry, according to the remarkable prophecies that have been delivered by fome infpired men of late concerning you; (cbap. i. 18.) and which were communicated to you, particularly at your ordination; as a fignal of which, I and other elders, who joined with me in that folemnity, laid our hands upon you. (2 Tim. i. 6.)

15 Let the things that I have been mentioning. as the fubject of your ministry and rule of conduct, and what I have now been faying about reading the fcriptures, and the extraordinary gifts of the Spirit, which you are favoured with, be frequently and ferioully reflected upon, to affect your own heart with them, and to excite your diligence in improving them: and meditate clofely and ferioufly upon the holy fcriptures, as well as read them : Let your attention to thefe things, and your ministrations of them, and prayer for a bleffing upon them, be the entire bufiness of your life, without entangling yourself with the affairs of this world; (2 Tim. ii. 4.) And (sv rurous 1091) let your whole foul be in them, as in your proper fphere and delightful element, that your proficiency in wifdom, gifts, and grace, and in experience of God's being with you, may evidently appear, in all things, to all about you.

16 In the first place, Be very careful in what concerns yourfelf, as a minister and Christian. See to it, that you and your fervices be accepted of God in Christ; that your heart be right with him, as to its principles, frame and temper, motives and ends; that your gifts be duly cultivated; and that the whole of your behaviour toward God, yourfelf, and others, 14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the prefbytery.

15 Meditate upon thele things; give thyfelf wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.

16 Take heed unto thyfelf, and unto thy doffrine; continue in them: for in doing this, thou fhalt both fave thyfelf, and them that hear thee.

others, be well pleafing in his fight: And then take heed what doctrine you preach, and how you preach it, that it be found and clear, according to the word of God, important and feafonable, evangelical and practical; and that it be well explained, confirmed, defended, and improved various ways, as occafions require, and your fubject leads you: And perfift ftedfaftly in the practice of all this, as your proper and ftated work to the end of your days: For in fo doing, and by means thereof, you, under the influence of the bleffed Spirit, will be inftrumental to the final falvation of your own foul, and the fouls of many that attend your ministry, and hear with the obedience of faith.

RÉCOLLECTIONS.

It is melancholy to think of the woful apoftacies from the faith of the golpel. that have been in all ages; but it needs not feem ftrange to us, fince they were foretold by the fpirit of prophecy: And how plainly has it pointed out the feducing hypocritical arts of falfehood and deceit, that are used, without shame or confcience, by the apoftate church of Rome together with their worshipping of deified faints, forbidding marriages, and enjoning abitinence from meats, which God created, and allows under the gospel-dispensation to be moderately used, with thankigiving for them, and prayer for his bleffing upon them ! With what contempt should we reject the errors that are built upon uncertain traditions, as we would idle ftories that are told to pleafe children ! And inftead of refting in formal bodily fervices, that turn to no good account, how concerned thould we be to live in the practice of vital religion, which has a gracious entail of bleffings upon it, by the promife of God ! He, as a bountiful benefactor, affords temporal prefervations, deliverances, and mercies to mankind in general; and by the particular care of his providence, as a covenant God, he gives them all in a way of special love, and completes them in eternal falvation, to every true believer : What important truths are these, and how worthy of the most hearty entertainment! With what care should ministers inculcate them on those that are under their charge, for their caution on the one hand, and encouragement on the other; humbly trufting in the ever-living God, for their own fupport and comfort, amidft all the reproaches, difficulties and labours they undergo for Christ's take ! And while, together with this. they are exemplary in faith, love, and all holinefs, they will approve themselves as good ministers of Jesus Christ, and good proficients in the doctrine and grace of faith : But, in order hereunto, how much diligence ought they to use in ftudying, reading, and improving the gifts God has beftowed upon them; and in giving themfelves entirely to these exercises, and to preaching and prayer! And what need have they to take heed first to their own state, temper, and converfation; and then to their doctrine, with perfeverance therein, as the means of God's appointing and bleffing, for the final falvation of their own fouls, and the fouls of their hearers !

Digitized by Google

おやけちもり

Chap. v.

H A P. .v.

The apostle gives orders how to behave towards elder, and younger men and women, 1, 2. And toward poor widows, 3,-8. Deferibes the characters of fuch widows, as are, or are not, proper to be maintained by the church, and taken into its fervice, 9,-16. Shews the respect that is to be paid to those that are elders by office, 17,-19. But charges Timothy to take due care in rebuking offenders of all ranks and flations, in ordaining miniflers, and in ufing such moderate refreshments, as were necessary for his own weak state of health, 20,-25.

TEXT.

REBUKE not an elder, but entreat him as a brethren ;

PARAPHRASE.

A^S you, my fon Timothy, are a young man, (chap. iv. 12.) who ought, as fuch, to behave father; and the with the utmost prudence and decency, to fcreen you younger men as from contempt on account of your youth; and as the boary bead is a crown of glory, if it be found in a way of righteou/ne/s, (Prov. xvi. 31.) I would advife you to' take care that, whatever finful infirmities attend any ancient Christian *, you do not assume an air of haughty, magisterial and severe authority in reproving one of fuch venerable years; (and the fame may be observed much more, with respect to one that bears the office of an elder in the church) But treat him with honour and respect in your converses with him; (Lev. xix. 32.) and deliver your exhortations to him, rather in a way of earnest entreaty to depart from all iniquity, with a due deference to his age and ftanding, fuch as you would show, in like cases, to your own father himfelf after the flesh: And let young men, that are more on a level, as to years, with yourfelf, and need reproof, be dealt with in a more free, and yet meek, affable, and affectionate manner, as you would treat your own brethren in nature, as well as in grace.

2 The elder women as mothers, the younger as fifters.

2 In like manner behave toward godly women advanced in years, with fuch a fort of reverence, even when you would correct any fault in them, as is due from

Digitized by Google

it does, ver. 17.; but old or elderly men: that older and younger Chriftians are li-For it is in this place opposed, not to able to, rather than to infamous and noprivate members of the church, but to torious crimes : For, whatfoever a peryoung men, as elderly women also are fon's age or station be, Timothy was 'o-. to the younger in the next verfe: And lemnly charged publicly to rebuke fuch yet as, in the reason of things, they that finners, ver. 20.; and yet, even in this are elders by office are to be treated in cafe, a prudent decency was doubtle's to as respectful a manner, at least, as is be exercised in reproving them, suitable here directed, we may very well include to their years and stations in the church. ' VOL. V.

NOTE. An elder here feems most directly them. But the rebuke here intended to mean, not one that is fo by office, as feems to relate to the leffer infirmities, Aa ۱ÿ.

3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to fliew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

ters, with all puri- from children to their own mothers: And manage your admonitions of young women that profess Chriftianity, as you would in giving them to your own fifters; and be fure let it be with fuch modefly and chaftity in your looks, fpeech, and behaviour, as shall give no occasion of reproach to your own, or her character.

> 3 As to believing women that are poor widows, and, as fuch, are apt to think themselves the more neglected and imposed upon, pay all becoming refpect to them, and take care that they be honourably provided for by the church *, if they are indeed defolate, according to the ftrongeft fense of that term, as not only bereaved of their hufbands, but also deftitute of any near of kin that are able and willing to fupport them.

> 4 But if any religious widows have children or grand-children, (exyone) that are capable of affifting them, and fupplying their necessities; Let fuch of their descendents be taught (as they ought to learn) their duty toward their parents, according to our Lord's inftructions, (Mark vii. 10,-12.) and toward God therein, who has commanded them to honour their mothers as well as their fathers, (Ex. xx. 12.) in confcientiously doing all they can to shew a reverence of them, and provide for fuch of them as need their help; and fo make them the most grateful returns for all their trouble, tendernefs, care and pains, love and folicitude, kindnefs and expence, in bringing them up, and conducting them through all the exercifing follies and dangers of their childhood and youth, till they fettled them in the world : For fuch a behaviour toward them is in itfelf juft and equitable, worthy and honourable; (xalor) and is highly pleafing in the fight of God, who has fixed the relation, and the duties of it, between parents and children.

5 Now the that and defolate, trufteth

5 Now a widow indeed, that is a proper object of is a widow indeed, the church's charity, is one who, being in indigent circumstances, destitute of relations to relieve her, trufts

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

the honour here meant relates to the al- they had devoted to God what was nelogrance, which was to be made to these ceffary for their relief, taxes it as a widows of things needful and convenient breach of the commandment to honour, for their subsistence: and the word is their father and mother, Matth. xv. 4. the next verfe : (fee the note there) the people at Malta, their bonouring Accordingly our Lord, fpeaking of the him and his companions with many becorrupt traditions of the Yezus, which nours. Acts xxviii. 10. discharged children from contributing to

It appears from ver. 4. and 8. that the fupport of their poor parents, in cafe used in the fame lenfe, ver. 17. as is e = 5, 6. and Mark vii. 10.—13.; and the vident from what follows in that and apostle calls the generous benevolence of ers night and day.

eth in God, and trufts in the Lord to take care of her for time, as well continueth in fup- as eternity, and to fupply her with needful things; plications and pray- and is one who, with an habitually religious disposition, continues morning and evening, and frequently on all occasions, to offer up her humble address to God in earnest petitions and pleas, according to her faith in his providence, for whatfoever he fees to be beft for her.

6 But fhe that liveth in pleasure, is dead while the liveth.

And these 7 things give in charge, that they may be blameleís.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and fpecially for those of his own houfe, he hath denied the faith, and is worfe than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be taken into the number under threefcore years old, having been the

6 But the widow that gives herfelf up to a jovial, loofe and voluptuous way of living, under the power of carnal inclinations, is in a spiritual sense dead; dead to God, and dead in trefpaffes and fins, (Eph. ii. 4.) while in a natural fenfe the is alive, and lives in wanton pleafure; and fo ought neither to be maintained, nor owned by the church, as any member of their holy body. 7 And these things are of so great confequence to the moral and religious life, and to the reputation, beauty and order of churches and families, that you ought to declare and folemnly enforce them in your public ministry and private conversation, to the end that these forts of people may be fo regular in conduct, as not to deferve rebuke (wa avenizintion wow) for fcandalous crimes, and the church may not be blameable for conniving at them, and mifapplying their charity.

8 But if there be any professor of Christ's name that is fo very unnatural, as not to do what in him lies, according to his circumftances, to fupply the wants of his own near relations, especially of his own aged parents, together with his wife and children, who are the principal and dearest parts of his family; he has practically renounced the doctrines of Christianity; and, whatever his pretences be, he really is worfe, than one that believes nothing of them, as he not only violates the law of nature and humanity, in inftances that many heathens themfelves would be afhamed of; but acts directly contrary to divine revelation itself, which enjoins all relative and focial duties.

9 If there be any poor widow, whole offspring either cannot, or will not relieve her, the church ought to take care of her : But if they have their thoughts upon her, to choose her for an affistant to the deacons *, in vifiting and ministring to the poor and fick,

Digitized by Google

A a 2

NOTE.

* The apoftle's infifting on a widow's, church, but of those that were also to being three-score years old, before she be be employed as deaconesses in it: For taken into the number, leads us to con- younger widows might be fo poor and fider him as speaking here, not merely infirm, as to be proper objects of the of taking them into the number of those church's charity, though not fit for the that were to be maintained by the office of a deaconefs, which, in the early efpecially

177

man,

10 Well reported of for good works; if fhe have · brought op children, if the have lodged ftrangers, if fire have walhed the faints feet, if the have relieved the afflicted, if the have diligently followed every good work.

ΎΙ But the widows younger refule: for when they have begun to wax wanton againft Chrift, they will marry;

12 Having damnation, becaufe they have caft off their first faith.

the wife of one especially of the female fex, the ought to be, at leaft, fixty years old, and free from the icandal of having ever been married to more than one husband at a time, or having caufelefly put away her hufband, and been married to another. (See Mark x. 12. and the note on chap. iii. 2.)

> 10 She ought also, in order to her being taken into this fervice, to be a perfon of good character, for having faithfully and prudently difcharged the relative duties of the married life; as for inftance, If she has behaved well in religiously educating children, or in holpitably receiving, and treating fuch godly ftrangers, whether ministers or others, as Providence has caft in her way; if she has been ready to do the meaneft offices, for the refreshment of such holy perfons, even to the washing of their feet, as is cuttomary in these hot countries, after travelling in fandals; If the has ministred, with compation and tendernefs, by counfel, or otherwife, to Christians in any fort of affliction; In a word; if, in the general course of her life, the has laboured, with care and diligence, to perform every good office toward God and others, as opportunity offered, fhe then may well be admitted, not only to partake of the charity of the church, but to do the part of a deaconefs in it.

II But, if younger widows would defire to be admitted to fuch a station, it would be most prudent not to encourage, but to reject fuch a motion : For when once (xarasenviagouoi) they have begun (as there may be danger of of it) to grow voluptuous and lafcivious, contrary to their profession of Christ, and to confult their own eafe and pleafure, initead of his honour and fervice, they will be tempted to marry at any rate, though it be into a heathen family, that they may get rid of their irkfome reftraints and labours, in attending the religious poor.

12 And they will expose themselves to shame and condemnation in the eyes of the world, to the cenfure of the church, and to the righteous judgments of God here, (see the note on I Cor. xi. 29.) as

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

convenient, for preventing fcandal a- but, these reasons now ceating, there is mong heathen neighbours, and relations not the like occasion for deaconeffes in of fuch converted women, whether the prefent age: And as I do not find young or old, as on account of poverty, any inflitution of them, or prefcription or fickness, and other occasions, the offi- of their duty, as there was of deacons, cers of the church were obliged to be very Acts vi. 1, 2, &c. it appears to me to be conversant with; as well as tor perform- matter of mere prudence in the church ing the family fervices of women in at to commit fuch offices to women, or tending ministers that usually travelled not, as circumstances require. about to preach the goipel; or were drily ages of Christianity, might be very ven from place to place by perfecution ;

well.

١

, Ì 12

TIMOTHY paraphrased.

13 And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tatlers alfo, and bufybodies, fpeaking things which they ought not.

14 I will therefore the that younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occafion to the adverfary to theak reproachfully.

15 For fome are already turned afide after Satan.

refer to young widows, who are all a- one, and had a proper opportunity for it; long the subject of the three preceding or whether God should bless them with verfes; and so it carries an intimation of the other, or not: His advice to virgins, young women's marrying, if there be no any fuch injunction; but what he here other circumstance to forbid it: But it would suggest is, that they ought to be is not to be imagined, that when the a- at liberty, and that it would be more to marry, any more than to bear chil- the office of a deaconefs.

well as to eternal damnation hereafter; becaufe they rejected their former protetiion of faith in Chrift, or renounced the doctrine which they at first notionally believed concerning him; and deferted the truft committed to them.

13 And, together with this, fuch young widows, as are more addicted to pleasure than bufiness, soon contract a habit of idleness, and trifle away their time in gadding about from one houle to another, for amutement and divertion; nor do they only grow lazy creatures, but also impertinent, flirting, loofe, and foolifh talkers, and officious pryers, and intruders into other peoples affairs, which do not belong to them, that they may carry ftories about, whether right or wrong, and make their own remarks upon them, to pleafe fome, and expose others; which ought by no means to be done, but is very mifchievous to the reputation and peace of their neighbours and acquaintance.

14 Inftead therefore of younger widows being admitted to any place of fervice in the church *, I would rather advife, that they be left in fuch a fituation, as admits of their marrying in the Lord, if they be fo disposed, and have a good offer, that promiles fair for a comfortable maintenance; and that, having entered into that relation, they breed, nourifh, and religioufly educate fuch children as it may pleafe God to give them ; and, being mittreffes of families, may conduct their houshold-affairs with faithfulnefs, prudence, and good houfewifery, and behave with fuch diligence, tobriety, and modefly, in all the duties of their relation, as to give no advantage to any enemies of Chrift, that feek, and would gladly take it, to speak evil of them, and of him and religion on their account.

15 I fpeak to particularly about this; because there are inftances of fome young widows already, who have turned off from their profession of Christ, and followed the devices of Satan in fuch finful practices

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

* The younger women feem to me to dren, whether they were inclined to the the lawfulness of these, as well as other 1 Cor. vii. 34. &c. is directly contrary to postle fays, I will that they marry, and proper for them to marry, &c. than to bear children, he meant to oblige them be a burden to the church, or put into

Chap. v.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indecd.

17 Let the elders that rule well, be counted worthy of double honour, efpecially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

tices as have just now been mentioned. (ver. 11, 12, 13.)

16 But, to return to the cafe of poor aged widows, If any Christian man or woman have ancient needy mothers or grandmothers, (ver. 4.) whole hulbands are dead, iuch offspring of theirs, whether fons or daughters, ought to fupply their wants, in the beft manner that their own circumstances admit of; and if they can relieve them at their own expence, the maintaining of fuch widows ought not to be thrown upon the church, which should be excuted from it, that they may have the more to fpare for the help and comfort of those that are indeed defolate widows, as having none of their own family to provide for them.

17 And now I am fpeaking about the use of the church's flock, I would recommend the paying a due regard to fuch elders as by office are employed in the ipiritual fervices of the church, that they, who are prudent and faithful in prefiding over them, (or READES WEDESWISS) may fland high in their civil respect and effeem, and may have liberal allowances, fufficient to make their worldly circumstances eafy, reputable, and comfortable *; efpecially those of them that are eminent

> NO Т E.

* As bonour includes maintenance, (fee the note on verfe 3.) double bonour feems to fignify great civil respect, and liberal maintenance, the last of which is referred to in the next verse, and the first in the verie that follows it. This bonour the apostle orders to be paid to the elders that rule well, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine, by which fome think, that ruling elders are diftinguished from pastors or preaching elders, as different officers in the church. But it is, at leaft, very doubtful, whether fuch a conclusion can be drawn from this text: For not only the elders, that laboured in the word and doctrine, but the elders also, that ruled well, were to be deemed worthy of the honour of maintenance, as appears from the next verfe. Now I can hardly believe that these elders, (who are supposed to be engaged their ministerial work to the edification only in the rule and government of the of the church; and fo the emphasis is to . church) any more than its deacons, were be laid on the word LABOUR in the word to be maintained at the church's coft in and doctrine, which has an especially. their lay-capacity, which left them at annexed to it. Accordingly the learned full liberty to purfue the bufiness of their Mr. Joseph Mede observes, that to h-fecular callings, for their own and fami- bour (xonuv) fignities, not imply to la-lies subliftence. And the reason, which bour, but to labour with much travel the apoftle subjoins in the following and toil, which he supposes refers to the verse, why elders ought to be maintain- evangelists or prophets, that travelled ed by the church, certainly relates to up and down to preach the golpel; be-none but preaching elders: Nor do I recollect that orders are ever given, in any other part of icripture, for the maintenance of either deacons, or these fuppoled ruling and non-preaching elders; or that an obligation can be inferred from any paffage of the New Teftament, that churches thould be furnished with fuch fort of officers; though perhaps prudence, in fome circumstances of affairs, may make them expedient. I therefore incline to think, with fome others, that the apoftle intends only preaching elders, when he directs double bonour to be paid to the elders that rule well, efpecially those who labour in the word and doctrine; and that the diffinction lies, not in the order of officers, but in the degree of their diligence, faithfulnefs, and eminence, in laborioufly fulfilling caule eminent and remarkably laborious in fludying and preaching the gofpel, and in fpreading, maintaining, and defending its pure unmixed doctrines : Let thefe be honourably maintained with double liberality, beyond fuch allowances as are to be granted to poor widows, (ver. 3.) according to their superior, and more important flations and work in the church, for the fervice of whole fouls they fpend their time and pains.

18 For as this is equitable in itfelf; fo the fcripture points it out as your duty, where it fays, to intimate the reward that is due to the fervants of the Lord for their most important labours, (fee the note on 1 Cor. ix. 10.) Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox, that treadeth out the corn : And our blefsed Lord himfelf fays, with respect to his ministring fervants, (Mat. x. 10.) The workman is worthy of bis meat, as his reasonable reward.

19 Another part of the honour, (ver. 17.) which is to be flown to these elders, is, that, confidering their high post in the church, and the great confequence of fupporting their character, in order to their usefulness, No acculation of any crime be admitted or believed, and brought into the church against any one of them ; unlefs it be first fubstantially proved by, at leaft, two or three credible witneffes, which are required even in ordinary cases; (Deut. xix. 15. Mat. xviii. 16.) and it ought to be depofed in the prefence of the like number of its members, to judge of the credibility of what is alledged against him, before the church takes any cognifance of it.

20 But if, upon undeniable proof, elders themfelves be found guilty of enormous crimes, inconfiftent with their facred character; In that cafe, there is to be no fuch respect of perfons, as to connive at their faults; but you, as an evangelift, ought to reprove them, as well as any other member, for their fin, with all becoming authority, in the prefence of the whole church, that not only they may reject them, in cafe of oblinancy and impenitence; but that others alfo, as well as thefe perfons themfelves, may be afraid of doing any iniquity for time to come.

21 As these are things of valt moment for preferbefore God and the ving the purity and profperity of the church, and relate

Digitized by Google

E.

cause their pains were more than theirs elders that rule, or govern their flocks that were fixed elders of certain church- well, be counted worthy of double hoes: He alfo gives us another exposition, nour, and that chiefly because, or in re-grounded on the use of the participle in spect of their labour in the word and the Greek, (xomioules) which is often wont doctrine. (See book i. discourse 19. Vol. to note the reason of a thing thus, Let I. pag. 92. of his works.)

NOT

18 For the fcripture faith, Thou fhalt not muzzle the ox that tread. eth out the corn; and, The labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an elder receive not an acculation, but before two or three witneffes.

20 Them that fin rebuke before all, that others alfo may fear.

21 I charge ther

Lord

Lord Jefus Chrift, and the elect angels, that thou obferve thele things, without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 Lay hands fuddenly on man, neither be partaker of other men's fins: keep thyfelf pure.

no

late to the must difficult, grievous, and irkfome part of your work ; and as your youth may make you the more backward to engage in it, I folemnly bind it upon your confcience, as in the prefence of the allfeeing and heart-fearching God, and of our Lord Jefus Chrift, the great Head of the church, who knows all things, and fearches the heart and reins, (Rev. ii. 23.) and will judge the quick and the dead, at his appearing and kingdom; (2 Tim. iv. 1.) and as in the prefence of the bleffed angels; who, continually furrounding us, are witneffes of what I fay, and whom, in diffinction from the fallen angels, God has chofen to be his favourite fervants, and to be everlaftingly confirmed in their holy and happy flate * : Yea, I charge you, as you hope to appear with comfort before all thefe, at the great day, when our Lord shall come in bis own, and in his Father's glory, with all the boly angels, that you carefully take heed to, maintain, and put in practice, the rules I have given you, without preferring one to another, through favour, or affection, or prejudging before the caufe is heard and proved; and without the least partiality, through prejudice for, or against any man whatfoever, on account of his station in the church, or of any private confideration to bias your mind.

22 And as elders or paftors themfelves may be liable to mifcarriages, If you would rejoice to have as little occafion as poffible, for the difagreeable work of rebuking them, (ver. 20.) It behoves you to be very cautious and careful in your inquiries after, and well fatisfied about, the characters of fuch as propose to be introduced into that facred office, and not haftily, inconfiderately, and rashly lay your hands on any man to ordain him +, with a conveyance of fuch extraordinary gifts, as used to attend that fignal of them :

Digitized by Google

* In whatever fense we understand gels, as his glorious attendants, Matth. ting the gifts of the Spirit at ordination, Luke ix. 26.

+ Though conveying the gifts of the this charge, as given before the elect an. Spirit was ordinarily by the apostles lay-gels, it relates to them, not as judges, ing on their hands; yer confidering what but as witneffes, and is confidered in the an extraordinary evangelist Timotby was, paraphrafe both as given before them, according to special foregoing prophecies according to the supposition of their being concerning him, which the apostle takes present in religious assemblies, who are particular notice of, and seems to lay a ministring fpirits to the heirs of falva- great ftress upon, once and again, chap. tion, I Cor. xi. 10. Epb. iii 10. and Heb. i. 12. and iv. 14 it need not be thought i. 14.: and as given to be answered before improbable, but that some more remarkthem at the judgment of the great day; ably eminent powers were conferred upwhen, for the greater folemnity of it, on him, than upon other evangelifts: Chrift will come with all the holy an- And why might not this of communica-Xvi. 27. and XXV. 31. Mark viii. 38. and by laying on of his hands, be one of them?

1

1

¥ ÷ķ

NOTES.

Chap. v.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine

for thy ftomach's fake, and thine often infirmities.

24 Some men's going fins are open be-before to judg-ment; and fome men they follow

forehand,

after.

them : Take heed of acting precipitately and unadvifedly herein, left you make yourfelf acceffary to, and fo be partaker of, the guilt of unfound and ungodly mimisters: Stand clear of the blame of countenancing fuch, and of all the fad confequences of their unfaith-fulnefs, errors, and misbehaviour, that you in this. as well as in every other respect, may be pure from the blood of all men. (Acts xx. 26.)

23 Here, by the way, let me, in the fulnels of my heart's concern for you, give you one piece of tender and fatherly advice, relating to your own health, which ought to be confulted for the fake of ufefulnefs, Though you are inclined, and undoubtedly obliged by your office, to be an example of all temperance and fobriety; yet, as your conflictution is infirm and fickly, your labours great, and your life very important to the church of Chrift, Do not confine yourfelf any longer, as, through too great abltemioufnefs, you have done in time paft, to drink only water ; but at proper feafons take a little wine in moderation, as may be needful to help your weak ftomach, and decay of appetite and digettion, through the many indifpositions and diforders of body that you are often attended with, by means of hard fludy, and fatiguing labour; and that threaten foon to put an end to your valuable life and fervices, for want of animal spirits and proper suftenance.

24 But to return : As to the cautions I have given, (ver. 22.) you are to proceed after a different manner in different cafes, according to the evidence and reason of things. For some men's erroneous and finful principles and practices are fo notorious and open to every one's view, that they are thoroughly known before there be any occasion for a strict inquiry to be made into them; and fo, eafily lead the way to a just judgment of what is fit to be done in refusing to introduce them to office in the church: And there are others, who use fo much art, fecrecy, and hypocrify, to conceal their fentiments and wickednefs, that it often breaks out after a judgment of charity has been past upon them, in order to their being ordained : But whether it does fo, or not, you have acquitted your own confcience, whatfoever be the confequence as to them *.

25 There

NOTE.

not to be the final day of account, when ment here meant is (as the context, ver. God will bring every work into judg- 22. directs) to be understood of the judgment, with every fecret thing, whether ment, that is to be past, in just and chait be good or evil: (Ecclef. xii. 14.) For sitable constructions, upon perfons cha-

Vol. V.

* The judgment here intended feems ' day : But I rather think that the judgthere are no fins to be difcovered after, racters, with a view to their admiffion but all will be made manifest in, that to the facred office of the ministry.

Вb

25 Likewife alfo the good works of fone are manifeft beforehand; and they that are otherwife cannot be hid.

25 There are also fome perfons whole religious fentiments, gifts, graces, and moral temper and behaviour, are fo remarkably good, and obvious to all about them, as to speak for themselves, before there is any need to fcrutinize their characters; and they may be justly deemed fit to be admitted to the facred ministry ; in fuch cafes your way is plain : But more caution is to be used as to others, who, though gracious upright fouls, are so bashful and recluse in their temper, that it is difficult to form a fatisfying judgment about their qualifications ; and yet, upon prudent, tender, and close converses with them, that good thing which is wrought in them, and the religion which is more covertly practifed by them, may be fufficiently difcovered to give you a favourable opinion of them, and to direct your proceedings towards them in the forementioned cafe : Or if, after all, you remain doubtful about them, it is best to wait; and if they really be corrupt in principle or practice, it cannot eafily be concealed for any length of time.

RECOLLECTIONS.

With what veneration fhould the aged, whether men or women; and with what affability and purity (hould younger people, be cautioned againft every fin-ful infirmity! The defeendents of poor widows ought to treat them with respect, and provide as honourably for them, as they can. How unnatural, and how con-trary to all the principles of Christianity, and worfe than heathenish is it, for gofpel-profeffors to neglect their deftitute parents, and their own families! But if the offspring of poor widows are not able to maintain them, the church, to which they helong, ought to take them under their care: And if any church needs good matrons to attend their fick and poor, they may appoint fuch widows of advanced years to that fervice, as have obtained a good report, and fhown a humble and compafiionate regard to the faints and fervants of Chrift ; but young widows ought not to be put into that office, left, giving themfelves up to pleafure, they become idle, tattling buly bodies, which are the peft of fociety; and at length renounce their profession of faith, and, following the devices of Satan, throw off religious reftraints, to their own condemnation; they are indeed in the worft fense dead, while they live: But as to poor young widows of better character, inftead of their being burdenfome to the church, it may be advisable for them to marry believing husbands, that are capable of maintaining them; and to bear and bring up fuch children in the fear of the Lord, as he may give them; as also to manage their houshold-business with good housewifery -How folemn is the charge to all pastors, as well as evangelists, in the prefence of God and Chrift, and the holy angels, that they faithfully declare these things, and fulfil every part of their office ! And though reproofs and cenfures are the most difficult and grievous duties of their station, yet they are to difcharge them with fidelity, and without partiality, whether it be towards churchofficers, or toward private members. But with what care and caution fhould they proceed in ordinations, left they themfelves thare with the ordained in their guilt ! And O what prudence, tenderness, and courage do they need for conducting, according to the appearances of fome people's fins on one hand, and good deeds on the other, which flow themfelves before, or after they pais judgment upon them ! How arduous, upon the whole, is the ministerial work ! And how ought they, that are eminently laborious, in preaching and supporting the pure gospel of Chrift, to be honoured with great respect, and liberal maintenance, according to the directions of both the Old and New Teftaments ! And though they ought to be temperate in all things, they need not confine themfelves to drinking water; but may .

may lawfully use with moderation for ftomach's fake, when their labours and bodily infirmities call for it, and it becomes needful for the prefervation of their health, and fervice in the church.

CHAP. VI.

The apostle lays down the duty of Christians toward believing, as well as other masters, which Timothy ought to infift upon, with a fevere reproof to judaizers that taught other wile, 1,-5. Shews the advantage of godliness with contentment, and the danger of covetous pursuits after riches, 6,-10. Directs Timothy to a contrary courfe, 11, 12. Gives him a folemn charge to behave faithfully in a perfevering attention to bis orders, and in admonifbing the rich not to trust in their riches, but in the living God, and to improve bis bounties to the best purposes; and repeats his charge with fome enlargement, clofing all with a (hort, but comprehenhve benediction, 13,-21.

PARAPHRASE.

TEXT. LET as many fervants as are under the yoke, count their own masters worthy of all honour; that the name of God, and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

A S there are fome judaizers that would make it unlawful for bond-flaves, upon their becoming Christians, to obey their masters after the flesh *, Let all converted fervants, even though they be under that yoke of fervitude, think themfelves in confcience bound to pay all civil refpect and obedience, that is due to their own mafters, whole property they are; and to ferve them faithfully, even though they be heathens; by doing otherwife, they would prejudife the minds of their matters against, and bring a fcandal upon the name of the bleffed God, whom they profess to own and honour as their God, and upon his glorious and holy gospel, as if he had therein difcharged them from the just obligations that they were under before, to perform the natural and civil duties of their flations ; whereas his true defign in it is, to make them better fervants than ever, even to froward mafters. (1 Peter ii. 18.)

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not

2 And those Christian-fervants that are fo happy as to have believing and faithful mafters, ought to prize the privilege, and not contemn them, or make

Digitized by Google

Bb2 0 T E.

N

unlawful for an Ifraelite to be fold for a 21.) and would have been a ftrong prefervant to heathens, (see Dr. Lightfoot's judice in the minds of heathens against Heb. Talmud. Exercit. 1 Cor. vii. 23.) embracing the golpel, the apoille takes it is highly probable from ver. 3. of this, occasion to lay down the duty of Chrifchapter, that fome judaixers infifted on tian flaves, and therein of all other bethe same for Christian converts : But as lieving servants, to pay due honour and this would have been to break in upon obedience to their masters, whatfoever the civil rights, properties, and poffef- their religious character be. fions, which Christianity leaves, as it too

* As the Jewish Rabbies, thought it found them; (see the note on Epb. v.

not defpife them, becaufe they are brethren; but rather do them fer vice, becaufe they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. Thefe things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwife, and confent not to wholeforme words, even the words of our Lord Jefus Chrift, and to the doctrine which is according to godlinefs;

4 He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about queftions and ftrites of words, whereof cometh envy, ftrife, railings, evil furmifings,

5 Perverie difputings of men of corrupt minds, and detitute of the truth, fuppoling that gain is godlinefs: from fuch withdraw thyfelf.

too free with them, or think that they must be funk, in their civil capacities, down to a level with themfelves; and fo withdraw their fervice from them, becaufe they are brethren in Chrift, and, as fuch, are upon a level with themfelves in religious privileges, honours, and enjoyments, and in God's account : But let them, on the contrary, be the more chearful, affectionate, and diligent, in doing the bufinels, and confulting the interest of fuch masters, for this reafon; becaufe they are faithful believers, beloved of God, and of their fellow-Christians, and are partakers of the fpiritual bleffings of the gofpel with themfelves, as well as have a right to the benefit of their good and faithful fervices. (suseysours) Thefe are things fo important to the credit of religion, and the prefervation of natural rights, that I would have you publish and explain them, and excite to the practice them, on of all proper occasions.

3 If any one pretends to teach notions contrary to this, or to whatfoever elfe I have been infifting on, (fee chap. i. 3, 10.) and does not embrace and fubmit to the found, uncorrupted, and falutary doctrine of our Lord and Saviour Jefus Chrift, concerning his perfon and offices, as it hath been delivered in his own miniftry, or by his infpired fervants, who, as fuch, preach his word; (AEIs xix. 20.) If any one do not give his affent and confent to the gofpel-doctrine, which contains and enjoins, and is formed, defigned, and bleffed for promoting practical religion, in all devotion toward God, and in all relative duties toward men, on the foot of his authority, and with a good confcience towards him;

4, 5 Such a man, be his pretences, profession, or flation in the church what they will, is a haughty, felf-conceited creature, (TETUØTEL) puffed up with the vanity of his own mind, while he knows nothing aright of the truth of the gospel, or of what he ought to know, relating to God, and his own duty; but, like a brain-fick perfon, is foolifhly and madly fond (roowr) of dealing in impertinent, ufelefs, and entangling queftions, (chap. i. 4.) and going into eager difputes and vain janglings about words, rather than things, in which he himfelf neither understands what he lays, nor whereof he affirms; (chap. i. 6, 7.) and which are fit for nothing but to kindle and inflame envious and invidious thoughts and paffions; angry debates; blasphemous imputations (Grargnuss) and reviling speeches; finful, injurious and groundlefs jealoufies; prepofteroufly curious, vain and froward bickerings, (παραδιατριδαι) that are practifed and delighted in only by men, whole minds have taken a perverfe

Тімотну paraphrased.

perverfe turn under the power of the reigning corruptions of their own hearts, and who are utter ftrangers to Chrift, and to the truth of the gofpel, and the true nature of vital religion; vainly imagining, that what they get most by, for fecuring and advancing their fecular interest, is the best fcheme of religion; and therefore they are for making a trade of it, and modeling Christianity itself to their own tass, in a way that may be most fubfervient to their carnal views. Have nothing to do with fuch perverse men; reject their principles, practices, and conversation; and withdraw as far from them as they have withdrawn from truth and holiness.

6 But, whatever men of fuch corrupt and worldly fpirits think of the matter, true religion in heart and life, which keeps up a folemn veneration of God, and an exercife of all fuitable graces in worfhipping and ferving him, through Jelus Chrift, by the affiltance of his Spirit, according to the gofpel; this evangelical godlinefs, together with an entire fatisfaction, that gives a fufficiency to the mind itfelf, (aurageness) with regard to fuch things as we have, and to all difpofals of Providence relating to the prefent life, is the beft and trueft, the most comfortable, advantageous, and abiding gain for this world and the next, incomparably preferable to all affluence of creatureenjoyments, which at beft are empty, precarious, and perifhing.

7 For as we came naked into this world, bringing none of its good things along with us, and hold what we have of them by the free bounty and fovereign disposals of God, who may give or take them as he pleases; so it is unquestionably certain, that we must go out of it naked, as leaving them all behind us, and carrying none of them away with us, when we come to die; (Job i. 21.) and it is as certain, that riches profit not in the day of wrath. (Prov. xi. 4.)

8 And if, while we are paffing through this world, the good providence of God fupplies us with neceffary food to fuftain us, and clothes and habitations (createducted) to cover us, we ought not to be greedily, and ambitioufly afpiring after more; but fhould be thankful for fuch mercies as we are favoured with, and fo well pleafed with them as to think we have enough.

9 But they whofe hearts are fet upon riches, and refolve, if poffible, to get them at any rate, as though they were their chief good, plunge themfelves into the most dangerous temptations to unlawful ways of obtaining, and of using them; and into a dreadful fuare to their own fouls, which Satan and their carnal hearts lay for them; and into the deep defilement of 6 But godlinefs with contentment is great gain.

7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can car-Fy nothing out.

8 And having food and raiment, let us be therewith content.

9 But they that will be rich, fall into ' temptation, and a fnare, and into many foolifh and hurttul lufts, which drown men in detruction and perdition.

of many foolifhly inconfiderate, mad, and perhicious appetites and paffions, which they ought to be afhamed and afraid of; and which, like a great gulf, fwallow up fuch worldly-minded men in both temporal and eternal deftruction.

10 For an inordinate value and affection for wealth is a pregnant fource of all finful, injurious, and miferable principles and practices *, which is fadly exemplified in fome who, through unfatiable defires after the things of this world, have run aftray from the truth of the gofpel, and their profeffion of it; and, inflead of finding the pleafure and advantage they propofed to themfelves thereby, they bring diffrefs and ruin upon themfelves in foul and body, with as painful agony, in after reflections upon it, as if they had pierced themfelves through with many fharp and poifonous darts.

II But as for you, O Timothy, who are a man highly favoured of God in the gifts and graces of his Spirit, fet apart and devoted, by your own confent, to his fervice in the work of the ministry, Flee to the remoteft diftance with utter abhorrence, and with all your might, from these corrupt principles, dispositions, and practices, and every thing of this evil nature and mischievous tendency, as inconfistent with the dignity of your office, and your own happines and ulefulnels; and, in oppolition thereto, purlue vigoroufly, in the firength of divine grace, the richeft attainments of the knowledge, experience, and exercife of righteoufnefs, in all your behaviour toward men; of strict and evangelical piety, in all your actings toward God; of faith in our Lord Jelus Chrift, and in God through him, and of realizing views of the heavenly glory; of love to Chrift, to the truth, and to his people for his fake; and, under the power of these, possess your own soul in patience, amidst all wants and troubles of this world, and fufferings for the gospel fake, and in an humble, gentle temper towards all men, (Titus iii. 2.) in meekness instructing those that oppose themselves, (2 Tim. ii. 24, 25.) as far as is confiftent with being valiant for the truth, which muft not be given up through cowardice, or on any terms whatfoever.

12 In this manner then, contend earneftly for the faith, which was once delivered to the faints; (Jude, ver. 3.)

NOTE

Cold begets in brethren hate, Gold in families debate ; Gold does friendthip feparate, Gold does civil wars create.

Digitized by Google

Cowley's Works, 8vo. Vol. I. page 54.

to For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while fome coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themfelves through with many forrows.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee thefe things; and follow after righteouinefs, godlinefs, faith, love, patience, meeknefs.

12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay 1

hay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and haft pro-feffed a good profeffion before maav withefies.

ver. 3.) Stretch yourfelf out with holy vehemence and eagerness, (ayoungs) as a good foldier of Jefus Chrift, (2 Tim. ii. 3.) in this good fight against the flefh, the devil and the world, for a good Mafter, and in a good caufe, which will have a good iffue, as engaged in with an exercise of faith to derive Arength from him for it, to support and animate you in it, to carry you through it, and bring you off with victory : Prefs therefore towards the mark for the prize, till, in a way of believing, and of all fidelity, you actually get possession of eternal life; unto the the obtaining of which you are called by divine grace, and which is fet before you in the gofpel for your encouragement under all the hardfhips of your prefent warfare ; (fee the note on Phil. iii. 12.) in your entrance on which, at your ordination, you made a noble confession of your faith in the prefence of many witneffes, who attended that folemnity ; and you have ever fince bore an honourable teftimony to it, by preaching and conversation, and by all the fufferings you have patiently endured for it, in the view of numerous spectators. (I Cor. iv. 9.)

14 Now, with an eye to the greatest of all witneffes, of whom it most highly concerns us to be approved, I folemnly charge you in the name, and as it were before the face of the All-feeing and Almighty God, who is the Author of every kind of life; who raifes dead fouls to fpiritual life, and revives them afterwards under all their decays, is the life of all our ministrations, and will raife the dead bodies of all his faithful fervants and faints to immortal life and glory : I also charge you, as in the fight and prefence of Jefus, the great Meffiah, as you will answer it to him in the day of judgment, who, when he was arraigned, as an impostor, at the bar of Pontius Pilate, the Roman governor, bore a free and open testimony to the truth of his own character, (Mat. xxvii. 11. and John xviii. 37.) though he knew it would coft him his life; and fo hath fet you a noble example of courage and stedfastness in continuing to maintain the truth of the gospel concerning him, even unto death :

14 'Tis in the prefence of these divine perfons, that I give you this folemn charge to hold fast the minifterial truft committed to you by their command, and kable, until the to follow the initructions 1 nave given you by then appearing of our authority, for executing it with all integrity, care, to follow the inftructions I have given you by their and diligence, and in all respects free from blame, fludying to shew yourself approved unto God, a workman that needs not to be alhamed, rightly dividing the word of truth; (2 Tim. ii. 15.) and perfevering therein to the end of life, in full expectation and hope of

Digitized by Google

13 I give thee charge in the fight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Chrift Jelus, who before Pontius Pilate witneffed a good confeffion;

That thou this comkeep mandment without fpot, mrebu-Lord Jelus Chrift.

15 Which in his times he fhall fhew, who is the bleffed and only Poten-tate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords ;

Who only 16 hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto, whom no man hath feen, nor can fee: to whom and be honour power everlafting. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high minded, nor truft in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy :

of the glorious appearing of our Lord Jefus Chrift, till he shall come to judge the quick and the dead at the last day. (2 Tm. iv. 1.)

15 Which appearance for this great purpole, he will demonstrate, in its proper and appointed feafon, * who, in opposition to all other gods, and all created beings, is bleffed for ever in the enjoyment of himfelf, and is the only supreme and omnipotent Ruler over all kings and lords, and infinitely more excellent and glorious than any of them; they, and all that they are and have, being entirely dependent on his will and pleafure, and under his controul, by whom kings reign, and princes decree justice. (Prov. viii. 15.)

16 Who only has an unbeginning and never-ending life of perfect bleffeduefs and glory, originally, neceffarily, unchangeably, and independently in himfelf ; and dwells in fuch an illustrious Shechina in the heaven of heavens, as no mortal man can have access to; whom no man, in this state of imperfection and frailty, has ever feen, or can fee in his full blaze of glory, and live; (Ex. xxxiii. 20.) nor can any corporal eye ever behold him in his divine nature, in which he is a purely fpiritual being : To whom be afcribed all honour, might, and dominion, with chearful and profound adoration, as is most due, for ever and ever. Amen.

17 In this view of things, and in reflection on the important truft thus folemnly committed to you, Give faithful admonitions, in the name of Chrift, to those that abound in the riches of this world, to watch and pray, and take the utmost care, that they be not lifted up with pride, felf-fufficiency, and contempt of others, on that account; nor fet their hearts upon, or place their confidence in, their earthly poffeffions, which are all precarious and fleeting, and, when least expected, may make themselves wings and flee away: (Prov. xxiii. 5.) But teach them to put their entire truft in the only living and true God, who

NOTE.

God the Father, and others of our Lord ever, it remains doubtful by the connec-Jefus Chrift, because he is the next an- tion, whether this and the three followtecedent; accordingly they refer in his ing verfes are to be referred to God the times to the feason of his glorious appear- Father, or to our Lord Jesus Christ; but. ing, when he will most illustriously de- which ever way it be confidered, the monstrate himself to be, what he wit- doxology, ver. 16. to one of these persons, neffed concerning himfelf before Pontius is not to the exclusion of the other; fince Pilate : And it is certain that King of the like is offered to the Father. Phil. kings, and Lord of lords, is a title given iv. 20. to the Son, Rev. i. 5. 6. and con-

Digitized by Google.

* Some understand this as meant of unless here, given to the Father. Howto Chrift, Rev. xvii. 14. and xix. 16.; junctly and equally to both. Rev. v. 13. but I do not find that it is any where, (See the note on chap. i. 17.) who daily loads us with his benefits, and who, in the riches of his mercy and goodnefs, gives us every thing for neceffity, and many things for delight, yea, all things that we enjoy for prefent fupport and comfort, pertaining to life and godlinefs, through the knowledge of him that has called us to glory and virtue. (2 Pet. i. 3.)

18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to diffribute, willing to communicate;

19 Laying up in ftore for themfelves a good foundation againft the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

20 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy truft, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppolitions of fcience falfely fo called:

VOL. V.

18 Charge them alfo, as they will answer it at the great day of account, that, instead of abusing their riches, and mil-spending them lavishly upon themfelves, they do all the good they can with them; that they abound in better riches to their own and others advantage, even in every good work, which their affluence obliges them to, and makes them eapable of; that they be chearfully disposed of their own accord, on all proper occasions, to give liberally for promoting every good cause, and to be generous in communicating to the necessities of the poor, especially of the boushold of faib. (Gal. vi. 10.)

19 And let them know that they will heap up the beft and moft fubftantial of all treasures, to their own ufe and benefit, by their humble truft in God through Chrift, the fincerity of which is proved by its fruitfulnefs unto all good works; (ver. 17, 18.) and which, in opposition to uncertain riches, refts on a fure foundation of hope and happines for the world to come, that, when they enter into it, they may actually lay hold on, and take poffeffion of eternal life, as the gift of God, through Jefus Chrift our Lord, (Rom. vi. 23. fee the note there) and as the crown of life, which they shall receive at the end of their courfe, like the runners in the Grecian games, who, upon finishing their race, lay hold on the garland that is placed at the goal. (See the note on Pbil. iii. 12.)

20 O my dear Timothy, Think ferioufly of thefe things ; and, in confideration of their valt importance, Take fpecial care to preferve the doctrines and ordinances of the gospel pure and uncorrupted, and to exercife all your spiritual gifts in fulfilling your miniftry, according to thefe directions; all which are committed to you by the Lord Jefus Chrift, as a facred truft to be faithfully managed for him, and given an account of to him : And, that you may do this to the best advantage, keep yourfelf clear of, and utterly reject the impious, trifling, empty, and noisy talk of the judaizing teachers, and their oppositions to the true doctrine of Chrift, by their corrupt notions of the law, which I have been cautioning you against; but which they falfely call knowledge, though they Сċ neither neither know what they fay, nor whereof they affirm. (Chap. i. 4,-7.)

21 Which fome profeffing, have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

21 And fo pernicious, as well as empty and vain, is their pretended knowledge, that fome among them, who have been mighty fond of it, and prided themfelves in it, have by that means run off from the faith of the golpel into großs errors. That you may be kept fleady in the only true faith, and be abundantly affilted and fucceeded in maintaining and promoting it, to the glory of God, and the falvation of your own and many others fouls, May the divine love and favour ever attend and profper you in your way and work, and thoroughly feafon your heart with every grace of the Spirit, Amen. So let it be, and fo I truft it will be.

RECOLLECTIONS.

What an honour and encouragement is it to believing fervants, even of the loweft rank, that they are brethren in Cbrift, partakers of all fpiritual bleffings, e-qually with Chriftians of the highest civil stations! But what a reproach is it to the name of their God, and to his golpel, for them to be fo conceited on this account, as to think themielves above paying the duty they owe to their earthly mafters, even though they be infidels; or to be lefs, and not rather more, respectful and diligent in the fervice of religious mafters, because they are brethren in the fellowship of the gospel ! These things are to be taught and learned; and wholoever, under falle pretences to knowledge, fuggest sentiments contrary to these, or to any other doctrine of Christ, which is a doctrine according to godlinefs, they are to be rejected, as perfons, that are proud and ignorant, perverie and defitute of the truth, fond of vain opinions and diffutations about words, which tend to ftrife and envy, railing and unwarrantable fufpicions, and that make a trade of religion to ferve their fecular interests : But true godliness, with a satisfied mind as to worldly circumstances, though we have only necessary food and raiment, is the beft of all gain; and therefore is to be cultivated in earneft purfuits after righteoufnefs, goodneis, faith, love, patience, and meeknefs. And, alas! What is this poor empty world, that we should set our hearts upon it! We brought none of its enjoyments into it, and whatfoever we have of them here, we must certainly, ere long, leave them all behind us: And they that will feek to be rich, right or wrong, throw themfelves into many dangerous temptations, and foolifh enfnaring lufts and paffions, that will one time or other recoil upon them, and pierce them through with many agonizing forrows; will make them err from the faith of the gospel; and plunge them into deep and endless ruin : For the love of money is the root of these, and numberless other sinful and destructive evils. How needful then is it, to warn the rich of this world to be humble amidit all their affluence; and not place their confidence in uncertain wealth, but in God, through Chrift, who is a free and bountiful giver, of all things relating to this life and that which is to come! And how ready thould they be to prove the fincerity of the profession of their faith, and truft in the Lord, by its genuine fruits in every good and charitable work; which will be laying in a good flock of folid happiness for the world to come, that, at the end of their Christian-course, they may receive the crown of life ! O how confcientious and laborious should the fervants of Christ be, in difcharging every part of the ministerial trust that is committed to them; in maintaining the good profession they have made various ways before many witness; and in fighting the good fight of faith, till they lay hold on eternal life, at the glorious appearing of our Lord Jefus Chrift ! And how mindful thould they always be of the folemn bonds that are laid upon them, to adhere with fidelity to divine directions, as in the prefence of God the Father, and of Jefus Chrift ! He courageoully owned himself to be the true Meffiah, before Pontius Pilate, and, at his fecond coming, will be glorioufly manifested to be so, by the only living and lifegiving God; who is the fupreme almighty Governor, above all other kings and lords; lords; who only has immortality effentially in himfelf, dwells in glory inacceffible to frail mortals, and is invifible in his own being: To whom be afcribed everlafting honour, dominion, and power, Amen. May all that love him unite in prayer for his miniftring fervants, that his free favour, in all its manifeftations and effects, may perpetually enable them to be diligent and faithful in his work : Amen.

Cc 2

Digitized by Google

A PRAC-

A PRACTICAL

EXPOSITION

OF THE

SECOND EPISTLE OF THE APOSTLE PAUL

ТІМОТНҮ,

IN THE FORM OF A

PARAPHRASE.

THE PREFACE TO THE SECOND EPISTLE TO TIMOTHY.

THIS Episite is generally, and most probably, supposed from chap. iv. 6. and feveral other passages, to be the last that the apostle wrote under his fecond confinement at Rome, a little before his martyrdom there. It contains fome further directions to Timo-tby, with a fomewhat more immediate reference, than the former, (which is thought to have been wrote about nine years before) to his own perfonal conduct, in the discharge of his office, as an evangelist.

The apostle introduces it with the fame falutation, and like affectionate expressions to him, and concern for him, as before; and with the like affertions of his character, as an apostle of Jesus Christ, for Timothy's encouragement, and for countenancing him against all the cavils of the judaizers, that would oppose him in fulfilling his truft, according to this and his former inflructions : And to animate him the more in his work, and fortify him against the fear and shame of fufferings on account of his faithfulnefs therein, he fets before him the eternal falvation, and the discoveries of immortal life, that Christ has brought in by the gospel, together with his own chearfulness and undaunted courage, under his extreme fufferings for its fake; to which he adds grateful reflections on the behaviour of Onefiphorus, who had owned him, and had been a comfort to him, while others deferted him, chap i. He therefore exhorts Timothy to keep up a conftant and entire dependence on the grace of Chrift; and, in its ftrength, to acquit himfelf with fidelity, in the difcharge of his office; in bravely enduring all hardships and distreffes for Christ, after the apostle's own example; in representing the importance, as well as the truth of the things he was to preach to others; as also in living in the doctrines he preached, and supporting them, with a becoming fpirit, against the ungodly principles and practices of those that would fubvert them, chap. ii. He then forewarns him of a particular fort of corrupt profeffors and preachers, whom he deferibes, and, in oppofition to whom, he reminds Timothy of his own doctrine, manner of life, and behaviour under various perfecutions; and enforces a ftedfaft adherence to divine revelation, whatever it might coft him, chap. iii. He likewife gives him a folemn charge to fulfil his miniftry, with the utmoft care and diligence, in confideration of the apoftacies that would appear among many profeffing Chriftians, and of his having no further affiftance from himfelf, who was going to feal his teftimony with his blood, which he thought of with joy and triumph, as the crown of all his labours and fufferings: And concludes with exprefitions of earneft defire to fee Timothy, as foon as poffible; with an account of the different circumftances and behaviour of feveral perfons whom he names; and with falutations, and his ufual benediction, chap. iv.

ticular

СНАР. І.

Paul afferts bis apostolic character, falutes Timothy, and expresses bis great affection to bim in remembrance of bis sympathizing tears and unfeigned faith, 1,-5. Exhorts bim to a diligent improvement of bis spiritual gifts, without fear or shame on account of sufferings for Chriss, who has brought life and immortality to light by the gospel; and to hold fast that blessed doctrine which was committed to him, 6,-14. And tells him of many that had has bless for bis kindness to him, 15,-18.

TEXT.

PAUL an apoftle of Jefus Chrift, by the will of God, according 50 the promife of life, which is in Chrift Jefus;

2 To Timothy my dearly beloved fon: grace, inercy, and peace from God the Father, and Chrift Jelus our Lord.

PARAPHRASE.

P AUL, who is called and qualified to be an apoffle of Jefus Chrift, by the free and fovereign appointment and commiffion of God the Father, to bear witnefs to the once crucified, but now rifen and exalted Saviour, and to preach him among Jews, and efpecially Gentiles, according to the promife of eternal life, which was given in Chrift before the world began, (Tit. i. 2.) and in due time was made to Abraham and his fpiritual feed, as to be fulfilled in him, in whom all nations were to be bleffed; (Gen. xxii. 18.) which life is reposited in him, purchafed and difpenfed by him, and obtained through faith in him. (1 John v. 11, 12.)

2 Even I Paul fend greeting to you, my dearly beloved fon Timothy. (See the note on 1 Tim. i. 2.) May the free favour and tender compaffion, with all their happy manifeftations, fruits, and effects, (fee the note on Rom. i. 7.) and all manner of profperity for foul and body, time and eternity, abound toward you from God the Father, as the first mover in our falvation, and from Jefus Christ, your Lord and mine, as concurring

3 I thank God. whom I ferve from my forefathers with pure confeience, that without ceafing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day:

4 Greatly defiring to fee thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy :

a I heartily render thanks and praise to God, whom I religiously worship and adore after the manner of my progenitors, even the only true God, whom Abrabam, Ifaac, and Jacob, and all my pious anceftors ferved ; and this I now do with a heart purified by faith and a confcience purged from dead works by the blood of Chrift. (Act: xv 9. and Heb. ix. 14.) I blefs his holy name, that, though in the days of my judaifm, I was dreadfully mifguided by corrupt paffions and prejudices, I now in love to him, and to you his faithful fervant, am continually mindful and make mention of you, as in all folemn addreffes to the throne of grace *, fo particularly in my morning and evening prayers, which I conftantly offer up every day, as the Jews were wont to do at the time of their morning and evening facrifice, and as is an incumbent duty for all Christians to practife day by day, as their reasonable fervice.

4 And fo ardent is my affection to you, that (if it be the will of God) I am exceedingly defirous of feeing you, once more, before my death, which is now at hand, (chap. iv. 6.) that I may have the pleasure of your company, and an opportunity of leaving with you fome farther instructions, as occa-. fions may require, and as the dying charge of a tender parent to his most beloved fon. And there are two things, among others, that fo greatly endear you to me, and would fill me with the more abundant joy in feeing you again; one is the touching reflection I make upon the affectionate, filial, and moving flood of tears +, which you poured out at our last parting,

Digitized by Google

NOTES.

* Frayers night and day teems most the, relating to ipiritual and temporal immediately to relate to the morning things. (See Dr. Whitby's note on and evening prayers which used to be i The f. v. 17.) offered up by the Yews at the time of \dagger These tears were manifeldly those their morning and evening factifice, which Timothy shed at the apostle's last Exod. xxix. 38, 39. compared with Laste parting with him; and it is thought by i. 10.: And these are undoubtedly pro-many, that he refers to that melting per feasions of flated folema addresses to leave which the Ephefan elders took Cod with the the theory of the morning of the apostle difference of the second the teach of the rest. God with thankfgivings for the mercies of the apofile, AR: xx. 37, 38. among of the night, or of the day paft, and whom Timothy is supposed to have been with humble supplications, and commit- present, and wept most abundantly: ments of ourfelves and all our own and But as it is uncertain whether he were others concerns to the Lord, for the in that company, or not; and as that mercies of the day, or of the night, that feems to have been about nine or ten is coming on. And yet they are not to years before the writing of this epifile, be reftrained to these flated scalons; the apostle had probably seen him fince but are likewise to be presented to God that time; and therefore the parting, on all fuitable occasions, and especially here referred to, was in all likelihood on

* Prayers night and day feems most life, relating to spiritual and temporal in important circumfrances and turns of fome latter occasion; though the history of

TIMOTHY parapbrased.

5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice ; and I am perfuaalfo.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance, that thou ftir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For God hath not given us the fpirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a found mind.

on acount of the danger I was like to be exposed to, and which made a deep impreffion on my foul then, and, at times, ever fince.

5 The other thing that thus engages my heart to you, is, the lively fenfe I retain of that fincere faith which you have manifested on all occasions to be in you, without the leaft appearance of hypocrify, or difguile ; (avomoneurs) even that fame fort of faith, which was not only profeffed by, but difcovered itfelf to be feated, as an active and abiding principle, ded that in thee in the heart, first of your pious grandmother Lois. as alfo in your no lefs truly religious mother Eunice, who believed in the promifed Meffiah, and afterwards embraced him upon the gofpel-revelation of him : and I am fully fatisfied, from what I have feen and known of you, that the like undiffembled faith is planted alfo in your own heart; and fo God's covenant with believers and their feed is remarkably fulfilled in your mother and you.

> 6 Therefore in my great affection to you, and in confideration of the extraordinary favour, which God has still further shown in most eminently fitting you for ministerial service, I now write to you again, to remind you of my former exhortation, that you may not be remifs in cherishing and improving the spiritual gifts, which he has freely beftowed upon you, and which still remain in you; but, like one that would blow up live-coals, when covered with afher, into a flame, may, (and warveur) by diligent meditation, reading and prayer, flir up and kindle those gifts into a facred fervor and activity, which God has remarkably honoured you with, by means of the impolition of my own and others hands, as the fignal of his conveying them to you, at your ordination. (See the paraphrafe on 1 Tim. iv. 14.)

> 7 You ought by no means to be difcouraged in the exercife of those gifts, on account of the opposition of your adverfaries: For the temper and disposition, which God by his fpirit has formed in us, whom he hath called and fitted for holy ministrations, is not a fpirit of cowardice and dread of our enemies, whether men or devils; but is a spirit of holy fortitude and undaunted courage to encounter all difficulties and dangers; and of fervent love to Chrift and his caufe, and to immortal fouls; and of fobriety and good judgment, (rafeourges) in a due government of our paffions, and in ftedfattly adhering to, and patiently fuffering for, the true golpel of Chrift.

> > Digitized by Google

8 Let

NOTE of the Acts, which is supposed to have ended fix or feven years before this epiftle was wrote, gives us no account of it.

8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the teftimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gofpel according to the power of God :

o Who hath faved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according our to works, but according to his own purpole and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus, before the world began,

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jefus Chrift.

8 Let therefore fuch confiderations as these carry you above all shame, discouragement, or faint-heartednefs, in bearing a noble and open testimony to our bleffed Lord and Saviour, and to his gofpel, in which he gives testimony unto himfelf, as he is its principal fubject, and which he owns with the power of his Spirit; and let the fame thoughts fortify you against being ashamed to own, vindicate, and visit me in my bonds, as his apostle and prisoner : But let them, on the contrary, animate you to fympathize with me in my perfecutions, and to be ready to endure the fame yourfelf with all chearfulnefs for the gofpel's fake, in humble dependence upon the mighty affiftance which God by his Spirit will give you, to ftrengthen and enable you to fuffer patiently, on account of your firm attachment to it. And well may we chearfully fubmit to all tribulations, dangers, and reproaches, for the honour and glory of God;

o Who has provided a Saviour for us, and given us to him to take care that we might not be cut off in our fins, and bas appointed us to obtain falvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, (1 Theff, v. 9.) who has already purchased it for us; and in consequence of all this, God has effectually called us, by the gofpel, to holinefs here, in order to our being fitted for, and brought to the poffeffion of perfect happiness for ever hereafter : (2 Theff. ii. 13, 14.) All which he has done, not as influenced to it by any forefight of our good works, as though we fhould ever deferve it; but entirely of his free favour, according to his own fovereign intention and refolution, and the mere unmerited kindness of his own gracious heart, which was fet upon us, and had a fpecial regard to us, in Chrift our head, from all eternity, before the foundation of the world, (Ephel. i. 4.) and which began to dawn in the first promise, (Gen. iii. 17.) before the Jewi/b ages *.

10 But which gracious purpose, that lay from all eternity as a fecret in his own bofom, and was afterwards in great measure concealed under the types and shadows of the Old Testament, is now evidently difcovered,

Digitized by Google

NO T E.

Mr. Locke and others have given of the the beginning of time, Luke i. 70. and words before the world began, as figni. Acts iii 21, Why fhould not the like With before the fecular ages of the Jews. phrale ($\varpi_{eo} \chi_{eovor} \alpha_{iovir}$) fignify allo ($\varpi_{eo} \chi_{eovor} \alpha_{iovir}$) But as the purpose of before the beginning of the world, or of God was certainly from eternity, and the all time or ages, and be in fense the word (α_{iov}) often fignifies the world, fame with before the foundation of the and is used plurally, as for ages, so for world, as that is often used to fignify the worlds, (Heb. i. 2.) and as the from all eternity? phrase (ax' awos) evidently fignifies

I have taken in the notion which from the beginning of the world, or from

TIMOTHY paraphrased.

Chrift, who hath abolifhed death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gofpel:

II Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which caule I also suffer these things : nevertheless I am not ashamed : for I know whom I have believed, and I am perfuaded that he is able to keep that which I committed have unto him against that day.

covered, with illustrious brightness, by the coming of our Lord and Saviour Jefus Chrift, whole appearance in flefh and in the execution of his mediatorial office, has, like that of the rifing fun, (smiquesius) feattered Jewish and Heathen darkness; who in virtue of his dying for our fins in our nature and in our flead, and of his rifing, as a conqueror, from the grave, has taken away the fling of death, broke its power, and turned it into a bleffing, inflead of a curfe, to them that believe in him, and delivered them from eternal 4 death; (I Cor. xv. 55, 56, 57.) and who has made a plain revelation of a bleffed life, and immortal glory of foul and body in the heavenly world, by means of the gospel, which shows us the certainty, together with the fublime, excellent, and fpiritual nature of that ftate, and our way of arriving at it through him.

II This is a bleffed and glorious golpel indeed, for the difpensation of which I, like a herald fent to proclaim peace by Jefus Chrift, am appointed and conftituted an authentic publisher, (xnev&) and an apostle, to bear witnefs to a crucified and rifen Saviour, by immediate commission from him, and that with a particular relation to the Gentiles, (Acts ix. 15.) as a preacher to them, that they may hear and believe the glad tidings of eternal life to the faving of their fouls.

12 And it is for my faithfulness and zeal in difcharging this office, and that particularly to them, that I now actually fuffer all the difgrace and feverities of my prefent imprifonment, and am daily expecting martyrdom itself: But, in confideration of the glorious excellency of this caufe, I am fo far from being ashamed of Chrift and his gospel, or of my fufferings for them, that I glory in them, and have the molt joyful expectation of a happy iffue of all in a better world: For I well know, in the light of God's word and Spirit, and upon long trial and experience, what a gracious, all-fufficient, faithful and divine Saviour he is, whom I have received and relied upon by faith; and I am fully fatisfied, on the fureft grounds, that he has all power and authority in his office-capacity, which includes his will, to fecure my foul, with all its eternal concerns, that I have entruited him with, as my most important depositum, to take care of * against the day of the final judgment, which mave

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

Vol.

* That which I have committed to foewer there be in either of these fentifine against that day, is underflood by ments, they do not feem fully to agree fome to mean the golpel-doctrine, and with the apottle's defign in this place, by others the church of Chrift, which nor with the form of expression here u-was committed to the apostle's truft. fed: For he proposes this, as an encou-But, how great and important a truth ragement to Timothy, not to be afba-Dd mes

Chap. i.

may be emphatically called that day, as it is the concluding day at the end of time, and the day, in which every one will be more concerned than in any other day whatfoever, as his condition, for happinefs, or mifery, will then be folemnly, publicly, and unalterably decided for eternity.

13 Whatever trials therefore you meet with, as may be expected in the caufe of Chrift; fee to it, that, encouraged by my example of faith, patience, and hope in sufferings, you keep in memory, stedfastly adhere to, and refolutely maintain (υποτυποσιν υγιαινortar Doyar) the pattern, or platform of the uncorrupted, wholefome, nourifhing and healing doctrine of the gospel, that is contained in those words of truth and fobernefs, which you have been taught by me, in conversation, preaching and writing, with respect to faith in Chrift, and love to him, and to all fellow-Christians for his fake *; and which you received, with a firm perfuasion of their truth and reality, as faithful (ayings, and embraced with cordial affection, as worthy of all acceptation; which you are also to preach with fidelity and love, as wrought and excited in you toward Jefus, the anointed head and Saviour of the church, and by fupernatural influence from him.

fufferings for Christ and the gospel's fake, according to the will of God commit (naver. 8.: And a confideration of the blefs- earibio booav) the keeping of their fouls ed advantage, that he should have from to him in well doing, as to a faithful Chrift at the great day, was much more Greator. This commitment of the foul proper to inforce this, than a confideration that Chrift would take care of his own church and caufe, whether Timothy laboured in it, or fuffered for it, or not : And the apoftle calls it bis own depofitum, (Thy maga Shan wou) which he committed to Chrift, that he might receive it again with fafety; but the gofpel and the church of Christ are not the property of, nor are to be given back again to, any minister or apostle as his own. The noun, (raga Snan) here ufed, occurs no where elie in the New Testament; but the verb (magarignui) is feveral times used for committing perfons to God, as in Acts xiv. 23. and xx. 32.; and the apostle's act of faith here, amidft troubles and dangers, and near prospects of death and eternity, was like that which our Lord himfelf exercised towards his Father, in his expiring mo- the doctrines received, or to the manner ments, faying, (Luke xxiii. 46) Father, into thine hand I commend (#agaonsomal) my spirit; and was such an act

NOTES. med of the testimony of our Lord, nor of of faith as the apostle Peter speaks of, bis prisoner, but to submit chearsully to (I Epist. iv. 19.) Let them that suffer to Chrift against that day, evidently means against the day of judgment, when the life and immortality, which the apoftle had been speaking of, ver. 10. fhall be enjoyed in all perfection and glory, which will be at the day of Chrift's fecond appearing, Col. iii. 4. and Heb ix. 28. This is the day that the apostle had in view, and refers to again and again, in this epiftle, under apprehenfions of the near approach of death, as in ver 18. and chap. ii. 10, 11, 12. and iv. 1, 8, 18. This is fometimes called, by way of emphasis, the day of Chrift, (Phil. i. 6, 10.) the day, (1 Cor. iii. 13.) and that day here, and in feveral other places, and the great day, (Jude, ver. 6.) and the day of judgment very often.

> * Faith and love may relate either to of Timothy's receiving and preaching them.

form of found words, which thou . haft heard of me, in faith and love which is in Chrift Jefus.

13 Hold fast the

Digitized by Google

14 As

TIMOTHY paraphrased.

14 That good thing which was committed unto thee, keep by the Holy Ghoft which dwelleth in us.

14 As to that momentous truft and treasure, inclusive of your spiritual gifts, and of the doctrine of the gospel, and your office as a minister to preach it, which is excellent in itfelf, and good for the use of edifying your own and others fouls, to the glory of God and their falvation, and was committed by the Lord Jefus Chrift to you at your folemn ordination; fee that you be faithful in maintaining it against all the efforts of your enemies, and in preferving it pure and uncorrupted, with religious care and diligence, by the affiftance of the Holy Spirit, who permanently refides with peculiar relation and influence, and by his gifts and graces, in you and me, as he ever does, according to the measure of the gift of Chrift, (Epb. iv. 7.) in all true believers and faithful minifters, (John xiv. 16, 17.) to enable us to fulfil the duties of our flations, in the face of all opposition and danger.

15 This thou knoweft, that all they which are in Afia he turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onefiphorus; for he oft tefrefhed me. and was not ashamed of my chain.

15 You ought to be the rather excited to all faithfulnefs and diligence in thefe things, as you cannot but know, that the generality of the Afiaric profeffors of Christ's name * have shamefully deferted me ' in my prefent fufferings for his fake, as being afraid, or ashamed to own and stand by me in them : Of this fort Phygellus and Hermogenes are notorious inftances.

16 However, in this time of fo great defection, I have not been left utterly deftitute of friends, for whom I heartily blefs God, and implore his bleffing; as particularly my earnest defire and prayer is, that the Lord, who with the merciful will (hew him/elf merciful, (Pfal. xviii. 25.) would multiply mercies . of every kind, temporal, spiritual, and eternal, upon the family of One fiphorus, + in return for the mercy he hath flown to me : For, notwithstanding the cowardice of pretended friends, and the fury of open enemies, he, with a truly Chriftian courage and compaffion, has often relieved and comforted me in my dittrefs, (ave vist) by feasonable visits and supplies of

Dd 2

Digitized by Google

NOTES.

fed by fome to mean, fuch as lived in A- tioning him, is spoken of here, and fafia, and by others, fuch as were natives luted, chap. iv. 17.: But I can fee no of Afia, but at this time were at Rome; force in what Grotius and Efius offer for the last of which seems most probable to their supposition that he was dead : All me, but the paraphraie has left it unde- that the apoille fays about him has a termined.

with chap. iv. 19. that Onefiphorus was to be offered for departed faints, is built an inhabitant of Ephefus, as the place of upon a mere conjecture, without any his usual abode, where his family dwelt, folid foundation. (See Hammond's note but from which he was now ablent, be- on the place.) ing very probably still at Rome, for

* They which are in Afia are suppo- which reason his family, without mencontrary aspect; and theretore Ellius's + It feems from ver 18. compared conclusion from hence, that prayers are things

The Second Epistle to

things convenient for me, which have been like a cooling breeze to refresh me in the heat of my tribulations; and fo great was his affection to me, and to the glorious caufe for which I fuffer, that he was not ashamed to own me, or it, under all the ignominy and reproach that attend my chain, by which I am held, as a prisoner of the Lord, in order to my being put to death.

17 But when he came to Rome, he was fo far from being fly of appearing to have any concern with me, that he took great pains to inquire where, and in what prifon, or in what ward I was thut up; and did not reft till he had found me out, and got access to me.

18 O may the Lord Jefus, for whole fake this his fervant has been fo exceeding compaffionate, kind, and ufeful to me under my fufferings, may he, and God the Father, in the riches of his grace through him, return it manifold into his own bosom, not only in this world, but efpecially in the world to come, that he himfelf may find mercy of the great Lord and Judge of all, to be owned of him before his Father and the Holy angels, when the times of refreshing (hall come from his pre/cnce ; (Acts iii. 19.) and to be publicly adjudged to eternal life, according to the greatness of his mercy, (Jude, ver. 21.) at the great day of account, (fee the note on ver. 12.) that final, most important and decisive of all days, for a fucceeding eternity ! Gratitude demands my beft wifhes for fuch a fast friend, who still approves himself to be fo to the last, in the very worst of times : And you very well know, and I cannot forget, in how many inftances of great kindness he formerly affifted and refreshed me, by various means, under all my troubles, when I was at Epbelus.

RECOLLECTIONS.

Shall an infpired apostle commit the true doctrine of Christ to ministers, by immediate commission from God? And shall they not keep it pure and uncorrupt, and be ready to fuffer for it, in dependence on his power, as exerted by the Holy Spirit? Or shall they preach it, and the people not regard it? What a contempt is this of divine authority, and of the glorious gofpel, at once ! But O happy fouls, that ferve God with a pure heart, and receive the gospel with unfeigned faith and love, after the example of religious anceftors; and lay themfelves out to propagate it, in like manner to others! It contains the promile of everlasting life through Jefus Chrift; opens the eternal purpole of God about the falvation of his people; is a means of their effectual calling; affures the believer that the fting and power of death are vanquished for him; and fets the immortal life of foul and body, and the way of obtaining it, in the cleareft light. Who would not be contented to un-dergo the fevereft perfecutions, without fear, or fhame, for the fake of the rich advantages that are to be hoped for from it ! May we have the firmeft confidence in Chrift, as the all-fufficient Saviour, to fecure the great concerns of our fouls, that we commit by faith to his care, against the great day of account !---How dear is one fincere lervant of Chrift to another, as partakers of the fame faith, and embarked 17 But when he was in Rome, he fought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministred unto me at Ephefus, thou knoweft very well.

barked in the fame noble caufe ! How greatly do they all need; and how heartily do they wifh, and daily pray for grace, mercy, and peace to be multiplied to one another, from God the Father and our Lord Jefus Chrift ! How affectionately are they defirous of each other's company, efpecially in times of great tribulation ! How tenderly do they fympathize one with another in their afflictions! How concerned are they that a due improvement be made of the gifts of the Spirit, which are gracioufly beftowed upon their brethren in the miniftry, who are endowed, according to the fpirit of the gofpel, nor with a timorous, cowardly temper, but with holy fortitude and love, fobriety, widom and found judgment, for fulfilling their truft, in the midft of all difficulties, oppolition and danger !. And while many defert the caufe of Chrift and his fuffering fervants, like Pbygellus and Hermogenes, bleffed be God, there are others, who, like Onefiphorus, are not afhamed to own them in the worft of times; but are willing to leek opportunities of fhewing all poffible regard to them. May the Lord be gracious to luch and their families; and grant them mercy to eternal life in the day of judgment.

C H A P. II.

The apostle directs Timothy to the grace that is in Christ for all spitual strength, 1. Exhorts him to take care that there be a juccesfion of faithful ministers, and to persevere in his own work, with conftancy and diligence, like a foldier, a combatant, and a bufbandman, encouraging him bereunto by his own example, and affuran- ces of a happy iffue of his faithfulnefs, 2,-13. Advises him to guard again // //riving about unprofitable and pernicious words, and to fludy to approve him/elf to God, warning him to (hun vuin babblings and dangerous errors, that cat like a canker, as in the inflances of Hymeneus and Philetus, and comforts him with the thought, that nevertheless the foundation of God flands sure, 14,-19. Tells bim that several forts of professors are to be expected in the church, as various forts of veffels are used in a great boufe, 20, 21. And charges him to flee youthful lufts, and to manage the whole of his conversation, ministry, and zeal against error, with a becoming meekness of spirit, as most likely to be successful, 22,-26.

TEXT.

Chap. ii.

THOU therefore, my ion, be ftrong in the grace that is in Chrift Jefus. Paraphrase.

ONSIDERING therefore the things that have been mentioned, (chap. i. 15,-18.) and the danger of taking a wrong part in them, let me entreat you, my dear fon in the faith, fellowship, and ministry of the gospel, not to be felf-confident, or truft in the grace you have already received, which, left to itfelf, would foon fail ; but to have a conftant recourfe, and go out of yourfelf to the fountain of all grace, that you may be strong in the Lord and in the power of bis might; (Ephef. vi. 10.) may keep up an entire dependence on the inexhauftible fund of grace that is treafured up in Chrift, your head, and in the free favour of God, as reliding, manifelting, and exhibiting itfelf in him; and may continually receive of bis fulne/s grace for grace. (John i. 16.) 2 And, fetting out in this ftrength for the difcharge that thou haft heard of me among many witneffes, the fame commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others alio.

3 Thou therefore endure hardnefs, as a good foldier of Jefus Chrift.

4 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who hath chofen him to be a foldier.

11

1 ł

ŝ

charge of every duty, and for propagating the true doctrines of the gospel, which I received by immediate revelation, and communicated to you, and in a public folemn manner committed to your truft, at your ordination, in the prefence of many witneffes, according to the numerous teftimonies that are giyen to them by the law and the prophets, (Rom. iii. 21.) take heed that you transmit them pure and uncorrupted, just as you received them from me, to fuch other ministers, as approve themselves to be faithful believers, that have the glory of Chrift, the truth of the gospel, and the good of fouls at heart, and are well furnished with knowledge and utterance, gifts and graces, to dispose and qualify them for explaining, proving, defending, and applying the whole counfel of God to their hearers.

3 As this is the nobleft of all fervices, fpare no pains, nor be afraid of any difficulties, or dangers, you may be exposed to in it; but confider that as you are in a flate of warfare, attended with many fufferings and hardships, in the way to victory and triumph; fo you ought to acquit yourfelf with holy refolution, vigour, and courage, like a good foldierthat fights as a volunteer in the caufe, and under the banner of Jefus Chrift, the Captain of falvation, who is able to fupport you under, and carry you through, all your toils and troubles, and crown them with everlasting honours.

4 According to the obligations of this character, you should give yourself wholly to the work of the ministry : (1 Tim. iv. 15.) For you know that, by the Roman laws, no man that lifts, as a foldier, into the imperial army, is allowed to fpend his time, and involve himfelf, in the common bufiness of trade, husbandry, or other fecular employments; but is to devote himfelf entirely to the duty of his military flation, that he may diligently fulfil the orders of his general, and be approved of him who has taken him upon the muster-rolls: In like manner you, as a minister of Chrift, ought not to follow civil callings to entangle your thoughts, and fwallow up your time; but to apply them to fpiritual exercises in the fervice of Chrift, your fovereign Lord and King, that you may acquit yourfelf agreeable to his will, who has appointed, called, and authorifed you to fight the good fight

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

paervewy) property fignifies by many wit- construction, I have taken in both this, neffes; and though it may fometimes be and the other most common fenfe of the understood to mean among, as in 2 Cor. preposition. i. S. and Gal. iii. 19. and is fo rendered

* Among many witneffes, (Sia monney here; yet, as this is an exceeding rare of faith, till you lay hold on eternal life. (1 Tim. vi. 12.)*

5 And if a man also strive for mafteries, yet is he not crowned except he ftrive lawfully.

5 And as minifters are called to various forts of conflicts, (Acts xx. 22, 23, 24. and Phil. iii. 12, 13, 14:) if any man enter the lifts, like a combatant in the Grecian games, he is never reckoned a victor, nor crowned as fuch, unlefs he keep to the ftated rules of those exercises, which require great pains in running, wreftling, and the like; fo you, who have entered into Christ's fervice, are to exert vourfelf with labour and diligence, for overcoming all oppofers, in his way and work, according to the prefcriptions of his word, as ever you expect that, when the chief Shepherd shall appear, you shall receive a crown of glory, that fadeth not away. (1 Pet. v. 4.)

6 As ministers are also compared to labourers in the Lord's harvest, or vineyard, (Luke x. 2. and xx. 9, 6c.) you know that the husbandman must take much pains in plowing and fowing, or in digging and planting, and must do this with patience for fome length of time, before he can have a good crop, that he may gather the fruits of the earth; fo you are to be laborious in preaching the gofpel for the glory of Chrift, and the good of fouls, and to wait with patience before-hand for the coming of the Lord, that you may rejoice in the day of Chrift, that you have not run in vain, nor laboured in vain. (James.v. 7. and Phil. ii. 16.)

7 Pray confider ferioufly what I deliver to you under these figures, that you may look upon yourfelf, and behave, as a foldier, a combatant, and a hufbandman, in the work of the Lord ; and may reckon upon hardships and labour in attending the fervices which belong to perfons of all those characters; and at the fame time may maintain a comfortable hope of a bleffed and gracious reward at the end of them all : For in this way of reflecting on these things, the Lord, as I truft and heartily with, † will further enlighten

Digitized by GOOgle

NOTES.

* In this and the next verfe, there is mont, and other good copies, (Vid. Mil. a plain allulion to the Roman law of in loc.) the Lord will give thee underarms, and to that of the Grecian games; flanding: $(\delta\omega\sigma\omega)$ But if we retain the according to the first of which, the fol- common reading, yet, as Dr. Whithy dier was not to engage in civil occupa- observes, (δun) give is often used for tions; (Vid. Grot. in loc.) and accord- $(\delta uoti)$ will give; and as the particle ing to the last, the combatant was to $(\gamma \alpha_{g})$ here rendered and, very rarely, if keep strictly to the rules of the game, ever, bears that fense : but is a cafual without which he could not be crowned particle, and fignities for. I have confiwith a garland, as a conqueror. (See the dered it in that view, and yet glanced at notes on t Cor. ix. 24,-27.)

(Sup) is in the Alexandrian, Clare- in others.

the other, fince it does not appear to be + The Lord give thee understanding, expletive in this place, as it fometimes is 6 The hufbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Confider what I fay; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

lighten your mind in all wisdom and spiritual underftanding, (Col. i. 9.) to make a right judgment and application of them, and so impress upon your own heart a deep and abiding sense of your duty in this, and all things elfe that concerns you, as a Christian, or a minister of Jesus Christ.

8 The grand article which I would have you conflantly bear in mind, for your own fupport and encouragement under your trials and fufferings, and remind others of in your preaching, for their converfion and eftablifhment in the faith and hope of the gofpel, is, that Jefus the anointed Saviour, who according to the flefth proceeded from the loins of the famous patriarch David, having fuffered unto death, as a facrifice for fin, was raifed again from the dead for our jultification, (Rom. iv. 25.) according to the glad tidings of falvation, that I have preached and confirmed in my miniftry, which indeed is not my gofpel, as though I were the author of it, but a difpenfation of which is committed unto me. (I Cor. ix. 17.)

9 This is a great and fundamental truth, for the preaching of which to the Gentiles, as well as Jews, I undergo the fevereft perfecutions, even to confinement, in which I am held in bonds, as though I were a malefactor; not fit to live, and fo am prevented publicly preaching it, as I ufed to do, and, were it the will of God, would ftill gladly perfift in : But, bleffed be his name, his word is not confined, or fhut up in a corner, or hindered from being proclaimed and made effectual in many places, by others of his fervants, for bringing in multitudes of fouls to Chrift; and it is further confirmed by the teffimony I give to the power of divine grace in my patient and joyful fufferings for it.

10 The thought of what has been already, and will ftill further be done by the power of God, as attending the ministrations of the gospel, is such a comfort to me, that I chearfully fubmit to all the diffress that are, or can be laid upon me, in love and zeal for the spiritual welfare of those whom God hath from the beginning chosen to falvation, through fanctification of the Spirit, and belief of the truth, (2 Theff. ii. 13.) that they, encouraged by my example, may alfo be induced to believe, cordially embrace, and boldly profefs the truth and excellence of the gofpel, notwithstanding the violence of the times; and may, in this way of God's appointment, arrive at an actual possefion of that falvation, which confists, not only in an entire freedom from all evil; but likewife in the complete enjoyment of an eternal inheritance of

Digitized by Google

8 Remember that Jefus Christ, of the feed of David, was railed from the dead, according to my golpel:

9 Wherein I fuffer trouble as an evil-doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

to Therefore I endure all things for the elect's fakes, that they may alfo obtain the falvation which is in Chrift Jefus, with eternal glofy.

all

II It is a faith. ful faying, For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him :

12 If we fuffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us :

13 If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful; he cannot deny himfelf.

thefe 14 Of remembrance, charging

Vol. V.

14 Remind those that you minister to, and introthings put them duce into the ministry, of these important things on which their falvation depends, and which it be-, hoves them to regard above all things, elfe; and

Digitized by Google

E e

all poffible honour and delight, that is purchased by, and referved in Chrift for them who are called by the gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jefus Chrift. (2 Theff. ii. 14.)

11 This doctrine of Christ's death and refurrection, and of the future glory of the elect, who are, or fhall be brought to believe in him, is certainly true; and, for the comfort of his fuffering fervants, may be fully depended upon : For if, in conformity to the crucified Je/us, and by virtue derived from him, as the head with whom we are vitally united, we be dead to fin and to this world, and willing to lofe our mortal lives for his fake; we alfo, in conformity to him, and by the power of his refurrection, shall certainly be quickned and raifed to a glorious immortality, to live in the heavenly world with him. (See John xii. 25, 26. Rom. viii. 17. and 1 Pet. iv. 13.)

12 If we patiently endure reproach and all manner of tribulation for Christ's fake, like what he himfelf underwent for ours, we shall also be exalted to the dignity of fitting with him on his throne, as kings and priefts to God and his Father : (Rev. i. 6. and iii. 21.) If, on the contrary, any of us, who profess to be his difciples and fervants, are fo terrified with fear of fuffering the lofs of worldly honour, eafe, and enjoyments, or of liberty, or life itfelf, as to deny the truth of the gospel, and cast off our profession of him, or to be ashamed to own him and his cause, and either doctrinally or practically deny him, he will alfo be ashamed of us, and deny that he ever knew or approved of us, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the boly angels. (Luke ix. 26. and xii. 8, 9.)

13 Whether we believe this comfortable truth on one hand, or this awful denunciation on the other, or not; yet he who has peremptorily affured us of both in his word, and is the Amen, the faithful and true Witnefs, will certainly perform his gracious promifes to them that believe in, and own him; and will execute his just threatnings upon apostates: It is not confiftent with the perfections, veracity, and immutability of his nature and will, to act contrary to his fettled declarations of mercy and judgment, with regard to his final proceedings in the great day of account; for this would be as impoflible for him to do, as to deny that he is God, and the impartial Judge of all.

charge

they ftrive not about words to no profit, but to the hearers.

15 Study to fhew thyfelf approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be athamed. rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But fhun profane and vain babblings; for they will increase unto more ungodlinefs.

17 And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus ;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, fay-ing, That the refurrection is paft already; and overthrow charging them be- charge them in the name, by the authority, and as fore the Lord, that in the prefence of the Lord Jefus, as ever they will answer it to him at his coming to judgment, that they do not, inftead of attending to these substantial and fubverting of the interesting things, go into warm, or trifling disputations about empty words, like Jewish fables, and genealogies, (1 Tim. i. 4.) which are of no manner of advantage to religion and godlines; but tend to puzzle and pervert the minds of hearers, and turn them off from the truth of the gofpel.

> 15 Let it be your great fludy and endeavour, by help from heaven, to prefent, or yield yourfelf an approved fervant to God, that you may be like a good workman, who has no occasion to be ashamed on account of neglect, unskilfulness, unfaithfulness, or any other remarkable defect; and that, as the Yewi/b priefts were very careful and exact in cutting up, and feparating the feveral parts of the facrifices, that were, or were not to be offered; fo you may ule the utmost care and good judgment, in feparating between truth and error, important and trifling things; and in giving to every one a portion of God's word in due feafon, with a proper application of its various parts to the circumstances of your hearers; and (oggorousera) in cutting out before them the right way of truth, holinefs, and happinefs, by preaching and example, according to the gofpel of Chrift.

16 But be fure to avoid, oppose, and turn away from all irreverent, defiling, and noify, but daring and empty difcourfe, that degrades the nature and perfections of God, and the purity of the gofpel, which too many go into: For fuch ways of talking will tend unto, and fuch talkers themfelves will by that means go, still further and further, into errors and practices, that are contrary to true religion, and are like to iffue in the height of all impiety.

17 And their doctrine will be infectious to others. as well as injurious to their own fouls : For, if it be let alone, it will fpread in the church, and eat out the vitals of religion; even as a gangrene, when it is got into any part of the flesh, eats it away, by degrees, to the deftruction of the whole body, and of life itfelf. Among fuch pernicious aud ungodly talkers, there are two notorious ones, Hymeneus, (I Tim. i. 20.) and Philetus by name;

18 Who have given themfelves up to fuch profane and vain babbling, (ver. 16.) as has at length carried them off from the truth of divine revelation, and into the most destructive errors, relating to the true doctrine of the refurrection of the dead; they affirming that, whatfoever Chrift, or any of the facred fome.

19 Nevertheleis, the foundation of God ftandeth fure, having this feal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Chrift depart from iniquity.

throw the faith of cred writers have faid about a proper refurrection, it is to be taken in fome myftical or figurative fenfe, that is over past already in this world *, and not in a literal fenfe, as though there were to be a real refurrection of the body in the world to come: And by their bold and fubtle affertions, and arguings on this point, they have fo far prevailed, as to turn fome off from that, and every other found doctrine, which they before professed to believe.

19 But notwithstanding all this, the fundamental doctrine of the refurrection of the dead is certainly the truth of God, he having fet his feal to it by teftifying his approbation of the apostles, as his faithful fervants, whom he infpired and commissioned to preach it. And notwithftanding fuch melancholy inftances of apostates, which often occasion fears to arise in the hearts of some fincere believers, lest their faith should be also overthrown, and they should fall after the example of others, that feemed to be much greater proficients in Christianity than themselves; yet the ground of fecurity to God's elect, (ver. 10.) and of an affured hope, that their faith, who are built upon Chrift as a foundation, and have a principle of grace, as a ground-work of falvation, shall be answered, and that all the promifes of the gofpel abide firm and fteady, † lies in the eternal and unchangeable purpose of God; it having this motto, engraven, as it were on a feal, to confirm the decree, and to fignify the fafety, fecrecy, and appropriation of the objects of his love; Whatsoever becomes of others, that make fair pretences to religion, the Lord in a diffinguishing manner affectionately knows, and everlastingly owns them, whom he hath chosen for himself, and claims as his peculiar property, (fee the note on Rom. viii. 30.) that he may keep them by his power through faith unto falvation : (1 Pet. i. 2, 5.) And to fhew how unfeparably holinefs and eternal happinefs are connected in the decree, and in the execution of it, as also to prevent prefumptuous confidences in elect-

Ec²

NOTES. the refurrection is pafl already, are fo God which flands fure; tome making it exceeding uncertain, without any fuffi- to mean a work of grace, or principle of cient foundation to support them, that I holine's in the heart; others, faith; ocannot pretend to fay particularly what thers, Chrift; others, the promifes of the figurative, political, or fpiritual and my- election; and they are all included in the fical meaning, which they put upon the paraphrale, while it principally points to words, to fupplant and evade the notion the laft of them. of a proper refurrection of the body.

which Hymeneus and Philetus held that have been given of this foundation of it was; only it feems evident in the na- gofpel; others, the doctrine of the re-ture of things, that they refied on iome furrection; and others, the doctrine of

ing

ing love, without any experience of its proper fruits and effects, which are the only proofs and fatisfying evidences of it to ourfelves, the feal bears this further infcription, Let every one who makes a profession of Christ's name, and of trusting in him for falvation, think himfelf indispensibly bound, and accordingly make it his great care and concern, to depart in heart and life, and keep at the farthest distance, from every kind, degree, and instance of fin.

20 But in the visible church there are professions and ministers of higher and lower rank; and some of them are excellent, honourable, and approved of God, as those whom he knows to be his; (ver. 19.) and others are mean and contemptible, a difhonour to, and difapproved of him, like those that err from the truth; (ver. 18.) even as in the great house of a prince or nobleman, there are not only magnificent veffels, fuch as are made of gold or filver for various and excellent offices; but there are also other veffels, formed out of meaner materials, fuch as wood or clay, for inferior purpofes; and fome of them are of fo great worth and fervice, as to be in high efteem, and reflect an honour upon their Lord and Mafter; and others are fo defpicable and infignificant, as to be of little or no account, and unworthy to be deemed a part of the furniture of fuch a great perfonage's houfe.

21 If therefore any one, who claims a share in the bleffings, privileges, and fervices of the great Lord of the church, keep himfelf clear of the corrupt teachers, errors, and ungodly practices, but now fpecified; (ver. 16, 17, 18.) he shall be esteemed and found to be, whether minister or private Christian, an excellent veffel of mercy, (Rom. ix. 24.) defigned and formed for the nobleft purposes; purified and confecrated to the fervice of God, by the Holy Ghoft; and commodioufly fitted, apt and ready for acceptable employments in his Lord and Mafter's houfe; and thoroughly furnished (chap. iii. 17.) for the performance of every work and duty, that is good in itfelf, or by divine inflitution; good as to the matter, manner, and end of it, according to the good rule of the word, to the glory of God, and the good of his own and others fouls.

22 And as ever you, my fon Timothy, would approve yourfelf to God and your own confeience, in the difcharge of your truft, labour diligently, by his grace, to fly with the utmost fpeed and abhorrence from all irregular inclinations, paffions, and appetites; fuch as ambition, pride, felf-conceit, unadvifed rafhnefs, and fenfuality of various kinds, which young men are prone to: Give no way to thefe; but let

Digitized by Google

20 But in a great houfe there are not only vetfels of gold, and of filver, but also of wood, and of earth; and fome to honour, and fome to diflorour.

21 If a man therefore purge himielf from theic, he fiall be a vefiel unto honour, fanctified and meet for the mafter's ufe, and prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee alfo youthful lufts: but follow righteoufnefs, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

TIMOTHY paraphrafed.

let it be your special care to purfue in your preaching and practice as an example to others, (1 Tim. iv. 12.) the great things, that relate to rightconsfics, in its full extent; to fidelity and faith in Chritt, and in God through him; to a charitable and peaceable temper and behaviour towards all those, of what denomination foever, that invoke, worship, and adore the Lord Jesus, and God the Father through him, in the funcerity of their hearts, as purified by faith, and purged from an evil confeience by the blood of Christ.

23 But, as I have already advifed you, (ver. 16.) Lay afide all inquiries and debates about impertinent fruitlefs points of controverfy, that have nothing of true and folid wifdom in them; Do not intermeddle with thefe, as being affured that they tend only to beget quarrelfome and angry contentions, to the difturbance of the peace of the church, and hindrance of the fuccefs of the gofpel.

24 But it is no way becoming any fervant of the Lord Jefus, were he only a private Chriftian, much lefs if he be a minister of the gospel of peace, to engage in any disputes with a qarrelsome and litigious spirit; fince the wrath of man works not the righteoufnels of God: (James i. 20.) But, on the contrary, he ought to be kind and courteous in his behaviour toward perfons of all characters; should go into the most inoffensive and least provoking manner of conveying the truth to them in love, and with clear foriptural evidence; and he should keep his temper with all patience and long-fuffering, in bearing not only the infirmities of the weak, but even the prejudices and untractablenels of those, that do not inmediately embrace the doctrines of the gospel;

25 Endeavouring to win upon them that fet themfelves against the truth, by lenity, calmness, and sweetness of temper, as well as by strength of argument; and so gently instilling knowledge, as a father would into the tender minds of his children; in hope that, possibly, in due feason, God may convince them of their error, and bring them to a sense of the evil and danger of persisting in it, and at length to relinquish it, and embrace, own, and boldly profess the truth as it is in Jefus;

26 And that in this way, and by thefe means, ($m\tau_{\alpha\nu}\eta_{\nu}\omega\sigma_i$) they may awake out of the enfnaring errors by which they were lulled afleep, and intoxicated like drunken men, and in which the devil had caught and held them, who, like captives of war, taken alive, ($i\xi\omega_{\nu}e\eta_{\mu}\omega\omega_i$) are in his hands to be enflaved, domineered over, and ruined by him, according

Digitized by Google

to

23 But foolifh and unlearned queftions avoid, knowing that they do gender ftrifes.

24 And the fervant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient,

25 In meeknefs inftructing thole that oppole themfelves: if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

26 And that they may recover themlelves out of the mare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will. The Second Epifile to 🗸 Chap. ii.

1

÷

1 ċ

ŀ,

3 ш Ж

ı Z

r

2 2

S,

3 to his malicious will and pleafure, who walks about, as a roaring lion, feeking whom he may devour. (1 Pet. v. 8.)

RECOLLECTIONS.

What need have we of a continual recourse to, and supply from, the fountain of all grace, which is in Chrift for the performance of every duty ! And how great is our encouragement to depend upon him, and to own and honour him ! For, according to the golpel account of him, he is raifed from the dead ; and, whatever becomes of apostates, the ground of fecurity to God's elect stands firm in his eternal purpole, whole diffinguishing love knows and owns them, and has laid upon them the most powerful and endearing obligations to depart from all iniquity. They that bravely fuffer, even unto death, for Chrift in this world, shall live and reign with him for ever in the next; but they, that are ashamed of him and his gospel, shall be rejected by him : Whatsoever we think of it now, he will proceed, in the judgment of the great day, according to his promiles and threatnings, and can as ioon ceafe to be, as fallify his word. These things are worthy to be remembered and inculcated upon others, just as we have received them from the great apoftle; and they ought to be committed as a facred truft, to able and faithful ministers, among many witnesses, that they may preach them to the people. And O with what alacrity should they endure all hardships in fulfilling their office, as good foldiers of Jetus Chrift, and as wreftlers and labourers in his fervice; and not embarrais themfelves with fecular affairs! They, ought not to be difcouraged at tribulations and bonds, or death itfelf, if they be called to fuffer them in the caufe of Chrift, and for the fake of the elect, that they may be eternally faved together with themselves. How ambitions should they be of behaving to the appro-bation of their great Lord and Master, as vessels of honour, sanchified and sitted for his use, and for every good work, and as judicious and faithful preachers, that need not be afhamed, for want of skill or sidelity in making just and proper distributions of the word of truth ! And how carefully fhould they avoid, and fet themfelves againft, all errors, especially such as lead to fruitless contentions and ungodlinefs, and are fubverfive of fundamental articles of faith; and, unlefs put a ftop to, will fpread with as mifchievous influence as a gangrene, like that of Hymeneus and Philetus about the refurrection ! The beft way of confuting dangerous errors, and recommending gospel-truths, is to abstain from all vices of body and mind, and particularly from those that young men are most apt to indulge; and to live in the practice of righteousness, faith, love, and peace, with all upright Christians; to be courteous towards all men; and to overcome opposers by a fweetnefs of temper, patience, and forbearance, joined with clear and icriptural realonings, to inform and perfuade them; in hope that God, by these means, may convince them of their fin and folly, and bring them over to believe and profess the good doctrines they before had oppoled; and fo, by his grace, may awake out of their dead fleep, and escape out of the devil's fnare, as those that are delivered from his will and power, and are turned to God. The Lord help us to reflect ferioufly on these, and all his faithful fayings; and give us wildom and grace to make a right improvement of them to his glory, and our own and others good !

Chap. iii.

213

H A P. С III.

The aposle foretels the rife of dangerous enemies to the truth and holine/s of the gospel, 1,-0. Proposes bis own example for Timothy's imitation, in opposition to them, 10,-13. And exborts bim to perfyl in the doctrines he had learned from him, and from the boly scriptures, which are of divine inspiration, and every way sufficient for the noblest purposes, 14,-17.

TEXT.

THIS know alfo, that in the laft days perilous times fhall come.

2 For men shall be lovers of their ownselves, covetous, boafters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

PARAPHRASE.

I WOULD further remind you, as I did in my former epittle, (chap. iv. 1.) that under the gospeldifpenfation, which is the laft and best that ever will be fet up in this world, days of exceeding great difficulty and danger (xaline) will trouble the church, not only on account of perfecutions; but chiefly by reafon of fad corruptions in doctrines and manners, as they already begin to appear, and will gradually work till they iffue in a much greater apollacy still, toward the latter part of this last dispensation *.

2 For, to give you some figns of the days I mean, by which they may be known, A fet of wicked carnally-minded men will arife under the Christian name, that will be of a notorioufly felfifh fpirit, aiming merely at their own fecular interest, honour, and eafe, without any regard to the good of others ; infatiable in their thirst and purfuits after the riches of this world; vain-glorious boafters of their own endowments and advantages; lofty and arrogant in their temper and behaviour; defamers of Christ's offices and people, doctrines and ways; undutiful to their fathers and mothers, rejecting their authority ; bafely ungrateful to them, and other benefactors, and above all, to God for the good things they receive from him, by their means; unfanctified, impious, and profane;

3 Destitute

* The corruptions specified in the fol- good men and things; in their treachery lowing verfes are very remarkably ex- and deceit, and traitorous actings aemplified in the Romifb church ; in their gainft fovereign princes ; in their infofelnih fecular views, pride and blafphe- lent and haughty behaviour, and indulmies; in their children's being unnatu- ging unto luxury and unlawful pleatures, fulness to God, and to the princes that verting the faith, and pretending to mirailed the popes to their dignity and au- racles; and all this under specious forms and falle acculations of them, that they inflead of true love to God and godlinefs, call beretics; in their cruel perfecu. Gc. (See also the notes on 1 Tim. iv. 1. tions, and contemptuous treatment of and 2 Theff. ii. 3, 4.)

NOTE.

rally put into monafteries and numeries, and infinuating themfelves into, corrupt-fometimes without, and at others with ing and fifting out the fecrets of fami-the confent of their parents; in unthank- lies by auricular confeffions; in their perthority; in their breaking faith with, of piety, and external shows of devotion,

3 Without natural affection, truce - breakers, falle acculers, incontinent, fierce, that are good,

4 Traitors, beady, high-minded, lovers of pleafures more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from fuch turn away.

6 For of this fort are they which creep into houfes, and lead captive filly women laden with fins, led away with divers lufts,

7 Ever learning, and never able to

3 Destitute of all that tenderness and natural affection, (asogyos) which is due to mankind in general, to near relations more particularly, and from parents to children most of all, which is found even adefpifers of those mong the brutes themselves toward their young ; perfidious violators of the most folemn engagements, promiles and contracts; falle accufers (dizbohos) of other men, like devils incarnate, that delight in unjust calumnies; intemperate, (azearus) under the power of ungovernable appetites, lufts, and paffions; furious and cruel in their tempers and treatment of others; without any true love (apilayalos) to the righteous, that are more excellent than themfelves, or to things that are good.

4 Betrayers of civil and facred trufts, and delivering up even their nearest a kin to miferies and death, for Christ's name's fake; (Mat. x. 21, 22.) headftrong, rash, daring and precipitant (meomersus) in their words and behaviour ; puffed up with the pride and vanity of their own minds; entirely addicted to, and fond of fenfual pleafures, more than, and inftead of being well affected towards God, and the things that are pleafing in his fight.

5 What further aggravates their monstrous wickednels is, that they cloke and difguife it with a fair flow of fanctity under a profession of Christian religion, and of a reverence of God, and with external forms of piety and devotion ; but at the fame time are utter ftrangers.and enemies to, and practical renouncers of the life and power of true godliness to govern their hearts and lives. Now I would advife you to have nothing to do with fuch falfe pretenders to the Chriftian name; but to reject them with abhorrence, and keep at the remotest distance from them, and from all fellowfhip and communion with them : Beware of them, as of wolves in theep's clothing. (Mat. vii. 15.)

6 For this fort of people are very fly in their infinuations: They, with a flow of innocence and extraordinary holinefs, (Mat. xxiii. 14.) fecretly wind themfelves, like fnakes, into fuch families as they can get an interest in, or hopes of any advantage by, that they may intrude into their fecrets, and exercife an absolute tyranny over their estates and confciences ; and they furprifingly wheedle and enfnare the hearts and affections of weak and ignorant people, who, like thoughtless giddy women, under the power of finful paffions, are eafily imposed upon, and milled by every plaufible pretence, that foothes and flatters their own corrupt inclinations.

7 And fo they are always running after every new come teacher, and hearkning to, and imbibing every new doctrine : :

16 640

ę

ð.

2

÷,

Ş

'n Ċ,

ধ ų.

3 下门

TIMOTHY paraphrafed.

ledge of the truth.

come to the know- doctrine ; and are fo difconcerted, unfettled, and confounded by this means, as never to be able to attain to a clear, judicious, and faving knowledge of the 8 Now as in former days Jannes and Jambres *, truth of the gofpel, and written word of God, and to the faithful fervants of Chrift, whom he has feat to preach deliverance to captives : And thefe deceivers, like those magicians, are men of depraved and vitiated minds, void of judgment, and utterly difapproved, (adoxingor) and diffowned of God, (fee the note 2 Cor. xiii. 5.) as to every thing that relates to the pure doctrines of faith, according to the gofpel-

9 But it is a fweet fupport and comfort in the most perilous times, (ver. 1.) to be affured, as we may and ought to be, that thefe men, though permitted to proceed very far in their pretended miracles and delutions, are under a divine reflraint, and fhall certainly in God's time be put a flop to, and make no further progrefs; but shall be entirely confuted and overthrown to their own confusion : For (area) the folly and madnels 'of their fiuful opinions, and methods of management, shall at length be different with the plained evidence to the whole world; even as the Egyptian magicians, after they had made a fair flow of performing feveral miracles, were at length defeated, and exposed to open fhame, and grievoully tormented, in the conteft, which Majes, the fervant of the Lord, had with them. (Exod. vii. 12. and 8 Now as Jannes and Jambres two famous magicians of Egypt, pretended to vie with withftood Moles. Mofes in working miracles, and fet themfelves up ato do these also gainft him, who came with a divine committion to deresist the truth: liver the I/raelites out of the houfe of bondage; fo men of corrupt minds, reprobate these false teachers set up themselves, and their errors, concerning the with pretences to miracles, in opposition to the plain faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly fhall be manifest unto all men. as theirs also was.

> viii. 18, 19. and ix. 11.) 10 But, to guard you against all fuch feducers and their corrupt principles and practices of every kind, I would remind you of, and recommend to your imitation, what you have feen and experienced of a contrary ftrain in my behaviour. You who have fo much attended, and been fo intimately acquainted with me,

NOTE. * The names of Jannes and Jambres Dr. Hammond in his notes on this place, are not mentioned in any part of the Old Teftament; but are found, with a little John Gregory: (Part I. Chap. 15.) And variation of fpelling, in feveral ancient fo the apoftle, as may be supposed, takes Jewifb writers, and are spoken of as the these instances from Jewi/b writing. princes or chiefs of the magicians; accounts of which are collected at large by

VOL. V.

true gofpel of Chrift.

revelation of them.

Digitized by Google

have

and in the works of the learned Mr. and argues from their own authors, that were currently received by that people. Ff to But thou haft

fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, long-fuffering, charity, patience,

t

t

ź, ţ

h

s.

5

2

Ŗ

have fought after, and cannot but have attained to a thorough knowledge of the excellent doctrine according to godlinefs, that I have always taught; the course of my felf-denying, holy, and religious conversation, agreeable to it; the fincerity and steadinefs of my aims and purfuits for promoting the glory of God and the good of fouls; my fidelity in preaching the pure gofpel of Chrift under the power of that faith, which I myself have in him, and endeavour to propagate to others; the forbearance and lenity I have all along fhown toward the weak, the ignorant, and unteachable; the love I have fhewn to God and Chrift, and the fouls and bodies of men, whether friends or enemies, and especially to all that love the . Lord Jefus in fincerity and truth ; and the patience that I have exercised toward my most violent oppofers, and under their most furious outrage against me.

11 You have likewife fully known what fevere perfecutions, and extreme fufferings, to the utmost hazard of my life, I have undergone, with holy fortitude and composure, in various places for the gospel's fake, as particularly at Antioch in Pifidia, (Acts xiii. 14, 45, 50.) at Iconium, and at Lyftra, two cities of Lycaonia, in the Leffer Afia, (Acts xiv. 2, 5, 6, 19. *) but, as you also well know, the Lord Jefus, whom I ferve, and for whole caule I fuffer, . ftood by me, fupported and preferved me, and delivered me out of all those tribulations, in the last of which, namely at Lystra, he in a miraculous manner reftored my life, after I was fuppoled to have been dead. (Acts xiv. 20.) In reflection therefore on those wonderful appearances of the Lord for me in all my troubles, you need not be afraid of fufferings for Chrift; but ought to be encouraged to truft in him for all feafonable affiftances and confolations, if you are called to endure the like.

12 And indeed fuch is the wickedness and violence of the prefent and approaching days, and fuch the general corruption of human nature in all ages, that whofoever are defirous and determined, and accordingly make it their practice, to live after a truly religious manner, in a holy profession of Christ's name, by virtue derived from him, after his example, and according to the eye-witness of the people's stoning the abeen dead, and of his wonderfully reviving afterwards; or, at leaft, he could lar demonstration.

Digitized by GOOGLE

NOTE.

* As Timothy was an inhabitant of not be ignorant of those notorious facts in Lyftra, where Paul met with him, Acts his own town; and the apostle here apxvi. 1. it is very probable that he was an peals to him about his troubles, not only at Lyftra, but also at Antioch and Iconipostle there, till they thought he had um, as to one that had fully known them upon the fureft teftimony, if not by ocu-

11 Perlecutions, afflictions which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what perfecutions I endured : but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Chrift Jefus, fhall fuffer perfecution.

the rules of his word, they will be exposed to fufferings for his fake; and fuch is the appointment of God for making the members of Christ conformable to their head, who went through fufferings to glory, that all perfons of this character must expect to meet with, ought to prepare for, and will certainly more or lefs, in one form or other, undergo perfecutions from the hands or tongues of the feed of the old ferpent, that is ever full of enmity against the church.

13 But men of wicked minds, under a form of godlinefs, and feducing impoftors, are fo far from fubmitting to fufferings for righteoufnefs fake, that they will flick at nothing to avoid them, or to bring them upon others that do not fall in with their measures: They will be continually going further and further into violence and wickednefs, and all that is bad in principle and practice, doing what in them lies to draw others into erroneous and finful paths; and being themfelves wanderers from the truth, and the greateft deceivers of their own fouls, as will moft fully appear in the general apoftacy of the last days under anti-Christian powers.

14 But as for you, my dear fon Timothy, whatever others do, See that you abide perfeveringly, ftedfaftly, and immoveably in the belief, profession, and preaching of the pure, uncorrupted and important doctrines of the gospel, which you have embraced, and been fully convinced of, upon the ftrongeft and most fatisfying evidence, as knowing by all the figns of apostleship, which have appeared in me, that I, of whom you have learned them, (chap. i. 13. and ii. 2.) am nodels than an immediately commissioned fervant of Jefus Chrift, who have taught them by his express command, and by special revelation from him; and confequently, that you have learned them, by means of my ministry, from Christ himself, who is the Amon, the faithful and true Witnefs, and cannot poffibly deceive you.

15 You alfo know, and are very well affured, that they are entirely confonant to the divine oracles of the Old Teftament, which may well be called, by way of eminence and diffinction from all human writings, the Holy Scriptures, as they were indited by the Holy Spirit, and delivered by holy men about holy things; (2 Peter i. 21.) and as they contain all the principles of holinefs, with all directions, obligations, and motives to it, and are adapted, and bleffed of God, to make men holy here, in order to a flate of complete holinefs and happinefs hereafter. In the knowledge of those facred oracles, you have been educated from your very childhood up, by the dili-F f a

Digitized by Google

13 But evil men and feducers shall wax, worte and worke, deceiving and being deceived.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou haft learned, and haft been affured of, knowing of whom thou haft learned them;

15 And that from a child thou haft known the holy fcriptures, which are able to make cnee wife unto falvation, through faith which is in Chrift Jefus. gent care of your pious mother and grandmother, (chap. i. 5.) who, as excellent examples to all Chriftian parents, brought you betimes to read and treafure them up in your memory, and to confider the meaning of them *; which, together with the gofpel-revelation, as contained in the New Teltamentwritings now extant, are fuch a comprehensive fystem of divine things, as is every way fufficient, in the nature of means, and will be effectual, through the attending light and influence of the bleffed Spirit, to make you emphatically wife; wife toward God and for your own foul; wife unto an understanding of the way, and taking the courfe, which the wifdom and grace of God have appointed in his word, for obtaining eternal life, not by the works of the law, but through that faith, which has Jefus Chrift for its object, and is led to truft in him alone for all falvation.

16 All the facred writings, both of the Old and New Teftament, are of divine original, as God, by his Spirit, directed and infpired the holy penmen to deliver them exactly according to truth; and they are all of great and excellent use and advantage, fome in one way, and others in another; either for revealing important doctrines concerning God and ourfelves, our duty to him and one another, our flate by nature and by grace, and the whole scheme of falvation through a Redeemer; or for reproving and convincing of fin and error, and of finners and backfliders from the truth and holinefs of the gofpel; or for rec- . tifying and reforming what is amils; or for direction in a way of faith and obedience, unto the obtaining

* The holy forifitures, which Timothy through faith in the actually exhibited knew from a child, in all likelihood Saviour, must all the infpired writings, through the care and pains of his good taken together under the golpel state, be mother and grandmother, must relate to fo; most of the New Testament-writings the Old Teflament-fcriptures; because having been extant before this epistle was none of the New Teltament writings fent to Timothy. Though therefore gof-were then extant: And yet these were pellight undoubtedly far exceeds all that fufficient to make him wife to falvation, ever went before it; and though it canthrough faith in the Mefliah that was to not be faid, that every part of fcripture come, 'till he was revealed; and when is abfolutely necessary to be known in orthe New Teffament was added to the der to falvation; yet they are all profita-Old, which Timothy by this time was ac- ble in their places, as infallible and inquainted with, they were fufficient to fpired writings for excellent and impormake him wife to falvation through faith tant purpoles: ver. 16. (See my Standin fetus Chrift, as the true Meffiah, who ing Ufe of the Scriptures.) And now the had actually appeared, and fulfilled all whole canon of feripture is completed, the parts of his office on earth, that per- under divine infpiration of the New, as tained to him as fuch: And if, during well as of the Old Teftament, there can the frate of the Old Teffament-church, be no need of the addition of any doctheir forintures were fufficient to make trines, or precepts, to direct our faith, them wife to falvation, through faith or practice, that are not contained in in the promifed Saviour; much more, them.

0 т

N

218

Digitized by Google

E.

doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for inftruction in righteoufneis:

16 All feripture is given by infpi-

for ration of God, and is profitable

TIMOTHY paraphra [ed.

17 That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnifhed unto all good works. of righteoufnels both for juftification and fanctification, that we may be accounted righteous in Chrift, and derive all renewing and purifying grace and affiltavce from him, for the performing of every duty, and making us holy in heart and life.

17 And thefe fcriptures, taken altogether as exhibiting Old Teltament-types and figures, prophecies and promifes, and New Teftament light and accomplishments, and the plainest discoveries of Christ in his perfon and offices, and as preferibing duties of every kind, are a perfect rule of faith and practice ; and contain all that can be neceffary, not only to make a complete Chriftian, who, according to divine appointment, devotes himfelf, as fuch, to the fervice of God; but also a complete minister of Christ, whom God has fet apart for himfelf to declare his mind and will to others; and fo they are fuited, in the nature of means, throughly to influect, fit, and furnish one, as well as the other, for a due understanding and performance of every good work, that he is called to, relating to God, himfelf, and others.

RECOLLECTIONS.

We need not wonder if our lot be caft in perilous times, either through the violence of perfecutions, or through corruptions in doctrine and manners; fince the word of God has foretold them. And, alas! How many fellish, worldly minded, vain-glorious, proud, ungrateful, and impious profeflors are there in our day, espe-cially in the apoftate church of Rome? How many have thrown off natural affection, and all obligations to filial and parental duty; and have given themfelves up to falthood, treachery, flander, rathness, infolence, and every furious and inordinate paffion, and fentual pleafure, in preference to God himfelf! And how grievous is it, that any flould indulge to all this under the mark of an external profeffion of godlineis, while they are averie to its power in their hearts and lives; and that men of fuch corrupt minds flould artfully infinuate themfelves into, and captivate weak and ignorant people, who are governed and mifled by finful appetites, and are perpetually following new teachers and new things, and are to difconcerted thereby, as never to attain to a right knowledge of the truth of the golpel! The feducers of fuch are wicked men, and difapproved of God, as utterly destitute of true faith, whatever their pretences be; and therefore it behoves all ministers and Christians to have nothing to do with them in matters of religion. Bleffed be God, that all their opposition to the gofpel is under his controul; and that, though they may be permitted to run great lengths, they at laft, like the Egyptian-magicians, thall be confuted, put a ftop to, and exposed to open fhame. But O what an engaging plan, of a contrary firain, have we in the great apottle's doctrine, manner of life, steady views to the honour of Christ and the good of fouls; and in his faith and faithfulnefs, lenity, love, and patience ! Though he tuffered the greatest perfecutions; yet the Lord was with him in them, and amazingly delivered him out of them. What an encouragement is this to believers, and faithful fervants of Chrift, under any tribulation, which they may expect and meet with for his fake ! While others therefore wax worfe and worfe, under the power of fin and error, how concerned should we be to continue stedfast in the faith, profeffion, and practice of those things, that we have learned from the apostle's, and other facred writings of the Old and New Teftament! They are all infpired of God : Parents flould early teach them to their children ; and they are fufficient to make us wife to falvation, through faith in Chrift Jefus, and to answer all the purpoles of truth and holinels, of refutation of error, and reformation of manners, and of inftruction in the way of righteoutnefs, to the glory of God, and the falvation of our own fouls; and they are fuch a perfect rule of all that is to be believed and done.

220 done, that ministers and people may find the whole compais of their duty in them, and be throughly fitted, by their means, for performing it, through divine light and grace, in every inftance here, till all be completed in a better world.

The Second Epifile to

С H A P. IV.

The apofile most folemnly charges Timothy to be diligent in his minifterial work, though many will not endure found doctrine, 1,--5. Enforces the charge from a confideration of his own approaching martyrdom, which would have a glorious iffue, 6,-8. Defires him to come speedily to him, and bring Mark and certain mentioned things along with him, 9,-13. Cautions him against Alexander the copper-smith, and complains of such as had deserted bim; but prays for them, and expresses his faith, as to his own preservation to the heavenly kingdom, 14,—18. and concludes with falutations and his ufual benediction, 19,-22.

PARAPHRASE.

CHARGE thee CINCE you are and will be furrounded with many adverfaries, and are fo richly furnished for maintaining the truth against them; and fince all fcripture, which you are fo well aquainted with, is of divine original, and of fuch extensive use and advantage, as has been but now observed, (chap. iii. 13,-17.) I folemnly lay the following injunction upon your confcience, with regard to your faithfully difcharging the work of an Evangelift, as in the fight and prefence of the all-feeing God, and the heart-fearching Saviour, (Rev. ii. 23.) and as you will answer it at the bar of the Lord Chrift, and before him, when he shall come to judge all mankind, even all that shall be alive, or dead and raifed again, at his glorious appearance, in the great day of account, and at his finishing the whole defign of his mediatorial kingdom; and being revealed in all the glory of his heavenly kingdom, in which he, as God, together with the Father and Spirit, will reign, as in his effential kingdom, and in which he, as the Head and King of the church, will reign with a visible pre-eminence, and they shall reign in and with him, in all possible dignity, grandeur, and delight for ever and ever. (See the note on I Cor. xv. 24.)

2 What I this awfully charge upon you, as with a religious oath, is this, Proclaim aloud, (never) and with all authority and boldnefs, like one of Chrift's heralds, the infpired word of God, as it is profitable for doctrine *; preach it with earneftnefs and

NOTE.

Here feems to me to be a reference to the ieveral uses of the word, or fcrip.

ture,

Digitized by Google

Text. therefore before God, and the Lord Jefus Chrift, who Ihall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing, and his kingdom;

2 Preach the word; be inftant in feafon, out of featon; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with

TIMOTHY paraphrafed.

trine.

with all long-fuf- and diligence on the Lord's days, and on other days, fering and doc- in times of peace and of perfecution, in public 'and private, on flated and proper occasional opportunities, when it is more or lefs likely to do good, as one that fows his feed in the morning, and in the evening, not knowing which shall prosper: (Ecclef. xi. 6.) Apply the word, as there may be occasion, for reproof, to convince gainfayers of their errors; for reprehending finners and backfliders, to reclaim and reform them; and for counfelling, exhorting, and encouraging believers, to go on in the way of righteousness: Insist on these various parts and uses of the word, with all meekness, patience, constancy, and perfeverance; and in a free, open, and faithful declaration of the whole counfel of God, without adding to it, or taking from it, or altering and corrupting it, whatever difficulties, trials, and opposition you may meet with on that account.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure found doctrine; but after their own lufts fhall they heap to themfelves teachers, having itching ears;

4 And they fhall turn away their ears from the truth. and fhall be turned unto fables.

5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelift, make full proof of thy miniftry.

a For as already there begins to be; fo in a little while, and yet more in process of time, there will be perilous days, when men of corrupt minds, as I have before warned you, (chap. iii. 1,-8, 13.) will be fo nettled at the wholefome, pure, unmixed doctrine of the gospel, that they will not bear to hear it; but, being enraged against it, through their own pride, lufts, paffions, and prejudices, will feek out, and multiply to themfelves fuch falfe teachers, as fhall tickle their ears with new notions, and unferiptural difcourfes, that pleafe their fancies, and are agreeable to their own vitiated tafte.

4 And through the love of novelty, that will gratify their curiofity and corrupt inclinations, they will turn a deaf ear to the truths of the gospel, and will eagerly liften after, and fondly embrace, every vain, empty, triffing, and fenfeless story, like Jewi/b fables and traditions, (1 Tim. i. 4.) to divert and amule themfelves, and keep their own confciences eaiy.

5 But as for you, my dear fon Timothy, be upon your guard against all fuch fort of people and their errors; and watch for all opportunities of confuting them, and establishing the truth in opposition to them: Watch against all temptations; watch over your own fpirit and conduct at all times, and in all circumstances; and watch for the fouls of those that are committed to your care : (Heb. xiii. 17.) Submit with meeknefs to, and fuftain with fortitude and patience,

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

ture, which had been specified, chap. iii. 16. and therefore several passages in this verse are paraphrased in correspondence to that.

Chap. iv.

patience, whatever tribulations your adverfaries may bring upon you: Notwithstanding all their attempts to difhearten and filence you, go on in the name and ftrength of the Lord with your work, as an Evangelift; and thoroughly perform all the parts of your miniftry with fidelity, care, and diligence, to the conviction of gainfayers, and approving yourfelf to the confciences of true believers. I give this as my final charge, that you may attend to it after I am dead and gone, and can no longer advife you, or help forward the work of the Lord with you.

6 For, to allude to the Jewi/h libations, or pouring out of the wine upon their facrifices, (fee the paraphrafe on Phil. ii. 17.) I am juit on the point of pouring out my blood as a martyr for Chrift, and (non onevolues) am already willing to be offered up as a facrifice, not of atonement, which Chrift has perfectly made by the one offering of himfelf; but of acknowledgment, to the glory of God, and the confirmation of the gofpel which I am going to feal with my blood *; and I am fully affured, that the time of my diffolution, (aradussus) when my foul will depart from the body, and from earth to heaven, to be ever with the Lord, and when my body shall be diffolved into its original duft, is fo near and certain, that it may be confidered as if it were actually come to pais.

7 In this fituation I can look backwards and forward with the greateft pleafure : In a review of what the grace of God has done for me, and by me; I have the comfortable witness of his Spirit, and of my own confcience, that I have been enabled, in a good degree, to war the best of warfares, in the best caufe, even in the caufe of Chrift against all his, my own, and the church's fpiritual enemies ; and to behave like a good combatant against them, and like a good foldier of Jefus Chrift, with courage, fidelity, and fuccefs in fighting his battles, under his banner, as the Captain of falvation : + I have held on my way through all the trials, labours, and difficulties that I have been called to, as a minister and a Christian;

of his departure as at hand, and might be combats and race in the Grecian games: fully fatisfied, either by immediate reve- But as the life of ministers and Christilation, or by what he had observed of ans is often compared to a warfare, and Nero's temper and behaviour in his first the apostle had directed Timothy to enapology, ver. 16. or had heard fince, dure hardne/s as a good foldier of Jefus that he would be condemned to death, Chrift, chap. ii. 3. I have confidered the when he should be called forth to take first clause of this verse in that allusion his fecond trial.

† The terms used in this and the next

NOTES.

* The apoftle speaks with confidence paffage are agonifical, in allufion to the allo.

Digitized by Google

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.

Henceforth

which me a crown of righ-

the Lord the righteous judge shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto

all them also that love his appearing.

8 there is laid up for teouineis,

TIMOTHY paraphrafed.

have run with patience the race that was fet before me; and have now in a manner completed my courfe of life and obedience, fufferings and fervices; and am got just to the goal: And from the beginning to the end of this combat and race, I have maintained the purity of the doctrines of what may be emphatically called the faith, (fee Jude, ver. 3.) have lived by faith upon them, and been faithful in professing, publifting, and defending them, and living anfwerable to them, for the glory of God, and the good of my own and other fouls. (ver. 8.)

8 And the rich experience I have had of the grace of God, which has been with me, to affilt, animat and fucceed my labours, all along, to the very close of life, (I Cor. xv. 10.) raifes my joyful hope and confidence, in looking forward, that what now remains is to receive the prize of the high calling of God, (Phil. iii. 14.) which is laid up in Chrift, and referved in heaven for me; even a glorious crown of life that fadeth not away, (James i. 12. and 1 Peter, i. 4. and v. 4.) and is infinitely fuperior, in worth and dignity, to all the withering garlands and crowns of earthly conquerors; and may be called a crown of righteou/nefs, as it is given, on account of the Redeemer's merit, only to righteous perfons, and confilts in the perfection of all righteoufnefs and true holinefs, which I shall be made partaker of by the free gift of the Lord Jefus Chrift, the impartial Judge of all, who proceeds upon principles of rightcoufnets, in fidelity to his promifes, and in making his rewards of grace, as well as of juffice, according to the rule of his word, by fentencing impenitent finners to everlafting punifhment for their iniquities, and true believers to everlatting life for his own righteoutnels fake, at the great day of his coming to judge the quick and the dead : (ver. 1.) And he will give this glorious crown, not mercly to me, as if no others were to be crowned befides me ; but be affured, for the encouragement of your own foul, and of all his faithful followers and fervants, that he will certainly do the fame to every one, that realizes by faith, and with pleafure, and fuitable preparation, waits, looks, longs, and hopes for his fecond illustrious appearing, when be will come to be glorified in his faints, and admired in all them that believe. (2 Theff. i. 10.)

9 Do thy diligence to come fhortly unto me.

9 In the mean while, left it be foon too late, make all poffible hafte in coming to me, who greatly want to impart fome further inftructions to you, and fhould be much comforted to fee you, as being now in a manner alone.

10 For Demas hath forfaken me, having loved this prefent world, and is departed unto Theffalonica; Crefcens to Calatia, Titus unto Daimatia.

IT Only Luke is with me. Take Mark and bring him with thee : for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

12 And Tychicus have I fent to Ephefus.

10 For Demas, who has been a fellow-labourer. and might have been of fervice to me in my prefent difficult circumstances, has shamefully deserted me : he being afraid to run any rifk in owning and ftanding by me, through too great a love of the eafe, honour, fafety, and accommodations of this prefent infnaring world; and he of his own head, under the power of temptation, has retired to Theffalonica, the metropolis of Macedonia, where he hopes to get out of the danger he would be exposed to here *; Crescens is gone, with my approbation, on important affairs, to Galatia, as Titus alfo is to Dalmatia.

11 Luke, the beloved physician, (Col iv. 14.) is the only fellow-labourer that remains, and choofes to be with me, and affiftant to me : And as I fhould be glad to have the company of fome other faithful brethren, I defire that when you come, according to my expectation and hope, you would bring Mark along with you; (fee the note on Col. iv. 10.) for he may be of great fervice to me, in going on meffages, and fubferving my ministerial work, the little time I may have to live.

12 I greatly need his, as well as your affiftance +; for I have lately difpatched Tychicus, on urgent occalions, to my friends at Ephefus; and I dearly mifs his company, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister in the Lord, (Eph. vi. 21.) and whom I have often fent on errands to various perfons and churches, when I could not be with them myfelf. (Acts xx. 4, 5. Col. iv. 7. and Tit. iii. 12.)

NOTES.

labourer, (Philem. ver 24.) and speaks a country in the southern part of Illyriof his joining in a falutation with Luke the beloved phyfician : (Col. iv. 14.) He therefore appears to have been a minister of fome efteem formerly with the apoftle, but a man of fo timorous and worldly a fpirit, as to forlake him in his difficult ciroumftances, under an apprehenfion of danger to himfelf, as the difciples did our Lord in the time of his extremity : However, we cannot certainly conclude concerning him, any more than concerning them, that he turned utter apoftate, though he, as well as they, acted a most unbecoming, unworthy, and criminal part, under the power of temptation, and of too ftrong an attachment to this life and its concerns; accordingly the apoftle fets a black mark upon him, in diffinction from Grefcens and Titus, of whom he only fays, they were when he fhould come to Rome. gone, one to Galatia, a province of the

* The apoftle calls Demas his fellow- Leffer Afia, and the other to Dalmatia, cum; (fee the note on Rom. xv. I.) to which places he probably had fent them on some meffages, or other business of confiderable confequence. Who Crefcens was is quite uncertain, we having no other account of him: But as he is here mentioned just in the fame manner with Titus, it is probable he was a minister, and flood well in the apoftle's effeem.

13 The

+ The particle (Se) here rendered and, is fometimes calual, and translated for. as in Luke xii. 48. Acts vii. 25. 1 Thef. ii. 16. and I Tim. iii. 5.; and thus I think it may be taken in this place, as affigning a further reason of Paul's defiring Mark, as well as Timothy to come to him; or. perhaps, he fent Tychicus to Ephefus to fupply Timothy's place,

TIMOTHY paraphrafed.

13 The cloke that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comeft, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.

14 Alexander the copper-imith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to bis works.

15 Of whom be he hath greatly withftood our words.

13 The cloke which I left, when I was laft at Troas, with our friend Carpus, might be of good ule to me here *; therefore I beg you would take care to bring it with you, when you come to me, as allo the feveral books which I left there; but, above all, fail not to bring the important parchments, that are allo in his cultody.

14 Alexander the infamous coppersmith, has been my bitter enemy; a moit malicious initrument, who has fatilely accufed, and been very murious to me. (See the notes on Acts xix. 33. and I Tim. i. 20.) I leave him, as an utter and irreclaimable apoltate, to the righteous judgment of God +, who will call him to a levere account, and recompenie tribulation to him, according to the just defert of his evil deeds, when the Lord Jelus fhat be revealed from heaven to take vengeance on all his enemies and impenitent unbelievers. (2 Ibc//. i. 6,—9.)

15 I would therefore warn you to have a watchthou ware alio; for ful eye, as I have had, upon that man. Avoid him as an excommunicated perfon; (1 1im. i. 20.) and take heed left he ferve you and others of the fervants and people of God, as bately as he has me : For he has virulently fet himfelf against, and stifly opposed the goipel of falvation, which I and you preach to all Gg 2

Е

NOT # I have taken the word (grayny) in to him in his trial; others, the originals the fense of our translators, to mean a of the epittles, that he had tent to, or cloke, which might be, either the palli- received from feveral churches, which zm, that belonged to the apoille, as a he would leave in Timothy's cuttody. The Roman citizen; or an upper garment, apottle therefore ordered him to bring which he utually wore at inclement lea. fons, and would need in a cold priton, as of Carpus at Troas. As this is the only the winter was coming on : Others take this word to fignify a roll, and others a bag, book cafe, box, or cheft, or tome repolitory in which Paul's books and Troas, and a faithful brother, in whom parchments were kept. And as the ancients had two forts of books, one in the leave things, for which he had fo great form of leaves and pages or parchment, or of paper made of the Egyptian Papyrus; and the other of like materials, rolled up when laid afide, and unrolled when opened for use. The books here mentioned ieem to have been the jurit, and parchments the fecond of thele forts of books, which, because rolled up, were called volumes. What was contained in them is both a curious and fruitle's inquiry, that neither needs, nor can be taushed : But as the apolitie laid fo particular an emphasis on the parchments, some have conjectured, that they confidered, not as an imprecation, much might be the volumes of the Old Teita- lefs as what the apollic defined; but a ment; others, the copy of his freedom as prediction of what would certainly bea Roman, which might have been of use fal him.

these things, that then lay in the hands place, where Carpus is mentioned, we know little of his character; but he ieems to have been the apoille's holt at he placed to much confidence, as to a value, under his care.

+ The apofile probably knew by immediate revelation, that Alexander was a malicious, obstinate, and incorrigible enemy to Christianity, whom God had given up to hardness of heart; and therefore if he imprecated a due reward of his iniquity upon him, that is no rule for us to do the like on perions, at whom we cannot have the fame allurance : But fome good copies read the Lord (arobari) will reward him according to his works; (Vid. Mill. in loc.) and fo it is to be

Chap. iv.

all forts of finners, Gentiles as well as Jews, through faith in Chrift Jefus.

16 At my first aniwer no man flood with me, but all men forfook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.

226 standing, the Lord stood with me, and firengthened me; that by me the preaching, might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.

.17 Notwith-

18 And the Lord thall deliver me from every evil work, and will preferve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be giory

16 When I was brought upon my first trial, and then made my apology, (anologia) in defence of Chrift's and my own caufe before the Emperor, none of my Christian acquaintance, that were capable of being any way ferviceable to me, had courage enough to own and countenance me, or to appear as witneffes on my behalf; but they all, through infirmity, cowardice, or fear of fuffering, forfook me, as the disciples of our Lord did him, when he was apprehended in order to his being tried, condemned, (Matth. xxvi. 56.) I heartily with, and crucified. and earneitly pray, that, as he graciously forgave them, and brought them to repentance, he would forgive and recover thefe my brethren, and not impute this iniquity to them, or deal with them according to its deferts. (See the note on ver. 10.)

17 However, while they through weakness and fear were permitted to defert me, the Lord Jelus himfelf, my almighty fast Friend, who is infinitely better than they all, owned and appeared for me, as his fervant, and ftrengthened me with might by his Spirit in the inner man, to carry me above the fear of fufferings and death: And he was mouth and wifdom to me, to enable me to fpeak boldly for him in the face of his and my most powerful adversaries, that, by my apology at Ce/ar's bar, the tenor of my preaching the gofpel might be thoroughly laid open to the whole court; and it might be thereby evident to all around me, that it has no ill tendency for difturbing the civil government; and that my having preached it with fo great fuccefs was not by human aid, but by the power of God, as divinely affifting me, and giving the increase; (I Cor. iii. 6, 7.) and particularly, that all the Gentiles, then prefent, might have an opportunity of hearing the glad tidings of falvation by Jefus Chrift, as fent unto them: And I was, at that time, as wonderfully preferved from imminent danger, as if I had been fnatched out of the mouth of a lion; (fee P/al. xxii. 21.) and was delivered from the rage and cruelty of Nero and his agents, who, like a roaring lion, under the influence of their father the devil, fought to devour and de-(John viii. 44. and I Pet. v. 8.) itroy me.

18 And I am abundantly encouraged by his word, and the great experience I have had of his love and care thus far, to truft with an entire confidence in his power, faithfulnefs, and grace, that he will keep me from doing any thing unworthy the Christian, or the minifler, to fave my life, or to get rid of the hot-

TIMOTHY paraphrafed.

glory for ever and ever. Amen.

19 Salute Prifca, and Aquila, and the houthold of Onetiphorus.

20 Eraftus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus have I left at Miletum fick.

21 Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eugreeteth bulus thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

teft perfecutions and terrors of mine enemies *; and that, whatever befalls me in my bonds, and in the iffues of them, as to this world, he will do what is beft for me, and will effectually fecure me from apoltacy. and from doing any iniquitous thing to his difficient, and will enable me to perfevere with faith and patience, and continue faithful to the death, till he shall receive me to live with him in the immortal dignity, grandeur, and delights of his heavenly kingdom : To whom I chearfully afcribe all poflible honour and glory for what he is in himicif, and has been, and will be to me; To him it juilly belongs, and ought to be paid henceforth and for ever more, Amen. So let it be; and fo I am confident it will be.

19 To draw towards a conclution, I, as an aged dying friend and apottle, fend all religious talutations to the eminently godly and benevolent Prijcilla and Aquila, who are an honour to the Christian character, in the conjugal relation of wife and hufband. (See the notes on Acts xviii. 26. and Rom. xvi. 3.) I also fend the fame to the pious family of Onefiphorus, who I know is abient from home; and therefore does not fend in like manner to him. (See the note on chap. i. 16.)

20 Nor do I to Eraflus, the chamberlain of the city, (fee the note on Rom. xvi. 33.) who I alfo know is not in your parts, but tarried at Corinth : Nor is Trophimus with you, whom I left fick at Melitus in Crete, when I came from thence; and though I was heartily concerned for him, I had no fuggeftion, or power communicated to me, to work a miracle in healing him. (See the note on Philip. ii. 27.) Such is my affection to all thefe abfent perfons, that, were they near you, I fhould defire you to falute them alio in my name.

21 As no time is to be loft, and travelling will be incommodious at inclement feafons, I earneftly entreat you to try your utmost to get to me before the winter comes on. Our Christian friend and brother Eubulus iends his affectionate respects to you, as alfo do Pudens and Linus and Claudia, and indeed all our brethren in Chrift, that are in these parts, and know of my writing to you.

22 My

Digitized by Google

* The apofile cannot be fuppoled here was confident that the Lord would deli-to mean, that the Lord would deliver him from doing any finful, unbecoming ing a martyr, that the time of his de- fufferings for Christ. parture was at hand: (ver. 6.) But he

N т E. 0

him from fufferings unto death, becaufe thing, contrary to faith and a good conhe had faid, with an affurance of his dy- fcience, to preferve his life, or elcape

Chap. iv.

22 The Lord Jefus Chrift be with thy fpirit. Grace be with you. Amen. 22 My own heart's defire for you is, that our Lord and Saviour Jefus Chrift may be ever with your fpirit, to guide, tupport, ftrengthen, comfort, and fanctify you. And my benediction to all the faints, together with you, is, May his tree love or favour, and a fweet fenfe of it in all its precious fruits and effects, continually abound towards all and everyone of you. (vuov) In tettimony of my defire and hope of this, I fay, Amen.

RECOLLECTIONS.

What need have ministers and others to be excited to their duty, in ferious reflections on that awful day, when Chrift will come in all the majefty and glory of his kingdom to judge the whole world, quick and dead, who mult then give an account of themfelves, and of all that they have done in the body to him ! Great are the difficulties of fulniling the ministerial charge, in which Christ's fervants are called to watch, and endure hardthips; to preach the pure word of God in the whole compais of it, on all proper occasion, for the great purpoles of initruction, rebuke, comfort, and exhortation, with all long-fuffering and patience, under the neglect of friends, and oppofition of enemies. But, bieffed be God, the encouragements of those, that defire to be faithful, are exceeding great. Though all men fhould forfake them, the Lord (efus himtelt will stand by them; will affist and own them in their work; will appear for them in their tribulations; will keep them from choosing fin, rather than inflerings; will ordinarily give them delightful reflections, at the close of life, on the grace that has enabled them to tight the good fight of faith; and will preferve them to his heavenly kingdom, and crown them, as conquerors, at the end of their race and warfare, by an act of righteouineis on his own account, and of faithfulnels to his word, as well as of mercy to them, at the great day. But, alas! How many are there, who fit under the ministry of the goipel, that cannot bear, but are iwayed by the pride, corruption, and vanity of their own minds, to renounce the truth and holinefs of found doctrine, and to follow every novelty and new preacher, that pleafe the fancy, inftead of profiting their fouls! How many others are there, that one would hope to be good people, who, like Demas and other professors, are too much in love with life and the concerns of it, and fo weak in faith, and fo much under the power of temptation, as to be afraid and ashamed to appear openly for Christ, and for his most eminent fervants, in times of danger ! The good Lord pardon all fuch, and recover them to a better and more courageous Spirit ! But as to those apparently malicious, obitinate, and incorrigible enemies to Chrift, and to ourielves for his fake, there is little or no room to hope, but that he will reward them according to the due defert of their wicked works: In the mean while we ought to be upon our guard against them, left we be injured by them in our religious principles, manners, and views. But O happy fouls! that fincerely and affectionately love Chrift, and rejoice in the thoughts of his one day appearing, like himfelf, in all his glory, and that teftify their love to him in doing all they can to promote his cause. They, as well as his ministring fervants, shall receive the crown of life in the day of Judgment. With what cordial affection then flould they greet one another, as Chriftian-brethren ! And how earneftly with and pray, that the Lord may be with their Spirits; and that his grace, which is fufficient for them, may be manifested to and in them, and perform all things for them ! In like returns of brotherly love, Let every one lay, Amen.

Digitized by Google

'n

i.

è

jų.

٩ç

ż

Ľ(

1

2

ł,

2

ł,

Ô

e U

è

A PRACTICAL

EXPOSITION

OF THE

EPISTLE OF THE APOSTLE PAUL

ТО

TITUS,

IN THE FORM OF A

PARAPHRASE.

THE PREFACE TO THE EPISTLE TO TITUS.

THIS Epiftle to Titus is most generally thought to have been, wrote after the first, and before the fecond to Timothy; though they (being wrote to the fame perfon) are put together in the collection of the facred canon. They were formed for the direction of Timothy, and this of Titus, as Evangelis, that were assistant to the apostle, and watered the churches which he had planted; and therefore the tenor and thyle (as was to be expected) are much alike in this and thole, especially the first of them, which cast a good deal of light upon one another; and are worthy the ferious attention of all the ministers of the gospel, and New Testament churches of every age, for whose use they were ultimately designed, as far as there might be any thing common, or fimilar, in their respective circumstances.

Titus was an early Gentile convert, (Gal. ii. 3.) probably under the apoftle Paul's miniftry, who, in language like that to Timothy, calls him bis own fon in the common faith: (chap. i. 4.) And having for a confiderable time tried, and found him to be diligent and faithful in the improvement of the fpiritual gifts that were communicated to him, in all likelihood by the imposition of the apoftles own hands, he at length advanced him from the state of a private Chrissian, or ordinary minister, to the high rank of an Evangelist; and left the care of the churches to him at Crete, that had been planted in feveral of its towns, or cities, by the apostle himfelf.

The particular time of the conversion of the Cretians, and of the apostle's leaving Titus with them, which is referred to, chap. i. 5. and in what particular year of our Lord, as allo from whence, and by what meffenger, this epistle was fent, is variously disputed by the learned. with great uncertainty; and. as far as I fee, to little profit: But it appears from chap. i. 5. and iii. 12. to be path dispute, that it was wrote by the apostle Paul to Titus, while he was at liberty, and Titus

230 The PREFACE to the Epiftle to TITUS.

Titus was doing the work of an evangelift at Crete, which is all that is neceffary for establishing our belief of its divine authority.

Crete, which is now called Candia, from the name of its principal city, and is under the dominion of the Turks, is one of the fineft iflands for fize, air, and foil, in the Mediterranean; but its ancient' natives were infamous to a proverb for lying; and were much addiffed to feveral other vices, according to the account that Epimenides, one of their own celebrated poets, gave of them, which the apossible recites, and calls a true one, chap. i. 12. And as there were very active judaizing Chriffians among the converts of this ifland, it is not much to be wondered at, that a people of fo bad a conflict ional temper, and fo lately brought to the faith of Chrift, were in danger of being enfnared by their artful infinuations: And as too many of them had been perverted by their means, and adverfaries to the pure gofpel were flill very buly among them, the apoftle fent this Epiftle to furnish Titus with fome farther directions how to behave in that critical fituation, than he had given while he was with him, and before any thing of that kind had appeared among them.

After the introduction, in which he attefts his own apoftolic authority, to give a divine fanction to what he wrote, rather for obviating objections to Titus's acting according to it, than for his own fatisfaction, who could have no doubt about it; he reminds him, that the chief defign of his leaving him at Crete was to carry on the begun work of God, and ordain faithful and able paftors of the churches there, whole qualifications he defcribes much in the fame manner as in 1 Tim. iii. 2,-7. and whole affiftance would be needful to confute the judaizing deceivers, that were labouring to corrupt the faith and holinefs of the gofpel, chap. i. Then, in opposition to those flicklers for ceremonial rites, he advises Titus to preach with fuch authority in the name of Chrift, as fhould raife him above contempt; and to recommend, by his own example, fuch a religious and moral behaviour of younger and older believers of both fexes, as, fuitable to their refpective ages, might be becoming found doctrine, and perfons professing godliness: And, in opposition to those, that would cancel the obligation of Christian fervants to their unbelieving mafters, he bids him exhort them to behave with goodhumour and faithfulnefs, in fulfilling the duties of their relation to them, for the credit of the gofpel, which teaches all holinefs in every flation of life, and encourages the practice of it by the joyful hopes of perfect happiness at Christ's glorious appearing; and shews that the very end of his redemption was to purify to himfelf a peculiar people zealous of good works, chap. ii. And, in opposition to those that were for paying no regard to heathen magistrates, he recommends it to Titus, to remind all forts of profeffing Christians of their obligations to be obedient to their civil governors; to be ready to every good work; to be inoffenfive and courteous toward people of all ranks and characters; and enforces this from confiderations of what they themselves were in their natural state, and of the happy change that was made upon them, by the regenerating grace of the Holy Spirit, and their juffification to eternal life. These Tilus was to infift upon, as the most powerful and evangelical motives to believers to act up to character, in practiting every thing that is good in itfelf, and ufeful to others; and was to avoid the empty, vain-jangling disputes of judaizers, and to reject felf-condemned heretics, after a first and second admonition. Having now finished the main body of his Epistle, he adds an order for Titus to come to him at Nicopolis, where he proposed to spend the winter; and to provide all proper accommodations for Zenas and Apollos, whom he was to take in his way to him : And concludes with a general exhortation to all the professions of Christ's name, to attend to the duties of their places; with falutations to Titus, and to their Christian . friends, and with his apostolic benediction to them all. Chap. iii.

С H A P. T.

The apostle afferts bis character, falutes Titus, and reminds him of the work, for which he had left him at Crete, 1,-... Draws out the qualifications of a faithful pastor, 6,-9. And deteribes the evil temper and practices of judaizing falle teachers, that ought to be confuted, 10,-16.

TEXT.

Chap. i.

AUL a fervant of God, and an apoftle of Jefus Chrift, to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth, which is after godlineis;

2 In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promited before the world began;

Vol. V.

PARAPHRASE.

DAUL the infpired writer of this Epiftle, is, and counts it his honour, us a Christian and a miaccording nifter, to be the devoted fervant of the ever-bleffed God, under the strictest and most inviolable bonds to him; and, though utterly unworthy in himfelf, he is ftill more highly dignified with the title and commilfion, qualifications, and powers of an extraordinary meffenger, fent and initructed immediately by Jefus Chrift, to bear witness to him, and preach his gospel of falvation, in all its extent, to Jews and Gentues, according to the doctrine of faith, which is embraced by, and is the means of working effectual faith in God's own people, whom he originally made fo, by his fpecial, diffinguithing, and eternal choice; (Ephel. i. 4.) and according to their knowledge, approbation, and confession of its infallible truth, which is suited, defigned, and made effectual unto them, for promoting the principles and practice of real godlinefs in heart and life, as confifting of a fincere and devout performance of all religious duties, with a holy revcrence, fear, and adoration of, truth in, and unreferved obedience to God, through Jefus Chrift,

2 This truth is believed and profeffed, with a correfpondent practice of godlinefs, by them, in the exercife of a lively hope of an incorruptible and undefiled inheritance of eternal life, to which God, according to his abundant mercy has begotten them; (I Pet. i. 3, 4.) and which he, who cannot possibly be falle Hh.

Digitized by GOOGLE

Chap. i.

1

÷t

1 aj,

ì

or deceiving, but may as foon cease to be God, as cease to be true and faithful, has promised to Chrift their Head for them, and to them, as federally comprehended in him, before the earlieft date of time, even from all eternity, before any dispensations of grace commenced; and has given a specimen of, in the first promise after the fall, (Gen. iii. 15.) before any of the Jewish ages began. (See the note on 2 Tim. i. 9.)

3 But which in the fulnefs of time, according to his eternal purpofe, he has now clearly made known by the publication of his gofpel, which is revealed, and committed, as a truft, in a fpecial manner to me, his fervant and apoftle, (ver. 1.) to diffenfe it to the Gentiles, as well as Jews, according to the exprefs appointment and command of our Lord Jefus Chrift, (ACIs xxii. 17,-21. and xxvi. 15,-18.) who is indeed God our Saviour, as by his incarnation he became Emanuel, God with us, and gave himfelf for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity. (Chap. ii. 13, 14. fee the note there.)

4 I, who am thus divinely infpired, and commiffioned, fend this epifile to you, my beloved Titus, who are as dear to me as any child can be to his own father, and are indeed in a fpiritual fenfe my genuine fon, as 1 was the inftrument of begetting you to Chrift, and bringing you both to the doctrine and grace of faith in him, which is common to Jews and Gentiles, and to you and me; I heartily wifh and pray, that the divine favour, tender compafion, and all manner of bleffings for time and eternity, as included in the comprehensive term peace, may abound toward you from God the Father, as the fountain of all good, and from our Lord Jefus Chrift, as the revealer, purchafer, and giver of it, who, in the execution of his office, is emphatically our Saviour.

5 Now, to remind you of the end for which I told you I left you at Crete, when I last came from thence, you know it was, that you might carry on the good work begun there, and fet to rights fuch things as are defective, or remain unfinished, with regard to doctrine, worship, discipline, and manners, in the churches which are planted in that island; and particularly that, in order hereunto, you, as an Evangelift and my deputy, might prefide in folemnly fetting apart, and conftituting bishops or pastors, (ver. 7. fee the notes on Acts xx. 28. and 1 Pet. v. 2.) that should be chosen by common suffrage to refide ftatedly among, and take the overfight of the feveral churches in every town, or city, where they are feated; and to feed them with knowledge and understanding,

3 But hath in due times manifefted his word through preaching, which is committed unto me, according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

4 To Titus mine own fon after the common faith: grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and the Lord Jefus Chrift our Saviour.

5 For this caufe left I thee in Crete, that thou fhouldeft fet in order the things that are wanning, and ordain elders in eve, ry city, as I had appointed thee.

23

6 If any be band of one wife, having faithful children, not acunruly.

7 For a bilhop muft be blamelefs, as the fleward of God ; not felf-will-éd, not foon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy

lucre :

derstanding, (Jer. iii. 15.) according to the orders I gave, and in the manner I prefcribed to you, before I took my leave of you.

6 As to the qualifications of a perfon that is fit blameles, the hul-' and worthy to be invested with that office, He ought to be one of an unfpotted reputation in his moral character, among his Christian acquaintance, and all acufed of riot, or round him; (I Tim. iii. 27.) one that is clear from the fin of polygamy, as never being married to more than one wife at a time; and of caufeles divorces, according to the corrupt cultom of the Jew : (fee the note I Tim. iii. 2.) And, if he have children, fee that he be one who brings them up in the nurture and admonstion of the Lord, and manages them with fuch prudence and authority, as, by the bleffing of God, may be the means of winning them over to the faith of Chrift, and to a faithful profession of his name, and difcharge of all the duties of their civil and religious relations; and who never fuffers any of his children to behave at fuch a rate, as shall fix upon them a brand of luxurious and diffolute, or of refractory, ungovernable, and disobedient youths, (aronorazza) in their temper and manners, to the difgrace, not only of themselves, but of their fathers, and the gofpel.

> 7 For the nature of a paftor's or Christian bishop's office, the honour of religion, and the good of others, as well as of his own foul, require, that he be under no reproach or fcandal in his life and converfation, or on account of any neglect or unfaithfulnefs in the discharge of his truft, as a steward of the mysteries of God, to difpenfe them impartially and without referve, that every one of Christ's family, under his ministerial infpection, may have his portion in due feason; and he ought not to be of a head-ftrong, conceited, obstinate, inflexible temper; nor one of a hafty fpirit; that takes fire at every little provocation, and prefently falls into a paffion; nor one that loves, and is addicted to immoderate drinking of ftrong liquors; nor contentious and violent in his behaviour, ready to fall foul upon them that difpleafe him; nor one of a niggardly, fordid, covetous spirit, that is for getting all he can, and for keeping all he gets of the defiling pelf of this world; and, like a mercenary hireling, values the fleece more than the flock, and would take no pains in his work, were it not for a prospect of secular gain to himself.

-8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, foholy, her, juft, temperate;

8 But he ought to be a man of a liberal foul, that devifes liberal things, and, according to his ability, takes pleafure, on all proper occasions, in acts of benevolence to religious strangers, as well as neighbours Hh 2 and

Digitized by GOOGLE

Chap. i.

and acquaintance, efpecially to ministers and Chriftians, that either go about to preach the gospel, or are driven from house and home, by the violence of perfecutions. He ought to be a lover and encourager of good things, and to have a cordial affection to all sincere, honess, good, and pious men without exception; and to be himself modelt and humble, grave and prudent, in his carriage; upright and faithful in all that he fays and does; exemplarily holy in all manner of conversation and godliness; chaste and moderate in his defires, appetites, and pursuits of the pleasures of this life.

9 He likewife ought to be one that is well eftablifhed in the great truths of the gofpel, that holds them fast in his own faith and profession of them, and holds them forth in his ministry, and is steady in maintaining them, as the true and faithful fayings of God, which are to be believed and adhered to, just according to what he has been taught, and has learned from infpired writers, of the faith which was once delivered to the faints, (Jude, ver. 3.) that he may be capable of explaining, fupporting, and defending the the pure, uncorrupted, wholefome doctrine of Chrift; and, by a due and proper application of it, ($\pi \alpha e \alpha$ xalur) to administer comfort to believers, and excite them to their duty; and to confute the errors of all oppofers, filence their cavils, and rebuke their perverfenefs.

10 For, as in feveral other places, fo, I underfland, among the profeffors at Crete, there are abundance of pretenders to Christianity, that are (annorance) refractory and diforderly, not fubmitting to any divine rule, in doctrine or manners; and they are most pernicious, proud, felf-conceited difputers, with vain jangling about empty things, to no good purpole; and crafty, fly feducers of the minds of the fimple; I in a fpecial manner have my eye upon the fewi/b party among them, that make a profession of Christ, and yet contend for circumcifion, and other rites of the law of Mo/er, as neceffary to falvation.

11 For oppofing fuch as thefe, It is highly neceffary that pattors or Chriftian bifhops be able ministers of the New Testament; and all possible fair means, by foriptural proofs, folid arguments, and good example, ought to be used for confuting and filencing those vain boasters, and deceitful workers, who are so indefatigable, fubtle, and specious in their pretences, as to infinuate themfelves into Christian families, (2 Tim. iii. 6.) and carry them off, as it were by wholesfale, from the pure doctrines of the gospel to Moles; urging things unreasonably upon them, that are utterly false.

9 Holding faft the faithful word, as he hatn been taught, that he may be able, by found doctrine, both to exhort and to convince the gaintayers.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, efpecially they of the circumcilion:

tt Whofe mouths muft be ftopped, who fubvert whole houies, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's fake.

Digitized by Google

¥

TITUS paraphrafed.

falfe, and absolutely inconfistent with the true way of falvation by Chrift alone; which they do for the lake of heaping to themfelves the fordid, defiling treatures of this world, by methods that are fuited to impose upon fuch an infamous fort of people as the Cretians, * and that are agreeable to their own character, as fuch.

12 For one of their own countrymen, a celebrated Greek poet, which fprung from among themtelves, and thoroughly knew their national temper, even Epimenides by name, whom they effect as a prophet, and who, as a poei, is customarily called a prophet; He lays, in a defeription of the natives of Crete, that they are naturally a fet of fcandalous people, ever addicted to falfhood and lying; fly and favage in their temper, like wild bealts ; perfect gluttons in indulging their ravenous appetites, and, as is common for perfons of fuch a luxurious turn, exceeding lazy, and backward to every useful employment, and to exposed to all forts of temptations.

13, 14 And truly this is a just testimony against them, as has been proved in numberlefs inflances, and too plainly appears by the perfidious, mifchievous, and fenfual management of the judaizing Christians, and of those that fall in with them at this very day: It behoves you therefore to deal plainly and fmartly with a people of fuch a vile and brutish temper, with whom mildnefs will not do; but who must be cut to the quick, in laying before them their fin and danger, with due feverity, that neither the deceivers, nor the deceived, may dare any longer to perfift in their evil principles and practices; but may be recovered to a right mind, and fettled in the true and uncorrupted doctrines of faith; and may be fo entirely brought over to them, as never more to liften after, attend to, or b-lieve and be carried away with, the fallacious ftories that the Jews tell of their traditions, and with the imperious injunctions of men, that are prejudifed against, and gone off from the truth of the gospel, and infift on an obfervation of ceremonial rites, fuch as relate, among others, to meats and drinks, and perfons and things, that were clean or unclean, according to the diffinctions of the Levitical law; but are no longer obligatory under the New Teftament-difpenfation.

E.

15 Unto

N от vers themfelves were Gretians, the apoftle terials, prepared ready to their hands, with good reason seems to suggest, that for them to work upon, as appears from they act like themfelves in all their felf- the following account of them. feeking and delusive arts, and that the

* If, as is very probable, these decei- people they had to do with, were fit ma-

12 One of themfelves, even a prophet of their own, faid, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beatts, flow bellies.

13 This witness is true; wherefore rebuke them fharply, that they may , be found in the faith;

14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and comof mandments men, that turn from the truth.

CALL STATE AND ADDRESS OF ADDRESS

15 Unto the pure; but unto them that are defiled, and unbelieving, is nothing pure; but even their mind and confcience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God ; but in works they deny him, beabominable, ing ditobedient, and unto every and good work reprobate.

Chap. i.

15 Unto real Chriftians, whole hearts are purified pure all things are by faith, and confciences purged by the blood of Chrift, all things that God hath not forbidden under the gofpel-ftate may be lawfully efteemed clean, and may be touched and eat, without the leaft moral defilement ; and they have a fanctified ufe of them : But unto those, that are unregenerated, and under the power of fin, and of unbelief with respect to gospeltruths, and that adhere to Mofaical inftitutions, inftead of cleaving to Chrift alone; Unto fuch, whatever their pretences be to Christianity, nothing, no, not things. that are most lawful and good in themselves, can be clean and pure; nor can they use them without fin and defilement; the reafon of which is, becaufe even their understandings and conficences themfelves, those leading and directive powers of the foul, are fadly mifguided and corrupted.

16 They indeed make high professions, and boast of their knowledge of the true God, and of the revelation of his mind and will, as though they herein excelled all others: (Rom. ii. 17,-20.) But their practices are a direct contradiction to, and confutation of all fuch pretences; They, in effect, deny by their deeds, what they affirm in words, being, in reality most detestable enemies to God and godlines; and, giving no credit to the gospel revelation, they are difobedient to his authority in it, and utterly injudicious, and unapt for the performance of any good work; and fo are highly difapproved of God, and reprobate filver shall men call them; because the Lord bath rejected them. (Jer. vi. 30. fee the note on 2 Cor. xiii. 5.)

RECOLLECTIONS.

With what readine's of mind, and fenfe of duty, fhould ministers and private Christians, in their respective places, pay a conscientious regard to the inspired directions of the great apostle of the Gentiles, whose authority is divine, and whose benevolent withes were for grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and our Lord Jefus Chrift ! How much foever others may defpile, or corrupt the golpel, God's elect will embrace and own it, as calculated, and rendered effectual in them, for promoting the practice of godlines: And when they experience its holy effects upon themfelves, what a support is it to their hope of everlasting life, which the unchangeably faithful and true God promifed to Chrift for them, and to them in him, before all worlds; and has now made known with the clearest evidence, in the gospel-revelation, and by the ministry of it ! With what cautious care, and attention to due qualifications, should they proceed, who are engaged in fetting perfons apart to the paftoral office in the churches of Chrift, according to apostolical appointment ! And how concerned should such pastors themselves be, that their moral characters be clear; that, if they are married, it be but to one wife at a time; and that the children, which God may give them, be orderly, and trained up in the faith of Chrift, and not chargeable with riots, or refractory disobedience; that they themselves be neither humoursomely obstinate, nor paffionate, nor litigious, nor tipplers, nor covetous; but generous and hospitable; lovers of all good men, and of every good thing; grave and prudent, just and righ-teous toward men, holy and religious toward God, chaste and temperate in all things;

TITUS paraphrased.

things; and that they hold fast the true doctrine of Christ in their faith, profession, and preaching, just as they received it from him and his apostles; and be such maiters of it, as to be able to maintain and defend it against all opposition, and to apply it for duty and comfort, like good ftewards of the houshold of faith ! With what diligence fhould they endeavour, not by force, but by fcripture and reafon, to filence obstinate, self-conceited vain boasters and deceivers, that turn away from the truth, and pervert multitudes by their falle notions, to enrich themselves with fordid and defiling gains! And with what just feverity (when milder methods fail) should they reprove fuch profeffors, as, like the Cretians, are perfidious, brutish, lazurious, and idle, that they may be brought to reject all fabulous traditions, and impolitions of men upon confcience, and may be found in the faith ! Ah ! How wretched is the cafe of formalifts in religion, who are neither cleanfed from their fins, nos have true faith in Christ; whole evil practices contradict their verbal professions, and proud boasts of superior knowledge of God, and of his mind and will ! They, at the fame time, are odious in his fight, as their minds and confciences are defiled, and as they neither believe nor obey the gospel-revelation, and are utterly void of judgment, and of holy dispositions for any good work. But what a mercy is it to be pure and upright in heart, through the cleaning virtue of the blood and spirit of Jesus! To perfons of the former character every thing is defling; but to those of the latter, all lawful things are fanctified for their use, and may be improved to the glory of God, and the good of their own fouls.

CHAP. II.

The apofile directs Titus to inculcate fuch duties upon younger and older Chriftians, as are becoming found doctrine, and to be exemplary in them bimfelf, 1,—8. To enjoin believing fervants to be obedient to their masters, for the bonour of the doctrine of Christ, which they profess, 9, 10. And to enforce all this from a confideration of the boly defign of the gospel, from the prospect it gives of beavenly glory, and from the end of Christ's death, which equally concern believers of all ranks and stations, and are to be urged upon them with all becoming authority, 11,—15.

BUT fpeak thou the things which become found doctrine:

2 That the aged men be fober, grave, temperate, found in faith, in charity, in patience:

PARAPHRASE.

MANY are the deluding and deluded people of corrupt minds and manners, that furround you, which have been fpoken of; (chap. i. 10,—16.) But, in oppofition to them, let it be your fpecial care to preach and infift upon fuch doctrines and duties as are agreeable to, and put an honour upon the folid, pure, wholefome, and healing gofpel of Chrift, which is a doctrine according to godlinefs, (chap. i. 1. and 1 Tim. vi. 3.) and lays the higheft obligations to holinefs and obedience upon all its profeffors, of what age, fex, or flation foever they be.

2 Put the more elderly Christian brethren in mind, that, fuitable to their age and profession, they ought to be (reφaλiss) very watchful, circumspect, and fedate in their temper and carriage; to behave with a venerable gravity (σεματικς) and due decorum in their drefs, mein, and air, and in all that they fay and do; to be prudent (σωφεωνικς) in their conduct, and temperate temperate in eating and drinking; uncorrupt, as to the doctrines of faith, and fincere in believing them. and hving answerable to them; abounding in love to God, in cordial affection to all the faints for his fake, and in Christian benevolence to people of all nations, ranks, and characters, as fellow-creatures; and to be patient under tribulations and offences, and in fubduing their own peevish passions, and bearing with the infirmities of others *.

Digitized by GOOGLE

Chap. ii.

3 Inculcate alfo upon feligious elderly women, that they ought to be exemplary (is zarasquare) in drefs, and all regular deportment, as becomes such holy profeffors; and to take great heed that they be not, like the devil himfelf, (Siaboxes) falle accufers, flanderers, or backbiters of others, to the injury of their reputation; nor inclined, much less given up, to any excels of drinking wine, or other intoxicating liquors, under pretence of recruiting the ftrength and fpirits of a decaying nature; and that, instead of amuting young people with old wives fables, (I Tim. iv. 7.) they should entertain them with profitable difcourfe, and recommend, by counfel and example, every thing, that is good and laudable, as to fpeech. apparel, and behaviour:

4, 5 Particularly, that they should instruct, and endeavour to influence, younger women to be wife, and cautious of every thing that favours of lewdnefs or lightness; and, if they be married, to carry themfelves in an affectionate and endearing manner toward their husbands, being in heart for them, and for no other man; and, according to the dictates of nature and religion, to be concerned for the happines of . fuch children as God may gracioully give them, and to fhow their love to them, not with a foolifh fondnefs, to the neglect of needful reproof, or corrections for their faults, as there may be occasion, which, in effect, would be hating, inftead of loving them, (Prov. iii 24. and xxiii. 13, 14.) but with a prudent, folid, Chriftian-like tendernefs and kindnefs, to encourage them in every thing that is good, and to do all that in them lies for their temporal, fpiritual, and eternal welfare : As also to manage every thing with diferention; to be modeft and virtuous with all purity of manners; to he careful and industrious housewives, not gadding about like idle bufy-bodies, (I Tim. v. 13.)

NOTE.

and women and not private Christians, described in the preceding chapter.

* Some have thought that aged men are mentioned by way diffinction from and women, in this and the next verse, them, ver. 4. 5, 6. the context deterare meant of church officers, fuch as el- mines the reference to elderly perfons, as ders and deaconeffes: But as young men fuperiors; and elders in office had been

3 The aged women likewife, that they be in behaviour as becometh holinefs, not falfe accufers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things:

That they may teach the young women to be fober, to love their hufbands, to love their children, g To be difcreet, chafte, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own hufbands, that the word of God be not blafphemed.

TITUS paraphrased.

13.) but keeping as much as may be at home, and minding the affairs of their families; to be meek and good tempered toward their fervants, and all they have to do with; and to pay due refpect and obedience, in all lawful things, to their hufbands, that they may never give the leaft occafion for any to fpeak reproachfully of the word or ways of God, as though thefe encouraged any diforderly practice.

6 In like manner, advife and excite young men, profeffing Christianity, to be confiderate, chalte, meek, and fober; and to maintain a due government of their temper and passions, which are apt to be too warm and impetuous, rash, proud, wilful, and frolicksome, at their blooming age.

7, 8 And if you would have these things believed and practifed by others, Be especially careful to draw them out to the life, and recommend them in your own behaviour, by being yourfelf an exact pattern of every thing that is good and excellent in itfelf, and beneficial to men : And, in all your preaching, deliver nothing but the pure, unmixed doctrine of Chrift, with difinterefted fingle aims at the glory of God and the good of fouls; with becoming ferioufnefs and venerable gravity; and with all fimplicity and godly fincerity; and in fuch feriptural, eafy, and fignificant language, as is fuited to convey your ideas in a plain, determinate meaning, according to the truth of the gofpel; and as fhall neither millead your hearers, nor be justly objected to, either for its ambiguity, obfcurity, or falfhood; that fo your most critical, carping, and cavilling enemies may even blufh and be confounded, as finding that there is no room for the reproaches, and invidious charges of error in doctrine, or mildemeanor in practice, which they were endeavouring to fasten upon you, and your followers.

9 And whereas there are fome judaizers, who would perfuade fuch converted flaves, as are the property of heathen mafters, that it is not lawful for them to continue in their fervice, You ought to guard against fuch an encroachment on civil rights; and prefs upon all believing fervants, whether flaves or others, the duty of continuing, as much as ever, and upon better principles than ever before, to be obedient in all lawful things to their carthly mafters, not only to the good and gentle, but alfo to the froward; (I Pet. ii. 18.) and to endeavour to behave in fuch a courteous, obliging, and diligest manner, as shall win their favour, and give them a great deal of pleafure in feeing all their just and reasonable commands executed : And exhort fervants to be fo well fatisfied with their flation, and the duties of it, as chearfully Ιi to 6 Young men likewife exhort to be fober-minded.

7 In all things fhewing thy(elf a pattern of good works; in doctrine fhewing uncorruptne(s, gravity, fincerity,

8 Sound (peech that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part, may be afhamed, having no evil thing to fay of you.

9 Exhort fervants to be obedient anto their own mafters, and to pleafe them well in all things; not anfwering again.

to Not purloining, but fhewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

ti For the grace of God that bringeth falvation, hath appeared to all men:

12 Teaching us, that denying ungodlinefs, and worldly lufts, we fhould live foberly, righteoufly, and godly in this pretent world;

to attend to them, without murmuring, or difputing against them, or returning rude and faucy answers, when they are ordered to do any thing they do not like, or are reproved for their faults.

10 And charge them to be firictly just and honeft ; (fee Eph. vi. 5, 6. and Col. iii. 22, 23.) never daring to wafte, embezzle, or fecret to their own ufe, any of their mafter's goods, money, or provisions, bevond his allowance of what is fit and needful for them: but always to be approving themfelves, as good and faithful fervants, that punctually obey his orders, and do the best they can for his honour and advantage, like perfons that make his interest their own; (wa) to the end that they may be a credit to the gofpel, and to their holy profession of it, and may thereby firike conviction upon the confciences of their infidel mafters themfelves, as well as others, of the excellency, purity, and power of the doctrine of the bleffed God. even our Saviour Jesus Chrift, (ver. 13. see the note there) with regard to all civil and moral, as well as religious duties, in every relation of life.

11 For the golpel of the grace of God, particularly under the New Teffament-difpenfation of it, (Ephef. iii. 2.) which is the effect of his free favour, and reveals it to us; and is the means of working grace in our hearts, as it brings glad tidings of deliverance from fin and wrath, and of eternal happinefs through Jefus Chrift, and fhows the way of obtaining this great falvation by faith in him, has now fhone forth in all its light and glory, $(i\pi v \varphi arn)$ like the rifing fun, upon all nations, to whom he ordered it to be preached, (Mat. xxviii. 19. and Mark xvi. 15.) and upon all forts of the finful fons and daughters of men, whether Jews or beathens, young or old, mafters or fervants. (ver. 2,-9.)

12 And its great and holy tendency and defign, together with its effectual working in those of us who believe, is to teach and oblige us, whatever our civil fations be, that, renouncing, abhorring and utterly forfaking all infidelity, idolatry, and impiety of every kind, contrary to the first table of the moral law: and all irregular inclinations and defires, contrary to the fecond table, which confift in the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eye, and the pride of life, (I John ii. 16.) and which worldly minded men indulge and gratify, and place their happiness in; that, abandoning and deteiting all thefe, we should be wifely careful to lead a life of purity and fanctity, in a due government of our paffions and appetites; in a juft, honeft, equitable and benevolent behaviour toward men, doing by them as we would be done by; (Luke vi. 31.)

13 Looking for that bleffed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and

our Saviour Jeius

Chrift:

31.) and in all acts of public and private worship and devotion toward God, according to his word, in the exercise of every grace, and celebration of all his ordinances, and observation of all his commandments, as long as we continue in this prefent world of fin, temptation, and fnares.

13 And it teaches, encourages, and animates us to do all this, by the most constraining motives, as perfons who look with an eye of faith, and wait with earnest expectation and longing defire, and yet with fubmiffive patience, for the perfect, all-comprehending, and everlafting felicity of the heavenly state, in the immediate presence of Christ, which is the great object of our joyful hope; and for the illustrious appearing of the great and mighty God, (1/a. ix. 6.) * even our dear Lord, Redeemer, and Saviour Jefus Chrift, who, at his fecond coming without fin to falvation, (Heb. ix. 28.) will appear on his throne of judgment, like himfelf, in all the majefty, beauty, grandeur, and brightness of his divine and mediatorial glory, and in the glory of his Father, and of all his holy furrounding angels; (Matth. xvi. 27. and xxv. 31. and Mark viii. 38.) and will come to be glorified in bis faints, and admired in all them that believe. (2 Thef. i. 10.)

14 And what may we not look and hope for from him, who loved us, at fo high, matchlefs, and aftonishing a rate, as freely to devote and give up his own great felf, foul and body, to the most painful and ignominious death of the crofs? This he willingly fuffered for our fakes, and in our room and stead, (1 Pet. iii. 18.) that he might effectually redeem us by his blood from the power and tyranny, as well as from the guilt and punifhment, of all our fins, and at length from the in-being of them ; and might fancti-fus Chrift, is meant by God our Saviour, that they both belong to the fame fubver. 10. he being, most strictly speak- ject; (see the note on Epb. i. 1.) and ing, the Saviour, and most frequently in all the New Testament the Father is fyled in the New Testament our Savi- never faid to appear : But we often our, and very often God; and may be read of the appearing of our Lord Jefus confidered, as there diffinguished from Chrift to judgment, which is represent-God the Father, whole golpel of grace ed, as what will be exceeding gloriis faid to have appeared to all men in ous; and he is spoken of, by way of emthe next verse : However, I am well phasis, as our hope, and the hope of glofatisfied, that he is meant here by the ry. (Col. i. 27. and 2 Tim. i. 1.) And great God, and, or as I think it might though Chrift will come in his Father's be better rendered, even our Saviour as well as his own glory; yet it is not Jefus Chrift; becaufe the article in the the perfon of the Father, but of the Son, Greek is prefixed to the great God, and that will then come, and make his ap-not repeated before our Saviour Jefus pearance, Col. iii. 4. and I Pet. v: 4. the last title is usually, though not al- man, pag. 58, 59.)

NOT

* It feems to me, that our Lord Je- ways, exegetical of the first, to intimate Chrift, in which polition of the article (See my discourse on Jefus Chrift Gad- .

Digitized by Google

14 Who gave himfelf for us, that he might redcem us from all iniqui."

ty, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

CHAP.

Digitized by Google

fy, cleanfe, and feparate us to himfelf for facred ufe, and for his glory, as his fpecial, precious, and peculiar property, by his Father's gift, his own purchafe, and our own free and full content in the day of his power, that we might be zealoufly affected towards him and his caufe, and fervent in fpirit to ferve him in the performance of every work, which in its own nature, or by his appointment, and in his account, is good and honourable, as being done upon good principles to good ends, and in a right manner, according to the good rule laid down in his word.

15 Thele things. 15 These are things of fo valt importance, and are ipeak and exhort, fo vehemently opposed, or corrupted by the enemies of Chrift and his golpel, that you ought to be very all authority. Let man defpile earneft in preaching and inculcating them, and in fharply reproving the men and their errors and vices, that fet themfelves against them; and you should do this with all the authority that Chrift has given you in the execution of your office. All this ought to be managed with fuch prudence, faithfulnefs, and gravity, as shall raife you, and your office, above the contempt of your most fcornful and haughty enemies.

RECOLLECTIONS.

How carefully should ministers adhere to, preach, and apply the pure doctrine of the golpel, and the duties that are answerable to it, for exhortation, confolation, and reproof, as there may be occasion; and do this with fuch gravity, fincerity, faithfulnefs, and authority in the name of Chrift, and with fuch plain fcriptural language, and exemplary behaviour in their own lives, as shall raife them above contempt, and make their enemies assumed of their endeavours to reproach them ! The duties, as well as doctrines of Christianity, are to be taught and urged, not only in a general way, but with particular application, as occasions require, to believers of all circumstances and conditions; to aged men and women, that they may be grave, ferious, temperate in all things, found in the faith, inftructive and exemplary in every grace, as becomes perfons of their ftanding in years, and in their holy profession; to younger people of both fexes, that they may be prudent, chafte, and temperate, and may be wife and affectionate in difcharging the duties of their respective relations; and to fervants of all ranks, that they may fludy to please their earthly masters of every character; and may be obedient to their just commands, faithful, industrious, and strictly honest, in managing all their affairs, and not pert and arrogant in giving word for word: Such behaviour reflects an honour upon their Christian profession, and the gospel of the grace of God. And O what a bleffed gofpel is this! It teaches, and obliges the profeffors of it, to abandon all irreligion and profaneness, and all inordinate inclinations to the pleafures and honours of this world; and to live in the practice of all fobriety, honefty, and piety; and it encourages them to look and hope for the heavenly happiness: which shall be brought to every true believer at the bleffed and glorious appearing of Jefus Chrift, who is the great God and their Saviour; and who gave himfelf to death for them, that he might redeem them from the guilt and dominion, and at length from the remainders of all fin, and might fanctify them for himielf, as a peculiar people, zealoufly devoted to God, and chearfully abounding in all good works to his praife and glory.

and rebuke with iro – thee.

TITUS paraphrafed.

С HAP. III.

The apostle goes on to give orders about obedience to civil magistrates, and a becoming behaviour towards all men, 1, 2. Inforces shem from a confideration of what believers them felves were before conversion, and are made to be, through Jelus Christ, by regenerating and justifying grace, 3,-7. Puts Titus upon urging these things, to the end that goud works may be practifed by believers, and upon avoiding vain and ufele/s diputes, 8, 9. Infifts on his rejecting a heretic, after due admonition, 10, 11. Defires that he would come, and bring Zenas and Apollos with him to Nicopolis, recommends good works for necessary purposes, 12,-14. And concludes, as u/ual, with falutations, and a benediction, 15.

TEXT.

PUT then, in mind to be fubject to principaliry good work.

2 To fpeak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, fhewing all meekneis unto all men.

3 For we ourfelves also were fometimes foolifh, difobedient, deceived.

PARAPHRASE.

A S judaizing zealots endeavour to diffuade Chriftians from owning the authority of heathen goties and powers, to vernors, you ought to guard them against an error, obey magistrates, so contrary to the defign of the gospel, and destructo be ready to eve- tive to the political flate, and to the civil power of rulers over it : Let therefore all the professors of Chrift's name be admonified of their duty, to be peaceably fubmiffive to fupreme and fubordinate governors; (1 Pet. ii. 13, 14.) and to pay a confcientious obedience to all the just laws of civil magistrates, who, whether they be Christians or not, are ordained of God for the good of the community; (Rom. xiii. 1,-4. fee the notes there) and to be chearfully willing to do every lawful thing that they require; as also to perform every duty, that is owing to perfons of all degrees and stations, yea, good works of every kind, relating to God, ourfelves, and others.

2 Caution them likewife against reviling any one, of whatever rank, nation, or religion he be; against falfely charging any crime upon him; or exposing his character, with an ill defign, by divulging even the bad things he may be guilty of; or ever doing it at all, unlefs fome valuable end is to be answered by it : Warn them against a litigious, quarrelfome temper and behaviour, to the diffurbance of civil or religious communities: Teach them, on the contrary, to be of an equitable, candid, yielding fpirit; and to manifest an humble, mild, and good temper in all their words and actions, towards all forts of men, even enemies, and ungodly people themfelves.

3 And we furely ought to be ready to go into fuch an humble and candid difposition toward those that are no worfe than we once were, and, if left to ourfelves, should still have been : For while we were in

2

Ζ.

•2 R

0 10 10

à,

N N N N N

ų

č,

and

vers lufts and pleafures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that the kindnefs and lave of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 Not by works which we have done, but according to his mercy ceived, ferving di- in a state of nature, under the power of the corruptions that reigned in us, even we ourfelves were then deftitute of all fpiritual knowledge and wifdom relating to our duty and happiness; were disobedient to God, and to his holy, juft, and good laws; were wandering (adarous from him, and from the way of life and peace, being feduced by the treachery of our own hearts, by falle teachers, and the temptations of Satan, and of this evil world; were perfect flaves to various finful inclinations and fenfual pleafures; yea, were spending our time in a malicious way of withing and doing ill to those that did not please us, and in envious thoughts at the honour and advantages of those that were above us: And so, upon the whole, we were most detestable creatures, odious in ourfelves, and to God and all good men * ; and full of bitter enmity one against another, according to our different paffions and interests, and most flagrantly fo, as we were either Jews or Gentiles, who reciprocally had an implacable averfion to each other, as fuch.

4 But a holy and happy change was made upon us, who were in those hideous circumstances, when the transcendent benignity of God, who contrived, ordained, and brought about, our falvation by Jefus Chrift, and his aftonishing philanthropy, (φιλανθεω- $\pi_{i\alpha}$) or fpecial loving kindnefs to finners of mankind, in diffinction from the fallen angels, (emspane) broke out, and fhone forth with illustrious and reviving beams, upon us, in the preaching of the gospel, and in the rifing of the Sun of righteousness himself upon our fouls, with healing in his wings. (Mal. iv. 2.)

5 As we had fo deeply plunged ourfelves into all righteousnels, that is vile and hateful, It neither was, nor could be, in confideration of any good or holy works which we had performed, that God was induced to fhow us he faved us, by the fo high favour, there having been nothing of that washing of rege- kind, but every thing of a contrary strain found in us; but it was merely of his own free, felf-moving, aous) feems directly to point to the na- not find one character in the whole detional enmity that was between the fcription, that may not be applied in Jews and Gentiles; and as there was common to them; much lefs can I think, as much on the Yews part against the with some, that the apostle should all Gentiles, as on the Gentiles against the along mean only himself, in an argu-Jews, and rather more, it carries a ment to enforce upon all believers the ftrong intimation, that the apostle does duties he had before been recommendnot, in this and the following verfes, ing to them; and that, without giving speak merely of the wretched vile state the least hint of such a design in the vaof the Gentiles by nature, and their re- riation of his ftyle, or in the tenor of his covery by grace; but of mankind in ge- difcourfe, or in any part of the preceneral, inclusive of the Yews, and of ding or following verses. himfelf and Titus, as well as others:

NOTE.

* Hating one another (µ1000vils; alln- And, upon the closeft attention, I can-

TITUS paraphrased.

newing of the holy Ghoft;

6 Which he shed on us abundantly, through Jefus Chrift our Saviour :

7 That being juftified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

8 This is a faithful faying, and these things I will that thou affirm that conftantly, they which have believed in God. might be careful to maintain good works: thefe things are good and profitable unto men.

neration, and re- undeferved and forfeited, yea, abufed and provoked mercy, and according to its own compaffionate propenfions, that he brought us out of that deplorable condition into a flate of falvation, through the cleanfing virtue of regenerating grace, which was fignified by our baptifm with water, (fee the note on Eph. v. 26.) and was effected by that renovation in the spirit of our minds, which was wrought in us by the special operation of the Holy Spirit.

> 6 Which Holy Spirit, in his gifts and graces, God the Father poured out from on high upon us with the greateft riches and abundance, according to his infinite mercy, (ver. 5.) and his promife relating to gospel-times, (I/a. xliv. 3. fee the notes on Acts ii. 38, 41.) through the mediation, merit, and exaltation of Jesus Christ, who is our immediate Saviour, as he purchased all falvation for us, and bettows it upon us;

> 7 That being brought into a flate of pardon and acceptance with God to eternal life, through faith in him, under the Spirit's influence, and fo difcharged from guilt and condemnation by the free grace of God, on account of the perfect righteoufnels of Jefus Chrift the Saviour, we might be brought as children into his family; (John i. 12.) and, being children, might be beirs of God, and joint-beirs with Christ, and be glorified together with him, (Rom. viii. 17.) according to the folid ground of hope, which God has given us in Chrift, and in the promifes, and the grace of hope, which he has wrought in us upon that ground, of inheriting eternal life through a Redeemer.

> 8 All that I have been faying is a true and faithful word, (Noyos) which may, and ought to be, firmly believed; and I would have you frequently affert and infift upon these important things in the courfe of your ministry, relating to the wretched ftate of man by nature, and the rich mercy of God through Jefus Chrift our Saviour, for regeneration, juffification, and eternal life, (106) to the end that thofe, who have believed in God through Chrift, according to the gospel-revelation, might be induced, and excited thereby, to use the utmost care and diligence to abound, excel, and lead the way to others, (rador seyor revisardai) in all fuch works, as are honourable to God, and Chrift, and to the Chriftian character. These doctrines, and the good works to which they manifeftly tend, are every way excellent in their own nature; and though God cannot be profited by them, they are exceeding uleful and beneficial to mankind.

The Epifile to 9 But avoid foolh questions, and enealogies, and ontentions, and rivings about the iw: for they are pprofitable and ain.

:46

10 A man that i an heritic, after he first and second dmonition, reject:

Knowing II hat he that is uch is fubverted, nd finneth, being ondemned of himelf.

9 But keep yourfelf clear off, and endeavour to difcountenance those fenseless, idle, doating queftions, that judaizing teachers are fo fond of; and those intricate endless genealogies, for making out their own lineage from this and the other particular tribe and family, (fee the first note on I Tim. i. 4) which are of no manner of advantage, after the Meffiah has come, and put an end to their church flate and polity; as alfo their litigious controverfies, and warm contendings about the fenfe and obligation of the ceremonial law, which they would introduce into the gofpel difpenfation : For all these difputes are entirely useles, as answering no good purpose : Nay, they are (marana) foolifh and prejudicial, as turning to a very bad account, for fowing difcord, corrupting the gospel of Chrift, and hindering the practice of real godlinefs.

10 If any professor of Christianity, or member of a church, entertain and boldly affert fuch errors, as overthrow the foundation doctrines of the gofpel; and efpecially if he evidently appear to do it with a heretical heart, to gratify his own pride, and make himfelf the head of a contrary fect, or out of prejudice against the truths themselves, because they lie in direct opposition to his own lufts; let him be folemnly admonifhed and warned, a first and second time, of his fin and danger; and if, after this, he shall still obftinately perfift in his deftructive errors; reject him and all communion with him; avoid his company; caution others against him; and have nothing to do with fuch an incorrigible herefiarch, or fectary of his ftamp.

11 For you may be well fatisfied, that fuch a man is utterly turned off from Chrift, the foundation, and from all goodnefs; and that he fins against his own foul, if not against his own confcience, and fins against the divine authority, light and truth of the gofpel-revelation: His own avowing, and perfifting in thefe pernicious errors, is fufficient, without any further / proof, to convict him of them; and fo out of his own mouth he is judged; as being felf-condemned: And he hereby practically paffes judgment against, and condemns himfelf, as not fit to ftand in any relation to, or have any fellowship with, the true church of Chrift *.

12 I have.

į

NOTE.

* The paraphrafe hints the common But it chiefly goes upon what I take otion of a heretic, as one that appears to be the true notion of felf-condemned, o be so wicked and perverse, as to act (auroxalaxeiros) as fignifying one whose gainft his own confcience in broaching own confession is enough to convict nd maintaining fundamental error ; him, without any further proof. In this manner

Digitized by Google

Chap. iii.

TITUS paraphrased.

12 When I shall fend Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopowinter.

12 I have given you these brief instructions, how to conduct in your prefent critical fituation; and hope to have an opportunity of adding what may be of further use to you, in personal conversation, as soon lis: for I have de- as I can well spare, and shall fend either Artemas or termined there to Tychicus, a beloved brother, and faithful minister in the Lord, (Eph. vi. 21.) to fupply your place, and take care of the churches at Crete : As foon as either of them arrive, I beg that you would make all convenient fpeed in coming to me at Nicopolis*, where you will probably meet with me : For I purpofe, God willing, to go thither in a little time, and take up my winter-quarters there.

13 And

NOTES.

be felf-condemned, or condemned of Italy. (See Wells's Geography of the himself, when evidence of the charge New Teftament, part 2. p. 69.) But, against him rifes from his own confef- wherever it was, it is plain that this efion, without any need of further wit- piftle was not written from thence, as neffes. Thus Job faid, (chap. ix. 20.) the postfcript further makes it; for, had If I justify myfelf, my own mouth shall the apostle been then at Nicopolis, it condemn me ; if I fay I am perfect, it would have been most proper for him to fuall alfo prove me perverse; that is, my have faid, I have determined to winter own words would condemn me, as a bere, and not there. (*) This also vain proud boafter: And Eliphas faid of shows that he was then at liberty; and Job, (chap. xv. 5, 6.) Iby mouth ut- gives ground to think, that this epithe zers thine iniquity, and thou choofeft was wrote between his first and second the tongue of the crafty; thine own imprisonment at Rome: And his defiring mouth condemns thee, and not I; yea, Titus to come to him at Nicopolis, and thine own lips teflify against thee. proposing to lend Artemas, or Tychicus When the flothful fervant hid his Lord's to fupply his place at Crete, carries a talent in a napkin, and went about to ftrong intimation, that Titus was not, as excufe it by a diffionourable and unjust fome would have it, and the postfcript charge against his Lord himself, He faid avers, the first bishop of the church of unto him, Out of thine own mouth I the Cretians; but that he was an evanwill judge thee, thou wicked fervant ; gelift, who, according to the nature of (Luke xix. 22.) and when our Lord that office, had no fixed refidence; but owned himself to be the Chrift, the Son travelled about as occasions required, of the Bleffed, the high prieft rent his from place to place, to affift the apoftles clothes, and faid, What need we any in their work, and come to them, or go further witnesses? Te have heard the on their meffages, wherever they might blasphemy, what think ye? And they fend them. We have no certain account all condemned bim to be guilty of death. of this Artemas, nor of Zenas the law-(Mark xiv. 62, 63, 64.) It appears from yer, mentioned in the next verfe, beyond all these instances, that by a person's what is here faid of them; but Titus, no own confession, whether of real or sup- doubt, well knew them, at least by posed crimes, he is looked upon as felf- name, to be persons of worthy characcondemned. And in the account that ter; and Zenas being joined with Amen shall give of every idle word in the pollos, (ver. 13.) who was a Jew, is day of judgment, Chrift fays, By thy thought by fome to have been an interwords thou fhalt be justified, and by thy preter of the Yewish law; but Grotius words thou fhalt be condemned. (Mat. supposes, that he might be a Roman, xii. 36, 37.)

judged, by Bishop Pearfon, and others, they faw that all just and righteous preto be, not, as the postfcript of this epil- cepts were eminently contained in his retle fays, in Macedonia, but a town of ligion. that name upon the fea-coaft of Epirus, a

VOL. V.

Κk

manner we may understand a perfon to province of Greece, on the west towards lawyer, as not doubting but that many * This Nicopolis is most probably such became ministers of Christ; because

Digitized by GOOGLE

13 Bring Zenas the lawyer, and Apollos, on their journey diligently. that nothing be - wanting unto them.

14 And let ours alfo learn to maintain good works for neceffary ufes. that they be not unfruitful.

15 All that are thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. with vou Amen.

13 And when you fet out for that place, take care to bring Zenas the lawyer, and the zealous, laborious, and eloquent Apollos, (Acts xviii. 24, 25.) along with you; and to provide every thing that may be needful to bear their expences, and accommodate them in their journey, that nothing proper and convenient for them in the way may be deficient, or lacking to them.

14 And leave it as a charge with all our Chriftian friends and brethren at Crete, and wherever you meet with them, that they be prompt and willing to excel in fuch good works of benevolence and hofpitality. by entertaining religious ftrangers, and efpecially fuch gofpel-preachers, as I have been but now recommending to you, (ver. 12, 13.) and indeed in every good work, that is laudable and ufeful, for the neceffary purpofes of glorifying God, and doing good to all men, and especially to them of the houshold of faith, (Gal. vi. 10.) that they may neither be unprofitable to them, nor barren or unfruitful themselves, in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jefus Chrift. (2 Pet. i. 8.)

15 All the Christian brethren, who are at prefent with me falute here, join with me in fending their affectionate falutations in the Lord, particularly to yourfelf: And Grace be as I have wrote this letter for the use and benefit of all the churches in Crete, as well as for your own direction in the discharge of your office toward them, I defire that the like kind falutations may be prefented to all those of them, that fincerely love us, with a Chriftian love, for the fake of that faith, which we embrace and preach, profefs and propogate, which they themfelves also have received, and which works by love. May the free favour of God the Father, and of Jefus Chrift, and the Holy Ghoft, together with all its manifestations, and bleffed fruits, abound towards all and every one of you : (fee 2 Cor. xui. 14.) This I heartily with and pray may be, and humbly hope and truft will be your happy cafe, in token of which I fincerely and affectionately add, Amen.

RECOLLECTIONS.

How friendly is the Chriftian religion to civil government, and to an universal benevolence toward perfons of every rank and character ! And what fweet and powerful arguments does it afford to every work of piety toward God, of felf-government, and of tendernels to the characters, together with meeknels and gentlenefs toward the perfons of all mankind, whether triends or foes ! May we often think how wretchedly vile we were, in our natural state, to make us humble in our own eyes, and favourable in our dispositions towards others that are in like deplorable circumstances still ! We ourfelves were foolish, disobedient, wanderers from God and goodneis, flaves to fenfual paffions and appetites, malicious, envious, odious, and bitter enemies to the happiness of one or other of our fellow creatures. But O the riches and freenels of divine mercy and grace, which, notwithstanding all this unworthine's and finfulne's, has made a bleffed change in our temper and condition, by means of the goipel, when it came to us in the light and energy of the Spirit! We are hereby brought into a ftate of grace, regenerated, juftified, and made heirs of eternal life, and have the most folid grounds for a comfortable and affured hope of a complete enjoyment of it. And O with what affecting demonftration does it appear, that this could never be for the fake of any good thing done by, or found in, fuch abominable finners as we were; but is all entirely owing to the mere mercy and grace of God, through Jefus Chrift our Saviour, and is made effectual to us by the special operation of his Spirit! that the glory of it all may be. ascribed to the Sacred Three, according to their joint agency, and concernment in bringing about our falvation ! And how fhould thefe true and important fayings of God, be often inculcated, and imprefied upon the minds and hearts of believers, for exciting and engaging their diligent care to excel in all works of piety, righteoufnefs, and charity, that are good and lovely in themfelves, and ufeful to mankind ! How thould they thun all trifling, contentious, and unprofitable diffutes about religion ! And with what feriousness should obstinate heretics be warned of their dangerous errors, by orderly admonitions ! But, in cale of contumacy, with what deteftation should they be rejected, as perfons that would overthrow the foundation of the Christian faith, and that evidently labour at this, and perfift in it, as their own felf-condemning proteflion fufficiently teftifies, whether it be against the dictates of their own confciences or not ! But how fincerely affectionate fhould found believers be one to another, as partakers of the fame common faith; and how ready to affift each other in all their wants, and to give, and receive mutual Salutations in the Lord ! May the love and grace of God the Father, Son, and Spirit, be with all those that love our Lord Jesus Christ in fincerity and truth ! Amen.

TITUS paraphrased.

K k 2

A PRAC-

A PRACTICAL

EXPOSITION

EPISTLE OF THE APOSTLE PAUL

PHILEMON, IN THE FORM OF A PARAPHRASE.

THE PREFACE TO THE EPISTLE TO PHILEMON.

"HIS Epifile to Philemon, though very fhort, and wrote (as fome think about the year 60, or, as others fay, 63) on a forme think about the year 60, or, as others fay, 63). private occafion, is very nervous, entertaining, and inftructive. It is the moft perfect pattern of familiar letter-writing, every way worthy of the great apostle, and of our esteem and imitation: It gives us a most remarkable instance of the free and fovereign grace of God to as abandoned a wretch as can well be imagined; and of Providence's over-ruling, even his wickedness to subserve the defign of grace towards him : And it contains the livelieft fentiments of flowing tenderness, generofity, and humanity, and the finest art of perfuafive rhetoric and genteel address, together with the native beauty of Christian compassion, condescension, charity, and love. The characters, under which the apostle speaks of himself, and of Philemon and Onefimus, with the reprefentations he makes of their refpective circumstances, and the judicious structure of the whole epiftle, with every thought, and indeed every word, from first to last, in its proper place, are calculated with almost inimitable dexterity, and yet with a natural, unaffected, eafy turn, and godly fincerity, to answer its main point in view.

Philemon, to whom this letter was wrote, appears in the light of an eminent Christian, though, perhaps, naturally of a fliff temper, and too apt to refent offences: He, probably, was a perfon of confiderable worldly fubftance, and converted by the apostle's inftrumentality, ver. 1, -4, and 7, -19.; and he feems to have been a Coloffian; for Onefimus is faid to be one of them, Col. iv. 9.; and Archippus, who is faluted here, (ver. 2.) is directed to take heed to his ministry there, Col. iv. 17.

Onefimus, on whose behalf the apostle wrote, was Philemon's flave, and had turned a thief and runagate, who, in his rambles, came

The Epistle, &c.

same to Rome, at the time of the apostle Paul's first confinement there, as appears from the hope he expresses of his coming to Coloffe, ver. 22. answerable to like expressions of it in that situation, Pbil. i. 25. and ii. 24.; whereas, in his fecond imprisonment, he had no doubt but that the time of his departure was then at hand, 2 Tim. iv. 6.; but, in his first imprisonment, he was allowed to preach to company that came to him in his own hired house, where he dwelt as a prisoner at large, Acts xxviii. 30, 31. (See the note there.) And Onefimus, being brought by the providence of God under these ministrations, the Holy Spirit fet the word home upon his heart to make it effectual for his conversion, which laid the foundation of a most cordial love between the apostle and him; in fo much that Paul would have been glad to have him for his attendant, and Onefimus would willingly have waited upon him, in his confinement, ver. 13. But as the Chriftian religion makes no alteration in civil rights, and the apostle had learnt that Onefimus was Philemon's property by the laws of the country, he would not detain him ; but fending him back to his master, to whom he was willing to go, wrote this letter to difpole Philemon to forgive former injuries, and to receive him into his family and favour again.

After a very moving and endearing falutation, 1,-3, and most affectionate expressions of joy and praise, on account of Philemon's sleady faith in the Lord Jesus, and love to all the faints, and particularly to the poor among them, 4,-7, The aposle, with a most obliging address, opens the compassionate design of his letter, and throws together a variety of surprising, well adjusted, and moving topics, to recommend Onefimus to Philemon's kind regards, and engage him to accept of the return of his penitent fugitive, who would now make him a rich amends for all the misdemeanors, he had formerly been guilty of; and for whom the apostle promises to make up any loss that Philemon bad sustained by him, 8,-22.; and then concludes, according to his cuftom, with falutations, and a benediction, 23,-25.

PARAPHRASE.

Техт. PAUL a prifon-er of Jefus Jefus Chrift, and Timothy our brother, dearly

DAUL, * who is now fuffering as a prifoner at Rome, on account of his faithful testimony to Jefus Chrift, in preaching the gospel of falvation alone unto Philemon our through faith in him; and the excellent Timothy, who.

NOTE.

* Since the apoftle intended to pro- ate generous foul, and fo to carry his ceed, not on the foot of authority, but point, than if he had begun with Paul of friend/bip and love, in his address to the apofile of Jefus Chrift, (which Phi-Philemon, (ver. 8, 9.) his prefacing the lemon well knew him to be) as he usu-epiftle with Paul, the prifoner of the ally did other epiftles, where any con-Lord, was more (uitable, decent, and cerned in them either denied or diputed melting, as well as condescending, and his authority. (See the note on Gal. i. t.) more likely to work upon a compaffion-

Digitized by GOOGLE

The Epiftle to dearly beloved, and fellow-labourer, 2 And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellow-foldier, and . to the church in thy house :

3 Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jefus Chrift.

4 I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers.

5 Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou haft toward the Lord Jefus, and toward all faints;

who, as a Chriftian and minister, is a brother in the houshold of faith, and in the work of the Lord, heartily join (fee the note I Cor. i. 1.) in fending this epiftle to Philemon, our dearly beloved brother in Chrift, (ver. 7.) and fellow fervant for promoting his caufe and intereft, according to the advantageous ftation in which God has placed him *; as also to the amiable Apphia, whom we love in the truth; (2 John ver. 1.) and to the Coloffian minister, Archippus, who, having lifted under the banner of the Captain of falvation, wars a good warfare, as a fellow-foldier with us, for the advancement of his kingdom and glory; and to the whole of your religious family, dear Philemon, which for the beauty of its discipline and order, focial worfhip, harmony and holy converfation, is a lively image of a regular church of Chrift.

3 We most affectionately unite in our earnest withes and prayers, that the riches of divine grace, in their utmost extent, manifestations, fruits and effects, and all manner of profperity for this world and a better, may be multiplied to all, and every one of you, (vuiv) by the free gift of God our heavenly Father, as the original fountain; and by the mediation, merit, and communication of the Lord Jefus Chrift, as the grand appointed medium of conveyance, and the procurer and difpenfer of all, in the administration of his office, as mediator.

4, 5 As to yourfelf in particular, my compaffionate good friend, Philemon, I am full of thankfgiving and praife, on your behalf, to my covenant-God and Father, bearing you on my heart, and mentioning you before him with great delight in my daily addreffes at the throne of grace, on account of what I have had the pleafure of hearing, upon good intelligence, of the continued ftedfaftnefs, lively exercife

* As to the perfons faluted in these (ayannin) is feminine, but the Alexantwo verses, Philemon's being called a drian, Claremont, and other copies add fellow-labourer may probably intimate, fifter. (Vid. Mill. in loc.)-Archippus that he was engaged in the work of the was a minister of the church at Coloffe; ministry, but does not certainly prove (see the paraphrase on Col. iv. 17.) and it; becaule any that were affiftant to Dr. Lightfoot inclined to think that the apoftles, though but in private fta- he was Philemon's (on, or at leaft a fotions, for helping forward the work of journer in his house. (Vol. I. p. 327 of the Lord, were fometimes spoken of un- his works.)-The church in Philemon's der that character, as Aquila and Prif- house seems to take in the whole of his cilla were; (Rom. xvi. 3. fee the para- Christian family. (See the note on Rom. phrase there) and they that hospitably xvi. 5.) And so the apostle faluted all received the fervants of Chrift, are call- that were dear to him, and dwelt with ed fellow labourers (ouvegrou) to the him, and spoke honourably and affectiontruth, 3 John, ver. 8 .- Apphia is fuppo- ately of them to ingratiate himfelf with fed by fome of the ancients to have been them, and engage their interest with Philemon's wife; the epithet beloved Philemon in favour of Onefimus.

NOT

Digitized by Google

252

and increase, and honourable profession of your faith. which you hold fast in a firm dependence on the perfon and offices, righteousness, grace, and government of Jefus * Chrift, who is the Lord of all, and of your growing and exemplary love to all the holy profeffors of his name, becaufe they vifibly bear his image, belong to him, and are beloved of him.

6 And, in reflection on this, my earneft request to God for you is, that your fharing in the common faith may be effectual to engage you unto all further acts of generofity; and that your readiness to communicate, as the fruit of your faith, may be an effectual means of inducing all that hear of it, and especially that receive the benefit, to make the most grateful acknowledgments of all those kind and holy difpofitions that are wrought and operate in you and your benevolent family (10 upin 115 Xeisor Inos) toward Jefus Chrift, and his poor members and fervants, for his fake, by virtue derived from him, and to his honour and glory, and the furtherance of his gofpel.

7 For 'tis an exceeding great joy and confolation to me in my bonds, as it also is to Timothy, (ver. 1.) to think of the generous expressions of your fincere love; becaufe I am informed, that the hungry appetites and empty ftomachs of the poor, whether private Chriftians or holy ministers, are abundantly relieved and fatisfied, to the comforting of their hearts, by your charitable donations, my dear brother.

8 Encouraged therefore by your pious and compaffionate temper, though, were I to infift on my apostolic authority, which I have received from Chrift, and on your obligations to me his fervant, (ver. 19.) I might, with the high tone of a father, take the freedom of commanding you to do what is proper, fit and right in the cale I am going to recommend to you.

9 Yet for love's feech

faints.

9 Yet I rather choose to wave that +, and, putting fake I rather be- myself upon a level with you, as your brother in Chrift.

NOTES.

* Faith manifeftly refers to the Lord " pofition, which will not be endured in Jefus, and love to all the faints, accord- " Englifb ; but fuch construction is allowing to the natural order in which these " able in Greek, and used by the noblest expressions are fet, Col. i. 4.; and there- " authors."

+ In what a handfome manner does ces, there must be allowed a transposition the apostle just hint, and immediately of words; and fo the regular polition of drop, the confideration of his authority them in this fentence is thus, Hearing of the command, and proceed, in the molt they faith, which thou haft toward the tender and moving firain, upon the foot Lord Jefus, and love towards all the of love and friendship, to befeech Philefaints. "Our translators," says Mr. mon to hearken to him, as to bis friend, Blackwall in his sacred classics, Vol. I. bis aged friend, and prifoner in the pag. 87. "improperly retained the tranf- Lord, to work upon the veneration, compation,

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Chrift Jefus.

7 For we have great joy and confolation in thy love, because the bowels of the faints are refreshed by thee, brother.

Wherefore, though I might be bold much in Chrift, to enjoin thee that which is convenient, fore here, as well as in feveral other pla-

Digitized by GOOgle

The Epistle to ne as Paul I, and now prifoner of irift.

I befeech r my fon

18, whom I egotten in ds:

bee, being Chrift, (ver. 7.) to entreat it of you, as fuch, by all the love, that the Lord himfelf, and I bear to you, and that you bear to him and his poor, and particularly to me his fuffering fervant; and I cannot doubt, but that your fense of the love of Chrift to you, and your love to him and his members, and your compafiionate and tenderly fympathizing regards to me, will move you to do what in you lies to comfort me, when you confider that I am not only Paul, your fast friend and brother, but your aged friend of ripe judgment, and grown old in the fervice of our common Lord; and am now, under the infirmities and decays of advanced years, fuffering all the hardships of a prison, through the malice of my enemies, for the fake of Jefus Chrift and his gofpel, which I preach, and you have received.

> 10 What I, in all love, would particularly requeft of you, and is the prefent occasion of my writing, relates to your shewing kindness to one, who, by a wonderful change wrought upon him, is become as dear to me, as though in a literal fense he were a fon that had proceeded from my own bowels: (ver. 12.) To fpeak plainly, if it may be without offence, I mean Onefimus, your poor flave, to whom, whatfoever he was before, I am become a spiritual father, as having been inftrumental, through the grace of Chrift, in regenerating him by means of the word, which I have been permitted to preach in my confinement.

Which in ift was to nprofitable, 7 profitable and to me:

II In this manner have I begotten him to Chrift, who, as I perceive by his own penitent confession, with brokennels of heart, was formerly a worthlefs and injurious fervant to you; but now, having paffed through the new birth, is become, according to the fignification of his name, a very ufeful one, and will approve himfelf to be diligent and faithful, to the advantage of any that may employ him, as I have found him to be to myfelf fince his conversion. He would certainly make a very good fervant now to you, were you to take him again into your house and favour ; entioned it, fest Philemon's re- Onefimus's favour !!

NOTE.

ion, and kind regards of one, fentment fhould rife too high at the vegenerous foul he had just before ry hearing it, with what fine address I with the most pleafing fensa- does he only just touch upon his former nat arife from doing good, by faults, and instantly pass on to the hap-, with joy and praise, the great py change that was made upon him, to d liberality he had flewn to all carry Philemon's thoughts off from what its! ver. 4, -7; And with what had been had, to what now was good in nent, in the next verfe, does he him; and fo dispose him to attend to the fimus his fon, before he fo much apostle's request, and to all the motives tions his name; and as foon as he he was going to advance to enforce it, in

PHILEMON paraphrofed.

vour; and I should reckon myself very happy in his fervice, were he to remain with me.

12 Whom I have fent again: thou therefore receive him that is mine own bowels.

12 Upon the proof I have had of him, and knowing his willingness to return and submit himself, and make all humble acknowledgments of his former crimes, and do his duty for time to come, I have fent him back again to you, with this recommendatory letter; I therefore earneftly befeech you, (ver. 10.) to receive him into your favour and family, for my fake, as well as for your own advantage, with the fame readinefs and affection, as you would any child of mine, tenderly beloved by me, as the fruit of my own body, and fo a part of myfelf, who shall rejoice, or be grieved at heart, according to your good, or fevere treatment of him.

13 For my own part, I would have gladly kept him with me, to perform all the good offices toward me, which I am fatisfied, were you here, you would be willing to do for me yourfelf; or which, in your absence, you would wish any fervant of yours should do in your flead, while I am loaded and confined with the chains, that, for preaching the gospel, are laid upon me, as a prifoner of Jefus Chrift. (ver. 9.)

14 But how much foever I should have chosen, and been pleafed with this, I confider him as your property, who have a legal right to him, and to all his beft fervice; and therefore would not take one ftep this way, without your approbation and free confent, that the benefit I should receive from your fervant, and confequently from yourfelf, might not be extorted from you, as what you could not decently refule; but that it might be left entirely to your own choice, to do in it, just as you think beft ; and that whatever favour you may fhew him and me, it might not proceed from any force upon your inclination; but merely from your own good will and pleafure.

15 For, poffibly, the defign of Providence, in permitting his leaving you, and your lofing his fervice for a little time, as it were but for an hour, (mest wear) was, not only that he might be brought under those means of grace, which God intended to make effectual for his conversion, who, under all the exectlent opportunities he had in your eminently religious family, grew worfe and worfe ; but also that he might be made a fo much better fervant, and be fo ingratiated thereby to you, as might give you the greater pleafure and advantage in receiving him again, to continue with you all the days of his life, * like thefe fervants

13 Whom I would have retain. ed with me, that in thy ftead he might have miniftred unto me in the bonds of the gofpel.

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit flould not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.

15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a feafon, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;

NOTE.

VOL. V.

* For ever, here, in allufion, as fome fuppofe, to Exod. xxi. 6.; could be at moit Ll

Digitized by GOOGLE

The Epistle to

16 Not now as a fervant, but above a fervant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flefh and in the Lord ?

17 If thou count therefore me а receive partner, him as myself.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account.

ro I Paul have written it with mine

ly dwelling together in heaven.

ł;

fervants under the law, who faid, I love my master, and will not go out free; (Ex. xxi. 5.) and even to dwell with you in heaven to all eternity.

16 You may entertain him now, not merely as a common fervant or flave; but as one that is worthy of still higher respect, even as a brother in the Lord, greatly beloved of him, and of all his Christian acquaintance; and efpecially of me, who have been the inftrument of this happy and holy change upon him, and have had the beft opportunities of obferving his honourable behaviour in confequence of it : But how much more ftill ought he now to be affectionately efteemed and valued by you, as your, property, relating to the concerns of the body, and as henceforth your most loving and dutiful fervant; yea, as your brother in the faith and fellowship of the gospel, and equal fharer, as fuch, with you, in all the privileges and bleffings of Chrift's family and kingdom here, and for ever hereafter?

17 If therefore, upon the whole, you have any value and respect for me, and count me your friend, brother, fellow-labourer, and joint heir of grace and glory, and one, that has been bleffed of God to the good of your own foul; and would make me a partaker of that generous goodness, which you have been fo ready to flow to others, (ver. 7.) I befeech you not to deny my request; but receive him with the fame chearfulnefs and kindnefs, as you would my own perfon, who fo tenderly intereft myfelf in his cafe, and shall reckon your favour to him, as shewn to myfelf.

18 If (as there is great reason to fear) you have fuftained lofs or damage, by his purloinings or embezzlements, be it to a greater or lesser degree ; or if he is any way in debt to you, let not that hinder your free reception of him. Though he be not able to make any reflitution, place all that to my account *; fo as, in a way of legal effimation, to impute it to me, and make me answerable for it.

19 I Paul, your faithful friend, engage to you, as I now do, under my own hand-writing, that (God willing)

> NO T E S.

most only to the end of the fervant's life : * Put that on mine account, (rulo :nor can it be carried any further, if we μοι ελλογει) or impute it to me, expresses, fuppole, with others, that the apoftle and gives us a just notion of proper impureferred to beathen fervants, that were tation, in a way of legal account; and bought by the Israelites to be their this, with a fimilar verb of like fignificabond-men and bond-maids for ever. Lev. tion (xoyiζouxi) is rendered impute, with xxv. 44, 46.: But the argument is still regard to fin and righteou/ne/s, Rom. iv. 6, 8. 11. and v. 13. Here then is a plain more touching, on supposition that the apostle had a further eye to their eternal. instance of the imputation of that to another, which was not his own before.

Philemon paraphrased.

will repay it : albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me ebesides.

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord : refresh my bowels in the Lord.

21 Having confidence in thy obedience, I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt alfo do more than I fay.

22 But withal prepare me alío a lodging: for I truft that through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

23 There falute thee Epaphras my fellow-prifoner in Chrift Jefus;

mine own hand, I willing) I will certainly clear off this fcore, and make you full fatisfaction to the utmost farthing : This I will chearfully do, notwithstanding my straitened circumftances, and your affluence; though I might inven thine ownfelf fift upon it, but shall not, that, in balancing accounts, you owe me a great deal more than he can have wronged you of ; even, in a way of inftrumentality, the falvation of your own foul, as I was the means of bringing you to the knowledge of Chrift, and faith in him for eternal life.

> 20 Yea, I earnestly befeech you, as a brother in facred relation to me, as well as to One/imus, to receive him cordially for my fake, as well as his own, not to fay for yours also, and most of all for the Lord Jefus's fake, that I may rejoice in reflection upon the efficacy of his grace to engage your love and forgiveness to this poor flave, as one that you and I esteem, under the confideration of him as united to Chrift by faith; let my heart be comforted now, in my bonds, with the great pleafure I shall feel in your dealing kindly with him, whom I am fo touchingly concerned for, on the Lord Chrift's account, in whofe name I beg this favour of you.

> 21 The great confidence I have had in your willingnefs to hearken to me, and yield obedience to our Lord's commands, with respect to forgiving injuries, and receiving a disciple in the name of a disciple, (Mat. x. 42. and Luke vi. 37.) encouraged me to write to you on behalf of this poor returning fugitive; and I have a pleafing fatisfaction in my own mind, that you will be ready to fhow him, even more favour than I have requested for him; and so I leave that matter for the prefent.

> 22 But I would further add my defire, that you would provide fome proper place for me to lodge at, when I come to Coloffe, and may have an opportunity of making a perfonal acknowledgment of your kindnefs to Onefimus, and me therein, and of paying what he owes you : For I truft in the Lord, that by means of, and in answer to your and other Christians prayers, (Pbil. i. 19.) I shall, for this time, be fet at liberty from my bonds, as one gracioufly given of God to you for your further spiritual profit, and shall have the pleasure of making you a visit to our mutual fatisfaction.

> 23 Epaphras, one of your ministers, a dear fellowfervant, who is fervent in prayer, and has a great zeal for the church at Coloffe, (Col. i. 7. and iv. 12, 13.) and is now my fellow-fufferer in prifon for the cause of Christ, sends his most affectionate respects to you, (See the note on Phil. ii. 25.)

Ll 2

24 And

Digitized by GOOGLE

24 Marcus, A-Lucas, my tellowlabourers.

25 The grace of Lord Jefus be with our Chrift your spirit. Amen.

24 And fo does John Mark, for whom I have. riftarchus, Demas, the greateft friendship, notwithstanding some former difpleafure I conceived at his having gone from me; (Acts xv. 37, 38.) as also Aristarchus the Macedonian, who was exposed to the utmost danger, for my fake, at Ephefus; (Acts xix. 29) and Demas * and Luke the beloved phyfician, (Col. iv. 14.) who are my fellow-labourers in the work of the Lord.

> 25 May the free love and favour of our Lord Jefus Chrift, with all its fuitable and abounding manifestations, fruits and effects, be with the foul of every one of you, to guide, comfort, ftrengthen, and fanctify you, yet more and more, and to fupply all your wants, till ye arrive at his heavenly kingdom. In teftimony of my ardent defire and hope of this all-comprehenfive bleffing for you, I fay, Amen.

RECOLLECTIONS.

What a wonderful change does fovereign grace make upon finners, as profligate, bafe, and abandoned as Onefimus had been, who of a peridious thief, unprofitable lazy flave and vagrant, and runagate from his mafter, became a fober, diligent, ufeful, and faithful fervant ! O how eafily can God over-rule even the wickedness * of those for good, to whom he has a defign of showing mercy! With what tender affection do the inftruments of their conversion think and speak of them, as though they were the children of their own bowels! How becoming is it for those, that are their mafters after the flesh, and have been injured by them, to forgive and leve fuch penitents, as more than bare fervants, even as brethren in the Lord ! How happy may they think themielves in the future better fervices, that are to be charitably expected from them ! And how worthy of imitation is the great apoftle's wildom, condefcention, and engaging way of arguing, to recommend returning penitents to the favour and compation of those that had been justly offended at them for paft abules !. They are to be entreated for love's fake, with an addrefs to their benevolent temper, and confidence in their friendship; and with the most mollifying, inflead of aggravating reprefentations of the crimes that have been committed, rather than to be over awed with authority, or deprived of their civil property, without their own free confent: They are to be reminded of the happy turn that is given to the formerly iniquitous disposition of him that is recommended to their favour; of the advantage that will accrue to themfelves by complying with a request on his behalf; and of the kindness, that will be therein shown, not to fay the obligation they are under, to the interceding friend, who will effeem it as done to himfelf, will readily undertake to repay any damages that have been fuffered by purloinings, or otherwife, and will rejoice in the Lord, on account of his difpoling them to manifest a forgiving spirit for his fake. With what face could any that harden themfelves against fuch melting importunity, ever think of feeing the friend that uses it with fo much earnest concern for its fucces; efpecially if he be one, to whom they, in fome fenfe, owe their own happiness for this world, or a better ? And O how amiable is the perfon whole faith in the Lord Jefus, and love to all the faints are difplayed, in forgiving the offences of brethren. and bountifully refreshing the bowels of the poor, and in contributing, all that in him lies, to the comfort of the aged, perfecuted, afflicted fervants of the Lord : and whole religious family appears with all the beauty and order of a church of Chrift ! Such exemplary and uleful professors of the gospel ought to be remembered, with thankfulneis to God in prayer; and there cannot but be an exceeding pleafure

N°OTE.

in the apoftle's fecond imprisonment at iv. 10. (See the note there.) Rome, forfook him in his troubles, ha-

* This is that Demas, who afterwards, ving loved this present world, 2 Tim.

pleafure in faluting them after a codly fort, and having a holy partnership and communion with them Who would not with, that every bleffing of grace and peace may be multiplied to them, from the Father of mercies, through the mediation of his Son! May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with their spirits; and all that love him fay, Amen.

d,

A PRAC-

A PRACTICAL

EXPOSITION

EPISTLE TO THE

THE

H E B R E W S,

OF

IN THE FORM OF A

PARAPHRASE.

THE PREFACE TO THE EPISTLE TO THE HEBREWS.

T HIS Epiftle to the Hebrews is moft generally fuppofed, and that with the greateft probability, to have been written by the apoftle Paul before the deftruction of ferufalem, while he was a prifoner at Rome about the year of our Lord fixiy-three; though on account of fewifb prejudices againft him, as the apoftle of the Gentiles, and a ftrenuous afferter of juftification alone through faith in Chrift without the deeds of the law, it may be looked upon as a point of great prudence in him, that he concealed his name, and that inftead of laying the weight of his doctrine, as he ufually did in other epiftles, upon his apoftolic authority, he began this, and all along carried on his defign in it, upon the foot of the authority of the Old Teflament-feriptures, which thefe Hebrews univerfally owned to be of divine infiration : And, as the poffcript avers, it feems to have been fent by Timothy. (See chap. xiii. 22, 23.)

The most confiderable evidences of the apostle Paul's being the author of it are, his fublime fentiments, and close, nervous, and pathetic way of reasoning, and applying things that relate to the perfon and offices of Christ, and to the nature, use, and defign, together with the abolishment, of the Mosaic inflitutions, wherein this writer shews the most exact and extensive acquaintance with the laws of the Jewis church, which the apostle Paul had been most accurately led into by Gamaliel's instructions, under whom be profited in the Jews religion above many of his equals; (Gal. i. 14.) and in this epistle he speaks of his bonds, and of Timothy as his companion, and closes it with falutations from the Christians of Italy, and with his usual benediction, Grace be with you all, which he mentions as the token in all his epistles, 2 Theff. iii. 17, 18. And some suppose the apostle Peter refers to this very epistle, when, writing to the Hebrews, he takes notice of what his beloved brother Paul

はままって ちょうちょうしん ちょうしん had

PREFACE to the Epiftle to the HEBREWS.

had wrote to them, 2 Pet. iii. 15, 16. (See the note there.) Upon the whole, this epiftle was owned to be the apoftle Paul's by the generality of the primitive writers and councils of the first four centuries; and for many ages was univerfally received, as fuch, by the churches, as has been observed by various learned men. (See Dr. Owen's third exercitation, and Dr. Whitby's and Mr. Peirce's preface to this epiftle.) I shall therefore make no fcruple, in the course of the exposition, to speak of the apostle Paul as its author.

However, it feems that the perfons to whom it was most immediately fent, knew who was the author of it, fince he fays to them, chap. xiii. 18, 19. Pray for us: for we truft we have a good confcience in all things, willing to live honefily: But I befeech you the rather to do this, that we may be reflored to you the fooner. And the divine authority of this epittle (which has been readily allowed by fome, that have not afcribed it to the apostle Paul) has no dependence on our certainly knowing the name of the writer, any more than the authority of feveral books of the Old Testament does upon our knowing who were the penman of them.

The Jews, to whom this epiftle was fent, feem to have been the whole body of them that had made a profession of Christ; but it was probably fent directly and immediately to those of Judea and Jerufalem, to be communicated from them to their brethren that were dispersed through various countries : And as many of them were too much attached to the Molaic law, and others were in great danger of apostatizing from Christ and the gospel, through the subtility of false teachers, and through the violent perfecutions that their infidel-brethren stirred up against them; fo the apostle accommodates the different parts of his epiftle to their respective circumstances, and even to the conversion of such unbelievers among them, as preferred the legal to the gospel dispensation. Accordingly his principal defign is to fet forth the excellency of the gofpel above the law, in fuch a way as might direct and establish the faith of true believers in it, without any mixture of the Mofaic observances, and encourage them to adhere faithfully and perfeveringly to it under all the difficulties and trials that attended their profession of it; as might also recommend it to the acceptance of Jewish unbelievers; and might awaken and convince fuch of their danger, as fhould reject, or apoftatize from it.

In purfuit of this great and complicated defign, he fets out with a lofty account of the dignity of Christ's person, who is the divine author and fubject of the gospel, and superior to all the prophets, and even to the most exalted angels, by whose ministration the law was delivered at mount Sinai, together with the diftinguishing regard which he had shewn to the buman, more than to the angelic nature, chap. i. ii. Hereupon he particulary represents Christ to be superior in office, as a prophet, to Mosses; and, as a priest, to Abraham the father of the faithful, and to Aaron the high-priest of Israel, together with the efficacy and eternity of his priesthood, which was after the order of Melchizedeck, who was a king, as well as a priest, chap. iii,—vii. Having thus established the transcendent dignity of Christ's person and offices, and that particularly in opposition to the defects

26 E

Digitized by GOOg

The Epistle to the defects of the Levitical priestbood, he goes on to the excellency of his offering, beyond those that were made under the law; and of the new covenant, which is established upon better promifes than that of mount Sinai, chap. viii. From thence he proceeds to flew the great benefit of go/pel-ordinances, above those of the Mo/aic inftitution; and of the facrifice of Chrift, by which these and the New Teftament church are purified beyond what could be obtained by those facrifices, by which the first tabernacle, and its various appendages of worship were dedicated to God. as prefigurative of these. chap. ix. He then goes on to the perfection of Christ's facrifice to make atonement for fin, of which all the facrifices under the law were only shadows and figures, utterly infufficient to take away fin, chap. x. Hereupon he gives a noble view of the excellency and power of faith in the patriarch's and holy men of old, to animate the believing Hebrews to perfeverance in the faith of the gospel. cbap. xi. And, adding to this cloud of witneffes the example of a fuffering Saviour, and the confideration of the much greater excellence and duration of the Christian. than the legal-dispensation, He exhorts professing believers to perfil in the faith and holinels of the gospel, and to take heed of apostacy, notwithstanding all the cruel perfecutions and formidable dangers they were exposed to for their holy profession; and concludes with further exhortations to various duties, with defiring their prayers, and offering up his own for them, and with falutations and his usual benediction, chap. xii. xiii. -But in feveral parts of the epiftle he gives himfelf a great liberty of enlarging upon preceding topics, and often intermingles folemn cautions, fweet encouragements, and earnest exhortations, to patience, conftancy, and perfeverance, fuitable to the different characters of those Yews, into whose hands this Epistle might be suppofed to come.

CHAP. I.

The apostle, to shew the excellency of the gospel of Christ above the law, and to encourage an adherence to it, introduces his great design with an account of the different manner and seasons in which, and of the persons by whom, the revelations of them respectively were made; and describes the transcendent dignity of the Son of God in his divine person, and in his creating and mediatorial work, whereby he excels all that went before him, 1.-3. And in his superiority to all the holy angels, which is proved by a comparison between him and them in various particulars, in which he has a glorious pre-eminence above them, 4,-14.

A STATE AND A STATE OF

PARAPHRASE.

Digitized by GOOGLC

GOD. who at and in divers manners, spake in time paft M Y great defign in writing this Epistle to the fewi/k brethren, is to give them a just view of the great difference there is between the Mo/aic law and the gospel of Jesus Christ, and of the wast preference

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

past unto the fathers by the prophets, ference of this difpendation to that; and thereby to engage them to embrace and adhere to the latter, as what is intended to perfect and superfede the former: In order hereunto, let us first of all confider that, though they were both of divine original; yet God the Father, who anciently declared his mind and will to our pious anceftors, did it not fuily, nor all at once, but (modules) by degrees, with increasing light, in feveral parcels, one time after another, before the days of Moles; and then by him, and all along afterwards by other infpired prophets under the Yewith difpentation, until the fpirit of prophecy ceafed in the church of I/racl; and who in divers ways communicated i is word to them, as in dreams, vifions, dark figures, and immediate impulses, and the like, in fuch a gradual manner, as left room for an expectation of still further difcoveries of his mind and will in the Meffinh's days, who, as the Samaritan, and the jews themfelves believed, would give the fulleft and cleareft revelation that ever fhould be made in this world to the confummation of all things. (See John iv. 25.)

2 Hath in these laft days fpoken unto us by bis Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom worlds;

2 God, I fay, at the close of the Yewi/h flate, and under the laft difpenfation of his grace, which was frequently foretold as the latter days and the last times, has now completely made known the whole fyftem or fcheme of his counfels in the golpel to us, their dealfo he made the fcendents, by a much more glorious mellenger, even by his eternal, only-begotten and incarnate Son, (Yebn i. 18.) who, as he, being by nature God, has an original and effential right to inherit all things ; fo by fpecial conflictution, agreeable to the perforal union of the divine and human natures in him, God the Father ordained, and fettled him in his incarnate flate and officecharacter, as God-man Mediator, to be his first born, higher than the kings of the earth, (Pf. lxxxix. 27.) the Lord, proprietor and poffeffor, ruler and difpofer of all perfons and things, and head over all things to the church; (Ephef. i. 22.) infomuch that we cannot inherit any bleffing, but under him : And of this he cannot but be infinitely worthy, as the Creator of all, by whom, not as an inftrument or under agent, but as a divine perfon, who, exerting his own power in a proper order, together with the Father, made the upper and lower worlds, and all things whatfoever, from the higheft to the loweft ranks of creatures that are in them; So that without him was not any thing made that was made. (See the notes on ver. 10. and John i. 3. and Col. i. 16.)

3 Who being the

Vol. V.

3 All his Father fhines in him, who is originally, brightness of his as a divine person, the illustrious splendor of the glory, glory, and most exact character of the perfon of his · M m Father, glory, and the exprefs image of his perfon, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himfelf purged our fins, fat down on the right hand of the Majefty on high ;

Father, as a fon of the fame nature, and effential properties with him *; and who manifestatively, as the Son of God incarnate, exhibits such an accurate, substantial, and visible representation of the Father in his infinite wildom, power and grace, holinels and every other perfection, that, be, who has feen the Son, bas feen the Father alfo: (John xiv. 9.) And as this glorious Son of God created ; fo he fupports, maintains, and governs all ranks, orders, and individuals of his works, by his own almighty efficacious operation, which he exerts with as much eafe as by fpeaking a word, by which he commands, and they ftand fait; (Pf. xxxiii. 9.) and fo by bim all things confist, (Col. i. 17.) even by his providential influence, in whom, as well as in God the Father, we live, and move, and have our being : (Acts xvii. 28.) + And this Son of God being thus fuperlatively excellent in himfelf, and divinely qualified for, and worthy of the higheft honour ; when through the dignity of his perfon he, as our great High Prieft, preferable to all that went before him of the order of Aaron ‡, had alone, in his own perfon, made an actual and creatures is sufficient to illustrate, both sufficient to guard against an imaginathe effential union, and perfonal diffine- tion of a difference in nature between tion, of the Father and Son; fo, as I them, when immediately afterwards he humbly conceive, the Son's being the calls him the express image or character brightness of the glory (anauyaoua rnc of the Father's person. (See also Dr. Sogne) of the Father, relates to his effen- Owen on the place.) tial and infeparable union with the Father, as all the fainefs of the Godhead to mean by the word of his own power, dwells substantially in him. (See the by whom all things confif. But whenote on Col. ii. 9.) And this may be ther we refer it to his own or his Father's called the brightnefs of the Father's glo- power it is in effect all one, fince the diry, in allufion to the refulgent brightness vine power of the Father and Son is of a luminous body, and particularly the really the fame in both : And if we refun, which is indeed nothing different fer it to the Father's power, this thews from the mature of the fun itfelf; and that the Father's making the worlds by his being the express image or character the Son, ver. 2. no more denotes an in-(xagaxing) of his perfon or fubfiftence ferior inftrumentality of the Son in cre-(unoragions) relates to his perfonal dif- ating them, than the Son's upbolding all tinction from the Father, in which the things by the word of his Father's pow-Son is perfectly like him, and makes a com- er denotes an inferior instrumentality of plete representation of him, in allufion the Father's power in upholding them; to the exact and undefective likeness of but that the same divine power is exerta die and its coin, or of a leal and its im- ed by each of them in both those operaprefion upon wax, which exactly an- tions fwers line to line. These representations cannot indeed fully express things as they two preceding verses, that Chrift is more are in the Divine Being; but they are excellent than all the prophets that went the best that our narrow minds are capa- before him; fo he here suggests his tranble of to ferve the feveral purpoles for fcendent excellency above all the Levi-

NOTES.

* As no one fimilitude taken from the brightnefs of the Father's glory, was

+ By the word of his power, feems

‡ As the apostle had shewn in the which they are used; And the apostle's tical priefts, which is the grand argu-having first spoke in such strong and ment of this epistle, while the prophetic magnificent terms of the Son's being and kingly offices are here and there touched and complete atonement for our fins, to purge us from their guilt, and take them away, not by any oblation of other explatory facrifices, which were infufficient for it, but by the facrifice of himfelf, (Heb. ix. 26.) He then, in confequence of this, and in the virtue of his own blood, by office-right, in correspondence to his original dignity, afcended in our nature into the holy place, even heaven itfelf, (chap. ix. 12.) to take possession, as a priest upon his throne, (Zech. vi. 13.) of the highest dignity and glory, which may be represented in figurative terms, after the manner of men, by his fitting with quietness and fafety, preeminence and grandeur, at the right hand of God the Father, whole majefty and greatness are displayed with the utmost magnificence and lustre in the upper world. (See the note on Acts vii. 55.)

HEBREWS paraphrased.

4 This glorious Perfon, by whom God has fpoken to us in these last days, infinitely furpasses, not only all the ancient prophets and priefts, but also the higheft angels themfelves; he being in his divine nature*, and office-capacity, which is founded upon it, alike name than they. fuperior to them, as he really and originally is fo much more excellent than all the angels in his own divine perfon +, and is fo by the appointment and con-

4 Being made fo much better than the angels, as he by inherithath obtained a shce excellent more

> Mm 2 E S.

N 0

т touched in the process of it; and so he monstrate his pre-eminence above them; speaks of Christ's purging our fins, which because the Yews infisted on, and boasted is to be underftood in a facrificial fenfe, of the excellency of their law, as it was as in Lev. xvi. 30. with respect to his delivered by the ministration of angels taking away the guilt of fin by his expiating blood, whereby the conficence is purged from dead works to ferve the living God, in opposition to the blood of iii. 19.: And though, as I apprehend, bulls and of goats that was infufficient for this purpole, and only fanctified to the purifying of the fle/b. Chap. ix. 13, 14.

* The apoftle having begun with confidering the perfon of Christ, both in his divine and office-characters, to fhew his preference to the ancient prophets and priefls, ver. 1,-3. He keeps up the view of both those characters, in comparing Chrift with the angels, to shew how far he also excels them. Accordingly fome of the following quotations, to prove his superiority to the angels, relate immediately to his divine nature, and others to his mediatorial office, which is founded upon it, and could not be difcharged, and rendered effectual without it; and altogether, in one or the other, and unitedly in both those considerations of him, are an uncontrollable and illustrious. us. evidence of the fuperlative dignity of the perfon of Chrift above the most exalted ed made, very often fignifies, and is renaccording to what is faid about it, chap. ii. 2. compared with Deut. XXXIII. 2. Pfal. Ixviii. 17. Acts vii. 53 and Gal. Christ was the Jehovab that delivered the law by the disposition of angels, which gave a divine authority to it; yet the golpel appears to be full more glorious, and the neglect of it is fpoken of as to be still more dreaded, chap. ii. 2, 3.; becaule God fpoke it to us, not by the ministry of angels as he did the law, but immediately in and by the ministry of his own incarnate Son : For the ftrefs of the argument lies, not in any difference as to the divine authority of the original author of one and the other, which is the fame, whether it were God the Father, or God the Son, that delivered the law at mount Sinai by the ministration of angels; but it lies in the vaftly fuperior excellency of the Son as the immediately ministring perfon by whom the gospel-is spoken to

+ The word (yeromeros) here translatangels. And it was highly proper to de- dered is ; and to it expresses what Chrift really

Digitized by GOOGIC

flitution

stitution of the Father, as God-man Mediator; and is manifelted to be as much above them in his state of exaltation, as is answerable to that more glorious, emphatical, and fignificant title, which he is honoured with by the Father himfelf, (ver. 5.) and which he has received by right of inheritance, as the natural and appointed heir of all things; (fee the paraphrase on ver. 2.) a title far more excellent, than any name that belongs, or ever was given with fuch peculiarity and eminence, to any, even of the higheft angels. The fpecial name or title which I mean, and which is expressive of the dignity of his perfon, and appropriated to him, is that of the Son of God.

5 For, to confider this matter first with respect to his divine nature, to which of the angelic fpirits, even of the highest order and dignity amongst them, did God ever fpeak with an emphasis and peculiarity, as he did to our Lord Jefus Chrift; when, referring to the formal reafon of his Sonfhip, he faid to him, (P/. ii. 7.) Thou art my effential Son, whom I have begotten from eternity; which, for unalterable permanency of duration, may be called one continued unfucceflive day *. And again, with refpect to his office capacity, correspondent to his original Sonship, Οf ginally in himself more excellent than jointly, ver. 6,-9.; and it winds up with the angels; at other times it fignifies a ftrong proof of his being indeed the manifested to be, as it might be rendered great, eternal, and unchangeable God, in Matth. v. 45. and John xv. 8.; and fo that made the earth and the heavens, and Chrift's being more excellent than the will remain the fame after they shall angels, may relate to the evidence and demon/tration with which God manifest there.) Mr. Peirce in his note upon the or declares him to be fo: And at other last quotation in this verse has, I think, times it fignifies made or ordained, as in Mark ii. 27.; and to Chrift's being made more excellent than the angels, may refer to the office-exaltation of his incarnate perfon, after he had, in his ftate of humiliation been made lower than the angels.

NOTES.

* In the former part of this verse God the Father fpeaks of what he had already done in begetting his Son; but, in this laft claufe he fpeaks of what he would be to him. Ac. ordingly I take the former of these to relate to his natural Sonjbip by an eternal inconceivable generation, which was manifeited by his refurrection; (see the note on chap. v. 8.) and the fecond to his Father's acknowledgment and treatment of him as his incarnate Son and Mediator : And to the argument for the fuperior dignity of his perion proceeds in this verie from his divine to his office-character, and from really is, and may respect his being ori- thence to both these confiderations of him all perith, ver. 10,-12. (See the note abundantly proved by feveral arguments, that it is taken from the prophecy in 2 Sam. vii. 14. and 1 Chron. xvii. 13. where the words are exactly the fame. The only difficulty that feems to lie againft this interpretation, is what follows 2 Sam. vii. 14. where it is added, If he commit iniquity, I will chaften him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men, which is by no means applicable to Chrift himfelf. But that learned writer fufficiently answers this, by flowing that, according to the meaning and frequent use of the relative term, (いいい) even where the demonstrative pronoun before it is omitted, it . ought to be rendered whofsever, meaning wholoever of the Meffiah's children commit iniquity, I will chasten him, &c.; and thus this very prophecy is commented upon in Pfal. lxxxix. 30,-33.

1

For unto which of the angels faid he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? and again, 1 will be to him a Father, and he thall be to me a Son ?

Of which of the angels has God the Father faid, as he did of Chrift in another prophecy of him, (2 Sam. vii. 14. and 1 Chron. xvii. 13.) I will own myfelf to be his Father, and him to be my Son, by an extraordinary conception and birth in human nature, and will treat him accordingly, with eminent tokens of my peculiar love, protection, and care of him, whom I will exalt to his kingdom ? (See I Chron. xvii. 14. and Luke i. 32, 33.)

6 'And again, to fhow that he is in reality a divine Saviour, infinitely more excellent than the higheft angels, we have another teftimony to him in P_{f} , xevii. 7.*; where, with reference to God's introducing this Lord and heir of all into our world at his mira-'culous birth of a virgin, in order to his going through the work of mediation upon earth, and his contequent exaltation to the throne of his glory in heaven, and his coming to judge the world at the laft day, God the Father commanded even all his holy angels themfelves to offer religious adoration to him, as to his own incarnate Son, and to pay all divine honours to him, as fuch; which supposes him to be God their Creator; and them to be the work of his hands, otherwife they would never have been ordered to pay fuch homage to him, as is the unalienable right of Deity. (See Mat. iv. 10.)

7 And of the 7 And fill further to show how much the angels angels he faith, are beneath him, God, ipeaking concerning them, Who maketh his fays, He makes those noblest of all his creatures, angels

God's bringing Christ into the world a- and being advanced to the throne of his gain at his refurrection, as fome suppose: glory, as head over all things to the For the word (oxxyation) here rendered church; and so God's bringing him into the world, when put absolutely without the world includes his incarnation, and any other addition, conftantly relates to all that followed upon it in his life, this habitable earth or world, as Dr. death, refurrection, exaltation, and ef-Owen observes; or to some part of it, fusion of his Spirit, for the setting up of fuch as the land of Judea, or the Roman his throne and kingdom in this lower empire : But the refurrection of Chrift world, and exercifing dominion over all, was rather in order to his leaving this till he shall come to judgment. Accordworld, and going to the Father, (John ingly Pfal. xcvii. 7. from whence thefe xvi. 28.) than to his being brought again words are quoted, begins ver. 1. with into this world, from which his body calling upon the earth, and the multiwas never removed, and in which he ne- tude of ifles to rejoice on account of bis ver afterwards appeared, except to his reigning, who is here called the first beown disciples. Again, therefore, by a gotten, and in Pfal. 1xxxix. 27. the firstusual trajection or transposing of the born, higher than the kings of the earth, Greek fentence, may rather be joined to though none were to begotten or born afbe fays, as our version has put it; and to terwards, to intimate his pre-eminence, it bears the tame tente, and is taken in and that there was none before him, in the fame way, as in the foregoing verfe, allution to the dignity of the first-born to lead us on to another testimony con- under the law, who was fo called, whecerning Chritt, relating to the time when ther any were born after him or not.

he was brought into our world, in order even

NOTE.

* And again, feems not to relate to to his crecting a kingdom of grace in it,

Digitized by GOOGLE

6 And again, when he bringeth in the firft begotten into the world, he faith, And let all the angels of God worfhip him.

8 But unto the Son be Jaith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever : a sceptre of righteousness is the fceptre of thy kingdom.

9 Thou haft loved righteouineis, and hated iniquity: therefore God, enien thy God. hath anointed thee fellows.

angels fpirits, and even those fpiritual and intellectual beings * the angels ^a themfelves, his fervants to execute his will and commandments with ftrength, fpeed, and activity like the winds; and makes those, his ministring spirits, fervent, powerful, and penetrating in their agency, like the very lightning, or any flame of fire.

8 But in much loftier strains of language, God in the fcripture fays to his only begotten and eternal Son, (P/al. xlv. 6, 7.) As, O thou truly divine perfon +, thy natural and effential dominion, which is emblematically reprefented by a prince's fitting on his throne, is everlaftingly and unchangeably the fame, without beginning or end t; So thy mediatorial throne of government shall remain, 'till all its ends be thoroughly accomplished; and the honour of it, together with the complete happinels of thy fubjects, shall abide for ever and ever, even after the manner of administring thy kingdom on earth shall cease, and thou shalt have delivered it up to the Father, that according to the original state of things God, inclulive of all the divine perfons, may be all in all that farther pertains to it. (See the note on I Cor. xv. 24,-28.) The rule which thou beareft in thy kingdom is full of equity, truth, and holinefs, that run through all thy laws and government : Thou art intitled to this government upon principles of righteoufnefs; and thy reign, of which a sceptre is the royal enfign, is in all rectitude, and with fanctifying influence over righteous subjects.

9 Yea, fuch is thy regal dignity, and thy worthinefs of it, that not only thy laws and administrations, but thy heart and nature are infinitely pure and holy : Thou haft the greatest delight in holines, and haft thyfelf fulfilled all righteoufnels; and thou art of with the oil of purer eyes than to behold iniquity without the utmost gladness above thy detertation of it, and hast taken away its guilt from thy

NOTES.

whence this quotation is made, speaks, peft at Mount Sinai, which are spoken as it is here rendered of, and not to the of in Exod. xix. 16. and Heb. xii. 18. angels; and though the word in the Greek (#gos) most commonly fignifies to; ber is never used absolutely, or without yet it is sometimes used for of or concern- a restriction to some peculiar consideraing, as it might be rendered in Mark tion of it, as it is here, of any but the xii. 12. and Rom. x. 21. And as spirits only true God. (*nounala) fignify also winds, it feems most natural to suppose, that the angels throne to be most immediately intended in the first claufe, are compared to the winds, as they are in the next to a flame' upon, and corresponds to his original doof fire; and fince the apostle defigned minion as God, and he had been spoken to show the preference of Christ to the of in his divine and mediatorial characangels in their ministration of the law, ters in the preceding verses, I thought chap. ii. 2, 3. perhaps here may be some proper to keep that in view, which in

* It is plain that Pfal. civ. 4. from terrible thunders, lightnings, and tem-

+ O God (& Oros) in the fingular num-

† Though I take Chrift's mediatorial in this paflage; yet as this is founded reference to their agency in forming the the Bricheft fense is for ever and ever.

Chap. i.

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

thy fubjects by thy atoning blood, that thou mighteft fubdue its power in them by thy Spirit and grace. On account of all this, God, who prepared thee a body, and is thy covenant God, and has entered into engagements with thee as God-man Mediator, and to in thy office-capacity is thy God, he has inaugurated and actually inverted thee with all fulnefs of authority, in exalting thee with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour ; (Acts v. 31.) and has enriched thee with an unmeasurable fulness of the Spirit, that thou mighteft give gifts to men, and shed them forth abundantly; (Epb. iv. 8. and Acts ii. 33.) which, in allufion to the ancient modes of confecrating prophets, priefts, and kings, may be expressed by his anointing thee with fuch an unction as is infinitely delightful to thee, and produces the most joyful effects upon thy fubjects, even an unction far more excellent and abundant, than ever was or will be given to any other, whether prophet, priest, or king, or faint, or angel, which in their meafure have been. are, or shall be respectively partakers (Hurroxos) of offices, bleffings, and joys with thee, and under thee.

10 And Thou, Lord, in the beginning haft laid the foundation of the earth; and the .hands :

10 And to show that Chrift is above all titular gods, and had an original right to univerfal dominion, antecedent to what is now given him, in his complex perfon and office-character, by fpecial difpenfation*, heavens are the It is further faid of the Son, (Pfal. cii. 25, 26, 27.) works of thise Thou, Jehovah, in the beginning, before any creatures for connecting this with the foregoing all things were made by bim ; and fo it is effimony, it not being in P/al. cii. 25. much to the apofile's purpole to prove from whence this paffage is quoted; and the Son's original right of dominion, as the form of address is just the same all Lord of all, because he made the worlds, along through both these recited tefti- ver. 3.; as also to shew that he is every monies, without the least intimation or way in nature, as well as office, far appearance of a different perion's being more excellent than the angels and all introduced in the application of them, creatures whatfoever; and that the creever, &c. And Thou, Lord, in the be- him, who is the author of the goipel; ginning baft laid the foundation of the earth, Scc. Were we to suppose, with fome, that this last testimony refers not they were employed in creating work. to God the Son, but to the Father, I own that, after all I have met with to fupport this opinion, I cannot see to what from whence this citation is made, relates purpole this passage is mentioned at all, or how it any way fuits the defign of the ergument in hand: But as it is an un- 15, 16, 18, 22.; and therefore this grand queftionably just description of the only description of God, as eternal and unargument in hand : But as it is an untrue God in creating work, it is very changeable, and as the creator of all, may properly brought in here as applicable to well be supposed to belong to the perfor Chrift, to prevent all cavils, as though of Chrift, as the apostle has here applied he were to be confidered only as an un- it.

ΝΟΤΕ.

* The word and is the apostle's own, der agent, when it was faid ver. 2. that Thy throne, O Gad, is for ever and ation of the world was to be ascribed to and not at all to the angels, by whole ministration the law was given, as though according to the fond imagination of fome of the Jews: And that Pfal. cii. to the Meffiab, appears from feveral verfes in it, as particularly from ver. 13,

tures existed, which of old were not in being, didstfet fast the earth, as on its basis, that it might not be removed out of its place : And all the beauties, glories, and furniture of the whole fabric of the heavens, with all their pompous hofts of fun, moon, and ftars, are the curious workmanship of thy infinite wildom and almighty power.

II Both the earth and the heavens, and all the parts of this visible creation, firm and durable as fome of them now appear to be, are of a corruptible nature, and in their feafon shall certainly pass away, and be totally diffolved, as to their prefent use and form: (Mat. v. 18. and 2 Pet. iii. 7, 10,-13.) But thou, O immortal Son of God! always hadft, ftill haft, and wilt have an abiding and unchangeable exiftence. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadft formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting thou art God, as is faid of the great Jehovah of Ifrael: (P/al. xc. 2.) And as we daily fee that all the creatures of this lower world grow old and gradually decay; fo the earth and the heavens, with all the visible things contained in them, fhall wear out, and, at length, become unfit to anfwer their prefent defign, like an old rotten garment.

12 And as a garment is eafily put off, folded up and laid afide at a man's pleafure, when it is no further ferviceable, and he has either done with it, or deligns to turn it to a new use; So Thou, the Creator of all, wilt, by thine omnipotence, at the end of time, as eafily roll the beavens together as a fcroll, and move every mountain and island out of their places: (If. xxxiv. 4. and Rev. vi. 14.) And by thy almighty power thou wilt make fuch a wonderful alteration in them, that, inflead of being annihilated and utterly deftroyed, they shall be changed into new beavens and a new earth, wherein dwells righteou/ne/s, (2 Pet. iii. 13.) when thou wilt unfold them again for the ftill greater glory of thy name. But thou thyfelf art eternally and invariably the fame in thy being and perfections, without beginning of days or end of life: And in thy love and care of thy people, and the efficacy of thy mediation, Thou art the fame yesterday, to-day, and for ever. (Heb. vii. 3. and xiii. 8.)

a 3 But which of the angels can once be compared of the angels faid. with this glorious Saviour in his infinite dignity, as that appears from what has been observed about his divine nature and office-exaltation ? Which of them, even of the highest of these excellent spirits, has God the Father thought worthy of fo transcendent an honour, as ever to fay to any one of them, as he did to his incarnate Son, (Pf. cx. 2.) Sit thou enthroned in majefty,

Digitized by Google

11 They thall perifh; but thou remaineft : and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they thall be changed: but thou art the fame, and thy years shall not fail.

12 And as

13 But to which he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footftool ?

14 Are they not all miniftring fpi-rits, fent forth to minister for them

who shall be heirs of falvation ?

HEBREWS paraphrased.

majefty, power and glory, at my right hand, and continue thou to reign on thy mediatorial throne, till fin, Satan, death, and all thine and thy churches enemies be actually and abfolutely fubdued, and till thou triumph over them, like vanquifhed rebels under thy feet, according to my appointment ?

14 On the contrary, Are not all thefe fpiritual beings placed in an infinitely lower rank, (P/. ciii. 21.)even the moft eminent of them, as but meffengers and fervants of Chrift, whom he commiffions and employs merely in a minifterial way, as formerly in delivering the law at mount Sinai, fo continually ftill in offices of protection, care, and kindnefs, and in many important fervices in life and death, for the benefit of those that, by inheritance through grace, are appointed to, and ($\mu i \lambda \lambda orras \kappa \lambda ngoropsil)$ fhall actually inherit eternal life under him, and in his right, who is their head, and the prime heir of all things? (ver. 2.)

RECOLLECTIONS.

With what fatisfaction may we depend upon the divine authority of both the Old and New Teftament ! God, who formerly spake to the fathers by the prophets, now speaks to us by his Son ; he began and gradually carried on various revelations at different times, in diffinct parcels, and by leveral ways and means. which we have an account of in the Old Teftament, till he completed them in the New. How thankful should we be that our lot is cast under the gospel-dispensation! This is the clearest, the fullest, the best, and last discovery of the mind and will of God, that is to be expected in our world. And how glorious is the reprefentation it gives us of Chrift in his divine nature and mediatorial office ! He is effentially the fame God with the Father, and yet perfonally diftinct from him, as the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and is his eternal only begotten Son; he is the Creator of heaven and earth, and all things contained therein, and upholds them by the word of his power : And in his office-capacity he is the appointed heir of all things, in and by whom we inherit the bleifings of grace and glory. It is he, and he only, that has taken away our fins by the iacrifice of himfelf, and is now exalted on his throne, with the higheft dignity and honour, at the Father's right hand ; his throne is for ever and over ! He is injunitely pure and spotless in himself, and righteous in all the administrations of his kingdom; he is fully invefted with all authority above whatever was or thall be conferred on any prophet, prieft or king, faint or angel; and at the laft day, he, who is the unchangeable God, will put an end to the prefent frame of this world. and change it into another, that will be inexpreffibly more excellent and glorious. How fafe and happy then are the faints under his care ! And what an honour has he put upon them, in affuming their nature, and exalting it in union with his own divine perfon in heaven, and in ordering all the holy angels to minister to them ! O, with what folemnity and joy fhould they join with these celestial spirits in paying all religious adorations to him : And how dead thould their hearts be to this perifining world and all its concerns, which wax old, and thall be laid afide like a useles worn-out garment ! But, after all the changes of the present icene of things. they themfelves shall inherit eternal falvation with him.

VOL. V.

Nn

CHAP.

Chap. ii.

HÂP. II.

The apostle infers from what he had faid about the dignity of Christ's person and office, the duty of stedfastly adhering to him and his gofpel, 1,-4. Re-affumes bis argument about Chrift's pre-eminence above the angels, and shews that his sufferings are no objection againft it, 5,-0. Opens the ground and reason of his sufferings, and the fitnefs of that dispensation, which laid out his way through them to bis mediatorial glory, 10,-13. And leads us to the in-carnation of Chrift, in opposition to bis affuming the nature of angels, as necessary to the discharge of his priestly office, 14,-18.

TEXT.

THerefore ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, left at any time we should let them flip.

PARAPHRASE.

CINCE therefore Chrift is fucht an excellent and divine perfon, fo far fuperior to all preceding prophets, and even to the angels themfelves, as has now been proved; (chap. i.) * It, for this reason, (due TETO) highly concerns us, in point of duty and intereft, even all and every one of us, that live under this more eminently glorious difpenfation, than that delivered by Moles and by the ministration of angels, to attend the more diligently, affectionately and fledfaftly unto; and, with humble reverential faith and love, to efteem, embrace, meditate, and reflect upon, and ferioufly endeavour to make a fuitable use and improvement of, the great and interefting doctrines, which under the gospel-flate we have heard, as delivered to us in the ministry of the word; and to retain them carefully in our hearts and memories, and perfevere in our holy profession of them; left, in some scalon and circumstances of life, through the corruption heedlefsnefs, treachery, and prejudices of our hearts, the temptations of Satan, and the fnares of this evil world, or through any other means, we should be carried away from the truth, or be forgetful hearers of the word, and fuffer it to flip out of our minds, like water that runs out of a leaking veffel +; or fhould fuffer it to pais by us, as a ftream, without making any good use of it; and so lose the benefit of the gospel, and perifh under all its gracious administrations.

2 For

* In this and the three following the margin renders it, (aragagevout) verfes the apoftle manifestly makes a run out, is a beautiful allusion to leaking practical application of the foregoing veffels, with which our treacherous discourse, by way of inference from it, hearts and memories may well he comas appears by the particle therefore, with which he introduces it; and fuch digreffions are very frequent in feveral use of; and in either of these views it. other parts of this epiftle, as we shall fee may import defects in ourfelves, through in their courfe.

+ Left we should let them flip, or, as the gospel.

NOTE.

pared ; or, perhaps, it may allude to waters that flow by us, but are made no which we get no faving advantage by

HEBREWS paraphra [ed.

2 For if the word fpoken by angels was ftedfaft, and every tranigrefion and difebedience Ieceived a just recompence of reward;

3 How fhall we escape if we neglect fo great falvation, which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard bim;

2 For if Mo/es' law, which was given at mount Sinai by the ministration of angels, as Christ's meffengers and servants to publish it, (Acts vii. 38, 53. fee the paraphrale there) was (Binapos) firm and valid, as established by divine authority, with an awful fanction to enforce it; and if every contemptuous violation of any precept of that law, by a fin of omiffion or commission; and every act of wilful difobedience to the authority of God in it, were feverely punished upon the tranigreffor, who died without mercy, as the righteous retribution of his evil deeds.

3 How then is it possible that any of us, who have heard the gospel, should escape the dreadful wrath of God? How can we in our confeiences expect to avoid condemnation, or imagine that his justice will excufe or spare us, or forbear executing the heaviest vengeance upon us, and that without mercy or remedy, for all our iniquities; and efpecially for our refufals and abufes of his grace, and of the only way of pardon and eternal life through Jefus Chrift ; if, through unbelief or carelefnefs, we despife and reject, or difregard and do not embrace the word of falvation, (Alls xiii. 26, and Epbef. i. 13.) or the gospel, which brings falvation to lost finners, (Tit. ii. 11.) as it difplays its reality, nature, and excellency, fhews us the way, and is the means of obtaining it, and is the power of God unto falvation to every one that believes? (Rom. i. 16.) A falvation, not of a temporal and worldly, but of a fpiritual, heavenly, and eternal nature; a falvation which is the contrivance of fuch amazing counfels of wildom and grace, and is procured by fo great a price, and confifts of deliverance from to great fin and milery, and of advancement to fo great holinefs, happinefs, and glory; and a falvation to complete and wonderfully comprehenfive of all bleffings, answerable to our utmost wants and defires, as furpaffes all comprehension, thought, or expression; The first clear publication of which, without the vail of types and shadows *, was begun to be made perfonally and immediately by the Lord Jefus Chrift himfelf in the days of his ministry upon Nn 2 earth, apostle fays, which at the first began to received, till he went to the Father, and be fpoken by the Lord : For though fhed down his Spirit from on high : Ac-Chrift opened the gospel-dispensation in cordingly he said to his disciples, John his perional ministry, he did not preach xvi 12, 13. I have yet many things to the whole of it; because several things fay unto you, but ye cannot bear them pertaining to it were to be accomplished now; bowbeit, when the Spirit of by his death, refurrection, and afcenfion truth is come, he will guide you into to heaven, and were not proper to be all truth. fully revealed; nor could they be fpo-

NOTE. * It is with great propriety that the ken of as actually fublisting, nor be well

Digitized by GOOGLC

earth, who is the Son of God, and the Lord of angels; and was further carried on, and certified to us of the Yewish nation, by many honeft, undefigning, faithful witneffes, and that under divine infpiration, fuch as the evangelifts, apoftles, and others, who themfelves heard him deliver these bleffed tidings of fo great falvation, which he came to procure, and beftow upon them that fhould believe in him.

4 To affure us of the infallible certainty of their

4 God alfo bearing them witnefs, both with figns and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghoft, according to his own will?

witnefs, God himfelf also gave the most unquestionable testimony to their integrity, and to the truth of what they faid, in an extraordinary manner, by abundance of miraculous operations and effects, which he wrought by them; operations which may be called figns*, as they were fignals of his owning and being with them, and were feals of the doctrine they preached; and may be called wonders, as they were uncommon and amazing appearances of God's almighty power and goodnefs; and may truly be called various kinds of miracles, as they were wrought by a divine agency, beyond, and even contrary to the ordinary courfe of nature; fuch as healing the fick, cafting out devils, and raifing the dead, merely by fpeaking a word: And God still further bore witness to these his faithful fervants, and confirmed their testimony, in a rich variety of supernatural gifts of the Holy Ghoft, fuch as the gifts of prophecy, wildom, knowledge, and utterance; and the gift of tongues, and the interpretation of tongues; yea, and the gift of conveying these excellent endowments to other believers, as has frequently been done by the laying on of the apoftle's hands: All which miraculous atteftations from God are not only equal to, but far more excellent than those, that he shewed in confirmation of the law of Moles; (Deut. vi. 22.) and are diftributed in all their different kinds and degrees to one and another of these witnesses, and to every one that has any of them, according to the good pleafure and fovereign operation of God by his Spirit, who, with the tame divine fovereignty, divides them to every man feverally, as be will. (I Cor. xii. 11.)

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in iubjection the world to come,

5 But to return to the comparison between Chrift and the holy angels, This glorious Perfon, I fay, is far superior in his office-character, as well as in bimwhereof we ipeak. felf, to any of them : For how much foever they were

NOTE.

terms for reasons suggested in the pa- gifts of the Spirit. raphrale, which gives us a different view

* Signs, wonders, and miracles, feem of what we more generally call mirato be much of the fame import; but cles, even while we diffinguish them may be expressed under those several from what are commonly called the 6 But one in a certain place tettined, faying, What is man, that thou him? or the fon of man that thou art mindful yifiteft him ?

of

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

were employed in giving the law, (ver. 2.) or are made use of as ministring spirits to the heirs of falvation, (chap. i. 14.) God has not given them any authority or dominion over the New Teltamentchurch, and the things belonging to it; which, being to succeed the Majaic dispensation, were commonly ityled by the Jew , the world to come. God has no where ipoke of bringing the gospel-church into any fubjection to the angels, as if they were to be lords and rulers over it, or as if its doctrines, ordinances and inflututions, privileges and bleffings, were to be derived from them, or they were to publish and difpenie its affairs; which are the things that I am fpeaking of, and shall further infift upon in this Epiltle, as more excellent than any that ever went before them. 6 But all these things are owing to, and immediately depend upon the incarnate Son of God himfelf, of whom an inipired writer of the Old Tellament fpeaks in a certain paragraph, (P/. viii. 4, 5, 6.) where, contemplating the nagnificent works of God, he broke out into this rapturous and admiring exclamation, faying, How mean and inconfiderable a creature is man in himfelf, and compared with the vast expanse of the heavens, the moon and stars which thou halt ordained *, that thou should it condescend this and the two following verfes are in the margin, and Acts v. 34. a little quoted, feems to have been composed while, or for a little space, it should by David in a clear, moon shining and rather have been taid, if applied to ftar-light night, when he was contem- Adam, that he was a little while plating the wonderful fabric of the hea- crowned with glory and honour, than vens; because in his magnificent de- that he was a little while made lower fcription of its luminaries, he takes no than the angels; fince his glory and notice of the fun, the most glorious of honour was only tor a small space of them all: And it appears to me that time before his tall, and his being made the words here cited had a principal lower than the angels was continued and ultimate reference to the Meffiah, all along after it. But as Chrift was who is really a man, and is spoken of as made not a little only, but much lower, man, and characterized as the Son of than the angels for a few years, as to man, in the P_{falms} and other parts his flate and condition in the days of of the Old Teftament, (Pfal. 1xxx. 17. his humiliation upon earth; to he is Dan. vii. 13. Zecb. vi. 12. and xiii 7.) now crowned with glory and honour as well as is called the man Christ Jesus, to continue in his exalted state for ever: in the New Teftament, 1 Tim. ii. 5. And how applicable forver tome of the and often spoke of himself, as the Son of quoted passages. relating to dominion, man : For if the following words in Pfal viii, were directly and confinedly general; yet in their complete and meant of the first Adam, or of his po- highest fense, they could belong to none fterity in general, the order of them but the fecond Adam, as the universal would most naturally have been, he Lord and Governor of all his creatures, was crowned with glory and honour, and the triumphant Conqueror of all his and made a little lower than the an. enemies; nor would the spottle's quogels, fince his honour was before his tall tation of them have been at all to his

NOTE.

* The eighth plaim. from whence think, be better rendered, as they are might be to Adam and his posterity in and abalement; and as the words ($\beta_{g\alpha}$ - purpole, unlets he had understood them $\chi v \tau_i$) a little lower, ver. 7. might, I to have been spoken of Christ.

Digitized by Google

to

to thew fuch favour to him, as to dignify his nature in the incarnation of thy Son? Or what is the nature of man, confidered merely as fuch, in the Meffiah himfelf, whole diffinguithing character is the Son of man, that thou thould the for the fake of mankind, raife him in human nature to the office of mediation, and enrich him with thy gifts and graces, and affit and own him in his work, and exalt him to his throne and kingdom, and give bim Power over all flefb, that be might give eternal life to as many as thou baff given bim; (John xvii. 2.) and fo by him thould the vifit the human race with fuch tender mercy, as to redeem thy people, and raife bim up, as an born of falvation for them in the boufe of thy fervant David. (Luke i. 68, 69.)

7 Thou, in purfuit of this gracious and glorious defign, didft place this Son of man, for a fmall feafon in a state of deep humiliation, subject to miseries in foul and body, and to death itfelf, whereby, under thy forfakings, his condition was abundantly inferior to that of the holy angels, who always behold thy face in beaven, (Mat. xviii. 10.) and never die: (Luke xx. 36.) And when he had gone through a fhort course of humiliation, obedience, and fufferings, even unto the most ignominious and painful death upon earth, Thou in confequence of it, and in recompence for it, didft raife him from the dead, and advance him like a king to his throne, and folemnly inaugurate and inveft him, like a prince at his coronation, in all mediatorial dignity and authority, honour and glory, at thine own right-hand in the highest heavens; (Phil. ii. 8. 9.) and didft constitute him the absolute and universal Lord and Sovereign of all the creatures which thou haft made, (Ephcf. i. 21. and I Pet. iii. 22.) that he might govern and order, overrule and reftrain them, and make them fubferve the great defigns of his kingdom, as the head over all things to the church. (Ephef. i. 22.)

8 Thou haft put all things in fubjection under his feet. For in that he put all in fubjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we fee not yet all things put upder him :

8 Thou haft fubjected all thy works, from the higheft to the loweft of them, to his dominion, that they may be entirely at his difpofal; and haft given him an abfolute power over all his and his church's enemies, fin, Satan, and death, that he may conquer, fubdue and triumph over them, like flaves and captives under his feet; may difarm them of all their force; may trample upon them with indignation and contempt, like the dirt under his feet; and may execute his righteous wrath upon them*.—This tellimony of the Pfalmiff fhews

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

Here ends the apoftle's quotation from the Pfalms, and what follows is bis own arguing upon it.

7 Thou madeft him a little lower crownedft

than the angels;

him with glory and honour, and didit fet him over the works of thy thou hands:

HEBREWS paraphrased.

277

fews that he had a higher view, than to that original dominion, which was given to man over the creatures of this lower world : For (as is there faid abfalutely and universally) when God put all things whatfoever, without exception or limitation, under him, it is evident, that there is no work of his hands, no creature in heaven or earth, nor any affair relating to them. nor confequently to the gofpel church, that is not brought into fubjection to him. But we plainly fee. by observation and experience, that in fo long a time, as from the creation of the world to this very day. neither mankind in general, nor any one of them in particular, has an absolute and universal dominion over all things; and therefore these words, Thou has put all things in subjection under bim, cannot be applied in their full extent to Adam, or any of his natural defcendents * : And, notwithftanding that full grant of authority and dominion, which is made to our Lord Jefus himfelf, It muft indeed be allowed, that we as yet do not fee that, in fall, all things are actually fo reduced under him, as to have put an end to all the opposition of his and his people's enemies; the time for this being not yet come.

o But we fee Jelus, who was made a little lower than the angels, for the fuffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God fhould tafte death for every man.

9 But (which cannot be faid of any other man) we certainly know from the teftimonies of infpired writers, whom God bore witness to, by divers miracles and gifts of the Holy Ghoft, (ver. 4.) and by the great and wonderful effects of their doctrine upon the hearts and lives of innumerable converts from among Jews and Gentiles, thro' the attending power of the Spirit, which is fhed down abundantly from the exalted Saviour; and we fee by faith that the Lord Jefus, who for a little while, (fee the note on ver. 6.) during the few years of his incarnation upon earth, was placed in a condition far inferior to the holy angels, that he might undergo the most terrible and abasing fufferings, even unto death ; we are well assured, I fay, that now in his human nature, as the reward of his fufferings and death, he is actually exalted to his heavenly throne, and is there incircled with the higheft honours, and poffeffed of all the majefty and glory, dignity, this him to relate to man in general, in absolute and unlimited dominion, which distinction from Jesus, who is mention- is answered in the next verse, as seems ed, as they apprehend, in opposition to to be intimated by the word yet, (ourw) this him at the beginning of the next We fee not yet all things put under verfe; and to the aportle denies that all him, which implies that the time is things are put under him : But Beza, coming when they shall be fo. Now, Pifcator, Mr. Pierce and others under- though I incline most to this last sense, fand this him as relating to Chrift; I would not be peremptory in it; and and fo the last claufe of this verie may therefore have included both.

NOTES.

* Dr. Owen and others underfind be confidered as an objection against his dignity, authority, and power of his mediatorial kingdom, in which he must reign till all his enemies be effectually fubdued under his feet. (I Cor. xv. 25.) And as by the gracious appointment of God, in his infinite love and good-will to men, Chrift tafted the bitter cup of death*, by actually dying in the room and flead of every one of the many lons (ver. 10.) that belong to him, whether they be Jews or Gentiles; and by experimentally knowing the forrows of that tremendous death, which their fins deferved ; fo he, having done this, is exalted to all the honours of his throne, that he might be in full capacity to purfue and accomplish the great end of his death, in bringing them all fafe to glory.

2

C. S. S.

10 For it be-10 For how offensive soever the doctrine of a suffering Meffiah be to the carnal Jews, who looked for a temporal, and not a fpiritual falvation by him; It was every way right and fit, decent, decorous, and all agreeable to the juffice and holinefs, wifdom and goodnels, and indeed to all the perfections of God, who is the ultimate end, for whom, and the first caufe, by whom, all things whatfoever were created, and fect through fuf- the whole scheme of falvation was formed : It was, I fay, infinitely becoming the great God himfelf, for the vindication of the rights and honour of his holy nature, law, and government, in his way of bringing an innumerable multitude (Rev. vii. 9.) of adopted and regenerated fons to all the bleffedness and glory of the heavenly flate, to prepare his only begotten Son for this work, as the prince, leader, and author of eternal falvation +, the whole accomplishment of death as preceding his exaltation. And all along, after the verfe before us, calltherefore it is most confonant to the ed. the many fons who were to be derstand, with Mr. Peirce, that here is brethren, and the church ; and we may fuch an ellipfis or fyllepfis, as is to be met with both in profane and facred writers, and is a figure of speech that figned to show that this favour was not fupplies the fenfe, though not exactly according to the ftructure of the words; and fo it may fland thus, Jefus was crowned with glory and honour, that, This Turngias) properly fignifies the Leadby the grace of God having tasted death, he might fave every man.-But that Author, (Acts iii. 15. and v. 31. and learned writer (notwithstanding his no- Heb xii 2) which are the only places

N Q T E S.

* Tafting death, is an Hebraism for serves, that every man, for whom Chrift dying : But the death of Chrift was not tafted death, cannot be here meant of after he was crowned with glory and all mankind; but that the nature of the honour, much lefs was he crowned, that argument and the fcope of the context he might tafte death, as the order of manifeftly carry it under a limitation to these words may seem to intimate; for all those who were before called the the scripture every where speaks of his beirs of falvation, chap. i. 14. and are truth, and to the apolite's defign, to un- brought to glory. the fanctified, Chrift's add, the children which God had given bim, ver. 10,-14. It also might be deintended to be confined to the Jetus, but to be extended likewife to the Gentiler.

which

+ The Captain of falvation (agxnyos er, and is rendered the Prince, and the tion of universal redemption) further ob- belides in the New Testament, where this him, came for whom are all things. and by whom are things, in bringing many lons unto glory, to make the captain of their falvation perferings.

11 For both he and they who are fanctified, are all of one, for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren,

fanctifieth.

that

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

which is lodged in his hands, and to perfect the confecration of him to his office, as a prieft upon his throne, by means of his atoning fufferings and death on their behalf, and in their stead, that as fin bas reigned unto death, fo grace might reign through righteoufucfs to eternal life, by Jelus Christ our Lord. (Rom. v. 21.)

11 For both the Redeemer, who has taken away fin by the facrifice of himfelf, that its guilt may be expiated and its defilement removed, * and the redeemed, whofe fins are purged away by his blood and fpirit, and who are thereby devoted to God, and qualified for acceptably worthipping and ferving him, are all of one blood, (Acts xvii. 26.) partakers of one and the fame human nature from one common parent; Chrift having affumed their nature into perfonal union with himfelf, and that in the fame thate and condition of weakness, affliction, and mortality with themfelves, fin only excepted, (ver. 17. and chap. iv. 15.) that he might have fomething to offer, and they might have the benefit of it +; and they are all of one heavenly Father, under a wife, holy, and gracious conftitution, whereby they are legally one and included in one covenant. And therefore, great and glorious as Chrift is, and mean and contemptible as they are, he does not difdain, but condefcends to take them into the near and endearing relation of brethren to himfelf, who is the first born among many bretbren, (Rom. viii. 29.) and to own them with pleafure this term is used; and in all these places was fignified by external purifications with and at others to confecrate, (chap. yii. the Spirit 28.) may relate to his being both completely fitted for, and confecrated to that part of his office which he was to carry on in heaven, and for the fulfilling of which he was crowned with the glory and honour mentioned in the preceding verle.

* Sanclifieth and fanclified (ο αγιαζων xas os ayja (ous vos) are, I think, conftant. ly used through this epiftle in the facrificial fense, with a reference to legal purifications for feparation, or dedication to God, and being fitted for his fervice; or for cleaning from the guilt of in: But when they relate to the fanctification of believers, in virtue of the blood of Chrift, as they do here, and in chap. x. 10. 14. they may well be supposed to include alto an internal work of bolinefs, which this verie is brought to prove.

Vol. V.

NOTES.

it is applied to Chrift : And this Captain water and blood, (according to the more of falvation being made perfect, accord- common acceptation of those words in ing to different acceptations of the word, other epiftles) as it was purchased by the (TIALIGTAL) which is fometimes render. blood of Chrift, and is effected in confeed to perfect, (chap. vii 19 and ix. 9) quence thereof by the functification of

+ Of one (Exercs) is both the malcula line and neuter gender, and may aecordingly mean of one perfon, or of one thing. and that very confidently with each other, and with the apoftle's argument; though their being all of one nature feems to be most directly intended -A learned expositor has conjectured, that all of one means that Christ and the fanctified are all of one father Abraham, as he and all believers have the fame faith with Abrabam. "But though this may be a good reason for Christ's calling them brethren, I do not fee how it flows that it became God in bringing many fons to glory, to make the Captain of their falvation perfect through fufferings, which is the very thing that the former part of

00

12 Saying, will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midft of the church will I fing praife unto thee.

...

13 And again, I will put my truft in him. And again, Behold, I, and the children which God hath given me.

pleafure under that relation, as he did after his refurrection, (John xx. 17.) and will publicly do in the day of judgment. (Mat. xxv. 40.) And this correfponds to the reprefentation which was made in the prophetic writings of his calling them bretbren.

12 Saying to his Father, (P/. xxii. 22.) I will make known the glory of thy perfections and councils, ways and works, to the honour of thy great name, with reference to the scheme of falvation, by opening it first in my perfonal ministry, and afterwards carrying it on in plainer and more extensive discoveries, 'till it be perfected, in the ministry of my fervants, and by the illumination of my Spirit, that it may be fully manifested to thy children, to whom I ftand nearly related by fameness of nature and covenant-conflitution, as my brethren. I will joyfully celebrate * and publish the wondrous praises of thy love, to thy glory among them whom thou haft chofen, called, and fanctified to be a peculiar church and people unto thee.

13 And again, in another prophetic representation of Chrift, he is brought in as faying in the language of David, his type, (P/. xviii. 2.) like one that has communion with his brethren in human affections, fufferings, and graces, as well as in nature, I will place all my truft and confidence in the Lord, who is my rock, and my fortrefs, and my deliverer, my God, my firength; (as it follows in that pfalm) My dependence shall be entirely upon him to maintain my caufe, to fupport me under, and carry me through. all my trials and difficulties, to make me triumph over them, and to reward me for them in my own perfonal exaltation, and in effectually bringing the many fons to glory. (ver. 10.) And with a like acknowledgment of his relation to them as brethren, he fays in another place, (1/a. viii. 18.) Behold, here am I, ready to do and fuffer all that thou calleft me to for the redemption of the children, whom thou in eternal councils of wildom, love, and grace, haft given me, as my property and charge, that I might deliver them from all evil, and fanctify them for thy iervice, and for an enjoyment of thee; and that I might own, and take care of them, as my dear brethren.

NOTE. # If finging praifes is to be taken li- take it in a laxer fense, for fetting forth terally, our Lord did this with his difci- the praifes of God's name, this Chrift has ples, the only gospel church that he had done, ftill does, and will continue to do, then upon earth, a little before his death, through all generations in the church, by when they fung an bymn at the close of his word and Spirit, in its various minithe inftitution and celebration of the eu- firations and ordinances of divine worcharift. (Matth. xxvi. 30.) But if we thip.

14 Foralmuch

dren are partakers of flefh and blood,

he also himself through death he might deftroy him

that had the power of death, that is,

the devil;

thren, amidst all the fcorn and reproach of men upon earth, and conduct them fafe to heaven : And behold, I prefent them together with myfelf to thee, for thine acceptance, and for their everlating happineís.

14 Since then (1754 81) the children, which God then as the chilhad given to his Son to be faved by him, were of the human race, and (zerosvoraze) had communion with the reft of mankind in human nature, as confifting not only of an immortal foul, but likewife of a mortal bolikewife took part dy of flefh and blood, which was capable of dying; of the fame; that he alio, who had an eternal pre-exittence as God, condescended voluntarily to affume true human nature with all its effential properties, and natural, though finlefs, infirmities, into perfonal union with himfelf, really and exactly according to their own likenes; (παξπλησιως μετισχε) and fo was allied as a near kiniman to them, that the right of redemption might lie in him, and that he, in the fame nature which finned, might make a proper fatisfaction to the law and justice of God for it; to the end that $(m\alpha)$ by means of his meritorious death, which he fuffered in their room and stead, to take away their fins and the curfe of the law, and to purchase a refurrection to eternal life, he might vanquish and (zaragynon) entirely overthrow, or make void the power of that great destroying adversary, the devil, who, as a murderer from the beginning, was the means of bringing fin and death upon them by the first transgreffion; and, as an executioner of divine juffice, had an empire over death to inflict it in a penal way upon obstinate and incorrigible finners, whenever God might permit him; and to be afterwards their everlasting tormentor in the fecond death.

> 15 And when Satan thought to have triumphed over Chrift himfelf, by bringing him into the territotories of death, This Captain of falvation utterly defeated him, as it were on his own ground; and by that very means, which feemed of all others the most unlikely, and by which he himfelf feemed to be overcome, he difarmed that grand adverfary of all his power, that in the virtue of his own death he might ranfom all his children from the iting and terrors of death, and from its dominion over them; and might, in the effectual application of his blood, actually free them from the guilt and power of fin, and give them a complete victory and triumph over death itself; (1 Cor. xv. 26, 55, 56, 57.) even them, who through their formidable thoughts of death, or of its dreadful confequences, or of both, were all their lives long before liable to be fadly inflaved in their own minds, and afraid Q 0 2

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their life-time subject to bondage.

. The Epifile to the

16. For verily he took not on him the nature of an gels; but he took on him the feed of Abraham.

all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren; that he might be a merciful and faithful high prieft, in things pertaining to God, to make reronciliation for the fins of the people :

17 Wherefore in

fraid to die, whether they were Jews under the terrors of the legal difpensation, or Heathens, that had no hope of a better world beyond the grave.

16 For to accomplish these important ends, it is most certainly true, that our bleffed Lord did not lay hold on the nature of angels, to take that into perfonal union with himfelf, as though he had intended to recover any from among them that fell from their original rectitude and happiness *; but, paffing by the angelic nature, he graciously condescended to lay hold on, and unite to himfelf, the far more inferior nature of man, and to give it a peculiar fubfiftence in his own divine perfon, as he derived it from the patriarch Abraham, to whom God promifed, that, in his feed all the nations of the earth (bould be bleffed. (Gen. xxii. 18. and xxvi. 4.)

17 We may therefore infer from all this, that, in order to Chrift's duly answering the great defign of his office, as their Redeemer and Saviour, it was highly fit and needful, and in the reafon of things every way proper, that he fhould partake of their nature in all things that effentially belong to it, and fhould come under their trials and fufferings, and indeed fhould be in every thing, as far as poffible, in the like condition with those brethren of his whom he was to bring fafe to glory ; (ver. 10, 11.) that fo by his own experience of fufferings, which he underwent for their fakes, in their nature and in their itead, he might be the better qualified, and the more. feelingly engaged, to act the part of a compafiionate, tender hearted high prieft, and might be the more touchingly firred up to acquit himfelf with all fidelity, in the difcharge of his great undertaking for them,

NO T E.

ture of angels, is understood by some to the nature of angels; but took to him lignify, according to the rendering in the the nature of the feed of Abraham; margin, he did not take hold of the an where human nature is expressed by the gels, to help or refcue them; but he feed of Abraham; because our Lord detook hold of the feed of Abraham, to help tived it from Abraham according to or refcue them. But though I would Old Teftament-prophecies concerning not wholly exclude that fenfe, in connec- him; and becaufe he therein had a petion with the other, which lies in the culiar respect to the spiritual feed of Atext of our version; yet Christ's affum- braham : And this might with propriety ing human nature in his incarnation, enough be called Chrill's taking to bim. and not the nature of angels, leems to or tuking hold of, (inixauGavilai) not be most immediately intended, answer- the nature of angels, but the human naable to the whole fcope of the context : ture in the line of Abraham; becaufe in And these words may be rendered, with- his incarnation he affumed human nature out the supplement of nature, which is into perforal union with himself, and so added to the Greek in our translation, he laid hold of it in the most intimate and did not take to him of the angels, that endearing manner poffible, in order to is, wat any one of them; but he took to his refcuing and faving it. him of the feed of Abraham; or, with

* Verily he took not on him the na- the supplement, He did not take to him

Digitized by GOOGLE

them, with relation to what he was to do with God on their behalf, in a way of fatisfaction to his juffice, for healing the breach which fin had made between him and them, and procuring peace and reconciliation with God for them; whom he reprefented and acted for, as taken from among men, and as therein typified by the bigb prie/l under the law. (See chap. v. 1.)

18 For in that he himfelf hath fuffered being tempted, he is able to fuccour them that are gempted.

18 And as the typical high prieft could have compa/fion on the ignorant, and on them that were out of the way, for that he himself also was compassed about with infirmities, (chap. v. 2.) This is most remarkably and eminently true of Chrift : For, in as much as, and in the very thing, (ww) in which he himfelf underwent the levereft tribulations, when he was in a flate of trials and fufferings from Satan and the world, from the defertions of his Father and his own difciples, and from the reproaches and perfecutions of his enemies, and his various troubles in foul and body; He, having triumphed over all thefe forts of temptations in his own perfon, is both capable, inclined, and willing to fupport, comfort, and relieve all his brethren, that are exercised with any like afflictions and trials; as well remembring what he fuffered by them, and well knowing how to make those dear objects of his fympathy and compassion, as victorious over them, as he himfelf was.

RECOLLECTIONS.,

How much more excellent and important is the golpel of Chrift, than the law of Mofes ! This was indeed fpoken by the ministration of angels, and was divinely established; but that began to be spoken immediately in person by the incarnate Son of God himfelf, who is, both by nature and office, infinitely superior to the angels in heaven; and this bleffed gofpel is confirmed to us by many faithful witneffes, who heard it from his own mouth, and were impowered still farther to publish it, with infallible certainty, in all its extent and glory; God himfelf at the fame time bearing witnefs to the truth of their teftimony by various wonders, miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghoft, according to the good pleafure of his will And O what a great falvation, comprehenfive of all ipiritual and eternal hleffings, and furpaising all thought, does the gospel bring to them that by faith receive it! With what care and diligence then should we attend to it, that we may embrace and retain it, and not let it flip out of our thoughts and hearts without any practical and faving improvement of it ! If it were just in God to punish the despisers of Moles's law, and they fuffered accordingly. How much heavier vengeance will he certainly take on the neglecters of his Son's gofpel? But how aftonifhingly condescending is divine grace to mankind ! Chrift, paffing by the angels, atlumed our interior nature, as derived from Abraham, into perfonal union with himfelf: And we may well cry out with admiration and joy, O what is man, that thou fhould t visit him in this kind manner by the Son of man! How low was our Lord brought for a little while! He was made lower than the angels in his frare of humiliation, when, as the fruit of mere grace to the children whom God hath given him. he tafted the bittereft cup of death for their redemption. And how eminently is he now exalted in his mediatorial character in consequence of his sufferings, and as the righteous rewards of them ! The New Testament church, and all its affairs, yea, all God's works of nature and providence are already put under his dominion ; and though all his enemies are not yet actually fubdued, they must at length fall before him. How

Now highly is God glorified in his appointed way of falvation through a crucified and exalted Redeemer ! This is a way becoming himfelf, who is the first caufe and last end of all things : All the perfections of his nature, together with his law and government, thine forth with harmonious and illustrious honour, in bringing a valt multitude of his fons to glory, through the Captain of their falvation, who was perfected for the remainder of his office by fufferings, and was one with them in fuch an intimacy of nature and relation, as is a proper foundation of his undertakings and performances on their behalf, and of his owning and regarding them as his brethren. He died, that he might reconcile them to God, and fanctify them for access to him, and holy communion with him; that he might deftroy the power of the devil, who brought fin and death into the world, and trinmphed in the regions of mortality; and that he might take away the fting of death, and deliver his brethren from its penal confequences, who all their lives long before had been brought into bondage by its terrors. And O what a merciful and faithful high prieft is Chrift ! How effectually has he procured his people's reconciliation to God by his blood ! And how compaffionately does he fympathize with them under all their temporal and spiritual trials, in remembrance of the bitternels of his own fuffering the like for them; that he might featonably help and relieve them in their most afflictive circumstances, till he carries them fafe through all to eternal glory !

C H A P. III.

The aposite shows the superior worth and dignity of Christ, in his perfon and prophetic office, particularly above Moles, 1,—6. And represents to the Hebrews, from the example of their unbelieving ancestors, the fin and danger of infidelity and apostacy, and the necesfity of faith in Christ, and of a stedfast adherence to him, in order to their entering into the beavenly rest, 7,—19.

Text.

Wherefore, holy bretbren, partakers of the heavenly calling, confider the Apottle and high prieft of our profeffion, Chrift Jefus;

S INCE the great Author of the golpel is to far more excellent than all the former prophets, and even than the angels themfelves, (as has been obferved, cbap. i. ii.) Therefore, my dear brethren, who are to, not only by nation as Jews, but, in the judg-

PARAPHRASE.

chap. i. ii.) Therefore, my dear brethren, who are fo, not only by nation as Jews, but, in the judgment of charity, by grace as Christians, and are brethren to our Lord himself, and to one another; and who, by your profession and obligations, are an holy people, teparated to him, and devoted to his fervice, as being fanctified by his blood and fpirit; (chap. ii. 11.) who also are admitted to a partnership with the whole body of true believers in all the privileges and bleffings of the gospel, to which ye are called by fpecial grace, and which are of an heavenly nature, and relate to the heavenly state, as tending to it, and certainly iffuing in it, according to your bigb calling of God in Christ Jesus; (Phil. iii. 14.) Let me befeech you to go along with me in farther attentively confidering, and ferioufly reflecting upon, the fuper-eminent dignity of the glorious Son of God, of whole perfon and office I have been speaking, who is emphatically the fent of God, as the Father's

HEBREWS paraphrased.

285

ther's divine meffenger, by whom he has spoken to us in these last days; (chap. i. 2.) who is also our great high prieft to purge our fins, and make reconciliation for them, as has been declared, chap. i. 3. and ii. 17. and as we profess to believe and own concerning him ; and fo is the author, life, and glory of our heavenly calling, and of our holy profession of his name, and of all our regards and hopes toward God, through him, even our Lord Jefus Chrift, the only true and anointed Saviour ;

2 Who was faithfel to him that appointed him, as alto Moles was faithful in all his house.

2 Who executed his prophetic office * with all fidelity to God his Father, as he, according to eternal councils, and ancient prophecies, ordained and called him to it, constituted him in it, and fent him to fulfil it : He made known his Father's name, and the whole of his mind and will, relating to the faith, worship, obedience, and falvation of the church in every particular, and exactly according to his appointment; as it also must be owned, to the honour of Moles, the most famous of all the ancient prophets, (Numb. xii. 7.) that he, who was therein a type of Chrift, faithfully discharged the office committed to him, in communicating the laws and ordinances which belonged to that difpensation, according to all that God commanded him, (Exod. xl. 16.) relating to the church of I/rael, which then was God's houfhold or family, (Numb. xii. 7.) as his church is, and may well be called ; (1 Tim. iii. 15.) becaufe he has prepared and fet it apart for himfelf, has a peculiar property in it, prefides over it, and dwells with a fpecial and gracious prefence of light and influence in it.

3 Confider, I fay, what a fuperlatively excellent. one Chrift is: For this glorious perfon, (1705) who is truly, but not merely man, was infinitely more honourable in himfelf, and is to be effected as every way worthy of much greater glory than Mo/es, in his relation to the church; notwithftanding all the honour which that eminent man of God juffly obtained for his fidelity in his high employment, as a minifter of the law, Chrift really is as much more excellent in his perion and office, and as much to be preferred to him, as the lord and mafter of his house or family, who is the former and owner of it, and has prepared, erected, and governs it, is, in all reafon, to be counted worthy of higher honour and glory than the

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moles, in as much as he who hath builded the houfe, hath more honour than the houfe.

aposle of our profession; (ver. 1.) and chapters.

NOTE.

Here the spoftle, comparing Chrift afterwards proceeds to difcourfe particuwith Mofes, attends most immediately, larly, and at large, on his priestheod, as I think, to his prophetic office, as the chap. iv. 14. and in feveral following the family itfelf, or any member of it, (and Mofes was no more) which derives from him, owes its being and all its advantages to him, and is his peculiar property for his own pleafure, ule, and fervice.

4 For as in the literal, fo in the civil, political, and religious fenfe of the word, every house is prepared, erected, and fitted up (uno rivos) by fome principal founder and proprietor of it : But he that is the great builder of the church, as his own houfe,* that has provided all its materials, and ordered all its affairs for his own glory, both under the Yewi/b and gospel dispensation, is, and cannot but be, God himfelf; it is his prerogative, and none but he could betheir author; and fo Chrift, who is the great mafterbuilder of the church, bears the fuper-eminent dignity of God in his relation to it.

5 And to carry on this fimilitude, and apply it to the cafe in hand, it is indeed true, as has been obferved, (ver. 2.) that Moles acted a very faithful and upright part, in delivering the divine laws and ordinances, about every thing that related to the church of God under the Old Testament dispensation : Only it must be remembered, that what he did therein, was not as the Lord and Proprietor, but merely in the quality of a ministring fervant in God's house; he being fo, and nothing more, to give a prefigurative reprefentation to the I/raelites of those great and excellent things of the gospel, which were afterwards to be more clearly revealed at large under the New Testament, and were witnessed to by his law; (Rom. iii. 21.) even fuch things as have been, and are to be ftill more particularly explained in this epifile.

6 But Chrift is fo infinitely fuperior to Moles, that, though he graciously condescended to take upon him the form of a fervant in his human nature and officecapacity; yet in what he has done relating to his house or family, he acted, not merely the part of a fervant, but also of the lord and master, like the fon and heir of his own houfe, which is peculiarly his, as fome man; by but he that built all things is God.

house is builded

For every

5 And Moles verily was faithful in all his house as a fervant, for a teftimony of those things which were to be fpoken after;

6 But Chrift, as a Son over his own houfe: whole houfe are we, if we hold fast the confidence, and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

He that built, (o xalaoxevaras) fig- and Heb. ix. 2. 6. for making the tabernifies he that prepared, furnished, and nacle, and ordering things relating to it; fet in order, as well as he that built; and it is used for Noah's preparing an ark, and is never used to express God's work Heb. xi. 7. and 1 Pet. iii. 20. which are of creating; nor would it at all fuit the all the places befides where it occurs, as apoftle's argument to underftand him, as far as I find in the New Teftament: And fpeaking of the creation of all things, therefore when the apostle lays, He that universally. But this word is often used built all things is God, it is most natuto fignify God's preparing fuch things as ral to confider it with reference only to relate to the church and his worthip; all those things, that were the subject of Thus in Matth. xi. 10. Mark i. 2. Luke the foregoing discourse, relating to the i. 17. and vii. 27, it is used for preparing church under the figure of a house. (See or making ready the way of the Lord; Dr. Owen on the place.)

NOTE.

Digitized by Google

ć

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

well as the Father's, as he has purchased the church with his own blood; has gathered it together, and formed all its members; has reduced it to its proper order, and fettled all its ordinances and privileges by his own authority; and as he influences and governs it by his word and Spirit : The houfe or family of Chrift, which I mean, and am fpeaking of as erected under the gospel-flate, is no other than that of which we ourfelves visibly, and really are, and shall prove to be living members, vitally united to him; in cafe we be not prevailed upon by the perfecutions, temptations, and dangers that furround us, to apostatize from Christ to Moles; but carefully and frenuoufly retain, and perfevere in a bold and open profession of his name, on whom our hope is built; and, notwithstanding all the tribulations that befal us, continue, on a principle of faith, to maintain our rejoicing in hope of the glory of God, with ftedfastness to the end of our lives. (Chap. x. 23.)

7 Wherefore, as the Holy Ghoft faith, To-day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and faw my works forty years.

Vol. V.

7 To apply all this therefore for the caution of nominal professors against apostacy, and for the quickening of real believers to hold on, and hold out to the end, in their holy profession of Christ and his gospel; let me remind you of what the Holy Ghost in the infpired writings of David, (Pfal. xcv. 7, &c.) fays to the Jews of his day, who are fet forth as examples to us, (1 Car. x. 6, 11.) It is to this effect; Now, immediately, and without delay, while the prefent day of God's mercy and patience lasts, and the mession of his grace are fent to you, if ye would attend to, regard and embrace what he fays by them, for your own spiritual and eternal advantage;

8 Take heed that you do not wilfully flut your eyes againft his light, or ftop your ears againft his voice, and refift his Spirit; and fo harden your hearts againft his fear, and againft all the methods of his wildom and love for your prefent and future happinefs, as the former generation of my profefling people did, by their provoking unbelief; ftrifes, and murmurings againft the Lord and his fervant M_2/er , as particularly at Maffah and Meribah, (Exod. xvii, 2,-7.) in the day of their tempting me by diffunfting my power and goodnefs, after all my wonderful appearances for them; and in the day of my trying them by various dealings with them, while they were fojourning in the defart of Arabia;

9 When on that, and feveral other occasions, your anceflors, according to the flesh, and in visible covenant-relation to me, called in question my providential and gracious prefence with them, and care of them, faying in the language of unbelief, Is the Lord P p among/s

The Epifle to the

Chap. iii.

among ft us, or not? (Ex. xvii. 7.) And when, at another time, they demanded appearances of my fayour on their behalf, beyond what they diftruftfully imagined I either would, or could give them; faying, (P/. lxxviii. 19, 20.) Can God furni/b a table in the wilderne/s? Can be provide fle/b for bis people? They often put my faithfulnefs, power, and kindnefs to the trial, with an unworthy fufpicious temper of mind, as though I would not be mindful of my promife, or were not able to perform it for their relief; no, nor to revenge the quarrel of my covenant upon refractory transgreffors of it, though they had all along experimental proofs with the highest evidence to the contrary : And they went on in this manner to provoke me times and ways without number, even while they faw my marvellous works, both of judgment and mercy, forty years together, from the time of my bringing them with an out-ftretched arm from Egypt, till the end of their journeyings through that barren wildernefs, where they lived under my immediate protection and fupplies, in their way to the land of Canaan.

10 Therefore, to fpeak after the manner of men. who are troubled at difagreeable events, and particularly at things that reflect a diffeonour upon themfelves, and carry the marks of the bafeft ingratitude, heart; and they I was all that while forely difpleafed, offended, and at length wearied out, with the repeated and aggravated incredulity and mifbehaviour of the people of that age, even to the defpifing of my most merciful care and kindnefs, and reflecting on the honour of my name; and thereupon I faid, in just refentment against them, They continually, on all occasions, go on in the perverse counfels and dispositions of their own hearts, running aftray from me; and they have not attended to, and entertained due apprehenfions of the ways of my providence, whether of judgment or mercy toward them, which they have feen in the courfe of my difpensations; (ver. 9.) nor did they approve of, and practically observe the ways of my precepts, even the ways of truth, holinefs, and peace, which I fet before them, and enjoined upon them, that they might walk therein.

> II Upon the whole, my patience was fo worn out by their incredulity and difobedience, that, in my righteous indignation, I fware by myfelf, (Numb. xiv. 28,-30.) and fo declared with all the folemnity of an oath, which shews my word to be irreversible, that, for their high and numberless provocations obstinately perfisted in, as furely as I live, the carcaffes of that evil generation shall fall in the wildernefs:

was grieved with generation, that and faid, They do alway err in their have not known my ways.

10 Wherefore I

11 So I fware in my wrath, They shall pot enter into my reft.

HEBREWS paraphrased.

nels; and none of them from twenty years old and ' upwards, except Caleb and Jo/bua, men of a better spirit, shall enter into the land of Canaan, which I had promifed to Abraham and his feed, as a land of quictness, peace, and plenty; a land in which the ark of the covenant should be fixed, as my resting place among them, (P/al. cxxxii. 5, 8.) and which was to be a type of my dwelling in my church, to give them a spiritual rest on earth, and afterwards in heaven, where they shall rest from all their labours, fins, and forrows, and enjoy the most complete and everlasting happiness in my immediate prefence.

12 Being therefore warned by these awful examples, * which are left for our admonition; and being excited by a confideration of the dignity of Chrift's perfon and office, and of the near concern we have with him, and the rich advantages we may hope for from him, (ver. 6.) carefully see to it, (BAETITE) look about you, look upwards and inwards, my dear brethren in the profession, and, as I trust, in the faving benefits of the gospel: Be watchful with holy jealoufy over yourfelves, and with humble dependence on divine grace, left at any time, (us wors) through the corruption of your own hearts, and the temptations of Satan and of this prefent world, unbelief, effectially as proceeding from an habitually finful temper of foul, wickedly prevail in any of you, which is in itfelf a most provoking evil, as it is a diftruft of God, and gives him the lie, and fo reflects the highest dishonour upon his authority, veracity, power, and grace, and is the root and beginning of, works and leads to, and, unless fubdued, will certainly iffue (as it did in your rebellious anceftors) in all backflidings, and apoltacies from the only living and true God, who, inclusive of the Son, (ver. 4, 6.) as one God with the Father, has neceflarily and effentially life in himfelf, and is the author of spiritual and eternal life to believers; and lives for ever to fulfil his promifes to them, and his threatnings to those that wilfully depart from him.

13 But exhort. while it is called, To-

13 But as a means of preventing this dreadful eone another daily vil, be ye not only watchful over your own hearts, to guard against the first workings of unbelief and apof-

Pp 2

tation, which he was entering upon, ver. in ver. 7. but is now brought in with 7.; and, to prepare the way for the bet- the greater advantage in his arguing ter enforcement of it, mentioned the cafe from God's dispensations toward that unof the disobedient Ifraelites in the inter- believing people, to his proceedings with mediate verses, which are to be confider- the professors of Christ under the golpeled as a parenthefis; and fo this verse state.

ΝΟΤΕ.

* Here the apoltle purfues his exhor- ftands in connection with the wherefore tacy

12 Take heed, brethren, left there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

Tc-day; left any of you be hardened through the deceitfulnels of fin.

tacy in yourfelves; but fhew a mutual tender concern for one another, by continually exciting and encouraging each other (xal' examp nuevar) day by day and every day, as opportunities and occasions offer, to ftedfaftnels in the faith, and to a holy circumfpect care and caution, in dependence on divine grace, against carnality of mind, supineness and negligence; and against the temptations of Satan, the allurements and terrors of this world, and every thing that has a tendency to carry you off from Chrift and the gospel: Attend to this as your present duty, while the day of life is continued, and the day of gofpel-grace lasts, which will foon come to a period at death, and will do fo, particularly to the Yews, at the approaching destruction of Jerusalem; let these Christian-offices of brotherly love and faithfulnels be discharged to each other out of hand; left any one of your number, that professes the fame faith, and is partaker of the fame external privileges of the gofpel with yourfelves, should be lulled asleep and flupified, and fo led afide and feduced from Chrift, through the guileful arts of indwelling fin, and the treachery with which it works in his heart, to magnify the terror of fufferings for Chrift, and the pleasure of worldly ease, affluence, and fafety; and to put a favourable construction and a fine glofs upon fuch evil ways of heart and life, as are deftructive to his own foul.

14 It is of the utmost confequence, for preferving us from this deceitfulnefs of fin and hardnefs of heart, to fee to it that we are in truth what we profefs to be : For it evidently appears, that (meroxos yeyovause) we really have been brought into a happy partnership with Christ*, in his righteousnes, Spirit, grace, and benefits, as perfons vitally united to him, and interested in all that he is and has, if we hold fast (THY agent The UN OF AGENCE RATAXWEST) our spiritual sublittence in him, and stedfastly maintain our holy confidence in our profession of him, which commenced upon our first believing; and perfevere therein, against all opposition and danger, to the end of our lives."

15 While it is faid, To-day if ye will hear his voice.

15 Take heed therefore to yourfelves, and do all that in you lies to fortify every one his brother against temptations to apostacy; and lay hold on the 🗠 harden prefent the beginning of our confidence fledfall to Dr. Owen on the place.)

NOTE.

* As the apoftle here speaks, not of a the end, feem to be brought in, as a future benefit, or of a promile for time proof und evidence, and not as a condito come but of what was already actu- tion of being made, or rather of baving ally enjoyed, the words, if we hold fast been made, partakers of Chrift. (See

Digitized by Google

1.1 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence ftedfast unto the end ;

HEBREWS paraphrased.

provocation.

16 For some, did pro-when they had voke : howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Mo-

17 But with ved forty years?

Was it not with heard, ies,

harden not your prefent time for it, (is to Asyso Sai) in that, or for hearts, as in the as much as, for preventing floth, negligence, and delay, it is faid by God himfelf, in the place but now quoted * (ver. 7, 8.) To day, while life and opportunity are continued, (it being abfolutely uncertain whether a morrow will be afforded you or not) if ye would believe and obey what he fays unto you for your own good, take heed of contracting an infenfibility and hardnefs of heart, that refifts all kindly imprefions, as your fathers did when they provoked the anger of the Lord against themselves, by their unbelief and rebellion in the wildernefs.

> 16 For fome of them, + (to express it in the tendereft manner poffible) when they had heard the voice of the Lord in the promulgation of the law at mount Sinai, 1 and heard the instructions he gave them by the ministry of Mofes, with regard to typical ordinances of worfhip, and the promifed land of Canaan, which was a figure of heaven itself; they, instead of being fuitably affected and influenced by it, were guilty of the highest provocations in the manner before mentioned. (ver. 9.) However, all of them, that were brought out of Lgyptian bondage, did not go into those evil ways that were so extremely offensive to God : For Caleb and Jo/hua were men of a better fpirit, and entered into the holy land: And fo, bleffed be God, it is only fome, and not all the Jews, that have rejected the gospel of falvation in these days, after they had, heard it in the ministrations of Chrift, and of his fervants. (Chap. ii. 3.)

17 But who were they of that former generation of the I/raelites, with whom God was fo highly ofwhom was he griefended for forty years together, as to exclude them from the land, which he had promifed to Abraham and

NOTES.

* The apofile here re-affumes the ing with an audible voice by the miniconfideration of the cafe of the unbelie- ftry of angels, in the delivery of the ten ving I/raelites, to enforce his argument. commandments at mount Sinai; yet I them

of the spoftle Paul, than the almost ini- vant Moles, relating to the institutions mitable prudence, with which he pre- of the ceremonial law, which was their vents offence to the Jews, and all ap- gospel, and to the promise of Canaan pearance of harfhnefs, in reprefenting fo which was an eminent type of heaven itawful a cafe of their fathers: He speaks felf, is to be included; because the aof only fome, though it were in a man- postle afterwards speaks of the gospel's ner the whole body of the I/raelites, that being preached to us as well as to them; provoked; and throws in this further mi. (chap. iv. 2.) and the Jews themselves, tigation, howbeit not all, though there as their writers tell us, accounted the were only two exceptions, as to those land of Canaan to be a figure of the heathat were twenty years old and upwards, venly reit. (See Ain/worth on Gen. when they came out of Egypt. (See xii. 5.) and our apoftle feems plainly to Numb. xiv. 29, 30.)

‡ Though, perhaps, here may be a 10, 14, 15, 16. most immediate reference to God's speak-

+ Nothing can be more like the fpirit think what he faid to Ifrael by his ferconfider it under this notion, chap. xi. 9,

The Epistle to the

ned, whole carcafes fell in the wildernefs ?

18 And to whom fware he that they fhould not enter into his reft, but to them that believed not?

19 So we fee that they could not enter in hecaule of unbelief.

them that had fin- and to his feed ? It certainly was not with all of these Was it not with promiscuoully without diffinction. them who had rebelled and murmured against him in the most notorious manner, and that repeatedly through unbelief? Yes, certainly it was with them, and them only, who, as a just punishment of their iniquities, were deftroyed, and whole dead bodies lay flain by the righteous judgment of God, like miferable and detertable objects, in the howling defart, through which they were pailing, before any of them reached the happy country to which they were bound.

18 And who were they among that people, against whom God was fo greatly incenfed, as to fwear in his just and awful anger, that they should not be admitted to enjoy the privileges, peace, and bleffings of that reft, which was to be poffeffed in Canaan, according to his appointment? It was not against the faithful among them; no, but only against those of them, who, notwithstanding all their profesfions and obligations, and all the wonderful appearances of God among them, rejected him by unbelief; as is plain from what he faid, not only concerning them, but to them. (Numb. xiv. 28, 29.)

19 Upon the whole then, we plainly fee, and should observe and confider it to humble and caution us, and to engage our conftant dependence on divine grace for keeping us clofe to Chrift, that they could not be admitted to fet one foot on the holy land, in order to their enjoying its bleffings, how defirous foever they were of it; becaufe of their unbelief, which was the root and fpring of all their other provocations, and forfeited all right and claim to the promife of entering into that reft, and fo excluded them from it.

Digitized by Google

RECOLLECTIONS.

With what incomparable dignity does our Lord Jefus Chrift transcend Mojos, in his perfon and office ! Mofes was merely a man, and a fervant ; and the best that can be faid of him is, that he was a part of God's house, and faithful in his miniftry: But Chrift is more than a mere man or fervant; he is the God that formed his church, and orders all its affairs; and is the Lord, proprietor, and ruler of it; and in all his administrations is faithful to his Father that appointed him to his office, as a divine Mediator and Saviour. How worthy is he of our higheft regard ! All, that profess to be partakers of the heavenly calling, should think frequently and honourably of him, as the great apostle and high priest of their profession, and hold fast the beginning of their confidence, and their rejoicing therein, to the end, as ever they would prove themfelves to be true members of his family, in which he dwells, and will be glorified here, and for ever hereafter. How watchful should we be against the first workings of unbelief, and much more against the prevalence of it ! This is a mother-fin, that leads the way to all others : It proceeds from the corruption of the heart, and is in itfelf exceeding finful: It is no lefs than a departure from the living God and Saviour, in whom is all our help, hope, and happinels. And, ah, how dreadful are the effects of apollacy ! It is the higheft provocation to God, and hardening of the heart against him. It is a shamefully diftruftful tempting him; a grief to his good Spirit; and a contemptuous inoblervance

292

HEBREWS paraphrased.

wance of all his difpensations of mercy and judgment; and brings the heaviest vengeance upon apoftates themfelves. How should the examples of others unbelief and rebellion against God, and of their punishment, be a folemn warning to us, that we may not tread in their steps; but may be excited to an obediential faith without delay, while the door of mercy is open in the gospel! It is our greatest interest and duty to attend, and yield ourselves up, to what the Holy Ghost says in his word, and in fecret fuggestions to our fouls; and not harden our hearts against it, left God fkould, ere we are are aware, swear in his wrath, that we shall never enter into the reft which he has provided for his people. But how great is the deceitfulnels of fin to flupify the confcience ! And what need have believers themfelves to be daily cautioned, and to caution one another against it ! No outward privileges or professions of religion will secure us from divine wrath, if our hearts are not right with God : But, bleffed be his name, there are some of a more excellent spirit, like Caleb and Joshua, that shall enter into eternal rest. They are already partakers of Chrift, and of the benefits of his purchase, and shall for ever enjoy him in the glorious flate of heavenly reft. But a perfeverance in faith, and in a holy profession of it, is the best proof and evidence of its funcerity, and that this is our happy cafe. In vain do others pretend to it; but they that abide in Chrift, as all true believers do, are kept by the power of God, through faith, to complete falvation.

HAP. С IV.

The apostle inculcates an humble cautious fear upon the Hebrews, lest any of them should come short of the promised rest through unbelief, 1, 2. Shows the much greater excellence of the beavenly refl, which is proposed in the gospel, than that of the earthly Canaan, which was fet before the Israelites under the law, 3,-10. And concludes with the most awakening and encouraging arguments and motives to faith and hope in our approaches to God, 11,-16.

TEXT. T ET us therefore fear, left a promife being left us of entering into his reft, any of you come fhort of it.

PARAPHRASE.

CINCE God dealt fo feverely, in his righteous judg-D ment, with his ancient people for their difobedience and unbelief, as has been observed; (chap. iii. 7,-19.) and fince his difpenfations toward them thould feem to were defigned as an admonition to us, we may juftly expect to be dealt with in like manner, if we be guilty of the like fins, especially confidering the richer advantages we now enjoy, above what they had then : It therefore fhould be matter of deep concern with us, to maintain an awful reverence of the greatnefs, holinefs, and justice of God, and a religious dread of provoking him, not with a diffruftful, difmaying, and difheartning, but with a watchful and cautious fear, to put us upon a diligent use of all means, in an humble dependence on his grace, for our own and each others prefervation from apoftacy, and from the terrible confequences of it, that as God under the gofpel-ftate has left on record, and propoled for our encouragement, a gracious promife of admittance to a ftate of peace and holy communion with him, through Chrift, in truly evangelical worship and obedience in this Digitized by GOOGLC

The Epi/tle to the

this world, and of a glorious reft and peace in the world to come; and as this, of all others, may be emphatically flyled God's refl, not only as he is the author of it, but chiefly as he complacentially refts in Chrift the purchaser of it, and is well pleased with his people in him, and with the accomplishment of all the defigns of his grace through him, and as it is the laft and most perfect reft, that he will ever give them, and he himfelf is the fum of its felicity and glory; fo the utmost care and caution ought to be used, left any of you, through floth and unbelief, in fome feafon of temptation, should reject and forfake the promife, and fo neglect the great falvation of the gofpel, (chap. ii. 3.) and fall short of an enjoyment of it; or should even so much as appear, to yourselves or others, to flag in your Christian course, and to be fo diftanced in it, as not to reach its fpecial bleffings here, and the glorious inheritance of eternal life hereafter, as the Ifraelites fell fort of the promifed land, through their infidelity and difobedience.

2 For the gofpel of falvation by Jefus Chrift has now been preached to us, who fit under the ministration of it, as it formerly was, for fubitance, though more obscurely, to our ancestors: But () Doyos sins axons) the good word, which was communicated to them in the ordinance of hearing, as God's appointed means of begetting faith, did not become effectual, and turn to any real advantage, as to many of those that heard it in the ministry of Moles and other infpired writers, that testified of Christ; (John v. 39, 46.) becaufe they did not receive, appropriate, and apply it by faith to themfelves; and to it was not united, and as it were incorporated with their hearts, as food is with the body, when it is eaten, and turned into fuitable nourifhment by a proper digeftion of it: No more will the gospel of the grace of God, which is now more plainly preached to, and heard by us in the ministry of Christ's fervants, be really and eventually profitable to us; unlefs we receive and digeft it by faith, as our fpiritual food, and it become an ingrafted word, which is able to fave our fouls. (James i. 21.)

3 For we which have believed, do

3 For as entering into any reft, which God has propofed to his people, is only in a way of believing *; enter fo -

NOTE. * The great defign of the apostle in chap. iii. 7,-19. from Pfal. xcv. 11. to this and the following vertes, down to enforce his exhortation to the Hebrews, the 10th, is to prove that there is a pro- left they fhould fall fhort of it, did not mile of reft peculiar to the gospel-state, affect them; because God's reft spoken and to obviate an objection, as though of there, or in any other part of the Old what he had alledged and infifted on, Teftament, related only to the reft of the 2 For unto us the gofpel was. preached, as well as unto them : but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

enter into reft, as he faid, As I have fworn in my wrath, If they shall enter into my reft : although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

fo those of us, who, by a true and lively faith, have received and trufted in Chrift, and in the promife of eternal life, as proposed to us in the gospel, do thereby already enter into a ftate of fpiritual reft and peace, in communion with God through him, according to the light and grace of the New Teftament-difpenfation; and we, even now, enter by faith and hope in gofpel-worfhip, into the heavenly reft within the vail, as a pledge and affurance to us of our perfonally entering hereafter into the full possession of it, whither Jesus the forerunner is entered for us: (chap. vi. 20.) And that fuch an excellent flate of reft was defigned of God for New Testament-believers, far exceeding that of the land of Canaan; as also that none but true believers shall enter into it, is evident, if we compare the feveral paffages where the fcripture fpeaks of God's reft, which he has gradually introduced in different ages of the world; as for instance, He said of the unbelieving refractory Jews in the wildernefs, (P/al. xcv. 11.) I, in my just and hot displeasure, have pronounced irreverfibly, with all the folemnity of an oath, that, as furely as I live, I myfelf will ceafe to be God, if any of them shall have admission into my reft. This, by just construction, according to the rule of contraries, plainly implies a promife, that fincere and faithful believers among them frould enter into it; (ver. 6.) and supposes that the rest proposed to them was yet to be expected, although there was a former reft of God, which was then fubfifting, and commenced immediately upon his having, at the beginning of the world, perfected the work of creation in fix days; and fo there was a reft of God near three thousand years before that of the land of Canaan.

4 For.

Digitized by Google

the land of Canaan and the reft of the commenced upon the finishing of the feventh-day fabbath, (ver. 4.) which work of creation, ver. 3, 4.; another, were now no longer matter of promife, which was afterward propoled to Ifrael they having been already actually enjoy- in the wilderness, as to be enjoyed in ed. The apofile therefore flews in the land of Canaan, ver 5.; and a third, these verses, that it may be collected, which, after both those refts, was to be even from what is faid in that pfalm enjoyed in the gospel-state and heavenly itfelf, that there is, in reality, a pro- world, ver. 6,-11.: And by compa-mile of another reft of God, befide ring what the fcripture fays of all there those; and fo supports and strengthens rests, it appears that there is still a bethis argument for taking heed, left they ter reft that remains for true believers, should fall short of this most excellent than either of the two first before-menreft. It is, I own, no easy matter to set tioned; and that is an eternal reft in the feveral steps of his reasoning on this heaven, inclusive of the spiritual and head in a clear and obvious light, but holy reft which they have in Chrift by it will be a great help to our under- faith here, as the beginning and earnest, standing it, if we confider that he speaks and as issuing in the possession, of glory of three forts of God's reft ; one, which hereafter. VOL. V.

OTE. N

Qq

4 For he fpake in a certain place of the feventh day on this wife, And God did reft the feventh day from all his works.

4 For, with respect to that former fort of reft, he had spoke of the seventh day of the week, in a certain well-known passage of the Old Testament, after this manner, as it is recorded, (Gen. ii. 2, 3.) the whole of which (as ye who are fo conversant with the fcriptures may eafily recollect) ftands thus, On the feventh day God ended his work, which he had made : And be rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made, and God bleffed the feventh day, and fanctified it; becaufe that in it be had refled from all bis work, which God created and made, that is, not as though he were weary, and needed reft for refreshment after labour, as men do: But as reft fuppofes, and refers to fome preceding work; fo God, having completed his work of creation, ceafed from doing any thing further of that kind, and expressed his great pleasure and fatisfaction in what he had done; with regard to which it is faid, that on the seventh day be rested, and was refreshed : (Exod. xxxi. 17.) And, in token of this, he appointed that day to be observed and enjoyed by man after fix days labour, as a fabbath of spiritual and holy, as well as of bodily reft, when he bleffed the fabbath day, and hallowed it. (Exod. xx. 11.) That therefore could not be the reft intended, when God fwore that the obfinate and rebellious Ifraelites should not enter into it.

5 And again, in the fame place, (P/al. xcv. 11.) he fpeaks of another reft befides, and after this, faying, Let me not live, if they enter into my reft; which, as it refers to the Jews in the wilderness, to whom it was first spoken, is indeed to be understood of their entering into the land of Canaan at the end of their toilfome journeyings through that vaft defart, in refemblance of God's having ceafed from those extraordinary and wonderful operations of providence, whereby he fupported and defended them, and drove out the former inhabitants of that country, and made way for his people to go into it and take possession of it: But as it refers to the people in David's own day, to whom these words were spoken and applied, as recited in the Plalms, after they had been in actual pofferfion of the land of Canaan about four hundred and fifty years; (Acts xiii. 20.) it must have a farther meaning, than barely that reft, which they then enjoyed there.

6 Seeing therefore it remains the that forme muft enter therein, and they to whom it was firft preached, entered 6 Since therefore, as is firongly implied in the threatning against them that believed not, ($\alpha \pi \nu \lambda u \pi \tau \tau \omega$) there is still left a promife of rest in the word of God, (ver. 1.) which true believers should certainly be partakers of, according to his design and appoint.

5 And in this place again, If they fhall enter into my reft.

f caule of unbelief :

7 Again he limiteth a certain day, faying in Da-vid, To-day, after fo long a time; as it is faid, To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if Jefus had given them reft, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

entered not in be- ment, as, in fact, the next generation of I/raelites in the wildernefs were of the promifed land; and fince (or reported to any thought of the generality of those Jews to whom the good tidings of entering into that typical reft was first published in the wildernefs, fell fhort of it by means, and on account of their provoking unbelief, though others were afterwards brought to poffefs it.

> 7 For this reason, * I fay, God, after all this, again (oeilsi) prefcribes and fixes by David, in the forementioned Plalm, a certain day or feason then to come, in which those of that age were to feek an entrance into his reft, after they had been for fo many years actually fettled in the land of Canaan, according to what is there faid, even then, by way of caution to them, If ye would hearken to the voice of God, relating to the time of this further promifed reft, which ye ought to do now immediately without delay, leit ye never have an opportunity afterwards for it. Take heed that ye do not delpife, and fo harden your hearts against, his awful admonitions and gracious promifes, with regard to this reft, as your fathers did in the wildernefs, with regard to their reft in Canaan. This plainly shows, that what is there faid related, not to the reft, which was already enjoyed, but to one which was to be enjoyed after they were in full possession of the promifed land.

> 8 For if Jo/bua, whofe name is called by the Greeks Yelus, which fignifies a Saviour, and who was a type of Jefus Chrift as the great Captain of falvation, that conducts believers' to their fpiritual and eternal reft; If, I fay, Jo/bua the fon of Nun, had given the I/raelites possession of the ultimate rest intended in the Pfalms, by his having brought them into, and fettled them, fo long before, in the land of Canaan; (Jofh. xxii. 4.) then, (usta tauta) after these things had been actually accomplished fo many hundred years before, God would not still have spoke by David of another day or feason, in which the people that then dwelt in possession of the promised land, were to seek after a further reft, which was typified by that, and could be

> > 0 т E.

N

as an argument to prove what had been faid, ver. 6. about a promise being left of a reft yet to come, ver. 1. rather another was added in this, to prove the than as another argument, diftinct from fame thing ; whereas, if it were io, they that, to prove the same point; and so would probably have been connected by the therefore, ver. 6. refers to the cale the copula and again, as is usual in such of God's faying what is alledged in this cafes, and as we had it in ver. 5. (xac verfe, the first words of which I think waker)

I take this verse to be brought in, may be better read, he again limiteth, than again he limiteth, as though one argument was contained in ver. 6. and no other, than what was to be introduced by Jefus, the Mcffiab himfelf. 9 Upon the whole then, fince neither the reft of the feventh day-fabbath, nor of the land of Canaan were,

o There remaineth therefore a reft to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his reft, he also hath cealed from his own works, as God did from his.

or could be intended by that last mentioned day, which was fpoken of after both those former refts were actually enjoyed, it is evident, that there still remains under the gofpel-ftate, a more complete and glorious reft, which was typified by, and is vaftly preferable to those refts, and is to be inherited by the true people of God, inclusive of a piritual reft by faith in Chrift, and of the [abbati/m or day of holy and joyful reft, as a New Testament sabbath, in commemoration of his refurrection from the dead; but principally and ultimately confifting of that beavenly reft, which thefe are foretaftes and pledges of, and which, in virtue of what Chrift has done and fuffered, believers shall be admitted to, and continue with him in the full enjoyment of for ever.

10 For our Lord, having gone through the great work of redemption in his obedience, fufferings, and death*, role again and took pofferfion of heavenly glory; and fo refted from all the labours, fufferings, and trials, which before he underwent, in finishing the work that his Father gave him to do, and in procuring a bleffed reft for his people, a pledge of which is given in the New Testament-fabbath : And every true believer that has entered by faith into the fpiritual reft of the gospel-state, and of a holy fabbatism here upon earth, has done with all the works of iniquity; fo as to be no longer a lover, practifer, or willing fervant of fin, as

NOTE.

* It is pretty remarkable, that, in week, was appointed immediately upon, the Greek, the apostle, ver. 9. chan- and in commemoration of, Christ's restges the term, and uses another word ing from the work of redemption, when (σ266aliσμos) which fignifies a fab- he role from the dead, and entered into batifm, to express the rest that remains, his rest, as having ceased from his own for the people of God, different from former work, as God did from his. that, (xala xavos;) which he had all The reader may fee these interpretations along used before, and returns to again, argued for at large in Dr. Owen on ver. 10. to express the reft of God and these verses, and in his exercitations on his people. The reason of this altera- the fabbath; and argued against by Mr. tion, fays the learned Dr. Owen, and Peirce on this place. However, as, affeveral other noted divines, is to in- ter all, there feem to be confiderable clude the day of fabbatical reft, which difficulties attending each of these in-God has appointed under the gofpel- terpretations, and I cannot be politive flate, correspondent to what had been whether a Christian fabbath be intendfaid, ver 4. about the feventh-day ed; or whether he that has entered infabbath; infomuch that as that day of to bis reft, refers to Chrift, or to beliefabbatical reft was appointed immedi- vers, I have thought proper to take in stely upon, and in commemoration of, all these fenses, which may be done God's refting from the work of crea- without one's excluding the other; and tion; fo the New Teftament day of fo leave every reader to choose that fabbatical reft, or the first day of the which he judges to be best.

Digitized by Google

1 i

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

as formerly he was; and he has ceafed from trufting . or refting, as he used to do, in any of his own works of righteoufnels, though not cealed from the practice of them; who having finished his course of obedience. trial, and conflict, in this life, and entered into a complete and glorious reft in the celeftial flate, he has not only cealed, and that entirely, from all the fins, but likewile from all the toils, perfecutions, and forrows of every kind, that attended him in this evil world: (Rev. xiv. 13.) And both Chrift himfelf, and every true believer in him, according to their respective conditions, have in this manner refted from their labours, in refemblance of what God did at the beginning of the world, who, when he had finished the work of creation, cealed from working after that fort any more.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that reft, left any man'fall after the fame example of unbelief.

11 As therefore the fweetest reft comes after labour. and is greatly recommended and enhanced by it ; and as ye have heard what an excellent reft, fuperior to all others, is proposed to believers in the promises of the gofpel; let it *, answerable to the exhortation given. (ver. 1.) be our diligent care and fludy, and our earneft endeavour in the ufe of all appointed means, and in humble dependence on divine grace, to overcome all difficulties, and break through all oppositions and difcouragements, from within and from without, that we may have access into all the privileges and bleffings of the gospel-state here, which will be an unspeakable refreshment to our own souls, and give them the most composed and delightful reft in Christ, suitable to our circumstances here; and that we may have a fafe and triumphant arrival to the heavenly glory hereafter, where we shall rest from all our labours, fins, and forrows, and enter into peace, and into the joy of our Lord, and be poffeffed of all poffible bleffedneis with him for ever; let us, I fay, be deeply concerned at heart about this reft, each one for himfelf, and ftir up one another, to look out after it; left as the carnal I/raelites, notwithstanding their visible relation to God, and their having a promife of Canaan fet before them, were fo difficattened by real or imagined terrors, wants, and dangers, through the powerful workings of unbelief, as not to arrive at that promifed reft; fo any amongst us that hear the gospel, and are professors of faith in Christ, should, through slothfulnefs, hortation, ver. 1. to take heed, left any mediate veries of the certain and fupeof them thould fall thort of the promifed rior excellence of that reft, which bereft through unbelief; and does this now longs to the goipel, above what was enwith greater advantage, in confideration joyed in the land of Canaan.

N O T E

* The apostle here returns to his ex- of the proof he had given in the inter-

Chap. iv.

fulnefs, fear, and unbelief, never attain to that fpiritual reft, which is begun in grace here to be perfected in glory hereafter; but should fail of entering into it, in like manner, and for the fame cause, as they fell short of the earthly Canaan. Let their fin and punishment be an instruction and a cautionary example to us; left we, being left to ourfelves, plunge into both as they did.

12 There is the greatest reason to maintain a godly jealoufy over ourfelves and over one another, left this should be the awful cafe of any of us, that make a profession of Christ's name; and there is good encouragement for an exercise of the utmost care and caution herein : For our Lord Jesus Christ, who (as ye well know) bears the character of the Word of God, is the living One, and the Prince of life, (Rev. i. 18. and Acts iii. 15.) who has life in himfelf, and is the author of it to others; (John v. 25,-29.) * and the written word, even the holy scripture, which is the word of revelation, has a quickening virtue in it, as animated by his Spirit, (John vi. 63.) to raife dead fouls to fpiritual life, and to make living fouls lively : And Chrift, the eternal Word, exerts a divine. energy by means of the written word, as he makes it mightily NOTE.

derstand Chrift, the perfonal word of connection with the preceding context God, who was usually flyled the Word; feems to give countenance to this appliand the Word of God in the writings of cation of these passages: For Christ may the Jews, to whom this epiftle was be here confidered as the author of, fent, and is often to called in the New and as working by the word, to en-Testament, as particularly in Yohn i. 1. force the exhortation to take heed of 14. and Rev. xix. 13.; and he may pro- rejecting it by unbelief. However, it bably be meant by the word of God's is difficult to determine with certainty grace in ACL: xx. 32. (See the note which of these is most precisely intend-there.) But others understand the ed; the arguments for one and the other word of God here to fignify the Holy may be feen in various learned and cri-Scripture, which is frequently men- tical commentators, fuch as Dr. Owen, tioned under that title, as in Luke v. 1. who takes it to be meant of Chrift; and and xi. 28. and Acts viii. 14. and xi. 1. Dr. Whithy and Mr. Peirce, who underand xiii. 7, 44, 46. All the properties stand it of the written word. But as ascribed to the word of God, in this and all that is here ascribed to the word of the next verie, evidently belong to our God, relates to what Chrift does by Lord Jefus Christ; and fome of them feem to be fo perfonal, as most fitly to be applied to him, who, I think, is fairly to be understood as described, ver. 13. where it is faid, in connection with in the apoftle's argument, whether we this verse, neither is there any creature, that is not manifest in his fight; but all things are naked and opened to the eyes therefore both fenfes are taken into the of him with whom we have to do : And paraphrafe, which may be done with the yet the properties of the word of God, in utmost confistency, while we confider the verse before us, may, in some sense, one as the efficient cause, and the other be applied to the written word, as at- as the infirument of the operations, which tended with his energy in the reading, are afcribed to it.

* By the word of God fome here un- preaching, and hearing of it; and the means of the written word, and to what the written word cannot do, but as made efficacious for it by him, it amounts to much one and the fame thing here confider Chrift, or the Scripture, to be fignified by the word of God; and

Digitized by Google

300

12 For the word of God is quick,

and powerful, and fharper than any two edged fword,

piercing even to the dividing afun-der of foul and fpirit, and of the joints and marrow;

and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

HEBREWS paraphraled.

mightily imprefive on the mind and confcience, to convince of fin, and fubdue its power, and captivate every high thought to the obedience of Chrift; (2 Cor. x. 4.) as also to ftrike terror into hypocritical fouls, and to comfort the hearts of fincere believers: And his agency by his word, which is the fword of the Spirit, and like a fharp two-edged (word that proceeds out of his mouth, (Ephef. vi. 17. and Rev. i. 16.) is more cutting and penetrating into the inmost recesses of the heart, than the sharpest fword can be, when thrust into the body; its mighty frength, in the hand of Chrift, makes its way to the inmost parts of a man, reaching unto (durrepress) the animal or fenfitive, and the intellectual foul; (fee the note on I Theff. v. 23.) and even dividing between them, fo as either to reduce them to a holy order in fanctifying both, and keeping them in their diffinct and proper places, with a due fubordination of the affections and paffions to the understanding in true believers; or to procure death and ruin in executing judgments upon falle professors, by the power of Chrift according to his word: And the eternal Son of God, by his word, and his Spirit accompanying it, inftantly pierces, in a way of mercy, or of judgment, the most hidden parts, as the joints and marrow of the human body, that lie out of view, are reached by a sharp sword, that strikes home, and gives the deepest wound : The eternal word alfo, by his omniprefence, fearches, knows, and judges of the regular, or finful thoughts and principles, motives, purposes, and ends, that work in every one's heart, (Rev. ii. 23.) as well as the outward acts of his life; and his written word in the ministrations of it, as rendered powerful by him, discovers a man's whole foul to himself; and tells him all that is in his heart, either to humble or comfort him, or to condemn or acquit him, according to the real flate and condition in which he flands before God, as a hypocrite, or true believer.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifeft in his fight: but all things are naked, and opened unto 13 Nor is it possible for any of us to escape Christ's most critical notice, or to be out of the reach of his powerful operations, one way or other, upon our minds and conficences by his word; * there being no creature, of what rank or kind foever.

NOTE.

In his fight, undoubtedly relates, meant more directly of Chrift, than of not to the written word, but either to God the Father, though not exclusive of God or Chrift; for his fight is a perfonal him : For it was not God himfelf but the character, as appears from the expression the word of God, that was the subject all itelf, and from what follows in imme- along spoken of in the preceding verse, diate connection with it; and it feems as working in fuch a lively, powerful, to me, that we are to understand it as and piercing manner; and here, in confirmation him with whom we have to do.

unto the eyes of ever, that lies concealed from his all-comprehenfive view; who knows all things, (John xxi. 17.) and who fearches the reins and the heart, and will give unto every one according to his works: (Rev. ii. 23.) None of them are in the leaft concealed from him; but, whatever we may think of it, or whatever attempts we may make to hide ourfelves from him, all perfons and things, even the most fecret thoughts and defires, hopes and fears, tempers and dispositions of all our hearts, lie open to his accurate infpection, like things that are quite naked and exposed to his eyes, which, for their piercing light and luftre, are as a flame of fire : (Rev. i. 14.) * And as the beafts for facrifice were flayed, and cut, and laid open, that the prieft might narrowly examine, and fee whether there were any faults or imperfections in the carcale or its intrails, that would render it unfit to be offered; fo all things in, and about us, are most evidently exposed, and clearly manifested, to his critical all-feeing eye, with whom we have the neareft and most important concerns, and have more to do, than with all this world; to whom also we must one day give an exact account of all things done in the body, whether they be good or bad; (2 Cor. v. 10.) and who is the principal fubject of our difcourfe in this epiftle. These are awful and affecting thoughts, to engage our utmost circumspection and care, left any of us fall short of the heavenly rest through unbelief.

14 Seeing then that we have a

14 But, to return to what has been faid about the priestbood of Christ, whom we have called the High great Prieft connection with it, he, who is there µir o hoyoc) might be translated, to whom called the Word of God, is represented as we must give an account, as the great Omniscient and Judge of all, and there- Judge of all; or, concerning whom fore undoubtedly capable of exerting all those operations, either in a way of Greek in chap. i. 7. and v. 11. all which judgment or of mercy; and the last entirely agrees to our Lord Christ, and claufe of this verfe feems to direct our thoughts to him, as it is he with whom we have most immediately to do, for being caft or acquitted in judgment; fince the Father judgeth no man immediately and perfonally, but hath committed all judgment to the Son: Or, as the word (xoyos) here rendered bave to do, fignifies also an account, as it is translated in many places, particularly Matth. xii. 36. and xviii. 23. Luke xvi. 2. Rom. xiv. 12. Phil. iv. 17. Heb. xiii. 17. and 1 Pet. iv. 5.; and as at other times it fignifies greatest exactness, for discovering whefpeech or discourse, and is to rendered ther there were any blemish or defect in John vill. 43. Acts xx. 7. and I Cor. ii. it, or not. 1, 4. and in almost numberless other pla-firmation of it, and in close and natural ces; fo the passages before us (reos or nwe speak ; (meos pro migi ;) compare the points us to him.

NOTES.

> * Several critics have observed, that the words (yumva xai reiga xnlirmeva) here rendered naked and opened, allude to the facrifices under the law, whofe carcales were flayed, and hung up naked, to be feen without their fkin, and were afterwards laid on their backs, cut open, and cleaved afunder through the neck and back-bone; and fo every thing, within and without, was exposed to open view, to be examined, with the great high prieft, that is paffed into the heavens, Jefus the Son of God, let proteffion.

> > Digitized by Google

Chap. iv.

Prief of our profession, (chap. iii. 1. fee the note there) We have fuch a superlative High Priest as, having made atonement for fin by his own blood, is us hold faft our gone into a more glorious and eminent place of God's fpecial refidence, than any high prieft of old was admitted to in the execution of his office : He is alcended and gone through the aerial *, far above all vifible heavens, (Epb. iv. 10.) even to the heaven of heavens, now to appear in the prefence, of God for us; (cbap. ix. 24.) and fo he is the great antitype of the priefts under the law, who paffed through the fecond vail of the tabernacle and temple, with the blood of facrifices, into the holy of holies. The great and glorious High Priest I mean, is no lefs a perfon than that Jefus, who in his divine nature is by way of peculiarity and eminence the Son of God: We having then such a matchless High Priest, fo incomprehenfibly great, divine, and excellent, fo throughly qualified for, and exalted in his office; the most difficult and fundamental part of which he has already performed on earth, and the remainder of which he is now executing in heaven; Let us be hereby encouraged, in the exercise of faith, love, and holy obedience, to maintain a free and open confession of him, and professed subjection to him, as our only Lord and Sayiour, with stedfastness, diligence, and perseverance therein, unto the end. And we may depend on feasonable aids and affiltances from him to enable us hereunto. 15 For this great High Priest is as willing as he is able to compaffionate and relieve us under all our trials and difficulties. Though he is gone to heaven, he is , not unmindful of us, who are his members upon earth, nor has he laid down his office; but we have him ftill . officiating for us: Nor have we a high priest that is infenfible of our wants and weakneffes, miferies and dangers, as if he could not be tenderly, though not grievoully, imprefied with them; or could not be excited by truly human affections, as far as is confiftent with, and fuitable to his prefent flate of exaltation, to pity and fuccour us in the moll effectual manner under them, and in due time to deliver us from them: But as, while he was here in the fleft, he himfelf fuffered

15 For we have not an high prieft which cannot be touched with the feeling of bur infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without fin.

NOTE.

* Paffed into the beavens (disanauSola large, Lev. xvi.; and which was typical rous oversous) properly fignifies paffed of our great High Priest's more glorious through the heavens, and manifestly entrance, once for all, through the visible alludes to the high prieft's entering heavens, with the virtue of his own blood through the fecond vail into the holy of into the most holy place, even into the imholies, with the blood of the factifices, mediate prefence of God in the heaven of on the great day of atonement once a- heavens, as is evidently represented in this year, an account of which we have at epiftle, and particularly chap. ix. 7,-12. Rr fered by hunger and thirft, wearinefs and pain, and other natural infirmities of mankind, and by all manner of temptations and perfecutions, and inward and outward afflictions and trials, just of the fame kind, and in the fame manner, as we ourfelves now are liable to them; fo he experimentally knows what we undergo in our griefs and forrows; and, remembring his own fufferings, fympathizes with us under ours, as we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of bis bones : (Eph. v. 30.) And yet (which is more than can be faid of any of us, or any former high prieft) he bore and went through his own troubles without ever having milbehaved, or committed the least fin, though he was tempted to it; and fo he is not only the fitter to be a complete example to us in all that we endure, and to fortify us against all finful thoughts, words or ways under, and by means of our temptations; but is also the fitter to take away the iniquity that we may fall into by them, fince he, having gone through them in fuch a perfectly holy manner, needed not. as the high priests under the law, to offer up facrifice, first for bis own fins, and then for the people's; but all the virtue of his facrifice was entirely and alone for our fins, which he expiated. once for all, when he offered up himfelf. (Chap. vii. 27.)

Vol. V.

16 Let us therefore, in confideration of his most excellent priefthood, which, in confequence of what he had done in a way of atonement on earth, he is carrying on in his interceffion for us in heaven, be encouraged to draw near to God * (seosegywusda) by faith in prayer, and in every other ordinance of gofpel-worship, as he is feated not on a throne of justice to execute deferved vengeance upon us; but on a throne of free and condefcending grace, to commune with us, and to blefs us; which was typified by the mercy-feat under the law, where God dwelt between the cherubim in visible appearances of glory, (P/al. lxxx. 1.) and gave forth his orders to the children of Israel. (Ex. xxv. 22.) While therefore we think of him, as a fovereign on a throne +, that we may approach

Digitized by Google

- 16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

NOTE'S.

for us toward him, and to encourage our Gwen and Mr. Peirce on the place.) coming to the throne of grace. Accordingly it is faid, that Chrift is entered in . Chrift may be confidered as his being

* The throne of grace fignifies, not prefence of God for us; (chap. iz. 24.) the throne of Chrift, as fome would fup- and he is confidered in our context, not pole; but the throne of God the Father : as the object on the throne, but as the For Chrift is here all along spoken of as medium of our coming to the throne, as our great High Prieft, who appears he- through him we have accefs by one Spifore God the Father on our behalf, to act rit to the Father. Eph. ii. 18. (See Dr.

+ God's exercifing mercy and grace in to beaven itfelf, now to appear in the feated on a throne, because he therein appears approach him with awful reverence and godly fear, in confideration of the infinite diffance there is between him and us, Let us, at the fame time, realize him as on a throne of grace, to embolden a chearful freedom of accefs to him by faith, with holy liberty, and humble confidence in him, as our reconciled God and Father, that we may receive (ina Dalouper) all the mercy, for which that throne is prepared, and from which it is difpenfed in the forgiveness of fins, and in compasfionate relief under all our straits and miferies; and may find favour in God's fight through his Son, together with all the gracious affiltances and fupplies, in answer to our feeking them, that we need to fuccour, fupport, and comfort us, and to perform all things for us, in the most featonable manner, and at the most feasonable times, in all our wants, distreffes, and difficulties of every kind, and particularly in every extraordinary trouble, temptation, and danger, that now attend, or ever may befal us all our lives long, till we get to heaven.

HEBREWS paraphrased.

RECOLLECTIONS.

How ancient is the gospel of falvation by Jesus Christ ! It has been all along the fame, for substance, under various dispensations and different degrees of light, from the fall of Adam to New Testament-times : The promite of evangelical and eternal reft, is now fet before us with the cleareft evidence in the preaching of the gofpel; but our hearing it will be of no faving advantage to us, unlefs it be mixed with faith. How should we therefore dread the thought of taking up with any thing thort of an effectual faith, to receive and digest what we hear, left God fhould fwear in his wrath against us, as he did against the unbelieving liracities. that we shall never enter into his rest ! But true believers do, and shall enter into a better reft, than that of the land of Canaan; a spiritual reft in this world, and an everlafting reft in heaven, which is a delightful and holy fabbatifm founded on Chrift's refting from his mediatorial labours and fufferings on earth, when he had finished the work of redemption, as the seventh-day-fabbath was founded upon God's having cealed from his creating work, when he had finished it .- How efficacious is the written word of God in the hand of Chrift, the living and life-giving Word ! He fets it home with power and penetration upon the heart, and gives the foul a plain view of itfelf, either for its reformation and comfort, or its condemnation and confusion. How awful, adoring, and endearing should our thoughts of Chrift be! All things are continually and exactly open to his all-feeing eye : As he is God the Word, he narrowly inspects and observes the most fecret dispositions and defigns of our hearts; and we have the most important of all concerns to transact with him, and must give an account of all that we think, fay, or do, to him, as our Judge at the great day. O folemn confiderations ! But how fweetly are they tempered by believing views of him as the Son of God, our great atoning and interceding High Prieft and almighty Saviour ! He has been exercised in our nature and world with the very fame fort of temptations, inward and outward, as we ourfelves are; and he, ftill remembering what he fuffered by them without fin, compafiionates us under ours, though, alas ! attended with fin ! and is gone

N OTE.

its own glory; and it is a throne of grace (1 John ii. 1, 2.)

appears with majefty, royalty, and glory; founded on the mediation of Chrift, as he and on a throne of grace, becaule grace is fet forth to be a propitiation, through erected it, and reigns there, and dilpen- faith in his blood, Rom. iii. 25. and fes all bleffings from thence, in a way of appears there as a righteous advocate mere unmerited favour, to the praife of for us, in the virtue of his propitiatiou.

Digitized by Google

305

ġ

into the heaven of heavens, now to appear in the prefence of God for us. What an encouragement is this to hold faft our faith in him, and ftedfaftly abide by our holy profefion of his name; and to come with humble boldnefs and holy freedom of fpirit to God, through him, as on a throne of grace, at all times, and especially in the worft of trials, fears, and dangers, for all the feafonable mercy and grace we ftand in need of, to forgive our fins, and relieve us under all our thoubles.

CHAP. V.

The aposle fets forth the office and duty of a bigh pries, 1,-4. Shows how abundantly this is answered in Christ's super-eminent call to, and discharge of that office, 5,-10. And reproves the Christian Hebrews for their slothfulness and little progress in the knowledge of the truths of the gospel that were prefigured by the law, 11,-14.

TEXT. FOR every high prieft, 'taken from among men, is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and facrifices for fins : PARAPHRASE.

TE may comfortably hope for all feafonable mercy and help in our applications to a throne of grace, while we think of Jefus the Son of God, as appearing there in the character of our great and fympathizing High Prieft to introduce us to it; and we may be fure of his compafion towards us in the execution of his office on our behalf: For even under ' the legal difpenfation, which was typical of the gofpelstate, every high priest was fingled out, fanctified, and fet apart to his office, from among the children of I/rael, (Ex. xxviii. 1.) as one partaker of the fame human nature with them, that he might be a proper high prieft for men, as he was appointed and conflituted to reprefent and transact for men, and might in their name and flead, and for their benefit, present all kind of legal offerings to God for appeafing him on account of their fins, whether they were free-will offerings, or fuch as were flatedly fixed and determined by the law, or whether they were offer, ings of animate or inanimate things by way of facrifice: And fo he typified Chrift our great High Prieft, who took not on him the nature of angels, but the feed of Abraham, and was in all things made like unto bis breibren, that, by a more excellent and truly atoning facrifice of himfelf, he might make reconciliation for the fins of his people; (chap. ii. 16, 17.) and that their perfons and prayers might be accepted of God, as prefented by, and through him.

2 Who can have compafiion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for n that he himielf al. m

2 Every legal high prieft is, or ought to be one, who can (unreasonably) reasonably bear with, and tenderly pity and condescend to, the frailties and weakneffes of the people for whom he officiates, that he may offer facrifices for their fine of ignorance, and may

HEBREWS paraphrased.

infirmity:

3 And by reahereof ίon he ought, as for the people, fo also for himfelf, to offer for fine.

4 And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaroo :

5 So alfo Chrift glorified not himfelf, to be made an high prieft; but he that faid unto him, Thou art my Son, foiscompailed with may fympathize with, and not be incenfed against them, on account of their errors of various kinds, whereby they have flraved from the way of God's commandments into the ways of fin, and from the way of fafety or relief into the way of milery and danger; and fo are out of the way of truth and holinels, comfort, and happinels : He is qualified for exercifing all compation toward them; becaufe even he himfelf, (inte ani autos) as a man and a finner, is alfo attended with the like moral, as well as natural infirmities that they labour under. And the forbearance and compatition of Jefus, our great High Prieft, towards ignorant fouls and finners that are gone aftray, like loft theep, is incomparably more excellent and effectual; because he himself has been furrounded with all natural human weakneffes, temptations, and afflictions, though without fin. (Chap. iv. 15.) 3 And by reason of the finful, as well as natural infirmities, that always befet or encompassed the legal high prieft, it was incumbent upon him, in the difcharge of his function, to offer up propitiatory facrifices, not only for the fins of the people whom he represented, but likewise for his own personal fins; (Lev. iv. 3. and ix. 7. and xvi. 6.) he as much as they needing an atonement, while they were all, in common, finners against God : But herein our bleffed Lord has infinitely the preference to any former high prieft, fince he, being finlefs, had no occafion to offer any facrifice for himfelf, but only for his people, that the whole virtue of it might be placed to their account, and that he might the more feelingly pity them under all their troubles on account of their fins, as remembering what he fuffered in making an expiation for them.

> 4 And it was further necessary, according to the law, that no man whatfoever should of his own head intrude into, or affume to himfelf the high honour and dignity of the priefthood, for attempting which Uzziah, tho' a king, was feverely rebuked and pun-, ished: (2 Cbron. xxvi. 16.) But he only was to be advanced to that facred office, whom God called and authorized, by fpecial order and immediate appointment, to be invefted with, and to execute it, as he did Aaron and his fons at the first fetting up of the Levitical priesthood. (Ex. xxviii. 1. and I Chron. xxiii. 15.)

5 So, in like manner, our Lord Jefus, the anointed Saviour, did not in his incarnate state raise himself up, by any private act of his own, to the honour of the gospel high priefthood, any more than Aaron did to that which he was advanced to; but he was eternally

6 As he faith in another alfo place, Thou art a prieft for ever after the order of Melchifedec.

7 Who in the days of his flefh, when he had offered up prayers and fupplications, with ftrong crying and

Son, to day have I nally appointed, and in due time folemnly called to, qualified for, and actually invetted with this glorious office, which was an honour conferred upon him, as man, (fee the note on ver. 8.) by the immediate defignation of God the Father himfelf, who, as is teftified, (P/. ii. 7.) faid to him, Thou art my Son, this day have I begatten thee; by which he intimated * both the dignity of his perfon as his eternal Son, and the excellency and authority of his prieftly office, as both should be demonstrated and owned of God the Father by his refurrection from the dead, in confequence of his having fully fatisfied divine justice by that one offering of himfelf in his death, whereby he perfected for ever them that are fanct fied. (Chap. x. 14.)

> 6 And we have a still more express testimony to Christ's priefthood, in Pl. cx. 4. where God the Father faid to his Son, Thou art and shalt be an eternal High Prieft, not after the order of Aaron, whofe prietthood ran in a continual line of fucceffion, from age to age, in his family; but after the fuperior order of the renowned Melchi/edec, (fee the notes on ver. 10.) who had no predecessor or fuccessor in his office, which was confined to himfelf alone; and fo was the more eminent and lively type of the priefthood of Chrift, as that was to abide in his own perfon alone and for ever, without any one's preceding, or following him; or fharing with him in the dignity and work of his priesthood; but was to manage all the high affairs and concerns of it wholly and alone by himfelf.

> 7 Who while he was here upon earth, clothed with flesh and blood, and all the finless frailties and infirmitics of human nature, and liable to all forts of calamities; and who, in the fufferings he endured under a fense of divine wrath, which he was to bear for our

> > Digitized by Google

NOTE.

* To suppose, with some, that the heaven: For offering fucrifice was a paffage here quoted from P/al. ii. 7. principal part of the priest's office; and Thou art my Son, to day have I bogotten Christ's death is frequently spoken of . thee, refers, not to the divine nature, but throughout this epiftle as a facrifice, merely to the prieftly office of Chrift, which neceffarily supposes him to be a feems utterly inconsistent with ver. 8. PRIEST before he offered it; fince all where it is faid, Though he were a Son, the typical priefts were actually inveftyet learned he obedience by the things ed in their office, before they could ofwhich he fuffered. And though Chrift's fer any facrifice under the law; and priesthood, as well as Sonship, was so- this we are told our Lord did, when lemnly declared by his refurrection from through the eternal Spirit he offered the dead, I can by no means think, with himself without spot to God; and once others, that he was not an High Prieft, in the end of the world appeared to put or did not perform any part of his prieft- away fin by the facrifice of himfelf, and ly office upon earth; or that it commen- fo was offered to bear the fins of many. ced after his refurrection and afcention to (Chap. ix. 14, 26, 28.)

l

Ŀ

HEBREWS paraphrased.

309

him that was able to fave him from death, and was feared ;

and tears, unto our fins in the discharge of his prieftly office, was fore amazed, and exceeding forrowful, even unto death, prayed that, if it were poffible, the hour might heard, in that he pais from him, when, together with the offering of himfelf, he prefented his earnest address in the most fervent, humble, and pathetic manner, yea, even with a loud cry, and weeping petitions and entreaties unto God his Father, who (if he pleafed) could have delivered him from the terrors of the death which lay before him. (See Mark xiv. 33,-36. and xv. 34.) And he was heard, fo as to be accepted in his prayer; and was answered, tho' not by a prevention of his fufferings and death themfelves; (which he knew would be fo extremely agonizing that human nature, as fuch, could not but be forely afraid of them) yet as to the main intention of his importunate prayer, in the feafonable affiftances that were afforded him ; in the composure of his human passions; in his refurrection, and victory over death; and in his obtaining all the defired ends of his fufferings, for the glory of God, and the redemption of the church : And he was thus heard, becaufe of his holy reverence (EVLaGenas) of his heavenly Father.

8 Though he was the eternal Son of God, the fame in nature and perfections with the Father, and infinitely dear to him*, who called him to be an High Prieft ; yet having affumed human nature, that he might therein execute his prieftly office, as his Father's Servant, fuch was his zeal for glorifying him, and his love to the church, that he fubmitted, with an exercise of faith, patience, felf-denial, refignation, and all humility and readiness of mind and heart, practically to learn what it is to be obedient, and how good it is to be fo, to his Father's will and command, even unto the death of the crofs; (John x. 18. and Phil. ii. 7, 8.) yea, he condefcended to learn, by fevere experience, what terrible difficulties and diffreffes, and yet what rich advantages, attended his obedience all his life long, and especially when he came to die, by his enduring all those things, which he was called to fuffer in making atonement for fin: He alfo hereby experimentally learned the trials and difficulties of the obedience, which his people are called to, that he might the better fympathize with, and fuccour them. (Chap. iv. 15.)

Е.

NOT

9 And,

Digitized by Google

flands in a beautiful opposition to ver. 5. spoken of as a condescension in him to prieftly office is fpoken of as an honour vices and fufferings he was called to conferred upon him; but bere, confider- thereby.

* This passage, as appears to me, ing him as the Son of God, it is rather There, confidering Chrift as man, his engage in it, and go through the fer-

8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience, by the things which he fuffered :

The Epifile to the .

g And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal falvation unto all them that obey him :

10 Called of God

an high prieft after the order of Mel-chifedec.

9 And, having completed his obedience and fufferings unto death, and being thereupon fully confecrated to the whole of his priefthood for making interceffion, in virtue of his facrifice, (rbop. ii. 10. fee the notes there, and on John xvii. 17.) he became the procuring and efficient caule (auries) of falvation, as he purchased it by his blood, in the virtue of which he fecures it by his advocacy, and actually gives it by his Spirit and grace : And the falvation which he is the author of, is not fuch a temporal deliverance from evil, as I/rael had out of Egypt, or as the people of the Jews had from temporal puni/bments by their legal offerings, or as many believers shall have from the common destruction that is coming upon Yerufalem; but a falvation of an infinitely more excellent and durable nature, even a fpiritual, complete, and everlacking falvation, inclusive of a deliverance from all evil, and of all the bleffings of grace and glory, to all and every one of them, and of them only, that diligently hearken, and yield themfelves up to him, as the Captain of their falvation, (chap. ii. 10.) for all holinefs, as well as happinefs, by the obedience of faith. (Rom. xvi. 26.)

10 Even to him who is named of God in an extraordinary manner, * as he ftyled him an High Prieft, not after the common way and course of Aaron and his fons, according to the law, in which there was a fucceffion of priefts of the fame order; but according to the more eminent manner, in which, + Melchifedec was called the priest of the most high God; there being the greatest refemblance between the priefl for ever after the order of Mel-chifedec; but expresses his being salled him, chap. vii.; yet he no where tells of God by a very different word in us who he was, which we may reasonthe Greek, (mgoonayogendres) from that ably suppose he would have done, had which is also rendered called (xanues- God revealed it to him; and if he did wos) of God, as was Aaron: (ver. 4.) There it relates to his being invefted with his office ; but here it relates to the denomination which God gave him matter, as defigned to be concealed from as fo invefted, namely, that of an high us, than to offer conjectures about it, as priest after the order of Melchisedec.

Who this Melchifedec was must needs be very uncertain, fince the Holy Ghoft himfelf feems to have concealed it on purpose, that he might be a more eminent type of Christ, as he was some unknown king and priest of Salem or chiledec, and after the fimilitude of 20. And though our apostle fays in the perfont.

NOTES.

Digitized by Google

* Here the apostle refers to what he next verse, that he had many things to had faid, ver. 6. about Christ's being a fay of bins, and hard to be uttered, and priest for ever after the order of Mel- goes largely into the confideration of not know this, it is too curious and vain for us to pretend to determine it : And therefore I rather choose to leave the fome have done, who, among other guefles, incline to think that it was the Son of God himfelf, while to others it appears very improbable that he fhould be a type of himfelf, who is spoken of as another Priest after the order of Mel-Jerufalem, who appeared in a superior Melchisedec, (chap. vii. 11, 15.) which character to Abraham, Gen. xiv. 18,- naturally supposes them to be different

Chap. v.

C

a

R

11 Of whom we have many things to fay, and hard to be uttered ; feeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God ; and are become fuch as have need of milk, and not of ftrong meat.

the priefthood of that extraordinary man and of our Lord Jefus, as may be fhewn hereafter. (Chap. vii.)

11 Concerning which Melchi/edcc *, as he was a type of Chrift in his kingly, and especially in his priestly office, we, Christ's ministring fervants, have many important things to deliver; things which are difficult to be explained, fo as to convey familiar and exact ideas of them to your minds, and are bard to be understood by you, (duovonta 2 Ret. iii. 16.) not merely from the fublimity of the fubject, or from my manner of representing it, but chiefly from your own indifpolition to receive it; becaufe many of you, at least, who have been too apt to stick to the letter of the law, and are too flothful (vou geos) to inquire carefully into the gofpel revelation, are very backward to attend to, and receive what I have to offer about it.

12 For when, confidering your long standing in Chrift's school, and the clearness of the gospel revelation, and the advantages for inftruction which have often been afforded you, (chap. ii. 1,-3. and vi. 7.) ye ought to have made fuch proficiency in the knowledge of Chrift, as to be yourfelves capable of, and to have engaged, fome in privately, and fome in publicly inftructing others about the great doctrines of the gospel; ye, on the other hand, have made fuch little progrefs in knowledge, that, inftead of being teachers of others, ye fland in need of one to instruct you over again into the nature of the very first rudiments, grounds, and principles of the Christian faith, that were shadowed out in the facred writings of the Old Testament, and are more clearly revealed in the New, both of which, being delivered under divine infpiration, are to be effeemed (what they are in truth) the infallible dictates or fayings of God himfelf: And fo exceedingly dull of hearing are fome of you, as to have rather declined, than grown in the knowledge of fpiritual things; infomuch that ye appear to be fo weak and low in your relish and conceptions of them, as to need to be led into those plainest and most familiar articles of Christianity, which (to borrow an allusion to corporal things) may be compared to milk, that is of eafy digeftion ;

* The apoftle defers his deligned difcourse about Melchifedec as a type of Chrift to chap. vii. that he might take an occasion from this hint to deal closely with the Hebrews in a needful and important digreffion in the remaining the fixth, about their flupidity and in- ces. attention, and confequently their imall Vol. V.

proficiency in the knowledge of fuch things as they might reafonably have been expected to have attained to in a greater degree than they had, confi-dering the length of their flanding in Chriftianity, and the light which was veries of this chapter, and to the end of caft by the goipel on Yeurih ordinan-

Sf

NO

TE

Digitized by GOOGLE

The Epi/tle to the

13 For every one that useth milk, is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

14 But ftrong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by realon of use have their fenfes exercised to difcern both good and evil.

gestion ; instead of being taught the higher truths of the gospel, in the accomplishment of ancient types of the person and offices of Christ, which may be compared to such strong meat as is of harder digestion.

13 For every one, whole spiritual constitution and attainments are fo weak and child-like, that he has no appetite for, nor can take in and digeft, any thing but the very first principles of the doctrine of Christ, (chap. vi. 1.) which are like milk for babes; whatever general notions he may have, he is like an unexperienced perfon, (artigos) and is inexpert at understanding, receiving, and improving the great truths of the golpel, in which the righteou/ne/s of God is revealed from faith to faith, (Rom. i. 17.) and-Christ is faid to be the end of the law for righteousnefs to every one that believes; (Rom. x. 4.) and in which we are taught to live in the practice of righteousness: (Tit. ii. 11, 12.) For he that can only entertain, and profit by the eafieft and most familiar principles of Christian religion, appears to be no better than a babe in his knowledge and improvement of the gofpel.

14 But the fublimer doctrines, which may be compared to ftrong meat, are most fit and proper for, and fuited to the nourishment of, those believers, who, like men grown up to maturity, are far advanced in the knowledge of the doctrines of Chrift; (fee the note on I Cor. ii. 6.) and fo, compared with babes. may be ftyled perfect; (TEALIGN) even fuch as by means of an experimental acquaintance with these divine things, according to the gofpel-difcovery of them, and by long cuftom and habits of converfing with them, which they have attained, under divine influence, by reading, hearing, meditation, and prayer, have their fpiritual fenfes understandingly and feelingly employed and improved, to difcern and diftinguish between what is good or bad, true or falfe, pernicious or beneficial, detracting from, or perfective of, the gofpel fcheme; and know how to refuse the one. and embrace the other.

RECOLLECTIONS.

Behold the incomparable excellence and affecting endearments of Chrift's priefthood!! He, being as truly man, as God, has a more tender and effectual compafion on the ignorant and them that are out of the way, than any of the ancient priefts could have, who were befet with the fame fnful, as well as natural infirmities, with them; and therefore were obliged to offer fartifices for themfelves, as well as for the people: But as our finle/s High Prieft fuffered in the days of his humiliation, to the greateft extremity, for the fins of his people, he cannot but from five manaer, apply to his heavenly Father for featonable relief againft those troubles that could not but be very terrible to human nature; and how fully was he answered, with respect to the grand defign of his prayer! As he was perfectly feely fitted by his fufferings for complexing his prieftly office, he is become the author of eternal falvation to all that yield themfelves up by faith and holy obedience to him. How great is the honour that was put upon him, as man; and his own condefcenfion, as God, in bearing this important office ! He did not thruft himfelf into it; but it was conferred upon him by the express and immediate call of God his Father, as the Levitical prieftbood was upon Aaron; and it is manifeft what a divine and glorious High Prieft he is, in that his Father faid to him, Thou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee, and thou art a Priest for ever after the order of Melchifedec. Though he was the eternal Son of God, yet, adorable condescension ! how freely did he accept the call to office work, and experimentally learn obedience by his fufferings unto death ! But, alas, how often are profeffing believers themselves too little apprehensive of the glories of Chrift, as shadowed out by Melchifedec in various instances, and of the doctrine of righteoufness through him ! They are apt to be to flothful and inattentive to them, that they cannot take in just fentiments of them; but when for their standing and adwantages in the church, they might reafonably be expected to have such a stock of fcriptural knowledge, as to be able to instruct others, they themselves need to be taught over again the very fift principles of Christianity. But, bleffed be God, there are provisions of all forts in his word for every state and condition of his people; there is milk for babes, and ftrong meat for those that are arrived at a ftare of manhoud in Chrift, and are more skilful in the word of righteousness, as by means of frequent use, and great experience, they are confirmed in habits of knowledge and grace, and have their fpiritual fenfes exercifed to diferrn the difference between what is good and bad, and to relifh the one and refule the other. How though this confideration excite us to the greatest diligence, that we may not always be like children in understanding, but may live upon fuch fublime truths of the golpel as are fuited to the nourishment of strong men in Christ !

CHAP. VI.

The apofile intimates his defigh of giving the Hebrews higher infructions, and excites them to greater proficiency, than they had yet made in the doctrine of Chrift, 1,-3. To enforce this upon them, he defcribes the dreadful nature and confequence of apoflacy in the most moving firains, 4,-8. Sweetly infinuates his great fatisfaction, as to the better part of them, notwithflanding what he had been bying about apoflates, 9, 10. And eucourages them to perfeverance in faith and holinefs, from the experience of other fincere believers, and from the promife and oath of God to Abraham, and to all the heirs of falvation, 11,-20.

PARAPHRASE.

TEXT. THerefore, leaving the principles of the doctrine of Chrift, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith tewards God,

SINCE it is unworthy the character of Chriftians to be always children, inftead of men in underftanding, (chap. v. 11,-14.) let us therefore difmifs, for the prefent, what relates to the firft principles of Chriftianity, without infifting particularly upon them, which, how important foever they be, are like milk for babes; (chap. v. 12, 13.) and let us proceed to difcourfe of, and to embrace with holy care and diligence, thole great mylteries of the golpel, that may bring us to more advanced degrees of fpiritual underflanding, fuch as are like flrong meat, fit for thols that are of full age, (chap. v. 14.) and, compara-S f 2

The Epifile to the

i

:

tively fpeaking, may be called a perfection in the knowledge of the fublimer points of faith, relating to the perfon and offices, and particularly to the prieflood of Christ, 'till we all came in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unte a perfect man, and unto the measure of the stature of the fulnefs of Christ. (Ephef. iv. 13.) I therefore decline infifting on first principles, that we who preach, and ye who hear, may not always be laying the foundation, and ftop there, without building upon it: The principles I mean are fuch as these *: One is the doctrine of evangelical repentance, which consists in a thorough fense of the evil of fin, as committed against God; in deep humiliation and grief of foul for it, and utter deteflation of it; and, under apprehenfions of the mercy of God through Chrift, in turning to him from all iniquities, which may be called dead works, as they are practifed

NQ fitors are much at a los, to determine nion, we may avoid many difficulties, the fense of this and the following arti- and fleer a much clearer course between cles, to the end of the second verse, the two former, if we confider the which are here called the principles of doctrine of baptifms, and laying on of the doctrine of Chrift, and the founda- bands, as a parenthefis, referring to tion of repentance, &c. Some under- Jewifb washings, and laying hands on stand them to mean the first principles the heads of their facrifices, the docof Christianity; and others, the princi- trines of which rites were, Repentance ples of Judaisim, as contained in the from dead aborks, and faith toward doctrine of the Old Teftament, and par- God; and if we confider repentance ticularly of the ceremonial law, which from dead works, faith toward God, gave a fhadowy representation of Chrift, the refurrection of the dead, and eterand laid a foundation for the fuller dif- nal judgment, as the first rudiments of coveries that were to be made of him Christianity; and to the Jewish washunder the gospel-dispensation. But, after the closeft inquiry, I have been able confidered, not as diffinct principles from to make, they that go into the last of the reft; but as figmificative, under the these ways of interpreting all these paf- Mofaic law. of the repentance and faith fages appear to me, either to put too just before mentioned. Accordingly, it great a force upon fome of them; or is to be observed, that though the docelle to make some too co-incident with trines of repentance and faith are inothers of them; and they that choole tended, yet the word doctrine is not the first way of interpreting them feem prefixed to them in the Greek, but only the firft way of interpreting them feem to be exceedingly puzzled how to account for the doctrine of baptifins, and which leads us to think that they were of laying on of hands, as belonging to the doctrines taught by those ceremon the first principles of Christianity. And I own, that I cannot meet with fatisfaction from any author, in either of reckoned, but only four, which are vethese ways of interpretation; because ry properly specified as plain and fun-each fide is apparently pressed with damental principles of Christian religreat, and to me infuperable difficulties, gion. in their respective ways of accounting taken, gives us a more easy and confor all the particulars here mentioned, fiftent view of these verses, than any which may be feen in Pool's Synopfis, thing that has occured to me, either in Grotius, Owen. Hammond, Peirce, and reading or meditating upon them. others; and which rather bewilder than

T E. * It is extremely difficult, and expo- instruct me. But, in my humble opiings, and laying on of bands, are to be to baptisms, and laying on of bands, nies; and then the principles themfelves will not be fix, as they are commonly This, if I am not much mil-

314

2 Of the doctrine of baptilms, and of laying on of hands, and of refurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.

Hebrews paraphrased.

fed by those that are dead in trespasses and fins, and as they deferve, tend to, and entail, not only temporal death, but also the destruction of the fouls of those that are under their guilt and power, and will certainly iffue in it, (which is the fecond death) unlefs re-pented of and gracioufly pardoned. And another of these principles is the doctrine of faith towards our Lord Jefus Chrift, and toward God through him, (Acts xx. 21.) which is infeparably connected with true repentance; and confifts in a firm belief of God's being and perfections, and in an humble truft in him, according to gofpel, difcoveries of divine grace for the remission of fins, through Jefus Christ, as an accomplifhment of ancient promifes, types, and predictions of him.

2 (Thefe two principles of Christianity were fignified by various wa/bings under the ceremonial law, (chap. ix. 10.) which held forth the doctrine of purification, and were prefigurative of the cleanfing virtue of the blood and Spirit of Chrift; and were further fignified by the laying of the bands of the reprefentatives of the people on the heads of the facrifices, and particularly in the great day of atonement, (Lev. xvi. 21, 22, 29, 30.) which was attended with penitent confessions of fin, and directed the faith of l/rael to the truly proper and effectually atoning facrifice of Jefus our High Prieft :) And befides thefe, there are two other first principles, that are motives to this faith and repentance, namely, the fundamental doctrine of the re/urrection of the bodies both of the righteous and the wicked, one to everlasting life, and the other to shame and everlasting contempt, (Daniel xii. 2.) which is fully confirmed, and further cleared up by the gofpel revelation, in which our Lord himself has plainly told us, All that are in their graves shall hear his voice, and come forth ; they that have done good, unto the refurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the refurrection of damnation: (John v. 28, 29.) And this leads us to the great article of the awful and final judgment, that shall enfue upon the refurrection of . all mankind, who must appear before the judgmentfeat of Chrift, (Rom. xiv. 10, 11. and 2 Cor. v. 10.) and that will determine their flate of happiness or milery for all eternity,* as the wicked (hall go away into

NOTE.

* Though the judgment itself will be fects, as Christ is faid to have obtained dispatched in a certain limit of time, it eternal redemition for us, though the may be called eternal judgment, with price of it was paid at once, when he respect to its being irreversibly decisive appeared to put away fin by the facri-without appeal, and to its eternal ef- fice of him/elf. (Chap. ix. 12, 26.)

The Epistle to the

into everlasting punishment, and the righteous into life eternal. (Mat. xxv. 34,-46.)

3 And this will we do, if God permit.

2 And as ye have been fufficiently taught thefe important doctrines, and ought never to forget them, but ferioufly reflect upon them all your days, and will do fo, unlefs it be your own fault through flupidity and floth, (chap. v. 11.) I shall pass them by, and purfue my defign of leading you hereafter, (chap. vii.) to the still sublimer parts of the gospel, relating to Chrift and his priesthood, to prevent your apostatizing from him, if God shall favour me with the continuance of life, (James iv. 15.) and of gracious affiftances, and shall give me opportunity of transmitting this epiftle before it be too late : And fhould it be too late for any of you, dreadful would your cafe be indeed.

For it is impaffible for those who

4. For the flate of those professors of Christianity. that turn utter apostates *, is really desperate, past all hope

Digitized by Google

NOTE. politors on the descriptive characters of 7, 8.; and true believers are diffinguilhthe perfons intended in this and the next ed from them, as perfons of whom the verse; and it is not very easy to keep, apostle was perfuaded better things, the ideas diffinct that are defigned to even things that accompany falvation, be conveyed, particularly, by their ha- and whom he defcribes by their work ving tafted the heavenly gift, been made and labour of love, which God, in his powers of the world to come. But as I venant, would not forget, ver. 9, 10.; powers of the world to come. But as I venant, would not forget, ver. 9, 10.; take them all to relate to the estraordi- and he (peaks of the immutability of mary difpensation, and miraculous gifts bis counsel, with regard to their fal-of the Holy Ghoft in the apofile's days, vation, ver. 17, 18, 19. So that there I have endeavoured to give fuch an ac- can be no argument drawn from hence count of them as I apprehend to be most for falling from grace; there being no probable, and leaft interfering one with appearance of any one fpecial grace in another. And that none of them figni- these perfons: Nor is there any ground fy any fpecial and faving operation of for the diffress that many gracious fouls the Spirit, is very evident to me; be- have been thrown into, from a misuncaufe here is no mention made of faith, derftanding of these passages, as if, on love, or any other grace; nor of holi- account of their backflidings and leffer nefs or obedience; nor of any of the falls into one or another fin, it were blefings of falvation; and the apoftle impossible for them to be renewed to feems carefully to keep to the word repentance: For the apostle here speaks taffing, to express what experience they of only utter aposlates, that never had had of the golpel, and of the difpenfa- the truth of grace in their own fouls, tion, gifts, and powers of the Holy and fell away from the proteffion of Ghoft, to intimate that they had io Christianity after they had entered upon much knowledge and tafte of those it, and had received the greatest advanthings as was fufficient to enable them tages in the nature of means that could to make a fair trial of them, though be imagined, or ever should be afforded, they did not fo far relift and approve of even by miraculous operations of the them, upon the trial, as cordially to re-Spirit, to engage them to continue fled-ceive, and feed by faith upon them, and fast in it; and so they seem to have apdigeft them to their fpiritual nourifi- proached very near to, if not been actu-ment; but were, after all, like barren ally guilty of the fin against the Holy ground, on which the rain often comes, Gbost. (See the notes on Mat. xii. 31. and yet bears nothing but briars and and 1 John v. 18.) thorns, in diffinction from that good

* Various are the fentiments of ex- ground, which brings forth herbs, ver. partakers of the Holy Ghoft, and the righteouinels, or faithfulnels to his co-

Chap. vi.

enlightened, and have tafted of the were made partakers of the Holy Ghoft,

5 And have taft-

ed the good word

of God, and the powers of the world to come;

who were once hope of their ever being reclaimed by any means whatfoever, who have been once to far illuminated in their heavenly gift, and minds *, by the preaching of the golpel, and the common, or, at most, miraculous operations of the Spirit, as doctrinally to receive the knowledge of the truth; (chap. x. 26.) and that have made fome experiment, and had fome relifh of the difpenfation of grace, fet up by the golpel, under the conduct and infpiration of the Holy Spirit, who is by way of eminence the gift of God, and that with a particular. regard to his miraculous operations, (Acts viii. 20.) and is fent down from heaven by the exalted Head and Saviour; (Acts ii. 33. and 1 Pet. i. 12.) and have been made partakers of the miraculous gifts of the Holy Ghoft, fuch as prophecy, difcerning of firits, feveral kinds of tongues, and interpretation of tongues; (I Cor. xii. 10.)

5 And have feen fuch divine credentials of the word of God, as carried conviction to their confciences of its truth and goodness, and gave them fome tafte of its excellency, which ftruck their affections with fuch a fort of pleafure, as our Lord defcribes in the flony ground bearers, that received the good feed of the word with joy for a while, but had no root in themfelves; (Mat. xiii. 20, 21.) or as those felt that attended on John the Baptifl's ministry, who for a feafon rejoiced in bis light; (John v. 35.) and have talted the wonderful powers that were exerted in producing other miracles, over and above, and as diffinguished from, the forementioned gifts of the Holy Ghoft, (fee the note on 1 Cor. xii. 10.) fuch as healing the fick, and raifing the dead, that were wrought in confirmation of the gospet, which, as the last dispensation that was to fucceed those that were before the law, and under the law, has been usually called by the Jews, and has been already fpoken of in this epifile, as the world to come. (Chap. ii. 5.)

6 If they fhall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; feeing

6 If fuch as thefe shall fin wilfully, (chap. x. 26.) fo as to apoftatize from Chrift to Moles, and from the profession of the gospel to judaifm, they resolutely reject the only remedy for their recovery; and are fo.

NOTE.

(quilio Sivilac) here rendered enlightned, Testament, where it constantly relates was often used by the ancients with re- to the light or knowledge whereby the lation to baptifm, the apostle means mind is enlightened; and particulary in them that had been baptifed. But it that parallel place, where the apostle does not appear that this word was ever fpeaks of these Hebrews having been used in that mystical fense, until the fe- illuminated, as a term of the same im-cond or third century by Justin Martyr, port with their baving received the (dial. II.) and Glemens Alexandrinus, knowledge of the truth. (Chap. x. (lib. i. cap. 6.) nor do we find any 26, 32.)

Some suppose that as the word, such signification of it in all the New feeing they crucify to themfelves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open fhame.

ever, of their being fo effectually renewed and changed in the temper of their minds and hearts, as to recover them to a just fense of their crimes, and fincere repentance to the faving of their fouls; becaufe they, in effect, approve of the wickedness of the Jews in crucifying the eternal Son of God, and fhew that they themfelves would put him to the ignominious and painful death of the cross over again, as an impostor, had they opportunity for it; they also perfecute him again in his members; and they expose his character to the vileft reproach, by renouncing him and their profession of him, as though he really had been as infamous a person as his crucifiers pretended, and were not fit to be trufted in, adhered to, or acknowledged as a divine perfon, or as the true Meffiah; and as though, after trial, they had found that there is neither truth nor goodness in him, or in his gospel; and fo they most perversely shut themselves out from all the benefit of his crucifixion, and caufe his glorious name to be blafphemed in the world.

fo righteously given up of God to a desperate and voluntarily contracted blindness and hardness of their own hearts, that there is no room left for any expectation of the least possibility, by any means whatfo-

7 For, to show the difference between true believers and those that are only partakers of the illuminations and miraculous operations of the Spirit, by a fimilitude taken from a fruitful and barren foil, true believers are like good ground, (Mat. xiil. 23.) which receives good feed, and is foaked with, and drinks in the rain that often descends upon it in seafonable fhowers, as the word, ordinances, and influences of the Spirit do upon the hearts of believers, to make them fruitful: And as, in confequence hereof, this fort of earth, being thus kindly impregnated, (TINTE- $\sigma \alpha$) brings forth grafs and corn, flowers, and all useful herbs, that are pleafing and profitable to those, by and for whom it is tilled and eultivated, it is evidently bleffed of God, as the author of all its increase, and he will still further command the bleffing upon it, even as he did upon the whole earth in its original ftate ; (Gen. i. 11, 29.) fo true believers, being renewed by grace, bring forth fruits of righteoulnels. that are by Jefus Chrift acceptable to God, and for his praise and glory, (Pbil. i. 11.) and are manifestly under his fpecial bleffing, who gives their increase; (1 Cor. iii. 7.) and he will further own and blefs them, that they may bring forth more fruits of faith, love, holinefs, and obedience, yea, all the fruits of the Spirit, in their hearts and lives; and will preferve them to his heavenly kingdom; and to command the blefsing

Digitized by Google

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth meet herbs for them by whom it is dreffed, receiweth bleffing from God :

8 But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto curfing; whole end is to be burned. ing upon them, even life for evermore. (Pfal. cxxxiii. 3.) ●

8 But, on the contrary, those professors of Christ, that partake only of the forementioned illuminations, external means and advantages, without the truth of grace in their hearts, naturally produce nothing but unbelief, impenitence, and hardness of heart, and every kind of unfruitful work of darkness; and so are like the ground, which God curfed after, and on account of the fall of man; (Gen. iii. 17, 18.) and which, notwithstanding all the rain that falls upon it, brings forth, inftead of pleafant and ufeful fruit, nothing but briers and thorns, which are offenfive, unprofitable, and injurious to the owner, and therefore, upon trial, is (adorupos) difapproved of by him that manures it, even as those grievous revolters were by the Lord, who spoke of them as reprobate filver, becaule he had rejected them : (Jer. vi. 19, 30.) And all fuch barren apostate professors are in the nearest danger of falling under an execution of the curfe of God upon them; and their final iffue is to be burned up, like briers and thorns, (1/. xxvii. 4.) and like chaff, when feparated from the wheat, with unquenchable fire, (Mat. iii. 121) to their eternal destruction, as this earth itself shall be at the last day. (2 Pet. iii. 10.)

9 But as to the better part, of you, my dear brethren, whom I look upon and love, as beloved of God, and as fincere believers, I am very confident, that ye are favoured with much more excellent blefsings than the apostates before mentioned ever have been partakers of; and that your end shall be better than theirs, (ver. 7, 8.) as ye are enriched with the bleffings of special grace, in the renovation of your nature, the forgiveness of fins, justification and adoption, with other diffinguishing benefits, that contain in them, fland connected with, and fhall certainly iffue in the eternal falvation of your fouls; (exoption corneras) though for your caution, and for the terror of falle professions, I have spoke so freely of the danger of apostatizing from the profession of Christ, after an enjoyment of fuch high privileges as have been conferred upon them, according to what has been faid about them. (ver. 4, 5.)

God is 10 This my firm perfuation concerning you is built ous, to upon the molt folid grounds: It refts upon the ftabiwork lity of the covenant of grace, (ver. 17, 18.) and the which evident tokens of your faving intereft in it: For as God is truth itfelf, we may depend upon it, that he neither 9 But, beloved, we are perfuaded better things of you, and things that accompany falvation, though we thus fpeak.

10 For God is not unrighteous, to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have which fhewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the faints, and do minifter.

Vol. V.

neither is nor ever will be * unfaithful to his own everlasting covenant, which is ordered in all things. and fure; (2 Sam. xx#i. 5.) or that, in violation of his promifes of gracious rewards, any more than in unrighteousnels to the merit of his Son, He will be unmindful of your work of faith, and labour of love, (1 Theff. i. 3.) or of that effectual and operative faith, which he has wrought in you, and which hath produced a fincere and laborious love, as the principle of all holy obedience, according to what ye have abundantly manifested in your religious regard to his great and bleffed name; in your reverential subjection to his authority and commands; and in your ferious concern for his honour and glory, in that, as in many other inftances, fo particularly in these days of peril and reproach, ye have chearfully and diligently attended to the various duties of compassion, tendernes and affistance, counfel and liberality, to his poor, defpiled, and afflicted faints for his fake; and ftill perfift in all the offices of love and kindness to them, on account of their peculiar relation, and holy conformity to him, as they bear his name and image.

11 But, (de) knowing that end and means are connected in his gracious fettlement, I cannot but earnestly defire, beg of God, and entreat you to labour in his ftrength, that, not only fome, but all and every one of you may manifeltly abound, and perfevere in the fame diligent care, fludy, and endeavour, as many of you have already flown, in bring. ing forth the genuine fruits of faith and love; and that ye may do this conftantly, with growing improvement, till by these means, and the bleffing of God upon them, ye, like a ship that is carried to its port with full fails, $(\pi \lambda \eta e^{\phi} \varphi_{optar})$ fhall arrive at the fullest fatisfaction, as to your own hope of interest in Christ, and in the promises of eternal life, that it is well grounded, and shall never be disappointed; and till ye shall have this abundant assurance of faith and hope, not only now and then, but with continuance through all your days and Chriftian courfe upon earth, at the close of which ye shall receive the end of your faith, even the falvation of your fouls. (I Pet. i. g.)

Digitized by Google

it feems to be most immediately intend- of his blood, Rom. iii. 25, 26.

* Unrighteous (sJ_{1xoc}) fometimes fig- ed here, with reference to the faithful-nifies unfaithful, and is used in opposi- nefs of God in fulfilling his new-covenant tion to faithful (π_{1Soc}) Luke xvi. 10. and promiles: And yet he may be faid to be unrighteou/nefs ftands opposed to truth, therein just to the merit of his Son too, Rem. ii. S.; and this is the fense in which as the promifed bleffings are the purchase it forms to the unrighteout of the merit of his Son too.

12 In 11 And we defire that every one of you do shew

the fame diligence, to the full affurance of hope unto the end :

7

12 That ye be not flothful, but followers of them, who through faith and patience inherit the promifes.

13 For when God

fwear

made promise to Abraham, becaule

by no greater, he fware by himfelf,

•he could

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

12 In order hereunto, my heart's defire and prayer is, that ye may not indulge to eafe and floth, by being carelefs, indolent, or negligent in the use of the means of grace, or in fulfilling the duties of your holy profession; but may be imitators, (muntai) and fo tread in the fleps of those believers in this and the former ages that have gone before you *; and may make the best of your way after them ; ye having as much encouragement hereunto, as they themfeives had, who through faith in the promifes, and through a patient expectation of their accomplishment in due feason, and who poffeffing their own souls with patience in the mean while, under their various trials, are now got beyond the reach of all troubles and danger, and are in possession of the heavenly inheritance, which God had promifed them, and which ye in the fame way shall, through grace, be likewife made partakers of.

13 And, for the further encouragement of your hope, and perfeverance in faith and patience to the end, ye ought to confider how punctually faithful and true God is in performing his promifes, and how graciously he has condescended to give us the utmost assurance of it: For to instance in the great leading promife, on the fulfilling of which all the reft of the promifed bleffings of the new covenant depend, When God was pleafed to give Abraham, the father of the faithful, the vaftly important promife of an innumerable offspring, from which the Mefliah himfelf should descend, in whom all nations of the

Tt 2

Digitized by Google

0 т

patience inherit the promifes is general- Gentiles, there is no need to confider it ly underflood to be meant the Patri- as exclusive of the believing Patriarchs: archs of old, that inherit eternal life: And inheriting the promites, fignifies But as it is faid of them, chap. xi. 13. actually poffeffing the things promifed; thefe all died in faith, not having re- for though faith was necessary to the that the Gentiles, who had already believed, and were partakers of the pro-miles, are here intended. (See Mr. Peirce on the place.) think that paffage may be eafily underftood in a light, very confittent with a fupposition, that the Patriarchs are here referred to: For though they did not actually receive the accomplishment of the promifes of the Meffiah, and the bleffings of the gospel-state upon earth, which are there referred to, they did receive the promifes of the eternal inheritance in heaven, which feem to be here most immediately intended, as the upfhot of all the promifes of the covenant of grace; And therefore, if the

E. * By them, who through faith and apostle had any view to the believing ceived the promifes, others have thought Gentiles inheriting the promited bleflings. of the goipel-ftate, as the olefling of Abraham came upon them through jetus Chrift, and they received the promife of However, I the Spirit through faith; (Gal. iii 14.) yet Christian patience muit be supposed rather to follow after their poficition of theie, than to go before it : Accordingly, both faith and patience are usually fpoken of in icripture, as preceding, and as the means of perions arriving at, the beavenly inheritance, as in chap. x. 36, 37, 38. and xii. 1, 2. and 2 Theff. iii. 5. James i. 3, 4, 12. and v. 7, 5. and 1 Pet. v. 9 and in our context, ver 1, it is laid, that, after Abtaham had patiently endured, he obtained the promife.

carth

earth should be bleffed, (Gen. xxii. 16, 17.) he confirmed it by an oath, (ver. 17.) to give him the flrongeft evidence that it should certainly take effect; and because there was no God above him, or no being superior to himself, to whom he could appeal for the truth of what he faid, as we do to bim in our solemn oaths, as to one infinitely greater than ourselves, he appealed to his own being and perfections, and as it were pawned them for the truth and performance of his promise, infomuch that he would as soon cease to be, as break it.

14 Saying, I will abundantly and certainly blefs thee, as with a rich variety of the good things of this life, fo efpecially with an innumerable pofterity, like the ftars of heaven, and the fand on the fea-fhore for multitude; and one of thy defcendents fhall be the Meffiah himfelf, in whom not only thy natural offfpring among the Jews, but Gentiles also in every nation of the world, even all thy fpiritual children of both forts, that walk in the fteps of thy faith, fhall be bleffed with all fpiritual and heavenly bleffings. (Gen. xxii. 16,-18.)

15 And accordingly, after Abraham had waited with patience and hope, under the many trials of his faith that he was exercifed with, God fulfilled this eminent promife in bleffing him, not only with great prosperity in worldly affairs, but more especially in giving him a fon, and multiplying his children while he lived; and fo he enjoyed the promifed bleffing in them, as a pledge and earnest of all the rest that were to be brought in by his most glorious descendent, the Mefliah himself, whose day he saw with an eye of faith, and was glad; (John viii. 56.) and when he came to die, he himfelf, through faith in the great promifed feed, obtained the inheritance of eternal life, (Luke xvi. 23.) which is the final iffue and confummation of all the promifes, and which shall be likewife enjoyed by all his fpiritual feed, through the righteousnels of faith, (Rum. iv. 13, 16. and Gal. iii. 18, 22) after they, like him, shall have run with patience the race which is fet before them, looking to Jesus, &c. (Chap. xii. 1, 2.) In this condescending manner, God was pleafed to give the fulleft affurance poffible of his veracity, according to the most valid and approved method, that men use to take to fatisfy their fellow-creatures of the truth of what they affirm and promife.

16 For men-verily fwear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation 16 For it is cuftomary with men, on important occafions, to bind their depositions and promifes with an oath; and they indeed ($\mu \omega r$) as is fit in the nature of things, and is ordered by a divine command, (Deut.

Digitized by Google

14 Saying, Sure-

15 And fo after he had patiently endured, mile.

tained the he ob pro-

ly, bleffing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

HEBREWS paraphrajed.

tion is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God,

fhew

willing more abundantly to unto the heirs of promife the im-mutability of his counfel, confirmed

it by an oath :

(Deut. vi. 13.) fwear by the fupreme God, who is infinitely greater than themfelves, to give the utmost folemnity and fanction to their oath * : And fuch fort of fwearing, to confirm the truth of what they fay, is commonly and juftly reckoned by men the , ftrongeft, and most decifive evidence, that can be given of the truth of their declarations, to the fatislying of all doubts, determining all debates, and filencing all contradiction, to the teftimony given, or to the teltifier.

17 In this strongest way therefore, that men can take to put an end to all doubts and controverfies, the great God has flooped to accommodate himfelf to the weakness of men, as being graciously inclined and refolved to give them the utmost fatistaction, with ftill more abundant evidence, than was abfolutely ncceffary, or is commonly thought to be given barely by a promile, that he might demonstrate to his people, whom he has made the heirs of all the promifes, and of the bleffings included in that to Abraham; and might fatisfy them, that his promife is as fure to them as it was to him, and that his free and eternal purpose and infinitely wife counfel of peace, which he has revealed and alcertained in the promile, is unchangeably the fame, and never shall be repealed, de-, feated, or falfified : For this reafon, I fay, he condefcended fo far, as to fwear to it by himielf, and fo he has as it were fealed his promite by a folemn oath, interpoing that (spisostevost ofxw) for its performance, to put an end to all the unbelieving objections, doubts, and fears, which he forefaw his own children, under a fente of their unworthinefs, and of the difficulty and unlikelihood of its accomplifhment, would be apt to raile about it.

18 That fo by two unchangeable things, his promife and his oath, in either, and much more in both, of which, it is abfolutely impoffible that the unalterably true and faithful God, with whom is no variable-ne/s.

T E. * This shows that a folemn oath, and would never have laid these injunctions oaths of fidelity and attegiance, are law- occasions unlawful, or inexpedient : And

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impofible for God

NO particularly of a promiffory nature, like upon them, were fwearing, on proper ful, when taken in a religious manner, both before the law of Mio/es, and ununder the golpel flate ; otherwife the der it, we often read of the most reapoftle would never have spoke of an ligious persons swearing themselves, and oath with to much honour, as a proper requiring an oath from others, for the means of confirmation, to put an end to more ftrongly afcertaining the truth of all strife; and God himself, under the what they laid. See among other plalaw, had enjoined that tolemn oaths ces, Gen xxi. 23, 24. and xxiv. 3 and fhould be taken by his people for fuch xlvii. 31. Joff. ii 12, 17, 20. Judg. xv. like purposes in feveral cates, as in 12. and 1 Sam. xx. 17. and xxiv. 21, 22. Exod. xxii. 11. Numb. xxx. 2. Deut. (See also the note on Mat. v. 34.) vi. 13. But we may be fure that he

to

The Epi/tle to the

have a ftrong confolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope let before us :

10 Which bope we have as an anchor of the foul,

both fure and ftedfaft, and which en-

tereth into that within the vail,

to lie, we might nefs, neither shadow of turning, (Jam. i. 17.) and who can as foon ceafe to be God, as ceafe to be true; we might have the firmeft ground poffible for the moft abundant, prevailing, and folid comfort, and might poffefs it with unshaken confidence, and the sweetest delight in our own fouls, to overcome all our doubts and fears, and fupport us under all our trials and afflictions; even we, who, like the manslayer under the law, that flew to the city of refuge for his life, (Numb. xxxv. 11, 12.) have been enabled to fly, under a fenfe of guilt and danger, with the utmost eagernels and speed, concern and vigour, for deliverance from purfuing wrath and juffice, and for fafety in Chrift, the promifed feed; to apprehend and fix by faith on him, and on the grace and faithfulness of God through him, according to the promiles, which are all confirmed, and shall be fulfilled even to eternal life, by him; who, together with all that is in him*, is proposed to our faith and hope in the declarations and promifes of the gospel, that we may have recourse to him for our fupport and comfort under all tribulations here, and for our everlafting happiness hereafter.

19 Which object of hope, as laid hold on, or hoped and trufted in by faith, that goes out of ourfelves to it, has a mighty efficacy, both to fecure our fouls from destruction, and to hold them fast and steady amidit all the dangers and troubles of this prefent life, as a ftrong anchor, caft out of a ship, does the vellel that is toffed about by the winds and waves of a tempettuous fea : And as Chrift himfelf, the object of this hope, is paffed through the region of the air, into the place of God's peculiar refidence and glory; (as the high prieft under the law paffed through the fecond vail into the holy of holies, chap. ix. 3, 7.) fo our hope in Chrift cafts anchor, not downwards, as other anchors are cail down to the bottom of the next verie, cannot well mean the grace places, particularly in Acts xxviii. 20. of hope that is in us; for it is faid to be and 1 Tim. i. 1.; and this object of it a hope fet before us, and a hope which most directly means Christ, who is the we fly to, and lay hold apon, in allufion hope which is faid to have entered into to the manflayer's flying to the city of that within the wail; and yet the pro-refuge, and laying hold of the hope pro- mifes, and God through him, according vided for his fecurity there; and it is to the promises, which are all Yee and called an anchor of the foul, fure and Amen in bins, 2 Cor. i. 20. and which Acdfaft. in allution to the anchor of a had been fpoken of in the foregoing defative between table of the form Thip, which does not hold it fledfaft, as context, may be confidered as included it is in the flaip itfelf, but as caft out of together with Chrift, as the abject of it, and faftening on fure ground at a our hope: But we cannot be faid to diffance from it. Hope therefore there lay hold of, and caft anchor on him, includes, and in this verse directly fig- without an exercise of the grace of hope nifies, the object of hope, or that which in him.

NOTE.

Hope in this, and, perhaps, in the is hoped in, as it often does in other fea :

HEBREWS paraphrased.

fea; but upwards, as it enters through the vifible hea. vens after him, into that glorious world which lies be-" yond them, and is hid by them as by a vail, from our corporal fight; and there it fattens upon him, and the Father through him, as exhibited in the promifes.

20 Into which bleffed and glorious flate our exalted Head and Saviour is entered, not indeed like the Aaronical high priefts of old, with respect to their going alone, through the vail, into the holy place, without any other being allowed to go thither after them; (chap. ix. 7.) but as the pledge and earnest of our following him, that are true believers in him. who is gone thither in a double public capacity for our fafety and happinels, and to act there for us; One is that of a fore-runner *, who, as fuch, declares what he has done and fuffered on earth; to make way for our arrival after him, and notifies in heaven, that we in due time and order are coming to be there with him; he also prepares, fecures, and takes poffeftion of glorious manfions there for us, (Yohn xiv. 2. and Ephel. ii. 6.) and makes all things ready for our entrance into the holieft of all after him by faith now. (chap. x. 19,-22.) and for our personal entrance in due time, that we may be for ever with him, where be is, to behold his glory. (John xvii. 24.) And the other public character, in which he is entered, is that of an high prieft, which Jefus our Saviour is, who, as has been observed, (chap. v. 6.) is constituted in that office, not indeed after the order of Aaron, which was temporary and fucceffive, from one age to another; but after the much higher order of Melchiledec, as an interceding, as well as atoning high prieft, that has no fucceffor, but abides in his perfon and office for ever. (See the note on chap. v. 10.) This brings us to the refemblance there is between Chrift and Melchifedec, which was proposed (chap. v. 10, at large; and fhall be now explained in the following comparison between them. (Chap. vii.)

RECOLLECTIONS.

How incumbent is it on golpel-profeflors to be progreffive in all fpiritual underftanding ! Though the first principles of religion must be retained and adhered to, fuch as the doctrines of repentance and faith, (which were fignified by legal wafhings

NOTE.

A fore-runner is wont to be lefs in runner could do for those that were to dignity than these that are to follow come after him; and it is a high hg-him; but Chrift is infinitely fuperior to nour put upon all the faints, that they us, and does more for us by way of ca- have fuch a glorious fore-runner, as JE-fuality, and authoritative management sus, to appear in the prefence of God for in his own right, than any other fore- them.

Digitized by Google

20 Whither the fore-runner is for us entered, even Jefus, made an high prieft for ever after the order of Melchifedec.

ings and impolitions of hands) and the doctrines of the refurrection and a judgment to come; yet we ought not to stop here, but to advance forwards, in still fublimer points of the golpel, for further edification in faith, comfort, and holinefs unto complete falvation. How great is the danger of mere profeffors, that are partakers only of fuch gifts of the Spirit, whether ordinary or extraordinary, as are common to nominal and real Christians! They may have these, and yet may have no more than such a taste of the good things of the gospel, as their carnal hearts foon difrelish and reject; and to may apostatize from their profession of Christ, and, like barren ground that brings forth nothing but briers and thorns, may be difapproved of God and in the nearest danger of falling under executions of his wrath and curfe, as fuel fit for everlafting burnings : And this will certainly be the dreadful end of utter apoftates, who, as much as in them lies, crucify the Son of God again ; and put him to open fhame ; and fo desperate is their cafe, that they cannot poffibly be recovered to true repentance ! But O how fafe and happy are those that are partakers of special grace. They are favoured with better things, even things that fland connected with, and fhall certainly iffue in eternal falvation : For the faithful God will be ever mindful of his covenant-engagements, and of their faith, and labour of love, which they manifeft toward himfelf, in affectionately ministring to the faints, for his fake, in obedience to his command, and for the glory of his name; they are like good ground, that brings forth excellent fruit, acceptable to God through Jefus Chrift; and are under a divine bleffing for improvement unto eternal life And O what a fure and bleffed ground of hope have they in the promife and oath of God, that his unalterable counfel of wifdom and love concerning them (hall be accomplished ! As folemn oaths are juftly deemed the strongest testimony for confirming depositions among men; so the most high God has condescended to swear solemnly by himself, to satisfy the heirs of salvation about the veracity of his promife, according to his eternal counfel, which is unchangeably and irreverfibly confirmed to them, in like manner as it was to A-They ought therefore to depend firmly upon it for their abundant conbrabam. folation; and this should engage their utmost care and diligence, in the use of all the means of grace, and in an exercise of faith and love, with perfeverance therein, that they may attain a full affurance of hope, and that to the end of their days, as followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promifes. And O how Afe and folid is the hope, that has Chritt, and a promifing God in him, for its ob-ject, and flies for refuge to him! This is an anchor of the foul both fure and fted-faft, and enters into heaven itfelf, after our exalted Head and Saviour, who is gone thither, as an incomparably glorious Fore-runner, and as our great High Prieft, after the order of Melchifedec, who ever lives to make interceffion for us.

C H A P. VII.

The aposlie returns from his digression to the comparison be had proposed to make between the priessbood of Melchisedec and of Chriss, in which he gives an account of Melchisedec, 1,-3. Shows the excellency of his above the Levitical priessbood, 4,-10. Applies all this to Chriss, to set forth the superior dignity and perfection of his priessbood, even to the superceding and disannulling of that, which was after the order of Aaron under the law, 11,-24. And draws an inference from this, to the encouragement of the faith and hope of the church, 25,-28.

PARAPHRASE.

FOR this Melchifedec king of Chrift's priefthood, It bears the most eminent corresponthe most high God, dence to that of Melchi edec, which vastly exceeded who that of Aaron: For this famous Mechi/edec, after whofe who met Abraham returning from the flaughter of the kings, and bleffed him: HEBREWS paraphrafed.

TEXT.

whofs order Chrift is an High Prieft, as has been mentioned once and again, (chap. v. 10. fee the note there, and vi. 20.) and of whom our Lord is the great antitype, both in his kingly and prieftly office : This Melchifedec, was a certain renowned king of Yerulalem, anciently called Salem; (Pfal. lxxvi. 2.) and that he might be the fitter type of Chrift, he was alfo an eminent prieft ; peculiarly appointed and conflituted, as fuch, by the only living and true God to minister before him, who is far exalted above all gods: (P/al. xcvii. 9.) And he was fo great a man in his perfon and office, that when the patriarch Abraham returned from his conquest and flaughter of the four kings of the nations round about him, Melchifedec met and entertained him with bread and wine; and, in the execution of his prieftly office, authoritatively pronounced a bleffing upon him; (Gen. xiv. 18,-... 20.) and fo he was a high prieft, prior and fuperior to Aaron, not of one nation only, as Aaron was; but of all nations of the earth, before I/rael were feparated, as a peculiar people to the Lord; and he therein was the more exact and complete type of Chrift, who is the High Prieft of Gentiles, as well as . Jews. (1 John ii. 1, 2.)

2 To this Melchi/edec alfo, Abraham, in acknowledgment of his fuperior character of priefthood, paid tithes, which were the tenth part of all the fpoils that he had taken in the war. (Gen. xiv. 20.)-As to his titles, in which he was a remarkable type of Chrift, He was, according to the fignification of his name, King of righteou/ne/s, being a just and holy man in himfelf, and in the administration of his government; and then (ETEITA de xai) he was also, by a denomination taken from Salem, the place where he was king, ftyled, according to the meaning of that word, King of peace, which was the effect of his righteous government; and fo he was a proper and lively type of Chrift, who is anointed of God to his kingly, as well as priefly office; is finlefs, holy, and righteous in his own perfon; (ver. 26.) loves righteousness and hates iniquity; and the fceptre of whole kingdom is a right scepire; (Pf. xlv. 6, 7.) who is also the Lord our righteou/ne/s, by whole obedience many are made righteous: (Jer. xxiii. 6. and Rom. v. 19.) And, as the fruit of this, he is the Prince of peace, (If. ix. 6.) he having made peace with God, and reconciled us to him by the blood of his crofs, (Eph. ii. 14,---16.) and thereupon preached peace; and he is the author of all the bleffings of fpiritual peace, and proiperity, and of an affectionate and holy harmony among his fubjects between themfelves, in the admini-Uи ftration

Digitized by GOOGLE

2 To whom allo Abraham gave a tenth part of all; firft being by interpretation king of righteoufnefs, and after that alfo, king of Salem, which is, king of peace;

Vol. V.

3 Without father, without mother, without defcent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God, abideth 8 prieft continually.

4 Now confider this how great man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the fpoils.

ftration of his kingdom, as well as of peace of confcience and joy in the Holy Ghoft in their own fouls.

3 As to Melch sedec's original, It is purposely concealed in the fcripture hiftory of him, which gives no account of his father or mother; nor do we find any genealogy of his priefthood, as we do of Aaron and his family, or of the Levitical priefts, whole father was Aaron, and whole mother, in their feveral generations, was to be an I/raelite : (Lev. viii. 2. and xxi. 14.) He did not, like them, descend from Aaron, or derive his pedigree from any family of priefthood whatfoever, there having been none of that office among any predeceffors in his houfe; nor indeed is there the leaft account of any anceftors that he had; nor have we any record either of his birth or death, or of the beginning or end of his priesthood; but he is mentioned without any notice taken of either of thefe, as though he had never began to be in any date of time, and had never expired and come to an end of his life, or priesthood : But * he is represented in this peculiar manner, with regard to all these particulars, that he might be a more eminent figure, and bear the higheft refemblance poffible of the eternal Son of God, who in his buman nature had no earthly father; nor was, any more than Melchifedec, of the tribe of Levi; and in his divine nature had no mother, nor any human parentage at all; but was from everlasting to everlasting God; and his defignation to office, by covenant-conftitution, was before all worlds : And as he is the fame yesterday, to-day, and for ever; (chap. xiii. 8.) fo he continues everlaftingly, fingly, and alone, without any predeceffor or fucceffor, as well as without any partner in his prieftly office, in which he ever lives to make intercefhon for them that come unto God by him. (ver. 25.)

4 Now, in order to your having the more exalted thoughts of the excellency and dignity of Christ's priefthood, and being convinced of the danger of adhering to that of the Levitical tribe, I defire that ye would carefully obferve, and attentively reflect upon the foregoing account of Melchifedec, that ye may fee how uncommonly great a man he was, in his of-fice and favour with God, in which he prefigured Chrift, according to the magnificent description that has but now been given of him, to whom Abraham himfelf, that noble progenitor, not only of one, but

> NO Т E.

> > Digitized by Google

fo may be rendered, by adding a fmall, the place.)

* Abides a prieft continually, feems but very common ellipsis of the article to refer, not to Melchifedec, but to the (os) who abides a priest continually, or nearest antecedent, the Son of God; and unto perpetuity. (See Mr. Peirce on

of

5 And verily they that are of the fons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is,

of their brethren.

though they come out of the loins of Abraham :

Abraham,

HEBREWS paraphrased.

of all the tribes of I/rael; even he, great as he was, and in whom ye yourfelves glory above all others, (John viii. 39, 53.) made a religious offering, as to bis juperior, under the character of the priest of the most high God, even an offering of the tenth 'part of all the ipoils that he had made of the riches of those kings, and of their armies, which he had vanquihed in war. (ver. 1.) He therefore must be greater, by the ordination of God, than Abraham himtelf *, and much more muft Chrift be fo, whofe type only Melchi/edec was.

5 And truly, to show how the dignity of the priefthood appears in the bufinels of tubing, the defcendents of Aaron among the fons of Levi, who were invefted with the office of priethood under the law, had a particular warrant to claim and receive tithes, which the Lord had appropriated to himfelf, (Lev. xxvii. 30, 31.) from all the people of I/rael, according to the fettlement that was made of those dues in the law of Moles, as to the matter and manner of them; (Numb. xviii. 21, 26.) and thefe they received from the reft of the tribes, even of their brethren according to the flefh, though they, as well as themselves, were descendents from the loins of Abrabam, and, as such, had originally an equal right to all the privileges that pertained to them, as his offfpring; and to the very law of tithes shows that fuperior honour belongs to him who receives them, above him that pays them.

6 But Melchi/edec, whole genealogy is unwritten and unknown, cannot be reckoned a descendent from the Levitical priefts, he having exifted long before any of that tribe were in being. This extraordinary and man was fo much greater than they, that he had the bleffed him that honour of receiving tithes of their eminent patriarch had the promifes. Abraham himfelf, as has been observed ; (ver. 2, 4.) and, more than this, he, as a prieft, authoritatively pronounced a bleffing, in the name of the most high God, upon that father of the faithful, with whom God made the covenant of promifes, and confirmed it with an oath, (chap. vi. 13,-16.) as it related to him and his pofterity, who claim and hold all their privileges and bleffings under him, as their reprefentative therein.

* Barely giving does not make the argument for Melchifedec's being greatreceiver greater than the giver; for our er than Abraham riles from Abraham's Lord faid, It is more bleffed to give that giving or delivering the tenth to Melchito receive, (Acts xx. 35.) which inti jedec under the character of the prieft of mates that, in the way of charity, the the most high God, in acknowledgment giver is the greateft; and therefore the of him as fuch.

Uu 2

Digitized by Google

NO т E. 7 And

6 But he whole defcent is not counted from them, received tithes of

The Epistle to the

7 And without all contradiction, the lefs is bleffed of the better.

S And here men that die receive tithes, but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witneffed that he liveth.

9 And, as I may fo fay, Levi alfo, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father when Melchitedec met him.

7 And from this confideration itfelf it appears, that there is no manner of caule to diffute or doubt, either upon the common principles of reafon, or of revelation, but that Melchi/edec was a more excellent perfon in his office than Abraham; becaufe an authoritative benediction, as from God and in his name, is not delivered by a leffer to a greater, but by a greater to a lesser perfon in the office, by virtue of which he bleffes him. Chrift the antitype therefore must needs be a much greater high priest still, as he, in the right of his own purchase, effectually bleffes his people with all fpiritual bleffings.

8 And there is this further proof of Melchifedec's fuperiority to all the fons of Levi, (ver. 5.) that here, in their cafe, by the conflictution of the law of Moles, they which received tithes are, like the reft of the whole human race, mortal men, whole birth and death in their feveral generations we are well acquainted with by the facred writings: But, in the other cafe of Melchi/edec, he received tithes, who is not fpoken of in the feripture under the character of a mortal man; or of one that died for any other to fucceed him in his office; but is reprefented only as living, as if he had no beginning of days or end of life, as to his perfon or priethood; (ver. 3.) and fo the record ftands of him as if he lived for ever; the defign of which was, that he might be the more eminent type of Chrift, who in his divine nature really has from everlasting to everlasting an immortal life, and who, though in his human nature he once died, is now alive, and never died out of his office, but lives in his priefthood for ever after the order of Melchifedec. (Chap. v. 6.)

9 And to add one thought more, to fum up the argument relating to the fuperiority of Melchi/edec to all the Levitical priefts, I may fay that in a certain fenfe, as by just construction, the whole tribe of Levi alfo, who by the law received tithes, did themfelves virtually pay tithes to him, in and through Abraham, as their common father, representative, and covenant-head.

10 For Levi and all his defcendents were comprehended in their natural and covenant father Abraham; they having been included in him, not only as an effect in its caufe, and offspring in their parents, but also as a people are in their representatives *, which

Digitized by Google -

N

OTE.

It feems to me that Levi's, or, as is to their being in Abraham's loins, not is to be underflood, that his and his fon's merely as their natural, but as their paying tithes in. or by Abraham, (Sia covenant-father, who had received the ASgaaµ) is to be confidered with relation promiles for them, as well as for himfelf; otherwife

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (lor under it the people received the la ») what further need was there that another prieit fhould rife after the order of Melchivedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron ?

which Abraham was to all I/racl in the covenant of promiles, made with him for himfelt and them, before Metchijeacc met him, and received tithes from him, and bleffed him; (Gen. xii. 1,-3) and to he was undoubtedly greater in his office than any Levite whatioever.

II To apply all this therefore to the main argument in hand, relating to our Lord Jetus Chrift, the great High Priefl over the bou/e of God, (chap. x. 21.) if there were an accomplishment of the good things themielves, that were fignified by the ordinances of the Levincal priesthood; or if pertection were really and effectually to be obtained, in point of atonement to fatisfy divine justice, and cleanfe the conficience from guilt, (chu/. ix. 9.) and to give us acceptance with God to eternal life, together with an humble confidence in him, and holy liberty and boldneis of accels to him, and hope of future glory; and if the perfect state of the church, as to its inflitutions, of ipiritual worship, were to be acquired by the offerings, facrifices, and fervices, that belonged to the priefthood, which the ions of Levi were concerned in according to the law; (for it was together with, and in relation to that priefthood, that the church of l/rael received the ceremonial law *, by the ministry of Moles, and were obliged to obierve it, which alcertained all the privileges and bleffings that were to accrue to them from it :) if, I fay, perfection, with regard to their things, were attainable by the Levitical priethood itielt, or by the whole lyftem of the law which it belonged to, What neceffity, or further occation could there be, that another fort purpole Abraham's having the promifes him, by virtue of their vital union. is mentioned in this argument, ver 6. which may be naturally iuppoied to be referred to here : And this may help to illustrate the doctrines of the imputation of Adam's fin and Chrift's righteoufnels. As all mankind were in Adam, as their natural father and federal head, when he finned, fo they virtually finned in him : And as all Christ's spiritual feed tion of the Levitical priesthood; yet Ifwere in him as their public representative and federal head, when he died for bedience it required under that differiatheir fins, and role again for their juili- tion, depended upon that prieithood; fication, fo they virtually died and role and the ceremonial law, which containin him. (See Epb. ii. 6.) According- ed all the services, facrisices, and ordily, as Adam's fin actually takes place nances of worthip, pertaining to that upon all his offspring, when they come priefthood, was given after the inflitu-to derive their natural being from him; tion of the priefthood itlelf. (Lew. i. I, fo Christ's righteouinels actually takes -8.) place upon all his fpiritual feed, when otherwife I am at a lofs to fee for what they come to derive fpiritual life from through faith, to him.

NOTES.

* This, as some may think, feems to intimate that the Levitical priefthood was let up before the giving of the law, whereas the law was given at Mount Sinai before the inftitution of that priefthood. But though the moral law was delivered, Exod xx. before the inftiturael's acceptable performance of the o-fort of prieft, of a different and higher rank and order, should be fet up and exalted to the dignity of that office, as it has been shown (chap. v. 5, 6.) Chrift was to be after the order of Melchifedec ? And why should he not be denominated, as he is not in any place of fcripture, a prieft according to the common course of the Levitical priefthood, which was to be after the order of Aaron? There certainly could be no need of this new and higher fort of priethood; but it must be entirely asseles, upon a supposition that all the ends of a priefthood, and of the law to which it belonged, could be perfectly answered by that priesthood itself. It is therefore plain from this fingle confideration, that both that priefthood and the law, which were infeparably interwoven, were to be abolished, as they now are, to make way for a better priefthood, and evangelical difpensation, in the perfon of Chrift.

11 For the priefthood being changed, there is made of neceffity of change alfo the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken, pertained to another tribe, of which no man gave attend. ance at the altar.

12 For the order of the priefthood being altered, to as to be transferred from that, which was appointed by, and flood connected with the law of Moles, to another of a different and more excellent kind, there must of necessity, in confequence of this, be a like alteration made, as to the law itfelf; fo as to abolifh that, (the whole administration of which was confined to the Aaronical priefthood) and to introduce another evangelical conflictution that pertains to, and derives its efficacy from, this more excellent prietthood of a fuperior order.

13 And that Chrift is not a prieft of Aaron's order, like those under the law, is evident ; for he, who was pointed to in all the things, that have hitherto been faid about Melchifedec and his priesthood, was not of the tribe of Levi, to which the legal priefthood was confined; but he fprang from another tribe of Ifrael, which had no fhare in, but was, together with all the other tribes, excluded from that priefthood; none of them, befides that of Levi, having had any right to officiate in the prieftly character, by offering the facrifices that were presented on the brazen altar, or performing any fervices relating to that *, or to the altar of incenfe.

14 For

* When king Uzziab, who was of of Aaron: And God was fo highly of-the tribe of Judah, went into the tem- fended at the king's attempt to break in ple, to burn incenfe on the altar of in- upon his infitution, that Uzziah was cenfe, it is iaid, that he tranfgreffed a- immediately ftruck with a leprofy in his gain/t the Lord his God, and Azariah, the forehead; and he was a leper unto the ehief prieft, and four fore priefts of the day of his death. (2 Chron. XXVI. 16,-Lord with flood him, faying, It pertains 21.) God hereby teftified in the fevereft not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incenfe manner against fuch, as under that difto the Lord, but to the priefls, the fons pensation thould venture to exercise any part 14 For it is evidah ; of which tribe Moles lpake of which nothing concerning priefthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident; for that after the fimilitude of. Melchifedec there arifeth another prieft, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

14 For it is plain beyond all controverfy, as had dent that our Lord been manifested beforehand ($\pi e \partial n \lambda o r$) in an ancient sprang out of Ju-prophecy of the Mellinh (Gen viv rol) and man prophecy of the Meffiah, (Gen. xlix. 10.) and was acknowledged by the chief priefts and fcribes themfelves, (Mat. ii. 4,-6.) that the Chrift was to arife from the tribe of Judah; and it is certain from our Lord's genealogy, (Luke iii. 23,-38.)' that he arofe from that tribe, and particularly from the royal family of David: But, concerning which tribe, Moles in the book of the law never once mentioned, or intimated, that any one of them should exercise the priestly function under that difpensation; and his filence about it is a fufficient proof, (as filence in all cafes of inflitution is) that none of the tribe of Judab ever had any authority to affume that office to themfelves.

15 And it is yet more abundantly plain, even to a demonstration, * that the priesthood, and confequently the law that depended upon it, is fo changed as to be abolished, according to what has been faid; (ver. 12.) because, answerable to former predictions, another prieft is now raifed up, by the ordination of God, after the likeness, which is much the fame with after the order, of Melchifedec, in a refemblance of his priesthood, which has been shown to be of a different and more excellent nature, than that of Aaron : (ver. 1,-11.)

16 Even a High Prieft, who is conflituted in his office, not according to the law of Moles, which fettled the Levitical priesthood, and confisted of precepts that may be called carnal commandments, as they required the facrifices of beafts, and confifted of fuch rites as fanctified only to the purifying of the flefb; (chap. ix. 13.) and as the priefts themfelves were confectated to their office by carnal ceremonies, and were no more than weak, frail, and dying men, according to the order of a fleshly generation, and fo needed a fucceffion of them to perform its functions from age to age; and as all this was enjoined by a fystem of laws contained in carnal ordinances, which were imposed on the Israelites until the time of reformation, (chap. ix. 10.) that was to be made under. the

NOTES.

plarily punifhed one of the tribe of Ju- The proof given of this in ver. 13, 14. dab, though a king, for it, the more re- was taken from Chrift's being not of the from which the apoftle observes, in the here, and in the two following verses, is next verfe, our Lord forung to be brought in as a fecond proof of hood of Christ. what was afferted, ver. 12. about the part of the prieftly function; and exem- change of the priefthood and of the law. markably to exclude that tribe from any tribe of Levi, but of Judah; and the pretensions to it; and this is the tribe yet far more evident proof of that point taken from the entirely different nature # I take this and the two next veries of the legal priefthood, and the prieft-

The Epistle to the

Chap. vii.

the more fpiritual and holy difpentation of the gofpel. relating to the worfhip, privileges, and bleffings of the church : But, in opposition to the nature of that priefthood, Chrift was made a High Prieft by a more excellent and ever-abiding confluction, in which he was confecrated to that office, according to the ability which he has to execute it, by virtue of that immortal life, which he has in himfelf, as the eternal Son of God, and by virtue of his re-affumed human life in heaven, according to which he lives for ever to difcharge his glorious priefthood in his own perfon, and to give eternal life to all those, for whom he acts as a prieft, without any partner with him, or fucceffor to him therein : And so his priesthood must be incomparably more excellent, perfect, efficacious, and durable, than any that preceded it under the law *.

17 For, as has been observed again and again. (chap. v. 6, 10. fee the note there, and vi. 20.) God the Father declared, in a way of divine testimony to him by the mouth of David, even while the Levitical priefthood was in its full glory, Thou art a prieft for ever after the order of Melchiledec, (Pfal. cx. 4.) that is, thou art peculiarly and eminently a prieft. not after the fimilitude of Aaron's lower, but of Melchiledec's higher prietthood ; (ver. 15.) not for any limited difpensation that shall give way to a better, nor in a fuccession of one priest after another ; but immutably in thine own perfon, till all the ends of thy acting in that character (hall be perfected ; and thenceforth to all eternity, in the honours that belong to thee for having completely executed that office, and in its glorious effects to the eternal falvation of the whole church.

18 For in this new and everlasting priesthood of Chrift after the order of Melchifedec, there is, in reality, an abrogation of the whole fystem of the Mofaic law, and of all its inftitutions, which depended upon the Levifical priefthood, and preceded the introduction of the gospel-state, which is built upon the priefthood of Chrift. This, I fay, is now certainly abolished and set aside, by reason of its infufficiency, unavailablenefs, and impoffibility to purge the confcience nature, that was because he was a facrifice, as well as a prieft; and his offering up himfelf as a facrifice was an act of his priefthood; and fo he officiated as a prieft in his very dying; and confequently did not die out of his office for others to fucceed him, as the Levitical priefts did, fince his priefthood fuffered no interrup- him, ver. 25.

Digitized by GOOGLE

* Though Chrift died in his human tion by his dying; and as in his divine nature it was impossible that he should die; fo, according to its powerful life, he continued immortal in his facerdotal office ; and he re-affumed his human life. that he might fulfil the remainder of his priefthood in ever living to make interceffion for them, that come unto God by 17 For he teftifeth, Thou art a prieft for ever af ter the order of / Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a difannulling of the commandment going before, for the weakness and unprofitablenels thereof.

10 For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the

which we draw nigh unto God. conficience from guilt, and justify a finner to eternal life: As the moral law could not do this, in that it was weak through the fle/h; (Rom. viii. 3. fee the note there) fo neither could the ceremonial law, in that it was only a type or fhadow of good things to come, and nor the very image, much lefs the fubflance of them; and could not by any of its facrifices take away fin. (Chap. x. 1,-4.)

19 For the Molaic law was of itself incapable of perfecting its worshippers in any thing that pertains to the conficence, and to reconciliation with God: It was only defigned to prefigure and prepare the way for, and point to, what should be effectual for these purposes, as it was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith in him ; (Gal. iii. 24.) but the introduction of the gospelstate. and of Chrift. this better High Priest, and of his truly expiatory facrifice, who, in the difcharge of his prieftly office, is the object of our hope, gives us a better ground of confidence, and a furer hope toward God, than the law ever could ; and has perfected all that was deficient in the law itfelf, and prefigured by it: Under these confiderations, we bave bolduess and access with confidence by the faith of Chrift, (Ephef. iii. 12.) and fo, as a boly prieftbood, may offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jefus Chrift; (I Pet. ii. 5.) yea, we have a better, nearer, and more advantageous approach to God through Chrift by faith, in gospel-worship, than even the Aaronical priefts themfelves had with their facrifices and offerings, when they went into the holy of holies; and we are not debarred this liberty, as the people then were, who were kept at a diffance; but, tbrough Jesus Christ, every true believer has acces by one Spirit to the Father. (Ephef. ii. 18.)

20 And we may well be affured of this, for as much as he was confituted in his office, not as the priefts of old were in a common way, but by a folemn oath of God himfelf, to fignify the excellency, immutability, and perpetuity of his priefthood, as what fhould never fail.

21 For all the former priefts under the law were conflituted in their office, without the folemnity of ratification by an oath; nothing of that kind being ever hinted in their confectation to it, which left their office in a repealable flate, whenever God fhould pleafe: But this great and glorious High Prieft, even Je/us, whom we are fpeaking of, (ver. 22.) was conflituted in his office with all the irrevocable folcemnity of an oath by God his Father, who faid unto him in the place fo often referred to already, (P/a/. cx. 4.)X x

Digitized by Google

20 And in as much as not without an oath he was made prieft;

21 (For those priefts were made without an oath; but this with an oath, by him that faid unto him, The Lord fware, and will not repent, Thou art a prieft for ever after the order of Melchifedec:)

Vol. V.

tify

The Lord hath fworn by himfelf, and will never retract or reverse it, Thou art, in thine own person, without any fucceffor, an everlafting and, unchangeable High Prieft, after the fimilitude of Melchifedec, even unto the confummation of all things. (See the note on chap. v. 10.)

22 In proportion then to the fuperior excellence of this to the Aaronical priefthood, as to the nature of the office and the manner of effablisement in it, Jefus, the once crucified, but now exalted Saviour, was conflituted by God the Father's own appointment and inveftiture, an undertaker, promifer and sponsor *, in a way of furetyship to him for us, to ra-

N 0 * A furety or sponsor (syruos) is one is professedly all along about the priesthat draws nigh, undertakes or promifes, and is bound for another, either to do or pay that for him which he cannot, or will not do or pay for himfelf: It is one who which he is under shall be one way or other answered. Such a furety is Christ, not for God to his people, as fome would have it: for God needs no furety for him to us: nor do we need any one from him, merely for the confirmation of our faith in them, fince his own unchangeable veracity, as manifested in his word and brought home and applied to us, through oath, are an absolute fecurity, and the faith in him; yet his death did not prohighest evidence of it, and of his performing them, as had been declared, chap. vi. 13,-19. And in the nature of things, a furety ought to be a perion of more cre- taking effect : But the covenant itfelf is dit and ability than he is for whom he merely the effect of the infinite wildom engages, or at least ought to be one that and grace of God in the eternal counfeis is provided to fecure against fome defect of his will; and its dispensation to us is or failure of fidelity, or capacity, that founded upon the covenant-transactions poffibly may be found in him for whom before all worlds between the Father and he is a furety; neither of which can be faid of God without blasphemy. And if complishing its great defign, as might be Chrift were only in a lux fenfe a f . ety, in a way of witnefs for God; this is by no means a proper furetyfhip; nor is it any thing different in its nature and kind from what was done by the prophets, evangelists, and apostles, in the testimony they have given under divine infpiration

But Chrift is a furety for us to God: We needed that he should be fo, as we are finful creatures, and infolvent of with all those supplies of his Spirit and what is required by the law, as a cove- grace, through the merit of his blood, as nant of works, which was broke for want fhould be neceffary to renew and fanctify of a jurety to engage for our keeping it; them, and bring them to faith and reand without a furety, the new covenant pentance, and enable them to fulfil the would be in danger of being broken on duties of the covenant, that fhould be inour part, as that with Adam was. And cumbent upon them, to prevent their vito him.

T E.

bood of Chrift, his being a furety relates to the execution of his prieftly office, which, like that of the priefts under the law, was for the people to God, and not engages for another, that the obligations for God to the people : And though the covenant of grace, confidered as a teftament, was confirmed by the death of Chrift, (chap. ix. 15,-17. fee the note there) and all its bleffings were purchato fecure the performance of his promifes fed by it; and though the covenant was made, with a reference to his death, as the procuring caufe of all its benefits, in the virtue of which they fhould be cure the covenant itself, which was made long before, with a provisa of the death of Christ, as the grand condition of its Son, about the manner and means of acmost honourable to all God's perfections in bringing many fons to glory. Accordingly. Chrift as the furety of the 'covenant undertook to fatisfy divine juffice for all their transgreffions, to redeem them from the curfe of the law, and deferved wrath and mifery, flavery and ruin, and to purchase for them all the bleffings of grace and glory, chap. ix. 15.; and he further engaged to furnish them as the aportle's difcourfe in this context olating its facred bonds, and defeating their

22 By fo much was Jefus made a furety of a better testament.

HEBREWS paraphra [ed.

tify the new covenant by his death, and to take effectual care that all the requirements be answered, that were neceffary to fecure the accomplishment of its promifes; which is a better covenant *, than that made with I/rael at mount Sinai, as it has a better furcty than any of the high priefts of old could be; and as its administration is with greater light and fimplicity; and with wider extent to the Gentiles, as well as Jews, and is ejiablighed upon better promifes, (chap. viii. 6.) which also may be confidered as a testamentary covenant +, in one view of it, as it was X x 2 finally their intereft in it, by wilful difobedi- good-will and pleafure of the donor, as to themfelves.

NO TES.

covenant, icems to impose that the co- strict, and formal covenant, which, in venant made with Ifiael had a farety, our usual acceptation of the word, is an which may refer, not to Mofes perionally, but to the bigh prick, as such, about things, that are, or may be in who, in the execution of his office, was their own power to perform ; which can a fort of typical mediator and jurety on never be reconciled to the feripture-rebehalf of the people to God, by means of a typical explation, which he made on the great day of atonement. (See Dr. Owen on the place.)

+ The Greek word rendered covenant, (Sia Inun a Souri Inpl dispono) and the Hebrew word, which aniwers it, (fignities any dif- ברא a ברית) fignities any difposition, constitution, settlement, or eftablifument of things; and to is applicable to either of these senses, wherever it is found in the Old or New Teltament; and what fort of conflitution or establishment is meant by it, in every place, is to be gathered from the context, and the nature of the things there fpoken of, whether it be a constitution by a law, or mutual compact, or a free promise, or a testament : It is mostly translated covenant in this epiftle, as well as in other places, and it may very well be fo; unless when there is a particular reference to the nature and use of a teflament among men, in which view it feems to be represented, chap. ix. 15,-17. with reference to the death of a teftator to put it in force. But which way foever it be rendered, it fignifies a conflitution, fettlement, or eflablishment of one kind or other, and when it is used to express the covenant of grace, which is a covenant of free promises, it may be confidered as containing the nature of a teflamentary covenant, which depends entirely upon the

ence and utter apoftacy, through the to the bleffings beflowed, and the perpower of indwelling corruptions, and fons that shall have them; and as to the furrounding temptations, by which they time, way, terms, and means, in which would certainly mifcarry, were they left the beftowment of them fhall take effect through the death of Chrift, rather than * Chrift's being the furety of a better as containing the nature of a proper, agreement between two or more parties prefentation of the covenant of grace, as made between God and fintul men: And, perhaps, this may be one reation, why this covenant is commonly expressed by a word, which, of all other conftitutions, primarily fignifies a teftament; and I fee no inconfistency in fuppoling, that the substance of the same gracious fettlement, or disposition of spiritual bleffings, may be called both a covenunt and a testament, only with this difference, that when it is called a covenant, it leads our thoughts to God in Chrift, as the Maker of it; but when it is called a te/tament, it carries an idea of its being made by Chrift: And fo if we confider it as a covenant of promifes, which God made with his people in Chrift, it was ratified by his blood, under the notion of a Mediator, or Surety; but if we confider it as a teflament, which Chrift made, correfpondent to God's covenant, it was ratified by bis death, under the notion of a teflator, that has bequeathed legacies to the heirs of falvation, and lias made a declaration of his will with relation thereunto: And therefore, though confidering it under the formal notion of a testament made by Chrift, it needed no mediator or furety; yet confidering it under the formal notion of a covenant, which God made with his people in and through Chrift, it both needed and had a Media-

Digitized by Google

tor.

23 And they truly were many priefts, · because they were not fuffered to condeath :

$4 But this man. becaule he continueth ever, hath an anchangeable priefthood.

25 Wherefore he is able alfo to fave them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, feeing he ever liyeth

finally put in force by the death of Christ, who, as a teflator, bequeathed all its bleffings to the heirs of promife. (Chap. ix. 15,-17.)

23 And indeed, further to fhow the weakness and unprofitableness of the legal dispensation, (ver. 18.) it is well known, that though the bigb prieft's office tinue by reason of it/elf were but one; and though but one at a time. could execute it, yet there was a fucceffion of many of them that officiated in it from generation to generation; becaufe they being merely mortal men, were not permitted, by reason of death, to live in the perpetual exercife of their office; nor was it poffible that they should, fince they all died like other men, and then their prieftly function, as vested in their own perfons respectively, died with them, and they could never re-affume it again, or continue to carry it on in another world; which shows that there was an imperfection and mutability in that flate of the church.

24 But, on the contrary, to affure us of the greater excellence and unchangeablenefs of the gofpel-difpensation, this glorious person Jesus Chrift, who was typified by Melchifedec, and was truly a man, but was God as well as man, that he might be a fit Mediator between God and men, and a proper Surety to God for men; this divine man, of whom we are speaking, because he could not die out of his office, as merely mortal men did under the law, abides everlaftingly in the execution of it, without any interruption by death; (fee the note on ver, 16.) and fo in his own fingle perfon has an immutable and never-failing priefthood, which cannot pais away from him to another; but which he continues to carry on at his Father's right hand in heaven, by appearing before him, as a lamb that had been flain, (Rev. v. 6.) and as a prieft upon his throne. (Zech. vi. 13.)

25 It may therefore be folidly concluded from this, and from all that has been faid before concerning Chrift, as our great High Prieft, that he has not only all divine ability originally in himfelf; but, in opposition to the weakness of the Aaronical priesthood, he has likewife all office-power * and authority,

Digitized by Google

NOTES.

Surety, as we have it in this place. (See it is his office-power, as God-man Methe note on chap ix. 15.)

tor, as he is called, chap. viii. 6. or a' to the ability here ascribed to him, yet diator, that is here intended, as ap-* Chrift's being able to fave, relates, pears from his unchangeable priethood not to his abfolute power as God, who, mentioned in the preceding verfe, from as fuch, is able to do all things, that whence his ability is inferred in this does not imply a contradiction to the verfe, for thus the connection fands, nature of things themselves, or to the Because he continues ever, he has an persections of his own nature: For unchangeable priesthoud, therefore he is though this divine power is fundamental able to fave to the uttermost, &c. And this

HEBREWS paraphra [ed.

with to make intercellion for them.

26 For fuch an high prieft became undefius, who is holy,

led, feparate from finners, and made higher than the harmleis, heavens;

ty, which includes his willingness, to give complete deliverance from all fin and mifery, fears and dangers, and to advance to all the glory and bleffedness of the heavenly state, in the face of all opposition and difficulty, to the utmost extent of his office power and merit; to the utmost of the wants, defires, hopes, and capacities for happines; and to the utmost period of time, yea, even to the eternal falvation of all, that under a fense of their wants make their approaches to God in prayer, and other parts of gospel-worship, through him, for all feafonable relief on his account, as the only Mediator, with faith in his name; fince he lives for ever in heaven, not only as a divine perfon, and as clothed with human nature; but also as their great High Prieft and Advocate, (who has a prevailing interest with God the Father) to make continual interceffion for them, which he does in the prefentation of his perfon, and of the merit of his facrifice, and in a plea of right, (John xvii. 24.) that all bleffings may be given to them, according to the purchase of his blood, which he shed for the remission of their fins, and obtaining eternal redemption for them.

26 For fuch an excellent, able, ever-living, and perfect High Prieft was fit and neceffary for us; and it became the infinite wildom and holinefs of God to provide fuch an one for us, (chap. ii. 10.) who is not himfelf a finner, as we are, and as all the high priefts under the law were; but is unspottedly pure in his nature, thoughts, words, and deeds; (Luke i. 35. and Acts ii. 27. and I Peter ii. 22.) inoffenfive, (anaxos) innocent, and blamelefs, no way injurious to any, and now raifed above the reach of being hurt by any; never tainted with the least pollution in heart or life, nor defiled by means of other perfons or things (as the legal priefts often were) to interrupt him in the performance of his facerdotal office, yea, was free from original fin, as having been born, not in a natural, or federal way of union with Adam, like the reft of mankind; and he was removed to the furtheft diftance from all communion with finners in any of their evil principles, ways or works; and * far excels all the angels in holinels, as well as is now, in his exalted flate, advanced to the higheft authority and glory above them in the heaven of heavens, far beyond all other heavens. (Eph. iv. 10.)

Digitized by Google

27 From

NOTES,

this farther appears from the proof that is given of his ability for this purpofe, in nymy, is put for its inhabitants. (See the choice of the verie, which is, Seeing he I Chron. xvi. 30, 31. Pfal. xcvi. 11. and ever lives to make interceffion for them. Ifa. xlix. 13.)

The Epistle to the

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priefts, to offer up facrifice, first for his own fins, and then for the peoples; for this he did once, when he offered up himielf.

28 For the law maketh men high priefts, which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was fince the law maketb the Son, who is confecrated for evermore.

27 From hence it plainly appears that, being abfolutely finlefs, he had no occasion, as the high priefts had under the law, to offer on every great day of atonement *, expiatory facrifices, first for perfonal fins of his own, as they did for theirs, (fee Lev. xvi.) and then for the fins of his people, as they did for the fins of Ifrael; but with regard to the fins of bis people, he did this, and finished it all at once, by way of complete atonement for them, when, through the eternal Spirit, he offered himself without Spot 10 God, (chap. ix. 14.) in opposition to the frequent offerings of facrifices for the peoples fins under the law, and in opposition to those priest that had nothing of their own, and nothing better than beals and birds to offer.

28 For the law of a carnal commandment, (ver. 16.) by its conftitution and appointment, ordered fuch to be confecrated to the high priett's office, as are merely mortal men, weak and dying creatures, and no better; (ver. 23.) yea, as are attended with finful, as well as natural infirmities, like other men; and fo needed to offer for their own fins; (ver. 27.) but the word which God fpoke, and folemnly comfirmed with his oath, and delivered in the facred writings, (Pfal. cx. 4.) many hundreds of years after the law was given by Mo/es-; this word invelts the eternal Son of God himfelf with his prieftly of fice, who is confecrated to it and perfected in it, (TETELSIGHESTOR) as one that never had any moral defect to be a blemish upon his priesthood or facrifice, or to require an offering for himfelf; and who is now in his exalted flate entirely free, even from all the natural infirmities of mankind, which he was attended with in this world, that he might be capable of dying as a facrifice; and fo he is every way fit to difcharge the remainder of his priefthood for perpetuity in his own perfon, as our great and only interceffor, without alteration or end, until the whole defign of it shall be perfectly accomplished, to the eternal falvation of the church, and of every individual member of it.

RECOLLECTIONS.

How transcendently excellent is the priesthood of Christ, as it is after the order of Melchifedec, and confirmed for ever by the oath of God himself! And of what yaft importance is it, that our faith be established herein ! The apostle thought it ſo.

NOTE.

Digitized by Google

turn of the great day of atonement, for themselves and for the people. '

* Daily, (xab' vurgar) relates, I it is the office of the bigh prieft, that is think, not to the daily offerings of the here fpoken of; and it was only on the common priefts, but to the annual of anniversary day of atonement, from time ferings of the high prieft, at every 1e- to time, that they offered factifices for Chap. vii.

Техт.

fo, or elfe he would never have taken fuch abundant pains to illustrate and confirm it. Melchi/edec, as an extraordinary prieft of the most high God, bleffed Abraham, who with Levi, as naturally and tederally included in his loins, paid tithes to this superior priest. But how much more eminent a priest, as well as king of righteousness and peace, is the Son of God, than Melchifedec ! He was only in type what Chrift is in reality, without beginning of days or end of life; without any earthly father according to the flefh, and without any mother according to his divine nature; and an eternal High Prieft of luch perpetual power and complete acceptance with his heavenly Father, according to the energy of his immortal life, as supercedes the want of any other to make atonement either for believing Jews And how different from, and incomparably more excellent is his or Gentiles. priefthood than that, which was appointed by the law of a carnal commandment ! He fprung, not from the tribe of Levi, but of Judab, which never had, by divine inflitution, any fhare in the high prieft's office after the order of Aaron, who and his fons were merely mortal men, and in their turns died out of their office, and were fucceeded by others of their line, and they all had fins of their own to atone for, before they could offer a facrifice for the fins of Ifrael. But Chrift being holy, harmleis, undefiled, and separate from sinners, could have no occasion to offer any propitiatory facrifice on his own account; but, by offering up himfelf, he at once expiated the fins of his people : And as he never died out of his office ; fo, being made higher than the heavens, he continually and completely exercises it alone by himfelf, without any predeceffor or fucceffor in it. This change of the priefbood naturally brought on an abolition of the law, to which it belonged, on account of the infufficiency of that law and priesthood to perfect the worship and happinets of the church ; and introduced the gospel-state, which depends upon, and derives the moft fubftantial efficacy from the priethood of Chrift. How much better grounds of hope then have we in him, and in the golpel of the grace of God through him, than ever could have been had by the law! And with what humble confidence, and happy fuccels, may the believing finner now approach God in Chrift ! He is the Surety of the new covenant to undertake with God his Father, that all requirements should be answered in order to a fecure accomplishment of its great and precious promifes; and he is able to fave to the utte- most all that come unto God by him; fince he ever lives as a righteous advocate, to make interceffion for them.

C H A P. VIII.

The aposlic, having finished bis argument drawn from the comparison of the priesthood of Melchifedec with that of Aaron, shows that bis main design therein was to demonstrate the excellency of Christ's priesthood above that of Aaron, which he adds still further light to, by comparing him with, and preferring him to, the high priests under the law, with respect to the place where he officiates, the facrifice he offers, and the covenant of which he is the Mediator, 1,-6. And he goes, by way of disression, into a representation of the great excellence of this covenant above the former, which is now abolished, 7,-13.

PARAPHRASE.

NOW of the things which we have spoken, this is the fun: We next type of Chrift *, may be fummed up in this; We,

NOTE.

: * The word (x1φαλα100) here rendered the fum, fignifies either a brief fumsnary, or the civief thing:

Digitized by Google

of

We have fuch an high prieft, who is fet on the right hand of the throne of the Majefty in the heavens;

2 A minister of the fanctuary, and of the true tabernacle which the Lord pitched, and wot man.

of the New Teftament-church, have fuch a great and glorious High Prieft in the perfon of our Lord Jefus, as incomparably excels all others, and particularly all the priefts of the Aaronical order; as further appears from the place, where he officiates, who having made atonement for fin by the facrifice of himfelf, which he offered upon earth, is now exalted in his human nature, and perpetually abides in the higheft dignity and authority for the completing of his office, and fecuring the application of the benefits of his purchase, as he appears in the immediate prefence of the divine majefty, which may be figuratively ex-prefied by his being feated on the moft honourable fide (as the right hand is deemed to be) of God the Father's most illustrious display of his glory, as on his magnificent throne in the highest heaven. (See the note on AAs vii. 55.)

2 And, notwithstanding his glorious exaltation at the Father's right hand, he condefcends to appear and act in his prieftly character, as a public minister, officiating towards, and before God for us about facred things, not in the earthly fanctuary, or Judaio holy of holics, which he never entered into, but in the true holy of holies, the habitation of God's most eminent glory, even heaven itfelf, which is called, with emphatical peculiarity, his fanctuary, (Pfal. cii. 19.) and was typified by that on earth; nor does our bleffed Lord minister in the shadowy earthly tabernacle, in which he never officiated as a prieft, but in the true fubstantial tabernacle of his human nature, of which that was a type or figure; and (n) which was formed by the immediate power of God, as exerted in the miraculous operation of the Holy Ghoft upon the virgin Mary, (Luke i. 35.) * and was not erected

NOT * Some understand the tabernacle, of be confidered with a distinction of one as fignifying the univerfal church, for the most holy place, which was a figure whole benefit, it must be allowed, be of- of heaven; and the fecond alludes to ficiates as their great High Prieft. But the whole of that facred edifice which he doth not officiate in, or by them, as was erected under the law. And as the means of his heavenly ministration, God dwelt in the tabernacle with viwhich feems to be what the apoftle here fible emblems of his glory, which filled intends, in allufion to the Yewish taber- the house, as it afterwards did the temmacle, in which, and by means of which, ple; (Exod. xl. 34, 35. compared with the ancient priefts performed their holy I Kings viii. 10, 11.) fo that tabernacle ministrations. Others take the taber- may very properly be tegarded as a type tuary, even heaven itself: But this too For the human body is called a taberna-

E. which Chrift is faid to be the minister, from the other; as the first alludes to nacle to fignify the fame with the fanc- of the body or human nature of Chrift : much carries the face of a needle is tau- cle, 2 Cor. v. t. and 2 Pet. i. 14.; and tology; fince and (xai) here cannot be our Lord in his incarnation dweit, or taexegetical, becaule the article (1rsc); fol- bernacled (15x110001) amongft us, (Joba lows it. I therefore rather apprehend i. 14.) and fpoke of his own body as a that the fanctuary and tabernacle may temple, in allugon to the Jewifb temple,

3 For every high prieft is ordained to offer gifts and facrifices : where.

fore it is of neceifity that this man have fomewhat alfo to offer.

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

rected by human aid or affiftance, as that tabernacle was in which the legal priefts ministered, and which was prepared, fet up, and fastened with stakes and cords by the hands of men. And fince both the Janctuary and tabernacle, in which Chrift now carries on his priefly office, are more excellent than any that preceded them, we may affuredly conclude, that the facrifice, which he, as a High Prieft, prefents to God therein, must needs be fo too.

3 For the fpecial bufinefs of every high prieft, for which he is appointed and authorized of God, is to prefent oblations and facrifices of atonement, which had been flain and offered, before he carried their blood into the holy place, and in order to his doing fo *; it was therefore abfolutely neceffary, that, to answer that character, this great gospel High Priest, (7870) of whom we are speaking, should also have a facrifice to offer, fuitable to his dignity, as God man, and to the glorious state and place of his present ministration; and that he should prefent it in the heavenly fanctuary before the throne of God, as the ancient typical high prieft did the blood of the legal facrifices before the mercy feat in the most holy place.

NOTES.

bernacle, John ii. 19, 11.; we are also grace, and, as it were, to sprinkle it on told, that in him, as in its tabernacle, the throne, (which was typiced by the dwells all the fulnefs of the Godhead mercy leat) for rendering it effectual bodily: (Col. ii. 9.) And as the taber- unto all the great and bieffed purpoles nacle was fet up only for a time, to be for which it had been flied, and offered pulled down on occasion, and then erected again; (Numb. i. 51.' and x. 21.) fo this was a neceffary part of the fervice. was the body of our Lord in his death and returrection. We may also further observe, that the fanctuary, though exprefied by a plural noun, (Tur ayiwr) fignifies the holieft of all, or the holy place, as it is rendered, chap. ix 8, 12, 25 and that is the fenfe which I take to be molt directly intended here: And yet as it alfo fignifies boly things, and as Chrift's ministring in his priestly office is about such things, it might not be amils to fuggest that thought alfo.

* The true key, as I take it, of the apoftle's argument in this and the two following verfes, is, that in allufion to the office of the high prieft under the fanctuary, in which his ministry as a law, who was to kill and offer the facrifices on the great day of atonement, before he entered, and carried their blood, into the holy place within the vail, as was expressly ordained; (Lev. xvi. 5,-15.) Chrift offered the facrifice of himfelf in his death, before he entered into heaven with his own blood, to prefent VOL. V.

ple, which in its use succeeded the ta- the virtue of it before the throne of . in a facrificial way on the crois: For which belonged to the offering, in order to its fully answering its end, and seems to me to be here principally intended; rather than the offering of the atoning facrifice itfelf on the brazen altar, which was finished by the high priest before he entered with its blood into the fanctua. ry, as Chrift's alfo was on the crois, when through the eternal Spirit he offered himself without fpot to God, before he entered into heaven : And therefore it would have been inconfittent with the nature of Christ's priesthood for him to have continued on earth, as the apofile argues in the next verie ; becaule the high prieft was to be finimed, according to the typical meaning of the holy of This I humholies, is heaven itself bly conceive fets the whole difcourfe on this head in a much clearer, eatier, and more harmonious light, than I could ever gather from the numeross perplexed accounts that have been given of it. Yу

4 For

▲ For if he were on earth, he fhould not be a prieft, ieeing that there are priefts that offer gifts according to the law :

< Who ferve unto the example and fhadow of heavenly things, as Moles was admonished of God, when he was about to make the For, tabernacle. fee (faith he) that make alt thou things according to the pattern fhewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much alio he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was eftablished upon better promifes.

4. For if he were to have continued only upon earth. he could not have officiated, as a high prieft, in that most glorious part of his office, which was to be performed in the (ancluary; fince there are high priefts of Aaron's order, that prefent facrifices in the Jewi/h holy of holies, according to God's inflitution of that office under the law; which admits of no prieft of any other tribe, and confequently not of Chrift, who was of the tribe of Judab, to be joined with them. (See the note on chap. vii. 13.)

5 Who minister in that tabernacle, and do the fervice of it, which was a typical draught and fhadowy representation of the true tabernacle*, in which our bleffed Lord now officiates in heaven, as an interceffory High Prieft; intimations of which were given by God to Moles, when he received divine orders of what he should do in framing and finishing that earthly tabernacle: For when he was going about that work, God faid to him, (Ex. xxv. 40.) Be very careful and exact in your fuperintendency and directions for making every, even the most minute part of the tabernacle, in which I will dwell, without the leaft variation from, but just according to that model, which was plainly drawn out to your view in the vifion I gave you of it in the mount ; which model, as it was of heavenly original, exactly answerable to the idea of it in the mind of God, was also a typical platform of the inhabitation of the Deity in the tabernacle of Chrift's human nature, in which he ministers in the heavenly fanctuary.

6 And (ds) now our bleffed Lord, in his exalted frate, has evidently obtained, by a fingular appointment and call of God his Father, and accordingly is now actually engaged in, a far more excellent, honourable, and beneficial office of ministration, than all that ever was exercifed before him under the old covenant-difpensation; as on many other accounts, that have been already infifted on at large; (ver. 1,-5. and chap. vii.) fo in proportion to the incomparably greater excellence and advantage of the new covenantdifpensation, (ver. 8.) + of which he is the only mediator,

Digitized by Google

NOTES.

of it, by all the commentators I have his, and from all others that I have met feen, are fo obscure and untatisfying, with. that I have humbly attempted to give what feems to me to be the most easy following veries to the end of the chapand intelligible account of it, in con- ter, in confirmation of what is here affiftence with Mr. Peirce's criticilms on ferted concerning Chrift, as the Mediatome of the words, which they that tor of a better covenant, which is also

* The difficulty of this verse is fo indeed first led my thoughts to this great, and the various interpretations fense, though it be mostly different from

+ For understanding this and all the are to minded may confult; and which called a new covenant, ver. 8, 13, It is neceffary

diator, for taking away all manner of difference between God and his people, and purchasing all its spi-

N

neceffary to confider what that first cove- the Sinai-covenant, (Rom. x. 5. and mant was, which this better and new co- Gal. iii. 10, 12.) and from his speaking venant is preferred to. It doubtlets was of Gentile-believers being delivered the covenant, which God made with If- from its curfe, by Christ's being made a rael at mount Sinai, as appears from curfe for them. (Gal. iii. 13.) New the ver. 9. where it is called the covenant defign of God in thus including the cothat be made with their fathers, when venant of works, in the law given to be took them by the band to lead them Ifrael, might be to lay before them a out of Egypt. This (taking it altoge- perfect rule of righteouine's, and to thew ther) was not merely the covenant of them the necessity of a finle's conformity works, as containing terms of acceptance to it, in order to their obtaining juffinwith God to eternal life : For God ne- cation in his fight by their own works ; ver did, nor could accept finful creatures and, confequently, to convince them of to eternal life upon the foot of that bro- their fin and danger, as they were transken covenant. covenant of grace: For Chrift was always the Mediator of the covenant of their own obedience to it; and of the race; and its promifes were always, for fubstance, the fame; and fo he could not be laid, by way of diffinction, to be the justify them before God; and fo it was mediator of an abfolutely better cove. fubfervient to the intimations that were nant; nor could it be faid to be established on better promises than that. Τ therefore apprehend that it was a temporary covenant of peculiarity with the Jews, which, confidered barely as a covenant between God and them, as he was their political king, and they were his national fubjects, related only to the temporal bleffings of this life, and profperity in the land of Canaan; and io was delivered to that nation, as a bodypolitic, under the form of a covenant of works, upon the fulfilling of which they were to inherit the bleflings of that land. But confidering it as a covenant which God made with the church of Ifrael, as their God, relating to their [piritual and sternal concerns, it contained a repreientation both of the original covenant of works, which they as finners had broke, and could not keep; and of the man, that flould bruile the ferpent's covenant of grace, which provided for bead, and of the feed of Abrabam, in their pardon and juftification. It fet whom all nations (bould be bleffed, forth the original covenant of works, as which promifes ftill (ubfifted, and ran the fubfance of that covenant was repre- through the Mofair dispensation, as a fented in the law of the ten commandments; and as the form of it was drawn through the promifed Meffiah, for eterout in declarations, that if a man did the nal life; though the carnal Jews turnthings contained therein, he fould live ed the whole of that difpensation into a by them. (Lev. xviii. 5.) This was not covenant of works, and fought righteonly the condition of the covenant, as it oulnels for juftification to life by their related to temporal bleffings, but was own obedience to it; and fo fell thort of likewife a draught of the original cove- Chrift and falvation by him, as the apofnant of works, relating to spiritual bless- tle tells us, Rom. ix. 31,-33.-Now ings, as appears from the apoftle's men- taking the Sinai-covenant alone, and by tioning this tenor of it, with a reference it/elf, as made between God and I/rael, to the Gentiles, who never were under under the first notion of his being their ritual

Т 0 E.

Nor was it merely the greffors of this original law; of the impoffibility of obtaining eternal life by neceffity of an atonement for fin, and of a better righteouinels than their own to given in the Mofaic difpensation of the covenant of grace. Accordingly the Sinai-covenant included alfo a reprefentation of the covenant of grace, as the promiles of a Saviour made to Adam immediately 'upon the fall, and afterwards, with further enlargement, to Abraham, were not difannulled, or rendered ineffectual, by the Mofaic law; (Gal. iii. 17.) and as the various facrifices, wafhings, and purifyings, by blood and wa-ter, were appointed in the Sinai covenant itlelf, to prefigure Chrift, and point the church of Ifrael to him, for cleaning from the guilt of fin by his atoning blood, and for renewing grace by his fanctifying Spirit: And God all along dealt with the believing I/raelites according to, and faved them by this covenant, in virtue of the promife of the feed of the woground of faith in the grace of God, rolitical

Digitized by Google :

345

The Ehiftle to the ritual and eternal bleffings for them by the facrifice of himfelf; and for ratifying it by his blood, as also for fecuring the accomplishment of all its promifes, and enabling them to accept of it, and yield themfelves to God according to it : This is a covenant which was formed into an authoritative establishment (vivojie Sernras) upon more spiritual, advantageous and heavenly, extensive and absolute promises, (ver. 10, 11, 12.) than what were contained in the former legal administration of it at mount Sinai. (ver. 9.) And, that this is a better and more perfect covenant than that, is evident.

7 For if the former Sinai covenant had been free from all defects, as to its establishment, light, grace, and efficacy, for perfecting the flate of the church, which indeed it never was defigned for, how good foever it was in itfelf, and how fit foever to answer its particular ends, which it was undoubtedly well fuited to, as God himfelf was the author of it : If, I fay, it had not been infufficient to answer all the ends of his grace towards his people in their church-flate upon earth, which is to iffue in their perfection in heaven, then there certainly would have been no occafion for the wildom of God to have contrived, nor for his people to have defired, another more fpiritual and complete administration of the covenant of grace upon earth; nor would there have been any room for introducing it under the gospel-ftate, as it is plain there was.

NOTE.

ing a plan of the original covenant of called a new commandment, (]ohn xiii. works; the covenant of grace, under 34.) not abfolutely a new one, fince it the gospel-dispensation, was entirely a was, for substance, contained in the Denew covenant, established upon better calogue, and other parts of the Old l'efpromifes, relating to the heavenly inhe- tament many ages before; but a new ritance, in opposition to both thole con- commandment, with respect to the new fiderations of the Sinai-covenant, in explications, motives, and inforcements, which it is spoken of as the first and old &cc. with which our Lord delivered it: covenant: (ver. 7, 13) But taking it (See the paraphrafe and note on John in its greater latitude, with all its appendages, as including the whole of the whole compais of it, may be called the Mofaic difpendation, with a reference to covenant of grace, clothed with the Inael's spiritual and eternal concerns: darkness and terror of the legal dispen-The covenant of grace, under the golpel- fation; and, in diffunction from it, a difpenfation of it, may be alled a new clear, differcumbered spiritual, and glocovenant, cflahlijved on better promifes, rious edition and enlargement of it, unnot indeed abjolutely, but in certain re- der the golpel difpeniation, may be callspects; because the light, liberty, and ed a new and better covenant. grace contained herein, are more clear-that is the view in which I have chiefly ly, expreisly, and abundantly promiled confidered them in this and the follow-in this, than they ever were before in ing vertes: For unlefs we fuppofe the firfd that former difpendation of it; and be- covenant to have a relation to fpiritual caule of the more fpiritual ordinances of benefits in this argument, it loies its proworship, that are contained in this, than priety and force.

8 For political king; and taking it as contain- were in that: For as the law of love is xiii. 34) So the Sinai-covenant, in the And

Digitized by Google

7 For if that first covenant had been have been fought for the fecond.

then place faultlefs.

thould no

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

8 For finding fault with them. he faith, Behold, the days come (faith the Lord) when I will make a new covenant with the house of Ifrael, and with the house of Jundah :

9 Not accord-ing to the covenant that I made with their fathers,

in the day when

I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt;

because they continued not in my covenant, and I re-faith the Lord.

8 For God having accufed and reproved the Yews. by the prophet Jeremiah, (chap. xxxi. 31, &c.) for their transgieffions of that covenant, which indeed did not fecure their obedience, he fays, Obferve with attention, wonder, and joy, the days are coming and haftening apace, (nuseau sexorras) lays the fovereign Lord of heaven and earth, even the days of the Meffiah, whom ye expect to come; when I will affuredly fet up and finish (ourrestion) a new covenant-difpensation of free and absolute promiles; and I will establish it irrevocably and unalterably with my people, both with those that are among the ten tribes of I/rael, and with those of the house of Judah, including that of Benjamin, who all in their turns have fhamefully violated my prefent covenant with them : And I will make it, not with them only, that belong to either of thefe tribes; but with all my fpiritual I/rael, who were typified by them *; and who, under the gospel state, whether they be Jews, or Gentiles, shall be called the lirael of God. (Gal. vi. 16.)

9 This new covenant shall not be weak and ineffectual, according to the tenor of that covenant of peculiarity, which I entered into with I/rael's natutal and covenant-anceftors, at the time when, with all the tenderneis, care, and condeicenfion of a father, I, as it were, led them, like weak and helplefs children, by the hand, to deliver them, in the greatness of my power and mercy, out of all the oppreflions, miferies, and flavery, under which they were in fore bondage in the land of Egypt. This new covenant, garded them not, I lay, shall not be of the fame strain and constitution with that; becaufe through the treachery of their own hearts, which that covenant of peculiarity, as fuch, did not absolutely provide againit, they were not ftedfast in it; but delpised and made it void by breaking through all its facred bonds; and I thereupon withdrew my favour and protection from them, and did not regard them, according to the tenor of that covenant, with the love, care, and tendernels of a hufband + any more; as, in cafe of their dilobedience,

> N т E S. 0

what nation foever, are to be included under these characters, or descriptions of Ifrael and Judah, appears; because the perfons here intended are those to whom God abfolutely promised, that he would actually and efficaciously extend his renewing and pardoning grace, ver. 10, 11, 12. which cannot be faid of the whole body of Ifrael after the fleth, much lefs of every one of them; but holds good as

* That the true Ifrael of God, of to all the fpiritual Ifracl, whether Jews or Gentiles, and to none but them.

† What is here rendered, I regarded them not, as it lies in the translation of the Seventy, is rendered from the Hebrew, in Jer. xxxi 31. the place here quoted, Though I was an hufband to them. But as the fente is much the fame, according to the view I have given of it; to Dr. Pocock has learnedly fhown that the Hebrew word (IV) fig. nifies

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel, after those days. faith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they fhall be to me a people.

11 And they fhall not teach man his every neighbour and every man his brother, faying, Know the Lord: for all fhall know me, from the leaft to the greatest.

dience, I had given them reason to expect that I would not, fays the Lord Jehovah, who, being highly provoked by their unfaithful behaviour, justly rejected them.

10 This new covenant shall be of a much better and furer tenor than that: For this is the fum and fubftance of the covenant, which I, of my own mere grace, will make with all my spiritual I/rael, first of the Yews, and then of the Gentiles, under the gofpel-state, after the Old Testament-dispensation shall cease, fays the great Jehovah; I will enlighten and renew their understandings, that they may behold the fpirituality, purity, and extent of the moral law, by an inward operation upon their minds; and will give them a plain infight into the doctrine of falvation by the Meffiah * : And I will not only fet these things with the cleareft and ftrongeft evidence before their minds; but will furthermore make a thorough change upon their wills, affections, and all the practical powers of their fouls, by engraving them, not (as I did the law of the ten commandments) by a miraculous impreffion on tables of ftone; but by a fupernatural gracious operation of my Spirit, who shall write them in the fleshly tables of their hearts, (2 Cor. iii. 3.) to guide and govern them in all their ways. And. according to this new and better covenant, I will be an all-sufficient God, in a way of protection, favour, and bleffing, to them; and will own them, and perform all things for them, as their God: And they shall be inclined and enabled, by my grace, to answer their obligations to me, in a way of faith and love, duty and obedience, and of owning me in a becoming profession of my name, as my peculiar covenant-people; and fo I will take effectual care that this my covenant be not liable to be made void on their part, any more than on my own, as the first covenant was.

11 And the light and energy of this fupernatural illumination of their minds, and of this writing my laws in their hearts, shall be fo clear, extensive, and powerful in all important points, that, comparatively fpeaking, none of them shall have like occasion, as there was under the former dark difpensation, to explain them one to another, merely by the typical and fhadowy reprefentations therein made of them; much

(See his Mifcel. chap. i)

marily the moral law, but not to the iii. 27.) exclution of the wider fense of the word, NOTES. nifies both to govern and to be a buf. in which it is fometimes taken, to figni-band, and to negleck, definite, and refuie. fy any doctrine of divine revelation, which See his Alford God requires us to receive with the obe-* By his laws we may understand pri- dience of faith. (See the note on Rom.

lefs

12 For I will

to merciful

their unrighteouf-

nefs, and their fins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

be

lefs shall they depend upon, and reft in external teachings, as many of the Jews have done, and that according to the corrupt notions of their Rabbies * : They shall have no need, after this manner, to fay, each of them to his neighbour and acquaintance, or to his kindred according to the flefh, or brother in a religious relation, Follow my inftructions to bring you to the knowledge of Chrift, and of God in him : For all Sion's children shall be efficaciously taught by my Spirit, (1/. liv. 13. and John vi. 45.) that they may experimentally, believingly, affectionately, and practically know me for themselves, according to the plain revelation I shall make of my perfections, counfels, and will, and of the way of falvation through the Meffiah, in the gofpel, whether they be the weakest or the ftrongest believers, or whatsoever difference there may be among them, as to the degrees of their knowledge of me.

12 For, that there may be no obstruction to the free communications of my grace, and performance of my covenant-promiles to them, (1) says noopean rais adiaiais auror) I will mercifully pardon their unrighteous deeds, through faith in Chrift's propitiation : (12asnellor, Rom. iii. 25.) and as to all their finful Iwervings from my commandments, (auagrian) and their departures from the rule of duty, and the chief end of life; and all their disconformities to, and transgressions of my law, (aromian) I, whose prerogative and glory it is to forgive iniquity, and transgreffion, and fin, (Ex. xxxiv. 7.) even I will as entirely pardon them, as if I had quite forgot them : and will never call them to mind, fo as to proceed in judgment to condemn thefe my covenant-ones for them; but will throughly blot them all out, and caft them behind my back, and as into the depths of the fea, (Ifa. xxxviii. 17. and xliv. 22. and Micah vii. 19.) that they, like crimes forgotten, as well as forgiven, may never be brought to remembrance, as under the legal difpensation the fine of I/rael were eve-

NOT, E.

fball not teach every man, &c. is defign- epiftle, chap. iii. 13. and x. 24, 25. to ed to exclude all public and private, mi- private Chriftians, to exhort one another nifterial, family, and focial infruction; daily. &c. This paffage therefore must for this is founded on the law of nature, be taken, either in a comparative fenie, and is enforced in the New Teftament- as fuch expressions often are: (See Ifa. institution of a gospel-ministry to conti- xliii. 18. Jer. xxiii. 18. and Mat. ix. 13.) (Matth. xxviii. 20. and Epb. iv. 11, 12, teaching which was used, and refled in 13.) and in the obligation that it has under the oblcurities of the Old Teftalaid upon Christian parents to bring up ment-dispensation, and the corrupt in-their children in the nurture and admo- terpretations of the Yewigh doctors; or nition of the Lord; (Eph. vi. 4.) as also in both may be included.

* We are not to suppose that they the directions that are given in this very ry

13 In that he faith, A new covenant, he hath made the firit oid. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old as ready to vanish away.

ry year; (cbap. x. 3.) nor they be upbraided with them any more.

13 Now, to wind up this impotant article, It is evident from all this, that as God promifed to make with his people what he calls (ver. 8.) a new covenan!, of this happy, fecure, free and abfolute tenor, with relation to fpiritual and eternal bleffings, in a better administration under the gospel-state, than that which preceded it, he thereby intimates the weaknels and unprofitablenels of the Molaic difpensation. (chap. vii. 18.) and its being to be fet aside and difannulled, as an antiquated thing, guite out of date: And as whatfoever is wearing out through infirmity, or is coming to a diffolution through age, like perfons and garments, or any other things, that grow old, and past fervice, is very near unto actually expiring, or ceasing to be of any further use; fo that dispensation, with all its rites, ceremonies, and inflitutions, will very foon be totally abolished, and put, as it were, out of fight; (eyyus apanous) when, according to our Lord's prediction, (Mat. xxiv. 1, 2.) the temple at Yerusalem, on which the principal part of the Yewish worship and ordinances depended, will be utterly deftroyed, the time of which is now just at hand.

RECOLLECTIONS.

How glorious is the Lord Jelus Chrift in his present ministration, as our great High Prieft ! He continues to exercise this office, in the tabernacle of his miraculoully formed human body, at the right hand of God the Father, in the heavenly fanctuary; and there prefents the merits of his atoning facrifice in his interceffion. How neceffary for us, as well as honourable to him, was his entering into the ho-lieft of all, to fulfil that important part of his office ! This could not have been finifhed by his continuing on earth; becaufe there were Aaronical priefts, which order he was not of, but fuperior to; and none but those of that order could legally officiate in the earthly fanctuary; and heaven itfelf was the only proper place for him to appear in for this purpole. And how much more excellent is his facrifice, than all the offerings of former high priefts, as to its dignity, and the fanctuary in which it is prefented to God! They were mere shadows of what is done by Chrift; but the perfection and glory of all is accomplithed in him, as the Mediator of the new covenant .--- How close should we keep to divine revelation in every thing that pertains to the fervice of God ! As Moles was to make all things. relating to the tabernacle, exactly according to the pattern which God had thewn him in the mount ; fo all our worthip is to be according to inflitution, without any addition, alteration, or abatement --- How much better is the golpel-difpenfation of the covenant of grace, than that which was made with Ifrael at mount Sinai ? It has a better Mediator, and ftands on the foot of better promifes. Though that covenant was defective in its fecurities, and was broken by Ifrael, after God had wrought wonders of mercy in delivering them out of Egypt, and he thereupon at length caft them off as a people, to whom, by that covenant, he would no longer be a hufband ; yet, bleffed be his holy name, he hath made with his fpiritual I/rael of all nations, under the golpel flate. a new covenant, which is perfect in its nature, and every way fuited to fecure its gracious defign. It contains rich and free, clear, express, and absolute promifes of a spiritual relation to God, as the God of his people, to be their portion, and to engage their love and duty to him; and promifes of mercy to forgive all their iniquities, and never to remember any of their fins against them; and to lead them into a plain and faving acquaintance with himfelf in Chrift, to write his law and gofpel in their hearts, and to preferve thent

HEBREWS paraphrased.

them from utter apoltacy. O the happiness and safety of the least, as well as of the most eminent of those, that are in covenant with God, who has thus graciously undertaken for himfelf and them ! O bleffed tenor of this pure unmixed difpensation of the new covenant! How unchangeable and perpetual is it ! It thall never wax old or vanish away, like the Sinai covenant; but shall abide in full force, virtue, and vigour, as the last and most perfect administration of it in this world; and shall remain, till it iffue in the everlasting happiness of all the heirs of promise in the world to come.

H A P. С IX.

The aposlle, returning to bis main argument, gives an account of the Jewish tabernacle and its utenfils, 1,-5. Shows their use and meaning, as to their figurative services and facrifices, 6,-10. Explains their accomplishment in Christ, 11,-21.; and infers the Shows their use and neceffity, superior dignity and efficacy of his prieshood and facrifice, in an application of what he had faid about those that belonged to the tabernacle under the law, 23,-28.

PARAPHRASE.

O return then to what we have been faying about THEN verily the 7 the earthly and heavenly tabernacle and fanctuces of divine fer. ary, (chap. viii. 1,-5.) There did indeed belong evice, and a world- ven to the Molaic difpenfation of the covenant, (which has been called but now (chap. viii. 13.) the first covenant *) various typical ordinances of God's appointment for religious worfhip; and a facred magnificent tent or tabernacle, which, inclusive of the whole fabric, may be ftyled in a lax fense the fanctuary for the celebration of those ordinances: And which was made of earthly materials by the hands of men; and, exclusive of its figurative meaning, was of a worldly nature, as well as that its flation was in this world +, in oppofition to that which is heavenly, (whereof we shall afterwards speak, ver. 6, &c.)

2 For there was the

TEXT.

had alfo ordinanly fanctuary.

first covenant

2 For, fuitable to the nature and defign of that a tabernacle made; carnal difpenfation, there was an earthly tabernacle ‡ prepared

NOTES.

feems to make a tautology in this and the beginning of the next verfe; I there- fquare figure or thirty cubits. or (reckfore choole to keep to our, and many o- oning each cubit to be a foot and a half) ther ancient verfions, which properly e- forty-five feet in length, and ten cubits, nough fupply the word covenant, refer- or fifteen feet in breadth, and the fame ring back to the last verse of the prece- in height. But it is thought by many, ding chapter, which speaks of the first that these cubits were two or three covenant (rewrny) being made old, as inches longer than ours. (See Universal is manifestly intended, though the word Hiftory, Vol. I. p. 652. fol.) covenant be not there expressed in the Greek ; and here it is shown what were bernacle in the beginning of this verie, the ordinances pertaining to that cove- apparently mean the fame thing; thefe nant. The curious reader may confult terms being often used promifcuously, Vol. V.

* Many Greek copies read (newln Dr. Owen on this fide, and Dr. Whithy stann) the first tabernacle; but that on the other fide of the question about it.

+ This building was of an oblong

‡ The fanctuary, ver. 1. and the ta-Ζz one the first wherein was the candleflick, and the table, and the fhewbread; which is called the fanctuary.

prepared and built, according to the pattern flews to Moles in the mount, (chap. viii. 5.) which confifted of two principal parts, as the temple alfo afterwards did. In one part was the candleffick * with burning lamps of oil; which might prefigure the fulnefs of fpiritual light that is in Chrift, to be communicated by his Spirit, in the administration of gospel-ordinances to the church, (in which God dwells, as in . his fpiritual temple or tabernacle) according to the measure of the gift of Chrift, (Epbel. iv. 7.) who walks in the midft of the feven golden candlefticks, and has feven flars in his right hand: (Rev. i. 12, 13, 16, 20. and iv. 5.) And there was in this court of the tabernacle the table and the fnew-bread + upon it; which may point us to the communion that believers have with God in Chrift, and the provision he has made for them in him, as the bread of life. (John vi. 35, 51.) These were some of the chief furniture that was placed in, and peculiar to the fervices of, this fir/l part of the tabernacle ; which was called the fanctuary, or boly place, (Ex. xxvi. 33.) as it was confecrated to the honour and worship of God, and fanctified by his prefence; and was the ordinary court, in which the priefts officiated about holy things.

3 And after the fecond vail, the tabernacle

3 And the fecond part of this facred edifice lay toward the weft, beyond the fecond vail, which hung down,

Digitized by Google

NOTES.

be underftood here, as taking in the table, we are speaking of, was two cuwhole of that facred edifice, which bears bits, or three feet in length, and one cuthe name of the tabernacle, ver. 8 and bit, or a foot and a half in breadth, and chap. viii. 5.; though at other times they a cubit and half, or two feet three inchare used variously, and the fanctuary es in height, and was covered over with may fignify only one part of it, and the pure gold, which had a fort of ogee, or tabernacle another, as in the laft clause an edge of a rising golden border, round of this verse, and ver 3.

a talent of beaten gold all of a piece; xxv. 23,-26.)-The flew-bread, which out of its shaft or shank proceeded six was probably so called, because it stood branches, three on each fide, and a fe- continually, as it were, before the face venth in the middle; on the top of eve- of the Lord in the holy place, was made ry one of them was a lamp, into all of of the fineft wheat into loaves or cakes, which was put pure oil of olives, with a 'each of which was to contain two tenth wick or piece of cotten for burning; and deals, which made about three wine they were trimmed and recruited, by the pints of flour ; twelve of which loaves, prieft in waiting, every morning and e- according to the number of the tribes of vening. (See Excd. xxv. 31,-39. and Ifrael, were placed upon the table in , xxvii. 20.)

+ This table was made of (bittim wood, which fome fuppoie to have been mahogany; becaufe no tree was to likely, as this, to afford fuch vaft boards of ten cubits long, and a cubit and a half broad, as were cut out of this wood for the tabernacle, (Ex. xxxvi. 20, 21.) and abundance of mahogany trees are faid one for the other; and they are both to to grow not far from those parts. The about the top, fomething like our tea-* The weight of this candleflick was boards, and flood on four feet. (Exod. two rows, or fets in order, (בזערכות) fix one upon another, in each row; and fielh loaves were fet there every fabbath day, when the prieft took the old ones away, of which, by the law, none but Aaron and his fons were to eat. (Lev. sxiv. 5,-9, compared with Mat. xii. 4.)

1

Chap. ix.

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

of all:

Which had the golden cenfer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid tound about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;

bernacle which is down, like a large curtain of curious workmanship, called the holieft to separate between that and the first court; (Ex. xxvi. 31,-35.) and is called, by way of eminence, the boly of bolies, as being the most holy place of all; because there God manifested himself in the most illuftrious endlems of glory, and the high prieft only might enter into it with the blood of the facrifices, and officiate there, and that only once a-year on the great day of atonement : Which was typical of heaven, and of our great High Priest's entering into it, through the vail of his flefh, with his own blood, to make interceffion for us. (ver. 12. and chap. x. 20.)

4 And the facred utenfils, which belonged to the bolieft of all, were thefe. One of them was the altar of incenfe *, that was overlaid with fine gold, from . which the high prieft on the great atonement day, having taken the golden cenfer, and fire from the altar of burnt-offering, and then, having filled his hands with the incenfe, directly entered into the molt holy place; and, putting the incenfe upon the fire, a cloud alcended from it, and covered the mercy feat; (Lev. xvi. 12, 13.) which might fignify the extreme fufforings and fragrant interceffion of Chrift : And in the holy of holies itfelf was a finall cheft of fhittim wood, covered over within and without with pure gold; the length of which was two cubits and a half, or three feet nine inches; and the breadth one cubit and a half, or two feet three inches; and its height the fame: (Ex. xxxvii. 1, 2.) And this was called the ark of the covenant, and of the leftimony, (Ex. xxv. 16. and xl. 3, 5.) as it was a fymbol of God's covenant with In ael, and a witness for or against them, according to their obedience or difobedience to the law that was kept therein ; and may be confidered as which the high prieft took it to burn in- ately relate to the high prieft; and the confe before the Lord on the anniverlary golden altar of mcenfe, which stood just day of atomement; and that the other before the vail, was of necessary and imcenfers for the common use of the priefts portant use in the high prieft's miniftrawere of filver : But others observe that tion on the expiation-day, (Lev. xvi. 12, the golden cenfer (duplication) may 13.) He therefore may be supposed to fignify the altar of incenfe which was reckon it among the things that per-overlaid with gold. And I am inclined tained to the immediate service of the to think, with them, that it is fo to be most holy place; but does not fay, as understood here; chiefly, because there he doth of all the following particulars, is otherwife no mention at all of this that it was in the holieft of all, only grand utenfil of the tabernacle : And that the holieft of all had it (xovoa) though it flood in the court of the priefts with respect to use, though not to fitufor their daily ule, as well as the candle- ation. flick and the table with the fhew-bread;

> Zz z NO Т E.

* Some have supposed that the golden yet as the apossie's principal view in the cenfer was kept in the boly of holies, just present discourse is to compare those within the vail, by the turning aside of things with Christ, that most immedi-directing

353 directing them to Christ, who came to fulfil the law, and is the end of the law for righteou/ne/s to every one that believes. (Mat. v. 17. and Rom. x. 4.) Hard by the ark * was placed the golden pot, containing a parcel of the manna, with which God fed Ilrael in the wilderness; and which, according to divine order, (Ex. xvi. 33, 34.) was miraculoufly kept from putrefaction, as a perpetual memorial before the Lord in the fanctuary, and was typical of Chrift, the true and ever living bread. (John vi. 48,-51.) There was also Aaron's miraculous rod, with which he and Moles wrought many wonders, and which, though a dry flick, budded, bloffomed, and brought forth almonds all in one night, to fhew that God had chosen the house of Aaron to the priesthood, in preference to all others; and it was afterwards preferved, by no lefs a miracle, in its flourishing flate before the ark of the testimony, for a continual memorial: (Numb. xvii. 2,-10.) In correspondence hereunto. Chrift came forth, not without the most extraordinary miracle in his conception, as a rod out of the withered flem of Jeffe, and a branch out of his roots. and as a root out of a dry ground; (If. xi. 1. and liii. 2.) and God has manifested him to be our only gospel High Prieft, whose office shall ever remain in a prosperous state. And there were in the ark itself the two tables of the moral law, confifting of the ten commandments, which the Lord wrote on the two tables of ftone, that were cut out by Moles, (Deut. x. 1, 2.) and contained the covenant, to which all its other articles related, that God made with I/rael in Horeb; (Deut. v. 1,-12. and 27,-33.) and these being put into the ark might intimate, that the moral law should ever continue to be an unchangeable rule

NOTE.

two tables of flone, which Mofes put one preposition, and that goes immedi-there at Horeb; and it is no small diffi- ately before the golden pot, &c. Others culty to reconcile this with our apoftle's think it to be a forced conftruction to faying, Wherein (if he meant in the ark) make it fignify by with relation to the was the golden-pot, that had manna, and golden pot, and Aaron's rod, and in, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables with relation to the tables of the coveof the covenant. The most common nant, which were certainly in the ark way has been to suppose that, as the itself: And therefore they apprehend, prepolition (1) rendered in, sometimes which I think best solves the difficulty, alfo fignifies by, answerable to beth in the that wherein refers not to the ark, but Hebrew, the pot of manna and Aaron's to that part of the tabernacle (ounin) rod were put, not into, but by the ark which is called juft before (ver. 3.) the in a coffer adjoining to it. (See Deut. bolieft of all, (10 m) ver. 4. in which ta-XIXI. 26. and 1 Sam. vi. 8.) Accord- bernacle all these utenfils were placed, ingly the pat of manna and Aaron's rod as Mr. Peirce supposes the golden cenwere faid to be laid before the testimony, fer also was.

* It is expreisly faid, I Kings viii. 9. and before the ark. (Exod xvi. 34. and There was nothing in the ark, fave the Numb xvii. 10.) But as here is but 5 And over it the cherubims of glory, fhadowing the mercy leat; of which we cannot now fpeak particularly.

rule of all holy obedience in the hands of Chrift; and should be fulfilled by him, as a covenant, for the juftification of all that believe in him. (Mat. v. 17, 18. and Rom. x. 4.)

5 And over or above this ark were two flately figures called cherubim *, of a glorious winged torm, made of pure gold, which reprefented holy angels; and one of them with one, and the other with another of his wings, that met together in the middle, overspread the whole top of the mercy-feat at some height above it ; the cherubim being placed at each end, and beaten out of the fame mais of fine gold with the mercy-feat itfelf, which was an oblong fquare plate of folid gold, exactly fitted in length and breadth to the dimensions of the ark, and laid upon it as a lid or covering to it; and altogether made a reprefentation of a magnificent throne, on which God appeared in the Shechinah, (an illustrious emblem of the divine glory) as dwelling between the cherubim, and thining forth from thence; (P/al. lxxx. 1.) and as meeting and communing with Moses, and giving forth his holy oracles from off the mercy feat. (Ex. xxv. 22. and Numb. vii. 89.) + Anfwerable hereunto, God, who is attended with angelic fpirits in heaven, thines forth on his throne of grace, from whence he reveals his will, and communes with his people, through Jefus Chrift, who is the gofpel High Prieft, and the great propitiation for fin, (Rom. iii. 25.) as his atonement is fully commenfurate to all the demands of the broken law, and was typified by the propitiatory or mercy feat, as a complete covering interposed between God, who appears on his throne of grace, and the law as laid up in the ark; and fo covered the transgreffions of it from his avenging eye, that true believers in his Son might not be dealt with in a way of juffice for them, according to their But of these things, how fignificant foeverdeserts. they be, it is not fo much our bufinefs at prefent particularly to difcourfe; with regard to their mystical

NOTES.

rubim were, is very uncertain; but we are told that they were made of fine gold, tiful allufion to the posture of these fiand that there were two of them, whole wings were ftretched upwards, over all the mercy-feat, they being placed at each end of it, with their faces looking one toward the other, and downward to-ward the mercy-feat, Exod. xxv. 18,-20.: And they appear to have been defigned to represent the holy angels, who

* Of what particular form these che- are Christ's attendants, and God's minifters to do his will; and who, in a heaugures, are faid to pry and fearch, and, like perfons stooping down, (#agaxv4at) to look into the mysteries of redemption by Jefus Chrift. 1 Pet i. 12.

+ See the defcription of the tabernacle, and of all its urenfils, more at large in Univerf. Hift. Vol. I. p. 651,-659. fol.

355

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the prieits went always into the sirft tanacle, accomplifiing the tervice of God:

7 But into the Tecond went the high priest alone once every year. not without blood. which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people.

cal meaning *, as it is to explain the ordinances of divine worfhip, relating to the tabernacle, to which we shall proceed, as the principal point in view.

6 Now the whole fabric of this facred houfe, together with all its utenfils, being thus thoroughly prepared and finished, (narioxiveousver) according to the pattern shewn to Moyes in the mount, (chap. viii. 5.) The ordinary priets went every day, and at all times, as occasions required, into the first part of the tabernacle, which was called the holy place, in diffinction from the holieft of all; (Ex. xxvi. 33.) and there they performed all the fervices that belonged to their office, relating to the worship of God; fuch as offering facrifices, dreffing the lamps, and burning incense on the golden altar.

7 But the high prieft, and he only, who was the most eminent figure of Christ, went into the fecond part of the tabernacle, which lay within the vail, and was called the holieft of all; (ver. 3.) and he himfelf went into it, not every day, as the ordinary priests did into the first part of the tabernacle; but only on one day of every year +, namely, the great day of atonement; when even be could not enter with acceptance, to fulfil his facred office there, without the blood of the expiatory facrifices, which he had offered by flaying them before; and whole blood he went to prefent before the Lord, and fprinkle on the mercy feat in the fanctuary, first for his own iniquities, as he was a finner like the reft of mankind, and fo needed a facrifice for the remiffion of his own fins, and to fanctify him to the office of acting as a high prieft for the people; and then to make atonement for all the iniquities and transgreffions, (Lev. xvi. 21.) not of the whole world, but of the whole church

Digitized by Google

the tabernacle intimates that there was a blood of a bullock, as a fin offering; myftical meaning in them, though the and of a ram, as a burnt offering for spostle did not intend to infift upon it, bimfelf and his houfe: (Lev. xvi. 3. 6.) as not being neeflary to his immediate The other was, when he carried into it defign.

the holy of holies only on one day of the ter the bullock was killed, but before its year, which was the great day of atone- blood was fprinkled on the mercy-feat, ment, or the tenth day of the feventh the high prick entered with burning inmonth, Lev. xvi. 29, 30. or in the month cenfe, to prepare the way by the cloud which the Jews call Tisssi, and answers that role from it, and covered the merpartly to our September, and partly to cy-feat. (Lev. xvi. 13, 14.) And fome our October, and was the feventh month fuppole that he entered a fourth time in of their ecclefiaflical year; yet he en. the service of the fcape goat, which he tered into it twice or thrice, at least, on prefented alive before the Lord, to make that day. Two of these times the apol- an atonement with it. (See Dr. Owen sle here takes notice of: (ver. 12, 13.) on the place.

NOTES. * This recital of the various utenfils of One was, when he brought into it the the blood of a goat for a fin-offering for f Though the high priest entered into the people : (Lev. xvi. 11, 15.) And af-church of I/rael, which were typical of the true I/rael of God ; whole fins might be called their errors, as they proceeded from ignorance, through an erroneous judgment and perverted will; and as they thereby erred in heart and life from God's ways. (Pfal. xcv. 10.) All this plainly intimated that there is no expiation of fin, nor entering into the gracious prefence of God, and finding acceptance with him, but by the atoning blood of the great facrifice of Chrift, which those facrifices typified; and by his interceffion in virtue of that blood.

HEBREWS paraphra/ed.

8 By this entrance of the high priest alone into the holy of holies, and that only on one day of the year with atoning blood, while all the common priefts, and all the people were denied this privilege, the Holy Ghoft, who by divine fuggettion directed Moles to make this fettlement of that fervice, and indited the fcriptures which record it, evidently shewed, (dalstros) that there was no liberty of accels for them into that facred place, which contained the eminent tokens of God's gracious prefence *; and that the way of believers free accels to the throne of grace in this world, and of their perfonal entrance into heaven itself, through faith in the blood of Chrift, was not to clearly and openly revealed, as it now is under the gofpel-difpenfation, while the frame of that first tabernacle, with the services pertaining to it, (which were afterwards also performed in the temple) continued to be eftablished and observed by divine inftitution, as fuited only to the typical flate of the church of I/rael.

9 Which tabernacle, with all its furniture and fervices, was, according to divine inftitution, a fort of parabolical (oue word sus to xaugor) or imperfect figurative representation of good things then to come +, (chap. x. 1.) until those things themselves should be more thoroughly explained, and perfectly fulfilled, as they now are under the prefent gospel-dispensation ; in

* Some think that by the bolieft of boldnefs to enter, by the blood of Yefus. all is here meant the holy of holies in (Chap. x. 19.) And as it is difficult to the earthly tabernacle, which is called fay, which of thefe were precifely inthe holiest of all, ver. 3. Others refer tended by the apostle, we may with good it to the immediate gracious prefence of consistency take them all in. God in Chrift, the tokeps of which were The cherubim of glory, and the mercy- ftinguished it, as usual in such cases, by feat, which are spoken of, ver. 4, 5. putting it in a different character; and And others understand it of beaven it- therefore the time prefent may by the felf, which was typified by the holy of conftruction refer, either to the former holies, and is, by way of eminence, fly time of the legal fervices in the taberled the boly place, (ver. 12.) and the pacle, and afterwards in the temple; or

NOTES.

+ The word then is not in the origithere eminently exhibited in the ark, nal, though our translators have not di- . bolieft, into which believers have now to the prefent time of the gofpet flate.

The Holy Ghoft this fignifying, that the way into the holieft of all was not yet made manifest. while as the firft tabernacle was yet ftanding :

9 Which was a figure for the time then prefent, in which were offered both gifts and could not make him that did the that lervice

facrifices.

pertaining to the conficience,

fervice perfect, as in which former time, and in the tabernacle then erected, various offerings were presented to the Lord, (fome of which were without blood, and others, of a more directly propitiatory nature, were flain facrifices) which, though they availed for the purifying of the flesh from ceremonial defilement, (ver. 13.) and for taking off the temporal punishment that I/rael's fins exposed them to, as they were members of the civil community under God, as their political king *; yet they had not worth or virtue enough in themfelves to atone for moral evil, or to take away the guilt of fin, with respect to its obligation to eternal punishment, from any of the worshippers (chap. x. 1.) that prefented, or were concerned in those facrifices; nor were they fufficient to fatisfy them that the juffice of God was effectually appealed, or to purge their confciences from a difquieting and condemning fense of guilt, and of obnoxiousness thereby to divine wrath in the world to come: All the use they had, with reference hereunto, was only to lead their faith to the great and true propitiatory facrifice of Chrift, which was typified, and pointed to, by thefe ceremonial offerings;

> 10 Which, to perfect the facrifice +, were attended with only meat and drink-offerings, and various forts of washings of the facrifices, and of the priefts and people, and with almost numberless other ceremonial rites, which may be called carnal ordinances, as they fanctified only to the purifying of the flefh, and were apt'to raife grofs notions of fpiritual things in carnal minds: And being infufficient to purify the confcience, and to perfect the flate of the church, they were never defigned to be always continued in their ufe; but were laid, as a yoke of bondage, upon

> > Digitized by Google

ly infufficient to take away the moral make an atonement for him before the guilt of fin, and the punishment due for Lord, and it shall be forgiven him, for it, as committed against God, as the any thing of all that he had done in tref-Lord of confcience and supreme Law- passing therein. (Lev. vi. 2,-7.). giver, and Judge of all. But they were fit and lively types of the complete and and therefore the skill of the critics has perfect atonement, which was made for been much exercised to little purpole in by transgreffing the laws of the theocra- puzzle the common reader with them, cy, under the formal notion of the laws which would be to no profit; but have of God's civil government, as the King given such a view of the connection as I of Ifrael. Accordingly, when any one take to be leaft forced, and most easy had defrauded another of his property, to be understood. he was to reftore it in full value, and

NOTES. * It appears from chap. z. 1,-6. that bring his trespass offering to the Lord : legal offerings and facrifices were utter. Whereupon it was faid, the prieft fhatt

the

+ Which flood is not in the original; that purpole by the factifice of Chrift; fixing the connection of this with the becaule they were a proper atonement preceding verfe. But as the learned for political guilt, which was contracted know where to confult them, I shall not 10 Which flood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, impoled on them until the time of reformation.

the people under the law, (ABr xv. to.) only for a certain feafon, till the days of the Meffiah, when all "things fhould be reduced to their proper order and regulation, for reforming all defects in the worship of God, and setting it up in a complete state of spirituality and holines, light and grace, to his glory, and the falvation of the church.

II But the Meffiah, who was all along promifed and expected, as he that fhould come, (Matth. xi. 3.) has now actually appeared in his incarnate state, as an high prieft, to accomplish the fervices in the most effectual manner, that were only shadowed out by those ceremonial ordinances; and fo to procure all the bleffings of the gospel state, which were then future benefits, and all the bleffings of glory, which are still to be enjoyed in a better world to come. And this he has done, as having officiated in, and by means of, a much more noble and excellent tabernacle than that in which the legal priefts ministred, even in, and by his own human body; (fee the note on chap. viii. 2.) which is greater, not indeed in bulk and meafure, but in worth and dignity, and is every way better fitted for, and more perfectly answers the end of, his prieftly ministration, than that earthly tabernacle poffibly could; and which was not, like the fabric of that tabernacle, and afterwards of the temple, made by the skill and workmanship of men. (Exod. xxxi. 2,-7. and xxxvi. 1. and 2 Chron. ii. 5, 6, 7.) No, this more excellent tabernacle is not of human structure, as all material buildings are; but was formed by the immediate miraculous power of the Holy Ghoft, without the operation of any man (Luke i. 34, 35.) whatfoever.

12 And the facrifice which he offered on earth, and its blood, by the merit of which he entered into the fanctuary above, are every way more excellent than those under the law: For it was not by the blood of goats, bulls, or calves, fuch as were offered for atonement by the typical high prieft according to the law, before their blood was carried into the holy of holies; (Lev. xvi. 3,-6.) but it was in virtue of his own most precious blood, as of a lamb without blemi/b,and without (pot, (1. Pet. i. 19.) that he entered through the vail of his own flesh; (chap. x. 20.) not, like the former high priefts, into an earthly fanctuary on one day of every year; but, once for all, (chap. x. 10.) into the most holy place, even heaven itself, to prefent his own perfon, together with the merit of his perfect and ever-available facrifice before, and fo to appear for us in, the immediate prefence of God; (ver. 24, 25, 26.) he having, antecedent thereunto, Aaa by

II But Chrift being come an high prieft of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to fay, not of this building:

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by bis own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

Vol. V.

The Epistle to the Chap. ix.

by the facrifice of himfelf, which he offered on the crofs, purchased, and so effectually obtained, by the price of his own blood, not merely a year's reprieve or pardon, as was annually done in a figurative way by the typical high priest; but having found (sugaresions) a complete and ever abiding fatisfaction to divine juftice, for the forgivenels of all trefpaffes, and an everlafting deliverance from all the bondage we were under to fin, and Satan, and the law, which bound us over to the wrath of God; and having thereby procured a right and title to an eternal inheritance of all bleffednefs and glory, which is included in the redemption that he acquired for us, who believe in him.

18 For if the typical blood of fuch mean worthlefs animals, as bulls and goats, which were offered in facrifice by divine appointment under the law, and the ashes of an heifer, which was never yoked, and was confumed by fire as a fin offering ; If these ashes, mingled with running water, being fprinkled upon perfons that were under any legal defilement by the dead, or by any other means, are fufficient, according to the inflitutions of the Mofaic law, to cleanfe those perfons from the external ceremonial impurities of their bodies, and to give them a re-admiffion to public worfhip in the tabernacle, and into the congregation of the Lord, from which they were excluded on account of fuch defilement; (Numb. chap. xix.) 14 How much more may we be affured that there is an efficacy; yea, how much greater virtue muft there needs be, in the antitypical blood of fo glorious an one as Chrift, God man, our High Prieft and facrifice too, who offered, not brute-animals, but himfelf, even his whole divinely dignified human nature, without the leaft flaw or moral defilement in it, as an expiatory facrifice of a fweet-fmelling favour to God; (Epbes. v. 2.) and who did this, through the infinite dignity and support of his own immortal deity, which, like the altar, fanctified the gift ; * and through the anointing of the holy and eternal Spirit, which was given to him, as Man and Mediator, without meafure, and animated him to undergo all his fufferings, with the utmost readiness and submission to his Father's will, with an entire trult and confidence in him, with fervent zeal for his glory, and with the most amazing love and compassion' to his people? How much

NΟ т

E.

Digitized by Google

of these may be most directly intended ; taken in a confideration of both.

* By the eternal Spirit fome under- and his divine nature, and the Holy ftand the divine nature of Chrift; and Spirit being, in their respective ways of others the Holy Spirit, as fome copies operation, very nearly concerned in this read it. But it being hard to fay which offering of himself, the paraphrase has

1 . .

13 For if the blood of bulls, and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer fprinkling the unclean, ianctifieth tothe purifying of the flefh;

14 How much ſhall the more blood of Chrift, who through the eternal Spirit offered himfelf without fpot to God, purge your confcience from dead works to ferve the living God ?

15 And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death. for the redemption of the transgref-fions that were under the first tef-tament, they which are called might receive the promife of eternal inheritance.

HEBREWS paraphrased.

much more evidently and prevalently, I fay, beyond all ceremonial purifyings of the flesh, shall the noble blood, inclusive of all the obedience and fufferings unto death, of fuch a divine perfon, be efficacious, in the application of it to your confciences through faith therein, to cleanfe them from the guilt and defilement of all your iniquities; which may be called dead works, as they proceed from fpiritually dead principles, are altogether unprofitable and abominable, like dead carcafes, and deferve and tend unto eternal death? And how much more effectual must it be, to free your confcience from dreadful apprehentions of condemnation and wrath on their account; and to give it a holy confidence toward God, as your reconciled God, that ye may worship him with freedom and delight, as the only living and true God, who will not accept of dead performances; and that ye may pay all chearful obedience to him here, as those who are pardoned and accepted of him through the atoning death of his Son, till ye fhall perfectly ferve and enjoy him in the heavenly fanctuary hereafter?

15 And for bringing about this great end, Jefus has undertaken, and is engaged in, the office of the mediator of the new and better covenant, which has been spoken of; (chap. viii. 6, 8. fee the notes there) and which carries the nature of a teftamentary dilpofition *, that by means, not of legal facrifices, but of his meritorious death for the remission of fin, and deliverance of finners from the guilt and punishment of those iniquities, which were committed under the Old, as well as New Teftament, they who are effectually called to the faith of Chrift, whether before or after his death, might, in virtue of it, be made partakers of the great promife to Abraham, that in his feed all nations of the earth should be bleffed; (Gen. xxii. 18.) which contained a promife of all the bleffings of the Seventy conftantly render the Hebrew word (בירה) by the Greek word, confirm the teftamentary grant of the (Lagnan) which is here translated a inheritance of the land of Canaan; for (Sia Snan) which is here translated a testament, and at other times a covenant; that there is no other word than that (ברית) in the Hebrew language to express a testament by; and that it is often used to express a free promise, which has more of the nature of a teflament than of a proper covenant, and beft agrees to the nature of God's covenant with man. He further observes, that though the Sinai-covenant, io far as it was a covenant, was confirmed by

A a a 2 T E.

* Dr. Owen observes on this text, that the blood of facrifices; yet as in those facrifices death was comprised, it was to death was necessary to the confirmation of a teflament, which then could only be in type and representation : The teftator himfelf was not to die for the eftablifhment of a typical inheritance; but Chrift, as Mediator of the New Teftament, was to die, not as the high priefts of old did a natural death for themielves. but as the facrifice died, that was flain and offered for others. (See p 339. and 407. See allo our note on chap. vii. 22)

grace

361

The Epifile to the

16 For where a teftament is, there must also of neceffity be the death of the testator.

17 For a teltament is of force after men are dead: otherwife it 'is of no ftrength at all whilk the teftator liveth.

18 Whereupon, neither the lift teflament was de dicated without blood. grace and glory, even unto the obtaining, not of a temporal poffettion, like the land of Canaan, but of an everlating inheritance of heavenly happines, which was typified by that land, and was promised in that covenant to all his spiritual feed. (Gal. iii. 18, 29.)

16 And Jefus being not only the mediator of reconciliation with God, to purchafe the bleffings of the new covenant, and ratify it by his blood; but being alfo a teflator to bequeath them, as legacies in his laft will and teftament, (Luke xxii. 29. and John xiv. 27.) his blood/hed, an/werable to this character, was to be unto death: For in the very nature and reafon of things, and according to the univerfal law and cuftom of all nations, when any laft will or teftament is made, the death of the party, who therein difpofed of his own goods, is neceffary, and the proof of it mult be produced, ($\phi_{efer}\sigma_{eff}$) to give it effect, in order to its being executed. This is a plain cafe.

17 For as a teltament is the authentic fignification of men's last will, with regard to the disposal of their property, in the time, way, and manner, which they appoint for it to take place after their deceafe; fo it is valid and pleadable, only after the perfons that made it are dead; because (13781) as long as the testator himself is alive, the testamentary disposition is revocable at his will and pleafure, and gives no legal title to any one, that would pretend to claim or inherit under it : But when once he is dead, all its lawful bequefts to every legatee are irrevocably eftablifhed, fo as not to be altered or difannulled. (Gal. iii. 15.) It was therefore necessary for Christ to die, as, for many other reasons, so particularly that the promises of the covenant, which he also made his teltamentary gift, might be in full force to all that claim by faith under him: But he fo far excels all human teflators, that as the merit of his death reached back to Old Teftament believers, (ver. 15.) and as he never died in his whole perfon; fo he, as Man and Mediator, now lives in heaven, to take care of the faithful execution of his own will, and gives the whole inheritance of grace and glory to every heir of promife, without lofing his own property in it, and without dividing the inheritance, fo as that one should have one part, and another another part; but that each may have the whole, as if none but himfelf were to enjoy it.

18 This manner of ratifying the gofpel-covenant is fomewhat an werable to the way in which the Sinaicovenant was confecrated or folemnly feparated to facred ule, and became valid, as it was the inftrument whereby the terms of that fpecial relation were fettled.

tled, which God entered into with his people I/rael; which covenant was not effablished without the blood of the typical facrifices, that had been flain; much lefs could the new covenant, which has more directly the nature of a teftament, be confirmed and rendered authentic for taking effect, without the death and bloodfhed of Chrift. (See the note on ver. 15.)

19 And that the typical blood was used for this, together with other purposes of purification and remiffion of fins, appears from the various fprinklings of it : For as Moles was appointed of God, and accepted by the people, to be a fpokefman, and fort of mediator, in all the transactions that passed between God and them ; (Exod. xx. 18, 19. and Deut. v. 22,-28.) fo when he had recited all the words of the Lord contained in the moral law, which was written on two tables of flone, and all the judgments (Exod. xxiv. 3.) contained in the inftitutions, which peculiarly related to them as a church and nation, and had been specified just before; (chaps. xx,--xxiii.) and when the people thereupon faid, as with one voice, All the words which the Lord hath (aid will we do; (Ex. xxiv. 3.) then Moses wrote all the words of the law in a book; (ver. 4, 7.) and, in testimony of its ratification, * he took the blood of calves

19 For when Moles had spoken every precept to all the people ac cording to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water and fcarlet wool, and hyflop, and fprinkled both the book, and all the people,

NOTE.

werfe that are not found in the account And though fprinkling the blood with given of the dedication of the covenant. water, and fcarlet-wool, and by fop is Exod. xxiv. 3,-8. But, as the apostle not recorded in the account of the dediwrote by divine infpiration, we may be cation of the covenant, but only the fure of the truth of what he afferts con- fprinkling of the blood, which was put cerning them, in which he does not into bafons for that purpole; (Exod. xxiv. confine himself to what was recorded on 6, 8.) yet as when the blood was sprinkthat particular occasion; but takes in led in leffer quantities, it was eafily various things, that fuited his purpole, done by dipping the finger into it, (Lev. relating to the use of sprinkling the viii. 15. and xvi. 14.) so when greater blood of the facrifices, where-ever they are to be met with in the law of Mofes; mixed with running, or fpring-water; and gives such an account of them as was proper to explain them.-We only read in Exod. xxiv. 5. of the offering of burnt-offerings, and peace offerings of oxen; these oxen the apoftle calls calves, as the word (DTD) in the Hebrew the blood, and a bunch of hyflop to (cat-fignifying any cattle of the herd, whe. ter it. This is called taking hyflop and ther young or old, and the Greek word, fcarlet. (which the apottle interprets (mor xwr) used by the apostle, might have been rendered heifers; and as we are not told in the hiftory what all the fprinkling a house infected with the offerings on that occasion were, there is no difficulty in allowing that there were goats, as well as builocks, fince goats are mentioned among the peace-offer-ings made by tire, and the fin-offerings, whole blood was fprinkled. (Lev. iii. 3,

* Several things are mentioned in this 12. and ix. 15, 18. and xvi. 15,-19.) quantities were to be fprinkled, it was to prevent its congealing, and keep it liquid : And that it might be scattered in drops, it was sprinkled with an inftrument composed of scarlet wool, to take up and retain a fufficient portion of as meant of fcarlet-wool) and dipping them in blood and running water, and leproiy for its cleanfing: (Lev. xiv. 51, 52.)-And though Sprinkling the book is not expressed in the history, but only sprinkling the altar and the people; (Exod xxiv. 7, 5) yet as the apoftle tells us that Moles iprinkled the book, and

Digitized by Google

363

The Epi/tle to the calves and of goats, that had been offered for burntofferings and peace-offerings, and put it into basons; (Exod. xxiv. 5, 6.) and, having mixed the blood with fpring-water to make it fluid, he took a parcel of fcarlet wool to imbibe the liquor, and a bunch of hyffop to difperfe it in drops; and by this means he fprinkled one half of it on the book of the law, as it hay upon the altar, to confectate it to facted use, as containing the covenant, in which God was one party; and fprinkled the other half upon the whole congregation of the people, or at least upon their reprefentatives, as the other party concerned in that covenant, and thereby purified them from all their legal uncleannefs, and ratified the covenant between God and them; which carried a typical intimation, that the new covenant of gospel-grace, between God and all true believers, fhould be confirmed by the blood of Chrift's facrifice, which is, by way of eminence, the blood of sprinkling, (chap. xii. 24.) and the virtue of which, in its application, is effectual for cleanfing from the guilt and defilement of fin, by pardon-ing and fanctifying grace, as was typified by that blood and water, and was afterward fignified by the blood and water which came out of Christ's pierced fide. (John xix. 34, 35. See the note there.)

20 While Moles was in this manner fprinkling the blood, and fhowing it to the people, he faid to them, (Exod. xxiv. 8.) Behold the blood of the covenant, (i. e.) This blood is a token of its confirmation by divine law, and then fprinkled the blood on xvii. $\gamma_{,-}$ ro. in which the females were the altar, (ver. 3, 4, 6.) there is no just included in the males.—Dr. Ower, in a reason to doubt, but that the book was remark on the verse before us, fays, laid upon the altar, before the altar was " The communication of the benefits of fprinkled; and fo the book was fprink- the death of Chrift, unto fanctification, led together with it. And whereas in is called the fprinkling of bis blood, the text of Exod. xxiv. 8. Moles is faid I Pet. i. 2.; and our apofile compriles to have sprinkled the blood on the peo- all the effects of it, unto that end, unple, the apostle tells us, by way of in- der the name of the blood of fprinkling, terpretation, that it was upon all the chap. xii. 24. And I fear (fays he) that people, either in their representatives, those who have used the expression with which fome suppose were the twelve fome contempt, when applied by thempillars, according to the twelve tribes felves unto the fign of the communicaplaints, according to the twelve times investing on the light of the death of Chrift the feventy elders, mentioned ver. 1. in baptifm, have not observed that re-who were the chief heads of Ifrael; or verence of holy things that is required of elle upon as many of the people as were us. For this fymbol of fprinkling was near him; and, perhaps, upon every in-that which God himfielf choic and apdividual of them, as there might be op- pointed, as a meet and apt token of portunity for it in their turns, even upon the communication of covenant-mercy, all the men, women, and children, who that is, of his grace in Chrift Jefas to were included in the covenant made our fouls." with Ifrael at Sinai, (Deut. xxxi. 11, N O T E. and the hiftory speaks of his having re- 12, 13.) as they had also been before in cited and wrote all the words of the the covenant made with Abraham, Gen.

Digitized by Google

20 Saying, This is the blood of the which testament God hath enjoined unto you.

divine authority, between God and you, whereby his faithfulnefs, on one hand, for fulfilling his promifes; and your obedience, on the other, for performing its duties, are engaged, according to what I have published unto you from the Lord, and ye have confented to, that ye may be dealt with according to its tenor.

21 Moreover, he fprinkled likewife with blood both the tabernacle, and all the veffels of the minifry.

21 Furthermore, when the tabernacle was framed and furnished with its appointed vessels of fervice, * Moles also ordered that it should be sprinkled with the blood of the facrifices, and that this should be repeatedly done on the great day of atonement every year; and that, together with the tabernacle, all the utenfils pertaining to it, and to the ministrations of the priefts in it, should be thereby cleansed from the defilements of the people, and fanctified for religious fervices; even as the mercy-feat, and altar of incenfe, annually were by the high prieft on every return of that day, because of the fins of the people, that they might be purified from the legal uncleannels which had been contracted thereby. (Lev. xvi. 14,-19.) 22 And

> N 0

T E.

nor all its veffels formed, till fome time ces in the execution of his office in heaafter Mofes received the law, and the ven, and the fervices of the high priest blood to fanctify the tabernacle and its bernacle and the veffels with his own utenfils could not be at that time; but hands, on the anniverlary day of atonemust relate to what was afterward to ment; yet it may be spoken of as his be done, probably at the sirft setting up doing it, because it was done by the of the tabernacle; fince Mofes, giving high prieft, according to divine appointan account of that, (Exod. xl. 9, 10, ment in the law delivered by him: For 11.) ordered the tabernacle, and all Moles often fignifies his law, as in Luke things therein to be hallowed with a- xxiv. 27, 44. Acts xv. 21. and 2 Cor. iii. nointing oil; after which follows the 15. And to the apofile, having finished confectation of Aaron and his fons by anointing them: (ver. 12,-15.) And dication of the covenant, proceeds, in as the anointing of them for their con- this and the next verse, to other standfecration was attended with the fprink- ing ordinances of fprinkling the blood of ling of blood, according to the order facrifices for purification and atonement, about it is Exed. xxviii. 4. compared the more fully to fhew how they fhawith chap. xxix. 20, 29. it is reasonable dowed out the virtue of Christ's atoning to conclude, that the anointing of the blood for taking away fin; which he tabernacle, and all its veffels, were fo infifts upon at large in the next chapter. too; and Jafephus lays, (Antiq. lib. IIL And that he in this verie speaks of cap. 8. Hudf. edit.) that Mofes confe- things done at a different time from crated the tabernacle, and all its veffels, those, which were just before mentioned, by anointing them with oil, and by the is suggested by the way of his introdublood of flain buils and rains.-How- cing it, faying, Moreover, likewife he ever, I rather think, with Dr. Owen for inkled with blood the tabernacle, &c. and some others, that the apostle here And then in the next verse, he says, Alrefers to what was annually done by the most all things are by the law, purged high prieft on the great day of atone- with blood, and without fbedding of ment: For his principal defign in this blood is no remiffion; thereby intimadiscourse, as appears from what follows ting what was the ordinary continued to the end of the chapter, was to run the practice all along under the law.

The tabernacle was not erected, comparison between Christ's performanfore-mentioned folemn transactions had in the faniluary, on that day. And passed: And therefore the fprinkling of though Mofes did not fprinkle the tahis account of what was done at the de-

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without fhedding of bloud is no remittion.

366

23 It was therefore necellary that patterns of the things in the heavens should be purified with thefe; but the heavenly things themfelves with better facrifices than thefe.

22 And fo important was the blood of facrifices to that difpendation, that almost every thing relating to purification, and indeed all things, except those that were to be purified by fire and water, * and had no moral impurity in them, are cleanfed, according to the inflitution of the law, by the offering and fprinkling of typical blood : And, even by the tenor of the Sinai-covenant, there is no fuch thing as forgivenels of fin to be obtained without the bloodshed of atoning facrifices; which evidently typified, and ftrongly pointed to the blood of Jefus Chrift for effectually cleaning us from all fin; (1 John i. 7.) and intimate that there can be no real purgation from fin without his blood.

23 It therefore plainly appears from what has been faid, that, by the appointment and commandment of God, it was neceffary that, not only the book of the covenant, and the people; but also that the tabernacle and all its utenfils, which were figurative reprefentations of heaven, and of the bleffings pertaining to it, according to the model or delineations, (unone mara) that were flewn to Moles in the mount, (fee the note on chap. viii. 5.) should be cleanfed and fet apart for facred use by the typical facrifices and various fprinklings but now mentioned; infomuch that the high prieft was never to enter into the holy of holies without the blood of those facrifices. But as the heavenly things themfelves are incomparably more excellent than those patterns of them; fo it was neceffary, according to the infinite wildom, holinefs, and fovereign will and appointment of God, answerable to these figurative representations, that the heavenly fanctuary itfelf, and every thing relative to it, should be confecrated to holy use for finful creatures +, by a proportionably more noble, excellent, and worthy facrifice, than all that were offered under the law, that, in virtue of this great facrifice, not only the new covenant between God and his people might be confirmed fire was indeed to pais through that for like things, that almost all things were cleanfing, and to be purified with the by the law purged with blood. water of separation, Numb. xxxi. 23.; + Better facrifices is here put. by an and both the clothes and bodies of those analogy of number, for a better facrifice, who led away the fcape goat, and who in an antithefis to the legal factifices; burnt the fin offerings, were to be wafh- becaufe this is more eminent in its virtue ed with water; and fo was the flefh of than, and includes the fignification of, those who had touched such things as all those factifices: For it is only the were ceremonially unclean. (Lev. xvi. one factifice of Christ that is intended, as 26,-28. and xxii. 6) But as there appears from the following verfes, where was no moral defilement in any of those the apostle speaks of it, as but once ofthings; fo the apoftle, not reckoning fered, and as completely fufficient alone,

N OTES.

* Every thing that might abide the and fays, with a tacit exception of fuch them to his purpole, paffes them over, and of itfelf, to aniwer its end.

24 For Chrift is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven

itfelf, now to appear in the pre-fence of God for 25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high prieft en-

year with blood of

into the holy place every tereth

others :

26 :

confirmed, and they cleanfed from all iniquity; but that Jefus, their High Priest himfelf, might also be fully confecrated to his office, (John xvii. 19.) and enter into heaven itfelf to prefent his blood before the throne of God; (ver. 12.) and might prepare that holy habitation for their use and enjoyment, who in due feason were to follow him thither. (John xiv. 2, 3.)

24 For Chrift, the anointed High Prieft of the church, has not entered, like the high prieft of old, into fuch earthly places, as were framed by the hands of men, and were no more than mere figures and refemblances of the heavenly fanctuary, and true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched and not man, (chap. viii. 2.) and the model of which was given to Moses on the mount; (chap. viii. 5.) * but he is afcended in his human nature with the blood of his facrifice into heaven itfelf, even the heaven of heavens, now in, and by means of that nature, and in that holieft of all, to fulfil the remainder of his prieftly office, by appearing in the immediate prefence of God's glory, as our representative, to present before him, as on a throne of grace, the merit of his blood in his ever living to make interceffion for us, who come unto God by him. (Chap. vii. 25.)

25 Not that we are to imagine as if, in order to his entering into this heavenly fanctuary, and prefenting his atoning blood there, it was neceffary for him to offer himfelf a facrifice, as he did on the crofs in fuffering unto death, more than once, which alone was completely fatisfactory to divine juffice; or that he should frequently repeat it, as, according to the Jewish inftitution, the high prieft offered facrifices, because of their imperfection, every year, in order to his entering into the worldly fanctuary, not with his own blood, but with the blood of other creatures, mere animals, that could never take away our fins, which rendered us unworthy and unmeet to be admitted into God's immediate prefence in heaven.

26 For

NOTE. * Holy places, in the plural number, and tabernacle: (fee the note on chap. feem to me to fignify the entire building viii. 2.) And though the word $(\alpha x lirv \pi x)$ of the tabernacle, inclusive of the court rendered the figures, is most commonly of the priefts, and of the holy of holies, understood to fignity that which answers into which the high prieft palled through the type ; yet it here evidently means the vail: And Chrift's entering, in oppo- the fame thing with the patterns menfition thereunto, into heaven itself, may tioned in the preceding verse, which re-intimate that, through the offering of presented the things fignified by them, himself, he ministers in his kuman nature, answerable to the perfect platform that prefigured by the tabernacle, and in hea- was given of them to Mofes in the ven, prefigured by the fanctuary, ac- mount. (See the paraphrale and note cording to what has been observed about on chap. viii. 5, and Dr. Owen on this the diffinction between the fanctuary verse.)

Vol. V.

368

26 (For then must he often have fuffered fince the foundation of the world;) but now once in the end of the world, hath he appeared to put away fin by the facritice of himfelf.

١

27 And as it is appointed unto m. n

once to die, but at.

ter this the judgment:

26 For if there had been a neceffity of a repetition of his offering, as there was of those under the law, becaufe of their imperfection; then he muft have shed his blood for making atonement very often from the time that fin entered into the world *, which was foon after the foundation of the earth was laid; fince, otherwife, there could have been no expiation by his blood for the fins of those that lived in former ages: But fuch is the infinite virtue, perfection, and dignity of the excellent facrifice which Chrift has offered, and fuch is the extent of its efficacy backwards and forward, to all former as well as future generations, that now, at the close of the Jewi/b difpenfation, to put an end to that, and at the introduction of the gospel difpensation to establish this, which is The last and best of all that ever will be fet up in our world; (fee the note on chap. i. 2. and Mr. Jofepb Mede's apoftacy, &c. chapters xi. and xii.) he at this time, once for all, (πεφανερωται) has been manifelted in the flesh to explate the guilt, and (us afternow) abolish the power of fin, with all its dreadful effects, by his meritorious fufferings unto death, when he offered a facrifice, not of bulls and goats, but of himfelf, whole entire human nature, fonl as well as body, and that dignified by the perforally united Godhead, was the offering he made for fin; and fo was of fuch infinite value, as not to need a repetition of it, or any other propitiatory facrifice befides it.

27 And in as much as, by the fettled law and righteous appointment of God, upon the entrance of fin, for the punifhment of it, all mankind, in the ordinary course of things +, must die once, and but once out of this mortal flate, never to return to it more; and, after that, must appear at the awful bar of a future judgment, to be dealt with according to the demerit of their deeds done in the body ; unlefs they be relieved by grace:

28 SQ

NOTES. tory facrifice, till fin invaded human nature; to fince the foundation of the world in this place must be understood to mean, not abfolutely from the creation of the world, but from the fall of Adam, which was quickly after it; and thus this phrafe is to be understood, Luke xi. 50.

die, and come to judgment, according to the penal fentence; yet as there was an exemption from dying, by the special falvation. favour of God on Chrift's account, in the

* As there was no need of any expia- cafe of Enoch and Elias; fo there will be of those that shall be alive on earth at Chrift's fecond coming : (I Theff. iv. 17.) And though in the common course believers mutt die, and all of them muft appear in judgment, as well as others; yet the fling of death, and the rigour of proceeding against them, and the condemning fentence that shall be passed + Though all men in general must upon others, will be taken off from them, through the merit of Chrift, who will appear, as the Judge of all, to their

Chap. ix.

28 So Chrift was once offered to bear the fins of many; and unto them that look for him thall be appear the fecond time, without fin, unto falvation.

HEBREWS paraphrased.

28 So Chrift, to take off the curle of the law-fentence for fin, died once, and but once *, and thereby offered only one facrifice to bear the guilt and punifhment of the fins of his people, who may well be called many, as they are an innumerable multitude, even all that believe in him. And unto them, who with faith, hope, defire, and love, expect his coming again to judgment, and patiently wait for it, looking for faivation alone by him, he will perfonally appear at what may be called, by way of eminence, the /econd time, not as he did before, in a flate of humiliation and fuffering for their fins; but in all his majefty and glory, as no longer bearing their iniquities, but coming to give them a complete enjoyment of all the happinels of the heavenly world, to which he will adjudge them, foul and body, at the last day, as the fruit and effect of what by his death he has obtained for them.

RECOLLECTIONS.

How gradually has God made known his mind and will about the great things . that relate to Chrift, and falvation by him ! Thefe were obscurely hinted in typical representations, by the earthly tabernacle and its various utentils, and fervices ; hat are brought to clear light by gotpel-revelation, that we may behold in Chritt far more transcendent glories than ever appeared in those shadows, which were to be fulfilled in him. May we be led to this grand antitype for all the light and grace, pardon of fin, communion with God, and fpiritual food for our fouls, that were typified by those legal inflitutions, which could make nothing perfect, as pertaining to the confeience !-- What a conformmate and glorious High Prieft is Chrift! All of that character under the law were only figures of him; but he, as our gospel High Prieft, ministers in the most excellent tabernacle of his own human nature, and in heaven itielf; and has entered, once for all, into that most holy place, there to abide for ever, in virtue of his own blood, by which he obtained aternal redemption for us. With what fatisfaction may we depend upon the efficacy of his blood, witbout which there is no remittion ! If fprinkling the blood of animals, and the affies of an heifer, availed for ceremonial purifications of the body; how much more must the precious blood of Christ, who offered himself to God. as an immaculate and divinely dignified lamb, purge our fouls from the guilt; defilement, and power of fin, in its application to them? O bleffed time of reformation ! The golpel covenant relating hereunto is fure and certain : Whether we confider it as the covenant of God the Father with his people in Chrift, or as Chrift's teftamentary bequeft, all its promifes are ratified paft repeal; and all its . bleffings, unto the remiflion of fin, and the inheritance of eternal life, may be claimed; and shall be enjoyed by them, that are effectually called in every age. But how necefiary is our Lord's interceffary prefentation of his factifice in heaven, and application of it to our fouls on earth, to render it efficacious to our own falvation !--- All mankind in the general course of things must, by divine appointment.

Bbb2

N OTE.

the fins of many, evidently answers to way fin by the facrifice of bimfelf) is its being appointed unto men once to die; intended all along in the foregoing con-(ver. 27.) and shews that the offering of text; it being inconsistent with his state his propitiatory facrifice was, strictly in heaven to continue under fufferings; fpeaking, on the crois, and not in hea- and the prefentation of the blood of his (which, in opposition to his fuffering, factifice there, being an ever continuing (which, in opposition to his fuffering exhibition of the fame, cannot be pro-often, ver. 26. is called bis appearing perly faid to be but once.

* Chrift's being once offered to bear once in the end of the world, to put ament, unavoidably die, and come to judgment ; but, bleffed be God, that every true believer has a happy relief against the terror of these thoughts: For to theme who look, and wait in a fuitable manner, for Christ's fecond coming, he will appear in all his glory to adjudge them to, and give them poffeffion of, all poffible happinefs, in foul and body for ever, on account of the one offering he has made of himfelf for them.

С H A P. х.

The apostle shuts up his main argument relating to the insufficiency of all legal facrifices for taking away fin, 1,-4. And to the neceffity and efficacy of the facrifice of Christ for that purpose, according to the tenor of the new covenant, which contains the fubflantial bleffings that the law was only the shadow of, 5,-18. And, having fini/hed the doctrinal, he enters on the practical part of the epifile, by way of inference from the preceding discourse, from which he draws an argument for holy boldnefs in the believer's access to God through Jesus Chrift, 19,-22. And for stedfastness in the faith, and excitations to mutual love and duty, and to frequent affemblings together for religious worship, 23,-25. And then he warns them of the danger of apostacy, 26,-31. Reminds them of their former illumination, and fufferings with patience and spiritual joy, 32,-34. And encourages them to maintain their holy profession to the end of their days, 35,-39.

TEXT.

FOR the law having a fhadow of good things to come, and not the things, can never with those facrifices, which they offered year by year continually, make the comers thereunto perfect.

Paraphrase.

T evidently appears then from all that hath been infifted on in the foregoing discourse, that the Molaic law, with all its inftitutions of the Levitical very image of the priefthood, and facrifices, whole blood was carried. into the holy of holies, was only a typical reprefentation of Chrift and his facrifice offered on earth, and of his entering with his own blood into heaven, to prefent the merit of it there, as the purchase of all the fubftantial privileges and bleffings, which were then future, and to be introduced under the gofpel flate : Yea, it was to far from containing the fubstance of those eminently good things themselves, that it was rather like the imperfect representation, which the mere shadow of a man's body makes of him, than like his image in a looking-glafs, which gives a more diffinct view of him. (See the note on 2 Cor. iii. 18.) And therefore the law, with all those figurative facrifices, which, becaufe of their imperfection, the high prieft offered repeatedly every year, on the great day of atonement, can never be effectual to discharge them from the guilt of fin, and bring them into a ftate of reconciliation and acceptance with God, that are concerned in, and attend upon those ceremonial fervices, and approach the divine majefty by those facrifices; nor can they ever make them perfect, as pertaining

Digitized by Google

370

a For then would they not have ceafed to be offered; becaufe that the worfhippers once purged, fhould have had no more confcience of fins,

3 But in those facrifices there is a remembrance again made of fins every year.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away fins.

5 Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he faith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldeft not, but a body haft thou prepared me:

taining to the confcience. (Chap. ix. 9. fee the note there.)

2 For had these ends been perfectly obtained by those facrifices, Is it not plain that God would never have appointed, and that there would have been no occasion for frequent, or indeed for any repetition of them, after they were first offered ? They then would certainly have cealed to be offered any more ; becaule, on fuppolition that the worshippers, to whom those facrifices related, were really and completely cleanfed thereby at once from their guilt, and had obtained acceptance with God to eternal life, they would have had no perplexing and diffreffing felf-condemnings in their consciences, as if, for want of a further atonement, they were still in an unpardoned state, or needed fome other facrifice to purify and discharge them from the guilt of their fins before God ; which if it were once perfectly done, would have been done for ever.

3 But this was fo far from being their cafe, that in the very offering of those legal facrifices at returning feasons, there was every year, on the great day of atonement, a folemn public confession, made by the high prieft, of all the fins of Israel, and they were to afflict their fouls for them, (Lev. xvi. 21, 22, 29, 31.) which brought their fins to a painful remembrance, and plainly shows that their former facrifices had not perfectly atoned for them, as indeed in the nature of things they could not.

4 For there is fuch an infinite difproportion between those little worthlefs facrifices, and the demerit of fin, and the high demands of God's law and juffice to make fatisfaction for it, and to demonstrate his abfolute detestation of it, as committed against his infinite majefty, crown, and dignity, that it is really imposfible for the blood of fuch mean animals, as bulls and goats, to have virtue enough in themfelves, or to be deemed, according to any rules of wisdom or juffice, a fufficient offering to make a true, proper, and effectual atonement for fin; they could only be defigned of God to prefigure that all fufficient facrifice of Chrift, which alone has worth and efficacy in itfelf, to answer this great end.

5 Since therefore, there was such an absolute defect in those legal facrifices to answer this important purpose; When our bleffed Lord spake with a reference to his coming into this lower world, (P. xl. 6, 7, 8.) and when he actually came into his incarnate state for executing his prieftly office, he faid to God his Father, Thou would it not accept of legal facrifices and offerings of any kind, as a proper expiation for fin; they being of too little value to fatisfy thy law and justice juffice for it : But, that an offering equal to the offence might be made to thee, Thou, in thy infinite wildom and good pleafure, and in mercy to thy church, haft, by an extraordinary operation of the Holy Ghoft, prepared a true human body *, animated with a human foul, and fo formed a proper human nature for me, that I thy eternal Son, might perfonally unite it to myself, and thereby dignify it with infinite worth to render it available for a complete atonement.

6 Thou could not approve of, or acquiefce, or take pleafure in any of the facrifices under the law : no, not of the most eminent of them, such as burntofferings and facrifices for fin : Thou neither didft intend or defire any of thefe, nor take the leaft complacency and reft in them, as if they were answerable to the demands of thy law and juffice, or worthy of thy wifdom and holinefs to accept, or were in themfelves of fufficient virtue to take away fin.

7 When this was the flate of the cafe, then, according to what is recorded concerning me at the head of the roll of eternity +, and of fcripture prophecy, relating to the facrifice that thou would ft accept, I prefented myfelf to thee, as ready to do what all those

NOTES. * The words in the Hebrew of P/al. him, whom they are to obey; in allu-xl. 6. from whence this passage is quoted, fion to which Chrift says, The Lord God are, Mine ear hast thou bored. Various has opened mine ear, and I was not rehave been the conjectures of the learned bellious, &c. (Ifa. l. 5.) And, by a to reconcile the difference between these like fynechdoche, the ear may be put words and the apoftle's expression, A bo- for the whole of Christ's human nature, dy haft thou prepared me, which agrees foul and body, which he came to offer as with the translation that the Seventy have given of them But what, upon the whole, appears to me to be the moft natural and eafy way of accounting for this difference, is, that our author defigned to give the fenfe of this claufe, as and as the books of the ancients were he also does of some following passages, rather than to recite the words of the Seventy; it being questionable whether have thought that the volume of the roll that translation has not been altered in is a tautology without fense: But as the iome places from the New Testament, word (xioxxis) rendered a volume, figand it being unlikely that the apostle nifies also the bead, it might be, perhaps, should ever quote it, especially to the better rendered the head of the book; Hebrews, and where it is wrong. (See and fo may refer either to the first and Dr. Owen on the place.) Accordingly fome think that there is an allufion to book of life, which contained Chrift's enthe boring of a lervant's ear through with gagement to the Father; or to the firft an awl, who was to ferve his mafter for promife of the feed of the woman to ever. (Exod. xxi. 5, 6.) But others, bruife the ferpent's head, which ftands observing that the Hebrew word there at the head or beginning of the first voused is different from that in Pfal. xl. 6. lume or book of fcripture, Gen. iii. 15.; understand it of God's fitting Christ with or may refer to the former part of the a body, of which the ear is, by a fynech- Old Zeflament, which fpeaks of facrifices doche, put for the whole, because it is in their typical reference to the facrifice by the ear that men hear and liften to of Chrift.

a facrifice for fin, and is called his offering bimfelf. (See Ifa liii. 10. Mark xiv. 34. Epb. v. 2. and Heb. ix. 14.)

+ The volume of the book has been greatly criticifed upon by the learned; commonly rolls of parchment, from whence they were called volumes, fome principal article in the roll of eternity, or

Digitized by Google

6 In burnt-offerings and facrifices for fin thou haft had no pleasure:

7 Then faid I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God.

facrifices

HEBREWS paraphra [ed.

facrifices could not, faying, Behold, I chearfully come into a flate of incarnation at thy call, to fulfil thy purpofes of grace, and my covenant engagements to thee, and all the promifes and prophecies concerning me; and to perform the good pleafure of thy will in doing thy work, and particularly in fuffering unto death whatfoever thou, O God my Father, requireft for the honour of thy law and justice, and for making a proper and complete fatisfaction for fin.

8 When in the above-cited place our Lord faid, Thou would that not accept of any kind of factifice and offering; no, not of any burnt offering and offering for fin, as an effectual atonement; nor hadd thou the least complacency of reft in that confideration of any of them which are offered, according to thine appointment in the Ma_faic law;

9 Then, in reflection upon the utter infufficiency of those facrifices, he faid, Behold, O God of righteoufnefs and falvation, here am I; Take the fatisfaction, thy justice demands from me; I freely come to put myself in the finner's flead, to bear his curfe, and to answer the utmost of thy requirements, according to what thou thyfelf has appointed, and doft approve of and delight in, to open a way for the remiffion of fin. Now, by our Lord's faying this, he manifettly flows that the former appointment or declaration of God's will, with regard to the first covenant, and all its offerings, were to be no longer in force, that he might confirm and give effect to this. last-mentioned will, with respect to the new-covenant, and the facrifice which he himfelf came to offer for giving it an everlafting eftablifhment.

10 By which will of God, as fulfilled by Chrift, (ver. 9.) we, who believe in him, are not in a typical and ceremonial way, as Ifrael were by the facrifices under the law, but really and effectually purged from the guilt and defilement of our fins; and are dedicated to God, and purified as a peculiar people for his fervice, through the merit and virtue of the facrificial offering of Chrift's human nature, (fee the note on ver. 5.) of which the body is the vilible part, answering to the bodies of the beafts that were flain: Which offering he made, not with any repetition of it, like those under the law, but only once, and that for ever; it being in itfelf abfolutely perfect, and available for making a complete atonement at once. (See the note on chap. ix. 28.) And herein lies an eminent and remarkable difference between all the former pricits and their facrifices, and Jefus, our great High Prieft and his facrifice.

Digitized by Google

HI Every

8 Above, when he faid, Sacrifice, and oriering and burnt - offerings, and offering, for fin thou wouldeft not, neither hadft pleature therein, (which are offered by the law;)

9 Then faid he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the fift, that he may eftablish the focond.

to By the which will we are fanctified, through the offering of the body of Jefus Chrift once for all.

11 And every prieft standeth daily ministring, and offering oftentimes the fame facrifices, which can never take away fins.

12 But this man. after he had offered one facrifice for fins, for ever fat down on the right band of God;

i'3 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footftool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are fanctified.

11 Every legal prieft, in token of humble reverence, as well as of readiness to engage in the fervice of God *, flands before him, frequently officiating. in his ministrations, and offering the same fort of animal facrifices according to his flation; none of which repeated facrifices, whether daily or annual, can ever make a proper expiration to the fatisfaction of divine juffice for any, much lefs for all manner of fins.

12 But fo incomparably fuperior is the dignity of Chrift's perfon and facrifice, above them and theirs, that this + gospel High Prieft, after he had once offered himfelf, as the one only atoning facrifice for all the fins of his people, immediately, upon his finishing that part of his office, role from the dead to immortal honour, that he might live, and exercise his office, in an endless state of the highest dignity, reft, and authority, which may be figuratively reprefented by his eternally fitting down with majefty, glory, and acceptation, at God the Father's right hand; (fee the note on Acts vii. 55.)

13 From that time forward exercifing all power in heaven and earth, till, according to the promise of his Father, (P/al. cx. 1.) and his own just expectation on that foot, and on account of his meritorious performances, fin, Satan, the world and death; yea, all the adverfaries to his perfon and authority, people and caufe, shall be actually and univerfally fubdued, like fuch vanquished, despicable enemies, as are trampled under the feet of the conqueror, in token of their utter destruction, and of his absolute dominion and triumph over them. (See the paraphrafe on Rom. xvi. 20.)

14 For by that one offering, which he made of himfelf on the crofs, he has obtained perfect deliverance from guilt and condemnation, and a perfect fitnefs for the worship and enjoyment of God, in the nearest relation and access to him, and in the most perfect state of the church, for all those who in a facrificial fenfe are dedicated to God, and purged from their

Digitized by Google

N OTES.

feems in this place to denote the posture day, though not to the exclusion of the of humble fervice and reverence, with ministrations of the ordinary priests every which the priefts performed their mini- day; and fo all legal facrifices, whether strations; in opposition to which Christ daily or annual, are represented as utteris represented, in the present execution ly insufficient to take a way fin. of his office, as fitting down with grandeur and authority on the right hand of priefl is the nearest antecedent, ver. II. God. (ver. 12.) And as the word dai- I should think the pronoun (auros) might ly (nab' nuegar) is used with reference better be rendered this prieft, or this bigh to the high prieft's offering up facrifices prieft, according as we understand the once a year, (chap. vii. 27. fee the note word priest in the foregoing verse to figthere) we may very well understand it nify, rather than this man.

* Every prieft flands daily ministring here as relating to his offering on that

+ As man is not in the original, and

HEBREWS paraphrased.

15 Whereof the Holy Ghoft alfo is a witness to us: for after that he had faid before. 16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, faith the Lord; I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them :

17 And their fins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now, where remition of these is, there is no more offering for ūn.

their fins, through faith in him; and that not for a time only, but for perpetuity, without any change of their privileges and church-flate on earth, or of their confummate happiness to all eternity in heaven.

15, 16 And the Holy Ghoft himfelf, as a divine perfon, has given us, in the infpired writings of the Old Testament, a sweet intimation of this important truth *, in the representation he hath therein made of the new covenant, which Chrift has now eftablished, and all the bleffings of which he has now actually purchased by his death. For after he formerly had faid in a prediction of gospel-times, (Jer. xxxi. 33, 34.) This is the tenor of the covenant of mere grace, that I will make with my people, when the days of the prefent difpensation shall expire, fays the great Jehovah, Instead of writing my law of the ten commandments on tables of itone, as I did at mount Sinai; I, by a fpecial inward operation of my Spirit, (fee the note and paraphrafe on chap. viii. 10.) will effectually inferibe the doctrines of divine revelation in the flefhly tables of their hearts and minds: (2 Cor.) iii. 3.)

17 And then, to affure them that nothing shall defeat the performance of his new covenant to them, he adds, in a way of absolute promife, with all the grace and authority of the God, who only can forgive fins, I will fo perfectly pardon all their fwervings from, and tranfgreffions of my law, as never to break my covenant, on account thereof, or call them to re4 membrance any more, as though they were not perfectly explated, as I did the fins of I/rael in the annual repetition of their infufficient facrifices; (ver. 3.) nor will I ever upbraid them with them, or produce them in judgment against them. (See the paraphrafe on chap. viii. 12.)

18 Now it is undeniable that, when there is fuch a complete and everlafting forgiveness of all trespasses, according to the gracious tenor of this covenant, as recorded by the Holy Ghost himself, there can be no use or need of any farther atoning facrifice for fin, nor of Chrift's repeating the facrifice of himfelf ; becaufe that, which he has already offered, hath been effectual that is given of the new covenant, Jer. lefs. xxxi. 33, 34.; fo he here iffues the whole Vo4. V.

NOTE.

* In this and the three following ver- in a reference to the defcription there gi-fes the apoftle winds up his argument ven of the covenant, as now completely concerning the excellency and perfection ratified, and all the bleffings of it puof the priesthood and facrifice of Christ; chased, and secured to the church, by and as he had laid the foundation of his the one only offering of Chrift, which last fet of arguments for it, chap. viii. renders all other expiatory factifices, and 10,-13. in a quotation of the account any repetition of his own, entirely need.

effectual to procure this important bleffing of the . covenant, of which he is the Mediator, (chap. ix. 15.) which he has now fully confirmed, and all the bleffings of which he has purchased, once for all, by his precious blood.

19 Since therefore, my dear brethren in the Lord, * we, who cordially believe in Chrift, have fuch folid grounds of free liberty, and fo rich encouragement, as may be gathered from the preceding difcourfe, for holy freedom and confidence in our approaches to God, as our reconciled God and Father, and fo of entering by faith into the holieft of all, even heaven itself; and are admitted to it, through the merit, and application to our confciences, of the most ineftimably precious blood of Jefus, our great High Priett and Sacrifice, who himself is gone thi-, ther in virtue of his own blood, to prefent and plead it there for us, that we might not be kept at a diftance, as the people of I/rael were from the holy of holies under the law; but might follow after him in the daily actings of our faith, till we shall have a perfonal entrance into the immediate prefence of his glory;

20 Since, I fay, we have this liberty of access to God, through the blood of Chrift, in gospel-worship, by the way of the new covenant; a way, which is now opened and declared with the greatest evidence to us, and is of fuch perpetual use and advantage, as to be always new, fo as never to wax old or decay; and may well be called a living way, as the once dead, but now living Redeemer has opened it for us, and as it is the way, in which we find quickening virtue unto fpiritual life here, and are led on to eternal life hereafter; and which he, who is the way, the truth, and the life, (John xiv. 6.) has prepared, dedicated, and established, (svenauros) as facred to our use, that we might not be excluded from the true holy of holies; but might follow our High Priest into heaven itfelf, by means of his crucified body, which procured this open way for us, when the vail of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the botiom, and clofed no more; which fignified, among other things, that every obflruction to our entrance into heaven itfelf is now removed, by the death and facrifice

ΝΟΤΕ.

Digitized by Google

this and the following verfes to the end argument for it.

* The apoftle having finished the doc- of the epiftle, to a practical improvement trinal part of his epifile, relating to the of the whole, which he here introduces iuperior excellence of the perion, prieft- by way of inference from the foregoing bood, and facrifice of Chrift, proceeds in difcourfe, from which he here draws his 20 By a new and living way he hath which confectated for us, through the vail, that is to fay, his fiefh;

fore,

fus,

19 Having thereboldnefs to enter into the holieft by the blood of Je-brethren,

e 1

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

facrifice of Chrift; (fee the paraphrafe on Matth. xxvii. 51.)

21 And baving an high prieft o. ver the houfe of God ;

21 And fince we now have a great and glorious High Priest, every way furpassing all that went before him in his perfon, office, and exaltation; a prieft of infinite dignity and authority, who is the head of the church-militant on earth, and triumphant in heaven; and who, as its Lord and proprietor, prefides over it and all its concerns, as his own houfe, (chap. iii. 6.) in which God dwells after a more excellent manner than he ever did in the Yewifb tabernacle ;

22 Let us, upon thefe encouraging confiderations, be emboldened to make our humble approaches to God, as our reconciled God and Father, through Jefus Chrift, and as feated on a throne of grace, that, by the affiltance of his Spirit, we may draw near to him in prayer, and in all other acts of religious worfhip, in the exercife of every grace; in fweet and holy communion with him, and conformity to him; with integrity and uprightness, and a heart effablished in the truth of the gofpel; and with the livelieft exercife of faith, even to a full affurance of the perfection of Chrift's priefthood and facrifice, and of our own acceptance in coming to God through him, as perfons whofe fouls, in all their powers and faculties, are cleanfed from the flupidity and treachery of an unfaithful, and from the difquietude and defilement of a guilty, terrifying, and condemning confcience, by an application of the blood of Jefus, in opposition to the fprinklings of the blood of the legal facrifices *; and as perfons who are truly fanctified to God and his fervice, by the renewing and purifying work of the Holy Spirit, (in opposition to the ceremonial cleanfing of the bodies of thofe, who drew nigh to God under the law, by their being washed with cleau water) that the outward conversation, as well as the inward principles and difpolitions of the heart, may be pure.

> Ccc 2 N т

E.

Digitized by GOOGLE

* As having our hearts /prinkled from an evil confcience, evidently alludestoceremonial rites in various fprinklings of the blood of the facrifices under the law; fo having our bodies washed with pure water, as it here ftands in connection with those sprinklings, seems to allude to divers wa/bings, chap. ix. 10. among which were the prieft's washing his flesh in water, and having the water of purification fprinkled upon him, before he went into the prefence of the Lord. Lev. xvi. 4. and Numb. viii. 7.-But if we fuppole, with fome expositors, that here is a reference to the New Teftament ordinance of baptifm ; the mode of administring it may be fignified by the (prinkling of the confcience, as well as by washing the body; and the cleanfing virtue of the blood and facrifice of Chrift, or of the Spirit in his applying the blood of Chrift to the foul, which is fignified by baptilm, is expressed by God's sprinkling clean water upon us, that we may be clean. Ez. XXXVI. 25.

23 Correl-

near with a true heart, in full affurance of taich, having our hearts fprinkled from an evil confeience, and our bodies wathed with pure water.

22 Let us draw

23 Let us hold faft the profession of our faith without wavering : (for be in faithful that promiled :)

24 And let us confider one another, to provoke unto love, and to good works:

23 Correspondent hereunto, Let us maintain our folemn profession, and open confession of Christ, and of our faith and hope in him, and in the promifes of the new covenant, which he has ratified, and the bleffings of which he has purchased by his blood; Let us perfit ftedfaitly and invariably in our adherence to him, and in the belief and practice of every gospel-doctrine and duty, without any distrust or hefitancy, or perturbation of mind, through fear of tribulations for his fake, or of a disappointment of our hope in him : For he, who hath promifed to put his laws into his people's bearts, and to write them in their minds, (ver. 16.) is unchangeable in his truth and faithfulnels, and may be fully depended upon, for all feafonable fupplies of promifed grace to enable us to hold on, and hold out to the end; and for a performance of all his promifes, unto complete falvation.

24 And to fubferve our ftedfaftnefs and perfeverance in the faith, and in our holy profeffion of it, Let it be our joint concern ferioufly to confider our refpective wants and infirmities, temptations and dangers, on one hand; and the grounds of hope and encouragement, that are in Chrift, and in the promifes, on the other, that we may ufe all proper means, by example, exhortations, and cautions, to flir up one another, with fervency and faithfulnefs, to the love of God, and Chrift, and the truths of the gofpel; and to an affectionate union and communion one with another; and fo may love as brethren, and excite each other to every evangelical and moral duty, and to every thing that is truly excellent and worthy our Chriftian character.

25 And as ever we would be ftedfast in the profession of our faith, and in love and good works, Let us take fpecial heed that we do not grow cool or indifferent, remifs or carclefs, on any pretence whatfoever, with regard to our flated and occafional meetings together, as we have opportunity, for the celebration of all divine ordinances; and, at length, defert church-affemblies, and caft off public worship, and the communion of faints, and the folemn profession of Christ's name; and fo put ourfelves out of the way of his promife and blefsing for our prefervation and growth in grace, comfort, and holinefs, as is too much the cuftom of fome that have given up their names to Chrift, but are vilibly backfliding from him; and as is the lamentable cafe of others that have notoriously and shamefully apostatized from all their former profession of him : But, inftead of being influenced by their finful and pernicious example, or treading in their dangerous steps, Let us admonifh, excite, and encourage cach other, to frequent our

Digitized by Google

25 Not forfaking the affermbling of ourfelves together, as the manner of fome is; but exhorting one another: and fo much the more, as ye fee the day approaching. 26 For if we fin wilfully, after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more facrifice for fins,

HEBREWS paraphra/ed.

our religious affemblies on all occasions, and to go on with chearfulnefs and conftancy in the good ways of the Lord. And ye ought to be the more diligent and earneft herein, that ye may be the better prepared against the awful time that is coming on, in proportion to the plain figns, which ye may now eafily obferve, that the utter destruction of Jeru/alem and the Jewi/h nation, for their obstinate infidelity, hastens apace, and is very near at hand; and against the day of death and judgment, which ye cannot but know will foon overtake you, whether ye fall in the approaching calamity or not, and which will be an inexpreffibly dreadful day to apostates.

26 For if any of us, who make a profession of Christ's name, be fo much under the power of unbelief, prejudice, pride, and a worldly temper, as, not merely through inadvertency, or fome fudden hurry of fpirit, temptation, and fear of danger;* but deliberately, refolutely, and willingly, with full confent, to reject the doctrines of the goipely and the good ways of the Lord, and to turn back to judaifm, or to all irreligion, and go on in a course of fin against God, after we have been enlightened in, and convinced of the truth of the golpel, with refpect to the way of falvation alone by Jefus Chrift; the cafe of fuch apoftates is of all others the most dreadful : For as all legal facrifices are of no farther use in the worship of God, nor ever were available to purge from the moral guilt of fin; and as there never was any facrifice appointed under the law for prefumptuous finners; fo there remains no other, than the one only facrifice of Chrift, for the remiffion of fins; and they that reject this last and only remedy, by perfidious unbelief, can have no intereft in it; nor can there be any hope of pardon and acceptance with God on any other ground whatfoever.

27 But a certain fearful looking for. of judgment, and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

27 But all that remains to them, as their deplorable portion, is nothing lefs, than a fort of terrible foreboding in their confciences of the righteous judgment of God, which will certainly overtake them, an awful emblem of which will foon be given in the deftruction of Jeru/alem; and they must look for the incenfed wrath of God to fall upon them, which will burn in

Digitized by Google

from all the preceding and following text is not to be underftood of every fin context, is wilful, refolute, contemptu- that has been committed under the powous, and utter apostacy from the profes- er of temptation, against light and confion of Chrift and his golpel: And there- viction, as fome tender spirited Chriftifore, though we ought to be always upon ans are often apt to apply it, to their own the firicleft guard against every known great discouragement and terror, almost fin, and to be deeply humbled before to utter despair.

NOTE. * The fin here intended, as appears God, whenever we fall into it; yet this

The Epiftle to the

23 He that defpifed Moles' law, died without mercy, under two or three witneffes:

20 Of how much forer punishment, fuppole ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was fanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace ?

in the most tremendous manner, like the hottest fire, to confume all fuch enemies as fet themfelves against the bleffed and only Saviour. (See 2 The/. i. 7, 8, 9.)

28 And this, the wretched apoltates I am speaking of, may be affured will be their horrible end, with the higheft aggravations of guilt and mifery, if they only confider how feverely God dealt with refractory tranfgreffors of, and revolters from the Mo/aic law, according to the tenor of which, Whofoever contemned and prefumptuoufly transgreffed the law given by Moles, with regard to capital cafes, for which no facrifice was appointed, he was, by the order of God himfelf, (Num. xv. 30, 31. and Deut. xvii. 6. and xix. 11,-13.) to be put to death, without the least pity to spare him, or to mitigate his punishment, whenever he was convicted by the testimony of two or three credible witneffes, that could prove the fact upon him. So jealous was God for the authority and honour of that dispensation.

29 How much greater, and inexpreffibly more dreadful then, must ye certainly conclude, in your own confciences, from the very nature and reason of things, will that punishment be, even unto eternal death, which is juftly due to, and shall be inflicted upon an apostate from the Lord Jesus Christ, and a resolute finner againft all the light and grace of the gospel, and againft his own conviction of its truth, who has offered the higheft indignity to the eternal Son of God himfelf, in trampling upon his divine perfon and authority, mediation and gofpel, with the vileft infolence and contempt, as though he were an impostor; and who, instead of trufting, for pardon and justification, in that precious blood, by which the covenant of grace in its pureft administration was ratified, and all its bleffings procured*, and by which the incarnate Son of God himself with be was fanctified, seems to relate to cation of Aaron and his fons to the high Cbrift, who was confecrated to his prieft- priefthood for the fervice of the fanctuly office by his own blood, rather than to ary, by the blood of the Mofaic covehim who counted the blood of the cove- nant, Lev. viii. 30.; and the. scheme of nant an unbody thing: For the Son of this epittle for comparing Christ and the God is the immediate antecedent, and high priest under the law, naturally the apostle's defign was to aggravate the leads us to this fense .- But if any would fin of apoftates, from a confideration of refer it to the perion, that was guilty of the worth and dignity of the object they the fin here spoken of, his being fanctififlighted and abused; and as the Father ed may be confidered, as relating, not to is faid to have fanctified Christ, or fet him a real internal fanctification, but to an apart to his mediatorial office, and Chrift external visible dedication to God in his fpake of his having fantified or dedica-baptifum and entrance into church-com-ted and fet apart himfelf to it by his munion, by which he made a folemu death, John x. 36. and xvii. 19.; fo he profession of being purged from his fins, was fancified to his priefly office in hea-and fancified or let apart to the Lord. ven, by the blood of the new covenant,

ΝΟΤΕ,

Digitized by Google.

* The blood of the covenant, where- answerable to the fanctification or dedi-

was

was confecrated to his prieftly office, for the complete execution of it, has prophanely flighted, and injurioufly treated that very blood, which he fhed for the remiffion of fin, as though it were not fo holy as the blood of bulls and goats; nor more facred, or of any more value or efficacy, than the blood of a common man, or even than the blood of a malefactor, according to the account that the Jews made of him when they crucified him; and who, over and above all this, has fpitefully, malicioufly, and contemptuoufly oppofed, affronted and vilified the perfon, operations, and grace, of the good Spirit, that is freely given of God for gracious purposes, and is the giver and applier of all grace, as though his wonderful attestations to Chrift's character, as the true Meffiah, by innumerable gifts and miraculous operations *, were delutions, or the effects of diabolical power. Such a malignant wretch blafphemes the Holy Ghoft himfelf, and if they who only neglect the gospel-falvation, shall not escape the wrath of God, (chap. ii. 3.) how much lefs can fuch an apostate escape the most dreadful and eternal punishment? (Mat. xii. 31.)

30 For we know who it is that fpoke after the following awful manner. (Deut. xxxii. 35.) It is my incontestable right, and absolute prerogative, to execute righteous wrath upon tranfgreffors of every kind, according to their defert; this is an effential part of my fupremacy and dominion over all, as the Judge of the whole world : And, as the vindication of my honour requires it, I will certainly, fooner or later, in my own time and way, inflict fevere punifhments on incorrigible offenders, in proportion to the malignity of their crimes. This was faid by the great Jehovah himfelf, the fovereign Lord of heaven and earth, whole juffice and truth are uncontrollable, and whofe power is irre-And a little afterwards, it is there added, fiftible. (Deut. xxxii. 36.) The Lord will fearch and try his profelling people; and will as furely condemn and destroy them, that perfidiously revolt from him, as he will approve of, and fave them, that are ftedfaft in his covenant.

31 How fevere then must his judgment, and the executions of it, be upon all the apoftates from Chrift and the gofpel? It is indeed dreadful to fuffer the miferies that he can lay upon them, by only flirring up

- Digitized by Google

the

NO T E.

have come very near to, if not to have been difference, that the apostate had receiguilty of, the unpardonable fin again the wed the knowledge of the truth, (ver. 26.) Holy Ghoft himfelf, which our Lord which they, whom our Lord spoke of, ipeaks of, Matth. zii. 31, 32. (See the never did.

* The perfon here defcribed feems to note there.) Only there may be this 30 For we know him that faid, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, faith the Lord. \mathbf{And} again, The Lord shall judge his people.

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

The Epifile to the

the fury of mere creatures against them, though the weakness of the inftrument abates the force of his hand in fmiting with it : But it is inexpreffibly tremendous, beyond all imagination, to fall as victims into the hands of his juffice, without mixture of mercy, to be punished by the immediate and almighty arm of the great and terrible God himfelf; who, in opposition to all idols, is the only living and true God; and whofe existence, power, and activity, abide invariably and for ever, to execute wrath, as an incenfed, unappeafed Judge, to the utmost extremity on the despifers of his Son and Spirit, (ver. 29.) as well as to complete the everlasting happiness of those that hold fast the profession of their faith without wavering. (ver. 23.)

32 But, to excite fincere believers among you to watch and guard against the beginnings of apostacy, confider how it was with you, and reflect upon the folid fatisfaction and hope ye formerly experienced, in the first days of your conversion, in which, as soon as ye were enlightened in the knowledge of the gospel, and of the way of falvation by Jefus Chrift, (ver. 26. and fee the fecond note on chap. vi. 4.) ye were followed with fevere perfecutions from the Jewi/h zealots, and their confederates; which ye, like foldiers under the Captain of falvation, and like combatants in the agoniftic exercifes, were called to conflict with, in a glorious contention, on your part, for the fake of Chrift, as with enemies, that fet themfelves, as it were, in battle array against him and you; and which ye patiently fuftained with a noble Chriftian courage and fortitude, through divine supports and affistances, without being daunted or difmayed at any of them, though they were of various kinds, and lay very heavy upon you:

33 While, on one hand, ye were maliciously accufed and injuriously exposed to public difgrace, and made a spectacle to the world, like criminals brought forth into the theatre, (Sware Lowson) and were ignominiously treated, as the filth of the world, and offfouring of all things, (I Cor. iv. 9, 13.) by cruel mockings, contempt, and fcorn, and by the leverest opprefilions from the hands of wicked men, Jews and others, for righteousness fake; and while, on the other hand, ye tenderly sympathized with, and stedfastly adhered to, affisted, and bravely owned your fellow Chriftians, and the apostles and fervants of Chrift, and mourned with them in their troubles, who were abused in the fame opprefive and opprobrious manner, as though all had been done against yourfelves.

Digitized by Google

34 For

32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions:

33 Partly whilft ye were made a gazing-flock, both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly whilft ye became companions of them that were fo used.

34 For ye had compatiion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the fpoiling of your goods, knowing in yourfelves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring fubstance.

35 Caft not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.

34 For as to myfelf in particular *, when I was in great tribulation, even unto bonds and imprifonment for the fake of Chrift, ye were not ashamed to own and ftand by me; but in Christian tendernefs, love, and pity, ye fympathized with me, (contactyours) grieved at my diffrefs, prayed for me, relieved my wants, and fupplied me with as comfortable accommodations, as our refpective circumftances admitted of: And ye yourfelves chearfully fubmitted to the lofs of the conveniences and neceffaries of this life, which were violently wrefted out of your hands by furious perfecutors; and ye even rejoiced to think of the glorious caufe for which ye fuffered, (Alt v. 41) and of the rich advantage, that would accrue to your own fouls thereby, as being well fatisfied in your own minds, from the promifes of God and your own happy experience of his grace, that ye have a better treafure in heaven, than any ye have loft or can lofe upon earth; even a substantial treasure, which ye are entitled to, and is prepared by the free favour of God, and the purchase of Chrift, who as your head and reprefentative has taken pofferion of it for you; and which ye have the earnests of in your own fouls, as what cannot be loft, or taken away from you, but abides with all fafety for an everlatting inheritance at the end of all your troubles.

35 Animated therefore by your faith in Chrift, and in the promifes, and by your holy fortitude in fufferings for him hitherto, take heed left, through carnal fear, and the workings of unbelief, on account of the continuance of those, or the addition of any further tribulations, ye be now difficartened, to the relinquifhing, or throwing off your holv boldnefs, freedom, and courage (magenciar) in your profession of Christ's name, golpel, and caufe, and in your joyful hopes of eternal life through him; which holy boldnefs herein is, at prefent, a noble fupport and fatisfaction under all your trials, and shall have fuch a bleffed and glorious reward in heaven, as, according to his gracious promife, (ver. 36.) is fecured to you, and will abundantly more than make you a rich and eternal amends for all the troubles you endure in this momentary life for Chrift's fake, though they be ever fo great and many, like those which ye have already felt, and may yet further expect to meet with. (See Rom. viii. 18. and 2 Cor. iv. 16, 17.)

the apoftle Paul's fufferings and bonds, which were notorious, and extremely great ; and in which the Jewish belie-

Vol. V.

* Here feems to be a reference to vers tenderly fympathized with him, as appears from Acts xx. 37, 38. and xxi. 4, 11, 12, 13.

36 For

Ddd,

36 For ye have need of patience; that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promife.

37 For yet a little while, and he that fhall come, will come, and will not tarry.

36 For, according to the wife and holy appointment of God, the declarations of his word, and the disposals of his providence, that patience may have its perfect work, (Jam. i. 4.) fuch is your prefent ftate of afflictions and perfecutions, that there is a neceflity for you, and great need of abundance of grace to enable you to live in the continual exercise of a calm and quiet, humble and refigned fubmiffion to the fovereign will of God in them, to the end, that after ye have yielded yourselves up, through the whole course of your lives, to the commanding and difpofing will of God, in patiently and willingly complying with the most difficult instances of it, ye might receive the promifed bleffing of eternal life, (1 John if: 25.) which shall be graciously conferred upon you. in the falvation of your fouls, (uer. 39.) at the end of your spiritual race and warfare, that will foon be finished, and exchanged for everlafting peace and joy.

37 For, according to an ancient prophetic vifion. (Habak. ii. 3.) which may be applied, as relating to the Meffiah and his falvation, in all his remarkable appearances, the time is exceeding fhort, as fhort as can be well expected, (mixeov oror oror) when the Meffiah, who is coming, (a nexousos) will certainly come, in his righteous judgment, for the confusion of his and your enemies, and in his tender mercy for your confolation and deliverance from all their oppressions, in the destruction of Jerufalem, which is just at hand, and is a lively emblem of his last, which may be emphatically called his fecond coming, (chap. ix. 28.) to the utter deftruction of all impenitent and unbelieving finners, and to your complete falvation, at the judgment of the great day; which, though it be not fo near as the conflagration of Jerusalem; yet in God's account, with whom a thousand years are but as one day, (2 Pet. iii. 8.) and in comparison with the endlefs eternity that fucceeds it, will be but a very little while hence; and then he who is to come, will actually come, without fail, to your unspeakable and everlafting joy : And though ye are apt to think the time long and tedious, while ye are groaning under present afflictions; yet ye may depend upon it, that he will not delay his coming to put you into poffeffion of the promifed recompence of reward; (ver. 35, 36.)no, not fo much as one moment beyond the appointed time, which, as it is the beft time, is fixed in the purpose of God, and is near at hand, to deliver you out of all your troubles; and as death at fartheft will certainly rid you of them; fo it cannot be long before he will receive you to himfelf.

Digitized by Google

38 And,

٩.

38 Now the juff fhall live by faith : but if any man draw back, my foul shall have no pleafure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe, to the faving of the foul.

,

38 And, (di) for your further encouragement, remember what follows in that prophecy; (Habak. ii. 4.)* The righteous man, who is justified by faith, and whofe heart is purified by faith, (Rom. v. 1. and Acts xv. 9.) fhall by means of his faith live a fpiritual and holy life, in a flate of acceptance with God, and communion with him, and in a humble patient waiting for, and expectation of this happy event all his days upon earth; and fhall live in all blefsednefs and glory with Chrift, according to the promile, (ver. 36.) for ever in heaven : But, in oppolition to fuch, whoever he be that, after having made a profession of faith in Christ, shall apostatize from him +, through an unfubdued pride of ipirit, and an evil heart of unbelief, which lift up themfelves againit him, and renounce the profession of his name, on account of the trials and fufferings it exposes him to, My foul, fays God, speaking after the manner of men, shall be so far from taking any delight in him, whatfoever his pretences be, that I will have him in the utmost detestation, and will shew him no mercy : inftead of my favours being towards him, my hottelt indignation shall be incenfed against him.

39 But, as I have already told you, (chap. vi. 9.) that I am perfuaded better things of you, and things that accompany falvation; fo we who are fincere in our profession of Christ, and are in truth before God what we appear to be before men, are not of the number of those hypocritical, treacherous, and falle hearted nominal Christians, who revolt from him, and cast off their profession of him, to their own everlasting destruction : But we are of the number of those, who believe with the heart unto righteou/nefs, and confefs with the mouth unto falvation, (Rom. x. 10.) and fhall ftedfaftly perfevere therein to the end, as being kept by the power of God through faith unto (alvation; (I Pet. i. 5.) and fo, according to his promife, our faith stands in fure connection with, and shall certainly iffue in the everlatting happiness of our fouls.

Digitized by Google

RECOLLECTIONS.

How defective were all legal facrifices ! They, and all attending inftitutions, were, at beft, only a fhadow of Christ's propitiatory facrifice, and the bleffings of the gofpel introduced by him. The frequent repetition of those facrifices was a Ddd 2 plain

NOTES.

the words ftand) The just by faith shall this and the following verie, is made belive. (o dinains en mistas (notelai.)

claufe of the verie, are different from believe to the faving of the foul.

* The just fhall live by faith might those mentioned in the former, is evident be better rendered, as Dr. Gwen ob- to me; becaule of the oppolition that, ferves, (according to the order in which both in the prophet Habakeuk, and in tween them and those that live by faith, + That the perions intended in this laft and do not draw back to perdition; but plain proof of their imperfection ; they could not prevent the returns of guilt upon the confcience; nor could they poffibly take away fin, or be pleafing to God for But how meritorious and effectual is the factifice of Chrift, who that purpofe. freely came into an incarnate ftate, according to ancient purposes and records, to fulfil his Father's will by offering up himfelf ! This alone is fufficient for purging all that believe in him, from every iniquity, and recommending them to God's acceptance, as a people dedicated to his fervice; and for perfecting all that concerns them : And our great Lord is now exalted, as a prieft on his throne, at the right hand of the eternal Father, where he must reign till all his enemies he subdued under his feet. And O what a bleffed fecurity have the people of God in him, and in the covenant of grace, which the Holy Ghoft has recorded, with a view to gofpeltimes, in the writings of the Old Teftament ! It is now ratified, and all its blefsings are purchased for them by the death of Chrift, on whole account God will write his law and his golpel in their hearts, and will fo thoroughly forgive all their fins, as never more to remember any of them against them. What rich encouragement then have we to draw near to God in Chrift, with humble boldnefs, and full affurance of faith! Jefus our High Priest has opened a new and living way to the throne of grace, through his crucified flesh, and now appears in heaven itfelf to recommend us and our prayers to divine acceptance, by the fprinkling of his blood, and the fanctifying influences of his Spirit. But how watchful ought we to be against the beginnings of apostacy ! If our love and zeal for every good work be in a declining flate, and we grow cool and indifferent about attending on religious affemblies, and goipel-ordinances, we have reason to fear, left we fall after the example of some other professors of Chrift, that have revolted from him; and the thoughts of awful trials, and of death and judgment, as near approaching, fhould excite us to the greater care herein. Ah! how extremely dangerous is the cafe of apoltates, who, after they have been convinced of the truth of the golpel, vilify the Son of God; depreciate the blood of the covenant, whereby he was confecrated, 'to the remaining part of his prieftly office ; and treat the Spirit of all grace with malignant contempt ! As there is no other facrifice for fin than that which they reject and defpile, they can have nothing to expect, but judgment without mercy, and flaming wrath to confume them : And as their fin is more abundantly aggravated. than any tranfgreffions of Mofes's law, for which offenders were put to death, we must suppose, from the reason of things, that they deferve a proportionally heavier vengeance ; and we are affured from divine teftimony, that the great God will affert his own prerogative, in calling them to a fevere account for all their wilful abules of golpel-light and grace. Alas! how dreadful is it to fall into the hands of his provoked power and juffice, who lives for ever to inflict the foreft punifhment upon impenitent finners ! But whatever loffes, troubles, or reproaches true believers may fuffer for Chrift ; they ought not to caft away their humble confidence and joy in him, and their holy profession of his name; as being fatisfied in their own minds, that they have a more fubftantial, and abiding inheritance in This is indeed a great recompence of reward, which the faithful God heaven. will give them according to his gracious promife; and the profpect of this, together with a remembrance of their former experience of divine light and support, under their various tribulations for Chrift, and compafionate regard to fellow fufferers, fhould encourage their faith and hope, and animate their patience amidft further difficulties that may befal them : For in a very little time the Lord Jefus will certainly come by death and judgment, and will not tarry one moment bevond the fet time, for their falvation - Upon the whole then, how wide is the difference between nominal professors, and fincere believers ! One is in danger of drawing back to perdition, and falling under divine abhorrence; but the other is juttified by faith, and by means of his faith lives to God here, and fhall live with him for ever hereafter, as having believed to the faving of his foul, 5. 1 1

Digitized by GOOGIC

С H A P. XI.

The apofile describes the excellent nature and efficacy of faith, 1,-3. Exemplifies it in leveral inflances and effects, with an intimation of its necessity, from the fall of man to Noah's days, 4,-6. From Noah to Moles, 7,-22. And from Moles to the end of the Old Testament-di/pensation, 24,-29. And concludes with a dec'aration of the flill better flate of believers under the go [pel-di/pen/ation, ver. 40.

TEXT. NOW faith is the fubftance things not feen.

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

PARAPHRASE.

he NOW, to give you a lummary account of the excellent nature and effects of all divine faith *, inthings hoped for, clufive of that which we have been fpeaking of as unto falvation, (chap. x. 38, 39.) It may be in general described after the following manner ; True faith gives a fort of prefent fubfiltence in the mind and heart unto, and a confident expectation of, all future bleffings, which, on the foot of the promife of that God who cannot lie, are as fully afcertained and realized to the believer's comfort, and have their proper influence upon him, as though they were already prefent in actual poffeffion; and it gives us as clear and convincing a demonstration, merely on the credit of divine revelation, as to the truth of things that are invisible to the corporal eye, as though they were ever fo plainly exhibited to our view, like the things that daily offer to our fight.

> 2 For by the realizing and evidencing exercise of faith, our godly anceftors of all generations, from the time of the first promife of the feed of the woman to bruife the ferpent's head, (Gen. iii. 15.) to the end of the Jewi/b difpensation, obtained a noble testimony from God, though evil fpoken of by wicked men; a record of which is left particularly with respect to fome of them in his word, that they were righteous perfons, through the rightcoufnefs of faith, and that thev

> > Digitized by Google

this verfe, and exemplified in the various or of his falvation, but only of temporal following inftances, I take, with the bleffings, which were obtained by faith : learned Dr. Owen and others, to be a that which is juitifying, but not under and efficacy of juftifying faith in real being: For this is only, as it has a regard five exercise to the glory of God, and to, and depends upon Chrift and his righ- their own encouragement to go on in a teouineis; but here is no mention of him course of dependence upon him. and oas the object of faith; and in feveral of bedience to him, amidit all the difficulthe inftances that are produced in the ties and dangers of every kind that furfollowing parts of this chapter to exem- round them in this finful world.

NOTE.  The defcription given of faith in plify it, there is no notice taken of bim, And yet they may all be confidered as fo description of faith, inclusive indeed of many proofs and evidences of the truth the ftrict notion of it, merely as justify- lievers on Chrift, and of its more exten-

Chap. xi.

3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, io that things which are feen were not made of things which do appear.

they pleafed God in their walk before him. (ver. 4. 5, 7.)

3 As to the evidence of things not feen, which is one part of the description of faith, (ver. 1.) though by the light of nature we may justly conclude from the beauty and order of the creation, that there was a first cause of all its wonderful fabric; yet it is by faith in divine revelation, and by this only, as refting merely upon the authority of God therein, that we certainly and clearly know, beyond all that could be fuggeited by natural reason, that the upper and lower worlds, the heavens and the earth, and all things therein, were formed, fashioned, and finished, (xarnerio.9as) by the all-powerful and effective word of God's command *, who in framing their feveral parts, and fetting them in their proper order, faid, Let it be fo, and it was fo., (Gen. i. 7, 9, 11, 15, 24, 30.) He spake, and it was done; be commanded, and it stood fast. (Pfal. xxxiii. 6, 9.) And this he did unto the producing of all the visible things of the creation, fuch as the fun, moon, and ftars, the earth, and all the objects of our fenfes, out of a confused chaos, which was created out of nothing, and, being covered with darkne/s, was without form, and void; (Gen. i. 1, 2.) and which chaos itfelf has now no apparent existence; all things being ranged into their due order, and made visible by the invisible power of God. (Rom. i. 20.)

4 By faith Abel facrifice than Cain,

4 As to the other part of the description of faith. offered unto God as the fabstance of things hoped for, (ver. 1.) it was a more excellent by faith in God's appointment of typical facrifices of by atonement +, that Abel, the younger, but pious fon

NOTES.

. Digitized by Google

the word (o hoyos) and the worlds are faid to be made by him; yet the expreffion here used is different from that by which he is denominated; and this word (enua) fignifies a word spoken, but is never used for the perfox of Christ, who is flyed the Logos; and to it is here meant of the word of command, as appears from the places cited in the paraphrafe.

† A late learned writer observes, and supports it with just criticism, that the Greek word, (TAHON) in the comparative degree, fignifies greater, or faller, or more in number, rather than in value, in which laft fenfe it is not used in the whole and fo, if it cannot be certainly gather-New Teftament; and to it intimates that ed from the more general afe of the word, Abel brought more facrifice, to wit, the it may, from the nature of the thing, mincha, or meat-offering, and an animal that Abel's offering was in reality, and in facrifice, which was more than Cain did, God's account, more excellent than Cain's.

Though Chrift is often fpoken of as who brought only the mincha, or meatoffering of the fruits of the earth. Accordingly Abel's offering is called in the plural number his gifts, at the close of the verse; (see Kennicot's discourse on the oblations of Gain and Abel, p. 197. 8, 9.) and in another place he adds, p. 234. The Lord had refpect to Abel, and alfo to bis mincha, or offering, because accompanied with an animal facrifice; but unto Cain, and to bis mincha, or offering, he had not respect, because he brought no animal facrifice. This naturally leads us to conclude that Abel offered with faith in the great facrifice of atonement, and Cain without faith in it;

of

by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God teftifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead, yet speaketh.

Chap. xi,

X

٠4 id

Ľ

4 č.

I.

of Adam, looking forward to the promifed feed, who fhould bruife the ferpent's head, (Gen. iii. 15.) prefented to God a greater and compleater facrifice than his wicked brother Cain, who offered only the mincha, or meat-offering of fuch fruit of the ground as came to hand, (Gen. iv. 3.) in acknowledgment of God, as the Creator and Governor of the world; but offered no atoning facrifice in acknowledgment of his own fin, and need of pardon; while Abel, together with an offering of the beft of that fort of fruit, offered also a bloody facrifice of the firftlings of his flock, with the fat thereof, (Gen. iv. 4.) as a facrifice, which under an humble fenfe of his guilt, and of his needing an atonement, he prefented to the Lord with a believing reference to the Lamb of God, or the great propitiatory facrifice, which Abel's typified, and which the Meffiah would offer for the remiffion of fin; by means of which faith he obtained a teftimony from God in his own confeience, and by fome visible token from heaven *; that he was justified through the righteoufnefs of faith ; God thereby manifeftly declaring, that he approved and accepted of his facrificial oblations, as having a respect first to Abel, and then to his offering. (Gen. iv. 4.) And by means of this faith, (the record of which, as well as of its acceptance, and of Cain's enmity to him on that account, is handed down in the word of God) Abel, though dead many ages ago, instructs us that, ever fince the fall of man, the way of a finner's acceptance with God is only through faith in the atoning facrifice of Chrift; and that the blood of innocent perfons cries to heaven for vengeance to come down on the heads of their murderers, and efpecially of fuch as perfecute them to death for righteoufnefs fake, after the example of wicked Cain, who murdered his brother, becaufe bis works were righteous, and bis own were evil. (1 John iii. 12.)

5 By faith E-5 It was by faith that Enoch, the feventh from noch was tranfla-Adam, was by an extraordinary miraculous exertion ted that he should of divine power and mercy, actually caught up in his not fee death; and whole perfon from earth to heaven, the habitation of found. God's glory, to enjoy him there in a flate of immorbecaufe God had tranflated him: for tality, for which his body underwent a refining change, before his translalike that which the bodies of the faints, that may be tion living Cain knew that Abel's offering was ac. I Chron. xxi. 26. and 2 Chron. vii. 1.) to cepted, and his own rejected; and it was teftify his acceptance of the offering, and most probably by God's sending fire from that justice seized upon the facrifice, inhe afterwards often did in various other for whom it was offered.

was not

NOTE. * There was fome token, by which inftances, (Lev. ix. 24. I Kings xviii. 38. heaven to confume Abal's facrifice, as flead of the finner who offered it, and tellimony, that he pleated God.

6 But without faith it is impoffible to pleafe him :

for he that cometh

to God must believe that he is,

and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently feek him.

tion he had this living upon earth, shall pass through, at the general refurrection from the dead; (1 Cor. xv. 51.) he being thus highly favoured of the Lord, that, like them, (1 Theff. iv. 17.) he might be exempted from dying, which in the Hebrew idiom is called feeing death, or ferfibly undergoing it by fuch a diffolution of this mortal frame, as confifts in a feparation of foul and body, according to the general law which has paffed upon mankind for the first transgression. (Rom. v. 12.) And whatever inquiries and fearches might be made after him, he was no more to be found in this world : The eyes that had feen him, faw him no more; (Job xx. 9.) becaufe God had taken him by a peculiar indulgence to himfelf, to dwell in his immediate prefence on high : For before he was favoured with this miraculous and happy rapture of foul and body up to heaven, he had a divine teftimony in his own confcience, by a private fuggestion or witness of the Spirit; and had afterwards a further public teftimony given to him in the writings of Moles, that, before he was thus translated, he was accepted of God; and had, in an eminent manner of walking clofely in communion with God, and in a courfe of faith, love, and holy obedience, (Gen. v. 24.) been highly pleafing to him, through the promised Meffiah, of whom Enoch prophefied, faying, Behold the Lord come with ten thousand of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, &c. (Jude ver. 14, 15.)

6 But without this kind of faith *, as it was impoffible for Abel and Enoch, fo it is for us to do any thing in fuch a fpiritual and holy manner, as is well pleafing in the fight of God: For whofoever he be that approaches to God in prayer, and in other acts of religious worship, in order to his finding acceptance with him, he ought, and it is abfolutely neceffary for him in the first place, to be firmly perfuaded in his own mind, by that faith which is the evidence of things not feen, (ver. 1.) that, according to divine revelation, there certainly is a God, who, though invisible, has an eternal, necessary, and unchangeable existence, in distinction from, and opposition to, all the

Digitized by Google.

NOT

as well as Abel's faith, had a respect to same nature with theirs, in its regard to the promifed Mefliah, and that therefore the offering of Abel, and the holy walk expressed, but is only to be gathered of Enoch, were teftified to, as acceptable and well pleafing to God; fo it feems their faith, in things pertaining to acto me that the faith here fpoken of, with ceptance with God to eternal life. And an immediate reference to these instances, the whole context forbids our taking this as that, without which it is impossible to to be the Heathens-creed, as some would please God, is to be confidered, together have it.

E. * As I cannot but think that Enoch's, with the belief of his existence, as of the God through Chrift, though it be not from what was faid about the actings of the idols of the heathen, and all that are not by nature God : (Gal. iv. 8.) And he must further believe with that faith, which is the fubftance of things boped for, (ver. 1.) that this infinitely perfect and blefsed God himfelf is, according to his promife to Abraham, (Gen. xv. 1.) the exceeding great reward of, and a bountiful distributer of all the bleffings of providence, grace, and glory, to those who, under a confciousness of their own wants and unworthiness, humbly, earneitly, and perfeveringly feek his face and favour in Chrift with their whole hearts, according to his word, in the diligent use of all the means of his appointment, and in a reliance on his covenant-promifes, for all acceptance with him.

7 By faith as the evidence of things not feen, (ver. 1.) Noab, who found grace in the eyes of the Lord, and was righteous in his account, (Gen. vi. 8. and vii. 1.) and who, like Enoch, walked with God in all holy obedience, fully depended on the truth of the divine admonition, which was given him, (xermation 3545) relating to events, of which there was no prefent appearance; as particularly that, for the wickedness of the people, God would bring a universal deluge to drown the old world, in which he lived; and that, of the whole human race, only he and his wife and three fons, and their wives, who as yet had no children, fhould be preferved alive : (Gen. vi. 12, 13, 18.) And being possessed with a religious awe and reverence of God, (suradonses) and fear of his judgments, he, accord-' ing to his direction, and in obedience to his command, (Gen. vi. 14, 15, 16.) was excited to, and actually did prepare materials, and fit them for, and frame them into a large floating veffel *, for the fafe prefervation, as he believed it would be, of himfelf and his family, confifting only of eight fouls, (1 Pet. iii. 20.) that they might not be fwallowed up in the flood: By which faith of his in the truth and power, justice and mercy of God, as revealed to him; and by his building the ark, in obedience to the divine commandment; as also by his difcourse, as a preacher of righteou/ne/s, (2 Pet. ii. 5.) he both practically and doctrinally condemned the unbelief and difobedience of the reft of the world, that flighted all the folemn warnings, which God in his great long fuffering had given roof, as might be best fuited to float living creatures, and fufficient provisions fteadily on the furface of the water. It for them, that were ordered to go into was a veffel of three hundred cubits in this aik. (See Univerf Hift. book I. p. length, fifty in breadth, and thirty in 103. edit. 1.) VOL. V.

NOTE. * The ark was nearly of an oblong height; and confifted of three decks, or fquare, with a flat bottom and floped stories, capacious enough to hold all the Eee.

being warned of God of things not feen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the faving of his boule; by the which he condemned the world. and became heir of the righteoufnefs which is by faith.

7 By faith Noah,

The Epistle to the

8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he fhould W after receive for th an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he fojourned in the land of promile, as in a ftrange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Ifaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the fame promile.

ven to them by him, and by the ftrivings of his Spirit with them under his ministry, for an hundred and twenty years together; (Gen. vi. 3.) thereby leaving them without excuse, and vindicating the justice of God in bringing fuch a fweeping defolation upon them, for their obstinate and aggravated wickedness: And by his faith in the promifed Mefliah, for the fpiritual and eternal bleffings, which were to be brought in by, and found alone in him, (of which the ark, for the fafety of all that were in it, was an eminent type) he, as to be an inheritor of falvation, was interefted in that righteoufnefs of Chrift, which is received by faith, and imputed for righteoufnefs unto the juftification of all that believe in him, with-(Rom. iii. 21,-26.) out difference.

8 It was by faith that the renowned patriarch Abraham, of whom the Jews boaft, and from whom they derive their pedigree and all their privileges, and who is ftyled the friend of God, and the father of all them that believe, (Jam. ii. 23. and Rom. iv. 11.) when he had a call from God to go forth from Ur of the Chaldees, his own native country, and to leave his idolatrous kindred and his father's house, and every thing that was dear unto him there, (Gen. xi. 31. and xii. 1.) and to remove to another country, which God would fhow him, even the land of Canaan, (Gen. xii. 5.) which he himfelf should receive, in right and title, by the free gift of God, (Gen. xv. 7.) and which his posterity after him, for generations to come, fhould receive in possession, as an inheritance, (Gen. xii. 7. and Alls vii. 5.) that was typical of a better in heaven; It was, I fay, by a noble act of mere faith, that Abraham yielded a chearful obedience to the command of God, as being fully fatisfied, that what God had promised, his faithfulness, power, and goodness, would certainly perform in his own way and time; and thereupon he readily departed from his own country, friends, and relations, and fet out for fome other place, which God might direct him to; though, at that time, he neither knew the way to it, nor what country it fhould be; God, for the greater trial of his faith, and for putting the higher honour upon it, having concealed this from him till after he had left Ur of the Chaldees. (See the note on Acts vii. 2.)

9 It was by faith, that he afterward wandered about, like a pilgrim and stranger, in the land of Canaan, which by this time God had told him was the land that he meant to give his feed for an inheritance, in the promise he had made to him. (Gen. xii. 7.) Here he fojourned as one exposed to difficulties and dangers, but depending on divine protection in a foreign reign conntry, the inhabitants of which were quite different from himfelf, in temper, religion, and manners; he dwelling among them, not in any fettled habitation, but in tents, which were fastened to the ground by ftakes and cords, and were moveable from place to place, as occasions required; and which, under divine direction, he often took down in one place and pitched again in another, for the prefent accommodation of himfelf and family. And after his fon Ilaac, and his grandfon Jacob were born, they lived with him in like tents, and in a like wandering flate; even they, who, as his offspring, were heirs, together with himfelf, of one and the fame promise, which God made to him and his feed. And as this was a lively emblem of the state of all true believers, who are pilgrims and ftrangers on earth; fo the father of the faithful was ' well fatisfied with his condition, as an unfettled fojourner, without any poffession in the land of his pilgrimage, beyond a burying place which he bought of the fons of Helb. (Gen. xxiii. 3, 4, Gc. and xxvi 10. compared with Acts vii. 5.).

HEBREWS paraphra [ed.

to For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whole builder and maker is God. 393

10 For God having faid to him, Fear not, Abraham, I am thy (hield and thy exceeding great reward; and having promifed in an everlafting covenant that he would be his God, and the God of his feed, and that in his feed, meaning the Meffiah, all the nations of the earth (hould be bleffed, (Gen. xv. 1. and xvii. 7. and xxii. 18.) his faith, refting on those gracious words and promiles of a God, who cannot lie, looked further than that earthly inheritance to the heavenly one, which was typified by it; and this he, in the exercise of his faith, most of all defired, ultimately expected, and firmly hoped to enjoy in that better flate, which for its fecurity, privileges, grandeur and glory, regularity and order, largeness and affluence of all sublime riches, honours and delights, may well be emphatically called a city; and which for its itrength, firmnefs, and duration, in opposition to tents and tabernacles, and indeed in opposition to all the cities of this world, that are liable to be overthrown, and will moulder away by length of time, may be faid, with the greatest propriety and eminence, to be built upon folid and immoveable foundations; fuch as the unchangeable purpofe and promifes of God, and the merit and mediation of the promifed Meffiah, whole day Abraham faw, and was glad; (John viii. 56.) the contriver, former, and finisher of which city, as its divine and only architect and directer, is no lefs than the great and bleffed God himfelf, who, by his own infinite wifdom, power, and goodnefs, prepared it from the foundation of the world, to be the habitation of his own glory, and of all Eee 2

The Epi/tle to the

i rt Through faith al'o Sarah herielf received firength to conceive feed. and was delivered of a child when flie was patt age, becaute flie judged him faithful who had promifed.

Therefore 12

all his faints with him for ever; (Mat. xxv. 34.) and to it is a building of God, an boufe, not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. (2 Cor. v. 1.)

11 It was by faith alfo that even Sarab herfelf, (xas aven Sagea) the beloved wife of Abraham, being recovered from her unbelief *, which fhe manifefted . by laughing, when the first heard the promife of her having a fon, (Gen. xviii. 12,-14.) was miraculoufly invigorated, and enabled, beyond all expectation, and all ordinary operations of natural causes, to conceive a male child in the common way of generation; and the was in due feafon fafely delivered of a fon, to whom, as her offspring, the covenant of promifes to Abraham was defigned to be fulfilled ; (Gen. xvii. 21. and xxi. 12.) and by faith fire received this ability to conceive and bear a fon, after fhe had all along been barren and dead, as to any power of this kind before, (Gen. xi. 30. and Rom. iv. 19.) and had now lived (being ninety years old, Gen. xvii. 17.) paft the ufual teeming age. This wonderful ftrength for conceiving and undergoing all the agonies of labour and travail unto the bringing forth of Ifaac, was granted her, not for her faith, as though that were the meritorious cause of it; but by means of her faith, which was graciously owned and honoured, as the trusted in the Lord, that he, to whom nothing is too hard to do, as he told her, (Gen. xviii. 14.) and who is truth itfelf, and had made her a promife of a fon, would faithfully perform it.

12 Therefore, in answer to her's, as well as Abrafprang there even ham's faith, there descended a vast progeny, even from his

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

* When Sarah fift heard the promife Sarah was afraid, as repenting of what of the Lord, the Angel of the covenant, the had faid ; and yet, in the fright, furthat /be /bould bave a fon, the, as well prife, flutter, and hurry of her mind, deas Abraham, might probably take him nied it: But it feems that, upon the to be only fome ftranger of the human whole, and efpecially after the further race, who came with two others that difcovery which the Lord, who fpoke to way : It feems that the did not fee him, the door of the tent being between him and her, when he fpake these words; and as they contained a promife of what appeared to her an impoffibility in her cirherfelf, in a way of deriding it: But when the Lord reproved her for fuch an together with her fallehood, was merciincredulous manner of laughing, by which file perceived that he, who knew what the had done in fecret, was more than a from the loins of Ifuac, the child the afman; and when he backed his reproof terwards conceived and brought forth. with faying, Is any thing too hard for (See and compare the account given of the Lord? At the time appointed will these things in the xviiith and former I return unto thee according to the time part of the xxift chapter of Genefis.) of life, and Sarab (ball have a fon ; then her, had made of himfelf as the true Yebowab, in his conversation immediately afterward with Abraham, fhe believed the promise, as given by him, who was able to make it good : And this is what cumitances, the fecretly laughed within our apolile refers to, without taking any notice of her preceding unbelief, which, fully pardoned for the fake of that promiled feed, the Mefliah, who proceeded of one, and him as good as dead, jo many as the ftars of the fky in multitude, and as the fand which is by the fea fhore innumerable.

÷

13 Thefe all died in faith, not having

HEBREWS paraphrased.

his own fingle perfon by her; and that from him, when he himfelf, being an hundred years old, (Gen. xvii. 17.) was by reason of that great age accounted to be as much patt begetting any children, as though he had been actually dead *. And the prodigious multitude that, in fucceeding generations, proceeded from his loins in a defcent from I/aac, was, to fpeak in a proverbial way, as numerous as the ftars of heaven, according to God's promife to him; (Gen. xv. 5.) yea, as he afterwards expressed it in another promise, (Gen. xxii. 17.) they were like the grains of fand on the fea fhore, which are past all account.

13 All these last mentioned believers, Abraham. Sarab, I/aac, and Jacob +, not only lived by faith, which wife, Gen. xxv. 1. is attempted most combam many years afterwards.-But Mr. Hallet, in his supplement to Mr. Peirce's paraphrafe and notes on this epiftle, iuppofes, and has taken a great deal of pains lity) that Moles's hiftory of Abrabam's marrying Keturab is not fet in the exact chronological order, becaufe he prudently chole to finish the account of Sarab and her fon Ifaac, without interrupting it with the affair of Keturab, which was foreign to this point, but proper to be This writer afterwards taken notice of. likewife gives feveral other inftances in which the order of time is not observed in the facred hiftory, as it frequently is neglected with good judgment in many other authors of note; and by comparing the feveral parts of the narration in Genefis, he concludes that Abraham's children by Keturah were really born before this, which he had by Sarab. Curious elaborate note on this verie; and if his thoughts be admitted, the whole difficulty for reconciling these passages is effectually removed at once.

N

including Abel, Noab, and Enoch : For Enoch did not die, but was travflated, that he fhould not fee death, as had been Lord brought Abraham abroad, and faid, faid, wer. 5.; and though Abel and Noah Look now towards beaven, and tell the OTES. * The refolution of the difficulty died, as well as lived in faith; yet they which arifes from what is here faid con- cannot be referred to by the words all cerning Abraham, that he was as good thefe. For it is expressly faid, ver. 15. as dead, and from his many years after- of the perions here intended, that if they wards (as is generally thought) having had been mindful of that country, from had feveral children by Keturah another whence they came out, they might have bad opportunity to have returned; which monly, by supposing that God miracu- can be applied only to Abrabam and Saloufly renewed the vigour of Abraham's rab. who in their own perfons came out as well as of Sarab's body, through their of Ur of the Chaldees, (Gen. xi. 31.) and faith; and that this continued to Abra- to Ifaac and Jucob, who as reckoned to, and included in their parents, might be faid to come out from thence, in like manner as Fo/eph's two lons, which were born in Egypt, were reckoned to the to prove, (and I think with fair probabi- fouls of the house of Jacob, which came into Egypt, to make up the number of threefcore and ten, (Gen. xlvi. 27.) and as God fpeaks of I/rael's coming out of Egypt, (Hag. ii. 5.) many ages after he brought their anceftors out of that land; and as Abraham and Sarab, to Ifaac and Jacob, were faid in our foregoing context, ver. 9 to be beirs of the fame promile, to which, together with the promile of an innumerable feed like the ftars, and the fand upon the fea-fhore, ver. 11, 12: the promifes, in the faith of which they died, most naturally refer: And as Canaan was an eminent type of beaven, and the Mcfliab was the great and capital bleffing intended in the promile of the feed which fhould fpring inquirers may confult his very large and from Abraham and Sarab; fo the faith in which they, inclusive of Ifaac and Jacob, lived and died, ultimately respected the heavenly inheritance, which they looked for and defired, ver. 10, 16. as alf All thefe is not to be underflood as fo the Meffiah, in whom all nations flould be bleffed : For we are told, Gen. xv. 5, 6. the place here referred to, that the ftars.

Digitized by Google

having received the promises, but having feen them afar off, and were periuaded of them. and embraced and them. confeiled that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

which was their great fupport under all difficulties and trials; but their faith (as all faith that is of a right kind does) held out to the end of their days; and they died in a lively and comfortable exercise of it, with respect to bleffings thereafter to be enjoyed by themfelves in a better world, as well as by their posterity in this; they not having been actual partakers of the great and good things promifed, neither for themfelves, nor for their offspring, as they not only had not received pofferfion of the promifed land of Canaan, nor lived to fee innumerable descendents from them; but, (which their faith principally pitched upon) as they were not yet arrived at the heavenly ftate of bleffednefs and glory, nor had feen the promifed Saviour actually fent into the world, which was the great bleffing ultimately intended and realized by faith in the promifes : But they faw them, efpecially relating to the Meffiah, by an eye of faith, as things which certainly would be accomplifhed, not immediately, but at a great diftance of time to come; and they underftood the meaning of them, and difcerned fomething of the wildom, power, grace, and faithfulness of God, that shone forth in the promises of them : And they were fully convinced and fatisfied in their own minds, that they were the true fayings of God, and should infallibly be fulfilled in due feafon: And thereupon they fiducially and affectionately received, and joyfully embraced them, in their special reference to the Messiah, and to all heavenly happiness through him, as things of the most excellent nature and of the higheft importance: And under this believing view, perfuation, and cordial reception of them, they freely and boldly owned, in word and deed, and were willing to have it publicly known, as is expressly recorded of Abraham and Jacob, (Gen. xxiii. 4. and xlvii. 9.) that they looked upon themfelves, not as at home in this world; but as, in a fpiritual fense, aliens and foreigners, whose hearts and hopes, interest and happiness, were not placed on any of its concerns, and as travellers, like pilgrims, paffing through the earth, even as, in a literal fense, they feverally were in the land of Canaan: All which was a lively emblem of the flate of God's people in this world; every one of them may well fay with propriety, as David did, I am a firanger with thee,

Digitized by Google

Lord, and he counted it to bim for righ- unto bim for righteoufnefs. (Rom. iv. teou/ne/s, which the apoftle interprets 3.) with relation to Abraham's faith in the

NOT E. ftars, if thou canft number them; fo Melliah for justification, faying, Abra-fhall thy feed be; and be believed the bam believed God, and it was counted thee, and a fojourner, as all my fathers were. (Pf. XXXIX. 12.)

14 For they that fay fuch things, declare plainly that they feek a country.

is And truly if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned:

16 But now they defire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; for he hath prepared for them a city.

14 For these ancient faints, and all who, with like faith in the promifes, fpeak of themfelves as ftrangers and pilgrims on the earth, do hereby both professedly and constructively make it manifest to all about them, that, inflead of fetting their affections on this world, or rating their happiness by it, or wishing to have their portion, and to live always in it, they keep in view, defire, hope for, and earnefly feek after their heavenly Father's country, (mareida inignrear) a large and delightful place of abode, which, as his children by spiritual birth, is their own native home, where they shall dwell with him for ever.

15 And to fhew that the country, which they fo diligently fought, and were going to, was not their former home in another country upon earth, It is very certain that, if they had been thoughtful about, hankering after, and defirous to return to Ur of the Chaldees, their original country, and to their dear friends, relations, and poffeffions there, from which, in obedience to God's command, Abraham and his wife, and Ifanc and Jacob (as included in them, and 'afterwards approving of what they had done) chearfully departed to go into the promifed land of Canaan, they had time and liberty enough, and might eafily have found means and conveniences for going back with fafety thither; the way to it being fhort. and cafy; and there being none that would have oppoled the attempt.

16 But now, even while they had opportunity, if they chose it, of returning to the land of the Chaldees, all their defire (as that of every true believer does) tended to, and ultimately centered in, a nobler fettlement in the transcendently more excellent world, that is of a different and fublimer nature, more fatisfying, glorious, and abiding, than that country which they had left, and would not return to; or than that in which they now were ftrangers and pilgrims; or indeed than any other, the most pleafant that can be imagined upon earth; and this is no other than heaven itfelf *, which is an inheritance incorruptible, and

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

* This carries the highest evidence here, and ver. 14. told they did. And that the Patriarchs had a revelation and though Canaan was an eminent type of promise of a future state of glory in hea- beaven; yet that land itself could not ven : For otherwife they could not have be the heavenly country here intended ; looked by faith for a city, whofe builder for this is called a better country, in opand maker is God, as it is faid they did, position to that in which they were now ver. 10. Nor could they have had fuch pilgrims, and which they themfelves ne-notions of it, to engage their earneftly ver did enjoy; and God himfelf is faid defiring and feeking after it, as we are to be the builder and maker of the city, (ver.

397

The Epistle to the

and undefiled, and that fadeth not away. (I Pet. i. 4.) And as their hearts were fo fet upon their heavenly inheritance, in preference to all others; and their faith was the evidence of things not feen, as well as the fubstance of things hoped for; (ver. 1.) fo in confequence of this, though not for any merit in it, God in his infinite condescention and love does not difdain, or think it any difhonour to himfelf, to be in a peculiar and diftinguishing manner their covenant-God and Father; as he would, if he had nothing better to beflow upon them, than the good things of this world; and efpecially, if he left them in afflicted circumstances, fo destitute of those comforts, as they were all their days : But he, on the contrary, counts it his glory to be their God, and to be claimed, and called upon by them, as fuch, and to be publicly known by this title in the world, as appears by his faying to Moses, (Exod. iii. 6, 15.) I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. This is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations. And he has given the fulleft and ftrongeft evidence of his being their God, and owning himfelf to be fo : For, according to his fpecial relation to them, and their faith and hope in him, he has graciously appointed, laid out, framed, and fitted up (nroupers) a glorious city of habitation for their whole perfons, foul and body *, to dwell in with himself, even a building of God, an bouse not made with bands, eternal in the heavens. (2 Cor. v. I. fee the note there.)

17 By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Ifaac : and he that had received the promifes, offered up his only begotten fon :

17 Now, to return particularly to the faith of Abrabam, in fome remarkable after-actings of it under the most difficult and trying circumstances: When Abraham had in the forementioned miraculous manner obtained a fon by his wife Sarah, (ver. 11, 12.) and was, for the most eminent trial and proof of the fincerity and ftrength of his faith, love, and obedi-

Digitized by Google

NOTES.

in this heavenly country; whereas Jeru- faints to eternal life; Matth. xxii. 32. falem, in the land of Canaan. was built (fee the note there) and fo God's prepaby the hands of men; and these patri- ring for them a city, includes a refurrecarchs had no notice given them, that God tion of the body to immortal glory, as would ever prepare fuch a city for their own pofferfion; nor could they have any expectation that they themfelves should ever enjoy it : But their faith looked to vers are spoken of, as expecting to obtain

God of Abraham, and the God of Isac, tion, to wit, the redemption of the body, and the God of Yacob, long after they as the apostle speaks of New Testamentwere dead, is alledged by our Lord him- believers. Rom. viii. 23.

(ver. 10.) which he prepared for them, felf, as a proof of the refurrection of the well as the happiness of the foul in the full enjoyment of God to all eternity. Accordingly, fome of the ancient beliethe beavenly inheritance, which God a better refurrection, (ver. 35.) and has prepared for them that love him. therefore they, being the fons of God, * God's faying to Mofes, I am the might well be faid to wait for the adop-ence.

r. . .

5

HEBREWS paraphrased.

ence, called to offer him up as a burnt-offering to God, and to facrifice him with his own hand, even his beloved fon I/aae *, (Gen. xxii. 1, 2.) He readily obeyed the divine order, fo as in good earnest to refolve, and do what in him lay, to execute it; notwithflanding all that unbelief might have suggested sgainst it ; and, having prepared all things for it, he would actually have flain him, as he was just at the point of doing, had not a counter-command, by an immediate voice from heaven at that very inflant, prevented it. (Gen. xxii. 11, 12.) And this great believer, who had been favoured with, and had embraced and firmly depended upon, the promifes of what great and good things God would do for him and his feed, and especially upon the grand comprehensive promife, which was often repeated, relating to the coming of the Meffiah himfelf through llaac's loins, did nevertheleis, by another act of faith on the fupreme and indifputable authority of God, as commanding it, freely refign and offer him up as a facrifice to the Lord, in the manner before mentioned, even this his dearly beloved and only begotten fon by Sarab, and the only fon of his hopes, according to the promifes, which were to be fulfilled by means of this fon, or not at all.

18 Concerning which very fon, God, to comfort Abraham at his being obliged to part with I/hmael, faid to him, (Gen. xxi. 12.) In Isaac shall thy feed be called; thereby affuring him, that it was not by the fon of Hagar the bond woman, nor by any other 18 Of whom it was faid, That in Ifaac thall thy feed be called :

NOTE.

executing his defign, in offering up Iface; to fuch a fon, would have fuffered him yet he fully intended it, fet about it, and deliberately to defign and go about it; would undoubtedly have dope it, in obe- yet he was fure that God had commanddience to the divine command, had he ed it, and as God has an absolute and not beep reftrained at the critical junc- uncontrollable right to order the taking ture by a voice from heaven; and his away of any man's life by what means or proceeding to far, as he did in the inte- inftruments he pleafes, by the knife, or grity of his heart, was accepted in the the fword, as well as by the peftilence divine confiruction, as if he had actually and other discases, what Abraham did, flain him, as appears from the reason that and was about to do, was every way is given of the prohibition in the next both juftifiable and commendable, as it words; for now I know that thou fear- was a mere act of the highest and most of God, feeing thou haft not with held felf-denying obedience to God's plain thy fon, thine only fon from me. (Gen. command. And this can never be drawn xxii. 9,-12.)-The enemies of divine re- into a precedent, for any one, that has velation have made hideous outcries a- no fuch plain and express command from gainst this command of God, and Abra- God, to take away the innocent life of bam's obedience to it. But though it another, any more than a private perfon would have been indeed a murderous act can be warranted to kill another, within Abraham to facrifice his fon, unlefs he out the authority of the civil magistrate, had received a politive command from who has a right to order his executioner God for it; and though, without this di- to put criminals to death. vine warrant, neither his piety toward Vol. V.

* Though Abrabam was prevented God, nor his natural affection, especially

Fff Digitized by Google -

The Epistle to the

Chap. xi.

19 Accounting that God was able to raile him up, even from the dead: from whence alio he received him in a figure.

20 By faith Ifaar bleffed Jacob and Efau, concerning things to come.

of his own fons; but only by this fon of Sarab the free-woman, (Gal. iv. 30.) that the promife should be fulfilled, which he had made of an innumerable posterity, that should be called to inherit both temporal and fpiritual bleffings, and particularly the great promife of the Meffiah's proceeding from his loins according to the flesh, in whom his fpiritual feed of all nations should be bleffed, through faith in him.

10 But notwithstanding all those heavy damps upon his own love to, and believing hopes about this fon of the promife, and all those feeming inconfistencies with the promife itfelf, which was the most touching and grievous trial of his faith that can be imagined, he made no difficulty of refolving, and attempting to do what God had commanded him, in this most unaccountable inftance; he having reafoned and concluded (Noyloaneros) in the exercise of his faith, that if he were to obey the divine order in facrificing his fon, God, to whom all things are poffible, could eafily raife him up to life again; and, in cafe the promife could not otherwife be fulfilled, would certainly give him back to him by a timely refurrection, even from the dead; from whence, to fpeak in a figurative way, (in magadoin) he accordingly did receive him to life, who had been in the very article of death, devoted to it, and given up as a dead fon without the leaft hope to the contrary: And as he had before received him from his own and Sarab's dead bodies, as it were from the dead; fo this was receiving him again in the fimilitude of a refurrection from the dead, and that as a type of the death and refurrection of Chrift, the only begotten Son of God, and of the refurrection of true believers to eternal life, through him.

20 It was by faith in the promife of God to I/aac himfelf, (Gen. xxvi. 4.) as well as to his father Abroham and his feed, and in the divine fuggestion, which fecretly directed his mind and lips to give forth prophetic predictions to his two fons *, that he first,

Digitized by GOOGLE

NOTE. * Though it must be acknowledged, to, God's declaration to Rebecca, that that Rebecca's artful and fallacious ma- the elder should ferve the younger, (Gen. nagement, to obtain the bleffing for ja- xxv. 23.) defigned to blefs E_{fau} , as the cob. (Gen. xxvii. 6,-24.) was by no firft-born, but through deception bleffed means infifiable, or fit to be imitated Jacob, inftead of him; (Gen. xxvii. 21, in any other cafe; yet God over-ruled it, -29.) yet he might blefs him with faith in his infinitely wife and holy providence, in the promife, which God had made to for fulfilling his own gracious purpole and him/elf, that he would make bis feed promife relating to Jacob, as he did the to multiply, as the flars of heaven; and confpiracies of the Jews against Christ, that in his feed should all the hations of for bringing about the great work of re- the earth be bleffed; (Gen. xxvi. 4.) and demption by him, Acts ii. 23. And he might blefs Jacob, as firmly believing though Ifaac, either not having heard, that the immediate impulse he was un-or not understood, or not duly attended der to bleis the ion then before him, was indeed though

21 By faith Ja-bleffed

cob, when he was both the fons of Jofeph; and wor

upon the top of a dying.

fhipped his ftaff.

HEBREWS paraphra [ed.

though unwittingly as to the perfon he was then fpeaking to, pronounced, according to God's own fovereign determination, the chief bleffing upon Jacob his younger fon, which naturally belonged to the firstborn, and included fuch as were both temporal and fpiritual; and afterwards, he, by the fame prophetic fpirit, pronounced only the bleffings of this world upon E/au; both which benedictions related to things, which he believed would take place upon their refpective offsprings for generations to come, and which were accordingly fulfilled in covenant-mercies to Jacob, and temporal ones to Elau.

21 As Jacob, the covenant-fon of I/aac, lived, fo he died, in an exercise of faith on the promises of his God, who, by the angel of the covenant, had been with him all his life long, and redeemed him from all evil, and who he believed would bring his pofteleaning rity to the land of Canaan, and fulfil his promites to them. (Gen. xlviii. 15, 16, 21.) It was by this faith, that the venerable patriarch, when, through the infirmities of extreme old age, he was very feeble, and drew near to the grave, prayed in a folemn manner for, and by a prophetic fpirit foretold, bleflings that fhould come upon his grand-children, Ephraim and Manaffeh, the two fons of Jyjeph ; and defignedly croffing his hands, under divine direction, fo as to lay his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, the younger brother, who was placed at his left, and his left hand on the head of Manaffeb, the elder, who was placed at his right hand, he pronounced a bleffing upon each of them, diffinctly declaring, in humble confidence, that God would blefs them, that though both should be great, the younger should be greater than the elder; (Gen. xlviii. 13,-20.) and fo it was in the event, as it afterward appeared at the numbering of the tribes, when Epbraim's was found to indeed from God, and that God would Jacob's bleffing was that of the cove-certainly confer the bleffing which he nant-birthright in Abraham's family, was prompted to pronounce upon him in which included not only a promife of the a way of prayer and prophecy: Accord- land of Canaan, but also of the Meffiah, ingly, when he afterwards found, that, and of the fpiritual bleffings which fhould contrary to his own intention, he had be derived from him, as that feed of Ableffed bin, yea, and he fiall be bleffed. profane perfon, which intimates an ir-(Gen. xxvii. 33.)—This prophetic bene- religious temper in him, for felling this diction included fpiritual, as well as, birthright. (Heb. xii. 16. fee the note yea, more than temporal bellings: For there.) Accordingly, the bleffing, Jacob's whole life was full of troubles, which Jaca atterward pronounced upon and neither he, nor his potterity in gene- him. Gen. xxvii. 39, 40. was merely of ral, had for much affluence of temporal a femporal nature. advantages as Efau and his feed had. But

> NO т

Fff2 E.

Digitized by Google

bleffed Jacob inftead of E_{Jau} , his faith braham in whom all nations flould be entirely acquiefced in it, laying, I have bleffed. And therefore T_{fau} is called a

he

22 By faith Jofeph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of I(rael; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 Ey faith Mofes, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they faw be was a probe greater than Manafeb's i (Numb. i. 32, 35.) and Jacob folemnly worshipped God *, in the most reverent posture he could, by bewing his head, and fupporting himself on the top of his staff.

22 To take notice of only one inflance more in the period of time from Nogh to Moles, It was by faith in the promife made to Abraham, (Gen. xv. 13, 14.) that Joseph, one of the darling fons of Jacob, whole faith held out amidit all the advertity and profperity he had paffed through in Egypt, when he drew near his end, recollected and reminded his brethren, for the encouragement of their faith, which is the evidence of things not feen, (ver. 1.) that though he, who had been their protector, was foon to die, and after his decease they would be exposed to great hardfhips and opposition from the Egyptions; yet God, in his appointed time, would furely visit them in his faithfulness and kindness, and bring them out of the land of Egypt, and carry them unto the land, which be sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob : And as he firmly believed this ; fo, in teftimony of his faith concerning it, (Gen. l. 24, 25.) he firicity charged his brethren, taking an oath of them, to embalm his dead body, and preferve it in a fafe repolitory, while they should continue in Egypt; and that whenever God (hould bring them out, as he furely would, from thence, and give them poffeffion of the promifed land, they should then take special care to carry his bones along with them, and bury them there; which order he gave in token of his hope of a refurrection to the eternal inheritance, of which the land of Caanan was a fignal type, as well as that they would certainly be put into poffession of that land.

23 When, by the good providence of God, Moler, that great and eminent lawgiver, was born, who was to be a remarkable type of Chrift, as the great ruler and deliverer of Ifrael, and the prophet which the Lord their God would raife up unto them, (Acts iii. 22.)

Digitized by Google

NO

This paffage is quoted from Gen. slvii 31. which we translate. If rack bowed him/eif upon the bed's bead. But as the Hebrew word ($\exists R \supseteq$) rendered bed, fignifies, according to different pointings, a bed, or a flaff, the apoftle (peaks of it as a flaff, and to it flands in the verifons of the Syriac and the Seventy; and it feems from all circumflances moft natural to take it in this fenfe: For, according to the hiftory, I/rac?'s bowing him/elf in a way of divine adoration, here fpoken of, was before he was fick, and before he blefied fo/epi's fons, both of per

T E. which are expressly faid to be after that and some other things, Gen. xivil. 31a and xivill, 1, Stc. And therefore hey most probably, was fitting either on him bed-fide, or on a couch, or in a chain, under the infirmities of decrepid old agen, which, in the whole, amounted to an hundred and forty-feven years; Gon. alvis-28.; and that he might pay his adorations in a bowing posture, he imported himafelf by leaning on the top of his walking fast, as not being while to do it flanding; or kneeling.

Chap. xi.

the king's commandment.

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

per child: and they 22.) It was by faith that his parents, the father conwere not afraid of carring with the mother, concealed his birth, and kept him in some private place, till he was a quarter of a year old, waiting for a convenient opportunity to dispose of him in such a way, as God might direct them to, for the prefervation of his life in those perilous days. This they attempted by laying him in a fort of cradle, or open cheft, made of bulrushes, and plaiflered with flime or pitch to prevent the water's loaking into it; and then lodged it in a cluften of flags, which grew on the brink of the river; where Pharaob's daughter providentially coming, and feeing his beauty, and hearing his cries, was moved with compatition towards him, and took care of him, as though he had been her own child. (Ex. ii. 1,-10,) That which influenced his parents to caft him upon providence, in this manner, for his prefervation was, because his countenance firuck them with admiration. and engaged their tendereft affection to him, when they observed that he was an extraordinary beautiful child #, and very promiting, by his furprifingly amiable afpect, for fome great eminence in his day; and to might prove the happy inftrament of I/rael's deliverance out of their hard bondage, which they beliewed would certainly be brought about by fome Hebrew, whom God would raife up for that glorious purpose, according to his promiles; and by means of this faith, and their fearing God rather than man, they, like the religious midwives, (Ex. i. 17.) were not afraid to run the rick of their own lives, by endeavouring to fave the life of this fon, and fo expofing themselves to the wrath of Pharaob for difobeying his barbarous edict, which he issued out +, commanding the midwives and all his people to deftroy every male that fhould be born of the Hebrews. (Ex. i. 15, 16, 22.)

24. When

exceeding beautiful or comely child, and prevail against the counfel of the Lord, in Acts vii. 20. Moles is faid to have been whole kingdom rules over all; to he took form, with an uncommon luftre in his way or other relaxed, or defeated; for countenance.

children that fhould be born to the He. the time of his being fent to bring them leis, executed, as far as poffible, with old, as we are informed, Exod. vii. 7. the stmost watchfulnels and feverity;

NOTES.

A proper child (arready) fignifies an yet as no instituty or power of man can esceeding fair, (arrises to Gew) which, care that the blood-thirfly defign thousd literally rendered, as we have it in the not be brought to pais in cutting off Momergin, figuifies fair to Ged; and may fer: And it is evident that afterwards, intimate that he was fair in the fight of by the over-raling providence of God, God, or was of fome divinely beautiful this commandment of the king was fome otherwife the Ifraelites could not have + At the time of Mofer's birth, Phase fo prodigiously increased, as they did, saeb's cruel edict for killing all the male- from the time of the birth of Mofes to brews, was in full force, and was, doubt- out of Egypt; he being then eighty years

Digitized by GOOGLE

24 By faith Mofes, when he was come to years, refuled to be called the fon of Pharaoh's daughter;

24 When this famous Moles himfelf grew up to maturity of stature, age, and understanding, and to great attainments in wifdom, learning, and dignity, and to became every way truly great, (usyus) by the time he was forty years old; (AAs vii. 22, 23.) It was by faith in the promifes made to Abraham, I-(aac, and Jacob, his covenant ancestors, and in the invifible things of a better world, that he bravely defpiled and rejected the honours and advantages, even to his probably fucceeding to the Egyptian crown, that might arife from being looked upon, owned, and treated, as the adopted fon of fo great a princefs as Pharaob's daughter: (fee the note on Acts vii. 23.) And he was defirous to be known by the defpicable name of an Hebrew, notwithstanding all the hardships and difgrace, which that people were then fubject to, rather than to abandon their God and their religion, and to be fpoken of and regarded under the high pompous title of her fon: He accordingly quitted the court, and all its magnificence, and made the concerns of his afflicted brethren his own, as one who determined to take his lot with them :

25 Renouncing, with a generous difdain, all those tempting allurements to flesh and fenfe; because, in the exercise of his faith, he rather chose to undergo the severest fufferings and troubles with God's own peculiar people in their oppressed and calamitous circumstances, than to gratify the flesh with an enjoyment of all the grandeur, affluence, and fensial pleafures of a pompous, idolatrous, and luxurious court, which were all defiling, uncertain, fading, and perishing; which could be but of very short continuance, and could not be indulged without finning against God, and thereby exposing himself to everlasting wrath and ruin.

26 Such was his faith in the Meffiab, who fhould fpring from the feed of Abraham, and be their Saviour, that, upon deliberately weighing, and putting in balance the worft of religion against the best of this world, he formed this account, that the heaviest contempt, fcorn, and derifion, with all the perfecutions that naturally follow them, and were actually endured by the I/raelites, or that could be inflicted upon himfelf for the fake of Chrift and his faith in him, whom God would anoint to be the only fpiritual and effectual Redeemer of his people, and on whom all their reproaches and fufferings ultimately fell, as he, their head, accounts them to be done to himfelf: (Acts ix. 4.) All this, what foever others might think of it, he effeemed to be a richer gain for the glory of God, and the good of his church and of his own foul, than the

Digitized by Google

25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of fin for a feason:

26 Effeeming the 'reproach of Chrift greater riches than the treafures of Egypt: for he had refpect unto the recompence of the reward. the greatest emoluments, products, and advantages of the fruitful land, and splendid court of Egypt could be to him, were they all in his own poffeffion : For he by faith (areas) looked off from all those perifhing riches, on one hand, and beyond all those temporal hardships, on the other; and found the fweeteft fupport in his hope of, and looking forward to, the immortal crown of glory, which he realized, as referved for him in heaven; and which he well knew would amply recompence, and abundantly more than make amends for all the reproaches, wants, and fufferings he might undergo, for the lake of a good confcience, in his purfuit of it *.

27 It was accordingly by faith in the command and promife of God, when he fent him to deliver his people out of the land of the Egyptians, and to bring them to a good land, (Exod. iii. 6,-12.) that, about forty years after + he had fled from the face of Pharaoh, into the land of Midian, (Exod. ii. 15. and vii. 7. compared with Acts vii. 23,-30.) he re- . turned to Egypt; and when Pharaob, under the heat of refentment at the many plagues which had been inflicted, faid to him, Get thou from me, and fee my_face no more; for in that day thou feest my face thou shalt die, Mojes was to far from being terrified, that he replied with an unfhaken boldnefs of faith, Thou bast spoken well. I will see thy face again no more; (Exod. x. 28, 29.) and thereupon he immediately departed from the prefence of the king, and foon after took his final leave of Egypt, to lead the children of I/rael out from thence, defencelefs and 27 By faith he forfook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured as feeing him who is invifible.

N O T E S.

ance in the land of Canaan, as fome heaven : And this is called the recomwould suggest: For Mojes had no di- pence of reward, not as though it were vine warrant to support his faith and merited, or earned, by any one's faith, hope of perfonally receiving this reward; fufferings, and obedience; but as it is a that land; but in cafe he had, he could wildom and grace freely beftows, for not have expected greater treasures of an Christ's lake, upon his fuffering fervants. earthly nature there, than he formerly in a return of bleffings upon them, that had the fairest prospects of in Egypt; over-balance all their fufferings for him, and he could never think it worth his while to expose himself to the greatest ter all their trials are ended. (See Rom. reproaches and perfecutions for the fake of an exchange of these. This recompence of reward therefore, which he had a respect to, is evidently the same with the city, which has foundations, and the rach having heard of it would flay him; heavenly country, that are spoken of, (Exod. ii. 14, 15.) but to his second dever. 10, 16. as what his believing ancel- parture from Pharaoh, after he was ient tors had looked for, and defired; and fo to deliver the children of Ifrael out of

* This refpect to the recompence of revelation of, and had faith and hope re-reward could not relate to an inherit- lating to, a future flate of happiness in and he was never fuffered to enter into rich gift of God, which he in infinite. and are chiefly conferred upon them afvi. 23. and viii. 18.)

+ This relates not to his first flight from Pharaoh, when, upon his having flain the Egyptian, he feared that Phashews that he, as well as they, had a their bondage, Exod. vii. 2.

Chap. xi.

and unarmed as they were ; he not being in the leaft daunted by the fevere threatnings of that haughty monarch; no, nor afterwards by his mad fury, when, like an enraged and mercilels tyrant, he followed the Israelites with a powerful army to revenge himfelf upon them in their utter destruction. Nothing of this kind moved him, or made him afraid of going forward in obedience to God's command; (Ex. xiv. 15.) but he was bold and courageous, amidit all difficulties and dangers, while a mighty purfuing hoft was behind them, and the Red-fea before them; and in the firength of his faith he faid to the people, Fear ye not; fland flill, and fee the falvation of the Lord: (Exod. xiv. 13.) For he endured the terrors of all outward appearances of unavoidable defruction in that fituation, with ftedfaft courage and refolution, (mersents) as having as realizing views of God by faith, and as firm a dependence upon his goodnels, power, and faithfulnels, for deliverance, as though with his bodily eyes he had beheld him vifibly prefent, to fave them by his out ftretched arm, whom, in his own nature and perfections, which are all spiritual, no man bas seen, nor can see. (I Tim. vi. 16.)

28 It was by faith in the promises, that God would bring his people out of Egypt, and in the promifed Mefliah, who should spring from them, as also in the divine inflitution of a flanding, fignificant ordinance, that Moles himfelf, in obedience to God's command, observed all the rites of the paschal supper, and obliged the people of Ifrael to do the fame, which was afterwards to be a commemorative facrifice, through all generations, of the Lord's paffing over the houses of the children of I/rael, when he fmote the Egyptians; and was prefigurative of the redeeming death of Chrift, who as the Lamb of God, without blemish and without spot, was our passour facrificed for us: (1 Cor. v. 7. and 1 Peter i. 18, 19.) And, by a like exercise of faith, he ordered that another * temporary ordinance, annexed to the former, fuitable to the then peculiar circumstances of things, printing, field and an an an an internet very year; but we define that in the blood cacy of which to our own falvation de- where elfe, read of fprinkling the blood pends upon its being applied to us; yet of the pafebal lamb, either as appointed it feems to have been but a temporary of God, or practified by the Ifraelites af-ordinance, fuited to the then prefent oc- ter this time. cation: For the feast of the passever is

NOTE.

* Though fprinkling the blood of the spoken of, as a perpetual memorial and paschal lamb be fignificant, in a typical ordinance throughout their generations, reference to the application of the blood Exod. xii. 14, 24,-27. and was accordof Chrift, which is called the blood of ingly kept in the moft folemn manner e-fprinkling, Heb. xii. 24. and all the effi- very year; but we neither here, or any 28 Through faith he kept the pais-over, and the fprinkling of blood, left he that de-ftroyed the firstborn, should touch them.

20 By faith they paffed through the Red-fea, as by dry land: which the Egyptians affaying to do, were drowned.

ż

5

5 2

ŝ

ž

ţ

1

Ł,

HEBREWS paraphrased.

things, should be carefully observed according to the command of God, namely, that the blood of the paichal lamb fhould be fprinkled upon the lintels and door-posts of the houses of the children of Itrael, for their protection from the deftroying angel, to the end that (112) when he was cutting off all the first-born of Egypt, both man and beaft, and fhould fee the blood upon the houses of the I/raelites, he might spare the first-born of both forts that belonged to them. (Ex. xii. 7, 12, 13.)

29 To conclude the account of the wonderful effects of Moles' faith, which brings the whole affair of I/rael's deliverance out of Egypt to its final and happy period, It was principally by means of his faith, as depending upon the power of God to make good his word of promife, in a way of obedience to his command, that when he ordered him to lift up his rod and firetch out his hand over the fea, he did fo; * and thereupon the Lord, in a miraculous manner, caused the sea to go back by a firong east wind all that night, and divided its waters, in fo much that the Israelites, encouraged by this aftonishing appearance of God for them, followed their leader, and went after him into the midft of the Red fea, as upon dry ground; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left, (Ex. xiv. 16, 21, 22.) 'till they all paffed over from the Egyptian to the Arabian thore, without the lofs of one foul among them, (fee the Universal History, Vol. I. page 505, bc. in the note) which the Egyptians, Pharaob, and his huge holt of chariots and horfe-men, attempting to do, as vainly prefuming without a divine warrant, which Moles had, that they might fucceed therein, as well as the Ifraelites, were overwhelmed with the waters, and drowned NOTE.

* They paffed through the Red-fea, Lord to filence their fears, and upon relates to the children of Ifrael, who their feeing the waters miraculoufly diwere spoken of in the preceding verse; but their passing through it by faith, I the rod in it, ver. 13,-16. their faith am ftrongly inclined to think relates chiefly, if not only, to Moles' faith, rather than to their own: For it is only the eminent effects of bis faith, that the apostle speaks of all along before, from ver. 24. down to this verse, none of which exceeded, if any of them equalled this; and the generality of the Ifraelites are represented on this very occasion, as exceffively unbelieving and murmuring, and no way commendable for their faith, whatloever lome few amongst them, fuch as Caleb and Jofbua, might be. (See Exod xiv. 10,-12.) And yet upon what Mofes further told them from the VOL. V.

vide at his firetching out his hand with was to far revived as to encourage them to venture into the broad open channel of the fea after him, who probably entered into it first as their leader: But then the deliverance was wrought, rather in answer to his faith, than theirs, in their paffing through the Red-fea .----This was called the Red-fea, not from any redne/s of its waters or fand, as fome imagine; but it took that name from its washing the borders of E/au's country, who was called Edom, which fignifies red. (See Wells's Geography of the Old Teltament, Vol. II. p. 90,-95.)

drowned by the fea's returning to its firength. and covering them, as foon as Moles Aretched forth bis hand over it again, by a fecond command, which the Lord gave him fo to do; and there remained not fo much as one of them alive; (Ex. xiv. 23,-28.) which was a just retaliation for the edict, that ordered all . the male children of I/racl to be drowned. (Exod. i. .22.)

30 To add another particular, or two, of the eminent fruits of faith, It was by means of the faith of Joshua, Caleb, and others, (in the afterwards more believing generation than the former had been) whereby they depended upon the promife, power, and veracity of God for giving them poffeffion of the land of Canaan, that when, according to his command, the priefts on the feventh day blew with the trumpets of rams horns, and the people gave a loud fhout, the walls of Jericho, a fortified city, miraculoufly fell down flat to the ground, not by any efficacy in the blowing and shouting themselves, or by any human force whatfoever; but merely by the immediate nower of God, which was exerted for that purpofe, at the very inftant of this appointed fignal; and a breach was thereby made wide enough for the army of I/rael to go ftraight forward, and enter into the city, and take it without obstruction. (See %/0/h. vi. 1;-20.)

31 It was by faith in the God of Ifrael, as the Lord of heaven and earth *, who had given the land of Canaan to his favourite people, that Rahab, though the was a Gentile, and had been (πo_{evn}) a whorish woman, escaped, together with all her family, the general flaughter which was made of the NOTE. tween man and man; but it was no life. Yet it appears to me that her faith

Here it may be proper to observe, sons, who stand in this list. And though, That the efficious lie, which Rahab the as Rahab was afterwards incorporated harlot told for preterving the fpies $\frac{y_0}{h}$, with the church of Ifrael, and married iii 4, -7, was the effect, not of her faith, to, and by that means became herfelf but of her finful dread of the king's one of the anceftors of the Meffiah, (Mat. wrath. This lie of her's was by no i. 5.) we may well fuppole, that then, means juftifiable in any confidency with at leaft, the repented, and believed in the eternal law of truth, and the confi- him for the pardon of this and all her o-dence that under the best meintained by the start of the start o dence that ought to be maintained be- ther fins, and for juftification to eternal more to our apofile's purpose to take any here spoken of, and proved to be sincere notice of this, in a difcourfe about the by her care of the fpies, related not to excellent and wonderful effects of faith, her fpiritual and eternal falvation; (fee than it would have been to mention the the note on James ii. 21.) but only to prevarication and falfehood that were the temporal lafety of herielf and family, used for imposing upon Ifaac, to procure as the really believed, according to the his bleffing for Jacob instead of Efau, report the had heard, that the Jebowab (see the note on ver. 20.) or than to have of Ifrael was the God of heaven above, mentioned the finful infirmities, that and in the earth beneath, and had given were mixed with the faith of other per- them that land. (Joth. ii. 9,-13.)

reft

31 By faith the harlot Rahab pewith rithed not them rhat believed not, when the had received the fpies with peace.

30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compaffed about feven days.

408

32 And what

and

and

and shall I fay more?

for the time would

Jephthae; of David allo, and Sa-

Gideon,

Barak,

Samion, prophets:

HEBREWS paraphrased.

reft of the inhabitants of Jericho, (Jofh. vi. 21,-25.) that obstinately difregarded, and rebelled against, though their hearts melted and were filled with terror at, the credible accounts which they, as well as Rabab, had heard of God's wonderful appearances for I/rael, and of his having affured them, and confirmed it by the miraculous deliverances and victories he had already given them, that Jericho, together with the reft of the land, should be put into their possefion : (Jo/b. ii. 9,-11.) And when, notwithflanding all this, the Canaanites, through their difobedience and unbelief, fought to deftroy the two fpies, which Jo/hua fent to take a furvey of the flate of things among them, this pious woman gave evident proof of the fincerity and power of her faith, by receiving those mellengers into her house, and entertaining them in a kind and friendly manner, and taking care of them, that they might not fall into the hands of their enemies, who, by order of the king of Yericho, made flrict inquiry after them, that they might apprehend and kill them, or deliver them up to him. (Jo/b. ii. 1,—7.)

32 And what further inflances of the power and triumphs of faith need I add after all these that have been already infifted upon? It would be almost endfail me to tell of lefs to recite, and enlarge upon the many others, that of might be named. I shall therefore only just mention ōf of fome of them, which from the facred hiftory ye may eafily recollect: For it is more than my time, and the defigned limits of this epille would admit of, to muel, and of the go into a particular narrative of the faith of Gideon* and its wonderful effects, who believed and obeyed the command of God to him, to throw down the altar of Baal, and cut down the grove that was by it, and build another altar to the Lord his God, as alfo to engage, with only three hundred men, the vaft ar-

N are not recited just in the order of time noble effects of faith were found in one in which they lived, that being of no or other of the Old Teftament-faints; and importance to the apoftle's argument: the apoftle's promifcuoully fetting down For Barak lived before Gideon, and feveral perfonsall-together by name, with fore David; nor are the effects of their reciting the products of their faith in a faith laid down in the following verses, cluster of them, with only just mentionwith any exact reference to them in the ing them, was admirably fuited to give fame order, in which he has here named us the more fuiking and affecting view them, as though the first of these effects were to be applied to the faith of the first these various fruits of it, and was found of these perfons, and the next to the se- among fo many believers; leaving it to cond, and fo on; nor are they all to be our own thoughts to enlarge upon them confined to these particular persons, much as in the paraphrase. lefs are they all to be afcribed to any one

Ggg2 т 0

* The perfons mentioned in this verse of them. It was sufficient that these Samfon before Jepththa, and Samuel be- an intimation of many more; and then of the efficacy of faith, as it appeared in my

The Epifile to the Chap. xł.

my of the Midianites, confifting of an hundred thirty-five thousand; in confidence of God's promile of , victory, which was miraculoufly obtained only by the blowing of trumpets, breaking of pitchers, and carrying lamps, and giving a fhout, according to the divine command, faying, The [word of the Lord and of Gideon. (Judg. vi. 14, 25,-27. and vii. 17,-25. and viii. 10.) And the faith of Barak, who, depending on God's promife by the prophetefs Deborah, obtained with only ten thousand men a glorious victory over the vafily fuperior and formidable army of Jabin, the Canaaniti/h king, commanded by Siferah. (Judges iv. 4, 7,-16.) And the faith of Samfon, who, being the judge of I/rael, believed the Lord would be with him when his fpirit came upon him, as a fpirit of might and courage, and enabled him to flay thirty Philiftines, and afterward, three thoufand of those enemies to the flate and to God himself, at his death. (Judges xiv. 19. and xvi. 27,-30.) And the faith of Jephtha, who believed that God, who had delivered I/rael from other enemies, and whole spirit came upon him, as a spirit of courage, would drive out the Ammonites before him; and the Lord delivered them into his hands, infomuch that they were entirely fubdued. (Judges xi. 23,-33.) And the faith of David, the man after God's own heart, and the most excellent king of I/rael, who in times of the greatest danger trusted in the promifes of God to bring him to the throne; and all along afterward, generally speaking, to his dying day, maintained a firm and humble dependence upon the Lord to fulfil his covenant with him. (2 Sam. xxiii. 1,-5.) And the faith of Samuel, that eminent prophet, who believed that there should be a performance of " every thing which had been told him from the Lord, whether in a way of judgment or mercy, and that miracles should be wrought in confirmation of it, which accordingly came to pass, (I Sam. xii. 16,-25.) And the faith of other holy prophets, too many to be particularly specified, which is recorded in the writings of the Old Teltament, both with relation to the great things that fome of them did, and others bravely fuffered, under the power of it.

33 As to what great things they did, Some of them, by means of their faith, which animated them in the caufe of God, reduced many nations into fubjection to Ifi ael, according to the promifes made to them; fuch as Jo/bua, who fubdued all the kingdoms in Canaan, and David, who fubdued the Moabites, Syrians, and Edomites, and other nations round about. (Jo/b. viii. 1, 2. and 2 Sam. viii. 2, 6, 11, 12, 14.)

Digitized by Google

33 Who through faith fubdued kingdoms. wrought righteoufnefs, obtained promifes, ftopped the mouths of lions,

14.) Others of them, from a principle of faith, not only performed acts of moral righteoufnefs in their private capacities, but also ruled righteoufly in their public characters, as did Samuel, while he judged I/rael, and could appeal to the people for the equity and impartiality of his government; (1 Sam. vii. 15, -17. and xii. 3.) and David, who in his public administration difcountenanced every kind of iniquity, cut off all wicked doers, and fet his eyes upon the faithful of the land, that they might dwell with him and ferve him. (P/. ci. throughout.) Others of them, by means of their faith in the promifes, which God gave them of his remarkably appearing for them, and doing great things by them *, obtained the actual accompli/hment of those promises. Others of them, through faith in God, as the only living and true God, defeated and put 'a itop to the rage of devouring lions, as Daniel did, when, for his fidelity to his God, he was caft into the lions den, but suffered no harm; (Dan. vi. 22, 23.) and as David flew one lion, and Benaiab another. (1 Sam. xvii. 35, 36. and 2 Sam. xxiii. 20.)

34 Others of them, by means of their faith, as trufting in the Lord, and committing themfelves to his fovereign disposals in the discharge of their duty, restrained and bound up the force and fury of flaming fire, as effectually for their own prefervation from it, as if it had been actually quenched; an eminent initance of which we have in the three young men, Shadrach, Melhach, and Abednego, who, for their refolutely refufing to worship the golden image which Nebuchadnezzar had fet up, were caft into the burning fiery furnace, seven times botter than it was wont to be made, and, after having continued for fome time in it, they came out unhurt; infomuch that not a bair of their heads was finged. (Dan. iii. 13,-27.) Others of them, through faith in the divine protection, as attending the use of proper means, retreated, and got away from the reach and power of the fword of cruel tyrants, who fought to deftroy them, as Elijab did from Jezebel, when the fware that the would take away his life. (1 Kings xix. 2, 3.) Others were recovered from fickness, as Hezekiab was, (2 Kings them; and to David, that he should be fulfilled in their days.

* The promifes here meant feem to railed to the throne of Ifrael; and fo relate to particular promifes, which were their obtaining the accomplishment of the made on special important occasions to promiles of this sort is no way inconfistfeveral perions, fuch as those to Joshua, ent with its being said, ver. 39. that Gideon, and others, that they should they received not the promise: For that gain remarkable and complete victories relates to the grand promife of God's over the enemies againft whom God fent raifing up the Meffiah, which was not violence of fire, efcaped the edge of the fword, out of weakneis were made ftrong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

34 Quenched the

Digitized by GOOGLE

ΝΟΤΕ.

•

(2 Kings xx. 1,---7.) or being weak in themfelves. and in comparison with the forces of their enemies, were neverthelefs, through faith in their God, furprifingly ftrengthened to maintain their ground against them, and even to overcome them : They grew amazingly courageous, bold, daring, and fuccelsful in battle; inftances of which we have in Gideon, (fee the paraphrafe on ver. 32.) and in David, who trufting in the name of the Lord of hofts, flew Goliab. the monftrous champion of the Philistines; (I Sam. xvii. 45,-51.) fo that, contrary to all human probability, they, in the ftrength of their faith drove their enemies back, and forced the numerous armies of the nations of strange languages, and of different manners and religion, to flee before them.

35 As to the weaker lex; Even pious women, by means of their faith, had their dead children miraculoufly reftored to them by a refurrection to the prefent life again, as in the cafe of the widow of Zarephath, whole fon was recovered from death to life by the faith of Elijab, whom the believed to be a prophet of the Lord; (I Kings xvii. 13,-24.) and the Shunamiti/b woman, whole fon allo was brought to life from the dead, by the faith of Eli/ba, and shat according to her faith. (2 Kings xiv. 18,-37.) All these are eminent instances of the noble atchievements of faith, in the great things that were done, and the rich advantages that were obtained by And its power and efficacy is no lefs confpicuit. ous in what others have been enabled to bear and fuffer with holy fortitude, by means of their faith. Many believers were fo ftrengthened and animated by their faith, as to endure the greatest tortures with exemplary patience, for the fake of a good confcience. They freely fubmitted to the feverest torments, even unto death, by various methods of cruelty, (fome of which shall be pointed out, (ver. 37.) as foon as we have taken notice (ver. 36.) of another fort of trials that were fuftained by faith.) These noble martyrs courageously endured the most exquisite punishments to the lofs of life itfelf, and bore up with heroic faith and patience under them *; they rather choosing to fubmit

Digitized by Google

garticular fort of pupilihment, that was tures; fince all the other inflances, re-inflicted, different from those exemplifi- ferred to in this catalogue, might be coled, ver. 37. which, as every one knows, lected from the authentic Scriptures of must needs have been, most of them at the Old Testament. (See Mr. Halled's leaft, extremely tormenting. And I 12- fupplement to Mr. Peirce, whom I have ther choose to take it in this light, than followed in many of the particulars here to have recourse, with the generality of referred to.) interpreters, to the Apocryphal books

* Tortured may refer, not to any for inftances of fome peculiar fort of tor-

412

35 Women re-

erived their dead

railed to life again: .and others were tortured, not accepting ance, might better

tion.

deliver-that they obtain a refurrec-

36 And others

and yea

had trial of cruel

moreover, of bonds and imprisonment.

37 They were ftoned, they were fawn afunder, were tempted, were flain

with the fword :

they wandered a-and goat-fkins, being destitute, aftorment-flicted.

ed :

mockings,

fcourgings,

ľ

è

HEBREWS paraphraled.

fubmit to the worft of them all, than to accept of a release from them upon any difhonourable terms, as having in view and hope a bleffed refurrection to eternal life, which is incomparably better than any deliverance in this world from the greatest pains of death that could be inflicted upon them; and is every way better than a refurrection to a temporal life, which the fons of the two good women, but now referred to, received by means of the faith of their refpective mothers, and of the two prophets.

26 There were others of the faithful Israelites, who endured feveral trials of their faith in various ways. though not unto death; fuch as fcornful, ludicrous infults, and ignominious derifions, (unauyuar) which cannot but grate upon generous minds, like those that Isaac met with from Ishmael, and Elisha from the rude and faucy children, or young men of Bethel. (Gen. xxi. 9. and 2 Kings ii. 23.) And others underwent the fevere discipline of being unmercifully beaten and abused for their profession of, and adherence to their God : fuch as our Lord refers to, faying, Some, that were fent to the Jews, were bealen or fcourged: (Mark xii. 3, 5*.) Yea, over and above all this, there were fome, who, for the fame glorious caufe, were enabled, by their faith, to bear with patience the heavy chains and fetters that were put upon them, and all the hardships of being thrown into jails and dungeons; fuch as Joseph, Samson, Micaiab, and Jeremiab. (Gen. xxxix. 20. and xl. 3. Judges xvi. 21. I Kings xxii. 27. and Yer. xxxvii. 15.)

37 As to those that were tortured to death, not accepting deliverance, (ver. 35. fee the note there) fome of them, through the fledfastness and lively exercife of their faith, gave themfelves up to be ftoned to death for their religion; fuch as Naboth, (I Kings xxi. bout in theep tkins, 18.) and Zechariah, the fon of Jeboiada, (2 Chron. xxiv. 20, 21.) and those referred to by our bleffed Lord. (Mat. xxiii. 37.) Others of them chearfully underwent the cruelty of an execution, by their bodies being fawn through the middle +, a barbarity that was

Digitized by Google

NOTES.

* Trial of fcourgings, (uasirat) is was put to death by the order of King-indeed a different word from that which Manafeb, who was a wicked and inis rendered, Mark xii. 3, 5. beat, and human, as well as an idolatrous prince, beating; (idiigar and digornic) but they as appears from 2 Kings XXI. 5, 6, 16. are fometimes used promifcuously, one And Ferom on I/a. lvii. 2. speaks of it as for the other. (See, and compare the a most certain tradition, that Isaiah was Greek in Matth. x 17. and xxiii. 34. fawn afunder with a wooden faw. Justin Mark xiii. 9. and Acts xvi. 37.) Martyr alio, in his dialogue with Try-† In this manner Yewift tradition pho, (p. 349. Paris edit. 1636.) taxes (according to the Babylonift and Yeru- the Jews with having expunged a paffalem Talmud) fays, the prophet Ifaiah fage out of the Old Testament, relating was too often uled among the ancients. (2 Sam. xif. 31. and 1 Chron. xx. 3.) By the near prospects of fuch terrible deaths, as well as by various other trials, many confessors and martyrs were forely tempted to deny their God, and worship idols, which (had they complied with the offers of their enemies) might have faved them from those calamities: But, through the vigour and stedfastness of their faith, they rather chose to fuffer the worft that men could do to them, than to be guilty of fuch an abominable fin. Some of them, who continued faithful to their God, notwithstanding all the alluring and menacing attempts of the wicked to drive them away from him, were cut off by the fword of tyrants; fuch as the holy prophets of the Lord by the fword of Jezebel, (I Kings xix. 10.) and Uriab, the fon of Shemaiab, who was flain by the fword of king Jeboiakim. (Jer. xxvi. 20,-23.) And there were fome noble confessors, who, though not put to death, were subjected to the greatest hardships in life: They were not permitted to have any fettled abode : but were forced to skulk about, like vagabonds, from place to place; fome clothed with fheep-fkins, and others with goat-skins, or rough garments with the wool or hair upon them, to keep them warm, and defend them against the inclemency of the wind, cold, and rain; fuch as the garments that Elijah and John the Baptift wore, (I Kings i. 8. and Mat. iii. 4.) and they were contented with fuch mean covering, as being deprived of all other common conveniences and comforts of this life, as Elijab was; (I Kings xvii. 6, 7. and xix. 4,---7.) and being preffed with many difficulties, and very ill-treated by various forts of abufes, (zexemeroe) as Moles, David, and multitudes of others were.

The Epistle to the

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy :) they wandered in defarts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

28 They were looked upon, and dealt with by their enemies, as though they were the peft of their day, not fit for human fociety, or to be fuffered to live upon \ earth; but, in reality, they were in themfelves, and in God's account, fuch excellent perfons, that the wicked men of this world did not deferve to have fo great a bleffing among them, as their holy conversation and admonitions, warnings and prayers might have been to them : In judgment therefore to them, as well as for the trial of their own faith, they, under the permiffion, direction, and care of divine providence, wandered about from one place to another for fafety, in obscure and folitary parts of the wilderness, like Elijab who fled

Digitized by Google.

'NOTE.

funder with a wooden faw. And there- ly thought to refer to. fore this is the inftance of that kind of

to the death of Isaiab, whom they cut in death which the apostle is most general-

- 52:22

39 And these all obtained report

having mile:

good through faith, re ceived not the pro-

4.0

2 c^{+}

ú

d

5 1 į

1 ż

z

1 ĩ

2

2

2

3

2

Ŭ

ć

5 ï

HEBREWS paraphra fed.

fled for his life from the cruel hands of Jezebel; (1 Kings xix. 3, 4.) and in uninhabited mountains, like David, who fled for his life from the perfecutions of Saul, while he hunted him, as one does a partridge in the mountains: (I Sam. xxiii. 14,-26. and xxvi. 20.) And fometimes they were forced to betake themfelves to holes and caverns of the earth, the ufual receptacles of wild beafts, to hide themfelves from the wilder rage of blood-thirsty men, as David did to the cave of Adullam, (I Sam. xxii. 1.) and as an hundred prophets of the Lord were hid in caves by Obadiab, and as Elijab concealed himfelf in a cave to efcape the fury of the wicked Jezebel: (I Kings xviii. 4. and xix. 9.) But their faith fupported them under, carried them through, and made them victorious over all thefe feverities and hardfhips.

39 And all these ancient faints and servants of God, as was faid in our entrance on this difcourfe concerning them, (ver. 2.) have received an honourable teftimony from him (magrue, Gevres) in their respective generations, and in the infallible records of the facred oracles, that are handed down to us, relating to the fignal obedience, fufferings, and atchievements, which they were animated to by means of the stedfastnefs and lively exercise of their faith, which not only realized, and truffed in the promifes and providence of God, with respect to their particular circumstances; but many of them, at least, relied upon the great promife of the Mefliah, which they embraced by faith, and had the benefit of, for the falvation of their own fouls; and yet never received the actual accomplishment of this promife itfelf *, fo as to live to fee the exhibition of Chrift in the fleft to fulfil the work of redemption, and introduce all the glories of the gofpel-state, that depended upon it, and were confequent to it.

40 God having provided fome better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

40 The reason why God in his infinite wildom, and fovereign pleafure, did not fulfil the promife of the Melliab in their days was, because he had a foreview to, (reo She famers) and has accordingly provided for us, who believe in Chrift as now actually come in the flesh, this better thing +, than they were favoured fhould be bleffed. This promife, be- mentioned inftances.

NOTES.

caufe it was frequently repeated to him, Vol. V.

* The promise here intended, I take ver. 17.; and this was the grand proto be the eminent and all-comprehensive mile, in which all the promites of grace promife of Chrift, which was made im- center, and on which the faith and hope mediately after the fall to our first ga- of the Old Testament-believers rested, rents, and afterward to Abraham, relat- and which the apottle feems to have had ing to his feed, in whom all nations much in his eye in feveral of the fore-

+ I can by no means think, as iome s called the promifes that he received, would periuade us, that the better thing provided Hhh

Chap. xi.

ed with in their flate of nonage under that preparatory difpensation, to the end that, (10a) as the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did, by the which we draw nigh to God; (chap. vii. 19.) fo their flate of religion, worship, and privileges, (Luke x. 24.) might not be perfected without the exhibition of Chrift in the flefh, which they defired, and we now have been favoured with; nor without his blood, righteoufnefs, and grace, which appear in all their light and glory under the gofpeldifpenfation, that enfued upon his coming for our redemption and eternal falvation, as well as theirs, that, through the grace of the Lord Jefus Christ, we might be faved even as they. (Acts xv. 11.)

RECOLLECTIONS.

What a noble grace, and how extensively useful is faith ! It as certainly believes the reality even of invisible things, merely upon a divine testimony, as if it had ocular demonstration of them; and as effectually gives the objects of hope an exiftence in the mind, as if they were actually prefent. And what an honourable teftimony has God given in his word to the faith of the Old Teftament-faints for the encouragement of ours, who live under a difpensation of much clearer light and grace ! The record of his accepting Abel and his offering, as prefented by faith with an eye to the atoning facrifice of Chrift, points us to the only way of a fmnei's acceptance, as righteous through faith in him, and fo he, being dead, fill bears witness to this important point. What high favour does God shew to faithful provided for us, relates to our fouls being received into heaven, upon their leaving the body, which they suppose the believers, who lived before the coming of Chrift, were not admitted to; but that their death was a ftate of infenfibi-They accordingly interpret those lity. paffages, that fpeak of their being no remembrance of God, nor praifing him in the grave, and the like, as meant of the whole perfon, which may very naturally relate only to the body, much in like manner as the refurrection from the dead, at the great day, fignifies only the resurrection of the body, and not of the foul. And furely the Pfalmift expected an admittion to heaven immediately after his death, when he faid, (Pful. lxxiii. 24,--16) thy counfel, and aftersward receive me to glory. Whom have I in heaven but thee ? and there is none upon earth that the chapter before us, ver. 16. They deingly Mofes, who was not translated as gospel-ftate. Enoch and Elias were, but died, (Deut.

NO T E.

xxxiv. 5.) appeared with Elias in the mount of transfiguration, (Matth. xvii. 3.) which was before the death and refurrection of our Lord, when, as these gentlemen fancy, he awakened the fouls of all the good men that had died before him. Chrift also in the days of his miniftry spake of the angels having carried Lavarus into Abraham's bolom, when he died. (Luke xvi. 22.). And he argued from God's calling himfelf the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, that they were then living in their fouls, as well as fhould have a refurrection in their bodies to eternal life; fince God is not the God of the dead, but of the living; for they all live to him, which fuppofes a continual living exist-Thou falt guide me with ence of their fouls in a flate of happinefs. (See Luke xx. 37, 38. and the note on Mat. xxii. 32.) And our apostle fays, in I defire ucfides thee. My fields and my fired a better country, that is an beaven-beart failt; but God is the firength of ly; wherefore God is not afhamed to be my heart and my portion for ever. And called their God, for he bath prepared for Solomon, freaking of death, faid, Then them a city. (See the note there.) This Jball the dull return to the earth as it, therefore cannot be the better thing that was; and the fpirit fhall return to God he has prepared for us; but it must re-who gave it. (Ecclei xii. 7.) Accord- late to fomething more peculiar to the ful believers, while he executes righteous judgments on the ungodly world ! Unless we realize him by faith as the only living and true God, and as in Christ the gracious rewarder of thole that earneftly feek him, it is impollible for us to pleale him. And how juftly are they condemned and deftroved, like the old world who And how juftly are they condemned and deftroyed, like the old world, who, notwithstanding all God's warnings and long-fuffering, perfist in their iniquities ! But as to those who, like Enoch and Noah, walk with God, as heirs of the righteousness of faith; and, like Abraham, readily obey his commands, when he calls them to leave all earthly kindred and enjoyments, and refign themielves up to his dispolal, He, in performance of his promifes, fometimes works wonders of providence for them, and will furely give them an eternal inheritance in the glorious heavenly city of immoveable foundations, which they are feeking and looking for, and God himfelf is the builder of," and has prepared for them. They may indeed expect to meet with great trials, in the way, though not equal to that of Abra-bam, when he was ordered to offer up his only begatten fon. But what fweet fupports does faith give under them ! And how iooie thould they fit from this world, as pilgrims and itrangers upon earth, that are defiring and travelling toward heaven as their proper home, and incomparably better country than any on earth ! While faith looks at the bleffed recompence of reward, it fortilies us against the fear of man, and all the terrors of death ; and makes us choose Chrift, and even a fuffering lot with his people, rather than all the riches, honours, and pleatures of this transitory world, in hope of a refurrection to eternal lite .- With what fovereign grace, does God give faith to fome of the most infamous characters, like Rahab the harlot, and lave them, while others, like the rest of the people at fericho, are left to perifh for their difobedience and unbelief ! How numberlefs, and in a manner, endleis are the inflances of the power of faith for exemplarily fuffering, as well as doing great things, with ftrength and courage, in the name of the Lord ! And how different is God's account from that of ungodly finners, concerning eminent faints! Though the wicked and profane think them not worthy to live, God often thinks them too great bleffings to continue long, among them. And how much greater helps have we to our faich under the New Tellament-difficulation, than Old Teftament-believers had for theirs ! Chrift, and all the bleffings of the gofpel, are now exhibited in their full light and glory, that we might enjoy the most perfect state of gospel-worship, privileges, and advantages on earth, till the whole fcheme of divine wifdom and lave fhall be finished in heaven. Then we, together with Old Teftament-believers, shall be perfected for ever. O may the ftrength and activity of our faith exceed theirs, in proportion to our richer means and advantages! And may we die, as well as live, in vigorous exercises of it !

H A P. С XII.

The aposlie, from the preceding account of the faith of Old Testament-believers, under all their difficulties, exhorts the Hebrews to conflancy and perfeverance in faith and patience, under all their trials and afflictions; and, fill further to encourage them thereunto, fets before them the more eminent example of Christ, and the gracious design of God in all the sufferings they endure, 1,-13. Recommends to them peace and holinefs, and cautions them against acting a profane part, like Efau, in despising spiritual blessings, 14,-17. And enforces his argument by a confideration of the no ch greater excellency of the New, than the Old Testament dispensation, 18,-29.

PARAPHRASE.

TEXT.

neffes,

WHerefore, fee- CINCE therefore, from the foregoing inflances of ing we also D the excellency and power of faith to support unare compassed a-bout with fo great der, and triumph over all difficulties and dangers, it a cloud of wit- appears that we are furrounded with authentic records of Hhh2 neffes, let us lay afide every weight. and the fin which doth fo eatily befet zz, and let us run with patience the race that is fet before us.

of vast multitudes of believers *, who unite in their testimony to the duty and rich advantage of relying entirely upon the infinite wifdom, power, faithfulnefs, and goodnefs of God, according to his word, how great foever their trials and afflictions were, Let us in imitation of, and animated by, their memorable and encouraging example, as though they were looking on, as eve-witneffes of our behaviour +, be like racers, who ftrip themselves for running ; Let us, in the exercise of faith and felf-denial, cast off the works of darknets, (Rom. xiii. 12.) and all inordinate affections to, and cares about the things of this world, and lay afide all obfervances of the ceremonial law, that entangling yoke of bondage, and every thing elfe that would be a clog upon our holy profession, and a heavy damp upon our fpirits, and hindrance to our progrefs in our Chriftian courfe and tendencies heaven-ward; and let us endeavour with full purpofe of heart, by divine grace, to difentangle ourfelves from the power of original corruption, and of every fin, which, either through natural conflictution under our native depravity, or through our peculiar circumftances, company, and fituations in life, we are most liable and exposed to, and in danger of being overcome by, and which is ever at hand (sumspisator) to embarrafs and hinder us in our fpiritual concerns; and especially the great fin of unbelief, which is the root of all apoftacy, (chap. iii. 12.) and ftands in direct opposition to that eminent faith, which, as has been fhown, (chap. xi.) our famous anceftors exercifed upon all occafions, and particularly when they were called to do and /uffer the will of God in the most trying inftances: And, being thus difencumbered from every load.

NOTES.

and others have observed, was a metaphor often used by ancient writers to fignify a great multitude ; and we have inftances of its being fo used in the facred Scriptures, as in Ifa. xliv. 22. and lx. 8. and Exek xxxviii. 9, 16. It may be taken as a strong figurative expression of great companies, in allufion to the innumerable drops of water that are collected together into a thick and refreshing cloud; and, perhaps, the allufion may be to the cloud of glory that encompais. ed Ifrael, and was a fhining light to them in the wildernefs.

+ Here and in the remainder of this verie, is an evident allufion to the cul. of Judea. (Vide Joseph Antig. hb xv. toni of those days, in which, smong o. cap. 8. iect. i. et de Bel. Jud. lip. i. cap. ther exercises, races were wont to be 2. fect. 8. edit. Hudf.) run; and they that were engaged there-

* A cloud as Grotius, Dr. Owen, in, took care to have as little weight to carry as poffible, and to put off all such clothes, as by their weight, length, or otherwise, might incommode or hinder them in their course (See the note 1 Cor. ix. 24.) It is notorious that these forts of public exercises were very frequent in the Grecian and Roman games, which the Hebrews could icarce be ignorant of; and, in imitation of thele, Herod Agrippa had, before the writing of this epittle, built a theatre and amphitheatre at Jerufalem, and inftituted public games to be celebrated with great magnificence, in honour of Claudius Cæfar. who advanced him to the kingdom

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

load, and hindrance, from temptation without, and corruption within, Let us lay ourfelves out, in the exertion of our Christian principles, unto an exercise of perfevering fortitude, quietness, and patient refignation to the holy and fovereign will of God, under our manifold fufferings; and hold on our way, in running with fpeed, steadiness, and vigour, till we finish our courfe of taith, and of the affliction, and unreferved obedience, which is appointed to us of God, and marked out in his word, and in the example of the forementioned worthies, together with the glorious isflue of it, that we may press toward the mark for the prize of the bigb calling of God in Chriss Jefus. (Phil. iii. 14.)

2 In running this Christian courfe, as ever we would finish it well, Let us, like racers that look forward, be continually (agogavtes) looking off from fin, and felf, and the allurements and terrors of this world, and from every thing that would pull us back and difhearten us; and be looking forward by faith to Jefus, the fuffering Saviour, that we may derive grace and ftrength from him, to enable us to follow his moft perfect pattern, who is not only a matchlefs example, but the efficient Caufe, (aganyos) Leader, Conductor, and Captain of our faith, to begin it in us, and to encourage, increase, carry on and perfect it, and at length to crown it with all its bleffed fruits and effects, in virtue of his meritorious fufferings and death ; who had an affured profpect of the great and glorious things that fhould be brought about thereby, and were the rejoicing of his foul; (John xiii. 31, 32.) fuch as the fatisfaction of divine juffice, and the advancement of the glory of all God's perfections, and of his law and government, with united harmony, in the reconciliation and eternal falvation of the many fons that he should bring to glory ; as also of his own perfonal exaltation, when he himfelf fhould be crowned with glory and honour; (Heb. ii. 9, 10.) all which were propoled to him, for his encouragement and reward, in the eternal covenant between his Father and him, and in the promifes and prophecies anfwerable to it: (Ifa. liii. 10,-12.) In the foreview, faith, and hope of all this joy, he calmly fubmitted to, and with aftonifhing meeknefs and patience endured the agonies and lingering pains of his crucifixion; (fee I Pet. ii. 23. and Luke xxiii. 34.) and, with a truly heroic greatness of foul, he overlooked all the ignominy and reproach of that scandalous fort of death, and all the taunts and jeers which attended it; and thought of them with fovereign contempt, as not worth regarding, though he was therein exposed to

2 Looking unto Jefus the author and finifier of our faith; who, for the joy that was fet before him, endured the crofs, defpifing the fhame, and is fet down at the right hand of the throne of God.

The Epistle to the.

Chap. xii.

to open fhame, as if he had been the moft defpicable, as well as infamous of criminals. And now, in confequence, and as the juft reward of all this, he, in that very nature, in which he fuffered, is exalted, as a triumphant conqueror over fin, Satan, and the world, death and hell, to a flate of perfect reft from all his former fufferings and difgrace, and to the higheft honour, dignity, and authority; which, to fpeak in a figurative way, may be called his fitting down at the right hand of the throne, where God the Father illuftrioufly fhines in all his glory. (See the note on A H s vii. 55.)

3 To help you therefore against discouragements under all your tribulations and apprehenfions of danger, ye ought carefully to confider, reflect upon, and compare all circumstances, (aradogiorar De) relating to the perfon of Chrift, and his extreme fufferings, together with the invincible patience and undiffurbed composure of mind, with which he bore up under, paffed through, and triumphed over, all the opprobrious opposition, and cutting blasphemous infults, that the most malicious and wicked men belched out to. his very face, against his holy and divine perfon and office-authority, doctrine and miracles, all the days of his public ministry, and especially towards, and at his death : Ye ought also to compare these with their glorious fruits to himfelf and to you, and with the infinite difproportion there is between you and him, and between the worft that ever did, or can come upon you, and the inexpreffibly more fevere and complicated trials that met upon him. Let all thefe things be weighed and fet in opposition one to the other, (102 µn) to the end that ye may not fink and fail, be tired out, and lofe all patience and firmnels of mind in your holy profession, so as to think it an irkfome talk; much lefs to throw it up, by reafon of the troubles and afflictions, that may beial you for his fake, who fo willingly fuftained all this for yours.

4 Though the violent feizure of your goods, and the lofs of liberty and property, which ye have chearfully refigned for the fake of Chrift, in hope of a better inheritance in heaven, (chap. x. 34.) are indeed very trying to flefh and fenfe; yet it ought to be confidered, that this, and all your other perfecutions hitherto have been fo far refirained by the indulgence of Providence, as not to coft you your lives, or the fhedding of your blood, as they did many of the Old Teftament faints before mentioned, and your great Lord and Mafter himfelf, in their conflicts with the adverfaries that oppofed them, and tempted them, as yours do you, to fin againft God. It would therefore

Digitized by Google :

3 For confider him that endured fuch contradiction of finners againft himfelf, left ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet refifted unto blood, ftriving 2gainst fin. 5 And ye have which forgotten the ex-

fpeaketh unto you as unto children, My fon, despise not thou the chaften-

ing of the Lord,

nor faint when thou art rebuked of him.

hortation,

HEBREWS paraphrased.

fore be a dangerous, as well as hameful cowardice for any of you to flinch, and defift from your Chriftian courfe, on account of the leffer difficulties and loffes which ye meet with, (aywrilousroi) in contending against fin and finful men, as antagonists who fet themfelves, like combatants, in opposition to you, and ftrive to defeat and foil you; as, in contefts for victory, one endeavours to do against another.

5 And can ye be unmindful of *, as they certainly are who faint under their trials? Or are ye, like them, fo infenfible and inadvertent, as not to remember, and be affected with that gracious and encouraging exhortation, which is directed to, and (dialeyerai) reasons with all and every one of you, who are true believers, as with perfons under the endearing relation and character of the children of God, in which he, as your heavenly Father, fpeaks with all tenderneis by Solomon, which is applicable for your direction, caution, and comfort under every tribulation? (Prov. iii. 11.) My heaven-born and adopted fon, who art the object of my peculiar care and affectionate love, have a care, on one hand, of flighting or taking no notice of, or being not fuitably affected with the corrections which the Lord your God and Father fees fit, in the difpofals of his wife and holy providence, to lay upon you for your (maidias) instruction: Far be it from you to treat them with neglect and contempt, as if no good could be answered by them; or to behave like a stubborn, hardened, and incorrigible child, under his father's chaftening for his faults, to reclaim and reform him, as though you refolved to take your own courie, and would neither bow under, nor hearken to the rod, and who has appointed it. (Micab vi. q.) And, on the other hand, as you fhould ferioufly confider, that, whoever be the inftruments of your troubles, God has a holy, fovereign, and over-ruling hand in them, and has wife and gracious defigns in appointing and permitting them; fo you ought to take heed, left, through impatience, fretfulnefs, or milconftructions of his difpenfations, and the workings of unbelief, you thrink and be difficartened, to the neglect of duty; or defpair of relief, and refuse to be comforted under his reproofs.

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chafteneth, and fcourgeth every ceiveth.

6 For what the Lord does herein, is fo far from being a token of his hatred of you, (as fainting fouls are apt to conclude against themfelves) that, on the fon whom he re- contrary, your being exercifed with it, and patiently bear-

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

* Te have forgotten the exhortation, -rendered interrogatively, have ye for-² according to a different pointing of the gotten?. And both lenles are taken into fentence, which is arbitrary, may be the paraphrale. bearing it, may be juftly conftrued and improved into an argument of his great kindnefs for you, that iniquity may not be your ruin, according to what immediately follows in Solomon's admonition, (Prov. iii. 12.) where he fays of those, for whom the Lord has a fpecial favour, as for his own dear children, He for wife and holy reafons exercifes them, more or lefs, with various afflictions, not in a way of law-wrath, for the fatisfaction of his justice, which is born by Chrift for them; (ver. 2.) but in a way of fatherly chastifement for their iniquities, in order to their being purged from them; Ia. xxvii. 9.) and he lays the rod of correction (mariyon) with the heavier hand, when there may be occasion for it, upon every one, whom he receives into the relation of a fon, and whom he accepts, and takes care of, as fuch, that he may prepare him for, and, at length, receive him to himfelf in a better world.

7 So that, if ye be not only vifited with, but are also enabled, with faith, patience, and perseverance, humbly to fubmit to, and bear up courageoufly under fuch afflictions of any fort, as God in his providence permits, or orders, or measures out unto you, He therein (meos Preerau) prefents hinself to you, not in a hoftile manner, like an enemy, but with a benevolent difpofition and defign, like a kind parent, who has your truest welfare at heart; and only takes the fame courfe with you, as a prudent father uses, and indeed ought to go into, in dealing with his own children : For where is the fon, whom an earthly father, that is good, wife, and faithful, does not correct, with due moderation, for his faults, to reclaim him from them, when he observes that they loudly call for it? And where is the child of God, in whom there is nothing offenfive that needs mending, and whom his heavenly Father does not feafonably chaftife, that he may not, like foolifhly fond parents, fpare the rod and fpoil the child, when, in his infinite wifdom and love, he fees that there is need of it for answering some valuable purpofes of his own glory, and its fpiritual improvement, while it is in this imperfect flate, and training up for heaven?

8 But if, notwithftanding all that is amifs in you, and your remaining propenfity to evil, ye were to be indulged with uninterrupted eafe and profperity in the world, without any rubs in your way, or any mixture of troubles, as the corrective and inftructive chaftenings of the Lord, with which all his children, even the moft eminent of them, have been, are, and will be vifited one way or other, though in different degrees; and if ye have not been brought to fubmit

Digitized by Google

to

7 If ye endure chaftening, God dealeth with you as with fons: for what fon is he whom the father chaftemeth not?

8 But if ye be without chaftifement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye baftards, and not fons.

HEBREWS paraphrased.

to this wholefome and needful difcipline of his family. ye might then justly be looked upon, and indeed would be dealt with in a way of divine neglect, as a fpurious brood, and not the true genuine fons of God, and heirs of the eternal inheritance, who are chaftened of the Lord, that they might not be condemned. with the world: (1 Cor. xi. 32.) For he fays of the falfe-hearted profeffor, as he did of backfliding Ephraim, he is joined to idols; let him alone. (Hof. iv. 17.)

9 It may also be of use for you further to confider, in what a better manner, with what fuperior authority, and to what better purpose, the chastenings of your heavenly Father are managed, than those inflicted by earthly parents, that ye may be more fubmiffive to him, than, as in duty bound, ye ever were to them therein. It is a common cafe with us all, that, in the days of our minority, our fathers, from whom we derived our frail, corrupt, and mortal bodies, as they were the inftruments of begetting them, and by whole care and expence, under divine providence, we received all things for their fupport and comfort, took occasions to correct us for our mildemeanors; and we had, or ought to have had, fuch a fenfe of their authority over us, as to show a reverential and dutiful regard to them, by bowing, and yielding to their paternal discipline for our instruction, and correction; and by fubmitting to the rod, confeffing our crimes, and taking heed not to offend them any more, nor to love them, or think they loved us, the lefs, becaufe they corrected us : This cersainly became us *; and is there not much higher reason for us to own the supreme and sovereign authority of our heavenly Father, who is the God of the spirits of all flesh, (Numb. xvi. 22. and xxvii. 16.) as he is the immediate Creator, Preserver, and Governor of our rational and immortal fouls, and renews them by regenerating grace? Shall we not meekly and patiently fubmit to his fatherly chaftening for our

NOTE.

of our flefb, and the Father of our fpi- as to the fouls of his descendents, the rits, thows, that our earthly fathers are breath of the Almighty has given them only the inftruments of the generation of life; (Job xxxiii. 4.) they are the fouls our bodies, and that our fouls are not ex that he has made; (Ifa. lvii. 16.) he is traduce, or by derivation from them; also spoken of in the present tense. as the but that they are created by the imme. God who formeth the fpirit of man withdiate power of God, and infufed into the in bim; (Zech. xii. 1.) and Solomon, body, from age to age, as the foul of fpeaking of death, fays, Then fiull the our father Adam was in his production, duft return to the earth as it was; and when God formed bis body of the duft of the spirit shall return to God, who gave the ground, and breathed into his no- it. (Ecclef. xii. 7.) firils the breath of life; and man be-VOL. V.

* The antithefis between the fathers came a living foul. (Gen. ii. 7.) And,

Iii

9 Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flefh. which corrected us, and we gave them reverence : fhail we not much rather be in fubjection to the Father of spirits, and live ?

our iniquities, and be afhamed of them, grieved for them, and concerned at heart, that we may offend him no more; but may maintain an humble reverence of him, and an affectionate obediential fubjection to him, with grateful acknowledgments of his love and favour, even in his chaftenings; and fo may live in holy communion with him, and devotednefs to him here, and for ever with him in glory hereafter? This is infinitely more to our advantage, than any fubmiffion to the corrections of our flethly fathers could be.

10 For truly fome of them chaftened us, during the little while of our minority, in an arbitrary way, through humour, paffion, pride, or weaknefs, without duly aiming at our good by it; and even the wifest of them, who meant well, and acted according to the beft of their fallible judgment, might miftake the proper feafons, or measures of their reproofs and punifhments; and the benefit we reaped by them was only, at most, for the short season of this transitory life: But our heavenly Father, who is a God of unerring wildom and judgment, and of the tendereft compassion, never exercises his authority in correcting us, while we are in this imperfect state, which is a fort of nonage, but in due proportion, and when he knows it to be beft for us; he ever defigne, and one way or other promotes, our fpiritual and eternal benefit by it, that all the fruit may be to take away fin, and make us more and more conformable to his own holy nature and will in this world, till we be wrought up to a finlefs perfection in the world to come. Shall we not therefore humble our felves under the mighty hand of God, "that he may exalt us in due time? (1 Peter v. 6.)

11 Now, though it must be acknowledged, and may, perhaps, be objected against the benefit of divine corrections, that no affliction, though, but in the caftigatory way, is defirable for its own fake, or can be confidered as pleafant in itfelf, or agreeable to flefh and blood and carnal reafon, while we are under it : but is in its own nature, as a chaftening, very irkfome, and fometimes very diffreffing and hard to be borne, especially when we confider it as a token of God's difpleafure for fin : Yet, in the judgment of faith, and in after reflections upon it, and by an attending and confequent fanctified use of it, it produces peaceful and comfortable fruits of a fpiritual and holy nature, which are evidences of our state of peace with God, through faith in the righteousness of Chrift, (Rom. v. 1.) bring peace into our own fouls, and promote a peaceable temper towards others; { I/. xxxii. 17. and James iii. 18.) and which make us wifer and

Digitized by Google

10 For they verily for a few days chaftened us after their own pleafure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holinefs.

It Now no chaitening for the preient leemeth to be joyous, but grievous: neverthelefs, afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteoufnefs unto them which are exercifed thereby.

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

and better, more humble under a fenfe of fin, more watchful and prayerful, more circumspect in our walk, more weaned from this world, and more fpiritual, holy, and heavenly-minded, than ever we were before. When we are trained up by them, and learn in that instructive fchool, to bear them with faith and patience, with due fubmiffion to, and reverence of our heavenly Father, with ferious inquiries, wherefore he contends with us, and with an exercise of every other grace, that is fuitable to the nature and defign of afflicted circumftances, the advantage, which refults from them, is validly an over-balance to the pain and forrow of undergoing them; and, whatever we thought while they prefied forely upon us, we may, after we have been exerciled with them, and come to reflect upon them, fay with Dovid, It is good for me that I have been afflicted, that I might learn thy flatutes; and thou, O Lord, in faithfulrefs hast afflicted me. (Pf. cxix. 71, 75.) And Lereafter, when we get to, heaven, we shall clearly fee, and abundantly reap the rich advantage of them all.

12 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

12 Since therefore these are the gracious ends and benefits of God's challening you, do not give way to dejection or difpondency under them, like perfons who, through faintness in running a race *, (ver. 1.) hang down their hands, which are tokens of wearinefs, drooping, and fudnets; and the joints of whefe knees shake and smite together through weakness, fear; and difmay; (Nahum ii. 10.) And take heed of being difheartened, or of difheartening one another under the fufferings that befal you; but, on the contrary, encourage yourfelves, and each other in the Lord your God, to hold on in his ways, like perfons that lift up their hands with alacrity, joy, and triumph; and when any are fearful and faint-hearted among you, look well to yourfelves and your fellow-Chriftians, that ye be ftrong in the Lord and in the power of his might, as knowing that your God will come with vengeance to your enemies, and with recompence of good to you, and will fave you. (If. xxxv. 9, 4.) A belief of this, and a courageous behaviour correspondent to it, will be like ftrengthening the weak hands, and confirming the feeble knees. 13 And, Iii 2

N TE. 0

Here feems to be an allufion to ra- reference either to their care about them-Free terms to be an alumon to rac reference effect to their breakness the lattice about their breakness in running, according as their of which feems to be most immediately hands hang down, and their kness are intended in the paffage here quoted from feeble, or not: And the exhortation in I/a. xxxv. 3. where it lies thus Strength-this and the next veries may be confider- en ye the weak hands, and confirm the ed as directed to the Hebrews, with a feeble knees.

13 And make ftraight paths for your feet, left that which is lame be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men, and which no man fhall fee the Lord :

holine(s, without

426

12 And, that afflictions may be fuitably improved, and not loft upon you, fee that, like levellers of the road for travellers and racers, ye, by a clofe adherence to Chrift, and by a conversation becoming the gofpel, remove all obstacles out of your own and your brethren's way to eternal life, that both ye yourfelves, and they may walk uprightly, and run fleadily in the paths of truth and holinefs, and may make the word of God your only rule of faith, worship, and obedience, that it may be a light to your feet, and a lamp to your path, (Pf. cxix. 105.) and all your ways may be directed to keep his flatutes; left those of you, who are ready to halt, and to be milled in their Christiancourse, through temptation, darkness, and fear of fufferings, and through the cunning craftinels of fuch as lie in wait to deceive, be perverted and turned afide from Chrift and the gospel, and from the paths of righteoufnels and peace : But let it, on the contrary, be your great concern, that your own fouls, and the fouls of your fellow-Christians, may be relieved under all spiritual infirmities, discouragements, and fears; and may be reftored to a right mind, and to itrength and vigour in the good ways of the Lord, and kept stedfast in the profession, faith, hope, and holinefs of the gospel.

14 In order hereunto, Let it be your constant care, and earneft endeavour, to purfue the things which make for peace, in civil and religious fociety, as far as is confittent with truth and holinefs. (Rom. xiv. Run eagerly after it, even when it feems to flee 10.) from you; and do your utmost by all lawful means to obtain it, that, if poffible, ye may live peaceably with all men, (Rom. xii. 18.) whether they be Jews or Gentiles, Christians or heathens, friends or enemies, and fuch as perfecute you: And, together with peace, be fure to follow after holinefs, in 'daily applications to the throne of grace for it, and in the use of all other means of helping you forwards in it : Whether ye can fucceed in your attempts for peace with men or not, study to promote universal purity of heart and life, in conformity to the image and will of God, as in others, fo particularly in yourfelves; which is abfolutely neceffary to falvation, and without a confcientious regard to which, together with peace, no man, whatever be his profession or pretences, can be fit for, or in the very nature of things capable of, or according to the conflitution of the gofpel ever be admitted to, the beatific vision and enjoyment of the bleffed and holy God of peace; or to be with the holy Jefus, the Prince of peace, to behold his his glory, and to be made completely happy in his immediate blifsful presence, where he is feen is he is.

15 Looking diligently, left any man fail of the grace of God ; left any root of bitter. nels fpringing up, trouble you, and thereby many be defiled :

15 This is a matter of lo great importance, that it behoves every one of you carefully to inspect your own principles, temper, and conduct *, and to have a watchful eye over one another; left any of you, or of your brethren, be contented without, and through flothfulnefs, carnality and unbelief, reit, or come fhort, or be deftitute of an interest in the special favour of God, and of a real work of heart-changing grace, and fo be not what he appears to be; and should apostatize from the profession of the gospel. This ye ought to be deeply concerned about, for fear left any apoftate, or principle of apoftacy; or any corruption in doctrine or practice, that is offenfive to God, and pernicious to yourselves, and will prove bitterness in the end, like gall and worm-wood, (Deut. xxix. 18.) should iprout forth, and discover itself, like a branch fpringing up from its root, and should infect and pervert any of you to his own lofs and damage, and to the grief and trouble of others; and left, by means of its malignant influence, many among you fhould be corrupted in their minds and manners, fince a little leaven leavens the whole lump, (I Cor. v. 6. and Gal. v. g.) which would mar the beauty, purity, peace, and order of the whole church ; and, unlefs fuch perfons were to be caft out of it, they would be like poifonous herbs growing in a garden, which are not only full of destructive qualities themselves, but might taint others that are planted near them: And as one fin naturally runs into another, and wicked men wax worfe and worfe, ye have need to be very careful to put a ftop to the first beginnings of apostacy.

16 Take

NO T E.

* The word (emission uvies) here rendered looking diligently fignifies, and in 7 Pet. v. 2 is used for discharging the office of a bifbop, or overfeer of the church, in watching over its principles and manners. Were we to take it in that fenfe, the exhortation in this place is to be confidered, as directed to paftors, short of the grace of God. as the word that had the rule over them, and watched for their fouls. (Chap. xiii. 7, 17.) But as this epiftle is directed to the body of profeffing Hebrews, who are all along in this context, and through the whole epiftle, fpoken to; and as no addrefs, as far as I have observed, is made to the officers of the church in any part of it; I therefore rather apprehend, that this paffage relates to the brotherly and chari- falling from grace. table care which the members of the church ought to have for one another, and to their mutually infpecting or watching over the fpirit, temper, and behaviour, of their fellow-members, as well as over their own hearts and ways, left any of them fhould, contrary to their holy profession, be destitute, or come (useewr) fometimes fignifies, chap. iv I. and xi. 37. and Rom. iii. 23. And at others, to lack, to be in want, or not to have, and come behind, as in Matth xix. 20 Mark x. 21. Luke xv 14 and xxii. 35. John ii. 3. 1 Cor. 1 7 2 Cor. xi. 5. 9. and xii. 11. and Phil iv. 12. But it is never used for falling from; and fo can give no countenance to the notion of 16 Left there be any fornicator, or profane perfon, as Elau, who for one morfel of meat fold his birthright.

16 Take heed left there should be found any one, who makes a profession of Christ's name among you, that through the power of unbelief, and of unfubdued lufts, and the allurements of vice, addicts himfelf to whoredom, whether adultery, or fimple fornication, which is directly contrary to that holinefs, without which no man shall fee the Lord, (ver. 14.) and which perfuited in, and not repented of, would certainly exclude him from an inheritance in the kingdom of God; (1 Cor. vi. 9. *) or left any of you should at length to far degenerate, as to become an impious wretch, that makes a jeft of, ridicules and despifes the facred doctrines, duties, ordinances, and bleffings of divine revelation, and renounces them all, through fear of fuffering for them, or through an inordinate affection to this world, in like manner as E-(au made light of, despifed and quitted all claim to his birthright; infomuch that, for the fake of fatisfying his prefent hunger, he fold and refigned to his brother Jacob all the facred, as well as civil privileges, which were annexed to it; and that for fo trifling a price as a little parcel of food, which confifted of a piece of bread and a mels of pottage, (Gen. xxv. 29,-34.) and was fufficient

NOTE.

fon that is guilty of unlawful embraces, Jacob, he faid to Efau, I have made whether in a fingle or married ftate. him thy lord, and all his brethren I have Accordingly this word is often translated given to him for fervants; and with whoremongers, inclusive of adulterers, corn and wine have I fustained him. Eph. v. 5. 1 Tim. i. 10. Rev. xxi. 8. and (Gen. xxvii. 37.) And as to spiritual xxii. 15.; and fornication is fometimes privileges, though there are different o-ufed in a like wide extent. (See the pinions about them, and we may not be note on 1 Cor. v. 1.) This is a fin against able to pronounce with certainty what our neighbour, as well as against our- they were; yet it is reasonable to suppose felves ; and fo is a transgreffion of the fe- that there were some of this nature ; becond table of the law: And profaneness cause the fufl-born carried a typical reis a fin committed immediately against presentation of Chrift, who is called the God and religion; and so is a breach of first-born among many brethren; (Rom. the first table of the law.—But it is viii. 29.) and the inheritance of eternal matter of difpute among interpreters, life is ipoken of as the privilege of the whether Efau was guilty of fornication first-born in our context, ver. 23. And or not; fome of which confider the re- unless fome privileges of a [piritual naference here made to him, only as an in- ture pertained to the birth-right, it feems ftance of a profane perfon: And what is not to be very obvious why Efau should faid of him, in the close of the verse, be called a profane person, on account feems to favour this thought, as that on- of his felling it ; , nor how this inftance ly relates to his felling his birthright, would have come up to the apoftle's dewhich contained, or had annexed to it fign in cautioning the Hebrews against feveral valuable privileges, some of a a contempt of the gospel, and of its spitemporal, and others of a spiritual na- ritual privileges and obligations: For a ture. (See the note on chap. xi. 20) profane perfon (βιβαλος) is one who The temporal-privileges were durinion treats facred things with irreligious conover the younger brethren, and a double tempt, and is ranked among the most portion of the paternal inheritance, as flagitious and ungodly finners. (I Tim .i. appears from Gen. xlix. 3. Deut. xxi. 17. 9.) and 1 Chron. v. 1, 2. Accordingly,

* A fornicator may fignify any per- when Ifaac had given the birthright to Chap. xii.

how that 17 For ye know

ward, when he would have inherited the bleffing,

he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he fought it carefully with tears.

after-

fufficient for only a meal at one eating. (Genorus muss) The confequence of which was very tremendous and irretrievable.

17 For ye, being conversant with the Holy Scriptures, according to your duty and daily practice, cannot but be familiarly acquainted with the hiftory of E/au, as there recorded; and must needs know, that when he afterwards, under dreadful furprize, came to fee and reflect upon the folly, lofs, and mifchief of the bargain he had made, as it affected his temporal dignities, (though there were no figns of forrow for his fin, and of repentance toward God, or of feeking bis favour, and begging that he would grant him repentance unto life) he would fain have regained the birthright, and the patriarchal bleffing annexed to it, which he had to inconfiderately, and indeed wickedly parted with : But as he was difapproved of God; fo his petition to his father l/aac was utterly rejected: For Efnu could find no disposition in the heart of his father l/aac to revoke the bleffing, which he had prophetically, under divine influence, though unwittingly to himfelf, pronounced upon Jacob; nor could he by any means prevail upon his father to change his mind, and reverfe his featence; initead of which he confirmed it, faying, I have bleffed him, yea, and he /hall be bleffed. (Gen. xxvii. 23.) It was now too late for E/au to procure any alteration of it, though he folicitoully begged it, not of God, but of Ifaac, with the greatest importunity and concern, and with floods of tears crying, aloud, with a great and exceeding bitter cry, faying, Blefs me, even me alfo, O my father. (Gen. xxvii. 34, 38.) This ought to be a folemn caution to you, as it will be equally impossible for any professors of Christ's name, that defpife the grace of the gospel, and turn apostates, to be ever brought to fincere repentance, and to an inheritance of its privileges and bleffings, which they with a wicked mind have renounced, notwithftanding all the proofs they have had of the truth of Christianity, as has been declared; (chap. vi. 4,-6. fee the not there) and God will never reverse his fentence of condemnation on them, though, when they come to feel its terrible effects at death and judgment, (if not before) they will bitterly lament their deplorable condition, and cry out for relief.

18 For ye are - not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto 18 Take heed that ye do not fall fort of the grace of the gospel, and think lightly of its bleffings, which are incomparably better than ever were enjoyed under the Old Teftament, as has been shown at large, in the main argument of this epiftle; and have a care blackness, that ye do not revolt from Christianity to Judai/m: For.

429 blacknefs. darkness, and tempeit,

10 And the found of a trumpet, and the voice of words, which voice they

that heard intreatfhould not be fpo-

more :

and For, to begin with an account of the Yewi/b difpenfation, Ye, in the gospel-ftate of worship, are not called and led, as your fathers were, to enter into covenant with God, and approach his facred prefence, according to the awful and tremendous appearances of his majefty on mount Sinai in Arabia, (Gal. iv. 25) which, in opposition to the spiritual nature of the golpel church, fignified by mount Sion, (ver. 22. fee the note there) was of an earthly, material fubftance, capable in itself of being touched, or felt after a corporal manner, though all fuch touching it, by man or beaft, was forbidden, while the tokens of the divine prefence were upon it at the delivery of the law, (ver. 20.) and while it was amazingly touched, moved, and shaken by the power of God; (Ex. xix. 20. Pl. lxviii. 8. and civ. 32.) which might be an emblem of that difpensation, as carnal, earthly, and moveable: (ver. xxvii.) Nor are ye come to the fire that burnt (xinavuira rvei) on the mountain, as though it were all over in a flame, out of the midft of which God spake unto I/rael, (Deut. iv. 11, 12. and v. 22, 23.) which may be confidered as an emblem of the terriblene/s of that dispensation, and of the justice of God, who is a confuming fire to finners. according to the ftrict tenor of that fiery law : (ver. 29. and Deut. xxxiii. 2.) Nor are ye come to the gloomy and horrible darkness, that covered mount Sinai, by means of the thick cloud of fmoke which arole from, and was mingled with, the flashes of fire that burned upon it; (Deut. v. 22,-24.) which may be confidered as an emblem of the darknels of that difpenfation, through which the carnal I/raelites could not look unto, and true believers themfelves had but obscure conceptions of, the way of pardon and deliverance from deferved wrath, and of that falvation which was to be brought in by the promifed Meffiah: Nor are ye come to the dreadfully tempeftuous thundering, /lightening, and earthquake, that were in the mount at the giving of the law; (Ex. xix. 16, 18. and xx. 18.) which may be confidered as an emblem of the leverity of its curle, and of the terrors of an awakened confcience, under a fense of guilt, and fear of the punifhment that is due to the tranfgreffors of it:

19 Nor are ye fummoned to appear before the divine majetty, amidst those terrible representations of him, as your lawgiver and judge, by an exceeding loud and awful alarm, which made the Ifraelites tremble, and which, waxing louder and louder for a coned that the word fiderable time, still further awakened their fears, and ken to them any may be compared to the ftrong found of a trumpet, (Ex.

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

(Ex. xix. 16,-19.) like what will be heard at the refurrection of the dead to the judgment of the great day of account :* (1 Cor. xv. 52.) And then followed the promulgation of the law in the audience of the people, by a terrible articulate voice, which diftinctly pronounced, in their own language, the words contained in the ten commandments; (Ex. xx. 1,-17. and Deut. iv. 12.) which folemn declaration of this holy and righteous law, in all its fluictnefs and extent, made fuch a terrifying imprefiion on the minds of them that heard it, and filled them with fuch a tenfe of guilt and obnoxioufnefs to divine wrath, that they earneitly begged of Moles to interpole, as a mediator between God and them, and communicate his mind and will to them; and deprecated God's speaking those awful words to them, and demanding their obedience, in fuch an immediate and terrible manner any more, left they should die. (Ex. xx. 18, 19. Deut. v. 5; 23, 24, 25. and xviii. 16.)

20 For they were confcious to themfelves that, through the weakness and depravity of nature, they were utterly incapable of coming up to the fanctity and strictness of these commandments and prohibitions, and of being juffified by their own imperfect obedience to them; and they knew not how to bear up under the dreadful appearances of God in the manner of his publishing them : And fo tevere were his injunctions, as expreisly to command, that, if any one, during this tolemnity of the divine prefence, should break through the bounds, which he had fet round about the mount, and should touch fo much as the border of it, whether it were a man, or even a bealt of any kind, he should not live, but should furely be stoned to death, or pierced and flain with an arrow, javelin, or dart; (Ex. xix. 12, 13.) which was an awful indication of the great diffance that creatures are to be kept at from God, by reason of iin; and of his being inacceffible.

> N O TE.

end of the world, Mat. xxiv. 31.; and the law is faid to be given by the dif-position of angels, and ordained by an-gels in the hand of a mediator, meaning Mofes, and to be the word spoken by angels. (Acts vii. 53. Gal. iii. 19. and Heb ii. 2.) And yet, as the trumpet, which shall be founded at the last day, is called the trump of God, I Theff. iv. a supernatural utterance of both the 16.; to the voice, by which the law was tound and the words. Vol. V.

* This found of a trumpet, and the delivered, is represented as God's anvoice of words, appear to have been fwering Moles by a voice, (Ex. xix. 19.) formed by the ministry of angels: For and it follows, (chap. xx. 1.) that God they are fpoken of, as to be fent with fpoke all thefe words; and, referring the great found of a trumpet at the hereunto. Mofes taid to Ifrael, The Lord fpake unto you out of the midfl of the fire ; ye beard the voice of words ; and these words the Lora spake unto all your affembly in the mount-with a great woice. (Deut. iv. 12. and v 22.) By comparing these things together. we may suppose that the Lord made an immediate use or the ministry of angels, in 20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if to much as a beatt touch the mountain, it shall be floned, or thruft through with a dart.

Digitized by Google

21 And fo terrible was the fight, that Moles faid, I exceedingly fear and quake) inacceffible to finners, according to the tenor of the law ; as also of the vengeance that he will execute upon the transgreffors of his commands.

21 Yea, fo aftonishing, shocking, and dreadful was the appearance (no pour a coustor) of the awful tokens, by which the immediate prefence of the divine majefty was evidently manifelted to be on the mount, that even Mo/es * himfelf, notwithstanding all his eminent fanctity, and his office of a mediator to declare the mind of God to the people, and his frequent converfes with him, was ftruck with fuch terror and confternation at it, as he dwelt in mortal flesh, and had still the remainders of a body of fin, that he could not forbear crying out, at the first fight of it, I am all over feized with an affrightning aftonishment and difmay, and with horrible trembling. So cloudy and tremendous was the mount Sinai-difpendation of the covenant, which concealed its most delightful glories, and engendered a bondage frame of fpirit, (Gal. iv. 24. and fee the note on chap. viii. 6.) that it may I well take you off from all thought or defire of returning to the Mojaic law, the amazing terrors of which ye are not now called unto.

22 But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the God.

22 But, inflead of being fummoned to approach unto God under fuch dreadful reprefentations, as were city of the living made at mount Sinai, which was of an earthly and corporeal nature; ye, on the contrary, are called by the

Digitized by Google

N 0

* Mofes's faying, I exceedingly fear and quake, is not to be found in the hiftory of God's awful promulgation of the law at mount Sinai, nor in any other part of the Old Teftament : But it was, probably, a well-known and received tradition among the Yews, and, perhaps, recorded in some of their writings then extant, like the names of Jannes and Jambres, two famous magicians of Egypt, which the apostle speaks of, 2 Tim. iii. S.; and therefore he might with good propriety mention this to the Hebrezus, who were well fatisfied, in one or other of these ways, about the truth of the fact; and it is highly probable that Mofes expressed these words to God, when, as we are told. Evod. xix. 18, 19. Mount Sinai was altogether on a fmoke, becaufe the Lord defcended upon it in fire ; and the inoke thereof afcended as the Imoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly; and when the voice of the trumpet founded long, and waxed loudder and louder, Moles Spake, and God anfuered him by a voice. But as what lous, anti-fcriptural, and incredible fto-Mofes spake, or what God answered him ries.

т Е. by a voice, is not there recorded, it is most likely to have been then that he faid, I exceedingly fear and quake; and that God comforted him against his fears by the voice which answered him : For it is added in the next verses, (20, 21, 22.) that the Lord called Moses up to the top of the mount, and Moles went up; and the Lord faid unto Moles, Go down and charge the people, left they break through unto the Lord to gaze, and many of them peri/b, &c. Whereupon, Moles's fear being allayed, he afterward faid to the people, Fear not. S.c. chap. xx. 20.-However, we may depend upon the certainty of what the apofile fays about Mojes's fear, fince he, who wrote under divine infpiration, has afferted it, which he would not have done had it been a falfehood. Traditions thus confirmed by apoftolic authority may fately be received by us; though no regard is to be paid to Popifh traditions, which have no fuch warrant, and are generally fluffed with the moft fabuGod, the heavenly Jerufalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,

$

HEBREWS paraphrased.

the gofpel to a milder, fweeter, and more encouraging difpenation of light and grace, and of incomparably more excellent, and advantageous privileges and bleffings; and are brought, through the faith of Chrift, into a happy and holy communion with the New Teftamentchurch, which is of a fpiritual nature ; * and, in oppofition to mount Sinai, may be called mount Sion, as, like the mount which bore that name, it is chosen and beloved of God; the place of his delightful refidence and special manifestation of his favour; the feat of divine worfhip and ordinances in religious affemblies; and the object of all his gracious promifes; the perfection of beauty, and the juy of the whole earth, as was faid of that holy place. (Pf. xlviii. 2. and l. 2.) It may also be styled the cuy, which is formed into a numerous, beautiful, and orderly fociety, and endued with glorious privileges and immunities, by the charter, and under the protection and defence, laws and government of God himfelf, who erected it by his goipel and Spirit upon Chriff, as its foundation, and is the proprietor of it; and who, in opposition to all the idols of the heathen, is the only living and true God, and dwells in this holy city to animate it with his gracious prefence, and take effectual care of it, that all its true members, who are free denizons, may live to him here, and with him in all his glory for ever hereafter: This city of God, confidered in oppolition to the earthly Jeru/alem, is of a beavenly nature, as its . conflictution and original, and the birth of all its spiritual inhabitants are from heaven; as it is compacted together in heavenly peace and harmony by the bonds of faith and love; and as its fpirit and temper, and all its tendencies are towards heaven, and shall isfue, and K k k 2

NOT Ŀ.

* What is contained in this and the which the church of I/rael were types. next verses, is not to be confidered as a Thus it is called Sion, and the city of defcription of the privileges and bleffings God, Ifa. ii. 3. and Ptal. Ixxxvii. 3, 5.; of the future flate of the church in heaven ; but of its prefent flate on earth under the gofpel difpensation, which the apostle opposes to that of the Old Tefta- rufalem, the gospel-church is called fement: For therein lies the force of his rufalem, which is from above and free, argument to fhew the preference of the golpel state, beyond that under the law, and to guard the Hebrews against apoitatizing from Christianity to Judaijm. But, in allufion to the characters under which the church of I/rael was reprefented, he speaks of the gospel-church, as mount Sion, the city of the living God. and the heavenly ferufaiem, which are all terms of much the tame import, and are applied in Scripture to the New Testament-church of true believers, of ed there.

and Gentile-believers are called fellowcitizens with the faints; (Eph. ii. 19.) and, in diffinction from the earthly Jeand the mother of us all. (Gal. 1v. 26) And believers being come to it. as defcribed under these titles, may most immediately relate to the communion which they are brought into with the whole church on earth; though the following parts of the description feen more immediately to relate to the communion they have, even while they are here, with the church in heaven, and with God and the Mediator, who are most perfectly enjoy-

Digitized by Google

433

be

be perfected in the heavenly world. And in this flate of the gofpel-church, ye are admitted to a most noble and exalted communion in love and fervice, with ten thoufand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands. yca, numberless myriads of bleffed and boly angels, who furround the throne of God's glory, and always behold his face in beaven, and do his commandments. bearkening to the voice of his word; (Rev. v. 11. Mat. xviii. 10. and Pf. ciii. 20.) and who are your fellow fervants, not to be worshipped by you, but to worship God with you; (Rev. xix. 10. and xxi. 9.) and are all ministring spirits, not with terror, like those appearances at mount Sinai; but with love and kindnefs, to perform the most important offices of friendship; to be your invisible guardians in life, and magnificent convoy to Abraham's bolom at death, as they are fent forth to minister for them who shall be beirs of falvation. (Luke xvi. 22. and Heb. i. 14.)

23 To the general affembly and church of the firftborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the judgé of all, and to the fpirits of juft men made perfect,

23 And ye are brought into a fpiritual and holy fellowship with the whole body of fincere believers, whether militant on earth, or triumphant in heaven, who conftitute the catholic church of true and vital members of Chrift, and are a much more delightful and glorious fociety under Chrift their head, than were the general congregation of all the males of I/rael, at their folemn feafts three times a-year; (Exod. xxxiv. 23. and Deut. xvi. 16.) or than the general affembly of their whole church at mount Sinai, when the law was delivered to them; and who, to allude to the birtbright which Elau fold, (ver. 16. fee the note there) have many privileges above the reft of mankind, as the church of I/rael had that were called God's first-born, (Ex. iv. 22.) and were therein typical of Chrift, and of the gospel church as interested in him, and as the first-fruits to God and to the Lamb; (Rev. xiv. 4.) who also are beirs of God, and joint heirs with Chrift, by virtue of their union with him; and are conformed to his image, who is the first-born among many brethren, (Rom. viii. 17, 29.) and bas redeemed them to God by his blood, out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and made them unto their God, kings and priefls; (Rev. v. 9. 10.) whole names. to allude to the register of the first born of the males of I/rael, (Numb. iii. 40.) are, as it were, inrolled in the records of heaven, and in the Lamb's book of life, (Luke x. 20. and Rev. xiii. 8.) as those whom God has chosen, merely of his grace, before the foundation of the world, that they thould be holy, and without blame before him in love. (Eph. i. 4.) And in this gospel state, instead of being kept at a diftance from the divine prefence, as when the law was

was delivered in all its terrors at mount Sinai; ye have liberty of humble boldness, and accels with confidence, by the faith of Chrift, (Eph. iii. 12.) to the righteous and holv God himfelf, even under the character of the fovereign Lord and Judge of all mankind; who, being your reconciled God and Father, will, at his appointed day for judging the world in rightenufnel, by Yelus Chrill, (Acts xvii 31.) vindicate the righteous caufe of his faints and fuffering fervants, and give them a crown of righteouinefs, and of glory bat fadeth not away. (2 Tim. iv. 8. and 1 Pet. v. 4.) And ye are admitted to the most defirable communion, in faith, love and joy, worfhip and obedience, with the feparate pirits of believers in heaven, who were rightcous before God on earth, as having been jultified by the blood, and fanctified by the Spirit of Chrift; and whofe fouls departed from, and did not fleep with their bodies; but, immediately upon the diffulution of their mortal frame, were present with the Lord; (2 Cor. v. 8. and Phil. i. 23.) and there they live in a state of perfect freedom from all fin and forrow, temptation, trouble or danger, and of perfect holinefs and happinefs in the vision, enjoyment, and likenefs of their God and Saviour. Ye have a partnership with these bleffed spirits, as ye are children of the fame heavenly Father, united to the fame head, gathered together into one body in him, (Eph. i. 10.) and animated by the fame divine Spirit; and as ye are intitled to, and shall inherit the fame heavenly manfions with them, and join in their hallelujabs for ever.

24 And to Jefus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of iprinkling, that . fpeaketh better things than that of Abel.

24 And the foundation, medium, and center of all this glorious communion, into which ye are brought by the gofpel, lies in your being called, not to Moles, as a typical mediator of the Old Teftament ; but to Jelus, the only true and effectual Saviour, that ye may come by faith to him, as fuch, and may have an immediate free accefs, under a fenfe of all your guilt, vilenefs, and unworthinefs, to him, who is the only acceptable and all-fufficient mediator between God and man, and has irrevocably established and confirmed the covenant of grace, as well as purchased all its bleffings, in this new and beft administration of it, according to what has been fet forth at large : (chap. viii. 6,-13. and ix. 15,-20.) and ye have communion by faith in all the virtue of his precious blood, which was thed for many, for the remisfion of fins, (Mat xxvi. 28.) and is applied to your fouls, by the Holy Spirit, that ye may plead it for pardon, juitification, and all falvation, and your conficience may be purged by it from dead work, to lerve he living God; (Heb. ix. 14.) and which, in allufion to Moles's fprinkling

The Epistle to the

fprinkling the blood of the covenant on the people. and on the book of the law, (chap. ix. 19, 20. and Ex. xxiv. 8.) and in allufion to the formulings of the blood of the paffover, and of the annual facrifices on the great day of atonement, (Ex. xii. 21, 22. and Lev. xvi. 14.) and to various other fprinklings for legal purification, may be called the (prinkling of the blood of Jelus Chrift; (1 Pet. i. 2.) which effectually procures, and cries aloud in the interceffory pleas of the Mediator, and in the confciences of believers, when applied, and refted upon by faith, not only for better things than the blood of righteous Abel, which was fhed by his wicked brother, and cried to heaven, not for mercy and forgiveness *, but for vengeance to come down upon Cain his murderer; and ftill /peaks awful warnings to all others of his perfecuting fpirit : But the blood of Chrift fpeaks for ab/olutely the beft of things, even to his crucifiers, and to all forts of finners that believe in him; and it fpeaks for comparatively better things than even the blood of the facrifice pleaded for, which righteous Abel offered by faith with acceptance to God, (chap. xi. 4. compared with Gen. iv. 4.) under that dark difpensation; which did not give fo evident affurances of fuch great and glorious bleffings, as are now clearly revealed in the gofpel, and actually brought in by Chrift, and enjoyed with rich advantage by every true believer; and as neither Abel's, nor any other typical facrifices, that were afterwards appointed under the law, could poffibly obtain. (Chap. x. 4.)

25 See that ye refule not him that fpeaketh: for if they escaped not, who refuted him that ipake on earth

25 Since therefore the golpel-state is fo incomparably more excellent, encouraging, and inviting, than that of the law, take fpecial heed, watch and pray, and cautioufly beware, as ever ye value your own falvation, left, through temptation, worldly-mindednefs and

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

blood of the facrifice which Abel offered, fo ipoke for the worft of evils, inftead of and was acceptable for obtaining mercy, any good to come upon him, and upon through faith, in the atoning facrifice of all periecutors unto death like him. But the Meffiah 4.) I therefore choole to confider it in fered in faith, and was fignally accepted allution to this, rather than (as most expolitors understand it) to the blood of felf, though not for others, nor with fuch Abel himfelf, which Cain fied : For the efficacy, and to fo rich advantage and argument to flow the excellency of the extent, as the blood of Chrift speaks for golpel-difpentation, above that at mount under the golpel-state; and fo was a Sinai, finks exceeding low, if it be confidered only as speaking better things crifices, afterwards instituted under the than the innocent blood of Abel. which law, were not fo available as the facriwas unrighteoufly thed, and cried to fice of Chrift.

* Speaks better things than that of heaven for vengeance on the head of Abel. or than Abel (maga rov AGEA) Cain, and brought a curfe, inftead of a feems, as I apprehend, to allude to the bleffing, upon him, Gen. iv. 10, 11.; and (See the note on chap. xi. the blood of the facrifice, which Abel ofof God, ipoke for good things for himproper inftance to fhew that all the fa-earth, much more fhall not we e. Jcape, if we turn away from him that fpeaketh from heaven:

and unbelief, or through hankerings after the Molaic law, any of you, either refuse to embrace, and give yourfelves up anto Jefus the Mediator of the new covenant, whole blood (peaks better things than that of Abel; (ver. 24.) or left any of you, who have made a profession of his name, afterward renounce him, and fo defpife and reject, inflead of hearing and obeying him, who now speaks to you all the gracious, endearing, and important things of the new covenant, by his word and the ministry of it, and by his Spirit in miraculous gifts to confirm it, and in the hearts of those of you that are true believers : For if the people of Ifrael did not escape vengeance, but the carcafes of many of them fell in the wildernefs, who refused to hear and yield obedience to Moles, and thruited him from them, (Alls vii. 39.) notwithstanding all their high professions before of hearkening to him, (Ex. xx. 19.) who delivered the facred oracles from God to them, (xenualicorra) and spake after an earthly manner upon the earth ; much more impoffible is it, that we should escape the dreadful vengeance of eternal fire, if any of us who live under the gofpel, which brings glad tidings of a fpiritual and eternal falvation, should, through unbelief, reject, despife, and disobey him, who is the Lord from beaven, and perforally came from heaven to fet up this bleffed difpensation : who alfo, being now afcended up to heaven, flill further reveals it in all its fpirituality, light, and glory, and fpeaks heavenly things from thence in his apoftles, by the immediate infpiration of his Spirit, and by miraculous wonders of mercy and goodnefs to confirm them; (I Pet. i. 12.) and speaks them with heavenly light and energy in the fouls of true believers. It must needs be an inexcusably aggravated and deftructive fin, to reject his authority in this most illustrious difpensation of his grace.

26 Whole voice then flook the earth: but now 'he hath promifed, faying, Yet once more I thake not the earth only, but alio heaven.

26 Whofe voice, at the delivery of the law on mount Sinai, was with fuch divine majefty, fovercign authority, and almighty power, as to caufe that earthly mountain to move, fhake, and tremble greatly, (Ex. xix. 18. and P/al. lxviii. 8.) and as to make a terrible commotion by the flocking prodigies which attended it, and among the people all around; an account of which we have already related. (ver. 18,-21.*) But

Digitized by Google

NO T E.

only, but allo heaven, manifestly relates enfued upon Christ's appearing in the to the great alterations that fould be flefh, and not those which will be made made by the firll, and not the fecond at the day of judgment, fulted the defign coming of Chrift : For in the prophecy, of the apoille's argument, which was to Hag. ii. 6. he faid he would do it in a fhew the fuperior excellency of the gol-

* His promife of floaking not the earth little while ; and the alterations which pel-ftate,

The Epistle to the

But now, under the New Teftament-difpensation, he was to make another more remarkable and important fhaking, according to his promife with refpect to a better flate of things in the golpel-church, (Hag. ii. 6.) where he fays, Yet once again, I will thake, not on y the earth, as I did at the giving of the law, and fetting up that difpensation, which was of an earthly nature; but in a little while, compared with the whole duration of that economy, I will also shake down the civil and ecclefialtical flate of the Jews; which was to be fulfilled in the deftruction of the city and temple of Jerufalem, and which, not merely in a natural, but especially in a figurative senfe, may be called fhaking both earth and heaven.

27 And this manner of expressing it, Yet once. more, evidently fignifies, that there fould be but one other eminent and thoroughly fhaking dispensation, after the former ; and that the Jewi/b flate (inclusive of its political and religious conftitution) should be diffolved, in which many things, effential to the legal difpenfation, were made by the hands of men, fuch as the tabernacle, temple, and all its utenfils, and were appointed of God to be continued only till the time of reformation, (chap. ix. 10.) to the end that (102) the glorious privileges and bleffings, worship and ordinances of the New Testament-church, which are of an unalterable conftitution, and are in-, troduced inftead of the former, might abide without any change to the end of the world.

28 Since therefore we of the gofpel-church are made partakers of, and actually receive by faith, the glorious benefits of the New Teftament difpenfation, which, under Christ's rule and government, is a kingdom of grace, now fet up in the world, and is not liable

> NO T E.

penfation. And the earth might be faid the diffolution of the church and ftate of at this time to be shaken. as there were the Jews : For the overthrowing of nagreat commotions in the earth at the tions and kingdoms, is in prophetic lanbirth of Chrift, and by the miracles he guage represented by flaking the earth, wrought, and the earthquake that at and the heavens, as in Hag ii 21, 22. If. tended his refurrection. The heavens xiii. 13. and foel iii. 15. And the fbaallo were flaken, when the extraordinary king of the earth and beavens, here in-ftar appeared to the wife men of the Eaft, tended, carries our thoughts back to the and a multitude of the heavenly hoft ce- mount Sinai-difpentation, and the goflebrated the praifes of his birth; and pel church ftate, which had been fet in when the heavens were opened, and the opposition one to the other in the forego-Holy Ghoft defcended upon him, and ing verfes; (18,-24.) and fo we are na-God the Father declared, with an audi- turally led to underftand by it the remoble voice from heaven, This is my belo- wing of those things that are shaken as ved Son, in whom I am well pleafed; of things that are made. That the things and when the fun was darkened at his which cannot be flaken may remain; death, and the like .- But the expressions, and are called a kingdom which cannot quoted by the apostle, may rather be ta. be /baken. (ver. 27, 28.)

pel-ftate, in opposition to the Mofaic dif- ken in a metaphorical fense, relating to 27 And this Yet once word, more, fignifieth the removing of those things that are fha. ken, as of things that are made. that those things which cannot be fhaken may remain.

28 Wherefore, we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved. let us have grace, whereby we may ferve ferve God accept. ably, with reve rence and godly fear.

29 For our God

confuming

is fire.

8

Chap. xii.

liable to be removed, as the Old Teftament-difpenfation has been; but remains unalterably the fame, till it shall iffue in the kingdom of glory, Let us, according to the nature, provisions, and encouragements of this golpel-kingdom, which is the free effect of divine favour, and fo may be called grace, hold it fast in our faith and profession of it *; and let us be concerned to make a careful confcientious use of all the means it affords us, for every fupply, increase, and exercife of grace, by which we may be enabled to ferve, worship, and glorify God in an acceptable manner, through Jefus Chrift, with an humble and holy reverence of his divine majefty, and with a religious fear of him, under a fense of his greatness and glory, and of our own nothingness, finfulness, and vilenefs; and of the danger of trifling with him in our approaches to him, and walk before him.

29 For the Lord, who is our covenant-God by visible dispensation, as we are professing Obristians, and is effectually fo, by special grace, to those of us who are true believers, is no lefs jealous for his own glory, with respect to his worship according to inititution now, than he was when he gave the law at mount Sinai: (Ex. xx. 5.) And as he will itill be fanctified by them that come nigh him; (Lev. x. 3.) fo his righteous indignation burns against those that are not in Chrift, but reject him and the bleffings of his kingdom, by unbelief, and caft off his fear; and he, in the ftrictness of his justice, and purity of his holinefs, is as terribly deftructive, like a confuming fire, even to those who are his covenant people by external profession, but are unmindful of his covenant, under the gospel, as he threatened to be to the carnal I/raelites, under the law. (Deut. iv. 23, 24. and ix. 3.)

RECOLLECTIONS.

How great is our encouragement to faith and patience ! We have a cloud of eminent examples in the Old Teftament-faints, and the brighteft of all in our fuffering Lord and Saviour, to animate our running the Christian race through all difficulties till it be completed. In order hereunto, Let us caft off every thing that would incumber us, and every fin that we are most incident to, and look to Tefus, the Author and Finisher of faith. for all affiftances, victory, and triumph, that we may be conformable to him, who, for the joy which was let before him, endured the crofs, defpifing the thame, and is now exalted to his throne. Our fufferings have not yet been unto death, as they might have been, and were in many of the ancient worthies, and in our bleffed Lord himfelf; and whatfoever they be, if we are the children of God, they are all wifely ordered, and graciously over-ruled

NOTE.

* Grace may here be taken either for the verb rendered to have, $(\epsilon \chi \epsilon_T)$ is the free favour of God, or for the effect often put for to retain or hold full. of it, in gracious qualities. And Dr. $(\kappa \alpha \tau \epsilon \chi \epsilon_T)$. Whithy observes from the critics, that

Vol. V.

L'11

Digitized by Google

439

Chap. xii.

over-ruled by our heavenly Father, in a way of special love, for our amendment in this imperfect world. For what fon is there whom the father chaftens not for his faults? But O how difficult is it to fteer right between despiling the chastenings of the Lord, and fainting under them ! And with how much greater reverence and iubmiffion fhould we receive the corrections of the Father of our fpirits, than can be due from children to their fathers of the flefh! Though fuch chaftenings are in their own nature grievous, they are nevertheless profitable, to make us partakers of his holinefs, and to produce the peaceable fruits of righteoufnefs, for living to him here, and with him hereafter. How deeply concerned therefore ought we to be, that no afflictions may ever turn us afide from the way of God's teftimonies, or make us halt in our holy profession ; but that we may advance forward with vigour in the ftraight paths of truth and duty, and may be exemplary, and encouraging to others, under their fears, deipondencies, and dangers! And O what amiable companions are peace and holinefs! Thefe fhould be unitedly purfued : But if we cannot obtain peace upon good terms with men, we should remember that holinefs is abfolutely neceffary to the beatific vision and enjoyment of God. And how dreadful is it to fall fhort of his grace under a profession of the gospel! All principles and practices, that lead to apoftaty, will, one way or other, be a root of bitternels, and endanger infection to the church of Chrift, whenever they break out. How should we dread the first beginnings of apostacy, left, at length, it should run into all uncleanness, and profane contempt of every thing that is facred. like Efau's despifing and selling his birthright, which could never be recovered ! How terrible is the voice of the law, as delivered at mount Sinai, and as roaring in the contciences of awakened finners ! It (preads blacknefs and darknefs through their fouls; burns like a tormenting fire within them; overwhelms them like an horrible tempest; summons them, as with the sound of a trumpet, to appear at God's awful bar for judgment; and makes them dread to hear of any thing more of its rigorous terrors, which they know not how to bear. Yes, the holieft of men, like Mofes himfelf, must tremble, when they think of God's infinite purity and unyielding justice, as confidered only according to the tremendous revelation of them in his righteous law. But how encouraging, comforting, and glorious, are the difcoveries and bleffings of gofpel-grace ! Here deliverance from the law and all its terrors, and the richeft privileges are fet before condemned finners; and believers in Jefus have free admiffion to all heavenly bleffings with the New Teftament-church : For the living God dwells after a more fpiritual and excellent manner in them than ever he did in the temple on mount Sion, and in the beloved city of Jerufalem. They have delightful and beneficial communion by faith and love with innumerable myriads of holy angels; with the fpirits of departed faints, which are made perfect in happiness and holiness; and with the universal church of militant and triumphant believers, whole names are written in heaven : And they have humble boldness of access to God, the Judge of the whole world, as they come by faith to him through the Mediator of the new covenant, under the fprinklings of his blood, which ipcaks better things than the blood, even of Abel's facrifice. How should we rejoice and bless God for the gospel-dispensation, which brings us to our only remedy against the terrors of the law, and to a happy communion with God and Christ, angels and faints! This is a constitution of a fpiritual and heavenly nature, and is revealed and confirmed immediately from heaven by our bleffed Lord, whole voice flook the earth in delivering the law at mount Sinai, and who made a most excellent revolution, which may be called his fhaking heaven as well as earth, in fetting alide the Mofaic dispensation, and introducing that of the gospel-state in its stead. How firmly is this glorious difpenfation of light and grace established, to continue without any change to the confummation of all things! It confifts of fuch a fpiritual church-ftate, with respect to its worship and ordinances, privileges and bleffings, as cannot be shaken; and is a kingdom which cannot be moved. O with what fpirituality and folemnity thould we worthip God according to this heavenly eftabliftment! Though he is a reconciled God and Father in Chrift to all fincere believers, he is a devouring fire to all neglecters and abufers of his grace, and particularly to all hypocrites and apoftates. How highly therefore doth it concern us to receive, and hold faft, the golpel of the kingdom with faith and love; and to have the truth of grace in our own fouls, whereby we may be enabled to ferve God acceptably, through Chrift, with all devotional reverence of his facred majefty, and filial fear of offending him !

Digitized by Google

CHAP.

HAP. С XIII.

The apofile exhorts to the various duties of brotherly love, hosnitality, Christian sympathy, marriage chastity, contentedness with such worldly circumstances as Providence allots to us, and paying due respect to the instructions, example, and memory of faithful paf-Cautions against being carried away with Jewish 10rs, 1,-8. doctrines and ceremonies, which are fulfilled in Christ, the gospel High Prieft, altar, and lacrifice, 9,-14. Adds further exhortations to duties, that relate to God, to our neighbour, and them that are fet over us in the Lord, 15,-17. Defires the prayers of the Hebrews, and prays for them, 18,-21. Recommends what he bad wrote in this epifile to their ferious confideration : Gives them hopes of his own and Timothy's coming to fee them; and concludes with his usual falutations and benediction, 22,-25.

PARAPHRASE.

LET brotherly love continue. LET it be your carnett care and endeavour, that as ye have begun; (chap. vi. 10.) fo ye may go on to maintain and cultivate an abiding and growing exercife of a brotherly and affectionate temper and behaviour, in all offices of friendship one towards another, and towards all your fellow-Chriftians, who are members of the fame family, children of the fame heavenly Father, brethren in Chrift your elder brother, partakers of the fame grace, and heirs together of the fame glory, whether they be Jews or Gentiles, or whatfoever denomination they are diffinguished by.

2 Extend your brotherly compaffion, in a fpecial manner, to fuch honeft religious ftrangers *, as are perfecuted for righteoufnefs fake, and driven from their own habitations and country; or as voluntarily go about to preach the golpel. (Alls viii. 1. and 2 John, ver. 5,---8.) Do not defpife or neglect thefe, or withhold your charity from, and harden your hearts against them; but be always ready, according to your abilities and opportunities, to entertain them with liberality and friendship: Receive them into your hearts and houses; and supply them with needful accommodations and affiftances of every kind. This will be an L112 honour ftrangers, whether they be truly re- ftands among those, that relate to the ligious or not, and was enjoined by the benevolent carriage of Chriftians one tolaw to Ifrael, Deut. x. 19. as hofpitali- wards another, as fuch, according to ty in general alio is by the apoltle, Rom. their various circumstances, it is to be xii. 13. and Gal. vi. 10.; and the very confidered as one branch of brotherly heathens practifed it in the generous and love, which was to be thewn in entercompaffionate entertainment they gave taining ftrangers of that character. to Paul and the fhipwrecked company,

NOT E. * Though it is indeed common hu who were entire firangers to them, Acts manity to fhew kindnefs to neceffitous xxviii 2, 7.: Yet as this exhortation

2 Be not forgetful to entertain for ftrangers : thereby fome have entertained angels unawares.

TEXT.

honour to God and Christian religion, a feafonable relief to those whom his providence cafts in your way : and a noble fatisfaction to your own minds in reflection upon it, as it has formerly been to others : For by this generous temper toward strangers, fome of our religious anceftors, fuch as Abraham and Lot, (Gen. xviii: 2,-8. and xix. 1,-3.) had the honour of entertaining angels *, whom, by their appearance, they then took to be only good men.

3 Another branch of duty, which belongs to, and is included in brotherly love, and which I would earneflly recommend to you, is, that as ye have had compaffion on me in my bonds; (chap. x. 34.) fo ye would bear upon your hearts, pity and pray for, tening yourfelves also derly fympathize with, and, as far as in you lies, contribute to the relief and comfort of, and, if opportunity offers, make friendly vifits, and give all poffible affistance to, those faithful professors and ministers of Chrift that are caft into prison, and laid under bonds, for his and the gospel's sake : Do this, like perfons embarked in the fame glorious caufe, for which they fuffer, and that compaffionate them as feelingly, as if ye yourfelves were actually in like diftreffed circumftances with them. And I befeech you to be as mindful of, and tenderly affected towards all your fellow Christians, that fuffer, if not unto impriforment, yet, reproaches, the fpoiling of their goods, and other hardships on Chrift's account, or that labour under grievous afflictions and tribulations of any kind; confidering yourfelves, as members of the fame myftical body with them; (1 Cor. xii. 12, 13, 25, 26, 27.) and reflecting upon your own state and condition, as liable and exposed to the like trials, while ye, as well as they, dwell in mortal flesh, and have no fecurity but that your own lot may foon be the fame with theirs.

> N 0 T E.

tle here refers to the entertainment that Son of God; for Lot did not entertain Abraham and Lot gave to the angels, him; and if they both had done this, which appeared to them in human form; it was no more than hath been faid of one of those angels, who appeared to Abraham, is all along reprefented in the Lord, while he was upon earth, under hittory under the title of Jebovab, who the character of a mere man, or mef-fpoke of, and converfed with Abraham, fenger from God at moft, while they did Gen. xviji 1. and xiii. 17,-22.; and fo not know him to be the Son of God, or was not a created angel, but the Son of the true Mefliah. Inftances of which - God, the Angel of the covenant (See we have in the Pharifee, who invited the note on Acts vii. 38.) But as he him to eat with him at his house; and continued with Abraham, and only the in two of his own difciples, who took other two angels were entertained by him for a ftranger, and conftrained him Lot, it could not have been faid with to eat with them, while their eyes were propriety, in the plural number, (as has holden that they fould not know him. been fuppoled would have ftrengthened (Luke vii. 36. and xxiv. 16,-18, 29,the argument) that fome (TIVES) enter- 31.)

* If (as is highly probable) the apol- tained angels, one of which was the feveral, who entertained our bleffed

4 Let

Remember 3 them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which fuffer adverfity, as bein the body.

4 Marriage is honourable in all. and the bed undefiled : but whore mongers and adulterers God will judge.

4 Let none caft a reproach upon the ordinance of marriage *, which God hath inftituted and bleffed, and given laws about; (Gen. ii. 23, 24. and Mat. xix. 5.) which Chrift honoured with his prefence ; (John ii. 1,-11.) and which was appointed by the God of nature and providence, for producing a legitimate offfpring, for the harmony of families and the good of fociety, and for a proper remedy against all uncleannels: And provided this relation to be entered into, with the mutual free confent of only one fuitable man and woman, and within prefcribed bounds for preventing incestuous cohabitation, (Lev. xviii. 6,-18.) it is fo far from being in itself unworthy, or unlawful, that it is a very honourable state of life, in both fexes of all ranks, degrees, and professions; and is to accounted by all civilized nations : And let those who are in a flate of wedlock, preferve the honour of the marriage-bed inviolated, by abitaining from an adulterous use of other men or women, and by a fuitable and feafonable performance of the marriage-duty, (1 Cor. vii. 2,-5.) which will put an honour upon it. But as to those who are guilty in thought or deed, (Mat. v. 28.) either of fimple fornication in a fingle flate, or of adultery in a married flate, God will often punish them in this world; or, at furthest, will call them to a fevere account, and condemn their fins, and the impenitent practifers of them, in the day of judgment, and exclude them from his heavenly kingdom. (1 Cor. vi. 9, 10.)

5 Let your conversation be without covetouinefs; and be content with fuch things as ye have : for he hath faid, I will never leave thee.

5 Another duty, which I would recommend, as of general use to you all, and of high importance to your Christian character, is, to beware of covetoufnefs in all its degrees and various ways of working; (Luke xii. 15.) which are inconfistent with the forementioned duties of brotherly love, holpitality, and compassion to them that are in adversity; (ver. 1,---3.)

days, some that condemned matrimony verb fubstantive is wanting in the Greek as an impure and unlawful state, in- to complete this sentence, our translaconfistent with the fluict chaftity that tors and others supply it by is, (sr) comment with the infinite chaining that toos and others happing it by B_i , (sr)is neceffary to the perfection of reli- and formake it an affirmative proposition; gion; while others accounted fimple and others happing it, by let it be, (sr)fornication to be no fin; and the apostle and for make it a preceptive or exhorta-forelaw, by the fpirit of prophecy, that tive proposition, just in the fame man-fuch like perincious notions would be ner as the next verie, (where is the propagated in the apoltacy of after-ages. fame omiffion in the original) is ren-(See the note on 1 Tim. iv. 1.) In oppo- dered, Let your conversation be with-fition therefore to both these errors, he out covetous fress. But as it is uncertain, recommends a married flate, as not only in which of these ways the verb may be lawtul, but honourable, prov ded its here best fupplied, both are taken into ends be puriued with fidelity, and a be- the paraphrafe. coming chaftity of mind, to the prevent-

NOTE

* There were, it feems, in these ing of fornication and adultery .- As the

Digitized by Google

443

The Epiftle to the thee.

thee, nor forfake 3.) let there be no immoderate defires, or pursuits after the things of this world, in your temper, traffic, and manner of life; in fetting your hearts upon them, and making an idol of them, as if they were your chief good ; in being over eager to get them, especially by any fraudulent, unjust, or oppreffive means; in grudging any proper expence for the reafonable fupport and comfort of yourfelves and families, according to your respective stations; and being loth to communicate of them, as occasions require, for the glory of God, the relief of the poor and afflicted, and the fervice of civil and religious interests; and in thinking it too great an hardship to part with them, when, for the fake of your profession of Christ and his gospel, your perfecuting enemies would deprive you of them. All these are plain indications of covetousness; and if any man, in this fense, love the world, the love of the Father is not in him: (I John ii. 15.) But, in opposition hereunto, it is incumbent upon you, as Chriftians, to be thoroughly reconciled to, and well pleafed with your prefent circumstances, even the meanest and most afflicted of them, without envying the eafe and affluence of others; as being fully perfuaded that the things, which God deals out to you from day to day, in the way of your duty *, are better than your deferts, and are, upon the whole, what he knows to be most for his own glory, and fitteft and best for you : For he, who is the Almighty, the only living and true God, whofe kingdom rules over all, and whole faithfulnels is unchangeable,

NO T E.

* As the exhortation to Christian contentment with fuch things as we bave, relating to the prefent life, is by no means to be understood to countenance floth or idlenefs in our fecular callings, which is every where feverely reproved and condemned in fcripture; our apostle quotes it with an application fo the promise of God, not to leave, nor forfake us, is to be confidered with re- faying, in the fingular number, I will gard to any difficulties, or dangers, that never leave thee, nor forfake thee : may attend us in the difcharge of fuch And the more effectually to filence the duties as God calls us to. And though objections of unbelief, and the more this promife was made perfonally to ftrongly to affure us, that there shall Yofhua on a particular occation, (Yofh. be no failure in the performance of this i. 5.) which the apoftle feems most im- promife, there are five negatives, as it mediately to refer to; yet it is equally lies in the Greek, and may be literally applicable, as a promife of God's gracious coverant, to all true believers, and hemenee. No, I will not leave the; may be pleaded and relied upon, by no, no, I will not forfake thee. (ou μn every one of them in all trials, as if it $\sigma \in \alpha \times \omega$, $\delta u \delta'$ ou $\mu n \sigma \in syx \alpha | \alpha \lambda, \pi \omega$.) And had been perfonally made to himfelf; this evidently carries the force of a con-(fee Rom. xv. 4 and 2 Cor. i. 20.) and trary frong affirmative of his being with this very promife, for fubstance at least, us at all times.

was made, not to Joshua only, but likewife to Abraham, and recited for Jacob's encouragement; (Gen. xxviii. 15.) as alfo to Solomon, (I Chron. xxviii. 20.) and to the church of Ifrael. (I Sam. xii. 22. and If. xli. 10, 17.) Accordingly, to every individual believer, as God's rendered in the ftyle of peremptory ve-changeable, like himfelf, has faid, in a way of free and absolute promise to Jo/bua, (chap. i. 5.) which stands on record for the encouragement of all his people in their various ftraits and difficulties, and equally belongs to every true believer, in the use of proper means, as if it were directed to him, by name, in all his trials, with respect to temporal, as well as spiritual concerns, Be thou assured that I will not leave thee to thyfelf, nor in the hands of any of thine enemies, nor in any wants or dangers; nor will I ever utterly forfake or abandon thee, at any time, or upon any. account, or in any circumstance whatfoever; no, I will by no means do it ; but will certainly be with thee to firengiben, belp, and uphold thee, with the right hand of my righteousness, (If. xli. 10.) all the days of thy life, and in death itself. I will guide thee with my counfel, and afterward receive thee to. glory. (Pf. lxxiii. 24.)

Digitized by Google

444

6 So that we believing and refting upon this com-

6 So that we may boldly fay, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

prehenfive promife, as applicable to ourfelves, may, and ought to fay with humble confidence, and fweet compofure of fpirit, each one for himfelf; and fhould openly avow it, with holy boldness in the profeffion of our faith in God, as the Plalmilt did amidit all his dangers and diftreffes, (P/. lvi. 4, 11. and exviii. 6.) Whatfoever my straits and difficulties, wants and troubles be, the Lord Jehovah himfelf, the everlafting God, who faints not, nor is weary, is my fupport, fuccour, and defence; and having him on my fide to take my part, to revive my foul with grace, and over-rule all events for my good, I will not be afraid of the very worft that the most powerful, fubtle, and inveterate of all mine enemies, who are but men of weak and mortal flesh, can do against me; as though he, who is my helper, were not an over-match for them. If God be for us, who can be against us? (Rom. viii. 31.) And if we be follow-ers of that which is good, who is be that shall barm us? (1 Peter iii. 13.)

Remember 7 them which have the rule over you, who have fpoken unio

7 As ever ye would practife the duties, and have your faith ilrengthened in the promifes but now mentioned, fee that ye pay a due regard to the memory of those deceased faithful ministers *, who were your fpiritual

Digitized by Google

NOTE

rule over you, (unmonuli ran nyouminan their conversation. feems plainly to in*utaw*) literally translated is, Remember terpret it of former pastors, who were your guides, or leaders, without reftrain- then deceased; and at the fame time ing it to those that had then the pastoral shows that their rule over them, as our care of them, who are spoken of, ver. translation hath it, confisted in their go-17.; and the remaining part of this verse, ing before them, as their guides or lead-

* Remember them which have the them the word of God, and the end of which mentions their having spoken to ers in doctrine, discipline, and exempla-of God : whole faith follow, confidering the end of their conversation :

Г¥

8 Jesus Chrift the fame yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

unto you the word fpiritual guides, under Chrift their great Lord and Master; and often call to mind the doctrines, commands, and promifes, which they delivered to you according to the word of God, that only rule of faith. worship, and obedience. Remember them in such a manner, as to embrace, and adhere to the pure doctrines of faith, which they preached to you, and as to imitate their own faith therein, and their faithfulnefs in profeffing and publishing them, together with all the excellent and holy fruits thereof, as they appeared in their lives. And ye ought to be excited to this, by ferioufly reflecting upon what ye have feen, or heard, and observed of the peaceful and joyous manner with which they finished the course of their good conversation in Christ, and obtained a noble victory over, and happy exit, or outlet (second) from all the troubles and dangers that here attended them ; how they then escaped from them all, and went with triumph to glory. This may well animate you to tread in their fleps.

8 For, though fome of your ministers are gone, and others are going off the stage; yet the Redeemer and Head of the church ever lives, Jefus Chrift, the object, author, and finisher of your faith, is unchangeably the fame in his divine perfon *, as from everlasting to everlasting God; and is the fame in his love to his people, in his care of them, and in his offices for them, and promifes to them, as their only Saviour through all generations: He ever was the fame beretofore in the virtue and efficacy of his undertakings and performances to Old Testament believers, and to all that have fince died and got fafe to heaven ; and he is still the fame to all New Testament-believers now living upon the earth; and will be the fame to all fucceeding ages of them, until the confummation of all things; and the fame to them all for ever afterwards: And therefore ye ought to be ftedfaft evangelical pastors lies, not in giving subordinate, as it ever ought to be, to laws, broaching doctrines, or exercifing the authority of Chriftany authority of their own; but in exlaws and doctrines of Chrift, and incul- racteristic of the unchangeable permacating them on the confciences of his nency of the great Jehovah of Ifrael, the people, by his fole authority, and exem- I am, Pfal. cii. 27.; and it had been ap-plifying them in their own faith and ho- plied to Chrift in chap. i. 12; (see the ly conversation, according to what they note there) and confidering the connechave received by their commission, and from him, as contained in his word. All pretences to church-authority beyond to the uncertain continuance of dying this, is really an ulurpation, an anti-chrif- ministers.

N 0 TES.

ry conversation : And indeed the rule of tian-lordship, instead of being entirely

* There is a ftrong emphasis in this plaining, establishing, and defending the word the fame ; (o aulos) for it is a chation with the foregoing verle, with which can prove that they have received them the apoftle brings it in here, it fets the " unchangeableneis of Ghrift in oppofition

HEBREWS paraphrafed.

9 Be not carried and strange doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be eftablifhed with grace, not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied thereiu.

ftedfaft in the faith, as ye have been taught; and to have the fame truft and dependence upon him, as your faithful guides had, the end of whole convertation was with honour and joy.

9 Take heed then, left, by departing from Chrift *, about with divers and from the doctrines and examples of your former guides, as far as they followed him, ye, like children, be toffed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the flight of men, and cunning craftine/s, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; (Eph. iv. 14.) and, particularly, left ye be fluctuating, and whirled about, like a thip in a florm, or like clouds by the wind, and be unfettled in your minds by various doctrines about feveral Jewijk rites and ceremonies, which are different from, foreign to, and inconfiftent with, the fimplicity of the golpel of Chrift; but which erroncous teachers infift upon, as neceffary still to be observed in order to falvation. (Acts xv. 1.) Beware of being mifled by these falle notions: For it is every way incomparably better + that the foul, inclusive of all its facultics, be fully perfuaded of, and fledfailly fixed in its dependence upon, the free love and favour of God in Chrift, as revealed in the gofpel for the remiffion of fin, peace of confcience, and acceptance with God to eternal life; and that it be fortified against all wavering about the truth and importance of this doctrine, by an experience of its efficacy in a work of heart-changing grace, than vainly to imagine that these bleffings can be obtained by obfervances of the ceremonial law, which had a peculiar reference to, and were fanctified by the altar, and flood in meats, and drinks, and divers wa/bings, and carnal ordinances, imposed upon the Jews, until the time of reformation; but which, as they could not make him that did the fervice perfect, as pertaining to the confcience; (chap. ix. 9, 10.) fo they of themfelves neither were, nor could be, of any fpiritual and faving advantage to those who were most conversant with them, even during be confidered as founded upon what had the whole frame of the Mofaic inftitubeen juit before faid of Jefus Chrift's be- tion, which had a particular reference to ing the fume, yesterday. and to-day, and the altar, and was iancified by it. This for ever. And the doctrines, which the gives us a proper clew for understanding apoftle more particularly warned the He- the meaning of thefe verles, which otherbrews against, were such as related to wife appear to be very obscure in their the Jewish meats, that were under the connection. law to be effeemed clean or unclean, and to be eaten or not, according as they thing (xalor) is translated better, Mat. were or were not to be, or had or had xviii. 8, 9 and in that fente I apprehend not been, offered on the altar; and con- it is most fitly to be taken here.

NOTES.

* This, and the following verfes, may fequently extended to the facrifices, and

+ The word here rendered a good Mmm

VOL. V.

to We have an altar whereof they have no right to eat, which ferve the tabernacle.

II For the bodies of those beafts, whose blood is brought into the fanctuary by the high prieft for fin, are burnt without the camp.

12 Wherefore Jefus alfo, that he might fanctify the people ring the legal dispensation; much less can they be fo now; but, on the contrary, are very pernicious to those that have continued to keep up a religious regard to them; the altar itself, and all the rites and ceremonies dependent upon it, being now of no further use, fince all that was typified thereby is fulfilled in Chrift.

10 We, of the New Testament-church, have an incomparably better altar and facrifice of a fpiritual nature in Chrift, who, through the eternal Spirit, offered him/elf without spot to God; (chap. ix. 14.) and fo was, in his own perfon, the prieft, altar, and facrifice too, whole divine nature supported, and gave an infinite value to his facrifice, as the altar fanctified the gift : (Matth. xxiii. 19.) And this furnishes out a feaft to our faith, in receiving the bleffings of his purchafe with application to ourfelves, which they have no authority, title, or claim to be partakers of, who still abide by, and live in the observation of, the external and typical fervices of the Jewi/b tabernacle, to make atonement for fin; or who, acting the part of Levitical priefts, perform the offices of it for that purpose. (In ounin Datesvortes) They have no more right to feast upon this facrifice of Christ, than even the priefts themfelves had to eat any part of the finofferings, which were to be totally confumed. (Lev. vi. 20.')

11 For according to the appointment of God in the law, with respect to those beasts, particularly bulls and goats for the fin-offering, (chap. x. 4, 5, 6.) the blood of which was carried into the most holy place by the high prieft, on the great day of atonement; it was ordered that the bodies of those facrifices, together with their skin and dung should be burnt, and utterly confumed by fire, in fome place, which lay out of the borders of the camp of I/rael: (Lev. xvi. 27.) And fo the priefts themfelves were not allowed to eat of those expiatory facrifices, that were most eminently typical of the great propitiatory facrifice of Chrift, which he offered when he redeemed us from the curfe of the law, being made a curfe for us; (Gal. iii. 13.) and with the blood of which be entered in once into the boly place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. (Chap. iz. 12.) This plainly fhews, that no legal fervices can make any one partaker of his facrifice, which was prefigured by those, from the eating of which, even under the law, both prieft and people were entirely excluded.

12 Therefore, for the most evident and exact accomplishment of the thing fignified by those eminently typical fin-offerings, Jesus also, our great High Priest.

Chap. xiii.

own blood, suffered without the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the teproach.

people with his Prieft, that he might effectually make atonement for the fins of his fpiritual I/rael*, and might confecrate them as a peculiar people to God, by fhedding, not the blood of bulls and goats, but his own most precious blood, which he carried into the heavenly fanctuary. This Jefus, I fay, fuffered his painful and ignominious crucifixion, under the curfe of the law, on mount-Calvary, without the gates of Jerufalem; (Luke xxiii. 33.) which corresponded to the burning of the bodies of the fin offering, as things devoted to destruction, without the borders of the camp of Ifrael, while they fojourned in the wildernefs; which might also intimate Chrift's leaving their temple, city, worfhip, privileges, and church-flate to fall into ruins, and leaving them to perifh in their iniquities, who would obflinately adhere to that conflicution, and reject him, according to what he denounced when he was going out from thence. (Mat. xxiii.

HEBREWS paraphra [ed.

38, 39. and Luke xxiii. 27,-31.) 13 Let us therefore, who make a profession of his name, and pretend to look for falvation by him, go forth by faith and hope, defire and love, to him, as camp, bearing his those that place all our dependence upon him, and have all our expectation from him, and that affectionately embrace him; leaving the Jewi/b camp, and the altar and temple at Jerusalem, and all the legal inftitutions pertaining to them, behind us, as having no expectation from them, nor any further to do with them. Let us also do the like by this world, and all the concernments of it, which answer to the political state of the Jews, first in their camp, and afterwards in their city, that we may go out from all its allurements and enjoyments in our hearts and affections, and fet them upon Chrift, who fuffered without the gates of Jeru/alem. Let us chearfully and boldly own him, under all the fcandal of his crofs; and be willing to bear the reproach of believing in a crucified Jefus, for all falvation, how much foever it may be a flumbling block to the Jews, and foolifhnefs to the Greeks; (I Cor. i, 23.) and let us stand ready to fuffer shame, contempt, and fcorn for his fake, as those who, in imitation of him, have learned to deny ourfelves, and take up our crofs and follow him. (Mal. xvi. 24.)

14 For here have we

14 For as the city of Jerufalem itfelf +, which fuc-Mmm 2 ceeded

Digitized by Google

Sanctifying the people is to be un- a facrificial fense, for parging them trom by the Spirit, though that is purchased by to God the blood of Chrift ; but it is to be taken derstood, not of internal functification the guilt of fin, and confectating them (See the note on chep. ii. II.) + Here feems to be an allufion to the here, as it frequently is in this epiftle, in city of Jerufalem, which, though it was we no continuing city, but we feek one to come.

15 By him therefore let us offer the facrifice of praife to God continually.

that is, the fruit of bur lips, giving to his thanks

name.

ceeded the camp of I/rael in the wilderness, as the feat of fewi/b worship, and of all political, as well as religious interefts, shall foon be utterly destroyed, according to the prediction of our bleffed Lord; (Luke xix. 41,-44.) fo we have no durable flate of happinefs, or of fettled refidence in this lower world, as if here were our reft: But as pilgrims and strangers upon earth, (chap. xi. 13.) and as perfons driven from place to place by our perfecuting enemies, we, who believe in Jesus, realize by faith, earnestly defire, look and long for, and, by all the ways and means of God's appointment, feek after a future and better city; a flate of everlafting reft and peace, honour, fafety, harmony and delight, even one of a glorious and heavenly nature, a city which has foundations, whole builder and maker is God, who, as our God, has prepared it (Chap. xi. 10, 16.) for us.

15 In confideration therefore of Chrift's having redecined and confecrated us to God, by his own blood, (fee the paraphrafe and note on ver. 12.) Let us afcribe all poffible glory to God through him, as our only High Prieft, Sacrifice, and Advocate, and as the altar that fanctifies our oblations: Let us abound in daily evangelical offerings of thankigiving and praile to God, every morning and evening; and be ready to prefent them to him at all times, in all circumstances, and for every thing, efpecially for Chrift and all the bleffings of his purchafe; offerings, not for explation, which is made perfectly and alone by his facrifice; but fpiritual offerings of grateful acknowledgment, which we, as a holy evangelical priefthood, are to offer up, acceptably to God by Jefus Chrift; (I Peter ii. 5.) and which, in diffinction from the legal offerings of calves, bullocks, and other beafts, are metaphorically called the calves of our lips; (Hof. xiv. 2.) and, in allufion to the first fruits under the law, may be styled the fruit of our lips, as they confift of chearful confessions that all the good we have, or hope for, proceeds from the free favour of God, which is to be acknowledged to the glory of his adorable name, not only by every one fingly for himfelf, but with united hearts and voices, and with focial celebrations of his praife.

16 But to do good, and to communicate, forget net:

" 16. But while your hearts and lips are full of gratitude and praife to God, through Jefus Chrift, and on his account, for all his mercies toward you, Take heed rity iticli was now to be foon deftroyed, and of all things in it.

Т E. N 0

a city of babitation that Ifrael fought af- together with the whole frame of its cifer, while they were journeying in the vil, as well as religious privileges; and wilderneis, and which God led them to fo was a fit emblem of the fleeting, unby a right way, Plal. evil. 7.; yet that certain, and transitory state of this world,

of

HEBREWS paraphrased.

not : for with fuch facrifices God is well pleafed. of thinking that this is the only facrifice of thankful acknowledgment that ye are bound to offer in return for his goodnels. Be careful to cultivate a merciful, kind, and generous temper; and to abound in all acts of beneficence toward your fellow-creatures, that as ye have opportunity, ye may do good unto all men, especially to them who are of the houshold of faith; (Gal. vi. 10.) and may give them a partnership, or communion with you (xourwriag) in your temporal good things, by communicating to them as their need requires : For this fort of offerings, as well as praifes, are to the glory of God, when prefented with faith and love, and in obedience and devotednefs to him, and, though not meritorious, yet are agreeable to his gracious nature and will, and well pleafing to him, (Phil. iv. 18.) who accepts both you and them in the beloved, in like manner as he had a respect to Abel and his offering, which that righteous man prefented with faith in the atoning facrifice of the promifed Meffiah. (Gen. iv. 4. and Heb. xi. 4. fee the note there.)

37 Obey them that have the rule over you, and fubmit yourfelves: for they watch for your fouls, as they that muft give account: that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

17 As ever ye would improve all appointed means of grace and ministerial affittances, for difcharging the forementioned duties; fee that ye not only remember to imitate the faith, and the exemplary conversation of your deceased paftors; (ver. 7.) but that ye pay a religious regard to the doctrines and precepts of those, who under our Lord Jefus, that great Shepherd of the fheep, (ver. 20.) are, or hereafter may be your spiritual guides or leaders, (ny usions upon, fee the note on ver. 7.) to conduct you in the way of truth and holinefs, not as having dominion over your faith. but as helpers of your joy : (2 Cor. i. 24.) And let it be a point of duty with you, to yield yourfelves up to Chrift's authority, in them, as over feers which the Holy Ghost has set over you. (Acts xx. 28.) Attend upon, receive, and comply with their inftructions, exhortations, admonitions, and reproofs, not with an implicit faith and obedience; but, as far as it appears, that they speak and act in the name of Christ according to his word: For as it is their proper office, bufinefs, and duty; fo it is the care and concern of those of them, who understand, and are faithful to their important truft, to watch over you in the Lord, with all diligence according to the ability which he gives them, that they may infpect your principles, temper, and beha-viour; may guard and caution you against all iniquity, error, and fpiritual danger; and may lay themicives out in the best manner they can, to fubferve the edification and eternal falvation of your immortal fouls: And they engage in this momentous work with a conficience toward God, as accountable fervants, that are Digitized by Google are daily fpreading before him, in their addreffes to the throne of grace, what they observe of the flate of their flocks, and the fruit of their labours among them, whether it be hopeful, or difcouraging; and are deeply fensible that they must give an account to their Lord and Master in the day of judgment, how far they have been fuccefsful, as well as diligent and faithful in their ministry. These folemn thoughts awaken them to the greatest zeal and care in the difcharge of their duty, that they may go on in their works and report the fruits of it to God, with chearfulnefs and delight, and not with mournful hearts, while they are labouring in it; and may give up fuch a final account of the issues of their holy ministrations, as shall be matter of exceeding joy and triumph to them, (I Theff. ii. 19.) and not of fad difappointment of their hopes concerning you: For, were this to be the cafe, they tremble to think that, though they themfelves are to God a (weet favour of Christ in them that are faved, and in them that perish; (2 Cor. ii. 15.) yet all their preaching, watchfulnefs, and care, would be loft upon you; and, inftead of your reaping any good fruit from them, would turn to your greater condemnation and mifery for ever.

18 We who are employed in the facred office of the ministry, being fensible of the awfulnefs of our work, of the many difficulties that attend it, and of our own utter infufficiency, and need of divine affiftance to carry us on in it, and to carry us through it with fidelity, comfort, and advantage, earneftly request your continual importunate prayers for us, that, whatever our fuccels be, we may be found faithful in the day of Chrift: For, notwithstanding all our fufferings, and all that our enemies may fuggeft to the contrary, we truft with humble confidence, that we are upright (though, alas! attended with many infirmities) in our views and labours for the honour of Chrift, and the good of fouls; (fee 2 Cor. i. 12.) and our confciences bear us witnefs, as in the fight of God, that we are heartily defirous and determined, through his ftrengthenings, to live foberly, righteoufly, and godly, (Tit. ii. 12.) with a due decorum, (xalws) fuitable to our moral, religious, and ministerial characters, in all our behaviour toward God and man.

19 But I more efpecially beg your united prayers for my direction and fupport, under all prefent trials; for deliverance from the dangers I am exposed to; and for the bleffing of God upon the fervices I am now engaged in, that, when he has done his work by me in these parts, he would remove all difficult a out of my way, and give me a proper opportunity

Digitized by Google

of

13 Pray for us: for we truft we have a good confcience, in all things willing to live homefuly.

19 But I befeech you the rather to do this, that I may be reftored to you the fooner.

20 Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord

Jefus, that great the fine of the theep, through the blood of the ever-

lafting covenant,

HEBREWS paraphrased.

of returning, and being further useful to you by my perfonal ministry, and of being comforted together with you by our mutual faith, (Rom. i. 12.) which I am defirous of, and hope will be haftened through your prayers for it.

20 In the mean while, as I defire your prayers for me, (ver. 18, 19.) fo I am continually mindful of you in my fervent fupplications to the God of all grace, whom I address on your behalf, under the encouraging and endearing confideration of him as the God of peace, who is our reconciled God, Father, and Friend; and is the Author and Giver of peace of conficence, and peace one with another, and of all manner of prosperity in the dispensations of providence and grace, till it be perfected in an everlasting enjoyment of him; Who, in the scheme of redemption, fullaining the character of the fovereign Lord, Judge, and Lawgiver, to demand and receive the fatisfaction due to divine justice for our fins, not only raifed our Lord and Saviour from the dead, by an exertion of his divine power; (fee the note on Rom. viii. 11.) but, by an act of fupreme authority, legally discharged him in a judicial way, as our public head and reprefentative; and fo took bim from prison, and from judgment, and raifed bim again for our juflification. (If. liii. 8. and Rom. iv. 25.) This he did in token of his entire approbation and acceptance of what Christ had done and fuffered in our room and flead, who in his perfon and office, as a divine Saviour, is by way of eminence, dignity, and propriety, the great and only chief Shepherd of the dear chofen flock, which the Father had given him to take effectual care of, in the execution of all his offices, as a Prophet, Prieft, and King, that he, like a good shepherd, who has a special love to, and interest in his theep, might redeem them from all iniquity, and purify them to bim/clf, as a peculiar people, (Titus ii. 14.) might gather them into his fold; and might feed, guide, govern, and preferve them from all dangers; defend them against all their enemies; and bring them fafe to glory: All which is brought about by means, and in virtue of his blood *, which he fhed to make their peace with God, who, on account of his having done this, raifed him from the dead, great Shepherd of the fheep; and others, all the preceding parts of the verie,

* Through the blood of the everlaft- to God's being the God of peace, according covenant, most immediately refers to ing to the current doctrine of the Scrip-God the Father's bringing our Lord tures concerning him, as reconciled by Jefus from the dead. But fome in- the blood of Chrift; and I do not fee clude its reference to Chrift's being the why we may not extend its reference to

Digitized by Google

NOTE.

dead, and gave all power into his hands, that he might give eternal life to them; he having by his precious blood purchased them for himself, and purchafed for them all the bleffings of the covenant of grace, and confirmed it irrevocably patt appeal: (chap. ix. 15,-17.) And fo, in opposition to the mount-Sinai difpensation of the covenant, which was of a temporary nature to wax old, and vanish away, (chap. viii. 13.) this is, ftrictly and properly speaking, an everlasting covenant in its conftitution, and in its benefits, which, together with the covenant itfelf. shall abide for ever.

21 May this God of peace fet to rights all the moral diforders of each of your fouls, and of your whole community, and reduce them to all the regularity of hearts united to fear his name*, that ye may be thoroughly prepared, fitted and difpofed, and always ready and enabled for every kind of good work, and for every act of that kind, relating to him, yourfelves, and others, to perform it in a holy, fpiritual, evangelical manner, from principles of faith and love, according to the rule of his word, in obedience to his command, and for his glory; and fo may chearfully, continually, and unrefervedly fubmit to his difposing, and obey his preceptive will in all things, according to the notices he gives of both by his providence, word, and Spirit ? And as ye are infufficient for this of yourfelves, May he, of his good plea/ure, work in you both to will and to do, every thing, as in his fight and prefence, that bears his own image, and is agreeable to his holy nature and will, and that he observes and delights in, as the effect of his own grace, and as acceptable to him, through the merit and mediation of Jefus Chrift! To him, who is the great Shepherd of the fheep +, and to the God of peace through him, (ver. 20.) May all poffible adoration, honour, and glory, on account of what each and rendered make you perfect, fignifies (1 Cor. i. 10.) to fet things to rights, and reduce them to their proper ftate that were out of order, and to prepare them for a ule which they were unfit for before. Accordingly it is rendered in other places, to prepare, frame, fit, reftore, and perfectly join together, as in chap. x. 5. and xi. 3. A body haft thou PREPARED me, -The worlds were FRAMED by the word of God And the apoftle speaks of vesselies of wrath, due to both; and we may give it such a FITTED to destruction. Rom. ix. 22. of turn, as makes it applicable to each of RESTORING fuch as are overtaken in a these divine persons. fault, (Gal. vi. 1.) and of being PERFECT.

N 0 Т ES.

* The word (xaragrisai) here used, LY JOINED TOGETHER in the fame mind.

of

+ It may be fomewhat uncertain, whether this doxology is to be referred to the God of peace, who is most directly addreffed in this prayer, or to Jefus Chrift, who is the nearest antecedent, and with whom it ftands in the closeft connection. However, as it is undoubtedly directed elfewhere, fometimes to the Father, and at others to our Lord Jefus Chrift, it is

Digitized by Google

Make you perfect in every good work, to do his will, working in you that which

Jefus Chrift: to whom be glory for ever and ever. A-

/ is well-pleafing in his fight, through 21 men.

22 And I befeech you, brethren, fuffer the word of exhortation : for' I have written a letter unto you in few words.

23 Know ye, that our brother Timothy is fet whom, if he come you.

24 Salute all the rule over you, and all the faints. They tisfy us whether Timothy ever returned Hebrews from Italy, by Timothy.

Vol. V.

of these divine perfons are in themselves, have been, are, and will be to us, be afcribed henceforth continually, through all the ages of time, and to an endles eternity ! So it ought to be, and fo we and all true believers defire it may be, and are well affured it shall be, in testimony of which we heartily fay, Amen.

22 And now to draw to a clofe, my dear brethren, whom I love, not only as my kindred according to the flefh, but especially as fellow-Chrittians, I earneltly beg of you that, laying alide all prejudices, ye would take in good part, and readily receive and comply with the word of exhortation and confolation, including all the inftructions and cautions which I have given you in this epifile; and that ye would not think it too long or tedious: For, though it be larger than fome others of my writing, I have fummed up the doctrines contained in it, relating to the Mofaic law, and the perfon, offices, and gospel of Christ, in as fhort a compass as I well could, confistent with the vaft importance of the things themfelves, and your concernment in them, and with my great affection to you; as also in comparison with the much greater enlargement I could have gone into, had it feemed needful for you.

23 There is one thing further, which I with great pleafure would acquaint you with, as I know ye at liberty; with would be glad to hear of it; and that is, that our dear brother Timothy, who is well reported of among shortly, I will see you, (Acts xvi. 2.) and as a fon with the Father, bas ferved with me in the gospel, (Phil. ii. 22.) is now releafed out of prifon, and gone upon important affairs to another place *; and if, according to my prefent hopes, he should ere long return to me, and I should have my liberty, I purpose, by the will of God, to come along with him, and give myfelf the fatisfaction of feeing and conversing with you, for the furtherance of your faith and joy.

24 In the mean while, I defire that those of you, them that have into whose hands this epiftle may first come, would present my most affectionate Christian love and refpects to all your fpiritual guides, who are fet over you

NOTE.

Timothy it feems had been in prifon, to the apoftle, or either of them ever probably with the apoftle Paul at Rome; went to visit the Hebrews, though at but was by this time released from his the time of writing this epiftle he had bonds, and gone to fome other place, to hopes of it; and, with a due fubmiffion which it is likely the apoftle had ient him, to the will of God, wrote his defign acas he often did to one place or another, cording to thole hopes. What is here as occasions required. But as all our faid of Timothy confutes the poffcript. times and ways are in the hands of the which was added by latter hands, and Lord; fo we have no account that can fa- speaks of this epifile, as written to the

Nnn

The Epifle to the

They of Italy ia. you in the Lord ; (nyumus, for the note on ver. 7.) and to all your fellow-Christians, who by their regular profession are credibly believed to be what, I doubt not, the generality of them are, truly holy perfons, as having been fet apart by God for himfelf, and fanctified by his Spirit. Those of this character that are Italians, and are at prefent with me, join their Christian falutations with mine.

Grace be you with Amen.

25 To conclude with my common benediction, all. (see the note on Rom. xvi. 22.) which, for substance. I write in all my epiftles with my own hand, May the free love and favour of God, through Jefus Chrift, and all its bleffed manifestations, fruits, and effects, ever attend all and every one of you, (whatfoever your stations be in the church, or in the world) for your growth in grace, and in the knowledge of Chrift, and for your direction, prefervation, and comfort here, till ye arrive at his heavenly kingdom; with defire and hope of this, I fay, Amen.

RECOLLECTIONS.

What a beauty does brotherly love caft upon churches and the Christian character ! It tenderly lympathizes with, and is mindful of, compatiionate and beneficent to fuffering faints, and ftrangers among them; as being fenfible that we ourfelves are liable to like afflictions. But how inconfistent is covetousness with this benevolent temper ! And how unbecoming the people of God to be diffatisfied with the difpofals of Providence toward themfelves! For he is their helper, and has promifed that he will not leave, nor fortake them in any flate whatfoever.—As Chriftian religion fets alide no law of nature, What an honourable bond is wedlock for all, whole age and eircumftances incline them to it, and fit them for it ! But all unclean lufts, in the fingle or married life, are what God detefts, and will, fooner or later, punifh upon those that indulge them. But what a complete Saviour is Chrift ; and how ftedfaftly fhould we adhere to him ! He always has been, is, and ever will be unchangeably the fame in himself, and to his people; and is their great High Prieft, Altar, and Sacrifice too. The atonement he has made by his blood is fufficient of itfelf to procure their peace and reconciliation with God, and a facred dedication of them, as a peculiar people to him; and is effectually all that to them which was typified by the fin offering on the great day of ezpiation, as he fuffered without the gates of Jerufalem, and is gone with his own blood into heaven itielf, to appear in the presence of God for them. What a delightful and fubftantial feaft has our faith upon his factifice, which they who flick to fewift inftitutions have no right to eat of! How ready should we be to go out to him from every thing that interferes with him; to renounce all the allurements of this world for him; and chearfully to own ard honour him in all the ignominy of his crois! And being convinced of the uncertain, transitory state of all things here, Let us feek a city of everlafting reit and fafety in the world to come .- Of what momentous confequence is the ministry of Christ's faithful fervants! We fhould be imitators of their faith and holy conversation, who have been our spiritual guides, and finished their course with joy; and while perfons of this facred character are heartily engaged in their work, they diligently watch for the falvation of precious fouls; as knowing that they muft give an account of their faithful labours, which turn greatly to their own, but most of all to their hearers joy or grief, according to the good or bad effects they have upon them. Their couniels, exhortations, and reproofs, as far as agreeable to the mind and will of Chrift in his word, ought to be ferioufly attended to, free from all prejudices, and with humble obedience and fubmifion to his authority in them, that we may not be mifled, and toffed to and fro, by the errors of wicked and defigning men, who bring in various various doctrines, which are quite foreign to the Christian faith, O happy fouls, that are fecured against their seductions, and established in the truth as it is in fefus, by an experience of its power, and of a work of fpecial grace ' But as ever minifters and people would be mutual bleffings and comforts, they ought earneftly to pray one for the other. And how encouraging to faith in prayer is the confideration of God in a Mediator ! In this view, we may realize him as our reconciled God, and the author of all defirable peace and prosperity, temporal, spiritual, and eternal; and may confider our Lord Jetus Chrift, as the great Shepherd of the fheep, to take care of all, whom the Father has given, as a peculiar property and charge to him; and may think of the new and everlafting covenant, as ratified and confirmed by his blood, on account of which God the Father is pacified, and has railed him from the dead, as a public Head and Representative, for their justification. In humble dependence upon all this, with what holy boldness may we afk for every grace and favour that we ftand in need of ! As particularly that God would work all our works in and for us by his Spirit, and would enable us to offer up, with united hearts and lips, continual facilities of thankigiving and praife, and to add the most benevolent distributions to the necessities of others, especially of the houfhold of faith ! These also are acceptable to God through Jefus Chrift, as facritices of grateful acknowledgment that we receive our all from him. And how cordially and affectionately flould all the faints falute one another, and their fpiritual guides, in a Chriftian manner ! May the grace of God in Chrift be with all his minifters and people ! To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Digitized by Google

7

Chap. xiii.

THE END OF THE FIFTH VOLUME.

Digitized by Google

1 3

PRESERVATION SERVICE

SHELFMARK 1003. f. 11

THIS BOOK HAS BEEN MICROFILMED (1987) $\mathcal{R}.P.1$ MICROFILM NO .

