To the PUBLIC.

THE following Advertisement has been added by Mr. Wefley, to fome of the later Copies of Mr. Fletcher's Letters.

ADVERTISEMENT.

The Date of the preceding Letters shews that they were wrote before the late Conference, being design'd to be publickly read at that Time: but not being sent soon enough to the Printer, they were not finish'd till the Conference was ended: It was then doubted, whether it would not be needless to publish them. But it seem'd to be needful still, to remove the ill Impression; which had been made by the Circular Letter, both in England, Scotland, and Ireland; and secondly, to give some Check to the Antinomianism, which is still spreading throughout the three Kingdoms.

It is fubmitted to the Public whether the above is a fufficient Apology for publifhing a bitter perfonal Invective, after the amicable Conclusion of the Conference, contrary to the express Will and Direction of the Author himfelf, who was most earnessly folicitous to have it suppressed.— If an Explanation, or even a Vindication of the Minutes was thought expedient, might it not have been done in fome other Form in a general Way, avoiding every Thing offensive, or perfonal?

LETTER to a FRIEND.

Dear Sir,

T O prevent any falle Reprefentations of what paft on the Objections made by me and others to the doctrinal Points of the Minutes of Mr. Wefley's Conference, held in LONDON, August the 7th, 1770; a short Narrative of Facts will be the best means to clear up the whole most fully to you, Sir, and to any who may impartially with for Information; and is particularly due to those Ministers of the GOSPEL, who by Letter or Protest, expressed their united Sentiments with ours, in supposing those Minutes dangerous to the fundamental Truths of Christianity, I shall therefore begin with prefenting you with the Extract itself, that gave us the Alarm.

EXTRACT

From the Minutes of fome late Converfations between the Rev. Mr. Wefley and others, at a public Conference held in London, August the 7th, and printed by W. Pine, Brittol.

Take heed to your Dostrine.

1. With Regard to Man's Faithfulnels. Our Lord himfelf taught to use the Expression. And we ought never to be ashamed of it. We ought steadily to affert, on his Authority, that if a Man is not faithful in the unrighteous Mammon, God will not give him the true Riches.

2. With Regard to working for Life. This alfo our Lord has expressly commanded us. Labour ERGA-ZESTHE, literally work for the Meat that endureth to everlasting Life. And in Fact every Believer, till he comes to Glory, works for as well as from Life.

3. We have received it as a Maxim, that "a Man is to do nothing, in order to Juftification:" Nothing can be more false. Wheever defires to find Favor with God, should cease from Evil and learn to do well. Wheever repents, should do Works meet for Repentance. And if this is not in Order to find Favor, what does he do them for?

Review the whole Affair.

1. Who of us is now accepted of God?

He that now believes in Christ, with a loving obedient Heart.

2. But who among those that never heard of Christ? He that feareth Gon, and worketh Righteousness according to the Light he has.

3. Is this the fame with, " He that is fincere." Nearly, if not quite.

4. Is not this "Salvation by Works?"

Not by the Merit of Works, but by Works, as a Condition.

5. What have we then been diffuting about for thefe thirty Years? I am afraid about Words.

6. As to Merit itfelf, of which we have been fo dreadfully afraid: We are rewarded, according to our Works, yea becaufe of our Works. How does this differ from for the Sake of our Works? And how

how differs this from fecundum merita operum? As our Works deferve? Can you fplit this Hair? I doubt, I cannot.

7. The grand Objection to one of the preceding Propositions, is drawn from Matter of Fatt. God does in Fast justify those, who by their own Confession, neither feared GOD nor wrought Righteoufness. Is this an Exception to the general Rule?

It is a Doubt, GOD makes any Exception at all. But how are we fure, that the Perfon in question never did fear GOD and work Righteoufness? His own faying fo is not proof: For we know, how all that are convinced of Sin, undervalue them felves in every Re-[pett.

8. Does not talking of a justified or a fanctified State, tend to mislead Men? Almost naturally leading them to truft, in what was done in one moment? Whereas we are every Hour and every Moment pleafing or difpleafing to GOD, according to our Works? According to the whole of our inward Tempers, and our outward Behavior.

These Minutes being communicated to me, LADY HUNTINGDON, and fome others my Friends, Perfons warmly interefted in the Revival of Spiritual Religion, and the Doctrines of the REFORMATION, we apprehended that the Doctrines contained in the Minutes had the most fatal-Tendency, and in the ftrongeft and most explicit Terms maintained SALVATION by Works. Had the apparent Error been of a lefs Magnitude, did it not feem to fhake the FOUNDATION itfelf, we should have been lefs zealously affected concerning it; nay, had Mr. Wefley and his Connexion been of lefs Confequence in the religious World, we should have thought our-A 3 felves felves lefs concern'd to oppose them. But when we confider'd him as standing at the Head of near Thirty-Thoufand People, a Veteran in the Caufe of the Gofpel, one of the Chiefs in the late Reformation that has been carrying on in these Kingdoms for more than Thirty Years, yet deviating fo widely from his former Sentiments, Sermons, and other Writings; we deem'd Peace in fuch a Cafe, a fhameful Indolence; and Silence no lefs than Treachery. The Extract from the Minutes having been publish'd to the World, being printed in the Gofpel Magazine, under the Character of Popery unmask'd, made it further neceffary to make a Stand against them: For as the World too frequently confounds all the Friends to vital Christianity under the common Name of Methodists, we were folicitous, that no Imputation fhould lie upon our Names, either, in prefent or future Times, as tacitly confenting to Doctrines which we apprehended were fundamentally erroneous.

We confulted therefore what was to be done; and we thought the beft and moft candid Way of Procedure was, to go to the Conference, and urge a Retraction of the Minutes in Form, as by far the more defirable Thing; but, if we could not obtain this, we purpos'd, (as our laft Refort) to publifh our Proteft againft them. And as the Minutes were the Product not of Mr. Wefley fingly, but of a whole Conference, there would have been an evident Impropriety in applying to Mr. Wefley in particular, and not to the Body at large.

In order to give Weight to our Application, and to fhow Mr. Wefley, and his Preachers, how generaly the Minutes were condemn'd, and to give give all, who maintained the Gofpel of Free Grace, an Opportunity to fland for its Defence, we agreed to addrefs them in a Circular Letter; at the Bottom of which was a Recital of the Extract of the Minutes. And as the Number of Perfons to be applied to was great, for Convenience Sake, we got the Circular Letter, &c. printed in a private Prefs. But fome Days before they were circulated, LADY HUNTINGDON wrote, and inclofed one to the Rev. Mr. Charles Wefley with the Reafons which made this Step appear fo neceffary to us all, and defiring he would forward it to Mr. John Wefley wherever he might be; which he accordingly did. This Circular Letter was drawn up by me, and is as follows:

S I R

Whereas Mr. Wefley's Conference is to be held at Bristol, on Tuesday the 6th of August next, it is propos'd by Lady Huntingdon, and many other Christian Friends (real Protestants) to have a Meeting at Bristol, at the fame Time, of fuch principal Perfons, both Clergy and Laity, who disapprove of the underwritten Minutes; and as the fame are thought injurious to the very Fundamental Principles of Christianity, it is further proposed, that they go in a Body to the faid Conference and infift upon a formal Recantation of the faid Minutes; and in cafe of a Refufal, that they fign and publish their Protest against them. Your Prefence, Sir, on this Occasion is particularly requested: But if it should not fuit your Convenience to be there, it is defir'd that you will transmit your Sentiments on the Subject to fuch Perfon as you think proper to produce them. It is fubmitted to you, whether it would not be right, in the Opposition to be made to fuch a dreadful Herefy, to recommend it to as many of your Christian Friends. A 4

Friends, as well of the Diffenters, as of the established Church. as you can prevail on to be there, the Caufe being of fo public a Nature. I am, Sir, Your obedient Servant,

WALTER SHIRLEY.

P. S. Your Anfwer is defir'd, directed to the Countefs of Huntingdon, or the Rev. Mr. Shirley, or John Lloyd, Efq. in Bath; or Mr. James Ireland, Merchant, Briftol; or to Thomas Powis, Efg. at Berwick, near Shrewsbury; or to Richard Hill, Efg. at Hawkftone. near Whitchurch, Shropfhire.-Lodgings will be provided.—Enquire at Mr. Ireland's, Briftol.

To this was fubjoin'd the Extract from the Minutes which I have already given you.

After the Circulation of this Letter, the Method of proceeding, as well as the Terms in which we had deliver'd ourfelves, was objected to by many, as by no Means proper; and on this Conviction, and in Submiffion to this Precept, " give no Offence to the Jew or Gentile, or to the Church of God:" LADY HUNTINGDON and I wrote the following Letters, which were deliver'd to Mr. Weffey the Evening before the Conference met.

LADY HUNTINGDON to the Rev. Mr. JOHN WESLEY.

Reverend Sir.

As I find both you and your Friends, as also many of ours, have objected to the Manner or Mode of the Ministers Application to you in Conference, and that it has not had that Appearance of christian Tendernefs due upon fuch an Occasion, but feems rather confider'd as an arbitrary Way of proceeding .---- As Christians, and and those who had no fuch Meaning, we wish to retract what a more deliberate Confideration might have prevented; as we would as little with to defend even Truth itself prefumptuously, as we would submit servilely to deny it. We intended no perfonal difrefpect to any, but a Degree of Zeal against the Principles establish'd by the Minutes; fuch Zeal we never with to be lefs, and evermore defire it may be with that Firmness which may most fully imply, " contending earnestly for that Faith once deliver'd to the Saints :" But at the fame Time altogether under that Influence which dictated the Precept. Permit me to pray for no lefs a Bleffing in your laft Moments than that Victory, which Faith in the Lord Jefus Christ alone obtain'd for St. Paul, and which having kept was his only Glory. May this Faith which only purifies the Heart, works Righteoufnefs, obtains Promifes, and is the only Anchor of the Soul fure and fledfast, cause you and me while living to fulfil (thro' it's Power) the whole Mind and Will of God concerning us; and in Death, and Eternity, to rejoice alone in the bleffed Author and Object of it.-How facred then does the Prefervation of his Honour appear, from whofe free Bounty fuch Mercies only flow. For this alone my Fears are concern'd, and becomes the righteous Caufe of my warmest Concurrence in every faithful Testimony bore against those Minutes (given in Conference, August the 7th, 1770) for the Establishment of another Foundation than that which is laid, which is Christ Jefus the Lord; and of Course, repugnant to Scripture, the whole Plan of Man's Salvation under the new Covenant of Grace, and alfo to the clear Meaning of our eftablish'd Church to which we belong, as well as to all other Protestant Churches, to whose Foundations (on this Account) our highest Honour and Refpet is due.-Independent of that most important Difference, ference, which from those Minutes does subsist, I defire ever to remain,

Rev. Sir, Your ever Faithful Friend, Aug. 2, 1771. S. HUNTINGDON.

Copy of my Letter to Mr. WESLEY. " Rev. Sir,

" A Circular Letter, figned by me in Con-" junction with others, having not been tho-" roughly underftood, and generally centured; I " thought it neceffary to make this Apology, and " explain what was originally meant in the most " exceptionable Part of it. What is principally " objected to is, our proposing to go in a Body to " the Conference and infift on a formal Recantation of " the Minutes. It has been faid that we had no " Right to intrude into your Conference. We " did not pretend to any civil or juridical Right, " any more than Paul had to call Peter to Ac-" count; we did not mean to exercife any Au-" thority over you, or treat you as our inferior, " but as our equal, and engaged with us in " the common Caule of the Revival of Spiritual " Religion. Neither had we any Thoughts of " forcing ourfelves into your Conference, but " propoled first to send you a respectful Message " importing our Defign, and withal requesting " you would appoint what Day and Hour " would be most fuitable to you, and to the " Members of the Conference to receive us. The " end we had in view was, to prevent the Ne-" ceffity of publishing our Protest, if haply we " might prevail on you to give up the fatal Er-" rors of the Minutes.

" With

"With Respect to those Words, infift upon a formal Recantation, the Occasion of them was as follows. It was fuppofed by fome, that in-" ftead of giving Satisfaction on the Points in " Queftion, fuch a forced Conftruction would " be put on the Meaning of the Minutes, as might elude the intended Opposition, and yet " leave the Doctrines therein contained entire, unrepealed. Providing therefore against fuch " an Attempt (as it would be an Imposition on ٠, our Understandings, where the plain Meaning " is fo clear;) we were determin'd not to rest fa-" tisfied with fuch an Explanation, or with any " Thing that fhould not totally remove the Offence the Minutes have too justly given; and " " therefore we us'd the Word infift, implying " thereby that we would be firm and fleady to " our Point. However, it must be acknowledg'd " upon the Whole, that the Circular Letter was " too haftily drawn up, and improperly expressed; and therefore, for the offenfive Expressions in it, " we defire we may be hereby underftood to " make every fuitable Submiffion to you, Sir, " and to the Gentlemen of the Conference. And. " I cannot but wifh most earnestly that the Re-" cantation of the Circular Letter may prevail as an Example for the Recantation of the Minutes: " " But if I should be unhappily disappointed, and " that no Satisfaction is intended in this Respect, I shall feel myself bound in Conscience to yield my public Teftimony against fuch Doctrines as "thefe; which appear to me evidently fubverfive of the Fundamentals of Christianity. And here, Sir, I must contend, as for a Rule ever to " be laid down, that the Man and his Opinions are to be kept in a diffinct View; and that an " Opposition

" Opposition to the latter, is not to be confidered " as an Injury to the former; for otherwife, " from a Partiality to the Perfons of those who " have erred, we should be much hindered in " that free and open Disquisition of Things, fo " necessary for the Investigation of Truth, and " Detection of Error.

"Wifhing you, Sir, an abundant "Supply of that Light, Counfel, and Direction "which is freely promifed to all who humbly "feek it, I remain,

" Reverend Sir,

"Your faithful Friend, and Servant, "WALTER SHIRLEY."

In Confequence of these Letters, Mr. Wesley fent by the Bearer of them a verbal Meffage, that Tuesday and Wednesday, the two first Days of the Conference, would be taken up in adjusting Matters of their own; but that if Mr. Shirley and his Friends had any Thing to fay to him, they might come to the Conference on Thursday the 8th. To fay the Truth, I was pleafed that the Invitation came from Mr. Wefley, without any Application made on our Parts, that there might not be left the least Room for cenfuring our Proceedings as violent. On that Day therefore, I went thither, accompanied with the Rev. Mr. Glascot, the Rev. Mr. Owen, (two Ministers officiating in LADY HUNTINGDON'S Chapels) John Lloyd, Efq. of Bath; Mr. James Ireland, Merchant, of Briftol; Mr. Winter, and two Students belonging to LADY HUNTINGDON'S College.

I fhall only give you a brief Detail of what paffed, and rather the Subflance of what was spoken, fpoken, than the exact Words; omitting likewife many things of no great Weight, or Confequence.

After Mr. Welley had prayed, I defired to know whether Lady Huntingdon's Letter and mine to Mr. Wefley had been read to the Confe-Being answered in the Negative, I beg'd rence. Leave to read the Copies of them; which was granted. I then faid, that I hoped the Submiffion made was fatisfactory to the Gentlemen of the Conference. This was admitted, but then it was urg'd, that as the Offence given by the Circular Letter had been very public, fo ought the Letter of Submiffion. I therefore readily confented to the Publication of it, and have now fulfill'd my Promife. Mr. Welley then flood up; the Purport of his Speech was " a Sketch of his Miniftry from his first fetting out to the present Time; with a View (as I underflood) to prove that he had ever maintain'd Justification by Faith, and that there was nothing in the Minutes contrary He complain'd of ill treatment from thereunto. many Perfons, that he apprehended had been under Obligations to him, and faid that the prefent Opposition was not to the Minutes, but to himfelf perfonally."-In Anfwer, I affur'd them in the most folemn Manner, that with respect to myself, my Opposition was not to Mr. Wefley, or any particular Perfon, but to the Doctrines themfelves .--- And they were pleas'd thus far to give me Credit .--- I then proceeded to fpeak to the Point; inform'd them of the great and general Offence the Minutes had given; that I had numerous Protefts and Teftimonies against them fent me from Scotland, and from various Parts of these Kingdoms; that it must feem very extraordinary indeed, if fo many Men of Senfe

and Learning should be mistaken, and that there was nothing really offenfive in the plain natural Import of the Minutes; that I believ'd they themfelves (whatever Meaning they might have intended) would allow that the more obvious Meaning was reprehensible; and therefore I recommended to them, nay I beg'd and intreated for the LORD's Sake, that they would go as far as they could with a good Confcience, in giving the World Saisfaction. I faid, I hoped they would not take Offence, (for I did not mean to give it) at my proposing to them a Declaration which I had drawn up, withing that fomething at leaft analogous to it, might be agreed to. I then took the Liberty to read it, and Mr. Welley, after he had made fome, (not very material) Alterations in it, readily confented to fign it; in which he was follow'd by Fifty-three of the Preachers in Connexion with him; there being only one or two that were against it.

The DECLARATION.

WHEREAS the doctrinal Points in the Minutes of a Conference held in LONDON, August 7, 1770, have been understood to favour Justification by Works: Now the Rev. John Wesley, and others assembled in Conference, do declare that we had no fuch Meaning; and that we abhor the Doctrine of Justification by Works as a most perilous and abominable Doctrine; and as the faid Minutes are not fufficiently guarded in the Way they are express'd, we hereby folemnly declare in the Sight of God, that we have no Trust or Confidence but in the alone Merits of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, for Justjfication fication or Salvation either in Life, Death, or the Day of Judgment; and though no one is a real Chriftian Believer, (and confequently cannot be faved) who doth not good Works, where there is Time and Opportunity, yet our Works have no Part in meriting, or purchasing our Salvation from first to last, either in whole or in Part.

Thus

Thus was this important Matter fettled. But one of the Preachers, (namely Mr. Thomas Oliver) kept us a long Time in Debate; ftrenuoufly opposed the Declaration; and to the last would not confent to fign it. He maintained that our fecond Justification (that is at the Day of Judgment) is by Works; and he faw very clearly that for one that holds that Tenet folemnly " to declare in the fight of GOD that he has no Truft or Confidence but in the alone Merits of our LORD and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST for Juftification or Salvation, either in Life, Death, or the Day of Judgment, " would be acting neither a confistent, nor an upright Part: For all the Subtilties of metaphyfical Diffinctions can never reconcile Tenets fodiametrically oppofite as thefe. But, bleffed be GOD, Mr. Welley and Fifty-three of his Preachers do not agree with Mr. Oliver in this material Article; for it appears from their fubscribing the Declaration, that they do not maintain a fecond Justification by Works.

After the Declaration had been agreed to, it was required of me on my Part, that I would make fome public Acknowledgment that I had mistaken the Meaning of the Minutes. Here I hefitated a little; for though I was defirous to do every Thing (confiftently with Truth and a good Confcience) for the Effablishment of Peace and Chriftian Fellowship; yet I was very unwilling to give any Thing under my Hand that might feem to countenance the Minutes in their obvious Senfe. But then, when I was alk'd by one of the Preachers, whether I did not believe Mr. Wesley to be an honeft Man. I was differes'd on the other Hand, least by refusing what was defir'd, I should seem to infer a Doubt to Mr.

Wefley's

Wefley's Difadvantage. Having Confidence therefore in Mr. Wefley's Integrity, who had declared he had no fuch Meaning, in the Minutes, as was favorable to Juftification by Works: and confidering that every Man is the beft Judge of his own Meaning; and has a Right, fo far, to our Credit: and that, though Nothing elfe could, yet the Declaration did convince me, they had fome other Meaning than what appear'd. I fay, (thefe Things confider'd) I promifed them Satisfaction in this Particular; and, a few Days afterwards, fent Mr. Wefley the following Meffage, with which he was very well pleafed.

"Mr. Shirley's Christian Respects " wait on Mr. Wesley. The Declaration agreed " to, in Conference, Aug. the 8th, 1771, has " convinced Mr. Shirley he had mistaken the " Meaning of the Doctrinal Points in the Mi-" nutes of the Conference, held in LONDON, " Aug. the 7th, 1770, and he hereby wishes to " testify the full Satisfaction he has in the faid " Declaration, and his hearty Concurrence, and " Agreement with the fame."

Thus far all was well—The Foundation was fecured.—And, with Refpect to leffer Matters of Difference, we might well bear with one another; and if either Party fhould fee Occasion to oppose the other's peculiar Opinion, it might be done without Vehemence, and without using any reproachful Terms. The whole was conducted with great Decency on all Sides. We concluded with Prayer, and with the warmest Indications of mutual Peace, and Love. For my own Part, believe me, I was perfectly fincere; and thought this one of the happiest, and most honorable Days of my Life. And yet, Sir, fee how foon the B

Sword is drawn again! The Rev. Mr. Fletcher of Madely, from his long, and intimate Friendship with Mr. Wefley, thought it necessary to write fomething in Vindication of the Minutes; which he did, in five Letters, directed to me. In these Letters, he has treated me with a Severity which he has fince very much regretted; and has wrote to me on the Subject, in fuch an humble felf-abafing Strain, that Delicacy forbids me to prefent it to the Public. It was not his Intention, however, that the Letters should be published, if Matters fhould end peaceably. And therefore I, and my Friends were much furprifed, the Morning after we had been at the Conference, to find that Mr. Wesley perfisted in his Resoluon to publish the Letters. But, in order to fatisfy us in fome Degree, he affured us, he had corrected all the tart Expressions in them. Alas! Qualia Verba, quæ facta! Whether there are no tart Expressions in the Letters, let every one that hath feen them judge. But, perhaps, this learned Gentleman diffinguishes between the tart and the bitter: If all the tart Expressions are corrected, I am fure, there are enough of the bitter left.

Some of my Friends, (more folicitous about the Matter than I myfelf,) repeated their Applications to Mr. Wefley: Mr. I. in particular (a Friend to both) wrote to him, intreating him to wait only till he could hear from Mr. Fletcher, (to whom he had fent a particular Account of the amicable Conclusion of the Conference;) ventur'd to affure him (from what he had already learnt from Mr. Fletcher) that if he were upon the Spot, he would certainly fupprefs them; and himfelf offer'd to defray the whole Expence of the the Imprefion. To this Mr. Wesley coldly an-fwer'd, "I will confider it," and left Briftol, having first (it feems) confirm'd the Refolution for the Publication.

On Thursday, August the 15th, Mr. I. received a Letter from Mr. Fletcher, expressing the Uneafinefs of his Mind almost to an Agony, least his Letters fhould have got into the World .---Some of his Expressions are the following:

" I feel for poor dear Mr. Shirley, whom I " have (confidering the prefent Circumstances) " treated too feverely in my Vindication of the " Minutes. My dear Sir, what must be done? " I am ready to defray, by felling to my laft " Shirt, the Expence of the printing of my Vin-" dication and fupprefs it." In another Part he fays, " Direct me, dear Sir, confult with him " and Mr. Wefley about the Matter, and do, and " be perfuaded I am ready to do every Thing that " will be brotherly in this unhappy Affair."

On the Receipt of this Letter, Mr. I. went to Mr. Pine the Printer, and fhowed it him; and that Evening Mr. Pine went to Mr. Wefley's preaching house, before the Letters were publickly vended ; inform'd the Preachers of the Particulars of Mr. Fletcher's Letter to Mr. I. and earnestly recommended that they might be fuppreffed. On Friday-Morning the 16th, Mr. I. fent to the Preachers, and to the Perfons concerned in vending the Book, a Copy of Mr. Fletcher's Letter to him, and at the fame Time one from himfelf; in which he observes to them, " that Mr. Fletcher fuppofes the Book out, and, even in that Cafe, wifhes it suppressed. He adds his own earnest Intreaties, defiring them only to wait until they had further Authority В thority from the Author, and Mr. Wefley; and engages to be accountable to them for every Confequence." Notwithstanding all this, they publish'd the Letters. I shall not descant upon this Procedure, being defirous to keep my Place. by forbearing from Invectives; I shall therefore leave it to the Reader to fix what Name he pleafes to an Act of this Nature. As to the Letters themfelves, there would be a great Impropriety in my giving a full or particular Answer to them; because the Author did all he could to revoke them, and has given me ample Satisfaction in his Letter of Submiffion. And yet I hope I shall have his Pardon for taking Notice of two particular Charges against me, to be inferr'd from many Palfages in the Letters. The one is, that of want of Candor; the other that of Inconfistency.

1. I am suppos'd to want Candor; as if I had put a forc'd confiruction on the Minutes, in order to bring Mr. Wesley in guilty. But that the Senfe was not, and indeed need not be wrefted with a View to make them fpeak the Language of Juftification by Works, is plain from the Manner in which they ftruck those into whofe Hands they came, who almost univerfally teftified against them in the strongest Terms. Mr. Fletcher (it is true) has attempted a Vindication of them, and by breaking them into Sentences and Half-fentences, and refining upon each of these detach'd Particles, he has done more than I could have expected, even from his great Abilities, in giving a new turn to the Whole. But after reading his learned and elaborate Vindication, when I caft my Eye over the Minutes, and confider the whole as it ftands in Context, I muft must own I am just where I was; nothing but the Declaration could ever convince me that Juftification by Works was not maintain'd and fupported by the Minutes. I do not defire to make one fingle Comment upon them; let any impartial Perfon read them attentively, and I am perfuaded he will be affected by them just as I was. I am however more than ever convinc'd of the almost magical Power of metaphysical Distinctions; And I should tremble for their Influence on the Declaration itself, leaft fome bold Metaphysician should affirm that a fecond Justification by Works is quite confiftent with what is therein contain'd; but that it is express'd in such ftrong and absolute Terms, as must for ever put their most exquisite Refinements at Defiance.

That it was not merely from a Want of Candor, that I both faw and reprefented the Minutes as objectible in the highest Degree, I may appeal to the Reverend Author of the Vindication himfelf; for he may be pleafed to recollect, that when he first faw them, he expressed to LADY HUN-TINGDON his Abhorrence of them: but, afterwards indeed, he faw them in another light, changed his Sentiments, and undertook their Defence. Nay, Mr. Wesley himself, in the Declaration fubfcribed, has acknowledged that the Minutes are not fufficiently guarded, in the way they are expressed. Can it then be wondered, that I who am no Metaphyfician] could never have found out, if the Declaration had not fet me right, that fuch Expressions as these, "We are to work for Life.--and in Order to Justification.--Salvation is by Works as a Condition.—We are rewarded according to our Works, yea because of our Works, for the fake of our Works, and as our Works Works deferve, " perfectly coincided with Juftification by Faith only. I hope therefore that every ingenuous Reader will attribute whatever Misconstruction I may feem to have made of the Meaning of the Minutes rather to a Want of metaphyfical Knowledge, than to a Want of Candor.

2. The Charge of Inconfiftency is supported by Quotations from my Sermons, which, the Reverend Author intimates, feem to perfectly conformable to Mr. Wefley's Sentiments, that my Opposition to the Minutes is the less to be accounted for. To this I beg Leave to observe by Way of Anfwer, that the Paffages quoted are not altogether in Point, neither do they maintain Justification by Works in fuch direct and exprefs Terms as the Minutes appear to do. I must own however they favor too ftrongly of Myfticifm and Free-Will; and all I can fay on my Behalf in this Respect is, that they were wrote many Years ago, at a Time when I had more Zeal than Light; that my prefent Ministry, as well as my prefent way of thinking, is very different; that I have frequently express'd my Difapprobation of those Sermons, nay wish'd they had been burnt; and therefore I am oblig'd to my Reverend and learned Friend for this Opportunity he has afforded me of publickly recanting them in the Face of the whole World.

And now Sir, having flated before you and the Public mere Matters of Fact; both I, LADY HUNTINGDON, and those Friends who united with us in the Oppofition given to Errors (as we apprehended) of the laft Confequence, wifh all to judge for themfelves as honeft Men, as Men of Senfe, and as Chriftians. We make no Comment, either to protect our Conduct, or to place Digitized by Google any one Article in a Light which may render it partial to ourfelves. Any future controverted Point of Judgment can have no Place with us as worthy of our Reply. The Duft of Debate, from the great Fallibility of Man's Understanding, is ever to be avoided. And even Victory on either Side is too mean a Triumph to engage a Chriftian's Thoughts, much lefs the Labor of them. Therefore nothing, inferior to an Attack upon the Foundation of our Hope thro' the all-fufficient Sacrifice of JESUS CHRIST could have been, or ever will be an Object fufficient to engage us in it's Defence.

The many Protefts, fent by the most able Men, eminent Minifters and Servants of GOD of various Denominations in these Kingdoms, have been prevented from appearing, in Conjunction with ours, upon the Declaration being figned by Mr. Welley and Conference; and we hope there will never be any future Occafion to produce them. And as Peace and Love is confiftently held upon the Foundation of Salvation for Man by FREE GRACE only; fo we hope nothing has, or can appear to prove that this has not been our one Point: and having obtained the Establishment of this Great and most Essential Truth; we defire to affure all of our most Chriftian, and Univerfal Love; and that to all Denominations who love the LORD JESUS CHRIST in Sincerity. On all Non-Effentials, or mere accellary Points, we wilh ever to be found gentle towards all Men. And having thus deliver'd our own Souls before the LORD, we confider ourfelves as difcharg'd both in the Sight of GOD and Man, and no longer answerable for any evil Confequences that may follow, if any if any fhould not abide on this SURE FOUN-DATION. We defire to acknowledge Mr. Wefley's Labors as worthy of our Love and Respect, while they have been, or ever are, for the LORD's Name Sake alone; as also all those in Conference with him, whole Names are united with his, in figning the Declaration; and take this Method likewife of expressing every respectful Sentiment of Mr. Fletcher, defiring in Love to caft a Vail over all apparent Miftakes of his Judgment on this Occasion.

Thus we faithfully and earneftly commit into the Hands of the LORD this Teftimony for his own Free Grace; fubmitting ourfelves as his poor unworthy Servants; and hoping it may be for his Glory, and the Prefervation of his great and ineftimable Truths; and begging that, thro' his infinite Mercy, we may become truly devoted Souls, to the one Purpole of his Praife in Time, and the Monuments of our Glorious IMMANUEL's Mercy to all ETERNITY!

I am, Dear Sir,

Your very affectionate Friend,

and Servant. BATH. WALTER SHIRLEY. Sept. 12. 1771.
